PAR COMPARAISON, adv. loc. comparatively. Beaucoup de personnes ne sont bonnes que par —, many persons are only comparatively good. Ce livre n'est beau que par — à tel autre, this book is well written only when compared with such a one.

SANS COMPARAISON, adv. loc. 1 (incomparablement) beyond comparison. Cette chose est sans —, this thing is a perfection. 2 (pour atténuer) without disparagement. Il a fait sans —, comme le valet de la comédie, he has acted, excuse the comparison, like the lackey in the comedy.

COMPARATIF, kong-pah-ray', vn. conj. like parative; to appear. Devant le tribunal, l'escargot comparut, the snail appeared before the tribunal. La Font. Que tout ce qui respire s'en vienne — aux pieds de ma grandeur, let every thing that breathes come and appear at the feet of my grandeur. La Font. — en personne, to appear in person, to make one's appearance. Faute de —, in case of non-appearance. — devant un notaire, to appear before a notary.

COMPARANT, kong-par-ang, adj. m. fem. —E, law. 1 appearing. Ladite dame —E, the said lady appearing. 2 (substantif) person appearing.

COMPARATIF, kong-par-ai-if, adj. m. fem. COMPARATIVE, 1 comparative. Tableau —, comparative tables. 2 gram. comparative. 3 sm. comparative, comparative degree.

COMPARATIVEMENT, kong-par-ai-iv-nang, adv. comparatively.

COMPARÉ, ppa. of COMPARER, fem. —E, adjective. comparé. Il n'est rien — à vous, he is nothing compared with you. Le T. est seul-être le seul lieu digne de lui être — sur la terre, T. is perhaps the only place on earth that can be compared to it. Nod. L'anatomie —E, comparative anatomy.

COMPARER, kong-pah-ray, va. (Lat.) 1 to compare. — Cicéron et Démétrios, to compare Cicero and Demosthenes. Comparez votre sort au mien, compare your lot with mine. Qu'on était porté à l'envie quand on le comparait aux autres! how inclined we were to love him when we compared him with others! Nod. 2 (égaler) to compare, to liken. Le Lancashire n'a pas une femme à — à ma douce J., Lancashire has not a woman to be compared with my gentle J. Mery. 3 (établir une comparaison) to compare. 4 law. — des écritures, to compare, to confront hand-writings.

SE COMPARER, rpr. 1 to compare one's self. 2 (être comparé) to be compared, to be likened. 3 (s'égaliser) to compare, to liken one's self (to).

COMPAROIR, kong-pah-rwâr, vn. law. obsol. to appear. Être assigné à —, to be bound over.

COMPARSE, kong-pars, sf. obsol. entry of the quadrille into a carrousal, cavalcade. compare, s. mf. (theatre) dumb person, supernumerary, dumb performer.

COMPARTIMENT, kong-par-te-mang, sm. 1 (case) compartment. Boîte à —, box with compartments. 2 (assemblage) compartment, panel, pane. Les —s d'un tapis, the compartments of a carpet. 3 (relieur) compartment. 4 min. rib-wall, panel.

COMPARU, kong-par-di, ppa. inv. of COMPARER.

COMPARUTION, kong-par-di-syong, sf. law. appearance, forthcoming. Faire acte de —, to appear. En cas de non —, in default of appearance.

COMPAS, kong-pâ, sm. (Lat. cum, passus) 1 compass, pair of compasses. Les jambes d'un —, leg, foot of a pair of compasses. Ouvrir le —, to open the compasses. — à ressort, spring-callipers. — à pointes changeantes, compass with shifting points. — à verge, beam-compasses. — à quart de cercle, wing-compasses. — à branches, draught compasses. — de mer, mariner's compass. — de cordonnier, shoemaker's compass. — d'arpenteur, land-surveyor's compasses. — d'épaisseur, callipers, side-callipers. — de proportion, proportional compasses, sector. fig. fam. Faire toutes choses par règle et par —, to do every thing with rule and compass. Avoir le — dans l'œil, to have an even eye. 2 naut. — de route, compass. — courbe, calliper, calliper-compass.

COMPASSÉ, ppa. of COMPASSER, fem. —E, adjective. formal, stiff, starched. fig. Être — dans ses discours, dans son style, dans ses actions, etc., to be formal in one's discourse, style, actions. absol. Être —, être extrêmement —, to be formal, to be stiff.

COMPASSEMENT, kong-pas-mang, sm. 1 compassing. 2 fig. formality, starchedness, punctiliousness.

COMPASSER, kong-pah-say, ra. 1 (little used) to measure with compasses. 2 (disposer avec symétrie) to dispose, to lay out symmetrically. fig. — ses actions, ses démarches, to measure, to weigh one's actions.

COMPASSION, kong-pah-syong, sf. compassion, mercy, ruth, pity. Avoir — de la misère d'autrui, to have, to take compassion on others' misfortune. Être touché de —, to be moved with compassion. Inspirer, exciter la —, to excite compassion. fig. (disparagingly) Faire —, to excite pity. Cela fait —, that is very pitiful.

COMPATIBILITÉ, kong-pat-e-be-le-tay, sf. compatibility, compatibleness.

COMPATIBLE, kong-pat-ibl', adj. mf. 1 compatible. Ces deux caractères ne sont pas —, those two tempers are not compatible. 2 (des fonctions) compatible.

COMPATIR, kong-pâ-teer, vn. 1 to compassionate, to pity, to commiserate. G. compatissait d'autant plus à son chagrin, G. sympathized the more with his sorrow as G. Sane. Je compatissais aux larmes des hommes, the sufferings of others find an echo with me. Chat. 2 (sympathiser) to bear with, to sympathize with. — à la faiblesse humaine, to bear with human weakness. 3 (s'accorder) to be compatible, to agree. Ils ne sont pas d'humeur à — ensemble, they are not of a temper to agree together.

COMPATISSANCE, kong-pah-te-sangs, sf. pity, sympathy. Balz.

COMPATISSANT, kong-pah-te-sang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 compassionate, feeling. C'est pour rendre — aux maux des autres. It is to make you feel pity for others' sufferings. Chat. 2 (qui exprime la compassion) compassionate, tender. Jeter un regard —, to cast a compassionate look.

COMPATRIOTE, kong-pat-ryot, s. mf. countryman, fellow-countryman, fellow-countryman.

COMPENDIEUSEMENT, kong-pang-dyuh-mang, adv. compendiously.

COMPENDIEUX, kong-pang-dyuh (Lat.) adj. m. fem. COMPENDIOUS, compendious, summary.

COMPENDIUM, kong-pang-dyuh, sm. (Lat.) compendium, compend.

COMPENSATEUR, kong-pang-sat-uh, sm. fem. COMPENSATRICE, 1 compensator, compensative. 2 adjective. Pendule —, compensation pendulum.

COMPENSATION, kong-pang-sah-syong, sf. 4 compensation. Une — équitable, an equitable compensation. 2 (dédommagement) compensation, set off, amends. Cela fait —, il y a —, that compensates, that is a compensation. Ce sont — de la Providence, also que tout soit égal, those are compensations of Providence so as to balance good and evil. Mme de Sév. Il lui céda cela en —, he made that enter eo —, that ought to be comprised in the compensation. 3 law. compensation.

COMPENSE, ppa. of COMPENSER, fem. —E, adjective. law. Dépens —s, the costs are compensated.

COMPENSER, kong-pang-say, ra. (Lat. compensare) 1 (être l'équivalent, balancer) to compensate, to countervail, to make up for, to set off, to balance. Rien ne peut — la perte d'une mère, nothing can compensate for the loss of a mother. Ce sont — pensait par son babil le silence des autres, he talked so much that it made amends for the taciturnity of others. Le Sage. 2 (établir une compensation) to compensate, to counterbalance. Il a compensé ce que je lui devais avec ce qu'il me doit, he has set off what I owed him against what he owes me. 3 law. — les dépenses, to set off, to square expenses.

SE COMPENSER, vn. to compensate each other. Le bien et le mal ici-bas se compensent, in this life good and evil are balanced. Pic.

COMPÉRAGE, kong-pay-razh, sm. compaternity.

COMPÈRE, kong-pay, sm. 1 god-father, gossip. 2 (camarade) crony, gossip, biade, fellow. C'est un bon —, he is a good biade, a good-fellow, a jolly dog. Un gros —, un vigoureux —, a lusty fellow. — le loop, sirc wolf. La Font. C'est un rusé —, he is a cunning biade. 3 (celui qui est d'intelligence avec un escamoteur, avec quelqu'un) helper, helpmate, accomplice.

COMPÈRE-LIOT, sm. pl. COMPÈRES-LIOTIS, sng. sng.

COMPÉTENCE, kong-pay-tàngs, sf. 1 law, competence, competency. — civile, commerciale, criminelle, civil, commercial, criminal competency. Cette affaire n'est pas de la — du juge de paix, that affair comes not under the cognizance of the justice of peace. 2 (by extension) sphere, province. Cela n'est pas de votre —, you are not a competent judge of that. Cela dépasse votre —, n'est pas de votre —, that is beyond your sphere.

COMPÉTENT, kong-pay-tàng, adj. m. fem. —E, law. 4 (little used) due. Portion —E, due share. 2 (d'un juge, d'un tribunal) competent. Autorité —E, d'un juge, d'un tribunal. 3 (by extension) It n'est pas juge — de cela, he is not a competent judge of that. 4 (convenable) suitable, fit, requisite. L'âge — pour être député, the age requisite to be a deputy.

COMPÈTER, kong-pay-tay, vn. je COMPÈTE, et 4 law, appartenir, être dû) to be due. 2 (être de la compétence) to be cognizable, to be in the competency of.

COMPÉTITEUR, kong-pay-té-tuhr, sm. competitor.

COMPÉTITION, kong-pay-té-syong, sf. competition, rivalry. Les —s qui troublent un empire, these rivalries which disturb an empire. Larmar.

COMPLAITEUR, kong-pe-lal-uh, sm. complainer.

COMPLAISON, kong-pe-lah-syong, sf. complation.

COMPLIF, ppa. of COMPLER, fem. —E, adjective, completed.

COMPLER, kong-pe-lay, ro. to compile, to collect.

COMPLAINANT, kong-pay-tàng, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 complaining. 2 sm. fem. —E, complainer, plaintiff.

COMPLAINT, kong-plang, sf. 1 law. complaint. 2 —s, pl. (lamentations) wailing, moon, lamentation. 3 (chanson populaire) lament. La — du Jinf-Er-rant, the lament of the wandering Jew.

COMPLAIRE, kong-play, vn. conj. like PLAIRE, to please, to gratify. Je veux lui — en cela, I am willing to gratify him in that.

SE COMPLAIRE, vpr. 4 (prendre plaisir) to delight, to take delight (in). Il se complait à rendre service, he takes delight in obliging. Je me complaisais dans ma douleur, I liked to indulge in my grief. Xod. Les minutieuses attentions auxquelles se complait ce grand homme, the minutia on which this great man likes to dwell. Villem. Son visage qu'elle semblait se — à produire, her face which she seemed to take pleasure in showing. Balz. 2 (en soi-même) to please one's self. Il se complait en lui-même, en sa personne, he is delighted with himself, with his own person. Il se complait dans tout ce qu'il fait, he riews with complacency every thing he does.

COMPLAISANCE, kong-play-zàng, adj. adverb. complaisantly, obligingly, with complacency.

COMPLAISANCE, kong-play-zàngs, sf. 4 complaisance, complacence. Il foot avoir de la —, one must be obliging. Faire une chose par —, to do a thing out of complaisance. Ayez la — de, be so kind as to. — lâche, coupable, cowardly, guilty complaisance. 2 (acte) complaisance, favour, kindness. C'était la uoe — délicate, that was a delicate favour. J'eus mille —s pour l'orfevre et sa femme, I paid all sorts of attention to the jeweller and his wife.

Le Sage. 3 (plaisir, satisfaction) complacency, complacency. Parler d'une chose, d'une personne avec —, to speak of a thing, of a person with complacency. Regarder avec —, avec un oeil de —, to look with complacency, with a complacent eye. Se regarder avec —, avoir une grande — pour tout ce qu'on fait, to look on one's self with complacency, to be pleased with all one does. 4 Billet de —, accommodation bill. Faire des billets de —, to make accommodation bills. 5 —s, pl. (amour, affection) pleasure, satisfaction. bi. Celui-ci est mon bis bien-aimé en qui j'ai mis toutes mes —s, that is my well-beloved son in whom I am well pleased.

COMPLAISANT, kong-play-zàng, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 complaisant, obliging. Humeur —E, accommodating mind. 2 (substantif) fawner. Les —s du pouvoir, the load-eaters of those in office.

COMPLANT, kong-plàng, sm. agri. vineyard.

COMPLÈMENT, kong-play-màng, sm. 4 (d'une dot, d'une somme, d'un ouvrage, of a portion, of a sum of money, of a book) complement. 2 théol. — de beatitude, fullness, plenty of beatitude. 3 math. — d'un angle, complement of an angle. — arithmétique, arithmetical complement. 4 gram. object.

COMPLÉMENTAIRE, kong-play-màng-tay, adj. mf. complementary. Jours —s, complementary days.

COMPLÈTE, kong-play, adj. m. fem. COMPLÈTE, (Lat.) 4 complete; (disparagingly) utter. On habillement —, a complete suit of clothes. Œuvres complètes, complete works. Un succès —, a complete success. (elliptic.) 4 (d'un omnibus) —, full. fig. Ce homme —, a clever man, a man every inch of him. Une journée complète, a full day. Rendre une victoire complète, to complete a victory. Monteq. 2 bot. Fleur complète, complete flower. 3 (substantif) mill. complement. Ce régiment est au —, au grand —, this regiment has its complement, its full complement. fig. Je me tâtai bras et jambes pour voir si j'étais au —, I felt my arms and legs to see whether I was all right, all.

COMPLÈTEMENT, kong-plet-uàng, sm. mill. completion.

COMPLÈTEMENT, adv. completely, fully, wholly, entirely, utterly.

COMPLÈTER, kong-play-tay, vn. je COMPLÈTE, ILS COMPLÈTENT; JE COMPLÈTERAIS, VOUS COMPLÈTERIEZ, to complete, to perfect. — une somme, to complete a sum. — un ouvrage déjà-eillé, to make up a set of books. Voilà ce qui complète mon bonheur, that is what completes my happiness.

SE COMPLÈTER, vpr. to be complete. Dans la lutte son âme s'était complétée, in this trial his soul had perfected itself. Saint. Pour se — l'idée de M^{me} de M., to picture to one's self completely M^{me} de M. Sic-B.

COMPLEXE, kong-pleks, adj. mf. (Lat. complexus) 4 complex. Idée —, complex idea. 2 gram. Sujet —, complex subject. Attribut —, complex attribute. 3 arith. Nombres —s, complex numbers.

COMPLEXION, kong-plek-syong, sf. 4 complexion, constitution. — faible, delicate, feeble, delicate complexion. 2 (humour) humour, disposition.

COMPLEXITE, kong-plek-se-tay, sf. complexity.

COMPLICATION, kong-plek-syong, sf. 4 (de malheurs, d'accidents, de maux, of accidents, of evils) complication, complexity. 2 law. — de crimes, complication of crimes. 3 med. — de maladies, de symptômes, complication of diseases, of symptoms. 4 (assemblage dont les parties sont nombreuses) intricacy, complication. Machine d'une grande —, a very complicated machine. Une — d'incidents, a complication of incidents. 5 —s, pl.

absol. (difficultés) entanglement, intricacy, complication.

COMPLICE, kong-plecs, adj. mf. partly (to), priy (to, concerned (in). Il fut — de cet attentat, he was a party to that criminal attempt. fig. Il voulait que la religion devint — de ses fureurs, he tried to make religion instrumental to his fury.

COMPLICE, s. mf. accomplice, party. Avoir des —s, to have accomplices. fig. Il me fit le — de sa baine, he inspired me with his hatred.

COMPLICITÉ, kong-ple-se-tay, sf. complicity, participation.

COMPLIES, kong-plec, sf. pl. (Lat. completus) liturg. complectory, compline.

COMPLIMENT, kong-ple-màng, sm. (Lat. complementum) 4 compliment. — de félicitation, de condolence, congratulation, condolence. Il m'a chargé de vous faire ses —s, he charged me to give you his compliments. Il lui fit — sur son mariage, he wished him joy of his marriage. Je lui fis — de son courage, I complimented him upon his courage. Faites mes —s à votre frère, my compliments to your brother. fam. — bien tressés, neat, well-turned compliment. ironie. Je vous en fais mon —, I wish you joy. fig. fam. Reugaler son —, to put up one's compliments. 2 (avec une épithète) Voilà un sot —, what a foolish compliment! ironie.

Voilà un joli —, there is a pretty compliment. 3 (cérémonies, civilités) compliment. Laissons-là les —s, let us waive all compliments. Trêve de —s, point de —s, no compliments. 4 (politesse) compliment, mere words. Il a promis de vous recommander au ministre, mais c'est par —, he has promised to recommend you to the minister, but it is out of politeness. 5 (discours solennel) compliments, congratulation. 6 (petit discours) compliment. L'enfant récitait fort bien son —, the child recited his compliment very well.

COMPLIMENTE, ppa. of COMPLIMENTER, fem. —E, adjective, complimented.

COMPLIMENTER, kong-ple-màng-tay, vn. 4 to compliment. Je l'ai complimenté sur son mariage, I complimented him upon his marriage. — le roi, to compliment the king. 2 absol. to make compliments. Il ne fait que —, he does nothing but pass compliments.

COMPLIMENTEUX, kong-ple-màng-tuhr, adj. m. fem. COMPLIMENTEUSE, 4 complimentary. 2 (substantif) complimenter.

COMPLIQUÉ, ppa. of COMPLIQUER, fem. —E, adjective. 4 complicated, complicate. Une machine —E, a complicated machine. 2 (confus) intricate, entangled. Un procès très —, a very intricate law-suit. Maladie —E, complicated disease.

COMPLIQUER, kong-ple-kay, ra. 1 to complicate. 2 (rendre confus) to complicate, to make intricate. Cela complique la question, l'affaire, that complicates the question, the affair.

SE COMPLIQUER, vpr. to get complicated, to get intricate. Le problème se complique, the problem is getting complicated. Cette maladie s complique de telle autre, that disease is complicated with another.

COMPILOT, kong-plo, sm. 4 plot. Ils avaient fait — de le tuer, they had plotted to kill him. Dejeuner —, to baffle a plot. 2 fig. (by extension) plot 3 crim. law. plot.

COMPILOTER, kong-plo-tay, ra. to plot. — la ruine, la mort de quelqu'un, to plot the ruin, the death of a person. absol. Ils complotaient ensemble, they plotted together.

COMPOSITION, kong-poeng-syong, sf. compaction, contrition.

COMPORTER, kong-por-tay, ro. (permettre, souffrir) to allow, to allow, to allow of. Son revenu ne comporte pas la défense qu'il fait, his income does not allow him to spend so much. Mon caractère ne comporte pas que je fasse cette démarche, my character does not allow me to take this step

SE COMPORTER, vpr. 4 (se conduire) to demean one's self, to behave, to conduct one's self, to deport one's self, to comport one's self. Les hommes d'armes s'y comportent assez régulièrement, the men at arms behaved properly enough. Bar. Elle se comportera de telle manière que, etc. Se-bé, etc. 2 law. Un immeuble tel qu'il se comporte, an immovable estate such as it is, 3 naut. Ce bâtiment se comporte bien à la mer, that ship behaves well at sea.

COMPOSANI, kong-po-zang, ppr. of composer, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 chem. component 2 (substantiv.) m. component body. COMPOSÉ, ppa. of composer. fem. — E, adjective. 4 compound, composéd. Machine — E, fort — E, a complicated, a very complicated machine. Une société bien — E, a select society. 2 Etre — E, fort — E, to be formal, stiff, constrained. Visage, maintien — E, constrained look; fort deportment. 3 gram. Mot — E compound word.

4 arith. Nombre — E compound number. Raison — E, compound ratio. 5 bot. Fleur — E, compound composite flower. 6 mech. Mouvement — E, compound motion. 7 mus. Intervalle — E, compound interval. COMPOSE, sm. 4 compound. Tout pouvoir humain est — E de patience et de temps, human domination is composed of patience and time. Balz. 2 gram. compound word.

COMPOSÉES, kong-po-zay, sf. pl. bot. composite flowers, composites.

COMPOSER, kong-po-zay, va. (Lat. componere) 1 to compose, to compound. Dien a composé l'homme d'un corps et d'une âme. God has composed man of a body and of a soul. Les différentes pièces qui composent cette machine, the different parts which compose that machine. Une multitude de bourgeois et de gens de divers états composaient cette assemblée, a crowd of burghers and men of all trades composed this crowd. Bar. L'homme et le cheval semblaient ne — qu'un seul être, the man and the horse seemed to form but one being. Méry. La chose ainsi réglée, on composa trois lots. La Font. 2 (d'un ouvrage d'esprit, etc.) of a literary work, etc. to compose. — la musique d'un opéra, to compose the music of an opera. La manière dont il composait ses ouvrages mérite qu'on en fasse mention, the way in which he composed his works is worth mentioning. 3 absol. mus. to compose. — sur le piano, to compose on the piano. 4 absol. (des écoliers, faire un devoir) to compose. — pour les prix, to compose for the prizes. — en thème, en vers, to compose in exercise, in versers. 5 (son visage, sa mine, son maintien, ses actions) to compose, to make up, to fashion. 6 (arranger) to settle. Les affaires temporelles qu'on compose souvent en se relâchant de part et d'autre, temporal concerns which are often settled by concession on both sides. Boss. 7 print. to compose.

SE COMPOSER, vpr. 4 (être composé) to be composed, to be compounded. La maison se compose de deux corps de logis, the house is composed of two buildings. Sa suite se composait d'environ 1000 personnes, his retinue was composed of about 1000 persons. Bar. Humilité, claudium, lumière, voilà de quoi se composent les végétaux, trater, heat, light are what plants are made of. Saind. 2 (accommoder son visage) to compose, to adjust, to fashion one's demeanor, one's features. Se — selon les temps et les lieux, to accommodate one's self to times and places. Je ne composai si bien qu'il n'eût pas le moindre soupçon, I fashioned my look and air so well in his presence that he suspected nothing. Le Sage. Il se compose un visage sans émotion, he assumes an impassible face. Méry.

COMPOSER, ra. 4 (S'accommoder) to compound, to come to terms, to settle, to agree. Avant que nous allions plus loin, composons, Si vous plait, before we proceed any farther, let us arrange our conditions. Le Sage. — avec sa conscience, to compound with one's conscience. — avec ses créanciers, to compound with one's creditors. 2 naut. to capitulate.

COMPOSITE, kong-po-zit, adj. mf. 4 arch. composite. 2 substantiv. Le —, the composite order.

COMPOSITEUR, kong-po-zé-tuhr, sm. 4 (en musique) composer. 2 law. Anuabile — E, composer 3 print. compositor.

COMPOSITION, kong-po-zé-syung, sf. 4 (action) composition, composition. 3 (d'un ouvrage d'esprit) composition. 4 (des écoliers) composition. Une — en thème, a composition in exercise. 5 fine arts. composition. Ce bas-relief pèche par la —, the composition of this bas-relief is defective. 6 mas. composition. 7 gram. composition. 8 print. composition. 9 (accommodement) settlement, agreement, composition. Venir à —, to come to terms, to compound. fig. C'est un homme de —, he is a very easy person. Il est de difficile —, he is not easy to deal with. Faire bonne — d'une marchandise, to let off merchandise on easy terms. — un traité, capitulation, surrender. — honorable, honorable capitulation. Recevoir à —, to grant terms to. 41 mech. — des forces, du mouvement, composition of forces, of motion. 12 naut. See ALLIAGE.

COMPOSITEUR, kong-po-zé-tuhr, sm. print. composing-stick.

COMPOTE, kong-pot, sf. 4 (confiture) stewed fruit. — d'abricots, de poires, stewed apricots, pears. 2 culin. stew. Maître des pigeons en —, to stew pigeons. fig. Le marquis furieux voulait le mettre en —, the marquis in a rage wanted to pound him to a jelly. St-Sim. fig. pop. Avoir les yeux, la tête en —, to have one's eyes black and blue, to have one's head bruised all over.

COMPOTIER, kong-po-tay, sm. dish for stewed fruit.

COMPREHENSIBLE, kong-pray-ang-sib, adj. mf. comprehensible.

COMPREHENSION, kong-pray-ang-syung, sf. 4 (faculté de comprendre) comprehension, understanding, apprehension. Avoir la — d'une chose, facile, to comprehend easily, to have a quick understanding. Il est de dure —, he has a dull understanding. 2 (connaissance entière) comprehension. 3 log. comprehension.

COMPRENDRE, kong-prang, ra. (Lat. comprehendere) 1 (renfermer en soi) to comprehend, to comprise, to contain, to include. La justice comprend toutes les vertus, justice comprehends all virtues. 2 (faire entrer, à comprendre, to take in, to include. On l'a compris dans la liste, he is included in the list. Je fus compris au nombre des esclaves qui, I was one of the slaves that. Chai. Consolez par la certitude d'être compris dans le testament, made easy by the assurance of being remembered in the will. Le Sage. — plusieurs choses sous une même dénomination, to comprise several things under one head. 3 (saisir par la pensée, reconnaître) to understand, to comprehend, to conceive. Une loi que j'ai faite et que je ne comprends pas mieux que lui, a law that I made and that I understand no better than he does. Lamart. Faites-lui — cela, make him understand that. Tout ce que j'ai compris c'est que, all I have understood is that. Vous m'avez bien mal compris, you have quite misunderstood me. Ab. Elle comprenait qu'elle ne pouvait plus prendre à lui qu'un intérêt coupable, she understood that she could now only take a culpable interest in him. Nod. Je comprends que mes paroles ne vous paraissent pas senses, I can understand that my words do not appear to you to be reasonable. Nod. absol. Voilà ce qu'il vient de dire, comprenez-vous maintenant? that is what he just said do you understand now? — quelqu'un, to understand a person. 4 (d'une langue, of a language) to understand. Le ciel qui voit mon cœur comprendra mon langage, Heaven who sees my heart will understand my prayer. C. Del. Cet animal semble — tout ce qu'on lui dit, this animal seems to understand all you say to him. 5 (se faire une idée, se rendre raison) to make out, to understand, to be sensible of. Madame C. avait enfin compris le danger de cette situation, Mrs C. at length understood the danger of the situation. Balz. Votre visite cache un but que je ne comprends pas, your visit conceals a purpose I cannot make out. Méry. — ses devoirs, to understand one's duties. Je suis en retard à — comment je me suis sauvé, I cannot yet make out how I escaped. Fen. Je ne le comprends pas avec ses caprices, I do not know what to make of those whims of his.

SE COMPRENDRE, vpr. 1 (être compris) to be understood. Sa conduite ne se comprend pas, one cannot make out his conduct. Cela se comprend aisément, that is easily understood. La poupee ne se comprend pas sans la petite fille, dolls are nonentities without little girls. Nod. 2 to understand one's self. Il ne se comprend pas lui-même, he does not understand himself. 3 recipr. to understand each other. Ces deux nobles âmes s'étaient déjà comprises, these two noble minds had already understood each other. Sand. 4 Se faire —, to make one's self understood. Cet étranger a de la peine à se faire —, this foreigner has much difficulty in making himself understood.

COMPRESSE, kong-press, sf. surg. compress, bolster.

COMPRESSIBILITÉ, kong-press-se-be-le-tay, sf. phys. compressibility, compressibility.

COMPRESSIBLE, kong-press-ib, adj. mf. phys. compressible.

COMPRESSIF, kong-press-if, adj. m. fem. compressive. surg. compressive COMPRESSION, kong-press-syung, sf. (action) compression, compression, squeezing, squeeze. La — de l'air, the compression of the air. Une forte —, a strong compression. fig. La — des idées, the compression of ideas.

COMPRIMANT, kong-pre-mang, ppr. of comprimer, adj. m. fem. — E, phys. compressing.

COMPRIMER, kong-pre-may, ppa. of comprimer, fem. — E, adjective. compressed. Comme des diablots à ressort, quand on ouvre la boîte où ils sont — E, like a Jack in the box when you take the lid off. Sand. Ce mauvais sentiment fut bientôt — E, this evil feeling was soon checked. Sand. 2 nat. bist. compressed. faltard.

CONPRIMER, kong-pre-may, va. (Lat. comprimere) 4 to compress. — l'air dans un fusil à vent, to compress the air in an air-gun. fig. Il plut au Seigneur de — la tête de son doigt souverain, the Lord was pleased to bow down thy head under his sovereign finger. V. Ilug. 2 fig. to repress, to curb, to keep down. — les factions, to curb factions. — les idées, to repress ideas. Un cri affreux que comprimait un regard de M., a dreadful scream checked by a look from M. Ba. — les acrimoines, they repress the generous transports of their souls. Saint.

SE COMPRIMER, vpr. to be compressed.

COMPRES, kong-press, ppa. o. COMPRESSE, fem. — E, adjective. 1 included. Le pays — entre le Rhin et la Meuse, the country included between the Rhine and the Meuse. Y —, including. Non —, not included. La population de ce village, y ou non — les femmes, s'élève à sept cent âmes, the population of that village including, or without reckoning the women, amounts to seven hundred. Les femmes y —, non —, women included, not included. 2 understated. C'est —, it is understated. Met —, misunderstood.

COMPROMETTANT, kong-pro-met-tang, ppr. of COMPROMETTRE, adj. m. fem. —, mischievous, dangerous. Parole —, dangerous expression. Il n'en était résulté rien de — pour lui, nothing resulted from it that implicated him. Saint.

COMPROMETTRE, kong-pro-met-tré, tr. conj. like RETENIR. (Lat. com, promittere) to make a compromise, to compromise.

COMPROMETTRE, ra. lo. com. to. to implicate, to compromise. Je ne veux pas vous —, I will not compromise you. — sa dignité, son autorité, to expose one's dignity, one's authority. Il compromit par là pour longtemps sa fortune, by so doing he blighted his prospects for some time to come. Si-B. Il a compromis son orgueil, his pride received a shock. Saint. — la dignité, les intérêts, etc., de quelqu'un, to expose the dignity, the interests of a person.

SE COMPROMETTRE, rpr. to commit one's self, to be implicated, to be involved.

COMPROMIS, kong-pro-mee, ppa. of COMPROMETTRE, feu. —, 1 adjective, compromised. C. fut si — que, C. was so deeply implicated that. Balz. 2 sm. compromise. Passer, signer un —, to make, to sign a compromise. fig. Mettre quelqu'un en —, to expose a person.

COMPTABILITÉ, kong-tab-e-le-tay, sf. 1 (little used) (obligation) accountability. 2 (action) account, book-keeping. Il entend parfaitement la —, he is a good accountant.

COMPTABLE, kong-tabl', adj. mf. 1 (assez) à rendre compte) accountable, responsible, answerable, amenable. Agent —, accountable, responsible agent. fig. Il n'est — à per-sonne de ses actions, he is accountable to nobody for his actions. Il n'est — de sa conduite qu'à Dieu, he is answerable for his conduct but to God. Balz. 2 (qui impose l'obligation de rendre compte) accountable. Emploi —, accountant's place. Quittance —, valid receipt. 3 sm. accountant. Un bon —, a good accountant.

COMPTANT, ppr. of COMPTER, adj. m. 1 Argent —, deniers —, ready money, in cash. Payer argent —, en beaux deniers —, to pay cash down. fig. fam. C'est de l'argent —, it is as good as ready money. fig. Avoir de l'esprit argent —, to have a ready wit. 2 sm. cash, ready money. Il avait du —, he was a man of money. La Font.

COMPTANT, adv. ready money, in cash. Vendre, acheter, payer —, to sell for, to buy with, to pay in ready money. fig. Payer —, to pay off.

COMPTÉ, kongt, sm. (from compter) 1 calcul, account, reckoning, number, computation. Faire un —, to make a calculation. —, to reckon. Faire son —, to reckon, to count. Il fait son — de partir demain, he reckons upon setting out to-morrow. fig. fam. Avoir son —, to have enough of a thing. fig. Entendre bien son —, to know what one is about. Être loin de —, loin de son —, to be out in one's reckoning; || fig. to be far from agreeing. fig. Cela fait, he fait pas mon —, that is just the thing for me, that is not what I want. prov. Erreur n'est pas —, errors excepted. 2 (état de ce qui est dû, etc.) account, due. Voilà votre —, there is your account. Faites-moi le — de ce que je vous dois, make out the account of what I owe you. Etablir, dresser, vérifier, arrêter, régler, solder un —, to draw up, to examine, to close, to settle the balance of an account. Reliquat de —, balance of an account. Donner à un ouvrier son —, to settle with a workman. Faire le — à un domestique, lui donner son —, to settle with a servant. fig. Donner à quelqu'un son —, to pay off a person. com. Livres de —, account-books. — de capital, stock-account. — de profits et pertes, profit and loss account. — de bilan, balance account. Bordereau de —, See BORDEREAU. Delit de —, debit of an account. Solde de —, payment in full of all demands. Pour solde de —, in full of all demands. Ouvrir un —, to open an account. Coucher une somme sur un —, to post, to carry a sum to an account. Passer en —, porter en —, to pass to account. Être de — à demi-aveu quelqu'un, to be in business on mutual account, on joint and equal account, to go halves with a person. Cela est sur son —, so —, that is on his account. Pour le — de quelqu'un, on the account of a person. Vendre, acheter pour son —, to sell, to buy on one's own account. Vendre, acheter sur le — de quelqu'un, to sell, to buy on a person's account. fig. Son — est bon, he will catch it. fig. Son — sera bientôt réglé, he shall smart for it. fig. Tenir — de quelqu'un, to have consideration for a person. fig. Tenir — de quelque chose, to take a thing into account, into consideration. fig. Tenir — à quelqu'un d'une chose, to give a person credit for a thing, to be grateful to a person for a thing. || fig. Mettre, faire entrer en ligne de —, to take into account, into consideration. fig. Prendre sur son —, to take upon one's self. fig. Il n'y a rien à dire sur son —, there is nothing to be said about him. fig. Il en a pour son —, he has it, he has enough of it. fig. Je n'ai, pour mon —, rien à me reprocher, for my part, I have nothing to reproach myself with. fig. Il a, pour son —, fait ce qu'il a pu, as far as he has done all he could. prov. Les bons — sont les bons amis, short reckonings make long friends. — de gestion, account of administration. — d'administration, administration account. — de tutelle, guardian's accounts. Contrée —, Court of Accounts. Avoir une chose en —, to have a thing on account. — courant, statement of accounts. Être de bon —, to deal fairly; || fig. to speak frankly. fig. Soyez de bon — et avouez que cette personne ne vous plait pas, be sincere and own that this person does not please you. A bon —, cheap, cheaply. Il en a cela à bon —, he got that cheap. Un marchand qui vend à bon —, a cheap dealer. Vivre à bon —, to live cheaply. prov. Boire, manger à bon —, to drink, to eat freely, without troubling one's self about the score; || fig. Boire, manger, rire, se divertir à bon —, to drive dull care away. Faire bon —, to give full measure, full weight. 3 fig. (rapport) account. Rendre — d'une chose, to give an account of a thing. Demander —, to require an explanation. Se rendre — de quelque chose, to account for. — rendu, report, return. 4 tech. Rote de —, notch wheel.

A COMPTÉ, adv. loc. 1 on account, in part payment. Il m'a donné cent francs à —, he has given me a hundred francs on account. 2 substantio. A-compte, installment. Il m'a reçu qu'un à —, he has received only an installment.

À CE COMPTÉ, À CE COMPTÉ-LÀ, adv. loc. by that account, at that rate.

À VOTRE COMPTÉ, adv. loc. according to you.

AU BOUT DU COMPTÉ, adv. loc. after all. COMPTÉ, ppa. of COMPTER, feu. —, 1 adjective, numbered. Nos jours sont —, our days are numbered. Il a cent ans bien —, he is full a hundred years old. Dans mon cœur ce bienfait vous sera —, this kindness gives you a claim upon my gratitude. Saint. Quand il s'agit du bien public, l'intérêt particulier est-il —? when the public weal is in question, is private interest taken into consideration? fig. Chaque pas par où douleur est —, every step is sold by a fresh sorrow. V. Hug. Je marcherai à pas —, I will walk with measured step. prov. Tout —, tout rabattu, all things considered, every thing taken into consideration. prov. fig. Brebis —, le loup les mange, it is impossible to guard against every thing.

COMPTER, ra. (Lat. computare) 1 to compute, to calculate, to reckon, to count, to number, to tell. — son argent, to count one's money. — les voix, the suffrages, to count the votes, the suffrages. Il compte de ton sein les battements sans nombre, not a pulsation of your heart escapes him. V. Hug. Je puis enfin — l'aurore plus d'une fois sur vos tombeaux, I may count many days when you are no more. La Font. Nous étions dix en comptant les femmes, there were ten of us including the women. Je ne compte pas la perte que cela m'a coûté, I do not take into account the loss that it occasioned me. Saus — ce qu'il a déjà reçu, without reckoning what he has already received. Allez dire à mon trésorier qu'il vous compte 100 ducats, go and tell my treasurer to count you down a hundred ducats. LeSage. — tant d'années, tant d'hivers, to be so many years old. — tant d'années de service, d'emploi, etc., to reckon so many years' service, to have been so many years in a situation. fig. — les mois, les jours, les heures, etc., to reckon the months, the days, the hours. Le malheureux comptera les minutes, tandis que je dormirai, the unfortunate man will be counting the minutes whilst I sleep. Saint. — les morceaux à quelqu'un, to give a person only the bare necessary. — les morceaux de quelqu'un, to give a person nothing but what he pays for. — ses pas, to walk slowly. — les pas de quelqu'un, to watch a person's steps. 2 — une chose à quelqu'un, to reckon a thing in a person's favour. Dieu nous comptera ce que nous aurons fait pour les autres, God will take into account what we have done for others. 3 fig. — ses jours par des bienfaits, to mark every day of one's life by a good action. 4 — parier, to reckon among. Leur naissance les faisait — parmi les grands seigneurs qui donnaient le ton, their birth gave them a place among the great lords who led the fashion. Balz. — un omelette, to count among. Je crus pouvoir vous — un nombre de mes amis, I think I may count you among my friends. 5 — pour, to consider, to esteem as, to look on. On comptait la naissance pour rien, birth was of no account. On le comptait pour mort, he was numbered among the dead. — comme, to consider as.

COMPTÉ-PAS, sm. pl. COMPTÉ-PAS, pedometer.

COMPTER, vn. 1 (calculer) to calculate, to reckon, to cipher, to cast accounts. Il sait lire, écrire et —, he can read, write and cipher. — sur ses doigts, to count on one's fingers. — avec soi-même, to account to one's self. fig. — avec une personne, avec une chose, to take a person, a thing into account. (dans les botelleries, etc., at inn, etc.) — par tête, par pièce, to reckon by the head. prov. fig. Qui compte sans son bôte compte deux fois, he that reckons without his host, must reckon over again. J'avais compté sans les chiens de mon bôte, I had forgotten the dogs of my host. Ab. 2 (rendre compte) to give an account. 3 (être compté) to be considered, esteemed. Cela ne compte pas, that goes for nothing. Il ne compte plus parmi nos amis, he is no longer considered as one of our friends. La bonne reconnaissance est comme la bienfaisance, elle ne compte pas, true gratitude, like benevolence, does not reckon the cost. Nod. Il ne compte pour rien, he stands for nothing. A croire, être sûr, se proposer) to be sure, to intend, to purpose, to mean. Je compte bien avoir fait trente lieues, I am pretty sure of having gone over thirty leagues. Nod. Tu peux — que je ne serai pas ingrat, you may rely upon it that I shall not be ungrateful. Saud. Il compte partir demain, he intends to set out to-morrow. 5 (faire fond sur) to rely upon, to count, to reckon upon. La famille comptait sur nous pour la perfectionner dans les langues étrangères, her family trusted we should improve her in the foreign languages. Ab. Je croyais qu'il comptait sur toi pour l'accompagner, I thought he reckoned upon your accompanying him. Nod. Le curé qui sur son mort comptait, the vicar who was speculating upon the corpse. La Font.

SE COMPTER, vpr. to reckon, to count one's self, to be counted. Voyez combien nous sommes et n'oubliez pas de vous —, see how many we are and do not forget to count yourself. Vous pouvez vous — parmi les invités, you may consider yourself as included in the invitation. Croyez-vous qu'il se compte pour rien? do you think he counts himself for nothing? Cela se compte, do you think, that is, must be taken into account.

A COMPTER DE, prep. loc. reckoning from, from, from... forward. A — de demain, from to-morrow.

COMPTEUR, kong-tuhr, sm. 1 tech. tell-tale, meter, indicator. 2 horol. counter. 3 — de gaz, gazerometer.

COMPTOIR, kong-twâr, sm. 1 counter, shop-counter. 2 (d'un café, etc.), of a coffee-house, etc.) bar. Dame, demoiselle de —, bar-maid, shop-girl. 3 (d'une maison de banque, etc.) of a banking house, etc.) counting-house, branch-bank, bank. SE BUREAU, 4 fig. (à l'étranger) factory, settlement. 5 — d'escompte, discounting bank.

COMPULSÉ, ppa. of compulser, fem. — E., adjective. examined.

COMPULSER, kong-pûl-say, va. 1 law. to inspect, to search in virtue of an order. 2 to examine, to look through (des registres, registers, des auteurs, authors).

COMPULSOIRE, kong-pûl-swâr, sm. law. inspection in virtue of a judge's order.

COMPUT, kong-pûl, sm. chron. computation.

COMPUTISTE, kong-pû-list, sm. computer, comptist.

COMTE, kong-tal, adj. f. Couronne — E., earl's coronet.

COMTAT, kong-tal, sm. geog. Le — Venaissin, Le —, Venaissin.

COMTE, kongt, sm. fem. comtesse, earl, count.

COMTÉ, kong-tay, sm. earldom, county, shire. fem. La Franche —, Franche-Comté.

COMTESSE, kong-tays, sf. fem. of comte, countess.

CONCASSÉ, ppa. of concasser, fem. — E., adjective. pounded, crushed, broken.

CONCASSER, kong-kas-say, va. to pound, to crush. — des cailloux, to break up stones. — du poivre, de la cannelle, to crush pepper, cinnamon.

CONCAYE, kong-kav, adj. mf. concave. Surface —, concave surface. Miroir —, concave mirror. (by analogy) Le côté — d'une ligne courbe, the concave side of a curved line.

CONCAVITÉ, kong-kav-e-tay, sf. 1 concavely, concaveness, hollowness. 2 (by extension) Les — d'une montagne, d'un rocher, the concavities of a mountain, of a rock. Les — du crâne, the concavities of the skull.

CONCÉDE, ppa. of concéder, fem. — E., adjective. ceded, granted, yielded.

CONCÉDER, kong-say-day, va. to concede, to grant, to yield. Il leur concéda à prix d'argent le droit d'acquiescer et de posséder des fiefs, he sold them the right of acquiescing and possessing fiefs. Bar. Il leur concéda la justice fut rendue en langue allemande, he allowed justice to be administered in the German tongue. Bar. — un terrain, to make a grant of land.

SE CONCEDE, vpr. to be granted.

CONCENTRATION, kong-sang-trah-syong, sf. phys. concentration. fig. La — du pouvoir, the concentration of power.

CONCENTRÉ, ppa. of concentrer, fem. — E., adjective. concentrated, concentrated, close, reserved. chem. Acide —, concentrated acid. fig. Chagrin —, pent-up grief. Être —, en soi-même, toujours —, to be always wrapped up in one's thoughts.

CONCENTRER, kong-sang-tray, va. 1 phys. (réunir en un centre) to concentrate, to concentrate. — les rayons solaires, to concentrate the solar rays. 2 chem. — un liquide, to concentrate a liquid. 3 fig. — toutes ses affections sur un objet, to centre to wrap up all one's affections in a single object. fig. — sa fureur, sa haine, to smother one's fury, one's hatred. 4 mil. — ses forces, to concentrate one's forces.

SE CONCENTRER, vpr. (se réunir) to be concentrated. fig. Toutes ses affections s'étaient concentrées sur cet enfant, all his affections were wrapped up in that child.

CENTRIQUE, kong-sang-trik, adj. mf. geom. concentric. Cercles —, concentric circles.

CONCEPT, kong-sept, sm. phil. conception.

CONCEPTION, kong-sep-syong, sf. 1 physiol. conception. théol. L'immaculée de la sainte Vierge, the immaculate Conception of the Holy Virgin. 2 cath. rel. (fête) Festival of the Conception of the Holy Virgin. 3 fig. (faculté) apprehension. Il a la — vive, facile, he is quick of apprehension. 4 fig. (idée) idea, notion. — originale, original idea. Plaisante —, funny idea.

CONCERNANT, kong-say-nang, 1 vpr. of concerner, 2 prep. concerning, about, touching, relating to. Ordonnance — les voyageurs, regulation concerning travellers. — J'ai quelque chose à vous dire — cette affaire, I have something to say to you concerning that affair.

CONCERNER, kong-say-nay, va. (only used in the third person sing. and in the plur.) to concern, to regard, to relate to. Cela concerne votre honneur, that concerns your honour. Cette affaire vous aurait concernée, vous autres femmes, si, this affair would have concerned you women, if.

CONCERT, kong-sayr, sm. 1 concert. — d'amateurs, a concert of amateurs, a private concert. — spirituel, oratorio. Chanter dans un —, to sing at a concert. Il y a — chez lui tous les lundis, there is a concert at his house every monday. 2 (by extension) union of sounds. Les — des oiseaux, the melody of birds. Le bruit des vents et celui des flots formaient un sauvage —, the roaring of the winds and waves formed a wild concert. 3 Un — de louanges, a chorus of praise. 4 —, pl. poetic. strains. Prêtez l'oreille à mes —, listen to my strains. (by analogy) Les doux — du rossignol, the sweet strains of the nightingale. 5

fig. concert, union. Agir sans —, sans aucun —, to act without any common plan. — d'opinions, concurrence of opinions. — DE CONCERT, adv. loc. in concert. Agir de —, to act in concert. Ils étaient de — ensemble, they played into each other's hands.

CONCERTANT, kong-sayr-tang, 1 sm. fem. — E., performer in a concert. 2 adj. m. fem. — E., symphonie — E., sinfonia concertante. Duo —, duo concertante.

CONCERTÉ, ppa. of concerter, fem. — E., adjective. concerted, planned. Mesures bien —es, well laid measures.

CONCERTER, kong-sayr-tay, va. 1 absol. mus. (répéter ensemble) to practice, to rehearse. 2 (conférer) to concert, to contrive, to plan. — une entreprise, to plan an undertaking. — des mesures, to devise measures.

CONCERTER, vi. 1 absol. to make a concert. 2 mus. to play alternately.

SE CONCERTER, vpr. to concert. Il faut nous — pour cette affaire, we must lay our heads together for that affair.

CONCERTISTE, kong-sayr-list, sm. mus. See CONCERTANT.

CONCERTO, kong-sayr-to, sm. (It.) mus. concerto.

CONCESSION, kong-say-syong, sf. 1 (don d'une grâce, etc.) concession. 2 (terre donnée par l'Etat) grant of land. 3 admin. (cession) concession, grant. — d'un terrain, d'une mine, grant of land, of a mine. — à perpétuité, perpetual grant. Faire la — d'une prise d'eau, to grant the right of irrigation. Avoir une — d'eau, to have the water laid on. 4 fig. concession. Elle semblait faire cette — à l'humaine nature, she seemed to descend to indulge human nature so far. Méry. Faire des —, to make concessions. Cette loi fut une — à l'esprit du temps, that law was a concession made to the spirit of the age. 5 rhet. concession.

CONCESSIONNAIRE, kong-say-syong-nayr, sm. mf. grantee.

CONCEVOIR, kong-se-lee, sm. pl. (It.) conceits, affected wit, point.

CONCEVABLE, kong-se-vabl, adj. mf. conceivable, credible. Par un prodige assez —, by a miracle easy to understand.

BAZ.

CONCEVOIR, kongs-vwâr, va. JE CONÇOIS, TU CONÇOIS, IL CONÇOIT, ILS CONÇOIENT; JE CONÇUS; J'AI CONÇU; CONÇUS, QUE JE CONÇOIS; QUE JE CONÇUSSÉ, (Lat. concipere) 1 (d'une femme) to conceive. (des animaux) to conceive, to breed. 2 fig. (créer, imaginer) to conceive, to imagine. — une idée, to frame an idea. Le peuple a conçu la plus haute opinion de sa capacité, the people have conceived the highest opinion of his sagacity. Le Sage. Il conçoit ses fables à un original manner. Sie-B. — un projet, to conceive a project. 3 fig. (ressentir) to conceive, to entertain. Les haines que les seigneurs avaient conçues les uns contre les autres, the hatred that the lords had entertained towards each other. Bar. L'effroi qu'il conçut du Dauphin fit mourir le feu roi, the dread he was in of the Dauphin was the cause of the death of the late king. C. Del. Je conçois encore un peu de bonheur dans cette pensée, I find in that thought a slight source of comfort. Nod. Afin que les bêtises en concussen plus de peur, in order to inspire the wassels with still greater dread. La Font. On faisait — les plus belles espérances pour l'avenir, in holding out the most brilliant prospects for the future. 4 (comprendre, se faire une idée) to conceive, to apprehend, to understand. Les hommes habitués par leur éducation à tout —, men whose minds, by education, are capable of embracing every thing. Balz. M. ne concevait d'autre joie que de produire de grandes œuvres, M. could not conceive any other pleasure than that of producing great works. Sand. Il faut voir la cour de M. pour en — la magnificence, the court of M. must be seen to have an idea of its magnificence. Le Sage. Je ne conçois pas comment il a fait pour réussir. I cannot make out how he has contrived to succeed. Je n'y conçois rien, I can make nothing of it. aussi. Il a l'esprit très-vif, il conçoit très-facilement, he is of lively parts, he is very quick of apprehension. 5 (exprimer) to word, to express. Il fallait — cette clause en termes plus précis, this clause should have been worded in clearer terms. se concevoir, vpr. to be understood. Cela se conçoit facilement, that is easy to understand.

CONCOÛIDE, kong-ko-id, sf. (Gr.) geom. conchoid.

CONCHYLIOLOGIE, kong-ke-lyo-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.) nat. hist. conchology, conchylology.

CONCHYTE, kong-ki, sf. zool. conchite.

CONCIERGE, kong-syay-zh, s. mf. porter, door-keeper. Parlez au —, à la —, speak to the porter, to the portress.

CONCIERGERIE, kong-syay-zh-ree, sf. 1 (charge) place of porter, door-keeper. 2 (logement d'un concierge) porter's lodge. 3 a prison in Paris.

CONCILE, kong-seel, sm. 1 (assemblée) council. 2 (décrets) edicts of a council.

CONCILIABLE, kong-se-lyab', adj. mf. reconcilable, that may be made consistent.

CONCILIABLE, kong-se-lyab-bül, 1 (de prélat hérétique) concenicle. 2 (réunion secrète) secret meeting.

CONCILIANT, kong-se-lyang, ppr. of concilier, adj. m. fem. —, conciliating, reconciling. Homme, esprit —, conciliating man, temper.

CONCILIATEUR, kong-se-lyat-ubr, sm. (sem. CONCILIATRICE, 4 conciliator, reconciling, conciliating. 2 (adjectif) conciliating, conciliatory. Esprit —, conciliatory disposition. Mesures conciliatrices, conciliatory measures.

CONCILIATION, kong-se-lyab-syong, sf. 1 (action) conciliation, reconciliation. Voies de —, moyens de —, conciliatory means. Travailler à la — des esprits, to endeavour to pacify men's minds. Esprit de —, conciliatory disposition, spirit of conciliation. Toute — me semble désormais impossible, all conciliation seems to me henceforth impossible. Sand. 2 (devant le juge de paix) conciliation. Citation en —, summons for the purpose of conciliation. 3 (des textes, des lois, of texts, of laws) conciliation.

CONCILER, ppa. of concilier, fem. —, adj. tr. reconciled, pacified.

CONCILIER, kong-se-lyay, ra. 1 (accorder ensemble) to reconcile. Il n'a pas réussi à les —, he has not succeeded in reconciling them. — des lois, to reconcile laws. Je saurai — l'intérêt et la justice, I shall reconcile interest to justice. Ab. (by extension) l'essai de — sur sa physionomie l'expression du regret et de l'obsequiosité, he endeavoured to blend on his countenance the expression of regret with that of obsequiousness. 2 (attirer, gagner) to conciliate, to win. Cela lui concilia les bonnes grâces de son maître, that gained him his master's favour. Partout les talents nous concilient l'estime publique, talents every where conciliate public esteem. B. de St-P.

se CONCILIER, ppr. 4 (se mettre d'accord, to be reconciled. Ils n'ont pas voulu se —, they would not be reconciled. 2 (s'attirer, gagner) to conciliate, to win. Se — les bonnes grâces de quelqu'un, to conciliate the good graces of a person. Il sut des les premiers jours se — l'amitié des enfants, from the very first day, he gained the affection of the children. Sand. E parvint enfin à se — la reine, he succeeded at last in ingratiating himself with the queen. Mich.

CONCIS, kong-se, adj. m. fem. —, concise, brief, short, curt. Ecrivain —, concise writer. — Style —, concise style.

CONCISION, kong-se-zyong, sf. conciseness, brevity, shortness. La — do style, conciseness of style.

CONCITOYEN, kong-se-twa-yang, sm. fem. —, fellow-citizen, fellow-townsmen. m., fellow-townswoman, f.

CONCLAVE, kong-klav, sm. 4 (lieu) conclave. 2 (assemblée) conclave.

CONCLAVISTE, kong-klav-ist, sm. conclavist.

CONCLU, kong-klü, ppa. of CONCLURE, fem. —, adjectiv. See CONCLURE.

CONCLUANT, kong-klü-aug, ppr. of CONCLURE, adj. m. fem. —, e, conclusive, decisive, final, unanswerable.

CONCLURE, kong-klür, va. CONCLUANT; CONCLU; JE CONCLUS, TO CONCLUE, IL CONCLUT, NOUS CONCLUONS, VOUS CONCLUEZ, ILS CONCLUENT; JE CONCLUAIS; JE CONCLUS; JE CONCLUAI; JE CONCLUAIS; CONCLUS; QU'IL CONCLUE; QUE JE CONCLUE; QU'IL CONCLUT, (Lat. concludere) 1 (activer) to conclude, to end, to finish, to terminate. — un traité, a marriage, to conclude a treaty, a marriage. Il a conclu son sermon en disant, he concluded his sermon by saying. absol. C'est assez délibéré, il faut —, there has been deliberation enough, it is time to come to a conclusion. Mais concluez donc, now, do conclude. 2 (tirer une conséquence) to conclude, to infer, to draw a conclusion, to gather a consequence. J'en conclus la nécessité de, from that I concluded the necessity of. Ce qui lui fit — qu'il avait à grand tort son village quitté, which made him conclude that he had been greatly in the wrong to leave his village. La Font. Cet argument conclut bien, this argument is very conclusive.

CONCLURE, kong-klür, rm. 4 law. to move. Le procureur général a conclu à la peine de mort, the attorney-general demanded the application of capital punishment. 2 (opiner, se prononcer pour) to decide, to vote for. Plusieurs juges conclurent à l'acquiescement du prévenu, several judges voted for the acquittal of the prisoner.

CONCLUSIF, kong-klü-zif, adj. m. fem. conclusive, gram. conclusive.

CONCLUSION, kong-klü-zyong, sf. 1 conclusion, end, termination. La — d'une affaire, the conclusion of an affair. La — d'un traité, d'un mariage, the conclusion of a treaty, of a marriage. J'allais écrire la — de ce livre, I was about to write the conclusion of this book. Mich. Cet homme est ennemi de la —, that man never likes to conclude. 2 (décision) conclusion, determination, decision. La — fut qu'on partirait de suite, it was decided that we should set out immediately. 3 (conséquence) consequence, inference, deduction. Tirer, déduire une —, to draw an inference. 4 —s, pl. law. motion, demand. Prendre des —s, to make a motion. (adverbial.) in conclusion, in short. — je ne le ferai pas, in short, I will not do it.

CONCOCTION, kong-kok-syong, sf. physiol. concoction. See COCTOX.

CONCOMBRE, kong-kongbr', sm. bot. cucumber.

CONCOMITANCE, kong-ko-me-tangs, sf. (Lat. concomitari) concomitance, concomitancy.

CONCOMITANT, kong-ko-me-tang, adj. m. fem. —, e, 1 concomitant. Symptômes —s, concomitant symptoms. 2 theol. Grâce —, e, concomitant grace.

CONCORDANCE, kong-kor-dangs, sf. 4 concordance, concordancy. 2 gram. concord. 3 (livre) — des Évangiles, — de la Bible, concordance of the Gospels, of the Bible.

CONCORDANT, kong-kor-dang, sm. 1 mas. tenor. 2 adj. m. concordant.

CONCORDAT, kong-kor-dab, sm. rel. 4 concordat. 2 com. composition, bankrupt's certificate.

CONCORDE, kong-kord, sf. 1 myth. concord. 2 (bonne intelligence) concord, good understanding, union. Maintenez, rétablir la —, to maintain, to bring back harmony. Dix ans de — c'est bien long, ten years of good understanding is a pretty long period. St-B.

CONCORDER, kong-kor-day, rm. 4 (vivre en bonne intelligence) to live in concord. Ils ne peuvent —, they cannot live in concord. 2 fig. (des choses, of things) to agree. Ces deux témoignages ne concordent pas, these two evidences do not agree. L'Océan concorde au mouvement d'en haut, the Ocean follows the impulsion of the heavens. Mich. Ce double jugement concorde trop bien pour ne pas être le sien, both these judgments agree too well together not to be his. St-B. Divers cadavres concordent rarement ensemble, several time-pieces rarely indicating the same hour. Tu Gant.

CONCOURANT, kong-ko-raug, ppr. of CONCOURIR, adj. m. fem. —, e, 1 mech. Forces, puissances —es, concurrent powers. 2 geom. Lignes —es, concurrent lines.

CONCOURIR, kong-ko-rir, rm. conj. like COCIR, 4 (coopérer) to concur, to cooperate, to contribute. — au bonheur, au malheur, à la ruine de quelqu'un, to contribute to the happiness, to the misfortune, to the ruin of a person. Elle aurait dédaigné ces jeux de l'esprit, si elle n'avait pu les faire — au triomphe du bon sens, she would have disdained such literary trifling, had she not been able to make it contribute to the triumph of good sense. Nod. Tout concourait pour eux, every thing conspired in their favour. La Font. 2 phys. geom. to concur, to meet. 3 fig. to compete. — pour un prix, to compete for a prize. Les ouvrages envoyés après telle époque ne pourront —, works sent after such a date cannot enter into competition.

CONCOURS, kong-koor, sm. 4 concurrence, co-operation. Son — m'a été fort utile, his concurrence was very useful to me. 2 (réunion, rencontre) concurrence, meeting. Un — de circonstances favorables, a concurrence of favourable circumstances. 3 (affluence) concours. Le — d'Indiens de tous les âges aimait ces lieux, a concurrence of Indians of all ages animated the scene. Chat. 4 (pour des prix) competition. J'obtiens — une mission du Jardin des Plantes, after a successful competition I obtained a mission from the Garden of Plants. Ab. Le — général, the general competition.

CONCRET, kong-kray, adj. m. fem. concrète, 1 log. concrète. Terme —, concrete term. 2 arith. Nombre —, concrete number. 3 chem. concrète.

CONCRETION, kong-kray-syong, sf. 4 (little used) concretion. 2 min. concretion. 3 med. concretion.

CONÇU, kong-sü, ppa. of CONCEVOIR, fem. —, e, adjectiv. conceived, planned. Un ouvrage bien —, a well planned work. Un jardin d'assez peu d'étendue, mais assez bien — dans sa distribution, a garden of no great size, but tastefully arranged. Nod. Son discours était — en ces termes, his discourse was as follows. Une phrase mal —, a badly constructed phrase.

CONCUBINAGE, kong-kü-be-nazh, sm. concubinage.

CONCUBINE, kong-kü-been, sf. concubine.

CONCUPISCENCE, kong-kü-pees-sangs, sf. concupiscence.

CONCURRENCE, kong-kür-ram-mang, adv. 1 (par concurrence) in competition. 2 (coincidentement) concurrently, in concurrence. 3 law. Ces créanciers vien-neut en ordre —, these creditors come in the same rank.

CONCURRENCE, kong-kür-ràngs, sf.
1 competition. Entrer en — avec quelqu'un, to enter into competition with a person, to set up an opposition. Être, se trouver en —, to be, to stand in competition. 2 com. competition. Soutenir la —, to keep up a competition. La — s'est forcée à baisser ses prix, competition has obliged him to lower his prices. Cette entreprise ne pourra soutenir la — avec la nôtre, that enterprise cannot support a competition with ours. 3 law. equality of rights, of privileges. Jusqu'à —, jusqu'à la — de, to the amount of, to the extent of. Il sera obligé de rapporter jusqu'à — de ce qu'il a reçu, he will be obliged to give back to the amount of what he has received. absol. Jusqu'à due —, to the due amount.

CONCURRENT, kong-kür-ràng, sm. fem. — 6, competitor, rival.

CONCUSSION, kong-küs-syong, sf. peculation, extortion.

CONCUSSIONNAIRE, kong-küs-syong-nayr, sm. 1 peculator, extortioner. 2 adjective, peculating.

CONDAMNABLE, kong-dà-nab', adj. mf. condemnable.

CONDAMNATION, kong-dà-nah-syong, sf. 1 condemnation, conviction. — par défaut, condemnation in default. — à mort, à une peine correctionnelle, sentence of death, sentence of fine, imprisonment. Passer —, to pass sentence; || fig. to confess one's self to be in the wrong, to pass judgment upon one's self. Subir —, to suffer judgment. Subir sa —, to undergo one's sentence. 2 fig. condemnation, blame, censure, reproof. Sa conduite est la — de la vôtre, his conduct is the condemnation of yours. 3 — s, pl. fines, damages and costs.

CONDAMNÉ, ppa. of CONDAMNER, fem. — 6, 1 adjective, condemned, sentenced. En tant qu'elle était — e à mourir, by the fact of her birth she was doomed to die. B. de S.-P. 2 (substantive), convict.

CONDAMNER, kong-dà-nay, va. 1 to condemn, to sentence, to convict. — aux dépens, à l'amende, to condemn in costs, to fine. fig. Voilà des preuves qui vous condamnent, those are proofs which condemn you. La nature a sans nombre la vieillesse à des infirmités, nature has doomed old age to numberless infirmities. Chat. — un livre à l'oubli, to doom a book to oblivion. (by analogy) — un malade à gîter over a patient. 2 (blâmer, rejeter) to condemn. Il condamne tout ce que les autres ont fait, he condemns all that others have done. La Sorbonne a condamné son livre, the Sorbonne has condemned his book. Il ne faut — personne sans l'entendre, we must not condemn a person unheard. M. de Sév. 3 fig. — une porte, une fenêtre, to block up, to shut up, to wall up, to nail up, a door, a window.

SE CONDAMNER, trpr. 1 to condemn one's self. Se — à des travaux pénibles, to condemn one's self to painful labours. Se — à un silence absolu, to condemn one's self to absolute silence. 2 (reconnaître qu'on a tort) to condemn one's self, to pass judgment upon one's self. Il s'est condamné lui-même, he has condemned himself.

CONDENSATEUR, kong-dàng-sat-abr, sm. 1 phys. condenser. 2 mech. — de forces, condenser of forces.

CONDENSATION, kong-dàng-sà-syong, sf. phys. condensation, compression.

CONDENSE, ppa. of CONDENSER, fem. — 6, adjective, condensed.

CONDENSER, kong-dàng-say, va. phys. to condense.

SE CONDENSER, trpr. phys. to condense, to be condensed.

CONDENSEUR, kong-dàng-sabr, sm. phys. tech. condenser.

CONDESCENDANCE, kong-days-sàng-dàngs, sf. condescendence, compliancy, condescension. Vous avez trop de — pour lui, you are too complying with him.

CONDESCENDANT, kong-days-sàng-dàng, adj. m. fem. — 6, (little used) condescending.

CONDESCENDRE, kong-day-sàng-dr', vn. to condescend (to), to comply (with). Je ne puis — à ce que vous souhaitez, I cannot comply with your wishes. aux faiblesses, aux besoins de quelqu'un, to bear with the weaknesses, the exigencies of a person.

CONDIMENT, kong-de-màng, sm. condiment, seasoning.

CONDISCIPLE, kong-de-sip'l, sm. disciple, fellow-disciple, fellow-scholar, school-fellow.

CONDIT, kong-dee, sm. pharm. confect.

CONDITUM, confect, confit.

CONDITION, kong-de-syong, sf. 1 (manière d'être, état, nature) state, condition, nature. La — humaine, the state of mankind. Les misères de notre —, the miseries of our condition. Améliorer sa —, to improve one's condition, to better one's circumstances. 2 (qualité requise, circonstances voulues) condition. Cet ouvrage n'a pas les qualités requises, this work has not the requisite conditions. 3 (état par rapport à la naissance) rank, station, condition, quality. Être de grande, de médiocre, de basse —, to be of high, middling, low rank. L'inegalité des —, the inequality of ranks. C'est une personne de —, c'est un homme de —, he is a person, a man of quality. 4 (la profession, le rang) station of life, line of life. Chacun doit vivre selon sa —, every one ought to live according to his station. 5 (domesticité) service, situation, place. Être en —, to be in service. Il avait trouvé une bonne —, he had found a good place. 6 (part que l'on fait à quelqu'un dans une affaire) condition, terms, share. 7 (clause) express, tacite, express, tacit clause. Les — s d'un marché, d'un engagement, the conditions of a bargain, of an engagement. Se rendre à des — honorables, to surrender on honourable terms. Imposer une —, to impose a condition. Je n'accepte pas vos —, I don't accept your terms. Faire ses —, to make one's conditions. — suspensive, condition precedent. — résolutoire, condition subsequent. (elliptic.) Vendre une chose sous —, la donner sous —, to sell a thing upon condition. Baptiser sous —, to baptize conditionally. fig. — sine qua non, condition sine qua non.

CONDITION, prep. loc. on condition of.

A CONDITION QUE, conj. loc. provided.

CONDITIONNÉ, ppa. of CONDITIONNER, fem. — 6, adjective, conditioned. Des meubles bien —, well-conditioned furniture. fig. Sottise, étourderie bien — e, downright folly. fig. Il est bien —, he is in a pretty condition.

CONDITIONNEL, kong-de-syong-nel, adj. m. fem. — 6, 1 conditionnel. 2 gram. logic. conditional.

CONDITIONNEL, sm. gram. conditional.

AA —, in the conditional.

CONDITIONNELLEMENT, kong-de-syong-nel-màng, adv. conditionally.

CONDITIONNER, kong-de-syong-nay, va. to condition.

CONDOLANCE, kong-do-lay-dàngs, sf. Compliment de —, lettre de —, condolence, letter of condolence.

CONDOR, kong-dot, sm. orn. condor.

CONDOTTIERI, kong-dot-tsay-ree, sm. pl. (It.) mercenary troops.

CONDUCTEUR, kong-duk-tahe, sm. fem. conductor. 1 conductor, guard, guide, leader. Un — de diligence, guard of a stage-coach. — d'omnibus, conductor. fig. Cet excellent — de la jeunesse, that excellent guide of youth. 2 phys. conductor. 3 adjective, conducting. Fil —, conducting rod. Les substances conductrices de l'électricité, substances conductors of electricity. 4 print. Points —s, leader.

CONDUCTIBILITÉ, kong-duk-ti-be-le-tay, sf. phys. conductivity.

CONDUCTIBLE, kong-duk-ti-b', adj. mf. conducibile.

CONDUIRE, kong-düer, va. (Lat. conducere) 1 (mener) to conduct, to lead, to guide, to lead the way. — des voyageurs, to conduct travellers. Si du moins tu avais su nous —, if you had but known how to direct us. Ab. L'esclave les conduisit par des sentiers au milieu des bois, the slave led them through paths in the middle of woods. B. St-P. Il fut obligé de répandre et de la — à la grange, he was obliged to answer and to lead her to the barn. G. Sand. Un chien qui conduirait un aveugle, a dog leading a blind man. Je vais vous — près d'elle, I will lead you to her. Où le conduisez-vous? à la mort, à la gloire! where are you leading him? to death, to glory! Corn. — une voiture, to drive a carriage. absol. Il sait très-bien —, he can drive well, he is a good whip. Je découvris un esquif, une femme le conduisait, I described a bark, a woman was steering it. Chat. — un troupeau, to lead, to drive a flock. poetic. — une femme à l'autel, to lead a woman to the altar. — les pas de quelqu'un, to guide the steps of a person. — la main de quelqu'un, à quelqu'un, to guide the hand of a person. — l'eau, to conduct, to convey water. — une ligne, to draw a line. fig. Ses traces nous conduisirent jusqu'au lieu où il s'était caché, the traces he had left brought us up to the spot where he had concealed himself. La raison le conduirait, he is guided by reason. Il se laisse — par ses passions, he suffers himself to be led by his passions. Sa bonne étoile l'avait conduit chez des artistes, his good fortune had led him among artists. Sand. Il faut que ce soit le hasard qui vous y ait conduit, you must have been guided thither by chance. Nod. Quel dessein conduirait ici vos pas? what brings you hither? the passion of gaming led him to his ruin. — une chose à sa fin, à son terme, to go through with a thing. (by analogy) L'ouvrage fut conduit jusqu'à cinquante volumes et en resta là, the work was brought as far as the fifth volume, and then it stopped. — un ouvrage à sa perfection, to bring a work to perfection. prov. fig. — la barque, to be at the head of an affair. fig. — bien sa barque, to manage one's affairs well. 2 (commander, gouverner) to rule, to command, to govern, to sway. Ce prince conduisait les armées de B., this prince led the armies of B. Bat. Pour combattre les troupes que Bajazet conduisait en personne, to fight the troops that B. commanded in person. Bar. J'ai su — seul et sans compagnon jusqu'ici l'univers, till now, alone and without an assistant, I have governed the universe. La Font. C'est un peuple difficile à —, it is a nation difficult to be governed. Se laisser — par quelqu'un, to suffer one's self to be led by a person. — la conscience de quelqu'un, to direct the conscience of a person. — un vaisseau, a fleet. — un orchestre, to command an orchestra. — un atelier, to superintend a workshop. 3 (avoir la direction) to manage, to superintend. — une construction, un travail, une entreprise, to superintend a construction, a work, an undertaking. — un dessein, une intrigue, une affaire, to conduct a plan, an intrigue, an affair. Ils conduisaient les négociations avec beaucoup de patience, they conducted the negotiations with much patience. Bar. C'était le prévôt de Paris qui conduisait tout l'affaire, it was the prorog of Paris who managed the whole affair. Bar. Il s'entend très-bien — les finances de l'état, he is very skilful in the management of the finances of the state. 4 (escorter) to attend, to wait on. — no ambassadeur à l'audience, to attend an ambassador to the audience. Mes domestiques vous conduiront, my servants shall attend you. Quatre cents bourgeois des plus notables le conduisirent jusqu'à Vincennes, four hundred of the most notable citizens attended him as far as V. Bar. Il avait peur des voleurs et se fit — par ses gens, he was afraid of thieves, and had himself escorted by his attendants. Un détachement de cavalerie conduisit le convoi jusqu'à l'entrée de la ville, a detachment of cavalry escorted the convey as far as the entrance of the town. 5 (by extension) mener, abriter) to lead. Ce chemin conduit à la ville, this way leads to the town.

SE CONDUIRE, vpr. 1 to behave, to behave one's self, to demean one's self. Il se conduisit très-mal vis-à-vis de ses parents, he behaved very badly to his parents. Conduisez-vous bien, behave yourself well. 2 (se gouverner soi-même) to rule one's self. Il est en âge de se —, he is old enough to be his own master. 3 (se laisser diriger) to be led, guided. La plupart des femmes se conduisent par le cœur, most women take counsel of their own hearts. La Bruy.

CONDUIT, kong-duei, con of CONDUIRE, sem. — e, adjective, conducted, led. Ils se trouvaient maintenant — s où ils n'auraient pas voulu aller, they found themselves brought to a point they did not wish to come to. Bar. Par quel malheur il avait été — à l'étrange résolution, what misfortune had brought him to the strange resolution. Chat. Une pièce de théâtre, une intrigue bien — e, a well-planned play, a well-concerted plot.

CONDUIT, sm. conduit, pipe, tube, duct. — de pierre, de plomb, stone conduit, leaden pipe. — d'eau, water-pipe. asst. Le — auditif, the auditory duct.

CONDUITE kong-duei, sf. 1 leading, conducting, guidance, driving. Etre chargé de la — d'un aveugle, to be intrusted with the care of leading a blind man. Il lui confia la — de son troupeau, he intrusted him with the care of driving his flock. Il a fait plusieurs voyages sous la — d'un Grec de N., he performed several voyages under the guidance of a Greek from N. Ah. Etre chargé de la — d'un ambassadeur, to be one's duty to attend an ambassador. pop. Faire la —, to see a person off, home, on his way. L. fit la — à son frère le plus loin qu'il put, L. accompanied his brother as far as he could. G. Sand. 2 (direction) direction, superintendence, management. Avoir la — d'un bâtiment, d'une entreprise, to have the direction of a building, of an undertaking. Prendre la — d'une affaire, to take on one's self the management of a business. 3 (surveillance) charge, superintendence, direction. Il vit dans son château avec une seule qu'il s'ens —, he lives in his country-seat with a sister who is under his charge. Le Sage. Etre chargé de la — d'une jeune fille, to be intrusted with the care of a young girl. 4 (gouvernement, gouvernement) command, government. Avoir la — d'une armée, to have the command of an army. Avoir la — d'un diocèse, to have the charge of a diocese. Des dévants F. prendra la — de la maison, from to-morrow F. will take the direction of the household. Balz. 5 (manière d'agir) demeanour, behaviour, conduct, deportment. Bonne, mauvaise —, good, bad behaviour. Je suis satisfait de votre —, I am satisfied with your conduct. A quoi ressemble votre — ? what do you mean by such behaviour? N^{me} de Sev. Sa — à l'égard de ses parents ne mérite que des éloges, his conduct towards his parents is worthy of all praise. absol. Avoir de la —, to be steady. N'avoir point de —, to be wanting. —, to be wild. 6 hydr. conduit, pipes.

CÔNE, kôn, sm. (Gr.) 1 geom. cone. — tronqué, truncated cone, frustum of a cone. 2 astr. — d'ombre, cone of a shadow. 3 phys. — de lumière, penetral of light, cone of rays. 4 metal. melting cone. 5 bot. cone, strobil. 6 geol. cone.

7 zool. cone, crown.

CONFABULATION, kong-fab-i-lah-syong, sf. confabulation.

CONFABLER, kong-fab-fy-lang, rm. to confabulate. G. Sand.

CONFECTION, kong-fek-syong, sf. 1 execution, making, making out, drawing up, construction. La — d'un bâtiment, d'un ouvrage, the construction of a building, the execution of a work. La — d'un habit, the making up of a coat. La — des listes électorales, the drawing up of the electoral lists. Jusqu'à parlarie —, till completion. 2 (vêtements) ready-made clothes. Magasin de —, ready-made clothes warehouse, slop-shop. Il fait la —, he makes slop articles. 3 pharm. confection, electuary.

CONFÉCTIONNE, ppa of CONFÉCTIONNER, sem. — e, adjective, made up.

CONFÉCTIONNER, kong-fek-syong, ra. to execute, to make, to draw up, to make out, to make up. — des habits, des souliers, to make up clothes, shoes.

CONFÉCTIONNEUR, kong-fek-syong, sm. sem. CONFÉCTIONNEUSE, slop-seller.

CONFÉDÉRATION, kong-fay-day-rah-syong, sf. confederation. La — suisse, the Swiss Confederation.

CONFÉDÉRIE, ppa of CONFÉDÉRER, sem. — e, adjective, confederate. États — s, confederate states. 2 substantif. Les — s, the confederates.

SE CONFÉDÉRER, kong-fay-day-ray, vpr. to confederate. Se — avec quelqu'un, to confederate with a person. Ces petits États se sont — s, those small states have entered into a confederacy.

CONFÈRE, ppa of CONFÉRER, sem. — e, adjective, conferred.

CONFÉRENCE, kong-fay-rang, sf. 1 (comparaison) comparison, collation. — des textes, collation of texts. 2 entretient conference. Entrer en —, to enter into a conference. Son patron y était en — avec un employé, his employer was there in conference with a clerk. Balz. Leur conversation fut plutôt une — de négociations qu'un entretien d'amis, their interview was rather a commercial conference than a friendly conversation. Le Sage. 3 (réunion de diplomates) conference. 4 (réunion de jeunes avocats, etc.) debating society. 5 rel. conference, lecture.

CONFÉRER, kong-fay-ray, va. 1 (comparer) to confer, to compare, to collate. — deux manuscrits, to confer two manuscripts. 2 (donner) to confer, to bestow, to collate. — des honneurs, des dignités, to confer honours, dignities. Il le premier confère à notre langue une forme continue, he was the first to give our language a regular form. St-B. Ces qualités qui constituent la critique et qui confèrent l'autorité, those qualities which constitute criticism and confer authority. St-B. Je confiai de petits bénéfices I presented to small livings. Le Sage. — le baptême, to administer baptism. — les ordres sacres, to ordain.

SE CONFÉRER, vpr. (s'attribuer) to bestow upon one's self, to take to one's self. Le duc d'O. se conféra lui-même le gouvernement de N., the Duke of O. took to himself the government of N. Bar.

CONFÉRER, vtr. to confer. Il l'avait envoyé en J. pour y — sur les moyens d'y faire une croisade, he had sent him to J. to confer on the means of making a crusade there. Bar. Il conférerait sur ces graves sujets avec le duc de B., he was conferring on those grave subjects with the duke of B. St-B.

CONFESSE, kong-fays, sf. confession. Aller à —, to go to confession.

CONFESSEUR, ppa of CONFESSER, sem. — e, adjective, confessed. Il y a des fautes si bien — s qu'elles deviennent contagieuses, there are faults so pleasantly confessed that they become contagious. St-B. prov. Une faute — e est à demi pardonnée, a fault confessed is half forgiven.

CONFESSEUR, kong-fay-say, ra. 1 (avouer) to confess, to own, to acknowledge, to profess. Retenu par la honte de — l'oubli que j'avais fait de ma religion, prevented by shame from confessing how forgetful I had been of my religion. Chat. Confessez, mauvais fils, n'excusez pas vos fautes, confess, bad son, do not excuse your faults. C. Del. Il confesse ses goûts avec une candeur qui désarme, he owns to his tastes with a candour that disarms one. St-B. Je confesse que j'ai tort, I own that I am wrong. 2 — Jesus-Christ, — la M^{de} de Jesus-Christ, to confess Jesus-Christ, the faith of Christ. 3 (des peches) to confess one's sins. 4 (nir un péniement) to confess, to shrieve. prov. fig. C'est le diable à —, it is the devil to pay.

SE CONFESSEUR, vpr. to confess. absol. Il est allé se —, he is gone to confess.

CONFESSEUR, kong-fay-say, sm. 1 (prêtre) confessor. 2 rel. his confessor. Si mes — s sont persécutés au moment sur la terre, if my confessors are for a moment persecuted upon earth. Chat.

CONFESSIO, kong-fay-say, sf. 1 (aveu) confession, avowal, acknowledgment. — d'un criminel, confession of a criminal. 2 (des peches) confession, articulation confession. Ouir, entendre une —, to hear in confession. Billet de —, ticket of confession. fig. Confier quelque chose à quelqu'un sous le serai de la —, to trust a person with a thing under an oath of secrecy. prov. On lui donnerait le bon Dieu sans —, one would trust him with untold gold. 3 theol. — de foi, confession of faith. 4 — s, pl. (titres d'ouvrages) confessions. Les — de J.-J. Rousseau, the Confessions of J. J. R.

CONFESSIO, kong-fay-say, sm. confessional.

CONFIANCE, kong-fyang, sf. (from confiant) 1 trust, reliance, confidence. Mettre sa — en quelqu'un, to put one's trust in a person, in a thing. C. avait — en son œuvre, C. had reliance on his work. Balz. Mettre sa — en Dieu, to put one's trust in God. Il prenait — dans sa destinée, he began to have faith in his destiny. Saint. Prendre — dans l'avenir, to trust to the future. Brenez —, take courage. 2 (croiance en la probité, aux hommes disposés de quelqu'un) trust, confidence. Ayez donc — aux gens! trust to people after that! Ah. Vous aviez mal placé votre —, your confidence was badly placed. Vous devez avoir pour moi la — du malade pour son médecin, you ought to have confidence in me as a patient has in his physician. Saint. Meriter, gagner, obtenir, perdre, trahir la — de quelqu'un, to deserve, to gain, to obtain, to lose, to betray the confidence of a person. Donner des marques de —, to give marks of confidence. Il m'inspira beaucoup de —, he inspired me with a great deal of confidence. J'ai sa —, he confided, he trusts in me. Acheter de —, to buy upon trust. Marchandises de —, reliable articles. Homme de —, trustworthy man; || confidential man. Une personne de —, trustworthy person, confidential agent. Place de —, place of confidence. Endormir la — de quelqu'un, to lull a person into security. 3 (assurance, hardiesse) confidence, boldness, assurance, security. Ayez plus de —, be more confident. Il manque de —, he wants assurance. Marcher au combat avec —, to march boldly to the fight.

3 (présomption) confidence, self-conceit.
Être plein de —, to be full of self-conceit.
Se donner des airs de —, to give one's self conceited airs. 5 law. Abus de —, breach of trust.

CONFIAINT, kong-fyang, ppr. of CONFIER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 (disposé à la confiance) confiding. Vous êtes trop —, you are too confiding. 2 (présomptueux) confident. Il a l'air — et plein de lui-même, he has a conceited and self-sufficiency look.

CONFIDEMENT, kong-fe-dah-mang, adv. confidentially, in all confidence.

CONFIDENCE, kong-fe-dangs, sf. (Lat. confidentia) 1 (communication) secret. Faire une — à quelqu'un, to trust a person with a secret. Faire — de quelque chose, to confide a thing. Recevoir une —, to be intrusted with a secret. Être dans la —, to be in the secret. Mettre quelqu'un dans la —, to let a person into the secret. 2 (confiance intime, intimacy). Il est très-ami dans la — du prince, he is deep in the intimacy of the prince. 3 can. law. trust. Bénéfice en —, par —, a thing kept in trust.

EN CONFIDENCE, adv. loc. as a secret. Il m'a dit cela en —, he told me that as a secret.

CONFIDENT, kong-fe-dang, sm. fem. —, 4 confident. C'est son —, he is his confident. fig. poetic. Le jour et la lumière des sinistres projets sont mauvais —, dark projects will not bear the approach of light. Muss. 2 (dans la tragédie) confident. Jouer les —s, to play the part of the confidants. 3 adjectiv. absol. confidential, intimate.

CONFIDENTIEL, kong-fe-dang-syel, adj. m. fem. —, 1 confidential.

CONFIDENTIELLEMENT, kong-fe-dang-syel-pang, adv. confidentially.

CONFIE, ppa. of CONFIER, fem. —, adjectiv. trusted, intrusted. Vos capitaux —s en mes mains ont profité, the capital you intrusted to me has increased. Ab.

CONFIER, kong-fyay, va. (Lat. confidere) 1 (to intrust (to, with), to commit, to confide (to)). Il courut chercher du sel en confiant la poêle à mes soins, he ran to fetch some salt, trusting me with the frying-pan. Ab. — un dépôt, to intrust with a deposit. Je te confie G. en mourant, I trust G. to your charge on my death-bed. Balz. Il avait confié le soin de ses intérêts à un homme d'une capacité fort douteuse, he had intrusted the care of his interests to a man of doubtful capacity. Sand. C'est un secret que je confie à votre foi, I rely upon your good faith to keep that as a secret. Je lui ai confié l'éducation de mes enfants, I intrusted him with the education of my children. fig. Le ciel m'a confié ton cœur, heaven has given me your heart in keeping. Muss. 2 (lire en confiance) to tell in confidence, to confide. Je lui avais confié mes peines, mes projets, mes espérances, I had confided to him my sorrows, my projects, my hopes. 3 fig. Jupiter a confié à la pitié le cœur de la jeunesse, Jupiter formed the heart of youth for pity. Chat. — une chose à sa mémoire, to commit a thing to memory. — sa fortune, sa destinée au hasard, to commit one's fortune, one's destiny, to chance. — des sentences à la terre, to sow seed in the earth. C'est un secret qu'il est dangereux de — au papier, it is a secret that is dangerous to commit to paper.

SE CONFIER, ppr. 1 (to trust (in), to put, to repose one's trust (in), to commit one's self (to), to trust (to), to rely (on)). Se — en la Providence, to trust, to put one's trust in Providence. Se — en soi-même, en ses forces, to trust in one's self, to one's strength. La mésange se confie au vent pour bercer sa famille, the tom-tit trusts her family to the rocking of the wind. Nich. Se — au hasard, to trust to chance. 2 recipr. to confide to each other, to trust to each other.

CONFIGURATION, kong-fe-gû-rah-syong, sf. configuration, shape.

CONFIGURÉ, ppa. of CONFIGURER, fem. —, adjectiv. configured, shaped.

CONFIGURER, kong-fe-gû-ray, va. to configure.

CONFINE, ppa. of CONFIER, fem. —, adjectiv. confined. C'est la que l'on — E., it was there that G. was confined. Saint.

CONFINER, kong-fe-nay, va. to confine, to border upon. La prairie qui confine à la forêt, the meadow that borders upon the forest. Ce pays confine avec la France, that country borders upon France.

CONFINER, va. to confine, to shut up, to immerse. On l'a confiné dans un couvent, he has been shut up in a convent.

SE CONFINER, ppr. to confine one's self, to shut one's self up. Il s'y confina pour le reste de ses jours, he there shut himself up for the remainder of his days. Nod.

CONFINIS, kong-long, sm. pl. confines, borders, frontiers, boundaries, marches. Les — d'un État, d'une province, the borders of a state, of a province. fig. Aux — du monde, de la terre, to the remotest corners of the earth.

CONFIRE, kong-feer, va. (Lat. conficere) CONFISANT; CONFIT; JE CONFIS, TO CONFIS, IL CONFIT, VOUS CONFISEZ, VOUS CONFISEZ, ILS CONFISENT; JE CONFISAI; JE CONFISAI, VOUS CONFISAI; JE CONFISAI, TO PRESERVE, TO PICKLE. — à l'eau-de-vie, to preserve in brandy. — au vinaigre, to pickle. — des abricots, to preserve apricots. — des cornichons, to pickle gherkins.

SE CONFIRE, ppr. (être confit) to be preserved, to be pickled.

CONFIRMATIF, kong-feer-diat-if, adj. m. fem. CONFIRMATIVE, law. Arrêt —, confirming decree.

CONFIRMATION, kong-feer-mah-syong, sf. 1 law confirmation. La — d'une sentence, d'un arrêt, the confirmation of a sentence, of a decree. 2 (certitude) confirmation. C'est à besoin de —, mérite —, this wants confirmation. 3 rhet. confirmation. 4 theol. confirmation. Recevoir la —, to receive confirmation.

CONFIRMÉ, ppa. of CONFIRMER, fem. —, adjectiv. confirmed.

CONFIRMER, kong-feer-may, va. 1 (to confirm, to strengthen). Les persécutions ne servent qu'à — l'Église naissante, persecutions served only to strengthen the early Church. 2 (faire persister dans une opinion) to confirm. Cela m'a fait que me — dans mon opinion, that did but confirm me in my opinion. 3 (ratifier) to confirm, to ratify. Je ne confirmait ce qui avait été fait depuis trois ans, the king confirmed what had been done during the three preceding years. Bar. Loin de vouloir toucher à vos prérogatives, je suis décidé à les —, far from trying hands on your prerogatives, I am resolved to confirm them. Sand. — une sentence, un jugement, to confirm a sentence, a judgment. — un acte, to confirm an act. 4 (prouver plus fortement) to confirm, to corroborate. Son témoignage confirme le vôtre, his evidence corroborates yours. L'expérience confirme sa théorie, experience confirms his theory. Les apôtres confirmèrent leur mission par des miracles, the apostles confirmed their mission by miracles. 5 (assurer la vérité) to confirm, to certify. Le notaire fut obligé de lui — la nouvelle du décès, the notary was obliged to confirm to him the news of the disaster. Balz. B. à qui je confirmai ce que mon ambassadeur avait dit, B. to whom I confirmed what my ambassador had said. Le Sage. 6 theol. to confirm. — quelqu'un, to confirm a person; || fig. fam. to give a person a box on the ears, a slap on the face.

SE CONFIRMER, ppr. 1 (to be confirmed, to be strengthened). Je me confirme tous les jours dans l'idée que, I am every day confirmed in the idea that. Se — dans une résolution, to be confirmed in a resolution. Ce malade pourra en rechapper si le mieux se confirme, that patient may recover if he continues to get better. 2 (devenir certain) to be confirmed, to prove true. Ce bruit se confirme, that report is confirmed. Mes soupçons se sont confirmés pas, my suspicions proved to be unfounded.

CONFISCABLE, kong-fis-kabl', adj. mf. confiscable, liable to confiscation, to forfeiture.

CONFISCATION, kong-fis-kah-syong, sf. 4 confiscation. La — des biens, the confiscation of property. 2 (biens confisqués) confiscated goods, property.

CONFISSEUR, kong-fis-zubr, sm. fem. CONFISEUSE, confectioneer.

CONFISQUÉ, ppa. of CONFISQUEUR, fem. —, adjectiv. confiscated. fig. fam. C'est un homme —, he is a dead man, he is ruined.

CONFISQUEUR, kong-fis-kay, va. 1 (to confiscate (by extension) Son professeur lui a confisqué ce livre, his professor took that book away from him as a forfeit. 2 com. law. to confiscate, to seize upon.

CONFIT, kong-fe, ppa. of CONFIRE, fem. —, adjectiv. preserved, pickled. Fruits —s, preserved fruit. (by extension) Fruits —s sur l'arbre, mellow fruit. fig. fam. — en dévotion, steeped in devotion. Il n'y eut jamais de glorieuses plus — en modestie, never did a prouder woman affect greater modesty. Sic-B.

CONFITEOL, kong-fe-tay-or, sm. (Lat.) Confiteor. Dire son —, to say one's Confiteor. fig. to acknowledge one's fault.

CONFITURE, kong-fe-tur, sf. preserve, jam. Un pot de —, a pot of preserves. Une tartine de —, a slice of bread and jam.

CONFUSION, kong-fah-grah-syong, sf. 4 confogration. 2 fig. tumult, confusion.

CONFLIT, kong-flee, sm. 4 conflict, shock. Le — de deux armées, the conflict of two armies. Le pigeon proflita — des voleurs, the pigeon profited by the quarrel of the robbers. La Font. 3 fig. conflict, strygle. Le — des intérêts, des opinions, des passions. Le — de deux poésies, the rivalry of two sorts of poetry. Sic-B. 3 law. conflict.

CONFLUENT, kong-flu-ang, sm. (Lat. confluent) geog. confluence, confluz.

CONFLUENT, adj. m. fem. —, 1 med. confluent. 2 bot. Feuilles —es, confluent leaves.

CONFONDRE, kong-fongdr', va. (Lat. confundere) 1 (to confound, to mingle, to blend). La mort confond tous les rangs, death levels all distinctions of rank. Les deux rivières confondent leurs eaux, those two rivers mingle their waters. En vain elle a mis tous ses soins à — la voie, it vain she tried to throw the dogs off the scent. La Font. 3 fig. Nous ne flûtes que — nos soupçons et nos larmes, we did nothing but mingle our sighs and tears. Le Sage. 2 (ne pas distinguer) to confound. Il ne faut pas — l'innocent et le coupable, avec le coupable, the innocent must not be involved with the guilty. Il est permis de — les rêves avec la réalité, it is allowed to confound dreams with reality. Lamart. Il ne faut pas — ces deux choses, those two things must not be confounded together. 3 (causer un grand étonnement) to confound, to baffle. Cela confond toutes mes idées, that confuses all my ideas. Cela m'a confondu d'étonnement, that has overwhelmed me with astonishment. 4 (to confound, to humiliate) to confound, to put out of countenance. Dieu confondit son orgueil, God confounded his pride. — un imposteur, to confound an impostor. fig. Vous me confondez, you put me to the blush. Vos politesses, vos bontés me confondent, your politeness, your kindness put me out of countenance. 5 (réduire au silence) to confound, to put down. Voilà un argument propre à le —, that is an argument well calculated to put him down. Cette déposition confondit l'accusé, this evidence confounded the prisoner. fig. — l'erreur, l'hérésie, le mensonge, to confute error, heresy, falsehood.

SE CONFONDERE, vpr. 1 to be confounded, to be mingled, to be blended. Il se confondait dans la foule, he was lost in the crowd. 2 (être pris l'un pour l'autre) to be taken for, to be mistaken for. 3 (être troublé, déconcerté) to be confounded, confused, disturbed. Plus j'y réfléchis, plus mes idées se confondent, the more I reflect, the more my ideas become confused. 4 Se — en excuses, to be lost in apologies.

CONFONDU, konf-fong-dû, ppa. of CONFONDERE, fem. —, adjectiv. 1 confounded, mixed, blended. — dans la foule, lost in the crowd. La mer y paraissait — avec le ciel, the sea appeared blended with the sky. B. de St-P. 2 confused, bewildered, thunderstruck. A cette question l'accusé fut —, at this question the prisoner became confused.

CONFORMATION, konf-fong-mah-syong, sf. conformation. Vierge de —, original bodily defect, constitutional defect.

CONFORTABLE, konf-fong, adj. mf. 1 comfortable (to). La copie est — à l'original, the copy is conformable to the original. Pour copie —, conformable to the original. 2 fig. conformable (to), suitable (to), consistent (with).

CONFORTÉ, ppa. of CONFORTER, fem. —, adjectiv. 1 comforted, relieved. Être bien —, to be well, badly made.

CONFORMEMENT, konf-fong-mah-syong, adv. conformably (to), agreeably (to).

CONFORMER, konf-fong-may, ra. to. conformer. — ses sentiments à ceux de quelqu'un, to conform one's sentiments to those of another.

SE CONFORMER, vpr. to conform (to), to comply (with), to conform one's self (to). R. avait été obligé de prendre une femme pour se — aux mœurs indiennes, R. had been obliged to take a wife in compliance with the Indian manners. Chat. Il sot tromper ma douleur en s'y conformant, he beguiled my grief by sharing it. Le Sage. Ses superbes convièrs semblaient se — à sa triste pensée, his proud steeds seemed to partake of the sadness of his thoughts. Rac.

CONFORTISTE, konf-fong-mist, s. mf. conformist. Non —, non-conformist, dissenter.

CONFORTITÉ, konf-fong-me-tay, sf. 1 conformity, similarity, resemblance. — d'esprit, d'humeur, de goûts, conformity of temper, of tastes. La — d'une chose avec une autre, the conformity of one thing to another. 2 La — aux décrets de la Providence, submission to the decrees of Providence.

SE CONFORTER, adv. loc. according (to), conformably (to), in compliance (with). Il a agi en — de vos ordres, he has carried out your orders.

CONFORT, konf-fong, sm. 1 (little used) assistance, help, comfort. 2 (bien-être, aisance) comfort. Aimer le —, to be fond of one's comforts.

CONFORTABLE, CONFORTABLE, konf-fong-tah-l', adj. mf. comfortable.

CONFORTABLE, sm. comfort. Aimer le —, to like to have every thing comfortable. Le goût du —, a taste for comfort.

CONFORTABLEMENT, konf-fong-tah-bluh-mang, adv. comfortably.

CONFORTANT, konf-fong-tang, 1 adj. m. fem. —, med. corroborative. 2 sm. Un —, a corroborant.

CONFORTATIF, konf-fong-tat-if, adj. m. fem. confortative. 1 med. strengthening, corroborative. 2 sm. corroborant.

CONFORTÉ, ppa. of CONFORTER, fem. —, adjectiv. comforted, strengthened.

CONFORTER, konf-fong-tay, ra. obsol. 1 (fortifier) to comfort, to strengthen. 2 fig. to comfort, to console. — les affligés, to comfort the afflicted.

CONFRATERNITE, konf-frah-tay-ne-tay, sf. confraternity.

CONFRÈRE, konf-fray, sm. 1 (membre d'une confrérie) confrer. 2 (membre d'une compagnie) colleague, fellow-member, brother.

CONFRÈRIE, konf-fray-ree, sf. fraternity, confraternity, brotherhood.

CONFRONTATION, konf-fong-tah-syong, sf. crim. law. confrontation, comparison, comparing. La — des accusés, the confrontation of the prisoners. La — des écritures fit reconnaître le faux, when the writings were compared, the forgery was detected. Par là — des passages, it moutra que, by collating the passages he showed that.

CONFRONTÉ, ppa. of CONFRONTER, fem. —, adjectiv. confronted. Les accusés ont été —, the prisoners have been confronted.

CONFRONTER, konf-fong-tay, ra. (from front) 1 crim. law. to confront. — les témoins à l'accusé, avec l'accusé, to confront the witnesses with the accused person. 2 fig. (comparer) to confront, to compare. — la copie à l'original, to compare the copy with the original.

CONFUS, konf-fû, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. confusus) 1 absol. law. confounded. 2 (mêle ensemble) confused, jumbled together. Un assemblage — d'éléments, a confused assemblage of elements. Un amas — de livres, a confused heap of books. 3 (des sons, des impressions, of sounds, of impressions) confused. 4 (des idées, du style, des facultés, etc., of thoughts, style, faculties, etc.) confused, indistinct. 5 (des personnes, of persons) confused, abashed. Il resta —, he remained confused, he stood abashed. Il était tout — de sa méprise, he was quite confused at his mistake. Je suis — de vos bontés, I am confused at your kindness.

CONFUSEMENT, konf-fû-zay-mang, adv. confusedly.

CONFUSION, konf-fû-zhyong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (désordre) confusion, disorder. Ses papiers, ses livres sont dans une —, his papers, his books are in the greatest confusion. La — se mit dans les rangs de l'armée, disorder crept into the ranks of the army. Dans les temps de trouble et de —, in times of trouble and confusion. 2 (des choses de l'esprit, of the faculties of the mind) confusion, confusedness. La — des idées, confusion in the ideas. Il y avait au peu de — dans ce qu'il nous a dit, there was something rather confused in what he told us. 3 (action de prendre une chose pour l'autre) confusion, mistake. Vous faites une — de noms, you mistake one name for the other. Il y a là une — de dates, de lieux, there is a confusion of dates, of places. 4 absol. (grande abondance) profusion, abundance. 5 (embarras) confusion, shame. Il a eu la — de ne pouvoir répondre à cette difficulté, he had the mortification of not being able to solve this difficulty. Vous l'ounges me donnet de la —, your praises put me to the blush. 6 law. confusion.

EN CONFUSION, adv. loc. 1 confusedly, in disorder. Marcher en —, to march in disorder. Tout est en — dans sa chambre, every thing is in disorder in his room. 2 obsol. in profusion.

À LA CONFUSION DE, prep. loc. to the shame of, to the confusion of, to the vexation of.

CONFUTATION, konf-fû-tah-syong, sf. confutation, refutation.

CONGE, konf-zhay, sm. 1 absol. (permission) leave, permission. Se marier sans le — de ses parents, to marry without the permission of one's parents. 2 mil. fur- lough, leave of absence. Donner — à un soldat, to furlough a soldier. — définitif, discharge. 3 (permission d'absence) leave of absence. Cet ambassadeur, ce député, cet employé, ce domestique a demandé un —, that ambassador, deputy, clerk, servant, has demanded leave of absence. Il avait obtenu un — de dix jours, he had obtained leave of absence for ten days. (specially) Le domestique a demandé son —, this servant has given warning. Ce maître a donné son — à son domestique, this master has given his servant warning. —, this master has discharged his servant. 4 (dans les écoles, in schools) holiday. 5 fig. Donner — à quelqu'un, lui donner son —, to dismiss a person. 6 Prendre —, to take leave. Andiance de —, audience of leave. 7 (de lortions) Donner —, to give warning. Recevoir —, to receive notice to quit. 8 law. — faute de plaider, nonsuiting. 9 excise, clearance, pass, paying off, discharge. 10 naut. pass, passport. 11 arch. conge.

CONGÉDIE, ppa. of CONGÉDIER, fem. —, adjectiv. dismissed.

CONGÉDIER, konf-zhay-dyay, ra. to. dismiss, to discharge, to turn away, to pay off, to discharge. — un domestique, to discharge a servant. — des troupes, to pay off, to disband troops. — un ambassadeur, to dismiss an ambassador.

CONGELATEUR, konf-zhay-lat-ubr, sm. refrigerator.

CONGÉLATION, konf-zhay-lab-syong, sf. 1 phys. congelation, congelation. 2 med. congelation. 3 —, pl. — s pierceuses, calc-tuff. 4 —, pl. arch. imitation icicle.

CONGÉLÉ, ppa. of CONGELER, fem. —, adjectiv. congealed.

CONGELER, ra. 1 to congeal. 2 fig. to congeal, to clot.

SE CONGELER, vpr. 1 to congeal. 2 fig. to be congealed.

CONGENÈRE, konf-zhay-nay, adj. mf. 1 nat. list. congeneric, congeneric, congenericous. 2 anat. Muscles —, congeneric muscles.

CONGENÈRE, s. mf. congenarian.

CONGENIAL, konf-zhay-nyal, CON- GENITAL, konf-zhay-ne-tal, adj. m. fem. —, med. congenial, congenite, connate.

CONGESTION, konf-zhays-tyong, sf. physiol. med. congestion, determination of blood.

CONGESTIONNÉ, ppa. of CONGESTIONNER, fem. —, adjectiv. La tête est encore un peu —, there is still a slight determination of blood to the head.

CONGESTIONNER, konf-zhays-tyon-nay, ra. med. to cause a determination of blood.

CONGLOMÉRAT, konf-glo-may-rah, sm. min. conglomerate.

CONGLOMÈRE, ppa. of CONGLOMÉRER, fem. —, adjectiv. 1 anat. Glande —, conglomerate gland. 2 bot. conglomerate, clustered.

CONGLOMÉRER, konf-glo-may-ray, ra. phys. to conglomerate.

SE CONGLOMÉRER, vpr. to conglomerate.

CONGLUTINANT, konf-glû-te-nang, adj. m. fem. —, med. obsol. conglutinant.

CONGLUTINATION, konf-glû-te-nab-syong, sf. med. conglutination.

CONGLUTINER, konf-glû-te-nay, ra. to. to conglutinate.

SE CONGLUTINER, vpr. to conglutinate.

CONGRATULATION, konf-grat-ù-lab-syong, sf. (Lat.) congratulation.

CONGRATULER, konf-grat-fû-lay, ra. (Lat.) to congratulate.

CONGRÉ, konf-gr', sm. ich. conger, conger-eel.

CONGRÉGANISTE, konf-gray-gan-ist, s. mf. member of a lay congregation directed by ecclesiastics.

CONGRÉGATION, kong-gray-gah-syong, sf. congregation. — d'hommes, de filles, society of friars, of nuns. La — des frères, the whole Church.

CONGRÈS, kong-gray-am. (Lat.) 1 (réunion de ministres) congress. 2 (aux Etats-Unis) congress. 3 (réunion de savants, etc.) congress.

CONGRU, kong-grü, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. congruus) 1 cap. law. congruous, sufficient, suitable, proper. Portion — e., proper allowance. 2 theol. Grâce — e., congruous grace. 3 ohsol. Phrase, réponse — e., suitable phrase, answer. 4 math. Nombre — e., congruous number.

CONGRUITÉ, kong-grü-e-tay, sf. theol. congruity.

CONGRUMENT, kong-grü-mang, adv. ohsol. congruously, properly, suitably.

CONFÈRE, kong-no-eyr, adj. mf. hot. confers.

CONFÈRES, kong-no-eyr, sm. pl. hot. confers.

CONIQUE, kong-ik, adj. mf. 1 conic, conical. Miroir — conical mirror. 2 geom. Sections — s., conic sections, conics.

CONJECTURAL, kong-zhek-tü-ral, adj. m. fem. — E. conjectural.

CONJECTURALEMENT, kong-zhek-tü-ral-mang, adv. conjecturally.

CONJECTURE, kong-zhek-tü-r, sf. (Lat.) conjecture, surmise, guess. Former, faire des — s., to form, to make conjectures. Si je ne me trompe dans mes — s., unless I am mistaken in my conjectures. Se perdre en — s., to lose one's self in conjectures.

CONJECTURE, ppa. of CONJECTURER, fem. — E. adjective, conjectured.

CONJECTURER, kong-zhek-tü-ray, ra. to conjecture, to guess, to surmise. — la perte de quelqu'un, to conjecture the ruin of a person. Je conjecture de la que, from thence I conjecture that. Ils tâchaient de — le contenu de la lettre, they tried to guess what the letter contained. Balz. Il me conjectura que le poison l'avait délivré de, he supposed that poison had relieved him from. Ab.

CONJOINDRE, kong-zhwangr, ra. conj. to join, to unite. (Lat. conjungere) to conjoin, to join, to unite.

CONJOINT, kong-zhwang, ppa. of CONJOINDRE, fem. — E. adjective. 1 mas. Degré — e., conjoint degree. 2 arith. Règle — e., chain-rule.

CONJOINT, sm. Les futurs — s., the bride and bridegroom.

CONJOINTEMENT, kong-zwaot-mang, adv. conjointly, jointly, together.

CONJOINTIF, kong-zhong-ik, adj. m. fem. conjunctive, gramm. conjunctive.

CONJUNCTION, kong-zhong-syong, sf. 1 union. 2 astr. conjunction. 3 gramm. conjunction.

CONJUNCTIVE, kong-zhong-k-tiv, sf. anat. conjunctiva.

CONJUNCTURE, kong-zhong-ik, sf. conjuncture. Les — s. de la vie, the conjunctures of life.

CONJUGAISON, kong-zhu-gay-zong, sf. 1 gramm. conjugation. 2 anat. — des nerfs, conjugation of nerves.

CONJUGAL, kong-zhu-gal, adj. m. fem. — e. conjugal, conjugal, matrimonial. Lier — e., conjugal tie. Foi — e., conjugal faith.

CONJUGALEMENT, kong-zhu-gal-mang, adv. conjugally, conjugal, matrimonially.

CONJUGER, ppa. of CONJUGER, fem. — E. 1 adjective, conjugated. 2 bot. Feuilles — es., conjugate leaves.

CONJUGER, kong-zhu-gay, ra. to conjugate.

SE CONJUGER, rpr. to be conjugated.

CONJURATION, kong-zhu-rak-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 conjuration, conspiracy. 2 theol. exorcism. 3 (by extension) conjuration, incantation. 4 — s., pl. (by extension) entreaties.

CONJURÉ, ppa. of CONJURER, fem. — E.

adjective. 1 leagued, conspired against. Puisse-tous ses voisins ensemble — s., may all their neighbours leagued together. Corn. 2 (substantif.) conspirator.

CONJURER, kong-zhu-ray, ra. (Lat. conjurare) 1 to conspire, to plot. Ils avaient conjuré la perte de Rome, they had conspired the destruction of Rome. — la perte de quelqu'un, the ruin of a person. fig. Comme si tout se fit conjurer contre C. Saint. 2 theol. had conspired against C. Saint. 2 theol. to exorcise. 3 (exarter) to charm away. 4 fig. to deprecate, to turn aside, to avert. Sa charité sera impuissante à — les haines que vous aurez soulevées, her charity will be powerless to turn aside the hatred you will have provoked. Sand. l'hor — le danger, it would do, to ward off the danger, he ought to have said. — l'orage, la tempête, to lay the storm. — la colère céleste, to deprecate divine wrath. 5 (prier) to conjure, to implore, to entreat. Je vous conjure de venir à mon aide, I conjure you to come to my assistance. Je vous en conjure, I conjure you.

CONJURER, rm. 1 to conspire, to plot. — couvrir sa patrie, to conspire against one's country. 2 (by extension) — contre quelqu'un, to conspire against a person.

CONNAISSABLE, ko-nays-sabl, adj. mf. (is only employed with a negation) Il n'est plus —, he is no longer to be recognized.

CONNAISSANCE, ko-nays-sangs, sf. 1 (idée, notion) knowledge, acquaintance, notion. Avoir — d'un fait, to be aware of a fact. Je n'en ai aucune —, I have no knowledge of it. Cela est venu à ma —, it has come within my knowledge. approfondie, artificielle, a thorough knowledge, a slight notion. La — du bien et du mal, the knowledge of good and evil. Il a une grande — du cœur humain, he has a great insight into the human heart. Il a une parfaite — du pays, he is perfectly acquainted with the country. Avoir une grande — des affaires, to be well versed in business. Avoir une grande — des tableaux, des pierres, etc., to have a thorough knowledge of pictures, precious stones, etc. Avec la — qu'elle avait de la ville, being so familiar with the place. Saint. Prendre — à tout, to study a thing, an affair, to look into. Parler, agir en — de cause, to speak, to act with a thorough knowledge of the matter. Une grande — des choses et des temps, a thorough knowledge of things and events. Mich. Quand il eut — du refus de, when he was acquainted with the refusal of. Saint. Il est à ma — que, it is to my knowledge that. 2 sf. pl. absol. (notions acquises) learning, acquirements, attainments, information. Il a, il possède des — s tres-variées, he has a varied stock of learning. Le cercle de des — s, the circle of human knowledge. Dans l'état actuel de nos — s, in the present state of learning. 3 (liaison) acquaintance. Je le tiens d'un bachelier de ma —, I know it from a bachelor of my acquaintance. Le Sage. Faire — avec quelqu'un, to get acquainted with a person. Faire la — de quelqu'un, to make a person's acquaintance. Une figure de —, the face of an old acquaintance. La — sera bientôt faite, you will soon be friends. Saint. prov. Être, se trouver en pays de —, to be among old acquaintances. 4 (personne que l'on connaît) acquaintance. Ce n'est pas un ami, c'est une —, he is not a friend, he is an acquaintance. Je n'aime pas à faire de nouvelles — s, I don't like to make new acquaintances. pop. Faire que —, to enter upon a love-intrigue. 5 (conscience de nous-même, usage des facultés) senses, judgment. Perdre —, to swoon, to faint away, to become senseless. Récouvrer —, to recover one's senses, to come to one's self. Être en âge de —, to be arrived at the age of discretion. 6 law. connaissance. 7 naut. Avoir — d'un navire, avoir — de la route, to descry a ship, to descry land. 8 — s., pl. ven. print. 9 — des temps, nautical almanack.

CONNAISSANT, ko-nays-sang, ppr. of CONNAÎTRE, adj. m. law. knowing. Gens à ce — people, people expert, skilled in this.

CONNAISSEMENT, ko-nays-mang, sm. com. law. bill of lading.

CONNAISSEUR, ko-nays-suhr, sm. fem. CONNAISSEUSE, 1 connaisseur, judge. Le Sage. — en tableau, en livres, connaisseur in pictures, in books. 2 adjective. Il porta un œil — sur ce tableau, he viewed the painting with the eye of a connoisseur.

CONNAÎTRE, ko-naytr, ra. CONNAISSANT; CONNÊTRE; JE CONNAIS, IL CONNAÎT, NOUS CONNAISSONS; JE CONNAISSAIS; JE CONNUS, NOUS CONNÛMES; JE CONNAÎTRAIS; JE CONNAÎTRAIS; QUE JE CONNAISSE; QUE JE CONNUSSE, (Lat. cognoscere) 4 (avoir l'idée ou la notion de) to know and erit. Je bien et le mal, to know good and evil. Dieu, to know God. Je connais ma route, I know my way. Tout le monde connaît votre manière d'agir, every body shall be acquainted with your way of proceeding. Je ne le connais que de nom, I only know him by name. Elles avaient connu des jours meilleurs, they had known better days. Sand. Dieu seul a le droit de — nos bonnes œuvres, God alone must know our good actions. Balz. Faire — son opinion, sa volonté, to make one's opinion, one's will known. Qui voudrait vivre s'il connaissait l'avenir? who would wish to live if he knew the future? B. de St-P. J'appris à — la mort sur les lèvres de celui qui m'avait donné la vie, I learnt to understand what death was by losing my father. Chat. Je ne connais qu'une chose, c'est de —, all I know is. (des animaux, of animals) Le chien connaît son maître, the dog knows its master. Notre cheval connaissait son chemin, our horse knew his way. Ne — que son devoir, that the loi, que les règles, to heed nothing but one's duty, the law, the rule. Ne — que son intérêt, to consider nothing but one's interest. 2 (savoir par l'étude, être instruit dans) to know, to be acquainted with. une science, un métier, un art, une langue, etc., to know a science, a trade, an art, a tongue, etc. — les hommes, to know men. — un pays, une ville, to be acquainted with a country, a town. — à fond, to be thoroughly acquainted with, versed in. Je ne connais que cela, I know nothing else. absol. Le désir de — le thirst for knowledge. Lis ne connaissait rien des choses de la mer, they understood nothing of the things of the sea. Mich. 3 (apprendre, être informé) to know, to learn. Ils désiraient vivement — par quel malheur un Européen bien né... they were impatient to know through what misfortune an European of high birth... Chat. J'ai connu par cette lettre que, I learned by this letter that. Votre lettre m'a fait — que, your letter apprized me that. Tout le monde connaît sa charité, every body knew her charity. Mich. 4 (avoir des relations) to know, to be acquainted with. Je l'ai connu à Paris, I knew him in Paris. Mon frère connaît plusieurs banquiers de la ville, my brother is acquainted with several bankers in the town. Ab. Mon père, que j'ai à peine connu, my father whom I scarcely knew. Nod. Je vous le ferai —, I will introduce you to him. Je ne connais autre, I know him as well as myself. Je le connais de vue, de nom, I know him by sight, by name. fam. Je ne le connais ni d'Ève ni d'Adam, I have not the slightest acquaintance with him. fig. Ne point —, ne plus — quelqu'un, to stop at nothing, to

no bounds. fam. Quand il s'agit de son intérêt, il ne connaît plus ni parents, ni amis, il ne connaît rien, il ne connaît plus rien, when his interest is in question relations and friends are strangers to him, he considers nothing. Ne plus — quelqu'un, to have no more acquaintance with a person. Rome vous a nommé, je ne vous connais plus, Rome has chosen you, I know you no more. Corn. prov. Il est connu comme le loup blanc, he is the common talk of the town. 5 (des personnes, of persons) to know. Je le connais bien, je sais ce dont il est capable, I know him well, I know what he is capable of. Je saurais bien le faire —, I shall make known what sort of person he is. Je le connais honnête homme, I know him to be an honest man. Plus au ciel que nous reconnaissons l'homme à qui nous avons affaire I would to Heaven we knew the man we have to deal with! Mich. Il gague à être connu, he improves upon acquaintance. 6 (discerner, reconnaître) to know, to recognize, to discern, to perceive. Je le connaissais entre mille, I should know him among a thousand. Je le connus à la voix, I knew him by his voice. fig. — son monde, to know what people are. La nuit était si obscure que l'on ne pouvait — personne, the night was so dark that we could discern nobody. Le moineur à ces mots connaît son ignorance, the miller at these words perceives his ignorance. La Font. Il connaît bien ce S. avait plus peur que lui d'aller habiter ... he well perceived that S. was more afraid than he of going to live ... G. Sand. Son style est aisé —, his style is easily recognized. 7 (sentir, éprouver) to know, to feel, to experience. C'est à peine si dans ce pays on connaît l'hiver, there is scarcely any winter felt in this country. Un peuple qui n'a jamais connu l'esclavage, a people that has never known what slavery is. Elle connaît le bonheur d'avoir une robe fraîche, she tasted the pleasure of having a new gown. Balz. Pour la première fois je connus la douleur, for the first time I knew what grief was. Muss. 8 (pratiquer une chose, s'y soumettre) to know, to acknowledge. En France on ne connaît pas cet usage, that custom is not known in France. Elle ne connaît pas les mauvaises pensées, her breast never harbours a bad thought. V. Hg. Sa bonté ne connaît pas de bornes, her kindness, is unbounded. (by analogy) Ce cheval connaît la bride, l'éperon, this horse knows the bit, the spur. Ne point — de maître, de supérieur, to acknowledge no master, no superior. Ne — ni Dieu ni Diable, to be an utter stranger to religion. 9 law. (intransitif.) — de, to take cognizance.

SE CONNAÎTRE, vpr. 1 (to know one's self. Connaître-oui lui-même, know thyself. Il faut apprendre à se —, one must learn to know one's self. Il ne se connaît pas, he is beside himself. Nul ne se connaît tant qu'il n'a pas souffert, nobody knows himself so long as he has not suffered. Muss. 2 (être reconnu) to be known, to be recognized. Un pédon se peut — au discours que j'avance, a pedant may recognize himself in what I have just said. La Font. 3 recipr. to be acquainted, to know each other, one another. Ils se connaissent de longue date, they had been acquainted for a long time. Ab. Ils s'aimaient quoique se connaissant à peine, they were friends though scarcely acquainted with each other. Saint. 4 Se faire —, to make one's self known; to reveal one's self. Il ne se fit — que sous le nom de, he made himself known, but under the name of. Nod. 5 Se faire —, to show one's self. Il s'est fait — avantageusement, he has appeared in a very advantageous light. 5 Se — à quelque chose, to be a good judge of, to understand well a thing. Il se connaît bien en chevaux, he is a good judge in horse-flesh. Je m'y connais, I understand my business, I know what I am about.

CONNETTABLE, ko-nay-tabl', em. anc. constable, fem. Madame la —, constableness. CONNETTABLE, ko-nay-tab-lee, sf. anc. Fr. hist. constableness, the high constable's court and jurisdiction.

CONNEXE, adj. mf. 1 law. connected, joined. 2 (des sciences, of sciences) connected, joined.

CONNECTION, ko-nek-syong, sf. connection, connexion.

CONNEXITÉ, kon-nek-se-tay, sf. connexion.

CONVIVENCE, kon-ne-ràngs, sf. 1 conviçance, convivency. 2 (by extension) conviçance. Ils étaient de —, they were conviving.

CONVIVENT, kon-ne-ràng, adj. m. fem. —, 1 bot. zool. convivent. 2 anat. Valvules —es, convivent valves.

CONVIVER, kon-ne-vay, vn. to convive (at), to wink (at).

CONNU, ko-nû, ppa. of CONNAÎTRE, fem. —, adjectif. 1 known. Le monde — des anciens, the world known to the ancients. Le plus grand des astres —, the largest of the known stars. C'est un homme —, he is a man well known. Lorsque je fus — pour un homme chéri du doc, when I was known to be the duke's favourite. Le Sage. Polichinelle est — de tout le monde, every body knows Panch. Nod. Succession dont l'importance ne fut — e de personne, an inheritance of which nobody knew the importance. Balz. Ce nom m'est —, I know that name. Un homme dont la fidélité m'est — e, a man whose fidelity I am well assured of. D'une pauvreté bien — e, of well-known poverty. 2 (substantif) known. Aller du — à l'inconnu, to proceed from the known to the unknown.

CONQUE, kong, sf. (Lat. concha) 1 sea-shell, conch. 2 anat. — de l'oreille, concha.

CONQUÉRANT, kong-kay-tàng, ppr. of CONQUÉRIR, 1 em. conqueror, vanquisher. De grands —, great conquerors. fem. Une illustre — e, an illustrious conquerress. 2 adjectif. conquering. Un roi —, a king fond of conquest. fig. fam. Avoir l'air —, to have a killing look.

CONQUÉRIR, kong-kay-teer, ro. conf. like acquérir, 1 to conquer, to subdue, to overcome. — une ville, un pays, un royaume, to conquer a town, a country, a kingdom. 2 fig. to gain, to win. Il fallait de grands efforts pour — la science, great efforts were necessary to gain learning. St-B. Chrétiens, n'oubliez pas que vous devez — le ciel, Christians, do not forget that you have Heaven to gain. — les applaudissements du génie, to win applause from genius. Sand. — la première place, to gain the first place. St-B. Ta première lettre m'a conquis au major, your first letter won me over to the major. Sand. — l'estime, la bienveillance, to gain esteem, good-will. Il aime les résultats, mais il n'est pas de ceux qui les arrachent et les conquièrent, he would hate the end, but he is not one of those who would obtain it by violent efforts. St-B.

CONQUÊTE, kong-kay, em. law. acquisition (during marriage).

CONQUÊTE, kong-kay, sf. 1 conquest. Faire une —, des —s, to make a conquest, conquests. Faire la — d'une province, to make the conquest of a province. fig. Les petites —s d'histoire naturelle que j'avais faites la veille, the slight acquisitions in natural history that I had made the day before. Nod. Les —s de la science, the conquests of science. 2 (galanterie) conquest. Elle me disait qu'il avait fait sa —, she told me he had won her heart. Habitué à des —s faciles, accustomed to easy conquests. Saint. fam. Avoir un air de —, to denote des airs de —, to have a killing look.

CONQUIS, kong-kee, ppa. of CONQUÉRIR, fem. — e, conquered. Pays —, conquered country. fig. Il est tout à fait — à l'esprit général de notre nation, he has thoroughly imbued the spirit of our nation. St-B.

CONSCRANT, kong-sak-ràng, ppr. of CONSCRIVER, 1 adj. m. Evêque —, ordaining, consecrating bishop. 2 (substantif) consecrator, ordainer.

CONSCACRÉ, ppa. of CONSCRIVER, fem. — e, adjectif. consecrated, dedicated. Un temple — à la Victoire, a temple dedicated to Victory. Les lieux —s eux-mêmes n'ont plus rien de respectable pour eux, the consecrated places themselves are no longer respected by them. Nod. Un lieu — à la douleur, a spot sacred to grief. Un usage — par le temps, a custom hallowed, sanctioned by time. Fonds —s à une dépense, funds devoted to an expense. Les heures —es entières à l'étude, whole hours devoted to study. Saint. Une locution — e par l'usage, a turn of expression consecrated by custom. Un terme —, a consecrated expression. Des hosties —es, consecrated hosts.

CONSCRACHER, kong-sak-ray, va. (Lat. consecrare) 1 (dédier) to consecrate, to dedicate. — une église, un autel, to consecrate a church, an altar. — une personne à Dieu, au service des autels, to devote a person to God, to the service of the altar. (by extension) Les anciens avaient consacré l'olivier à Minerve, the ancients had consecrated the olive-tree to Minerva. T. venait de — un trophée à son nom, T. had just dedicated a trophy bearing his name. La Font. 2 (rendre sacré) to consecrate, to hallow. Le sang des martyrs a consacré ce lieu, the blood of martyrs has hallowed that spot. En consacrant mes droits il fera son devoir, by consecrating my rights, he will fulfil his duty. C. Del. 3 (perpétuer) to perpetuate. On consacra cet événement par plusieurs monuments, the memory of that event has been perpetuated by several monuments. 4 (sanctionner) to sanction. Un préjuge que les siècles ont consacré, a prejudice sanctioned by ages. L'usage consacra quelquefois des locutions très-vicieuses, custom sometimes sanctions very vicious forms of speech. 5 (lever) to appropriate, to devote. Il résolut de — sa jeunesse et ses premières armes au service de Dieu, he resolved to devote his youth and his first campaign to the service of God. Bar. — ses veilles à l'étude, to sacrifice one's nights to study. — à quelqu'un son temps, ses soins, to devote one's time to a person, to lavish attention on, to tend a person. Je lui consacrerai tout un paragraphe de la lettre que j'écris, I will devote a whole paragraph to him in the letter I shall write. Ab. — sa vie à Dieu, to devote one's life to God. 6 theol. to consecrate. Le prêtre allait — l'hostie, the priest was going to consecrate the host.

SE CONSCRIVER, vpr. to devote one's self to give one's self up. Se — au service des autels, to devote one's self to the service of the altar. Sur le point de se — à Dieu, il ne lui était pas permis de donner une pensée au monde, on the point of devoting herself to God, she was no longer free to give the world a thought. Chat. Il se consacra tout entier à l'éducation de son neveu, he gave himself wholly up to the education of his nephew. Balz. Se — au service de quelqu'un, to devote one's self to the service of a person.

CONSANGUIN, kong-sàng-gang, adj. in. fem. — e, (Lit.) 1 by the father's side. Frère —, sear — e, brother, sister by the father's side. 2 (substantif) relation b. the father's side. Les utérus et les —s half-blood relations.

CONSANGUINITÉ, kong-sàng-gwe-ne-tay, sf. 1 law. consanguinity. 2 theol. consanguinity.

CONSCIENCE, kong-syàngs, sf. (Lat.)

1 (sentiment de soi-même) consciousness. L'âme a — d'elle-même, the soul is conscious of its own existence. Le sommeil lui avait fait perdre — de, he had lost in sleep the consciousness of. 2 (sentiment intime du bien et du mal) conscience. Suivre les inspirations de sa —, to follow the dictates of one's conscience. Capituler, transiger avec sa —, to compound with one's conscience. Descendre dans sa —, to examine one's conscience. Faire quelque chose pour l'acquies de sa —, to do a thing for conscience sake. Scrupule de —, scruple, qualm of conscience. Le cri, les reproches de la —, the cry, the reproaches of conscience. Remords de —, sting, remorse of conscience. Cas de —, See Cas. Faire — d'une chose, se faire — d'une chose, to scruple to do a thing, to make it a case, a matter of conscience. (by analogy) Il y a de la — à frapper quelqu'un qui ne peut se défendre, it is not fair to strike one who is unable to defend himself. C'est — de le laisser dans l'erreur où il est, it is a matter of conscience to leave him in the error he is in. Ne faites pas cela, il y aurait —, don't do that, it is a case of conscience. Avoir de la —, être homme de —, to be conscientious. fam. Avoir la — large, to have an accommodating conscience. Avoir la — nette, to have a clear conscience. Je mets cela, je laisse cela sur votre —, je m'en remets, je n'en rapporte à votre —, I leave that to your own conscience. Vous amenez cela sur votre — sur la —, you will have that on your conscience. fig. Mettre la main sur sa —, to lay one's hand on one's heart. fig. La main sur la —, candidly, sincerely. Dire tout ce que l'on a sur la —, to make a clean breast of it. En —, en ma —, sur ma —, in conscience, on my conscience. 3 (dans le langage religieux) conscience. Liberté de —, liberty of conscience. 4 print. work paid by the hour, the day. Une journée de —, day-work. 5 print. (la réunion des ouvriers qui travaillent en conscience) compositors paid by the day on the establishment.

EN CONSCIENCE, EN BONNE CONSCIENCE, adv. loc. fairly, loyally.
CONSCIENCEUSEMENT, kong-syang-syuh-mang, adv. conscientiously.
CONSCIENCEUX, kong-syang-syuh, adj. m. fem. conscienceuse, conscientious.
CONSCIENT, kong-syang, adj. m. fem. —e, metaphys. conscient.
CONSCRIPTION, kongs-krip-syong, sf. conscription. Tirer à la —, to draw lots for the conscription.
CONSCRIT, kongs-kree, adj. m. Rom. bist. Peres —s, conscript Fathers.
CONSCRIT, sm. 4 Conscript, raw recruit.
2 ironic. pop. greenhorn.
CONSCRATEUR, kong-say-krat-ulhr, sm. consecrator.
CONSECRATION, kong-say-krah-syong, sf. consecration, dedication.
CONSECUTIF, kong-say-kü-tif, adj. m. fem. consecutif, 1 (se suivant) consecutive, consequential. Par trois dimanches —s, three consecutive Sundays, three Sundays together, running. 2 med. Phénomènes —s de maladies, consecutive phenomena of diseases.
CONSECUTIVEMENT, kong-say-kü-tiv-mang, adv. consecutively.
CONSEIL, kong-say-yuh, sm. 1 (Lat. consilium) counsel, advice, piece of advice. On ne donne rien si libéralement que ses —s, one is always ready to give advice. La Rochef. Demander — à quelqu'un, to ask a person's advice. Pratiquez vos —s, on ne m'en donnez pas, either act in conformity with your advice, or spare them. Corn. Un homme de hon —, a sensible man. Tu sais que je suis de bon —, you know I can give a good piece of advice when necessary. V. Hug. Prenez — de quelqu'un, to consult a person. fig.

Prendre — des événements, to be regulated by events. Ne prendre — que de son amour, de sa haine, etc., to listen only to one's love, one's hatred. (by analogy) N'écouter que les —s de l'intérêt de la vengeance, etc., to listen only to one's interest, one's vengeance. prov. La nuit porte —, take counsel of your pillow. Le roi, counsel. 3 (résolution) resolution. Le — en est pris, the thing is decided upon. 4 —s, pl. (vues, desseins) counsels, design, plan, purpose. La justice préside aux ses —s, justice reigns in his plans. Les —s de Dieu, the counsels of Providence. 5 (personnes) council, counselor. — judiciaire, counselor. 6 (assemblée) council, board, committee. Assembler, réunir le —, to assemble the council. Pendant que le — délibérait, whilst the council was deliberating. Tenir —, to hold a council. — des ministres, cabinet council. — municipal, town council. — d'administration, board of administration. Fr. hist. — des Anciens, des Cinq-Cents, Council of the Ancients. of the Five Hundred. prov. fig. Get homme a bientôt assemblée son —, See ASSEMBLER. 7 (les séances, le lieu) council. Assister au —, to attend a council. Le roi a présidé le —, the king presided at the council. Il allait au —, he was going to the council. Chambre du —, council-chamber. — de guerre, council of war, court-martial.

CONSEILLANT, kong-say-yang, ppr. of conseiller, adj. m. fem. —e, advising, who gives advice. Elle fut la personne essentiellement —e, consolante, she was the very woman for advising and comforting. Si-B.

CONSEILLE, ppa. of conseiller, fem. —s, adjective. advised. Les gens bien —s, well advised people. La Font.

CONSEILLER, kong-say-yay, va. to counsel, to advise. — à quelqu'un de faire une chose, to advise a person to do a thing. — le leur conseil de accepter la paix, to advise them to make peace. Chat. Madame de S. lui conseillait de ne pas se montrer en public, Madame de S. advised her not to show herself publicly. Si-B. Ne vas-tu pas me — de l'aller remercier ? you will advise me next to go and thank him. Sand. — quelqu'un, to advise a person. Il est dangereux de — les grands, it is not safe to advise those who are in power. La Rochef. absol. Un homme qui conseille sagement, a man who gives good advice.

SE CONSEILLER, ppr. 4 (être conseillé) to be counselled, advised. 2 recpr. to counsel, to advise each other. 3 absol. Se — à quelqu'un, to seek counsel from a person.

CONSEILLER, sm. fem. CONSEILLÈRE, 1 counselor, adviser. Un sage —, a wise adviser. fig. Ces —s muets dont se servent les dames, the mirrors, those mute counselors of the fair sex. La Font. fig. L'orgueil en colère est mauvais —, offended pride is not to be trusted. Muss. La faim est une mauvaise conseillère, hunger is a bad adviser. 2 councillor, councillor. — municipal, alderman. — d'État, councillor of State, privy councillor. — à la Cour de cassation, à la Cour impériale, councillor at the court of Cassation, at the Imperial Court. — honoraire, honorary councillor. fem. Madame la conseillère, councillor's lady.

CONSENTANT, kong-sang-tang, ppr. of consentir, adj. m. fem. —e, law. consenting.

CONSENTEMENT, kong-sang-tang-mang, sm. consent, assent. — verbal, par écrit, verbal, written consent. Cela ne s'est pas fait de mon —, that was not done with my consent.

CONSENTI, kong-sang-tee, ppa. of consentir, adjective. fem. —e, consented to, agreed to. Ajournelements —s par les parties, adjournment agreed to on both sides. L'alliance —e par ce prince, the alliance to which that prince had subscribed. Des conditions —es par le roi ne furent pas ratifiées en F., conditions agreed to by the king were not ratified in F. Bar.

CONSENTIR, kong-sang-teer, m. conj. like sentir, 4 to consent, to assent. Je ne veux pas y —, I will not consent to it. J'y consens, I consent to it. Ses parents n'ont pas voulu — à son mariage, his parents would not consent to his marriage. Je consens à ce que vous le fassiez, que vous le fassiez, I consent to your doing it. Je veux prie B. de — à ce que tu passes de son service au mien, I mean to ask B. to let you quit his service for mine. Le Sage. Je consens à me perdre, afin de le sauver, I am satisfied to be ruined if he can be saved. Corn. Avoir consenti à la mort d'un homme, to have assented to the death of a man. Nich. absol. Qui ne dit mot consent, silence gives consent. 2 naut. (d'un mot, of a mast) to spring.

CONSENTIR, va. to consent to. — une vente, un traité, to consent to a sale, to subscribe to a treaty. — des subsides, to grant subsidies. Bar.

CONSEQUENNMENT, kong-say-kah-mang, adv. 1 consistently. 2 (par conséquent) consequently, by, in consequence, pursuant, accordingly, therefore.

CONSEQUENCE, kong-say-kangs, sf. 1 (conclusion) consequence, inference, deduction. Tirer, déduire une chose de, to draw, to deduce a consequence from. Quelle — voulez-vous en tirer ? what do you infer from that ? Cela tire à —, that may be drawn into a precedent. 2 (suites, résultats) consequence, event, result, issue. Cette affaire a eu de tristes —s, that affair was attended with sad consequences. Comprendre toutes les —s d'une démarche, to understand well what a step may lead to. Vous en devez subir les —s, you must abide by the consequences. 3 (importance) consequence, importance, moment. Un homme de —, a man of importance. Le Sage. Une affaire de —, an important affair. Le Sage. Cette affaire est sans —, de nulle —, that affair is of no consequence. Il a des choses de la dernière — à vous dire, he has things to tell you of the greatest, highest, utmost importance. Un Allemand sans —, a German of no importance. Al.

EN CONSEQUENCE, adv. loc. in consequence, accordingly. Il faudra écrire mon rapport en —, shall have to draw up my report accordingly. Ab.

EN CONSEQUENCE DE, prep. loc. in pursuance of, pursuant to, in consequence of.

CONSEQUENT, kong-say-kang, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 consistent. Cette vie partait —e avec elle-même, this life ever consistent with itself. Villem. Être — à ses principes, être — à soi-même, to be consistent with one's principles, with one's self. (by extension) Être — dans ses discours, dans sa conduite, to be consistent in one's language, in one's conduct. Avoir une conduite —e à ses principes, une conduite —e, to be consistent in one's conduct. 2 phys. Points —s, consequent points.

CONSEQUENT, sm. gram. math. phil. consequent.

PAR CONSÉQUENT, conj. loc. consequently, therefore. Et que par —, je ne puis troubler sa besouin, and that, consequently, I cannot disturb your drink. La Font. (elliptic). Vous m'avez donné votre parole, par —, you have given me your word, therefore.

CONSERVATEUR, kong-say-val-ulhr, sm. fem. CONSERVATRICE, 1 preserver, 2 (litre) conservator, commissioner, keeper. — des hypothèques, commissioner of mortgages. — des eaux et forêts, commissioner of woods and forests. — du cabinet des médailles, keeper of the cabinet of medals. 3 (adjectif.) conservative, preservative. Le parti —, the conservative party.

CONSERVATION. kong-say-vab-syong, sf. (Lat.) preservation. Veiller à la-des ses droits, to watch over the preservation of one's rights. Ce tableau est d'une belle —, that painting is well preserved, in fine preservation. 2 — forestièrre, jurisdiction of a commission of woods and forests. 3 — des hypothèques, registration.

CONSERVATOIRE, kung-sayr-waf-wâr,
adj. mf. law. conservatory.

CONSERVATOIRE, sm. 1 anc. orphan asylum. 2 — de musique, le —, Conservatoire. Une élève du —, a pupil of the Conservatoire. 3 — des arts et métiers, Conservatory of arts and sciences.

CONSERVE, kong-sayrv, sf. 1 (confiture sèche) preserve. 2 aliments) preserves, pickles. — de pois, preserved peas. 3 haut. consort, convoy. Aller de —, être de —, naviguer de —, to sail in company. 4 —s, pl. optie. preservers.

CONSERVÉ, ppa. of CONSERVER, fem.
—E, adjectiv. & preserved. Un tableau bien —, a painting in fine preservation.
Cette femme est très-bien —e, that woman carries her age well. 2 pickled. Noix —es dans le vinaigre, pickled walnuts.

CONSERVÉ, kong-say-vay, va. (Lat. conserve) 1 to preserve, to retain, to lay by, to treasure up. Elle a conservé les fleurs données par lui, she has preserved the flowers given by him. Saint. Quelle haine pouvait-elle — contre ce vieillard? what hatred could she retain against that old man? Nod. Un autre a sur mon cœur conservé son empire, my heart is in the keeping of another. La Font. L'olivier, l'oranger, conservent leur verdure éternelle, the olive-tree, the orange-tree preserve a perennial verdure. Mich. Cette jeune fille paraissait à J. une des plus belles dont elle eût conservé le souvenir, that girl appeared to J. one of the most delightful she could ever remember. Nod. Une très-vieille femme qui a conservé par bonheur on par regret quelque sagesse, a very old woman who either by chance or through her strict way of living was not yet quite stiff in her joints. Nod. Ses yeux ouverts conservaient un regard stupide, his open eyes wore a stupid look. Ab. La Touraine a conservé un certain nombre de locutions patriarcales, T has preserved a certain number of patriarchal forms of speech. C. Sand. Conservé de la raison pour ceux qui n'en ont pas, kept clear reason for those who have none. Balz. — sa place, to keep, to preserve one's place. — l'estime, les bonnes grâces de quelqu'un, to preserve the esteem, to remain in the favour of a person. — sa tête, toute sa tête, not to lose one's wits, to enjoy all one's faculties. absol. Le plus difficile n'est pas d'acquiescer, mais de —, the most difficult is not acquiescing, but —, to preserve. 2 (passer sous) to preserve, to maintain. Ces uns vieillirent en ruine qu'on faut —, it is an old ruin that must be preserved. On a bien fait de — cette loi, it was well done to maintain that law. J'ai conservé à mon héros le titre de comte, I have preserved my hero's title of count. Saint. 3 (préserver de la destruction) to preserve, to save. Tous les secours de l'art n'ont pu — à ses amis, all the assistance of art could not preserve him to his friends. L'historien conserve le nom des grands hommes, history preserves the names of great men. 4 (maintenir en bon état) to preserve. La sobriété conserve la santé, temperance preserves the health. Ces lunettes m'ont conservé la vue, those spectacles have preserved my sight. — son honneur intact, to preserve one's honour unblemished. 5 (tenir en réserve) to preserve, to keep.

SE PRESERVER, ppr. 1 (être conservé) to be preserved. Sans doute quelque partialité se conservait en faveur de H., some partiality no doubt still lingered in favour of H. Villem. Le souvenir de cet affreux éventuellement se conservera longtemps, the memory of that frightful event will be long preserved. 2 (veiller à sa conservation) to preserve one's self. 3 (être maintenu, se maintenir en bon état) to be preserved, to keep. Cette année les vins ne se conservent pas, this year the wines will not keep. La végétation se conserve sous la neige, vegetation is preserved under the snow. Saint. Il avait so sé — pur au milieu de la corruption générale, the general corruption had left him uncontaminated. fig. absol. Il lui est bien difficile de sé — au milieu de cette lutte de partis, it is very difficult for him to keep his head above water in the midst of this party-struggle.

CONSIDÉRABLE, long-se-day-rab'l', adj. mf. 1 (important) important, eminent.
Les seigneurs et les dames les plus —, the most illustrious lords and ladies.
Le Sage. Huit jeunes personnes des plus —s de l'île, eight of the most distinguished young ladies of the island. B. de St-P.
Une famille — de cette province, an important family in that province. A. de Chablos, les choses —s sont importantes, the things —s are important. —, une ville —, an important town. —, Une fortune —, a large fortune. Il s'est écoulé un temps —, a considerable time has elapsed. Nos frais sont —s, our expenses are considerable. Ab.

CONSIDÉRABLEMENT, adv. considerably.

CONSIDÉRANT, kong-se-day-râng, ppr. of CONSIDÉRER, sm. law. Les — d'un jugement, the preambles, grounds of a judgment.

CONSIDERATION, kong-se-day-rab-syong, cf. 4 (examen) consideration, meditation, reflection. Cela est digne de —, mérite —, that is worthy of, deserves consideration. 2 (circumspéction) consideration, wariness, consideration. Azir, parler sans —, to act, to speak inconsid-erately. Il n'apporcie aucune —, ni day-ce qu'il dit, ni dans ce qu'il fait, he pays no attention either to what he says, or what he does. 3 (motifs, raisons) consideration, ground, matter, reason. Il ne sera retenu par aucune —, he will be restrained by no consideration. C'est one — qu'il ne faut pas négliger, that is a consideration that must not be overlooked.
4 — s., pl. (ensemble de réflexions) considerations. 5 (égards) consideration, regard. Il n'a de — pour personne, he has no consideration for anybody. C'est en notre — qu'il l'a fait, he did it for your sake. C'est par — pour vous qu'il ne l'a pas fait, it was out of consideration for you that he did not do it. Cela est peu de —, this is of little importance.
Mettre, faire entrer, prendre quelque chose en —, to take a thing into consideration. En — de, in consideration of of regard for, on account of. 6 (pour le sake of) O demanda que la ville, he demanded that the town, in consideration of what it had suffered, etc. Bar. (by extension) Je suis avec —, avec one parlée —, avec one — distinguée, avec une haute
—, I am with the highest regard. 6 (estime) consideration, esteem, importance.
Jouer d'une grande —, to be highly considered. C'est un homme de peu de —, de nulle —, he is a very insignificant man.

—E, considered, weighed, examined. Son mari est également — par les uns et par les autres, all parties agree in paying the same respect to her husband. Balz. Tout bien —, every thing, all things considered.

CONSIDÉRER, kong-se-day-ray, vo. (Lat. considerare) † (regarder attentivement) to look at, to contemplate, to gaze at, to view, to survey. Elle était descendue de cheval pour — une pierre curieuse. she had alighted from her horse to look at a curious stone. Ab. S. me considérant d'un air étourdi. S. gazing at me with an air of astonishment. Villem.

2 fig. (examiner) consider, to weigh. Con-sidérez on pen les avantages que vous en retirerez, just consider the advantages you will derive from it. C'est une affaire qu'il faut — sous toutes ses faces, it is an affair that requires to be examined on every side. Il faut d'abord — le travail que cela demandera, the labour it will require must first be considered. Considérez combien il est important de ne rien négliger, consider how important it is that nothing should be neglected. Si vous lisez les maximes de L., considérez-les, examinezles bien, if you read the maxims of L., consider them, examine them well. Sie-B.
En toute chose il faut — à fin, in every thing one must consider the end. La Font.
Quelle considère que je me vas désal-térer, reflect that am quenching my thirst. C'est à considérer, that cela va coûtera très-cher, mind that you will pay very dear for the 3 (avoir égard à) consider, to pay regard to. C'est son mérite que je considère, it is his merit
I consider. Je mets de côté mon âge pour ne — que le vôtre, without speaking of my age, let us only consider yours.
C'est. C'est un homme qui ne considère rien, he is a man who pays no regard to anything. 4 — comme, to consider as, to look upon as. Je considère les actions comme des moyens, I look upon actions as means. Balz. Je le considérais comme mon frere, I looked upon him as my brother.
5 (faire cas de) to consider, to esteem, to value. C'est un homme que je considère beaucoup, he is a man for whom I have a great consideration. Je considère le mérite, mais pas la naissance,
I esteem merit, but not birth.

SE CONSIDÉRER, vpr. 1 (se regarder) to gaze on, to look at each other. 2 (avoir une mutuelle estime) to have a consideration for each other. 3 Se — comme, to consider one's self as, to look upon one's self as.

CONSIGNATAIRE, kong-se-nyat-ayr,
sm. 1 law. depositary. 2 com. consignee.

CONSIGNATEUR, kong-se-nyat-nhr,
sm. fem. CONSIGNATRICE, consignor.

CONSIGNATION, kong-se-nyah-syong, sf. 1 (dépot) consignment, deposit. Caisse des dépôts et —s, government deposit and consignment office. En —, in consignment. Lettre de —, consignment. 2 con. Ces marchandises sont à la — d'un tel, those goods are to the consignment of such a one.

CONSIGNÉ, kong-se-nyoh, sf. 4 (ordre à une se. tielle) orders, instructions. Doubter, observer, violer, changer la —, to give, to observe, to violate, to change orders. 2 (by extension) (ordre) order, regulation. 3 (punition militaire) confinement. Il a huit jours de —, he has eight days' confinement. Sa — est levée, he is released from confinement. Lever la —, to revoke orders. 4 anc. Portier —, gate-keeper.

CONSIGNÉ, ppa. of CONSIGNER, sem.
—E, adjectiv. consigned, confined.

CONSIDER, kong-se-yeung, ra. 1 (deposer) to deposit. — de l'argent au greffe, entre les mains d'un notaire, to deposit money at the clerk's office, at the registrar's, at a notary's. — en papier, to give a note of hand. 2 com. to consign, to put in consignment. 3 (par écrit) to record, to state. 4 — quelque'un, to refuse access to a person. On avait consigné tous les soldats dans leurs casernes, all the soldiers were confined to their barracks. 5 quelque'un a pu se faire refuser l'admission, some one has been refused admittance. 6 Je lui consigne la porte, I have given orders not to let him in. 6 Une citation, to confine.

CONSIGNEE: FR. to give orders.

CONSISTANCE, kong - sis - tângs, sf. 1
(des fluides) consistence, consistency. 2

d'un corps solide) firmness. Ce terrain manque de —, this soil is not firm. 3 fig. stability, permanence. Cet établissement commence à prendre de la —, that establishment begins to acquire stability. Les choses de ce monde n'ont point de —, the things of this world are uncertain. C'est un esprit sans —, qui n'a point de —, he is a person of no steadiness. Cet homme est sans — dans le monde, est sans —, that man is without any consideration in the world. Ce bruit, cette nouvelle prend de la —, this report, news is gaining credit. 4 État de —, âge de —, state of consistency, age of consistency. fig. Les affaires sont dans un état de —, affairs are in a settled condition. 5 law. La — d'une succession, d'un domaine, the nature of an inheritance, of an estate.

CONSISTANT, kong-sis-tang, ppr. of consister, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 consisting. 2 phys., prairies, vignes, etc., an estate consisting of woods, meadows, vines, etc.

CONSISTER, kong-sis-tay, v. (Lat. consistere) 1 to consist (in). Cette différence consiste en, that difference consists in. Son fait consistait en adresse, he had nothing for himself but skill. La Font. Le bonheur consiste dans la médiocrité et la vertu, happiness consists in mediocrity and virtue. B. de St-P. Chez les C le point d'honneur consistait à en avoir de magnifiques, at the C's the point of honour consisted in having magnificent ones. Balz. Le tout consistait à savoir que, the main point is to know that. 2 (être composé) to consist (of). Ces envois consistent en beaux tapis de Flandre, these presents consisted of beautiful carpets of Flanders. Bar. En quoi consistent les biens de sa tante? what does his aunt's property consist of? Le Sage. Sa nourriture consistait en, his food consisted of (by analogy) Voici en quoi consiste l'emploi que j'occupe chez lui, the employment I fill in his house consists of this. Le Sage. Le commerce de ce pays consiste en sucre, coton, etc., the commerce of that country lies in sugar, cotton, etc.

CONSISTOIRE, kong-sis-war, sm. (Lat. consistorium) 1 (des cardinaux) consistory. 2 (des protestants, des Israélites) consistory.

CONSISTORIAL, kong-sis-to-ryal, adj. m. fem. —E, consistorial, consistory, consistorian.

CONSOLABLE, adj. mf. (des personnes, of persons) consolable.

CONSOLANT, kong-so-lang, ppr. of consoler, adj. m. fem. —E, consoling, consolatory, comforting. Voilà une vérité bien —E, that is indeed a consoling truth. Il est — de penser que, it is consoling to think that. Ce discours était fort —, this speech was very comforting. Le Sage. fam. Cet homme-là n'est guère —, that man is one of Job's comforters.

CONSOLATEUR, kong-so-lat-uh, sm. fem. CONSOLATRICE, 1 consoler, consolator, comforter. Les —s de ce deuil s'accablèrent, the condolers performed that office. La Font. Il reste en la grande courtoisie, he still ranks among our great courtiers. St-B. Elle est la consolatrice des malades, she brings comfort to the sick. 2 adjective, consoling. Le livre — de B. de St-P. B's alleviating book. St-B. Aage — espoir —, consoling angel, hope. L'Esprit —, the Comforter.

CONSOLATION, kong-so-lah-syong, sf. 1 (soulagement) consolation, solace, comfort. Donner, apporter de la —, to give, to bring consolation. Recevoir des —s, to receive comfort. 2 (by extension) (sujet de satisfaction) consolation. C'est une traînée — pour un père de voir ses enfants estimés, it is a great consolation for a father to see his children esteemed. 3 (discours, raisons) consolation, comfort. Adresser des —s à quelqu'un, to speak comfort to a person. Écrire une lettre de —, to write a comforting letter. Les —s de la philosophie, the consolations of philosophy. 4 (personne, chose qui console) consolation. Vous êtes ma seule —, you are my only consolation. La science est sa —, he finds his consolation in science. 5 (feu de cartes, at cards) Vous devez tant de —, you owe so many forfeits. Une fiche de —, a forfeit; || fig. a crumb of comfort.

CONSOLE, kong-sol, sf. (from consolider) 1 arch. console, bracket. 2 (meuble) console, pier-table.

CONSOLE, ppa. of CONSOLER, fem. —E, adjective, consoled, comforted. Je ne demandais qu'à être —, I was ready to be consoled. Chat.

CONSOLER, kong-so-lay, va. (Lat. consolari) to console, to comfort, to solace, to soothe. — les malades, to comfort the sick. Ses soins consolèrent ma vieillesse, her cares were the consolation of my old age. Le sommeil qui console de tout, sleep, the great soothe of all sorrows. Ah. Un missionnaire consolait ses derniers instants, a missionary was soothing her last moments. Chat. Ces malheureux n'ont point — leurs maux que, these wretched people have to charm away their pains but. Chat. Les lettres ont console une indolence d'hommes plus malheureux, literature has consoled many more unhappy. B. de St-P. Il rentrerait pour — la famille, par l'espoir du beau temps, he went in to cheer the family with the hope of fine weather. B. de St-P.

se CONSOLER, rpr. to be consoled, comforted, to console one's self. F. se consolait en pensant, F. consoled himself with the thought. Sand. Calypso ne pouvait se — du départ d'Ulysse, Calypso could not console herself for the departure of U. F. Un pauvre fou qui se console valablement de ses illusions peribles, a poor madman who willingly makes light of his bygone illusions. Noli. Ces deux grands débris se consolait entre eux, these two great wrecks were consoing together. En se plaignant on se console, grief is soothed when complaining. Muss. On se console par k's larmes, one may cry one's sorrow away. Chat.

CONSOLIDANT, kong-so-le-dang, ppr. of CONSOLIDER, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 anc. consurg. consolidant. 2 (substantif) consolidant.

CONSOLIDATION, kong-so-le-dah-syong, sf. 1 surg. consolidation. 2 fin. La — de la dette publique, the consolidation of the national debt. 3 law. consolidation.

CONSOLIDÉ, ppa. of CONSOLIDER, fem. —E, 1 adjective, consolidated, funded. Cinq pour cent —, five per cent consols. Le tiers —, the reduced consols. 2 (substantif) consolidated funds, consols. Les —s, the consols.

CONSOLIDER, kong-so-le-day, va. (Lat. consolidare) 1 to consolidate, to strengthen. — une maison, to consolidate a house. Il fallut — le volet en fer très fortement, it was necessary to strengthen the shutter by strong fastenings. Mich. Le temps semblait — la plante, the plant seemed to be stronger every day. Saut. fig. — une alliance, un traité, to strengthen an alliance, a treaty. 2 surg. to consolidate. 3 law. — l'usufruit à la propriété, to join profit with the property. 4 fin. to consolidate. — la dette flottante, to consolidate the floating debt.

se CONSOLIDER, rpr. 1 to consolidate, to strengthen. Des terres —, lands which consolidate. fig. La paix se consolide, the peace consolidates. 2 surg. to consolidate.

CONSOMMATEUR, kong-so-mat-uh, sm. 1 theor. perfecter, finisher. 2 (celui qui consomme) consumer.

CONSOMMATION, kong-so-mah-syong, sf. (from consumere) 1 (accomplissement) consummation, completion. La — d'une affaire, d'un ouvrage, d'un sacrifice, the finishing of an affair, the completion of a work, the consummation of a sacrifice. (by extension) La — du mariage, the consummation of marriage. La — des siècles, des temps, the last consummation of the world, of ages. 2 (usage en détriment) consumption. La — du vin, the consumption of corn, of wine. Une immense — de papier, a vast consumption of paper. absol. Cette mai-on fait une grande —, a great deal is consumed in that house, the household expenses of that house are very great. Prêt de —, loan in kind. Objets de —, articles of consumption. 3 (by extension) (choses que l'on consomme) consumable articles. Impôt sur les —s, tax on consumable commodities. pop. Un raté où les —s sont excellentes, what they give you in that coffee-house is excellent. 4 can. law. consummation. 5 naut. — s, pl. the expenditure of the stores of a ship during a sea-voyage.

CONSOMME, ppa. of CONSOMMER, fem. —E, adjective, 1 consummate. Le sacrifice était —, the sacrifice was consummated. 2 (chose bien —E, a rich soup, a well-bodied soup. 2 (parfait) consummate. Une actrice —E, a consummate actress. Le Sage. Un scélérat —, a consummate villain, an arrant knave. Sage-se, vertu —E, consummate wisdom, virtue. 3 sm. gravy soup, jelly broth. — de volaille, chicken gravy soup. Prendre un —, to take some gravy soup.

CONSOMMEUR, kong-so-may, va. (Lat. consummare) 1 (achever) to consummate, to complete, to finish. Il eut consummé son œuvre en huit jours, God finished his work in eight days. — un crime, to perpetrate a crime. Ses ennemis réussirent à accomplir son crime, his enemies succeeded in consummating his ruin. St-B. 2 (détruire) to consume. — du blé, de la viande, du bois, etc., to consume corn, meat, wood, etc. absol. On consomme beaucoup dans cette maison, they spend a great deal in that house. 3 fig. — to consume, to use up. 4 (d'une machine, of an engine) to consume, to use up. 5 — son droit, to use one's right. 6 (intransitive) Faire — de la viande, to boil down meat.

CONSUMPTIF, kong-somp-tif, adj. m. fem. consumptive, 1 med. consumptive. 2 Moladies consumptives, consumptive diseases. 3 sm. Un —, a consumptive person. CONSOMPTION, kong-somp-syong, sf. (Lat. consumptio) 1 consumption. Fièvre de —, consumption, decline, phthisis. 2 med. consumption, fever. — pulmonaire, decline. Être malade de —, to be in a decline, in a consumption.

CONSONNANCE, kong-so-nangs, sf. (Lat. cum, sonare) 1 mus. consonance, consonary. 2 gram. consonance.

CONSONNANT, kong-so-dang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 mus. Accord. 2 consonant. 2 gram. Mots —s, consonant words.

CONSONNE, kong-son, sf. (Lat. consonus) 1 gram. consonant. 2 adjective. Lettre —, consonant letter.

CONSORTS, kong-sor, sm. pl. (Lat. cum, sors) 1 law. associates, partners. 2 company. Un tel et —, such a one and company.

CONSOUE, kong-sood, sf. bot. con-sound, confrey.

CONSPIRANT, kongs-pe-rang, ppr. of CONSPIRER, adj. m. fem. —E, nech. conspiring. Puissances —es, conspiring powers.

CONSPIRATEUR, kongs-pe-rat-uh, sm. conspirator.

CONSPIRATION, kongs-pe-rah-syong, sf. 1 conspiracy, conspiration, plot. Ourdir, tramer, machiner, former, faire une —, to form, to plot a conspiracy. Tremper dans une —, to enter into a conspiracy. 2 (contre un particulier) conspiracy.

CONSPIRE, ppa. of CONSPIRE, fem. — E. adjective. conspired, plotted. Sa ruine fut —, his ruin was conspired.

CONSPIRE, kongs-pe-ray, va. (Lat. conspire) to conspire, to concur, to plot. — à bien public, to concur to the public welfare. — Nous avons tous conspiré pour restaurer l'ordre, we all concurred to restore order. Ils conspiraient contre lui, they conspired against him. 2 absol. to conspire. 3 fig. to conspire, to tend, to concur. Tout conspirait contre moi, every thing conspired against me. Tout conspire à mon contentement, everything conspires to make me happy. Moi. Mes desirs conspiraient avec les vôtres, my wishes concurred with yours.

CONSPIRE, va. to conspire, to plot. — la ruine de l'état, to plot the ruin of the State. — la perte de quelqu'un, to conspire the ruin of a person.

CONSPICE, ppa. of CONSPICE, fem. — E. adjective. fig. scooped at, raised at. CONSPIER, ra. (Lat. conspire) fig. to scoop at, to treat with scorn.

CONSTABLE, kongs-tabl', sm. (Eng.) constable.

CONSTANT, kongs-tah-mang, adv. 1 (avec fermeté) with constancy, steadfastly. 2 (toujours) constantly. ever. 3 absol. (indubitablement) certainly, undoubtedly.

CONSTANCE, kongs-tangs, sf. (Lat. constantia) 1 (fermeté d'âme) constancy. Montrer, témoigner, faire paraître sa —, de la —, to display one's constancy. Souffrir avec —, to suffer with constancy. La fortune a mis sa — à une rude épreuve, fortune put his constancy to a severe trial. 2 (perseverance) constancy, steadfastness. La — d'un ami, the constancy of a lover. Travailler avec —, to work with steadfastness. Avoir de la — dans ses attachements, avoir ses goûts, to be constant in one's attachments, in one's tastes. 3 absol. constancy. Il n'a pas de —, he has no constancy in love. 4 (patience) constancy, patience. Il eut la — d'attendre dix ans, he had the patience to wait ten years. S'armer de —, to arm one's self with patience.

CONSTANCE, sm. Constantia.

CONSTANCE, sf. Constantia.

CONSTANT, kongs-tang, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 (qui a de la fermeté) constant, unshaken, steadfast. Une âme —, a steadfast mind. 2 (perseverant) constant, firm, steadfast, persevering. Etre — dans ses desirs, to be persevering in one's desires. — dans l'amitié, dans l'amour, in friendship, love. 3 (perseverant dans son amour) constant. 4 fig. constant, lasting. En bonheur —, a lasting happiness. Il n'y a rien de — ici-bas, there is nothing lasting here below. Veut —, trodes —, 5 (interrompu) constant, unemitting, unintermittent. Veut étude —, unremitting study. 6 (indubitable) certain, undoubted, indubitable. C'est un fait —, it is an undoubted fact. On me l'a donné pour —, it was told me as a fact. 1 est — que, it is certain that.

CONSTANT, sm. Constant.

CONSTANTIN, kongs-tang-tang, sm. Constantine

CONSTANTINE, kongs-tang-teen, sf. rog. Constantine.

CONSTANTINOPLE, kongs-tang-te-opol', s. geog. Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPOLITAIN, kongs-tang-e-do-po-le-tang, sm. of Constantinople, Constantinopolitan.

CONSTATE, ppa. of CONSTATER, fem. — E. adjective. ascertain'd. C'est un fait —, it is a well ascertain'd fact.

CONSTATE, kongs-tah-tay, va. (Lat. constare) 1 (vérifier) to ascertain, to certify. Nous devons d'abord — le fait, we must first ascertain the truth of the act. Je constate que, I state that. Ab. faire — par témoins, per écrit, to have a thing verified by witnesses, in writing. 2 (par écrit) to take down, to authenticate, to state. Je constatai par écrit sa déclaration, I took down his declaration. — par un procès-verbal, to state in an official report. 3 (des actes, etc., of documents) to state, to aver. Le procès-verbal constate que, the report states that.

SE CONSTATER, vpr. to be established, settled.

CONSTELLATION, kongs-tell-lah-syong, sf. (Lat. con, stella) constellation. fig. Etre ne sous une heureuse, sous une malheureuse —, to be born under a lucky, an unlucky planet.

CONSTELLÉ, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 astrol. made under the influence of a certain constellation. Anneau —, constellation ring. Pierre —, constellation stone. 2 fig. constellated. Un sabre — de pierres, a sword studded with precious stones. Tb. Gout.

CONSTER, kongs-tay, vn. impers. law. Il ronde de cela, it appears.

CONSTERNER, kongs-tay-nah-syong, sf. consteration, dismay. La plus grande, la dernière —, the greatest consteration. Etre dans la —, to be dismayed.

CONSTRNÉ, ppa. of CONSTERNER, fem. — E. adjective. dismayed, thrown into consteration. Avoir l'air —, to look dismayed.

CONSTERNER, kongs-tay-nay, va. (Lat. consterare) to strike with consteration, to throw into consteration, to dismay.

CONSTIPATION, kongs-te-pah-syong, sf. constipation, costiveness.

CONSTITUTE, ppa. of CONSTITUTE, fem. — E. adjective. constituted, costive.

CONSTITUTE, kongs-te-pay, va. (Lat.) to constitute, to bind.

CONSTITUANT, kongs-te-tu-ang, pp. of CONSTITUTE, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 constituent. Les parties —es d'un corps, the constituent parts of a body. Pouvoir —, constituent power. Assemblée —, constituent assembly. 2 law. that gives a power of attorney, that settles an annuity. 3 (substantif) Fr. bist. constituent.

CONSTITUANTE, kong-te-tu-ang, sf. Fr. bist. constituent assembly.

CONSTITUTE, ppa. of CONSTITUTE, fem. — E. adjective. constituted. Corps bien —, a well constituted body. Les autorités —es, the constituted authorities. Reutes —es, annuities. Etre bien, mal —, to be well shaped, badly shaped. fig. Etre, gouvernément bien —, well constituted State, government.

CONSTITUTE, kongs-te-tu-ang, va. 1 (compos r) to constitute, to make up. Ses chétives économies ne constitueraient jamais une fortune, her miserly savings would never constitute a fortune. Balz. Tout ce qui constitue un jeune homme accompli, all that constitutes an accomplished young man. S^{cs}-B. Ce qui constitue le crime, c'est l'intention, crime lies in the intention. 2 fig. (établir, mettre) to institute, to appoint. — quelqu'un en dignité, to raise to a dignity. Je voudrais bien savoir qui vous a constitué mon juge? I should like to know who made you my judge? — prisonnier, to commit a person to prison. — avoué, to appoint an attorney. — due rente à quelqu'un, to settle an annuity on a person. — une pension, to settle a pension. — une dot, — une telle somme, to im-munele ru dot, to settle a portion, to give as a portion such a sum, such an estate. 3 absol. fig. (faire consister en) to make consist (in).

SE CONSTITUTE, vpr. (s'établir) to constitute one's self, to make one's self. Se — juge dans sa propre cause, to constitute one's self judge in one's own cause. Ils se constituèrent insectes si la mer ne leur restait chère, they would turn into insects if they were not so fond of the sea. Mich. P. se constitua leur vengeur, P. set up for their avenger. S^{cs}-B. Se — partie civile, to become civil party. Se — prisonnier, to give one's self up prisoner.

CONSTITUTIF, kongs-te-tu-tif, adj. m. fem. CONSTITUTIVE, 1 constitutive. 2 law. Titre —, constitutive title.

CONSTITUTION, kongs-te-tu-syong, sf. 1 (composition) constitution. La — des corps, the constitution of bodies. On ne sait pas plus la — de l'eau qu'on ne sait celle du sang, the constitution of water is not known any more than that of blood. Mich. 2 (des différents vices d'un tout, of the different parts of a thing) constitution. 3 (tempérament) constitution. Etre d'une bonne —, d'une mauvaise —, to be of a good, a bad constitution. Jouir d'une excellente —, to enjoy an excellent constitution. 4 — de rente, settlement of an annuity. — de dot, settlement of a portion. 5 polit. constitution. 6 law. — d'avoué, appointment of an attorney.

CONSTITUTIONNELLE, kongs-te-tu-syong-tu-ang, sf. constitutionality.

CONSTITUTIONNEL, kongs-te-tu-syong-tu-ang, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 constitutional. 2 (conforme à la constitution) constitutional. 3 polit. constitutional. 4 med. Maladie —, constitutional disease. 5 (substantif) constitutional.

CONSTITUTIONNELLEMENT, kongs-te-tu-syong-tu-ang, adv. constitutionally.

CONSTRICTEUR, kongs-trik-tubr, adj. m. 1 anat. Muscles —, s, constrictor muscles. 2 erp. Boa —, boa constrictor.

CONSTRUCTION, kongs-trik-syong, s. physiol. constriction.

CONSTRINGENT, kongs-trang-zhang, adj. m. fem. — E. constricting.

CONSTRUCTEUR, kongs-trik-tohr sm. constructor, constructor, builder. — de navires, ship-builder, shipwright.

CONSTRUCTION, kongs-trik-syong, sf. 1 (action) construction, constructing, building, erection. La — d'un bâtiment, d'une machine, the construction of a building, of a machine. De — anglaise, English-built. Navire en —, ship on the stocks. 2 (Védifice, le navire) building, construction, fabric, pile, ship. 3 absol. (l'art de construire) building, construction, ship-building. 4 (arrangement, disposition) structure, construction. 5 fig. (d'un poème, d'une tragédie, etc., of a poem, of a tragedy, etc.) construction, conjecture. 6 fig. gram. construction. Une — vicieuse, a vicious construction. Faire la — d'une phrase, faire la —, to construe a phrase, to construct. 7 geom. construction.

CONSTRUIRE, kongs-tri-cet, ra. (Lat. construere) 1 to construct, to erect, to build. — une maison, un navire, to build a house, a ship. — une machine, un baromètre, to construct a machine, a barometer. fig. Je prétendais à — des châteaux en Espagne, I gave myself up to building castles in the air. Ab. 2 fig. — un poème, to frame a poem. 3 fig. gram. — une phrase, to construe a sentence. 4 geom. — une figure, to construct a figure. (by analogy) — une carte de géographie, to construct a map.

SE CONSTRUIRE, vpr. 1 (être constamment) to be constructed, erected, built. 2 (se construire à soi-même, to build for one's self. Les grands seigneurs se sont tous construits la des maisons charmantes, the grand personages have all built themselves charming houses there. Tb. Gout. 3 fig. (être disposé, s'arranger) to be constructed.

CONSTRUIT, kongs-trée, pp. of CONSTRUIRE, fem. — E. adjective. constructed, erected, built, constructed.

CONSUBSTANTIALITÉ, kong-süb-stang-syal-e-tay, sf. theol. consubstantiality.

CONSUBSTANTIEL, kong-süb-stang-syiel, adj. m. fem. — E. theol. consubstantial.

CONSUL, kong-sül, sm. (Lat.) 1 (à Rome) consul. 2 consul. 3 consul. 4 (en France) consul. 5 consul. 6 (juge) consul. 4 Fr. hist. consul. 5 (agent diplomatique) consul.

CONSULAIKE, kong-sü-lay, adj. mf. 1 Rom. antiq. consular, consular. 2 Fr. hist. Gouvernement —, consular government. La garde —, the life-guard of the consuls. 3 anc. La juridiction —, consular justice.

CONSULAT, kong-sü-lah, sm. 1 (à Rome) consulate, consularship. 2 absol. Fr. hist. the consulate. 3 anc. consularship. 4 diplom. (charge) consulate, consularship. 5 (le lieu) consulate.

CONSULTANT, kong-sül-tang, ppr. of CONSULTER, adj. m. 1 (qui donne des conseils) consulting. Avocat —, chamber counsel. Médecin —, consulting physician. 2 (substantif) person consulted, 3 (substantif) consultant.

CONSULTATIF, kong-sül-tat-if, adj. m. fem. consultative, consultative. Comité —, consultative committee. Voix consultative, consultative voice.

CONSULTATION, kong-sül-tah-syong, sf. 1 (conférence) consultation. Entrer en —, to hold a consultation. 2 (avis du médecin, de l'avocat) consultation, opinion, prescription. —s gratuites, gratuitous consultations. 3 (le lieu, le temps) consultation.

CONSULTE, kong-sül, sf. assembly, council, senate.

CONSULTE, ppa. of CONSULTER, fem. —E, adjective, consulted.

CONSULTER, kong-sül-tay, va. (Lat. consulter) 1 (prendre avis) to consult, to advise with. Consultez vos parents, consult your parents. — nn médecin, no avocat, to consult a physician, a lawyer. — son confesseur, to consult one's confessor. Il regarda sa femme en la consultant de l'œil, he looked at his wife, in consulting her with a glance. Saint. E. avait beau se souvenir, it was in vain for E. to lax her memory. Saut. 2 (chercher des renseignements, des éclaircissements dans) to consult, to refer to. — les dates, to refer to dates. — l'histoire, les traditions, to consult history, tradition. fig. — son chevet, to take counsel of one's pillow. Il consultait tous ses auteurs les uns après les autres, he consulted all the authors one after the other. Saint. — son miroir, to consult one's looking-glass. — les yeux de quelqu'un, to try to read in a person's eyes. 3 fig. to consult, to follow, to be guided by. — sa conscience, son devoir, ses forces, to consult one's conscience, one's duty, one's strength. Ne — que ses intérêts, to consult only one's own interest. — les intérêts des autres, to consult the interest of others. Si l'on avait à — son goût, if it were a matter of taste. Si-E. Sans — le péril qui le menaçait, it s'élance, without heeding the peril that is imminent, he rushes forward. 4 absol. (prendre conseil sur) to consult about. 5 absol. (conférer ensemble) to consult, to confer. Il veut — avec ses amis, he wishes to confer with his friends. Les médecins ont consulté sur sa maladie, the physicians held a consultation about his illness. Il convoquait des assemblées de notables pour — sur les affaires du pays, he used to convene the burghers to consult about the affairs of the country. Bar. 6 absol. to give consultations. Un avocat qui plaide et consulte, chamber counsel.

SE CONSULTER, ppr. to reflect, to consider, to weigh in one's mind. C'est à vous à vous —, it is for you to reflect.

CONSULTEUR, kong-sül-tür, sm. consultant.

CONSUMANT, kong-sü-mang, ppr. of CONSUMER, adj. m. fem. —E, Uaeu —, a devouring fire.

CONSUME, ppa. of CONSUMER, See senses of consumer. Elle mourut — d'amer-tume et de chagrin, she died wasted by grief. Bar.

CONSUMER, kong-sü-may, va. (Lat. consumere) 1 (détruire) to consume, to devour, to destroy, to waste, to wear away. Lorsque le feu eut consumé la victime when the fire had destroyed the victim. Il consuma ainsi dans les flammes toute la ville de F., he thus burned down the whole town of F. Bar. La rouille consume le fer, rust corrodes iron. Le temps consume tout, time wears out every thing. — tout son bien en débauche, to squander all one's fortune in rioting. Dans cette lutte silencieuse il avait consumé ses forces, he had spent all his energy in this inward struggle. Sand. Sa maladie le consume, his illness wastes him to nothing. Un jour de larmes consume plus de forces qu'un an de travail, a day of sorrow wears away more strength than a year's work. Lamart. Le chagrin le consume, he pines away with grief. Une langueur mortelle la consume insensiblement, she was undermined slowly by consumption. 3-J. Koss. 2 (employer sans réserve) to consume, to pass, to consecrate. J'ai consumé tout mon temps à cet ouvrage, that work has absorbed all my time. Ils consomment leur vie dans ces pénibles travaux, they consume their life in toil. Priant et pleurant tour à tour, je consumai la nuit, praying and weeping by turns, I passed the night. Lamart. 3 (employer) to devote, to consecrate. Je suis revenu — le reste de ma vie au service de mon Dieu, I came back to devote the remainder of my life to the service of my God. Chat. Ce moment si cher est consumé à tuer l'ennemi, those precious moments are employed in lauding my enemy. Rac. 4 (se consumer) 1 (être consumé) 1 to be consumed. E. a paru comme l'encens qui se consume dans le feu, she was like frankincense which is consumed by fire. Chat. 2 (dissiper son bien, détruire sa santé, etc.) to be exhausted, to be wasted away, to be worn away, to wear one's self out, to pine away. Se — en frais, en dépenses, to ruin one's self in costs, in expenses. Se — d'ennui et de tristesse, to waste away with melancholy and sorrow. Se — en efforts, en cris, en plaintes, en regrets, to exhaust one's self in efforts, cries, complaints, regrets. absol. Cet homme se consume, that man is wearing himself out, is wasting away. 3 (employer son temps) Se — sur un ouvrage, to pore over a work.

CONTACT, kong-takt, sm. (Lat. contactus) 1 contact. — médiate, mediate contact. — immédiat, immediate contact. Le point de —, the point of contact. En — en contact. Mettre en —, to put in contact. 2 fig. contact, connexion. Le — des méchants, connexion with the wicked. Muss.

CONTAGIEUX, kong-tah-yuh, adj. m. fem. CONTAGIEUSE, 4 contagious, catching, infectious. Fièvre contagieuse, contagious fever. 2 (qui transmet la contagion) contagious, pestilential. Air —, pestilential air. 3 fig. contagious. Le vice est —, vice is contagious. Ce dévouement quelle — qu'il fut, this devotedness though initiated. Balz. (by analogy) catching. Le rire et le bâillement semblent être —, laughing and yawning seem to be catching.

CONTAGION, kong-tah-yong, sf. 1 path. contagion, infection. 2 (pest) contagion. 3 fig. contagion, contagiousness. La — des mauvaises mœurs, des mauvais exemples, the contagion of bad morals, of bad examples.

CONTAMINATION, kong-tau-e-nab-syong, sf. absol. contamination, pollution, defilement.

CONTAMINER, kong-tam-e-nay, va. absol. to contaminate, to defile, to corrupt, to taint.

CONTE, kongt, sm. 1 (histoire vraie ou fausse) tale, narration, story. On fait d'étranges —s sur cet homme-là, strange stories are related of that man. 2 (récit d'aventures imaginaires) tale, story. Un — de fées, a fairy tale. — de vieille, de bonne femme, old woman's, old wives' story. — de ma mère l'oise, mother Goose's tales. — à dormir debout, rigmarole story. — borge, blind story. 3 (discours, récit mensonger) story, fib. Quel — nous faites-vous là! what's that story you are telling us! C'est un —, n — fait à plaisir, ou — en l'air, it is an idle story, an unlikely story. Ironie. Voilà un beau —, de beaux —s! that's a pretty story indeed!

CONTEMPLATEUR, kong-tang-plat-nür, sm. fem. CONTEMPLATIVE, 1 contemplator. 2 adjective. Des esprits —s, meditative minds. St-E.

CONTEMPLATIF, kong-tang-plat-if, 1 adj. m. fem. CONTEMPLATIVE, contemplative. 2 sm. contemplator.

CONTEMPLATION, kong-tang-plah-syong, sf. contemplation. La — des astres, the contemplation of the stars. star-gazing. Être, rester en — devant quelqu'un ou quelque chose, to remain, to stand in contemplation before a person, a thing.

CONTEMPLER, kong —tang-play, va. (Lat. contemplari) 1 to contemplate, to behold, to survey. — le ciel, un tableau, to view, to take a view of, to gaze on the sky, a picture. — la grandeur et les perfections de Dieu, to contemplate the grandeur and perfections of God. Le contemplai le vieillard avec des yeux attendris, I gazed at the old man with eyes full of pity. Saint. fig. Soldats! l'univers vous contemple, Soldiers! the universe has its eyes fixed upon you. 2 absol. to contemplate, to reflect, to muse, to meditate, to ponder. Passer sa vie à —, to pass one's life in contemplation.

SE CONTEMPLER, ppr. 1 refl. to contemplate one's self. 2 recipr. to contemplate each other.

CONTEMPORAIN, kong-tang-po-rang, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 contemporaneous, contemporary. 2 (substantif) contemporary.

CONTEPTEUR, kong-tang-tür, sm. contemptor, despoiser, scorner.

CONTENANCE, kong-tuh-nangs, sf. 1 (capacité) capacity, extent. Un vase de la — de deux cents tonneaux, a vessel of two hundred tons burden. 2 (étendue) extent. 3 (maintien) demeanor, bearing, look. — bien, sérieux, proud, serious demeanor. C'était une chose à voir que notre —, we were worth looking at. Le Sage. Ne savoir quelle — faire, quelle tenir, not to know how to look. Être embarrassé de sa —, n'avoir point de —, to be out of countenance. Porter quelque chose par —, to carry a thing to keep one's self in countenance. Servir de —, to serve to keep one in countenance. Perdre —, to be out of countenance. fig. Faire bonne —, to put a good face on the matter.

CONTENANT, kong-tuh-nang, ppr. of CONTENIR, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 containing, La partie —E, the container. 2 (substantif) container. Le — et le contenu, the container and the contained.

CONTENANT, kong-tang-dang, 1 adj. m. fem. —E, containing. Les parties —es, the containing parties. 2 sm. container.

CONTENIR, kong-tuh-neer, va. conj. like TENIR, (Lat. continere) 4 (avoir une certaine capacité) to contain, to hold. (by analogy) Ce volume contient la Bible tout entière, this volume contains the whole Bible. Ce volume contient deux cents pages, this volume contains two hundred pages. fig. Une grande âme doit — plus de douleurs qu'une petite, a noble mind must be susceptible of greater sorrows than a vulgar one. Chat. On s'est étouffé de la quantité de larmes que contenaient le cœur des rois, people wondered that a king could shed so many tears. Chat. L'Olympe en peut plus — tant de têtes, Olympus is not large enough for so many deities. La Font. La tête étroite de N. ne pouvait — qu'une idée. M's simple mind had not room for more than one thought. Balz. 2 (renfermer) to contain. Sa valise contenait tous ses effets et son argent, his trunk contained all his effects and his money. fig. Son histoire contient des détails fort intéressants, his history contains very interesting particulars. fig. La charité contient toutes les vertus, charity comprises every virtue. 3 (retenir, maintenir) to contain, to check, to keep within bounds, to curb, to confine. Les soldats pouvaient à peine — la foule, the soldiers could hardly keep back the crowd. fig. — quelqu'un dans l'obéissance, dans le devoir, — quelqu'un, to compel a person to obedience, to restrain a person to his duty. — ses passions, to restrain, to curb, to check one's passions. — son indignation, sa fureur, ses transports, etc., to contain one's indignation, fury, transports, etc. Elle contenait ces cruels orages dans son cœur, she imprisoned these dreadful struggles in the recesses of her heart. Balz.

CONTENIR, vpr. 1 (se retenir) to contain one's self, to restrain one's self. La verve l'emporte, il ne se contient plus, his inspiration fires him, he can no longer contain himself. St-B. 2 (se modérer sur ce qui peut être préjudiciable à la santé) to refrain, to forbear (from).

CONTENT, cong-tang, adj. m. fem. —E. (Lat. contentus) 1 (satisfait) content, contented, satisfied, pleased, glad. Vivre —, to live contented. Avoir l'air —, to look contented. Être — de quelqu'un, to be pleased with a person. Être — de soi, to be satisfied with one's self. ironic. Il est — de lui-même, de sa personne, de sa petite personne, he does not think small beer of himself. Être — de quelque chose, to be pleased with a thing. Mal — de son stratagème, little pleased with his stratagem. La Font. Tout modeste chasseur en eût été —, any moderate sportsman would have been satisfied with it. La Font. Elle n'est — de rien, she is pleased with nothing. Que je suis — de vous voir ! I how glad I am to see you ! Je suis — de voir que vous ayez réussi, I am glad to see that you have succeeded. Il est — de pen de chose, he is easily satisfied. (by extension) Mon front, non — d'arrêter les rayons du soleil, brave l'effort, my brow not satisfied with intercepting the rays of the sun braves the effort of La Font. 2 Être —, to consent. Je suis — de vous céder cette terre à la charge, I consent to grant you this land on condition.

CONTENTEMENT, cong-tang-mang, sm. content, satisfaction, contentedness, contentment. prov. — passe richesse, content is beyond riches.

CONTENTER, cong-tang-tay, va. (from content) 1 (satisfaire) to satisfy. Il faut peu de chose pour le —, it requires but little to satisfy him. Personne ne saurait le —, nobody can satisfy him. — ses créanciers, to satisfy one's creditors. 2 (donner du contentement) to please, to give satisfaction. J'ai fait tout ce qu'il fallait pour — mon oncle et mes professeurs, I did my best to satisfy my uncle and my masters. Nod. 3 fig. to satisfy. — l'oreille, les yeux, to satisfy the ear, the eyes. Vos raisons ne sauraient me —, your reasons are not satisfactory. J'eus la malice de ne pas — leur curiosité, I took pleasure in not gratifying their curiosity. Le Sage. — sa faim, to satisfy one's hunger. Pour — sa vengeance, le duc avait négligé une affaire importante, in order to gratify his vengeance, the Duke had overlooked an important affair. Bar. 4 (apaiser) to gratify, to humour, to give a person what he wants.

SE CONTENTER, vpr. 4 (s'accommoder d'une chose, en être satisfait) to be contented, satisfied. C'est un beau rêve, et de plus difficiles s'en contenteraient, it is a fine prospect, and many would be satisfied with it. Ab. Il faudra pourtant bien vous en — pendant trois mois, you must however put up with it for three months. Sand. Le monde se contente de grimaces, society is satisfied with appearances. St-B. Se — de peo, to be contented with little. 2 (se borner à) to content one's self, to be content, satisfied. Contentez-vous de remplir votre devoir dans l'état où la Providence vous a mis, be satisfied with fulfilling your duty in the station Providence has assigned to you. B. de St-P. Je me contente de l'apprendre que je suis en état de, let it suffice to say that I am in a position to. Le S. ge. 3 (satisfaire ses desirs) to please one's self, to make one's self content. Contentez-vous, suivez votre humeur inquiète, please yourself, follow your wayward humour. La Font.

CONTENTIEUX, cong-tang-syab, adj. m. fem. CONTENTIEUSE, 1 law, disputed, disputable, controversial. 2 (qui se plaît à disputer) quarrelsome, contentious. 3 adjectif Juridiction contentieuse, contentions jurisdiction.

CONTENTIEUX, sm. affaires in litigation. Bureau du —, disputed claims office.

CONTENTIF, cong-tang-tif, adj. m. smrg. retentive, retaining.

CONTENTION, cong-tang-syong, sf. 1 (application) intenceness, intense application. (by analogy) Il faut une grande — de l'oreille pour saisir des sons aussi peu distincts, it requires a most attentive ear to catch sounds so indistinct. La — de la prière, the fervour of prayer. Lamart. 2 absol. contention, dispute, debate. Chat. 3 absol. fig. (véhémence) heat, warmth, vehemence.

CONTENU, cong-tang-nô, pp. of CONTENIR, fem. —E, adjective, contained.

CONTENIR, sm. contained, contents. Le contenu et le —, the container and the contained. (by extension) Le — d'une lettre, the contents of a letter.

CONTER, cong-tay, va. (from conte) to tell, to narrate, to relate. Je reviendrai — mes aventures à mon frère, I shall come back and relate my adventures to my brother. La Font. L'histoire que je vais vous — est simple, the story I am going to tell you is plain. Saint. Il se fit — les nouvelles, he had the news told to him. Ab. Ne contez à personne notre querelle d'aujourd'hui, do not tell any body our quarrel of to-day. Ab. Peut-être on t'a conté la fameuse disgrâce de l'altière V., it may be that you have heard of the famous disgrace of proud V. Rac. La menteuse Espérance n'a plus de contes à nous —, fulcious Hope has no more stories to tell us. V. Hug. lisont conté qu'ils voyaient à la tête de cette légion une colonne de feu, they reported that they saw a column of fire preceding the legion. Chat. Dans T. on conte qu'autrefois, they report that formerly in T. La Font. Je lui contai jusqu'aux moindres circonstances, I reported to him even the most trifling particulars. Le Sage. fam. — ses raisons, ses affaires, ses chagrins, etc., à quelqu'un, to confide one's reasons, one's affairs, one's sorrows, etc., to a person. poetic. J'irai — ma peine aux rochers de ces bords, I will go and confide my sorrows to the rocks on these shores. fam. En — de belles, to tell fine stories. fam. En — à quelqu'un, to take a person in, to deceive a person. — flegmatiques à une femme, to talk gallantry to a woman. absol. Les vieillards aiment à —, old people are fond of telling stories.

SE CONTER, vpr. 4 to be told, to be related. 2 recipro. to tell each other.

CONTESTABLE, cong-tang-tabl', adj. mf. contestable, controversial.

CONTESTANT, cong-tang-tang, pp.

of CONTESTER, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 contending. Les parties —es, the contending parties. 2 (substantif.) contending party, litigant.

CONTESTATION, cong-tang-tab-syong, sf. contestation, dispute, debate, contest, strife. Être en — sur quelque chose, to be at variance about a thing. Cela donnera lieu à beaucoup de —s, this will be a bone of contention.

CONTESTE, cong-test, sf. absol. contestation.

CONTESTÉ, ppa. of CONTESTER, fem. —E, adjective, questionable. Fait —, questionable fact.

CONTESTER, cong-tang-lay, va. (Lat. contestari) 1 to contest, to dispute, to call in question. On lui contesta la qualité qu'il prenait, the title he assumed was called in question. L'honneur de la nommer, entre eux fut contesté, the right of giving it a name was disputed between them. La Font. Sa créance est contestée, his debt is disputed. (by extension) L'autorité des lois, to call into question the authority of the laws. 2 nier la vérité d'un fait, etc., to contest, to dispute, to impugn, to deny. Vous ne contestez aucun des faits qui vous sont imputés, you do not deny any of the facts you are charged with. Sand. On pouvait — la beauté de cette figure, the beauty of that face might be disputed. Balz. 3 absol. (débatte) to dispute, to wrangle. Pendant qu'ils contestaient entre eux selon la coutume des créoles oisifs, whilst they were disputing among themselves, as is the custom with indolent creolians. B. de St-P. Il se plait à —, he takes delight in wrangling.

CONTEUR, cong-tulr, sm. fem. CONTEUSE, 4 narrator, story-teller. 2 absol. story-teller. 3 (by analogy) Un — de sottises, de fagots, a teller of idle stories. Un — de fleurettes, one who says pretty things to a woman. 4 adjective. La conteuse vieillisse, prolix old age.

CONTEXTE, cong-tekst, sm. 1 (le texte) text. 2 (l'ensemble des classes, des dispositions) context, text.

CONTEXTURE, cong-tek-stür, sf. 4 (enchaînement des parties) contexture, texture. 2 (by extension) (d'une composition littéraire, of a literary composition) contexture.

CONTIGU, cong-te-gü, adj. m. fem. —E, contiguous, adjacent, adjoining.

CONTIGUÏTÉ, cong-tig-wüec-tay, sf. contiguity, contiguity.

CONTINENCE, cong-te-nangs, sf. continence, continency, continence.

CONTINENT, cong-te-nang, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 continent. 2 med. Fièvre —, continent fever, perennial fever.

CONTINENT, sm. 1 geog. continent, mainland. 2 absol. continent. Voyager sur le —, to travel on the continent.

CONTINENTAL, cong-te-nang-tal, adj. m. fem. —E, continental. Puissances —es, continental powers.

CONTINGENCE, cong-tang-zhangs, sf. 1 did. contingency, contingency. 2 (rare) Selon la — des affaires, selon la — des cas, according to the contingency in events, of the case, as things may happen to fall out. 3 geom. Angle de —, angle of contingency.

CONTINGENT, cong-tang-zhang, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 contingent. 2 phil. Futur —, future contingent. Propositions —es, contingent propositions. 3 (substantif.) contingent, quota, share. Le — de l'année 18., the contingent of the year 18..

CONTINU, cong-tie-nô, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 (dont les parties ne sont pas séparées) continuous. Eteindre —E, continuous extent. Machine à papier —, endless paper-machine. 2 (non-interrompu) continual. Travail —, continual work, incessant labour. Éprouver des souffrances —es, to undergo continual sufferings. Nous avons eu huit jours —s de pluie, we have had a week of continual rain. Jet —, uninterrupted jet. fig. Élégance, pureté — e de style, continued, constant elegance, purity of style. 3 mus. Basse — e, continued thorough-bass. 4 math. continued. Proportion — e, continued proportion. 5 id. (substantif). m. matel.

CONTINUE (à la), adv. loc. continuer in time, at length, in process of time.

CONTINUATEUR, kong-te-nũ-at-ubr, sm. continuator, continuer.

CONTINUATION, kong-te-nũ-ah-syong, sf. 1 action de continuer, durée) continuation, continuance. Il voulait la — du commerce flamand avec l'Angleterre, he desired the continuation of the Flemish trade with England. Mich. 2 (la chose ajoutée à une autre) continuation, prolongation. C'est la — évidente des mêmes roches, it is the evident continuation of the same rocks. Th. Gaut.

CONTINUEL, kong-te-nũ-ayl, adj. m. fem. — le, continual, uninterrupted, unremitting.

CONTINUELLEMENT, kong-te-nũ-ayl-màng, adv. continually, uninterruptedly, unremittingly.

CONTINUER, kong-te-nũ-ay, va. (Lat. continare) 1 (poursuivre ce qui est commencé) to continue, to go on. Le prêtre commença l'office des morts, les jeunes vierges le continuoient, the priest begins the service for the dead, young virgins continue it. Chat. (by analogy) Decider à — senle sa route, having made up her mind to pursue her way alone. Saint. Ils continuoient de boire, they went on drinking. Le Sage. La sève continuoit de monter, the sap kept mounting. Saint. Le desordre continuoit à être aussi grand que par le passé, the disorder continued to be as great as ever. Bar. Il continuoit à dédaigner les avertissements des anciens chevaliers, he continued to disdain the warnings of the old knights. Bar. Si vous continuez à boire, vous ruinerez votre santé, if you go on drinking so you will ruin your health. 2 absol. to go on with one's speech. 3 (prolonger) to continue. — une ligne, to continue a line. 4 (maintenir, conserver) to continue. — un bail, to continue a lease. — une pension, to continue a pension. 5 (maintenir dans un emploi) to continue.

CONTINUER, 1 (durer, ne pas cesser) to continue, to last. La pluie continue, the rain holds on. La guerre ne continuera pas, the war will not last. 2 (s'étendre, se prolonger) to continue, to extend, to prolong.

SE CONTINUER, tpr. 1 (être continué) to be continued. 2 (se prolonger) to continue, to extend. Le bonheur de sa journée se continuait dans ses rêves, the happiness of the day continued in her dreams. Sand.

CONTINUÛTE, kong-te-nũ-ayt, sf. 1 (liaison) continuity. Solution de —, solution of continuity. 2 (by analogy) continuance. La — de cette crise est intolérable, the continuance of this crisis is intolerable. Balz. 3 philos. Lui de —, law of continuity.

CONTINUÛTÉ, kong-te-nũ-màng, adv. continuously.

CONTONDAÏT, kong-tong-dàng, adj. m. fem. — e, surg. blunt, confusing, blurring. Corps, instruments —, blunt bodies, instruments.

CONTORSION, kong-tor-syong, sf. 1 (mouvement violent) contortion, distortion, twist. — du cou, twist of the neck. 2 (by extension) wry face, contortion. Faire des —, to make faces, wry faces. 3 fine arts distortion.

CONTOUR, kong-toor, sm. 1 (ligne, surface) outline, contour. Tracer le — d'une figure, to trace the outline of a figure. Les — d'une draperie, the folds of a drapery. 2 (enceinte) circum, circumference. Le — d'une ville, d'une forêt, d'une contrée, the circumference of a town, of a forest, of a country.

CONTOURNÉ, ppa. of CONTOURNER, fem. — e, adjective. 1 crooked, ill-shaped, distorted. 2 Taille — e, ill-shaped waist. fig. Style —, ungraceful style.

CONTOURNER, kong-toor-nay, ra. 1 paint, sculpt. to give the proper contour to. 2 fam. (déformer) to distort, to twist. 3 quat. to wind round, to pass round.

SE CONTOURNER, tpr. to get out of shape, to get crooked.

CONTRACTANT, kong-trak-tàng, ppr. of CONTRACTER 1 adj. m. fem. — e, contracting. 2 Parties — es, contracting parties. 2 — s, sm. pl. contracting parties, contractors.

CONTRACTE, kong-trakt, adj. mf. gram. contracting.

CONTRACTÉE, ppa. of CONTRACTER, fem. — e, adjective. 1 contracted. Dentes — es au cabaret, teeth contracted at the ale-house. 2 med. caught, contracted. Maladie — e à l'armée, disease caught in the army. 3 contracted, distorted. Son cœur s'était si violemment — que, his heart had contracted so violently that. Balz.

CONTRACTÉL, kong-trak-tay, va. (Lat. contractare) 1 (faire une convention) to contract. — mariage, to marry. 2 (contracter mariage) a marriage. Je n'ai contracté aucun engagement qui m'eu empêché, I have entered into no engagement which would prevent me. Nod. L'étranger avait contracté un pacte avec le diable, the stranger had entered into a compact with the devil. Nod. Il venait de — un emprunt, he had just contracted a loan. Sand. Ne contractez pas de nouvelles dettes, do not make fresh debts. Balz. fig. — des obligations envers quelqu'un, to contract, to owe obligations to a person. fig. J'ai contracté une grande dette envers la France, I am under great obligations to France. Chat. absol. Le mineur est incapable de —, a minor is incapable of contracting. — amitié avec quelqu'un, to contract friendship with a person. 3 (acquiescer) to contract, to acquiesce. — de bonnes, de mauvaises habitudes, to acquire good habits, to fall into bad habits. — un goût de moisi, of rancid, to acquire a musty, a rancid taste. (by extension) Les cafés contractèrent une splendeur inouïe, the coffee-houses suddenly displayed unheard-of splendor. Balz. 4 med. to contract, to catch, to get (one's malady, a disease). 5 (resserrer) to contract. L'impatience contractait ses lèvres, impatience contracted his lips. Saint. 6 gram. to contract.

SE CONTRACTER, tpr. 1 (être contracté) to be contracted. 2 (se former) to be formed. Voilà comment notre amitié s'était contractée, that is how our friendship sprung up. 3 (s'acquiescer) to be caught, to acquiesce. 4 med. (se gagner) to be caught, to get. 5 (se resserrer) to be contracted. Ses mains — ses pieds glacés se contractaient avec violence, his cold hands and feet were violently contracted. Ab. 6 gram. to be contracted.

CONTRACTILE, kong-trak-teel, adj. mf. physiol. contractile, contractile.

CONTRACTILITÉ, kong-trak-teel-tay, sf. physiol. contractility, contractibility, contractibleness.

CONTRACTION, kong-trak-syong, sf. 1 phys. (resserrement) contraction. Force de —, force of contraction. 2 physiol. contraction. — des muscles, des nerves, contractions of the muscles, of the nerves. — du cœur, contraction of the heart. 3 gram. contraction.

CONTRACTUEL, kong-trak-tuayl, adj. m. fem. — le, law stipulated by contract.

CONTRACTURE, kong-trak-tür, sf. 4 1 diminution. 2 med. contraction.

CONTRADICTEUR, kong-trah-dik-tubr, sm. 1 contradictor, contradictor. 2 law. Legitimate —, legal opponent, adversary.

CONTRADICTION, kong-trah-dik-syong, sf. 1 (action de contredire) contra- diction, opposition. La loi passa sans —, the bill passed without opposition. Etre en — avec quelqu'un, to be at variance with a person. Faire quelque chose par esprit de —, to do a thing out of a spirit of contradiction. 2 (opposition) inconsistency, discrepancy. Mes pensées, mes sentiments s'étaient que —, my thoughts, my sentiments were all in contradiction with each other. Chat. Etre en — avec soi-même, to be inconsistent. Impliquer —, to be contradictory, to contain a contradiction. fig. Cet homme est la — même, that man is inconsistency itself.

CONTRADICTOIRE, kong-trah-dik-twar, adj. mf. 1 contradictory, contradictions, inconsistencies. Discours — s, contradictory speeches. 2 law. after hearing both sides, in presence of the adverse parties. Arrêt —, peremptory decree.

CONTRADICTOIREMENT, kong-trah-dik-twar-màng, adv. 1 contradictorily, inconsistently. 2 law. after hearing both parties. Arrêt rendu —, decree given after hearing both parties.

CONTRAIGNABLE, kong-tray-nyabl', adj. mf. law. compellable.

CONTRAINDRE, kong-trang-dr', ra. com. like CRAINDRE, (Lat. constringere) 1 (forcer, obliger) to constrain, to force, to oblige, to coerce. Je saurais bien l'y contraindre, I shall know how to force him to it. Une fois même, elles les contraignent de se rembarquer, once even, they forced them to re-embark. Aug. Th. Ils le contraignent à force de supplications à se marier, by dint of entreaties, they obliged him to marry. Saint. Ce livre que tu m'as contraindre à lire, this book that you forced me to read. Balz. On l'y contraindra par force, he will be forced to do it. — quelqu'un par les voies de droit, par voie de justice, to force a person by legal means to do a thing. absol. La religion ne doit pas —, mais persuader, religion ought not to constrain, but persuade. 2 (mettre dans la nécessité de) to constrain, to compel. L'orage qui survint nous contraignit de chercher un abri, the storm that came on compelled us to seek shelter. C'est ce qui m'a contrainst à agir ainsi, that is what constrained me to act in that manner. 3 (gérer) to lay, to put a restraint upon. Je ne veux vous — en aucune manière, I will lay no restraint upon you in any way. — ses goûts, son humeur, to restrain one's tastes, one's temper. 4 absol. (mettre à l'étroit) to cramp, to straiten.

SE CONTRAINDRE, tpr. (se gêner, se retenir) to constrain one's self, to restrain one's self, to lay a restraint upon one's self. Ne vous contraignez pas pour moi, je vous prie, pray, don't put yourself out of the way for me. La reine même se contraignit jusqu'à lui faire bon visage, the queen even constrained herself so far as to receive him kindly. Bar. Le voyageur se contraignit d'abord, esperant que, the traveller restrained himself at first, hoping that. Saint.

CONTRAIT, kong-trang, ppa. of CONTRAINDRE, fem. — e, adjective. 1 (forcé) constrained, compelled, forced, obliged. Le duc se vit — de licencier son armée, the duke saw himself obliged to dismiss his troops. Bar. Je fus — de rester sur le dos, I was compelled to remain on my back. Chat. 2 (gêné, embarrasé) constrained, stiff. Avoir l'air —, to look stiff. Il trouvait dans son ami quelque chose de —, he found his friend somewhat stiff. Sand. Manières — es, constrained manners. 3 fig. des productions de l'esprit, of literary productions stiff, starchy. 4 absol. (à l'étroit) cramped, straitened, pinched.

CONTRAÎNTE, kong-trangt, sf. 4 (violence) constraint, compulsion. Employer la —, to use compulsion. J'aurais, s'il le faut, recours à la —, if necessary, I will have recourse to force. G. Del. Jamais je n'agirai par —, never will I act under restraint. 2 (renferme que l'on s'impose) constrained, restrained. Elle trouvait dans la — même qu'elle s'imposait un nouveau tourment, she found fresh torments in the very restraint she imposed upon herself. Sand. Vivre dans une — perpétuelle, to live under perpetual restraint. 3 Absolu (gêne dans les habits) tightness. fig. La — de la mesure, de la rime, the restraint of the measure, of the rhyme. 4 law. — par corps, arrest for debt. 5 innumens. Décerner une —, to issue a summons.

CONTRAIRE, kon-trayr, adj. mf. (Lat. contrarius) 1 (des choses, of things) contrary. Ce passage présente deux sens —, this passage offers two different meanings. Aller, marcher en sens —, to go, to walk, in an opposite direction. Ramer en sens —, to row against the tide. Cela est — à la vérité, that is contrary to truth. Dans le cas —, should it be otherwise. Je suis d'un avis — au vôtre, my opinion is contrary to yours. 2 (des personnes, of persons) adverse, opposed. Les provinces du midi étaient — à ce qu'on avait fait, the southern provinces were opposed to what had been done. Bar. Qui vous rend à vous-même en un jour si —, what makes you in one day so inconsistent with yourself? Rac. 3 law. Les parties sont —, the parties are at issue. 4 (noisible) contrary, hurtful, injurious, prejudicial. Cela est — à vos intérêts, that is prejudicial to your interest. — à la santé, injurious to the health. Cette boisson vous est —, that drink is bad for your health.

CONTRAIRE, sm. 4 (l'opposé) contrary. Vous m'avez dit tout le —, you told me quite the contrary. Il a fait tout le — de ce que je lui avais commandé, he did quite the contrary of what I had ordered him. Elle est le — d'une nature sympathique, she is the very reverse of a sympathetic nature. St-B. m. Aller so — d'une chose, to go against, contrary to, to ginsay a thing. 2 —s, pl. Les —s, contraries. Concilier les —s, to reconcile contraries.

AU CONTRAIRE, BIEN AU CONTRAIRE, TOUT AU CONTRAIRE, adv. loc. on the contrary, quite the contrary.

CONTRAIREMENT, kon-trayr-mang, adv. contrarily.

CONTRALTO, kon-tral-to, sm. (It.) mus. contralto.

CONTRAIRIANT, kon-trah-rjang, ppr. of CONTRAIRE, adj. m. lem. —E, 1 (qui se plat à contredire) provoking, contradictory, cross. C'est une personne très —e, he is a very provoking person. Esprit —, cross disposition. 2 (de nature à contrarier) provoking, teasing, vexatious, annoying. Je ne sais rien de plus — qu'une pareille situation, I know of nothing more annoying than such a situation. Tb. Gaut. Quoi de plus — que de, what can be more vexatious than. Tb. Gaut.

CONTRAIRE, ppa. of CONTRAIRE, fem. —E, adjective, 1 vexed, thwarted, crossed. 2 naut. Navire — par la marée, par le vent, ship making head against the tide, wind-bound.

CONTRAIRIER, kon-trah-rjay, va. (des CONTRAIREMENTS, VOUS CONTRAIREZ, 1 (se montrer contraire, s'opposer) to thwart, to cross, to run counter to, to contradict. Tu me permettras de te — pour ton bien, you must allow me to contradict you for your own good. Balz. Il m'a fallu beaucoup de courage pour — les desirs de mon oncle, it required a great deal of courage on my part to disappoint the wishes of my uncle. Balz. Je savais que mon oncle ne me contrarierait jamais, I knew that my uncle never opposed my wishes. Nod. (by extension) Dans ce pays l'homme contraire peu le travail de la nature, in that country, man does little to counteract the work of nature. Ab. Il ne faut pas — la nature, nature must be let alone. 2 (des choses, of things) to be contrary to, to oppose, to be unfavourable, prejudicial, hurtful. Cette circonstance contrarie tous mes projets, that circumstance frustrates all my designs. 3 (taquiner) to provoke, to vex, to tease, to annoy. Pourquoi contrariez-vous votre frère? why do you tease your brother? Ses visites me contrariaient, his visits gave me annoyance. Absol. Il aime à —, he is fond of teasing.

SE CONTRAIRE, ppr. 4 (être en opposition) to be contrary, opposed to each other. 2 (se faire obstacle) to thwart, to counteract each other. 3 (se taquiner) to provoke, to tease, to vex each other. Ces deux enfants ne font que se —, those two children do nothing but tease each other.

CONTRARIÉTÉ, kon-trah-rjay-tay, sf. 1 (opposition) contradiction, contrariety. — de lois, contradiction in the laws. — d'humeurs, de sentiments, d'opinions, contrariety of tempers, of sentiments, of opinions. 2 —s, pl. (obstacle, empêchement) cross, difficulty, contrariety. 3 (contre-temps) annoyance, nuisance. 4 (dépit) vexation Vous ne sauriez croire la — que j'en ai éprouvée, you cannot imagine how vexed I was.

CONTRASTANT, kon-tras-tang, ppr. of CONTRASTER. Ce bruit — avec les autres bruits qu'entouraient, this noise contrasting with the other noises that surrounded her. Sami. adj. m. lem. —E, contrasting. Figures —es, contrasting figures. Pensées —es, contrasting thoughts. Saint.

CONTRASTE, kon-trast, sm. 1 (opposition) contrast. — d'ombre et de lumière, the contrast of light and shade. Ses cheveux anciens fait — avec l'éclat de ses sourcils, her hair would have formed a contrast to the clong of her eyebrows. Nod. Les singuliers —s que présente le caractère de cet homme, the singular contrasts the character of that man presents. Saint. B. faisait avec S. le — le plus parfait, B. formed the most perfect contrast to S. Nod. 2 absol. lit. fine arts, contrast. Tout effet augmente par son —, an effect is heightened by the contrast. B. de St-P. L'ari des —s, the art of contrasting.

CONTRASTÉ, ppa. of CONTRASTER, fem. —E, adjective, contrasted.

CONTRASTER, kon-tras-tay, va. to contrast, to be a contrast, to form a contrast. La mise d'A. contrastait avec la misère de son logis, A's dress contrasted with the wretchedness of her lodging. Balz. Les lumières et les ombres de ce tableau contrastent bien, the lights and shades in this painting contrast well Chaque de ces questions contrastait avec la réalité, each of those questions contrasted with the reality. Sand. Aussi la mort de cet homme ne contrastait-elle pas avec sa vie? so that that man's death forms no contrast to his life? Balz.

CONTRASTÉ, va. paint. sculpt. to contrast.

CONTRAT, kon-trab, sm. (Lat. contractus) law. contract, deed. — à titre onéreux, contract by which both parties are bound to certain acts. — commutatif, synallagmatique, unilatéral, aléatoire, réciprocal contract, contract binding on one side only, contract depending on uncertain events. — consensuel, solennel, consensual contract. — réel, real contract, contract under seal. — de vente, deed of sale. — de mariage, marriage articles, settlements. Les clauses, les conditions d'un —, the clauses, the conditions of a contract. Rédiger un —, to draw up a contract. Passer un —, to enter into a contract. Signer un —, to sign a contract. Signer à un —, to witness a deed. Enregistrer un —, to register a deed.

CONTRAVENTION, kon-trab-vang-syong, sf. contravention, infraction. Être en — avec les règlements, to infringe the regulations. Commettre une —, to be in contravention. — de simple police, offence against the regulations of the police.

CONTRE, kon-tr, prep. 1 (marque mouvement sur, choc, etc.) against. Il se retourna vivement — le chien et lui allongea un coup de pied, he turned quickly round on the dog and gave him a kick. Marcher — l'ennemi, to march against the enemy. Lancer une pierre — au arbre, to throw a stone at a tree. Ramer — le courant, to row up stream. Se briser la tête — une muraille, to break one's head against a wall. Heurter — au meuble, to knock against a piece of furniture. Les voilà aux prises, pieds — pieds, mains — mains, there they are fighting, foot against foot, hand against hand. Se battre — quelqu'un, to fight with a person. Avoir — soi tous les gens sages, to have all sensible men against one. Tournez vos coups — moi, direct your attack against me. Plaider — quelqu'un, to go to law with a person. Lutter — la mauvaise fortune, to struggle against ill luck. S'élever — le vice, to rise up against vice. Jansenistes — Molinistes, gens de lettres — gens de lettres, financiers — le peuple, femmes — maris, c'est une guerre perpétuelle, Jansenists against Molinists, literary men against literary men, monied men against the people, wives against husbands, it is continual war. Volt. — de pareils adversaires tous les moyens sont bons, every thing is fair against such adversaries. On s'y sert du hieulif, the bienfaiteur, the benefit is employed as an arm against the benefactor. La Font. Que pourrions — de tels hommes la crainte des blessures et la mort? of what weight with such men would be the fear of wounds and death? Chat. Que voulez-vous qu'il fit — trois? what would you have him do against three? Cor. Prendre la défense de quelqu'un envers et — tous, to take up the defence of a person against all men. Un scélérat endurci — le mépris public, a villain hardened against public contempt. Mes pleurs ne pourraient tenir — les soins d'A., my grief could not resist the sedulous attentions of A. Rac. — l'attente générale, against the general expectation. Être irrité — quelqu'un, to be angry with a person. La haine qu'elle avait — sa rivale, the hatred she bore to her rival. Dis-moi donc ce que la femme a — moi, tell me what your wife has against me. Leclerc. Je n'ai rien sur le cœur — vous, I bear you no ill will. M. de Sév. Pesier, jurer — quelqu'un, to storm, to swear at a person. Répondre des calomnies — quelqu'un, to circulate calumnies against a person. Il a écrit un gros livre — les philosophes, he has written a big book against philosophers. Tout le monde est hardi — elle, every one shows her a bold front. Mich. Lui — les associations, law against associations. Sotire les femmes, sovereign on women. Qui l'avez-vous à dire — cela? what have you to say against that? Il ne cesse de parler — vous, he is always twirling against you. Je ne sais rien — lui, I know nothing to his prejudice. Avoir — soi, not to have in one's favour. La seule chose qu'il ait — lui, c'est qu'il n'est pas économe, the only thing against him is that he is not economical.

fig. Aller — vent et marée, to go against wind and tide. prov. fig. C'est le pot de terre — le pot de fer, it is the earthen pot against the iron one. (adverbial.) Toute l'assemblée a voté —, the whole assembly voted against it. Les hommes, les événements tout est —, men, events, every thing conspires against it. Beaum. Je n'ai rien à dire —, I have nothing to say against it. Parler à la fois pour et —, to speak at the same time for and against.

2 (marque l'opposition, la proximité, against, near, close to. Mon champ est — le bois, my field is near the wood. Sa maison est — la mienne, his house is close to mine. Être appuyé — un arbre, to lean against a tree. Ranger des sarmets — la balle, to place vine-shoots against the hedge. J'appiquai mon oreille — le mur, I applied my ear to the wall. Ah. 3 (contraintement) a contrary to, against. Cela est — honneur, that is contrary to honour. Parler — sa pensée, to speak contrary to one's thought. Agir — ses intérêts, to act contrary to one's interest. Il a fait cela — l'avis de ses parents, he did that against the advice of his parents. Pocher — la prudence, to sin against prudence. 4 (en échange de) to, for, in exchange for. Il avait vingt chances — une, he had twenty chances to one. Je n'aurais pas alors — le Louvre et ses trésors changé les bois, I would not then have exchanged these woods for the Louvre and its treasures. La Font. 400,000 francs remis personnellement à S. — reçu, 400,000 francs remitted personally to S. in exchange for a receipt. Ab.

TOUT CONTRE, adv. loc. 1 quite close to, close by, hard by. 2 (d'une porte, of a door) on a-jar, ajar.

CI-CONTRE, adv. loc. on the other side, in the margin. La page —, the page on the other side. Voyez —, see margin.

LA-CONTRE, adv. loc. absol. against that. Moi.

PAR CONTRE, adv. loc. absol. by way of compensation.

CONTRE, sm. against, the opposite side. Souvenir le pour et le —, to placid for both sides. C'est une chose très-délicate, il y a du pour et du —, it is a very delicate concern, much may be said pro and con.

CONTRE-ALLÉE, sf. pl. CONTRE-ALLÉES, side-walk, side-alley.

CONTRE-AMIRAL, sm. pl. CONTRE-AMIRAUX, 1 (titre) rear-admiral. 2 (vaisseau) rear-admiral's ship.

CONTRE-APPEL, sm. pl. CONTRE-APPELS, 1 second call. 2 cavating.

CONTRE-APPROCHE, sf. pl. fort. counter-approach.

CONTRE-BALANCE, va. nous CONTRE-BALANÇONS, il CONTRE-BALANCE, 1 a counterbalance, 2 fig. (équivaloir à, compenser) to counterbalance, to make up for.

SE CONTRE-BALANCER, ppr. to be counterbalanced, to counterbalance one another.

CONTRE-BANDÉ, adj. m. fem. —E, her. counter-banded.

CONTRE-DAS (EN), adv. loc. arch. downwards.

CONTRE-BASSE, sf. pl. CONTRE-BASSES, 1 mus. counter-bass, bass, double bass. Voix de —, double-bass voice. 2 celui qui joue) double-bass player, player on the bass-viol.

CONTRE-BASSISTE, sm. pl. CONTRE-BASSISTES, mus. double-bass player.

CONTRE-BASSON, sm. pl. CONTRE-BASSONS, mus. double bassoon.

CONTRE-BATTERIE, sf. pl. CONTRE-BATTERIES, 1 counter-battery. 2 fig. counter-plot.

CONTRE-BIAIS (X), adv. loc. contrariwise. Copier une étoile à —, to cut a piece of stuff contrariwise.

CONTRE-BUTANT, ppr. of CONTRE-BOÛTER, sm. 1 counter-fort, buttress. 2 adj. butress. Mur —, wall serving as a buttress.

CONTRE-BOÛTE, va. arch. to buttress, to prop, to shore up.

CONTRE-DRASSE, va. naut. — les voiles, to brace about the yards.

CONTRE-CALQUE, va. engr. to reverse a drawing.

CONTRE-CANIVEAU, sm. pl. CONTRE-CANIVEAUX, build. stone placed beside the kennel-stone.

CONTRE-CHASSIS, sm. pl. CONTRE-CHASSIS, tech. outer window.

CONTRE-CREYRON, sm. pl. CONTRE-CREYRONS, her. counter-creyron.

CONTRE-CLEF, sf. pl. CONTRE-CLEFS, arch. voussour next the key-stone right and left.

CONTRE-CŒUR, sm. pl. CONTRE-CŒURS, arch. back (of a chimney).

CONTRE-CŒUR (X), adv. loc. unwillingly, reluctantly. Faire quelque chose à —, to do a thing reluctantly.

CONTRE-COUP, sm. pl. CONTRE-COUPS, 4 (répercussion) rebound. La balle ayant frappé le mur, il fut blessé du —, the ball having struck against the wall, he was hurt by the rebound. 2 (choc, à la partie opposée) counter-blow. 3 fig. counter-stroke, result, consequence. Son genre ayant été ruiné, il l'a été aussi par —, the ruin of his son-in-law resulted in his own. Il en sent le —, he feels the counter-stroke. Mich.

CONTRE-COUBANT, sm. pl. CONTRE-COUBANTS, counter-current, under-tow.

CONTRE-DÉGAGER, va. fenc. to counter-disengage.

CONTRE-ÉCARTELÉ, adj. m. fem. —E, her. counter-quartered.

CONTRE-ÉCHANGE, sm. exchange.

CONTRE-ÉQUESTRE, sf. counter-inquest, counter-inquiry.

CONTRE-ÉPAULETTE, sf. counter-epolet.

CONTRE-ÉPREUVE, sf. 1 engr. counter-proof. 2 fig. imitation. 3 polit. counter-verification.

CONTRE-FIGURE, sf. pl. CONTRE-FIGURES, carp. brace, strut, bearer.

CONTRE-FORT, sm. pl. CONTRE-FORTS, 4 arch. counter-fort. 2 geog. lesser chain, spur. 3 tech. stiffener.

CONTRE-FUGUE, sf. pl. CONTRE-FUGUES, mus. counter-fugue.

CONTRE-GARDE, sf. pl. CONTRE-GARDES, fort. counter-guard.

CONTRE-HACHE, va. draw. engr. to cross-hatch, to counter-hatch.

CONTRE-HAUT (EN), adv. loc. upwards.

CONTRE-IOUR, sm. pl. CONTRE-JOURS, false light.

CONTRE-JOUR, adv. loc. in an unfavourable light, in a false light. Se mettre à —, to place one's self in a false light. Voir un tableau à —, to see a painting in a false light.

CONTRE-LATTE, va. to counter-lath.

CONTRE-LÉTTRE, sf. pl. CONTRE-LÉTTRES, law. defeasance.

CONTRE-MAÎTRE, sm. pl. CONTRE-MAÎTRES, 1 naut. master's mate, boatswain's mate. 2 (ouvrier dirigeant) foreman, overlooker, overseer.

CONTRE-MARCHE, sf. pl. CONTRE-MARCHES, 1 mil. counter-march. 2 counter-movement. 3 naut. counter-march.

CONTRE-MARÉE, sf. pl. CONTRE-MARÉES, phys. neap-tide, small-tide.

CONTRE-MARQUE, sf. pl. CONTRE-MARQUES, 1 com. (seconde marque) counter-mark. 2 (dans les spectacles) check.

CONTRE-MARQUE, va. 1 — des marchandises, to counter-mark goods. 2 naut. to counter-mark.

CONTRE-MINE, sf. pl. CONTRE-MINES, 1 mil. fort. counter-mine. 2 fig. counter-mine, counter-plot.

CONTRE-MINER, va. 1 to counter-mine. 2 fig. to counter-mine, to counter-plot.

CONTRE-MUR, sm. pl. CONTRE-MURS, counter-mure, contramure.

CONTRE-MÛRE, va. to counter-mure, to contramure.

CONTRE-OPPOSITION, sf. pl. CONTRE-OPPOSITIONS, polit. counter-opposition.

CONTRE-ORDRE, sm. pl. CONTRE-ORDRES, countermand, counter-order. Donner, recevoir un —, to give, to receive a counter-order.

CONTRE-PARTIE, sf. pl. CONTRE-PARTIES, 1 mus. counterpart. 2 mus. counterpart, second part. 3 fig. (opinion contraire) opposite opinion, sentiment, reverse. Quoi qu'on lui dise, il prend toujours la —, he always misconstrues what is said to him.

CONTRE-PENTE, sf. pl. CONTRE-PENTES, hydr. descent.

CONTRE-PIED, sm. 4 houl. wrong scent, back-scent. 2 fig. (le contraire) contrary, reverse. Ces gens avaient pris justement le — du testament, these people had understood quite the reverse of the will La Font.

CONTRE-POIDS, sm. pl. CONTRE-POIDS, 4 (poids) counterpoise, counter-balance, balance-weight. Le — d'une horloge, the fly of a clock. 2 fig. counterpoise, equilibrium.

CONTRE-POIL, sm. what is against the grain. fig. Prendre le —, to go against the grain.

À CONTRE-POIL, adv. loc. against the grain. Étriller un cheval à —, to curry a horse the wrong way of the hair. Brosser un chapeau à —, to brush a hat the wrong way of the nap. fig. Prendre une affaire à —, to take a thing in a wrong sense. fig. Prendre quelqu'un à —, to go the wrong way to work with a person.

CONTRE-POINT, sm. pl. CONTRE-POINTS, mos. counterpoint.

CONTRE-POISON, sm. pl. CONTRE-POISONS, antidote, counter-poison. fig. corrective.

CONTRE-RAIL, sm. pl. CONTRE-RAILS, guard-rail.

CONTRE-RÉVOLUTION, sf. pl. CONTRE-RÉVOLUTIONS, counter-revolution.

CONTRE-RÉVOLUTIONNAIRE, adj. mf. 1 counter-revolutionary. 2 (substantif.) counter-revolutionist.

CONTRE-SANGLON, sm. pl. CONTRE-SANGLONS, man. girth-leather.

CONTRE-SCÈLE, sm. pl. CONTRE-SCÈLES, counter-scal.

CONTRE-SCÈLLER, va. to counterscal.

CONTRE-SEING, sm. pl. CONTRE-SEINGS, counter-signature, countersign.

CONTRE-SENS, sm. pl. CONTRE-SENS, 1 (contraire au sens naturel) contrary, opposite meaning, wrong sense. Prendre le — d'un mot, des paroles de quelqu'un, to put a wrong construction on a word, on the words of a person. 2 (interprétation vicieuse) wrong reading, misconstruction, mistranslation. 3 (manière vicieuse de déclamer, etc.) misinterpretation. 4 (des étoffes, of stuffs) wrong way, wrong side. 5 fig. wrong side.

À CONTRE-SENS, adv. loc. in a wrong sense, in a wrong way.

CONTRE-SIGNER, va. 1 to countersign. 2 admin. — une lettre, to frank a letter.

CONTRE-TEMPS, sm. pl. CONTRE-TEMPS, 1 (accident) disappointment, untoward accident, mischance. Essayer des —, to meet with mishaps, disappointments. 2 danc. contre-temps. 3 mus. counter-measure.

À CONTRE-TEMPS, adv. loc. unseasonably, out of season. Agir, parler à —, to act, to speak unseasonably.

CONTRE-VÉRITÉ, sf. pl. CONTRE-VÉRITÉS, irony, ironical language.

CONTREBANDE, kong-truh-bàng, sf. 1 smuggling, contraband. Faire la —, to smuggle. Faire entrer en —, to smuggle in. Marchandises de —, smuggled goods. 2 (marchandises) smuggled goods. fig. fam. C'est un homme de —, he is a black sheep.

CONTREBANDIER, kong-truh-bàng-dyay, sm. fem. CONTREBANDIÈRE, smuggler, contrabandist.

CONTREHARRÉ, kong-truh-hah-ray, adj. m. fem. —E, her. counter-barred.

CONTRECARRE, kong-truh-kar-ay, va. to thwart, to cross. Se plaire à — quelqu'un, to take delight in crossing a person.

CONTREDANSE, kong-truh-dàngs, sf. 1 contre-danse, contra-dance, quadrille, country-dance. Une figure de —, a figure in a quadrille. Danser une —, to dance a quadrille. 2 (air) quadrille. Jouer une —, to play a quadrille.

CONTREDÉTER, kong-truh-dah-tay, va. to change the date.

CONTREDEUR, kong-truh-deer, va.

VOUS CONTREDISEZ; CONTREDISEZ (conj. like DIRE all other tenses) 1) to contradict, to gainsay. — quelque'un, to contradict a person. J'oserai peut-être avec quelque raison — moi malire, if I might presume with some show of reason to contradict my master. La Font. Personne ne viendra me —, nobody will come to contradict me. Ab. Chaque ouvrage contredit les dix-neuf autres et tous contredisent ce que j'ai vu de mes yeux, each work contradicts the nineteen others, and all are in opposition with what I have seen with my own eyes. Merv. absol. Il aime à —, he is fond of contradicting. Quiconque avec elle naitra jusqu'au bout contredira, whoever is born with a contradicting temper to the last will contradict. La Font. 2) être opposé, contraire à, to be contradictory to. Rien qui contredit formellement ce que j'avais vu et entendu, nothing that could formally be in contradiction with what I had seen and heard. Ab. Un tel règlement contredit la nature, such regulation is unnatural. Volt. 3) law. to disprove.

SE CONTREDIRE, rpr. to contradict each other, to contradict one's self, to be inconsistent with each other. Ces deux témoins se contredisent, those two witnesses contradict each other. De deux vérités qui se contredisent, la plus grande doit l'emporter, when two truths are in contradiction with each other, assent must be given to the greater. Bar. Les hommes se contredisent toujours dans les mœurs et dans leurs lois, men are always inconsistent in their manners and in their laws. Volt. Vous vous contredisez vous-même, you are at variance with yourself.

CONTREDISANT, cong-truh-de-zang, rpr. of CONTREDIRE, adj. m. fem. — E, contradicting. Humeur — E, a contradicting temper. La Font.

CONTREDIT, cong-truh-dee, ppa. of CONTREDIRE, fem. — E, sm. 1) (little used) (réponse) contradiction, answer. 2) — s, pl. law. confutation. Les dits et — s, the attacks and the replies. Sans tant de — s, without so many discussions. La Font.

SANS CONTREDIT, adv. loc. unquestionably. Le personnage le plus intéressant était sans — J. H., the most interesting personage was unquestionably J. H. Ab. C'était sans — le plus beau des K. that was beyond all dispute the finest of the K. Sud.

CONTRÉE, cong - tray, sf. country, region. — fertile, pauvre, fertile, barren country. Venir d'une autre —, to come from another country. Toutes les — s de l'Afrique, all the countries of Africa.

CONTRÉFAÇON, cong-truh-fah-song, sf. 1) action, counterfeit, counterfeit, piracy, imitation, forgery, infringement. La — d'une machine, d'une statue, d'un dessin, d'un livre, etc., infringement on the patent of a machine, spurious copy of a statue, pirated edition of a drawing, of a book, etc. La — littéraire, industrielle, piracy, fraudulent imitation of goods. Condamner quelqu'un pour —, to condemn a person for counterfeiting, for forgery. 2) (produit) spurious copy, pirated edition. Il y a plusieurs — s de cet ouvrage, there are several pirated editions of that work. Ceci est une —, this is a pirated edition.

CONTREFAÇON, cong-truh-fak-tuhr, sm. counterfeit, forger, infringer, pirate, imitator.

CONTRÉFACTION, cong-trok-fak-syong, sf. 4) crim. law. (imitation des monnaies, etc.) forgery. See CONTRÉFAÇON. 2) l'action d'imiter l'écriture, etc., counterfeiting CONTREFAIRE, cong-truh-fayr, ra. conj. like FAIRE, 4) représenter ou imiter to counterfeit, to imitate. — la voix, les gestes, la démarche de quelqu'un, to imitate the voice, the gestures, the gait of a person. 2) in a bad sense to counterfeit, to feign to be. — le lou, to feign to be mad. Celle-ci contrefait la boiteuse, the latter feigned to be lame. La Font.

Je contrefais le passionné auprès de G. I feigned with G. to be ardently in love. Le Sage. 3) (déguiser) to disguise. — sa voix, son écriture, to disguise one's voice, one's handwriting. 4) imiter par contrefaçon to counterfeit. Il venait de — la signature de N. he had just forged the signature of N. Balz. Cet imprimeur avait contrefait l'ouvrage d'un de ses confrères, that printer had issued a piratical edition of the work of one of his brother printers. Le Sage. — une étoffe, une machine, to make an imitation of a stuff, to infringe on the patent of a machine. 5) (rendre difforme) to deform.

SE CONTREFAIRE, rpr. 1) (déguiser son caractère) to disguise one's self. Que sert-il qu'on se contrefasse? what is the use of disguising one's self? La Font. 2) (être contrefait) to be counterfeited, imitated. C'est une de ces écritures qui se peuvent se —, it is one of those handwritings that cannot be imitated.

CONTREFAIT, cong-truh-fay, ppa. of CONTREFAIRE, fem. — E, adjective, 1) counterfeited, counterfeit, imitated. Écriture —, forged writing, disguised writing. 2) (difforme) deformed. Une taille toute — E, a waist quite out of shape.

CONTREMANDER, cong-truh-mang-day, ra. to command. — sa voiture, on dinner, une revue, to command one's carriage, a dinner, a review.

CONTRÉSCAIRE, cong-trays-karp, sf. for CONTRÉFAIRE.

CONTRÉVALATION, kongtré - val-lah-syong, sf. mil. Ligue de —, line of contravallation.

CONTRÉVENANT, cong-truh-yuh-nang, rpr. of CONTRÉVENIR, sm. fem. — E, offender, transgressor, infractor.

CONTRÉVENIR, cong-truhv-neer, m. conj. like VENIR, to offend, to transgress, to infringe. — aux commandements de Dieu, to transgress the commandments of God. — à la loi, to violate the law. — aux ordres qu'on a reçus, to infringe the orders received.

CONTRÉVENT, cong-truh-vang, sm. outside shulter.

CONTRÉVARIABLE, cong-tre-bi-abi', sm. tax-pay'r. rate-payer.

CONTRIBUER, cong-tre-bi-ay, vn. 1) (aider, coopérer) to contribute. — au bonheur de quelqu'un, to contribute to the happiness of a person. — de ses soins, de son argent, to contribute by one's care, money. Je n'y ai contribué en rien, I was not in the least accessory to it. Cette plaie comment a-t-elle contribué à ma guérison? how did this plant contribute to my cure? Saint. Ces deux sacs de doubloons contribueront autant que l'espérance au changement qui se fit en moi, the change operated in me was brought about as much by these two bags of doubloons as by hope. Le Sage. 2) (payer une part) to contribute. — aux charges publiques, to contribute to the public expenses. — pour moitié dans une dépense, à une dépense, to contribute the half of an expense. — aux pertes, to contribute to the losses. 3) (payer une somme à l'ennemi) to be laid under contribution.

CONTRIBUTION, cong-tre-bi-syong, sf. 4) (part dans une dépense, etc.) contribution. — aux dettes, aux charges d'une société, d'une succession, contribution to the debts, to the expenses of a society, of an inheritance. — aux pertes, contribution to the losses. 2) (specialty) tax. — foncière, land-tax. — s directes, direct, assessed taxes. — s indirectes, indirect taxes, excise revenue. Percepteur des — s, tax-gatherer. Employé des — s, excise-man. Bureau des — s, excise-office. Rôle, registre des — s, rate-book. 3) law. Contribution par —, average, general average. 4) war. Lever des — s, to levy contributions. — s en denrées, in kind, contributions in kind, in money. (by extension) Mettre ses amis à —, to lay one's friends under contribution. Mettre à — la charité, la éduité publique, to lay public charity, credulity under contribution. fig. Les plus riches magasins furent mis à —, the richest shops were laid under contribution. Saint. Tous les arts étaient mis à — dans ce travail coquin, all the arts were laid under contribution in this elegant work. Nod.

CONTRISTE, ppa. of CONTRAIRE, fem. — E, adjective, saddened, grieved, afflicted.

CONTRISTER, cong-tris-tay, ra. to sadden, to grieve, to afflict, to pain. Cette nouvelle lui a contristé le cœur, that news made him sad at heart.

CONTRIT, cong-tree, adj. m. fem. — E, 4) theol. contrite. Un cœur —, a contrite heart. 2) affligé, afflicted, (in joke) Quel air — what a penitent look! CONTRITION, cong-tre-syong, sf. theol. contrition. Un acte de —, an act of contrition.

CONTRÔLE, cong-trol, sm. 4) (registre double) counter-register. 2) ane. (inscription de certains actes) register, account. 3) ane. (le droit qu'on payait) registry-duty. 4) mil. lists, rolls, muster-roll. — Étre porté sur le —, to be carried on the lists. — Étre rayé des — s, to be struck out of the lists of the army. 5) (marque sur les ouvrages d'or et d'argent) mark of the hall, hall - marked stamp. — Bureau de —, stamp-office. 6) (le lieu) stamp-office. 7) (theat.) controlleur's office, check-taker's office. 8) verification) control, checking. 9) fig. (subversif) control, censure. Je ne veux pas subir son —, I will not be under his control.

CONTRÔLE, ppa. of CONTRÔLER, fem. — E, See tenses of the verb. Bijou —, jewel bearing the mark of the hall, hall-marked. fig. L'intention de l'auteur était analysée, — E, appraised, the author's intention was analyzed, marked, estimated. Sand.

CONTRÔLER, cong-tro-lay, ra. 4) anc. (enregistrer) to control, to register. — un acte de vente, to register a deed of sale. Faire — un exploit, to have a writ registered. 2) (mettre le courtois) to stamp, to put the mark of the hall. 3) (vérifier) to control, to check (des comptes, accounts). fig. Après avoir toujours cédé à ses envies et ne les avoir jamais contrôlées par le devoir, after having always indulged his inclinations without ever controlling them by duty. St-B. 4) fig. (censurer) to control, to censure. (intransitivement) Il contrôle son toot, he finds fault with every thing.

CONTRÔLEUR, cong-tro-luhr, sm. 4) controller, comptroller. — s, des contributions directes, comptroller of direct taxes. — des ouvrages d'or et d'argent, comptroller of gold and silver articles. — au monnayage, comptroller of the mint. Le — d'un théâtre, check-taker. 2) fig. fem. CONTRÔLEUSE, faul-tuder.

CONTRÔUVE, ppa. of CONTRÔVER, fem. — E, adjective, invented. Des faits — s, fabricated facts. La nouvelle était — E, the news was a mere invention.

CONTRÔUVER, cong-tro-voay, ra. to invent, to fabricate, to forge.

CONTRÔUVERSABLE, cong-tro-vayr-sabi', adj. mf. controvertible.

CONTRÔVERSE, cong-tro-vayrs, sf. 4) (débat) controversy. Il y a là matière à —, that is controvertible. 2) theol. controversy.

CONTRÔVERSER, ppa. of CONTRÔVER, fem. — E, adjective, controverted, questionable.

CONTRÔVERSER, cong-tro-vayr-say, ra. to controvert. absol. Nous étions à —, we were debating.

CONTRÔUVERSISTE, cong-tro-vayr-sist, sm. controvertist.

CONTUMACE, cong-tu-mas, sf. 4) crim. law. contumacy, default. Être condamné par —, to be condemned in default. Condamner par —, to give judgment against a person in a state of contumacy.

Purger sa —, to purge one's contumacy. 2

(adversely for contumax, mf.) contumacious.
CONTUMACER, kong-tu-mah-say, vn.
crim. law. (little used) to cast for non-appearance, to non-suit, to outlaw.

CONTI MAX, kong-ti-maks, adj. mf.
4 (substantiv.) person guilty of contumacy.

CONTUS, kong-tu, adj. m. fem. —E.
(Lat. contusus) surg. bruised, contused.
Plaie —E, bruised sore.

CONTUSION, kong-tu-young, sf. surg.
bruise, contusion.

CONTUSIONNE, ppa. of CONTUSIONNER,
fem. —E, adjective. bruised, contused.

CONTUSIONNER, kong-tu-young-nay,
va. to bruise, to contuse. Sa chute l'a tout contusionné, his fall has bruised him all over.

CONVENIR, prp. to bruise one's self, to contuse one's self.

CONVAINCRE, kong-vang-kang, adj.
m. fem. —E, convincing. Preuve —E, convincing proof. Ce qu'il dit est —, what he says brings conviction with it.
Elles le trouvent aussi — dans ses discours que redoutable par ses armes, they find him as convincing in his discourse as formidable by his arms. St-B.

CONVAINCRE, kong-vang-kr', va.
conj. like vaincre, 4 (amener à recon-naître) to convince, to satisfy. — quelqu'un d'une vérité, to convince a person of a truth. Elle convainquit sa mère de la nécessité d'allaiter un bon feu dans la cheminée, she satisfied her mother of the necessity of lighting a good fire in the chimney. Balz. also. Avoir l'art de —, to have the art of convincing. 2 (donner des preuves) to convict. — un accusé du crime qui lui est imputé, to convict a prisoner of the crime laid to his charge.

SE CONVAINCRE, prp. 1 (s'assurer) to convince, to satisfy one's self. Vous pouvez vous en — par vos propres yeux, you may be convinced of the truth of it with your own eyes. Se laisser — à l'évi-dence, to yield to evidence. 2 recipr.
(se persuader l'un l'autre) to convince, to satisfy each other.

CONVAINCU, kong-vang-kü, ppa. of convaincre, fem. —E, adjective, 4 (convinced, satisfied). Etre —, to be convinced, satisfied. 3 convicted. — d'imposture, convicted of imposture. 3 law. Atteint et —, convicted. Etre atteint et — de meurtre, to be convicted of murder.

CONVAINQUANT, kong-vang-kang, prp.
of convaincre.

CONVALESCENCE, kong-vah-lesssangs, sf. convalescence. Entrer en —, to become convalescent. En pleine —, quite convalescent.

CONVALESCENT, kong-vah-less-sang,
adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat.) 4 convalescent. 2 (substantiv.) person in a state of convalescence.

CONVENABLE, kong-vang-nobl', adj. mf. 4 proper, suitable. — Il faut choisir un temps plus —, a more — suitable time must be chosen. Elle a fait un mariage —, she has made a suitable match. 5 (en rapport) fitting, suitable, fitted, meet. Je n'en pouvais trouver de plus — à mon humeur, I could find none that felt in more with my humour. Le Sage. Des projets de retraite — à mon âge, projects of retreat suitable to my age. J.-J. Rous. On l'a reçu d'une manière — à son rang, he was received in a manner suitable to his rank.
3 (décent) proper, right, decorous, becoming, seemly. Cela d'est pas — pour un homme de votre âge, that is not proper for a man of your age. 4 (avantageux) proper, convenient, advisable. J'ai jugé d'agir ainsi, I thought proper to act thus.

CONVENABLE, sm. propriety. En quoi dois-je vous être — ? in what does propriety consist?

CONVENABLEMENT, kong-vah-binh-nang, adv. properly, suitably, becomingly.

CONVENANCE, kong-vang-nangs, sf. 4 (conformité) fitness, suitability, agreement. — de goût, d'humeur, de caractère, similarity of tastes, of tempers, of character. Mariage de —, marriage of convenience, suitable marriage. 2 (biensance) decorum, good-breeding, propriety. Garder, observer les —, to keep, to observe the rules of decorum. Cela blesse les —, that breaks through all decorum. Raisons de —, motives of propriety. 3 (commodité) convenience, convenience. Cette terre m'a coûté cher, on m'a fait payer la —, I was made to pay that ground very dear, because it suited me. S'il a des villes à votre —, exiges-les, if he has any towns that suit you, require them from him. Bar.

CONVENANT, kong-vang-nang, prp. of convenir, adj. m. fem. —E, absol. becoming, proper, seemly, convenient.

CONVENIR, kong-neer, vn. (Lat. convenire) conj. like venir, 4 (faire un accord) to agree. — du prix de quelque chose, to agree about the price of a thing.
Ils sont convenus de partir ensemble, they agreed to set out together. Ils conviennent de se trouver à T., they agreed to meet at T. Bar. 2 (by extension) (s'accorder) to agree, to be agreed. Les historiens ne conviennent pas sur la date de cet événe-ment, historians are not agreed on the date of that event. 3 (devenir d'accord) to admit, to acknowledge, to allow, to grant, to own. Tout le monde convient que vous avez raison, every body admits that you are right. Convenez d'une parenté douloureuse, acknowledge a relationship of which.
Mich. Il est convenu de son tort, he owned he was in the wrong. Il convient que son frère était meilleur que lui, he owned that his brother was better than he. G. Sand. Pourquoi refusez-vous d'en — ? why do you refuse to acknowledge it? 4 (des choses, of things) (être conforme) to agree. Leurs dépositions conviennent en tout, they quite agree in their evidence. 5 être convenable) to suit, to be suitable. Ce monastère convient à la situation de mon âme, this monastery suits the disposition of my soul.
Chat. Ce rôle est le seul qui convienne à votre amitié, that is the only part consistent with your friendship. Chat. Le deuil de la nature convient à la douleur, nature in mourning harmonizes with grief. Lamart.
Ce n'est pas dans ces circonstances qu'il convient de faire des folies, it is not in those circumstances that it is advisable to commit acts of folly. Ah. La vie domes-tique lui semblait mieux — à son caractè-re, a domestic life seemed to suit his character better. Balz. Le mot convient à la chose, the word is in harmony with the thing. Il ne vous convient pas de parler ainsi, it is not becoming in you to speak in that way. * Tout cela ne convient qu'à nous, all that would be very well for us. La Font. 6 (plaire, agréer) to suit.
Je le regardai comme un sujet qui me convenait, je l'arrêtai, I looked upon him as the fellow I wanted, and I engaged him. Le Sage. Cette étoffe me convient très-bien, that stuff suits me very well. Il ne me convient nullement d'y aller, it by no means suits me to go thither. Inspire-toi de M. si cela te convient, draw your inspirations from M. if you think proper. Nod. 7 (impersonally) to be expedient, proper, right. On delibera sur ce qu'il convenait de faire, they deliberated on the proper measures to take. Il convenait pour l'intérêt des enfants, it was expedient for the interest of the children. B. de St-P.

SE CONVENIR, prp. to suit each other, to agree, to suit. Nos caractères ne pouvaient se —, our tempers could not agree.

CONVENTICULE, kong-vang-te-kül.
sm. (in a bad sense) conventicle.

CONVENTION, kong-vang-syong, sf. 1 (accord) agreement, covenant, convention. Faire une —, to make an agreement. — tacite, verbale, tacit, verbal agreement. 2 law. (clauses) stipulation, condition.

DE CONVENTION, adv. loc. 4 conventional.
Signes, langage de —, conventional signs, language. Monnaie de —, conventional money. 2 (by extension) conventional.
Port-vagues de —, conventional personages.

CONVENTION, sf. (assemblée) convention.
Fr. hist. La — nationale, la —, the national Convention, the Convention.

CONVENTIONNEL, kong-vang-syonnayl, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 conventional.
Valeur —le, conventional value. 2 (qui est l'effet de l'usage) conventional. 3 sm.
Fr. hist. Un —, a member of the Convention.

CONVENTIONNELLEMENT, kongväng-syon-nayl-mäng, adv. conventionally, by agreement.

CONVENTUALITÉ, kong-väng-tü-ah-lo-lay, sf. conventional life.

CONVENTUEL, kong-väng-tü-ayl, adj.
m. fem. —E, (du convent) conventual. 2 (substantiv.) —s, conventuals.

CONVENTUELLEMENT, kong-väng-tü-ayl-mäng, adv. conventually.

CONVERGENCE, kong-vayr-zhangs, sf.
geom. phys. convergence, convergency.

CONVERGENT, kong-vayr-zhang, adj.
m. fem. —E, geom. phys. convergent, converging. Rayons —s, lignes —es, convergent rays, lines.

CONVERGER, kong-vayr-zhay, vn.
geom. phys. to converge. Deux lignes qui convergent, two converging lines.
fig. Tous ses efforts convergent vers le même but, all his efforts tended in the same direction.

CONVERS, kong-vayr, adj. m. fem.
—E, lay, setting. Frère —, sœur —E, lay brother, lay sister.

CONVERSATION, kong-vayr-sah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (entretien) familiar conversation, talk. — enjouée, instructive, lively, instructive conversation. Entrer en —, lier —, to enter into conversation.
Rompre, interrompre une —, to interrupt a conversation. Prendre part à la —, to take part in the conversation. Laisser tomber la —, to drop the conversation.
Changer la —, changer de —, to change the conversation. La — tourna, to come sur telle question, the conversation turned on such a question. Etre à la —, to be attentive, to attend to the conversation.
fig. L'écriture est — de l'homme avec son propre passé, writing, the conversation of man with his past history. La-mart. 2 (manière de converser) conversation.

CONVERSE, kong-vays, adj. sf. log.
converse.

CONVERSE, kong-vayr-say, vn. (Lat. conversari) 1 (s'entretenir) to converse, to discourse, to commune, to talk, to hold intercourse. Nous avons converse longtemps ensemble, we conversed together a long time. (by extension) Elle conversait tout bas avec des êtres invisibles, she conversed in a low tone with invisible spirits. Chat. Elle semblait elle-même entendre Dieu et — avec lui à chaque impression du jour, she herself seemed to hear the voice of God and to hold communion with him at every impression of the day. Lamart. — avec soi-même, to commune with one's self. Un homme qui converse avec son esprit, a man that communes with his own mind. St-B. Il aime à — avec les vieillards, he is fond of conversing with old people. fig.
— avec les livres, avec les morts, to converse with old books, with the dead. 2
mil. to turn, to wheel about. — à droite,
to turn to the right.

CONVERSION, kong-vayr-syong, sf. 4 (transformation) conversion. La — des métaux, the conversion of metals. fig.
d'un procès civil en procès criminel, conversion of a civil into a criminal process.

3 fig. moral. conversion. La — des Indes, the conversion of the infidels. La — des pécheurs, the conversion of the *sinner*s. 3 fig. (by extension) change from bad to good, change for the better, conversion. 4 fin. — des monnaies, conversion of coins. — des rentes, conversion of annuities. 5 log. — d'une proposition, conversion of a proposition. 6 mil. conversion, change of front. — à droite, — à gauche, right! left! wheel!

CONVERTI, kong-vayr-tee, ppa. of CONVERTIR, fem. — E, adjective. 1 converted, changed. 2 converted. Il mourut parfaitement, he died quite a convert. 3 sm. convert. De nouveaux —s, fresh converts. fig. fam. Vous prêchez on —, you are persuading a man already converted.

CONVERTIBLE, kong-vayr-tihp, adj. mf. 4 convertible. Papier —, convertible paper. 2 log. Proposition —, convertible proposition.

CONVERTIR, kong-vayr-tee, va. (Lat. convertere) 1 (changer, transformer) to convert, to turn. fig. Cette année de profits que tu pour — en économies, this year's profits that you may lay by. Nod. Je convertis quelques bons roturiers en mauvais gentilshommes, I converted a few good citizens into bad noblemen. Le Sage. Ce soupçon universel ne tarda pas à être converti en accusation, this universal suspicion was not long before being converted into an accusation. Nod. 2 (faire changer, quant à la forme) to convert. — du fil en toile, to convert thread into linen. — des liégots d'or en espèces, to convert gold ingots into coin. 3 (remplacer) to convert, to change, to commute. — un billet de banque en espèces, to change a bank-note for cash. — ses meubles en argent, to make money of one's furniture. Il convertit en monnaie ses chapons, he made money of his capons. La Font. Je convertis mon havresac en valise, I changed my knapsack for a portmanteau. Le Sage. fig. — une peine corporelle en une peine pécuniaire, to commute a corporal punishment to a fine. 4 — les idolâtres, les hérétiques, to convert idolaters, heretics. Un jour, the one attempted to convert the other by levelling a gun at him. Ab. — les pécheurs, to convert sinners. 5 (by extension) (faire changer d'opinion) to convert, to bring over. Il n'a pu me — à sa manière de voir, he could not bring me over to his way of thinking. Elle convertit son oncle à sa mission, she brought her uncle to believe in her mission. Mich.

SE CONVERTIR, vpr. 1 (se transformer, être changé en, être remplacé par) to be converted, changed, turned, to turn. Sa vaisselle d'or et d'argent se convertit en plomb et en étain, his gold and silver services were converted into lead and pewter. Bar. fig. Son amour se convertit en haine, his love was converted into hatred. 2 (changer de croyance, s'amender) to be converted. 3 log. Ces deux termes se convertissent, those two terms are convertible.

CONVERTISSEMENT, kong-vayr-tis-mang, sm. (little used) conversion.

CONVERTISSEUR, kong-vayr-te-suhr, sm. convertier. Les —s des barbares, the converters of the barbarians. Aug. Th. Le — sortit presque converti lui-même, the converter went out almost a convert himself. Saint.

CONVEXE, kong-veks, adj. mf. (Lat. convexus) convex. Surface —, convex surface. Un corps —, a convex body. Le côté — d'une corbe, the convex side of a curve.

CONVEXITÉ, kong-vek-se-tay, sf. convexity. La — d'un globe, d'une lentille, the convexity of a globe, of a lens. (by analogy) La — d'une ligne courbe, the convexity of a curve.

CONVICT, kong-vikt, sm. (Eng.) convict.

CONVICTION, kong-vik-syong, sf. 4 (certitude) conviction. J'en ai la — la plus complète, I have the fullest conviction of it. C'est chez lui une —, it is his conviction. 2 (croyance) conviction. 3 (preuve évidente) convincing proof. Pièces de —, articles produced in evidence.

CONVIE, ppa. of CONVIER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 invited. Après le dîner où — C., after the dinner to which C. was invited. Balz. fig. Aux dons que la bonté mesure tout l'univers est —, the whole universe is invited to share in the gifts dispensed by thy bountiful hand. Lamart. 2 (substantif) guest. Nous ne sommes aujourd'hui que trois —s, we make up a party of only three guests to-day. La Font. Bien des —s laissent leur place vide et se lèvent avant la fin, many a guest leaves an empty seat and rises before the end. V. Hag.

CONVIER, kong-vayr, va. 4 (inviter) to invite. Le duc d'O. convia même le duc de B. à dîner chez lui, the Duke of O. even invited the Duke of B. to dine with him. Bar. — à no festin, à une noce, à un bal, to invite to a feast, to a wedding, to a ball. 2 (by extension) (engager) to invite, to request, to desire. A se rendre moi-même je les convie, I request them, myself, to surrender. Corn. Elle regardait E. pour le — à parler, she looked at E. to request him to speak. Balz. On l'a convié de s'y trouver, he was invited to be present. 3 fig. to invite. Toute chose nous convie d'oublier tout, every thing invites us to forget all. Muss. A la gaité ce beau jour nous convie, this lovely day calls for cheerfulness. C. Del.

CONVIVE, kong-viv, s. mf. guest, table companion. C'est un bon —, un joyeux —, he is a boon companion.

CONVOCAION, kong-vo-kah-syong, sf. convocation, summons. La — des Châmbres, the convocation of the Chambers.

CONVOI, kong-voah, sm. 4 (réunion de personnes) funeral procession, funerals. — service et enterrement, funerals and burial service. 2 naut. convoy. Les longs préparatifs d'un — me retinrent longtemps dans le port, the long preparations of a convoy detained me a long time in the harbour. Chat. 3 naut. (force navale) convoy, convoy-ships. 4 mil. adwin-convoy. Un — de prisonniers de guerre, a convoy of prisoners of war. 5 railw. train. Nous partirons par le dernier —, le — suivant, we shall start by the last train, the next train. Le — de deux heures, the two o'clock train. — de grande vitesse, fast train. — à petite vitesse, slow train. — de marchandises, goods train. — d'aller, down-train. — de retour, up-train. — direct, express train.

CONVOITABLE, kong-voah-tabl, adj. mf. absol. covetable.

CONVOITER, ppa. of CONVITER, fem. — E, adjective. coveted.

CONVOITER, kong-voah-tay, va. to covet, to long for, to lust after, to hanker after. — le bien d'autrui, to covet the property of others. Tous les notaires convoitaient la clientèle du château de H., all the notaries cast a longing eye upon the business transacted for the castle of H. Sand. La seule science qu'il convoitait aujourd'hui, the only science he wishes now to acquire. Saint.

CONVOITEUX, kong-voah-tah, adj. m. fem. convoiteuse. 4 obol. covetous. 2 (substantif) covetous person. Ce récit s'adresse aux —, this narration applies to the covetous. La Font.

CONVOITISE, kong-voah-teez, sf. covetousness, lust, cupidity. La — perdit l'an, covetousness ruined the one. La Font. Regarder quelque chose d'un œil de —, to look at a thing with a covetous eye.

CONVOLER, kong-vo-lay, vn. — en secours, en troisièmes nocces, — à un second, à un troisième mariage, to marry again for a second, a third time. absol. La veuve ne sera pas longtemps sans —, the widow will not be long before marrying again.

CONVOLUTÉ, kong-vo-lô-tay, adj. m. fem. — E, bot. convolute, convoluted.

CONVOLVULUS, kong-vo-lû-lûs, sm. bot. convolvulus.

CONVOQUÉ, ppa. of CONVOQUER, fem. — E, adjective. convoked.

CONVOQUER, kong-vo-ky, va. to convocate, to convene, to assemble, to call together (un concile, a council, les Châmbres, the Chambers, la garde nationale, the national guard, etc.). — l'assemblée des actionnaires, des créanciers, to assemble the share-holders, the creditors.

CONVOYER, kong-voah-yay, va. to convoy, to escort. — des vaisseaux, to convoy vessels. — no train d'artillerie, to convoy an artillery train.

CONVOYEUR, kong-voah-yohr, sm. 4 convoy, convoy-ship, commodore. 2 adjective. Bâtiment —, convoy-ship.

CONVULSÉ, kong-vûl-say, adj. m. fem. E, med. convulsed. Des yeux —s, eyes turned up. Balz. Ces figures illuminées et —es, these inspired and convulsed faces. Th. Gaut.

CONVULSIF, kong-vûl-sif, adj. m. fem. CONVULSIVE, 1 convulsive. Toux convulsive, convulsive cough. D'un pas —, with a convulsive step. J'aimais à suivre dans les sillons de son visage le mouvement — de sa passion, I took pleasure in tracing in his furrowed face the convulsive motions of passion. Ab. 2 (qui détermine des convulsions) convulsive. fig. Une horreur convulsive, a convulsive horror. Mich.

CONVULSION, kong-vûl-syong, sf. 1 convulsion. Sujet —s, subject to fits. A. fut saisi d'une longue —, A. was taken with a prolonged convulsion. Chat. 2 (by extension) Les —s de la rage, du désespoir, the convulsions of rage, of despair. 3 fig. (troubles) convulsion. —s politiques, political convulsions. Au XVIII^e siècle, lorsqu'une — générale a tout ébranlé, in the XVIIIth century when every thing was affected by a general convulsion. Ph. Chas.

CONVULSIONNAIRE, kong-vûl-syon-nayr, adj. mf. 4 subject to convulsions. 2 s. mf. convulsory.

CONVULSIVEMENT, kong-vûl-siv-mang, adv. convulsively.

COOBLIGE, ko-ob-le-zhay, sm. co-oblige.

COOPÉRATEUR, ko-op-ay-ral-uhtr, sm. fem. COOPERATRICE, cooperator.

COOPERATION, ko-op-ay-rab-syong, sf. cooperation, concurrence.

COOPÉRER, ko-op-ay-ray, ra. to co-operate, to concur. — au succès d'une entreprise, to concur to the success of an undertaking.

COOPTATION, ko-op-tah-syong, sf. co-optation.

COORDINATION, ko-or-de-nah-syong, sf. coordination, arrangement, disposition.

COORDONNE, ppa. of COORDONNER, fem. — E, adjective. disposed.

COORDONNÉES, ko-or-don-nay, sf. pl. geom. coordinates.

COORDONNER, ko-or-don-nay, ra. to coordinate, to arrange, to dispose.

COPAHI, ko-pah-i, sm. bot. copaiiba, copipi, copivaia.

COPAIER, COPAYER, ko-pah-yay, sm. bot. copaiiba-tree.

COPAL, ko-pal, sm. 4 bot. copal.

2 adj. m. fem. — E, Gomme — E, copal-gum. Vernis —, varnish.

COPARTAGEANT, ko-par-tah-ang, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 having a joint share. Héritier —, coparcener. 2 (substantif) joint-sharer, coparcener.

COPEAU, ko-po, sm. pl. copeaux.

(from coaper) chip, shaving, Bruler des

—x, to burn chips. Vin de —, chip-wine.

COPECK, ko-pék, sm. (Rus.) copeck.

COPEHAGUE, ko-paya-ag, s. geog.

Copenhagen.

COPEMUTANT, ko-pay-mû-tàng, sm. joint shorer in an exchange.

COPIHOSE, ko-fôz, sf. (Gr.) med. copiosis, deafness.

COPHITE, kofi, COPTE, kopt, sm. 1

Copt. 2 (langue) Coptic. 3 adjectif.

Coptic.

COPIE, ko-pee, sf. 1 copy, transcript, manuscript. — exacte, exact copy. Donner, prendre —, to give, to take a copy.

— collationnée, collated copy. com. Livre de — de lettres, letter-book. Droit de —, copyright. 2 (dans les collèges, in schools) copy, written task. 3 paint, sculpt.

copy. 4 (by extension) (dans la littérature, etc.) copy. 5 fig. copy, image. Cette jeune fille est toute la — de sa mère, that young girl is the very image of her mother. Se faire la — de quelqu'un, to model one's self on a person. C'est un original sans —, he has not his fellow.

6 print copy.

COPIÉ, ppa. of COPIER, fem. —E, adjective, copied.

COPIER, ko-pyay, va. (from copie)

1 to copy, to transcribe. 2 to copy out, copier-moi cette lettre, copy that letter out for me. — de la musique, to copy music. 2 (reproduire) to copy. — la nature, to copy nature. 3 fig. to copy, to imitate. Il copiat son ami jusque dans ses défauts, he imitated his friend even in his defects. (in a bad sense) — un auteur, an artist, to copy an author, an artist. 4

fig. (contrefaite) to take off, to mimic. Il a un grand talent pour — les geus, he takes people off very cleverly.

SE COPIER, vpr. (se répéter) to copy, to repeat one's self.

COPIEUSEMENT, ko-pyuh-màng, adv.

copiously, heartily.

COPIEUX, ko-pyab, adj. m. fem. co-piecious, copious, hearty. Un repas —, a hearty meal.

COPISTE, ko-pist, sm. 1 copier, copiet, amanuensis. 2 (in a bad sense) copiet, copyist, imitator.

COPRENER, ko-prab-nohr, sm. fem.

COPRENESE, joint-tenant, colessee.

COPROPRIÉTAIRE, ko-pro-pre-ay-lay,

s. mf. joint-owner, proprietor.

COPTE, see COPETE.

COPULATIF, ko-pû-lat-if, adj. m. fem.

copulative, 1 gram. copulative. 2 sf. copulative.

COPULATION, ko-pû-lah-syong, sf.

copulation.

COQ, kok, sm. 1 cock. Un bon —, a game cock. Crête de —, cockscomb.

Combat de —s, cock-fight. Faire battre, faire combattre des —s, to set cocks fighting. — de bruyère, grouse. (by extension) — de la perdrix, a cock partridge. fam. Être roque comme un —, to be as red as a turkey-cock. prov. fig.

Être comme un — en pâte, to live in clorier. 2 Le — du clocher, the weathercock. 3 fig. cock. C'est le — du village, de son village, he is the cock of the walk.

C'est un — de paroisse, he is one of the big wigs of the parish. 4 tech. Le — d'une montre, the cock of a watch.

coq-à-l'âne, sm. pl. coq-à-l'âne, cock and bull story.

coq, sm. naot. cook. Maître —, ship's cook.

COQUE, kok, sf. 1 shell. Une — d'œuf, an egg-shell. culin. Œufs à la —, boiled eggs. 2 (by analogy) shell. Une noix dans sa — verte, a green walnut.

Flur. Je n'en donnerai pas une — de noix, I would not give a fig for it. 3

bot. — du levant, coculus indicus. 4

zool. (cocoon) cocoon. 4 tech. — de perle, pearl-shell. 5 naut. La — d'un navire, the hull of a ship.

COQUELICOTE, kok-se-grû, sf. 1 (balivrer) idle story, stuff, fiddle-faddle. 2

Elle raisonne comme une —, she reasons with her elbows.

COQUELICOT, kok-le-ko, sm. bot.

corn-poppy, wild poppy, corn-rose.

COQUELOURDE, kok-loord, sf. bot.

rose-campion.

COQUELICHE, kok-lîsh, sf. 1 (espèce de capuchon) hood. fig. C'est la — de toutes les femmes, he is the darling of the sex. 2 med. hooping-cough.

COQUEMAR, kok-mar, sm. kettie, pan.

COQUERICO, kok-re-ko, sm. (onomatolapy) le chant du coq cock-a-doodle-doo.

COQUET, ko-kay, adj. m. fem. —E, coquettish. Avoir l'esprit —, to have a playful wit. Un bonnet —, a smart cap.

Un petit gilet si —, a little waistcoat so smart. G. Sand. Il fut charmant et même —, avec lui, he was very graceful to him and even did all he could to gain him over. St-E. fig. Maison —te, a smart house.

COQUETTE, ko-ket, sf. coquette, flirt.

Une franchise —, a downright flirt. (théâtre) Joer les —s, to play the coquettes.

COQUETER, kok-tay, m. le COQUETTE;

il COQUETERAIT, to coquet, to flirt. Elle aime à —, she is fond of flirting.

COQUETIER, kok-tyay, sm. 1 (mar-chand d'œufs) egg-merchant, poulterer. 2

(petit ustensile) egg-cup. (by extension)

Des tasses contenues dans des —s de filirage d'argent, cups in silver filigree. Th.

Gaut.

COQUETTERIE, ko-ket-ree, sf. 1 (désir de plaire) coquettishness, coquetry. 2

(by extension) Dire, faire des —s, to flirt.

3 (par opposition à amour) flirtation. 4

(recherche exagérée de la toilette) coquettishness. Elle se met avec une — ridicule pour son âge, she dresses with a ridiculous coquettishness for her time of life. 5 fig. coquettishness, smartness, elegance, affectation. Son style a de la —, his style is affected. Tout cela était disposé avec une certaine —, all that had a certain air of display.

COQUILLAGE, ko-ke-yazh, sm. zool.

shell, shell-fish. Se nourrir de —s, to live on shell-fish.

COQUILLART, ko-ke-yar, sm. mîa.

shelly-bed.

COQUILLE, ko-ke-yah, sf. 1 shell. — de mer, d'eau douce, sea-shell, freshwater shell. fig. Ne faire que sortir de la —, to be just out of the shell, to be very young. prov. fig. Revenir dans sa —, to draw in one's horns. prov. fig. A qui vendez-vous vos —s, portez vos —s à d'autres, na tricks upon travellers. prov.

fig. Il ne donne pas ses —s, he does not give away his titles. 2 (by analogy) shell. Une — de noix, a walnut-shell.

Des —s d'œuf, egg-shells. 3 tech. — d'épée, basket-hilt. — à boulet, mould.

— d'escalier, spandrel. 4 station. post denny, small post. (adjectiv.) Papier —, post denny paper. 5 — à rôir, moreable kitchen-vat, stove for roasting. 6 typog.

wrong letter.

COQUILLIER, ko-ke-yay, sm. collection of shells.

COQUILLIERE, adj. m. fem. COQUILLIÈRE, geol. shelly, conchiferous.

COQUIN, ko-kang, sm. fem. —E, 1 (dis-paragingly) rascal, rogue, knave. Un tour de —, a rascally trick. C'est un vrai —, he is an arrant rogue. 2 (par colore) ras-col. Mon — de domestique, my rascal of a servant. 3 (par plaisanterie, in joke) rogue, dog. Mon — de neveu, my rogue of a nephew. Ta es un grand —, you are a great rogue. Ta es un heureux —, un petit —, you are a lucky dog, a little rogue. 4 adjectiv. Des yeux —s, roguish eyes.

COQUINERIE, ko-ke-ree, sf. 1 (action) deed of rascality, knavish trick.

Faire des —s, to play knavish tricks. 2

(caractère du coquin) roguery, knavishness, rascality.

COR, kor, sm. med. corn. Avoir des —s aux pieds, to have corns on one's feet.

COR, sm. 1 mas. horn. — de chasse, hunting-horn, bugle. Sonner, donner du —, to blow, to wind the horn. Jouer du —, to play on the horn. 2 ven. Chasser à — et à cri, to hunt with horn and with voice. fig. Vouloir, demander une chase à — et à cri, to be clamorous for a thing.

COQUAILL, ko-ra-yuh, sm. pl. CORAUX.

(Gr.) 1 zool. coral. Corallais de —, coral bracelets. 2 fig. poetic. Une bouche de —, des lèvres de —, coral lips. 3 pl. (collection) Coraux, corals.

CORAILLEUR, ko-rab-yahr, sm. 1

coral-fisher. 2 adjectif pêcheur, navire

—, coral-fisher, coral-fishing-boat, corral-line.

CORAN, ko-rang, sm. See ALCORAN.

CORBEAU, kor-be, sm. pl. CORBEAUX, 1 raven. Les croassements des —s, the croaking of the ravens. Noir comme un —, comme l'aile d'un —, as black as a raven. 2 fig. bearers, or buriers in plaque-time. 3 fig. corbel. — de fer, iron bracket. 4 naut. corvus. 5 astr. corvus.

CORBEILLE, kor-lay-yuh, sf. 1 basket.

Une — de fleurs, a basket of flowers.

Une — de mariage, wedding-presents. 3 arch. sculpt. gard. corbel.

CORBILLARD, kor-be-yar, sm. 1 auc.

corbel-boat. 2 auc. (grand carrosse) large country-coach. 3 (char funèbre) hearse.

CORBILLAT, kor-be-yah, sm. zool.

young raven.

CORBILLO, kor-be-yong, sm. 1 small basket. 2 (sorte de jeu, a game) rhyming in on. Jouer à —, to play at rhyming in on.

CORBIN, kor-lang, sm. See nec-de-

CORBIN.

CORBINE, kor-been, sf. orn. carrion-crow.

CORCELET, kor-suh-lay, sm. See cor-

SELET.

CORDACE, kor-dach, sm. 1 rope, cord. Gros —, thick rope. 2 (cordes) cordage, ropes. 3 (manière de mesurer le bois) measuring by the cord.

CORDE, kord, sf. 1 rope, cord, string.

Échelle de —s, rope-ladder. Attacher lier avec une — to tie, to bind with a cord. Étendre du linge sur une —, to hang linen on a clothes-line. Mettre une chose en —, to twist a thing. fig. Tirer sur la même —, to be in the same boat. 2

de jeu de paume, line of a tennis-court

3 (gros câble sur lequel on danse) rope.

Danser sur la —, sur la — roide, to dance on the rope, on the tight rope.

Danser de —, rope-dancer. fig. Danser sur la —, to hang by a thread. 4 (le sup-plément de la potence) hanging. Cela mé-rite la —, that deserves the gallows. Un homme échappé de la —, a gallows-bird.

C'est un homme, ce sont des geus de sac et de —, he is a downright villain; they are people capable of everything. Faire amende honorable la — au cou, to make an apology with the rope round one's neck. fig. Se rendre la — au cou, to surrender unconditionally. fig. Il a frisé her upper notes are shrill. fig. fam. Toucher la grosse —, to come to the main point fig. Toucher la — sensible, to touch upon the sensitive part. fig. Ne touchez pas à cette — là, don't touch upon that point. 7 (d'une étoffe) thread. Un babut qui montre la —, qui est usé jusqu'à la —, a coat that is thread-bare. prov. fig. Cet homme montre la —, that man is at his last shift. fig. Cela montre la —, it is easily seen through. fig. Cela est usé jusqu'à la —, that is a stale trick. 8 anat. —s vocales, chords. 9 geom. chord. 10 metrol. cord. Une — de bois, a cord of wood. Bois de —, cord-wood.

CORDE, ppa. of corder, fem. —e, adjective, but. cordate, cordated, heart-shaped. CORDEAU, kor-do, sm. line. Une allée tirée au —, a walk laid out by the rule and line.

CORDELEIN, kor-dlay, va. conj. like APPELER, tech. to twist.

CORDELEITE, kor-dlet, sf. dim. of CORDE, string, small cord.

CORDELIER, kor-dul-lyay, sm. (religieux) cordelier, franciscan, gray friar. fig. Être gris comme un —, to be as drunk as a lord.

CORDELIÈRE, kor-duh-lyayr, sf. 1 (religieuse) franciscan nun. 2 (torsade) girde. 3 arch. latch.

CORDELLE, kor-del, sf. tow-line, low-rope. Haler à la —, to tow.

CORDEIN, kor-uay, va. 1 (mettre en corde) to twist, to cord. — du chanvre, to cord, to twist hemp. — du tabac, to twist tobacco. 2 — une malle, to cord a trunk. 3 — du bois, to cord wood.

SE CORDER, vpr. 1 (du chanvre, etc., of hemp etc.) to twist. 2 (du bois, of wood) to be corded. 3 (des raves, etc., of radishes, etc.) to be stringy.

CORDEINE, kori-ree, sf. 1 (lien) rope-walk, rope-yard, ropery. 2 (art) rope-making, rope-manufacture.

CORDIAL, kor-dyal, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 med. cordial. 2 fig. cordial, hearty, sincere. Un homme franc et —, a frank and open-hearted man.

CORDIAL, va. pl. CORDIALX, med. cordial. CORDIALEMENT, kor-dyal-mang, adv. cordially, heartily, sincerely.

CORDIALITÉ, kor-dyal-e-tay, sf. cordiality, heartiness, sincerity.

CORDIER, kor-dyay, sm. rope-maker. CO-DIFORME, kor-de-formi, adj. mf. bot. cordiform, heart-shaped.

CORDILLÈRES (les), kor-de-yayr, sf. pl. geog. Cordilleras.

CORDON, kor-dong, sm. 4 twist. Une corde à trois —s, a cord of three twists. 2 (très-petite corde) string. Attacher, lier, nouer avec un —, to fasten, to tie with a string. — de montre, watch-ribbon, watch-guard. — de sonnette, bell-pull, bell-rope. — de souliers, shoe-tie, shoe-string, lachet. Un — de chapeau, hat-band. 3 absol. (d'une porte, d'une voiture, of a door, a carriage) check-string. Tirer le —, to pull the check-string. Demander le —, to call for the check-string. Le —, s'il vous plaît, the door, if you please. 4 (en Turquie) bow-string. Le sultan lui envoya le —, the sultan sent him the bow-string. 5 (large ruban) ribbon. Avoir les —s de plusieurs ordres, to wear the ribbons of several orders. Le grand — de la Légion d'honneur, the broad ribbon of the Legion of honour. — bleu, order of the Holy Ghost. (by extension) a knight of the Holy Ghost; || fig. (in joke) first-rate cook. — rouge, order of St-Louis. (by extension) commander of the order of St-Louis. Il était — rouge, he was a commander of the order of St-Louis. — noir, order of St-Michel. 6 (petite funicelle benite) girde, cordon. 7 anat. funis, cord. — ombilical, umbilical cord. 8 anat. funicle. 9 arch. string-course, cordon. 10 hort. — de gazon, grass border. 11 tech. (d'une pièce de monnaie, of a coin) edge, milled edge. 12 (rançée) string, row, line 13 mil. — de troupes, cordon. — sanitaire, cordon sanitaire, sanitary cordon.

CORDONNE, ppa. of CORDONNER, fem. —E, adjective, twisted, plaited.

CORDONNER, kor-do-nayr, ra. tech. to twist, to braid, to plait, to plat. — des cheveux, to braid hair.

CORDONNERIE, kor-don-ree, sf. 4 (fabrication) boot and shoe-making, shoe-making. 2 absol. (le lieu) shoe-shop. 3 (dans les collèges et magasins, at schools, ware-houses) shoe-room.

CORDONNET, kor-do-nay, sm. 1 (petit cordon) twist, silk twist, silk thread. 2 tech. (marque) milled edge.

CORDONNIER, kor-du-nayr, sm. fem. CORDONNIÈRE, shoe-maker, boot and shoe-maker, cordwainer. — pour femmes, ladies' shoe-maker.

CORDOUAN, kor-dwäng, sm. com. cordovan leather, cordwain.

CORDOUE, kor-doo, sf. geog. Cordova.

CORÉE (la), ko ray, sf. geog. Corea. CORÉLIGIONNAIRE, ko-ru-le-zhio-nayr, s. mf. correligionist.

CORFOC, kor-foo, s. geog. Corfu. CORIACE, ko-ryas, adj. mf. (Lat. corium) 1 tough. Viande —, tough meat. fig. C'est un homme —, he is a close-fisted fellow. 2 bot. zool. cartilaginous, cartilaginous.

CORIANDRE, ko-ryängdr', sf. bot. coriander.

CORINTHE, ko-rangt, s. geog. Corinth. CORINTHIEN, ko-rang-lyang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 of Corinth, Corinthian. 2 arch. Corinthian. Ordre —, Corinthian order. Chapiteau —, Corinthian capital. 3 (substantif) Corinthian.

CORIOLAN, ko-ryo-läng, sm. Coriolanus.

CORME, korm, sf. bot. service-apple, sorb, sorb-apple.

CORMIET, kor-myay, sm. bot. service-tree, sorb-tree, quick-tree.

CORNORAN, kor-mo-räng, sm. ord. cormoran.

CORNAC, kor-nak, sm. elephant-driver.

CORNAGE, kor-pazh, sm. vet. roaring, wheezing.

CORNAILLER, kor-nah-yay, va. carp. to be clumsily made.

CORNALINE, kor-nal-een, sf. min. cornelian, cornelian-stone, cornelian, carnelian.

CORNE, korn, sf. 1 horn. Les —s d'un lincaon, the horns of a snail. Les —s du diable, the devil's horns. Prendre, saisir, attacher une bête par les —s, to take, to seize, to tie a beast by the horns. Tabatière de —, horn snuff-box. Bêtes à —, horned cattle. fig. Attaquer le taureau, la bête par les —s, to take the bull by the horns. Montrer les —s, to show one's teeth. Faire les —s à quelqu'un, to make game of a person, to make a sign of horns at a person. 2 — d'abondance, horn of plenty, cornucopia. 3 artill. — d'amorce, priming-horn. 4 (instrument à vent) horn. 5 (pour les soldiers) shoe-horn. 6 (points, angles saillants) horns. Les —s d'un, du croissant, the horns of a moon in its increase, crescent, the horns. Chapeau à —s, cocked hat. Faire une — à un livre, à un feuillet, to turn down a leaf; || faire des —s à un livre, to doys-ear a book. Faire une — à une carte, to turn down the corner of a visiting card. 7 tort. Ouvrage à —s, horn-work. 8 naut. — d'arion, gaff. 9 (la partie dure qui est au pied du cheval, etc.) outside hind, hoof. Il s'en vint lourdement, lève une — asée, he goes to work clumsily, raises his worn out hoof. La Font. 10 vet. Donner un coup de — à un cheval, to bleed a horse in the mouth. 11 conch. —s d'Ammon, Ammonite, Cornu-Ammonites. 12 pharm. — de cerf, harts-horn. 13 anat. cornea. 14 geog. La — d'or, the golden horn. 15 bot. — de cerf, hartshorn, cornopous.

CORNE, sm. cap of the doge of Venice.

CORNE, ppa. of CORNER, fem. —E, See CORNER.

CORNEIL, adjective. horny, carnosus.

CORNEË, kor-nay, sf. anat. cornea.

CORNEËNE, kor-nay-ayn, sf. geol. horn-stone.

CORNEILLE, kor-nay-yah, sf. ord. crown, rook. Beyer aux —s, See BAYER.

CORNEILLE (PIERRE), sm. celebrated French poet, born in 1666, died in 1684.

CORNELIE, kor-nay-lee, sf. Cornelia.

CORNÉLIEN, kor-nay-lyang, adj. m. fem. —E, Style —, style of Cornelle.

CORNEMENT, korn-näng, sm. med. noise, tingling in the ears.

CORNEMUSE, korn-miz, sf. bagpipe.

CORNER, kor-nay, va. 1 (sonner d'une corne) to blow, to wind a horn. 2 (parler dans un cornet) to speak in an ear-trumpet. fig. fam. — aux oreilles de quelqu'un, to din into the ears of a person. 3 (des oreilles, of the ears) to tingle. Les oreilles me cornent, I have got a singing in my ears; || fig. Les oreilles ont dû bien vous —, your ears must have tingled, your cheeks must have been hot.

CORNER, va. 1 — quelque chose à l'oreille de quelqu'un, to din a thing into the ears of a person. — quelque chose partout, par toute la ville, to trumpet a thing abroad, out, through the whole town. 2 — un feuillet, to turn down the corner of a leaf. — une carte, to turn down the corner of a visiting card.

CORNET, kor-nay, sm. 1 (petit cor) horn. — à piston, key-bugle, cornopean. — à honqua, cowherd's horn. 2 (de papier, of paper) cornet, paper, screw. Faire des —s, to make cornets. Un — de dragées, a paper of sugar plums. Un — de tabac, a paper of snuff. 3 (espèce d'onblier) twisted wafer. 4 (pour des) dice-box. 5 (écriture) ink-horn. 6 anat. inferior, spongy, turbinate, turbinated bones of the nose. 7 phys. — acoustique, car-trumpet.

CORNETTE, kor-net, sf. 1 (coiffure de femme) Elle était en —, she had on a mob-cap. 2 naut. (sorte de pavillon) commodore's pendant, broad pendant. 3 anc. (étendard) cornet. 4 anc. (la compagnie) cornet. 5 anc. (officier) cornet. 6 (l'em-ploi de ces officiers) cornetcy.

CORNEUR, kor-nuhr, sm. 1 horn-blower, roarer. 2 adjective. Cheval —, a rearer.

CORNICHE, kor-nuish, sf. 1 arch cornice. 2 (by extension) ornament saillant) cornice. A — surbaissée.

CORNICHON, kor-ne-shong, sm. 1 Les —s d'un chevreau, the little horns of a kid. 2 bot. hort. gherkin. —s confits, pickled gherkins. fam. pop. greenhorn, ninny.

CORNIER, kor-nay, adj. m. fem. CORNIÈRE, corner.

CORNIÈRE, kor-nayr, sf. 1 cornet-gutter; corner-channel. 2 adjective. Une jointure —, gutter between two roofs.

CORNIÈRES, sf. pl. corner-irons, corners of a trunk.

CORNOUILLE, kor-noo-uy, sf. bot. cornel-tree.

CORNOUILLER, kor-noo-yay, sm. bot. cornel-tree, cornelian-tree.

CORNU, kor-nü, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 horned. 2 (de certaines choses en forme de corne) angular, cornered. fig. fam. Des raisons —es, des raisonnements —s, preposterous reasons. fig. Des visions —es, absurd ideas, whimsies.

CORNUE, kor-nü, sf. chem. retort.

COROLLAIRE, ko-ro-layr, sm. 1 corollary. 2 math. corollary.

COROLLE, ko-ro-l, sf. bot. corol, corolla.

CORONAIRE, ko-ro-nayr, adj. mf. anat. coronary.

CORONAL, ko-ro-nal, 1 adj. m. fem. —E, anat. coronal. 2 sm. coronal, the frontal bone.

CORNILLE, ko-ro-ne-yah, sf. bot. coronilla.

CORONOLDE, ko-ro-no-id, adj. f. (Gr.)
anat. coronoid.

CORPORAL, kor-po-ral, sm. liturg.
corporal, corporate.

CORPORATION, kor-po-rash-syng, sf.
corporation, body corporate.

CORPOREITE, kor-po-ray-e-tay, sf.
corporeity.

CORPOREL, kor-po-rayl, adj. m. fem.
—le, 1 (qui a un corps) corporal, corporeal. Être —, corporeal being. 2 (qui concerne le corps) corporal, bodily. Peine —le, corporal punishment. Defaults —s, bodily imperfections. Balz. La mémoire est —le, memory is a faculty belonging to the body. La Font.

CORPORELEMENT, kor-po-rayl-màng, adv. 4 corporally. 2 (par opposition à spirituellement) corporeally, bodily.

CORPUSCULE, kor-po-rus-sy, na. 1 (attribuer un corps) to corporify, to embody. 2 (fixer en corps) to corporify.

CORPS, kor. sm. (Lat. corpus) 4 (toute portion de matière) body, substance. — solide, liquide, gazeux, solid, liquid, gaseous body. — organique, inorganique, organic, inorganic body. — simple, élémentaire, composé, simple, elementary, compound body. Le choc de deux —, the shock of two bodies. L'élasticité d'un —, the elasticity of a body. Faire —, to form one body fig. Il aurait voulu donner à ses rêves un —, une forme, he wished he could have given a shape to the work of his brains. Sand. fig. Prendre l'ombre pour le —, to catch at the shadow for the substance. 2 (partie matérielle d'un être animé) body. fig. — humain, the human body. Se tuer le — et l'âme, etc., See AVE. (par opposition à esprit) body. L'âme agit sur le —, the soul acts upon the body. 3 (hyperb.) (par rapport à la taille) body, frame. Un heau —, a fine body. Les grâces du —, external graces. 4 (par rapport à la constitution) body. Les forces, la santé du —, bodily strength, health. Les besoins du —, bodily wants. Le développement du —, the development of the body. Avoir le — brisé, moulu, to be knocked up, exhausted. Éprouver des douleurs par tout le —, to feel pain all over the body. Prendre du —, to grow, to get stout. Faire bon marché de son —, to stoop at no danger. C'est un pauvre —, there is no life in him fig. fam. C'est un — de fer, il a un — de fer, he has an iron frame. 5 (relativement à la simplicité, etc.) body, limbs. Les exercices du —, bodily exercises. Tenir le — droit et roide, to stand, to sit bolt upright. 6 (relativement à la lutte, etc.) body. Lutter — à —, combattre — à —, se prendre — à —, to fight hand to hand. Couvrir quelqu'un de son —, lui faire un rempart de son —, to cover a person with one's body, to shield him with one's body. A — perdu, headlong, with might and main, with heart and soul. fig Se jeter à — perdu dans une entreprise, dans une affaire périlleuse, to fling one's self headlong into a dangerous enterprise. À bras le —, round the wrist, the middle. fig. À son — défendant, reluctantly, against one's will. 7 (le tronc) body, trunk. Il lui passa son épée au travers du —, he ran his sword through his body. fig. Il fait voir ce que cet homme a dans le —, we must see what mettle that man is made of. prov. fig. Il a le diable au —, the devil is in him. Ce cheval a le diable au —, the devil is in the horse. 8 (cadavre) corpse, body, dead body, corse. Ensevelir, enterrer un —, to bury a dead body. Mettre, porter un — en terre, to carry a corpse to the grave. Embaumer un —, to embalm a dead body. La résurrection du —, the resurrection of the body. 9 (personne) body, fellow. — pop. C'est un drôle de —, un plaisant —, he is a queer body, a comical fellow. 10 (personne par opposition aux choses) body. Ce navire a péril — et biens, that ship has perished crew and cargo. Separation de — et de biens, partial divorce. Décret de prise de —, writ for apprehending the body. Condamner par —, to condemn to pay a fine under pain of imprisonment. Con — la traite par —, arrest for debt. law. Le par —, arrest. Répondre à quelqu'un — pour —, to be answerable for a person. 11 (la personne du roi) body. Les gardes du —, the body-guards, life-guards. 12 anc. (partie de certains habillements) body, stay. 13 fig. (être collectif) body. Le — de l'État, the body of the State. Il réunit en — de peuple ces cités éparées, he formed one people of those scattered cities. Toute la noblesse du pays qui dans le péril ne fait qu'un —, the nobility which in troublous times form but one body. Saint. 14 fig. (réunion d'individus) body. Le — de la noblesse, the body of the nobility. Le — des marchands, des négociants, the body corporation of merchants, of tradesmen, the guilds, the tradesmen's companies. Le — législatif, the legislative body. Les —s constitués, the constituted bodies. Repas de —, corporation dinner. En —, in a body. L'Université en — alla trouver le roi, the university in a body went to the king. Bar. L'Académie en — veut censurer C., the Academy in a body must criticize C. Boil. Marcher en —, to march in a body. — diplomatique, diplomatic corps. Esprit de —, party-spirit. Le — de ballet, corps de ballet. 15 (partie d'une armée) corps, body. — de réserve, the reserve. 16 fig. Le — de l'artillerie, du génie, de la gendarmerie, des sapeurs-pompiers, the artillery company, the engineer corps, the body of gendarmery, of firemen. 17 fig. (régiment, troupe) corps, regiment, company. Rejoindre son —, to rejoin one's regiment. — franc, free company. S'ils avaient été réunis, cela aurait fait un — respectable, if they had numbered they would have formed a numerous body. Mich. 18 anc. — de garnie, post, guard. — de garde, (lieu) guard-house, round-house, watch-house. Mots, plantations de — de garde, coarse expressions, jests. 19 (by analogy) — d'un vaisseau, d'un navire, the hull of a ship. Le — d'un carrosse, the body of a coach. Le — d'un violon, d'une guitare, etc., the body of a violin, of a guitar, etc. Le — d'une pompe, the barrel of a pump. Le — d'une place, d'une forteresse, the body of a place, of a fortress. Le — d'un édifice, the body of a building. — de logis, part of a building, main building. Le — de bâtiment, detached building. Le — du soleil, d'une planète, the disk of the sun, of a planet. Le — d'un livre, d'un ouvrage, the body of a book, of a letter. Le — d'une lettre, the body of a letter. Le — d'une devise, the body of a device, emblem. 20 (l'épaisseur, la solidité) body, substance (thickness. 21 (by analogy) (consistance de certains liquides) body, consistence. 22 (by analogy) (force, vigueur de certains vins) body. Ce vin a du —, n'a point de —, this is a strong-bodied wine, is a thin wine. 23 fig. (collection) body, 24 law. — de délit, main proof, main evidence. — de preuve, whole body of evidence. 25 naut. fig. — murt, moorings, bollards. 26 anat. — du femur, body of the femur. 27 surg. — étranger, foreign body.

CORPULENCE, kor-pù-làngs, sf. corpulence, corpulency, stoutness. Un homme d'une forte —, a very stout man. Saint.

CORPULENT, kor-pù-làng, adj. m. fem. —e, corpulent, stout.

CORPUSCULAIRE, kor-pùs-kù-layr, adj. m. f. did. corpuscular, corpuscularian, corpusculary.

CORPUSCULE, kor-pùs-kùl, sm. phys. corpuscle.

CORRECT, kor-rekt, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 correct, accurate. Une phrase qui n'est pas —e, a phrase which is not correct. (by extension) Un auteur —, a correct, an accurate author. 2 Dessin —, correct drawing. (by extension) Peintre —, correct painter.

CORRECTEMENT, kor-rek-tub-màng, adv. correctly, accurately.

CORRECTEUR, kor-rek-tubr, sm. 1 corrector. 2 — d'imprimerie, reader, proof-reader, corrector.

CORRECTIF, kor-rek-tif, sm. 1 (ce qui a la vertu de corriger) corrective. 2 fig. corrective. Point de mal dans la nature qui n'ait son —, all evils in this world have their corrective. Mérim.

CORRECTION, kor-rek-syng, sf. 4 (action) correction. La — des défauts, des mœurs, des abus, the correction of faults, of manners, of abuses. 2 (d'un ouvrage de littérature) correction. Recevoir une pièce de correction. 3 (qualité) correction, correctness, accuracy. La — du langage, du style, the correctness of the language, style. — de dessin, correctness of drawing. 4 print. — des épreuves, reading, correction of the proofs. 5 print. (indication des changements) correction. 6 print. (le travail du compositeur) correction. 7 (réimpression) correction, rebuke, reproof, reprehension. 8 (châtiment) correction, punishment. Maison de —, house of correction. 9 pharm. correction. 10 met. correction.

SAUF CORRECTION, SOUS CORRECTION, adv. loc. under correction, under favour.

CORRECTONNEL, kor-rek-syng-nayl, adj. m. fem. —le, law, relative to misdemeanours. Peine —le, penalty by fine or imprisonment. Délit — misdeemeanor. Tribunal de police —le, the police magistrature.

CORRECTIONNELLEMENT, kor-rek-syng-nayl-màng, adv. relative to misdemeanours.

CORRÉGIDOR, kor-ray-zhe-dor, sm. (Sp.) corregidor.

CORRELATIF, kor-ray-lal-if, adj. m. fem. CORRELATIVE, 4 did. (des choses, of things) correlative. 2 (de certains mots, of certain words) correlative. 3 (substantif) correlative.

CORRELATION, kor-ray-lah-syng, sf. did. correlation.

CORRESPONDANCE, kor-rays-pông-dangs, sf. 4 (conformité, rapport) correspondence, relation. 2 (commerce de lettres) correspondence. 3 (avoir corrépondre une — avec quelqu'un, correspond with, to carry on, to keep up, a correspondence with a person. 3 (by extension) (les lettres elles-mêmes) correspondence, letters. 4 (le fait même d'écrire des lettres) correspondence, letter-writing. Commis chargé de la —, clerk intrusted with the correspondence. 5 (by analogy) (relations entre commerçants) connexions. 6 (relations entre personnes quelconques) correspondence, connexion, intercourse. 7 (communications entre des lieux différents) communication. Voiture de —, branch coach. Service de —, cross post.

CORRESPONDANT, kor-rays-pông-dàng, ppr. of CORRESPONDANCE, adj. m. fem. —e, corresponding, correspondent.

CORRESPONDANT, sm. 1 (négociant) correspondent. 2 (toute personne avec laquelle on est en commerce de lettres) correspondent. 3 (d'un élève, of a boy at school), correspondent, representative of the family.

CORRESPONDRE, kor-rays-pông-dr, va. conj. like RÉPONDRE, 1 (se rapporter, cadrer) to correspond, to answer. 2 fig. (être la suite) to correspond, to attend, to follow. 3 (communiquer) to correspond, to communicate. Cette chambre correspond à telle autre par un couloir, this room communicates with another one by means of a passage. 4 (avoir un commerce de lettres) to correspond, to be in correspondence. Nous avons longtemps correspondu ensemble, we corresponded together a long time. 5 (avoir des communications, des relations) to correspond, to communicate. Les ennemis nous empêchaient de — avec la ville assiégée, the enemy cut off our communications with the besieged town. 6 fig. absol. to correspond, to answer.

SE CORRIGER, ppr. 1 to stand in symmetry. Ces deux ailes se correspondent très-bien, those two wings correspond perfectly. 2 to communicate. Toutes les pièces de cet appartement se correspondent, all the rooms in this apartment communicate with each other.

CORRIDOR, ko-re-dor, sm. (It.) corridor, gallery, passage.

CORRIGÉ, ppa. of CORRIGER, fem. —, 1 Se the verb. n° 1. Il est bien — de ce défaut, he is quite cured of that fault. Le vice de l'expression soudaine est — par la vérité de l'accusé, the faults in an extempore speech are redeemed by truthfulness in the account. Villem. Edition revue et —, revised and corrected edition. 2 (non) chastised. 3 (substantive) corrected copy.

CORRIGER, ko-re-zhay, ra. (Lat.) 1 (faire perdre un défaut) to correct, to set right, to rectify, to amend, to reclaim, to cure. — des abus, to reform abuses. — son style, to correct one's style. Cette phrase, il la corrige dans une note pleine d'admiration, he amends this phrase in a note full of admiration. Se-B. 2 une épreuve, to correct, to read a proof. — 2 fig. (réparer) to correct, to repair, to redress. — l'injustice du sort, to redress the wrongs of fate. — la fortune, to set fortune on one's side. 3 (châtier) to correct, to chastise, to punish, to castigate. Celui-ci épargnait son ami, ne le corrigeait qu'à demi, he spared his friend, corrected him but partially. La Font. Il corrige et le vieillard et la jeunesse, he reprimands both the old man and the youth. Chât. 4 (tempérer, adoucir) to soften, to temper. Il faut — la crudité de l'eau avec un peu de vin, the crudity of the water must be softened with a little wine.

SE CORRIGER, ppr. 1 to correct one's self, to cure one's self. L'homme cesse de rire de ses défauts quand il n'est plus capable de s'en —, man no longer laughs at his own failings when he finds he cannot get rid of them. Nod. absol. Son fils commence à se —, his son begins to mend. Corrigez-vous! eh! la peur se corrige-t-elle? cure yourself! eh! is one ever cured of fear? La Font. 2 s'adoucir, se tempérer — to be softened, tempered.

CORRIGIBLE, ko-re-zheeb', adj. mf. corrigible.

CORROBORANT, ko-ro-bor-ang, ppr. of CORROBORER, 1 adj. m. fem. — E. corroborant. 2 (substantif.) (little used) corroborant.

CORROBORATIF, ko-ro-bor-at-if, adj. m. fem. corroborative, med. corroborative. 2 (substantif.) corroborative.

CORROBORATION, ko-ro-bor-ang-syong, sf. med. (action, état) corroboration, confirmation.

CORROBORER, ko-ro-bor-ang, ra. (Lat.) ra. med. to corroborate, to strengthen.

CORRODANT, ko-ro-dang, adj. m. fem. —, corroding. See CORROSIF.

CORRODER, ko-ro-day, ra. to corrode.

CORROL, ko-rwá, sm. 1 (façon) currying. 2 (massif de terre glaise) puddle.

CORROMPTE, ko-rongpr', ra. (Lat. corumpere) conj. like ROMPRE, 1 (gâter, altérer) to corrupt, to taint. La chair corrompt la viande, heat taints meat. A-t-once intemperance n'avait corrompu leur sang, no excess had vitiated their blood. B. de St-P. 2 fig. to corrupt. — l'esprit, le cœur, les mœurs de quelqu'un, to corrupt the mind, the heart, the morals of a person. Vous que le bouheur corrompt, you who have grown hard-hearted by good fortune. La Font. 3 fig. (du langage, du style, etc., of language, of style, etc.) to corrupt. 4 (saborder) to suborn, to bribe. — des témoins, to suborn witnesses — par des présents, to bribe with presents. 5 fig. (d'un texte, of a text) to corrupt, to falsify, to alter. 6 fig. (troubler) to corrupt, to spoil, to destroy. Le remords corrompt le plaisir, pleasure is spoiled by remorse. Rien ne corrompt la joie de L., nothing damped the joy of L. G. Sand. 7 (du plaisir que la crainte peut —, I will have no pleasure that fear can mar. La Font.

SE CORROMPRE, ppr. to be corrupted, tainted, spoiled, to rot, to grow corrupt, to feater, to spoil. fig. Les mœurs de la cour se corrompaient de plus en plus, the manners of the court grew more and more corrupted. Bar. Le siècle commence à se —, the age begins to grow corrupt.

CORROMPU, ko-rong-pu', ppa. of CORROMPRE, fem. —, adjective. corrupt. Eau —, putrid water. fig. Mœurs —, dissolute morals. Âme —, cœur —, corrupt soul, heart. Mot — par l'usage, word corrupted by use.

CORROSIF, kor-ro-zif, adj. m. fem. corrosive, corrosier, corrosif. Le sublimé —, corrosive sublimata. Substances corrosives, corrosive substances. (hyperb.) Humeur corrosive, corrosive, acrimonious humor. exp. sm. corrosaire.

CORROSION, ko-ro-zyong, sf. corrosion.

CORROYAGE, ko-rwá-zyah, sm. tech. currying of leather.

CORROYÉ, ppa. of CORROYER, fem. —, adjective. Præux —, curried leather.

CORROYER, ko-rwá-zyah, ra. tech. — des cuirs, to curry leather. — au bassin de fontaine, an canal, to puddle the basin of a fountain, of a canal. — du mortier, to puddle mortar. — du fer, to hammer, to forge iron. — du bois, to plane wood.

CORROYEUR, ko-rwá-zyah, sm. currier, leather-dresser.

CORREGATION, ko-ré-gah-syong, sf. med. corrugation.

CORRUPTEUR, ko-rup-tubr, sm. fem. corruptor, 1 corrupter. 2 (celui qui détourne du devoir) corrupter, subverter, briber. 3 adjective. corrupting.

CORRUPTIBILITÉ, ko-rup-te-be-le-tay, sf. co-rup-ti-bi-lité.

CORRUPTIBLE, ko-rup-ti-bi', adj. mf. 1 corruptible. Tous les corps sont —, all bodies are corruptible. 2 fig. corruptible. L'homme qui n'est pas —, a man who is incorruptible.

CORRUPTION, ko-rup-syong, sf. 1 (altération) corruption, tainting. La — de l'eau, du sang, de la viande, the corruption of water, of the blood, the tainting of meat. La — de l'air, the corruption of the air. 2 fig. (dépravation) corruption, corruptness, depravation. La — des mœurs, depravation of manners. La — du siècle, the depravity of the age. La — du cœur de l'homme, the depravity of the heart of man. Le monde n'est que —, the world is nothing but corruption. 3 (moynen pour détourner du devoir) corruption, bribery. Avoir recours à la —, to have recourse to bribery. Moyens de —, means of corruption. 4 (d'un texte, etc., of a text, etc.) corruption, falsification. 5 (du langage, of the language) alteration, corruption.

CORS, kor, sm. pl. ven. 4 starts, branches. Cerf dix —, full grown stag. 2 her. horns.

CORSAGE, kor-sahz, sm. 1 partie du corps humain) shape, bust, trunk. Beau —, fine shape. Haut de —, tall and straight. (du cerf, du cheval, etc., of a stag, a horse, etc.) Ce cheval a un beau —, that horse has a fine chest. La per-drix a un — moins beau, a partridge is not so thin-waisted. B. de St-P. Dame Belette au long —, dame Weasel of the slender waist. La Font. 2 (by extension) body. Un — de robe, the body of a gown. — montant, high body. — dé-collée, low body.

CORSAIRE, kor-sayr, sm. 1 privateer. 2 captain of a privateer. (adjective.) Bait-meur —, privateer. Capitaine —, captain of a privateer. 3 (pirate) corsair, pirate, roger. fig. C'est on —, an vral —, that man is a Jew.

CORSE, kors, sf. geog. Corsica.

CORSE, 1 adj. mf. Corsican. 2 sm. Corsican.

CORSÉ, kor-say, adj. m. fem. —, strong-lodged, racy.

CORSELET, kor-slay, sm. 1 mil. corselet. 2 ent. corselet.

CORSET, kor-say, sm. 4 stays, corset, bodice. 2 surg. bandage for the chest.

CORSETIER, kor-sui-tyar, sm. fem. corset-maker, stay-maker, corset-mkr.

CORTEGE, kor-tej, sm. (It.) 1 procession, retinue, train. Le — va se mettre en marche, the procession is about to set out. Faire partie du —, to form part of the procession. Faire —, to attend. 2 (by extension and in joke) troop, crowd. 3 fig. (ce qui accompagne) attendants. Les infirmités sont le — de la vieillesse, infirmities are the attendants of old age.

CORTÈS, kor-tay, sf. pl. (Sp.) Cortes.

CORTICAL, kor-ti-kal, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. cortex) bot. cortical. 2 anat.

Substance —, cortical substance.

CORTIQUEUX, kor-te-kuh, adj. m. fem. cortiqueuse, bot. corticose, corticous.

CORUSCATION, ko-rus-kai-syong, sf. (Lat. coruscation) phys. coruscation.

CORVEABLE, kor-vay-abl', adj. mf. 1 anc. law. liable to statute-labour. Tailleable et — à merci, taxable and workable at their lord's discretion. 2 (substantif.) one bound to do duty-service.

CORVEE, kor-vay, sf. 1 feud. law. statute-labour, duty-service. 2 (by extension) mil. fatigue-duty. Être de —, to be on fatigue-duty. Commander tant d'hommes de —, to command as many men on fatigue-duty. 3 fig. unpleasant task, toil, drudgery, bore. Quelle —! what a bore! Je me serais bien passé de cette —, I could have done very well without that unpleasant job.

CORVETTE, kor-vet, sf. naut. corvette, sloop of war, advice-boat.

CORYBANTE, ko-re-bangt, sm. myth. corybant, pl. corybantes.

CORYMBE, ko-rangb, sm. (Gr.) bot. corymb.

CORYMBIFÈRE, ko-rang-be-fayr, 1 adj. mf. bot. corymbiferous. 2 sf. pl. corymbiferous plants.

CORYPHÉE, ko-re-fay, sm. (Gr.) 1 antiq. corypheus. 2 (opera) leader. 3 fig. leader, chief.

COITYZA, ko-re-zah, sm. (Gr.) med. coryza.

COSAQUE, ko-zak, sm. Cossack. (adjective.) Des cavaliers —, Cossack horse-men.

COSÉCANTE, ko-say-kangt, sf. math. cosecant.

COSEIGNEUR, ko-say-nyabr, sm. joint lord.

COSINUS, ko-se-nus, sm. math. cosine.

COSMÉTIQUE, kos-may-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 cosmetic. Eau, pomade —, cosmetic water, pomatum. 2 sm. cosmetic. COSMÉTIQUE, sf. use of cosmetics.

COSMIQUE, kos-mik, adj. mf. (Gr.) astr. cosmic, cosmical.

COSMOGONIE, kos-mo-go-nee, sf. (Gr.) cosmogony.

COSMOGONIQUE, kos-mo-go-nik, adj. mf. cosmogonic, cosmogonical.

COSMOGRAPHIE, kos-mo-graf, sm. (Gr.) cosmographer.

COSMOGRAPHIE, kos-mo-graf-ee, sf. (Gr.) cosmography.

COSMOGRAPHIQUE, kos-mo-graf-ik, adj. mf. cosmographic, cosmographica.

COSMOLOGIE, kos-mo-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.)

cosmology.

COSMOLOGIQUE, kos-mo-lo-zhik, adj.
nif. cosmological.

COSMOPOLITE, kos-mo-po-li, sm. (Gr.)
1 cosmopolite, cosmopolitan. 2 (by extension) cosmopolitan, cosmopolite. 3 adjective, cosmopolitan. Une existence —, a cosmopolitan existence. Esprit —, cosmopolitan mind.

COSMOPOLITISME, kos-mo-po-le-tism', sm. cosmopolitanism.

COSMORAMA, kos-mo-rah-mah, sm. (Gr.) cosmorama.

COSSE, kos, sf. 1 (enveloppe) pod, shell, husk, cod. 2 naut. tumble, bull's eye, traveller.

COSSEUR, kos-say, rn. (des bœliers, of rams) to butt.

COSSON, kos-song, sm. ent. weevil.

COSSON, sm. agri. new vine shoot.

COSU, kossu, adj. fem. —, 1 (des pois, etc., of peas, etc.) podded, husked. 2 fig. rich, substantial, wealthy, warm. Un homme —, a rich man, a warm man. Une maison fort —, a substantial house. fig. pop. Il en conte de bien —es, he pulls a long bow.

COSTAL, kos-tal, adj. m. fem. —, pl. m. COSTAUX, anal. costal, costate.

COSTUME, kos-tium, sm. 1 (manière de se vêtir) costume, dress, garb. 2 (l'habillement lui-même) dress, fancy-dress. — de bal, ball-dress. 3 (habillement spécial) dress, uniform, costume. — de préfet, a prefect's costume. Etre en grand —, to be full dressed. — de ville, plain clothes. 4 point. costume. 5 (physionomie morale d'un peuple) costume.

COSTUME, ppc. of COSTUMER, fem. —, adj. fancy-dressed, in a fancy-dress. Bal —, fancy-ball.

COSTUMER, kos-tu-may, va. to dress up, to dress out.

se COSTUMER, trp. to dress one's self up, to wear the dress of.

COSTUMIER, kos-tu-may, sm. 1 costumier, fancy-dress dealer, dealer in costumes. 2 (dans un théâtre) wardrobe-keeper, property-keeper, toiler.

COTANGENTE, ko-tang-zhangt, sf. math. cotangent.

COTE, kot, sf. 1 (quote-part) quota, share. La — s'élève à tant, the quota amounts to so much. Payer sa —, to pay one's quota. — mal taillée, composing by the lump. 2 (marque numérale ou alphabétique) letter, number. 3 La — de la bourse, the quotation at the Exchange.

CÔTE, kôl, (Lat. costa) 1 adv. rib. Une — de bœuf, de baleine, a rib of beef, of the rib of the whale. fam. On lui compterait les —s, he is nothing but skin and bones. fig. pop. Mesurer les —s à quelqu'un, to thrash a person.

Rompre les —s à quelqu'un, to break a person's bones. 2 fig. rib. Tous les hommes sont sortis de la — d'Adam, we are all sprung from the loins of Adam. 3 (by analogy) rib. Des —s de melon, slices, ribs of a melon. Les —s d'un navire, the ribs of a ship. Etoffe à —s, ribbed stuff. 4 (penchant d'une montagne) slope, declivity, hill, brow. Au bas de la —, at the bottom of the hill. Descendre, monter, gravir une —, to descend, to ascend, to climb up a hill. A mi —, halfway up a hill. 5 (frivage de la mer) shore, sea-coast. 6 (ramp ashore). Donner à la —, to run ashore. Eclouer sur la —, to run aground, to strand. Faire —, to wreck on the coast. (by metonymy) Toutes les —s de la Manche étaient en armes, the whole coast of the Channel was up in arms. 7 (by extension) (approches de la terre) coast. Garde —s, coast-guards.

CÔTE côte, adv. loc. side by side, cheek by jaw.

CÔTE côte de, prep. loc. side by side with.

CÔTE-RÔTIE, sm. côte-rôtie (wine made on the banks of the Rhone).

CÔTE-D'OR, s. geog. a department of France.

CÔTES-DE-NORD, s. geog. a department of France.

CÔTE, ko-tay, sm. (Lat. costa) 1 (de l'homme, de l'animal, of man, of an animal) side. — droit, gauche, right, left side. Recevoir un coup d'épée dans le —, to receive a thrust with a sword in the side. Etre blessé au —, to be wounded in the side. Avoir un point au —, un point de —, to have a sore in one's side. Se tenir les —s de tir, to shake one's sides with laughing. 2 (by extension) (toute la partie droite ou gauche) side. Puis-je avoir deux femmes comme vous sans cesse à mes —s, may I be condemned to have two women like you constantly by the side of me. La Pont. Il n'y a pas une minute que je suis à son — I have not been a minute near him. Nod. Il me faisait dormir sans cesse à ses —s, he always made me sleep near him. Chat. Boiter des deux —s, to be lame of both legs. Etre couché sur le —, to lie on one's side. Avoir l'épée au —, to wear a sword at one's side. Du — de l'épée, on the sword-side. fam. Etre sur le —, to be lying on a bed of sickness. Le voilà sur le — poor longtemps, he is laid on the shelf for some time to come; || fig. to be on the decline. Jeter, mettre quelqu'un sur le —, to lay a person at his full length. 3 (by analogy) side. Ce navire a — sur le —, that ship is strand —. Mettre un navire sur le —, to lay a ship upon the carpen. Les bas —s d'une église, the aisles of a church. (parliamentary) Le — droit, le — gauche, the right side, the left side. (by extension) Tout le — droit se leva contre cette proposition, the whole right side rose against this proposition. 4 (faces d'un objet) side, part. Les —s d'un prisme, d'une pyramide, the sides of a prism, of a pyramid. Les deux —s d'un tableau, d'une médaille, both sides of a picture, of a medal. (d'une étoffe, of stuffs) side. Le — de l'envers, le — de l'endroit, the wrong side, the right side. fig. Elle se montre toujours du bon —, par son bon —, she always sets herself in the best light. L'envers les choses, voir les choses du bon —, do casually —, to look at things in their most favorable, unfavorable point of view. The absence, c'est le mauvais — de mon bonheur, your absence is the alloy to my happiness. Saud. De quelque — que vous considériez cette affaire, in whatever light you consider that affair. Ce n'est là qu'un — de la question, that is only one side of the question. 5 (lignes) side. 6 (par opposition) side. De chaque —, on each side. De ce —-ci, on this side. De l'autre —, on the other side. fam. De l'autre —, in the other room. 7 fig. Tout le tort est de votre —, the fault is all on your side. Il y a des torts des deux —s, both sides have been to blame. Agissez de votre — comme vous l'entendez, on your part do as you think proper. J'ai fait de mon — ce que je devais faire, for my part I have done what I ought to have done. D'un —, d'un autre —, de l'autre —, on one side, on the other side. 8 (partie, endroit) side, part, quarter. Il faut attaquer la ville du — où elle est le plus faible, the town must be attacked on its weakest side. fig. Le — faible d'une chose, the weak side of a thing. Les —s infirmes de sa nature, the weak side of his character. S'—-B. Le — faible d'une personne, the weak side of a person. Prendre quelqu'un par son — faible, to attack a person on his weak side. 9 fig. (parti) side. Se mettre du — du plus fort, to side with the strongest. Avoir, mettre les rieurs de son —, to have, to bring the laughers on one's side. De quel — êtes-vous? on what side are you? Du — de la barbe est la toute-puissance, man rules the roost. 10 (marque la tendance, le point de départ) side, quarter, way. Ils s'en sont allés chacun de leur —, chacun de son —, they have gone each his own way. Votre dessein était-il d'aller du — de la ville? were you going towards the town? Nol. La foule arrivait de tous les —, the crowd poured in from all quarters. Venez-vous de mon —? are you coming my way? Regarder de tous —s, to look round on all sides. fig. Je ne crains rien de ce —, I fear nothing from that quarter. Du — de la fortune il n'a pas se plaindre, on the part of fortune he has nothing to complain of. De ce —-là il est parfaitement tranquille, he is quite easy on that score. fig. fam. Ne savoir plus de quel — se tourner, not to know which way to turn. Regarder de quel — vient le vent, to look which way comes the wind. 41 (figure de parenté) tie, side. Ils sont parvus du — de la mère, du — maternel, they are relations by the mother's side. Etre du — gauche, to be a by-blow, a bastard, natural child. 2 côte de, prep. loc. beside, close to, by the side of, near. A — de chaque tourneau on plante un cyprès, by the side of each tomb they plant a cypress. Th. Gaul. Mettre à — du but, to miss the mark. (moral.) Mettre le trivial à — du sublime, to bring the vulgar in contact with the sublime. fig. Etre à —, marcher à — de quelqu'un, to vie with a person. fig. Etre à — de la question, to be out of the question, to travel out of record. 3 côte de, loc. hard by, close by. Il marchait à —, he walked by the side. Passez un peu à —, go a little on the side. Donner à —, to miss the mark. fig. Il s'est trompé dans cette affaire, il a donné à —, he has been mistaken in that affair.

DE CÔTÉ, adv. loc. sideways, on one side, awry. Regarder de —, to cast a side-long glance. fig. Son bonnet est de —, her cap is all on one side. Marcher, aller de —, to go sideways. Mettre, ranger une chose de —, to put, to lay a thing aside, on one side. Se mettre, se ranger de —, to stand aside, on one side. Mettre de —, to lay aside, to lay by. Un homme prévoyant doit tous les ans mettre quelque chose de — a provident man ought to lay something by every year; || fig. Mettre de —, to pass over, to put out of the question, to lay aside, to put aside.

CÔTÉ, ppc. of CÔTER, fem. —, adj. 1 numbered, lettered, quoted. Un registre — et paraphé, a register numbered and signed with initials. 2 com. fin. Des actions qui ne sont pas —es à la Bourse, shares which are not quoted on change. La rente a été —e à tant, the funds are quoted at so much.

CÔTEAU, ko-to, sm. 1 a slope, brow or a hill, hill-side. 2 (by extension) hill, hillock, rising ground. Le long du —, along the hill. Sur le —, on the hill.

CÔTELE, kot-lay, adj. m. fem. —, E. bot. ribbed. Fruit —, ribbed fruit. Une espèce de toque —, a sort of ribbed cap. Th. Gaul.

CÔTELETTE, kot-let, sf. cullet, chop. —s de mouton, mutton-chops. — en papillote, chop broiled in paper. —s à grenon, lamb chops. — de veau, veal cutlet. —s de porc frais, pork chops. fig. Des favoris taillés en —, long whiskers.

CÔTER, ko-tay, va. 1 (marquer, numéroter) to letter, to number. 2 com. fin. to quote.

CÔTERIE, kot-ree, sf. (in a bad sense) coterie, set, society, circle. — littéraire, literary circle. — politique, political set. Il ne veut être d'aucune —, he will join no set. Faire — avec quelqu'un, to concert with a person.

COTHURNE, ko-türn, sm. antiq. buskin. fig. Chausser le —, see chaussure.

CÔTIER, ko-tay, adj. m. fem. cÔTIÈRE, 1 naut. coasting. Navigation cÔtière, coasting. 2 Pilote —, coasting-pilot. (substantif.) Un bon —, a good coasting-pilot.

COTIGNAC, ko-te-nyak, sm. quiddany, marmelade of quince.

COTILLON, ko-te-song, sm. 1 petticoat, under petticoat. — court et soutiers plats, with short petticoat and flutings. La Font. 2 (sorte de danse) cotillon.

COTIR, ko-teer, ra. pup. (des fruits, of fruits) to bruise.

COTISATION, ko-te-zuh-syong, sf. 1 absol. (action de cotiser) assessement, rating. 2 (action de se cotiser) clubbing. 3 (quote-part) quota, share.

COTISEN, ko-te-zay, ra. to assesse, to rate.

SE COTISER, ppr. 1 (se taxer soi-même) to club together, to subscribe, to contribute. 2 (donner à plusieurs) to club together.

COTON, ko-tong, sm. 1 cotton. — à broder, embroiter cotton. — plat, à repasser, darning cotton. — rouge, à marquer, marking cotton. Commerce de —, cotton-trade. — brut, raw cotton. — en coque, seed cotton, cotton in the pod. — courte soie, short stapled cotton. — longue soie, long stapled cotton. — des Indes, Indian cotton. Filature de —, cotton-spinning. cotton-mill. Balle de —, bale of cotton. Toile de —, cotton-cloth. fig. fam. Elever un enfant dans du —, to bring up a child in tenderness. 2 (by extension) (duvet) down. (by analogy) fig. fam. Cet homme jette, file un mauvais —, that man is losing his reputation, is going down in the world, is going fast; || is booked for Darry Jones's locker. 3 fig. (poil follet) down.

COTON-POUDRE, sm. See Poudre-coton, gun-cotton.

COTONNADE, ko-to-nad, sf. cottons, cotton goods.

COTONNE, ppa. of se cotonner, fem. —E, adjective. woolly. Cheveux —s, woolly hair.

SE COTONNER, ko-to-nay, ppr. 1 (little used, to become downy. 2 (des étoffes, of stuffs) to cotton, to wear nappy, to rise with a nap. (intransitively) Cette toile cotonne, this linen is cottony. 3 (de certains fruits, de certains légumes, of certain fruits and vegetables) to become, to get mealy.

COTONNEUX, ko-to-nuh, adj. m. fem. cottonneux, 1 bot. cottonous, cottony. 2 (des fruits, etc., of fruits, etc.) mealy.

COTONNIER, ko-to-nyay, sm. bot. cotton-shrub, cotton-plant.

COTONNIÈRE, adj. m. fem. cottonnière, cotton. com. L'industrie cotonnière, the cotton-trade.

COTOYER, ko-twa-yay, ra. conj. like EMPLOYER, 1 (little used) (aller côté à côté de quelqu'un) to go by the side of. 2 (aller tout le long de) to coast, — le rivage, to run along the coast. — la forêt, to skirt the forest. absol. Notre navire ne fit que —, our ship only coasted along.

COTRE, kotr, sm. nat. cutter.

COTRET, ko-tray, sm. 1 short faggot. Un cent de —s, a hundred faggots. 2 stick. Un coup de —, a blow with a stick. fig. fam. Cet homme est sec comme un —, that man is as thin as a lath. Avoir des jambes de —s, to have spindly-legs, spindly-shanks. fig. pop. De l'huile de —, stirrup oil. fig. On Pa frotté d'huile de —, he was rubbed down with an oaken towel.

COTTAGE, kot-tazh, sm. (Eng.) cottage.

COTTE, kot, sf. 1 absol. petticoat. 2 — d'armes, coat of arms. — de mailles, coat of mail, frock of mail.

COTUTIER, ko-tit-tuhr, sm. law. joint guardian.

COTYLEDON, ko-te-lay-dong, sm. (Gr.) 1 anat. cotyledon. 2 bot. cotyledon.

COTYLEDONNAIRE, ko-te-lay-du-way, adj. mf. bot. cotyledonous.

COTYLEDONÈ, ko-te-lay-du-nay, adj. m. fem. —E, bot. cotyledonous.

COTYLOIDE, ko-te-lo-id, adj. f. anat. cotyloid.

COU, koo, sm. (euphoniously col)

(Lat. collum) 1 neck. Le — d'un homme, d'un cheval, d'une cigogne, the neck of a man, of a horse, of a stork. Le licron au long —, the long-necked heron. La Font. fig. Les fleurs au — de cygne, the swan-necked flowers. V. Hug. Avoir le — de travers, to have a wry neck. Allonger, pencher le —, to stretch out, to bend one's neck. Tordre le — à un poulet, to wring a chicken's neck off. Porter son son —, à son —, to wear on one's neck. fig. fam. Avoir un — de cigogne, de grue, d'autruche, to be long-necked. Couper le — à quelqu'un, to cut a person's head off. pop. Il sera pendu par son —, he will be hanged by the neck. (hyperb.) Se casser le —, Se casser. fig. fam. Kompre, casser le — à quelqu'un, to break the neck of, to ruin a person. Sauter au —, se jeter au — de quelqu'un, to fall, to throw one's self on a person's neck. Se pendre au — de quelqu'un, to hang round the neck of a person. fig. Prendre ses jambes à son —, to take to one's heels. fig. Un d'ivoire, d'albâtre, a neck of snowy whiteness. Le col d'une bouteille, d'une coraue, the neck of a bottle, of a retort. 3 cochma — de cygne, swan-neck.

COO-DE-PILO, sm. pl. COUS-DE-PIED, instep.

COUARD, kwar, sm. fem. —E, 1 coward. 2 adjective, cowardly.

COUARDISE, kwar-deez, sf. cowardice.

COUCHAGE, koo-shazh, sm. 1 (litte-rie) bedding. 2 (action de coucher) bed, night's bed. J'ai payé tout pour mon —, I paid so much for my bed.

COUCHANT, koo-shang, ppr. of cou-

CHER, adj. m. fem. —E, setting, declin- ing. Soleil —, setting sun. prov. fig. On adore plutôt le soleil levant que le soleil —, he who is in power has more adorers than he who is on the wane. Chien —, SE CHIEN.

COUCHANT, sm. 1 (l'occident) west. 2 (endroit où le soleil se couche) western heaven. Sa maison est exposée au —, his house has a westerly aspect. 3 fig. poetic.

Étre, toucher à son —, to be on the wane, on the decline, to fall into the sere and yellow leaf.

COUCHE, koo-sh, sf. 1 poetic. (lit) couch, bed. La — royale, the royal couch.

Partager la — de quelqu'un, to be the partner of a person's bed. Il arroisait de ses pleurs sa — solitaire, he watered his solitary pillow with his tears. 2 (le bois d'un lit) bedstead. 3 (d'une femme, of a woman) confinement, child-bed, lying-in.

Être eu —, to be lying in. Faire ses —s, to be confined. 4 (by extension) delivery.

Fausse —, miscarriage. Faire une fausse —, to miscarry. 5 (d'un petit enfant of an infant) napkin, wrapper. Changer un enfant de —s, to change a child's linen. 6

gard. hot-bed, forcing-bed. Une — de lu-mier, a hot-bed of manure. Une — de melons, a bed of melons. Semer des melons sur —, to sow melons in a hot-bed.

Champignon de —, cultivated mushroom.

— source, forcing-trench. 7 (substance étendue) coating, coat, layer. 8 (de certaines choses, of certain things) layer. 9 geol. layer, bed, stratum, pl. strata. 10

bot. —s ligueuses, wood-ring. 11 (à certains jeux, at certain games) lay, stake.

COUCHE, ppa. of coucher, fem. —E, adjective. 1 lying down, in bed. Être —, to be lying down. Tout le monde est —, every body is in bed. 2 (étendu) laid, extended.

Saint-Laurent fut — sur un gril ardent, St L. was placed upon a red-hot gridiron. Les morts —s dans COUCHÉE, koo-shay, sf. 1 (lieu) place to sleep at. 2 (le souper et le coucher) supper and bed.

COUCHER, koo-shay, ra. 1 to lie, to lie down. — dans un lit, sur un matelas, sur un lit de camp, sur la terre, sur la dure, to lie down in a bed, on a matress, on a camp bedstead, on the ground, on the bare ground. — à terre, to sleep on the ground. 2 (passer la nuit), to sleep. Ils couchèrent à l'enferme, they spent at the inn. — dans la rue, dans un bois, to sleep in the street, in a wood.

— en ville, to sleep in town. fig. — à la belle étoile, à l'enseigne de la lune, to sleep in the open air.

COUCHER, ra. 4 (mettre au lit, déshabiller) to put to bed, to undress. — un malade, un enfant, to put a patient, a child to bed. Madame a besoin de sa femme de chambre pour la —, Madam wants her maid to undress her. 2 (étendre de son long) to lay, to lay down. — quelqu'un par terre, le — sur le carreau, to kill, to wound a person dangerously, to lay a person low. (des choses, of things) to lay, to lay flat. 3 — en joue, to aim at, to take aim at; || fig. to watch closely, narrowly. 4 fig. absol. (inscrire, insérer) to inscribe, to insert. par écrit, to take down in writing, to set down.

5 (renverser) to topple, to lay, to bend.

La pluie a couché les blés — le rain has laid the corn. 6 (pencher) to slope, to incline. 7 (étendre une chose sur une autre) to lay, to lay on. 8 fig. (little used) (niet et au) to lay, to stake.

SE COUCHER, ppr. 4 (s'étendre) to lie, to lie down, to lay one's self down. Se — à terre, to lie on the ground. Se — sur son lit, to lie down on one's bed. Se — sur le dos, sur le côté, to lie on one's back, on one's side. Le pauvre homme s'est couché sur le dos pour l'éternité, the poor man is stretched out for an eternal sleep. Sauter. 2 (se mettre au lit) to go to bed, to go to sleep. Vous vous couchez trop tard, you go to bed too late. fig.

pop. Allez vous — l je suis avec vous? 3

fig. (du soleil, des astres, etc., of the sun, stars, etc.) to set, to go down.

COUCHER, sm. 1 (action de se coucher) going to bed. Le — du roi, le —, the king's coucher. 2 fig. Le — de la lune, the setting of the moon. Au — du soleil, at sunset. 3 point. Un — de soleil, a sunset. 4 (la manière dont on se couche) bedding, bed. Il est fort délicat pour le — le — est très particulier about his bed.

5 (la manière d'un lit) good, bad bedding.

COUCHETTE, koo-shet, sf. bedstead.

COUCHEUR, koo-shur, sm. fem. coucheuse, bed-fellow. fig. fam. C'est un mauvais —, he is a disagreeable fellow to have to do with.

COUCI-COUCI, adv. loc. so so, indifferently.

COUCOU, koo-koo, sm. 1 orn. cuckoo.

2 pendule à —, wooden clock, Dutch clock. 3 gard. coustil, burrow strawberry-bush. 4 (sorte de voiture, sort of carriage) coucou.

COUDE, kood, sm. (Lat. cubitus) 1 elbow. Être appuyé sur —, sur son —, to be leaning on one's elbow. Donner un coup de —, to elbow, to give a blow with one's elbow. Manger les —s sur la table, to eat with one's elbows on the table. Le pli du —, the bend of the elbow. fig. pop.

Hauser le —, to drink hard. 2 (by ex- ension) (partie d'une manche) elbow.

Un habit percé aux —s, par les —s, qui à les —s percés, a coat cut at the elbows. 3 (angle) bend, turn, winding.

Le — d'une rivière, the bend of a river.

A pendroit où la route fait le —, at the angle of the road.

COUDE, ppa. of couder, fem. —E, ad- jective. kneed.

COUDEE, koo-day, sf. 1 arm's length.

Avoir ses —s franches, les —s franches, to bare elbow-room; || fig. to have full liberty. La comédie classique était charmante quand elle avait ses -s franches, classic comedy was charming when it had no trammels. Nod. 2 metrol. cubit.

COUDRE, koo-day, va. 1 to bend, to form an elbow to. — une barre de fer, to bend an iron-bar at right angles. 2 — une manche, to make an elbow to a sleeve.

COUDROYER, koo-dwà-yay, va. conj. like EMPLOYER, to elbow, to jostle. — quelqu'un, to elbow a person. Un grand nègre couduoyant une jeune femme anglaise, a tall negro elbowing a young English-woman. Th. Gaut. (by extension) En Turquie les vivants couduoyent toujours les morts, in Turkey the living are always jostling the dead. Th. Gaut.

SE COUDROYER, rpr. to elbow each other, to jostle each other. Des cordons bleus confondus dans la foule se couduoyant avec des Savoyards, blue ribbons mixed up with the crowd are jostled by street-porters. St-B. Ils s'élaient couduoyés en passant, they had elbowed each other in passing.

COUDRAIE, koo-dray, sf. bot. hazel-groce, hazel-copse.

COUDRE, koudr', sm. bot. nut-tree, hazel.

COUDRE, koudr', va. (Lat. consuerere) COUSANT; COUSO; JE COUDS, TO COUDS, IL COUD, NOUS COUDONS; JE COUSAIS; JE COUSIS; JE COUDRAI; JE COUDRAIS; COUDUS; QUE JE COUSE; QUE JE COUSISSE, QU'IL COUSIT, to sew, to stitch. — des boutons à un habit, to sew buttons on a coat. (by extension) Un samsonnet américain parvient à — des feuilles avec son bec, an American storling contrives to sew leaves together with his bill. Mich. — une plaie, les lards, les lèvres d'une plaie, to sew up a wound, the lips of a wound. absol. Elle coud très-bien, she sews very well, she is a good needle-woman. Machine à —, sewing-machine. — à grands points, to sew with large stitches. fig. On ne sait quelle pièce y —, one does not know where to look for a remedy. fig. — sa misère aux misères d'autrui, to join one's misery with that of others. Muss. Votre tante ne sait pas — deux idées, your aunt cannot put two ideas together. Balz. Je veux y — encore un mot ou deux, I will add a word or two more. La Font. On allonge par endroit la trame pour y — la métaphore, the thread is lengthened out at places that the metaphor may be tacked on to it. St-B.

SE COUDRE, rpr. to be sewed, joined together. fig. Ces lambeaux poétiques qui venaient se — au récit, those poetical fragments which formed a natural connexion with the narration. Nod.

COUDRETE, koo-dret, sf. obsol. hazel-wood.

COUDRIER, koo-dryay, sm. bot. nut-tree, hazel, albert-tree.

COUENNE, kwân, sf. 1 rind, sword. — de lard, rind of bacon. 2 (la peau des mousins) porpoise-skin. 3 med. skin, buff, buffy-coat.

COUENNEUX, kwâ-nuhj, sm. fem. COUENNEUX, med. Sang —, buffy, buffy-coated blood. Angine couenneuse, See ANGINE.

COUETTE, kwât, sf. obsol. feather-bed. COUGUAR, koo-gwâr, sm. zool. cougar, cougar, panther.

COLLAGE, koo-lazh, sm. 1 (d'une pièce de vin, of a cask of wine) leakage. 2 (by extension) com. leakage, waste.

COULAMMENT, koo-lah-mâng, adv. (du style, of style) fluently, with fluency. St-B.

COULANT, koo-lâng, ppr. of COULER, adj. sm. fem. —, t (qui coule aisément) flowing, running. — Cette encre est bien coulante, this ink runs well. Néand. —, slip, running knot, noose. 2 fig. easy, flowing, accommodating. Ses manières devenaient —es et presque serviles, his manners became obsequious and almost servile. Balz. Style —, flowing style. Des vers bien —, s, flowing verses. Etre — en affaires, —, to be off hand in affairs.

COULANT, sm. 1 diamond slide, slide. 2 (de bourse, of a purse) slide.

COULE, ppa. of COULER, fem. —, adj. subject. 1 cast. Statue — e en bronze, statue cast in bronze. 2 Blé —, drooping wheat. 3 fig. C'est un homme —, it is all up with him. Voilà une affaire — e à l'air, that is a settled affair. Cette question a été — e, that question has been exhausted.

COULE, sm. 1 mus. slur. 2 dauc. slide. 3 paint. dead colour. 4 tech. cast.

COULÉE, koo-lay, sf. 1 calligr. running hand. (adjectif.) Ecriture — e, running handwriting. 2 naut. fair curve, hollow floor. 3 tech. tapping, running off.

COULEMENT, kool-mâng, sm. 1 phys. flow. 2 seuc. — d'épée, glissade. — de pied, a slip forwards.

COULER, koo-lay, vn. 1 (fluor) to flow, to run. Sur nos des plis de ce terrah coule une source, a source flows from one of the corners of this ground. Saint. Voyez ces pleurs qui coulent de nos yeux, Chat. C. eût vu son sang avec plus de calme, C. would have been more self-possessed, had he seen his own blood flowing. Saint. Que de larmes les inventions font — t how many tears inventions cause to flow! Ph. Chas. fig. Une si belle occasion de faire — le fiel de leurs plumes, so fine an occasion of distilling the gall from their pens. Le Sage. fig. Faire — le sang, to cause blood to flow, to be shed. Le sang a coulé, blood flowed, was shed. fig. Les cheveux partagés en bandeaux ondes coulaient de chaque côté de leurs tempes, their hair parted in wavy locks hung down on each side of their temples. Th. Gaut. 2 (by extension) (circular) to flow, to run. Ce sang jeune et pur qui coulerait à flots si vermeils, that youthful and pure blood would flow in such ruddy streams. Y. Hug. fig. Je sentais — dans mon cœur comme des ruisseaux de lave ardente, I felt as though streams of burning lava were flowing through my heart. Chat. 3 (by metonymy) to leak, to run. Ce tonneau coule, this cask runs' leaks. Le pétican regardant — sa sanglante mamelle, the pelican beholding the blood flow from his bloody breast. Muss. (by analogy) Le nez lui coule, his nose runs. Cette chandelle coule, le suif coule, that candle runs down, gutters. La statue, la cloche a coulé, the metal has run through the mould. 4 fig. (du discours, du style, of a speech, of style) to flow, to run smooth. — de source, to flow naturally, to come from the heart. Il parlait comme il écrivait, ça coulait de source, he spoke as he wrote, he had a flow of words at his command. St-B. 5 fig. (de temps, of time) to glide away, to glide on, to slide away, to creep away. Vous laissez — les jours sans les compter, you let days glide away without taking any account of them. Chat. 6 (glisser) to slip, to slide down. Il saisit la corde et se laissa — au sol, he took hold of the cord and slid down to the ground. Elle se laissa — sur une chaise, she dropped into a chair. Balz. Ce rasoir coule bien, that razor goes smoothly. (by extension) Des épaules — le regard coule, shoulders smooth to the eye. Nod. fig. — sur on fait, sur one circumstance, to glide over, to touch slightly on a fact, a circumstance. 7 (passer sans faire de bruit) to creep, to steal, to glide. 8 naut. — à fond, — bas, to sink, to founder, to sink to the bottom. Son aui coulant à fond au milieu d'un fleuve sans vouloir nager, his friend sinking to the bottom in the middle of a river without attempting to swim. B. de S.-P. fig. Ses intrigues sont reconnues, il ne tardera pas à —, his intrigues are discovered, he will soon go to the bottom. Leur entreprise a coulé, their undertaking has failed. 9 danc. to slide. 20 agri. (de la vigne, de certains fruits, etc., of the vine, of certain fruits) to drop, to fall off.

COULER, koo-lay, 1 (passer on liquide), to strain. — la lessive, to scald linen. 2 metal. — une statue, une cloche, to cast a statue, a bell. — une glace, une gousse de fer, to cast a plate of glass, a pig of iron. fig. Il coule sa pensée en bronze palpable et vivant, he gives his thought a palpable and living form. Lamart. 3 (passer) to pass, to spend. — des jours tranquilles, heureux, to pass quiet, happy days. Une assez douce vie à — entre les aimables loisirs de la paresse, a pretty agreeable life to spend in the delightful leisure of idleness. Néand. 4 (faire passer) to slip. — un mot à l'oreille, to whisper a word in the ear of a person. 5 naut. (faire couler bas) to sink (un vaisseau, a vessel). Trier à —, bas, to cannondore for the purpose of sinking. fig. — quelqu'un à fond, to ruin a person, to do for a person. C'est cette malheureuse affaire qui a coulé bas cette maison, it was that unfortunate affair which was the ruin of that house. — quelqu'un à fond dans une discussion, to run a person down in a discussion. — à fond une matière, to exhaust a subject. — à fond une affaire, to settle, to wind up an affair. 6 danc. — un pas, to glide over a step. 7 mus. — des notes, to slur notes.

SE COULER, rpr. 1 (se glisser furtivement) to steal, to slip, to creep, to glide. Elle se coula près d'elle, niels nâs, she crept barefooted near her. Balz. Il se coula dans la foule, he slipped in the crowd. 2 (se perdre, se ruiner) to ruin one's self, to do for one's self.

COULEUR, koo-lubr, sf. (Lat. color) t colour, hue. — naturelle, artificielle, natural, artificial colour. — vive, claire, gaie, sombre, voyante, tranchante, lively, light, gay, dark, showy, glowing colour. Les sept — de l'arc-en-ciel, the seven colours of the rainbow. prov. Je ne connais pas la — de son argent, I never saw the colour of his money. prov. Juger d'une chose comme un aveugle des couleurs, See AVEUGLE. C'est la — à l'emploi, it is the colour in fashion. (le mode, in the masc.) Le rose, le feu, de rose, de chair, etc., flame, rose, flesh-colour. (adjectif.) Roban — de feu, flame-coloured ribbon. Gants — de chair, flesh-coloured gloves. 2 fig. moral. colour, hue. fam. Voir tout — de rose, to see every thing in its brightest colours. Des idées — (des vêtements, of clothing) colour. Une robe de —, a coloured dress. 3 —, pl. anc. lively, colours. Porter les — d'une dame, to wear a lady's colours; || fig. to declare one's self a lady's admirer. 5 (by analogy) — s nationales, national colours. Le drapeau aux trois —, the tri-coloured flag. fig. sing. colour, party. 6 (le teint) colour, complexion. Un enfant qui a de belles, de bonnes — s, a rosy-cheeked child. Haut en —, florid complexioned. (by extension) En apprenant cette nouvelle, il devint de toutes les —, on hearing this news, he turned all sorts of colours. Changer de —, to turn pale. La — lui monta au visage, the blood flew up to his face. Les hommes de —, men of colour, mulattoes. Une femme de —, a woman of colour, a mulatto woman. med. Pâles — s, green sickness. 7 cului. brown colour. fig. fam. L'affaire prend —, the affair looks well. Cette affaire prend une mauvaise —, this affair is taking a bad turn. 8 (matière colorante) colour, dye. Bruyer, mêler, préparer des — s, to grind, to mix, to prepare colours. Pain de —,

a cake of colour. Mettre en —, to stain.
9 (pour tableaux, for pictures) paint, colour.
10 — locale, national characteristic, local colour. 11 acc. (coloris) colouring.
12 esgr. Cette gravure est d'une belle —, that engraving is of a fine colour. 13 fig. (du style, of style) colour. 14 (aspect particulier) colour, aspect. 15 fig. (semblant) colour, show, colouring. 16 m. romps sous — d'amitié, he has deceived me under a show of friendship. 16 (by extension) (apparence spécieuse) colour, appearance. 17 jeu de cartes, at cards suit. 18 her. colour.

COULEUVIE, koo-luhv', sf. ep. add. prov. fig. Avaler des —s, to put up with mortifications.

COULEUVREAU, koo-lub-vro, sm. ep. young adder.
COULEVRINE, koo-lub-vreen, sf. artil. culverin.

COULIS, koo-lee, sm. culin. cullis, gravy soup. — d'écrevisses, craw-fish cullis.

COULIS, adj. m. Vent —, draught.
COULISSE, koo-lee, sf. 1 (rainure) groove. 2 (le volet) slide. fig. Faire les yeux en —, to look sideways. Regarder en —, to cast sidelong glances. 3 (théâtre) side-scene, slip, wing. 4 (by extension) side-scenes, green-room. Rester dans les —s, to remain behind the scenes. C'est au pilier de —, he is a frequenter of the green-room. Intrigue, propos de —s, green-room intrigues, talk. 5 (d'un vêtement, of clothes) running-string, string-case. 6 exch. (la révélation des coulisses) coulisse. 7 triat. — de galée, slice of a galley.

COULISSEAU, koo-le-so, sm. tech. loague, side-block, slide, guide.

COULISSIER, koo-le-say, sm. 1 stock-jobber. 2 frequenter of the slip.

COULOIT, koo-lwâr, sm. 1 (écuelle) strainer, cullender, colander. 2 (passage) lobby, passage. 3 anat. duct.

COULOIRE, koo-lwâr, sf. strainer, filter.

COULPE, koolp, sf. (Lat. culpa) theol. sin, fault, trespass. prov. Dire sa — de quelque chose, to say peccavi for a thing.

COULRE, koo-lâr, sf. 1 agri. dropping, falling off. 2 tech. running out.

COUP, koo, sm. 1 (impression que fait un corps sur un autre en le frappant, etc.) blow, stroke, knock, hit, thump. Un — de poing, a cuff. Un — de pied, a kick. Un — de dent, a bite. Un — de bec, a stroke with a bill. Un — de corne, a blow with a horn. Un — de griffe, a scratch. — de patte, a claw. Le cheval lui donne un — de pied, le loup un — de dent, le boeuf un — de corne, the horse kicks him, the wolf bites him, and the ox gores him. La Fout. Un — d'épée, de lance, a thrust with a sword, a lance. — de bistouri, de lancette, incision with a bistoury, a lancet. — de coude, nudge, jog, push with the elbow. Quand il eut — à — de cognée à peu près fait le monde, when he had given the world almost into the shape he wanted. Y. Hog. Tandis que —s de poing iraient, during this shower of blows. La Fout. Faire le — de poing, to box; — de poing, pocket pistol; | knuckle duster. Doper, purter, al-longer, assener on — à quelqu'un, to give, to deal, to felly, to strike a person a blow. Charger, roner, assommer quelqu'un de —s, to beat a person unmercifully. En venir aux —s, to come to blows. Manquer son —, to miss one's stroke. Un grand —, a heavy blow. Un petit —, a slight blow. Un — mortel, a mortal wound, a deadly blow. Le — de la mort, the death-blow. Un — malassuré, an unsteady blow. Entre deux, je passerai et du — vous sauverai, I will come between you and parry the blow. La Fout. Un — n'attendait pas l'autre, one blow was immediately followed up by another. Se donner un — contre une porte, to knock,

to strike one's self against a door. Dé-tourner, parer, esquiver, rompre, amortir un —, to turn aside, to parry, to escape, to ward off, to deaden a blow. (by metonymy) — d'arbalète, de fusil, de pistolet, de canon, cross-bow-shot, gun-shot, pistol-shot, cannon-shot. Abattre une muraille à —s de canon, to demolish a wall with cannon-shot. — de foudre, de tonnerre, clap of thunder, thunder-clap, thunder-stroke. Etre taé d'un — de foudre, to be killed by lightning. — de grâce, finishing stroke. fig. Cet événement lui pour lui le — de grâce, that event was the finishing stroke for him. Sans — le tir. See VÉRIR. fig. — de bec, de langue, wipe, rub, reflection, taunt. fig. Les —s de langue ne me furent pas épargnées, ill-natured reflections rained down upon me. Le Sage. fig. Donner un — de patte, des —s de patte à quelqu'un, to give a person a slap. fig. Avoir un — de bache à la tête, avoir un — de bache, un petit — de bache, to have rats in the upper story. (in the same sense) Un — de marteau, craziness. Faire d'une pierre deux —s, to kill two birds with one stone. Le — de pied de l'âne, the ass's kick. Ce fut pour lui un — de foudre, un — de masse, it was for him a thunderstroke, a knock-down blow. C'est un — d'épée dans l'air, c'est un — dans l'eau, it is beating the air, it is an unsuccessful attempt. Frapper les grands —s dans une affaire, to have recourse to strong measures in an affair. 2 (contusion) bruise, wound. Etre convert de —s, percé de —s, to be covered with wounds, bruised. Il a reçu tant de —s que son corps n'est qu'une plaie, he has received so many wounds that his body is but one sore. —s et blessures, wounding and maiming. — de feu, shot. Recevoir un — de feu au bras, to receive a shot in the arm. 3 fenc. — fourré, interchanged thrust; || fig. — fou. Porter un — fourré, to do one a secret injury. fig. — de Janus, unfair blow. 4 méd. — de saug, apoplectic fit. — de soleil, sun-stroke. Attraper un — de soleil, to get a sun-stroke. 5 nat. — de talon, touching the ground. 6 fig. blow, stroke, stab. Les —s du sort, les —s de la fortune, the strokes of Fate, the buffets of Fortune. Pas un mot qui ne soit un — de poignard, not a word that is not a stab. Ab. Porter —, to tell, to take effect. 7 (son, bruit) stroke, blow, beat. — sec, sourd, a sharp, dull stroke. Un — de cloche, de tamtam, a stroke of a bell, of a tamtam. Un — de tambour, the beat of a drum. Un — de sifflet, a whistle. C'était le — du maître qui frappe à la porte, it was the authoritative knock of the master at the door. Mich. Aa — de midi, de minuit, de deux heures, on the stroke of twelve, of two. (du tonnerre, of thunder) stroke, clap. Un — de tonnerre, a clap of thunder. fam. ironic. Etre secret comme un — de tonnerre, to be as secret as the town-crier. 8 (d'une arme à feu, of a fire-arm) report, shot. Tirer des —s de fusil, to fire off a gun. — de partance, farewell gun. Faire le — de fusil, to skir-mish. Faire — double, to fire right and left. Fusil à deux —s, double-barrelled gun. 9 (la charge d'une arme à feu) round. Tirer à — perdu, à —s perdus, to shoot at random. 10 (certaines actions dont la durée est très-courte) stroke, touch. Un — de pinceau, de crayon, a touch of the pencil. Un — de lime, de ciseau, a touch of the file, of the chisel. Un — de piston, a stroke of the piston. Donner un — de balai à une chambre, to give a room a sweep. Un — d'ongle, a scratch. Il ne perdit pas un — de dents, he did not lose a bite. La Fout. Le — de gosier de l'alouette, the singing of the lark. Mich. Un — d'archet, a stroke of a fiddlestick. Un — de peigne, a combing. Un — de brosse, a brush. Un — d'aile, a flap with the wing. fig. Ce ne sont pas les larges

—s d'ailes de Bossnet, this is not the lowering flight of Bossnet. Ste-B. Traduction faite à —s de dictionnaire, translation made by dint of turning over the leaves of a dictionary. — d'aile, glance. — de chepaen, bow. — de vent, gale, gust of wind. Un — de tempête, on — de mer, a storm, a heavy, a high sea. Un — d'air. See air. Un — de sonet, a smack of a whip; || fig. a stimulus. — de flet, hant, cast of the net; || fig. To auras la part des —s de flet, you shall have your share of the prey. Le Sage. fig. Prendre plusieurs voleurs, plusieurs ennemis d'un — de flet, to take several thieves, several enemies in a single haul. Donner un — de main à quelqu'un, to lend a person a helping hand; || fig. — de main, a surprise. Se mettre à l'air d'un — de main, to protect one's self against a coup de main. fig. fam. Donner un — d'épau, to give a lift. fig. Donner un — de collier, See collier. fig. Donner un — de pied jusqu'à tel endroit, to step to such a place. Il n'y a qu'un — de pied d'ici à cet endroit, there is but a step from here to that spot. 11 priot. pull. 12 calin. — de feu, roasting heat; || a scorch. fig. La cuisinière est dans son — de feu, the cook is in a bustle. 13 fig. (action, acte) stroke, act, trick. Le — de génie est, selon moi, d'avoir dit, the stroke of genius, in my opinion, is the having said. Mich. Un — d'étoardi, a thoughtless action. Un — de désespoir, an act of despair. C'était un — monté, it was a premeditated blow. Ce sont là de ses —s, those are tricks of his. La fortune se plaît à faire de ces —s | fortune delights in playing such tricks. La Fout. Faire un mauvais —, to play a bad trick, to commit a crime. Faire son —, to succeed in one's aim. Manquer son —, to miss one's aim. Ils feront leur — demain, they will carry out their attempt to-morrow. Ab. Faire — de tête, to do a rash deed. Faire des —s de tête, to do rash actions. Faire un — de sa tête, to do a thing of one's own head. — d'éclat, brilliant action, achievement. — d'essai, first endeavors. — de maître, masterly stroke. Mes-pareils pour leurs —s d'essai veulent des —s de maître, men like me take care that their first stroke shall be a master-stroke. Cora. — d'Etat, coup d'Etat, a stroke of State policy. (by extension) act of importance. Cette victoire fut un — d'Etat, this victory completely changed the face of things; || fig. Ce mariage fut un — d'Etat dans cette famille, this marriage was a revolution in that family. — d'autorité, act of authority. — du ciel, — d'en haut, — de la Providence, a providence. — de théâtre, an unexpected incident; || fig. clap-trap. 14 (jeux, games) throw, cast, hit, more, stroke, fling. — d'arrière-main, a back-stroke. Jouer, parier à — sûr, to play, to wager without risk. Il a un — sûr, he never misses. fig. — de fortune, de bonheur, de malheur, de hasard, stroke of fortune, of misfortune, of chance. — de parti, masterly stroke. prov. fig. Ce — vane l'argent, it is worth while. — de dés, throw, cast at dice; || fig. hap-hazard. Rompre le —, to bar, to make go for nothing; || fig. to parry the stroke. 15 (fois) time. Un —, deux —s, trois —s, once, twice, thrice. Il a réussi du premier —, he succeeded the very first time. A tons —s l'on gagne, at every turn one wins. Je vous le donne en trois —s, I give you three times to guess. Encore un —, once more. Madame, encore un —, cet homme est-il à vous? once more, Madam, is that man one of your retinue? Corn. Je tiendrais l'être encore un — de toi, I shall once more owe you my existence. La Fout. Pour le —, pour ce —, à ce —, this time. C'est assez pour ce —, pour un —, it is enough for once. Notre magot prit pour ce — le nom d'un port pour un homme, our monkey took this time the name of a sea-port for that of a man. La Font. C'est ce — qu'il est bon de partir, now is the moment to set out. La Font. C'est ce — qu'il faut fuir de l'escarcelle, this time no expense must be spared. La Font. absol. A ce —, je le tiens, I have him now. 46 (ce qu'on boit d'une fois) draught. Un — de vin, a draught of wine. Mes gens ont bu un — de trois, my men have taken a drop too much. Ab. De grands —s d'eau que j'avais, large draughts of water that I swallowed. Le Sage. Il but un — où il y avait les trois quarts d'eau, he drank a draught which was composed of three parts water. Le Sage. Boire à petits —, to sip. Le — du milieu, the interlude. Le — de l'étrier, the stirrup cup.

COUR D'ŒIL, sm. look, glance. Jeter un — d'œil sur quelqu'un, spr quelque chose, to cast a glance on a person, over a thing. Lancer un — d'œil, to dart a glance. Embrasser d'un — d'œil, to take in at a single look. Co — d'œil d'intelligence, a knowing wink, a speaking look. fig. Jeter un — d'œil sur les événements, to cast a glance over events. Avoir le — d'œil juste, to be clear-sighted. (so sens moral, morally) Avoir le — d'œil excellent, to be quick-sighted, absol. Avoir du — d'œil, to be clear-sighted. Ses études étaient du d'œil, she worked by instinct. Lamart. — d'œil, view, sight, spectacle. Le premier — d'œil, the first glance.

A COUP SÛR, adv. loc. certainly, to a certainty. A — sûr, it n'est pas fait pour inspirer la joie, certainly, he is not of a nature to impart cheerfulness. Sand.

APRÈS COUP, adv. loc. when too late, afterwards.

COUR SUR COUP, adv. loc. one after another. Il ū partir deux courriers — sur —, he sent off two messengers one after the other. Ils lui firent — sur — des questions qui, they asked him questions one after another which. Mich. Après maints quolibets — sur — renvoyés, after many quibbles returned one after the other. La Font.

À TOUTS COUPS, adv. loc. at every time, at every moment.

TOUT À COUP, adv. loc. suddenly, all at once.

TOUT D'UN COUP, adv. loc. all at once, at a single stroke. Il a gagné mille francs tout d'un —, he won a thousand francs at a single stroke. L'appétit me manqua tout d'un —, my appetite failed me all at once. Le Sage.

SOUS LE COUP DE, prep. loc. threatened with, exposed to. Le malheureux sous le — d'une saisie, the wretch threatened with a distress.

COCUPABLE, koo-pahl', adj. mf. 4 culpable, guilty. Se rendre : — d'un crime, d'une faute, to be guilty of a crime, of a fault. Il a été reconnu —, he was proved guilty. Etre — de trahison, of negligence. (by extension) Main —, guilty hand. Conscience —, guilty conscience. 2 (des choses, of things) guilty, culpable, sinful. Pensez —, guilty thought. Amour —, guilty love. 3 (substantive) guilty person. On a arrêté le —, the guilty man has been apprehended. Dieu saura bien atteindre les —s, the guilty are never beyond the reach of Divine wrath. (in joke) Vous voulez savoir qui a fait cette chanson? voilà le —, you want to know who made that song? there stands the guilty man. Beaumont.

COUPANT, koo-pang, ppr. of COUPER, 1 adj. m. leu. — e, sharp, cutting. Un outil —, a sharp tool. 2 sm. neol. Le — d'un sabre, the edge of a broadsword. COUPE, koo, sf. 1 (action de couper) cutting, cutting down, felling. La — des blés, corn-cutting. La — des cheveux, hair-cutting. La — d'un bois, the felling of a wood. Acheter un melon à la —, to buy a melon on trial. 2 (étendue de bois) wood cut, felled, wood to be cut, to be felled. — règle, annual cutting. 3 (l'endroit où une chose a été coupée) cut, cutting. 4 draw. section, plan, profile. — longitudinale, longitudinal section. 5 tailon. cut. La — d'un habit, the cut of a coat. fig. La — oblique de la figure de l'étranger, the oblong cut of the stranger's face. Balz. 6 — de pierres, stone-cutting. 7 fig. La — d'un ouvrage, d'une pièce de théâtre, etc., the division of a work, of a play, etc. La — d'un vers, d'une phrase, the division of a line, of a phrase. 8 (jeux, games) cut, cutting. C'est à vous la —, it is your turn to cut. Faire sauter la —, to turn the king or ace at will. Etre sous la — de quelqu'un, to play first; || fig. to be in a person's power. 9 nat. hand-over-hand. Faire la —, to swim hand-over-hand.

COUPE, sf. (Lat. cupa) 4 (vase) cup. — d'or, d'argent, gold, silver cup. 2 fig. poetic. cup, glass, goblet. Qu'une — vide est amère! how bitter an empty cup is! V. Hug. Boire à la — des plaisirs, to quaff the cup of pleasure. La — grandeurs, the cup of grandeur. V. Hug. Epuiser le — du malheur, to drain the cup of misery. Deux liqueurs sont mêlées dans la — de la vie, two liquors are mingled together in the cup of life. Chat. La — du banquet maternel, the cup of the maternal feast. Chat. Rhin, Nil de l'Océan, — des nations, Rhine, thou Nile of the Ocean, cup of nations. Lamart. C'est la plus grande — où s'abreuve le genre humain, it is the greatest river at which the human race come to slake their thirst. Mich. 3 theol. (communion) cup. 4 arch. — de fontaine, basin of a fountain.

COUPE, ppa. of couper, fem — e, adjective. 4 cut. Avoir les cheveux —s, to have one's hair cut. 2 (d'un vêtement, of clothes) cut. Un habit bien —, a coat well cut. 3 (d'un pays, of a country, cut, crossed, divided. Le pays — par le Rhin, the country crossed by the Rhine. Chat. 4 fig. (interrompu) broken. Une éducation très-irrégulière, très-libre et très — e, a very irregular, loose and desultory education. St-B. 5 fig. Style —, short, broken style. 6 (châtre) cut. Cheval —, gelding. 7 mélange; mixed with water, diluted. Lait —, milk and water. Vin — avec de l'eau, wine mixed with water. 8 nat. Pont —, half deck. 9 her. empalé. 10 arch. A pans —s, octagonal.

COUPÉ, koo-pay, sm. danc. coupée. COUPÉ, sm. 1 (voiture) chariot, brougham. 2 (d'une diligence, d'une malleposte, of a stage coach, etc.) coupé, front-seat. Prendre le —, to take the front-seat.

COUPELLATION, koo-pel-lah-syong, sf. chem. cupellation, refining, cupellation.

COUPELLE, koo-pay, sf. (Lat. cupella) chem. cupel. Or de — d'argent de — very fine gold, silver. fig. Mettre, passer à —, to put to the test, to the trial, to stand the test.

COUPELLER, koo-pay-lay, va. chem. to test.

COUPER, koo-pay, va. 4 (tran-cher) to cut. — en deux, to cut in two. Le roi vous ferait — en morceaux, the king would have you cut into pieces. Ab. — par pièces, to cut into pieces. — du pain, to cut bread. — avec un couteau, avec une hache, avec des ciseaux, to cut with a knife, an axe, a pair of scissors. — une jambe à quelqu'un, to cut off a person's leg. — la tête à quelqu'un, to cut off a person's head. — le cou à un canard, to cut a duck's throat. — les cheveux, to cut the hair. Jo jo ai coupé un tas de feuillage, I cut off a quantity of its small leaves. Saint. — la gorge à quelqu'un, See GORGE. — bras et jambes à quelqu'un, See BRAS. (in threat) Je lui couperai tes oreilles, I will cut his ears off. absol. Ce rasoir coupe bien, this razor cuts well. fig. Ma bonne nourrice m'a répété cent fois que ce bébé dea connaît les attachements, my good nurse has told me a hundred times that this present cuts late. Nod. — fig. La mort coupe en souriant le fil de nos jours, death with a smile cuts asunder the thread of our life. Chat. fig. — l'herbe sous le pied à quelqu'un, to trip up a person's heels. fig. Se laisser — l'herbe sous le pied, to suffer one's self to be cut off. fig. — le mal à la racine, to root out the evil. 2 (châtrer) to geld, to cut. 8 (tailler suivant les règles de l'art) to cut, to cut out (un habit, etc., a coat, etc.). absol. Ce tailleur coupe bien, that tailor is a good cut. 4 to cut through (une montagne, a mountain); to cut off (un pont, a bridge). 5 (de la peau, of the skin) to cut. Vous m'avez coupé à la main, you have cut my hand. — dans le vin, jusqu'au vit, to cut to the quick; || fig. to cut to the quick. 6 (du froid, of the cold) to cut, to chap. fig. Ce vent coupe la figure, this wind cuts the face. 7 (traverser, partager) to cross, to intersect, to divide. 8 nat. to cut off (une flotte, a fleet). 9 — l'eau, to cut the water. — le courant, to cut across the stream. 10 — les eaux à une place assiégée, to cut off the water from a besieged town. — le cours d'un fleuve, d'un ruisseau, to turn the course of a river, of a stream. — chemin, — le chemin à quelqu'un, to stop a person's way. fig. — chemin à quelque chose, to bar the road to a thing. — chemin à la fièvre, to stay the progress of a fever. — le feu, — un incendie, — la fièvre, to stay the progress of a fire, of a fever. — les vivres à une ville assiégée, to cut off supplies from a besieged town. || fig. — les vivres à quelqu'un, to starve a person, to deprive him of all means of subsistence. — les communications d'une ville, d'une province, to cut off the communications from a town, from a province. — les ennemis, to cut off the enemies' communications. — la retraite, to cut off the retreat. — la parole à quelqu'un, to cut a person short. Les sanglots lui coupèrent la parole, lui coupèrent la voix, sob's stopped his utterance. Il ne faut pas que l'amour vous coupe l'appétit, you must not let love take away your appetite. G. Sand. fig. fam. — court, to cut short. — court à quelqu'un, to cut a person short. Pour — court à toutes ces réclamations, M. s'était décidé à... to put a stop to all these complaints, M. had resolved to. Sand. fig. — le temps, la journée de quelqu'un, to break in upon a person's time, day. 11 (se croiser avec) to cut across, to intersect. L'endroit où le sentier de l'évangé vient — celui de la route, the spot where the path to the pond cuts across that to the hut. Nod. — quelqu'un, to cross to get before a person. Sa voiture coupa la nôtre, his carriage crossed ours. (by analogy) to cut across. — par le plus court chemin, par le plus court, par un sentier, to take the shortest cut. — l'équateur, to cross the equator. 12 fenc. — la mesure, to coupee. 13 tennis. — le coup, to play low so that the ball will not rebound. 14 (jeu de cartes, game at cards) to cut. — les cartes, to cut the cards. absol. C'est à vous à —, it is your turn to cut. Coupez, cut. 15 danc. to coupee. Coupez, coulez, coupez, slide. 16 (mélér) to mix, to dilute. — du lait avec de l'eau, to dilute milk with water. absol. — son vin, to put water into one's wine.

COUPE-CONS, em. pl. COUPE-CONS, corn-cutter.

COUPE-CORGE, sm. pl. COUPE-CORGE, 4 (endroit) cut-throat place. 2 (by extension) cut-throat place, den of thieves.

COUPE-JARRET, sm. pl. COUPE-JARRETS, cut-throat, ruffian.

COUPE-LÉGUME, sm. pl. COUPE-LÉGUMES, instrument to cut vegetables in thin slices.

COUPE-PAILLE, sm. pl. COUPE-PAILLES, tech. chaff-cutting machine.

COUPE-PÂTE, sm. pl. COUPE-PÂTES, tech. dough-knife.

COUPE-QUEVE, sm. pl. COUPE-QUEUES, vet. tail-knife.

COUPE-RACINES, sm. agri. root-cutter.

SE COUPER, vpr. 4 to cut one's self. Se — la gorge, to cut one's throat, to cut each other's throat. Se — la gorge avec quelqu'un, to fight a duel with a person. 2 to be cut. 3 (des personnes, etc., of persons, etc.) to be chaped, cut. 4 (se refers se coupe, that refers cuts in the folds. 4 vet. (des chevaux, of horses) to cut. 5 (des chemins, des lignes, etc., of roads, etc.) to cut each other, to cross. 6 (se mêlèrent) to be mixed, diluted. 7 fig. (se contredire) to contradict one's self. 8 (couper à soi) to cut for one's self. Coupez-vous du pain, cut yourself some bread.

COUPERET, coop-ray, sm. 4 culin. chopping-knife, chopper, cleaver. 2 tech. enameller's file.

COUPEROSE, koop-roz, sf. 4 chem. copperas. 2 med. blotch, carbuncle.

COUPEROSE, koop-roz, adj. m. fem. — e, blotched and pimpled. Avoir le visage —, être —, to have a blotched and pimpled face. Ses joues —es, his pimpled face. Sand.

SE COUPEROSER, koop-roz, vpr. to become blotchy. Sou teint se couperosa, her face became blotchy. Balz.

COUPEUR, koop-puhr, sm. fem. couperse, 4 (de vendanges, in vintage) cutter. 2 (de vêtements, etc., of coats, etc.) cutter. 3 — de bourses, pick-pocket.

COUPLE, koopl, sf. 4 (deux choses de même espèce) couple. Une — d'œufs, de chapons, a couple of eggs, of capons. ven. Une — de lievres, de perdrix, a brace of hares, of partridges. 2 (lien) couple. Ces chiens ont couple —, these dogs have broken their couple.

COUPLE, sm. 4 (deux êtres propres à agir de concert) couple, pair, brace. Un — d'amis, a couple of friends. Un — de chiens, a couple of dogs. 2 (d'époux, d'amants) couple, pair. Heureux —, happy pair. 3 navi. frame.

COUPLER, koop-play, va. 4 to couple (des chiens, dogs). 2 (little used) (loger deux personnes ensemble) to couple together.

COUPLET, koop-play, sm. 4 (sorte de strophe) stanza, verse. Un — de chanson, a stanza of a song. 2 —s, pl. (chanson) verses, song. Des —s de fête, festive songs. 3 (théâtre) speech, tirade. 4 tech. hinge.

COUPLETER, koop-play-lay, (from couplet) il couplette; il couplettera, va. to lampoon, to make a song on.

COUPOIR, koop-pwâr, sm. tech. knife, cutter.

COUPOLE, koop-pôl, sf. (It.) 4 (l'intérieur d'un dôme) cupola. 2 (dôme) cupola, dome.

COUPON, koop-poug, sm. 4 (d'une étoffe, of stuff) remnant. 2 (papier de crédit) dividend-warrant, coupon. d'intérêt, dividend-warrant, coupon. d'action, coupon, half, quarter of a share. détaché, ex-dividend. 3 (théâtre) — de loge, box-ticket.

COUPURE, koop-pûr, sf. 4 (incision) cut, gash. (by extension) (d'une étoffe, d'un cuir, of stuff, of leather) cut, remnant. 2 (d'une composition littéraire, of a work of literature) suppression, erasure. 3 (rigole) cut. 4 mil. intrenchment. 5 fin. small bank-note.

COUR, koor, sf. 4 yard, court-yard, court. — d'entrée, entrance court, front yard. — d'honneur, court of honour, principal court. Basse —, back-yard, poultry-yard. 2 le lieu où se tient le souverain court. Aller à la —, to go to court. 3 (les personnes qui vivent auprès du souverain) court, courtiers. Charge à la —, place at court. Intrigues de la —, court intrigues, back-stairs influence. poetic.

La — c'est, Paradise. 4 anc. Fr. hist. — plénier, plenary court. prov. fig. C'est la — du roi Pétaud, it is Dover-court, and court — diquette. 5 (by extension) speakers and no hearers. 5 (un grand seigneur, da suite d'un prince, d'un grand seigneur, etc.) court. 6 (l'air, le ton, la manière) court — diquette. C'est un homme de la vieille —, he is a man of the old court. Homme de — (sometimes in a bad sense) courtier, gentleman of the court. Eau bénite de —, See BÉNIR. 7 (le souverain et son conseil) court. Être bien, être mal à la —, to be in favour, in disgrace at court. 8 court, cabinet. La — de France, the court of France, the cabinet of the Tuileries. 9 fig. court, circle. 10 (by extension) Faire la —, faire sa —, to pay one's court. Faire la — à une femme, to court, to woo, to pay one's addresses to a woman. Faire un doigt de — à quelqu'un, to show attentions to a person. 11 (siège de justice) court. — de cassation, See CASSATION. — impériale, imperial court. La — des comptes, See COMPTE. La — des pairs, the court of peers. — d'assises, See ASSISES. Mettre hors de —, hors de — et de procès, to nonsuit. obsol. (substantif) Un hors de —, a non-suit. 12 (le lieu où siège une cour de justice) court.

COURAGE, koor-razh, sm. (It.) 4 courage, heart, gallantry, spirit, daring, fortitude. Reliever le —, to rouse the spirit. Perdre le —, to be out of heart. Nangue de want of courage, pusillanimity, faint-heartedness. La Harpe a eu le — de ses jugements. La H. had the courage to defend his criticisms. S't-B. Le — qui nous jette dans la mort n'est que le — d'un instant, the courage that urges a man to suicide is but the outburst of a moment. B. de S't-P. — physique, physical courage. — moral, moral courage, fortitude. (by extension) La patience est le — de la vertu, patience is the courage of virtue. B. de S't-P. poetic. —s, pl. soul, heart. Enflammer les —s, to fire the soul. (in a bad sense) — brutal, brutal courage. Avoir le —, to have the courage, the heart to. (interj.) —! cheer up! be of good courage! Allons, —, mes enfants! now then, cheer up my lads! —, mes amis, —! cheer up, friends, cheer up! fig. fam. Prendre, tenir son — à deux mains, to summon up all one's courage. prov. Il n'y a plus que —, nothing is wanting but a little courage. 2 (des animaux, of animals) courage, mettle, spirit. 3 fig. poetic. (homme courageux) courageous man, great soul. Ces —s si fières, those men so proud and so courageous. Vert. Un grand — dédaigne de se venger, a great soul disdains revenge. La parole suflit entre les grands —s, a simple promise is binding with brave men. Corn. 4 poetic. (cœur, esprit) heart, mind, soul. Apaisé ce — irrité, calm your indignation. Corn. Et l'amour, qui ne pat entre dans son —, and love which could not gain entrance into his heart. Corn. 5 (zèle, ardeur) heart, courage, ardour, zeal. Il y allait de grand —, he set about it heartily.

COURAGEUSEMENT, koor-rah-zhobz-mang, adv. courageously, gallantly, with fortitude.

COURAGEUX, koor-rah-zhob, adj. m. fem. courageux, courageous, gallant. Se montrer — dans le malheur, dans les souffrances, to show fortitude in misfortune, in suffering. (by extension) (des actions, des discours, etc., of actions, speech, etc.) courageous, bold, spirited.

COURAILLER, koor-rah-zay, en. pop. to run about, to gad about.

COURAUMENT, koor-rah-mang, adv. fluently, off hand, readily. Lire, écrire —, to read, to write fluently.

COURANT, koor-rang, ppr. of COURIR, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 (qui court) running.

Chien —, pointer. Fan — e, running water. Ecriture — e, running hand. 2 (du temps, of time) present, current, instant. L'année — e, the present, current year. Le terme —, the present quarter. (elliptic.) Le deux, le quatre du —, the second, the fourth inst. Fin —, at the end of the current, present month. (by analogy) Intérêts —s, current interests. Compté —, See COMPTE. Noû — e, running hand. Prix —, current price. 3 (ordinaire, habituel) current, ordinary affairs. Être chargé des affaires —es d'une maison, to be intrusted with the current affairs of a house. 4 navi. Manœuvres —es, running rigging. 5 typ. Titre —, running title, head line.

COURANT, sm. 4 stream, current. Le — de l'eau, the current of the water. Suivre le — de la rivière, suivre le —, to go with the stream. Dans le — d'une onde pure, in the stream of a clear rivulet. La Font. fig. Il écrit au — de la plume, he lets his pen run on, he writes with fluency. S't-B. Le — de l'opinion était pour lui en ce moment, the current of opinion was in his favour at that moment. S't-B. 2 — d'eau, stream. 3 (de la mer, of the sea) current. Un sous-marin, a sub-marine current. — électrique, electric current. — d'air, draught. See AIR. fig. Un — de bonté et de bon sens s'y fait sentir, kindness and good sense predominate. S't-B. 5 fig. Dans le — de l'année, do mois, de la semaine, in the course of the year, the month, the week. 6 fig. Le — do marché, the current market-price. 7 fig. Le — des affaires, the current, the course of affairs; || — d'affaires, run of business. 8 fig. Le — du monde, the current of the world. 9 fig. Mettre, tenir quelqu'un au — d'une chose, to let a person know how an affair goes on. Se mettre au —, être au —, se tenir au — d'une chose, to be acquainted with a thing. (elliptic.) Se tenir au —, to be acquainted with. Il est au —, he knows all about it. 10 (de rentes, of rents, annuities) present quarter. 11 (par opposition à arrière) current.

COURCOURANT, adv. loc. 4 running. Il est arrivé tout —, he came hither running. 2 (couramment) fluently, readily, with fluency.

COURANTE, koor-rangt, sf. 4 (danse) courant, couranto. 2 (l'air) courant. 3 pop. relaxation, looseness of the bowels, diarrhoea.

COURBATURE, koor-bah-tû, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 man, foundered, knocked up. 2 (by analogy) Le lendemain j'étais un peu —, the next day I felt bruised all over. Th. Gaut. Je me sens — de la fatigue du voyage, I feel myself knocked up with the fatigue of the journey. Nod.

COURBATURE, koor-bah-tû, sf. med. foundering, extreme lassitude, over-fatigue.

COURBATURE, ppa. of COURBATUREUR, fem. — e, adjectif, stiff in the joints.

COURBATUREUR, koor-bah-tû-ray, va. to over-fatigue.

SE COURBATUREUR, vpr. to be knocked up, over-fatigued.

COURBE, koorb, adj. mf. (Lat. curvus) curved, crooked. Ligne —, a curve. Un sabre —, a curved sabre. Th. Gaut. Surface —, curved surface.

COURBE, sf. 4 geom. curve. Le nez n'a pas cette — aquiline, the nose has not the aquiline curve. Th. Gaut. 2 build. knee 3 arch. knee. 4 vet. curb.

COURBE, ppa. of COURBER, fem. — e, adjectif, bent, stooping. Se tenir — sur ton chevet, a thoughtful cherub bent over his bed. Muss. Je n'étais pas — vers la terre comme aujourd'hui, I was not bent towards the ground as I am now. Chât. — par le travail, bowed down by labour. B. de S't-P. Front —, head hanging down. fig. — sous le poids de la honte, bent under the weight of shame.

COURBER, koor-bay, ra. to bend, to bow down. L'âge l'a tout courbé, old age has bent him double. (by extension) En feu que le vent courbe et relève, a fire that the wind beats down and raises. V. Hug. poetic. L'âge a courbé son front, his age has bowed down his head. Il fig. le front, — la tête devant quelqu'un, to hang down one's head before a person. fig. Il n'est Romain si fier que ne courbe son front devant tes arrêts, there is no Roman so proud as not to bow to thy decrees. C. Del. fig. Ce roi qui courbait la tête sous son joug, this king who bowed his head under the yoke. Aug. Th.

COURBER, ra. to bend, to bow down, to stoop. — sous le faix, to bend under the burden.

SE COURBER, ppr. 1. to bend, to be bent, to bow down. Sa fleur se courbe languissante, its drooping flower hangs down its head. Mich. Quel vraiment son front se serait courbé! what is his pride really humbled! Saint. Ses cheveux se courbaient en ondes pressées, her hair hung in clustered tresses. Ab. 2 fig. to bend, to stoop. Il devient vieux, he begins to stoop.

COURBETTE, koor-bet, sf. 1 man. curvet. Faire faire des — à un cheval, to make a horse curvet. 2 fig. Faire des —, to bow and scrape, to cringe.

COURBUË, koor-bür, sf. curve, bend, curvature, flexure. Des verres de diverses —, glasses of different curves. Mich. La — étroite et noire des sourcils, the narrow and black curve of the eyebrows. Nod.

COURCAILLET, koor-kah-yay, sm. 1 cry of the quail. 2 sport. quail-pie, quail-call.

COURCIVE, sf. naat. See COURSE.

COURSEUR, koor-rür, sm. 1 runner. 2 (by extension) runner, racer. C'est un grand —, it is est toujours par quatre chemins, he is a great rover, he is always on the tramp. fig. fam. — de nuit, one that keeps bad hours. — de bals, of spectacles, ball-pool, play-pool. 3 (domestic) running-footman. 4 (cheval) racer. 5 mil. — s, pl. scouts, runners. Gou. cor-rira.

COURSEUSE, koor-rüz, sf. god-about; street-walker.

COURSE, koorzh, sf. bot. gourd, pumpkin, pumpkin.

COURIR, koor-reer, *vn. irreg. COURANT; COURE; JE COURS, TO COURS, IL COURT, NOUS COURONS, VOUS COUREZ, ILS COURENT, JE COURRAIS; JE COURRES; IL COURRAI; COURS, COURRES; QUE JE COURE, QUE TO COURRES, QU'IL COURE, QUE NOUS COURIONS, QUE VOUS COURIEZ, QU'ILS COURENT; QUE JE COURRESSE; (Lat. currere) 1. to run, — de toute sa force, to run as fast as possible. — comme un cerf, to run like a deer. — à toute bride, to ride full speed, full gallop. Cela dit, maître loup s'enfuit et court encore, he had said that, master wolf scampered off, without costing a look behind him. La Font. On va — sur vous de tous les points de l'horizon, you will be attacked from all quarters. Sand. Il voit de tous côtés — des assassins à pas précipités, he sees assassins hastening from all sides with hurried steps. Volt. Au moment où les deux champions allaient — l'un sur l'autre, at the moment when the two champions were going to rush on each other. Bar. Les vagues couraient rapides, vertes et sombres, the waves rolled rapid, green and gloomy. Mich. On vit la réverbération d'une clarté éloignée — sur la terre, the reflection of a light was seen flickering along the ground. Nod. Je vois les nuages — sur les dernières étoiles, I see the clouds hastening to hide the last stars. Lamart. Une lumière bleue courait sur la brasse éteinte et s'évanouit, a white light flickered over the extinguished embers and disappeared. Nod. Faire — une boole, to bowl. Faire — une corde, *une courroie

dans une poulie, to give play to a rope, to a strap in a pulley. 2 (hyperb.) to run. Je marchai toute la nuit ou pour mieux dire je courais, I walked all night, or I might rather say, I ran. Le Sage. 3 (specialty) (lutter à la course) to run, to race. Faire — un cheval, to make a horse run, to keep a race-horse. 4 (se porter rapidement vers) to run, to hasten, to hurry. Dites-lui qu'il coure à l'ambassade, tell him to hurry to the embassy. Ab. De l'Inde à l'Hellasport ses esclaves courent, from India to the Hellasport his slaves hied them. Rac. — au feu, to hurry to the fire. Je cours content de moi et le cœur léger à la tente de, I hastened self-satisfied and light-hearted to the tent of. Ab. Nous courûmes tous du côté où nous avions vu le signal, we all hastened in the direction from whence the light had appeared to us. B. de St-P. Vous qui couriez avec tant d'intrepidité à son secours, you who so intrepidly hastened to her assistance. B. de St-P. Je me rappelle des personnes qui couraient à la porte pour, I remember persons who ran to the door in order to. Ph. Chas. Le père mort, les trois femmes courent au testament, as soon as the father was dead, the three women hastened to the testament. La Font. Je venais de quitter Paris et je courais en vapeur vers M., I had just left Paris, and I hastened by railway to M. Mery. fig. Il partit, et mon cœur courait avec lui jusqu'au terme de son voyage, he set out, and my heart went with him to the end of his journey. Ab. — sus à quelqu'un, to fly to arms. fig. — au plus pressé, to fall upon a person. fig. — au plus pressé, to do what is most needed. — à sa perte, to ruin, to hasten to one's ruin. Qui se venge à demi court lui-même à sa perte, he who takes only half a revenge does but provoke his own ruin. Cora. — à sa fin, to advance towards one's end; || to draw near to its close. — après, to run after (les honneurs, les richesses, etc., honours, riches, etc.). Leurs successeurs voulaient — à des semblables bonnes fortunes, their successors tried to have the same good luck. Bar. Vois les — à des morts glorieuses et belles, see them hastening to a glorious death. La Font. — après des chimères, des fantômes, to run after chimeras, fancies. — après l'esprit, to run after wit. Elle ne court guère après l'imagination, she is not often carried away by her imagination. St-B. — après l'argent, à l'argent, to run after money. — après son argent, to run after one's money. 5 (aller à et là) to stroll, to stroll about, to run about. Elle ne pouvait — seule à travers les rontes, she could not stroll about the country alone. Saint. On ne le trouve jamais chez lui, il est toujours à —, he is never at home, he is always running about. 6 (faire des courses, des démarches) to go about, to run about. 7 fig. (faire vite, aller trop vite) to do hastily, to hurry one's self. Je suis trop heureux de pouvoir faire un mauvais repas en courant, I am too happy to be able to hurry down a bad meal. J'ai écrit cela en courant, I wrote that in a hurry. Lisez plus doucement, ne courez pas, read more slowly, don't hurry yourself. 8 (des liquides, de fluides) to run, to flow. L'eau court, the water flows. La séve court, the sap is in circulation. Tout mon sang courait à mon cœur, all my blood rushed to my heart. Nod. Sentait dans ses yeux quelques larmes —, feeling a few tears flowing from his eyes. Lamart. (by analogy) En froid court dans ses veines, a chill runs through his veins. La Font. 9 fig. (du temps, of time) to run on, to flow on. L'année qui court, the present year. Par le temps qui court, as times go. Ses deux mois de congé qui courent à partir de tel jour, his two months' leave of absence which begin from. 10 fig. (des intérêts, des gages, etc., of interests, wages, etc.) to run on. 11 fig. (circuler) to run, to be spread about, to be current. Une rumeur courait dans la foule, a rumour ran through the crowd. Nod. Faire — un pamphlet, to put a pamphlet into circulation. Cette maladie court depuis quelque temps, that has been a prevalent disease for some time. obsol. L'avis qui court, the opinion that is likely to carry it. (impers.) Il court des bruits sur son complot, there are reports about him in circulation. 12 fig. (être en vogue) to be prevalent, to prevail, to be in fashion. Les poudres dont la mode courait de son temps, dolls which were a prevailing fashion in her time. Nod. 13 fig. (s'étendre) to run, to stretch, to extend. Un banc étroit qui courait sur toute la longueur de la muraille, a narrow bench that stretched the whole length of the wall. Nod. Le petit sentier que vous voyez — là dans les prés, the narrow path that you see stretching out yonder in the meadow. Nod. Sur les murs courent des sentences tracées par la main de M., on the walls are written sentences traced by the hand of M. Th. Gaut. 14 naat. — au nord, au sud, to stand to the northward, southward. — au plus près, to run close upon a wind.

COURSE-VITE, sm. orn. courser.
COURIR, va. 1. a posto, to ride post. 2 fig. — une carrière, to pursue, to follow, to run a career. La carrière que sa race allait —, the career that his race was about to pursue. Ph. Chas. (by analogy) Il fut fidèle à ceux dont il courait la fortune, he was faithful to those whose fortunes he followed. St-B. 3 (poursuivre) to pursue, to run after. — le cerf, le lièvre, le daim, to hunt the stag, the hare, the deer. — la bague, to run at the ring. (by analogy) — la quintaine, — les taureaux, to run at the quintain, at bulls. fig. — un bénéfice, to sue for a living. fig. — le cachet, to give private lessons. prov. fig. — le même lièvre, to be rivals. prov. Il ne faut pas — deux lièvres à la fois, one must not have two birds in the fire. 4 naat. — des bordes, des bords, See bordes. 5 (parcourir) to roam over, to run about, to stroll about. Courant les rues tout armé, running from place to place fully armed. Bar. — les champs, to stroll about the country. Voilà six ans qu'il court les grands chemins, he has been roaming about these six years. Mérim. Vous qui avez couru le monde, vous n'êtes pas sans savoir, you who have travelled about, are aware that. Ab. fig. fam. Cette nouvelle, cette histoire, cette aventure court les rues, this news, story, adventure is in every body's mouth. L'esprit court les rues, wit is as common as air. A cette époque les moustaches ne couraient pas les rues, at that epoch, mustaches were not so common. Mérim. Fam. — la pive, to go to a game, to infect, to errand. (un pays, la mer, a country, the sea), intransitively Il avait équipé quelques vaisseaux et couru sur la côte d'Angleterre, he had fitted out several vessels and infected the English coasts. Bar. 7 (fréquenter) to frequent, to run after, to go to. — les bals, les spectacles, to frequent balls, theatres. obsol. fig. fam. — les ruelles, to be a lady's man. 8 fig. (rechercher) to run after, to follow, to attend. 9 fig. (être exposé à, s'exposer à) to run, to incur. Il courrait de grands risques s'il, he would run great risks if. Mérim. Sa famille effrayée du danger qu'il courait, his family terrified at the danger he incurred. Ph. Chas. — fortune, — risque, — hasard, — le risque, la chance, etc., to run the hazard, the risk, the chance, etc. Je veux en — la chance, it will run the risk. 10 fig. (du temps, of time) to pass, to spend. Quand je courais doucement ma vingt-cinquième année, entre les romans et les papillons, whilst my twenty-fifth year was gently gliding away among nozels and butterflies. Nod.

COURLIS, koor-lee, COURLIEU, koor-lyuh, sm. ara. curlew.

COURONNE, koo-roon, sf. (Lat. corona) 1 crown, wreath, garland. — de laurier, de roses, laurel crown, crown of oaks. — de feuilles de chêne, to award a crown. 2 fig. La — du martyre, the crown of martyrdom. La — de gloire, the crown of glory. 3 fig. (dans les collèges, in schools) (prix) crown, wreath. Obtenir des — es, to obtain prizes. 4 — impériale, royale, ducal, imperial, royal, ducal crown. — de comte, de marquis, de baron, earl's, marquis's, baron's coronet. — à fleurons, a jewelled crown. With triple —, the triple crown, tiara. La — d'épines, the crown of thorns; || fig. a crown of thorns. 5 fig. (la royauté) crown. — héréditaire, elective, hereditary, elective crown. Les droits, les prérogatives de la —, the rights, the prerogatives of the crown. Héritier présomptif de la —, heir presumptive to the crown. Le domaine de la —, crown lands. fig. C'est on des plus beaux fleurons de sa —, it is one of the highest prerogatives of the crown. 6 fig. (Etat monarchique) crown. La — de France, the crown of France. Traiter de — à —, to treat between crown and crown; || fam. to treat on equal terms. 7 (la tonsure cléricale) shaven crown. 8 (by analogy) (certaines choses ayant une forme circulaire) crown. — De bons vieux curés à la — de cheveu blanc, good old curés with a crown of white hair. Lamart. Pain en —, crown loaf. 9 anat. — d'une dent, crown of a tooth. 10 mil. Ouvrage 32 —, crown-work. 41 (monnaie) crown. 42 vet. cornet. 43 astr. — boréale, — australe, northern, southern crown. 44 bot. crown, corona. 45 hort. crown. 46 met. crown, corona. 47 metrol. crown. 48 paper-mak. Papier —, large foolscap. 49 ven. crown.

COURONNE, ppa. of COURONNER, fem. — E. adjective 1 crowned. — de roses, crowned with roses. De jeunes Grecques — es de leur diadème de cheveu, young Greek girls crowned with their diadem of hair. Th. Gaut. fig. De grâces et d'enfance et d'amour — es, crowned with grace, childhood and love. V. Hug. 2 tête — e, crowned head. 3 (surmonté) Murailles — es de créneaux, walls crowned with battlements. Coteaux — s de vignobles, hill-sides crowned with vineyards. Salut bois — s d'un reste de verdure, hail's woods crowned with some remaining verdure. Lamart. (by extension) En se voyant au milieu de cette table — e de parents, in seeing himself seated at that table, surrounded with relations. Balz. 4 fig. (récompensé) crowned, rewarded. Le travail persévérant et — par la renommée, persevering labour crowned with fame. Sand. Ouvrage — de gloire, to be crowned with glory. 5 fort. Ouvrage —, crowned work. 6 vet. broken-kneed. Cheval dont le genou est —, cheval —, broken-kneed horse. 7 bot. Fruit —, crowned fruit. 8 hort. Arbre —, tree with the top decayed.

COURONNEMENT, koo-roon-mang, sm. 4 (action, cérémonie) coronation, crowning. 2 arch. crowning, top. (by extension) Pour — à ces colines vertes, les profondes du ciel, the vaulted arch of heaven serves as a crown to those green hills. V. Hug. 3 (by extension) (d'un meuble, of a piece of furniture) crowning, top-piece. 4 fig. crowning, finishing. C'est le — de l'œuvre, it is the crowning-piece of the whole work. 5 naut. Le — d'un vaisseau, d'un navire, the taffrail, taffrail of a ship.

COURONNER, koo-roo-ray, va. (from couronne) 1 (Mettre une couronne) to crown. 2 (d'un souverain) to crown. J. loi disait d'aller se faire — à R., I told him to have himself crowned at R. 3 fig. (donner le titre de roi) to crown. 4 fig. (récompenser) to crown. — le vainqueur, to crown the victor. — un ouvrage, to crown a book. 5 fig. (honorer) to crown, to honour. — la vertu, to crown virtue. Il faut on condamner ou — sa haine, his hatred deserves a condemnation or a crown. Coru. 6 (orner de couronnes) to crown with wreaths, with garlands. 7 (entourer la tête) to crown. Ces roses d'un jour qui couronnaient sa tête, those ephemeral roses that crowned his head. V. Hug. fig. Buffon dont la gloire couronnait la vieillesse, B. whose vigorous old age was crowned with glory. Si-B. 8 (surmonter d'une couronne) to engrave, to paint a crown. 9 (surmonter) to crown. La haute ville qui couronne le rocher, the high town that crowns the rock. Mich. Le plus beau panache qu'on ait jamais vu — le cerceuil des rois, the finest plume that was ever seen to crown a king's coffin. Nod. (by extension) L'immeuble chaîne des Alpes couronnait le paysage, the landscape is crowned by the immense chain of the Alps. 10 fig. (donner la dernière perfection) to crown, to complete, to finish. Le succès a couronné son entreprise, success has crowned his enterprise. La vieillesse couronne et la ruine achève, old age crowns and the end is decay. V. Hug. 41 — les vœux de quelqu'un, to crown the wishes of a person. prov. La fin couronne l'œuvre, the end crowns the work. Celui-ci couronna sa belle conduite en, this one crowned his handsome behaviour by giving up all his claims. Merim. 42 hort. — un arbre, to crown a tree.

SE COURONNER, ppr. 1 to crown one's self. Se — de fleurs, to crown one's self with flowers. fig. Se — de gloire, to crown one's self with glory. 2 (d'un roi, of a king) to crown one's self. 3 (des choses, of things) to be crowned. Vois ce chêne solitaire dont le rocher s'est couronné, see that solitary oak with which the rock is crowned. Lamart. Les arbres se couronnent de verdure, the tops of the trees are becoming green. fig. Lui dont la jeune pensée se couronne de cheveux blancs, he whose youthful thoughts have the maturity of old age. V. Hug. 4 hort. C'est arbre se couronne, that tree is decaying at the top. 5 vet. Ce cheval s'est couronné, that horse has broken his knees.

COURONNER, sf. ven. a stag's small branching horns.

COURRE, koor, va. conj. like courir, except the infinitif. 1 hunt. to hunt. — le cerf, le lièvre, to hunt the stag, the hare. 2 absol. Chasse à —, hunting, coursing. Laisser — les chiens, laisser —, to slip, to uncouple, to let go the dogs. 2 absol. to run.

LAISSE-COURRE, sm. 4 hunt. (lien) starting-place. 2 hunt. (air) Sonner le laisser —, to give the view-halloo.

CORRE, sm. hunt. 1 (lien) starting-place. 2 C'est un beau —, it is a fine coursing country.

COURRIER, koo-ryay, sm. 4 courier, messenger. Dépêcher quelqu'un en —, to despatch as a messenger. Répondre — par —, to answer by return of post. — de cabinet, cabinet messenger, state messenger. fig. fam. — de malheur, bearer of ill tidings. 2 (d'une malle-poste) mail, mail-bag. — de la malle, mail-guard. 3 (by extension) mail, mail-coach. Voyager par le —, to travel by mail, by the mail-coach. 4 (lettres reçues ou écrites) letters, correspondence. Lire, faire son —, to read, to write one's letters. Jour de —, post-day. Heure du —, post-hour. 5 (qui court la poste à cheval) post. Voyager en —, to travel by post. 6 (domestique) courier.

COURRIERE, koo-ryay, sf. poetic. La blanche — des nuits, the silvery wanderer of the night. La Renommée enfile, cette prompte —, at last Fame that swift news-monger. Boil.

COURROIE, koo-rwâ, sf. (Lat. corium) strap. Attacher avec des —, to strap. Serrer, lâcher la —, to tighten, to loosen the strap. (by analogy) — de gutta-percha, gutta-percha strap; || prov. fig. Allonger la —, See ALLONGER. Serrer la — à quelqu'un, to diminish a person's means.

COURROUCE, ppa. of COURROUCER, fem. — E. adjective angry, incensed, raging, in wrath.

COURROUCER, koor-roo-ray, va. RORS courroucer, il courrouce, to anger, to incense. Cela me courrouce et j'aurais pu lui nuire, that provoked my anger and I might have done him an injury. G. Sand. Nous doutons même si nous n'avons pas courroucé et offensé Dieu et vous, we even doubt whether we have angered God and yourself. Bar. (by extension) (de certains animaux, of certain animals) to rage.

SE COURROUCER, ppr. 1 to become, to grow angry, incensed, wrath. 2 fig. poetic. (de la mer, of the sea) to rage.

COURROU, koo-roo, sm. 1 anger, wrath, ire. Le — d'un père, d'un prince, the anger of a father, of a prince. Etre en —, to be wrath. Apaiser, désamer le — de quelqu'un, to appease, to disarm the anger of a person. (by extension) (de certains animaux, of some animals) rage, wrath. 2 poetic. (de la mer, des vents, etc., of the sea, etc.) rage, raging.

COURS, koor, sm. 1 course, current, flow, stream. Le — d'un fleuve, d'un torrent, the course of a river, of a torrent. Remonter le — d'un fleuve, to go up the stream of a river. Détourner le — d'une rivière, to divert a river from its course, to turn the course of a river. — d'eau, water-course. fig. Donner un libre — à ses larmes, to let one's tears flow freely, to give way to tears. Donner un libre — à ses transports, à sa fureur, à sa douleur, to give free vent to one's transports, fury, grief. 2 (d'un fleuve, etc., of a river, etc.) (étendue en longueur) course, length, extent. 3 med. Le — du sang, the circulation of the blood. — de ventre, looseness of the bowels. 4 (des astres, of stars) course. 5 fig. (marche, tournure) turn, course, direction, current. Dans l'espérance que la chose prendrait un meilleur, in hopes that the affair would take a better turn. Sand. Le — naturel des choses, the natural course of things. Le — de la justice, the course of justice. Le — des idées, the course of ideas. 6 fig. (durée) course. Peulant le — de quarante ou cinquante ans, in the course of forty or fifty years. Pendant le — de la journée, during the course of the day. Le — de son règne, the course of his reign. Dans le — de sa maladie, in the course of his illness. Dans tout le — de sa vie, in the whole course of his life. naut. Navigation au long —, voyage beyond seas, across the high seas. Capitaine au long —, captain of a merchant vessel. 7 fig. (suite) course, continuation. Poarsuivre le — de ses triomphes, to pursue the course of one's triumphs. 8 fig. Donner — à un bruit, à une opinion, à une maxime, à un préjugé, to give currency to a report, an opinion, a maxim, a prejudice. Avoir —, to be current; || (des monnaies, des billets, etc., of coins, of bank-notes etc.) to pass current. (by analogy) voies. C'est la mode qui donne le — aux étouffes nouvelles, it is fashion which brings new stuffs into vogue. 9 com. (prix, taux) rate, price, current-price, market-price. Le — de la rente, des effets publics, des actions industrielles, the current price of the stocks, the funds, of shares in a joint-stock company; || fig. Le — du marché, de la place, state of things. 10 (suite de le-(cons) course of lectures, lessons. — public, public course of lectures. — gratuit, gratuitous course of lectures. Suivre un —, to attend a course of lectures. 41 (by extension) (ouvrage) course, treatise. 42 (étude) course of study. 43 (longueur) length. 44 arch. — d'assises, range, course. 45 (promenade) public walk.

COURSE, koor-s, sf. 4 (action de courir) running, run, course. Courir une —, to follow a career. Courir sa —, to run one's race. —, to finish one's career. Prendre un lièvre à la —, to course a hare. — de bagues, de têtes, etc., runnings at rings, at heads. mil. Pas de —, double quick time. Prendre la —, prendre sa —, to set off running; || prendre sa —, to take a start. 2 (lutte) race. — à pied, foot-race. —s de chevaux, races, horse-races. — au clocher, steeple-chase. — plate, steeple-chase. — des haies, hurdle-race. 3 (dans les tournois) course. 4 poét. 12 (mouvement des astres) course, race, career. 5 fig. course, flight. La — précipitée du temps, the hurried flight of time. 6 fig. (des personnes, of persons) course, career. Il fut sa —, he has run his race. 7 (trajet) distance, journey. 8 (d'une voiture) de place, of a hackney-coach) drive. Prendre une voiture à la —, to take a coach by the drive. 9 (by extension) (légitime) fare. Cocher, combien la — d'un coachman, what's the fare? 10 (actes d'hostilité) inroad, incursion, cruise, privateering. Les ennemis ont fait des — jusqu' dans cette province, the enemies have made incursions as far as this province. Bar. (specially) Armer un vaisseau en —, to fit out a privateer. Aller en —, to go out as a privateer. Faire la —, to privateer. 41 (allées et venues) walk, ride. J'y passerai donc mes —, I will call there on my way round. 42 (excursions) excursion, trip. 43 tech. length of piston stroke.

COURSIER, koor-syaz, sm. et poét. (cheval de bataille) courser, steed. 41 (cheval-guerre). 2 bylt, foot-board.

COURSIVE, koor-siv, sf. naut. whist.

COUSIN, koor-song, sm. agri. shoot with the top lopped off.

COURT, koor, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. cortus) 1 (qui a peu de longueur) short. Un pea —, rather short. Mon épée était trop — e de sept ou huit centimètres, my sword was too built by seven or eight centimètres. Ab. Avoir le nez —, les cheveux —, to have a short nose, short hair. Être — et trappé, to be short and thick-set. Mandissais ses pieds — s avec juste raison, bestowing merited curses on his short feet. La Font. Une — e distance, a short distance. Ce chemin est plus — de moitié, this way is shorter by half. Le chemin le plus —, (elliptic.) le plus —, the shortest; || fig. Le chemin le plus — le plus —, the nearest way. Yae —, short sight, short-sightedness, near-sightedness; || fig. short-sightedness. fig. Cu de ces retours oisifs et à — e vue sur le présent, one of those, artless and short-sighted reflections on the present. Ste-B. fig. Ses vues étaient — es mais justes, his views did not extend far, but they were sound. Faire la — e échelle, to give a back to a person; || fig. to pave the way for a person. Il offrit de me faire la — e échelle, he offered me a back. Ab. fig. fam. Son épée est trop — e, his arm is not long enough. prov. A vaillant homme — e épée, a brave man needs no long sword. Le chemin le plus long est quelquefois le plus —, the longest way is sometimes the shortest. 2 (de peu de durée) short, short-lived. A cette saison les nuits sont très — es, in this season the nights are very short. Mon erreur fut — e, my error was short-lived. Le passage est bien — de la joie à la douleur, the passage is very short from joy to grief. V. Hug. A de — s intervalles, at short intervals. — e baleine, short breath, shortness of breath. Avoir la respiration — e, to be short-winded. fig. Il veut la faire — e et bonne, he intends to have a short life and a merry one. 3 (en petite quantité, insuffisant) short, scanty. Le dîner se trouva fort —, the dinner proved to be a very scanty one. Voilà un bouillon qui est un peu —, that is rather thin broth. 4 (des discours, etc., of speech, etc.) (brief) brief, short, curt. Les ouvrages les plus — s sont toujours les meilleurs, the shortest works are always the best. La Font. J'ai donc fait cet éloge — et simple, I have therefore made this eulogy brief and simple. La Font. Une — e harangue, a brief address. Être —, to be brief. Soyez — dans votre récit, be brief in your narration. prov. — e prière pénètre les cieus, God does not require long prayers. prov. S'en retourner avec sa — e honte, to come back as one went. (substantive) prov. fig. Savoir le —, le long d'une affaire, to know the ins and outs of a thing. 5 fig. (borné, peu étendu) limited, short. Your science est — e la-dessus, your knowledge is limited on that subject. La Font. Être — d'argent, — de finance, to be short of money, of cash. Être — de mémoire, avoir — e mémoire, to have a short memory. Avoir l'esprit —, l'intelligence — e, to be short-witted, shallow-minded, shallow-brained. 6 fig. (prompt, facile) short. J'ai trouvé plus — de ne pas répondre, I thought it was shorter work not to answer.

COURT-BEUILLOU, sm. pl. COURTES-BODILLONS, culis. court-bouillon.

COURTE BOTTE, sm. pl. COURTES-BOTTES, short-man, pigmy.

COURTE-PAILLE, sf. See PAILLE.

COURTE-POINTE, sf. pl. COURTES-POINTES, counterpane, quilt.

COURTE-JOINTÉ, adj. m. fem. — E, mad. short-jointed.

COURT, adv. 1 short. Légère et — vêtue, nimble and short-coated. La Font. Vous vous êtes fait couper les cheveux trop —, you have had your hair cut too short. Pour voir le faire —, pour faire cela —, to cut it short, to be short. (elliptic.) Pour faire —, elle l'obtint, in short, she obtained it. La Font. Demeurer —, rester —, tout —, to stop short, quite short. fam. Être penda haut et —, to be fairly hanged. Être étrangle — et net, to be fairly strangled. La Font. fig. Se trouver —, to be short. Se trouver à — d'argent, se trouver à —, to be short of money. fig. fam. Tenir quelqu'un de —, to keep a person short, under. 2 (sablement) short. S'arrêter tout —, to stop quick short. Tourner —, See TOURNER. Courir —, to cut short, to curtail. Pour couper — à toute discussion, to put an end to all discussion. Coquer — à quelqu'un, to cut a person short.

TOUT COURT, adv. loc. simply, only. Il me répondit du bon tout —, he answered me curly, no. Comment fait-il l'appeler? Monsieur tout —, how must he be called? Sir, only.

COURTAGE, koor-tazh, sm. brokerage, broker's business. Droit de —, —, brokerage, percentage.

COCKTAUD, koor-to, sm. fem. — E, 1 thickset, dumpy. (disparagingly) de boutique, —, shopman. 2 anc. (cheval) thick and powerful saddle-horse. 3 docked horse, crop-eared horse, dog. 4 adjective. docked, crop-eared.

COURTAUDER, koor-to-day, ra. to dock (un cheval, un chien, a dog, a horse).

COURTIER, koor-tyaz, sm. broker. — d'assurance, insurance-broker. — en vins, wine-broker. — de marchandises, merchandise-broker. — maron, unlicensed broker. — maritime, ship-broker. (in joke) fem. —, courtière de mariage, match-maker.

COURTILIERE, koor-te-lyaz, sf. ent. mole-cricket, churr-worm, earth-crab.

COURTINE, koor-teen, sf. 4 obsol

(rideau de lit) bed-curtain. Des — s de velours, velvet curtains. Nod. (by extension) Des — s de feuillage et de fleurs, curtains of foliage and flowers. Chat. 2 mil. curtain.

COURTISAN, koor-te-zang, sm. (It.) 1 courtier. 2 (by extension) courtier. obsol. Les — s d'une coquette, the courtiers of a coquette.

COURTISANE, koor-te-zan, sf. (It.) 1 (femme sans mœurs) courtesan. 2 anc. Les — s de Corinthe, de Venise, the courtesans of Corinth, of Venice.

COURTISANERIE, koor-te-zao-ree, sf. court-flattery, courtier's adulation.

COURTISE, ppa. of COURTISER, fem. — E, adjective. courted.

COURTISER, koor-te-zay, ra. (It.) 1 to court, to pay court to, to make court to. — les grands, to pay court to the great. 2 — un ministre, to pay court to a minister. 3 — une femme, une demoiselle, to court, to woo a woman, a young lady. fig. — les Muses, to woo, to court the Muses.

COURTOIS, koor-twà, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 (poli, gracieux) courteous, polite, affable. 2 (des manières, etc., of manners, etc.) courteous. 3 Armes — es, See ARMES.

COURTOISEMENT, koor-twaz-mang, adv. courteously, with courtesy.

COURTOISE, koor-twà-zee, sf. 4 courtesy, courtesousness. Le colonel n'avait plus de — ni dans son geste, ni dans son regard, all the colonel's courtesy had disappeared, both from his gesture and looks. Salm. 2 (by extension) (bou office) kind service.

COURU, koor-rù, ppa. of COURIR, fem. — 1 adjective. 1 hunted, hunted down. 2 (parcourt) occurred. Le pays était — par les hommes d'armes des deux partis, the country was occurred by the armed men of both sides. Mich. 3 fig. sought after. Un prédicateur fort —, a favourite preacher.

COUSCOUSSOU, koor-koo-soo, sm. (Ar.) couscous, couscous.

COUSEUSE, koo-zuhz, sf. 4 (from coudre) sewer, seamstress, stitcher. 2 tech. — mécaïque, stitching machine.

COUSIN, koo-zag, sm. fem. — E, 1 (It. Eugenio) cousin. — german, first cousin, cousin-german. Nous sommes — s issus de germains, we are second cousins. fig. Si vous faites cela, nous ne serons pas — s, if you do that, we shall fall out. 2 (titre donné par le roi aux princes du sang, etc.) cousin. prov. Si telle chose m'arrivait, le roi ne serait pas mon —, should such good fortune befall me, I would not call the king my cousin.

COUSIN, sm. ent. gnal.

COUSINAGE, koo-ze-nazh, sm. (from consin) 1 (parenté) cousinage. 2 (l'ensemble de tous les parents) relations, kindred, kin.

COUSINER, koo-ze-bay, ra. to coll cousin.

COUSINE, em. to sponge, to lie upon other people. — chez l'un, chez l'autre, to go a sponging here and there. fig. fam. Ils ne cousinent pas ensemble, they do not agree.

SE COUSINEB, rpr. to coll each other cousin.

COUSINIÈRE, koo-ze-nyaz, sf. 4 host of cousins. 2 musquiné-net.

COUSOIR, koo-zwar, sm. tech. sewing-press.

COUSSIN, koo-sang, sm. (Ger. Kissen) cushion.

COUSSINET, koo-se-nay, sm. 1 pod, small cushion. 2 arch. coussinet. 3 tech. die, cushion, step.

COÛT, koo, sm. cost, charge, expense. Le — d'un exploit, the cost of a writ. Tant en autres meaus — s, as well in other minor expenses. La Font. prov. Le — fait perdre le goût, the cost takes away the appetite.

COUTANT, koo-tang, ppr. of COUTER, adj. m. Prix —, prime cost. Céder une chose au prix —, to sell a thing at prime cost.

COUTEAU, koo-to, sm. pl. COUTEAUX, (Lat. cutillos) a knife. — de table, de poche, de cuisine, table, pocket, carving-knife. — pliant, clasp-knife. — à ressort, spring-lock-knife, lock-knife. — à dessert, dessert-knife. — à découper, carving-knife. — à deux lames, double-bladed knife. — à deux tranchants, two-edged knife. Donner un coup de —, des coups de —, to stab with a knife. Il lui a donné du — dans le ventre, he stabbed him in the belly. Trier le — sur quelqu'un, to draw the knife upon a person. Mettre à quelqu'un le — à la gorge, sur la gorge, to put the knife to a person's throat. — polgaard, pocket-dagger, dagger-knife. — de tripière, a double-edged knife. Joindre des —x, to fight with swords. fig. Mettre —x sur table, to give an entertainment. Être à —x tirés, aux —x tirés, aux épées et aux —x, to be at daggers drawn. fam. On vous en donnera des petits —x pour les perdre! I wish you may get it! 2 poetic. (poignard) knife, steel. Il enfonce le — dans le sein qui l'avait nourri, he thrust the steel into the bosom that had fed him. Le — sacré, the sacred knife. 3 absol. (épée courte) short sword. — de chasse, hanger. 4 tech. — à doler, paring-knife. — à papier, paper-knife. — de palette, palette-knife. COUTELAS, kool-lah, sm. (from couteil) cullas, hanger.

COUTELIER, koo-toh-lyay, sm. fem. COUTELIÈRE, cutter.

COUTELLERIE, koo-tel-ree, sf. 1 (fabrication) cutterly. 2 (fabrique) cutterly-works. 3 (collectiv.) (les produits fabriqués) cutterly, hardware. — anglaise, English cullery.

COUTER, koo-tay, vn. (Lat. constare) 1 (du prix, of price) to cost, to stand in. — cher, to cost dear. Combien vous coûte cette voiture? how much does that carriage cost you? La mosquée d'A. coûte des sommes folles the mosque of A. cost extravagant sums. Th. Gant. 2 (d'une dépense quelconque, of any expense) to cost. Le porc à s'engraisser coûte par de son, it will cost but little bran to fatten the pig. La Font. Sa nourriture ne lui coûte rien, his board costs him nothing. fig. fam. Cela ne lui coûte guère, that does not come out of his pocket. fig. L'argent ne lui coûte guère, he thinks nothing of money. 3 fig. (des peines, des soins, sorrow, trouble) to cost. Des repas champêtres qui n'avaient coûté la vie à aucun animal, rural repasts which had cost the life of no animal. B. de S-P. Voilà un trésor qui a peut-être coûté à son maître le repos de l'esprit et de l'âme, there is a treasure which has perhaps cost its master his peace both of mind and soul. Nod. Je sais ce qu'il en coûte, I know what it costs. 4 fig. to cost an effort, to be painful. Ce mot coûtait à C. à prononcer, C. was reluctant to pronounce that word. Nod. Cet ayeu ne coûte rien à notre courtoisie, our courtesy does not suffer by this confession. Nod. Quel pardon peut — après ce sacrifice? what could be not be pardoned after that sacrifice? C. Del. Il n'y a que le premier pas qui coûte, the difficulty lies in the beginning. 5 fig. absol. Rien ne lui coûte, he cares no pains. Tout lui coûte, every thing is an effort for him. Côté que coûte, at any price.

COUTEUX, koo-tuh, adj. m. fem. COUTEUSE, dear, costly, expensive. Les voyages sont —, travelling is expensive. Le grand et — armement qu'il avait fait, the large and costly armament that he had prepared. Bar. fig. Tu refuserais une vengeance si coûteuse, you would refuse a vengeance that would cost you so dear. Ab.

COUTIL, koo-tee, sm. tickling, ticken, tick, drill, duck.

COUTRE, koor', sm. agri. coulter.

COUTINE, koo-tüm, sf. 1 (habitude) custom, habit, wont. Avoir — de faire une chose, to be wont to do a thing. L. avait — de se lever matin, L. was in the habit of rising early. Le Sage. Se faire une — d'une chose, to acquire a habit, to get into the habit of doing a thing. prov. Une fois n'est pas —, one act is not a habit. 2 (des choses, of things) custom. Cette chemise à — de fumer, this chimney usually smokes. 3 (usage) custom. C'était une — reçue de, it was an established custom to. Cela est venu en —, est passé en —, that became a custom. La — était que, the custom was that. 4 (droit venant de l'usage) common law. 5 (spécialement, in France) common law, common-law book. Pays de —, country governed by custom or the common-law. 6 anc. custom, toll.

ou COUTUME, adv. loc. usual. Il était plus gai que de —, he was more cheerful than usual. Il en use comme de —, he does just as he used to do.

COUTUMIER, koo-tü-may, adj. m. fem. COUTUMIÈRE, 1 (qui a l'habitude de) accustomed. Les Orientaux sont — de perpétuer la mémoire des souverains sous lesquels, it is the practice of the Orientals to perpetuate the memory of sovereigns under whom. Nod. Il est — du fait, he is an old offender. 2 Droit —, common-law. Pays —, country where common law obtains.

COUTUMIER, sm. book of customs, of statutes. Grand —, général, book-law.

COUTURE, koo-lür, sf. 1 (from coudre) seam. Les —s d'un habit, d'une chemise, the seams of a coat, of a shirt. Souliers sans —, shoes without a seam. Un habit brodé sur toutes les —s, a coat faced down on all the seams. Rabatre les —s, to flatten the seams. Il fig. pop. Rabatre les —s à quelqu'un, to take down the pride of a person. fig. fam. Battre une armée à plate —, totally to rout an army. 2 (action de coudre) sewing. 3 (métier) sewing, needle-work. Apprendre la —, to learn sewing. 4 (by analogy) (cicatrise, marque) seam, scar. 5 (d'une figure en plâtre, of a plaster figure) seam. 6 nav. arch. seam.

COUTURE, adj. m. fem. —E, seamed, scarred. Un visage —, a scarred face. Être — de petite vérole, to be marked with the small-pox. Il est tout —, he is covered with scars.

COUTURER, koo-tü-ray, va. to seam, to scar.

COUTURIER, koo-tü-ryay, sm. 1 absol. sempster, sewer. 2 anat. sartorius. (adjectif) Le muscle —, sartorius, tailor's muscle.

COUTURIÈRE, koo-tü-ryay, sf. sempstress, seamstress, mantua-maker. — en linge, en robes, seamstress, dress-maker, mantua-maker.

COUVAIN, koo-vay, sm. (de quelques insectes, of some insects) nest of eggs.

COUVAISON, koo-vay-zong, sf. brooding-season.

COUVE, ppa. of COUVER, fem. —E, 1 hatched. 2 fig. brooded over, digested. Chaque couve si —E, si caressée, each work as fondled, so caressed. S-B. Ce crâne où le monde en silence est —, that brain which is encompassing the world in silence. V. Hog.

COUVÉE, koo-vay, sf. 1 (collectiv.) brood, covey (of partridges). Achetait un cent d'œufs, faisait triple —, she bought a hundred eggs, had a triple brood. La Font. Sa — toute éclosée où il n'y a pas manqué un seul œuf, her chickens all hatched and not a single egg added. Nod. Une poule et sa —, a hen and its brood. 2 fig. (disparagingly) breed, generation. Toute la — n'en vaut rien, the whole breed is good for nothing.

COUVENT, koo-vang, sm. (Lat. conventus) 1 convent, monastery. — de filles, nunnery. La vie de —, conventual life. 2 (collectiv.) convent, monastery.

COUVER, koo-vay, va. (Lat. cobare) 1 (des oiseaux, of birds) to hatch, to sit, to brood. Cette poule couve ses œufs, that hen is sitting. (by extension) Cette maison qui nous a si longtemps couvés dans ses murs sombres et chauds, this house which has so long sheltered us within its dark and snug walls. Lamart. absol. C'est l'époque où les oiseaux couvent, it is the period when birds sit. 2 fig. fam. — des yeux, to gloat on. Messire C. couvrait des yeux son mort, master C. was feasting his eyes on the dead body. La Font. Gaillard corbeau disait en le couvant des yeux, our bold raven said whilst devouring him with his eyes. La Font. 3 fig. to hatch, to brew, to brood over. Elle couve cette idée pendant sept ans, she broods over this idea for seven years. Mich. — de mauvais desseins, to brew mischief. (by analogy) Il (le rossignol) se recueille, il couve les chants qu'il entendit, he meditates, he broods over the notes he has heard. Mich. 4 fig. — une maladie, to be breeding a distemper. 5 fig. Tout cela couve une guerre civile, quelque grand malheur, all that contains the seeds of a civil war, of a great misfortune.

COUVER, vn. to smoulder. Le feu couve sous la cendre, the fire lies smouldering under the ashes. fig. Le mécontentement qui couvait en Angleterre, the discontent that was brewing in England. Ph. Chas. (by analogy) Get ouvrage qui, couvait peut — être des lors dans la pensée de V., that work of which, perhaps, the first foundations were then laid in the mind of V. S-B-B. fig. fam. Il faut laisser — cela, you must let that ripen.

SE COUVER, vpr. to be brooding, to be hatching. fig. Il se couve quelque chose là-dessous, some mischief is brewing.

COUVERCLE, koo-vayrkl', sm. lid, cover. Le — d'une marmite, d'un pot, a pot-lid.

COUVERT, koo-vayr, sm. (Lat. cooperatum) 1 (pour le repas) cover. Mettre le —, to lay the cloth. Sur un tapis de Turquie le — se trouva mis, the dinner was set out on a Turkey carpet. La Font. Ôter le —, to take away the cloth, to take away, to clear the table. Grand —, grand dinner. 2 (pour chaque convive) knife and fork. Mettez un — en plus, lay another knife and fork. Nous n'avons que vingt —s à notre table, we have a table for twenty persons only. Méry. Avoir toujours — mis chez quelqu'un, dans une maison, always to find one's knife and fork in a house. 3 (étui) knife, fork and spoon. 4 (une caillier et une fourchette) fork and spoon. Une douzaine de —s d'argent, a dozen silver forks and spoons. 5 (le logement) lodging. Donner le — à quelqu'un, to lodge, to house a person. En peu de jours lui fut le vivre et le —, in a few days, he had food and lodging. La Font. 6 (une planté d'arbres) cover, shade, shady place, spot. Un de tilleuls, an avenue of lime-trees. Balz. 7 (d'une lettre, d'un paquet, of a letter, of a parcel) cover.

A COUVERT, adv. loc. 1 under cover, under shelter. Se mettre à —, to shelter one's self, to take shelter. Être à —, to be under shelter. 2 fig. Mettre son bien à —, to place one's property in surety. Son honneur est à —, his honour is safe. 3 com. Être à —, to have security.

A COUVERT DE, prep. loc. 1 sheltered from, screened from. Être à —, se mettre à — de la pluie, to be sheltered, to take shelter from the rain. 2 mil. Être à —, se mettre à — du canon, to be in safety, to place one's self in safety from cannon-shot. Être à — d'un buis, d'un marais, d'une rivière, to be sheltered by a wood, a marsh, a river. 3 fig. secure from. Son cheval lui mit à — des voleurs, his horse carried him out of the reach of the thieves. La Font. Rien ne met à — de la calomnie, nothing can screen from calumny.

COUVERT, ppa. of couvrir, fem. — E, adjectiv. 1 covered. 2 Etre bien —, to be well wrapped up. 3 Allée — e, shady walk. Chemin —, covered way. Pays —, woody country. fig. Servir quelqu'un à plats — s, to do a person a secret injury. 4 covered, clothed, clad. Les aides de camp — s de leurs brillants costumes, the aides-de-camp clad in their brilliant uniforms. Saint. Les épaules — es sur sa blouse d'une peau d'agneau, his shoulders covered with a lamb's skin over his blouse, G. Sand. 5 (by extension) covered, sheltered. Splendement — s de la teinte du ciel, magnificently sheltered under the canopy of Heaven. Mich. 6 fig. (dissimulé) secret. Un homme —, a close man. Mots — s, ambiguous terms. 7 (chargé, rempli de) covered, overspread (with). Le champ de bataille — de morts, the field of battle covered with dead bodies. Ab. — de plaies, de blessures, covered with sores, with wounds. — de poissière, covered with dust. Des défrichements — s de nègres, clearings swarming with negroes. Chat. Le visage — de roses, the face suffused with blushes. Sa figure — e de taches de rousseur, her face covered with freckles. G. Sand. 8 Son discours fut — d'appariements, his speech was fringed with applause. Un homme — de dettes, a man loaded with debts. Il revient — de gloire, he returns covered with glory. 9 fig. (du son, of sound) Pea à peu tous les bruits lui cèdent et en sont — s, by degrees all the sounds are hushed and drowned by it. Mich. 10 law. La prescription est — e, the limitation has been barred. Son crime est — par l'amnistie, his crime is obliterated by the amnesty. 11 Vin —, deep-coloured wine.

COUVERTE, koo-vayrt, sf. 1 tech. glaze, glazing. 2 aut. deck. 3 (pour couverture) covering, blanket.

COUVERTURE, koo-vayr-lûr, sf. 1 cover, covering. Une — de canapé, de charette, a sofa-cover, the tilt of a cart. — de cheval, voyage, travelling wrapper. — de cheval, horse-cloth. 2 absol. (d'un lit, of a bed) coverlet. — de laine, de coton, woollen, cotton blanket. — piquée, quilt. Faire la —, to turn down the bed-clothes. fig. Tirer à soi la —, to take the best part of a thing. 3 (d'un livre, of a book) cover, binding. 4 (d'une maison, of a house) roof. Ces cabanes où vous ne voyez plus ni portes ni — s, those huts where there are no longer to be seen either doors or roofs. B. de St-P. Abattez, réparez la —, to pull down, to repair the roof. 5 fig. (little used) (prétex)te, pretence, show, cloak, cover. Sous — d'amitié, under a show of friendship. 6 bank. com. guaranty, security.

COUVREUR, koo-vayr-lûr-ray, sm. blanket-maker.

COUVER, koo-vayr, sm. foot-warmer.

COUVEUSE, koo-vuzh (from couvrir), sf. (poale) sifter. De vénérables — s que la mort transforme en poulets, old sitters that death transforms into chickens. Ab.

COUVI, koo-vee, adj. m. Oeuf —, addle, rotten egg.

COUVREUR, koo-vrohr, sm. tech. sifter, slater, thatcher.

COUVRIIR, koo-vreer, ra. (Lat. coopere) conj. like couvrir, 1 to wrap up, to cover, to lay over. — un pot, an plat, to cover a pot, a dish. — une maison de chaume, de tuile, d'ardoise, to thatch, to tile, to slate a house. — une personne qui est an lit, to cover up a person in bed. — le feu, to cover the fire. fig. La nuit vient — de son obscurité ce théâtre fauste, night came and wrapped up in its obscurity this fatal scene. Chat. 2 (revêtir) to clothe, to cover. — les pauvres, to clothe the poor. Les vêtements qui nous couvrent, the clothes which cover us. 3 (by extension) to cover, to shelter, to screen. — quelqu'un de son corps, to cover a person with one's body. (by extension) Couvrir la ville de mon aile, sheltering the town under my wing. V. Hug. fig. — quelqu'un de sa protection, to take a person under one's protection. 4 mil. to cover. — une frontière, to cover a frontier. B. craignait pour la Normandie, il la couvrit, B. feared for Normandy, he protected it. Mich. — la retraite, to cover a retreat. — un siège, to cover a siege. fig. Le pavillon couvre la marchandise, the flag covers the goods. 5 fig. to cover, to conceal. Le passé cache plus d'un secret, the past conceals more than one secret. V. Hug. Couvrir sa curiosité sous une blouse bonhomme, concealing his curiosity under an assumption of ingenuousness. Balz. mil. — sa marche, to conceal one's march. 6 fig. (pallier, excuser) to excuse, to palliate, to hide. La charité couvre tout, charity hides every thing. 7 (mettre, répandre en grande quantité) to cover, to overspread. Pour empêcher les enfants de — de boue le vieillard, to prevent the children from plastering the old man with mud. Balz. A couvrir mon front de baisers, A covered my forehead with kisses. Chat. Des lits de mousse veloutée que la neige ne couvre jamais, beds of velvet moss that are never covered with snow. Nad. Une rougeur subite couvrit son visage, her face was suffused with sudden blushes. — spread out a table de mets, to lay out, to spread out a table with viands. L'océan austral couvre presque la moitié de la surface du globe, the southern ocean covers almost the half of the surface of the globe. Mich. Il vit un troupeau qui couvrait tous les champs, he saw a flock scattered over all the fields. La Font. L'ombre des montagnes couvrait déjà les forêts dans les vallées, the shadow of the mountains already covered the forests in the valley. B. de St-P. fig. L'idolâtrie couvrait toute la face de la terre, idolatry covered the whole face of the earth. Boss. — quelqu'un de confusion, de honte, to load a person with confusion, with shame. Cette action le couvrit de gloire, that action covered him with glory. fig. (hyperb.) Je couvrirai d'or ses molaires ébauchées, I will cover with gold his slightest sketches. Sand. 8 fig. (du son, of sound) to cover, to drown. Le bruit complètement drowned the voice of the orator. Lamart. Les derniers murmures ont couvert les sanglots de ton agonie, the last murmurs have drowned the sobs of thy agony. Nod. 9 (d'une recette) to defray. — les frais, to defray the expenses. 40 (des animaux, of animals) to cover. 41 law. — une enchère, to outbid. — la prescription, to cover the prescription. — la péremption, — une nullité, — une fin de non-recevoir, to prevent being barred by limitation. L'amnistie a couvert son crime, an amnesty has obliterated his crime. 42 (en) — une carte, to cover, to stake on a card.

COUVRE-CHEF, sm. pl. COUVRE-CHEF, 1 absol. (in joke) bonnet, covering for the head, kerchief, hat. 2 surc. bandage round the head.

COUVRE-FEU, sm. pl. COUVRE-FEU, 1 (asteuile) curfew, fire-plate. 2 curfew.

COUVRE-PIEDS, sm. pl. COUVRE-PIEDS, coverlet, quilt.

SE COUVRIR, vpr. 4 (s'envelopper, se revêtir) to cover one's self, to wrap one's self up in clothe one's self. Se — d'un manteau, to wrap one's self up in a cloak. absol. Il n'a pas de quoi se —, he has nothing to put on. Il fait froid, couvrez-vous bien, it is cold, cover yourself well. (by extension) Elles berbisèrent et dressèrent leurs plumes pour s'en mieux —, they bristled up their feathers which stood upright for the better protection of their bodies. Nod. 2 absol. (mettre son chapeau, etc.) to put on one's hat, to be covered. Couvrez-vous, monsieur, be covered. Sir. Mol. 3 (se mettre à l'abri) to cover one's self. Se — de son bouclier, to cover one's self with one's shield. (by extension) Se — de son épée, to cover one's self with one's sword. 4 mil. Se — d'un bois, d'une colline, d'une éminence, d'un marais, to cover one's self with a wood, a hill, an eminence, a marsh. 5 fig. (se cacher, se dissimuler) to conceal one's self. Se — d'un prétexte, to have recourse to a pretext. 6 (mettre sur soi) to cover one's self, to load one's self. Se — de diamants, to cover one's self with diamonds. fig. Se — de lauriers, to cover one's self with laurels. Se — de boue, to be steeped in infamy. 7 (être couvert) to be covered (with), to become overspread (with), to be cloudy, to be overcast, to grow cloudy. La plaine entière se couvre de fumée, the whole plain is covered with smoke. Saint. Les murs se couvrirent de ronces et d'épines, the walls were covered with thorns and briars. Lamart. Son front se couvrit d'une pâleur mortelle, his brow became overspread with deadly paleness. Sand. Le ciel, le temps, l'horizon se couvrent, the sky, the weather, the horizon is cloudy; || fig. L'horizon se couvre, things are beginning to look dark, to wear a black appearance. fig. Ses yeux se couvrirent d'un nuage, a film came over his eyes. 8 com. to reimburse one's self. COVENANT, kov-nang, sm. (Eng.) covenant.

COVENANTAIRE, kov-nang-tayr, sm. covenant.

COVENDEUR, ko-vang-dubr, sm. covendor.

CRABE, krab, sm. crust. crab, crabfish.

CRABIER, krab-byay, sm. 1 orn. crab-eater. 2 zool. crab-eater.

CRAC, krak, (onomatop.) 1 crack, cracking. 2 crack, in a trice. Il me dit adieu, et puis —, he volla pari!, he bade me farewell and was off in a trice.

CRACHAT, krach-shah, sm. 1 spittle. prov. fig. Cette maison n'est faite que de boue et de crachats, that is a loth and plaster house. 2 pop. slur.

CRACHE, ppa. of cracher, fem. — E, adjectiv. fig. fam. C'est son père tout —, he is the very image of his father.

CRACHEMENT, krash-mang, sm. spitting. — de sang, blood-spitting.

CRACHER, krach-shay, vn. (1. to sereare) 1 to spit, to spit out. — du sang, le sang, to spit blood. — quelque chose, to spit a thing out of one's mouth. — en parlant, to sputter out. — au nez, au visage de quelqu'un, to spit in a person's face. (by extension) Les bateaux à vapeur crachant leur vapeur blanche et noire, the steamers spitting out their steam and smoke. Th. Gaut. fig. Un de ces prisonniers qui crachaient leur venin sous le nez à la face des Romains vaincus, one of those prisoners whose last breath was a malediction against the Roman conquerors. Ab. fig. — des injures, to shower down abuse. — en l'air, to spit a pit for one's self. — du Grec, to spout Greek. — des sentences, des proverbes, to utter sentences, proverbs. fig. fam. Cela est à — dessus, it is a beggarly concern. prov. fig. Il crache contre le ciel, he bays the moon. 2 fig. — au bassin, SE OASIN. 3 fig. (d'une plume, of a pen) to sputter. Cette plume crache, this pen splutters, spirts.

CRACHEUIL, krach-shuhr, sm. fem. cracheuse, spitter.

CRACHOIR, krach-shwâr, sm. 1 (vase) spittoon. 2 (bolte) spitting-box.

CRACHOTEMENT, krach-shot-mang, sm. frequent spitting.

CRACHOTER, krach-sho-tay, vn. to spit frequently.

CRACOVIE, krach-ko-vee, s. geog. Cracow

d'une tout autre sorte trouvaient plus — dans le vulgaire, motives of quite another order found more credence with the vulgar. Bar. Cette nouvelle ne mérite aucune —, n'est pas digne de —, that news deserves no credit, is not worthy of credit. Donner —, to give credit. 3 absol. (croissance religieuse) belief, persuasion. 4 diplom. credence. Lettre de —, credentials, letters of credence. 5 bank. Lettre de —, letter of credit. 6 ven. Chien de bonne —, dog under good command. 7 hawk. Oiseau de pen de —, a bird that cannot be depended upon.

CRÉANCE, sf. book-debt. Céder une —, to make over a debt. Avoir une — sur quelqu'un, to have money owing to one by a person, to have a claim upon a person.

CRÉANCIER, kray-ang-syay, sm. fem. CRÉANCIÈRE, creditor. — privilégié, privileged creditor. Prendre des arrangements avec ses —s, to compromise with one's creditors.

CRÉATEUR, kray-ah-tuhr, sm. (Lat. creator) creator, maker. Dieu, — du ciel et de la terre, God, creator of heaven and earth. Le souverain — de toutes choses, the sovereign creator of all things. absol. Le —, the Creator. Recevoir son —, to receive the sacrament. 2 (by extension) (inventeur) creator.

CRÉATRICE, adj. m. fem. CRÉATRICE, creative. La puissance d'un Dieu —, the power of a creative God. Le verbe —, the creative word. Lamart. (by extension) Un génie —, an inventive genius. Pensée créatrice, creative thought. Saut.

CREATION, kray-ah-syong, sf. (Lat. creatio) creation. La — du monde, the creation of the world. La — de l'homme, the creation of man. 2 absol. the creation. 3 (l'univers) creation. Les merveilles de la —, the wonders of the creation. 4 (ce que l'homme invente) creation. Si poésie veut dire —, c'est la sans doute la poésie suprême, if poetry signifies creation, it is undoubtedly poetry of the highest order. Mich. Un mot de nouvelle —, a word newly created. Les —s de l'art, the creations, the productions of art. 5 (d'un rôle, d'une œuvre) creation. 6 (action de fonder, d'établir) creation. La — de l'ordre de la Légion d'honneur, the creation of the order of the Legion of honour. Ma charge fut supprimée peu de temps après sa —, my post was suppressed shortly after its creation. Le Sage.

CREATURE, kray-ah-tuhr, sf. 1 (tout être créé) creature, created being. 2 (particulièrement) (l'être humain) the creature. Le pécheur quitte le créateur pour la —, the sinner forsakes the creator in his love for the creature. 3 (personne) creature. Simple et bonne —, incapable de faire le mal, simple and kind creature, incapable of harm. Nord. C'est la meilleure — du monde, he, she is the best creature in the world. C'est une belle —, she is a fine creature. C'est une jolie —, it is a pretty creature. (disparagingly) (des femmes, of women) creature. 4 fig. creature, dependent, tool. Se faire des —s, to have creatures.

CRÉBILLON (PROSPER JOLYOT DE), kray-be-yong, sm. a French tragedian poet, born in 1674, died in 1762.

CRÉBILLON (Claude Prosper de), sm. a novel writer, born in 1707, died in 1777.

CRÉCELLE, kray-sel, sf. (Gr.) rattle. CRÉCHE, kraysh, sf. 1 (mangeoire) manger, crib. absol. La —, la saïote —, the manger. 2 (asile pour les petits enfants) infant-asylum. 3 — à vaiselle, plate rack.

CRÉDENCE, kray-dangs, sf. 4 cath. rel. credence, credence-table, prothesis. 2 (dans les collèges, etc., in schools) butlery.

CRÉDENCIER, kray-dang-syay, sm. panller.

CRÉDIBILITÉ, kray-de-be-le-lay, sf. credibility.

CREDIT, kray-dee, sm. (Lat. crediti) 1 (confiance qu'on inspire) credit. Un homme n'ayant plus ni — ni ressources, a man having neither credit nor resources. La Font. — public, public credit. Faire —, donner à —, to credit, to trust. fig. Le monde fait toujours — à une femme belle d'une sottise ou d'une gaucherie, the world is always ready to excuse the folly or stupidity of a pretty woman. Balz. Prendre des marchandises à —, acheter à —, vendre à —, avoir à —, to take goods, to buy, to sell on credit, on trust, to have on trust. Duvrir un — à quelqu'un, to open a credit to a person. Lettre de la main à la bourse, to trust no further than one can see. Prov. — est mort, credit is out of fashion. 2 (confiance dans les effets de commerce) credit. 3 absol. polit. econ. credit. — agricole, agricultural credit. — foncier, landed credit. 4 (comptabilité) credit. Porter une somme, on article au — d'un compte, to carry a sum, on article to the credit of an account. 5 fig. (influence) credit, influence, interest. Être en —, en grand — auprès de quelqu'un, to be in credit, in great credit with a person. Avoir du — sur l'esprit de quelqu'un, to have great influence on the mind of a person. Sa science le soulevait lui avait donné une immense — dans les écoles, his power of memory had procured him a great reputation in the schools. Nord. Son — pécot beaucoup, his influence was so much. 6 fig. (des choses, of things) credit, repute, estimation. Quelque pensionnat en —, some fashionable boarding-school. Nord. Cette nouvelle prend —, acquiert du —, that news gains credit. 7 fig. A —, to no purpose, uselessly.

CRÉDITE, ppo. of CRÉDITER, fem. —, adj. Être — sur une ville, to have letters of credit for a town.

CRÉDITER, kray-de-lay, ra. com. to credit (with).

CRÉDITEUR, kray-de-tuhr, sm. 4 creditor. 2 (adjectif.) creditor. Compte —, creditor account.

CREDO, kray-do, sm. (Lat.) creed, belief.

CREOULE, kray-dél, adj. mf. credulous, easy of belief, unsuspecting. Esprit —, credulous (turn of mind).

CRÉDULITÉ, kray-dé-le-lay, sf. credulity, credulousness. Avoir trop de —, to be over credulous. Si vous portez si loin le scrupule en matière de —, if you are so scrupulous as to what you must believe. Nord.

CRÉE, ppo. of CRÉER, fem. —, 4 created. Les êtres —s, created beings. 2 absol. created, made. 3 created, established, settled.

CRÉER, kray-ay, ra. (Lat. creare) JE CRÉE, NOUS CRÉONS; JE CRÉAIS, NOUS CRÉAIONS; JE CRÉAI, NOUS CRÉÂMES; CRÉONS; QUE JE CRÉE, QUE NOUS CRÉIONS; QUE JE CRÉASSE, QUE NOUS CRÉASSIONS; 4 (tirer du néant) to create. Dieu créa le ciel et la terre, (by extension) Il me semblait que j'aurais eu le pouvoir de — un monde, methought I could have had power to create the world. Chat. fig. Il lui manquait ce qui crée une seconde fois la femme, les chiffons et les billets doux, she lacked what creates a woman a second time, dress and love-letters. Balz. L'on avait été créé pour la domination, l'autre pour l'obéissance, one had been born to rule, the other to obey. Saint. 2 (by extension) (imaginer) to create, to give birth to. — une science, on système philosophique, to create a science, a philosophical system. — des mots, to create words. Il a créé des personnages qui ont vécu leur vie de nature et de société, he has created personages who have gone through all the phases of natural and social life. St-E. L'idée me vint de leur — une occupation sérieuse, the idea occurred to me of finding some serious occupation for them. Ab. absol. Le génie crée, l'esprit arrange, genius creates, talent fashions. 3 nat. hist. — un genre, une espèce, to create a genus, a species. 4 (fonder, établir) to create, to establish. — des impôts, to lay taxes. Il crée l'esprit d'association, he creates a spirit of association. Ph. Chas. — une académie, des charges, des emplois, to create an academy, posts, employments. — une rente, une pension, to settle on annually, a pension. — une pension sur la bourse, to settle a pension upon a living. (by extension) J'étais seul, vous m'avez créé une famille, I was alone, and you have created a family for me. Sand. Ils créent autour d'eux une agitation éternelle, they create around themselves an eternal agitation. Mich. 5 (théâtre) — un rôle, to create a part. 6 (des choses, of things) (produire, faire naître) to create, to give birth, rise to, to produce. Des obstacles si contraires créent aux marées d'apparences irrégulières, such contrary obstacles give rise to apparent irregularities in the tides. Nich. De nouveaux besoins créent de nouvelles industries, new wants create new professions; a new want creates a new trade.

CRÉMAILLERE, kray-mah-yayr, sf. (Gr.) 1 pot-hanger, pot-hook. Baisser, hausser la — d'un ou plusieurs crans, to lower, to raise the pot-hanger a notch, several notches. Prov. Pendre la —, to give a house-warming. 2 tech. rock. Fautail à —, spring-choir. 3 mil. iron plate with holes.

CRÉMAILLON, kray-mah-yong, sm. small pot-hook.

CRÉATION, kray-mah-syong, sf. (Lat. creare) archeol. creation.

CREME, kraym, sf. cream. Fromage à la —, cream-cheese. fontette, syllabub, whipped cream. 1 fig. flimsy stuff. Tout cela n'est que de la — fontette, that is all froth. 2 (sorte de mets) cream, custard. — an chocolat, à la vanille, chocolate, vanilla cream. Pot de —, custard. Tarte à la —, cream tart. Chou à la —, cheese-cake. 3 (sorte de liqeurs) cream. 4 fig. fam. cream, best, flower. Il a pris toute la — de cet ouvrage, he has taken all the best part of that work. (des personnes, of persons) cream, best, worthiest. Lui, c'est la — des hommes, he is the best man alive. Cette famille est la — des bonnetes gens, they are the worthiest of creatures. 5 chem. — de chaux, cream of lime. — de tartre, cream of tartar.

CRÉMENT, kray-mang, sm. gram. (Lat. crematum) cream.

CRÉMENT, kray-may, ra. (du lait, of milk) to cream.

CRÉMERIE, kraym-ree, sf. coffee-shop coffee-house.

CRÉMIER, kray-may, sm. fem. crémier, milkman, milkmaid, dairy-man, dairy-maid.

CRÉNEAU, kray-naz, sm. tech. kerning.

CRÉNEAU, kray-no, sm. 4 mil. arch. embourse, battlement. 2 mil. right of the company.

CRÉNELAGE, kray-nazh, sm. mint, milled edge.

CRÉNELE, ppo. of CRÉNELER, fem. —, adj. 1 embattillé. Muraille —, embattillé wall. 2 her. embattillé. 3 bot. Feuilles —es, erectated leaves.

CRÉNELEUR, kray-nazh, ra. (from créneau) 1 — une machine, to indent, to notch. 2 — une machine, to notch, to cut the wheel of a machine. — une pièce de monnaie, to mill the edge of a coin.

CRÉNEULEUR, kray-lur, sf. 4 indenting, notching. 2 bot. crenulate.

CRENER, kray-nay, so. found. to kern.

CRÉOLE, kray-ol, s. mf. 1 Creole, W. et Indian. 2 adjective, creolian.

CRÉOSOTE, kray-zot, sf. (Gr.) chem. creosote, creasote, kresote.

CRÊPE, krayp, sm. 1 (Lat. crispus) crêpe. — lisse, smooth crêpe. 2 absol. crêpe. Porter un — à son chapeau, to wear a crêpe round one's hat. Porter un — au bras, to wear a crêpe round one's arm. 3 fig. poetic. dark veil, pall.

CRÊPE, sf. culin. parakee.

CRÊPE, ppa. of CRÊPER, fem. — E, craped, crisped. Des cheveux — s, craped hair. Etouffe — e, crisped stuff.

CRÊPER, kray-pay, va. — des cheveux, to crêpe hair. — une étouffe, to crisp a stuff.

SE CRÊPER, vpr. (des cheveux, of hair) to become craped.

CRÊPI, kray-pe, ppa. of CRÊPIR, fem. — E, adjective. rough-scaled.

CRÊPI, sm. rough-scaled, rough-coat, purple.

CRÊPIN, kray-pang, sm. 4 Saint —, shoemaker's kit. fig. pop. Porter tout son Saint —, to carry one's all about one. Perdre tout son Saint —, to lose one's all. 2 — s, pl. grindery.

CRÊPINE, kray-peen, sf. 4 fringe. 2 butch. keil, caul.

CRÊPINETTE, kray-pe-net, sf. flat sausage wrapped in caul.

CRÊPIR, kray-peer, va. 1 — une muraillle, to rough-cast a wall. 2 — du cuir, to grain leather. 3 — le crin, to crisp horse-hair.

CRÊPISSURE, kray-pe-sûr, sf. (little used) grazing.

CRÊPIANT, kray-pe-tang, ppr. of CRÊPIER, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 crepitulating.

2 med. Râle —, crepitating rattle.

CRÊPIATION, kray-pe-tat-syong, sf. 1 crepitation, crackling. 2 physiol. crepitation. 3 surg. crepitation.

CRÊPIER, kray-pe-tay, vn. (Lat. crepitare) to crepitate, to crackle.

CRÊPON, kray-pong, sm. crepon.

CRÊPS, krayps, sm. sort of game at dice.

CRÊPU, kray-pû, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 frizzled, woolly. Cheveux — s, frizzled hair. 2 bot. curled, crisp, crisped, curled.

CRÊPUSCULAIRE, kray-pûs-kû-lay, adj. mf. astr. crepuscular, crepuscular. Lumière —, crepuscular light. Cercle —, crepuscular circle.

CRÊPUSCULAIRES, kray-pûs-kû-lay, sm. pl. ent. crepusculars.

CRÊPUSCULE, kray-pûs-kûl, sm. 1 (Lat. crepusculum) crepuscule, twilight. 2 daus au matin, morning twilight.

— do soir, evening twilight. 2 fig. decline. Au — de mes jours, in the decline of my life. Volt.

CRÊQUIER, kray-kyay, sm. bol. wild plum-tree.

CRÉSANE, krah-zan, sf. See CRASSANE.

CRÉSCENDO, kray-shang-do, adv. (It.) 1 mus. crescendo. 2 fig. fam. increasing. Sa mauvaise humeur va —, his temper is getting worse and worse. 3 (substantiv.) crescendo.

CRÉSSON, kress-song, sm. bot. ress, common ress. — de fontaine, water-ress. — de rivière, water-rockel. — sauvage, water-plantain.

CRÉSSONNIÈRE, kress-sou-nyayr, sf. bot. ress-bed.

CRÉSUS, kray-zûs, sm. 4 Cræsus. 2 fig. fam. C'est un —, he is as rich as Cræsus.

CRÉTACÉ, kray-tab-say, adj. m. fem. — E, nat. hist. cretaceous.

CRÊTE, krayt, sf. (Lat. crista) 1 (d'un coq, etc., of a cock, etc.) crest, comb. — de coq, cock's comb. Tourte garnie de — s, de coq, pie garnished with cock's combs. fig. fam. Lever la —, to hold one's head up, to bear one's head high. fig. fam. Baisser la —, to crest-fallen. fig. fam. Ra-baisser la — à quelqu'un, to lower a person's crest, to mortify the pride of a person. 2 (by extension) tuft, crest. 3 (de certaines reptiles et de quelques poissons, of certain reptiles and certain fishes) crest.

4 bot. — de coq, cock's comb, caracem. 5 anat. crest. 6 (by analogy) (d'un fossé, of a ditch) bank. (d'un rocher, d'une montagne, of a rock, of a mountain) ridge. 7 (d'un casque, of a helmet) crest. 8 arch. ridge, riding.

CRÊTE, kray-tay, adj. m. fem. — E, crested, tufted.

CRÊTIN, kray-tang, sm. 1 cretin. 2 fig. fam. idiot.

CRÉTINISME, kray-te-nism, sm. med. cretinism.

CRÉTOIS, kray-twâ, sm. (fem.) — E, 4 Cretan. 2 adjective. Cretan.

CRÉTONNE, krah-lou, sf. 4 linen cloth. 2 stout calico.

CRÉTONS, krah-tong, sm. pl. tech. graves, scratchings.

CRÉUSE (la), kruzî, sf. geog. (a department of France) Creuse.

CRÉUSE, ppa. of CRÉUSER, fem. — E, adjective. dug, excavated, hollowed. Un fossé fait —, a ditch was dug. (by extension) Une vaste nappe d'eaux blanches, — s de vagues profondes, a vast sheet of white froth, with troughs made by the deep waves. B. de St-P. fig. La misère, ce gouffre — sous le sol fragile de l'opulence, destitution, that abyss hollowed out under the crumbling soil of opulence. G. Sand.

CRÉUSEMENT, kruz-mang, sm. (little used) digging.

CRÉUSER, krah-zay, va. (from creux) 1 (rendre creux) to hollow, to dig. — la terre, to dig the earth. 2 (faire en creusant) to dig, to hollow out, to excavate, to scoop. Quatre brigands se mirent à — une fosse, four brigands began to dig a grave. Ab. — un puits, to sink a well. Un vivier que nature y creusa de sa main, a fish-pond that nature alone had hollowed out. La Font. C'est le temps qui creusa une ride dans, it is time that has ploughed a furrow in. V. Hug. fig. Chaque pas que tu fais semble — la tombe, every step you take seems to be a step towards your grave. V. Hug. fig. A force de — le puits on se rache la vérité, nos sages l'ont percé d'outre en outre, by dint of sinking deeper and deeper the well in which truth lies concealed, our wiseacres have come out at the other end. Nod. absol. — en terre, sous terre, to dig into the ground, under ground. — bien avant, to dig a great way down. — dans le roc, dans le sable, to dig into the rock, the sand. — sous les fondements, to dig under the foundations. 3 fig. — sa fosse, son tombeau, to dig one's own grave. 4 fig. (approfondir) to examine thoroughly, to dive into, to go to the bottom of, to sift. — un sujet, une question, to examine a subject, a question thoroughly. Ne creusez pas vos chères rêveries, do not sound your beloved dreams. V. Hug. absol. Creusant dans des sujets, ils, etc., diving into subjects, they, etc. La Font.

SE CRÉUSER, vpr. 4 (creuser pour soi) to dig one's self, to burrow. Ils se creusent sous la terre une véritable habitation, they dig for themselves real habitations under ground. Mich. Une petite baie que la rivière s'était creusée en ce lieu, a little bay that the river had hollowed out in that spot. Nod. 2 fig. Se — la tête, l'esprit, le cerveau, to rack one's brains. 3 (devenir creux) to become hollow. Une dent qui se creuse, a tooth that is getting hollow. (by extension) Le ruisseau se creuse en cet endroit, the river is wearing away the bank in that place. Th. Gaut.

CRÉUSER, krah-zay, sm. 4 crucible, melting-pot. 2 fig. test. Éprouver une pensée ad — de la raison, to bring a thought to the test of reason. L'adversité est le — des âmes fortes, strong minds acquire additional strength in adversity.

CREUTZER, kruzî-zayr, sm. See KREUTZER.

CRÉUX, krah, adj. m. fem. CRÉUSE, 1 hollow. fam. Avoir le ventre —, to have an empty stomach. fig. Il n'y en a pas pour sa dent creuse, that will not fill up his hollow tooth. fig. Vianle creuse, unsubstantial dish, airy diet. fig. Tous ces romans sont une viande creuse pour l'esprit, all those novels are but weak food for the mind. fig. Se repaître de viandes creuses, to feed one's self with visionary schemes. ven. Trouver buisson —, to find the game gone. 2 (profond) deep. Une assiette creuse, a hollow plate. Un chemin —, a hollow. Un fossé — de dix pieds, a ditch ten feet deep. 3 (cave, concave) hollow, sunken. Avoir les joues creuses, to have sunken cheeks. Des yeux —, sunken eyes. 4 fig. (chimérique) chimerical, airy, visionary, shallow. Idées creuses, idle fancies. Cette pensée est bien creuse, that thought is a very shallow one. fam. Il a la tête creuse, c'est une tête creuse, he is shallow-brained. Creux —, cervelle creuse, esprit —, shallow brains. 5 adv. Sonner —, to sound hollow; || fig. to sound empty; || fig. Sonner —, to be in a brown study.

CREUX, sm. 1 hollow, cavity, hole. Le — d'un arbre, d'un rocher, the hollow of a tree, of a rock. Faire un —, to make a hole. La populace entraînait dans les moindres —, the common folks entered the smallest holes. La Font. La chèvre ne se lève pas de son — dans l'herbe, the goat does not rise from the hollow it has made itself in the grass. Lamart. 2 (du corps humain, of the human body) hollow, pit. Le — de la main, de l'estomac, de l'aisselle, the hollow of the hand, the pit of the stomach, the arm-pit. 3 naut. Le — d'un vaisseau, the depth of the hold in a ship. 4 pop. Il a un bon —, un beau —, he has a famous depth of voice. (de l'homme, of man) pop. C'est un beau —, he is a fine bass-singer. 5 tech. cast, mould. Graver en —, to deepen.

CRÉVASSE, krah-vass, sf. crack, chink, slit, cranny, crevice, chap, cleft, flaw. Avoir des — s aux mains, to have chapped hands.

CRÉVASSEUR, krah-vass-ay, va. (from crevasse) to crack, to chink, to crack. Le froid lui a crevasé les mains, his hands are chapped with cold.

SE CRÉVASSEUR, vpr. to crack, to chap.

CRÊVE, ppa. of CRÊVER, fem. — E, 4 adjective. burst, culiu. Riz —, burst rice. 2 (substantiv.) fam. pop. Un gros —, une grosse — e, a big, fat man, woman.

CRÊVE, sm. slush.

CRÊVER, krah-vay, vn. (Lat. crepare) JE CRÊVE; JE CRÊVERAIS, 1 (se rompre) to burst. Une bombe qui crève en l'air, a shell that bursts in the air. Son fusil lui a crevé dans la main, his gun has burst in his hand. L'abcès ne tardera pas à —, the abscess will not be long before bursting. fam. (hyperb.) c'est embouppant, to be as fat as a pig. fig. fam. — dans sa peau, to be extremely fat; || to be ready to burst with disappointment. La chétive pécore s'enfla si bien qu'elle creva, the tiny stupid creature swelled so much that she burst. La Font. Eu leurs gretiers le bête, dans leurs caves le vin, tout en crève, corn in their granaries, wine in their cellars, as full as they can hold. La Font. culiu. Faire — du riz, it boils rice till it bursts. 2 fig. — de biens, to wallow in wealth. — de chand, to be dying with laughing. — de rire, to spit one's sides with laughing. — de fain, de soif, to be dying with hunger, thirst. — d'orgueil, de rage, de dépit, d'envie, etc., to burst with pride, rage, spite, envy, etc. 3 (mourir) (is said only of animals) to die. (disparagingly) (des personnes, of persons) to die. Il a crevé comme un chien, he died like a dog. Manger —, to cram, to stuff one's self, to eat ready to burst. 4 (à certains jeux, at certain games) to be dead.

CRÈVER, va. 4 to burst. — les yeux à quel'qu'un, to put out a person's eyes — un cheval, to kill a horse with fatigue. 2 fig. — les yeux, to be before one's eyes; || Cela crève les yeux, that is as clear as day. 1 le cœur, to grieve the heart. 3 fig. (faire boire et manger avec excès) to stuff, to cram.

CRÈVE-CŒUR, sm. 1 ham, heart-sore, heart-break. 2 large species of cocks and hens. SE CRÈVER, vpr. 4 to burst. 2 Se — de boire et de manger, se —, to cram, to stuff one's self. fig. fam. Se — de travail, de fatigue, to kill one's self with work, with fatigue. 3 (crêver à soi) Se — on œil, to put out one's eye.

CRÉVETTE, krah-vet, sf. crust. shrimp, prawn.

CRI, kree, sm. 4 (de l'homme) cry, scream, roar, shriek, squalling, roaring, shout. Notre oreille était frappée de ce long — de douleur, our ears were struck with that long cry of pain. Chat. Jeter, faire un —, to cry out. Pousser des —, pousser de grands —, to give a loud outcry, to give a shout, to shout, to set up a loud cry, a scream, to scream. Jeter les hants —, to cry out. Cela a été mon premier —, ma première pensée, that was my first cry, my first thought. Saint. Demander une chose à grands —, to roar out for a thing. fig. fam. Jeter, pousser les hants —, to raise an outcry. 2 (cris poussés par plusieurs personnes à la fois) cry, shout. Ce ne fut qu'un — dans la foule, there was but one cry in the crowd. 3 Le — d'une souris, the squeak of a mouse. Le — de la chonnette, the shrill chirping of the grasshopper. V. Hug. 4 (by analogy) Le — de la scie, the screaming of the saw. 5 (pour avertir, etc.) cry. On entendait le —, au feu! au feu! the cry of fire! fire was heard. — d'alarme, de détresse, cry of alarm, of distress. — de guerre, war-cry, watch-word, war-whoop. Le — de vive le roi, the cry of God save the king. 6 (de certains marchands ambulants, of costermongers, hawkers) cry. Les —s de Paris, the street cries of Paris. 7 anc. (proclamation) proclamation. 8 fig. (opinion manifestée hautement pour blâmer) cry. Il n'y eut qu'un — contre cet impôt, the cry is unanimous against that tax. Il n'y a qu'un — sur telle personne, sur telle chose, every body is agreed in their opinion concerning such a person, such a thing. (quelquefois en parlant des personnes qui approuvent) cry, shout. L'un — unanime d'admiration, a unanimous shout of admiration. Le — public, the public voice. N'avoir qu'un — après quel'qu'un, to expect a person ardently. 9 fig. (gémissement) cry, groan, complaint. 10 fig. (mouvement intérieur) voice, cry. Le — de la nature, the voice of nature. Étouffer les —s de sa conscience, to stifle the voice of conscience. Le — du cœur, the voice of the heart.

CRILLAER, kre-ah-yah, vn. (crier, gronder) to bawl, to clamour, to squall.

CRILLAERIE, kree-ah-yuh-ree, sf. 4 (l'action) bawling, squalling, scolding. 2 (grondement) bawling, scolding.

CRILLAER, kre-ah-yuh, adj. sm. fem. CRILLAESSE, bawling, squalling, scold.

CRIANTE, kre-yang, ppa. of CRIER, adj. sm. fem. — E, 4 fig. crying, glaring. (Une — e injustice, a glaring injustice. (by extension) Nos épées, nos pistolets ne contrastaient pas d'une manière trop — e avec notre déguisement, our swords, our pistols did not form too glaring a contrast with our disguise. Nod. 2 (qui crie) crying, noisy. La couvée exigeante et — e, the greedy and noisy brood. Nich.

CRIGHARD, kre-yah, adj. m. fem. — E, 4

bawling, clamorous, noisy. 2 (qui se plaint, qui gronde souvent) scolding. Il est — de son naturel, he is of a scolding temper. 3 Oiseaux —s, screaming birds. 4 Voix — e, shrill voice. Instrument —, son —, shrill-sounding instrument, shrill sound. (by analogy) Les cahots —s des roues de la charrue sur la glèbe, the creaking jolts of the wheels of the plough over the soil. Lamart. 5 fig. Tons —s, couleurs —es, glaring tone, colours. 6 fig. Dettes —es, trifling, dribbling debts. 7 (substantif) See nos 1 and 2, noisy person, scold.

CRIBLAGE, kre-blazh, sm. sifting, screening, siving.

CRIBLE, kribl', sm. sieve, riddle, screen for coal. Passer un —, to sift, to riddle. prov. Percé comme un —, as full of holes as a sieve.

CRIBLE, ppa. of CRIBLER, fem. — E, adjective. Un soldat — de blessures, a soldier covered with wounds. Balz. fig. — de dettes, over head and ears in debt.

CRIBLER, kre-blav, va. 1 to sift, to riddle. — du blé, to sift corn. 2 (percer de trous) to riddle, to pierce all over. — quel'qu'un de coups de couteau, to stab a person through and through. Les balles ont criblé cette planche, the bullets have riddled this board.

CRIBLEUR, kre-blühr, sm. fem. cat-

BLEUSE, siffler.

CRIBRATURE, kre-brah-syung, sf. pharm. cribration, sifting.

CRIC, kree, sm. mech. screw-jack.

CRIC-CRAC, krik-krak, (onomatopie)

crick-crack.

CRIC-CRI, kre-kree, sm. (onomatopie)

cricket.

CRIF, krid, sm. creese (Malay dagger).

CRIE, ppa. of CRIER, fem. — E, adjective. proclaimed. Une ordonnance fut — e dans toutes les villes, an ordinance was proclaimed in all the towns. Bar.

CRIEE, kre-yah, sf. 1 law. public announcement of a sale. 2 (auction des enchères) auction. Vente à la —, sale by auction. Audience des —s, auction-room.

CRIEH, kre-yah, va. 1 (pousser un on plusieurs cris) to cry, to cry out, to squall, to hallow, to bawl to shout, to shriek, to chirp. Un enfant qui criait comme un petit corbeau tombé d'un nid, a child that screamed like a young raven fallen from its nest. Ab. Cet enfant ne fait que —, that child does nothing but squall. — de toutes ses forces, to roar out as loud as one can. Laissez-le —, let him scream. Ne le faites pas —, don't make him scream, don't set him squalling. Voilà votre chien qui crie à la porte, there is your dog howling at the door. Le paon ne devrait jamais —, the peacock ought never to let its voice be heard. Des grillons et des cigales criaient dans le petit jardin, crickets and grasshoppers were chirping in the little garden. Balz. — comme un uragâ, comme un beau diable, comme un brûlé, comme un beau diable, — comme un brûlé, — à tue-tête, à pleine tête, to scream, to roar as loud as one can, to roar like a bull. prov. fig. Pluier la poule sans la faire —, to fleece a person quietly. 2 (disparagingly) (forcer sa voix) to scream. Ce n'est pas chanter, c'est —, that is not singing, it is screaming. 3 (élever la voix très-haut) to raise one's voice, to roar, to bawl, to shout. C'est à qui criera le plus fort, they are trying who can bawl the loudest. — comme un sourd, to cry out like a pig in a gate. Il est tellement sourd qu'il faut — pour se faire entendre de lui, he is so deaf that one is obliged to shout to make him hear. — à quelque chose de se détourner, to cry: by your leave! 4 (by extension) (gronder en élevant la voix) to scold, to rate. Elle ne fait que —, she does nothing but scold. Elle crie toute la journée après ses domestiques, all day long she is rating her servants. Ne faites pas — votre femme, don't set your wife scolding. 5 fig. (blâmer) to inveigh, to exclaim, to cry out upon. Il crie contre les vices de notre siècle, he inveighs against the vices of the age. Toute la ville crie après lui, the whole town cry shame upon him. Faire — après soi, to make one's self complained of, to get one's self hooded. fig. La morale crie contre cette action, that action offends against morality. 6 fig. (se plaindre hautement) to cry out, to clamour, to exclaim. Le peuple commence à —, the people are beginning to grow clamorous. 7 fig. — vers quel'qu'un, to cry, to call upon. — vers Dieu, to call upon God. 8 fig. (dire hautement et sans cesse) to cry out. S'en va criant partout qu'il est l'honneur, goes and gives himself out every where for honour itself. Boil. 9 (proclamer au nom de l'autorité) to cry, to proclaim. — à son de trompe, to proclaim by sound of trumpet. 10 (des choses, of things) to creak, to rustle. Les bottes criant sur le parquet, boots creaking on the floor. Balz. Elle vint à passer, le satin de sa robe criait, she passed by, her satin dress rustled. Nod. Au moment où la clef criait dans la serrure, on entendait, at the moment when the key creaked in the door, there was heard. Sand. pop. Les boyaux lui crient, his bowels rumble.

CRIEH, va. 1 — les hants cris, to utter loud cries, to cry, to cry out. 2 — un air, to cry on air. 3 (pour avertir, pour demander secours, etc.) to cry out, to shout. — gare! gare! to cry out, take care! take care! — au feu, au meurtre, à l'assassin, au voleur, to cry out, fire! murder! thieves! — au secours, à l'aide, à la garde, to cry out for help, for the police. — tue! tue! to cry, down with them! Partout on crieait, Vive la nation! everywhere they were shouting, the nation for France! — haro sur quel'qu'un, to pursue a person with the hue and cry. A ces mots, on cria haro sur le baudet, at these words a hue and cry was raised against the donkey. La Font. V. se jeta à ses pieds en criant merci, V. threw himself at his feet crying out for mercy. Bar. fig. — à l'injustice, à l'oppression, à la calomnie, — à tue-tête, to exclaim against injustice, oppression, calumny, etc. fig. fam. — famine, to cry famine. La cigale alla — famine, the grasshopper went about crying famine. La Font. || — famine sur un tas de blé, to cry out famine on a full stomach. fig. — misère, to complain of poverty. fig. — vengeance, to cry for vengeance. Ce sang innocent blood cries for vengeance. 4 (dire une chose hautement et sans cesse) to cry out. J'ai beau te le dire mon zèle est indiscret, it is in vain for me to shout it in your ears, my zeal is indiscreet. La Font. On m'a trompé, je le crierai sur les toits, I have been deceived, I will proclaim it on the house-tops. 5 (annoncer publiquement) to cry, to hawk, to put up for sale. Faire — un objet perdu, to have a lost thing cried. — des pommes, de vieux habits, des journaux, to hawk apples, clothes, newspapers about.

SE CRIER, vpr. to be cried. Un de ces journaux qui se crient dans les rues, one of those newspapers that are hawked about in the streets.

CHIERIE, kre-tee, sf. (broit) clamour, bawling, cry, scolding.

CHIEUR, kre-yuhr, sm. fem. CHIESE, 4 bawler, squaller. 2 public, crier, town-crier. 3 (de rues, in the streets) hawker. Un — de journaux, hawker of newspapers.

CHIME, breem, sm. (Lat. crimen) 1 (action coupable) crime, offence. — capital, capital crime. — de meurtre, of haute trahison, etc., crime of murder, of high treason, etc. Atteint et convaincu du — de, duly convicted of the crime of, 2 (by extension) crime, guilty deed. Aire pénitente de ses —s, to do penance for one's crimes. 3 (hyperb.) crime. Faire an — à quelqu'un de quelque chose, to make a crime of a thing in a person. Faire an — à quelqu'un de se laisser, to look on a person's negligence as a crime. On faisait an — de ses succès, his success alleged against him as a crime. Luer — —, to impute as a crime. 4 abs-ing, crime, guilt. Vivre dans le —, live in crime. Endurci dans le —, dented in crime. 5 (personne) crime, ill. Le — marchait la tête levée, crime alked with head erect. CRIMEE, kre-may, sf. geog. Crimea. CRIMINALISER, kre-me-nal-e-zay, ra. av. — une affaire, to remove an affair from a civil to a criminal court. CRIMINALISTE, kre-me-nal-ist, sm. writer on criminal law, lawyer well versed in criminal law. CRIMINALITÉ, kre-me-nal-e-tay, sf. law. criminality, criminalness (d'un acte, of an act). CRIMINEL, kre-me-nel, adj. m. fem. —le, 1 criminal, guilty. Gilty main —le, a guilty hand. Un cœur —, a guilty heart. 2 (by extension) criminal, unlawful, illicit. Un amour —, an unlawful love. Intention —le, criminal intention. 3 law. Législation —le, criminal legislation. Instruction —le, criminal examination. Procès —, criminal suit. CRIMINEL, sm. 1 criminal, culprit, offender. Uo — d'État, a state criminal. 2 (juridiction pénale) criminal proceedings. Poursuivre quelqu'un an —, to prosecute a person. CRIMINELLEMENT, kre-me-nel-màng, adv. criminally. CRIN, krang, sm. (lat. crinis) hair. Les —s d'un cheval, the hair of a horse. Faire le — peigner le — à un cheval, to curry a horse. Les —s d'un lion, a lion's mane. Matelas de —, horse-hair mattress. Cheval à tons —s, horse with flowing mane and tail. pop. Prendre quelqu'un an —, to seize a person by the hair. CRINCRIN, krang-krang, sm. (onomatop.) screeching fiddle. CRINIER, kre-nyay, sm. tech. hair-worker. CRINIÈRE, kre-nyayr, sf. 1 (d'un lion, d'un cheval, of a lion, of a horse) mane. La — d'un casque, the horse-tail of a helmet. 2 fig. mane, wig, coarac hair. Uo — malpropre, a dirty head of hair. Le porte toujours une — blonde, he always wears a flaxen wig. CRINOLINE, kre-no-leen, sf. 1 (tissu) crinoline. 2 (jupon) crinoline. CRIQUE, krik, sf. (Eug.) 1 creek, core. 2 mil. ditch. CHIQUET, kre-kay, sm. 1 eut. field-cricket. 2 fig. (disparagingly) (petit cheval) tit. 3 fig. (homme petit) tom-tit. C'est un vrai —, he is a little bit of a man. CHISE, krez, sf. (Gr.) 1 med. crisis, pl. crises. Jour de —, critical day. C. lui parla de ses —s de santé, C. spoke to him of the crises of his health. Str-B. 3 fig. (perturbation) crisis. Dans cette vie uniforme, il y a des —s pourtant, comme dans celle de l'ouvrier, in this uniform life there are crises as in that of the workman. Mich. Les affaires sont dans un état de —, affairs are in a crisis. — ministérielle, ministerial crisis. — commerciale, commercial crisis. CRISPATION, kris-pah-syong, sf. 1 crispation, shriveling. 2 med. contraction, corruption. Ce bruit me donne des —s, des —s de nerfs, that noise irritates my nerves. 3 fig. fidget. CHUSPE, ppa. of CRISPER, fem. —E, Le violet ternit des feuilles —es de l'hiver, the sad violet of the crisped winter leaves. Nod. Avoir les nerfs —s, to have the nerves irritated. Une main —e par la rage, a hand contracted with rage. Balz. Il étendit sa main —e vers la poignée de son sabre, he stretched his contracted hand on the hilt of his sword. Ab. Le front —, with contracted brow. Ab. CRISPER, kris-pay, ra. 1 to shrivel. Le froid crispe la peau, cold shrivels the skin. Un sourire amer crispe ses lèvres, a bitter smile contracted his lips. Nod. 2 fig. to put in a fidget, to give the fidgets. SE CRISPER, rpr. to shrivel. CRISPIN, kris-pang, sm. 1 jester. 2 fig. C'est un —, he is a joker. 3 (man-teau court) short cloak. CRISSER, kre-say, ra. (onomatop.) (des dents, of the teeth) to grate, to grind. CRISTAL, kris-tal, sm. pl. CRISTAX, (Gr.) 1 mio. chem. crystal. — de roche, rock-crystal. 2 (sorte de verre) crystal, cut glass. — de Venise, de Bohème, Venetian, Bohemian crystal. 3 pl. cristaux, glass. Nagsin de cristaux, glass-warehouse. 4 fig. poetic. Le — d'une onde pure, le — des eaux, crystal streams. CRISTALLERIE, kris-tal-ree, sf. 1 (l'art) the art of making crystal. 2 (lieu) glass-works. CRISTALLIER, kris-tal-lyay, sm. tech. glass-cutter. CRISTALLIN, kris-tal-ang, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 min. crystalline. 2 pellucid. 3 poetic. cristalline. Des eaux —es, crystalline waters. CRISTALLIN, sm. 1 anat. crystalline. (adjectif.) Corps —, crystalline body. Humeur —le, crystalline humour. 2 astr. CRISTALLISABLE, kris-tal-e-zahbl', adj. mf. crystallizable. CRISTALLISATION, kris-tal-e-zah-syong, sf. 1 chem. crystallization. 2 (groupe de cristaux) crystallization. CRISTALLISE, ppa. of CRISTALLISER, fem. —E, adjectif. crystallized. CRISTALLISER, kris-tal-e-zay, ra. to crystallize. SE CRISTALLISER, rpr. to crystallize. CRISTALLOGRAPHIE, kris-tal-o-graf-lee, sf. (Gr.) nat. hist. crystallography. CRISTALLONANCIE, kris-tal-lo-màng-see, sf. (Gr.) chistallomania. CRITERIUM, kre-tay-ryahm, sm. criterion, pl. criteria, test, touchstone. CRITICISME, kre-te-sis'm', sm. phil. criticism. CRITIQUABLE, kre-te-kabl', adj. mf. open to criticism. CRITIQUE, kre-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 med. critical. Temps, âge —, critical time, age. 2 (by analogy) (qui doit amener un changement) critical, ticklish. Les moments —s de la vie, the critical moments of life. Position —, critical position. Nous touchons au moment —, we arrive at the critical moment. 3 (qui a pour objet l'examen, la discussion) critical. Observations —s, strictures. Avoir l'esprit —, to have a critical mind. 4 (disposé à censurer) critical, criticizing, carping, fault-finding. Humeur —, censorious temper. CRITIQUE, sf. 1 (l'art, le talent) criticism. La — est aisée, et l'art est difficile, it is easy to criticize, but difficult to create. 2 (l'examen) criticism, review. 3 (discussion de faits obscurs) criticism. — historique, historical criticism. 4 (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) piece of criticism, stricture. (by analogy) Cette parodie est une — fort spirituelle de ce drame, this parody is a very witty criticism on that drama. 5 (censure) criticism, animadversion. Exercer sa — sur quelqu'un, to make reflections on a person. (by analogy) Sa conduite est la — de la vôtre, his conduct is a criticism on yours. 6 (reux qui critiquent) critics. Les traits de la —, the shafts of critics. CRITIQUE, sm. 1 (des ouvrages littéraires, etc., of literary works, etc.) critic. 2 (des faits historiques, of historical facts) critic. 3 (personne) critic, fault-finder. CRITIQUER, kre-te-kay, ra. to criticize, to find fault (with), to carp (at). — un livre, un auteur, un peintre, to criticize a book, an author, a painter. Il critiqua tout, he found fault with every thing. — la conduite de quelqu'un, to reflect upon the conduct of a person. — un arrêt, to animadvert upon a decree, absolut. Il sime à —, he is fond of finding fault. — une personne, to cast reflections upon a person. CRITIQUEUR, kre-te-kuhr, sm. (disparagingly) criticizer, fault-finder. CROASSEMENT, kro-ass-màng, sm. croaking, croak, cawing. CROASSER, kro-ass-say, ra. to croak, to caw. Les corbeaux croassent, ravens croak. fig. fam. Laissez — les critiques, let the critics croak. CROATE, kro-at, sm. 1 Croat. 2 adjective. Cheval —, Croatian horse. CROATIE, kro-ah-see, sf. geog. Croatia. CROC, kro, sm. 1 hook. Ils n'au-ront ni — ni marmite, flesh hook and boiler will be unknown. La Font. (By extension) une moustache rousse qui s'élevait en —s jusqu'à la tempe, red mustachios that curled up to his temples. Le Sage. fig. fam. Mettre les armes an —, prendre son épée an —, to lay by one's arms, one's sword. Mettre un procès an —, le pendre an —, to suspend a law-suit. 2 (longue perche) hook. Uo — de batière, a boat-hook. 3 —s, pl. (moustaches) curling mustachios. 4 —s, pl. (de quelques animaux, of some animals) canine, dog-teeth, tusks, fangs. 5 anat. — de palai, tackle hook. — de pompe, pump-hook. — à trois branches, grappling hook, anchor cable. — de capou, cat hook. 6 fig. pop. sharper, bully. CROC-EX-JAMBE, sm. pl. CROCS-EX-JAMBE, 4 trip. 2 fig. fam. trip, tripping up, supplanting. CROC, krok, (onomatop.) crackling, crunch, crisp. Cela fait — sous la dent, that crackles under the teeth. CROCHE, krosch, adj. mf. crooked. Jambe —, crooked leg. CROCHE, sf. mus. quaver. Double —, semiquaver. Triple —, demi-semiquaver. Quadruple —, double demi-semiquaver. CROCHET, kro-shay, sm. 1 (petit croc) hook, tenter-hook. — de fer, iron hook. Mettre le — d'une porte, to fasten, to bolt a door. Clou à —, tenter-hook. — de serrurier, picklock. — de chiffonnier, rag-gatherer's hook. — de brodeuse, needle. Broder an —, to chain-stitch. 2 fig. (changement de direction) turn, bend. Faire an — pour éviter quelqu'un, to turn out of one's way, to avoid a person. La route fait an — à tel endroit, the road makes a bend at such a spot. 3 (peson) steelyard. 4 print. bracket, crochet. 5 (petite boucle de cheveux) heart-breaker. 6 zool. (d'un manin, of a cur) fang, tooth. (d'un cheval, of a horse) teeth. (d'un serpent, of a snake) fangs. 7 zool. (chez divers insectes, of some insects) fangs. 8 —s, pl. (d'un portefaix) crochel, porter's knot. prov. fig. Être sur les —s de quelqu'un, vivre aux —s de quelqu'un, to live at another person's charge. 9 nat. — des biites, hooks. — d'épouilles, haps. 10 crochel. Ouvrage an —, crochel work. CROCHETAGE, krosch-tach, sm. lock-picking. CROCHETER, krosch-tay, ra. to pick a lock. CROCHETEUR, krosch-tuhr, sm. 1 porter, street-porter. Fort comme un —, as strong as a horse. Des injures de —, Billingsgate language. Santé de —, the constitution of a horse. 2 — de portes, de serrures, etc., picklock, lock-pick, etc.

CROCHU, kro-shü, adj. m. fem. —, hooked, crooked. Nez —, bec —, hooked nose, hooked beak. Mains —es, crooked fingers. prov. fig. Avoir les mains —es, to be light-fingered.

CROCODILE, kro-kô-dil, sm. (Gr.), crocodile. prov. fig. Larmes de —, crocodile's tears.

CROQUIS, kro-kis, sm. bot. crocus.

CROIRE, krwâr, cr. irreg. (Lat. cre-der), croyst; crû; JE CROIS, tu crois, il croit, vous croyez, vous croyez, ils croient; JE CROTAIS, tu crotas, il crot; JE CROIRAI, tu croiras; CROIS, croiez; QUE JE CROIE, que vous croyiez; QUE JE CROISSE, je croisse (vi); JE CROIS, je crois pas un mot de ce qu'il m'a dit, I do not believe a word of what he told me. Il ne croit que ce qu'il voit, he believes only what he sees. Promettez-moi de n'en rien —, promise me you shall not believe a word of it. (en matière de religion) à croire, to believe. — l'Évangile, to believe the Gospel. C'est Dieu qu'il nous faut —, we must believe in God. Nous — une chose comme l'Évangile, comme article de foi, to believe a thing like Gospel. J'ai l'âme mieux — que d'y aller voir, I prefer believing to going to see for myself. 2 ab-ol. à croire, It is too plain to believe. Le jure facile —, he is too easy of belief. Le jure dit s'abstenir de condamner jusqu'à ce qu'il croie légalement, the jury ought to refrain from convicting b-fore they have a legal belief. Villem. (en matière de religion) Heureux ceux qui croient, happy are those who believe. On croyait que siecle ou tout était prières, people believed in that age when prayer was universal. V. Hug. (substantif.) Le — et le doute ont chacun une longue série dont tous les points se touchent, belief and doubt stretch out in long lines, all the points of which come into mutual contact. Villem. 3 (à jouer la) à croire, to give credit to, to believe in, to put trust in. Se faire — de quelqu'un, to make one's self believe. Croire-moi, madame, le mieux est de ne rien dire du tout, believe me, Madam, the best plan is to say nothing at all. Ab.

En — quelqu'un, en — quelque chose, to believe in a person, in a thing. Ainsi vous ne voulez pas m'en — sur parole, so, you will not take my word for it. Croire en mon expérience, believe in my experience. Chai. En croirai-je mes yeux? can I believe my eyes? Hae. Ce n'était pas un sot, non, non, et croyez-m'en, he was no fool, that he was not, take my word for it. La Font. Si j'en crois mes regards indécis, if I can trust to my imperfect vision. V. Haz. À l'en —, tout est terminé, if he is to be believed, every thing is terminated. S'il faut en — les apparences, if appearances are to be trusted to.

À (peuser, s'imaginer) to think, to believe. D'ailleurs, je croyais avoir tué un cavalier, besides I thought I had killed a cavalier. Le Sage. Le mal n'est peut-être pas si grand que nous le croyons, there is perhaps not so much harm done as we imagined. Ab. Est-ce que votre maître a cru sérieusement que nous pourrions nous raçonner? has your master really thought that we should pay him a ransom? Ab. Comme l'enfant qui croit le danger passé parce qu'il a cessé de le voir, like the child who thinks the danger over because he no longer sees it. Saut. Je dirai, j'étais là, vous y croirez être vous-même, I shall tell it was there, you will fancy you were there yourself. La Font. Je eros entendre un pas de cheval, I thought I heard the step of a horse. Ab. Ils ont cru voir les tombes se soulever, they thought they saw the graves upheaving. La Font. Tu croyais donc savoir ébaucher? you thought then you could stin? Nod. Que ça va-on — de lui? what will be thought of him? Je le croyais plus grand, I thought him taller.

On la croit sa mère, she is thought to be the mother. Vous ne sauriez — combien elle l'a aimé, you cannot imagine how much she loved him. Dans cette île je ne crois pas qu'on puisse trouver une seule pierre à facettes, in that island I think there is not a single gem-fint to be found. B. de St-P. Vous joutiez et vous croyiez bien faire, you were playing and you thought you were doing well. V. Hug. Quand M. pouvait — être sur ses traces, when M. might think he was on his track. Balz. Je crois qu'il est arrivé, I think he has arrived. Je ne crois pas qu'il veuille vous tromper, I don't think he intends to deceive you. Sa présence m'a si — que, his presence induced us to believe that. Croyez-vous qu'il vienne? Croyez-vous qu'il viendra? do you think he will come? Croyez bien que rien ne me fera changer d'avis, depend upon it that nothing will make me change my mind. absol. Vous feriez bien, je crois, de vous retirer, you would do well, I think, to withdraw. Il avait, à ce que je crois, passé la nuit au bal, he had, I think, spent the night at a ball.

CROIRE, cr. 1 — à quelqu'un, à quelque chose, to believe a person, a thing. Il ne croit pas aux mécheries, he does not believe in doctores. On ne peut pas ne pas — au témoignage de ses sens, one cannot disbelieve the evidence of one's senses. Le mourant croit à leurs paroles, the dying man believes in their words. V. Hug. — aux discours, aux serments, à la parole de quelqu'un, to believe in the discourse, the oaths, the words of a person. Auquel des deux faut-il —? which of the two am I to believe? — à quelqu'un, — quelqu'un, to believe a person, to trust in, to put faith in, to put trust in a person. — dans, — en, to believe in, to trust in, to put trust in. Croisons dans l'avenir, let us trust to the future. Mich. Moi, je crois en toi, I put my trust in you. Balz. — à, to believe in. Vous n'en avez rien ni à ma parole, ni à l'expérience des autres, you would neither be guided by me nor by the experience of others. Boss. 2 — à quelque chose, to believe in a thing. Y a-t-il quelqu'un aujourd'hui qui croit aux apparitions? is there anybody now-a-days who believes in apparitions? Nod. Il parle en maint endroit comme croyant aux pressages, in many a passage he speaks as though he believed in omens. St-B. — à l'immortalité de l'âme, to believe in the immortality of the soul. Je crois à son innocence, I believe in his innocence. — aux miracles, to put faith in miracles. Si j'avais encore la folie de — au bonheur, if I was still so demented as to believe in happiness. Chat. Le soleil lui faisait — au printemps, the sun made him think he was in spring. (by extension) La nature assourdie et joyeuse semblait — au retour du printemps, nature gladdened and cheerful seemed to announce the return of spring. Saut. — en Jésus-Christ, to believe in Jesus-Christ, in the divinity of Jesus-Christ. La vieille pecheresse, croyant à la toute-puissance de Dieu, suivait l'homme, the sinful old woman, believing in God's omnipotence, followed the man. Balz. Elle croit en Dieu parce qu'elle est heureuse, et elle est heureuse parce qu'elle croit en Dieu, she believes in God because she is happy, and she is happy because she believes in God. Chat. se croire, to be. 1 (être cru) to be believed. Se faire —, to inspire belief. 2 (s'imaginer être) to think, to imagine, to believe one's self. On aime à se — quelque chose dans les projets de la sagesse, one likes to believe one is of some weight in the designs of Providence. Chat. Dawe mourut se croyant pour elle un colosse, dame aut thought herself a colossus. La Font. Je ne pouvais encore me — séparée d'elle, I could not yet believe I was sepa- rated from her. Lamart. E. se croyait seule capable de comprendre les goûts de son cousin, E. thought that she alone was capable of understanding her cousin's tastes. Balz. Cœur gonflé d'amertume et qui l'es cru fermée, heart swollen with bitterness, and that thought itself insensible. Muss. Il se croyait sur le point de réussir, he thought he was near succeeding. 3 (à soi) to think one's self. Il se croyait tout permis, he thought he might do anything. Il n'est personne qui ne se croie quelque raison d'être heureux, we all fancy we have a right to be happy. Nod. 4 S'en —, to consult one's self, to rely upon one's own judgment. 5 S'en — beaucoup, to think much of one's self.

CROISADE, krwâ-zâ, sf. (from crois) 1 (contre les infidèles) crusade. 2 (by extension) (contre les hérétiques, crusade.

CROISÉ, krwâ-zay, sm. 1 crusader.

2 (étioffé) twilt. croisé, ppa. de croiser, fem. —, adjective. See croisier, 1 Étoffe —, twilt. 2 mil. Fenx —, cross fires. fig. Sous le feu — de ses deux regards, la jeune femme rougissait et palissait tour à tour, under the cross-fire of those two looks the young woman became by turns red and pale. Sand. 3 Avoir les bras —, demeurer, se tenir les bras —, to have one's arms folded, to remain with one's arms folded across; fig. to remain idle. 4 versif. Rimes —es, alternate rhymes. 5 Danc. chassé —, a dancng step.

CROISÉE, krwâ-zay, sf. 1 (from croiser) window, casement. 2 (by extension) casement, window. Fermer, ouvrir les —s, to shut, to open the windows. 3 naut. — d'une ancre, cross of an anchor.

CROISEMENT, krwâ-mang, sm. 1 crossing. 2 fenc. Le — du fer, the crossing of swords. 3 physiol. crossing, cross breeding.

CROISER, krwâ-zay, ra. 1 (from croix) to cross. — les bras, les jambes, to cross one's arms, one's legs. A croiser les mains dans l'attitude de la prière, A. joining her hands in the attitude of prayer. Nod. L'envoyé de la nuit éternelle vint sur son cœur de fer lui — les deux mains, the messenger of eternal night came and placed his hands across his iron heart. Muss. — les épées, to fer, to cross swords. — la balustrade, to cross bayonets. 2 (des vêtements, of clothes) to lap over. 3 absol. (biffer) to cross out. 4 (aller, passer en travers de) to cross. — la route, to cross the road. Une route qui en croise une autre, a road that crosses another. 5 (d'animaux, of animals) to cross. — les races, to mix breeds. 6 tech. — les fils, les soies, to twilt thread, silk. fig. Quelle est l'intelligence qui croise tous les fils de cette trame immense? what intelligence is it that crosses all the threads of this immense woof? Lamart.

CROISER, ra. 1 (des vêtements, of clothes) to cross, to lap over. 2 naut. to cruise. — au large, en vue de terre, to cruise in the offing, along the coast.

SE CROISER, pt. 1 (être croisé) to be crossed, to cross each other. 2 (de deux lignes, etc., of two lines) to cross each other. Une route qui se croise avec une autre, a road that crosses another. Bieo des chemins qui se croisent, many roads running into each other. Nod. Leurs directions se croisent, their directions cross each other. 3 (à soi) to fold, to cross. Se — les mains sur la poitrine, to fold one's hands on one's breast. Se — les bras, to fold one's arms; fig. to remain idle. Ils étaient résolus à se — les bras depuis le matin jusqu'au soir, they had resolved to remain idle from morning till night. Sand. 4 (de deux personnes, of two persons) to cross. — se croiser, to cross each other, to cross one's path. 5 (de deux choses qui vont en sens contraire, of two things going in opposite directions to cross, to pass each other. Les deux courriers s'étaient croisés, the two couriers had passed each other. Nous nous sommes croisés sans nous reconnaître, we passed without seeing each other. Vous vous êtes croisés avec mon père, qui vient de sortir pour aller chez vous, you have passed my father, who has just gone out to your house. Nos lettres se croisent, our letters crossed each other. by extension Je ne me sentais pas du plaisir de voir se — en entrecroisés élégants les coins roses de leurs bas, I could not contain myself for pleasure in seeing the pink clocks of their stockings cross each other in elegant capers. Nid. 5 fig. (se contrarier, se nuire) to cross, to thwart each other. 6 (de plusieurs objets, of several objects) to cross each other. Le fleuve était couvert de barques qui se croisaient dans tous les sens, the river was covered with boats crossing each other in every direction. Tu. Gaut. fig. des intrigues qui se croisent, intrigues that get interwoven with each other. Les propos légers qui se croisent, qui se heurtent au tour de lui, the buzz and confusion of idle talk around him. Saint. Les questions se poussaient, se croisaient sur les lèvres des trois amis, a multitude of questions poured forth simultaneously from the lips of the three friends. Sand. 7 hist. to take the cross. 8 s'accoupler to cross.

CROISÉTE, krwa-zet, sf. (dim. of croix) 1 (dans certaines provinces, l'A. B. C.) cross-cross-row. 2 her. crosslet. 3 bot. cross-wood.

CROISER, krwa-zubr, sm. (from croiser) 1 naut. cruiser. 2 adjectif. Un vaisseau —, a cruiser.

CROISIÈRE, krwa-zyar, sf. 1 naut. (action de croiser) cruise. 2 by extension (parages) cruising-place. 3 (les bâtiments) cruisers. 4 railw. intersection, crossing (of two lines).

CROISILLON, krwa-zé-young, sm. 1 (d'une croix, of a cross) cross-bar. 2 (d'une croisée, of a window) cross-bar.

CROISSANCE, krwa-sangs, sf. (from croître) growth. Arrêter la — d'un arbre, to stant the growth of a tree. Prendre de la —, beaucoup de —, to grow, to grow fast. Age de —, growing age.

CROISSANT, krwa-sang, ppr. of croître. Le nombre d'œufs, de bouche en bouche allait —, the number of eggs went on multiplying from mouth to mouth. La Font. Les vallons voyaient l'ombre en — tomber du haut des monts, the valleys saw the lengthening shade fall from the tops of the mountains. La Font. L'étonnement de B. allait toujours —. B's astonishment went on increasing. Balz.

CROISSANT, adj. m. fem. —, growing, increasing. Une population —, an increasing population. Haïe, futaie —, increasing hatred, fury. Un bruit sans cesse —, a report continually gaining strength. Les intrigues —es du comte de C., the growing intrigues of the count of C. S. St-B. fig. Ce fardeau — du repentir, this increasing burden of repentance. V. Hug.

CROISSANT, sm. 1 (from croître) crescent, increase. Le — de la lune, the crescent of the moon. La lune est dans son —, the moon is in its increase. 2 (ce qui ressemble à croissant de la lune) crescent. Une agrafe en forme de —, a clasp in the shape of a crescent. Un insecte dont les cornes forment le —, an insect whose horns form a crescent. 1 (petit pain) crescent. 3 absol. (les armoiries de l'empire turc) crescent. 4 fig. (l'empire turc) Crescent, Turkish empire. 5 hort. pruning-hook. 6 tech. (d'une chémière, of a fire-place) fire-irons holder. 7 tech. (de portières et de rideaux de fenêtres, of curtains, etc.) curtain-pin.

CHOISURE, krwa-zür, sf. twilling, roasting.

CROIT, krwâ, sm. (from croître) d'un troupeau, of a flock) growth, increase. La plupart sont déjà aussi grandes que leur mère, leur — m'apparait, most of them are of the same size with their mother, their growth belongs to me. La Font.

CROÛTE, krwât, en. (Lat. crestere) croissant; croû; je crois, tu crois, il croît, nous croissons, vous croissez, ils croissent; je croissais; je crus, nous croûmes; je croûtrai; je croûtrais; crois, croûsses; que je croûsse; que je croûsse. 1 to grow, to increase. — très-vite, à vue d'œil, to grow very fast, visibly. Il aimait à la voir —, he loved to see it growing up. Saint. Ainsi croissaient ces deux enfants de la nature, thus grew those two children of nature. B. de St-P. Se laisser — la barbe, the cheveu, to let one's beard, one's hair grow. prov. Ne faire que — et embellir, to grow handsomer every day; || fig. ironic. Ses défauts ne font que — et embellir, his defects only increase every day. fig. — en beauté, en sagesse, en vertu, to increase in beauty, wisdom, virtue. 2 by extension (des jours, of days) to lengthen. 3 (augmenter) to increase, to swell, to grow stronger. La rivière a crû, est crue, the river is swollen. Le tumulte allait croissant, the tumult went on increasing. La fièvre croît tous les jours, the fever increases every day. J'aime à voir dans les champs — et marcher mon ombre, I like to see my shadow lengthening out as I walk across the fields. V. Hug. L'anxiété croît de moment en moment, anxiety increases at every moment. V. Hug. Il sentait — son amour, he felt his love grow stronger. Le luxe croissait avec la misère publique, luxury kept pace with public misery. La lune commence à —, the moon begins to increase. 4 (devenir plus nombreux) to increase. bi. Croissez et multipliez, increase and multiply. Nos desirs croissent sans cesse, our desires are continually increasing. 5 (des plantes, of plants) to grow, to shoot. Laisse — l'herbe dans tes murs, let the grass grow within thy walls. V. Hug. fig. Les abus croissent de toutes parts, abuses multiply on all sides.

croître, va. absol. poetic. to increase. Cet honneur va — son audace, this honour will increase his audacity. Rac.

CROIX, krwâ, sf. 1 (Lat. crux) cross. Mettre en —, to crucify. Souffrir le martyre de la —, to suffer the martyrdom of the cross. La vraie —, the true Cross. Adorer la vraie —, to adore the true Cross. Chemin de la —, see chemin. 2 cath. rel. Le mystère, le sacrifice de la —, the mystery, the sacrifice of the cross. 3 fig. (la religion chrétienne) L'étendard de la —, the standard of the Cross. Faire triompher la —, to make the Cross triumph. 4 fig. Mettre ses injures, ses ressentiments, au pied de la —, to lay one's wrongs, resentments at the foot of the cross. Mettre ses peines, ses afflictions au pied de la —, to lay one's afflictions at the foot of the —. 5 fig. cross, tribulation, sorrow. Dans ce bas monde chacun a sa — here below every one has his cross. C'est une grande — que des enfants ingrats, it is a great cross to have ungrateful children. 6 (représentation figurée) cross. Elever, planter une —, to raise, to erect, to set up a cross. Une — lumineuse parut dans le ciel, a luminous cross appeared in the sky. — d'évêque, crosier. — d'or, de diamants, a gold, a diamond cross. — latine, Latin cross. — grecque, Greek cross. — de Saint-Antoine, St Anthony's cross. — de Saint-André, St Andrew's cross, saltire. — de Lorraine, cross with two bars. Prendre la —, to take the cross, to go to the Crusade. Le signe de la —, the sign of the cross. Faire le signe de la —, to make the sign of the cross. prov. fig. Aller au-devant de quelqu'un avec la — et la bannière, etc.,

See BANNER. 7 — de par Dieu, premier, horn-hook. fig. fam. Renvoyer quelqu'un à la — de par Dieu, to treat a person as an ignorant fellow. Je n'ai jamais appris que ma — de par Dieu, I never got beyond the elements. La Font. 8 (choses mises en travers, cross). Des bâtons disposés en —, sticks laid cross-wise. Avoir, mettre les jambes en —, to sit cross-legged. 9 (décoration) cross. La — de Saint-Louis, the cross of St Louis. La — de Malte, the cross of Malta. La — de la Légion d'honneur, the cross of the Legion of honour. Grand- —, Grand-cross. 10 (marque formée de deux traits) cross. fig. fam. Il faut faire une — à la cheminée, that must be chalked up. Quand nous serons à dix, nous ferons une —, when we come to ten, we will chalk it up. Faire la — sur une chose, to cross a thing. 11 (par opposition à pile) cross. — ou pile, cross or pile, head or tail, man or woman. Jouer à — ou pile, to play at head or tail, to toss up for. 12 astr. La —, la grande —, la — australe, — du Sud, the Crozier, Southern Cross. 43 bot. — de Jérusalem, de Malte, Cullport, lychnis Chalcedonic. 44 her. cross.

CHOMORNE, kro-morn, sm. mns. (Ger. krammhorn) krum-horn.

CRONE, kron, sm. naut. crane.

CROQUADE, kro-kad, sf. paint. (from croquer) rough sketch.

CROQUANT, kro-kang, ppr. of croquer. Vous leur fîtes, seigneur, en les —, heap-ought d'honneur, you did them, my Lord, great honour by eating them. La Font.

CROQUANT, sm. 1 clown. Là-dessus passe en certain —, thereupon passes a boor. La Font. 2 — s, pl. Fr. hist. peasantry.

CROQUANT, adj. m. fem. —, crisp, cranching.

CROQUANTE, kro-kangt, sf. a crisp pie.

CROQUE, ppa. of croquer, fem. —, adj. adjective, sketched.

CROQUENTINAINE, krok-me-ten, sm. 1 bogie, old bogie. 2 fig. bugbear.

CROQUER, kro-kaj, sm. (from croquer) to crunch. Cela croque sous la dent, that eats crisp.

croquer, va. 1 to crunch. Une demi-douzaine de brigands croquant du pain bis et des olives amères, half a dozen brigands crunching brown bread and bitter olives. Ab. fig. fam. N'en — que d'une dent, not to have all one wishes. — by extension (manger avidement) to eat greedily, to devour. Le ciel permit aux loups d'en — quelques-mns, the les croquerent tous, Heaven gave the wolves permission to devour some, they devoured them all. La Font. La dame du logis s'en allait le — en qualité d'oiseau, the dame was going to eat him up for a bird. La Font. fig. — le marmot, to lance the marmot. Vous croqueriez bien le marmot avant de le faire — aux autres, you must dance attendance a long time yourself before making others do the same. Le Sage, fig. fam. Elle est jolie, gentille à —, elle est à —, that is a lovely creature. Cet enfant est gentil à —, that is a most lovely child. 3 point. to sketch. (by analogy) (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) to sketch. M. de Sév.

CROQUE-À-SSEL (à ss), adv. and elliptic loc. Manger un chopin à la — an-sel, to eat a boiled capon with coarse salt. fig. pop. (in threat) le mangerai à la — au-sel, I would make mince meat of him.

CROQUE-LARDON, sm. dinner-hunter. CROQUE-MORT, sm. pl. CROQUE-MORTS, pop. undertaker's man, mate. fig. fam. Une figure de — mort, a long dismal face.

CROQUE-NOTE, sm. pl. CROQUE-NOTES, (disparagingly) sorry musician.

CROQUE-SOL, sm. pl. CROQUE-SOLS, See CROQUE-NOTE.

CROQUET, kro-kaj, sm. crisp cake.

CROQUETTE, kro-ket, sf. culin. (fr. croquet) croquette.

CROQUEUR, kro-kühr, sm. gormandiser. Un vieux renard grand — de poulets, an old fox, a great devourer of chickens. La Font.

CROQUIGNOLE, kro-ke-nyol, sf. 1 (chiquenaude) filip. 2 (pâtisserie) crack-nel.

CROQUIS, kro-keé, sm. (from croquer) 1 pain sketch. Faire le — d'un paysage, d'une figure, to sketch a landscape, a figure. Un cahier de —, a sketch-book. 2 lit. sketch.

CROSSE, kross, sf. (from croc) 1 (d'évêque, d'abbé) crozier. 2 obsol. (baton recourbé) hockey-stick. 3 (d'un fusil, of a gun) butt-end, stock. 4 anat. — de Poarte, arch of the aorta.

CROSSE, ppa. of crosset, sem. — E, adjective. crosiered. Abbé —, crosiered abt.

CROSSEUR, kro-say, en. (from crosse) to play at hockey.

CROSSLER, ra. 1 — une balle, une pierre, to ball. 2 fig. fam. to treat a person with contempt.

se crosseur, ppr. 1 to abuse each other. 2 to beat each other.

CROSSETTE, kro-set, sf. 1 agri. layer. 2 arch. crossette, ear, elbow, ancone.

CROSEUR, kro-subr, sm. obsol. hockey-player.

CROTAL, kro-tal, sf. (Gr.) archeol. crotalum.

CROTAL, sm. erp. crotalus, rattle-snake.

CROTTE, krot, sf. (Lat. crosta) 1 (bonne) dirt, mud, mire. — fig. faire l'ère, vivre, to muck in the dirt, to go to the dogs. 2 (rente) dung.

CROTTE, ppa. of crotter, sem. — E, adjective. dirt. Vous êtes tout —, you are dirty all over. — fig. — jusqu'à l'échine, jusqu'aux oreilles, as dirty as a pig, up to the ears in dirt. Il fait bien — dans les rues, the streets are very dirty.

CROTTER, kro-tay, ro. to dirty.

se crotter, ppr. to dirty one's self, to get dirty.

CROTIN, kro-tang, sm. dung. — de cheval, horse dung.

CROULANT, kroo-lâng, ppr. of croquer, adj. m. sem. — E, tottering, falling.

CROULEMENT, krool-mang, sm. (from croquer) falling in, falling, fall.

CROULER, kroo-lay, en. (Il croule) 1 to fall, to fall in, to sink down. Ce bâtiment va —, that building is ready to fall.

Le bruit des matériaux qui croulaient avertit nos amis, the noise of the materials falling warned our friends. Ab. Une partie des murailles avait croulé et là, a part of the walls had fallen in here and there. Nod. On eût dit que la salle ébranlée allait — sous les applaudissements, one would have said that the applause was going to bring the house down upon their heads. Sand. 2 fig. to totter, to fall. Pendant ce temps-là le parlement M. croulait, in the meantime the parliament M. fell. Sie-B. fig. Dans nos jours où tout s'en va —, in our days when every thing is tottering. V. Hug. Il n'est plus rien, son rêve a croulé, he is no longer anything, his dream has vanished. Sie-B.

CROULIET, kroo-lay, adj. m. sem. croulible, totting, sinking, boggy. Des terres croulantes, boggy lands.

CROUPE, kroop, sm. Eng. med. croup.

CROUPE, kroop, sf. oian. croupade.

CROUPAL, kroo-pal, adj. m. sem. — E, med. Tout — e, croup-cough.

CROUPE, kroop, sf. (Il grouppa) 1 croup, crupper, rump, buttocks. Un cheval chatouilleux sur la —, a horse ticklish on the crupper. Munier en —, to get up behind.

fig. Le chagrin monte en — et galope avec lui, sorrow mounts pillion and gallops along with him. Boil. Prendre, mettre, avoir quelque'un en —, to take a person up behind. 2 (de certaines moutagnes, of some mountains) brow, ridge. 3 arch. hip-roof.

CROUPE, kroo-pay, adj. m. sem. — E, with a croup, rump, etc.

CROUPETONS (λ), kroop-tong, adv. loc. squatting.

CROUPI, kroo-peo, ppa. of croupin, sem. — E, adjective. Eau — e, ditch water.

CROUPIER, kroo-pyay, sm. 1 croupier. 2 (au jeu) partner. 3 (intéressé) partner.

CROUPIÈRE, kroo-pyay, sf. 1 crup-pier. prov. fig. Tailler des — s à l'ennemi, to put the enemy to flight, to rout the enemy. fig. Tailler des — s à quelqu'un, to cut out work for a person. 2 natl. Munil-ter en —, to cast an anchor by the stern.

CROUPION, kroo-pyong, sm. 1 (des oiseaux, of birds) rump. 2 (de l'homme, of man) rump. 3 adjective. Eng. hist. Le parlement —, the rump parliament.

CROUPIN, kroo-peer, en. 1 (des liquides, of liquids) to stagnate, to grow corrupt. 2 (by extension) to rot. 3 (by analogy) to wallow. 4 fig. to wallow. — dans le vice, dans le péché, to wallow in vice, in sin. Il saut de la que nous devons — dans l'ignorance, it follows from thence that we ought to be sunk in ignorance. Ph. Chas.

CROUPOISSANT, kroo-pe-sâng, ppr. of croupin, adj. m. sem. — E, stagnant, standing.

CROUSTADE, kroos-lad, sf. calia. — de truffes, de champignons, truffes, mushrooms with fried crust of bread.

CROUSTILLANT, kroos-te-yâng, adj. m. sem. — E, crisp, crusty. Une pâtisserie — e, crisp pastry.

CROUSTILLE, kroos-le-yah, sf. small crust.

CROUSTILLER, kroos-te-yay, en. to nibble a crust.

CROUSTILLEUSEMENT, kroos-te-yuh-z-mang, adv. fig. smuttily.

CROUSILLEUX, kroos-te-yuh, adj. m. sem. croustilleux, fig. smuttily, free.

CROÛTE, kroot, sf. (Lat. crusta) 1 (du pain, of bread) crust. Du pain où il y a beaucoup de —, very crusty bread. Un pain tout en —, a loaf nothing but crust. fig. pop. Casser une —, casser la — avec quelque'un, to eat a morsel with a person. Prov. Ne manger que des — s, to fare hard. 2 Manger une — au pot, to eat a sop in the pan. 3 (d'un pâte, etc., of a pie, etc.) crust. 4 (by analogy) crust. Il s'est formé une — de tartre autour de ce tonneau, a crust of tartar has been forming round this cask. 5 med. crust. — de lait, achor. (hyperb.) fam. Tout son corps n'est qu'une —, his whole body is but one scab. 6 paint. daub.

CROÛTON, kroo-tong, sm. 1 (de pain, of bread) crust, crusty piece of bread. 2 culin. crust. Purée aux — s, pea-soup with fried bread crumbs. 3 fig. fam. (mauvais) reintré dauber.

CROYABLE, kroo-yabp, adj. mf. credible.

CROYANCE, kroo-yangs, sf. 1 (conviction) belief. La — à l'immortalité de l'âme, the belief in the immortality of the soul. La — aux sorciers, aux revenants, the belief in wizards, in spirits. 2 (confiance) credit, credence. Les amants sont toujours de légère —, lovers are always credulous. La Font. (des choses, of things) credit, belief. 3 (opinion) belief, opinion, conviction. Dans les — s du temps, in the conviction of the people at that epoch. Mich. Cela passe toute —, that exceeds all belief. 4 rel. cred, persuasion, belief. La — des Chrétiens, the Christian creed. La — des Juifs, the creed of the Jews. Il n'est pas deux — s, there are not two creeds. Muss.

CROYANT, kroo-yang, ppr. of croire, sm. sem. — E, 1 believer. 2 (particularly) (sectateur de Mahomet) Musulman, Mahometan. Les califs prennent le titre de Commandeur des — s, the Caliphs assume the title of Commander of the Faithful. CRU, krû, ppa. of croire, sem. CRE, grown.

CRU, krû, sm. 1 (terrain) growth, country. Du vin de mon —, wine of my own country. Vin du —, wine of the country. 2 fig. (invention) invention. Oh! cela est de votre —, oh! that is of your own inventing. 3 (accroissement) growth.

crû, adj. m. sem. — E, 1 raw, uncooked. Viande — e, raw, uncooked meat. Cela se mange —, that is eaten raw. 2 tech. Chanvre —, undressed hemp. Solo — e, unbleached silk. Cuir —, raw hide. Métal —, crude metal. Mercure —, cinabar. 3 med. crude. 4 (difficile à digérer) raw, crude, indigestible. 5 Eau — e, hard water. 6 fig. harsh, hard, sour, crabbed. Une parole —, une réponse bico — e, a very hard word, answer. Il lui annoça cette nouvelle toute — e, he bluntly announced him this news. Voilà mon impression toute — e, that is my candid impression. Sie-B. 7 fig. (by extension) free, coarse. 8 fig. (d'idées, of thoughts) crude, undigested. 9 paint. Toa —, couleur — e, crude tone, colour. Lumière, ombre — e, crude light, shade.

à cru, adv. loc. 1 (on the bare back, bare skin). Chaussé — e, wearing shoes without stockings. Ces dentelles blanches — e sur la peau, that lace with nothing between it and the skin. G. Snd. Monter un cheval à —, to ride on the bare back of a horse. (by extension) L's secrétaires assis à — sur le rocher écumant sur leurs genoux, the secretaries seated on the bare rock wrote on their knees. Ab. 2 arch. bare.

crû, ppa. of croire, sem. — E, adjective. belléret. Etre — e sur parole, to have one's word taken for a thing. Cette nouvelle mérite d'être — e, that news deserves to be believed.

CRUAUTE, krû-o-ay, sf. 1 (Lat. crudelitas) cruelty. (hyperb.) Les — s d'une maîtresse, the cruelty of a mistress. fig. La — du sort, de la fortune, the cruelty of fate, of fortune. 2 (de certains animaux, of some animals) cruelty. 3 (action) cruelty. Des actes de —, acts of cruelty. La — d'un acte, the cruelty of an act. 4 (hyperb.) cruelty. C'est une — de séparer ces deux amants, it is a cruelty to separate those two lovers.

CRUCHE, krûsh, sf. 1 (Ger. krog) pitcher, jug. — à eau, water-jug. — d'eau, jug of water. prov. fig. Tant va la — à l'eau qu'elle se casse, the pitcher goes so often to the well, that it comes home broken at last. 2 fig. fam. blockhead, ninny, goose. Quelle — ! what a blockhead! C'est une —, he is a booby. Si vous continuez à tourmenter cet enfant, vous le ferez devenir —, if you go on teasing that child so, you will make an idiot of him. Vous me prenez pour —, you take me for a fool. La Font.

CRUCHEE, krû-shay, sf. pitcher full, jug full.

CRUCHON, krû-shong, sm. 1 small jug, stone bottle. 2 (le contenu) Un — de bière, a jug of beer.

CRUCIAL, krû-syal, adj. m. sem. — E, lucidation — e, crucial incision.

CRUCIFÈRE, krû-se-layr, adj. mf. 1 arch. Colonne —, column surmounted with a cross. 2 bot. cruciferous, cruciate. (substantif) Une —, a cruciferous plant, a crucifer.

CRUCIFÈRES, krû-se-layr, sf. pl. bot. cruciferæ, crucifers.

CRUCIFIÉ, krû-se-layr, ppa. of crucifier, adj. mf. — E, crucified.

CRUCIFIEMENT, CRUCIFIEMENT, krû-se-lang, sm. 1 (action) crucifying, crucifixion. Le — de Notre-Seigneur, the crucifying of our Lord. 2 (tableau) Le — de Rubens, the Crucifixion by Rubens.

CRUCIFIER, krû-se-layr, ro. to crucify. (hyperb.) Je me ferais — pour cela, I would do anything for that.

(réunion des objets que l'on fait cuire ensemble) baking, batch.

CUIVRE, kû-evr, sm. 1 min. copper. — fonda, cast-copper. — jaune, brass. — rouge, red copper. — en plaques, sheet-copper. — en plaques, copper-plates. 2 (exploitation) Usine de —, copper-works. 3 (planche) Mine de —, copper-mine. 4 mus. brass instruments. 5 opper-plate.

CUIVRE, ppa. of CUIVRE, fem. — E. adjectiv. copper-coloured. Teint —, copper-coloured complexion. Couleur —, copper-colour.

CUIVRE, kû-evr-vray, va. to copper.
CUIVREUX, kû-evr-vrah, adj. m. fem. adjective, chem. min. coppery, cupreous. Gîte —, copper bed.

CUL, kû, sm. 1 (de l'homme, of man) bottom, posterior, breech. Donner des coups de pied au — à quelqu'un, lui donner du pied au —, to kick a person in the breech. fam. La tête a emporté le —, he was top-heavy. fig. — de plomb, heavy-sides, sedentary person. — de latte, cripple sitting in a wooden bowl. 2 (des animaux, of animals) rump. 3 (by analogy) fond bottom. 4 (d'un verre, d'une bouteille, the bottom of a glass, of a bottle. Mettre un tonneau sur —, to set a cask on end; || fig. to empty it. 4 — de sac, blind alley; || fig. fam. a post, a charge, an office from which it is impossible to rise higher. 5 — de cigarette, tail of a cart. Mettre une cigarette à —, to tip up a cart. 6 arch. — de lampe, pendant, bracket. — de four, demi-cul-gola. 7 print. — de lampe, tail-piece. 8 ord. — blanc, wheat-eur, fallow-finch.

CUL-BLANC, sm. orn. See CUL, n° 8.

CULASSE, kû-ass, sf. breech.

CULBUTE, kû-bû, sf. 1 (saut) sonersel, summerset. Faire la —, to throw a somersel. 2 (by extension) tumble, fall. fig. fam. Faire la —, to have a downfall. pr. — du bout du fossé la —, neck or nothing.

CULBUTER, kû-bû-tay, va. 1 (from calbute) to throw down head over heels, to throw down, over, to upset. 2 fig. fam. to throw down, to overthrow, to ruin.

CULBUTER, vn. 1 to fall, to fall head over heels. 2 fig. fam. to fall, to be ruined, to fail, to be done for.

CULBUTIS, kû-bû-tee, sm. confused heap of things upset.

CULEE, kû-lay, sf. arch. abutment.

CULER, kû-lay, vn. va. to go astern. to have, to make stem-way, to fall astern.

CULIERE, kû-lyay, sf. 1 (sangle) hind girth. 2 arch. keel-stone, gutter-stone.

CULINAIRE, kû-le-nayr, adj. mf. culinary. L'art —, the culinary art.

CULMINANT, adj. m. — kû-mang, ppr. of culminer, adj. m. 1 astr. Point —, culminating point. 2 (by extension) Point —, culminating point. fig. prominent. Parvenu au point — des grandeurs, arrived at the pinnacle of greatness.

CULMINATION, kû-le-nab-syong, sf. astr. culmination.

CULMINER, kû-le-nay, vn. astr. to culminate.

CULOT, kû-lo, sm. 1 (le dernier né) the last born, the youngest. 2 (d'un creuset, of a crucible) bottom. 3 (d'une pipe, of a pipe) black bottom, 4 tech. bottom. 5 (d'une lampe, of a lamp) bottom.

CULOTTE, kû-lo, sf. 1 breeches, small-clothes. Une paire de —, ou des —, a pair of breeches. Porter des —, to wear small-clothes; || fig. fam. Cette femme porte les —, that woman wears the breeches; || fig. Une — de peau, a bragging old soldier. 2 (boucherie) — de bœuf, rump of beef. 3 — d'un pistolet, trap of a pistol.

CULOTTE, ppa. of CULOTTER, fem. — E, adjectiv. 1 breeched. Être bien mal, to be well, badly breeched. Votre Majesté est bien mal — E, Your Majesty is very badly breeched. 2 blackened, seasoned. Pipe —, blackened pipe.

CULOTTER, kû-lo-tay, va. (from culotte) to put one's breeches on. Il faut — cet enfant, it is high time this child was breeched. 2 absol. to make breeches. 3 (d'une pipe, of a pipe) to season, to blacken.

SE CULOTTER, ppr. 1 (mettre ses culottes) to put one's breeches on. 2 (d'une pipe, of a pipe) to get, to become black.

CULOTTEUR, kû-lo-tuhr, sm. — de pipes, great tobacco-smoker.

CULOTTIER, kû-lo-tyay, sm. 1 breeches-maker. 2 adjectiv. Ouvrier —, fem. ouvrière culottière, breeches-maker.

CULPABILITÉ, kû-pah-be-le-lay, sf. culpability, guilt.

CULTE, kûlt, sm. 1 worship, adoration. Le — du vrai Dieu, the worship of the true God. Le — des idoles, des faux dieux, the worship of idols, of false gods. Les ministres du —, the ministers of religion. Le ministre des —, the Minister of Public Worship. fig. poetic. Se vouer au — des Muses, to consecrate one's self to the service of the Muses. 2 (religion) religion, creed. Changer de —, to change one's religion. Renoncer, retourner au — de ses pères, to renounce, to return to the religion of one's fathers. 3 (by analogy) worship, veneration. Il avait voué à sa mère un véritable —, he worshipped his mother.

CULTIVABLE, kû-le-vabl, adj. mf. cultivable.

CULTIVATEUR, kû-le-vah-tuhr, sm. 1 husbandman, agriculturist, farmer, cultivator, grower, raiser. 2 adjectiv. agriculteur. Un peuple —, an agricultural people.

CULTIVÉ, ppa. of CULTIVER, fem. — E, adjectiv. Terre — E, cultivated land. fig. Esprit —, cultivated mind.

CULTIVER, kû-le-vay, va. 1 to cultivate, to till. — la terre, to till the ground. — un champ, un jardin, to cultivate a field, a garden. 2 (faire venir au moyen de la culture) to cultivate. — des fleurs, to cultivate flowers. 3 fig. to cultivate, to improve, to exercise. — son âme, son esprit, sa mémoire, sa raison, to cultivate one's soul, mind, memory, reason. Cultive en toi l'amour, la pitié, les regrets, cherish in your soul love, pity, regret. V. Hug. C'est un goût qu'il faut —, it is a taste that requires cultivation. 4 fig. (des arts, des sciences, of arts, of sciences) to cultivate, to study. — le bien, — la vertu, to practise virtue. 5 fig. to cultivate, to keep up. — la connaissance, l'amitié, la bienveillance, l'affection de quelqu'un, to cultivate the acquaintance, friendship, kindness, affection of a person. Les brigands venaient un à un — notre connaissance, the brigands came one by one to cultivate our acquaintance. Ab. (by analogy) — ses amis, ses connaissances, to keep up friendships, acquaintances.

CULTURE, kû-lûr, sf. (Lat. cultura) 1 culture, cultivation, tillage. Grande —, husbandry with the help of machinery, horses, etc. Petite —, spade husbandry. Terre sans —, waste land. Frais de —, farmers' expenditures. 2 (by extension) (du blé, de la vigne, of the corn, of the vine, of the garance, of corn, of the vine, of tobacco, of cotton, of madder) cultivation, growing, growth. 3 Les —s industrielles, the rearing of manufacturing materials. (by analogy) La — de la soie, the production of silk. La — des abeilles, the management of honey-bees. 4 fig. (des lettres, des sciences, des arts, of letters, of sciences, of arts) cultivation. 5 fig. (éducation) improvement, refinement, culture, cultivation. Un esprit sans goût et sans —, a mind without taste or cultivation. Orateur sans —, mais sordain, naïf et sensé, an orator of no refinement, but spontaneous, artless and sensible. Nod.

CUMIN, kû-mang, sm. bot. cumin.

CUMUL, kû-mûl, sm. (Lat. cumulus. law. plural, pluralism, accumulation)

CUMULARD, kû-mû-lar, sm. (disparagingly) pluralist.

CUMULATIF, kû-mû-la-tif, adj. m. fem. cumulative, law. cumulative.

CUMULATIVEMENT, kû-mû-lah-tiv-mang, adv. by accumulation.

CUMULER, kû-mû-lay, va. (Lat. cumulare) to accumulate, to cumulate. — plusieurs places, plusieurs emplois, absol. —, to fill several offices, several employments.

CUNIFORME, kû-nay-e-form, adj. mf. 1 nat. hist. cuneiform, cuneate, cuneated, wedge-shaped. 2 philol. cuneiform, cuneatic, arrow-shaped. Ecriture —, characteres —, cuneiform writing, characters.

CUNETTE, kû-net, sf. fort. cunette, cunette.

CUPIDE, kû-peed, adj. mf. (Lat. cupidus) covetous, greedily, grasping. Homme —, grasping man. Âme —, covetous disposition.

CUPIDITÉ, kû-pe-de-tay, sf. (Lat. cupiditas) cupidity, covetousness, (specially) — insatiable, insatiable cupidity.

CUPIDON, kû-pe-dong, sm. 4 myth. Cupid, Love. 2 fig. Quel —! what a beauty.

CUPULAIRE, kû-pû-lay, sf. cupule, bot. cup-shaped.

CUPULE, kû-pûl, bot. sf. cupule, cupula.

CURABILITÉ, kû-rah-be-le-tay, sf. med. curability, curableness.

CURABLE, kû-rahbl, adj. mf. curable.

CURACAO, kû-rah-so, sm. (liquor) curacao.

CURAGE, kû-razb, sm. (from curer) (d'un puits, d'un canal, d'une rivière, etc., of a bridge, of a canal, of a river, etc.) cleansing, cleaning, cleaning out.

CURARE, kû-rah, sm. bot. curare.

CURATELLE, kû-rah-tayl, sf. law. guardianship, trusteeship.

CURATEUR, kû-rah-tuhr, sm. (Lat. curator) 1 law. guardian, curator, trustee. 2 — d'une succession vacante, trustee on a vacant inheritance. 3 curator.

CURATIF, kû-rah-tif, adj. m. fem. curative. 1 Moyens — s curative means. 2 (substantiv.) curative agents.

CURATION, kû-rah-syong, sf. (Lat. cure, curing)

CURATRICE, kû-rah-trees, sf. (Lat. curatrix) anc. curatrix. See TURTRICE.

CURCUMA, kû-kû-mah, sm. bot. curcuma, turmeric.

CURE, kûr, sf. 1 obsl. (soin, souci) care. Le meunier n'en a —, the miller cares nothing about it. La Font. Quant au loup, je n'en ai — avec ma serpette, as for the wolf, I am not afraid of him with my pruning-knife. Noring. 3 (d'une paroisse, of a parish) cure, living, benefice. Desservir une —, to serve a parish. 4 (by extension) vicarage, rectory.

CURÉ, kû-rah, sm. (from cura) vicar, rector, parish-priest. prov. C'est gros Jean qui remonte à son —, he will teach his grandnephew to suck eggs.

CURÉE, kû-rah, sf. (ll. corata) ven. quarry. Donner la — aux chiens, to give the quarry to the dogs. On eût dit un limier les yeux sur la —, he was like a blood-hound with eyes on the quarry. C. Del. Faire —, to reward the dogs. (by extension) Tous les ânes les plus faibles en font —, the weakest beings make their prey of it. Mich. Mettre les chiens en —, to flesh the dogs. fig. Être âpre à la —, to be eager for gain. fig. to be grasping.

CUREMENT, kû-rang, sm. (de puits, de fossés, etc., of wells, ditches) cleansing, cleaning.

CURER, kû-rah, va. (Lat. curare) (nettoyer) to cleanse, to clean out. d'un puits, un étag, un égout, un port, a well, a pond, a sewer, a harbour. (by extension) — la charrue, to clean a plough. — une gne en pied, to prune a vine.

CURE-DENT, sm. pl. CURE-DENTS, tooth-ck.
CURE-LANGUE, sm. pl. CURE-LANGUE, tongue-scraper.
CURE-MÔLE, sm. pl. CURE-MÔLES, dredge-machine.
CURE-OREILLE, sm. pl. CURE-OREILLES, ear-picker.
SE CURER, epr. (à soi) to pick. Se — les dents, les oreilles, to pick one's teeth, one's ears.
CURETTE, kû-ret, sf. 1 sarg. scoop. 2 tech. scraper. 3 natl. pump-scraper.
CUVEUR, kû-rûr, sm. — de puits, d'égouts, well-cleanser, sewer-cleanser.
CURIAL, kû-ryal, adj. m. fem. — e, pl. m. curial, curial, curial. Maisou — c, rectory, vicarage, parsonage, parsonage-house.
CURIE, kû-ree, sf. Rom. hist. curia, pl. curia, ward.
CURIEUSEMENT, kû-ryahz-màng, adv. curiously, carefully, minutely.
CURIEUX, *kû-ryuh, adj. m. fem. curieuse, 4 (qui a un grand désir de voir, de savoir, etc.) curious, inquisitive, desirous. Il était — d'apprendre, he was desirous of learning. Un esprit — et observateur, an inquisitive and observing mind. (in joke) Vous êtes trop —, you are too curious. (by extension) Des regards —, prying looks. Un désir —, an eager desire. Une demande curieuse, an indiscreet question. Les curieuses inquiétudes des voyageurs, the inquiring anxieties of the travellers. Nod. Je regardais B. avec un intérêt —, I regarded B. with inquiring interest. Nod. (in a bad part) curieux, prying. 2 (qui cherche les choses rares) fond, connoisseur. J'étais fort — d'insectes, I was very fond of insects. Mich. Il est — de tableaux, de vieux livres, he is a lover of pictures, of old books. (by analogy) Dans cette île on n'est — que d'anecdotes malignes, in that island, scandalous reports are the only things in request. B. de St-P. 3 (des choses, of things) (singular) curious. On l'a lu un peu partout, on l'a trouvé —, it has been read a little everywhere, it has been deemed curious. Ab. Une aventure curieuse, a curious adventure. Un — mélange de haine et de pitié, a curious mixture of hatred and pity. Ab. Un spectacle — à voir, a sight curious to be seen. 4 (substantif) curious, inquisitive person, bystander, looker-on. P. est on — de la nature, mais un — surtout dans le cabinet, P. is a great observer of nature, especially in his study. Ste-B. (in joke) Oh! le vilain —, oh! the naughty inquisitive fellow. (in a bad part) Je déteste les —, I hate prying folks. 5 (substantif) connoisseur. 6 (substantif) curious parl, curious thing. Le — de l'affaire est que, the most curious thing in the affair is that CURIOSITÉ, *kû-ryo-ze-tay, sf. (Lat. curiositas) 4 curiosity, inquisitiveness. C'est le désir de savoir ou, si vous l'aimez mieux, it is, it is the desire of knowing, or, if you prefer it, curiosity. Ab. J'y allai par —, I went thither out of curiosity. La — publique, public curiosity. 2 (in a bad part) curiosity, inquisitiveness. 3 obsol. Donner dans la —, to be fond of curiosi- ties. 4 (chose) curiosity, rarity. Un cabinet, un magasin de —s, a cabinet of curiosities, a curiosity-shop.

CURSEUR, kûr-sûr, sm. phys. cursor, slider.
CURSIF, kûr-sif, a lj. m. fem. CURSIVE, calligr. Écriture cursive, cursive writing, running hand. Caractères —s, cursive characters.
CURSIVE, kûr-seev, sf. running-hand.
CURULE, kû-rûl, adj. mf. Rom. hist. Chaise —, See CHAISE. Magistrats —s, curule magistrates.
CURVILIGNE, kûr-ve-le-nyah, adj. mf. curvilinear, curvilinear.
CUSPIDE, kûs-pe-lay, adj. m. fem. — e, bot. cuspidate, cuspidated.
CUSTODE, kûs-tod, sf. (Lat. custodia) 1 liturg. pyx, remonstrance, cloth that covers the pyx. 2 anc. (rideau de lit) bed-curtain.
CUSTODE, sm. (Lat. custos) warden.
CUTANÉ, kû-tah-nay, adj. m. fem. — e, anat. med. cutaneous. Muscle —, cutaneous muscle. Maladies —es, cutaneous diseases.
CUTICULE, kû-te-kûl, sf. (Lat. cuticula) 1 anat. cuticle. 2 bot. cuticle.
CUTTER, kû-tayr, sm. (Eng.) navl. cutter.
CUVE, kûv, sf. (Lat. cava) 1 vat, tub. — de vendange, vinlage-tub. — de brassier, mash-tub. 2 phys. — pneumatique, receiver.
CUVE, ppa. of CUEVER, fem. — e, adjectif. fermented.
CUVEAU, kû-vo, sm. small tub, vat.
CUVEE, kû-vay, sf. tub full, vat full.
CUVELAGE, kûv-lazh, sm. tubbing, lining.
CUVELER, kûv-lay, va. to line, to tub. — les puits d'une mine, to line the shafts of a mine.
CUVER, kû-vay, vn. to ferment, to work. fig. Là, les vapeurs du vin nouveau cuverent à loisir, there he slept off the fumes of new wine. La Font.
COVER, va. fig. fam. — son vin, to sleep one's self sober, to cool down.
CUVETTE, kû-vel, sf. 1 basin, wash-hand basin. 2 arch. cistern — head. 3 hydr. cistern. 4 phys. cistern. 5 horol. cap. Montre à —, capped watch.
CUVIER, kû-vyay, sm. wash-tub, bucket-tub.
CYANOGENE, syah-ao-zhayn, sm. (Gr.) chem. cyanogen.
CYANOMETRE, syah-ao-maytr', sm. (Gr.) cyanometer.
CYANOPATHIE, syah-no-pah-tee, sf. see CYANOSE.
CYANOSE, syah-noz, sf. med. cyanosis.
CYANURE, syah-nûr, sm. chem. cyanide; cyanuret.
CYATHE, syat, sm. (Lat.) 1 archeol. cyathus. 2 metrol. cyathus.
CYBELE, se-bayl, sf. (Gr.) myth. Cybele.
CYCLAMEN, se-klah-mayn, sm. (Lat.) bot. cyclamen.
CYCLE, sikl', sm. (Gr.) 4 chronol. cycle. — solaire, solar cycle. 2 lit. (une série d'événements) period.
CYCLIQUE, se-klîk, adj. mf. chronol. cyclic.

CYCLÔIDE, se-klo-id, sf. (Gr.) geom. cycloid.
CYCLOPE, se-klop, sm. (Gr.) myth. cyclop.
CYCLOPEEN, se-klo-pay-ang, adj. m. fem. — se, cyclopean, cyclopic.
CYGNE, se-nyuh, sm. 1 orn. swan. Duvet oe —, swan's down. — noir, black swan. Elle est blanche comme un —, elle a la blancheur da —, she has a complexion as fair as day. fig. C'est le chant du —, it is the song of the dying swan. 2 fig. Le — de Mantoue, Virgil the swan of Mantua. Le — de Cambrai Fenelon, the swan of Cambrai. Le — de Pesaro, Russini, the swan of Pesaro. 3 coach-mak. Coo de —, swan-neck. 4 astr. Cygnus.
CYLINDRAGE, se-lang-drah-say, adj. m. fem. — e, nat. hist. cylindraceous.
CYLINDRE, se-langrîd', sm. (Gr.) 4 geom. cylindrer. 2 tech. cylinder, roller, drawing roller. 3 paper-mak. cylinder, roller. 4 nat. hist. volute.
CYLINDRE, ppa. of CYLINDRAGE, fem. — e, adjectif. 1 Allée — e, rolled walk. 2 Bois —, a piece of wood shaped like a cylinder.
CYLINDRER, se-lang-dray, va. 1 to shape like a cylinder. 2 to roll. — une allée, to roll a walk.
CYLINDRIQUE, se-lang-drik, adj. mf. cylindric, cylindrical.
CYLINDROÏDE, se-lang-dro-id, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 did. cylindroid. 2 sm. geom. cylindroid.
CYMAISE, se-mayz, sf. (Gr.) arch. ogée, cymatium, cyma.
CYMBALE, sang-bal, sf. (Gr.) mos. cymbal.
CYMBALIER, sang-bal-lyay, sm. cymbal-player.
CYME, seem, sf. bot. cyma, cyme.
CYNETIQUE, se-nay-zhay-tik, sf. (Gr.) cynetiques.
CYNIQUE, se-nîk, adj. mf. (Gr.) 4 cynic, cynical. 2 (by extension) cynic, cynical, impudent, barefaced. 3 (substantif) cynic.
CYNISME, se-nism', sm. 1 cynicism, cynicalness. 2 (by extension) impudence, barefacedness, coarseness.
CYNOCEPHALE, se-no-say-fal, sm. (Gr.) zool. cynocephalus.
CYNOGLOSSE, se-no-glos, sf. (Gr.) bot. cynoglossum, hound's tongue.
CYNOSURE, se-no-zûr, sf. (Gr.) 4 astr. cynosure. 2 bot. cynosure.
CYPRES, se-pray, sm. 1 Lat. cupressus) cypress, cypress-tree. 2 fig. cypress, death, mourning.
CYPRIERE, se-pre-yayr, sf. hort. grove of cypresses.
CYSTIQUE, sis-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) anat. Arrière —, cystic artery. Bile —, cystic bile.
CYSTITE, sis-tit, sf. (Gr.) med. cystitis.
CYTHÉRÉE, se-tay-ray, sf. myth. Cytheraea, Cithara.
CYTISE, se-teez, sm. (Lat.) bot. cytisus, laburnum.
CZAR, kzar, TZAR, tzar, sm. czar, tzar.
CZARIEN, kzah-ryang, ujf. m. fem. — e, czarinite.
CZARINE, kzah-reen, sf. czarina.
CZAROWITZ, kzah-ro-wit, sm. czarowitz.

D

DAL

D, day, sm. the fourth letter of the alphabet. — (lettre numérale), 500, five hundred.

DA, dah, (Gr.) porticle. marry, truly, indeed. Oui —, non —, yes indeed, no indeed.

D'ABORD, dah-bor, prep. loc. See ABOARD.

DA CAPO, dah-kah-po, adv. loc. (It.) mus. do capo.

D'ACCORD, dah-kor, elliptic. loc. See ACCORD.

D'ACTYLE, dah-teel, sm. (Gr.) versific. dactyl.

D'ACTYLIQUE, dah-te-lik, adj. mf. anc. dactylic, dactylar.

DADA, dag, sf. 1 (Ger. degen) dirk, dagger. 2 terch. scraping-knife, scorper. 3 — s. pl. ven. dags.

DAGUER, dah-gay, ro. (from dague) 1 absol. to stab. 2 ven. to stab.

DAGUERREOTYPE, dag-ay-ray-o-teep, sm. (from Daguerre) phot. daguerreotype. Un portrait fait au —, a portrait produced by the daguerreotype process.

DAGUERREOTYPE, ppa. of DAGUERREOTYPE, fem. — s. adj. phot. daguerreotypic portrait.

DAGUERREOTYPER, dag-ay-ray-o-teep, vn. phot. to daguerreotype (on paysage, on monument, a landscape, a monument).

DAGUET, dah-gay, sm. ven. brock, brocked.

DAHLIA, dah-lyah, sm. bot. dahlia.

DAIGNER, day-nay, vn. (Lat. dignari) to dign, to be pleased, to touchsafe. Elle n'a pas daigné lui faire une réponse, she did not deign to make him any answer. Daignez m'écouter, please to listen to me.

DAILLEERS, dah-lyeur, adv. loc. See AILLEURS.

DAIN, dang, sm. zool. deer, follow-deer, buck.

DAINE, dayn, sf. zool. doe.

DAIS, day, sm. 1 (d'un otel, d'un trône, etc., of an altar, a throne, etc.) canopy, dais. poetic. Sous le —, in the midst of grandeur. 2 (by extension) pavilion portatif canopy. Porter le —, to carry the canopy. 3 fig. poetic. Un — de feuillage, de verdure, a canopy of foliage, of verdure. Un — de brume à l'horizon, a foggy canopy in the horizon.

V. Hug.

DALER, dah-ly, sm. See THALER.

DALILA, dah-lo-lah, sf. bi. Dalila.

DALLAGE, dah-lah, sm. flagging, foot-pavement of flag-stones.

DALLE, dal, sf. (Ger. diele) 1 flag, flag-stone, slab (of marble). Une cuisine pavée de —, a kitchen paved with flag-stones. 2 (tranche de quelques gros poissons) slice. See PARSE.

DAM

DALLÉ, ppa. of DALLER, fem. — s. adj. pared with flags.

DALLER, dah-lay, va. to flag, to pare with flags. — une plate-forme, un vestibule, to flag a platform, a vestibule.

DALMATE, dal-mat, s. adj. mf. Dalmatian.

DALMATIE, dal-mah-see, sf. geog. Dalmatia.

DALMATIQUE, dal-mah-lik, sf. dalmatica, colobium.

DALOT, dah-lo, sm. naut. scupper, scupper hole.

DAM, dang, sm. (Lat. damnum) 1 cost. A sou —, à votre —, to his cost, to your cost. La Font. 2 theol. La peine du —, the punishment of the damned.

DAMAN, dah-mang, sm. zool. jerboa.

DAMAS, dah-mah, sm. 1 geog. Damascus. 2 (espèce de satin) damask.

— de Lyon, Lyons damask. 3 (by extension) (toile ouvrière) damask linen. 4 (by extension) — de laine, moor. 5 (lame) Damascus blade. 6 hort. damask-plum.

Prune de —, damson. — rouge, red damson.

DAMASQUINÉ, ppa. of DAMASQUINER, fem. — s. adj. damaskened. Sabre —, damaskened sabre.

DAMASQUINER, dah-mas-ke-nay, va. to damask, to inlay with gold or silver.

— une épée, to damasken a sword. — d'or, d'argent, to inlay with gold, with silver.

DAMASQUINERIE, dah-mas-keen-ree, sf. damaskening.

DAMASQUEUR, dah-mas-ke-nay, sm. terch. damaskener, damask-worker.

DAMASQUINERE, dah-mas-ke-nur, sf. damaskening.

DAMASSE, ppa. of DAMASSEN, fem. — s. adj. damasked, damask. 1 Linge —, damask linen. Des serviettes —, damask napkins. 2 (substantif) damask.

Un service de —, a damask service.

DAMASSER, dah-mas-say, va. to damask, to work damask-like.

DAMASSURE, dah-mas-sür, sf. damask-ing, damask-work.

DAME, dam, sf. (Lat. domina) 1 anc. lady. La — de tel lieu, the lady of such a manor. La — de ces biens, the mistress of these treasures. La Font. Haute et puissante —, high and mighty Lady. (in joke) La — du logis, the lady of the house. La Font. Notre-Dame, Our Lady.

Les —s de France, the royal princesses of France. 2 (by extension) lady. Rompre ne lance pour sa —, to break a lance for one's lady. La — de mes pensées, my lady-love. 3 (à la cour, at court) lady, maid. — d'honneur, maid of honour.

— d'atours, fire-woman. — (s) de la halle, market-woman. 4 rel. (titre) lady, nun. Les —s de Saint-Denis, the ladies of Saint-Denis. —s du chœur, the ladies of the choir. Les —s de charité, patronesses of a charity. 5 (femme appartenant aux classes élevées) lady. Une belle —, a fine lady. Une grande —, a great lady. Les —s de la cour, the ladies of the court. ironic. Faire la —, to set up for a lady. 6 law. La — une telle, the lady such a one. 7 (l'ont personnel du sexe) lady. Une — et son cavalier, a lady and gentleman. Ou doit toujours être poli pour les —s, one should always be polite with the ladies. (aux courses de bagues) ring. C'est pour les —s, voilà pour les —s, this is for lote. (au jeu de panne) Les —s, service, mistress, on essay. Voilà pour les —s, here goes the service. 8 fam. dame, goody. Vous voyez bien — Christine, you see goody C. fig. — nature, dame nature. — helette, dame weasel. La Font. 9 (jeu de cartes, in a pack of cards) queen. — de cœur, de carreau, queen of heart, of diamonds. 10 (jeu d'échecs, at chess) queen. Aller à —, to go to queen. 11 (jeu de dames, at draughts) king. Jouer aux —s, to play at draughts. Aller à —, to go to king. 12 (trietrac, at baggammon) man. 13 bot. — d'olive heures, star of Bethlehem. 14 naut. rowlocks. 15 tech. beetle.

DAN

DAME, interj. why, indeed, nay, well. Mais —, oui, why, yes, to be sure. Ah! —, vous m'en direz tant, ah! well, you will tell me so much.

DAME, sf. engineer, dam, flood-gate.

DAME-JEANNE, sf. pl. DAMES-JEANNES, demi-john.

DAME, ppa. of DAMER, fem. — s. adj. dam, king.

DAMER, dah-may, va. (jeu de dames, at draughts) to crown a man. fig. fam. — le pion à quelqu'un, to outdo a person.

DAMERET, dam-ray, sm. (disparagingly) lady's man, spark.

DAMIER, dah-may, sm. 1 draught-board. 2 ro. damier.

DAMNABLE, dah-nabl, adj. mf. 1 damnable. 2 (hyperb.) damnable, wicked.

DAMNATION, dah-nah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 pointion des damnés damnation. La — éternelle, eternal damnation. 2 (action) damnation.

DANNÉ, ppa. of DANNER, fem. — s. adj. damned, dammed. Souffrir comme une âme — s., to suffer the torments of Hell. fig. fam. C'est son âme — s. See AMÉ. 2 (substantif) damned. Le supplice des —s, the torments of the damned. Les —s n'ont point d'amis dans le ciel, the damned have no friends in Heaven. nod. (hyperb.) Souffrir comme un —, to suffer Hell torments.

DAMNER, dah-nay, vn. (Lat. damnare) 1 to damn. Dieu damne les méchants, God damns the wicked. 2 (des actions, of acts) to damn. C'est un de ces péchés qui damnent ceux qui les commettent, it is one of those sins which damn those who commit them. (by analogy) — son âme, to damn one's self, to lose one's soul. 3 (déclarer digne des peines de l'enfer) to damn. Il damne tous ceux qui ne pensent pas comme lui, he damns all who are not of his way of thinking. fig. fam. Faire —, to torment, to drive mad, wild. Sa femme le fait —, his wife drives him mad. Une de ces figures d'anges qui font — les hommes et rêver les saints, one of those angelic faces made to torment men and set saints a dreaming. nod.

SE DAMNER, ppr. to incur, to expose one's self to damnation.

DANOSÉAU, dah-mwá-zo, sm. 1 anc. page. 2 fam. ironic. beau, fig. spk.

DAMOISEL, dah-mwá-zel, sm. See DAMOISELLE.

DAMOISELLE, dah-mwá-zel, sf. anc. (titre) damself. See DEMOISELLE.

DANAIDE, dah-nah-id, sf. 1 mech. danaide. 2 — s. pl. myth. the Danaiids.

DANDIN, dang-dang, sm. noddy, ninny, booby.

DANDINEMENT, dāng-deen-māng, sm. swinging, swaying of one's body about.

DANDINER, dāng-de-nay, vn. to swing, to sway one's body about. Marcher en dandinant, a troop of mules tinkling their bells as they go along. Moss.

SE DANDINER, rpr. to waddle. Il ne fait que se —, he does nothing but swing himself about.

DANDY, dāng-dee, sm. (Eng.) dandy. tronic. Faire le —, to play the dandy.

DANDYSME, dāng-dis-mi, sm. dandyism.

DANGER, dāng-zhay, sm. (Lat. damnum, evens) 1 danger, peril. Braver, affronter le —, to brave, to affront danger. Cette promenade n'est pas sans —, this excursion is not devoid of danger. Mérim. Etre hors de —, to be out of danger. La patrie est en —, the country is in danger. 2 Etre en — de, to run the risk of. Il a été en — de perdre sa place, he had like to have lost his place. Il n'y a point de — qu'il le fasse, there is no fear of his doing that. 3 (inconvenient) harm. Je ne vois pas de — à ce que vous le fassiez, I see no harm in your doing it.

DANGEREUSEMENT, dāngzh-rub-z-nduz, adv. dangerously.

DANGEREUX, dāngzh-ruh, adj. m. fem. DANGEREUSE, 4 dangerous. Une maladie dangereuse, a dangerous disease. 2 (des personnes, of persons) dangerous. Ce sont des gens —, those are dangerous people. 3 fig. dangerous.

DANOIS, dāg-nwā, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 Danish. 2 (substantif.) Dane. 3 (substantif.) (langue) Danish. 4 (substantif.) (chien) Danish dog.

DANS, dāng, prep. (Lat. de, intus) 1 (marquant le rapport du contenant au contenu, noting connexion between the container and the contained) in, into. Etre assis — un fauteuil, to be seated in an arm-chair. Les peux dorment couchés — leur amour comme la veille du combat, the doughty warriors sleep stretched out in their armour as on the eve of a battle. V. Hug. L. passa une seconde fois sa main — sa barbe noire, L. once more thrust his fingers through his black beard. Nod. Mettez votre main — ma main, venez, put your hand into mine, come, V. Hug. — ce beau pays de France, in this lovely country of France. Boire — un verre, to drink out of a glass. Mettre quelque chose — sa poche, to put something into one's pocket. Vicius — mes bras, come to my arms. Le feu est — cette maison, that house is on fire. Recevoir un coup d'épée — le bras, to receive a sword-thrust in the arm. Aussi difficile à prendre que l'eau qui fuyait — mes petits doigts, as difficult to be seized as the water that ran through my little fingers. Mich. Prenant — les bras un échantillon de pierre que tu verras couché, taking up in your arms a stone elephant which you will perceive lying down. La Font. J'ai vu quinze jours — les mains du terrible H., I passed a fortnight in the hands of the terrible H. Ab. Enfant que les chéris accours — mon sein, beloved child, hasten to my bosom. Flor. Se regarder — une glace, to look at one's self in the glass. Ce passage se trouve — tel auteur, that passage is to be found in such an author. On lit — Cicéron que, we may read in Cicero that. Ce petit monde était absolument — la main de la supérieure, over this little world the superior exercised absolute sway. Ste-B. Monsieur, — le jugement duquel vous paraissez avoir confiance, this gentleman in whose judgment you seem to place confidence. Balz. Il l'a mis — sa tête, il n'en demorndra pas, he has got it into his head, he will not give it up. Entrer — les sentiments de quelqu'un, to fall into a person's opinion. Entrer — la magistrature, — les ordres, to enter into the magistrature, into orders. Tomber — l'oubli, to fall into oblivion. Cette solitude — la solitude, this loneliness in solitude. Lamart.

2 (marquant la durée, l'époque, noting duration) in, during. — son enfance, in his infancy. Formé à la captivité — une longue éducation, accustomed to captivity during the course of a long education. Mich. Quand commencerez-vous? — huit joors, when will you begin? in a week hence. Flor. — la saison où ils donnent leurs fleurs, vons les diriez couverts de neige, in their blossoming season you would think they were covered with snow. B. de St-P. On était — l'été, — le plus fort de l'hiver, it was in the summer, in the depth of winter. Cela arriva — les dernières années de son règne, that happened in the latter years of his reign. Il viendra — peu, he will shortly come, he will come in a short time. Il fait — le même temps deux fois plus d'ouvrage qu'un autre, he does in the same time twice the work of another. Il aura fini son travail — un an, he will have finished his work in a year hence. C'est ce qui arrive souvent — la vie, that what often happens in life.

3 (marquant l'état, la disposition du corps, de l'esprit, les circonstances, noting a state of being) in. Etre — une posture gênante, to be in a straitened position. Il montra beaucoup de présence d'esprit —, he displayed great presence of mind in. S'illostre — les combats, to distinguish one's self in battles. Vivre — une solitude profonde, to live in profound retirement. Gette précaution, dit-il, en souriant — sa barbe, that precaution, said he, laughing in his sleeve. Nod. Dites à E. de ne pas trop m'oublier — la société de F., tell E. not to lose all memory of me in F's society. Sand. Déjà je n'eus plus que — les songes de la fille des Gauls, I was no longer but a visionary being for the daughter of the Gauls. Chat. Il fut grand — la paix comme — la guerre, he was great in peace as well as in war. Je voulais vers C. — toute la confiance, — tout l'abandon de mon cœur, I flew to C. in all the sincerity, in all the candour of my heart. Nod. On disputa — le calme ce qu'on avait discuté — l'ivresse, they discussed in a state of sobriety what had been discussed in a state of intoxication. Chat. Vivre — l'oisiveté, to live in idleness. Passer la nuit — la débauche, to pass the night in debauchery. Etre — la peine, — l'inquiétude, — les larmes, to be in trouble, in anxiety, in tears. On peut être heureux — toutes les conditions, one may be happy in every station of life. Etre — un grand embarras, to be in a perplexing situation, to be at a great loss. Etre — l'intention de, to intend. Un homme grossier — ses paroles, a man who uses coarse expressions. Il est exact — ses paiements et soigneux — sa mise, he is punctual in his payments and careful in his dress. Ferme — ses amitiés, constant in one's friendships. Il est changeant — ses idées, he is very nuxtely in his ideas. Etre haïe — un art, to be clever in an art. Il est très-verse — les lettres, he is deeply read, very book-larned.

4 (selon) — une acception, in. Ce mot est employé — cette acception, this word is employed in that acception. Cela est exact — les principes d'Aristote, that is exact according to the principles of Aristotle. Il entend cela — le sens de saint Augustin, he gives the same interpretation to it as St. Augustin. Pour moi je prends ce passage — un tout autre sens, far my part I give quite another meaning to that passage.

DANSANT, dāng-sāng, ppr. of DANSEN, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 dancing. Musique — e, dancing music. 2 dancing. Soirée — e, evening dancing party.

DANSE, dāngs, sf. 1 dance, dancing.

— de caractère, national dance. Figure de —, figure of a dance. — de corde, dancing on the tight-rope. Aimer la —, to be fond of dancing. Prendre des leçons de —, to take dancing lessons. Maître de —, dancing-master. fam. Avoir l'air à la —, See air. fig. pop. Donner une — à quelqu'un, to give a person a thrashing. 2 (de plusieurs personnes, of several persons) dance. Commencer la —, to begin the dance. Mener la —, to lead the dance, to open the ball. Salle de —, dancing-room. prov. fig. Commencer la —, mener la —, to lead the dance. 3 (manière de danser) dance, dancing. 4 (air) dance. Jouer une —, to play a dance. 5 pop. (lieu) dance. Aller à la —, to go to the dance. 6 med. — de Saint-Guy, Saint-Vitus's dance.

DANSEUR, dāng-say, vn. 1 to dance. Vous chantez, j'en suis fort aise, eh bien, dansez maintenant, you sang, my service to you, now you may dance. La Font. Apprendre à —, to learn dancing. Les Turcs ne comprennent pas qu'on danse soi-même, the Turks cannot understand that people dance themselves. Th. Gaut. Voilà l'heure où les morts dansent d'un pied débile, that is the hour in which the dead dance with tottering steps. V. Hug. — sur la corde, to dance on the tight-rope; || fig. to be in a precarious situation; to be in a sad predicament. (by extension) Ce soir-là, on dansait à la cour, that evening there was a court-ball. La cour ne dansa pas de toute la saison, there was no court-ball the whole season. Ab. fig. fam. Le cœur danse de joie, the heart leaps with joy. fig. fam. Ne savoir sur quel pied —, not to know which way to turn; to be at one's wits end. prov. fig. Faire — quelqu'un, to lead a person a dance. to make a person smart for it. 2 (sauter) to dance, to skip. Elle faisait — devant la flamme l'enfant qui souriait, she dandled the smiling babe before the flame. Chat. L'ombre joyeuse danse autour du noir fuyif, the merry shadow dances round the black hearth. V. Ilug. La mouche qui danse et flote dans l'air, the fly that dances and floats in the air. Mich.

DANSEN, sa, to dance. — une contredanse, to dance a country-dance. la bourrée, the boree; un ballet, a ballet. (by extension) Pour — d'autres balls, elle était encore prête, she was quite ready for fresh balls. V. Hug. fig. pop. Il la dansera, he shall smart for it.

DANSEUR, dāng-suhr, sm. fem. DANSEUSE, dancer. Il y avait plus de — que de danseuses, there were more gentlemen than ladies dancing. Un —, une danseuse de l'Opéra, an opera-dancer. — danseuse de corde, rope-dancer.

D'APRES, prep. loc. See après

DARCE, dars, See DARSE.

DARD, dar, sm. 4 dart. 2 (d'un insecte, of an insect; d'un serpent, of a snake) sting. 3 arcu. dart. 4 ich. dart, dar, dace. 5 hort. spindle.

DARDE, pp. of DANDER, fem. — E, adjectif. darted.

DANDER, dar-day, va. (from dard) 4 to dart, to hurt, to shoot, to shoot forth (un harpon, un javelot, un stylet, a harpoon, a javelin, a stiletto). (by analogy) L'abeille darde son aiguillon, the bee darts its sting. Le serpent darde sa langue, the serpent darts its tongue. (by analogy) Une fontaine dardo son filet d'eau gisillante, a fountain sports its hissing jet. Th. Gaut. fig. Le soleil darde ses fleches de feu, the sun darts its fiery arrows. Th. Gaut. fig. Ses yeux dardaient mille sentiments comme des fleches, her eyes shot forth like arrows a thousand sentiments. Balz. fig. — une épigramme, to let fly an epigram. 2 (frapper avec un dard) to shoot with a dart, to harpoon, to spear. Quand nous avions dardé un phoque, ou le traînait sur la glace, when we had harpooned a seal, we dragged it along on to the ice. Chat.

DARIOLE, dah-ryol, sf. colliu. cream-eat.

DARNE, darn, sf. (of some fishes) slice.

DARSE, sf. naot. floating wet-dock.

DARTIE, darr', sf. (Gr.) med. herpes, shingles, letters, ringworm, eruption, rash. — vive, ulcerated eruption. — farineuse, pityriasis, dandruff, scurf. Faire rentrer une —, to drive in an eruption.

DARTREUX, dar-truh, adj. m. fem. DARTREUX, 1 mcd. herpetic, scabby. 2 (substantif) person affected with an eruption.

DATARE, dah-tayr, sm. datary, chancellor of the court of Rome.

DATE, dat, sf. (Lat. datum) 1 date. La — d'une lettre, d'un acte, d'un jugement, the date of a letter, of a deed, of a judgment. Lettre en — de tel jour, a letter under date of such a day. Une lettre de change à vingt jours de —, a bill of exchange twenty days after date. Prendre —, to have the priority. (by analogy) Être le premier en —, to have the priority. Prendre —, to fix a day. 2 (époque) date, period. La — d'un événement, the date of an event. C'était la mode et la manie à cette —, it was the fashion and rage at that period. St-B. Erreur de —, misdate, wrong date. De nouvelle —, de fraîche —, of recent date. Un ami de nouvelle —, a new friend. D'ancienne —, de vieille —, of old, of long standing. Une amitié de vieille —, a friendship of old standing.

DATÉ, ppa. of daten, fem. —E, adj. v. dated. Une lettre —e de Bordeaux, a letter dated from B. Un acte qui n'est pas —, a deed without a date, undated.

DATER, dah-tay, va. (from date) to date (une lettre, un acte, a letter, a deed). (by extension) Ce chène, c'est lui qui date le printemps, this oak marks the beginning of the spring. Mich.

DATER, en. 1 to date. C'est de là qu'on peut faire la naissance d'un nouvel esprit national, the springing up of a new national spirit may be dated from that epoch. Ast. Th. Cet homme ne date pas d'hier, that man is very old. C'est une précaution qui ne date que de quelques années, it is a precaution of only a few years standing. Mém. A — de ce jour, reckoning from that day. 2 (courir) to date, to run on. Mes appointements dateront d'aujourd'hui, my salary will run on from to-day. 3 (faire époque) to form an era, an epoch. Cette circonstance datera dans la vie, this circumstance will form an era in your life.

DATIERIE, dat-tree, sf. 1 datary. 2 (charge) datary.

DATIF, dah-tee, sm. gram. dative, dative case.

DATIF, adj. m. fem. DATIVE, law. Tuteur —, tutory guardian. Tutelle dative, dative guardianship.

DATION, dah-yong, sf. (Lat.) law. — en paiement, giving in payment.

DATISME, dah-tism', sm. (Gr.) tautology.

DATTE, dat, sf. (Gr.) nut. date.

DATTIER, dah-tay', sm. bot. date-tree, date-palm.

DATUHA, dah-ti-rá, sm. bot. daturo, thort-apple.

DAUBE, dób, sf. 1 colin. daube, stew. Gigot à la —, leg of mutton à la daube. 2 (la viande) daube.

DAUBER, do-bay, va. 1 pop. to cuff, to thrash. 2 fig. fam. to sneer (at), to revile, to jeer. Le loup daube, an concher du jort, son canardier absent, at the king's couchée, the wolf daubles his absent comrade. La Font.

SE DAUBER, vpr. to fight, to beat each other.

DAUBEUR, do-buhr, sm. (little used) sneerer, reviler, jeerer. Les —s ont leur tour, the biters are bit in their turn. La Font.

DAUPHIN, do-fang, sm. (Gr.) 1 zool. dolphin. 2 Rom. antiq. dolphin. 3 Fr. hist. dauphin. 4 astr. dolphin. 5 pyr. dolphin. 6 —s, pl. naut. cheeks (of the masts).

DAUPHINE, do-feen, sf. Fr. hist. dauphiness.

DAUPHINE, do-fe-nay, sm. geog. (formerly a province of France) Dauphiny.

DAURADE, do-rá, sf. ich. See DORADE.

D'AUTANT, do-tang, adv. loc. See AUTANT.

DAVANTAGE, dah-vang-tazh, adv. (Fr. de, advantage) 1 more. Demain matin j'en saurai —, to-morrow morning I shall know more. Balz. La vanité est dangereuse, la presse l'est —, vanity is dangerous, laziness is more so. Cela me plat —, that pleases me more. Ne m'en demandez pas —, don't ask any more of me. Je vous aimerais bien — si, I should like you much more if, if my voyaging put their pleasure, nothing else. Mery. 2 (plus longtemps) longer. Je ne puis rester —, I cannot stay longer.

DAVIER, dah-vay, sm. 1 surg. forceps. 2 tech. cramp, ring on the wireplate. 3 nat. darv.

DE, D', dah, prep. (Lat. de) 1 of. (marquant la possession, l'appartenance, noting possession) La bonte — Dieu, the goodness of God. Le livre — Pierre, the book of Peter. L'enfant — M. S'appelait Paul, the child of M. was called Paul. B. de St-P. L'honneur — la famille entraînait pour si peu dans son projet que, the honour of the family was of so little importance to him that. Balz. La case — M. se trouvait, the cabin of M. stood. B. de St-P. Se jeter dans son fauteuil du concierge, throwing himself carelessly into the porter's arm-chair. Muss. Au sortir des rigueurs — l'hiver, at the end of a rigorous winter. Les parents — sa femme s'étaient opposés à, his wife's relations had objected to. B. de St-P. Enseigne-moi la maison — moi voleur, show me the dwelling of him who has robbed me. La Font. Nous passâmes auprès du tombeau d'un enfant, we passed before the tomb of a child. Chat. L'autre portant l'argent — la gabelle, the other carrying the money of the salt tax. La Font. Son sourire semblait d'un ange, his smile seemed to be that of an angel. Muss. Un jour qu'un rayon — soleil m'avait remis le cœur en joie, one day when a ray of sunshine had gladdened my heart. Muss. Le souvenir — l'amour dans le cœur d'un vieillard, a recollection of love in the heart of an old man. Chat. Surprenons les secrets — son âme, let me find out the secrets of her soul. Rac. L'histoire d'A., the story of A. Chat. Les paysans — nos villages, the peasants of our villages. Nod. Un soir — carnaval, a night of revel. Muss. La pâleur des grandes émotions était répandue sur son visage, the paleness of great emotions covered his visage. Lamart. Un moment — loisir, a moment's leisure. Muss. Les angoisses du cœur humain, the pangs of the human heart. Lamart. C'est ici que — famille, this homely gaiety — Balz. Les fonctions — l'esprit, these poetic of easy mind. Mery. A chaque murmure — la nuit, at every murmur of the night. Mery. Les ruines — Palmyre, the ruins of Palmyra. L'honneur du repas du soir, the honour of the evening meal. Nod. Ces poètes d'un naturel aisé, these poets of easy grace. St-B. Les hommes — l'art, men of the profession. Les hommes du métier remarquent ce genre — progrès dans son ouvrage, his fellow authors notice this sort of progress in his work. St-B. La vae — la mort ne m'effrayerait pas, the sight of death would not scare me. Mém. Cette classe d'esprits modérés, this class of moderate individuals. St-B. Le fils — ton oncle en a déjà une, the son of your uncle has one already. Mém. Ils n'ont connu que les baisers et les sourires d'une mère, they have known but the kisses and smiles of a mother. Chat. Si mon songe bonheur fut vil, if my dream of happiness was intense. Chat. Après des mois — captivité, after months of captivity. St-B. Le bonheur des méchants comme un torrent s'écoule, the happiness of the wicked passes like a torrent. Rac. La vue d'une souris produisit sur moi une impression, the sight of a mouse produced an impression upon me. Mém. Les sensations du virtuoso commencèrent à triompher des craintes — l'homme, the inherent feeling of the virtuoso began to get the better of the fear of the man. Nod. Un respect bien rare du texte, a rare respect of the text. Th. Gaut. Nous sommes — toutes les maisons, we belong to every family. Lamart.

(formant avec le nom qui le suit un qualificatif, placed before a substantive to form an adjective) Je te vois insulter pas, grand colonel d'Italie, I do not insult you, great colonel of an Italian. Des combats, crâs are a fighting race. Mich. Des devants cœur, sincere devotees. Nod. Un coup — lait, a sucking calf. La Font. Ag. Un coup — main, a helping hand. Un — nos plus grands hommes — mer, one of our most celebrated mariners. Vos pompons — fer sont muets, your iron things are silent. V. Hug. Ces sentiments — parade, these pompons sentiments. Lamart. Ce godi — Minerve, — Mentor, qui se développe en vieillissant, this lecturing propensity which develops itself in old age. St-B. Il fit pour nous dans la poche — derrière, et celle — devant pour le défaut d'autrui, he made the pocket behind for our own defects, and the one in front for the defects of others. La Font.

(formant un gallicisme, forming a gallicism) Quel chien — mouton! what druggery! Mon cousin — neveu, my rascal of a nephew. Un frison d'enfant, a scoundrel of a child. La Font. Un drôle — corps, a funny fellow.

(rapport d'une chose à celui qui l'a produite, connexion of a thing with that which has produced it) Les comédies — Molière, the comedies of Molière. La philosophie — Platon, the philosophy of Plato.

(rapport au lieu d'origine, noting the place of origin) Dénay d'Haicruasse, Donyssus of Haicruassus. Du vin — Bordeaux, claret. La bataille — Marengo, the battle of Marengo. (by analogy) M. de Montmorency Le duc — Bourbon, the duke de Bourbon. Et bonjour! Monsieur du corbeau, good morning Mr O'Crow. La Font. (substantif) Mettre le — devant son nom, to put the de before one's name.

(rapport de temps, de durée, noting time, duration) La femme — quarante-cinq ans la plus experte, the most knowing woman of forty-five. St-B. À l'âge — vingt ans, at the age of twenty. Le plaisir est — ton âge, pleasure suits your age. Nod. J'avance à grands pas vers le terme — ma carrière, I approach with rapid strides the end of my career. Chat. Ces hommes d'un jour, these men of a day. V. Hug. Rien ne trouble sa fin, c'est le soir d'un jour, nothing troubles his end, it is the close of a fine day. La Font. Semblable à ce globe, notre révolution n'est que d'un jour, like this globe, our revolution is but of a day, our life is short. B. de St-P. Elle a vécu ce que vivent les roses, l'espace d'un matin, she has lived the life of a rose, the space of a morning. Malb. Le chat lui fit voir en moins d'un instant que, the cat showed him in the twinkling of an eye that. La Font.

(rapport de cause, de motif, noting cause, motive) Trait — courage, act of courage. Des larmes — joie, — rage, tears of joy, of rage. Un mouvement — colère, a start of passion.

(rapport d'instrument, de moyen, noting the instrument, the means) Un trait — plume, a stroke of a pen. Serrement — main, a squeeze of the hand. Des serrouesses comme d'une main forte pour arracher les volets, a shaking as of a strong hand tearing off the shutters. Mich. Les médecins et les astrologues reçoivent aussi leur coup — seroit, physicians and astrologues also get their knuckles rapped. Ph. Chas.

(rapport d'une chose à la matière dont elle est faite, aux éléments dont elle est composée, noting the material of which a thing is made) Une barre — fer, a bar of iron. Une troupe — soldats, a troop of soldiers. Il tira — sa poche une montre d'argent, he drew from his pocket a silver watch. Nerin. On n'y voyait que des meubles — bois, all the furniture was of wood. B. de St-P. Un homme — chair et os, a man of flesh and blood. Une douzaine d'habités, a dozen of cossacks. Les minuites étaient d'or, time was precious. Ab.

(rapport de la partie à l'ensemble, connexion of the part of a thing with the whole) Le derrière — la tête, the back of the head. Le bout du nez, the tip of the nose. Le pied d'une table, the foot of a table. La balle lui emporta le bout — l'oreille, the ball carried off the tip of his ear. Volt. Sur la branche d'un arbre, upon the branch of a tree. La Font.

(rapport de la fraction à la totalité, noting connexion between the fraction and the totality) Le reste du temps, the rest of the time. La moitié — la somme, the half of the sum. Serez-vous du nombre — ces Hebreux? do you happen to be one of those Hebrews? Flor. Deux étrangers qui s'étaient annoncés comme étant — mes parents, two strangers who had announced themselves as being relations of mine. Muss. Pas un seul petit morcean — mouché on — vermissau, not the finest scrap of fry or worm. La Font. Des Peris se suis la plus belle, I am the fairest of the Peris. V. Hug. En autant — paris le cerf li dépêça, he divided the stag in as many peris. La Font.

(rapport du contenant au contenu, connexion between the container and the contained) Une tasse — lait, a cup of milk. Un panier — cerises, a basket of cherries. Une bouteille — vin, a bottle of wine.

(rapport d'une chose à son objet, noting connexion between a thing and its object) Cours — philosophie, course of philosophy. Manuel — botanique, manual of botany. Leçons d'histoire, lessons of history (by analogy) Maître — danse, dancing-master. Professeur — droit, law professor.

(rapport de condition, de profession, noting condition, profession) Un homme — rên, an upstart. Un homme — lettres, a man of letters. Une femme — chambre, a lady's maid. Une femme — qualité, a woman of quality. Sa mère, personne — haute distinction, her mother, a lady of great distinction. St-B.

(rapport de dimension, de mesure, de distance, de valeur, noting dimension, measure, distance, value) Une maison — cinq étages, a house of five stories. Une pièce — dix francs, a piece of ten francs.

(par ellipse pour marquer l'excellence, elliptically to denote excellency) Le sage des sages, the wisest of the wise. Le saint des saints, the holiest of the holy. Le roi des rois, the king of kings. Vanité des vanités, vanity of vanities. L'Être des Êtres, the Being of Beings. Un rat des plus petits voyant un éléphant des plus gros, a rat of the smallest dimension seeing an elephant of the biggest. La Font.

(devant un adj., before an adj.) Rien — plus facile à comprendre, nothing more easy of comprehension. Dites oui sur-le-champ, ou rien — fait, say yes directly, or else there is nothing done.

(rapport entre une chose et le nom qui la désigne, noting connexion between a thing and the name which distinguishes it) La ville — Rouen, the town of Rouen. L'opéra — Robin des Bois, the opera of the Freyschutz.

(devant un pron., before a pron.) Mon frère m'a déjà parlé — vous, my brother has already spoken to me of you. Mery. O vous! — qui l'esprit suffirait pour se faire, oh you! whose wit would suffice to charm. Flor.

(marquant le rapport entre un adj. et le subst., le pron. et le verbe qui le déterminent, noting connexion between an adj. and the subst., a pron. and the verb which determines it) Il est natif — Paris, he is a native of Paris. Être plein — vin, to be full of wine. Il est digne d'éloge, he is to be eulogized. Humble — cœur, humble-minded. Ma maison est proche — la vôtre, my house is near yours. Être jaloux — quelqu'un, to be jealous of a person. Voilà le plus savant des trois frères, this is the most learned of the three brothers.

2 from. (marquant la séparation, l'extraction, le départ, noting separation, extraction, departure) D'où venez-vous? whence do you come, where do you come from? Je vous ai — ma chambre exilée en grandit, I scolded you and sent you from my room. V. Hug. Ce muet du danger se retire, that mute withdraws from the danger. Flor. Nous n'attendions rien — lui, we expected nothing from him. Sand. Reve-nons à ce que vous pourriez exiger — nous, let us see what you could require from us. Nod. — qui veaux-tu que j'accepte ce secours? — lui dont la fortune, from whom would you have me accept this succour? from you whose fortune. Nod.

(marquant un rapport d'origine, de cause, noting origin, cause) Étant — province, being a provincial. Muss. Des marchandises qui arrivent du Havre, goods which arrive from Havre. Sa lettre est datée — Paris, his letter is dated from Paris. Sans aucun secours — parents, without any succour from priest or relatives. Mich. Elle souffrit tant des maux des autres, she suffered so much from the miseries of others. Mich. Souffrir — la goutte, to suffer from the gout. Les paroles empruntent — celui qui les dit une portée extraordinaire, the words acquire from him who pronounces them an extraordinary import. St-B. Apprends — moi cette leçon, learn this lesson from me. La Font. Elle souffrait aussi — son isolement, she suffered also from her loneliness. Sand. Moirant — l'exil, dying from exile. V. Hug.

(marquant un rapport d'éloignement, de distance, noting separation, distance) Il marcha sur Londres — Windsor où il était, he marched upon London from Windsor where he was. Aug. Th. Du lieu — son débarquement il se rendit à D., from the spot where he landed he repaired to D. Aug. Th. Il revient invariablement — la mer à la rivière où il a pris naissance, he always returns from the sea to the river where he was born. Mich. Un pauvre philosophe errait — ville en ville, a poor philosopher wandered from town to town. Flor. Lorsque des nobles historiens du xiv^e siècle on tombe au barbare chroniqueur qui, when from the noble historians of the 14th century one falls upon the rude chronicler who. Mich. Ses ustouaches — son nez descendant jusque sur sa fraise, his mustachios descended from his nose down to his ruff. Flor. Elle la couvrait ainsi du regard des sentinelles, she thus protected her from the look of the sentinels. Lamart. Marquait tous ses pas — l'aube jusqu'au soir, counting his steps from morning till night. V. Hug. — l'indin des mers à l'indin des cieux, from the immensity of the seas to the immensity of the firmament. V. Hug. A cette époque il passa du cloître au monde, at this epoch he quitted the cloister for the world. St-B. Il arroisait tout du pècher à l'oseille, he watered every thing from the peach-tree to the sorrel. Flor.

(marquant le point de départ, noting the point of departure) Il vient d'en haut, he comes from above. Tomber du haut d'une tour, to fall from the top of a tower. Toiser quelqu'un — haut en bas, to eye a person from head to foot. Traiter quelqu'un — haut en bas, to treat a person with contempt. (by analogy) Il vient du côté — M., he comes from M. Je serai chez moi — cinq à six, I shall be at home from five till six. À partir — ce jour, from this day. Il allait — mal en pis, he got worse and worse. Nod. Il y a un enseignement mutuel des plus petits aux plus grands, mutual instruction extends from the smallest to the biggest. Mich.

3 with. (marquant un rapport d'instrument, de matière, de moyen, noting the instrument, the means) Le château auquel on fit — grandes réparations des pistoles de son excellence, the castle which they were repairing with the pistoles of his excellence. Le Sage. Il remplissait l'ouverture tout entière d'une gerbe — touffue — feuillage, it filled up the opening completely with green foliage. Lamart. D'une main elle abaissa les rameaux, — l'autre elle y blaisa le corps, with one hand she lowered the branches, with the other she laid the body upon them. Châl. — quel nouveau reproche veux-tu me tourmenter? with what new reproach are you going to worry me? Nod. Pour fasciner les yeux — ces bonnes gens — tant — magnificence, to fascinate these worthy people with so much splendour. Nod. Sa figure était — pleurs toute baignée, her face was bathed in tears. La Font. Ces calmes où l'on meurt — soit au milieu des eaux, these calms in which one may die of thirst in the midst of water. Mich. D'un cœur admirable, il, with praiseworthy courage, he. Mich. — ce récit le prince est attendri, the prince is moved with the tale. Flor. L'eau d'avoine chargée, the ass laden with oats. La Font. — son aile pendante arbrant sa convée, with its drooping wing protecting its young ones. Muss. Le commerce lui fournira — quoi acheter quelque esclave, trade will furnish him the means to buy a slave. B. de St-P.

(marquant une manière d'agir, ou d'être, noting a manner of acting, or being) Le cheval maqua du pied, glissa et tomba, the horse missed his footing, slipped and fell. Moss. — quel geste impérial elle nous a montré des sieges, with what haughty gesture she signed to us to sit. Sand. — quel front à ses yeux oserais-je m'offrir, how should I dare to appear before him. Rac. La mère — sa plus douce voix appelle le nourricier, the mother with its softest cry calls the father. Mich. — C'est donc vous, dit le premier d'un air menaçant, so it is you, said the first with a threatening look. Sand. L'espère en vous — toute mon âme, I trust in you with all my soul. Ab. Riant d'un œil et pleurant — l'autre, laughing with one eye and crying with the other. Moss. Quand l'animal piqua ce fut — tout son être, when the animal stung, it was with all its might. Mich. Pêle — consternation, pole with dismay. Mery. Parler d'abondance, to speak with fluency. La foule l'avait accompagnée chez elle — ses exclamations, the crowd had followed her home with vociferations.

Nod. Une félicité qui le fait pleurer — tendresse, a felicity which moves him to tears. La Font. Jetant — dépit son miroir sur la terre, casting with spite her looking-glass on the ground. Flor.

A n. (marquant un rapport de temps, d'époque, de durée, noting time, epoch, duration) Il partira — lundi en huit, he will start on Monday week.

(indiquant la manière d'une action, noting the manner of an action) Je marchai des pieds, des mains, surtout des mains, I walked on my feet and hands, and especially on my hands. Ab. Être — garde, to be on duty.

(marquant le motif, noting motive) — je forme il se loucha très-fort, he lauded himself very much on his shop. La Font. Tout dépend — l'habileté — l'artiste, it depends on the talent of the artist. Ph. Chas.

(marquant la direction, noting direction) Mettez-vous — ce côté-ci, — ce côté-là, place yourself on this side, on that side. Il regardait — tous côtés, he cast his looks on all sides. Il a été convenu — part et d'autre, it has been agreed on both sides. Je m'engage — mon côté, I undertake on my side. Ce pays était entouré — toutes parts, etc., this country was surrounded on all sides, etc. Flor.

(par ellipse, elliptically) On a trop écrit — l'Autriche, the Austria has been too much written on. Buff.

(devant la chose qui est le sujet d'une action, before a thing which is the subject of an action) Jouer — la harpe, du violon, to play on the harp, on the violin; jouer du piano, to play the piano.

(par ellipse des mots traités, conns, the words treatise, conns being understood) — l'usure, on usury.

5 to. (devant on inf., before an inf.) Voici le temps — respirer les roses, this is the moment to scent the roses. V. Hug. Dans l'empressement d'être utile, elle avait oublié, in her zeal to be useful, she had forgotten. B. de St-P. Il ne tiendra qu'à vous d'être aussi gras que moi, it is in your power to become as fat as I am. La Font.

La Font. Il chercha les moyens — passer la nuit, he sought the means of passing the night. B. de St-P. Surpris — réussir plus tôt qu'il ne s'y était attendu, surprised at succeeding sooner than he had expected. Merim.

Elle craignait d'écraser ou — blesser par ses regards la cigale, etc., she feared to crush or hurt the grasshopper by inadvertence. Ste-B. Pour devenir meilleur, ne suffit-il pas — vous voir et — vous entendre? to become better, does it not suffice to see you and to hear you? Sand. Qu'il est triste — vous voir avec ces principes politiques, how sad to see you with such political principles. Merim.

Il suffira — vous dire, suffice it to say.

(par ellipse, elliptically) Et Buquillons — perdre leurs outils, and the woodcutters contrive to lose their axes. La Font. Grenouilles aussitôt — sauter dans leurs grottes profondes, the frogs immediately leap into the water. La Font.

Il se retira tout penaud et nous — tira, he withdrew quite abashed, and we straightway set up a laugh. Ainsil dit le renard, et flatterer began to applaud. La Font.

6 in. (marquant le temps, noting time) Si je pouvais m'en charger d'un voyage, if I could make but one journey of it. Nod.

Si — ma vie je vous rappelle; puisse-je, if in the course of my life I ever take you back. May I. La Font. De petites fleurs inconnues — la saison émailleait la mousse, flowerets unknown in that season enamelled the sward. Nod. Je suis la victime — l'enfer — mon vivant, I am a victim of hell whilst living. Mery.

(marquant la manière, noting manner) Devisant — la sorte, talking in this way. Merim. Ne pensez pas que je l'eusse imprimée tout d'une venue, do not think I should have printed it all at once. Muss. Elle se guissa — façon que, she glided in such a way as to. Merim. Elle frappa deux fois des mains, she clapped her hands twice. Nod.

— la mode la plus nouvelle, in the newest fashion. Cette lettre écrite — la main du roi, this letter in the king's handwriting. Muss. Ainsil parlait C. — sa voix dolente, thus spoke C. in his drawing way. L'homme — Paris qui distingue le mieux une reliure, the best man in Paris at distinguishing a binding. Nod.

Il y a des choses impossibles d'elles-mêmes, there are things which are in themselves impossible. La Rochef.

7 by. (marquant la manière d'être, noting the manner of being) G. est Normand — race, et Breton d'aspect, though G. is a Norman town, it has the aspect of a town of Brittany. Mich. Combien d'âmes touchées da ciel, how many souls worked upon by heaven. Mass.

Je le tenais sans cesse en action, marchant avec lui — jour et nuit, I kept him constantly in motion walking with him by day and night. B. de St-P. — sa nature elle (la mer) est généralement régulière, by nature it is generally regular. Mich. Se faire aimer — quelqu'un, to make one's self loved by a person. Les voiles blanches légèrement rosées — l'aurore, the white sails slightly tinged by the dawn. Mich.

(marquant la distance, noting distance) La lune est éloignée — la terre — 96,000 lieues, the moon is distant from the earth by 96,000 leagues.

(complement d'un comparatif, complement of a comparative) Plus grand — toute la tête, taller by a head. Plus large — trois mètres, larger by three metres.

(par ellipse, elliptically) Il ne marchait que — nuit, he walked but by night. Il n'était roi que — nom, he was king only by name.

8 at. (marquant la situation, noting situation) La lingère du coin vous dira peut-être cela, the milliner at the corner may perhaps tell you. Muss. Être — bal, — noces, to be at a ball, at a wedding. Ce loup donc étant — frairie, that wolf then being at a feast. La Font.

En échange — quoi vous rendez cette bagatelle, in exchange for which you will return this trinket. Muss.

(marquant la cause, le motif, noting cause, reason) Voilà donc — quoi j'ai pleuré, — quoi j'ai été heureux! is that what I cried for, what made me happy! Lamart.

9 for. (marquant le temps, etc., noting time, etc.) Diffère au moins d'un jour ce funeste départ, postpone for one day at least this dreadful departure. Bail. Puisse-t-il — longtemps on ne pourrait travailler, thinking that for a long time it would be impossible to work. Mich. L'hiver le plus rigoureux qu'on ait vu — longtemps, the severest winter that had been seen for many years. Flor.

(devant un infinitif, before an infinitive) Sa passion d'éduquer, — morigéner, her love for schooling, for lecturing. Ste-B.

10 among. Qui — nous a souffert et ne le connaît pas? who among us when he suffered has not been relieved by him? Flor.

11 out of. — cent qui partaient, il n'en revint pas un, out of a hundred that started, not one came back. B. de St-P.

— tous les animaux l'homme a le plus de pente, out of all animals man has the greatest propensity. La Font.

12 some. (dans un sens partitif, in a partitive sense) La tanche rebulée, the trout at length, having turned up his nose at touch, he met with some gudgeons. La Font. Il y aurait du danger pour eux, there would be some danger for them. Nod. Manglez — ce gigot, eat some of this leg of mutton. Veueves comme des reines sur leur trône, clad like queens upon their thrones. Mery. Perdre — sa beauté, to lose some of one's beauty. L'épléphant dit des choses pareilles, the elephant said similar things. La Font. Personne n'a jamais douté qu'il y eût des hommes qui, nobody ever doubted but there were men who. Nod. Il n'y a point — Socrate ici, there is no Socrates here. Mery.

13 as. (marquant le rapport des personnes et des choses, noting connexion between persons and things) L'année 1778 fut la plus difficile — sa vie d'écrivain, the year 1778 was the hardest in his life as a writer. Ste-B.

(devant une épithète, before an epithet) Traiter quelqu'un d'imbecille, to treat a person as a fool.

14 (remplaçant le pron. poss., used instead of the possessive pron.) Je changerai — style en changeant — matière, I will change my style in changing my subject. Lamart. Leur ennemi changea — note, their foe changed his tactics. La Font. Père! change — route! swim! change your direction! V. Hug. Il changeait dessein comme on change d'habit, he changed his mind as one changes one's coat. Muss.

15 than. (complement d'un comparatif, complement of a comparative) Plus — cent hommes furent tués, more than a hundred men were killed. Mich. Il n'y a — vertu que — talent, he has more virtue than talent.

16 (explicite) Si j'étais — vous, if I were you. A propos — cette dame — bas, talking of that lady. Mery.

17 (explicit) anc. — par le roi, la loi, la justice, loc. adv. in the king's name, in the name of the law, of justice.

18 (for the prep. de, in the adv. loc. DE NOUVEAU, DE PÈRES, DE LOIN, TOUT DE BOIS, TOUT DE LONG, OE QUOI, DE HAUT, N'APRÈS, etc., See the words governed).

DE, day, sm. (Lat. talus) 1 (à jouer) die, pl. dice. Jouer aux —, to play at dice. — s pipes, egged dice. Un coup de — fig. a east of the dice; || fig. a throw. — fig. A vous le —, it is your throw. Avoir le —, to have to throw. fig. Tenir le — de la conversation, to engross all the conversation. 2 arch. die.

DE, sm. (Lat. digitalis) thimble. — à coudre, thimble. — de tailleur, ring thimble, open thimble. — d'or, d'acier, gold, steel thimble.

DEBACHER, day-bà-shay, va. to untill (une voiture, a cart).

DEBACCLAGE, day-bà-klozh, sm. (d'un port, of a harbour) clearing.

DEBACLE, day-bàkl', sf. 1 (de la place, of ice) break-up, breaking up. 2 fig. breaking up, overthrow, ruin. 3 (debâcle) clearing (of a harbour).

DEBACLER, day-bà-kloy, va. 1 to clear (un port, des bateaux, a port, boats). 2 pop. to unbar, to unfasten (une porte, une fenêtre, a door, a window).

DEBACLER, vn. to break up. La rivière a débâclé cette nuit, the ice broke up in the river last night.

DEBACLEUR, day-bà-klohr, sm. officer superintending the clearing of a port.

DEBALLAGE, day-bal-azh, sm. unpacking.

DEBALLÉ, ppa. of NEBALLER, fem. — E, adjective, unpacked.

DEBALLER, day-bal-ay, va. to unpack (des marchandises, goods), absol. On déballe et d'abord le lion s'écie, the unpacking takes place, and first the lion exclaims. La Font.

A LA DEBANDADE, day-bàng-dad, adv. loc. helter-skelter, in confusion.

Fuir à la —, to fly helter-skelter. S'en aller à la —, to straggle, to leave the ranks. fig. fam. Mettre tout à la —, to turn every thing upside down. Laisser tout à la —, to leave every thing at sixes and sevens. (by analogy) Tout va à la —, every thing is in confusion. Vivre à la —, to lead a disorderly life.

DÉBANDÉ, ppa. of DÉBANDER, fem. — E., adjective. 1 unbound. Plais — E., unbound. 2 uncocked. Pistolet — E., uncocked pistol. 3 disbanded. Troupes — E., disbanded troops.

DÉBANQUEMENT, day-bàng-màng, sm. (des troupes, of troops) disbanding.

DÉBANDER, day-bàng-day, ra. 1 to unbind (une plaie, a wound, a sore). — les yeux, to uncover the eyes. 2 (délendre) to unbind, to uncock. — un cock, an pistol, to unbind a bow, to uncock a pistol.

SE DÉBANDER, rpr. 1 (être débarrassé de ses bandes) to come unbound. 2 (s'ôter un bandeau) to remove a bandage. Se — les yeux, to remove a bandage from one's eyes. 3 (se déliender) to slacken, to become uncocked. Son fusil se débanda, his gun got uncocked. fig. Se — l'esprit, to refresh one's mind, to take some relaxation. fig. Le temps se débande, the weather is getting milder. 4 (d'une troupe, of troops) to disband. 5 (se séparer d'une troupe) to leave the ranks.

DÉBANQUER, day-bàng-kay, ra. (jeu) to break the bank.

DÉBAPTISER, day-bat-zay, ra. 1 to deprive of the advantages of baptism. 2 fig. fam. to change the name of a person. C'est par erreur qu'on vous a débaptisé, your name was changed through a mistake.

SE DÉBAPTISER, rpr. (changer de nom) to change one's name, to take an alias.

DÉBARBOUILLE, ppa. of DÉBARBOUILLER, fem. — E., adjective. Enfant — E., child whose face has been washed. (by extension) En ce moment le ciel — E. de nuages, at that moment the sky cleared of the clouds. Th. Gaut.

DÉBARBOUILLER, day-bar-booyay, ra. — on enfant, to wash a child's face.

SE DÉBARBOUILLER, rpr. 1 to wash one's face. Allez vous —, go and wash your face. 2 fig. to extricate one's self. Débarbouillez-vous comme vous pourrez, get out of that as you best can.

DÉBARBOUILLOIR, day-bar-booyay, sm. towel.

DÉBARCADE, day-bar-bat-day, sm. 1 land, landing-place. 2 railway terminus.

DÉBARDAGE, day-bar-dazh, sm. unloading.

DÉBARDER, day-bar-day, ra. 1 to unload (des cotrets, faggots; un train de bois flûte, a raft of floating wood). 2 woods and forests. — le bois, to clear off the wood.

DÉBARQUEUR, day-bar-dubr, sm. lumpster, lighterman.

DÉBARQUE, ppa. of DÉBARQUER, fem. — E., adjective. 1 landed. (by extension) Une famille anglaise — E. depuis quelques jours à l'hôtel, an English family that had been set down at the hotel a few days before. Ab. 2 (substantif) Un nouveau —, a provincial just arrived in town, a raw countryman.

DÉBARQUEMENT, day-bark-màng, sm. 1 (des marchandises, des passagers, of goods, of passengers) landing, disembarkment. Troupes de —, landing forces. 2 (action de descendre à terre) landing, disembarking. Il fut arrêté à son —, he was arrested on landing, on his landing.

DÉBARQUER, day-bar-kay, ra. to land, to disembark, to unship (des marchandises, goods).

DÉBARQUER, ra. to land, to disembark. Nous devons — à Hayre, we are to land at Hayre. (by extension) Quant aux étrangers qui débarquent chez nous, as for the strangers who put up at our house.

Ab. DÉBARQUER, adv. loc. on landing. On l'attendait au —, they were waiting for his landing.

DÉBARRASSER, day-bah-rab, sm. ridance, disencumbrance. Le voilà parti, quel — ! he is gone at last, what a ridance !

DÉBARRASSE, ppa. of DÉBARRASSER, fem. — E., rid, freed. — E. de sa coiffure et de ses papiers, rid of her head-dress and of his papers. fig. Le cocher — d'un voisin importun dit, the coachman rid of a troublesome neighbour said. Mery. P. — de l'apparition vengeresse, P. rid of the avenging apparition. Th. Gaut. — de toute préoccupation, free from all care. Th. Gaut.

DÉBARRASSER, day-bah-rab-say, ra. 1 to clear, to clear up les rues, les chemins, une chambre, un bureau, les streets, the roads, a room, an office). fig. Il a bien débarrassé ses affaires, he has put his affairs in good order. 2 (délivrer d'une gêne) to rid, to free, to deliver, to disencumber. Elle vint me — de mon manteau, she came and rid me of my cloak. Le sommeil le débarrassait sans doute d'une importune pensée, sleep no doubt freed him from annoying thoughts. Balz. Il faut le — de ses créanciers, we must rid him of his creditors.

SE DÉBARRASSER, rpr. (se délivrer d'un embarras, d'une gêne) to get clear (of), to get rid (of), to shake off, to extricate one's self. Je me débarrassai de ce que je tenais à la main, I got rid of what I held in my hand. fig. C'est un homme insupportable dont on ne peut se —, he is an insupportable man that one cannot get rid of. Décidé que j'étais à me — du poids de la vie, decided as I was to free myself from the burden of life. Chat. Se — d'un fâcheux souvenir, to get rid of a troublesome remembrance. Sa tête commença à se —, his head is beginning to be relieved.

DÉBARRER, day-bah-ray, ra. (from barre) to unbar (une porte, une fenêtre, a door, a window).

DÉBAT, day-lah, sm. 1 discussion, contention, contest, debate. Ette en — de quelque chose, to contend about a thing. S. témoin de ce petit — domestique, S. witness to this little domestic quarrel. Sand. Il fut reconnu sans aucun — roi d'Angleterre, he was acknowledged without any contestation, king of England. Ang. Th. Yider, apaiser un —, to settle a contest. Les — s de la Chambre des Pairs, the debates of the House of Lords. (by extension) Il a du sucomber, sans —, à quelque bonne fièvre cérébrale, he must have been carried off, without resistance, by some violent brain-fever. Ab. — de compte, content about an article on account. 2 crim. law. trial, pleadings, debate.

DÉBATER, day-bat-lay, ra. (from bāt) to unaddle (un mulet, a mule).

DÉBATTRE, day-batr, va. confer, like BATTRE, to argue, to debate, to discuss, to dispute. — un compte, les articles d'un compte, to canvass on account, the articles of an account. — un prix, to dispute about a price. — une question, to debate a question. absol. Après avoir longtemps débattu ensemble, ils sont tombés d'accord, after having disputed a long time, they are agreed.

SE DÉBATTRE, rpr. 1 to strive, to struggle, to strive. La baraque où Guignol fait se — Polichinelle avec le chat et le commissaire, the booth in which Guignol makes Punch dispute with the cat and the commissary. Th. Gaut. P. se débat si vaillamment, qu'il reste maître du champ de bataille, P. struggles so valiantly that he remains master of the field of battle. Th. Gaut. Se — comme un furieux, to struggle like a madman. Il s'est débattu longtemps contre les soldats qui, he had a long struggle with the soldiers who. Ce peuple se débattait dans des flots de chaleur et de poussière, this people struggling in the midst of the heat and dust. Saint. fig. Ils se débattaient dans les angoisses de la douleur, they are writhing in the pangs of grief. Chat. Je me débattaïs contre la terreur dont j'étais accablé, I strove against the terror with which I was overwhelmed. Nod. 2 (être débattu) to be discussed, debated, argued. Si l'affaire devait se — en famille, if the discussion of this affair were not to go out of the family. Ab. La se débattaient les contestations de province à province, there were debated disputes of province against province. Aug. Th.

DÉBATTU, day-bat-tu, ppa. of DÉBATTRE, fem. — E., adjective. discussed, debated. Affaire bien — E., affair carefully considered. Un grand intérêt judiciaire — dans les deux chambres, a matter of great judicial interest debated in the two Chambers. Villem. Le comté de V. — tonjours — entre les deux couronnes, the county of V. always disputed by the two kings. Aug. Th.

DÉBAUCHÉ, day-bô-h, sf. (from déboucher) 1 debauchery. Faire —, to reel. Faire la —, to eat and drink copiously. 2 (in a good sense) (action) jollification. 3 (de mœurs) debauchery, lewdness, dissoluteness. 4 fig. — d'esprit, d'imagination, play of wit, of the imagination, riot of the imagination.

DÉBAUCHER, ppa. of DÉBAUCHER, fem. — E., adjective. Un homme —, a rake. 2 substantif, rake.

DÉBAUCHER, day-bô-shay, ra. (Lat. debacchari) 1 to debauch. 2 (détourner de ses devoirs) to entice, to lead away (from one's duties). On essaya de — les troupes, attempts were made to decoy the troops. 3 (by extension) — un ouvrier son travail, to take a workman from his work. 4 (hyperb.) to take away from one's work. Un de ces jours j'irai vous —, one of these days I will come and carry you off.

SE DÉBAUCHER, rpr. 1 to be debauched, to follow wrong, ill courses. 2 (hyperb.) to amuse one's self.

DÉBAUCHEUR, day-bô-shubr, sm. fem. DEBAUCHEUR, debaucher.

DÉBIT, day-bay, sm. (Lat. debet) fin. debt, balance-due. Le — d'un compte, the debt of an account. Ette constitue en —, to be placed to the debit. Enregistrier en —, to place to the debit.

DÉBIFFE, ppa. of DÉBIFIER, fem. — E., debilitated, weakened. Ette tout —, to be out of sorts. Estomac —, weakened stomach. Visage —, face impaired by excess.

DÉBIFIER, day-be-fay, ra. to debilitate, to weaken.

DÉBILE, day-beel, adv. mf. (Lat. debilis) 1 deble, weak, feeble, weakly. Un enfant —, a weakly child. Avoir l'estomac —, les jambes —, to have a weak stomach, weak legs. Un corps —, a weak body. (by extension) Une — vue, a weak sight. fig. Avoir l'esprit —, to be weak-minded, feeble-minded. — si non d'âme, do moins de caractère, weak if not in soul, at least in character. S-B. 2 bot. weak, feeble, sickly.

DÉBILEMENT, day-beel-màng, adv. weakly, feebly, faintly.

DÉBILITANT, day-be-le-tàng, ppr. of DÉBILITER, 4 adj. m. fem. — E., med. debilitating. 2 (substantif) debilitant.

DÉBILITATION, day-be-le-tah-syong, sf. weakening, enfeebling, debilitation. — de l'estomac, debilitation of the stomach.

DÉBILITE, day-be-le-tay, sf. (Lat. debilitas) debility, feebleness, weakness (des jambes, of the legs, of the stomach). La — de la vue, weakness of sight. (by extension) La — de la vieillesse, the weakness of old age. fig. La — de l'esprit, weakness of mind.

DÉBILITER, day-be-le-tay, ra. to debilitate, to weaken, to enfeeble (la santé, the health).

DÉBINE, day-been, sf. Lat. debere) pop. straits, needy circumstances. Etre dans la —, to be in straits. Etre dans la —, to be reduced to straits, to be put to difficulties.

DÉBINER, day-be-nay, va. 1 agri. to dress. 2 pop. (dénigrer) to run down, to disparage.

DÉBIT, day-bee, sm. (Lat. debitum) 1 sole. Adh qu'il fut plus frais et de meilleur sale. 2 fig. it might be fresher and more salable. La Font. Rien n'est coars, ni —, nothing could be got rid of, or sold. La Font. Une marchandise d'un grand —, goods that sell off fast. Cette marchandise n'est pas de —, those goods are not salable. 2 (droit de vente) license to sell. Obtenir un — de tabac, to obtain a tobacco license. Tenir un — de tabac, to keep a tobaccoist's shop. 3 (lieu où l'on vend) shop, retail shop. 4 fig. (manière de s'écouler) delivery, utterance, elocution. Le charme de son —, the charm of his delivery. La perfection du — deviendrait un défaut si, perfection in elocution would become a defect if. Villem. — oratoire, oratorical elocution. 5 tech. (de planches, of planks) cutting up. 6 hydr. flow, discharge. 7 com. débit, debit-side.

DÉBITANT, day-be-tant, ppr. of DÉBITER. sm. fem. — E. dealer, retail dealer, retailer. Un — de tabac, a tobaccoist.

DÉBITÉ, ppa. of DÉBITER. fem. — E. adjective. 1 solid, sold off. La seule boisson — E. était de l'eau, the only drink sold was water. Th. Gaut. La première édition était presque — E., the first edition was almost sold. Volt. 2 fig. delivered, uttered.

DÉBITER, day-be-tay, (from débit) va. 1 to sell, to retail, to sell by retail. Un des marchandises, to sell goods in retail. absol. C'est une boutique où l'on débite beaucoup, it is a shop where they sell a great deal. ppr. fig. Il débite bien ses marchandises, he has a good delivery, he makes his words tell. 2 fig. (reciter) to deliver, to utter, to pronounce (un rôle, des vers, un discours, un compliment, a part, lines, a speech, a compliment). absol. Cet acteur débite froidement, that actor has an unimpassioned delivery. 3 (raconter, répandre) to relate, to tell, to report, to utter. Dites à ceux qui vous ont débité ces sonnettes de venir voir, tell those who have reported to you such idle stories to come and see. Sand. Tous les conteurs qu'on ouïs débitait, all the tales we were told. Sand. 4 mus. to utter in recitative. 5 tech. to cut up (du bois, du marbre, wood, marble). 6 hydr. to give, to discharge. 7 com. to debit (with).

se DÉBITER, ppr. 1 (se vendre) to be sold, to sell. E. fameux mémoire dont il se débitait 6,000 exemplaires et plus, that famous memoir more than 6,000 copies of which were sold. St-B. 2 (se couper, se détailler) to saw, to cut up. Ce bois se débite bien en planches, this wood cuts up into planks very well. 3 (être raconté, se répéter) to be related, told, reported. N'allez pas croire tout ce qui se débite sur son compte, do not believe all that is reported about him.

DÉBITEUR, day-be-tubr, sm. fem. DÉBITRICE, fig. (in a bad sense) retailer, teller, spreader.

DÉBITEUR, sm. fem. DÉBITRICE, debtor. Vous êtes mon —, wa debiteur, you are in my debt.

DÉBLAI, day-blai, sm. 1 (enlèvement des terres) clearing, cutting, digging. 2 (by extension) (les terres elles-mêmes) rubbish, earth. 3 fig. (débaras) riddance.

DÉBLÈVEMENT, day-blai-màng, sm. cutting, digging.

DÉBLATER, day-hish-tay-ray, vn. (Lat. debateré) conj. like cōven, (parler en mal contre quelqu'un) to rail at. Il ne cesse de — contre moi, he is continually railing at me.

DÉBLAYER, day-blai-ray, ra. conj. like PAYER, 4 (enlever) to clear away, to remove. Il faudra — ces décombres, this rubbish must be cleared away. 2 (débarasser, dégager) to clear. Un 2 débâyé les ruines du palais, et on a trouvé un trésor dans les fondations, the palace has been cleared of the ruins and a treasure has been found in the foundations. — one maison, une salle, une rue, to clear a house, a room, a street. fig. — le terrain, to prepare the way.

DÉBLOCAGE, day-blo-kazh, sm. print. changing, rectifying turned letters.

DÉBLOCUS, day-blo-kûs, sm. mil. raising a blockade.

DÉBLOQUER, day-blo-kay, va. 1 mil. to raise the blockade of. 2 print. to change, to rectify turned letters.

DÉBOÏTÉ, day-bwâ, sm. 1 after taste. 2 fig. (tristesse, dégoût) drawback. 3 fig. mortification, disappointment.

DÉBOISEMENT, day-bwâ-màng, sm. clearing of forests.

DÉBOÏSEI, day-bwâ-zay, ra. to clear of forests, of woods. — un pays, to clear of wood a country.

DÉBOÏTEMENT, day-bwat-màng, sm. distocation, putting out of joint, luxation.

DÉBOÏTER, day-bwa-tay, va. 1 (des os, of bones) to dislocate, to put out of joint, to luxate. 2 (by extension) (des ouvrages de menuiserie, of joinery) to warp, to disjoint.

se DÉBOÏTER, ppr. 1 to be dislocated, disjointed, put out of joint. 2 (se disjointre) to warp.

DÉBONDÉ, ppa. of DÉBONDER. fem. — E. unopened. Tonneau —, cask unbunged.

DÉBONDER, day-bong-day, va. 1 to unbung. — un tonneau, to unbung a cask. 2 to open the sluice of. — un étang, to open the sluice of a pond.

DÉBONDER, vn. 1 (s'écouler) to gush forth, to burst forth. 2 fig. to flow, to gush forth.

se DÉBONDER, ppr. to burst forth, to gush forth.

DÉBONNEMENT, day-bong-don-ray, va. to unbung, to take out the bung of (un tonneau, a cask).

DÉBONNAIRE, day-bon-nayr, adj. mf. 1 absol. (pieux) meek. Louis le —, Louis the Deboutier. 2 absol. (bon, doux) good-natured, easy-tempered. Il était homme tout —, he was a very good-natured man.

Bar. Tout — que je suis, je ne laisse pas d'avoir de la fermeté à l'occasion, easy-tempered as I am, I can show firmness when necessary. Le Sage. 3 ironic. complying, soft. Humeur —, easy temper. Un mari —, a complaisant husband.

DÉBONNAIREMENT, day-bo-nayr-màng, adv. absol. graciously, kindly.

DÉBONNAIRETE, day-bo-nayr-tay, sf. absol. kindness, complaisance.

DÉBORDE, ppa. of DÉBORDER. fem. — E. adjective. 1 overflowed. Rivière —, a river that overflows. Le fleuve est —, the river overflows. 2 mil. overflowed. La brigade — commençant à perdre du terrain, the brigade overflowed began to lose ground. Thiers. J'étais —, toute résistance devenait inutile, I was outnumbered, all resistance became useless. Abt. — Etre — par les événements, to be left behind by events. 3 fig. (déréglement) dissolute.

DÉBORDEMENT, day-bor-dub-màng, sm. (from déborder) 1 (d'un fleuve, etc.) of a river, etc. overflow, overflowing. 2 (by extension) Un violent — de bile, a violent overflow of bile. 3 fig. (irruption) invasion, irruption, inroad. Le — des barbares dans l'empire romain, the irruption of the barbarians into the Roman empire. Tous ces — de peuples païers dans l'empire de Charlemagne, the rush of nations never detested from the path traced out by D. Th. Gaut. 4 fig. (irruption) flood, outburst, springing up. Un effroyable — de mille sectes bizarres, a frightful springing up of a thousand different sects. Boss. — de paroles, d'injures, de pamphlets, flood, shower of words, of abuse, of pamphlets. C'était un — de plaintes, there was an outburst of complaints. 5 fig. (des passions, of passions) outburst, outburst. 6 fig. (déréglement) dissoluteness, debauchery.

DÉBORDER, day-bor-day, vn. (from border) 1 to overflow, to run over. Les pluies ont fait — l'étang, the rains have caused the pond to overflow. (by extension) Le vase va —, the vase is going to run over. fig. Le cœur de ce peuple ne débordait pas encore, the hearts of that people were not yet too full. Lamart. Cette âme débordait de sentiment, that soul overflowed with sentiment. Lamart. La colère déborda de son cœur, his heart is bursting with anger. Les défauts qui y circulent et qui souvent y débordent, the defects with which it abounds and which are frequently carried to excess. St-B. 2 (by extension) to burst forth. La foule déborda et fit invasion, the crowd burst forth and overran the place. Sand. fig. L'Orient semble vouloir — sur l'Occident, the East seems ready to overspread the West. Th. Gaut. 3 fig. (se manifester) to find a vent, to be manifest. Une vérité qui débordait dans leurs paroles, a truth which found vent in their words. Villem. Un plaisir qui débordait dans ses moindres gestes, a pleasure which manifested itself in his slightest gestures. Balz. 4 (passer le bord, les bords) to lap over, to project (beyond), to jut out (beyond). La doublure de votre gilet débordé, the lining of your waistcoat bags. 5 naut. to sheer off, to get clear.

DÉBORDER, va. 1 (dépasser le bord) to extend beyond, to project, to beyond, to jut out (beyond). 2 mil. to outflank. 3 (dépasser) to go beyond, to leave behind. Au moment où la cavalcade a commencé à — la pointe du bois, at the moment when the cavalcade had left behind it the angle of the wood. Nod. 4 fig. Les événements nous débordent, the march of events leaves us behind. 4 (ôter la bordure) to unborder.

se DÉBORDER, ppr. 1 to overflow. La rivière se déborde, the river floods its banks. fig. Ma colère, dit Dieu, se débordé sur vous, my wrath, says the Lord, shall break forth upon you. Lamart. (by analogy) La bile se débordé, the bile overflows. 2 fig. (faire irruption) to burst forth. 3 fig. fam. Se — va injured, in imprecations, to break forth in abuse, in imprecations. 4 (d'une bordure, of a lace) to lose its border. 5 naut. to sheer off, to get clear.

DÉBOSSER, day-bo-say, va. naut. (from bosser) to unstopper (un cable, a cable).

DÉBÔTÉ, ppa. of DÉBOTTER. fem. — B. with boots off. (substantif.) Au —, Se débotter, sm.

DÉBOTTER, day-bo-tay, ra. (from botter) to unboot, to pull off the boots of. Se faire —, to have one's boots taken off.

se DÉBOTTER, ppr. to pull, to take one's boots off.

DÉBOTTER, sm. 1 taking the boots off. Au — du roi, at the time when the king's boots are taken off. 2 (by extension) Il descendait de voiture et il me regarda soudain, he alighted from his carriage, and received me immediately afterwards.

DÉBOUCHÉ, day-bo-shay, sm. 1 outlet, issue. Au — de la route, je traversai de grandesarges, at the end of the road, I crossed large fields of barley. Au 2 fig. opening, market. Ouvrir des — va to commerce, to open markets for trade. 3 (by analogy) (le lieu) market. 4 fig. (expédient) shift, expedient, means.

DÉBOUCHÈMENT, day-boosh-màng, sm. 1 déboisement, 2 (d'un débile, of a pith) outlet, issue. 3 fig. opening, market.

DÉBOUCHER, day-bo-shay, va. 1 to uncork (une bouteille, a bottle). 2 (by extension) to open, to clear (une porte, un passage, a door, a passage).

DÉBOUCHER, vn. 1 to emerge (from), to pass (out of). 2 (d'un cours d'eau, of a stream) to fall (into), to disembody, to debouch. (by analogy) Un porche immense sous lequel débouchaient les marches d'un grand escalier, an immense porch which led to the steps of a wide staircase underneath. Lamart.

DEBOUCLE, ppa. of DEBOUCLER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 unbuttoned. 2 uncurled. Des cheveux — s, uncurled hair.

DEBOUCLE, day-bou-klay, ra. 4 (from boucle) to unbutton (on ceinturon, a belt). 2 — des cheveux, une perruque, to uncurl hair, a wig.

SE DEBOUCLE, vpr. 1 to get, to come unbuttoned. 2 Ses cheveux se sont débouclés, her hair has got uncurled, has fallen out of curl.

DEBOUILLI, day-bou-ye, ppa. of DÉBOUILLER, fem. — E, adjective. tech. Soie — e, silk boiled to try the dye. 2 sm. tech. trying the dye.

DEBOUILLIR, day-bou-yeer, ra. to try the dye by boiling.

DEBOUCQUEMENT, day-book-mang, sm. (Sp. boca) 1 naut. disemboquement. 2 (action de débouquer) disemboquing, disemboquement.

DEBOUQUER, day-bou-kay, rn. naut. to disemboque.

DÉBOURAGE, day-door-bazh, sm. metal, trunking, washing.

DEBOURER, day-door-bay, ra. 1 to cleanse (au élang, un fossé, a pond, a ditch). 2 — une voiture, to extricate a carriage from the mire. Faire — des poissons, See DÉBOURER.

DEBOURGEISER, day-door-zhwa-zay, ra. (from bourgeois) — un enfant de famille, to make a young man of quality lose his city manners. Regn.

DEBOURNER, day-bou-ray, va. 1 — un fusil, to draw the wadding of a gun, to worm a gun. 2 — une pipe, to unslop a pipe. 3 fig. — un jeune homme, to polish a young man. 4 — un cheval, to break in a horse.

DÉBOURS, day-door, sm. (from déboursier) absol. See DÉBOURSE, disbursements. Ce système d'entraînait aucun, that system required no outlay. Ab.

DEBOURSE, ppa. of DÉBOURSER, fem. — E, adjective. Argent —, money laid out. 2 sm. disbursement, outlay. Il ne réclame que son —, he only asks for what he has been out of pocket. Vous n'avez que les —s à payer pour tous vos contrats, you will have only to pay the disbursements for all your contracts. Balz.

DEBOUSSER, day-door-say, va. (from bourse) to disburse, to lay out, to expend. Vous n'avez rien à —, you will have nothing to pay. Je n'entends pas qu'on débourse un penny pour ma liberté, I will not have a penny paid down for my ransom. Ab. Je n'ai jamais regretté ce que je débourse pour P., I have never regretted what I lay out for P. Ab.

DEBOUT, dui-bou, adv. 1 upright, standing, on end, subsisting. Mettre un tonneau —, to set a cask on end. Une chose qui se tient —, a thing standing upon itself. C'est le seul arbre qui soit — à l'ienues, la route, it is the only tree that remains standing within a circle of to leagues. Méry. Être —, être encore —, to be still standing. fig. Ce vain empire est encore —, that old empire is still subsisting. 2 (des personnes, of persons) standing, upright. — à mon côté, je reconnus le vieux prêtre, standing beside me, I recognized the old priest. Nod. Se tenir —, to stand upright, to stand, to stand up. Laisser quelqu'un —, to suffer a person to remain standing. Être —, to be up. Dès la pointe du jour, tout le monde est —, at day-break, every body is up, is stirring. Il va mieux, il est —, he is better, he is up. (hyperb.) Dormir —, tout —, not to be able to keep one's eyes open. fig. fam. Tamber —, to fall upon one's legs. 3 (des animaux, of animals) upright, upon the hind legs. La marmotte mange —, the dormouse eats standing up. Buff. 4 ven. Mettre une bête —, to start the game. 5 naut. Être — à la lame, au courant, au vent, to be, to have the head to the sea, to the current, to wind. Avoir vent —, to have the contrary wind. 6 exerce. Passer —, to pass without examination.

DEBOUT, interj. loc. get up! rise! Allons, —! et partons, now then, get up, and let us be off.

DEBOUTER, day-bou-ray, va. law. (from buter) to nonsuit. On l'a débouté de sa demande, he was nonsuited.

DEBOUTONNE, ppa. of DÉBOUTONNER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 unbuttoned. fam. Rire à ventre —, to laugh ready to split one's sides. 2 fenc. Fleuret —, foil with the button taken off.

DEBOUTONNER, day-bou-to-nay, va. (from bouton) 1 to unbutton (son habit, ses gêtres, one's coat, one's gaiters). 2 — un fleuret, to take off the button of a foil.

SE DÉBOUTONNER, vpr. 1 to unbutton one's clothes. (by extension) Mon habit s'était déboutonné, my coat had come unbuttoned. 2 fig. to unbosom one's self. Alors il s'est déboutonné et m'a parlé à cœur ouvert, then he unbuttoned himself and spoke unreservedly. Mérim.

DÉBRAILLE, ppa. of DÉBRAILLER, fem. — E, adjective. Un homme tout —, a man with his shirt all uncovered; — a man with his shirt and waistcoat all unbuttoned.

SE DÉBRAILLER, vpr. 1 to unbutton one's breast. (débiller is sometimes used) Ces habitudes de charlatan avaient débarrassé tout son costume, those mountebank habits had given a rakish appearance to his whole dress. Lamart.

DÉBROUILLER, day-bruh-dou-yy, va. trict. to save the turch.

SE DÉBROUILLER, vpr. trict. to save the turch.

DÉBRIDENENT, day-brid-mang, sm. 1 (d'un cheval, of a horse) unbridling. 2 surg. opening by making an incision.

DÉBRIDER, day-bre-day, vn. 1 (from bride) to unbridle (un cheval, a horse). 2 absol. (de cavaliers, of horsemen) to stop, to halt. Faire dix lieues sans —, to go ten leagues at a stretch. 3 fig. to despatch, to hurry through. Il eut débrié bientôt son binaire, he had soon despatched his binary. absol. Voyez comme il débrié, see how he is hurrying through his work. fig. Sacs —, at a stretch, without stopping. 4 surg. to open by making an incision. — une plaie, to open a sore.

DEBRIS, day-bree, sm. 1 (fragment) fragments, remains. Les débris du mobilier d'un vase, the fragments of a piece of furniture, of a vase. Des débris de coquillage, les végétaux, fragments of shells, vegetable remains. Il se sauva à la nage, en s'aider d'un — de navire, he saved himself by swimming with the help of a fragment of a ship. Le vent emporta le toit de la tourelle et couvrit le jardin de ses —, the wind carried off the roof of the turret and strewn the garden with the fragments. 2 (by extension) (d'un repas, d'un pôte, etc., of a repast, of a pie, etc.) remains. Elle venait recueillir pour ses repas les — de nos dejeuners, she came to receive for her meals the remains of our breakfasts. Nod. 3 fig. wrecks, remains. Il réunît les — de sa fortune, he collected together the wrecks of his fortune. absol. Je cours après tous mes —, car il faut laisser du pain à tous mes enfants, I am getting together the wrecks of my fortune, for I must leave a bit of bread to my children. Beaum. Le père de B., le dernier — de la fameuse société hollandaise, the father of B., the last surviving member of the famous Dutch society. Balz. Les glorieux — de la grande armée, the glorious remains of the great army. 4 absol. (dégât) havoc. A. de montons et de boucs fit un vaste —, A. made an immense havoc of sheep and goats. La Font.

DÉBROCHÉ, ppa. of DÉBROCHER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 unstitched. Un livre tout —, a book all unstitched. 2 culin. taken from the spit.

DÉBROCHER, day-bro-shay, va. to unstitch (un livre, un volume, a book, a volume).

SE DÉBROCHER, vpr. to come unstitched. DÉBROCHER, va. culin. to take from the spit.

DÉBROUILLÉ, ppa. of DÉBROUILLER, fem. — E, adjective. unravelled.

DÉBROUILLER, day-bro-yyay, va. 1 (démêler) to unravel, to set to rights (du fil, de la soie, thread, silk). — des papiers, to set papers to rights. 2 fig. (éclaircir) to clear up. — une question, to clear up a question. J'ai une idée confuse de vous avoir vu, lui dit-elle; aidez-moi à la —, I have a confused idea of having seen you, said she to him; pray, assist my recollection. Le Sage. Il voit de ce qui était obscur, he takes pleasure in making clear what was obscure. St-B. Je ne suis pas assez fort pour — la chose, I am not clever enough to explain the matter. Th. Gaut. Il ne sait comment — ses contradictions, he does not know how to reconcile his whimsical ideas. St-B. — une intrigue, to unfold, to lay open an intrigue.

SE DÉBROUILLER, vpr. to clear up. Le chaos ne commence à se — que, order begins to clear up chaos only when. Buff.

DÉBROTIR, day-brô-teer, va. tech. 1 rough-polish (une glace, un diamant, an marble, a glass, a diamond, a marble). DÉBRUTISSEMENT, day-brû-tees-mang, sm. tech. rough-polishing.

DÉBUCHÉ, sm. See DÉBOUCHER, sm.

DEBUCHER, day-bû-shay, vn. hunt. to start, to break cover.

DÉBUCHER, va. hunt. to start, to dislodge, to unharbour. — le cerf, to unharbour the stag.

DÉBUCHER, sm. 1 hunt. breaking cover. 2 (fanfare) to sound full cry.

DÉBUSQUER, day-bûsk-mang, sm. mil. driving out, ousting, turning out.

DÉBUSQUER, day-bûsk-ay, ra. Ger busch) 1 mil. to drive out. — l'ennemi, to drive out the enemy. L'armée anglaise débusta les insurgés, the English army drove out the insurgents. Ang. Th. 2 fig. to oust, to turn out.

DÉBUT, day-bû, sm. (from but) 1 (au jeu) lead, first cast, throw, first stroke. Faire un beau —, to begin well. 2 fig. (by analogy) beginning, outset. Au — de la maladie, de la guerre, at the beginning of the malady, of the war. Le — d'un poème, d'un discours, the beginning of a poem, of a discourse. Dès le —, from the very outset, beginning. 3 fig. (premier ouvrage) first work, production. 4 fig. (premier pas) first appearance, first steps, coming out. 5 fig. (d'un acteur, of an actor) debut, first appearance. Un rôle de —, a part for debutants. Il vient de terminer ses —s, he has just terminated his debuts. fig. Il n'est pas, il n'en est pas à son —, he is an old stager.

DÉBUTANT, day-bû-tang, ppr. of DÉBUTER, sm. En — par un coup de maître, by coming out with a mastery stroke. Sand. sm. fem. — E, debutant, new performer, beginner.

DÉBUTÉ, ppa. of DÉBUTER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 Achevé, c'est fort bien — on, it is well begun. 2 (jeu) Bonlie — e, bowl hit, knocked away from the jack.

DÉBUTER, day-bû-tay, vn. (from but) 1 (au jeu) to lead, to play first, to have the first throw, the first stroke. — par un beau coup, to make a lucky stroke in beginning. 2 fig. (by analogy) to begin. 1.

s'était levée et débûtaît par des pas graves et lentement mesurés. I. had risen and began with slow and measured steps. Nod. Vous auriez fait exactement de — par là, you would have done wisely to begin with that. Nod. Il débute par une invocation à Vénus, he opens with an invocation to Venus. 3 fig. (faire ses premiers pas dans une carrière, etc.) to take one's first steps, to make one's first appearance. — dans le monde, to set out in the world. C'est par ce drame qu'il débute, that drama was his first production. Dans le crime il suffit qu'une fois on débute, one step in crime is sufficient. Boil. C'était là bien mal —, that was a very bad beginning. 4 (d'un acteur, of an actor) to come out, to make one's first appearance.

DEBUTER, ra. (jeu) — nne boucle, to drive a bowl away from the jack.

DECA, day-kah, affr. (Gr.) ten times. See DÉCALITRE, DÉCARIÈRE, etc.

DEÇÀ, diuh-sah, prep. (par opposition à NELÀ, opposed to NELÀ) on this side of. — la montagne, on parle français, on this side of the mountain, French is spoken. — et delà la rivière les habitants et le langage différent beaucoup, the inhabitants and language on this side of the river differ widely from those on the other side.

DEÇÀ, adv. on this side. fam. Jambe —, jambe delà, astraddle, legs thrown about.

EN DEÇÀ DE, prep. loc. on this side of. DE ÇÀ, PAR DEÇÀ, EN DEÇÀ, adv. loc. (the two first locutions are obsolet.) on this side. Sa maison est située en —, his house lies on this side. Tournez un peu plus en —, turn a little more on this side.

DEÇÀ ET DELÀ, adv. loc. here and there, hither and thither, to and fro, on all sides.

DECACHETER, ppa. of DÉCACHETER, fem. — E. adjective. unsealed.

DECACHETER, day-kash-tay, ra. (from cachet) JE DECACHETER; JE DECACHETERAI; to unseal, to break the seal of. — une lettre, on paquet, to break open the seal of a letter, of a parcel.

SE DECACHETER, rpr. (être décacheté) to come unsealed.

DÉCADAIRE, day-kah-dayr, adj. mf. 4 (qui a rapport aux décades) of decades, decadal. 2 (qui a lieu chaque décade) decadal.

DÉCADE, day-kad, sf. (Gr.) 1 Fr. revol. decade. 2 (parties d'un ouvrage) Les —s de Tite-Live, Livy's decades.

DÉCADENCE, day-kah-dang, sf. (Lat. cadere) 1 decay. 2 fig. decay, decline, declension. La — des mœurs, des lettres, des arts, de l'industrie, the decay of manners, of letters, of arts, of industry. Une famille qui tombe en —, a family falling into decay. Sa santé va en —, his health is declining. La — d'un empire, the decline of an empire. Nous vivons à une époque de —, we live in an age of declension.

DECADI, day-kah-dee, sm. Fr. revol. decadi.

DÉCAÈDRE, day-kah-aydr', adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 min. decadredra 2 sm. decadredron.

DECAGONE, day-kah-gon, sm. (Gr.) 1 decagon. 2 adjective. decagonal, decagonal.

DÉCAGRAMME, day-kah-gram, sm. (Gr.) metrol. decagram.

DECAISSE, day-kay-say, ra. 1 to unpack, to take out of the case (des marchandises, goods). 2 horti. to take out of its box (un arbuste, an orange, a shrub, an orange-tree).

DÉCALITRE, day-kah-litr', sm. (Gr.) metrol. decaliter.

DÉCALOGUE, day-kah-log, sm. (Gr.) Dealogue, the ten commandments. Les tables, les préceptes du —, the tables, the precepts of the Decalogue.

DECALQUE, day-kalk, sm. See CALQUE.

DECALQUER, day-kal-kay, ra. to counterdraw, to countertrace.

DECAMERON, day-kah-may-rong, sm. (Gr.) decameron. Le — de Boccace, Boccaccio's Decameron.

DECAMETRE, day-kah-maytr', sm. (Gr.) metrol. decameter.

DECAMENTER, day-kangp-mang, sm. decampment.

DECAMPER, day-kang-pay, ra. 1 to decamp. L'armée ennemie decampa pendant la nuit, the enemy's army decamped during the night. 2 fig. fam. to decamp, to scamper away, to run off, to make off. Le bruit du cor l'éveille, il decampe au plus vite, the sound of horns wakes him, he is off in a trice. Flor.

DECAN, day-kang, sm. geog. Decan.

DECANAT, day-kah-nah, sm. (Lat. decanus) 1 (dignité) deanship, deanship. 2 (exercice) deanship.

DECANTATION, day-kang-tah-syong, sf. chem. decantation, decanting, pouring off.

DECANTER, day-kang-tay, va. chem. to decant, to pour off gently.

DECAPAGE, day-kah-pazh, sm. tech. pickling, dipping, cleaning, scouring, scraping.

DECAPER, day-kah-pay, ra. (from cape) to clean, to scrape.

DECAPER, ra. tant. to clear a cape.

DECAPITATION, day-kah-pe-tah-syong, sf. decapitation, beheading.

DECAPITER, day-kah-pe-tay, ra. to decapitate, to behead. Il lit — comme traites tous les hommes pris les armes à la main, he couped to be beheaded as traitors all the men taken with arms in their hands. Aug. Th.

DECAPODES, day-kah-pod, sm. pl. (Gr.) zool. decapoda.

DECARBURATION, day-kar-bū-rab-syong, sf. metal. freeing from carbon.

DECARBONER, day-kar-bū-ray, ra. to free from carbon.

SE DECARBONER, rpr. to be freed from carbon.

DECARRELÉ, ppa. of DÉCARRELER, fem. — E. adjective. Chambre — E. unparapet room.

DÉCARRELER, day-kar-lay, ra. (from carre, to take up a brick floor).

DECASTÈRE, day-kas-tayr, sm. metrol. decastere, 13.4 cubic yards.

DECASYLLABE, day-kah-sil-lab, adj. mf. decasyllabic.

DECATTI, day-kah-tee, ppa. of DÉCATIN, fem. — E. adjective. tech. Drap —, cloth with the gloss taken off.

DECATIR, day-kah-teer, ra. tech. to sponge, to take off the gloss.

DECATISSAGE, day-kah-te-sah, sm. tech. sponging, dumping, un glossing.

DECATISSEUR, day-kah-te-suhr, sm. tech. sponger.

DÉCAVE, ppa. of DÉCAVER, fem. — E. (jeu) Être —, to be out.

DECAVER, day-kah-vay, ra. (jeu) to gain the pool of, to win the stake of.

SE DECAVER, rpr. to lose one's pool, one's stake.

DÉCEDE, ppa. of DÉCEDERE, fem. — E. 1 deceased. 2 (substantif.) deceased. Les —s, the deceased.

DECEDERE, day-say-day, ra. (Lat. decedere) to die, to depart this life, to expire.

DECELEMENT, day-sel-mang, sm. disclosure, betrayal.

DÉCELEI, day-say, ra. (from celer) JE DECELE; NOUS DECELERONS; ILS DECELERONT, to disclose, to betray, to reveal.

— un crime, to disclose a crime. Mes frères, dit-il, ne me decelez pas, comrades said he, do not betray me. La Font. Choses qui chet d'autres causent decele la misère qu'enferment les vices, things that in others would have betrayed the poverty engendered by vices. Balz. Sa conduite decele une âme basse, his conduct betrays a mean soul. Quoique les lèvres déceussent la herte que, etc., though the lips indicated that pride which, etc. Balz.

SE DÉCELER, rpr. to betray one's self. Il s'est décelé involontairement, he betrayed himself involuntarily. Son véritable caractère n'a pas tardé à se —, his true character was not long before it betrayed itself. Deux sources cachées se déceient par les eaux qu'elles laissent filtrer entre les rochers, two invisible springs betray themselves by the waters which filter between the rocks. Chât.

DECEMBRE, day-saghr, sm. (Lat. december) December. Le mois de —, the month of December. Le 24 —, the 24th of December.

DECEMENT, day-sah-mang, adv. 1 decently. 2 (avec bienséance) decently, decorously.

DECEVIR, day-saym-vir, sm. Rom. hist. decemvir.

DECEVIRAL, day-saym-ve-ral, adj. m. fem. — E. decemviral.

DECEVIRAT, day-saym-ve-ral, sm. 1 (dignité) decemvirate. 2 (durée) decemvirate.

DÉCEUCE, day-sang, sf. (Lat. decetia) (bonneté extérieure) decency. 2 (pudeur) decency, propriety, decorum.

Avoir un maintien plein de —, to have a very modest bearing. Elle est toujours vêtue avec —, she always wears a becoming dress.

DECENNAL, day-sayn-nal, adj. m. fem. — E. pl. m. decennaux (Lat. decennialis) decennial.

DECENT, day-sang, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. decens) 1 (convenable) decent, proper. Être en habit —, to have a decent coat on. 2 decent, modest. Avoir un maintien —, to have a modest bearing.

DECENTRALISATION, day-sang-trah-le-zah-syong, sf. decentralization.

DECENTRALISER, day-sang-trah-le-zay, ra. to decentralize.

DECEPTION, day-sap-syong, sf. (tromperie) deception, deceit. 2 (mécompte) deception, disappointment.

DECEICLER, day-sayr-klay, ra. tech. to unhook.

DÉCERNER, day-sayr-nay, ra. (Lat. decernere) 1 (des bonnes, des récompenses, of honors, rewards) to award (to), to bestow (on), to decree (to). — le triomphe, to ordain a triumph. La ville de D. lui a décerné une couronne civique, the town of D. awarded to him a civic crown. Lamart. (by extension) Les fonctions que decernait on imposait le veto public, those functions that the veto public decreed or imposed. Nod. Les guerres civiles ne decernent que des maux, civil wars have naught to bestow but pains. Lamart. 2 (by extension) des prix, of prizes) to award (to). fig. — la palme à quelqu'un, to award the palm to a person. 3 (des peines, of penalties) to award. — un mandat d'amener, to issue out a warrant.

DÉCÈS, day-sayr, sm. (Lat. decessus) decease, death, demise. Acte de —, death-certificate. Constater le — d'une personne, to state the death of a person; to make a declaration of the death of a person.

DECEVABLE, days-vahl', adj. mf. deceivable.

DECEVANT, days-vang, ppr. of DÉCEVOIR, adj. m. fem. — E. deceptive, deceitful. Espoir —, fallacious hope. Paroles —es, deceitful words. Specieux flatteur —, cheering or deceitful shadow. Nod. Les —es magies du clair-obscur, the magic illusions of the clear-obscure. Balz.

DÉCEVOIR, days-voar, ra. (Lat. decipere) conj. JE DECEVOIS, to deceive, to beguile, to delude. Leurs propres pensées les decervoient, their own thoughts deceived them. Ross.

DÉCHAÎNÉ, ppa. of DÉCHAÎNER, fem. — E. adj. unchained, wild, broken loose. La chien —, a dog unchained. fig. Le bruit des vents —, the roaring of the raging winds. Les passions sont —es, the passions have broken loose. fig. fam. C'est un diable —, he is a devil broken loose.

DÉCHAÎNEMENT, day-shay-màng, sm. 1 fig. (emportement) unbridling, wildness, fury, outburst, rage. Le — des vents, de la tempête, the fury of the winds of the tempest. Le — des passions, the unbridling of the passions. 2 fig. (attaques violentes) exasperation. Le — contre lui était universel, the exasperation against him was universal. Être dans un perpétuel — contre quelqu'un, to be in a state of perpetual exasperation against a person.

DÉCHAINER, day-shay-nay, va. 1 to unchain, to let loose, to turn loose (un chien, a dog). 2 fig. (exciter, soulever) to let loose, to exasperate. Il avait déchaîné toute sa cabale contre moi, he had let loose his whole cabal against me. La tempête déchaine ses légions, the tempest let loose his legions. Balz.

SE DÉCHAINER, vpr. 1 to get unchained, to break loose. Voilà un chien qui s'est déchaîné, there is a dog that has broken loose. fig. Les vents s'étaient déchaînés contre nous, the winds had rentled their fury upon us. 2 fig. (parler avec violence) to unchain, to fly out. Tous les auteurs tant bons que mauvais se déchaînaient contre lui, all the authors, both good and bad invighed against him. Le Sage. Je me suis déchaîné contre lui, I flew out against him. Le Sage.

DÉCHANTER, day-shang-tay, va. to change one's note. Il a en bien —, things fell far short of what he expected. fam. Je le ferai —, I will make him lower his tone.

DÉCHAPERONNÉ, ppa. of DÉCHAPERONNER, fem. —, e, adjectiv. mason. Mur —, wall with the coping in ruins.

DÉCHAPERONNER, day-shap-on-nay, va. 1 hawk. — un oiseau, to unhood a bird. 2 mason. — un mur, to take the coping off a wall.

DÉCHARGE, day-sharz, sf. 1 (des marchandises, etc., of goods, etc.) unloading, unloading. Navire en —, a ship that is being unloaded. 2 (acte) discharge, release. Donner quittance et —, to give a receipt and discharge. Porter une somme en —, to credit with a sum. 3 (soulagement) relief, discharge. Ce fut une grande — pour ses parents, that was a great relief to his parents. Le — de la conscience, the easing, the discharge of one's conscience. 4 crim. law. defence. Témoin à —, witness for the prisoner. Des témoins déposit à la — du prévenu, que, witnesses deposited in favour of the accused that. 5 (action de tirer à la fois plusieurs armes à feu) discharge. Une — de mousqueterie, a discharge of musketry. — d'artillerie, a discharge of artillery. (by extension) Une — de coups de bâton, a shower of blows with a stick, a good cudgelling. (by analogy) — électrique, electric discharge. 6 (écoulement des eaux d'un bassin) discharge. Tuyau de —, waste-water pipe, delivery pipe, discharge-tube. 7 (ouverture) outlet. 8 (bassin, réservoir) reservoir. 9 fig. La — des humeurs, the discharge of the humours. 10 (lieu) lumber-room. Pièce de —, lumber-room. 11 arch. discharge. 12 print. Papier de —, proof paper.

DÉCHARGEMENT, day-sharz-màng, sm. unloading, unloading (d'un navire, d'un wagon, of a ship, of a wagon).

DÉCHARGEUR, day-shar-zhwar, sm. 1 (endroit) outfall, reservoir. 2 (tuyau) discharge-tube. 3 tech. elbow-beam.

DÉCHARGER, day-shar-zhaz, vo. NOUS DÉCHARGEONS; IL DÉCHARGE, 1 to unload (une voiture, un bateau, un cheval, a carriage, a load, a horse). (by extension) — du blé, des brins, des balles, to unload corn, bricks, bales. 2 absol. to unload. 3 (débarasser d'un poids) to discharge, to relieve. — un plancher, une poutre, to discharge a floor, a beam. (by analogy) Ils pensent qu'on les vent —, la chèvre de son lait, le mouton de sa laine, they each think they are going to be relieved, the goat of her milk, the sheep of its wool. La Font. fig. fam. — le plancher, to withdraw. Une prise de tabac décharge le cerveau, a pinch of snuff relieves the head. 4 fig. (diminuer les charges) to exonerate. 5 fig. — son cœur, to unburden one's heart.

— sa conscience, to discharge one's conscience. 6 law. fig. — un accusé, to discharge a prisoner. — d'accusation, to discharge of an accusation. 7 (dispenser, débarrasser) to discharge, to release. On l'a déchargé de cette tutelle, he has been discharged of that guardianship. 8 (tenir quitte) to release, to discharge. — quelqu'un d'une dette, d'un dépôt, d'une amende, to release a person from a debt, a deposit, a fine. Il est déchargé de toute responsabilité, he is discharged of all responsibility. — un compte, to strike out an account. — la feuille d'un messenger, to put a discharge to a way-bill. 9 (d'une arme à feu, of fire-arms) to discharge, to fire off, to let off. — un fusil, to fire off a gun. — un pistolet sur quelqu'un, to fire a pistol at a person. 10 (by extension) (asséner) to deal. — un coup de poing, de bâton, de sabre, to deal a blow with one's fist, with a stick, with a sabre. fig. — sa bile, sa colère sur quelqu'un, to vent one's spleen, one's anger on a person. 11 (d'une arme à feu, of fire-arms) (ôter la charge) to unload. 12 gard. — un arbre, to lop a tree. 13 print. — une forme, to rub off the ink from a form. 14 naut. — les voiles, to fill the sails, after they had lain aback.

DÉCHARGER, en. (de l'encre, of ink) to run.

SE DÉCHARGER, vpr. 1 to unload one's self. Se — d'un fardeau, to relieve one's self from a burden. 2 fig. Pour se — d'un tel soin, notre homme, our man, to release himself from such trouble. La Font. fig. Se — sur quelqu'un un soin d'une affaire, to leave the care of a thing to a person. fig. Se — d'une faute sur quelqu'un, to throw the blame of a fault upon a person. 3 (des eaux, of waters) to empty a person, to discharge itself, to fall into. 4 (des couleurs, of colours) to fade, to change.

DÉCHARGEUR, day-shar-zhbr, sm. lumper, porter, heaver, whipper. Les — du port, the porters of the wharf.

DÉCHARNÉ, ppa. of DÉCHARNER, fem. —, e, adjectiv. fleshless, emaciated, lank, thin, spare, lean, gaunt, meagre. Un corps —, an emaciated body. Visage —, thin face. Main —, wasted hand. fig. Un style —, an impoverished style.

DÉCHARNER, day-shar-nay, va. 1 to strip the flesh off. — un cadavre, to strip the flesh off a dead body. 2 (hyperb.) to make lank. La maladie l'a tout décharné, illness has made a skeleton of him. 3 fig. (du style, of style) to impoverish.

DÉCHASSER, day-shass-say, sm. dance. to slide. Chassez et déchassez, slide to the right, and then to the left.

DÉCHAUSER, day-sho-may, va. agri. — une terre, to break up fallow land, to plough up the stubble, to fallow.

DÉCHAUSSE, ppa. of DÉCHAUSER, fem. —, e, adjectiv. barefooted. Carmes — s on déchaux, barefooted Carmelites.

DÉCHAUSSEMENT, day-shds-màng, sm. 1 agri. baring, laying bare. 2 (d'une dent, of a tooth) lancing the gum, shrinking of the gums.

DÉCHAUSER, day-sho-say, va. 1 to pull the shoes, the boots off. — un enfant, to pull a child's shoes and stockings off. fig. fam. N'être pas digne de — quelqu'un, to be much below a person. 2 — un mur, une construction, to lay bare the foundations of a wall, of a construction. Les pluies d'hiver ont déchassé la voie, the winter rains have broken up the road. Th. Gaut. fig. — un arbre, to lay bare the roof of a tree. fig. — une dent, to clear the gum.

SE DÉCHAUSER, vpr. 1 to take off one's shoes and stockings. Je m'étais chaussé et déchaussé six ou huit fois, I had put on my shoes and taken them off again six or eight times. Th. Gaut. 2 (des dents, of the teeth) to become, to get bare.

DÉCHAUSOIR, day-sho-swâr, sm. surg. stream, lancet for the gums.

DÉCHAUX, day-sho, adj. m. barefooted, barefoot. Je m'assis au milieu de Turcs et de Franks échaux, I sat down in the midst of Turks and Franks, who like me had taken their shoes off. Th. Gaut. Carmes —. See DÉCHAUSÉ.

DÉCHÉANCE, day-shay-angs, sf. 1 law. forfeiture. A peine de —, under pain of forfeiture. 2 (perte de la couronne) deposition, dethronement. Presque toutes les sections avaient voté la — du roi, almost all the sections had voted for the deposition of the king. Lawrat. 3 (décadence) fall, decay. La — de l'homme par le péché, the fall of man by sin.

DÉCHET, day-shay, sm. 1 (perte) waste, loss. (by extension) Le — de bien des espérances, the disappointment of many hopes. Si-B. 2 (résidu) waste.

DÉCHEVELÉ, ppa. of DÉCHEVELER, fem. —, e, adjectiv. dishevelled.

DÉCHEVELER, day-shuh-lay, va. IL DÉCHEVELÉ, IL DÉCHEVELERA, to dishevel. SE DÉCHEVELER, vpr. 1 to dishevel one's hair. 2 recipr. to dishevel each other's hair.

DÉCHEVÊTRER, day-shuh-vay-tray, va. agri. to take the halter off.

DÉCHEVILLER, day-shuh-ve-vay, va. tech. (from cheviller) to unpeg, to unpin. SE DÉCHEVILLER, vpr. to come unpegged, unpinned.

DÉCHIFFRABLE, day-she-frabl', adj. mf. decipherable. (by extension) Son écriture n'est pas —, his writing is not legible.

DÉCHIFFREMENT, day-shifr-màng, sm. (action, résultat) deciphering. Le — d'une dépêche, the deciphering of a despatch. Le — d'un vieux manuscrit, the deciphering of an old manuscript.

DÉCHIFFRER, day-she-fray, va. 1 to decipher. (by extension) (lire) to decipher, to make out. Une écriture impossible à —, a writing impossible to be deciphered, to be made out. 3 (by extension) (d'un morceau de musique, of a piece of music) to read off. 4 fig. (démêler) to unravel, to see through. — une affaire, une intrigue, to unravel an affair, an intrigue. (in a bad sense) — quelqu'un to see through a person.

SE DÉCHIFFRER, vpr. to be deciphered, to be made out.

DÉCHIFFREUR, day-she-fruhr, sm. 1 decipherer. 2 (by extension) fam. Un — de manuscrits, a decipherer of manuscripts.

DÉCHINETÉ, ppa. of DÉCHINETER, fem. —, e, adjectiv. 1 cut up, slashed, jagged. 2 bot. Femelles —, egg-jagged leaves.

DÉCHINETER, day-shik-tay, va. IL DÉCHINETÉ, IL DÉCHINETERA, 1 to cut up, to slash. — la peau, la chair, to slash the skin, the flesh. — une étoffe, to cut up a stuff. IL ramassa un morceau de bois et le déchiqueta avec son couteau, he picked up a piece of wood, and whittled it with his knife. Mery. 2 (décapcer) to pink. — la robe d'une robe, to pink the border of a gown.

DÉCHIQUEUR, day-shik-tuhr, sm. obsol. cutter, slasher.

DÉCHIRER, day-she-razh, sm. breaking up. Bois de —, old ship-timber.

DÉCHIRANT, day-she-ràng, ppr. of DÉCHIRER, adj. mf. fem. —, fig. harrowing, heart-rending. Dans la scène — de la tempête, in the harrowing scene of the tempest. Sic-B. Des cris — s., heart-rending cries.

DÉCHIRE, ppa. of déchirer, fem. — e., adjective. 1 rent, torn, ragged, in tatters.

Un vêtement —, a torn garment. Être —, tout —, to be all in tatters. fig. On souffre de le voir toujours arriver l'oreille — e., it is painful to see him arrive continually worried in wordy warfare.

Sic-B. fig. fem. Cette femme, cette fille n'est pas trop — e., n'est pas déjà si — e., that woman, that girl is not so very bad looking. 2 (d'un bateau, of a boat) ripped up. 3 fig. torn, rent. Un pays — par les factieux, a country rent by factions.

4 fig. stung. Être — de remords, to be stung with remorse. 5 fig. (d'un terrain, of land) jagged. Les côtes — es de la Sicile, the jagged coasts of Sicily. Mich.

DÉCHIREMENT, day-sheer-mang, sm. 4 (action) tearing, rending, laceration. Le — des muscles, des fibres, the laceration of the muscles, of the fibres. 2 fig. (douleur) pain. Éprouver des — s d'entrailles, to feel excruciating pains in the bowels. — de cœur, anguish of heart. 3 fig. (discordes) intestine commotion, broil. L. (rôles de ces — s pour reconquérir B. profited by those intestine commotions to make a fresh conquest of B. Lamart.

4 arg. laceration.

DÉCHIRER, day-she-ray, ra. 1 to tear, to rend, to lacerate, to tear to pieces. — one letter, to tear up a letter. — ses vêtements, to rend one's garments, to tear one's clothes. Tel le lion, après avoir déchiré un troupeau de moutons, thus the lion, after having torn to pieces a flock of sheep. Chât. On lui déchira la peau à coups de fouet, his skin was cut up with lashes of the whip. — la cartouche, to bite the cartridge. — un bateau, to break up a boat. (by extension) Le vent déchire les nuages, the wind breaks up the clouds. Chât. Un éclair éblouissant déchira l'ciel, a dazzling flash of lightning ran along the sky. Noli. 2 fig. to rend. — Cela me déchire les entrailles, that rends my bowels. Cette toux me déchire la poitrine, this cough tears my lungs to pieces. — l'oreille, les oreilles, to split the ear. Les instruments que l'Asie a inventés pour — les oreilles des hommes et des dieux, the instruments that Asia has invented to split the ears of Gods and men. Mèry. 3 fig. (émouvoir) to harrow, to torture. Ce spectacle me déchirait l'âme, this sight quite rent my heart. Votre lettre m'a déchiré le cœur, your letter has quite cut me up, filled me with anguish. Les remords le déchiraient, he was stung with remorse. 4 fig. (des factions, of factions) to tear, to rend, to distract. 5 fig. (dire du mal) to traduce, to slander, to malign, to backbite. Il y déchirait impitoyablement une bonne famille, he mercilessly pulled to pieces a respectable family. Le Sage. Il loue en face et déchire en arrière, he praises you to your face and abuses you behind your back. — quelqu'un à belles dents, to abuse a person outrageously.

SE DÉCHIRER, rpr. 1 to tear one's self. Se — la main, to tear one's hand. Le malheureux lion se déchire lui-même, the unhappy lion tears himself. La Font. 2 recipr. to tear each other. Ces deux chiens se déchirent, those two dogs tear each other. 3 (être déchiré) to be torn. Les nuées se déchirent sous l'effort du vent, the violence of the wind parted the clouds. Balz. Sa robe s'était déchirée, her dress had been torn. A cette vue je sentis que mon cœur se déchirait, at this sight I felt my heart rent in twain. 4 recipr. fig. to tear, to pull each other to pieces, to revile, to abuse each other. Les hommes de parti se déchirent entre eux, party men abuse each other. Ces bonnes âmes se déchiraient les uns les autres, those good souls were pulling each other to pieces.

DÉCHIREUR, day-she-rur, sm. tearer, render, ripper.

DÉCHIREUR, day-she-rur, sf. 1 tear, rend. (by extension) La d'un nuage, the opening in a cloud. Th. Gaut. 2 arg. laceration.

DÉCHOIR, day-shwâr, ra. irreg. JE DÉCHOIS, TU DÉCHOIS, IL DÉCHOÏT, NOUS DÉCHOÏTONS, VOUS DÉCHOÏTEZ, ILS DÉCHOÏENT; JE DÉCHOÏS; JE DÉCHOÏRAI; JE DÉCHOÏRAIS; QUE JE DÉCHOÏSE, QUE TU DÉCHOÏSES; QUE JE DÉCHOÏSSE, 1 to fall (from), to decline (in). — de son rang, de sa réputation, de son crédit, to fall from one's rank, to decline in one's reputation, credit. Ea peu de temps tu vas — de ta renommée, in a short time you will lose your renown. Bar. — de ses espérances, to be disappointed in one's hopes. 2 (diminuer) appointed in one's hopes. La pitié du ciel en déchoit de beaucoup, that greatly diminished the stag's pittance.

La Font. Ses facultés intellectuelles commencèrent à —, his intellectual faculties begin to decay. Sa réputation, sa fortune, sa faveur commencèrent à —, his reputation, fortune, favour begins to decline. Il vieillit sans —, he grows old without any declining of his faculties.

DÉCHOÏR, day-shwâr, ra. naut. See DÉ-ÉCHOÏR.

DÉCHU, day-shû, ppa. of déchoir, fem. — e., adjective. fullen. Être — d'un droit, d'un privilège, to forfeit a right, a privilege. Souverain —, fullen sovereign. Ange —, fullen angel. — de ses espérances, disappointed in his hopes. Balz. (substantif.) L'ange du blasphème est de tous les — s le plus audacieux, the angel of blasphemy is of all the fallen ones the most audacious. Mass.

DÉCI, day-sée, préfix to the names of French weights and measures indicating the tenth part.

DÉCIARE, day-syahr, sm. metrol. deciare, 1/100 square yards.

DÉCIDE, ppa. of décider, fem. — e., adjective. 1 decided. Les deux partis étaient bien — s à ne rien céder, both parties were set upon giving way in nothing. Sand. 2 (fixe, arrêté) decided, settled. C'est une chose — e., it is a settled affair. 3 (terminé, tranché) settled. 4 (résolu) resolute, decided. C'est un homme —, he is a bold man. Caractère —, resolute character. (by analogy) Air —, confident look, look of decision. Ton —, tone of decision. 5 (non équivoque) decided. Combattre sans avantage —, to fight without any decided advantage.

DÉCIDER, day-se-day-mang, adr. 1 decidedly. 2 absol. —, je n'irai pas, positively, I will not go. —, il est fou, he is actually mad.

DÉCIDER, day-se-day, ra. (Lat. decidere) 1 to decide, to determine. Ce serait peut-être à moi — lequel est le plus triste de, it is perhaps I who should decide which is the saddest of. Sic-B. Un cas de conscience que l'abbé de S. pouvait seul —, a case of conscience that the abbe de S. alone could decide. Balz. C'est maintenant l'artillerie qui décide tout dans une bataille, it is artillery that now decides every thing in a battle. 2 (terminer, trancher) to decide, to settle. — un différend, une querelle par un combat, to decide a quarrel by a fight. 3 (arrêter, déterminer) to decide, to rule. Que devons-nous faire? décider, what are we to do? décider. On a décidé que l'on partirait demain, it has been agreed that we should set out to-morrow. 4 (déterminer quelqu'un à faire quelq. chose) to determine, to induce, to persuade. Je demandais à T. ce qui le décidait à se lever de si bonne heure, I asked T. what induced him to rise so early. Nod. J'ai eu bien de la peine à le — à le faire, I had a great deal of trouble in persuading him to do it. La crainte des grands oiseaux les décidait à dormir vingt ou trente ensemble, fear of large birds induces them to sleep twenty or thirty together. Mich. Ce motif m'a décidé vous écrire, this motive induced me I write to you.

DÉCIDER, vn. 1 to decide. C'est or. homme qui décide de tout, sur tout, à tort et à travers, he is a man who gives random decisions on every thing. On décide volontiers en faveur du mérite, one willingly decides in favour of merit. 2 (régler, fixer) to decide on. Je bargois que C. avait décidé de faire le pedre, the citizen had C. had resolved to hang Balz. D. décide du sort d'une monarchie, D. determines the fate of a monarchy. Lamart. Le sort en décidera, fate shall decide it. C'est la loi qui décidera entre nous, the law shall judge between us. Ce jour qui allait — du sort de la moitié des habitants, that day which was to determine the fate of half the inhabitants. Chât.

SE DÉCIDER, rpr. 1 to be decided, settled. Chez ce peuple barbare, tout se décide par la force, with that barbarous people, club-law alone rules. 2 se fixer, se régler) to be decided, determined. Votre sort va se —, your fate is about to be determined. 3 (prendre un parti) to decide, to determine, to resolve. Les gens de chez nous ne se décident pas vite, folks in making up their minds. G. Sand. Vous vous êtes décidé trop légèrement, you have taken too hastily a resolution. Vous êtes bien loin à vous —, you are very long in coming to a decision. M. s'était décidé à emprunter une somme considérable, M. had resolved to borrow a considerable sum. Sand. Se — pour quelque chose, pour quelque chose, to declare for, to decide in favour of a person, of a thing. La victoire s'était enfin décidée pour nous, victory at length decided in our favour.

DÉCIDU, day-se-dû, adj. m. fem. — e., bol. deciduous.

DÉCIGRAMME, day-se-gram, sm. metrol. decigram.

DÉCILITRE, day-se-litr, sm. metrol. deciliter.

DÉCILLER, day-se-lyar, ra. See DÉ-ILLER.

DÉCIMABLE, day-se-mabl, adj. mf. tiltable.

DÉCIMAL, day-se-mal, adj. m. fem. — e., 1 arith. decimal. Fractions — es, decimal fractions, decimals. Calcul —, decimal arithmetic. Système —, decimal system. 2 se, sf. decimal.

DÉCIMATEUR, day-se-mah-tubr, sm. tilth-owner.

DÉCIMATION, day-se-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) hist. decimation. De cette — universelle seraient exceptées, from this general decimation would be excepted. Aug. Th.

DÉCINE, day-seem, sm. (Lat. decimus) tenth, (tith, decime penny). — de guerre, war-tax.

DÉCIME, ppa. of décimer, fem. — e., 1 Regiment —, decimated regiment. 2 fig. decimated, destroyed. La population — e. par l'épidémie, the population decimated by the epidemic. (by extension) Ils tombent lentement — s par le feu qui les enveloppe, they fall slowly mowed down by the firing that surrounds them. Lamart. La révolution — e. dans sa route, the revolution thinned in its march. Lamart.

DÉCIMER, day-se-may, ra. 1 to decimate. (by extension) La decimation décima nos soldats, decimation decimated our soldiers. Lamart. 2 fig. (d'une maladie, etc., of a disease, etc.) to sweep, to carry off. L'ivrognerie, le vice, la malpropreté y déciment la vie par coupes réglées, drunkenness, vice, dirt, there mow down their victims by lens and hundreds. Ph. Chas. (by extension) La mort et le temps ont en vain décimé tes amis de vingt ans, death and time have in vain decimated your friends of twenty years' standing. Lamart. fig. Dieu fit souffrir dans l'air l'esprit qui nous décime, God caused to be breathed in the air the spirit that decimates us. Lamart. Ils décimèrent leur faible péçale, afin de songer ma déresse, they dipped into their little hoard to relieve my distress. Nod.

DECIMÈTRE, day-se-maytr, sm. metrol. decimeter, 3,937 inches.

DECIMO, day-se-mo, adv. (Lat.) centily.

DECINTREMENT, day-sang-troh-mang, sm. arch. removing the centring (of a vault).

DECINTREUR, day-sang-tray, ra. arch. to remove the centring (of a vault).

DECISIF, day-se-zif, adj. m. fem. décisive, 1 decisive. Une pièce, une raison, une preuve décisive, a decisive document, reason, proof. Chose étrange! et pour moi décisive, a strange thing! and for me a decisive one. C. Del. Une bataille décisive, a decisive battle. 2 (des personnes, of persons) positif, peremptory. Cet homme est iron. that man is too positive. Vus sens trop — your reason is sufficiently carried away by your senses which are too positive. Boss. Prendre un ton —, to assume a peremptory tone. Avoir l'esprit —, to be bold, daring.

DECISION, day-se-zyoung, sf. 1 decision. Former, prendre une —, to come to a decision. La — d'une affaire, d'une question de droit, the decision of an affair, of a point of law. rel. Les — des conciles, the decrees of the councils. 2 (fermeture) decision, resolution. Manquer de —, to want resolution.

DECISIVEMENT, day-se-ziv-mang, adv. decisively, positively.

DECISOIRE, day-se-zwar, adj. mf. law. decisory, decisive. Serment —, decisory oath.

DECISTÈRE, day-sis-layr, sm. metrol. decistere, 3,53 cubic feet.

DECLAMATEUR, day-klah-mah-lahr, sm. 1 antiq. declamator, declaimer. 2 (abol. celui qui débite en public des vers, etc.) declaimer, spout. 3 (orateur, écrivain emphatique, declaimer. Style de —, declamatory style. 4 adjectif. declamatory. Ton —, declamatory tone.

DECLAMATION, day-klah-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (art) declamation, elocution. Cours de —, course of elocution. Professeur de —, teacher of elocution. 2 (emploi affecté de termes pompeux) declamatory, 3 (discours banal ou injurieux) declamation, invective. 4 anc. rhet. declamation. Sujet de —, subject of declamation.

DECLAMATOIRE, day-klah-mah-lahr, adj. mf. 1 (little used) (qui appartient à la declamation) declamatory. 2 (qui se renferme que des declamations) declamatory. En ouvrage —, a declamatory work. 3 (emphatique) declamatory, bombastic. Style —, declamatory style. Ton —, declamatory tone.

DECLAMER, day-klah-may, ra. (Lat. declamare) 1 to declaim, to recite, to spout (des vers, ou discours, versas, a speech). — une scène de tragédie, to declaim a scene from a tragedy. Je declamai le grimoire nettement, I read out the scroll distinctly. Nod. 2 absol. to declaim. — en public, to declaim publicly.

DECLAMER, ra. (inverctiver) to exclaim, to ureigh. — contre le vice, to inveigh against vice.

DECLARATIF, day-klah-rat-if, adj. m. fem. declarative, law. declaratory.

DECLARATION, day-klah-rat-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 declaration. Faire une — à la douane, au greffe, to make a declaration at the custom-house, at the clerk's office. Prendre acte d'une —, to take note of a declaration. Signer une —, to sign a declaration. La — du jury, the verdict, the finding of the jury. d'amour, declaration of love. Faire une — d'amour, Faire une —, des —, to make a declaration. 2 law. — de guerre, declaration of war. — de faillite, statute of bankruptcy, schedule. — de naissance, de décès, declaration of birth, of decease. 3 law. schedule. Donner la — de ses biens, to give in the state of one's property. — de dépenses, schedule of expenses.

DECLARATOIRE, day-klah-rah-lahr, adj. mf. (little used) declaratory.

DECLARE, ppa. of DECLARER, fem. — g. adjectif. declared, open, professed. Un ennemi —, a declared, an open enemy. l'artisan —, declared partisan. Faveur —, an open favour.

DECLAREUR, day-klah-ray, ra. (Lat. declarare) 1 to declare, to disclose. Plusieurs régiments déclarèrent qu'ils ne quitteraient les armes qu'avec la vie, several regiments declared they would lay down their arms but with their lives. Ang. Th. Je déclare ici que je n'entends pas me le permettre, I here declare that I do not presume to take such a liberty. Sand. — des marchandises à la douane, to declare goods at the custom-house. — la naissance d'un enfant, to declare the birth of a child. Il a déclaré tous ses complices, he has impeached all his accomplices. Il avait attendu longtemps avant de — son mariage, he had waited a long time before he disclosed his marriage. — son amour, sa passion, to declare one's love, one's passion. — la guerre, to declare war; || fig. — la guerre aux préjugés, aux abus, to proclaim war against prejudices, abuses. 2 (décret par acte public) to find, to bring in. Le jury l'a déclaré coupable, the jury found him, brought him in guilty. Son mariage a été déclaré nul, his marriage has been declared null.

SE DECLARER, vpr. 1 to declare one's self. 2 fig. (des choses, of things) to break out. L'incendie venait de se —, the fire had just broken out. La fièvre s'est déclarée ce matin, the fever broke out this morning. 3 (s'expliquer) to declare one's self, to profess. Il est temps que vous vous déclariez, it is time for you to declare yourself. Il s'en est déclaré hautement, he made a public declaration of it. 4 (se prononcer pour ou contre) to declare one's self, to take sides. Tout le monde s'est déclaré contre lui, every body took sides against him. La victoire s'est écriée d'elles pour nous, victory at last declared itself in our favour. (en parlant de la guerre, speaking of war) L'Italie vient de se — pour nous, Italy has just sided with us.

DECLASSE, ppa. of DECLASSER, fem. — g. adjectif. fig. C'est un homme —, he is a man of no defined position, out of his sphere.

DECLASSER, day-klah-say, ra. 1 absol. to disrate. 2 neol. to unclass, to change the class of. 3 to throw classes into confusion.

DECLIC, day-klik, sm. tech. click.

DECLIN, day-klang, sm. (from décliner) 1 decline, wane, close, decay. Le — du jour, the decline of the day. Le — de l'âge, declining age. Le — de la lune, the wane of the moon. Le — d'une maladie, de la fièvre, the close of an illness, the abatement of fever. fig. Une beauté qui est sur son —, a beauty in the wane. fig. Cet empire penchait vers son —, that empire was hastening to its decline. 2 armour. sear-spring.

DECLINABLE, day-kle-nabl, adj. mf. declinable.

DECLINAISON, day-kle-nay-zong, sf. 1 astr. declination. 2 phys. declination. 3 gram. declension.

DECLINANT, day-kle-nang, ppr. of DECLINER, adj. m. fem. — g. declining.

Une grandeur — e., declining greatness. Sic-B. Cadran —, declining dial.

DECLINATOIRE, day-kle-nah-lahr, adj. mf. 1 law. declinatory. Exception —, declinatory plea, exception taken against a judge or jurisdiction. 2 sm. declinatory pica.

DECLINATRE, sm. phys. declinator, declinatory.

DECLINÉ, ppa. of DECLINER, fem. — g. 1 declined. 2 adjectif. bot. declinate, declinois.

DECLINER, day-kle-nay, vn. (Lat. declinare) 1 to decline, to be on the wane. Le jour commençait à —, the day was beginning to decline. fig. Mes jours déclinent comme l'ombre, my days are declining like a shadow. Lamart. La fièvre decline, the fever is abating. Son génie commence à —, his genius is beginning to decline. Ses forces déclinent, his strength begins to decline. La fortune des insurgés gallois ne fit que —, the fortune of the Welsh insurgents went on declining. Ang. Th. (by extension) A l'heure où la lune decline, at the hour in which the moon declines. V. Hug. (des personnes, of persons) to decline, to decay, to fall off. Le vieillard qui decline, the old man who is breaking. V. Hug. Ce poète decline, that poet declines. (by extension) Les l. ont toujours décliné depuis cinq siècles, the l. have been declining continually for five centuries. Ang. Th. 2 astr. to decline. Un astre qui decline, a star that declines. fig. On raille ton tas on astre qui decline, scorers drid a star in its decline. V. Hug. 3 phys. to decline, to vary. 4 gnom. to decline.

DECLINER, ra. 1 gram. to decline. fig. — son nom, to state one's name. 2 law. (référer) to decline, to take exception to. — la juridiction, la compétence d'un juge, d'un tribunal, to decline the jurisdiction, the competency of a judge, of a tribunal. fig. Les gens de quelque générosité d'âme déclinaient ces courtoisies, people of any generous feelings declined those functions. Lamart. J'ai decline son invitation. I have declined his invitation. Sa raison decline l'autorité, his reason declines authority. Th. Gaut.

SE DECLINER, vpr. gram. to be declined.

DECLIVE, day-kli-v, adj. mf. (Lat. declivis) 1 declivous, sloping. Terres —, sloping grounds. 2 surg. dependent.

DECLIVITE, day-kle-ve-lay, sf. (Lat. declivitas) declivity, slope. La — d'un terrain, the slope of a piece of ground.

DELOITRE, ppa. of DELOITRER, fem. — g. adjectif. uncloistered, secularized. Une religieuse — e. an uncloistered nun.

DELOITRER, day-kwa-tray, ra. to uncloister.

SE DELOITRER, vpr. to leave the cloister, to return into the world.

DELORE, day-klor, ra. irreg. and defect. to unclose, to throw open.

DELOUS, day-klo, ppa. of DELOUSE, fem. — g. unclosed, thrown open.

DELOUE, ppa. of DELOUSER, fem. — g. adjectif. unnailed.

DELOUER, day-klo-ay, ra. to unnailed (une caisse, a case).

SE DELOUER, vpr. to come unnailed.

DECOCHER, day-kosh-mang, sm. (d'une fleche, of an arrow) shooting off, letting fly.

DECOCHÉ, ppa. of DECOCHER, fem. — g. adjectif. Une fleche — e., an arrow let fly.

DECOCHER, day-kosh-shay, ra. to shoot, to discharge. — une fleche, to let fly an arrow. fig. — on trait de satire, une épigramme, to level a satirical remark, an epigram. fig. (in joke) — un compliment, to pay a compliment.

DECOCTION, day-kok-syong, sf. (Lot) decoction.

DECOIFFER, day-kwa-lay, ra. 1 to take off the head-dress (off). Il faut — cet enfant, that child's head-dress must be taken off. (by extension) Une soutaine qu'on a décollée de son toit chinois, a fountain with its Chinese roof taken off. Th. Gaut. 2 (by extension) to derange the hair of. Le vent l'avait toute décollée, the wind had quite undone her hair. 3 fig. — une bouteille, to uncup a bottle, to uncork it.

SE DÉCOLLER, vpr. to take off one's head-dress, to derange one's hair. Elle passe son temps à se coller et à se décoller, she passes her time in doing and undoing her hair.

DÉCOLLATION, day-kol-lah-syong, sf. beheading, decollation. La — de saint Jean-Baptiste, the decollation of St John the Baptist.

DÉCOLLÉ, ppa. of DÉCOLLER, fem. — E, adjective. Papier —, paper unpasted.

DÉCOLLEMENT, day-kol-mang, sm. 1 unpasting, ungluing. 2 surg., détachement.

DÉCOLLER, day-kol-lay, ra. (Lat. decollare) to bend, to decollate, to decapitate.

DÉCOLLER, ra. (from colle) 1 to unpaste, to unglue. — du papier, to unpaste paper. 2 (at billiards) to disengage a ball from the cushion.

SE DÉCOLLER, vpr. to come, to get unpasted, unglued. Ce papier se décolle, this paper is coming off.

DÉCOLLÉTÉ, ppa. of DÉCOLLÉTER, fem. — E, adjective, whose breast is bare. Habit trop —, a coat with a collar too open.

Une femme —, a woman —, a woman with her neck and shoulders bare. fig. Propos — s, free, licentious remarks.

DÉCOLLÉTER, day-kol-lay, ra. JE DÉCOLLÈTE, IL DÉCOLLÈTE, ILS DÉCOLLÈTENT; JE DÉCOLLÈTERAI, to bare the neck and shoulders.

DÉCOLLÉTER, ra. (d'un vêtement, of a coat) to leave the neck and shoulders bare, uncovered. Votre habit décolleté un peu trop, your coat-collar is too open.

SE DÉCOLLÉTER, vpr. to wear a low dress, to bare one's neck and shoulders.

DÉCOLORATION, day-ko-lo-rab-syong, sf. (Lat.) decoloration, decolouring. La — de la peau, decoloration, whiteness of skin.

DÉCOLORÉ, ppa. of DÉCOLORER, fem. — E, adjective, faded, colourless. Un teint —, a faded complexion. Des lèvres —es, pale lips. Les teintes des bois —s d'automne, the faded tints of the autumnal woods. Mich. fig. Un style —, cold, poor, lame style.

DÉCOLORER, day-ko-lo-ray, ra. (Lat. decolorare) to decolor, to decolorate, to take away the colour. La maladie l'a voté —, illness has made her lose all her colour. On emploie le noir animal pour — le sucre, fig. En voulant trop polir son style, il l'a décoloré, in his endeavour to give too great a polish to his style, he has taken all the life out of it.

SE DÉCOLORER, vpr. to lose one's colour, to fade. Son teint se décolore, her complexion is losing its colour. Des roses qui se décolorent, fading roses. La verdure des cyprès ne se décolore pas aux âpres feux du soleil, the green foliage of the cypress does not wither in the scorching heat of the sun. Th. Gaut.

DÉCORER, day-kong-bray, ra. to clear the rubbish. — le pied d'une muraille, to clear away the rubbish from the foot of a wall. — une rue, to clear a street.

DÉCORÈRES, day-kong-br', sm. pl. rubbish (sing). Un amas de —, a heap of rubbish.

DÉCOMANDÉ, ppa. of DÉCOMANDER, fem. — E, adjective, countermanded.

DÉCOMANDER, day-ko-mang-day, ra. to countermand.

DÉCOMPLÈTER, day-kong-play-lay, ra. JE DÉCOMPLÈTE, TO DÉCOMPLÈTES, ILS DÉCOMPLÈTENT; TO RENDER INCOMPLETE (like collection, a collection).

DÉCOMPOSABLE, day-kong-po-zab', ad. mf. chem. gram. decomposable, decomposable.

DÉCOMPOSÉ, ppa. of DÉCOMPOSER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 phys. decomposed. Un corps —, a decomposed body. 2 distorted, discomposed. Un visage pâle et —, a pale and distorted face. Balz. Ses traits étaient —s, her features were discomposed. Ab. 3 bot. Tige —, feuille —, decomposed stem, leaf.

DÉCOMPOSER, day-kong-po-zay, ra. 1 phys. to decompose (un corps, la lumière, les rayons solaires, a body, light, solar rays). — une équation, to decompose an equation. — le mouvement d'un corps, to decompose the motion of a body. — une idée, an mot, une proposition, un discours, to decompose an idea, a word, a proposition, a discourse. absol. — n'est pas créer, to decompose is not to create. 2 (corrompre) to decompose. La chaleur décompose les matières animales, heat decomposes animal substances. (by analogy) Le venin de ce serpent décompose le sang, the venom of this serpent decomposes the blood. 3 (du visage, of the face) to distort, to alter, to discompose. La maladie a décomposé ses traits, illness has altered his features.

SE DÉCOMPOSER, vpr. 1 to be decomposed. Cette proposition doit se — ainsi, this proposition must be decomposed thus. (by extension) Des groupes qui se composent et se décomposent sans cesse, groups which are being continually composed and decomposed. Th. Gaut. 2 (s'altérer) to be decomposed, to fall into decomposition. fig. Quand les nations se décomposent, when nations fall to pieces. Lamart. 3 (du visage, of the face) to be discomposed, altered.

DÉCOMPOSITION, day-kong-po-ze-syong, sf. 1 chem. decomposition, 2 (altération) decomposition.

DÉCOMPTÉ, day-kong-ti, sm. 4 deduction, aitement, deficiency. Il y a tant de —, there is so much to be reckoned off. Faire le —, to reckon off. Payer le —, to pay after reckoning off. 3 fig. un appointement. Trouver du — dans une affaire, to find an affair full short of one's expectations.

DÉCOMPTÉ, ppa. of DÉCOMPTER, fem. — E, adjective. Une somme —, a sum reckoned off.

DÉCOMPTER, day-kong-tay, ra. 1 (déduire) to deduct, to reckon off. 2 absol. fig. to be disappointed. Il croit avoir fait bien bel héritage, mais il aura bien à —, he thinks he has made a splendid inheritance, but he will be greatly disappointed. Ses parents espèrent beaucoup de lui, mais il leur faudra bien —, his parents expect a great deal from him, but they will find themselves much disappointed. 3 (eu) to begin a fresh count.

DÉCONCERTÉ, ppa. of DÉCONCERTER, fem. — E, adjective, disconcerted. On espérait qu'elle serait —, hopes were entertained that she would be disconcerted. Mich. Avoir l'air —, to look disconcerted.

DÉCONCERTER, day-kong-say-tay, ra. 1 (little used) (troubler un concert) to put out. 2 fig. (rompre les mesures de quelqu'un) to baffie, to disconcert. Cette victoire déconcerta les alliés, this victory disconcerted the allies. Ces réserves déconcertaient l'impatience des émigrés, these reservations disconcerted the impatience of the emigrants. Lamart. 3 (troubler) to disconcert. Le marchand que ce discours déconcerta fit deux pas en arrière, the merchant whom this speech disconcerted, made two steps backwards. Le Sage.

SE DÉCONCERTER, vpr. to be disconcerted, to be put out of countenance. Il ne se déconcerte pas pour si peu, he is not so easily put out of countenance.

DÉCONFIRE, day-kong-feer, ra. conj. like CONFIRE, 1 absol. to discomfit, to rout (les ennemis, the enemy). 2 fig. — quelqu'un, to nonplus a person.

DÉCONFIT, day-kong-fee, ppa. of DÉ-

CONFIRE, fem. — E, Armée — E, discomfited army. fig. Le pauvre homme resta tout —, the poor man stood quite abashed.

DÉCONFITURE, day-kong-le-tur, sf. 1 absol. discomfiture, rout. 2 fig. haroc, slaughter, consumption. On fit une grande — de gibrier, there was a great slaughter of game. Un chat faisait de rats une telle —, a cat made of such havoc among rats. La Font. Il y avait à ce repas une grande quantité de volailles, de gibrier, etc., on fit une belle —, at that feast there was a great quantity of poultry, game, etc., of which a great consumption was made. 3 fig. (d'un négociant, d'une société, etc., of a merchant, a company, etc.) ruin. 4 (état d'insolvabilité) insolvency.

DÉCONFORT, day-kong-for, sm. absol. discomfit, despondency.

DÉCONFORTER, day-kong-for-lay, ra. absol. to discomfit, to discourage.

SE DÉCONFORTER, vpr. absol. to despond.

DÉCONSEILLER, day-kong-say-yat, ra. to dissuade. — no mariage, to dissuade from a marriage. P. adressait à Bodeau son Art poétique, P. advised B. not to write his Art poétique. St-B. Le roi déconseillait la fuite à ceux de ses serviteurs qui, the king was against emigration in his discourse to his followers. Lamart. Des gens sages déconseillaient cette expédition, wise men were against this expedition. Bar. Faites ce que vous voudrez, je ne vous conseille ni de vous déconseiller, do what you will, I will neither persuade nor dissuade you.

DÉCONSIDÉRATION, day-kong-se-day-rab-syong, sf. discredit, disrepute.

DÉCONSIDÉRÉ, ppa. of DÉCONSIDÉRER, fem. — E, fallen into discredit, disrepute.

DÉCONSIDÉRER, day-kong-se-day-ray, ra. to bring into disrepute, to throw discredit on.

SE DÉCONSIDÉRER, vpr. to fall into discredit, disrepute.

DÉCONSTRUCTION, day-kong-truk-syong, sf. 1 taking to pieces. 2 gram. construing.

DÉCONSTRUIRE, day-kong-truier, ra. 1 to take to pieces. 2 — des vers, to turn verse into prose. 3 gram. to construe.

SE DÉCONSTRUIRE, vpr. (être déconstruit) to be taken to pieces, demolished.

DÉCONTENANCÉ, ppa. of DÉCONTENANCER, fem. — E, out of countenance. Les jorges au moment — s'étaient remis, the judges for a moment out of countenance had recovered themselves. Mich. — par le retard qu'il mettait à répondre, abashed by the time he took before answering. Balz. Quand il est en société il est tout —, when he is in company he is quite out of countenance.

DÉCONTENANCER, day-kong-nang-sat, ra. NOUS DÉCONTENANÇONS; IL DÉCONTENANCE, to put out of countenance, to abash.

SE DÉCONTENANCER, vpr. to be, to be put out of countenance, to stand abashed.

DÉCONVENUE, day-kong-ou, sf. mishap, ill-luck, disaster, discomfiture.

DÉCOR, day-kor, sm. (Lat. decus) 1 (de l'intérieur d'un édifice) decoration. 2 (théâtre) scenery, scene, decoration.

DÉCORATEUR, day-kor-lab-tur, sm. 4 decorator. 2 adjective. Peintre —, scene-painter, house-painter.

DÉCORATION, day-ko-rab-syong, sf. 1 (embellissement) decoration, embellishment. 2 (d'un édifice, of a building) decoration, embellishment, ornament. 3 (théâtre) scenery, scene. 4 (insigne) badge, insignia. Porter une —, to wear the insignia of an order. Recevoir une —, to receive the insignia of an order. La — de la Légion d'honneur, the cross of the Legion of Honor.

DÉCORDER, day-kor-day, ra. tech. to untwist.

DÉCORÉ, ppa. of DÉCORER, fem. — E,

1 decorated, embellished, adorned. Appartenance fraîchement —, apartments newly painted and papered. Un jardin — de statues, a garden adorned with statues. 2 (honneur d'une décoration) wearing the insignia of an order. Il avait été décoré de la croix de la Légion d'honneur, the knighthood of the Legion of Honour had been conferred on him. 3 absol. Un vieux monsieur — an old gentleman wearing the ribbon of the Legion of Honour. Il avait été — par l'empereur, the Emperor had conferred knighthood on him. 4 (substantif.) Les —s de Juillet, persons wearing the decoration of July.

DÉCORER, day-ko-ray, va. (Lat. decorare) 1 (ornier) to decorate, to embellish, to beautify, to adorn (un temple, un théâtre, un édifice, a temple, a theatre, an edifice). fig. Le cygne décore, embellit tous les lieux qu'il fréquente, the swan is an ornament to every place that it frequents. Balf. Les myriades d'étoiles qui décorent le firmament, the myriads of stars which adorn the firmament. Mass. Les génies qui ont décoré ce grand siècle, the geniuses which have adorned that great epoch. Volt. 2 (revêtir d'un titre, honorer d'une décoration) to knight. 3 absol. to confer the knighthood of the Legion of Honour. L'empereur le décora sur le champ de bataille, the emperor knighted him on the field of battle. 4 fig. to dignify. Il décorait sa biocade du nom de château, he dignified his hotel with the name of mansion.

SE DÉCORER, vpr. 1 (s'embellir) to be decorated, embellished, adorned, to bedeck one's self, to adorn one's self. 2 (prendre une décoration, un titre) to assume a title. Il se décore d'un titre qui ne lui appartient pas, he assumes a title that does not belong to him.

DÉCORICANT, day-ko-re-kang, adj. m. fem. —E, nat. hist. decorating.

DÉCORIFICATION, day-ko-re-ke-hi-syong, sf. decoration.

DÉCORIFIÉ, ppa. of DÉCORIFIER, fem. —E, décorificated.

DÉCORIFIER, day-ko-re-ke-y, va. to décorifice.

DÉCORUM, day-ko-ruh-m, sm. (Lat.) decorum, propriety. Observer, garder le —, to observe, to keep decorum. Blessé le —, to offend against decorum.

DÉCOUCHER, day-koo-shay, m. to sleep out, to stay out all night.

DÉCOUCHER, va. (little used) to turn a person out of his bed.

DÉCOUDRE, day-koodr, va. irreg. conj. like couvrir, 1 to unsew, to unstitch (une robe, un soulier, a gown, a shoe). 2 ven. to rip, to rip open. Le sanglier a découvé le ventre à un de nos chiens, the boar has ripped open the belly of one of our dogs. Le sanglier vient à lui, le découde, the boar comes up to him, rips him open. La Font.

DÉCOUVER, m. fig. En —, to have a brush (with) to fight it out. La guerre est déclarée, nous allons en —, war is declared, we are going to have a tussle. Il veut absolument se battre avec vous, il faudra en —, he is bent upon fighting, you must have a brush with him. Il veut plaider, il faudra en —, he is bent upon going to law, so you must fight it out. (by extension) Nous vîlâ en train d'en —, nous avions à nous interroger sur tant de choses, we were talking away, we had so many things to question each other about. Le Sage.

SE DÉCOUVER, vpr. to come unsewed, unstitched. Cette doublure se découde, this lining is coming unsewed. fig. absol. Les affaires se découvent, affairs are in a bad posture. absol. Leur amitié commence à se —, their friendship is beginning to flag.

DÉCOULANT, day-koo-lang, ppr. of DÉCOULER, adj. m. fem. —E, bi. La terre de promission était une terre —e de lait et de miel, the Promised Land was a land flowing with milk and honey.

DÉCOULEMENT, day-kool-mang, sm. absol. flowing, trickling.

DÉCOULER, day-koo-lay, m. 1 to flow, to trickle, to run down. Il s'est fait une coupure et il en découle du sang, he has cut himself, and the blood is trickling down. La sueur découle de son front, drops of sweat ran down his face. fig. Dieu fait — ses grâces sur nous, God rains down his blessings upon us. 2 fig. (sortir) to spring, to proceed. La philosophie du xvi^e siècle découle toute formée de ses lèvres, the philosophy of the 16th century flows from his lips in maxims. Lamart. Tous deux faisaient — cet affranchissement de Dieu et de la nature, both attributed this freedom to God and nature. Lamart. L'esprit, les talents, la louange et ce succès qui en découle, wit, talents, praise and the success derived from them. St-B. 3 fig. (se déduire) to be derived, to proceed. De ce principe découle un grand nombre de conséquences, from this principle are derived many consequences.

DÉCOUPAGE, day-koo-pazi, sm. carving, pincking, cutting up, out.

DÉCOUPE, ppa. of DÉCOUPER, fem. —E, adjctif. 1 carved. Un poulet bien —, a chicken well carved. 2 cut out. Une étoffe plus ample — à grands festons, a more ample stuff cut out with large festoons. Nod. Je rencontrai ces horribles étoffes —es en vestes, en gilets, I met those horrible stuffs cut by into vests, waistcoats. Th. Gant. Image —e, picture cut out. fig. Cette côte étrange —e si sèchement, that strange coast with such salient angles. Mich. 3 point. Les figures de ce tableau semblent —es, sont —es, the figures in that painting seem to stand out, stand out. 4 bot. Feuilles —es, cut leaves. 5 substantif. turf-lawn with plots.

DÉCOUPER, day-koo-pay, va. 1 (des viandes, etc., meat, etc.) to carve. — un poulet, to carve a chicken. Il découpa le pain avec son poignard, he cut up the bread with his poniard. Ab. absol. Il ne sait pas —, he does not know how to carve. 2 (des étoffes, stuffs) to cut out, to pink. (by extension) Jamais un écolier ne découpa son pupitre avec plus de patience et d'adresse, never did a school-boy carve his desk with more care and patience. Saint. 3 to cut out (une figure, un arbre, une maison, a figure, a tree, a house). — en festons, to cut out in festoons. — des fleurs à l'emporte-pièce, to punch out flowers. absol. Il sait très-bien —, he is a clever hand at cutting out figures. — one image, un dessin, to cut out a picture, a drawing.

SE DÉCOUPER, vpr. to stand out. fig. Leurs probis commencent à se — sur le manteau rouissant de l'aube, their profiles begin to stand out on the blushing mantle of dawn. Nod.

DÉCOUPER, day-koo-puhr, sm. fem. DÉCOUPETSE, pincker.

DÉCOUPLE, day-koo-pl, DÉCOUPLER, day-koo-play, sm. ven. uncoupling.

DÉCOUPLÉ, ppa. of DÉCOUPLER, fem. —E, fig. fam. Être bien —, to be strong-limbed. Un grand gaillard bien —, a tall strapping fellow.

DÉCOUPLER, day-koo-play, va. ven. — des chiens, to uncouple dogs. absol. C'est le moment où le veneur doit —, it is the moment when the huntsman is to uncouple. fig. fam. — des gens après quelqu'un, to let loose, to set people on a person.

DÉCOUPURE, day-koo-pür, sf. 1 cutting out, paper cut out, pincking. Faire de la —, to cut out. Une — transparente et colorée vint s'appliquer contre la gaze, a transparent and coloured cut paper-figure was applied to the gaze. Th. Gant. 2 bot. notch.

DÉCOURAGÉ, ppa. of DÉCOURAGER, fem. —E, adjctif. discouraged. Avec une armée —e, il fallait rester sur la défensive, with a discouraged army it was necessary to remain on the defensive. Mich. Ils sont —s par ce calme trompeur, they are disheartened by this deceitful calm. Th. Gant.

DÉCOURAGEANT, day-koo-rah-zhang, ppr. of DÉCOURAGER, adj. m. fem. —E, discouraging.

DÉCOURAGEMENT, day-koo-rah-zhang, sm. discouragement, despondency, defection. Tomber dans le —, to fall into discouragement. Se laisser aller au —, to give way to despondency. Il y renonça par —, he gave it up out of despondency.

DÉCOURAGER, day-koo-rah-zhay, v. conj. like manger, 1 to discourage, to dishearten, to dispirit. Cela découragea les soldats, that put the soldiers out of heart. Il disait cela à son fils pour ne pas le —, he said that to his son not to discourage him. Muss. absol. Cela est fait pour —, that is calculated to discourage one. 2 (détourner) to deter. Ses amis l'en ont découragé, his friends deterred him from it.

SE DÉCOURAGER, vpr. to be discouraged, disheartened, to lose courage, heart. Il n'est pas homme à se —, he is not a man to lose courage. Il ne se décourage pas pour si peu, he is not so easily discouraged.

DÉCOURONNE, ppa. of DÉCOURONNER, fem. —E, adjctif. laid bare. Un chêne à tête —e par la foudre, an oak with its summit laid bare by the lightning. Th. Gant.

DÉCOURONNER, day-koo-ro-nay, va. fig. De quel droit viennent-ils — nos gloires, what right have they to run down our glory. V. Hug.

DÉCOURS, day-koor, sm. 4 (little used) (de la lune, of the moon) wane, decrease. 2 (des maladies, of illness) abatement. La fièvre est en —, the fever is abating. fig. Son crédit entre désormais dans sa période de —, his credit is now on the wane. St-B.

DÉCOUSU, ppa. of DÉCOUSER, fem. —E, adjctif. 1 unsewed. Une robe —e, a gown unsewed. 2 fig. Paroles —es, incoherent words. Meiry.

DÉCOUSU, sm. incoherence, desultoriness. Le — du style, the incoherence of the style. Je remarquai qu'— dans ses propos, I observed that his remarks were very desultory.

DÉCOUSURE, day-koo-zür, sf. seam-vent.

DÉCOUVERT, day-koo-vayr, ppa. of DÉCOUVRIR, fem. —E, 1 uncovered. Avoir la tête —e, to have one's head uncovered. (by extension) Allée —e, an open walk. Pays —, open country. 2 (trouvée) discovered. À l'époque où l'Amérique fut —e, at the period when America was discovered. Mme R. en personne fut —e rue B. Mrs R. was seen bodily in the street B. Moss. Son talent nouvellement, mais généralement —, his talent recently but generally acknowledged. Moss. 3 law. Offrir une somme d'argent à deniers —s, to offer, to pay down a sum in ready money.

À VISAGE DÉCOUVERT, adv. loc. 1 uncovered. En Orient, les femmes se vont pas à visage —, in the East, the women never go with their faces uncovered. 2 fig. openly. Agir à visage —, to act openly.

DÉCOUVERT, sm. 1 (avancée) Les —s du trésor, the deficit of the Treasury. 2 (terrain) open ground.

À DÉCOUVERT, adv. loc. 1 bareheaded. Se promener à —, to walk bareheaded. 2 war. Attaquer à —, to attack exposed to the enemy's fire. Cette place est à —, that place is exposed to the enemy's fire. 3 fig. com. Être à —, to be without security. Faire des avances à —, to advance money without security. 4 fig. openly. On savait que j'étais mauvais sujet parce que j'étais mauvais sujet à —, it was known that I was a good-for-nothing fellow, because I openly pro-description is all that can be given, 3 (traces) to describe. — un cercle à l'aide d'un compas, to describe a circle with the help of the compass. (by extension) Les planètes décrivent des ellipses autour du soleil, the planets describe ellipses round the sun. Les sinuosités que ce ruisseau décrit au fond de la vallée, the meanders which that stream describes at the bottom of the valley.

SE DÉCRIRE, vpr. (être décrit) to be described. Cette scène ne peut se —, that scene cannot be described. Son étonnement ne peut se —, his astonishment cannot be described.

DÉCROCHER, day-kro-shay, ro. to unhook, to take down. Ils décrochèrent de son clou une lardoire, they took down from its hook a larding pin. Th. Gant. — un tableau, to take down a picture. (by extension) Des cabots à — le cœur le plus solidement chevillé, folting sufficient to turn the strongest stomach. Th. Gaut.

SE DÉCROCHER, vpr. to come unhooked. Hailler à se — la mâchoire, to yawn with excess.

DÉCROIRE, day-kwâr, rn. (rare) (ne pas croire) fom. to disbelieve. Je ne crois ni ne décrois, I neither believe nor disbelieve.

DÉCROISSANT, day-kwâ-sang, ppr. of décroître, adj. fm. — e. decreasing, diminishing. Série — e. decreasing serie. Le bruit — des vagues, the diminishing noise of the waves. Lamart.

DÉCROISSEMENT, day-kwâ-sang, sm. decrease, diminution. Le — des jours, the decrease of the days. Le — de la température, the decrease of the temperature.

DÉCROIT, day-kwâ, sm. decrease, wane (of the moon).

DÉCROÎTRE, day-kwâtr, pr. con. like décroître, (Lat. decrestrere) to decrease, to diminish, to shorten, to grow short, less. Les jours décroissent, the days grow short. La rivière a décréu cette nuit de vingt centimètres, the river went down last night twenty centimeters. (by extension) Je vois sa raison — avec le jour, I see his intellect weaken as the day grows shorter. C. Del.

DÉCROTTAGE, day-kro-tazh, sm. cleaning.

DÉCROTTER, day-kro-tay, ra. (from crotte) 1 to clean, to brush (des bottes, des pantalons, boots, trousers). Se faire —, to have one's self brushed. 2 fig. to rub off the rust of ignorance, of clownishness.

SE DÉCROTTER, vpr. to clean, to brush one's self.

DÉCROTTEUR, day-kro-tuhr, sm. fem. décroitrice, shoeblack.

DÉCROTTOIR, day-kro-twâr, sm. scraper, door-scraper.

DÉCROITTOIRE, day-kro-twâr, sf. hard brush.

DÉCRU, day-kru, ppa. of décroître, fm. — e. La rivière est considérablement —, the river has considerably gone down. DÉCRUAGE, day-kru-ach, sm. tech. scouring.

DÉCRUE, day-kru, sf. (des eaux, of waters) decrease, fall.

DÉCRUER, day-kru-ay, ra. tech. to scour.

DÉCRUMENT, day-kru-mang, sm. tech. scouring.

DÉCRUSER, day-kru-zay, ra. tech. to scour.

DÉCU, day-sû, ppr. of décroître, fm. — e. Espérances — es. disappointed hopes. DÉCUBITUS, day-kû-bi-tus, sm. (Lat.) med. decumbency, decumbiture.

DÉCUIRE, day-kêur, va. (from cuire) to thin (un sirop, a syrup).

SE DÉCUIRE, vpr. (des confitures, of jams) to rine.

DÉCUPLE, day-kûpl, adj. mf. (Lat. decuplus) 1 tenfold, decuple. Une somme —, une somme — d'une autre, a tenfold sum, a sum ten times as much as another. 2 sm. decuple. Je lui ai rendu le — de ce qu'il m'avait avancé, I gave him back ten times as much as he had advanced me.

DÉCUPLE, ppa. of décroître, fm. — e. adj. fm. increased tenfold. (by extension) Sa force était — e. par son désespoir, his strength was increased tenfold by his despair. Mich.

DÉCUPLER, day-kû-play, va. (from decuple) to decuple, to increase tenfold. Il a décuplé sa fortune en peu de temps, he has increased his fortune tenfold in a short time. (by extension) La colère décuplait ses forces, anger gave him tenfold strength. Une foule de circonstances décuplaient son désir de parvenir, a crowd of circumstances increased his thirst for success. Balz.

DÉCURIE, day-kû-rec, sf. Rom. antiq. decury.

DÉCURION, day-kû-ryong, sm. Rom. antiq. decurion.

DÉCURTATION, day-kû-tab-syong, sf. (Lat.) bot. decurtation, shortening.

DÉCESSATION, day-kû-sah-syong, sf. (Lat. decessare) anat. decussation.

DÉCUSE, day-kû-say, adj. fm. fm. — e. bot. decussate.

DÉDAIGNÉ, ppa. of dédaigner, fm. — e. adj. fm. dislained, rejected. Amour —, rejected love.

DÉDAIGNER, day-day-myay, ra. (from dédain) 1 (traiter avec dédain) to disdain, to scorn, to slight. Ce parvenu dédaigne ses parents pauvres, this upstart disdains his poor relations. Cet historien n'est pas à —, that historian is not to be disdained. 2 (rejeter, refuser, s'abstenir par mépris) to disdain, to scorn, to look down upon, to despise, to turn up one's nose at. — les grands, the richesses, to disdain grandeur, wealth. Gardez-vous de rien —, mind you never despise anything. La Font. Votre frère se contenterait bien de la place que vous dédaignez, your brother would be very glad of the place you despise. Lui qu'elle avait dédaigné d'avoir pour époux, he whom she had disdained as a husband. Il dédaigne de nous parler, he is above speaking to us.

DÉDAIGNEUSEMENT, day-day-myuh-mang, adv. disdainfully, scornfully.

DÉDAIGNEUX, day-day-myuh, adj. fm. fm. fm. disdainful, scornful. Un caractère —, a disdainful character. Une beauté fière et dédaigneuse, n proud and disdainful beauty. 2 substantif. Faire le —, to be disdainful, to be disdainful, to turn up one's nose. Les précieuses font dessus tout les dédaigneuses, beauties are over nice. La Font.

DÉDAIN, day-daung, sm. (Lat. dedignatio) disdain, scorn. Avoir du — pour, to disdain. Parler avec —, to speak disdainfully. Traiter avec —, to treat with scorn. Prendre en —, to disdain. Il prend d'abord son air de —, he first assumes his disdainful look. Boss.

DÉDALE, day-dal, sm. 1 myth. Dedalus. 2 (labyrinth) labyrinth, maze. fig. Est-ce quelque — où ta raison perdue ne se retrouve pas? is it the abyss in which your bewildered understanding is for ever swallowed up? Malh. Cette affaire est un vrai —, there is no seeing through that affair. 3 fig. labyrinth, intricacy. Un — de lois, the intricacies of law. Boil. Un — d'intrigues, a labyrinth of intrigues.

DÉDAMER, day-dam-ay, va. (jeu de dames, at draughts) to displace a man.

DÉDANS, dou-dang, adv. inside, within. Un trésor est caché —, a treasure lies concealed within. La Font. On le cherchait hors du jardin, il était — they looked for him out the garden, he was inside. fig. fm. Ne pas savoir si on est en dedans, not to know where one is; || fig. fm. N'être ni — ni dehors, to hang in suspense; || ppr. Être —, to be in quod; || fig. Être —, to be half seas over, to be in for it. Mettre quelqu'un —, to lay a person by the heels; || fig. to take a person in, to deceive a person. J'étais sûr que je les mettrais tous —, I was sure I should be one too many for them. Scri. fig. Donner —, to fall into the snare, to be taken in.

LA-DÉDANS, adv. loc. in there, inside there, within. Il est là —, he is inside there. Entrez là —, go in there. fig. Je ne suis pour rien là —, I had no hand in it. Scri. Il y a là — quelque chose que je ne comprends pas, there is in all that something I do not understand. Nariv.

EN DÉDANS, adv. within. Fermer une porte en —, to fasten a door inside. Avoir les genoux en —, to have one's knees turned inwards. Porter les pieds en —, to turn one's toes in. Avoir les pieds en —, to have one's toes turned in. fig. Avoir l'esprit en —, to be of a bashful disposition. Ses grands yeux sont ouverts non sur le monde extérieur, mais comme s'il regardait en —, his large eyes are wide open not upon what surrounds him, but as if he could see interiorly. Ph. Chas. fig. Être tout en —, to be close.

EN DÉDANS DE, prep. loc. within. En — et au dehors de la ville, within and without the town.

DE DÉDANS, adv. loc. from within. Il vient de —, he comes from within. De — en dehors, from within outwards.

PAR DÉDANS, prep. through. Passez par —, go through. Il a passé par — la ville, he went through the town.

DÉDANS, sm. 1 inside, interior. Le —, les — d'une maison, the inside of a house. Le mal vient du —, the evil comes from within. Il s'applique à régler le — du royaume, he applies himself to the regulation of the interior of the kingdom. Rac. Il donne à la France la gloire au dehors et la paix au —, he gives to France glory abroad and peace at home. Les esprits de ces temps tout blancs au dehors sont tout noirs au —, people in our days are all perfection outside and perverseness inside. Boil. 2 (jeu de bagues, at rings) Avoir deux —, trois —, to have carried off the ring twice, thrice. Le —, les — d'un jeu de paume, the dedans, 3 man. La jambe du —, la rène du —, the near leg, the near rein.

AU DÉDANS DE, prep. loc. within. Sa gloire était affermie au — et au dehors du royaume, his glory rested on a firm basis at home and abroad. Si la société ne lui plait pas, il demeure au — de lui-même, if the society does not please him, he remains buried in his own thoughts. Je suis triste au — de moi, I am sad within me. V. Hug. Il y a au — de nous quelque chose qui nous avertit, there is something within us that warns us.

DÉDICACE, day-de-kass, sf. 1 (d'un temple, of a temple) dedication. — d'une église, consecration of a church. 2 (fête) dedication, consecration. 3 fig. (hommage d'un livre) dedication, inscription, address.

DÉDICATION, day-de-kû-twâr, adj. mf. Entière, 1 dedicatory epistle.

DÉDIER, day-dayay, va. con. like entier, (Lat. dedicare) 1 (consacrer) to dedicate. — un temple à Minerve, to dedicate a temple to Minerva. 2 fig. to dedicate. — un livre, un ouvrage à quelqu'un, to dedicate a book, a work to a person.

DÉDIRE, day-deer, va. con. like dire, except the 2^e pers. vous dédisez, to contradict, to gainsay. Je ne demande pas mieux, mais il ne faudra pas me —, agreed, but you must not contradict me. M^r F. était dans tous mes sentiments et ne m'a jamais dédit de rien, M^r F. shared in all my sentiments and never disavowed me in anything. M^{me} de Sev.

SE DÉDIRE, vpr. 1 to retract, to unsay, to recant. Les témoins se sont dédit, the witnesses have retracted. 2 (revenir sur un engagement pris) to go from one's DÉFALQUER, day-fal-kay, ra. (Lat. defalcare) to defalcate, to deduct, to subtract, to take off. On doit — un kilogramme pour le poids de la caisse, one kilogramme must be allowed for the weight of the case.

DÉFAUSSER, day-fo-say, ra. tech. (little used) to straighten.

SE DÉFAUSSER, ppr. (jeu de cartes, at cards) to play a card of another suit.

DÉFAULT, day-fo, sm. (Lat. defectus) 1 defect, imperfection, blemish, failing, fault, flaw. Les —s du corps, the defects of the body. Il y a un — dans ce bois, dans cette pièce de drap, there is a defect in that wood, in that piece of cloth. Etes-vous sans — ? are you faultless ? Flor. La fontaine n'est pas prêteuse, c'est là son moindre —, the ant is not fond of lending, that is her slightest failing. La Font. N'a pas ce — veut, it is not given to every one to have that defect. Sic-B. Connaitre, reconnaître, avouer ses —s, to know, to acknowledge, to confess one's faults. Ce tableau, ce livre, cette statue a ses —s, that painting, that book, that statue has its defects. Les —s d'un auteur, d'un écrivain, the faults, blemishes of an author, of a writer. 2 (manque) deficiency (in), want (of). Cela fait —, that is wanting. Cette armée souffrait beaucoup du — de vivres, that army suffered much for want of provisions. Aug. Th. Le — de preuves l'a fait acquiescer, he was acquitted for want of proofs. Le — d'observance des vieilles lois, the non-observance of the old laws. Aug. Th. — d'esprit, de jugement, d'attention, want of intelligence, judgment, attention. 3 Le — des rôles, place where the ribs end. Le — de la cuirasse, see cuirasse. 4 hunt. fault, loss. Les chiens sont en —, the dogs are at fault. La bête les a mis en —, the game has thrown the dogs off the scent; il fig. Etre en — to be at a loss; to be puzzled, to be in fault. Trouver, prendre, mettre quelqu'un en —, to catch a person in fault, tripping, to baffle, to puzzle a person; il fig. Etre en — (de certaines qualités, of certain qualities), to fail. Sa mémoire est quelquefois en —, his memory sometimes fails, betrays him. Son adresse paraît cette fois en —, there appeared this time to be a lack of his usual skill. 5 law. default. Faire —, to make, to suffer default. Juger par —, to default.

À DÉFAUT DE, À DÉFECT DE, ppr. loc. in the absence of, in the place of. Surprendre, au — de la vie, la pensée silencieuse, to surprize, in motionless beings, the silent thought. Mich. A — de pardon, laissez venir l'oubli, if you cannot pardon, at least try to forget. Muss. A — d'armes, il prit un bâton, in the absence of arms, he took a stick. A — de vin, vous buirez de l'eau, in the absence of wine, you will drink water. A son —, je vous offre mes services, in his absence, I offer you my services.

DÉFAVUR, day-fav-ahr, sf. 1 disfavor, disgrace. Tomber en —, to fall into disgrace. 2 (discret) discredit.

DÉFAVORABLE, day-fav-o-rabl', adj. mf. unfavourable (to).

DÉFAVORABLEMENT, day-fav-o-rah-bl'mang, adv. unfavourably.

DÉFECTION, day-fay-kah-syong, sf. (Lat. defection) 1 physiol. defection. 2 chem. defection.

DÉFECTIF, day-fek-tif, adj. m. fem. defective, gram. defective.

DÉFECTION, day-fek-syong, sf. (Lat.) defection, falling off.

DÉFECTUEUSEMENT, day-fek-tü-üh-mang, adv. (little used) defectively.

DÉFECTUEUX, day-fek-tü-üh, adj. m. fem. defectueux, (Lat. defectus) 1 defective, imperfect, faulty. Marchandises defectueuses, defective goods. Travail —, imperfect work. 2 law. Un acte —, a defective deed. 3 gram. defective.

DÉFECTUOSITÉ, day-fek-tü-o-zo-tay, sf. defect. Elle a une — dans la taille, she has a defect in her shape. Les —s d'un édifice, the defects of an edifice.

DÉFENDABLE, day-fang-dabl', adj. mf. defensible, tenable.

DÉFENDANT, day-fang-dang, ppr. of DEFENSEUR, defending.

À SON CORPS DÉFENDANT, adv. loc. 1 in self-defence. 2 fig. with extreme reluctance.

DÉFENDEUR, day-fang-dohr, sm. fem. DEFENSEUR, law. defendant, respondent.

DÉFENDRE, day-fangdr', ra. (Lat. defendere) 1 to defend, to stand up for, to stand by. — quelqu'un au péril de sa vie, to defend a person at the risk of one's life. — sa vie, son honneur, ses intérêts, to defend one's life, one's honour, one's interest. — une opinion, un système, to defend an opinion, a system. Soldats du Dieu vivant, défendez votre roi, soldiers of the living God! defend your king. Rac. Qui nous défendra si tu ne nous défends ? who will defend us if thou dost not ? Rac. (des animaux, of animals) L'agle défend courageusement ses petits, the eagle courageously defends its young. Nous détruisons les oiseaux qui défendaient les moissons, we destroy the birds that defended our harvests. Mich. 2 mil. — une place, un poste, un passage, to defend a place, a post, a passage. 3 (particularly) (plaider pour) to defend. Qui est-ce qui défend le prévenu ? who defends the prisoner ? 4 (garantir) to protect, to shield, to shelter, to screen. Un chène énorme nous défendait de l'ardeur du soleil, an enormous oak sheltered us from the heat of the sun. fig. La religion seule peut nous — contre les séductions du monde, religion alone can protect us from the allurements of the world. 5 mil. (particularly) (garantir contre l'ennemi) to defend, to command. Une batterie défendait l'entrée du port, a battery commanded the entrance of the harbour. 6 (interdire) to forbid, to prohibit. Défendez-vous au sage de se donner des soins pour le plaisir d'autrui ? do you forbid the wise man to care for the pleasure of others ? La Fout. Vous défendez à votre ami de lui faire du mal, you will forbid your friend to hurt her. Ab. — les mauvais livres, to prohibit bad books. — sa maison à quelqu'un, to forbid a person one's house. On ne doit jamais faire ce que la conscience défend, one should never do what conscience forbids. Un certain endroit que je lui ai défendu de passer, a certain spot beyond which I forbade him to go. God. Nous n'avions point d'affaires qui nous défendissent de nous arrêter, we had no business that prevented us from stopping. Le Sage. Le médecin défend que vous sortiez, the physician forbids your going out.

DÉFENDRE, vn. law. to defend. Il a été condamné faute de —, he was cast for want of defending.

SE DÉFENDRE, ppr. 1 to defend one's self. Deux scélérats se jeterent sur lui, mais il se défendit vaillamment, two villains fell upon him, but he defended himself valiantly. fig. Cette place se défend d'elle-même, that place needs no defence. fig. Cette place n'est pas en état de se —, that place is not tenable. fig. Un bon livre se défend de lui-même, a good book needs no defence. 2 (plaider sa cause, se justifier) to defend one's self, to plead one's own cause, to vindicate one's self. L'accusé a voulu se — lui-même, the prisoner insisted upon pleading his own cause. Tu me le pardonneras sans que je prenne la peine de lui —, you will pardon me without my taking the trouble of vindicating myself. Sand. 3 (se mettre à l'abri, se préserver) to shelter one's self, to shield one's self, to screen one's self, to protect one's self. Je pris un manteau pour me — du froid, I took a cloak to protect myself against the cold. fig. Il ne put se — d'un moment d'honneur, he could not help a momentary fit of bad humour. Sand. Il ne put se — d'un mouvement d'effroi, he could not refrain from giving a start of affright. Sand. Ce grand homme n'a pu se — d'être importuné d'une autre renommée que la sienne, that great man could not refrain from jealousy of another man's reputation. Chat. L'états homme à me — de l'invasion de la métaphore, I was not a man to allow myself to be invaded by metaphors. Nod. Je ne pus me — de me mettre à table avec eux, I could not refuse sitting down to table with them. The Sage. On ne peut se — de l'aimer, one cannot help loving him. 4 (s'excuser) to excuse one's self (from), to decline. On m'a fort engagé à y aller, mais je m'en suis toujours défendu, I have been strongly persuaded to go thither, but always declined. On vous pria tant, qu'il vous sera impossible de vous en —, you will be so entreated, that it will be impossible for you to refuse. 5 (nier) to deny. On l'accuse d'avoir tenu ce propos, mais il s'en défend très-fort, he is accused of having made use of such an expression, but he denies it positively. Je me défendis du crime d'assassinat, I denied being guilty of the crime of assassination. Ab.

DÉFENDU, day-fang-dü, ppa. of DÉFENDRE, tem. — E, La place a été bien — E, the place was well defended. Le cardinal n'avait jamais été si bien —, the cardinal had never been so well defended. Sic-B. Ce malheureux prévenu a été admirablement — par maître un tel, the unhappy prisoner was admirably defended by Mr such a one. Sa croisée était — E sur la cour par d'énormes barreaux, his window was protected on the side next the yard by enormous iron bars. Balz. Armes — E, forbidden arms. Le fruit —, forbidden fruit.

DÉFENS, DÉFENDS, day-fang, sm. pl. woods and forests. Bois en —, wood in defence.

DÉFENSE, day-fangs, sf. 1 defence. Prendre les armes pour la — de son pays, to take up arms for the defence of one's country. Prendre en main la — de quelqu'un, to undertake the defence of a person. Etre dans le cas de légitime —, to be in a case of self-defence. Elle s'abandonnait sans — au charme de la rêverie, she gave herself up without defence to the charm of revercy. Sand. Se mettre en —, to stand on one's guard. 2 (by extension) (pour justification) defence, justification. Son avocat a présenté sa — avec un grand talent, his counsel made a very talented defence. Qu'avez-vous à dire pour votre — ? what have you to say in your defence ? Ma — sera courte, my defence will be brief. 3 law. defence, plea of justification. Donner, fournir, faire signer ses —s, to answer. 4 war. defence. Ligne de —, line of defence. Cette place est de —, that place is defensible. 5 war. —s, pl. (ouvrages) defences, outworks. 6 woods and forests. Ce bois est en —, a wood so far grown that cattle may be let into it without any damage. 7 (moyen de défense) means of defence. Son chagrin le laissa seul et sans —, his grief left him solitary and defenceless. Balz. Vos pleurs en sa faveur sont de faibles —s, your tears in her favour are weak means of defence. Corn. 8 nat. hist. tusk. 9 (interdiction) prohibition, interdiction. — de passer par ce sentier, it is expressly forbidden to walk on this path. Avec — de recevoir de moi aucun argent, forbidden to receive any money from me. Le Sage. Il fit — à ses soldats de, he forbade his soldiers to. Jugement, arrêt de —, de —s, decree to suspend the execution of a former decree. Le jugement porte — de, the judgment forbids to.

DÉFENDRE, day-fangdr', ra. (Lat. defendere) 1 to defend, to stand up for, to stand by. — quelqu'un au péril de sa vie, to defend a person at the risk of one's life. — sa vie, son honneur, ses intérêts, to defend one's life, one's honour, one's interest. — une opinion, un système, to defend an opinion, a system. Soldats du Dieu vivant, défendez votre roi, soldiers of the living God! defend your king. Rac. Qui nous défendra si tu ne nous défends ? who will defend us if thou dost not ? Rac. (des animaux, of animals) L'agle défend courageusement ses petits, the eagle courageously defends its young. Nous détruisons les oiseaux qui défendaient les moissons, we destroy the birds that defended our harvests. Mich. 2 mil. — une place, un poste, un passage, to defend a place, a post, a passage. 3 (particularly) (plaider pour) to defend. Qui est-ce qui défend le prévenu ? who defends the prisoner ? 4 (garantir) to protect, to shield, to shelter, to screen. Un chène énorme nous défendait de l'ardeur du soleil, an enormous oak sheltered us from the heat of the sun. fig. La religion seule peut nous — contre les séductions du monde, religion alone can protect us from the allurements of the world. 5 mil. (particularly) (garantir contre l'ennemi) to defend, to command. Une batterie défendait l'entrée du port, a battery commanded the entrance of the harbour. 6 (interdire) to forbid, to prohibit. Défendez-vous au sage de se donner des soins pour le plaisir d'autrui ? do you forbid the wise man to care for the pleasure of others ? La Fout. Vous défendez à votre ami de lui faire du mal, you will forbid your friend to hurt her. Ab. — les mauvais livres, to prohibit bad books. — sa maison à quelqu'un, to forbid a person one's house. On ne doit jamais faire ce que la conscience défend, one should never do what conscience forbids. Un certain endroit que je lui ai défendu de passer, a certain spot beyond which I forbade him to go. God. Nous n'avions point d'affaires qui nous défendissent de nous arrêter, we had no business that prevented us from stopping. Le Sage. Le médecin défend que vous sortiez, the physician forbids your going out.

DÉFENDRE, vn. law. to defend. Il a été condamné faute de —, he was cast for want of defending.

SE DÉFENDRE, ppr. 1 to defend one's self. Deux scélérats se jeterent sur lui, mais il se défendit vaillamment, two villains fell upon him, but he defended himself valiantly. fig. Cette place se défend d'elle-même, that place needs no defence. fig. Cette place n'est pas en état de se —, that place is not tenable. fig. Un bon livre se défend de lui-même, a good book needs no defence. 2 (plaider sa cause, se justifier) to defend one's self, to plead one's own cause, to vindicate one's self. L'accusé a voulu se — lui-même, the prisoner insisted upon pleading his own cause. Tu me le pardonneras sans que je prenne la peine de lui —, you will pardon me without my taking the trouble of vindicating myself. Sand. 3 (se mettre à l'abri, se préserver) to shelter one's self, to shield one's self, to screen one's self, to protect one's self. Je pris un manteau pour me — du froid, I took a cloak to protect myself against the cold. fig. Il ne put se — d'un moment d'honneur, he could not help a momentary fit of bad humour. Sand. Il ne put se — d'un mouvement d'effroi, he could not refrain from giving a start of affright. Sand. Ce grand homme n'a pu se — d'être importuné d'une autre renommée que la sienne, that great man could not refrain from jealousy of another man's reputation. Chat. L'états homme à me — de l'invasion de la métaphore, I was not a man to allow myself to be invaded by metaphors. Nod. Je ne pus me — de me mettre à table avec eux, I could not refuse sitting down to table with them. The Sage. On ne peut se — de l'aimer, one cannot help loving him. 4 (s'excuser) to excuse one's self (from), to decline. On m'a fort engagé à y aller, mais je m'en suis toujours défendu, I have been strongly persuaded to go thither, but always declined. On vous pria tant, qu'il vous sera impossible de vous en —, you will be so entreated, that it will be impossible for you to refuse. 5 (nier) to deny. On l'accuse d'avoir tenu ce propos, mais il s'en défend très-fort, he is accused of having made use of such an expression, but he denies it positively. Je me défendis du crime d'assassinat, I denied being guilty of the crime of assassination. Ab.

DÉFENDU, day-fang-dü, ppa. of DÉFENDRE, tem. — E, La place a été bien — E, the place was well defended. Le cardinal n'avait jamais été si bien —, the cardinal had never been so well defended. Sic-B. Ce malheureux prévenu a été admirablement — par maître un tel, the unhappy prisoner was admirably defended by Mr such a one. Sa croisée était — E sur la cour par d'énormes barreaux, his window was protected on the side next the yard by enormous iron bars. Balz. Armes — E, forbidden arms. Le fruit —, forbidden fruit.

DÉFENS, DÉFENDS, day-fang, sm. pl. woods and forests. Bois en —, wood in defence.

DÉFENSE, day-fangs, sf. 1 defence. Prendre les armes pour la — de son pays, to take up arms for the defence of one's country. Prendre en main la — de quelqu'un, to undertake the defence of a person. Etre dans le cas de légitime —, to be in a case of self-defence. Elle s'abandonnait sans — au charme de la rêverie, she gave herself up without defence to the charm of revercy. Sand. Se mettre en —, to stand on one's guard. 2 (by extension) (pour justification) defence, justification. Son avocat a présenté sa — avec un grand talent, his counsel made a very talented defence. Qu'avez-vous à dire pour votre — ? what have you to say in your defence ? Ma — sera courte, my defence will be brief. 3 law. defence, plea of justification. Donner, fournir, faire signer ses —s, to answer. 4 war. defence. Ligne de —, line of defence. Cette place est de —, that place is defensible. 5 war. —s, pl. (ouvrages) defences, outworks. 6 woods and forests. Ce bois est en —, a wood so far grown that cattle may be let into it without any damage. 7 (moyen de défense) means of defence. Son chagrin le laissa seul et sans —, his grief left him solitary and defenceless. Balz. Vos pleurs en sa faveur sont de faibles —s, your tears in her favour are weak means of defence. Corn. 8 nat. hist. tusk. 9 (interdiction) prohibition, interdiction. — de passer par ce sentier, it is expressly forbidden to walk on this path. Avec — de recevoir de moi aucun argent, forbidden to receive any money from me. Le Sage. Il fit — à ses soldats de, he forbade his soldiers to. Jugement, arrêt de —, de —s, decree to suspend the execution of a former decree. Le jugement porte — de, the judgment forbids to.

DÉFENDRE, day-fangdr', ra. (Lat. defendere) 1 to defend, to stand up for, to stand by. — quelqu'un au péril de sa vie, to defend a person at the risk of one's life. — sa vie, son honneur, ses intérêts, to defend one's life, one's honour, one's interest. — une opinion, un système, to defend an opinion, a system. Soldats du Dieu vivant, défendez votre roi, soldiers of the living God! defend your king. Rac. Qui nous défendra si tu ne nous défends ? who will defend us if thou dost not ? Rac. (des animaux, of animals) L'agle défend courageusement ses petits, the eagle courageously defends its young. Nous détruisons les oiseaux qui défendaient les moissons, we destroy the birds that defended our harvests. Mich. 2 mil. — une place, un poste, un passage, to defend a place, a post, a passage. 3 (particularly) (plaider pour) to defend. Qui est-ce qui défend le prévenu ? who defends the prisoner ? 4 (garantir) to protect, to shield, to shelter, to screen. Un chène énorme nous défendait de l'ardeur du soleil, an enormous oak sheltered us from the heat of the sun. fig. La religion seule peut nous — contre les séductions du monde, religion alone can protect us from the allurements of the world. 5 mil. (particularly) (garantir contre l'ennemi) to defend, to command. Une batterie défendait l'entrée du port, a battery commanded the entrance of the harbour. 6 (interdire) to forbid, to prohibit. Défendez-vous au sage de se donner des soins pour le plaisir d'autrui ? do you forbid the wise man to care for the pleasure of others ? La Fout. Vous défendez à votre ami de lui faire du mal, you will forbid your friend to hurt her. Ab. — les mauvais livres, to prohibit bad books. — sa maison à quelqu'un, to forbid a person one's house. On ne doit jamais faire ce que la conscience défend, one should never do what conscience forbids. Un certain endroit que je lui ai défendu de passer, a certain spot beyond which I forbade him to go. God. Nous n'avions point d'affaires qui nous défendissent de nous arrêter, we had no business that prevented us from stopping. Le Sage. Le médecin défend que vous sortiez, the physician forbids your going out.

DÉFENDRE, vn. law. to defend. Il a été condamné faute de —, he was cast for want of defending.

SE DÉFENDRE, ppr. 1 to defend one's self. Deux scélérats se jeterent sur lui, mais il se défendit vaillamment, two villains fell upon him, but he defended himself valiantly. fig. Cette place se défend d'elle-même, that place needs no defence. fig. Cette place n'est pas en état de se —, that place is not tenable. fig. Un bon livre se défend de lui-même, a good book needs no defence. 2 (plaider sa cause, se justifier) to defend one's self, to plead one's own cause, to vindicate one's self. L'accusé a voulu se — lui-même, the prisoner insisted upon pleading his own cause. Tu me le pardonneras sans que je prenne la peine de lui —, you will pardon me without my taking the trouble of vindicating myself. Sand. 3 (se mettre à l'abri, se préserver) to shelter one's self, to shield one's self, to screen one's self, to protect one's self. Je pris un manteau pour me — du froid, I took a cloak to protect myself against the cold. fig. Il ne put se — d'un moment d'honneur, he could not help a momentary fit of bad humour. Sand. Il ne put se — d'un mouvement d'effroi, he could not refrain from giving a start of affright. Sand. Ce grand homme n'a pu se — d'être importuné d'une autre renommée que la sienne, that great man could not refrain from jealousy of another man's reputation. Chat. L'états homme à me — de l'invasion de la métaphore, I was not a man to allow myself to be invaded by metaphors. Nod. Je ne pus me — de me mettre à table avec eux, I could not refuse sitting down to table with them. The Sage. On ne peut se — de l'aimer, one cannot help loving him. 4 (s'excuser) to excuse one's self (from), to decline. On m'a fort engagé à y aller, mais je m'en suis toujours défendu, I have been strongly persuaded to go thither, but always declined. On vous pria tant, qu'il vous sera impossible de vous en —, you will be so entreated, that it will be impossible for you to refuse. 5 (nier) to deny. On l'accuse d'avoir tenu ce propos, mais il s'en défend très-fort, he is accused of having made use of such an expression, but he denies it positively. Je me défendis du crime d'assassinat, I denied being guilty of the crime of assassination. Ab.

DÉFENDU, day-fang-dü, ppa. of DÉFENDRE, tem. — E, La place a été bien — E, the place was well defended. Le cardinal n'avait jamais été si bien —, the cardinal had never been so well defended. Sic-B. Ce malheureux prévenu a été admirablement — par maître un tel, the unhappy prisoner was admirably defended by Mr such a one. Sa croisée était — E sur la cour par d'énormes barreaux, his window was protected on the side next the yard by enormous iron bars. Balz. Armes — E, forbidden arms. Le fruit —, forbidden fruit.

DÉFENS, DÉFENDS, day-fang, sm. pl. woods and forests. Bois en —, wood in defence.

DÉFENSE, day-fangs, sf. 1 defence. Prendre les armes pour la — de son pays, to take up arms for the defence of one's country. Prendre en main la — de quelqu'un, to undertake the defence of a person. Etre dans le cas de légitime —, to be in a case of self-defence. Elle s'abandonnait sans — au charme de la rêverie, she gave herself up without defence to the charm of revercy. Sand. Se mettre en —, to stand on one's guard. 2 (by extension) (pour justification) defence, justification. Son avocat a présenté sa — avec un grand talent, his counsel made a very talented defence. Qu'avez-vous à dire pour votre — ? what have you to say in your defence ? Ma — sera courte, my defence will be brief. 3 law. defence, plea of justification. Donner, fournir, faire signer ses —s, to answer. 4 war. defence. Ligne de —, line of defence. Cette place est de —, that place is defensible. 5 war. —s, pl. (ouvrages) defences, outworks. 6 woods and forests. Ce bois est en —, a wood so far grown that cattle may be let into it without any damage. 7 (moyen de défense) means of defence. Son chagrin le laissa seul et sans —, his grief left him solitary and defenceless. Balz. Vos pleurs en sa faveur sont de faibles —s, your tears in her favour are weak means of defence. Corn. 8 nat. hist. tusk. 9 (interdiction) prohibition, interdiction. — de passer par ce sentier, it is expressly forbidden to walk on this path. Avec — de recevoir de moi aucun argent, forbidden to receive any money from me. Le Sage. Il fit — à ses soldats de, he forbade his soldiers to. Jugement, arrêt de —, de —s, decree to suspend the execution of a former decree. Le jugement porte — de, the judgment forbids to.

DÉFENDRE, day-fangdr', ra. (Lat. defendere) 1 to defend, to stand up for, to stand by. — quelqu'un au péril de sa vie, to defend a person at the risk of one's life. — sa vie, son honneur, ses intérêts, to defend one's life, one's honour, one's interest. — une opinion, un système, to defend an opinion, a system. Soldats du Dieu vivant, défendez votre roi, soldiers of the living God! defend your king. Rac. Qui nous défendra si tu ne nous défends ? who will defend us if thou dost not ? Rac. (des animaux, of animals) L'agle défend courageusement ses petits, the eagle courageously defends its young. Nous détruisons les oiseaux qui défendaient les moissons, we destroy the birds that defended our harvests. Mich. 2 mil. — une place, un poste, un passage, to defend a place, a post, a passage. 3 (particularly) (plaider pour) to defend. Qui est-ce qui défend le prévenu ? who defends the prisoner ? 4 (garantir) to protect, to shield, to shelter, to screen. Un chène énorme nous défendait de l'ardeur du soleil, an enormous oak sheltered us from the heat of the sun. fig. La religion seule peut nous — contre les séductions du monde, religion alone can protect us from the allurements of the world. 5 mil. (particularly) (garantir contre l'ennemi) to defend, to command. Une batterie défendait l'entrée du port, a battery commanded the entrance of the harbour. 6 (interdire) to forbid, to prohibit. Défendez-vous au sage de se donner des soins pour le plaisir d'autrui ? do you forbid the wise man to care for the pleasure of others ? La Fout. Vous défendez à votre ami de lui faire du mal, you will forbid your friend to hurt her. Ab. — les mauvais livres, to prohibit bad books. — sa maison à quelqu'un, to forbid a person one's house. On ne doit jamais faire ce que la conscience défend, one should never do what conscience forbids. Un certain endroit que je lui ai défendu de passer, a certain spot beyond which I forbade him to go. God. Nous n'avions point d'affaires qui nous défendissent de nous arrêter, we had no business that prevented us from stopping. Le Sage. Le médecin défend que vous sortiez, the physician forbids your going out.

DÉFENDRE, vn. law. to defend. Il a été condamné faute de —, he was cast for want of defending.

SE DÉFENDRE, ppr. 1 to defend one's self. Deux scélérats se jeterent sur lui, mais il se défendit vaillamment, two villains fell upon him, but he defended himself valiantly. fig. Cette place se défend d'elle-même, that place needs no defence. fig. Cette place n'est pas en état de se —, that place is not tenable. fig. Un bon livre se défend de lui-même, a good book needs no defence. 2 (plaider sa cause, se justifier) to defend one's self, to plead one's own cause, to vindicate one's self. L'accusé a voulu se — lui-même, the prisoner insisted upon pleading his own cause. Tu me le pardonneras sans que je prenne la peine de lui —, you will pardon me without my taking the trouble of vindicating myself. Sand. 3 (se mettre à l'abri, se préserver) to shelter one's self, to shield one's self, to screen one's self, to protect one's self. Je pris un manteau pour me — du froid, I took a cloak to protect myself against the cold. fig. Il ne put se — d'un moment d'honneur, he could not help a momentary fit of bad humour. Sand. Il ne put se — d'un mouvement d'effroi, he could not refrain from giving a start of affright. Sand. Ce grand homme n'a pu se — d'être importuné d'une autre renommée que la sienne, that great man could not refrain from jealousy of another man's reputation. Chat. L'états homme à me — de l'invasion de la métaphore, I was not a man to allow myself to be invaded by metaphors. Nod. Je ne pus me — de me mettre à table avec eux, I could not refuse sitting down to table with them. The Sage. On ne peut se — de l'aimer, one cannot help loving him. 4 (s'excuser) to excuse one's self (from), to decline. On m'a fort engagé à y aller, mais je m'en suis toujours défendu, I have been strongly persuaded to go thither, but always declined. On vous pria tant, qu'il vous sera impossible de vous en —, you will be so entreated, that it will be impossible for you to refuse. 5 (nier) to deny. On l'accuse d'avoir tenu ce propos, mais il s'en défend très-fort, he is accused of having made use of such an expression, but he denies it positively. Je me défendis du crime d'assassinat, I denied being guilty of the crime of assassination. Ab.

DÉFENDU, day-fang-dü, ppa. of DÉFENDRE, tem. — E, La place a été bien — E, the place was well defended. Le cardinal n'avait jamais été si bien —, the cardinal had never been so well defended. Sic-B. Ce malheureux prévenu a été admirablement — par maître un tel, the unhappy prisoner was admirably defended by Mr such a one. Sa croisée était — E sur la cour par d'énormes barreaux, his window was protected on the side next the yard by enormous iron bars. Balz. Armes — E, forbidden arms. Le fruit —, forbidden fruit.

DÉFENSEUR, day-fang-suhr, sm. 1 defender, upholder, champion, radiator. Vous avez eu lui un zélé — de vos intérêts, you have in him a zealous upholder of your interests. Les —s de la patrie, the defenders of the country. 2 (avocat) counsel. — d'office, counsel appointed by the court.

DÉFENSIF, day-fang-sif, adj. m. fem. DÉFENSIVE, 1 defensive. Traité —, defensive treaty. Armes défensives, DEFENSIVES. 2 DÉFENSIVE (substantif) Etre sur la défensive, se tenir sur la défensive, to be, to stand, to keep upon the defensive.

DÉFÈQUEUR, day-fay-kay, va. (Lut. défèqueur) JE DÉFÈQUE, IL DÉFÈQUE, ILS DÉFÈQUENT; JU DÉFÈQUEUR, NOUS DÉFÈQUERIONS, chem. to defecate (des sucs, une liqueur, juices, a liquor).

DÉFÉRANT, day-fay-rang, ppr. of DÉFÉRER, adj. m. fem. —s, (little used) complying.

DÉFERENCE, day-fay-ranges, sf. déférence (to, for) Avoir, marquer, témoigner de la — pour quelqu'un, to have deference for a person. Marque de —, mark of deference. E. se flattait de gagner leur amitié par sa —, E. flattered herself she should gain their friendship by her marks of deference. Sand. Il le salua avec —, he bowed to him deferentially. Sand.

DÉFÉRENT, day-fay-rang, adj. m. amat. Canal —, deferent canal.

DÉFÉRER, sm. asir. deferer.

DÉFÈRE, day-fay-ray, va. JE DÉFÈRE, IL DÉFÈRE, ILS DÉFÈRENT; JE DÉFÉRERAI, NOUS DÉFÉRERONS, (Lut. deferere) 1 to confer (on), to bestow (on). On lui défera les honneurs divins, divine honours were conferred on him. Il fallait — la couronne à celui qui était le plus jeune, it was necessary to bestow the crown on the youngest. Mont. 2 law. — le serment, to administer, to tender the oath. 3 (dénouer) to inform against, to denounce. — quelqu'un à la justice, en justice, to give a person up to justice.

DÉFÉRER, va. to defer (to), to pay deference (to), to comply (with).

DÉFÉLÉ, ppa. of DÉFÉLER, fem. —E, adjective unwilted.

DÉFÉLER, day-fay-lay, va. naut. — les voiles, to unfurl the sails.

DÉFÉLER, va. to break into foam, to dash. La vague déferlait avec violence au pied du rocher, the wave dashed with violence against the foot of the rock. B. de St-P.

DÉFÉRÉ, ppa. of DÉFÉRER, fem. —E, Les roues de ma voiture étaient —es, the tires had come off my carriage-wheels. fig. pop. Etre — d'un œil, to be one-eyed, to be blind of one eye.

DÉFÉRIER, day-fay-ray, va. 1 to unshoe, to break off the tag, to remove the iron work from. — un cheval, to unshoe a horse. — une malle, une porte, to unking a trunk, a door. 2 fig. (dénouer) to put out of countenance.

SE DÉFÉRER, ppr. 1 to cast a shoe, to come untagged. Ce cheval s'est déferé, this horse has cast a shoe. Votre laet se déferre, the tag is coming off your lace. 2 fig. (se déconcerter) to be abashed, confused.

DÉFET, day-fay, sm. (Lut. defectus) book, waste sheet.

DÉFEUILLE, ppa. of DÉFEUILLER, fem. —E, Iles arbrées tout —s, trees stripped of their leaves.

DÉFEUILLER, day-fuh-yay, va. (d'un arbre, of a tree) to strip off the leaves.

SE DÉFEUILLER, ppr. (d'un arbre, of a tree) to be stripped of leaves.

DÉFI, day-fée, sm. 1 challenge. Faire, porter, envoyer un —, to challenge, to send a challenge. Accepter un —, to accept a challenge. On voulait faire cesser ces —s qui se multipliaient tous les jours, it was resolved to put a stop to those challenges which increased in number every day. Bar. 2 (by extension) (toute provocation) defiance. Mettre quelqu'un au — de faire une chose, to defy a person to do a thing.

DÉFIANCE, day-fy-ang, sf. 1 distrust, mistrust. Avoir, concevoir de la —, to be distrustful. J'ai toujours été sans —, I was always unsuspicious. Ab. Entrer en —, to begin to distrust. prov. La — est mère de sûreté, fast find last find. 2 (de soi-même) diffidence, distrust of one's self. Avoir une grande — de soi-même, de ses propres forces, to be very distrustful of one's self, of one's own powers.

DÉFIANT, day-fy-ang, ppr. of DÉFIER, — l'orage et luttant avec la mer corps à corps, defying the storm and struggling bodily with the sea. Balz. adj. m. fem. —E, distrustful, mistrustful, diffident.

DÉFICIENT, day-to-syang, adj. m. fem. —E, math. deficient.

DÉFICIT, day-to-sit, sm. (Lut.) deficit, deficiency. Combler un —, to supply a deficiency.

DÉFIER, day-fyay, va. QUE NOUS DÉFIONS, QUE VOUS DÉFIEZ, (Lut. diffidere) 1 to defy, to challenge. — son ennemi, to defy one's enemy. (by extension) — quelqu'un à la course, au billard, à qui hoira le plus, etc., to challenge a person at running, at billiards, at — toutes les ruses du printemps, her complexion night shame all the roses of the spring.

2 (déclarer à quelqu'un qu'on ne le craint pas) to set at defiance, to dare, to bid defiance to. Vous voulez me battre, je vous en défie, je vous défie de le faire, you want to beat me, I dare you to it. prov. Il ne faut jamais — un fou, one should never dare a madman. 3 (déclarer qu'on regarde certaine chose comme impossible à quelqu'un) to defy. A cette condition, je les défie de me tromper, on this condition, I defy them to deceive me. St-B. Ingrats, je vous défie de douter de mon cœur, ungrateful creatures, you cannot doubt my heart. Sand. Je vous défie bien de vous tirer d'ici, I defy you to get out of this dilemma.

de celui qui ce soit de faire mieux que lui, I defy anybody to do better than he. 4 fig. (braver) to brave, to defy. — un danger, to brave a danger. — le cour-roux du ciel, to brave the wrath of Heaven. Celui-ci qui le premier osa l'alture —! he who was the first to brave the Ocean! La Font. — la mort, la mauvaise fortune, to face death, ill luck. 5 fig. (résister) to bid defiance to. Un monument qui défie les siècles, a monument which bids defiance to time.

SE DÉFIER, ppr. 1 recipr. to defy each other, to challenge each other. 2 refl. (avoir de la défiance) to distrust, to mistrust, to be on one's guard. Je me suis toujours défie de lui, I was always mistrustful of him. Sand. Il lui est — de la liqueur traitresse, he was on his guard against the treacherous liquor. La Font. Il sembla qu'elle se défiait du rapport de ses yeux, she appeared to distrust the evidence of her own eyes. Le Sage. Se — de soi-même, de ses forces, to be distrustful of one's self, of one's own powers. De mes faibles efforts ma vertu se défie, my virtue is distrustful of my weak efforts. Rac. 3 refl. (se douter, prévoir) to suspect, to have a misgiving.

DÉFIGURE, ppa. of DÉFIGURER, fem. —E, Un corps —, a mangled body. Rac. fig. Cette langue, toute —e qu'elle soit, this language, however disfigured it is. Vult. Ces noms illustres sont venus à nous —s par quelque trait de satire, those illustrious names have been transmitted to us disfigured by some stroke of satire. B. de St-P.

DÉFIGURER, day-fé-gü-yay, va. 1 to disfigure, to distort. La petite vérole l'avait tout défiguré, the small-pox had quite disfigured her. 2 (by extension) (gâter la forme de quelque chose) to disfigure, to deform, to mangle. 3 fig. (altérer, rendre méconnaissable) to disfigure, to deface. — le langage, to disfigure the language. — l'histoire, to disfigure history. C'est ma destinée d'être défigurée en vers comme en prose, I was doomed to see both my verses and my prose disfigured. Volt.

SE DÉFIGURER, ppr. 1 to disfigure one's self. 2 (by extension) Ce visage si tendre tout à coup se défigura, that so lovely face was in a moment altered. Féa. 3 fig. (s'altérer) to be disfigured.

DÉFILE, ppa. of DÉFILER, fem. —E, unstrung.

DÉFILÉ, day-fé-lay, sm. 1 pass, defile. Un pays de —s, plain de —s, a country intersected with passes. 2 fig. strait, pass. Le voilà dans un étrangement, he is in a singular strait. 3 mil. fling off, defiling. Le — des troupes, the flinging of the troops. Le — cont'uait toujours, there were some more to defile. Ab.

DÉFILEMENT, day-féel-mang, sm. fort. defilement.

DÉFILER, day-fé-lay, va. 1 to unstring, to unthread (des perles, un collier, pearls, a necklace). — un chapelet, etc., See CHAPELET. (by extension) Le mouvement de sa main me fit deviner qu'elle défilait un rosaire, I saw by the motion of her hand that she was telling her beads. Nod. 2 fort. — un ouvrage, to protect a work from enfilade.

SE DÉFILER, ppr. to come unstrung, unthreaded. Des colliers dont les perles se défilent, necklaces of which the pearls come unstrung. Th. Gaut.

DÉFILER, vn. 1 to file off, to defile. Il nous fallait — deux par deux, we were obliged to file off two abreast. Nous commençâmes de —, we began to defile. Chat. Les docteurs en défiant à la hâte disaient, the doctors said as they hastened by, Nic. On voit — lentement une longue file de religieuses, a long line of nuns are seen passing slowly. Nod. Ses sujets défilèrent un à un derrière lui, his subjects came after him one by one. Ab. Ils couraient à la porte pour voir — notre équipage, they ran to the door to see us pass in state. Le Sage. 2 (specialty of troops) to file off, to defile. L'armée entière défila aux acclamations du peuple, the whole army filed off amidst the cheers of the multitude. Lamart. Les soldats défilèrent tambour en tête, the soldiers with drum beating filed off. Ab. 3 fig. (des personnes, of persons) (mourir à peu d'intervalle) to die off, to drop off. Notre académie défile, gentlemen are dropping off one by one, our academicians are dropping off one by one. Volt.

DÉFILER, sm. See DÉFILER.

DÉFINI, day-fé-nee, ppa. of DÉFINIR, fem. —E, 1 definite, defined. Un nombre — a definite number. Le caractère de son génie était — et méconnu, the character of his genius so often and so ill appreciated. Lamart. 2 gram. Article —, definite article. Passé —, the perfect tense.

DÉFINIR, day-fé-neer, va. (Lut. definire) 1 (déterminer) to define, to determine. 2 (expliquer) to define, to explain, to describe. Je définis la cour, un pays où les gens sont, I define the court, a country in which the people are. La Font. Le nouveau dit le Barbier fut bien tel que B. la défini ici, the novelty of the Barber was indeed such as B. described it here. St-B. Je ne saurais — le plaisir que j'éprouve, I cannot do justice to the pleasure I experience.

— un mot, un terme, une expression, to define a word, a term, an expression. — une personne, to portray a person. 3 verb. (décider) to decree, to decide, to determine.

SE DÉFINIR, ppr. to be defined. Cela ne peut se —, that cannot be defined. C'est un homme, un caractère qui ne peut se —, this is a man, a character who cannot be defined.

he is a man of whom it is impossible to give a just idea.

DEFINISSABLE, day-fe-ne-sabl', adj. mf. neol. definable.

DEFINITIF, day-fe-ne-tif, adj. m. fem. DEFINITIVE, (Lat. definitivus) 1 definitive, final. Résultat —, definitive result, upshot. Charmant et désirable auditoire, sans doute, mais qui n'est pas —, a charming and desirable auditory, no doubt, but which is not supreme. Sto-B. 2 law. definitive, final. Jugement —, definitive judgment.

EN DEFINITIVE, adv. loc. 1 law. definitively. 2 (décidément) decidately, after all. En —, how do you come? after all, what are you doing?

DEFINITION, day-fe-ne-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (explication) definition, explanation. 2 theol. (decision) decision, determination.

DEFINITIVEMENT, day-fe-ne-tiv-mang, adv. 1 definitively. 2 law. definitively, finally.

DEFLAGRATION, day-flab-grah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 chem. deflagration. 2 geol. deflagration.

DEFECHT, day-day-shee, adj. m. fem. — to be, infected, deflected.

DEFECTION, day-flag-mah-syong, sf. chem. dephlegmation.

DE-FLEGNER, day-deg-may, vr. chem. to dephlegmate, to rectify, to distil.

DEFEUILLÉ, day-fluh-ree, ppa. of DÉFLEURIR, fem. — E, with the bloom off.

DÉFLEURIR, day-fluh-ree, vr. (des arbres, des arbrisseaux, of trees, of shrubs) to shed its blossoms.

DEFEUCIR, ra. 1 (des arbres, of trees) to blight, to nip the blossoms. 2 (de certains fruits, of certain fruits) to take off the bloom.

DÉFLEXION, day-flek-syong, sf. (Lat.) phys. La — des rayons lumineux, the deflection, inflection of the luminous rays.

DÉFLOURATION, day-flo-rah-syong, sf. (Lat.) defloration.

DÉFLOUER, day-flo-ray, ra. (Lat. deflorare) to deflower, fig. — an object, to take away the freshness of a subject.

DÉFOLIATION, day-flo-lyab-syong, sf. (Lat.) bot. defoliation.

DÉFONCÉ, ppa. of DÉFONCER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 fonneau —, a cask stored in. Le terrain — témoignait des évolutions de l'artillerie, the ground broken up gave marks of the evolutions of the artillery. Saint. 2 Chemin —, road broken up.

DÉFONCEMENT, day-fongs-mang, nm. staring, breaking up.

DÉFONCER, day-fong-say, ra. nous DÉFONCER; il DÉFONÇA (from fond) 1 (ôter, enlever le fond) to stare, to stare in. 2 agri. — un terrain, to dig up a piece of ground. 3 — une route, to break up a road.

DÉFORMATION, day-for-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) med. deformation.

DÉFORMÉ, ppa. of DÉFORMER, fem. — E, adjective. out of shape.

DÉFORMER, day-for-may, ra. (Lat. deformare) to deform, to put out of shape. Un affreux corset qui vous déforme la taille, a frightful pair of stays which deforms your shape.

SE DÉFORMER, vr. to come out of form, out of shape. Votre chapeau s'est déformé, your hat has come out of shape. Sa taille se déforme, her shape is growing deformed.

DÉFOURNER, day-four-nay, ra. (du pain, of bread) to draw out of the oven.

DÉFRAÎCHI, day-fray-shee, ppa. of DÉFRAÎCHIR, fem. — E, adjective, faded.

DÉFRAÎCHIR, day-fray-beer, ra. to take off the freshness of.

DÉFRAYER, ppa. of DÉFRAYER, fem. — E, adjective. Etre — de tout, to have all one's expenses paid.

DÉFRAYER, day-fray-say, conj. like PAYER, ra. to defray, to defray the expenses of. — qu'il faut, to defray a person. (by extension) Il avait de l'orgueil à — toute une aristocratie, he had pride enough to defray a whole aristocracy. Balz. Sa robe de gala avait défrayé pendant cinq ans l'admiration de toute la contrée, her dress had defrayed for five years the admiration of the whole country. Sand. fig. fam. — la compagnie, to entertain the company.

DÉFRICHÉ, ppa. of DÉFRICHER, fem. — E. 1 Terrain —, cleared land. 2 (substantif) clearing. L'égarant exprès dans les bois, les —s, losing him on purpose in the woods, the clearings. R. de St-P.

DÉFRICHEMENT, day-frish-mang, sm. 1 clearing. 2 (by extension) (terrain) clearing.

DÉFRICHER, day-fre-shay, ra. 1 to clear. Les fermiers durent — leurs terres, the farmers had to clear their grounds. Balz. 2 fig. (d'une langue, of a language) to polish. 3 fig. (debrouiller, éclaircir) to clear up (une affaire, an affair).

DÉFRICHEUR, day-fre-shahé, nm. (celui qui défriche) clearer.

DÉFRISÉ, ppa. of DÉFRISER, fem. — E, adjective, uncurled.

DÉFRISER, day-fre-zay, ra. 1 to uncurl, to put out of curl. Prenez garde de me —, take care not to uncurl my hair. 2 fig. pop. to put out, to ruffle.

SE DÉFRISER, rpr. to come, to get uncurled.

DÉFRONCER, day-frong-say, ra. nous DÉFRONCER; il DÉFRONÇA, (déplisser) to unpleat (une jupe, etc., a petticoat, etc.). fig. fam. — le soleil, to unhat the eyebrows, to smooth one's brow.

DÉFROUÉ, day-fruk, sf. 1 (d'un religieux, of a friar) effects, property. 2 (by extension) (meubles et nippes) old things. 3 (vêtements qu'on ne porte plus) cast off old clothes. Outre ses gages, il a la — de son maître, besides his wages, he has his master's old things.

DÉFROQUÉ, ppa. of DÉFROQUER, fem. — E. Un moine —, an unrobed monk.

DÉFROQUER, day-fro-ky, ra. to unrobe (un moine, a monk).

SE DÉFROQUER, rpr. (quitter l'état monastique) to quit the frock.

DÉFUNT, day-fuhng, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. defunctus) 1 deceased. Le roi —, the deceased king. La — reine, the deceased queen. — votre père, your deceased father. 2 (substantif) deceased. Prier Dieu pour les —s, to put up prayers for the dead.

DÉGAGE, ppa. of DÉGAGER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 (libre, aisé) free, easy, unembarrassed. Manières —es, easy manners.

Air —, easy air. Taille souple et —, flexible and graceful shape. fam. Avoir des airs —s, to have flippant manners.

2 Chambre — c, room with a private entrance. Escalier —, private staircase.

3 (libéré, retiré de gage) redeemed, taken out of pawn. Siens biens roraux étaient également —s, his property in the country was likewise redeemed. Balz. fig. Parole — c, word withdrawn. 4 (qui n'est plus obscuré) free. Passage — c, free passage.

5 fig. (exempt de préjugé) free from prejudice. Un esprit —, a mind free from prejudice.

6 homme de cœur — d'ambition personnelle, a man of an independent mind free from personal ambition. Merim. Des actions —es de tout intérêt personnel, actions exempt from all personal interest.

La Rochet.

DÉGAGEMENT, day-gazh-mang, sm. 1 redeeming, taking out of pledge, of pawn.

2 clearing, disengagement, release. Il y a un peu de — du côté de la poitrine, the chest is a little disengaged. 3 phys. — de calorique et de lumière, an emission of heat and light. fig. Le — de sa parole, redeeming one's word, making good one's word. 4 finec. disengagement, extrication.

Faire on —, to make a disengagement.

5 arch. private entrance. Porte de —, private entrance, back-door. Escalier de —, private staircase, back-staircase.

DÉGAGER, day-gau-zhy, ra. nous DÉ-

CAGIONS; il DÉGAGEA. 1 to redeem, to take out of pledge, of pawn. — du Mont-de-Piété, to take out of the Mont-de-Piété. (by extension) (d'un immeuble, of an estate) to redeem. fig. — sa parole, to redeem, to make good one's word; il withdrew, to call in one's word. — sa foi, sa promesse, ses serments, to redeem one's faith, promise, oaths. — quelque chose de sa parole, de sa promesse, d'une responsabilité, to disengage, to release a person from a promise, a responsibility. — son cœur, to wear one's affections. — un soldat, to obtain the discharge of, to buy off, to get off a soldier. 2 (débarrasser de ce qui obstrue) to clear (une porte, a passage, a door, a passage; il la voie publique, the road; il la tête, la poitrine, the head, the chest). fig. — son esprit d'un préjugé, to get rid of a prejudice. — son âme des intérêts du monde, to wear one's soul from worldly interests. — une question de tout ce qui n'y a pas de rapport direct, to clear a question from all that is not in direct connexion with it.

3 (tirer d'un embarras) to extricate. On le dégaga de dessous les décombres, he was extricated from under the rubbish.

Une charge de cavalerie dégagait notre régiment, a charge of cavalry disengaged our regiment. L'homme avait les mains à la paille, il dégagait ses mains avec l'attention prudente d'un pâtre, the man had his hands in the dough, he extricated them with the prudent attention of a poor herdsman.

4 fig. Dégager, pen à pen, means jambes de dessous la banquette, slowly disengaging my legs from under the bench. Th. Chas. On la dégagait (la tête) de la mitre d'or qui l'enveloppait, they took from it the golden mitre with which it was crowned. Bar. Dégageant des mailles du filet une botte d'une forme élégante, extricating from the meshes of the net an elegantly-shaped box. Nod.

4 arch. — an appartement, to make a private entrance to an apartment. 5 fenc. — le fer, to disengage, to extricate one's sword. 6 chem. to disengage. 7 math. — l'inconnue, to find the unknown quantity. 8 tech. — une pierre, to clear, to free a stone. 9 tailor, needle-work. (faire ressortir) to set off, to show off.

Ce corsage, cet habit dégagent bien la taille, the body of that dress, that coat sets off the shape very well. 10 (produire) to evolve, to emit. — one odor, to emit an odor. — de la chaleur, to evolve heat.

DÉGAGER, vr. anc. to detach the feet.

SE DÉGAGER, rpr. 1 (d'une obligation, of an obligation) to release, to disengage one's self. Se — de toute responsabilité, to free one's self from all responsibility. 2 (cesser d'être obstrué) to be cleared. La rue commence à se —, the street is beginning to be cleared. fig. Mon cerveau s'est bien dégagé, my head is quite cleared.

3 fig. Son esprit commence à se — de ces ridicules superstitions, his mind is beginning to be cleared of those ridiculous superstitions. 3 (se débarrasser) to get clear (of), to extricate one's self (from).

Ce régiment ne put parvenir à se —, that regiment could not succeed in cutting its way through. Elle réussit à se — de cette étroite passionnée, she succeeded in extricating herself from this passionate grasp. Sand. La main de C. se dégagait de la nienne, C's hand broke away from mine. Nod. (by extension) L'étoile se dégagait lentement de ces ténébres et parut plus resplendissante, the star slowly disengaged itself from the darkness, and appeared more brilliant still. Nod. La deesse se dégagait lentement du bloc, the block slowly reveals a goddess. Th. Gaut. fig. Mon âme se dégagait du seul poids qui l'oppressait, my soul got rid of the only weight that oppressed it. Nod. 4 (du gaz, etc., of gas) to be disengaged.

DÉGANE, day-gayn, af. awkwardness. Quelle —! what awkwardness!

DÉGAINER, day-gay-nay, va. 1 (tirer la gaine) to unsheathe. 2 absol. (mettre à portée de la main) to draw. Il fut forcé de —, he was forced to draw. 3 (substantif) Etre brave jusqu'au —, to be brave till it comes to the scratch, to the push.

DÉGANTÉ, ppa. of DÉGANTER, fem. —E, ungloried. Main —e, ungloried hand.

DÉGANTER, day-gang-tay, va. to unglorify, to take off the gloves of.

SE DÉGANTER, vpr. to unglorify, to pull off, to take off one's gloves.

DÉGARNIR, day-gar-neer, ppa. of DÉGARNIR, fem. —E, 1 Une table —e, an empty table. 2 —e de dents, a toothless mouth.

DÉGARNIR, day-gar-neer, va. 1 to unfurnish, to strip, to strip. — une chambre, une maison de ses meubles, to strip a room, a house of its furniture. — une chambre, to unfurnish a room. — un vaisseau de ses agrès, to unrig a vessel.

— un parterre de ses fleurs, to strip a bed of its flowers. — un lit, to take down the bed-hangings. — une robe, to take the trimmings off a dress. 2 mil. — le centre, les ailes d'une armée, to weaken the centre, the wings of an army. — une place, to disorganize a fortress. — les côtes, les frontières, une province, to leave undefended, to withdraw men, ammunition from the coasts, the frontiers, a province. 3 hort. — un arbre, to thin a tree.

SE DÉGARNIR, vpr. 1 (perdre ce qui garnit) to become, to get empty. La salle commençait déjà à se —, the room was already beginning to empty. Cet arbre se dégarnit, that tree is losing its branches. Sa tête commence à se —, his head is getting bald. 2 (se vêtir plus légèrement) to wear lighter clothing. 3 (se dissasier de son argent comptant) to part with one's ready money, to part with one's ready money.

DÉGAT, day-gâ, sm. 1 damage, havoc, ravage, depredation. absol. Faire le —, to ravage. 2 (gaspillage) waste.

DÉGAUCHIR, day-go-sheer, va. 1 tech. to level, to smooth, to plane, to straighten. 2 fig. (rendre moins gauche) to polish.

SE DÉGAUCHIR, vpr. fig. to become polished, to get rid of one's awkward manners.

DÉGEL, day-zhay, sm. thaw.

DÉGELER, dayzh-lay, va. il dégèle, it melts. 2 to thaw. Il s'écrit qu'il était dégelé, que le sort était levé, he exclaimed he was once more in favour, that the spell was broken. St-Sim.

DÉGELER, vn. to thaw. L'Allemand dégela, sa figure devint jeune, the German grew animated, his face assumed a youthful expression. Balz. (imperson.) Il dégèle, il va —, it thaws, it is going to thaw.

SE DÉGELER, vpr. to thaw.

DÉGÉNÉRATION, day-zhay-nay-ray-syong, sf. 1 degeneracy, degeneration. 2 des plantes, the degeneracy of plants. 2 med. degeneracy.

DÉGÉNÉRÉ, ppa. of DÉGÉNÉRER, fem. —E, 1 degenerated. Plante —e, degenerate plant. 2 l'un homme en qui la parcimonie était —e en habitude, a man with whom parsimony had degenerated into a habit. Balz. 3 (substantif.) Il pense que ces —es pourraient se relever par l'amour maternel, he thinks that these degenerate creatures might be reclaimed by maternal love. Mich.

DÉGÉNÉRER, day-zhay-nay-ray, vn. JE DÉGÉNÈRE, ILS DÉGÉNÈRENT; JE DÉGÉNÈREAI; NOUS DÉGÉNÈRERONS, (Lat. degenerare) 1 to degenerate. Cette plante dégénère promptement en France, this plant soon degenerates in France. 2 (partic.) (des personnes, of persons) à un moment il dégénère, he degenerates at a moment à l'honneur de son père, he is a degenerate son, he who can support an insult to his father. Corn. — de ses ancêtres, to degenerate from one's ancestors. (by extension) Le monde dégénère, il valait mieux de mon temps, the world degenerates, it was better in my time. Ab. 3 (by analogy) (devenir inférieur à soi-même) to degenerate. On dégénère faute de cultiver la nature et ses dons, we degenerate for want of cultivating the gifts of nature. La Font. 4 (changer de bien en mal, de mal en pis) to degenerate. Le style pompeux dégénère quelquefois en galimatias, the pompous style sometimes degenerates into bombast. (by extension) Ma douleur dégénère bientôt en souvenir tendre, my sorrow soon degenerated into a tender recollection. Le Sage. 5 (special.) (des maladies, of diseases) Rhume qui a dégénéré en catarrhe, a cold which has degenerated into a catarrh.

DÉGÉNÉSCENCE, day-zhay-nay-rays-sangs, sf. 1 degeneracy. 2 med. degeneracy.

DÉGINGANDÉ, day-zhang-gang-day, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 gawky, ungainly. Etre tout —, to be very ill-shaped. 2 fig. unconnected. Stric —, loose style. Vous verrez que la pièce n'est pas si —e, you will see that the piece is not so very awkward. Volt.

DÉGLUER, day-gli-ay, va. — un oiseau, to unglue, to take off the bird-line from a bird. fig. — les yeux, to remove the gum from the eyes.

SE DÉGLUER, vpr. 1 to get rid of bird-line. 2 Se — les yeux, to remove the gum from one's eyes.

DÉGLUTITION, day-gli-le-syong, sf. (Lat.) physiol. deglutition.

DÉGOISER, day-gwâ-zay, va. 1 anc. (des oiseaux, of birds) (gazzouiller) to wrattle, to chirp, to chirrup. 2 fig. fam. (débiter avec volubilité) to rattle, to clatter. C'est un gaillard qui en dégoise, he is a fellow who has a tongue of his own. Muss. 3 fig. absol. (dire ce qu'on aurait intérêt de cacher) to blab, to babble. absol. On se lo faire —, they found means to loosen his tongue.

DÉGOÛTER, va. to rattle on, to let one's tongue run. Comme vous dégoïsiez! how you talk! Mol.

DÉGOÛMAGE, day-go-mazh, sm. tech. washing out the gum, scouring.

DÉGOMME, ppa. of DÉGOMMER, fem. —E, fig. pop. Il est —, he is dished.

DÉGOMMER, day-go-may, va. 1 tech. to ungum (de la soie, silk). 2 fig. (désiluer) to unglue. On s'a dégommé, he has been turned out of his place.

DÉGONFLEMENT, day-gong-noh-mang, sm. contraction, reduction, collapse, going down.

DÉGONFLER, day-gong-flay, va. to reduce, to bring down, to reduce the volume of.

SE DÉGONFLER, vpr. to collapse, to be reduced. Le ballon se dégonflait, the balloon was letting out its gas, fig. Son cœur plein de sanglots se dégonflait à l'aïse, he gave full vent to his sobs and relieved his heart. V. Hug.

DÉGORGEMENT, day-gorz-mang, sm. 1 (écoulement) outfall, outflow (d'un égout, d'une gouttière, of a sewer, of a spout). 2 med. (de la bile, des humeurs, of the bile, of the humours) overflowing. 3 tech. (des laines, des cuirs, of wool, of hides) cleansing, cleaning.

DÉGORGIR, day-gor-zhwar, sm. art. priming-wire, priming iron.

DÉGORGIR, day-gor-zhay, va. nous dégorçons; il dégorce, —, 1 to bring up from the throat, to vomit. La mère dégorge la nourriture à ses petits, the mother brings up from its stomach food for its young. (by extension) La gouttière dégorgeait avec furie un flot jaunâtre et fangeux, the spout vomited forth a yellow and muddy flood. V. Hug. La couleuvre de bronze dégorge ses entrailles avec un dernier mugissement, the bronze snake belches forth its entrails with one last groan. Chat. 2 (débarasser un conduit) to unstop, to clear, to cleanse (un tuyau, une gouttière, a pipe, a spout). 3 tech. to cleanse, to clean (de la laine, du cuir, du drap, wool, leather, cloth).

DÉGONCER, va. 1 to disgorge. L'arche du pont, où le torrent dégorce, the arch over the bridge where the torrent discharges itself. Lamart. Faire — du poisson, to purge fish. Faire — des saugues, to make leeches disgorge. 2 tech. Faire — des laines, des soies, to scour wool, silk.

SE DÉGONCER, vpr. 1 to overflow, to empty, to discharge itself. Au delà se dégorce dans le Bosphore un cours d'eau, further on a water-course discharges itself into the Bosphorus. Th. Gaut. (by extension) Une fontaine et sa vasque ou se dégorge à l'écoulement, a fountain and its basin which is turned at will a supply of warm water. Th. Gaut. fig. Les capitales se dégorcent dans les bagues, the scum of the capitals runs over into the galleys. Ph. Chas. 2 (ce certain poissons, of some fishes) to be purged.

DÉGOTER, day-go-tay, vo. fam. (déplacer) to oval, to turn out of place.

DÉGOUTER, day-go-tee, ppa. of DÉGOUTER, fem. —E, adj. 1 restored to warmth. L'animal — pique son homme au bras, the reanimated reptile stings the man in the arm. La Font. Eau —, water with the chill off. 2 fig. (un peu libre) sharp, shrewd. 3 fig. (un peu libre) forward, free. 4 (substantif.) C'est un —, he is a sharp fellow. Quelle — et what a forward thing she is!

DÉGOURDIR, day-goor-deer, va. 1 to remove the numbness from. — ses jambes, to take the stiffness out of one's legs. 2 fig. to rub the rust off. Votre âme a besoin qu'on le dégorcisse, your soul wants a little rubbing up.

SE DÉGOURDIR, vpr. 1 to revive, to feel more lively. Mes jambes commencent à se —, my legs begin to get the stiffness out of them. 2 fig. to brighten up. Tu as besoin de voyager pour te —, you require travelling to rub you up. Le Sage. Dégorcis-toi, courage, courage and beatr yourself a little. Rac. 3 (elliptic.) Faire — de l'eau, to take the chill off water.

DÉGOURDISSEMENT, day-goort-dis-mang, sm. removal of numbness.

DÉGOUT, day-goo, sm. 1 disgust, loathing, distrelsh. 2 (by extension) dislike, a distaste. Avoir du — pour l'étude, to have a distaste for study. Avoir du — pour quelqu'un, to take a dislike to a person. Ce — de la vie, this loathing of life. Chat. Nous verrons croître chez C. ce — de l'histoire, we shall see this dislike to history increase in C. St-B. Le — des choses de la terre, the distrelsh for earthly things. Muss. Un fruid — s'empare de son cœur, a cold disgust seizes upon his heart. Il lui prit un grand — pour le monde, he was taken with a great dislike to the world. 3 fig. —, pl. (déplaisir) mortification. De s'en —, to train at so vie, from mortification to mortification he drops through a weary life. V. Hug.

DÉGOUTER, day-go-tang, ppr. of DÉGOUTER, adj. fem. —E, 4 (qui cause du dégoût) disgusting, loathsome, nauseous. 2 fig. (qui inspire de l'aversion) disgusting. 3 fig. (rebutant) disgusting, sickening. Cela est —, that is sickening.

DÉGOUTÉ, ppa. of DÉGOUTER, fem. —E, adj. 1 disgusted, surfeited. Il en a tant mangé qu'il en est —, he has eaten so much of it that he has no more relish for it. 2 fig. disgusted, wearied. Etre — de la vie, to be wearied of life. — de plus en plus des choses et des hommes, more and more wearied of life and things. Chat. — du pouvoir, weary of power. — des plaisirs, surfeited with pleasures. Je suis encore plus dégouté de la mort,

I have still greater aversion for death. M. — de Sev. J'étais — de la manière dont on y enseignait, I was disgusted with the manner in which instruction was given there. Le Sage. fam. N'être pas — not to be over fastidious. L'armée était — e, the army was disgusted. Bar. 3 (substantif.) Faire le — to be fastidious, squeamish. Le monarque irrité l'envoya chez Pluton faire le —, the irritated monarch sent him to Pluto that he might learn not to be so nice. La Font.

DÉGOUTER, day-goo-tay, va. (from gout 1 ôter l'appétit) to disgust (with), to surfeit (with). 2 (inspirer de la répugnance) to disgust. Les hollres me dégoutèrent, hollers disgust me. 3 fig. (inspirer de l'aversion) to give a dislike, a distaste (to), to put out of conceit (with). Vous me dégouté de la pierre philosophale, you put me out of conceit with the philosopher's stone. Le Sage. Votre conduite me dégouta, your conduct disgusts me. Un si triste essai du courage me dégouta du courage même, so sad a trial of courage put me out of conceit with courage itself. Chat. 4 fig. (fatiguer) to weary, to tire. La prolixité dégoûte le lecteur, prolixity wearies the reader. Volt.

se DÉGOUTER, ppr. 1 to be disgusted (with), to loathe. Se — d'un mets, to be disgusted with a dish. 2 fig. to take a dislike, a distaste (to). Je ne dirai pas qu'il se dégouta de l'Égypte, on si puissant esprit ne se dégoutait pas, I will not say that he grew disgusted with Egypt, disgust had no hold on so powerful a mind. St-B. Se — de l'argent à force d'en manier, to loathe the sight of money by dint of handling it. Balz. Se — de son état, de sa maison, to be weary of one's profession, of one's home. Se — des plaisirs, to be surfeited with pleasure.

DÉGOUTANT, day-goo-tang, ppr. of DÉGOUTER, adj. m. fem. — e, (qui dégoutte) dripping, dropping, trickling. Il était tout — de sang, he was dripping with blood. Les ronces — es portent de ses cheveux les dépouilles sanglantes, on briars, trickling with blood, hang fragments of his hair. Rac. Un arbuste — de rosée, a shrub dripping with dew. Céliège n'est pas sec, it est tout —, this linen is not dry, it is dripping wet.

DÉGOUTTER, day-goo-tay, vn. (from goutte 1 couler goutte à goutte) to trickle, to drip, to drip, to run down. La sueur lui dégoutait du front, the sweat trickled from his brow. Il faisait humide, l'eau dégoutait des murs, it was damp, water ran down the walls. Balz. Enveloppé de vieux linges à travers lesquels le sang dégouta sur toute la route, wrapped up in old linen through which the blood oozed and fell in drops along the whole road. Aug. Th. 2 (rendre goutte à goutte) to leak, to drip. Le front lui dégoutait de sueur, the sweat dropped from his brow. Un tonneau qui dégoutte, a cask that runs. Le chariot était traîné par des taureaux dont les genoux dégoutaient de sang, the wagon was drawn by bulls, whose knees had been padding in blood. Chat. prov. fig. S'il pient sur moi, il dégouttera sur vous, whatever my lot may be, you shall share in it.

DÉGREDANT, day-grah-dang, ppr. of DÉGRADER, adjective. fem. — e, degrading. Conduite, action — e, degrading conduct, action. Le désordre des vêtements toujours si — pour un homme de la haute classe, stoutly dress always so disgraceful in a man of the upper classes. Balz. DÉGRADATION, day-grah-dah-syong, sf. 1 (désituation d'un grade, etc.) degradation — militaire, military degradation. — des ordres sacrés, degradation from holy orders. — de noblesse, degradation from nobility. — civile, civil degradation. 2 fig. (avilissement) degradation, debasement. La — des âmes, the degradation of souls. 3 (dégât) debatement, domage. 4 (délablement) dilapidation. 5 point, degradation. La — des plans, de la lumière, the degradation of the plans, of the light. La — des couleurs, the degradation of colours.

DÉGRADER, ppr. of DÉGRADER, fem. — e, adjective. 1 degraded. 2 fig. (avili) degraded, debased. Une âme — e, a degraded soul. 3 (détérioré) dilapidated. Cette partie du bâtiment avait tellement été — e par les influences de l'atmosphère, that part of the building had been so dilapidated by the influences of the atmosphere. Nod. Quelques marches — es par lesquelles on montait au jardin, a few broken steps by which one went up to the garden. Balz. 4 point, degraded.

DÉGRADER, day-grah-day, ra. 4 to degrade (un militaire, a soldier; un prêtre qui est condamné à mort, a priest under sentence of death). 2 fig. (avili) to degrade, to debase. Au milieu de circonstances qui perdraient et dégraderaient tout autre, amidst circumstances which would ruin and degrade any other. St-B. C'est — l'art que d'en faire l'objet d'un trafic, it is degrading art to make it an article of traffic. 3 (détériorer, endommager) to dilapidate, to damage. — un mur, to damage a wall. 4 point, to degrade. 5 naut. — un navire, to abandon a ship at sea.

se DÉGRADER, ppr. 1 (se détériorer) to be dilapidated, damaged. 2 fig. (s'avilir) to degrade, to disgrace, to debase one's self. Se — par son ivrognerie, to disgrace one's self by drunkenness. 3 (des couleurs, of colours) (s'affaiblir) to be degraded. (by extension) Les montagnes se dégradent et s'abaissent, the mountains are wearing away and getting lower. J.-J. Rous.

DÉGRAFFÉ, ppa. of DÉGRAFFER, fem. — e, adjective. unhooked, unfastened. DÉGRAFFER, day-grah-fay, va. — une robe, to unhook a gown.

se DÉGRAFFER, ppr. 4 (ôter ses agrafes) to unhook one's self. 2 (ôtre dégraffé) to come unhooked.

DÉGRAISSAGE, day-grah-sazh, sm. cleaning, scouring.

DÉGRAISSÉ, ppa. of DÉGRAISSER, fem. — e, adjective. cleaned.

DÉGRAISSEMENT, day-grahs-mang, sm. cleaning, scouring.

DÉGRAISSER, day-grah-say, ra. 4 (enlever la graisse) to skim off the fat from (le bouillon, un ragout, broth, a ragout). fig. pop. — quelqu'un, to fleece, to bleed a person. 2 (enlever les taches) to clean, to scour. — une étoffe de laine, to scour a woollen stuff. — un habit, to clean a coat, a hat. Savou à — soft soap. — le vin, to correct the greasy taste of wine.

DÉGRAISSEUR, day-grah-suhr, sm. scourer.

DÉGRAS, day-grah, sm. tech. train-oil scouring.

DÉGRADOIEMENT, DÉGRADOIEMENT, day-grah-voob-mang, washing away, laying bare, mining.

DÉGRADOYER, day-grah-voob-yay, va. (dégrader, déchausser) to lay bare, to mine.

DÉGRÉ, dub-gray, sm. (Lat. gradus) 4 (marche d'un escalier) step, stair. Monter, descendre les — s, to go up, to go down the steps. 2 — s, pl. (marches d'un temple, d'un palais) steps, flight of steps. 3 (escalier) staircase. — très-doux, tres-roid, a very easy, a very steep staircase. 4 fig. (grades) step, degree, men. Il est arrivé à cette haute position en passant par tous les — s, he attained that lofty position after going through all the degrees. Cet emploi fut le premier — de sa fortune, that employment was the first step of his fortune. Arriver au plus haut — de la puissance, to reach the pinnacle of supreme power. 5 fig. (dans les universités, in the universities) (grade) degree

Prendre ses — s, to take the degrees. Avoir tous ses — s, to have all one's degrees. 6 fig. degree, mean. Il possède cette qualité au plus haut —, he possesses that quality in the highest degree. Être bon au suprême —, to be supremely kind. Le — d'intelligence que Dieu a départi à tout homme, the dose of intellect which God has imparted to every man. Ainsi que la vertu, le crime a ses — s, crime like virtue has its stages. Rac. Il n'est point de — du médicere au pire, there is no mean between bad and worst. Boil. 7 phys. degree. Les — s d'un baromètre, d'un thermomètre, the degrees of a barometer, of a thermometer. Le thermomètre marque 2 — s au-dessous de zéro, the thermometer marks two degrees below zero, freezing point. (by analogy) Un froid de 5 — s, five degrees of cold. Il y a 20 — s de chaleur, there are twenty degrees of heat. Alcool à 80 — s, alcohol at 80 degrees. 8 (by analogy) (d'une maladie, of a disease) degree, stage. 9 chem. — de feu, degree of fire. 10 geom. astr. geog. degree. — de longitude, degree of longitude. — de latitude, degree of latitude. 11 alg. Équation du premier, du second, du troisième —, equation of the first, second, third degree. 12 gram. — s de comparaison, degrees of comparison. 13 mns. degree, interval. 14 law. — de parenté, degree, remove.

PAR DEGRÉS, adv. loc. by degrees, insensibly, from step to step. Le son s'affaiblissait par — s, the sound died away by degrees. Il n'y est parvenu que par —, he reached there only by degrees.

se DÉGRÉER, adv. loc. step by step. S'élever de — en —, to rise step by step.

DÉGRÉAGE, day-grah-azh, sm. naut. unriggering.

DÉGRÉÉ, ppa. of DÉGRÉER, adjective. fem. — e, Vaisseau — dans le combat, vessel unriggered in the fight.

DÉGRÉMENT, day-grah-mang, sm. naut. unriggering.

DÉGRÉER, day-grah-yay, va. conj. like CRÉER, naut. to unrig.

DÉGREVEMENT, day-grah-yang, sm. (d'une taxe, d'une imposition, of taxes, etc.) reduction.

DÉGREVER, day-grah-yay, va. se DÉGREVER, ils DÉGREVENT, (from grever) 1 (diminuer une taxe, une imposition) to reduce. — la propriété foncière, to free landed property from encumbrances. 2 (des personnes, of persons) to free, to disburden.

DÉGRINGOLADE, day-grang-go-lad, sf. fam. tumble, fall.

DÉGRINGOLER, day-grang-go-lay, vn. to tumble down, to fall. — dans un fossé, to roll over into a ditch. — jusqu'en bas, to tumble down to the bottom. fig. — dans la barbarie, to slide down into barbarism. Volt.

DÉGRINGOLER, ra. to tumble down, to go tumbling down (un escalier, a staircase).

DÉGRESSEMENT, day-greez-mang, sm. sobering. fig. Quand il vit les murs jaunâtres et enfumés, son — alla renforcer, the sight of the yellow smoky walls sobered him in a short time. Balz.

DÉGRISER, day-gce-zay, ra. 4 to sober, to dispel intoxication. 2 fig. to sober. Son échec l'a entièrement dégrisé, his disappointment completely sobered him.

DÉGROSSAGE, day-gro-sazh, sm. tech. wire-drawing work, drawing small or fine.

DÉGROSSER, day-gro-say, ra. tech. to reduce, to draw gold-wire smaller and smaller.

DÉGROSSIR, day-gro-seer, va. 4 to rough-hew, to rough down (une pièce de bois, un bloc de marbre, a piece of timber, a block of marble). Quand, rentré chez lui, il eut dégrossi le tronçon informe, when, after his return home, he had given a form to the shapeless fragment. Nod.

— une figure, to shape out a figure. fig. — quelqu'un, to polish a person. Il dégrossit sa rude nature, he gives a polish to his rough nature. Mich. 2 fig. (ebaucher) to make a rough sketch. 3 fig. (des affaires, of affairs) to clear up. 4 print. — one épreuve, to read and correct a proof for the first time.

DÉGÉNÉRIÉ, day-ne-yay, adj. m. fem. — E, *l*attered, in *l*atters, in rays, ragged. On pauvre tout —, a poor man all in *l*atters. Être tout —, to be all in rays. 2 (substantif.) ragged creature. Cinq ou six mille — s, five or six thousand ragged creatures. Chat.

DÉGÉRPIR, day-gayr-peér, ra. law. to give up, on inheritance, to quit (an héritage, une maison, an inheritance, a house), absol. Être obligé de —, to be obliged to give up the possession of a place.

DÉGÉRPIR, ra. to pick off. Allons, déguerpissez bien vite, déguerpissez d'ici, now then make haste and pick off, be off from here, off with you. Personne n'ose faire — la famille, nobody dares to turn the family out of doors. Ph. Chas. On le fera bien —, he will soon be sent to the right-about.

DÉGUERPISSÉMENT, day-gayr-pis-mang, sm. law. giving up.

DÉGUIGNONNE, ppn. of DÉGUIGNONNER, fem. — E, adjective. Être —, to have better luck.

DÉGUIGNONNER, day-ghee-nyo-day, ra. to bring better luck to.

DÉGUISE, ppn. of DÉGUISER, fem. — E, adjective. disguised. Des hommes — s, men in disguise. 2 fig. (dissimulé) disguised. Un auteur-propre —, disguised self-love. Boss. 3 (substantif.) disguised person. Une bande de — s, a band of disguised persons.

DÉGUISEMENT, day-ghee-mang, sm. 1 disguise. 2 fig. (fausse apparence) disguise. Il sait prendre toutes sortes de — s, he can act all sorts of parts. 3 (état d'une personne déguisée) disguise. 4 fig. (dissimulation) disguise, dissimulation. Parler sans —, to speak plainly, openly. Pourquoi recourir à tous ces — s? what is the use of all this double dealing?

DÉGUISE, day-ghee-zay, ra. 4 (travestir) to disguise, to mask. 2 (rendre méconnaissable) Ce faux nez suffit pour vous —, this false nose is sufficient to disguise you. (by extension) — sa voix, son écriture, to disguise one's voice, one's handwriting. — son style, to disguise one's style. — son nom, to assume a false name. Colin. — les mets, les viandes, to disguise meats. 3 fig. to disguise, to cloak, to dissimulate. — son ambition, to cloak one's ambition. — la vérité, to disguise the truth. Pour ne vous rien —, to disguise nothing from you.

SE DÉGUISE, rpr. 1 to disguise one's self. 2 fig. (des personnes, of persons) to disguise one's self, to assume a disguise. 3 fig. (se cacher) 2 à soi-même, to hide from one's self. — Sa — ses torts, ses faiblesses, to hide from one's self one's faults, weaknesses. La Rochef. Se — à soi-même, to deceive one's self. 4 fig. (des choses, of things) to be disguised. Les passions se déguisent autant qu'elles le peuvent aux yeux des autres, the passions assume a disguise as often as they can in the eyes of others. La Bruy.

DÉGUSTATEUR, day-güs-tah-tuhr, sm. 1 taster. 2 (adjectif.) tasting. Officier —, taster.

DÉGUSTATION, day-güs-tah-syong, sf. tasting.

DÉGUSTER, day-güs-tay, ra. (Lat. degustare) to taste (du vin, de l'eau-de-vie, wine, brandy).

DÉHAËLER, day-hä-lay, ra. to take off the sun-burn from, to clear the complexion of.

SE DÉHAËLER, rpr. to clear one's complexion.

DÉHANCHÉ, adj. m. fem. — E, l hip-shot, hipped. Être tout —, to be quite hipped. Un cheval —, a horse whose hips are out of joint. 2 fig. ungainly.

DÉHARNACHEMENT, day-ar-nash-mang, sm. unharnessing.

DÉHARNACHER, day-ar-nah-shay, ra. to unharness.

DÉHISCENCE, day-is-sangs, sf. (Lat. dehiscere) bot. dehiscence.

DÉHISCENT, day-is-sang, adj. m. fem. — E, bot. dehiscient.

DÉHONÊTE, day-on-g-yay, adj. m. fem. — E, shameless, unblushing. See ÉHONÊTE.

DÉHORS, dah-or, adv. t out, outside, without, out of doors, exteriorly. Aller —, to go out. On le cherchait dans la maison, il était —, they looked for him in the house, he was out. fig. Mettre quelqu'un —, to put, to turn a person out.

2 com. Mettre au billet —, to put a bill in circulation. fig. Ne pas savoir si l'on est dedans ou —, See DÉDANS. 3 anat. Ce bâtiment va mettre —, that vessel is going to put out to sea. Toutes voies —, all sails spread.

AD DÉHORS, adv. loc. on the outside, abroad. La maison se présente au — de murs environnée, the house is surrounded with a wall. Boil. Il donnait au pays la gloire au —, he enriched the country with glory abroad.

EN DÉHORS, adv. loc. without. Une porte qui s'ouvre en —, a door that opens without. Cela s'avance trop en —, that projects out too much. Porter la pointe des pieds en —, avoir les pieds en —, to turn one's toes out. fig. fam. Être en —, tout en —, to be open, frank.

DE DÉHORS, adv. loc. from without.

PAR DÉHORS, adv. and prep. loc. on the outside, without.

AD DÉHORS DE, prep. loc. without. Les avantages qui sont au — de nous, our external advantages. La Bruy.

EN DÉHORS DE, prep. loc. out of, beyond. Il demore en — de la ville, he lingers out of the town. fig. Cela est en — de la question, that is out of the question. Rêssé d'avoir été mis en — d'une résolution, hurt at not having been comprised in a decision. Balz.

DÉHORS, sm. 1 outside, exterior. Les — d'une maison, d'un château, the exterior of a house, of a castle. Les — d'une place, the outworks of a place. 2 (pays étrangers) foreign parts. Peu de négociants connaissent les véritables besoins de leurs consommateurs du —, few merchants know the real wants of their foreign customers. Ph. Chas. 3 — s, pl. fig. (d'une personne, of a person) (l'extérieur) outside, exterior, appearances. Sons des — grossiers, under a rough exterior. Des — trompeurs, deceitful appearances. Chaque — son ambition sous les — de la pitié, to conceal one's ambition under the cloak of piety. Merim. Sauver, garder les — s, to save, to keep up appearances. 4 man. La jambe du —, la robe du —, the off leg, the off rein.

DÉCIDÉ, day-e-sid, adj. mf. (Lat. Decis, cadere) 1 (de se dit que des Juifs, is used only in speaking of the Jews) decided. 2 (by extension) decided. 3 (substantif.) decide.

DÉIFICATION, day-e-fe-kah-syong, sf. deification.

DÉIFIÉ, ppn. of DÉIFIER, fem. — E, adjective. deified. (by extension) l'intérêt exclusif, — partout, exclusive interest, every where deified. Mirab.

DÉIFIER, day-e-fyay, ra. xors DÉIFIER, xors DÉIFIER; que xors DÉIFIER, que xors DÉIFIER. (Lat. Deus, facere) to deify. (by extension) Vous rampez tous, ô rois qu'on déifie! you all covered, O kings worshipped as gods! Berang. Jamais mot d'amitié déifiant le pauvre sans, never a friendly word to gladden the wretched man. La Font.

DÉISME, day-ism', sm. (Lat. Deus) d-ism.

DÊISTE, day-ist, s. mf. 1 deist. 2 (adjectif.) deistic, deistical.

DÊITÉ, day-e-lay, sf. (Lat. deitas) myth. poetic. deity, divinity.

DÊJÀ, day-zah, adv. t already. Il est — de retour, he has returned already. Il y a — deux heures que nous sommes ensemble, we have been together these two hours already. Nos jours si peu nombreux et si remplis! our days so few, and already so filled up! V. Hug. 2 (des le moment don on parle) already. Il faisait — nuit close, it was already dark. Sand — les postillons étaient en selle, the postillions were already in the saddle. Sand. Il y avait — longtemps que je ne craiss plus, my police had been hushed a long time already. Lamart. Les marches étaient — couvertes de mousse, the steps were already covered with moss. Chat. 3 (annoncé) already, before. C. reconnaît les airs qu'il a entendus —, C. recognizes the airs that he has already heard. Saint.

DEJECTION, day-zhek-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 dejection. 2 — s, pl. dejections.

DÊJÊTE, ppn. of DÊJÊTER, fem. — E, 1 warped. 2 (by extension) crooked. Leurs genoux — s, their crooked knees. Tb. Gaut. 3 fig. (perverti) perverted. Un cœur — par une dévotion d'apparat, a heart perverted by a devotion all in show. G. Sand.

SE DÊJÊTER, day-zh-yet, rpr. conj. like JETER, 1 (du bois, of wood) to warp. 2 (by extension) (de certaines parties du corps, of some parts of the body) to derange.

DÊJÊNÉ, day-zhuh-nay, sm. See DÊJÊNER, sm.

DÊJÊNER, day-zhuh-nay, ra. to breakfast. — avec ses amis, to breakfast with one's friends. Le roi déjeunait d'un rôti de tourterelles, the king breakfasted on roast turtle-doves. Ab.

DÊJÊNER, sm. 1 (repas) breakfast. Servir le —, to serve up breakfast. Prendre du café à son —, to take coffee for breakfast. Un — à la fourchette, a neat breakfast. — dîner, breakfast and dinner in one. fig. Il n'y a pas pour on —, he will not make a mouthful of it. fig. Il n'y a pas pour on —, there is not a mouthful of it. fig. C'est on — de soleil, it is a fugitive coloured stuff. (by extension) Leur passion n'est qu'on — de soleil, their passion is but a transient one. St-B. 2 (petit plateau) tray, waiter. — de porcelaine, a porcelain breakfast service.

DÊJOINDRE, day-zhawndr', ra. conj. like JOINDRE, to disjoin.

SE DÊJOINDRE, rpr. to become disjoined, to part.

DÊJOINT, day-zhawng, ppn. of DÊJOINDRE, fem. — E, Cela est tout —, that is quite out of joint.

DÊJOUER, day-zhoo-yay, ra. to baffle, to frustrate (un projet, un dessein, une intrigue, un complot, a project, a design, an intrigue, a plot). La même force qui déjoua leurs efforts en étouffa le son venir, the same force that counteracted their efforts has stifled the remembrance of them. Aug. Th. — quelqu'un, to baffle a person.

DÊJOUER, ra. to play badly.

DÊJUGIER, day-zhuh-shay, ra. 1 (des poules, hens) to leave the roost. 2 fig. to come down from one's perch.

DÊJUCHER, ra. 1 to unroost (des poules, hens). 2 fig. to bring down.

DÊLA, dah-lah, prep. (little used) beyond, on the other side. — la rivière, on the other side of the river. — les monts, on the other side of the mountains. Il est de — les Alpes, he is from beyond the Alps.

PAR DÊLA, prep. loc. 1 far beyond. Par — le Cap de Bonne-Espérance, far beyond the Cape of Good Hope. 2 fig. Être récompensé par — ses mérites, to be rewarded far beyond one's deserts.

AU DÊLA DE, prep. loc. 1 beyond. Au

— du deuve, beyond the river. 2 fig. Au — de l'imagination, above, beyond all imagination. Au — de leur attente, beyond their expectation.

AN DELA, ppa DELA, adv. loc. 1 further on. 2 (before plus) still more, something beyond.

EN DELA, adv. loc. further on.

DÉLACÉ, ppa. of DÉLACER, fem. —E, Adj. En couvent —, a dilapidated convent. Nod. Des vêtements —s, tattered clothes. Être —, to be in rags. fig. Une santé —e, a battered constitution, a shattered health. fig. Des affaires —es, affairs in a bad posture. fig. L'estomac — — a disordered stomach.

DÉLABÈMENT, day-lah-bruh-màng, sm, dilapidation, decay, ruin. Le — d'un édifice, the ruined state of a building. fig. Le — de sa santé, his shattered health. A la vue de ce — du royaume, on seeing the dilapidated state of the kingdom. St-B.

DÉLABIER, day-lah-bray, ra. (Lat. dilacerare) to decay, to dilapidate. 2 fig. to ravage, to ruin, to destroy. Les excès avaient délabré sa santé, excesses had shattered his health. Ces folles dépenses avaient délabré sa fortune, those extravagant expenses had ruined his fortune.

SE DÉLABIER, vpr. to decay, to be dilapidated, to go to tatters. Ces meubles se délabraient de plus en plus, this furniture is getting more and more dilapidated. fig. Ses affaires se sont bien délabrées, his affairs are in a sad case. L'estomac se délabre par l'abus des boissons alcooliques, the stomach is impaired by the abuse of spirituous liquors.

DÉLACER, day-lah-say, ra. conf. like LACER, 1 to unlace (un corset, un brodequin, a pair of stays, boots). 2 — one femme, to unlace a woman.

SE DÉLACER, vpr. 1 (être délacé) to come unlaced. 2 to unlace one's self. Elle ne pouvait se — elle-même, she could not unlace herself alone.

DÉLAI, day-lay, sm. (Lat. dilatio) delay, put off, respite. Le — expire tel jour, the delay expires on such a day. Elle avait résolu de payer dans le plus bref — sa rançon et la mienne, she had resolved to pay with the least possible delay her own ransom and mine. Ab. Je veux que l'on m'obéisse sans —, sans plus de —, I will be obeyed without delay, without further delay. Pour tout —, as the only delay. — de grâce, essay. Demander, obtenir du —, des —s, to ask, to obtain a delay. Accorder un —, des —s, to grant a delay.

DÉLAISSÉ, ppa. of DÉLAISSER, fem. —E, 1 adjective. abandoned, forsaken. Le peuple anglais. — par lui, l'aimait encore, the English people, abandoned by him, loved him still. Ag. Th. A. — par les siens, 2 son tour les délaissa, A. forsaken by his friends, in his turn forsook them. Ag. Th. E. — ainsi par l'Eglise, elle se remit en toute confiance en Dieu, thus abandoned by the Church, she placed her whole confidence in God. Mieb. Un pauvre orphelin —, a poor desolate orphan. Biens —s, abandoned property. (cf. extension). Les gèves alternativement couvertes et —es par les eaux, the strand alternately covered and forsaken by the waters. Nod. 2 (substantif). L'ne pauvre —e, a poor forlorn creature.

DÉLAISSEMENT, day-lays-màng, sm. 1 destitution, distress. 2 civ. com. law. abandonment. — par hypothèque, abandonment to a mortgagee.

DÉLAISSER, day-lay-say, ra. 1 to abandon, to forsake. Tous ses amis l'avaient délaissé, all his friends had forsaken him. Il les poussa à l'évêque de leur choix, he urged them to abandon the bishop they had chosen. Ag. Th. (by extension) J'ai eu bien tort de te — pour la science, I was very wrong to abandon thee for the sake of science. Balz. 2 law.

to relinquish (un immeuble, landed property). — des poursuites, to throw up a law-suit.

DÉLARDÈMENT, day-lard-màng, sm. arch. carp. chamfering, bevelling, splicing.

DÉLARDER, day-lar-day, va. arch. carp. to chamfer, to splay, to bevel.

DÉLASSÉ, ppa. of DÉLASSER, fem. —E, adjective. Appuie-toi sur mon sein et je serai —, lean on my bosom and I shall feel no more fatigue. B. de St-P.

DÉLASSÈMENT, day-las-màng, sm. repose, refreshment, relaxation. Prendre du —, to repose from fatigue. Donner du — à l'esprit, to recreate, to relax the mind. Un peu d'ombre et de —, a little shade and repose. Nod.

DÉLASSER, day-lah-say, va. to refresh, to recreate, to relax, to rest, to repose. Je n'avais que quelques jours pour — mes membres fatigués, I had but a few days to rest my weary limbs. Chat. Tout ce qui délasse la pensée d'un travail suspendu à propos, la rend plus capable, whatever operates as a reasonable diversion from mental labour, serves to fortify the mind. Nod. Lorsque je suis fatigué, la vue me délasse, when I am weary, the sight of your repose me —s. B. de St-P.

SE DÉLASSER, vpr. to refresh one's self, to repose one's self, to unbend one's mind. Délassons-nous par quelques heures de sommeil, let us seek refreshment in a few hours' sleep. Chat. Le roi voulait se — fit un voyage de plaisir, the king to recreate himself made a pleasure excursion. Ag. Th. Allons nous — à voir d'autres procès, let us refresh ourselves by the sight of other trials. Rac. Il se délassait des soucis du trône par des travaux de mains, he found a relief in manual labour from the cares of the throne. Lamart.

DÉLATEUR, day-lat-uh, sm. fem. DÉLATRICE, (Lat. delator, informor, accuser, fig. adjective). Les iugurs délatrices de ce gaz imputable, the treacherous blazes of the ruthless gas. Méry.

DÉLATION, day-lah-syong, sf. delation, information.

DÉLATTER, day-lat-ay, ra. tech. to unlash (un toit, a roof).

DÉLAVÉ, ppa. of DÉLAVER, fem. —E, adjective. 1 dilute, diluted. 2 jewel. Pierre —e, dim stone.

DÉLAVET, day-lav-ay, ra. (des couleurs, of colours) to dilute.

DÉLAYANT, day-lay-yàng, ppr. of DÉLAYER, adj. m. feol. —E, 1 diluent. Remède —, diluent remedy. 2 sm. med. diluent.

DÉLAYÉ, ppa. of DÉLAYER, fem. —E, mixed, diluted. De la suie —e dans de l'eau, soot mixed with water. Saint.

DÉLAYÈMENT, day-lay-yub-màng, sm. dilution, diluting.

DÉLAYER, day-lay-say, ra. conf. like PAYER, (Lat. diluere) to dilute, to mix with water. — de la farine, to mix flour with water. — une couleur dans de l'eau, to dilute a colour with water. Un peu d'eau tiède est bueol délayé cette pâte, the paste was soon dissolved in a little lukewarm water. J. J. fig. — sa pensée, to spin out to withdraw one's thought.

DÉLÉATUR, day-lay-at-ur, sm. (Lat.) print, dele.

DÉLECTABLE, day-lek-tahl', adj. mf. (Lat. delectabilis) delectable, delicious, delightful. Un vin —, delicious wine. Un séjour —, a delightful abode. La — mélancolie des souvenirs, the melancholic charm of recollections. Chat. Rien de si — que, nothing so delightful as.

DÉLECTION, day-lek-lah-syong, sf. delectation, delight. Boire, manger avec —, to delight in eating, drinking. La — du palais, the gratification of the palate. — intérieure, inward enjoyment. J. J. Rouss. Prendre de la — à une chose, to delight in a thing.

DÉLECTER, day-lek-tay, ra. (Lat. delectare) to delight.

SE DÉLECTER, vpr. to take delight (in), to delight (in). Se — de la vérité, to delight in truth. Boss. Des ouvrages où je me délectais, works in which I delighted. Chat. Se — à l'étude, à faire de la musique, to take delight in study, in practising music.

DÉLEGATION, day-lay-gab-syong, sf. 4 (commission) délégation, commissaire. Agir en vertu d'une —, to act by virtue of a delegation. — de pouvoir, 2 (autorisation de loucher une somme) assignment. Faire, accepter une —, to make, to accept an assignment.

DÉLÈGUE, ppa. of DÉLÉGUER, fem. —E, adjective. 1 delegated. 2 (substantif) delegate.

DÉLÉGUER, day-lay-ray, ra. JE DÉLÈGUE, TE DÉLÈGUES; JE DÉLÉGUERAI, VOUS DÉLÉGUERIEZ, (Lat. delegare) 1 to delegate, to commission. — son autorité, son pouvoir, to delegate one's authority, one's power. 2 to assign (une dette, a debt).

DÉLÉSTACE, day-lays-lahz, sm. naut. unbolishing.

DÉLESTER, day-lays-lay, ra. naut. — un navire, to unballast a ship.

DÉLESTEUR, day-lays-tayr, sm. naut. ballast-heaver.

DÉLETERE, day-lay-tayr, adj. mf. (Gr. deletorios).

DÉLIBÉRANT, day-le-hay-ràng, ppr. of DÉLIBÉRER, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 deliberative. As-semblée —e, deliberative assembly. 2 (substantif). Les —s, the deliberative parties.

DÉLIBÉRATIF, day-le-hay-rat-if, adj. m. fem. DÉLIBÉRATIVE, 1 rhet. deliberative. (substantif). —e, deliberative kind, deliberative. 2 Voix délibérative, deliberative voice.

DÉLIBÉRATION, day-le-hay-rab-syong, sf. 1 (discussion) deliberation. Mettre en —, to bring under deliberation. 2 (examen) deliberation. Après mûre — il se décida, after mature deliberation, he resolved to. Sand. 3 (decision, resolution) resolution. Prendre une —, to take a resolution.

DÉLIBÉRÉ, ppa. of DÉLIBÉRER, fem. —E, 1 deliberated, resolved on. Une affaire mûrement —e, an affair carefully considered. De propos —, deliberately. 2 (adjective). (aise, libre) easy, free, resolute. Marcher d'un pas —, to walk resolutely. D'un air —, with a free and easy air. 3 sm. law. Des —s, deliberations.

DÉLIBÈREMENT, day-le-hay-ray-màng, adv. boldly, resolutely, deliberately.

DÉLIBÉRER, day-le-hay-ray, va. JE DÉLIBÈRE, ILS DÉLIBÈRENT; JE DÉLIBÉRERAI; VOUS DÉLIBÉRERIEZ, (Lat. deliberare) 1 (consulter) to deliberate (on). — sur une question, sur une affaire, to deliberate on a question, on an affair. — d'une chose, to deliberate on a thing. La voix des bannis qui délibéraient nous poursuivait par tout, the voice of the banished who were deliberating reached us every where. Ab. Le roi, sans même faire — le conseil, repoussa, the king, without even requiring the council to deliberate, answered. Bar. La Cour délibéra très-longtemps, the Court deliberated a very long time. Au moment où je délibérais avec moi-même, at the moment when I was deliberating with myself. Lamart. 2 prendre une résolution to resolve, to decide. J'avais délibéré de partir, I had resolved to set out.

DÉLICAT, day-le-kah, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. delicatus) 1 (par opposition à grossier) delicate. Peau —e, delicate skin. Des traits —s, delicate features. 2 (particularity) (travaile minutieusement) delicate. Travail —, exquisite workmanship. 3 (by extension) (léger, élégant) delicate, gentle, light. Un artiste dont le pinceau est —, an artist who has a delicate pencil. 4 fig. (pur, élevé) delicate, refined. Une pensée —e, a refined thought. 5 fig. (fais, exprimé d'une manière ingénieuse) delicate. Des attentions — es, delicate attentions. Une louange — e, delicate praise. 6 (subtil) delicate, nice. La différence est si — e que, the difference is so nice that. 7 capable de juger avec finesse) delicate, acute. Un jugement —, a fine car. Je suis loin de croire mes organes assez — s poor, I am far from thinking that my organs are so delicate as to. Nod. 8 (difficile à contenir) dainty, fastidious. Être — sur le manger, to be dainty. Il ne faut pas être si —, one must not be so dainty, so overnice. Sur le mets qu'on lui donne, —, il souffre aussi, on the dish set before him, the fastidious man blows also. La Font. 9 (des aliments, etc., of food, etc.) dainty, delicate. Un mets —, a dainty dish. Une chère, une table — e, delicate treat. Avoir le sommeil —, to be a light sleeper. fig. Plaisir —, joissances — e, delicate pleasure, enjoyment. 10 (faible, frêle) delicate, weak. Couleur — e, delicate colour. Santé — e, delicate health. 11 fig. (difficile, périlleux, embarrassant) delicate, tender. La question était assez — e, the question was rather a delicate one. Il s'est tiré d'un pas très —, he has got out of a very ticklish affair. 12 (susceptible) delicate, ticklish. Il est très — sur le point d'honneur, he is very ticklish when honour is concerned. 13 absol. (scrupuleux sur la probité, sur l'honneur, etc.) delicate, tender. Une conscience — e, a tender conscience. Être de la plus — e, to be of the strictest integrity. 14 (des choses, of things) (conforme à l'honneur, etc.) delicate. Un procédé très —, very delicate proceedings. 15 (substantif) (difficile, dédaigneux) touchy, fastidious, particular. Les — s sont malheureux, the fastidious are to be pitied. La Font. Faire le —, to be too particular.

DÉLICATEMENT day-le-kal-mang, adv. delicately, tenderly.

DÉLICATER, day-le-kat-y, ra. absol. (traiter avec délicatesse) to cocker, to nurse up, to coddle (des enfants, children).

SE DÉLICATER, vpr. absol. (se choyer trop) to nurse one's self up.

DÉLICATESSE, day-le-kah-tays, sf. 1 (qualité de ce qui est fin, délié) delicacy. La — de la peau, the delicacy, smoothness of the skin. 2 (by extension) (adresse, légèreté) delicacy. — d'exécution, beauty of execution. 3 (figure, finesse, etc.) delicacy, refinement, nicety (d'une pensée, d'un sentiment, of a thought, of a sentiment, of a d'un procédé, delicate proceeding). La — d'un langage, the niceties of language. 4 fig. (prudence) delicacy, niceness. 5 d'esprit, de jugement, de goût, delicacy of mind, of judgment, of taste. — d'oreille, delicacy of ear. — de tact, exquisite tact. La — des organes, des sens, the delicacy of the organs, of the senses. 6 (qualité de ce qui plait) delicacy, daintiness. La — du vin, des mets, the delicacy of the wine, of the dishes. Une chère pleine de —, very dainty, delicate fare. 7 (faiblesse) delicacy, weakness (du tempérament, de la santé, of the constitution, of the health). 8 (mollesse) delicacy, softness. Elever un enfant avec trop de —, to bring up a child too delicately. 9 (susceptibilité) delicacy, ticklishness, touchiness. Avoir une grande — sur le point d'honneur, to be very touchy on the point of honour. Une fausse —, false delicacy. 10 (scrupule) delicacy. — d'un homme qui a une grande —, plein de —, sans —, a very delicate, indelicate man. Vos scrupules font voir trop de —, you are over scrupulous. La Font. 11 (by extension) delicacy. J'approuve la — de sa conduite. I approve the delicacy of his conduct. Un procédé plein de —, very delicate proceeding.

DÉLICES, day-lees, sf. pl. (Lat. deliciae) 1 delights, pleasures. Les — de l'esprit, the pleasures of the mind. Les — de Capoue, the allurements of Capua. Les — de la fraternité, the delights of fraternity. Balz. La frugalité est une source de — merveilleuses pour la santé, the greatest enjoyment of health is to be found in frugality. Lesage. Faire ses — de l'étude, to delight in study. Mettre ses — à faire quelque chose, to take delight in doing a thing. Les vents, les frimas, la neige font leurs —, they take delight in winds, hoar-frosts, snow. Chat. Avec —, avec adresse, il trace ses portraits, he takes delight in the skillful tracing of his portraits. S-B. Contempler avec —, to contemplate with delight. Les — de Rome en deviennent l'horreur, the darling of Rome became an object of horror. Rac. Gouter les — de la vie, to taste the delights of life. 2 (sometimes) délisse, sm. sing. delight. Quel — how delicious!

DÉLICEUSEMENT, day-le-synzh-mang, adv. deliciously, delightfully.

DÉLICIEUX, day-le-syuh, adj. m. fem. délisseux, (Lat. deliciosus) delicious, delightful. Quelle délicieuse jeune fille! what a delicious young girl!

SE DÉLICIEUX, day-le-ko-tay, vpr. man, to slip its halter.

DÉLIE, vpa. of déliser, fem. — e, adjective. 1 untied. Cordon —, string untied. 2 (mince) slender, slim. Taille — e, slender waist. Fil —, fine thread. Un trait de plume fort —, a very fine stroke of a pen. 3 fig. (du, subtil) (sometimes in a bad part) shrewd, crafty, cunning, subtle. Mon maître, le plus — des courtisans, my master, the craftiest of courtiers. Le Sage. Une métaphysique — e, subtle metaphysics. Avoir l'esprit —, to be very sharp, shrewd. fm. Elle a la langue bien — e, her tongue is well hung.

DÉLIE, sm. calligr. up-stroke, hair-stroke.

DÉLIER, day-lay, ra. nous déliions, vous déliez, 1 (détacher) to unbind, to loosen (une gerbe, a sheaf). fig. J'ai trouvé moyen de vous sauver tous sans bourse —, I found means to save you all without going to a farthing's expense. Ab. M. cherchait comment il pourrait leur langue, M. was thinking how he could make them talk. Sand. 2 (by analogy) (dénouer) to untie, to undo. — des cordons, to untie strings. 3 fig. (dégager) to release, to absolve. Je te délie de tes serments, I release you from your oaths. Balz. — quelqu'un de ses vœux, to absolve a person from his vows. 4 theol. (absoudre) to unbind. absol. L'Eglise lie et délie, the Church binds and unbinds.

SE DÉLIER, vpr. to come untied, undone. fig. Il avait pris tout juste assez de vin pour se — les jambes, he had taken just wine enough to set him going. Ab.

DÉLIGATION, day-le-gah-syong, sf. sarg, deligation.

DÉLIMITATION, day-le-me-tah-syong, sf. delimitation, settling the boundaries.

DÉLIMITER, day-le-mé-tay, ra. to mark the limits, to settle, to fix the boundaries of. — deux champs, to fix the limits of two fields. (by extension) Les petites rivières bleues qui délimitent les royaumes, the thin blue lines that mark the boundaries of the kingdoms. Th. Gaut.

DÉLINATION, day-le-may-shyong, sf. Lat. delinatio, delinamint.

DÉLINQUANT, day-lang-kang, vpr. of délinqner, sm. fem. — e, delinquant, offender.

DÉLINQUER, day-lang-kay, vn. (Lat. delinquere) absol. law. to offend, to commit a trespass, an offence.

DÉLICESSE, day-le-kways-sang, sf. chem. deliquescence.

DÉLICESCENT, day-le-kways-sang, adj. m. fem. — e, chem. deliquescent.

DÉLIQUUM, day-le-kwe-om, sm. chem. deliquium.

DÉLIANT, day-le-rang, vpr. of délirer, abs. m. fem. — e, 1 med. delirious, raving. Fievre — e, delirious fever. 2 fig. delirious, raving, frenzied, frantic. Imagination — e, frenzied imagination. Sa joie était — e, his joy was delirious. Mery. Cet éloge qu'on peut appeler —, that panegyric that may be called a frantic one. S-B.

DÉLIRE, day-le-er, sm. (Lat. delirium) 1 med. delirium, light-headedness. Être en —, avoir le —, to be delirious. J'éus on instant de —, I felt a momentary fit of delirium. Ab. 2 fig. delirium, raving, frenzy. Le — de la passion, des passions, the frenzy of passion, of the passions. Le fanatisme, ce — de la vertu, fanaticism, that surfeit of virtue. Lamart. Le — de l'imagination, de l'esprit, the ravings of the imagination, the delirium of the mind. Lear joy almost reached frenzy. Dans le — de sa vanité, in the delirium of his vanity. S-B. Le — poétique, poetic frenzy.

DÉLIRER, day-le-ray, vn. to be delirious, light-headed, to rave.

DÉLIT, day-le, sm. 1 offence. Code des — s, code des peines, Code of misdemeanours and penalties. — politique, political offence. Corps du —, the corps de —, substance of the offence. Prendre, surprendre en flagrant —, to take, to surprise in the fact, in the very act, in the deed. 2 (particularly) misdemeanour, delinquency. Commettre un —, to commit an offence.

DÉLIT, sm. mason. breaking grain. Poser une pierre en —, to lay a stone contrary to its cleaving grain.

DÉLITIER, day-le-ray, ra. mason. to lay stones contrary to their cleaving grain.

SE DÉLITIER, vpr. (d'une pierre, of stones) to break in the grain.

DÉLIÉESSE, day-le-tays-sang, sf. (Lat. delioscence, chem. delioscence).

DÉLIANCE, day-le-vrangs, sf. 1 deliverance, relief. La — du roi, the king's deliverance. Aug. Th. Cette — tant promise comment n'arriva-t-elle pas? how was it that this so long promised deliverance did not come? Mich. (by extension) N'est-ce que cela, dit M. avec un sentiment de —, is that all, said M. with a feeling of relief. Sand. 2 med. delivery. 3 law. delivery. La — d'un legs, the delivery of a legacy.

DÉLIVERE, day-le-erv, sm. med. after-birth, secundines.

DÉLIVERE, vpa. of délivrer, fem. — e, J'étais bien sûr que nous serions — s par les gendarmes, I was very sure we should be delivered by the gendarmes. Ab. Une fois — de ces notes tracassières, once freed from those troublesome quests. Sand.

DÉLIVRER, day-le-vray, ra. (Lat. deliberare) 1 to deliver, to free, to release (des captifs, un prisonnier, captives, a prisoner) — de prison, to deliver from prison. Pas un ne songait à le — des vexations d'un seul homme, not one thought of freeing him from the vexations of a single man. Aug. Th. Délivrez-nous du mal, deliver us from evil. Quelquefois une parole nous a délivrés d'un remords, a word has sometimes freed us from a remorse. Miss. 2 med. — une femme, to deliver a woman. 3 (remettre entre les mains) to deliver (une somme, a sum). Pour toucher leurs legs chez l'atendant qui avait ordre de les leur —, to receive their legacies from the steward who had orders to deliver them. Le S-g. — l'expédition d'un acte, to deliver the copy of a deed. — des ouvrages à un entrepreneur, to set a master builder to work. — des ouvrages, to deliver works. 4 se délivrer, vpr. to deliver one's self (from), to free one's self (from), to get rid (of), to shake off (on péri, une inquiétude, a danger, anxiety). Se — d'un importun, to get rid of a troublesome fellow.

DÉLOGEMENT, day-lozh-màng, sm. 1 obol. (action de déloger) removal. 2 obol. (départ) departure. 3 (décampe-ment) removal, decamping.

DÉLOGER, day-lo-zhay, ra. NOUS DÉLOGERONS; IL DÉLOGERA, 1 to remove. IL VOUS FAUDRA — avant le terme, you must remove before quarter-day. 2 anc. (de troupes de passage, of troops) (partir) to march off. 3 (décamper) to decamp, to scamper away, to steal away. fig. Les petits délogèrent sous ses trompettes, the young ones packed off as fast as they could. La Font. fig. fam. — sans tambour, ni trompette, to march off in silence. 4 (sortir d'un lieu, d'une place) to get away, to move. On le fera bien — de là, he will be driven from there. Si matin qui vous fait — ? what brings you out so early? Rac. fig. Elle seul chaque jour — quelques ris, quelques jeux, puis l'amour. every day she perceives the absence of some beauty, some grace, then love itself takes wing. La Font. fig. Sa fièvre ne veut pas —, his fever will not leave him.

DÉLOGER, ra. 4 (faire quitter un logement) to turn out. 2 mil. to dislodge. 3 (faire quitter à quelqu'un une place qui ne lui appartient pas) to drive away. fig. Un des premiers sons de B. fut le leu de l'estime de C., one of B.'s first cares was to ruin him in the esteem of C. S.-B.

DÉLONGER, day-long-zhay, ra. NOUS DÉLONGERONS; IL DÉLONGERA, hawk to undo the leash.

DÉLOT, day-lo, sm. naut. culder's thumb-stick.

DÉLOVER, day-lo-vay, ra. naut. to uncoil.

DÉLOYAL, day-lwà-yal, adj. m. fem. — pl. m. DÉLOYAUX, 4 (perfidie) disloyal, fasc, treacherous. 2 (qui marque de la déloyauté) disloyal, unfair. Un air —, a perfidious air. Mol. Procédés déloyaux, unfair proceedings.

DÉLOYALEMENT, day-lwà-yal-màng, adv. disloyally, falsely, treacherously.

DÉLOYAUTE, day-lwà-yo-tay, sf. disloyalty, falseness, treachery.

DELTA, dayl-tah, sm. (Gr.) 1 delta. 2 geog. delta. Le — du Nil, the delta of the Nile.

DELTOÏDE, dayl-to-id, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 anat. deltoid. Le muscle —, the deltoid muscle. 2 bot. Feuilles —, deltoid leaves. 3 (substantif.) anat. the deltoid.

DÉLUGE, day-lûzh, sm. (Lat. diluvium) 1 deluge, flood, inundation. Le — universel, absol. Le —, the deluge, the flood. prov. Après moi, le —, when I am gone, come what will. Fam. P'assons au —, let us proceed to the flood. Rac. Remonter au —, to go back to the flood. 2 (hyperb.) deluge. C'est un —, un veritable — it is a deluge, a regular deluge. 3 fig. flood, deluge. Un — de paroles, d'injures, a deluge of words, of abuse. Un — de larmes, a flood of tears. Un — de maux, a tide of woes.

DÉLUSTRER, day-lûs-tray, ra. to take off the lustre, the gloss.

DELUTRE, day-lû-tray, ra. to unlute.

DÉMAGOGIE, day-mah-gô-zhee, sf. (Gr.) 1 demagogy. 2 (domination) demagogy.

DÉMAGOGIQUE, day-mah-gô-zhik, adj. mf. demagogic, demagogical.

DÉMAGOGUE, day-mah-gog, sm. (Gr.) 1 demagogue. 2 (adjectif) demagogic, demagogical. Un orateur —, a demagogic orator.

DÉMAIGRIR, day-may-greer, rn. (little used) to recover flesh.

DÉMAIGRIR, ra. mason. carp. to thin (une pierre, une pièce de bois, a stone, a piece of wood).

DÉMAILLE, ppc. of MAILLER, lem. — a, ajective. Maint haubert sera —, many a coat of mail will be shattered. Aug. Th.

DÉMAILLER, day-mai-yay, ra. 1 to undo the meshes. 2 naut. — la bon- nette, to unlace, to take off the bonnet from the foot of a sail.

DÉMAILLOTER, day-mah-yo-tay, ra. to ungrate (un enfant, a child).

DÉMAIN, duh-mang, adv. (Lat. de, mane) 1 to-morrow. J'en dirais d'ici à —, I could talk till to-morrow. M^{me} de Sév. De quoi — sera-t-il fait? What will to-morrow bring? V. Hug. — c'est le tombeau, to-morrow is the grave. V. Hug. 2 (by extension) (temps peu éloigné de celui où l'on est) to-morrow. Il dit cela aujourd'hui, — il dira le contraire, he says that to-day, to-morrow he will say the contrary. prov. A — les affaires sérieuses, time enough for business to-morrow. Aujourd'hui pour —, from one minute to another, at a moment's notice. 3 (substantif.) to-morrow. Rien ne ressemble plus à aujourd'hui que —, nothing resembles one day more than the following one. Le spectre toujours masqué qui nous suit côte à côte et qu'on nomme —, the veiled spectre that is ever at our elbow, and that is right to-morrow. V. Hug. — est un dimanche, to-morrow is Sunday.

DÉMANCHE, ppa. of DÉMANCHER, lem. — E, ajective. 4 off the handle. 2 un- gainly. 3 (substantif.) m. mus. shifting. 4 (substantif.) Un —, an ungainly fellow.

DÉMANCHER, day-mang-shang, sm. 4 taking off the handle, being without a handle. 2 mus. (de certains instruments à cordes, of certain stringed instruments) shifting.

DÉMANCHER, day-mang-shay, ra. to take off the handle. — une cognée, un blai, to take the handle out of an axe, the stick out of a broom.

DÉMANCHER, vn. mus. to shift.

SE DÉMANCHER, vpr. 4 to come out of the handle. 2 fig. to go wrong. Il y a quelque chose qui se démanche dans cette affaire, there is a screw loose in that affair. Ma machine n'est pas encore démaillée, mais elle se démanche, I am not yet an invalid, but I am getting rickety. M^{me} de Sév. 3 fig. (d'un parti, of a party) (se désoler) to get unhinged, out of joint. 4 fig. pop. (se démaner) to strive hard, to take pains.

DEMANDE, duh-màngd, sf. 4 request, demand, question, inquiry. Faire une —, to ask a question, to make an inquiry. Satisfaire à une —, to comply with a request. 2 (écrit) request, application. 3 (en mariage) suit, marriage proposals. C'est son parrain qui a fait la —, it was her godfather who asked her of her friends. 4 law (action que l'on intente en justice) demand, suit, action at law. — en garantie, voucher, incident, cross demand. 5 law. (l'acte) suit, demand. 6 (by extension) (la chose demandée) demand. 7 (question) question, demand, query. Un livre par — et par réponses, a book in questions and answers. ironic. Voilà une belle —, belle demande! a pretty question! prov. A folle —, à sottie —, point de réponse, a silly question needs no answer. 8 pulit. eco. demand, request. Quand la — est abondante, le travail augmente, when there is a great demand, wages rise. Le rapport de l'offre à la —, the connexion between demand and supply.

DEMANDE, ppa. of DEMANDER, lem. — E, demanded, requested. Une marchandise peu — e, goods little in request. Cette justice privilégiée — e par la Chambre des Lords, this privileged justice demanded by the House of Lords. Villem.

DÉMANDER, duh-màngd-day, va. (Lat. demandare) 4 to demand, to ask for, to beg, to request, to desire. — du travail, to ask for work. — à quelqu'un son amitié, sa protection, to solicit a person's friendship, protection. — une place, un emploi, to solicit a place, an employment. — audience, to request an audience. — on délai, to beg for a delay. — en mariage, to ask in marriage. — des dommages-intérêts, to demand damages.

— la permission de faire quelque chose, to ask for leave to do a thing. — pardon, grâce, quartier, to beg pardon, to sue for pardon, to crave for quarter. — l'aumône, to beg alms. — en grâce, to beg, to ask as a favour. L'homme a été — au lion sa caverne pour se loger, the man went and asked the lion for his cave that he might live in it. Saint. Voilà la réponse que vous demandez, there is the answer you ask me for. M^{re}. Les meres demandaient à Dieu une fille comme elle, mothers begged of God a daughter like her. B. de St-P. Puisque Jean Lapin vous demande la vie, donnez-la-lui, Jack Rabbit begs for his life, grant his petition. La Font. Je demandais éternellement vengeance de ta dureté, I will call down eternal vengeance upon you for your hard-heartedness. Balz. Il demandait à être entendu, he desired to be heard. Il demandait d'être entendu, he requested to be heard. — à boire, à manger, to ask for drink, for food. absol. Il demande toujours, il ne cesse de, he is always asking. — une jeune fille, to ask a young girl in marriage, to ask for the hand of a young girl. Je la demandais à son père, I will ask her of her father. (jeux de cartes, at cards) to demand. Je demande, I demand. — son pain, sa vie, absol. —, to beg one's bread, to beg for one's living, to beg. Il demande de porte en porte, he begs from door to door. — la bourse, — la bourse au la vie, to demand a person's money or his life. — raison, to demand satisfaction. — compte, to ask for an account. 2 (by extension) (exiger, vouloir, réclamer) to require (of, from), to enjoin, to demand (of). Dieu et le genre humain ne nous demandent que des vertus, God and mankind require only virtues from us. B. de St-P. Pauvres et mal payés on ne saurait leur — d'être honnêtes, poor and ill-paid they cannot be expected to be honest. Ah! Dieu nous demande que nous secourions nos semblables, God requires of us to assist our fellow-creatures. Fén. Mes soldats, dans ce moment même, demandent ma présence, my soldiers, at this very moment, require my presence. Rac. Ne — qu'à, to want only, to be eager for. L'armée ne demandait qu'à combattre, the army was eager for the fight. Je ne demande pas mieux, I am quite willing. prov. Ne — que plaie et buse, to think the more mischief the better sport. 3 (dire d'apporter, dire de donner) to call for, to send for. — le journal, to call for the newspaper. On vous demande chez vous, you are wanted at home. — un notaire, un médecin, to send for a notary, a physician. Faire — des renforts, to send for reinforcements. 4 (faire savoir par les journaux) to advertise for. On demande des employés, wanted clerks. 5 (chercher quelqu'un pour le voir, lui parler) to ask for, after, to ask to see, to want to speak to. Voilà un monsieur qui demande si vous êtes au logis, there is a gentleman inquiring whether you are at home. Mol. Qui demandez-vous? Je demande monsieur un tel, whom are you asking for? 6 I am asking for Mr. such a one. 6 interroger pour être informé to ask, to inquire. — son chemin, to ask one's way. Il leur demandait ce qu'il leur semblait d'une semblable doctrine, he asked them what they thought of such a doctrine. Aug. Th. — des nouvelles de quelqu'un, to inquire after a person. Je lui demandai son nom, I asked him his name. Il demande pourquoi vous avez agi ainsi, he asks why you acted thus. Il faut lui — d'où il vient, you must ask him where he comes from. Je lui ai demandé s'il viendrait, I asked him whether he would come. Il me demanda comment cela était arrivé, he asked me how that had happened. Nous irons lui — son avis, we will go and ask his advice. O Muss! ne m'en demande pas si Mong! ou Musel do not ask so much of me! Muss. Demandez-moi pourquoi, just tell me why; you must not ask me why. Demandez-moi pourquoi il s'est mis en colère, just tell me why he flew into a passion. fig. Ils demandaient d'un œil inquiet leur château à tous les points de vue, they looked anxiously round on every side after their castle. Sand. 2 des choses, of things (exiger, avoir besoin) to require, to need, to want, to stand in need of. Voyant que les besoins de la famille demandaient un travail continu, seeing that the wants of the family required constant labour. B. de St-P. Faites toujours ce que la vertu demande, fulfil the requirements of virtue. Toutes les professions humaines demandent un apprentissage, every calling requires an apprenticeship. Ph. Chas. Le chemin qui tourne par les vallées demanderait moins de temps, the road winding through the valleys would require less time. Saint. La conduite de cette affaire demande beaucoup de tact, the management of that affair requires great tact. Cela demande explication, that requires an explanation. Les terres demandent de l'eau, the land stands in need of water. faw. Cet habit en demande un autre, that coat wants another.

SE DEMANDER, vr. 4 (être demandé) to be asked for. Un conseil se demande moins volontiers qu'il ne se donne, advice is asked for less willingly than it is given. 2 (s'interroger) to wonder, to ask one's self. L'aide-de-camp et le page se demandaient pourquoi on les avait fait venir si vite, the aide-de-camp and the page wondered why they had been sent for in such haste. Saint. Je me demande encore comment cela a pu se faire, I wonder still how that can have been done. 3 (être l'objet d'une question) to be a question. Ce sont de ces choses qui ne se demandent pas, that is a matter of course; such requests are never made.

DEMANDEESSE, dah-mung-drays, sf. See DEMANDEUR, n° 2.

DEMANDEUR, dah-mung-duhr, sm. fém. DEMANDEUSE, 1 asker. C'est un — perpétuel, he is always asking. 2 law. applicant, plaintiff, fém. DEMANDEESSE.

DEMANGEAISON, dah-mung-zhay-zong, sf. 4 itching, itch. Éprouver des —s, to itch. 2 fig. itching, itching. Avoir une grande — de parler, to long to speak.

DEMANGER, dah-mung-zhay, vn. nous DEMANGEONS, il DEMANGE, to itch. Sa tête, tout le corps lui démange, his head, his whole body itches. fig. Les poings, les mains, les doigts, la langue, les pieds lui démangent, he longs to fight, to write, to speak, to go out. P. à qui la langue démangeait autant qu'à moi, P. who longed to speak as much as I did myself. Le Sage. (by analogy) (inspers.) Il nous demande de savoir de quel couleur était sa barrette, long to know what was the colour of his cap. Muss. Le dos lui demandait, he wants a drubbing.

DEMANTELER, ppa. of DEMANTELER, fém. —e, dismantled.

DEMANTELEMENT, dah-mung-tel-mung, sm. dismantling.

DEMANTELER, dah-mung-tel, va. to dismantle (une place, une ville, a place, a town).

DEMANTEBULE, ppa. of DEMANTEBULER, fém. —e, broken. fig. Un meuble tout —, a crazy piece of furniture.

DEMANTEBULER, dah-mung-tel-bü-lay, va. (Lat. de, mandibula) 4 to break. 2 fig. to break, to put out of order.

SE DEMANTEBULER, vr. fig. to break, to come out of order.

DEMARCATION, day-mar-kah-yong, sf. 4 Ligne de —, line of demarcation. 2 (by extension) Tirer une ligne de — entre deux États, deux héritages, to draw a line of demarcation between two states, two inheritances. fig. Une ligne de — bien marquée sépare ces deux ordres de faits, a well defined line of demarcation separates those two orders of facts.

DEMARCHIE, day-mar-shi, sf. 4 gait, walk, port, bearing, step. — vive, légère, quick, light step. — Altière, enflarassée, timide, contrainte, incertaine, proud, embarrassed, timid, constrained, uncertain gait. Cette — d'oie qu'ont les musulmans chez eux, that waddling step peculiar to fat Turkish women. Th. Gaut. La majestueuse — d'un penseur, the majestic port of a thinker. Balz. 2 (ce que l'on fait pour faire réussir une affaire, allées et venues) step, proceeding, application. Une fausse —, a false step. Une — hasardée, a bold, hazardous step, a step taken at a venture. Faire des pas et des —s pour obtenir quelque chose, to take steps and make applications to obtain a thing.

DEMARNIER, day-mar-ryay, va. nous DEMARNONS, vous DEMARNEZ, to unmarry.

SE DEMARNIER, vr. (divorcer) to be unmarried.

DEMARQUÉ, ppa. of DEMARQUER, fém. —e, adjective, unmarked.

DEMARQUER, day-mar-kay, va. 4 to take out, unmark the mark of, to mark (la ligne, l'avenue) — un livre, to take the mark out of a book. 2 (jeu) to unmark.

DEMARQUER, vu. (d'un cheval, of a horse) to cease to mark, to lose the mark of its age.

DEMARRAGE, day-mar-razh, sm. naut. unmarrying.

DEMARRER, day-mar-ray, va. naut. to unmoor (un bâtiment, un canot, a vessel, a boat). — un cordage, to unband a rope.

DEMAINER, vn. 4 naut. to leave her moorings. 2 (by extension) (quitter un lieu) to stir to bulge. Il ne demaine pas de cette maison, he does not stir from that house. 3 (par accident) to slip from her moorings.

DEMASQUER, day-mas-kay, va. (little used) 1 to unmask. 2 fig. to unmask. — le vice, to unmask vice. 3 mil. — une batterie, to unmask a battery.

SE DEMASQUER, vr. 1 to unmask, to take one's mask off. 2 fig. to let one's mask fall. Ne craignez pas les méchants, tôt ou tard ils se démasquent, do not fear the wicked, sooner or later they let fall their mask. St-B.

DEMATAGE, day-ma-tazh, sm. naut. dismantling.

DEMATER, day-ma-tay, va. 1 naut. to take out the masts, to dismast (un vaisseau, a vessel). 2 (by extension) La tempête nous avait dématés, the tempest had carried away our masts.

DEMATER, vn. naut. to lose her masts.

SE DEMATER, vr. naut. to lose all her masts.

DEMELE, ppa. of DEMELER, fém. —E, adjective. Cheveux —s, hair combed out. DEMÊLÉ, sm. quarrel, contest, dispute. Il lui légua de fâcheux —s avec sa famille, he bequeathed him disagreeable family quarrels. St-B.

DEMELER, day-may-lay, 4 to comb out, to disentangle. — les cheveux à quelqu'un, to comb out a person's hair. — du fil, to disentangle thread. absol. Peigne à —, large-tooth comb. 2 fig. (débrouiller) to unravel, to clear up (une intrigue, an intrigue). Les raisons en sont assez confuses, nous tâcherons d'en — quelques-unes, the reasons are rather confused, we will endeavour to make out a few. St-B. Il n'est pas aisé à —, he is not easy to make out. 3 Avoir à — la tête à do, It n'a rien à — avec vous, he has nothing to do with you. Nous n'avons aucune affaire à — ensemble, we have nothing to do with each other. (by extension) Les larmes de cette tienne n'ont rien à — avec la vieillesse, old age has no hold on men of that stamp. Ab. Le sentiment n'a rien à — avec la science, sentiment has nothing to do with science. 4 fig. (reconnaître, distinguer) to distinguish, to discern, to recognize. Elle dénêla au premier regard le roi qui s'était mêlé à la foule des seigneurs, she recognized at the first glance the king who had mingled in the crowd of lords. Mich. Ils me dénêlèrent dans la foule, et m'ayant fait appeler, they recognized me in the crowd, and having sent for me. Le Sage. Je reviendrai voir à la lumière, ce que j'ai vu dans l'ombre du soir, I will return and see by day-light what I perceived in the shades of the evening. Th. Gaut. — le vrai du faux, le vrai d'avec le faux, to distinguish truth from falsehood. Ce discours m'embarraça, mais j'y dénêlai bientôt les intentions de L., this discourse embarrassed me, but I soon penetrated what L. meant. Le Sage. Elle dénêla des très bien la froide malveillance des nouveaux venus, she very easily discerned the cold malvolence of the new comers. Mich. Sans — dans mon émotion, si mes pleurs étaient produits par l'attendrissement ou la joie, my emotion preventing me from perceiving whether my tears arose from tenderness or joy. Nod. 5 hunt. — les voies de la bête, to discern the new tracks from the old ones.

SE DEMELER, vr. 4 (être dénêlé) to be unravelled, disentangled. L'agneau dola la blanche laine se dénêla sous tes doigts, the lamb whose snowy wool comes unravelled under thy fingers. V. Iluz. Cet écheveau ne veut pas se —, this skein will not come disentangled. 2 fig. (se débrouiller) to be et-ared up. D'abord ses idées eurent de la peine à se —, he had at first some trouble in collecting his ideas. 3 fig. (se dégager, se tirer de) to get clear, to extricate oneself. Se — d'une bagarre, to get out of a scuffle.

DEMELOIR, day-may-wâr, sm. 1 (machine) huckle, hutchet. 2 (sorte de peigne) large-tooth comb.

DEMEMBRE, ppa. of DEMEMBRER, fém. —E, 1 adjective, quartered. 2 her. demembre.

DEMEMBREMENT, day-mang-bruh-oàng, sm. 1 dismemberment. 2 fig. (la chose qui a été détachée) part cut off, dismembered.

DEMEMBRER, day-mang-bray, va. 1 (from membre) to dismember, to tear limb from limb. On tailla, on demembra messire loup, they tear up sire Wolf. La Font. (hyperb.) Il se faisait plutôt — que de faire telle chose, rather than to cut a thing he would suffer himself to be torn limb from limb. 2 fig. to dismember (une terre, an ministère, an estate, a ministry). Elles demembrèrent l'empire, they dismembered the empire. Nout.

SE DEMEMBRER, vr. (être demembré) to be dismembered. fig. Le sort des grands États est de se —, the fate of great states is to be dismembered. Rayn.

DEMEÑAGE, ppa. of DEMENAGER, fém. —E, 1 est — depuis quelques jours, he removed a few days ago.

DEMEÑEMENT, day-may-nah-mung, sm. removal, removing. Faire un —, to remove.

DEMEÑAGER, day-may-nah-zhay, va. to remove (ses meubles, ses livres, furniture, books). (by extension) Elles dépouillèrent un grand franger et le demenagèrent de toutes ses feuilles, they strip a large orange-tree and carry off all its leaves. Nout.

SE DEMENAGER, vr. 4 to remove, to move. Il y a no mois qu'il a demenagé, he removed a month ago. 2 fig. to be off. On le fera bien —, he will be made to pack, to bundle off. Allons, qu'on se retire, qu'on déménage, now then, off with you, be off. Treublante poor ses œufs, it furnished déménage, trembling for her eggs, the ant removes. Mich. L'autorité avait déménagé à suite de la population, the authority had removed after the population. Ab. Ma tête est faible et la raison portait — avant la fin du mois, my head is weak, and my wit might go a-wool-gathering before the month is out. Ab. 3 fig. pop. (mourir) it die. Balz.

DÉMENCE, day-mangs, sf. (Lat. demencia) 1 insanity, madness, lunacy. Tomber en —, to run, to go mad. Être en —, to be mad, insane. 2 (hyperb.) insanity, madness. Sa joie va jusqu'à la —, he is mad with joy.

SE DÉMENER, day-may, prp. 1 to struggle, to toss about, to kick about. 2 — comme un possédé, to toss about like one possessed. Ils se démenaient sur place, they were kicking about, without quitting the spot where they were. Ab. 2 fig. to strive hard. Il se démène activement pour arriver au ministère de la justice, he strives hard for the post of minister of justice. Ab.

DÉMENTI, day-mang-lee, ppa. of DÉMENTIR, leu. —, Des projets —, baffled resolutions. Rac.

DÉMENTI, sm. 1 lie, contradiction. Donner, recevoir un —, to give the lie, to be falsely contradicted. 2 fig. L'événement a donné un — à votre assertion, the event has given the lie to your assertion. 2 fig. (mauvais succès) disappointment. Vous avez entrepris cela, mais vous en aurez le —, you have undertaken that, but you will not come off with flying colours. Je ne veux pas en avoir le —, I shall not be said I was worsted.

DÉMENTIR, day-mang-lee, pr. conj. like SENTIR, 1 to belie, to give the lie, to contradict. fig. Bien loin de — par sa présence ce qu'on avait dit de lui, il, far from refuting what had been said of him, by making his appearance, he. Le Sage. 2 (nier) to deny, to gamsay (une nouvelle, a piece of news). — un écrit, sa signature, to disown a piece of writing, one's signature. 3 fig. (ne pas agir comme on l'avait dit, pensé, espéré) to belie, to disappoint. Il a démenti les espérances qu'il avait données, he has disappointed the hopes he had held out. (by analogy) — sa naissance, son caractère, to belie one's birth, one's character. Vous ne démentez point une race faneste, you do not belie a fatal race. Rac. Je n'ai point de mal sang démenti forligné, I have not belied my origin. Rac. — sa promesse, to forfeit one's word. 4 fig. (des choses, of things) to say, to confirm, être contraire) to contradict. Nos pronostics ne furent pas démentis par l'événement, our predictions were not given the lie to our predictions. Le Sage. Ils apportent pour preuve to passage qui devient la légende, they bring us proof a passage that contradicts the legend. Th. Gaul. Les druides pages sont tristes et démentent bien les premières, the last pages are sad and in contradiction with the first. St-B. De cruels événements démentiront cette ambition, cruel events disappointed this ambition. Mich. Ses actions démentent ses paroles, his actions belie his words.

SE DÉMENTIR, prp. 1 refl. to contradict one's self. 2 réciproq. fig. to contradict each other. 3 (quand on s'a parole) to forfeit one's word, to break one's promise. 4 (secrétaire de son caractère) to be inconsistent, to be inconsistent with one's self, to belie one's self. La nature ne se dément jamais, nature is never inconsistent with itself. 5 (esser) to discontinue, to fall off. Cette régularité se démentit tout à coup, there was a sudden check to that regularity. Mich. Leur bonté, leur politesse ne se démentent à l'égard de personne, their kindness, their politeness are always the same to every body. Mont. Cette vie de courage ne se démentit point pendant cinq ans, this courageous way was persevered in for five years. Balz.

Un zèle qui ne s'est jamais —, unwearied zeal. Sand. La liaison de A. et de V. ne se démentit à aucune époque, the connection between A. and V. experienced no interruption at any period. St-B.

DÉMÉRITÉ, day-may-reet, sm. demerit, unworthiness.

DÉMÉRITER, day-may-reet, vn. 1 to demerit, to do amiss. En quoi a-t-il pu — de vous, auprès de vous? how has he forfeited your esteem? 2 theol. to demerit. (by extension) Toutes les fautes ne déméritent pas également, all faults are not of the same gravity. Cous.

DÉMESURE, daym-zfi-ray, adj. m. fem. —, 1 huge, immoderate. Un arbre d'une grandeur —, a tree of an enormous size. 2 fig. moral. excessive, immoderate, inordinate. Une ambition —, overgrown ambition. Avoir une envie —, to be desirous of something, to have a most eager desire to do a thing.

DÉMESUREMENT, daym-zfi-ray-mang, adv. excessively, immoderately, inordinately.

DÉMETTRE, day-maytr, v. conj. like METTRE, 1 to dislocate, to put out of joint. — l'épaule, to dislocate the shoulder. 2 law. to overrule. 3 (destituer) to dismiss, to remove.

SE DÉMETTRE, prp. 1 (être démis) to be dislocated, to be put out of joint. 2 (à suit) to dislocate, to put out of joint. 3 (se briser, to break) to resign, to give up, to throw up, to lay down. Se — de ses fonctions, to resign one's functions. Balz. Il se démit entre les mains du pape de sa dignité épiscopale, he resigned his episcopal dignity into the hands of the pope. Aug. Th.

DÉMEUBLEMENT, day-moh-bloh-mang, sm. unfurnishing, unfurnished state.

DÉMEUBLER, day-moh-blai, to. to unfurnish, to strip of furniture.

DÉMEURANT, dub-muh-rang, ppr. of DÉMEURER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 living, residing. A madame X. —, to Mr X., residing at. (is employed) in the firm, only as a law term) An lieu où ladite dame est —, in the place where the said lady dwells.

AD DÉMEURANT, adv. loc. after all, however. An —, ma santé était bonne, upon the whole, my health was sound. Ah. An — bon homme, a good fellow at bottom. Flor.

DÉMEURE, dub-muhr, sf. 1 abode, residence, dwelling, dwelling-place, home. En-lir sa — quelque part, to take up one's abode somewhere. 2 (le temps) abode, stay. Il n'a pas fait longue — ici, he has not made a long stay here. 3 law. d'lay. Mettre quelqu'un en —, to put in suit, to demand in due form of law. Mise en —, putting in suit, demand in due form of law. fig. Il est mis en — d'avoir à l'instant de l'énergie, he is under the necessity of exerting his energies at a moment's call. St-B. fig. Il y a peril en la —, the thing brooks no delay. fig. Être en — avec quelqu'un, to be behindhand with a person, to be in arrears with a person.

À DÉMEURE, adv. loc. 1 immovable. Être à —, to be a fixture. 2 agri. Labourer à —, s'emer à —, See LABOUREUR, SEMER.

DÉMEURER, dub-muh-ray, vn. Lat. demorari 1 (habiter, to reside, to live, to dwell. — à la ville, à la campagne, to live in town, in the country. Le château où le seigneur du lieu demeure, the mansion where the lord of the manor resides. Flor. 2 (rester, s'arrêter) to remain, to stay, to stop. Vous êtes demeuré bien tard dehors, you have remained a long time out of doors. 3 (demeurer là jusqu'à ce que je vous appelle, stay there till I call you, he est demeuré près d'une heure avec moi, he remained nearly an hour with me. Demorez, j'ai à te parler, stay, I have something to say to you. La plupart de mes hommes étaient demeurés en route, most of my men had dropped off on the road. Les ducs s'en allèrent souper, et le duc de B., qui jeûnait, demeura, the dukes went off to dinner, and the duke of B., who was fasting, remained behind. Bar. Ne pas — en place, not to stand still for a moment. 3 — court, to stop short, to break down. 4 fig. — en reste, en arrière, to be behindhand, in arrears. De peur de — en reste avec nous, elles..., for fear of being behindhand, with us, they... Le Sage. 5 fig. — en chemin, en beau chemin, en —, to stop half way. 6 fig. En —, (des personnes, of persons) to stop there. Demeurez-en là, c'est le conseil que je vous donne, stop there, that is the advice I give you. (des choses, of things) to stop there, to go no further, to break off. L'affaire n'en demeurera pas là, je vous en réponds, the affair shall not stop there, I promise you. En — là d'un travail, d'une lecture, to leave off working, reading. On en étiez-vous demeuré de votre histoire? where did you leave off in your story? Demourons-en là, let us stop there. Demeurons-en là, demourons-en à cela, let us fix upon that, let us take up with that, let us keep to that. 7 fig. — pour les gages, to pay for the rest. 8 — sur la place, to be left dead on the spot. 9 — sur le cœur, sur l'estomac, to lie on one's heart, on one's stomach. fig. Cela lui est demeuré sur le cœur, he could not digest that. 10 fig. — sur son appétit, to leave off with an appetite. 11 fig. — sur la bonne bouche, to eat the best thing last. 12 (tarder) to take a long time, to be a long time. Vous avez demeuré bien longtemps en route, you have been a long time on the way. 13 (suivi d'un qualificatif, followed by a qualitative) (rester) to remain. G. demeurait impénétrable, G. remained impenetrable. Sand. — d'accord, to agree, to be agreed. — propriétaire, to be, to remain the owner. Le pays demeura attaché de la domination anglaise, the country remained fixed from English rule. Aug. Th. Notre tête grise demeura sans cheveux, our grey head remained bald. La Font. Il y en a demeuré à jamais reconnaissant, he is for ever grateful to them. St-B. Comment souffrez-vous de — si pauvre, quand tout père est si riche? how can you endure being so poor, when your father is so rich? Aug. Th. Les évêques demeurèrent dans le parti du roi, the bishops remained in the king's party. Aug. Th. 14 (persister, durer) to remain, to last. Cette construction n'est pas pour —, this building is not to last. La cicatrice lui en demeura toujours, he will never get rid of the scar. La première impression reste vraie et demeure aussi la dernière, the first impression is the true one and therefore is the most lasting one. St-B. 15 (être conservé, laissé) to remain. fig. La victoire est demeurée aux Français, the French got, obtained the victory. 16 (rester, être de reste) to remain, to be left. De tous les enfants qu'elle avait, voilà le seul qui lui est demeuré, of all her children, that is the only one she has left. De toute sa fortune, il ne lui est rien demeuré, he has kept nothing of all his fortune.

DEMI, dahl-mee, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. dimidius) 1 (intr. when placed before a subst.) half, semi. Une — aune, half an ell. — livre, — a pound — — cercle, semi-cercle, semi-circulaire. Toutes les — heures, every half-hour. Quatre heures et —, half past four o'clock. Deux lieues et —, two leagues and a half. (improperly) Midi et —, minuit et —, half past twelve in the morning, half past twelve at night. 2 (marquant une diminution, noting a diminution) half. — tain, hip-bush. — teinte, mezzo-tinto.

— mesure, half-measure. — savoir, imperfect learning. — joint, twilight. — savant, smaller. — ion, half-mad. Entendre à — mot, to take a hint. 3 (augmentatively) A tromper, to cheat. — à fourbe, to cheat. — set, a thief to catch a thief. A metteur, mentor et —, the biter bit, diamond cut diamond. DEMI-DIEU, sm. half-mourning. DEMI-DIEU, sm. pl. DEMI-DIEUX, demi-god.

DEMI-FORTUNE, sf. one-horse carriage, clarence.

DEMI-FRÈRE, sm. DEMI-SŒUR, sf. half-brother, half-sister.

DEMI-LUNE, sf. 1 fort. half-moon, demi-lune. 2 arch. crescent, half-moon.

DEMI-MÉTAL, sm. semi-metal.

DEMI-SETIER, sm. half a pint.

DEM, sm. arith. half. Deux — s valent une unité, two halves are equal to a whole. Trois quarts et un —, three fourths and a half.

A DEMI, adv. loc. 4 half. 2 (by extension) (en partie) half, by halves. La mort de S. m'a vengé à —, I am already half-avenged by the death of S. Faire les choses à —, to do things by halves. Cela n'est cuit qu'à —, that is but half done. Un peuple à —, barbaric, a half-barbarous people. Mont. (elliptic) Vous ne voudriez pas me traîner au salon sans rouge et à — n, you would not drag me into the drawing-room without rouge and half-dressed. Muss.

DEMIE, duh-née, sf. half-hour. Une pendule qui sonne les heures et les — s, a time-piece that strikes the hours and the half-hours. La — va sonner, the half-hour is going to strike.

DEMIS, day-mee, ppa. of DÉMETTRE, fem. — e, adjective. dislocated, out of joint. Un bras —, a dislocated arm.

DÉMISSION, day-mo-syong, sf. 1 resignation. Donner sa —, to tender, to give in one's resignation. 2 law. — de biens, resignation of property.

DÉMISSIONNAIRE, day-mo-syo-nayr, a. nf. 1 resigner. 2 adjective. That has resigned.

DÉMISSOIRE, day-mo-swâr, See DIMISSIOIRE.

DÉMOCRATE, day-mo-krat, sm. democrat.

DÉMOCRATIE, day-mo-kras-seo, sf. (Gr.) democracy.

DÉMOCRATIQUE, day-mo-krat-ik, adj. mf. democratic, democrat.

DÉMOCRATIQUEMENT, day-mo-krat-ik-mang, adv. democratically.

DEMOISELLE, duh-mwâ-zel, sf. 1 young lady, damsel, spinster, unmarried, single lady, single woman. Une — bica élevée, a well-bred young lady. Elle est toujours —, she is still unmarried. 2 anc. gentleman. 3 orn. Numidian crane, long-tailed limouse. 4 ent. dragon-fly. 5 tech. beetle, paring-beetle.

DÉMOLIR, day-mo-lee-er, va. (Lat. demolire) 1 to demolish, to pull down, to throw down (un mur, une maison, a wall, a house). 2 to overthrow, to subvert. — une réputation usurpée, to demolish a usurped reputation.

DÉMOLISSEUR, day-mo-le-suhr, sm. demolisher, puller down. fig. Le 18^e siècle, ce grand —, the 18th century, that great demolisher.

DÉMOLITION, day-mo-le-syong, sf. 1 demolition, pulling down. La — d'une maison, the demolition of a house. fig. La — de la société, the subverting of society. 2 — s, pl. (matériau) materials, rubbish.

DÉMON, day-mong, sm. (Gr.) 1 demon, evil spirit, devil, fiend, evil one. Avoir de l'esprit comme un —, to be devilishly witty. 2 fig. démon, devil. Cet homme est un vrai — un — incarné, that man is a regular devil, an incarnate demon. (hyperb.) (enfant turbulent) imp. démon. C'est un vrai petit —, he is a regular little imp. Faire le —, to play the devil. 3 (génie, esprit) demon, genius, familiar spirit. Le — de Socrate, the demon of Socrates. fig. Quel — vous agitez? what demon agitates you? what devil possesses you? Le — de la jalousie, the demon of jealousy. poetic. Le — de la guerre, des combats, the god of war, of battles.

DÉMONÉTISATION, day-mo-nay-te-zab-syong, sf. withdrawal, calling in of money.

DÉMONÉTISER, day-mo-nay-te-zay, va. to withdraw, to call in (money). fig. Il s'occupait de répandre partout les pamphlets pour — l'adversaire, he was busy in circulating pamphlets every where to undermine his adversary. Sicil.

DÉMONIAQUE, day-mo-nyak, adj. mf. 1 demoniac, demoniacal. Une femme —, a woman possessed of the demon. 2 (substantif) demoniac. fig. C'est une vraie —, she is like one possessed.

DÉMONOGRAPHIE, day-mo-no-grah-foe, sm. (Gr.) demography, demology.

DÉMONOMANIE, day-mo-no-mah-née, sf. (Gr.) 1 demonomania. 2 (titre d'un traité) demology.

DÉMONSTRABILITÉ, day-mongs-trab-be-le-tay, sf. demonstrability.

DÉMONSTRATEUR, day-mongs-trat-nhr, sm. — en anatomie, en botanique, demonstrator in anatomy, in botany. — de physique, de chimie, demonstrator of physics, of chemistry.

DÉMONSTRATIF, day-mongs-trat-if, adj. m. fem. DEMONSTRATIVE. 1 adjectif. Argument —, demonstrative argument. 2 rhet. Genre —, demonstrative style. (substantif) Le —, the demonstrative style. 3 gram. adjectif, pronom —, demonstrative adjective, pronoun. 4 fig. démonstrative. Un homme très —, a very demonstrative man.

DÉMONSTRATION, day-mongs-trah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 demonstration. — géométrique, geometrical demonstration. 2 (by extension) demonstration, proof. 3 (explication) lecture. 4 — s, pl. (signes extérieurs) demonstration, manifestation, show. Faute de grandes — s d'amitié, to make a great show of friendship. 5 mil. (manœuvre) demonstration, movement.

DÉMONSTRATIFEMENT, day-mongs-trah-iv-mang, adv. demonstratively.

DÉMONTAGE, day-mong-tatz, sm. taking to pieces.

DÉMÔTE, ppa. of DÉMONTER, fem. — e, unhorse, fig. baffled.

DÉMONTER, day-mong-tay, va. 1 to unhorse, to take a person's horse from him. Notre cavalier rencontre des voleurs qui le démonteront, our horseman met thieves who took his horse from him. (by extension) Un cheval qui démonte son cavalier, a horse that throws his rider. — de la cavalerie, to unhorse cavalry. fig. — un capitaine de vaisseau, to supersede the captain of a vessel. 2 fig. (renverser, tuer) to throw down, to bring down, to disassemble. 3 (désassembler) to take to pieces (une montre, une pendule, a watch, a time-piece). 4 fig. (troubler, déconcerté) to baffle, to nonplus, to put out of countenance. Ces paroles démontent toutes vos espérances, these words crush all your hopes. d'Abi. absol. Cela démonte, cela est fait pour —, that upsets one, that is calculated to upset one.

SE DÉMONTER, vpr. 1 to be taken to pieces, to dislocate. Une machine qui se démonte facilement, a machine easily taken to pieces. fam. Bailler à se — la mâchoire, to gape enough to dislocate one's jaw. fig. La machine se démontait, nature was sinking rapidly. M^{me} de Sev. fig. Il a un visage qui se démonte, it se démonte le visage, it demonte son visage comme il lui plaît, he can put on what countenance he pleases. 2 fig. (se déconcerté) to be disconcerted. Il n'est pas homme à se — facilement, he is not a man to be easily disconcerted.

DEMONSTRABLE, day-mong-trab, adj. mf. demonstrable.

DÉMONTRER, day-mong-tray, va. (Lat. demonstrare) 1 to demonstrate (une vérité, une proposition, un problème, a truth, a proposition, a problem). Il n'est parfaitement démontré qu'ils descendent en droite ligne de, it is clear to me that they descend in a right line from. Nod. Il est démontré que, it is proved that. M. nous a démontré l'harmonie de l'air et de l'eau, M. explained to us the harmony between air and water. Mich. Ce qu'il s'agit de —, what remains to be proved. 2 (by extension) to show, to indicate, to prove. Son ton lui avait démontré l'inutilité de sa démarche, his tone proved to him how useless would be his interference. Balz. 3 (dans les sciences naturelles, in natural sciences) to demonstrate.

SE DÉMONSTRER, vpr. to be demonstrated, to be proved.

DÉMONSTRALISATEUR, day-mo-ral-e-zat-nhr, adj. m. fem. DEMONSTRALISATICE, demonralizing.

DÉMONSTRALISATION, day-mo-ral-e-zah-syong, sf. 1 démonstration. 2 (découragement) demonralization.

DÉMONSTRALISÉ, ppa. of DÉMONSTRALISER, fem. — e, demonralized.

DÉMONSTRALISER, day-mo-ral-e-zay, va. 1 (corrompre) to demonralize. 2 (décourager) to demonralize.

SE DÉMONSTRALISER, vpr. 1 (se corrompre) to be demonralized, to demonralize each other. 2 (perdre courage) to be demonralized.

DÉMORDE, day-mordr, v. conj. like MORDE. 4 (des chiens, of dogs) to let go, to loose hold. 2 fig. (se départir) to depart (from), to swerve (from), to recede (from), to give up. Il ne veut pas — de ses prétentions, he will not give up his pretensions. Capable de faire une sottise plutôt que de — de son sentiment, capable of committing an act of folly rather than give up his opinion. — de Sage. Allons où tu voudras, je n'en démorai pas, let us go where you will, I will stick to you. Muss. Rien ne pourra l'en faire —, nothing can get it out of his head.

DÉMOTIQUE, day-mo-tik, adj. mf. demotic.

DÉMOUCHETÉ, ppa. of DÉMOUCHETER, fem. — e, Fleuret —, foil without its button.

DÉMOUCHETER, day-moosh-tay, va. conj. like ACHETER, — un fleuret, to take off the button from a foil.

DÉMOLAGE, day-moo-lazh, sm. tech. taking from the mould.

DÉMUNIR, day-mu-neer, va. to deprive of ammunition (une place, a place).

SE DÉMUNIR, vpr. to part with. Se — de son argent, to part with one's money.

DÉVÉRER, day-mu-ray, va. to open, to reopen.

DÉVISELIER, day-mu-zay, va. to un-muzzle (un chien, a dog).

DÉNAIRE, day-nayr, adj. mf. (Lat. denarius) denary. Nombre —, denary number.

SE DÉNANTIR, day-nang-teer, vpr. 1 (abandonner un gage) to deprive one's self of a security. 2 (by extension) (se déposséder de ce qu'on a) to deprive one's self. Il s'est dénanté de tout, he stripped himself of everything.

DÉNATURALISER, day-nah-syo-nal-e-zay, va. neol. to denaturalize (un peuple, a people), Lamart.

DÉNATER, day-nat-ay, va. to unpress, to unmat, to unplat. — des cheveux, to unplat hair. — les crins d'un cheval, to unmat a horse's hair.

DÉNATURE, ppa. of DÉNATER, fem. — e, adjective. 1 unnatural. Un fils —, an unnatural son. Une mère —, an unnatural mother. 2 action — e, usage —, unnatural action, custom.

DÉNATURER, day-nah-ti-ray, va. (from nature) va. to change, to alter the nature of. Il a dénaturé la comédie en la rendant larmoyante. he has perverted the end of comedy by making it dolorful. Sic-B. — son bien, to convert an estate into personal property. — no mot, to misapply a word. — le sens d'une phrase, un passage, to pervert the meaning of a phrase, a passage. — un fait, les faits, to mis-report a fact, facts.

SE DÉNATUREN, v. pr. (perdre sa nature, sa qualité) to change its nature, to be misrepresented, to be unnaturalized. Les faits se dénaturent facilement, facts are easily misrepresented. Son cœur s'est délaaturé, his heart had lost its natural sentiments.

DENDRITE, dāng-drit, sf. (Gr.) min. dendrite.

DENDRITIQUE, dāng-dre-tik, adj. mf. min. dendritic, dendritical.

DENDROÏDE, dāng-dro-id, adj. mf. dendroid, dendritic.

DÉNÉGATION, dāng-nay-gah-syong, sf. (Lat.) denial.

DENI, dāng-acc, sm. law. — d'aliments, refusal of aliments. — de renvoi, refusal of delay. — de justice, non-suit.

DENIAISE, ppa. of DÉNIAISER, fem. — E. sharp, cunning, crafty. (substantif.) C'est un —, he is a sharp fellow.

DÉNIAISER, dāng-nay-zay, ra. 1 to teach wit (to), to sharpen the wits (of), to make sharp, to sharpen up. 2 iroquer. — quelqu'un, to dupe a person. Se laisser —, to suffer one's self to be taken in.

SE DÉNIAISER, v. pr. to grow wiser, to learn wit.

DÉNICHER, ppa. of DÉNICHER, fem. — E. prov. fig. Les oiseaux sont —, the birds are flown.

DÉNICHER, dāng-ne-shay, ra. 1 to take out of a niche. 2 (des oiseaux, of birds) to take out of the nest. 3 fig. (débuser) to dislodge, to hunt. 4 fig. (trouver) to discover, to hunt out, to ferret out. On a-t-il déniché la fille de ce vieux scélérat? where did he find out the daughter of that old rascal? Ab. Je ne sais où il a été — cela, I don't know where he ferreted that out.

DÉNICHER, ra. 1 (des oiseaux, of birds) to fly off, away, to forsake its nest. 2 fig. to be off.

DÉNICHEUR, dāng-ne-shohr, sm. 1 bird's-nester. 2 fig. l'a — de merles, a sharper. 3 fig. l'a — de fauvelles, a fortune-hunter. 4 fig. hunter (after). Un — de livres rares, a hunter after rare books.

DENIER, dub-nay, sm. (Lat. denarius) 1 Rom. antiq. denarius. 2 anc. denier (twelfth part of a sou). — à bien, earnest money, prov. fig. Le — de la veuve, the widow's mite. 3 fig. mite, farthing. 4 (by extension) une somme quelconque. Les — s publics, the public revenue, funds. fig. Vendez quelqu'un à beaux — s comptants, to betray a person for interest. 5 absol. interest. Le — quatre, twenty-five per cent. Le — dix, ten per cent. Le — vingt-cinq, four per cent. 6 (fraction d'une somme) penny, so much in the pound, quola. Le — de St-Pierre, Peter's pence. 7 (part dans une affaire) one-twelfth. 8 (monnayage) — de poids, penny-weight (dwt). 9 — de fin on de loi, the standard of the fineness of silver.

DENIER, dāng-nay, ra. (Lat. denegare) 1 to deny (une dette, a debt). 2 (little used) to refuse. Pour obtenir les vents que le ciel vous dénie, to obtain the winds heaven denies you. Itac. Les droits qu'un traité lui dénie, the rights which a treaty refuses him. C. Del.

DÉNIGRANT, dāng-ne-giāng, ppr. of DÉNIGRER, adj. mf. — E. reviling, disparaging. Les sots sont — s et jaloux, fools are slanderous and jealous.

DÉNIGREMENT, dāng-ne-gruh-māng, sm. disparagement.

DÉNIGRER, dāng-ne-gray, ra. to revile, to asperse, to disparage, to run down, to sneer at. Les bonnes gens d'Europe vous accuseront de — un peuple illustre, the good people of Europe will accuse you of vilifying an illustrious nation. Ab. Est-ce de bon goût de — les hommes très-inférieurs? is it in good taste to sneer at very inferior men? Sic-B. — son siècle, to decry one's age. — un livre, to animadvert upon a book. — un produit, to decry an article of production.

SE DÉNIGRER, v. recip. to revile each other.

DÉNONCEMENT, dāng-nong-broh-māng, sm. 1 census. 2 (des choses, of things) enumeration, catalogue. 3 feud. survey of land.

DÉNONCER, dāng-nong-bray, ra. (little used) to number. Dieu vous dénoncera d'une voix solennelle, God will number you with solemn voice. V. Hog.

DÉNOMINATEUR, dāng-no-me-nat-uh, sm. arith. denominator.

DÉNOMINATIF, dāng-no-me-nal-if, adj. m. fem. DÉNOMINATIVE, 1 denominative. 2 (substantif.) Un —, a denominative.

DÉNOMINATION, dāng-no-me-nah-syong, sf. (Lat.) denomination, appellation, name.

DÉNOMMER, dāng-no-may, ra. (Lat. denominare) law. to denominate, to name in a deed.

DÉNONCÉ, ppa. of DÉNONCER, fem. — E. denounced. J'avais été — à mon maître comme, I had been denounced to my master for. Mery. Ses violences étaient — es par de plus redoutables adversaires, his acts of violence were laid open by more formidable adversaries. Villem.

DÉNONCER, dāng-noog-say, ra. conj. like MENACER, (Lat. denuntiare) 1 (déclarer) to denounce, to denunciate, to declare, to proclaim. — un armistice, to proclaim a truce. 2 (signaler à la justice) to impeach, to denounce, to inform against, to lodge, to give in, to lay on information against. — un coupable, to denounce a guilty person. — un crime, to denounce a crime. 500 écus d'or pour loi qui m'a tout dénoncé, 500 gold crowns for him who told me of every thing. C. Del. absol. Il faisait son métier de —, his trade was that of an informer. 3 law. to serve notice of (un protêt, une saisie, a protest, a seizure).

DÉNONCIATEUR, dāng-nong-syah-tuhr, sm. fem. DÉNONCIATRICE, denunciator, informer, common informer.

DÉNONCIATION, dāng-nong-syah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 denunciation, denouncement, proclamation, declaration. — de guerre, denunciation of war. 2 (délai, accession) information. 3 law. — d'un protêt, notice of a protest.

DÉNOTATION, dāng-no-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) denotation.

DÉNOTER, dāng-no-tay, ra. (Lat. denotare) 1 (désigner) to designate, to describe. 2 (marquer, indiquer) to denote, to betoken.

DÉNOUABLE, dāng-noo-abl', adj. mf. that can be untied.

DÉNOUEMENT, dāng-noo-māng, sm. See DÉNOUÉMENT.

DÉNOUER, dāng-noo-ay, ra. 1 to untie, to undo (une corde, a rope). 2 fig. (rendre plus souple) to make more supple. Kien de meilleur pour — les membres que l'écriture, nothing better than fencing to make the limbs more supple. fig. — la langue à quelqu'un, to untie a person's tongue. 3 fig. to unravel, to clear up.

SE DÉNOUER, v. pr. 1 to come untied, undone. Votre cravate s'est dénouée, your cravat has come untied. 2 fig. to be more supple. Un enfant qui se dénoue, qui commence à se —, a child whose limbs begin to be more supple. fig. A la fin sa langue s'est dénouée, at last, his tongue was untied. 3 fig. (se terminer) to be wound up, to wind up.

DÉNOUEMENT, dāng-noo-māng, sm. 1 fig. (d'une pièce de théâtre, of a play) catastrophe. 2 fig. (d'une affaire, of an affair) event, issue.

DENREE, dāng-ray, sf. (low Lat. denariata) 1 commodity, article of food, provisions. — s coloniales, colonial produce. 2 (marchandise quelconque) commodity. fig. C'est chère — qu'un protecteur, a protector is a dear article. La Font.

DENSE, dāngs, adj. mf. (Lat. densus) 1 dense, compact. L'or est la matière la plus —, gold is the densest substance. Buff. (by extension) Ces eaux nourissantes sont — de toutes sortes d'animaux gras, those nourishing waters are dense with all kinds of unctuous animals. Mich. fig. Des expressions — s, terse expressions. Sic-B. 2 phys. dense.

DENSITÉ, dāng-se-tay, sf. (Lat. densitas) phys. density.

DENT, dāng, sf. (Lat. dens) 1 tooth. L'alvéole, le collet, la racine d'une —, the socket, the neck, the root of a tooth. — s molaires ou machelières, jaw teeth, molar teeth. — s canines ou aillères, canine, dog, corner, eye teeth. — s incisives, incisive teeth, incisors. — de lait, first teeth, shedding teeth. — s de sagesse, wisdom teeth. — s de devant, front teeth. — s d'en bas, bottom teeth. Passées — s, artificial, false teeth. Faire ses — s, to cut one's teeth. Les — s percent à cet enfant, that child is cutting its teeth. Avoir mal aux — s, to have the tooth-ache. Se faire arracher une —, to have a tooth drawn. Une vieille sans — s, a toothless hag. — s d'éléphant, elephant's teeth. (des chevaux, of horses) Prendre le mors aux — s, to ram away; || fig. to fly into a passion, to be earnest in business; to give loose to one's passions. fig. Etre armé jusqu'aux — s, to be armed up to the teeth. Déchirer à belles — s, to tear to pieces. Donner un coup de — à quelqu'un, to have a fling at a person. Etre sur les — s, to be knocked up. Mettre quelqu'un sur les — s, to tire a person out. Montrer les — s à quelqu'un, to show one's teeth to a person. Avoir une — contre quelqu'un, to bear a person ill-will. Ne pas desserrer les — s, not to open one's lips. Parler cuitre les — s, to mutter. Marmurer entre ses — s, gronder entre ses dents, to mutter between one's teeth. Rire du bout des — s, to laugh on the wrong side of the mouth. — Ne pas perdre un coup de —, not to lose a bite, prov. fig. Avoir les — s longues, bien longues — s, to be sharp set for a dinner. Avoir la mort entre les — s, to have one foot in the grave. — poor —, œil pour œil, tooth for tooth, eye for eye. Elle payera — poor —, she shall pay tooth for tooth. Ab. prov. Il lui vient du bien quand il n'a plus de — s, he gets bread when he has no teeth to eat it. fig. Arracher une — à un avare, to draw a tooth of a miser. Il n'y en a pas pour la — creuse, there is not enough for a hollow tooth. 2 (by extension) Les — s d'un peigne, d'une scie, d'une herse, d'un rateau, d'une lime, the teeth of a comb, of a saw, of a harrow, of a rake, of a file. Les — s d'une roue, the teeth, cogs of a wheel. 3 tech. — de long, transom, dog-wail, burnisher. 4 bot. Les — s d'une feuille, the notches of a leaf. — de - lion, dandelin. — de chie, dog's tooth.

DENTAIRE, dāng-tay, adj. mf. dental. Nerfs — s, dental nerves.

DENTAL, dāng-tal, adj. m. fem. — E. 1 gram. dental. Une consonne — e, a dental consonant. 2 (substantif.) — E. f. dental.

DENTÉ, ppa. of DENTER, fem. — E. adjectif. 1 toothed, cinged. Roue — cog-wheel. 2 bot. Feuille —, dentate leaf.

DENTÉE, dāng-tay, sf. 1 ven. (d'un chien, of a dog) bite. 2 ven. (d'un sanglier, of a boar) blow.

DENTELE, ppa. of DENTER, fem. — E.

adjectif. 1 notched, coggled. De grandes roues — es, large cog-wheels. Lamart. 2 bot. Feuilles — es, serrate leaves. 3 ber. Croix — e, notched, dentellé cross.

DENTELEUR, dāng-tay, va. to indent, to notch, to jag. (by extension) Un groupe de merveilleux plateaux qui dentellent la cime des collines, a group of magnificent plate-trees notching the summits of the hills. Lamart.

DENTELLE, dāng-tel, sf. lace. — de fil, de soie, de coton, thread lace, silk lace, cotton lace. Un col, des manchettes de —, a lace collar, lace ruffles. Une faiseuse, une raccommodeuse de — s, a lace-maker, a lace-mender.

DENTELURE, dāng-tūr, sf. 1 (ouvrage de sculpture) denticulation. 2 (découpures) indentation. Les noires — s de la montagne, the black indentations of the mountain. Lamart.

DENTER, dāng-tay, va. to indent, to dent, to cog.

DENTICULE, dāng-te-kū, sm. 1 bot. — s, pl. dentil, denticle. 2 — s, pl. arch. denticle.

DENTIER, dāng - lyoy, sm. 1 (little used) (rang de dents) set of teeth. 2 surg. set of artificial teeth.

DENTIFRICE, dāng-ti-friss, sm. 1 dentifrice. 2 (adjective) Eau —, water for the teeth. Poudre —, tooth-powder.

DENTISTE, dāng-tist, sm. dentist.

DENTITION, dāng-te-syong, sf. dentition, teething, cutting of the teeth.

DENTURE, dāng-tūr, sf. 1 set of teeth. Celui-ci montra sa — pour prouver qu'il avait raison, the former showed his teeth to prove that he was right. Flor. 2 teeth. teeth-range, toothings.

DENTU, dāng-tū, adj. m. fem. — e, toothed. Tous gens de terrible appétit, born — s, all people of terrible appetites, born with teeth in their mouths. Mich.

DENUDATION, day-nū-dah-syong, sf. sorg, denudation.

DENUÉ, ppa. of DÉNUER, fem. — e, stripped. fig. Ici tout est de végétation, here every thing is stripped of vegetation. Th. Gaut.

DÉNUER, day-nū-day, va. (Lat. denudare) 1 to denude, to denude. (by extension) — un animal, to denude an animal. — un arbre, to bark a tree. fig. On les dénuda de leurs lambeaux de soie, they were stripped of their silken rags. Lamart.

DÉNUÉ, ppa. of DÉNUER, fem. — e, adjectif. 1 void, devoid, stripped. B. n'est pas — de finesse et d'esprit. B. is not devoid of ingenuity and wit. Ste-B. Des paroles — es de raison, words void of sense. L'idée qu'il se forme de ce chateau me paraît — e de toute vraisemblance, the idea he conceives of this castle seems to me to be void of probability. Nod. Que le sérieux ne soit pas — de tout agrement, let not the serious be devoid of charm. Ste-B. Ces files — es de leur couleur me de verdure, those isles stripped of their crown of verdure. Th. Gaut. 2 (instantané) destitute. Les plus — s sont secourus, assistance is afforded to the most destitute.

DÉNUER, day-nū-day, va. (Lat. denudare) to d'prive, to strip.

SE DÉNUER, vpr. to deprive one's self, to strip one's self. Se — de tout pour ses enfants, to deprive one's self of every thing for one's children. Mon garçon, n'as pas — comme cela, my lad, you must not strip yourself of every thing like that. Balz. Se — d'argent, to leave one's self without money.

DÉNUÉ, day-nū-māng, sm. destitute. Ce prince était dans un si grand — que, that prince was in such a state of a situation that. Bar. Il donna pour excuse — où il avait été tenu, he excused himself upon the state of destitution in which he had been kept. Bar. Le — de la contrée était au delà de ce qu'on peut croire, the destitution of the country cannot be conceived. Mich.

DÉPAQUETER, day-pak-tay, va. to unpack.

DÉPARILLÉ, ppa. of DÉPARILLER, fem. — e, incomplete, imperfect. Un ouvrage —, an incomplete work. Un volume —, an odd volume.

DÉPARILLER, day-pah-ray-yay, va. to render incomplete, to spoil a set, a pair. — des gants, des bas, des souliers, to spoil the pair (of gloves, stockings, shoes). — une collection, to spoil a set.

DÉPARER, va. 1 (ôter ce qui pare) to strip. — un auel, to strip an altar. (by analogy) — de la marchandise, to take the pick of merchandise. 2 (avoir au bon effet) to disfigure, to spoil the look of. Sa voix et son geste ne déparaient pas cette belle prestance, his voice and gestures ore in harmony with that noble bearing. Th. Gaut. La cuisine, qui ne déparait pas le reste, contenait de la poterie, the kitchen, which was in keeping with the rest, contained crockery. Le Sage. fig. Des ornements inutiles déparaient trop souvent son style, his style is often spoiled by too many metaphors. Ce trait ne déparerait pas la vie d'un grand homme, this action would not disgrace the life of an illustrious man.

DÉPARER, day-pah-ray, va. 1 to separate, to part. — des gants, to take away one glove. 2 — des pigeons, to separate pigeons.

DÉPARLER, day-par-lay, vn. (only used with a negation). (cesser) to depart, to leave. Il ne déparla pas tant que nous fumes ensemble, he did not cease speaking all the time we were together.

DÉPARQUER, day-par-kay, va. to unpeck (sheep).

DÉPARQUER, vn. to leave the fold.

DÉPART, day-par, sm. 1 departure, setting out, setting off, leaving, starting.

Leur — ils étaient douze mille, on setting out, they numbered twelve thousand. Mich. Le — du courrier, the departure of the courier, the mail. Faire ses préparatifs de —, to make one's travelling preparations.

Être sur son —, to be on the point of leaving; to be ready to depart. 2 chem. parting. — par la voie humide, depuration.

DÉPARTAGER, day-par-lah-zhay, va. law. to give the casting vote.

DÉPARTEMENT, day-par-toh-māng, sm. 1 (partie de l'administration) department. Le — des affaires étrangères, the department of foreign affairs, foreign department. — de la guerre, the war-office, department. — de la guerre, les divisions de la France) department. Le — de la Seine, the department of the Seine. 3 — s, pl. (la province) départements, province, country.

DÉPARTEMENTAL, day-par-toh-māng-tal, adj. m. fem. — e, pl. m. DÉPARTEMENTAUX, departmental.

DÉPARTIR, day-par-tee, ppa. of DÉPAR- TIR, fem. — e, 1 distributed. 2 allotted. Quelle différence entre cette vie et celle qui nous est — e! what a difference between this life and that allotted to us! Mich.

DÉPARTIR, day-par-teer, va. conj. like PARTIR, 1 to distribute, to dispense. 2 (donner, accorder) to bestow (on), to endow (with), to gift (with).

SE DÉPARTIR, vpr. 1 (se désister, renoncer) to desist (from). Se — de ses droits, to desist from one's rights, to desist from the assertion of one's rights, to give up one's rights. Les deux partis ne se départaient point de leur victoire, the two parties would neither of them give way. Bar. Il savait les progrès et les limites d'ob il ne se départait pas, he knew the projects and the limits which he would not give up. Ste-B. Je ne me départirai jamais de cette mesure, I will abide by this measure. Nod. 2 (s'écarter) to swerve (from), to deviate (from).

L'équité dont il n'était pas homme à se —, the equity from which he was incapable of deviating. Ste-B. (by extension) Nous ne voulons pas nous — les uns des autres avant d'avoir, we will not break up before having. Bar.

DÉPASSE, ppa. of DÉPASSER, fem. — e, fig. Les bornes de la puissance humaine sont — es, the limits of human power are exceeded. Ste-B. Il ne pouvait se persuader qu'il était —, he could not persuade himself that he was surpassed. La mart.

DÉPASSER, day-pah-say, ra. 1 (aller au delà) to go beyond, to exceed, to pass by. — les limites, to exceed the limits. Il dépassa sans s'en apercevoir la modeste hôtellerie, he passed unconsciously by the modest inn. Balz. — le but, to overshoot the mark. fig. Il ne faut pas — les ordres qui vous ont été donnés, you must not go beyond the orders that have been given you. Il s'arrêta craignant de — la cendre où il voudrait s'enfermer, he stops fearing to exceed the limits he intended to confine himself to. Ste-B. Le succès avait dépassé mes espérances, the success had gone beyond my hopes. 2 (laisser derrière) to go beyond, to leave behind. M. avait déjà dépassé sa victime. M. had already left his victim behind him. Balz. Son cheval — bientôt dépassé tous les autres, his horse ran outstripped all the others. fig. La révolution avait dépassé tous ces hommes, the revolution had left all those men behind it. Lamart. 3 (être plus haut, plus loin) to exceed, to go beyond. Il se plaça devant moi avec son illet qu'il dépassait de toute la tête, he placed himself before me with his godson whom he exceeded in height by a whole head. Ab. Son jupon de laine tricoté qui dépassa sa première jupe, her knitted woollen petticoat that fell below her skirt. Balz. 4 (retirer un ruban) to draw out. 5 naut. — la tounevire, on cordage, to shift the royal, to unreeve a rope.

DÉPATISSAGE, day-pā-te-sazh, sm. print, sorting and distribution of pie.

DÉPAYER, day-pah-yay, va. to unpave (une rue, a street).

DÉPAYSE, ppa. of DÉPAYER, fem. — e, adjectif. 1 not at home, out of one's element. Elle paraît aussi peu — à Paris que si elle y avait passé sa vie, she appeared as much at home in Paris as if she had passed her whole life there. Ste-B. fig. Un rayon de soleil, et comme — dans cette église nue, a stray sunbeam in that poor church. V. Hug. 2 fig. bewildered. On sent de grands hommes — s dans de petites choses, one sees that they are great men out of their element. Lamart. C. se trouvait si — dans cette salle, C. felt herself such a stranger in that apartment. Balz. Ce soldat aussi — dans les cours que dans les clubs, that soldier as much out of his element in courts as in clubs. Lamart. — dans les affaires, unfamiliar with business. Ste-B. L'air —, a bewildered countenance. Lamart.

DÉPAYER, day-pay-e-zay, va. (from pays) 1 to send away from home, to send abroad. 2 fig. (dérouter, désorienter) to take out of one's element, one's latitude, to bewilder. 3 fig. to carry a person out of his depth. 4 fig. (donner le change) to put on a wrong scent. Il avait changé les noms, afin de nous —, he had changed the names, in order to put us on a wrong scent.

SE DÉPAYER, vpr. to go abroad, to leave the country, to leave one's home.

DÉPECEMENT, day-pess-māng, sm. cutting up, carving.

DÉPECER, day-pay-say, ra. Je dépecé, NOUS DÉPECONS; IL DÉPECE, to cut up, to carve, to break up, to dismember. — une volaille, to carve a fowl. En sautant de partis le cerf il dépeça, he cut up the stag into as many parts. La Font. — un bateau, to break up a boat.

DÉPEGEUR, day-pay-suh, sm. ripper.
 DÉPÊCHE, day-paysh, sf. 1 despatch, mail. Envoyer, recevoir une —, des —, to send, to receive a despatch, despatches. Porter des —, to carry despatches, to convey the mails. Interceptor des —, to intercept despatches. — télégraphique, telegraphic despatch, telegram. 2 —, pl. (d'un négociant, of a merchant) correspondence. Laissez-moi terminer mes —, let me finish my correspondence.

DÉPÊCHER, day-pay-shay, ra. 1 to despatch (un navire, one besogne, a work, a piece of business). (intransitively) Dépêchez, dépêchez, make haste. Dépêchons, let us make haste. Travailler à dépêché compagno, to work as fast as possible. 2 (envoyer en toute diligence) to despatch, to forward. Il dépêcha un exprès à V., he despatched an express to V. Le Sage. Il leur dépêcha C., puis il se coucha, he sent them C. and then went to bed. Balz. 3 (tuver) to despatch. Il eut bien vite dépêché son homme, he had soon despatched his man. Se battre à dépêché compagno, to fight without giving quarter.

SE DÉPÊCHER, ppr. to hasten, to make haste, to speed, to hurry. Allons, dépêchez-vous, now then, make haste. Dites-lui donc de se —, do tell him to look sharp.

DÉPÊCHOIR, day-pay-swâr, sm. tech. chopping-knife.

DÉPEINDRE, day-pangdr', ra. conj. like peindre, to depict, to describe, to paint, to picture. Il était tel qu'on me l'avait peint, he was exactly as he had been described to me. Le Sage. Je leur peignais la maison paternelle, I depicted to them the paternal home. Ab. Les douleurs que les poètes nous ont peintes, the sorrows that the poets have pictured to us. Balz.

DÉPENAILLÉ, day-pay-nah-yay, (Lat. pannosus) adj. m. fem. —E, 1 ragged, m. rags. Un misérable tout —, a ragged wretch. fig. Visage tout —, emaciated face. Fortune —E, ruined fortune. 2 (hyperb.) slovenly, sloutterly.

DÉPENDANT, day-pang-dang, sf. 1 dependence, ppr. to depend. Être sous la — de quelqu'un, to be dependent on a person. Tenir quelqu'un dans sa —, to have a person in one's power. 2 (rapport) dependence, dependency, 3 feud, dependence, dependency. 4 law. appendage, out-house, outer premises.

DÉPENDANT, day-pang-dang, ppr. of DÉPENDRE, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 dependent, dependent. Il est entièrement — de vous, he depends entirely on you. L. —E chez la duchesse souffrait de sa position, L. felt mortified at her dependent position at the Duchess's. St-B. Deux choses —es l'une de l'autre, two things dependent on each other. absol. Cette âme si superbe est enfin —E, that soul so haughty has at last lost its independence. Rac. 2 feud, dependent. Fief —, fief, manor held of another.

EN DÉPENDANT, adv. loc. naut. edging away; || Aller en —, to sail in company; || Tomber en —, to bear up, to shorten sail in order to rear.

DÉPENDRE, day-pangdr', ra. (Lat. dependere) to take down. Le moine s'en alla aussi — un malafiteur du gibet, the monk also went to take down a malefactor from the gibet. Bar. — une enseigne, to take down a sign.

DÉPENDRE, ppr. 1 to depend (on), to be dependent. Les colonies dépendent de la métropole, the colonies depend on the metropolis. Les membres de la famille de qui nous dépendons, the members of the family on which we depend, Lamart. 2 (by extension) to depend (on). En réalité le maître dépend de ses domestiques, in reality, the master depends on his servants. 3 (être au pouvoir de) to depend on, to lie in one's power. Il leur offrit tout le secours qui dépendait de lui, he offered them all the assistance that lay in his power. B. de St-P. Notre destinée à venir ne dépend que de Dieu, our future destiny is in the hands of God alone. Nod. Pourquoi faire — sa tranquillité d'un autre? why depend upon others for our tranquillity? St-B. (impers.) Il n'a pas dépendu de moi de prévenir ces tristes événements, it was not in my power to prevent those sad occurrences. Le Sage. 4 (des choses, of things) to depend (on), to result (from). Jamais le sort de plus d'hommes et de plus d'idées ne dépendit aussi visiblement du hasard, never did the fate of more men and of more ideas depend so visibly on chance. Lamart. Non, le devoir ne dépend pas des circonstances, no duty is not dependent on circumstances. L'effet dépend de la cause, the effect results from the cause. Le vol dépend de l'œil tout autant que de l'aile, flying depends on the eye as much as on the wing. Mich. 5 feud. law. to be a dependency (of).

DÉPENS, day-pang, sm. pl. (Lat. depensus) 1 expense, cost, charge. Il était obligé de vivre aux — d'une vieille tante, he was obliged to live at the expense of an old aunt. Le Sage. Il gagne bien ses —, he does enough for his keeping. prov. fig. Prés de la moitié de ses — sont payés, he is going downhill. 2 fig. expense. Faire la guerre à ses —, to play a losing game. Devenir sage à ses —, to learn wisdom at one's own expense. Il leur apprit à leurs — qu'on ne doit jamais avoir de confiance, he taught them at their own expenses that one should never trust. La Font. Ils suivent les vautours pour manger à leurs —, they follow the vultures to feed at their expense. Mich. Se rendre sage aux — d'autrui, to grow wise by other men's follies. Rire aux — de quelqu'un, to laugh at a person's expense. A vos —, ils font rire le maître, they are making the master laugh at your expense. La Font. La basse-cour a été agrandie aux — des remises, the poultry-yard has been enlarged at the expense of the coach-houses. J.-J. Rouss. Sauver quelqu'un aux — de sa propre vie, aux — de ses jours, to save a person by the sacrifice of one's own life. 3 law. Être condamné aux —, to be condemned in costs.

DÉPENSE, day-pang, sf. 1 (argent qu'on emploie à quelque chose) expense, outlay, expenditure. La — d'un ménage, household expenses, expenses of house-keeping. Faute de filles —, to be extravagant. Ne pas craindre la —, ne pas regarder à la —, to be regardless of expense. Faite de la —, to live expensively, to spend a great deal of money. Faire la —, to have the care of the household expenses. 2 (ce que l'on a dépensé) expense. La — se monte à tant, the expense amounts to so much. 3 (partie d'un compte) expenditure. Porter une somme en —, à l'article de la —, to carry a sum to the expenditure, under the head of the expenditure. 4 fig. (emploi inutile) expenditure, waste. Cela demanderait une — considérable de temps, that would require a great waste of time. Faire en pure perte une grande — d'esprit, d'érudition, to make a useless show of wit, of erudition. 5 (lien) pantry, larder, buttery. Il lui laissa les clefs de la —, he left her the key of the pantry. Balz. 6 (des eaux, of waters) waste.

DÉPENSE, ppa. of DÉPENSER, fem. —E, spent. Argent — en pure perte, money wasted. fig. Ses années étaient —es, non sa force, his years had fallen off, but not his strength. Lamart.

DÉPENSER, day-pang-say, va. (Lat. dependere) 1 to spend. On pourrait aisément — un million dans une de ces boutiques de deux sous, one might easily spend a million in one of those poultry looking shops. Th. Gaut. absol. Aimer à —, to like spending money. 2 fig. 1 waste, to employ, to spend, to lay out, to expend. Jeunesse aux jours dorés, he's a don't depend on, so then I have run through my golden youth. V. Hug. Redout, après avoir dépensé la France, à des expédients de fils de famille, reduced, after having ruined France, to the expédients of spendthrift nobility. Balz. C'est ainsi qu'il a dépensé inutilement les plus riches dons, it is thus that he frittered away the most precious gifts. St-B. En devenant ses jours sait-il ce qu'il dépense? when he loses his time does he know what he loses? V. Hug. — en pure perte beaucoup de paroles et d'esprit, to throw away a great many words and a great deal of wit.

SE DÉPENSER, ppr. to be spent. L'argent se dépense facilement, money is soon spent. fig. Lui (l'oiseau), comme il s'est dépensé en chansons, his existence has been a continual song. Mich.

DÉPENSIER, day-pang-say, adj. and sm. fem. DÉPENSIERE, extravagant. Une femme dépensière, an extravagant woman. Un —, a spendthrift.

DÉPENSER, sm. borsar.

DÉPERDITION, day-pay-de-syong, sf. depardition, loss, waste (de substance, of substance; de calorique, of caloric). fig. Cette — insensée des forces vitales et viriles de la France, this senseless waste of the vital and virile energies of France. Ph. Chas. Il n'y avait aucune — de volonté dans ce caractère, his strong will could never be diverted from its object. Lamart.

DÉPÉRIR, day-pay-rir, vn. (Lat. depereire) 1 to perish, to decay, to pine away, to dwindle away, to decline, to wither away. Dès ce moment la santé du roi commença à —, from that moment the health of the king began to decay. Bar. 2 (se détériorer) to spoil, to go to decay. 3 fig. law. To be weakened. Ne laissez pas ces créances, do not let these debts get out of date.

DÉPÉRISSEMENT, day-pay-ris-mang, sm. decay, decline, pining away, dwindling away, withering away.

DÉPERSUADER, day-pay-sial-say, va. to persuade to the contrary.

DÉPÊTER, day-pay-tray, ra. 1 to disengage. — un cheval qui s'est pris dans ses traits, to disengage a horse embarrassed in his harness. 2 fig. to disengage, to extricate, to disentangle.

SE DÉPÊTER, ppr. to get out, to get rid. Une seconde inquiétude est de savoir comment tu t'es pris pour — de cette fondrière, my next anxious wish is to know how you managed to get out of that bog. Nad. fig. Il est dans les dettes, et il ne pourra jamais s'en —, he is over head and ears in debt, and he will never be able to clear himself. Se — d'un importun, to get rid of a troublesome fellow.

DÉPEUPLE, ppa. of DÉPEUPER, fem. —E, unpeopled. Un contrée entièrement —E, a country entirely unpeopled. (by extension) Les champs, de fleurs —E, the fields strip of their flowers. V. Hug.

DÉPEUPLER, day-puh-play, va. (from peupler) to unpeople, to depopulate, to dispeople (une contrée, a province). (by extension) un étag, une forêt, un colombier, to draw a pond, to thin a forest, to unstock a dove-cot. Il buvait les vins de S. et dépeuplait ses bois, he drank the wine of S. and killed all the game in his forests. Sand. — un pays de gibier, to destroy the game of a country.

SE DÉPEUPLER, ppr. (d'un pays, of a country) to become unpeopled, depopulated. (by extension) Cette garene commence à se —, this warren is beginning to get unstocked.

DÉPHLEGMACTION, DÉPHLEGNER, See DÉPÊCHER, etc.

DÉPIECER, day-pay-say, ra. to cut up, to dismember.

DÉPLANT, day-pe-lang, ppr. of DÉPLIER, adjective, m. fem. — E., deplatory.

DÉPLATIF, day-pe-lat-if, adj. m. fem. deplative, deplatory.

DÉPLATION, day-pe-lah-syong, sf. deplation.

DÉPLATOIRE, day-pe-lah-twâr, adj. and sm. deplatory.

SE DÉPLIER, day-pe-lay, vpr. (d'un cheval, of a horse) to lose the hair.

DÉPIQUER, day-pe-kay, ra. 1 to unstick (une couverture, a quilt), 2 (by extension) to transplant (des légumes, vegetables). 3 fig. to put into better humour, to restore to good humour.

SE DÉPIQUER, vpr. fig. to recover one's good humour.

DÉPISTER, day-pis-tay, ra. 1 to hunt. to track. 2 fig. to hunt out, to ferret out.

DÉPIT, day-pee, sm. despite, spite, vexation. Faire — à quelqu'un, to spite, to vex a person. Elle fit ce beau mariage au grand — de sa sœur, she made this splendid match to the great vexation of her sister. Faire quelque chose par —, to do a thing out of spite. Elle en crévera de —, she will burst with spite. En — qu'on en ait, for all they may do, in spite of their teeth, in spite of them. Mol.

EN DÉPIT DE, prep. loc. in spite of, in despite of. En — du bon sens, in spite of sense and reason.

DÉPITE, ppa. of DÉPISTER, fem. — E., Elle en fut très-—e, she was very vexed at it.

DÉPÎTEN, day-pe-tay, ra. to spite, to vex. Cela me dépîte beaucoup, that vexes me much. absol. Est-ce que cela n'est pas fait pour ? can one help not being vexed at that?

SE DÉPISTER, vpr. to be vexed (at), to be vexed (with). Se — de quelque chose, to be vexed at a thing. Se — contre quelqu'un, to be put out by a person.

DÉPLACE, ppa. of DÉPLACER, fem. — E., 1 adjective removed. 2 fig. out of one's place. Elle était très-—e dans cette société, she was greatly out of her place in that society. 3 fig. misplaced, unbecoming, improper. Rien ne serait plus sot ni plus — nothing would be more foolish or more improper. Sic-B. Une parole fort —e, des propos —e, an improper word, improper remarks. Un orgueil fort —, very unbecoming pride.

DÉPLACEMENT, day-plass-mang, sm. removal. Frais de —, travelling expenses, expense of removal.

DÉPLACER, day-plah-say, ra. 1 to displace, to remove. Surtout ne déplacez rien, above all, put nothing out of its place. Cette limite que les habitants du Sud ne déplacèrent pas dans la suite, that land-mark which the inhabitants of the South did not afterwards remove. Aug. Th. fig. Elle (la Russie) déplaçait le poids de la balance européenne, she disturbed the balance of the European powers. Ne déplacez point de leur sphère les noms augustes, let us not remove exalted names from their spheres. Sic-B. fig. — la question, to change the question. 2 law. to remove. 3 — quelqu'un, to take a person's place. 4 fig. to remove. Je suis fâché d'avoir déplacé un homme qui le devait son poste, I am sorry I have removed a man who owed his place to you. Le Sage.

SE DÉPLACER, vpr. 1 to change one's place, to remove, to change one's residence. 2 (des choses, of things) to have its place changed. fig. Ces trésors de tendresse éclatèrent sur la tête de sa fille, pour ne plus s'en —, these treasures of tenderness were poured forth on the head of her daughter there to remain for ever. Sic-B.

SANS DÉPLACER, adv. loc. without displacing, removing a thing, without a change of place.

DÉPLAIRE, day-playr, vn. conj. like PLAIRE. 1 to displease, to be displeasing (to), to be disagreeable. Le rôle de curiosité vivante déplaisait fort à la bonne dame, to play the part of a living curiosity was highly displeasing to the good lady. Ab. La reine ne laissa point voir combien ces réponses lui déplaisaient, the queen did not betray the displeasure she felt at those answers. Bar. Cela me déplait souverainement, I dislike that extremely. absol. Il y a en lui quelque chose qui lui déplait, there is something displeasing in him. Cette saveur amère ne déplait pas quand on en a l'habitude, that bitter taste is not unpleasant when one is used to it. Th. Gaut. 2 (Rocher, mécontenter) to displease, to offend. Ni prince, ni seigneur n'osait faire ni dire la moindre chose qui pût lui —, neither prince nor lord durst say or do the least thing that might displease him. Bar. En lui faisant, je craindrais de vous —, by doing so, I fear I should fail under your displeasure. La crainte de — à Dieu, the fear of displeasing God. (impers.) Il me déplait, that is disagreeable, unpleasant to me. Il me déplait de sortir avec lui, I dislike going out with him. 3 N'en déplaise, ne vous déplaise, ne vous en déplaise, with all due deference to, no disparagement to, by leave of.

SE DÉPLAIRE, vpr. 1 to find no pleasure (in). Je me déplais dans sa société, I dislike being in his society. On ne se déplaierait pas ici, one might find pleasure here. 2 (by extension) to thrive. Les troupeaux ne se déplaisent pas dans cet endroit, the flocks thrive in that spot. fig. L'olivier se déplait dans cet endroit, the olive-tree does not thrive in that place.

DÉPLAISANCE, day-play-zangs, sf. dislike.

DÉPLAISANT, day-play-zang, ppr. of DÉPLAIRE, adj. m. fem. — E., unpleasant, disagreeable, unpleasant, annoying. Un auteur n'eût osé se servir d'un terme inusité, an author would not have dared to employ a disagreeable term not in use. Villem.

DÉPLAISIR, day-play-zeer, sm. 1 sorrow, grief. A mon grand —, to my great sorrow. (hyperb.) Il en mourra de —, he will die of grief, that will kill him with grief. 2 (mécontentement) displeasure. Entrer dans les —s de quelqu'un, to share in a person's grief, troubles. Mme de Sév.

DÉPLANTAGE, day-plang-tazh, sm. displantation.

DÉPLANTATION, day-plang-lah-syong, sf. See DÉPLANTAGE.

DÉPLANTER, day-plang-tay, ra. to displant.

DÉPLANTOIR, day-plang-twâr, sm. trouel.

DÉPLATRAGE, day-plâ-trazh, sm. unplastering.

DÉPLATRER, day-plâ-tray, ra. 1 to unplaster. 2 fig. to unmask.

DÉPLÉTIF, day-play-tif, adj. m. fem. depletive, med. depletive.

DÉPLIER, day-playr, ra. 1 to unfold, to open (une serviette, a napkin). 2 — toute sa marchandise, to show all one's goods.

SE DÉPLIER, vpr. to come unfolded, to be unfolded.

DÉPLISSAGE, day-ple-sazh, sm. unplaiting.

DÉPLISSER, day-ple-say, ra. to unplait.

SE DÉPLISSER, vpr. to come out of plait.

DÉPLOIEMENT, day-plwâ-mang, sm. unfolding, display, deploy, displaying, deployment (d'une eioffe, of a stuff). Le — des bras, the unfolding, stretching out of the arms. Le — du drapeau rouge, the unfolding of the red flag. Le — d'une armée, d'un corps, the deployment of an army, of a corps. fig. Faire un grand — de forces, to make a great display.

DÉPLOMBAGE, day-plong-bazh, sm. taking off the leaden seals.

DÉPLOMBER, day-plong-bay, va. to take off the leaden seals.

DÉPLORABLE, day-plo-rabl', adj. mf. 1 (digne de compassion) deplorable, lamentable. Être dans un état —, to be in a deplorable state. Son sort est —, his fate is deplorable. Cette mort est —, that is a lamentable death. poetic. (des personnes, of persons) Orphelins, veuve —, wereched orphans, widow. V. Hog. 2 (by extension) (regrettable) deplorable, wretched. Une scène —, a most shocking scene. Elle a un caractère —, she has a wretched temper.

DÉPLOIABLEMENT, day-plo-rab-blun-mang, adv. deplorably, lamentably, wretchedly.

DÉPLOIER, day-plo-ray, vn. (Lat. deplorare) 1 to deplore, to lament, to bewail, to mourn. Loin de — cette misère, ils, far from deploiring this misery, they. Balz. Il fuyait presque sans déplorer son malheur, he fled almost alone, lamenting his misfortune. Flor. Il déplorait son sort avec la faiblesse d'une femme de peu de sens, he deplored his fate with the weakness of a silly woman. Chât. Il déplorait l'aveugle présomption de la créature, he deplored the blind presumption of the creature. Nod.

SE DÉPLOIER, vpr. 1 to find no pleasure (in). Je me déplais dans sa société, I dislike being in his society. On ne se déplaierait pas ici, one might find pleasure here. 2 (by extension) to thrive. Les troupeaux ne se déplaisent pas dans cet endroit, the flocks thrive in that spot. fig. L'olivier se déplait dans cet endroit, the olive-tree does not thrive in that place.

DÉPLOYÉ, ppa. of DÉPLOYER, fem. — E., unfolded, open, displayed. Voguer à voiles —es, to be under full sail. Marcher tambour battant et drapeaux —s, to march with drums beating and colours flying. Chantier, rire à gorge —e, to sing at the top of one's voice, to laugh most boisterously. fig. Cette ignorance naïve —e, car une échelle gigantesque, that artless ignorance displayed on a gigantic scale. Th. Gaut.

DÉPLOYER, day-plwâ-yay, ra. conj. like EMPLOYER. 1 to unfold, to unroll, to unfurl, to stretch out. Le moine déploya ses parchemins, the monk unrolled his parchments. Aug. Th. Ils déployèrent au étendard mystérieux, they unfurled a mysterious standard. Aug. Th. Je n'avais qu'à — le bras pour attendre de mon lit à —, I had only to stretch out my arm to reach from my bed to. Chât. Il déploya devant le brasier deux mains décharnées, he held out to the fire two skinny hands. Nod. Un oiseau qui déploie ses ailes, a bird that spreads its wings. naut. — les voiles, to heave out, to set the sails, to spread the sails. fig. Pour l'enfant, l'espérance ne déploie-t-elle pas incessamment ses ailes radieuses ? for a child, is not hope continually spreading its radiant wings? Balz. fig. — son vol, to take one's flight. 2 (by extension) mil. to deploy. — une armée, to deploy an army. — ses liges, to deploy one's lines. — la colonne, to deploy the column. — le fig. (étaler) to display, to lay out, to set out, to show. — son éloquence, to display one's eloquence. Cette constance qui women are capable of displaying. Balz. Ce vieillard déployait une énergie extraordinaire, that old man displayed extraordinary energy. Balz. Elle déployait les richesses d'un gosier de rossignol, her song was as rich in melody as that of the nightingale. Nod. Le gouvernement déployait tous ses moyens d'action, the government put forth all its means of action. Aug. Th.

SE DÉPLOYER, vpr. 1 to be unfolded, unrolled, unfurled. Les robes de soie les plus épaisses s'y déployaient à larges plis, dresses of the richest silk there spread out their large folds. Th. Gaut. L'étendard du prophète qui ne se déploie qu'aux occasions suprêmes, the standard of the prophet that is only unfurled on supreme occasions. Th. Gaut. fig. Mon vol hardi se déployé, I take a bold flight. V. Hug. (by extension) L'armée se déploya dans cette vaste plaine, the army was arrayed, deployed, in this vast plain. 2 fig. to be displayed, to display one's self. Tous les espaces du ciel se déployaient, all the celestial spaces are spread out. Nod. Le plus ingénieux des sentiments se déploya dans son âme, the most ingenious of sentiments developed itself in her soul. Balz.

DÉPLUMÉ, ppa. of DÉPLUMER, fem. —E, unplumed, plucked. Un oiseau —, tout —, a plucked bird, a bird without any feathers left. fig. pop. Avoir l'air —, to have a shabby look, a shabby genteel appearance.

DÉPLUMER, day-plû-may, ra. to un-plume, to pluck, to pick (un oiseau, a bird). SE DÉPLUMER, vpr. to moult.

DÉPOLARISATION, day-po-lar-e-zah-syong, sf. dépolariation.

DÉPOLARISER, day-po-lar-e-zay, ra. to depolarize.

DÉPOLI, day-po-le, ppa. of DÉPOLIR, fem. —E. Verre —, ground glass.

DÉPOLIR, day-po-leer, va. to take off the polish of, to grind.

SE DÉPOLIR, vpr. to lose its polish.

DÉPONENT, day-pa-nang, adj. sm. gram. deponent.

DÉPOPULARISATION, day-po-pû-lar-e-zah-syong, sf. loss of popularity, unpopularity.

DÉPOPULARISER, day-po-pû-lar-e-zay, ra. to render unpopular. Il sentit que la vue de ces armes le dépopulariserait, he felt that the sight of those arms would make him unpopular. Lamart.

SE DÉPOPULARISER, vpr. to become unpopular.

DÉPOPULATION, day-po-pû-lah-syong, sf. depopulation.

DÉPORT, day-por, sm. 4 law. Saas —, without delay. 2 excl. deport.

SANS DÉPORT, adv. loc. without delay.

DÉPORTATION, day-por-tah-syong, sf. transportation.

DÉPORTÉ, ppa. of DÉPORTER, fem. —E, 4 transported. 2 (substantiv.) convict.

DÉPORTEMENTS, day-por-luh-mang, sm. pl. scandalous conduct.

DÉPORTER, day-por-tay, ra. to transport.

SE DÉPORTER, vpr. law. to desist (de ses prétentions, from one's pretensions). Mon neveu, déportez-vous d'entrer au conseil, nepher, refrain from entering the Council. Bar.

DÉPOSANT, day-po-zang, ppr. of DÉPOSER, adj. m. fem. —E, 4 deposing, giving evidence. Témoin —s, witnesses giving evidence. 2 (substantiv.) deponent. 3 (substantiv.) depositor.

DÉPOSE, ppa. of DÉPOSER, fem. —E, La lettre fut —e avec d'autres papiers dans un cylindre de fer-blanc, the letter was deposited with other papers in a tin cylinder. Ab. Où voulez-vous que les fonds soient —s? where shall the money be deposited? Ab. De la lie —e au fond du vase, dregs deposited at the bottom of the vase.

DÉPOSER, day-po-zay, ra. (Lat. depocere) 4 to put down, to set down, to lay down. — quelque chose à terre, to lay down something on the ground. Comme l'esclave qui dépose sa charge aux bornes des chemins, like the slave that sets down his burden by the road-side. V. Hug. On le déposa sur le quai, he was set down on the quay. — les armes, to lay down one's arms. fig. Un grand nombre d'officiers déposèrent pour jamais les armes, a great many officers left the service for ever. Nod. fig. Dépose aussi la lyre! hang up the lyre also! V. Hug. 2 (by extension) to leave, to lay, to lay down. — sa canne, son parapluie à la porte, to leave one's stick, one's umbrella at the door. Mon intendant a déposé la bourse sur une table, my steward has laid the purse down on a table. Méry.

Dépose en son giron ses œufs, lay its eggs in his lap. La Font. On déposa le corps sur un lit, the body was laid upon a bed. 3 fig. (se dépouiller, quitter) to lay aside, to divest one's self of. Dépose ta fierté, lay aside thy pride. Dans la solitude, l'âme dépose les illusions qui la troublent, in solitude, the soul divests itself of the illusions that disturb it. B. de St-P. — la dictature, to lay down the dictatorship. 4 (mettre en dépôt) to deposit. — à la caisse d'épargne, to deposit at the savings-bank. — son testament chez un notaire, to deposit one's will at a notary's. — un cautionnement, to deposit security. fig. — ses secrets dans le sein d'un ami, to deposit one's secrets in the bosom of a friend. 5 (destituer) to depose (un pape, un évêque, un empereur, a pope, a bishop, an emperor). 6 (d'un liquide, d'un liquide) to settle, to deposit. fig. Toute conviction en peu d'instants dépose le doute, he affeure, an fond de tous les crépus, every conviction deposits the doubt at the bottom of every heart. V. Hug. absol. Ce vin dépose, this wine leaves a deposit.

DÉPOSER, vtr. 4 to bear witness, to depose, to give evidence. Une foule de témoins déposèrent aussi de la route qu'avaient tenue les assassins, a crowd of witnesses also gave evidence as to the road taken by the assassins. Bar. — en justice, to depose. 2 (des choses, of things) to testify.

DÉPOSITAIRE, day-po-ze-tayr, sm. f. depository, guardian, confident. S., que j'en fais le —, vous les remettra, S., with whom I have intrusted them, will remit them to you. Le Sage.

DÉPOSITION, day-po-ze-syong, sf. 4 deposition, deposing (d'un empereur, d'un pape, d'un évêque, of an emperor, of a pope, of a bishop). 2 (ce qu'un témoin déclare) deposition, evidence. Faire, recevoir, entendre, ouïr une —, to give, to receive, to hear evidence.

DÉPOSÉDEN, day-po-say-day, va. to dispossess, in out, to dissize.

DÉPOSSESSION, day-po-say-syong, sf. law. dispossession.

DÉPOSTER, day-pos-lay, va. mil. to drive from a post, to dislodge.

DÉPÔT, day-po, sm. (Lat. depositum) 4 depositing, deposit. Faire un —, to deposit, to make a deposit. Faire le — d'un objet entre les mains de quelqu'un, to deposit an object with a person. Avoir quelque chose en — chez quelqu'un, to have a thing deposited at a person's. Mandat de —, mittimus, warrant of commitment. 2 (la chose déposée) deposit. Il vous rends le — que vous m'avez commis. I restore you the charge confided to me. Rac. 3 (convention) deposit. 4 (lieu) depot, magazine, warehouse, storeroom, repository. L'Église était le refuge des riches et le — des richesses du pays, the church was the refuge of the rich and the depository of the riches of the country. Aug. Th. — d'armes, — de poudre, depot of arms, powder-magazine. — de mendicité, poor-house, work-house. 5 mil. admin. depot. 6 chem. settling, deposit. 7 med. deposit, gathering. 8 geol. deposit.

DÉPÔTER, day-po-tay, va. 1 to take out of a pot. — des œilleux, to take pinks out of their pot. 2 (changer de vase) to decant (du vin, des liqueurs, wine, liquors).

DÉPOUDRER, day-poo-dray, va. to unpowder (les cheveux, hair).

SE DÉPOUDRER, vpr. to come unpowdered.

DÉPOUILLE, day-poo-yuh, sf. (Lat. spoliium) 4 slough, shell, exuvium, spoil. La — d'un serpent, the slough of a serpent. La — d'un crabe, the shell of a crab. 2 (by extension) poetic skin. fig. — d'un lion, the skin of a lion. 3 La — mortelle d'une personne, relics, remains, mortal remains. La terre se referma sur sa —, the earth is closed over her remains. Chât. De la — de nos bois l'automne avait jonché la terre, autumn had stripped the woods of their green dress. Millev. 4 (vêtements) wardrobe. 5 fig. (charge) inheritance. 6 —s, pl. (tout ce qu'on enlève à l'ennemi) spoils, booty. Remporter des —s sur l'ennemi, to carry off booty from the enemy. 7 —s, pl. (tout ce dont on s'empare au préjudice d'autrui) spoils, plunder. 8 fig. (little used) (recolte) crop.

DÉPOUILLE, ppa. of DÉPOUILLER, fem. —E, L'os est entièrement —, the bone is completely laid bare. (by extension) Les branches noires et —es des noyers, the branches of the walnut-trees black and completely denuded of foliage. Lannar. fig. Nous sommes —s, nous sommes vides! we are plundered, we are robbed! Sand. fig. Celui qui — de haine rapproche les enfants de la famille humaine, he who with all hatred laid aside draws together in close ties the children of the human race. C. Del. Voilà le fait — de sa naïveté romanesque, such is the fact stripped of its romantic simplicity. Balz.

DÉPOUILLEMENT, day-poo-yuh-mang, sm. 4 fig. spoliation, despoiling, privation. Le — de la maison avait été fait et parlait, not the slightest thing in the house but had been carried off. Le Sage. 2 (relevé sommaire) abstract. Le — du scrutin, the summing up of votes by ballot.

DÉPOUILLER, day-poo-yay, *va. (Lat. spoliare) 1 to strip. 2 (des animaux, of animals) to skin. 3 (by analogy) to take the skin off. Cette eau bouillante lui dépouilla toute la jambe, that scalding water took all the skin off his legs. 4 (by extension) to strip. Le feu lui servit à — le chou de son enveloppe, he made use of fire to strip the cabbage of its outer covering. B. de St-P. — un temple de ses ornements, to strip a temple of its ornaments. 5 fig. (priver de, priver) to spoil, to plunder, to divest. Je respecte trop les savants pour les —, I respect the learned too much to plunder them. Ab. Moi, de mon protecteur — l'héritier! that I should rob the heir of my protector! C. Del. La réalité le dépouillait de ses dernières illusions, the reality dissipated his remaining illusions. Saint. 6 (quitter un vêtement) to lay aside, to throw off. Il avait dépouillé ses riches vêtements, he had laid aside his rich clothing. Aug. Th. Des moines dépouillaient la longue robe pour suivre les soldats, monks threw off their long gowns to march with the soldiers. Aug. Th. fig. Robe d'hiver, robe d'été, que les morts ne dépouillent guère, the summer and winter clothing which the dead never cast off. La Font. 7 fig. (des sentiments, des passions, of feelings, passions) to lay aside, to cast off, to put off. Dépouille devant tous l'orgueil qui le dévore, in the presence of nil, lay aside the pride that devours you. Muss. Dépouillaient son ancienne fierté, laying aside his former pride. Aug. Th. bi. — le vieil homme, to put off the old man. En dépouillant la vie, elle parut la regretter, on taking her leave of life, she appeared to regret it. V. Hug. 8 absol. (recueillir) to gather, to reap. 9 — des registres, — de vieux papiers, to make an abstract of old papers. — un scrutin, to sum up the votes by ballot. — se dépouiller, vpr. 1 (changer de peau) to cast the skin. 2 (ôter ses vêtements) to throw off, to strip one's self of, to divest one's self of. Le prêtre se dépouilla de ses ornements, the priest divested himself of his ornaments. Chât. Il s'était dépouillé du travestissement bizarre, he had thrown off the whimsical disguise. Nod. 3 (se dévotir) to be laid bare. 4 (se dégarir) to shed, to be stripped. 5 (se priver) to strip one's self. Se — en faveur de quelqu'un, *to strip one's self en faveur of a person. Ils nous avaient priés de nous-mêmes, we were ordered to give up every thing. Ab. 6 fig. (se défaire de) to lay aside, to throw off, to divest one's self of, to cast off. Se — de ses préjugés, to lay aside one's prejudices. De son amour pour toi, ton roi s'est dépoñillé, your king has cast off all his love for you. Rac. Il se dépoñillait de tout faux goût, he divested himself of all false taste. Si-B. Je me dépoñillai de toute affection pour eux, I cast off all affection for them. Le Sage.

DEPOURVOIR, day-poor-voovr, va. conj. like pouvoir, (only used in the pret. and the inf.) to deprive, to strip, to disgorrish. SE DEPOURVOIR, vpr. to strip one's self, to deprive one's self. Se — d'argent, to strip one's self of money.

DEPOURVU, ppa. of DEPOURVOIR, fem. — adjectif. unprovided (with), destitute (of), void (of), devoid (of). Etant de cheuveux — e, being bald. La Font. Elle se trouva fort — e quand la bise fut venue, she found herself quite destitute when winter came. La Font. Ces enfants des mers sont — s bien plus que l'oiseau, those children of the sea are much less provided for than the bird. Mich. Etre — de sens, de raison, d'esprit, to be void of sense, of reason, of wit. Ces plaisanteries au fond n'étaient pas — es de bon sens, those jokes at bottom were not devoid of good sense. Nod.

AD DEPOURVU, adv. loc. unprovided, unawares. Prendre quelqu'un ad —, to take a person unawares.

DEPRAVATION, day-prah-vah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 depravation. La — du sang, the depravation of the blood. La — du goût, de l'appétit, the depravation of the taste, of the appetite. 2 fig. depravation, depravement, depravedness, depravity. La — des mœurs, depravation of manners. La — du siècle, the depravity of the age.

DEPRAVE, ppa. of DEPRAYER, fem. — E, med. 4 depraved, vitiated. Sang —, depraved blood. Gout —, depraved taste. 2 fig. depraved, abandoned. Siècle —, depraved age, age of depravity. Nœurs — es, depraved morals.

DEPRAYER, day-prah-va, va. (Lat. depravare) 1 med. to deprave, to vitiate. 2 fig. to deprave (les mœurs, l'esprit, le caractère, le goût, le jugement, the morals, the mind, the character, the taste, the judgment). L'aisance et la vie abondante ne depravent pas leur naturel, easy circumstances and good living do not deprave their disposition. Mich. Aucune passion malheureuse n'avait depravé leur cœur, no unhappy passion had depraved their hearts. B. de Si-P.

SE DEPRAYER, vpr. 4 med. (s'altérer) to become depraved. 2 fig. to become, to get depraved.

DEPRECATION, day-pray-kah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 deprecation. 2 (prière) deprecation.

DEPRECIATION, day-pray-syah-syong, sf. deprecation (des marchandises, of goods, des assignats, of the assignats).

DEPRECIÉ, ppa. of DEPRECIER, fem. — E, undervalued.

DEPRECIER, day-pray-syah, va. (Lat. deprecare) to depreciate, to undervalue, to underrate (une marchandise, an article, on ouvrage, a work). — le mérite de quelqu'un, to underrate the merit of a person.

SE DEPRECIER, vpr. 1 to fall in value. Une denrée qui se déprécie, a product that falls in value. 2 Se — soi-même, to undervalue one's self. 3 recipr. to depreciate each other. Ils se déprécient mutuellement, they mutually run each other down.

DÉPREDATEUR, day-pray-dat-ubr, sm. 4 depredator. 2 adjectif. depredatory.

DÉPRÉDATION, day-pray-dah-syong, sf. depredation. Faire, commettre des — s, to depredate, to make, to commit depredations.

DÉPRENDRE, day-prândr, va. to part, to separate.

SE DÉPRENDRE, vpr. to get away, off. fig. Je n'étais pas d'un caractère qui se déprît facilement des idées dont je m'étais occupé une fois, I was not of a character easily to lay aside ideas that had once taken hold of my mind. Nod.

DÉPRESSION, day-pray-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 depression. La — du mercure, the depression of mercury. La — du parail, the depression of the parail. 2 astr. — de l'horizon, depression of the horizon.

DÉPRIER, day-pre-yay, va. to disornate.

DÉPRIMÉ, ppa. of DÉPRIMER, fem. — E, adjectif. 4 depressed, flattened. 2 med. Poole's —, low pulse.

DÉPRIMER, day-pre-may, va. (Lat. deprimere) 4 surg. to depress. 2 fig. to depress, to abase. — quelqu'un, to humble a person. — la vertu, to abase virtue.

SE DÉPRIMER, vpr. 1 to become depressed. 2 fig. to detract from each other's merit.

DÉPRISER, day-pre-zay, va. 4 to undervalue, to underrate, to run down, to disparage (des marchandises, goods). Vous déprisez mal à propos ma calebasse, on y voyage très-commodément, you are wrong to misprize my calash, it is a very comfortable one to travel in. Nod. 2 (des personnes, des choses morales, of persons, of faculties) to undervalue, to disparage.

DE PROFUNDIS, day-pro-long-dees, sm. (Lat.) de profundis.

DEPUIS, duh-püce, prep. 4 since, for, ago. Il s'excusa de n'être point venu — la veille, he excused himself for not having come since the day before. Ab. Vous savez cela — mercredi matin, you knew that on Wednesday morning. Ab. Nous serions en liberté — dix jours, we should have been free ten days ago. Ab. — peu, a short time since, lately, of late. — longtemps, long since. — bien des années, for many years. — combien de temps? how long? — quand? — quelle époque? since when? how long is it since? since what period? 2 from. — midi jusque quatre heures, from twelve o'clock till four. — Romulus jusqu'à Auguste, from Romulus to Augustus. Ce pays s'étend — ce fleuve jusqu'à la mer, this country extends from this river as far as the sea. — la tête jusqu'aux pieds, from head to foot. — 4 jusqu'à 4000, from 1 to 4000. — le premier jusqu'au dernier, from the first to the last.

DEPUIS, adv. since. Je ne l'ai pas revu —, I have not seen him since. Et — je ne lui ai plus parlé, and since then I have not spoken to him. Qu'est-il arrivé —? what has happened since? — depuis que, conj. since. — que je l'ai vu, since I saw him. — qu'ils sont venus s'établir sous mon toit, ils ont été des amis pour moi, since they came and settled under my roof, they have been friends for me. Sand. Je n'avais plus envie de mourir — que j'étais malheureux, I no longer wished to die since I was unhappy. Chat. Tout ce qui m'est arrivé — que je suis libre, all that has happened to me since I was set at liberty. Le Sage.

DÉPURATIF, day-pû-rat-if, adj. m. fem. DÉPURATIVE, 4 med. depurative, depurative. 2 tech. m. depurative.

DÉPURATION, day-pû-rai-syong, sf. med. chem. depuration (du sang, de l'huile, of the blood, of oil).

DÉPURATOIRE, day-pû-rat-wâr, adj. mf. depuratory.

DÉPURER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. depurare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTATION, day-pû-tah-syong, sf. 4 (envoi) deputation. 2 (collectif) deputation.

DÉPUTAIRE, day-pû-rat-wâr, adj. mf. deputary.

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTER, day-pû-ray, va. (Lat. deputare) med. chem. to depurate (le sang, un liquide, the blood, a liquid).

DÉPUTÉ, day-pû-tay, ppa. of DÉPUTER, fem. — E, deputé.

DÉPUTÉ, sm. 4 (chargé d'une mission) deputy. 2 (d'une assemblée) deputy. Les — s de la noblesse, du clergé, du tiers état, the deputies of the nobility, of the clergy, of the third estate. Les — s des départements, les — s, the deputies. La Chambre des — s, the Chamber of Deputies. — au Corps législatif, a deputy of the Legislative body.

DÉPUTER, day-pû-tay, va. to deputate, to send deputies, to send a deputation. absol. Les soldats députèrent vers le général en chef, the soldiers sent a deputation to the general in chief.

DÉRACINEMENT, day-râh-seen-mâng, sm. uprooting, eradication, extirpation.

DÉRACINER, day-râh-se-nay, va. (from racine) 4 to uproot, to root up (un arbre, a tree). 2 (by extension) to extract (une dent, a tooth), to extirpate (un cor, a corn). 3 fig. — un mal, to eradicate an evil. fig. — un abus, un préjugé, une opinion, to root out an abuse, a prejudice, an opinion.

DÉRAYER, day-râh-day, vn. naut. to be driven out to sea.

DÉRAILEMENT, day-râh-yuh-mâng, sm. railw. running off the rails.

DÉRAILER, day-râh-yay, vn. railw. to run off the rails.

DÉRAISON, day-ray-zong, sf. unreason, unreasonableness, irrationality. On a ses jours de —, there are days in which our better sense is absent. V. Hug. Toute la raison d'un côté, le tort et la — de l'autre, all the right on one side, the wrong and folly on the other. Si-B.

C'est le comble de la —, it is the height of folly; it is extreme nonsense.

DÉRAISONNABLE, day-ray-zo-nabl', adj. mf. 4 unreasonable, irrational. 2 (contraire à la raison) unreasonable, preposterous.

DÉRAISONNABLEMENT, day-ray-zo-nabl'-uh-mâng, adv. unreasonably, irrationally, preposterously.

DÉRAISONNER, day-ray-zo-nay, vn. to talk irrationally, to talk nonsense, to wander, to rave.

DÉRANGÉ, ppa. of DÉRANGER, fem. — E, 4 deranged. 2 thrown into disorder. Toute la pompe funèbre fut — e, les chants cessèrent, the whole funeral ceremony was thrown into disorder, the singing ceased. B. de Si-P. 3 fig. (altéré) out of order, disordered, impaired. Si ma santé est — e, d'anciens chagrins on sont la cause, if my health is impaired, it is former grief that is the cause of it. B. de Si-P. Ses affaires sont — es, his affairs are out of order. 4 fig. (distrait de son travail) disturbed. On ne peut travailler, quand on est — à chaque instant, it is impossible to work, when one is put out every moment.

DÉRANGEMENT, day-râng-zhâng, sm. derangement, disorder, confusion, disturbance. Le — de mes livres, the confusion my books are in. Le — de son duvet tout hêrisse quand on l'a pris lui est très-antipathique, it is greatly annoyed by the disorder in its down that bristles up when it is taken. Mich. Le — d'une machine, the derangement of a machine. fig. Le — des saisons, the derangement of the seasons. fig. Le — que son insouciance avait apporté dans ses affaires, the confusion into which his affairs were thrown by his carelessness. Balz. Le — de ses facultés, the derangement of his faculties. Éprouver du — dans sa santé, to feel in a bad state of health. On n'a pas une minute à soi, c'est un — continué, here one has not a minute to one's self, one is continually disturbed.

DÉRANGER, day-râng-zhay, va. conj. like MANGER, 4 to derange, to displace, to disturb. Je ne veux pas qu'on dérange mes livres, I will not have my books taken out of their places. Elle avait dérangé son masque, she had removed her mask. Nod. absol. Elle passe sa vie à arranger et à déranger. — she passes her life in arranging and deranging. — une chambre, un cabinet, to put a room, a closet into disorder. — quelqu'un, to disturb a person. 2 (altérer, troubler) to disturb, to derange, to unsettle. — une montre, une machine, to put a watch, a machine out of order. fig. Cela lui a dérangé l'estomac, that has put his stomach out of order. Ses excès lui avaient dérangé la santé, his excesses had impaired his health. Il me voit avec peine, mon chagrin dérange le sien, he does not like the sight of me, my grief interferes with his. Muss. L'âge avait un peu dérangé leurs attraits, age had in some degree impaired their beauty. Flor. Cet orage pourra bien — le temps, this storm may very well unsettle the weather. Cet enlèvement du roi dérangea ses mesures, this carrying off of the king broke his measures. Bar. Une suite d'événements inattendus dérangea tous ses projets, a series of unexpected events frustrated all his designs. Sand. 3 fig. — quelqu'un, to disturb, to inconvenience, to put out of the way. Si toutefois cela ne vous dérange pas, provided that does not put you out of your way. — quelqu'un, altérer la santé, to derange, to put out of sorts. — quelqu'un (débancher) to lead astray, to dote to bad courses. — quelqu'un (contrarier ses projets) to embarrass, to put out a person.

SE DÉRANGER, rpr. Votre coiffure s'est dérangée, your head-dress has come out of order. Ma montre s'était dérangée, my watch had got out of order. Suyez assez bon pour vous — un peu, be so kind as to move yourself a little. (by extension) Je ne me suis point dérangé pour de l'argent, I did not disturb myself for money. G. Sand. Je ne me dérangerais pas pour si peu, I will not put myself out of the way for such a trifle. fig. Son cerveau commence à se —, he is beginning to be deranged. Ses affaires se sont bien dérangées, his affairs have been greatly embarrassed. Sa santé commence à se —, his health begins to be impaired. Ce jeune homme se dérange, that young man leads an irregular life.

DÉRAPIER, day-rab-pay, ra. naut. to dislodge, to purchase, to trip (the last anchor).

DÉRATÉ, ppa. of DÉRATER, fem. — E. adjective. 1 lively, sharp. Un chien —, a lively dog. 2 substantif. Courir comme un —, to run like a greyhound.

DÉRATER, day-rab-pay, ra. to take out the spleen, the milt. — un chien, to extract the spleen of a dog.

DÉRECHER, dohr-shayf, adv. again, once again, once more, afresh. Me n'ait saisi — d'épouvante, behold me once more seized with fright. La Font. La mort de J. Lapin — est vengée, the death of Jack Rabbit was once more avenged. La Font.

DÉRÉGLÉ, ppa. of DÉRÉGLER, fem. — E. adjective. 1 irregular, inordinate, lawless. Appétit —, irregular appetite. Esprit —, ill-regulated mind. Desirs —, inordinate desires. 2 (contraire à la morale) disorderly, dissolute. Conduite —, disorderly conduct.

DÉRÉGLER, day-ray-glay, ra. 4 (little used) to derange, to disorder. 2 (faire qu'une chose ne fonctionne plus régulièrement) to put out of order.

SE DÉRÉGLER, rpr. to be deranged, to take to bad courses, to get out of order. Une montre qui se dérègle souvent, a watch that often gets out of order. Le temps pourra bien se —, the weather is likely to be unsettled. Son estomac se dérègle aisément, his stomach is easily put out of order.

DÉRIDER, day-re-day, ra. 1 to un-wrinkle, to take out the wrinkles. 2 fig. (égayer) to smooth. Pendant que tout le monde riait autour de lui, rien n'a pu le —, whilst every body round him was laughing, nothing could smooth his brow. Déridez-vous le front, brighten up a little. (by analogy) La joie déride le front, joy smooths the brow. Ses mots déridaient les clubs, his jokes amused the clubs. Lamart.

SE DÉRIDER, rpr. 4 to become smooth. 2 fig. (s'égayer) to smooth one's brow. Allous, déridez-vous un peu, now then, cheer up a little. (by analogy) Quel front ne se déride à son sourire! what brow would not unbend at her smile! B. de St-P. Comme le sourcil s'est déridé! what a sudden change in his tone! St-E. Ses traits se déridaient jusqu'à la gaieté dans l'intimité, his features relaxed even to gaiety when with intimate friends. Lamart.

DÉRISION, day-re-zyong, sf. (Lat.) derision, mockery. Faire d'une chose un objet de —, to make a mockery of a thing. Quelle — de la fortune! what a mockery of fortune! Lamart. Les enfants m'ont chanté dans leurs —s, children mocked at me in their songs. Lamart.

DÉRISOIRE, day-re-zwâr, adj. mf. derisive.

DÉRIVATIF, day-re-vat-if, adj. m. fem. dérivative. 1 med. dérivative. 2 (substantif.) derivative.

DÉRIVATION, day-re-vab-syong, sf. 1 derivation. Canal de —, canal of derivation. 2 med. derivation. 3 gram. derivation.

DÉRIVE, day-reev, sf. naut. drift, leeway. Navire qui va en —, ship going adrift. Avoir belle —, to have good sea-room. (by extension) Être en —, to drift.

DÉRIVÉ, ppa. of DÉRIVER, fem. — E. 1 derivative. 2 sm. gram. derivative.

DÉRIVER, day-re-vay, vn. 1 (from river) 1 to leave the shore. 2 naut. to drift. Laisser — un navire, to let a ship go adrift. 3 (des eaux, of waters) to derive. 4 fig. (venir, provenir) to derive, to spring, to be derived. De cette volution toute-puissante dérivait la légitimité royale, that all-powerful will was the creator of the royal legitimacy. Aug. Th. C'est de là que sont dérivés tous ses malheurs, that was the source of all his misfortunes. 5 gram. to be derived, to originate.

DÉRIVER, ra. 1 Faire —, to derive, to turn off (les eaux d'une rivière, the waters of a river). 2 N'ou dérivez-vous ce mot? what is the derivation of that word?

DERMATOLOGIE, dayr-mat-o-lo-zhee, sf. dermatology.

DERMATOSE, dayr-mat-oz, sf. med. dermatose.

DERME, dayrm, sm. (Gr.) anat. derm.

DERNIER, dayr-nyay, adj. m. fem. DERNIERE, (Lat. de, retro) 1 last, latter. Arriver le —, to arrive last. Être le — de sa classe, to be at the bottom of one's class. Le — mot de la page, the last word of the page. Il était l'un des —s de cette race d'autrefois, he was one of the last of that ancient race. St-E. Rendre le — soupir, to breathe one's last. C'est mon — mot, it is my last word. C'est la dernière fois que je vous en parle, it is the last time I speak to you about it. Avant. —, last but one. En — lieu, lastly, in the last place, last of all. Assister quelqu'un à ses —s moments, to be present at a person's dying moments. Le — jour d'un condamné, the last day of a man condemned to death. V. Hug. La dernière année de son règne, the last year of his reign. 2 (le plus récent) last. Vous n'étiez donc pas au — concert, you were not then at the last concert. C'était pendant la dernière guerre, it was during the last war. L'année dernière, last year. Dimanche —, last Sunday. 3 (le plus bas, le plus méprisable) lowest, vilest, meanest, worst, basest. Ces brigands sont les —s des hommes, these brigands are the worst of men. Ab. C'est la dernière des créatures, she is the worst of women. C'est le — homme auquel je ne confierais, he is the last man whom I should put confidence in. (substantif.) Ce — des — est un tendre père de famille, this puny of the puniest is a tender father to his family. Mich. 4 (extrême) highest, extreme, supreme, utmost. Arriver au — degré de la perfection, to attain the highest degree of perfection. En venir aux dernières extrémités, to carry to the last extremity. Cela est du — ridicule, this is extremely ridiculous. 5 (substantif.) Ne vouloir jamais avoir le — mot, to insist upon having the last word. 6 (substantif.) (jeu) end of the gallery.

DERNIÈREMENT, dayr-nyayr-mang, adv. lately, recently.

DÉROBÉ, ppa. of DÉROBER, fem. — E. 1 Un objet —, a stolen thing. fig. Moments —s aux occupations, spare moments. Une négociation qui avait été —e à leur connaissance, a negotiation that they had not been made acquainted with. Bar. 2 (caché) concealed, hidden, private. Escalier —, back-staircase. Porte —, corridor —, private door, secret passage.

À LA DÉROBÉE, adv. loc. by stealth, privately.

DÉROBÉ, ppa. of DÉROBER, fem. — E. Des feves —es, shelled beans.

DÉROBER, va. 1 to steal (from), to purloin (from), to fish (from), to pilfer (from), to rob (of). On lui avait dérobé sa montre dans la foule, his watch had been stolen from him in the crowd. Ce domestique dérobe ses maîtres, that servant robs his masters. absol. Ils ne savaient pas qu'il ne faut pas —, tout étant en commun, they did not know that they must not steal, every thing being in common. B. de St-P. 2 fig. (prendre, enlever adroitement) to steal. — un baiser, to steal a kiss. — à quelqu'un la gloire, le mérite d'une belle action, to steal from a person the glory, the merit of a fine action. 3 (le dérobé à Racine des vers entiers, he has stolen whole lines from R. du temps, of time) to steal (from), to spare (from). Il lui consacrait tout le temps qu'il pouvait — à ses travaux, he devoted to it all the time he could spare from his labours. A peine je dérobe un moment favorable, hardly can I snatch a favourable moment. Itac. 4 se dérober des moments pour lire, he finds spare moments to read in. St-B. 3 (soustraire) Ils attendaient le combat des martyrs, afin de — le corps glorieux, they were waiting for the combat of the martyrs in order to steal away the glorious body. Chat. Je m'en emparai sans qu'elle fit le moindre effort pour la —, I seized it without her making the least effort to withdraw it. Nod. Je pensais — ma vie au caprice du sort, I sought to get out of the reach of adversity. Chat. — quelqu'un à la fureur du peuple, to screen a person from the fury of the people. 4 (empêcher de voir) to conceal, to hide. Des arbres nous dérobaient la vue de la campagne, trees prevented us from seeing the country. fig. Il pénétra le secret qu'on voulait lui —, he penetrated the secret that they tried to keep back from him. — sa marche, to conceal one's march. 5 fig. to cover one's design, to work underground.

SE DÉROBER, rpr. 4 (disparaitre graduellement) to steal away (from). Les objets se dérobaient à notre vue, the objects stole out of our sight. 2 se soustraire) to escape (from), to slip away (from), to shun, to avoid. Se — aux coups, aux poursuites, aux recherches de quel-qu'on, to escape from the blows, the pursuit, the inquiries of a person. N'espère pas le — à notre vengeance, hope not to escape from our vengeance. Ab. Si l'un se dérobaît à son envie de conseiller, elle n'était pas contente, if one did not indulge her humour of giving advice, she was not pleased. St-B. Il se déroba avec brusquerie aux remerciements de l'oblige, he suddenly disappeared to avoid receiving the thanks of the obliged person.

St-B. Les autres moines s'étaient dérobés à l'appareil de cette cérémonie, the other monks had contrived not to be present at the preparations for the ceremony. Nod. Se — d'une compagnie, to slip out of a society. Vous me pardonneriez de m'être dérobé de chez vous, you will forgive me for having stolen away from your house. Chat. Se — à son travail, à ses occupations, to shirk one's work, to slip away from one's work. 3 fig. (être caché) to be concealed, to be hidden. Les causes de ce phénomène se dérobent à notre intelligence, the causes of this phenomenon are hidden from our understanding. 4 (du terrain) to slip out of the soil. 5 fig. Un de ces contes de Nodier où le fond se dérobe, où la forme est tout, one of those tales of N. in which the groundwork is nothing and the form the groundwork. St-B. fig. Ses genoux se dérobent sous lui, his knees fail under him. 5 man. Ce cheval se dérobe, that horse slips from under the rider.

DEROEN, day-ro-bay, ra. (little used) to shell (des feves, beans).

DEROCHAGE, day-ro-shazh, sm. tech. whitening, scouring (of metals).

DEROCHER, day-ro-shay, va. 4 tech. to scour (metals). 2 hawk. to cause, to compel (an animal) to throw itself from a rock.

DEROGATION, day-ro-ga-syong, sf. derogation. C'est une — à l'usage, it is a derogation from the custom.

DEROGATOIRE, day-ro-gat-wat, adj. mf. derogatory. Acte —, derogatory deed.

DEROGEANT, day-ro-zhang, pf. derogatory. adj. m. fem. —E, derogatory (to, from).

DEROGER, day-ro-zhay, va. conj. like MANGER. (Lat. derogare) 4 (apporter) to derogate (from). — à une loi, to derogate from a law. Cela déroge à l'usage, that derogates from the custom. Un déjeuner peu coûteux qui dérogeait aux habitudes de la maison, an inexpensive breakfast, which was contrary to the custom of the house. Balz. Pourquoi avez-vous dérogé à nos conventions? why have you infringed our conventions? (by extension) Comment se fait-il qu'il déroge si à la légère à l'impression principale? how is it that he turns away with such levity from the principal impression? St-B. — à l'obéissance, to be disobedient. Lamart. — à la noblesse, to derogate. 2 (faire une chose indigne de) to derogate. — à la majesté du trône, to derogate from the majesty of the throne. — à son caractère, à sa dignité, to derogate from one's character, one's dignity. 3 ironic. (condescendre) to condescend, to stoop. Il voulait bien — jusque-là, he was condescending enough to stoop to that.

DEROIR, day-ray-deer, va. to unstiffen, to render, to make pliant, to take the stiffness out of (une étoffe, a stuff).

SE DEROIR, vpr. to become, to grow pliant.

DEROUGIR, day-roo-zheer, va. to remove the redness (from).

SE DEROUGIR, vpr. to lose its redness.

DEROGER, va. to lose one's redness.

DEROULLER, day-roo-ray, va. 4 to rub off the rust of, to remove the rust from, to furnish. Huit ou dix paysans déroullaient leurs armes à feu pour célébrer mon arrivée, eight or ten peasants were letting off their fire-arms to celebrate my arrival. Le Sage. 2 fig. (des personnes, of persons) to polish.

SE DEROULLER, vpr. 4 to lose its rust.

2 fig. to lose one's rust, to brighten up, to polish. 3 fig. (se remettre au courant d'une chose) to get up again, to rub up.

DEROULEMENT, day-rool-mang, sm. 4 unravelling. 2 geom. genesis of a curve.

DEROULER, day-roo-lay, va. 4 to unroll, to spread out (une étoffe, un manuscrit, une estampe, a stuff, a manuscript, a print). — un peloton de ficelle, to unroll a ball of string. (by extension) La voie lactée déroulait sa zone blanchâtre, the milky way extended her pale zone. Th Gaut. Sur la plage de S. où la mer déroule ses flots bleus, on the shore of S. where the sea rolls its blue waves. Lamart. 2 fig. to unroll, to unfold. — le tableau de l'avenir, to give an insight into the future. Il lui déroula le plan de la conspiration, he unfolded to him the plan of the conspiracy. Lamart.

SE DEROULER, vpr. (s'étendre) to be unrolled, unfolded, spread out. Elle comparait son esprit à un rouleau plié qui se déroule par degrés, she compared her mind to a roll that is only spread out by degrees. St-B. Ses cheveux s'étaient déroulés et flottaient sur ses épaules, her hair had come out of order and flowed down on her shoulders. Balz. (by extension) Bientôt l'armée se déroula le long de M. Chat. the army extended itself along M. Chat. fig. Des savanes se déroulaient à perte de vue, savannahs extended as far as the eye could reach. Chat. La révolution se serait déroulée majestueuse et calme, the revolution would have followed its course majestic and calm. Lamart.

DEROUTE, day-roul, sf. (from dérouter) 4 rout, defeat, overthrow. Mettre une armée en —, to rout an army, to put an army to the rout. fig. Cette — de tant d'espérances, this destruction of so many hopes. Lamart. 2 fig. disorder, ruin, failure. La — de mes affaires, the disorder of my affairs. Le Sage. Depuis sa —, since his failure.

DEROUTE, ppa. of DÉROUTER, fem. —E, routed, puzzled. fig. Être, se trouver —, tout —, to be completely puzzled.

DÉROUTER, day-roo-lay, va. (to put out, route) 4 to lead astray. 2 fig. to put out, 3 fig. (faire prendre le change, to decoy) to disconcert, to baffie. Vesi-ce pas — à la police le plus habile? is it not enough to baffie the most skilful police?

4 Quelque chose de grave qui le dérouterait singulièrement, something serious that greatly embarrassed him. Sand. Un texte scabreux et rebelle dérouterait mon érudition, a ticklish or rebellious text found my erudition at fault. Nod.

DERRIERE, day-ray-ay, prep. (Lat. de, retro) behind. — la maison, le jardin, behind the house, the garden. Il s'agga la porte regardant — lui, he reached the door looking behind him. Nod. Il se met tous-jours — celui qui parle, he is always behind the person that is speaking. La Bruy. Il avait laissé ses compagnons bien loin — lui, he had left his companions far behind him. fig. Il ne faut pas regarder — soi, one must never cast a look behind. Mass. Regardez — vous où sont vos premières années, look back! where are your young days. Mass.

DERRIÈRE, adv. behind. E. demeurait — sans oser se montrer, E. stood behind not daring to show herself. Féu. Regarder —, to look behind. fig. Laisser quelqu'un bien loin — soi, bien loin —, greatly to surpass a person. Sens devant —, the wrong side forward, hind part before.

PAR DERRIÈRE, adv. loc. behind, from behind. Recevoir une blessure par —, to receive a wound from behind. Attaquer l'ennemi par —, to attack the enemy from behind.

DE DERRIÈRE, adv. loc. hind, back. Le train de — d'une voiture, the hind-wheels of a carriage. Les pieds de —, the hind-feet. Chambre de —, back-room. Porte de —, back-door; || fig. back-door, evasion, subterfuge.

DERRIÈRE, adv. 4 back, hinder part. Le — de la tête, the back of the head. Le — d'une maison, the back of a house. 2 mil. —s, pl. rear. Tomber, se jeter sur les —s de l'ennemi, to fall on, to attack, the enemy's rear. Assurer ses —s, —, to place one's rear in safety. fig. Tout allait bien, mes —s étaient assurés, every thing was going on well, my rear was in safety. Ab. 3 (de l'homme, d'un animal, of man, of animals) breech, bottom, posterior. Le lapin entre dans le léger essor, s'assied sur son —, the rabbit enters the light bark, seats itself on its posteriors. Flor. pop. Moutier le —, to turn tail, to show the white feather; || fig. to fail in one's promise.

DERVICHE, dayr-vish, sm. dervis, dervise.

DES, contract. of DE LES, of the, from the, some, any. See DE.

DES, day, prep. from. — le commencement, — l'apparition de la vie, the commencement, — l'apparition de la vie, the beginning, from the very first appearance of life appeared also dealt by violence. Mich. Des arbres qui — la première année portent des fleurs et des fruits, trees that from their first year bear flowers and fruits. B. de St-P. Aux vertus formé — l'enfance, formed for virtue from childhood. Flor. — cette époque-là, from that period. — sa plus tendre enfance, from his tenderest infancy. — le matin, from the morning. — hier, from yesterday. — demain, — la semaine prochaine, from to-morrow, from next week. — le lendemain il se présentait chez M., the very next day he presented himself at M's. Sand. — L'an se noya — le port allant à l'Amérique, one going to America got drowned even in the port. La Font. — cette ville le pays devient montagneux, from that town the country becomes mountainous. Le bonheur qui est réservé — le monde à l'homme vertueux, the happiness reserved to the virtuous man even in this world.

DÉS L., adv. loc. See LA.

DÉS LONS, adv. loc. See LONS, from that time, ever since, therefore.

DÉS QUES, conj. loc. 4 (aussitôt qu'on) consequently, then, as soon as, when. — que l'œil perceant à vu, les palpès tâtent, as soon as the piercing eye has seen, the feelers are at work. Mich. — qu'on leur est suspect, on n'est plus innocent, one is no longer innocent as soon as one falls into suspicion with them. Rac. 2 (puis-into) since, as. — que vous êtes d'accord, je n'ai plus rien à dire, since you are agreed, I have nothing more to say.

SE DESABONNER, day-zab-o-nay, vpr. to withdraw one's subscription (from).

DÉSABUSE, ppa. of DÉABUSER, fem. —E, deceived. 1 Être bien —, to be completely undeceived. — à son tour, d'un autre genre d'erreur, his eyes, in their turn, opened to another kind of error. Nod. Des gens d'esprit et très-—s, men of intellect and quite unbiassed. St-B. — par l'expérience du passé, undeceived by past experience. Aug. Th. 2 (substantif) person undeceived. Il fait le — et le révéler, he plays the dreamer without illusions. St-B.

DESABUSEMENT, day-zab-fiz-mang, sm. loss of one's illusions. The sentiment suprême du — humain, the supreme sentiment of the destruction of human illusions. St-B. Pendant les jours —, it avall, whilst his illusions were being destroyed, he had. Nod. Les angoisses du —, the anguish at the destruction of one's illusions. Nod.

DÉSABUSER, day-zab-f-237, va. 4 (déromper) to disabuse, to undeceive, to set free from a mistake. Il me serait trop facile de répondre et de te —, it would be too easy for me to answer and to undeceive you. Nod. Je ferai l'épaveur pour vous —. I will make a trial of it to undeceive you. Le Sage. 2 (désenchanter) to destroy the illusions. Cela le désabusa pour toujours des grandeurs, that put him out of conceit for ever with grandeurs.

SE DÉSABUSER, vpr. 1 to disabuse one's self, to undeceive one's self. 2 (cesser de se faire illusion sur) to be disabused.

DÉSACCORD, day-zab-kôr, sm. disagreement, variance, discord. Le ton et l'étiquette devaient tôt ou tard amener des —, discord was sooner or later, to be the consequence of ceremony and etiquette. S^{te}-B. Le singulier — qui existait alors entre les idées et les mœurs, the singular opposition that then existed between the ideas and the manners, Mich. Ce — dans une organisation aussi parfaite intriguait l'esprit, the mind was perplexed by that want of harmony in so perfect an organization. Balz. Ils sont en —, they are at variance. L'heure où le cabinet se mettra en — avec l'intérêt de l'Espagne, the moment when the cabinet shall be at variance with the interests of Spain. S^{te}-B. Son calme était en — avec la profondeur de ses sensations, his calmness was in contradiction with the depth of his feelings. Balz. Être en — avec soi-même, to be inconsistent with one's self.

DÉSACQUILLER, day-zak-or-day, ra. (d'un instrument de musique, of a musical instrument) to untune, to put out of tune.

SE DÉSACQUILLER, vpr. to come, to get out of tune.

DÉSACCOUPLER, day-zak-oo-play, ra. to uncouple (des chiens, dogs).

SE DÉSACCOUPLER, vpr. (des chiens, of dogs) to get uncoupled.

DÉSACCOUSTOMANCE, day-zak-oo-to-mang, sf. obsol. disuse.

DÉSACCOÛTUME, ppa. of DÉSACCOÛTUME, fem. —E. On commençait à être trop — des victoires, victories were beginning to be too rare. S^{te}-B. Une armée — de la guerre, an army no longer accustomed to war. Lamart.

DÉSACCOÛTUMER, day-zak-oo-ti-ni-ur, ra. to disaccustom, to break (of). Vous serez beaucoup de peine à l'en —, you will have much trouble to wean him from it.

SE DÉSACCOÛTUMER, vpr. to break one's self (of), to lose the habit, the custom (of). J'aimerais mieux me — de l'espérance d'être riche, I should prefer weaning myself from the hope of being rich. Nod. R. savait que le peuple ne se désaccoutumerait pas si vite des spectacles et des cérémonies, he knew that the people would not so soon be weaned from the sight of shows and ceremonies. Lamart. Se — de boire, to leave off drinking. Se — du jeu, to leave off gambling.

DÉSACHALANDER, day-zash-al-ang-day, ra. to injure the custom. — noe boutique, to hurt the custom of a shop. Chercher à — un marchand, to try to make a shopkeeper lose his customers.

DÉSACFECTION, day-zal-lek-syong, sf. disaffection. La — du peuple pour le roi allait en augmentant, the disaffection of the people to the king went on increasing. Varr.

DÉSACFECTIONNÉ, ppa. of DÉSACFECTIONNER, fem. —E, adj. tr. disaffected.

DÉSACFECTIONNER, day-zal-lek-syong, ra. to disaffect, to make disaffected.

SE DÉSACFECTIONNER, vpr. to get disaffected.

DÉSACFOURCHER, day-zaf-foor-shay, ra. paot. to unmoor.

DÉSAGREABLE, day-zag-ray-zbl', adj. mf. disagreeable, unpleasant. Une figure —, a disagreeable face. Une nouvelle très —, very unpleasant news. Rien de plus — que, nothing is more disagreeable than. — à voir, a disgusting, unpleasant, offensive to the sight, to the ear. — au goût, distasteful.

DÉSAGREABLEMENT, day-zab-gray- ah-bloh-mang, adv. disagreeably, unpleasantly.

DÉSAGRÉER, day-zag-ray-ay, ra. conj. like CREER, to displease.

DÉSAGRÉER, ra. naot. obsol. to unrig.

DÉSAGREGATION, day-zag-ray-gab-syong, sf. disaggregation.

DÉSAGRÉGER, day-zag-ray-zhay, ra. to disaggregate.

DÉSAGRÈMENT, day-zag-ray-mang, sm. 1 disagreeableness, unpleasantness, incontentment. Chaque état a ses —, every condition has its inconveniences. 2 (désol. defect, blemish.

DÉSAGNER, day-zay-mang-lay, ra. to unmagistrate.

DÉSAMUSTER, day-zabh-ss-ay, ra. to derange, to put out of order, to disorder.

SE DÉSAMUSTER, vpr. to come, to get out of order.

DÉSALTERER, day-zal-zay-ray, ra. to quench the thirst of, to slake the thirst of. Rien ne désaltere mieux que l'eau, nothing quenches the thirst better than water. fig. Nature! à tes sources sacrées, désaltérant nos cœurs, Nature! at thy sources refreshing our souls. V. Hug.

SE DÉSALTERER, vpr. to quench one's thirst, to slake one's thirst. L'in agneau se désaltérait dans le courant d'une onde pure, a lamb was quenching its thirst in the current of a limpid stream. La Font. Les insectes qui se désaltèrent dans le sang des hommes et des animaux, the insects which quench their thirst in the blood of men and animals. B. de S^{te}-P. Se — à une source, to slake one's thirst at a spring. (hyperb.) Déjà je me désaltérais au bruit de la cascade, I felt my thirst already being quenched by the very noise of the cascade. Méry.

DÉSANCHÊTER, day-zah-gu-bray, ra. naot. obsol. to weigh anchor.

DÉSAPPAREILLER, day-zap-pah-ray-say, ra. (déparrer) — des chevaux, to part with one of a pair of horses. — des vases, to break one of a pair of vases.

DÉSAPPARIER, day-zap-pah-ray-say, ra. to separate (des pigeons, pigeons).

DÉSAPPOINTE, ppa. of DÉSAPPOINTE, fem. —E, 4 disappointed. 2 fig. Il fut bien —, he was greatly disappointed.

DÉSAPPOINTEMENT, day-zap-pwang-ti-mang, sm. disappointment.

DÉSAPPOINTELI, day-zap-pwang-tay, ra. obsol. 1 to cashier. 2 — une pièce d'étoffe, to cut the threads of a piece of stuff. 3 fig. (tromper) to disappoint.

DÉSAPPIÈNDRE, day-zah-prândr', ra. to unlearn.

DÉSAPPROBATEUR, day-zap-pro-bat-ultr, adj. m. fem. DÉSAPPROBATIVE, 4 disapproving, disapprobatory. Esprit —, carping disposition. 2 (substantif.) fault-finder.

DÉSAPPROBATION, day-zap-pro-bah-syong, sf. disapprobation.

DÉSAPPROUVER, day-zap-pro-bah-say, ra. to disapprove, to disapprove (of) (un projet, une entreprise, a project, an undertaking). Ce n'est pas que je les désapprouve, not that I disapprove them. Mont. Je désapprouve l'usage de cette liqueur qui fait perdre la raison, I disapprove of the use of that liquor which destroys reason. Mont.

DÉSALCONNER, day-zar-so-nay, ra. (from arçon) 1 (jeter hors de selle) to dismount, to throw off the saddle, to unhorse, to throw, to throw off. 2 fig. (déconcerter) to baffle, to disconcert, to run down.

DÉSARGENTER, day-zar-zhâng-tay, ra. 1 to unstrip. 2 fig. to drain of cash.

SE DÉSARGENTER, vpr. to lose its plating.

DÉSARNÉ, ppa. of DÉSARNER, fem. —E, adj. tr. disarmed, unarmed. 2 fig. disarmed. Il avait ri, il était —, he had laughed, he was disarmed.

DÉSARNEMENT, day-zar-mnh-mang,

sm. 1 disarming. 2 (d'un vaisseau, of a ship) disarming. 3 (fem.) unarming.

DÉSARNER, day-zar-may, ra. 1 (ôter à quelqu'un son armure) to unarm, to take off the armor. 2 (obliger à rendre les armes) to disarm. La reine voulait faire — les Parisiens, the queen wanted the Parisians to lay down their arms.

Bar. Ces princes que la mort a désarmés de leur puissance, these princes that death has stripped of their power. 3 naot. — un vaisseau, to disarm, to lay up, to pay off a ship. — les avirons, to unship the oars. 4 fem. to disarm. 5 naot. to unhook (un fusil, un pistolet, a gun, a pistol). 6 fig. (déchirer) to disarm, to baffle. Ses larmes me désarmèrent, her tears disarmed me. Voulaient — la malveillance, wishing to give no hold to malveillance. Aug. Th.

DÉSARNER, ra. 1 to lay down arms, to disarm. Il répondit que lui et ses alliés ne désarmeraient pas, he answered that he and his allies should not lay down their arms. Bar. 2 naot. to pay off.

SE DÉSARNER, vpr. to unarm, to disarm.

fig. Une grande opinion ne se désarme pas impunément pour son pays, a strong party cannot abdicate its power without danger to the country. Lamart.

DÉSARMIER, day-zar-e-may, ra. to alter, to shift the slowness in the hold.

DÉSARROI, day-zar-rwâ, sm. disarray, confusion, disorder. Tout est en — dans la maison, every thing is upside down in the house. Au milieu de — où l'on est, e le trouve moyen de, in the midst of the confusion, she finds means to. S^{te}-B.

DÉSARTICULATION, day-zar-te-lâ-lah-syong, sf. surg. disarticulation.

DÉSARTICULER, day-zar-te-kû-lay, ra. surg. to disarticulate.

DÉSASSEMBLER, day-zas-sâng-blay, ra. tech. to take to pieces (une armoire, one charpente, a cupboard, a frame-work).

DÉSASSIMILATION, day-zas-se-meh-lah-syong, sm. physiol. cessation of assimilation.

SE DÉSASSIMILER, vpr. to cease to assimilate.

DÉSASSORTI, day-zas-sor-tee, ppa. of DÉSASSORTIR, fem. —E, ill-matched, jarring, unsuitable, ill-sorted.

DÉSASSORTIR, day-zas-sor-teer, ra. to spoil a collection of, to break a set of.

— des livres, des porcelaines, to spoil a collection of books, a set of porcelain.

DÉSASTRE, day-zastr', sm. disaster.

DÉSASTREUSEMENT, day-zas-trah-zniang, adv. disastrously.

DÉSASTREUX, day-zas-truh, adj. m. fem. DÉSASTREUSE, disastrous.

DÉSATHISTER, day-zat-lis-tay, ra. to cheer up.

SE DÉSATHISTER, vpr. to cheer up.

DÉSAVANTAGE, day-zav-ang-lah, sm. 1 disadvantage. Le — du vent, the disadvantage of the wind. Le — des armes, the disadvantage of the arms. 2 (infériorité) tr. disadvantage. 3 (préjudice) detriment, prejudice. Cela est entièrement à votre —, that is quite to your detriment. Il ne vent rien faire à votre —, he will do nothing to your prejudice.

Autrement, cela eût tourné à votre —, otherwise, that might have become detrimental to you. Voir quelqu'un à son —, to see a person at a disadvantage. Se montrer à son —, to show one's self at a disadvantage.

DÉSAVANTAGER, day-zav-ang-lah-zhay, ra. to disadvantage. — ses enfants, to disadvantage one's children.

DÉSAVANTAGEUSEMENT, day-zav-ang-lah-zh-mang, adv. disadvantageously, unfavourably.

DÉSAVANTAGEUX, day-zav-ang-lah-zhuh, adj. m. fem. DÉSAVANTAGEUSE, 1. disadvantageous. Le combat nous fut —, we were worsted in the fight. Ce qu'il dit de vous est très —, he speaks very disparagingly of you. 2 mil. Poste —, disadvantageous post.

DESARVOU, day-zav-uh, sm. 1 (dénégation) disavowal. 2 (rétractation) disavowal, disowning. 3 fig. (négation) denial, disavowal. Sa vie entière est un — de ses principes, his whole life forms a contradiction to his principles. 4 (action de déclarer qu'on n'a pas autorisé) disavowal. 5 law. — de paternité, disavowal of paternity. 6 feud. law, disavowal.

DESARVOUER, day-zav-uh-glav, va. to undeceive, to disabuse. Vous ne parviendrez pas à le —, you will not succeed in opening his eyes.

DESARVOUER, day-zav-oo-ay, va. 1 (nier) to disavow, to deny. 2 (ne pas vouloir reconnaître comme sien) to disavow, to disown, to disclaim. — sa signature, to disown one's signature. — un ouvrage, to disclaim a work. — un enfant, to disown a child. 3 (rétracter) to disavow, to repudiate. 4 — un avoué, un mandataire, un ambassadeur, to disavow a solicitor, an agent, an ambassador. — les paroles, la conduite d'un ambassadeur, to disavow the words, the conduct of an ambassador. 5 fig. (condamner) to disavow, to disallow. Une action que désavoue la morale, an action disallowed by the code of morality. Le bon goût désavoue de pareils écarts d'imagination, good taste does not allow such flights of the imagination.

DESCELLE, days-say-lay, va. 1 to unfasten (des barreaux, bars). 2 (ôter le sceau) to unseal.

DESCENDANCE, days-sang-dangs, sf. descent. Les hommes de — normande, men of Norman extraction. Ang. Tb.

DESCENDANT, day-sang-dang, ppr. of descendre. Une allée qui conduisait en — toujours au logeant du fermier, an alley that led down to the farmer's house. Le Sage. fig. M. avait donné l'exemple en — de la tribune, M. had set the example by ceasing to speak in the House. Lamart. adj. m. fem. —, 1 descending, descending. 2. Mouvement —, descending motion. Sève —, descending, descending sap. 2 arith. Progression —, descending progression. 3 astr. Signes —, descending signs. 4 bot. descendant. 5 law. Ligne —, descending line. 6 mil. Garde —, guard coming off duty. 7 marit. Marée —, tide going down. (substantif.) Le —, the ebb. 8 mus. Gamme —, descending scale.

DESCENDANT, sm. fem. —, descendant, action, offspring.

DESCENDRE, day-sangdr', en. conj. like RENDRE. (Lut. descendere) (des personnes, of persons) to descend, to go down, to come down, to go down. — de cheval, to alight from horseback. Descendras-tu bientôt de la haut? do you mean to come down from up there? Ver. P. descendit alors de l'arbre, accablé de chagrin, P. then came down from the tree, loaded with grief. B. de St-P. Les jeunes garçons et les jeunes filles descendaient ensemble jusqu'aux bords de la source, the lads and lasses went down together to the brink of the spring. Ph. Chas. Un matin, elle était descendue au parc, one morning, she had come down to the park. Sand. — de ballon en parachute, to alight from a balloon in a parachute. G. descendit au rivage et se mit au service des bateliers, G. went down to the shore and took service with the boatmen. Nod. Il descendit plus vite qu'il n'aurait voulu, he came down faster than he would have wished. — à la cave, to go down into the cellar. — par la fenêtre, to descend from the window. — de voiture, absol. —, to alight from a carriage, to get out of a carriage. Je pris le parti de — et de suivre ma voiture, I resolved to alight and to follow my carriage. Th. Gaut. poète. — au tombeau, au cercueil, to go down into the grave. 2 — à terre, absol. —, to land, to go ashore, to go on shore. — dans une lie, to land in an island. Ils descendirent heureusement, they landed safely. Bar. 3 fig. — du trône, to descend from the throne. 4 fig. — en soi-même, dans sa conscience, to descend into one's self, to commune with one's self, with one's conscience. — dans le détail, dans les détails d'une affaire, d'une question, to enter into detail, to enter into the particulars of an affair, of a question. Un esprit naturel qui descendait aux moindres détails, a good sense that entered into the meanest particulars. St-B. 5 fig. (s'abaisser) to descend, to stoop, to sink. Il n'a pas voulu — à se justifier, he would not stoop to justify himself. Un grand roi descendit-il jusqu'à la prière? does a great king stoop to entreaty? Rac. 6 fig. (déchoir) to descend, to fall. Aspirer à —, to aspire to descend. 7. Deux jours avaient suffi pour faire — au rang des plus simples mortelles, two days had sufficed to bring her down to the rank of simple mortals. Nod. 7 (faire irruption) to make a descent, an irruption. Lorsque les Goths descendirent en Italie, when the Goths made a descent into Italy. (by analogy) — dans la rue, to go down into the street. 8 (aller loger) to put up, to stay, to stop, to alight. Il s'en alla — en son hôtel d'Artois, he went and put up at his hotel d'Artois. Bar. Quand tu viendras à M., c'est chez moi que tu descendras, when you come to M. you must stay with me. Saud. 9 law, to search, to make a search. 10 (être issu) to descend, to spring, to come. De Sem et de Japhet sont descendues les races blanches et jaunes, from Shem and Japhet have descended the white and yellow races. Th. Gaut. Il descendait de ces héroïques brigands de S., he descended from those heroic brigands of S. Ab. Il descendait d'une des meilleures familles du pays, he came from one of the best families in the country. — de mâle en mâle en droite ligne, to descend from male to male in a direct line. 11 (des choses, of things) to descend, to go down, to come down, to flow down. Un ballon qui descend, a balloon that is descending. Les neiges fondues par le printemps descendaient des montagnes, the snow melted by the spring was descending from the mountains. Bar. Cette partie élevée de la France d'où descendent de tous côtés les fleuves sur toutes les mers, that elevated part of France from whence rivers flow down on all sides towards the sea. Mich. Un brouillard de nuit descendait sur la colline, a night-fog was descending on the hill. Mery. La douce rosée de la nuit descendait goutte à goutte sur le visage de M., the gentle dew of the night was falling drop by drop on M's face. Mery. Il met le pied sur le javelot, le presse de son poids, le fait — vers la terre, he places his foot on the javelin, brings his whole weight to bear upon it, bends it down towards the earth. Chat. fig. La benédiction de Dieu ne saurait — sur une plus bonnette maison, the blessing of God cannot descend on a more honest house. Nod. Des types naturellement nobles qui ne descendent pas jusqu'au galbe grotesque de la caricature, types naturally noble which do not reach the grotesque colour of caricature. Nod. L'air devait du cerveau à la main, it was natural that air should proceed from the brain to the hand. Th. Gaut. 12 (baisser) to go down. La mer descend, the sea is going down. Le thermomètre a descendu de quatre degrés, a descenda, the thermometer has gone down four degrees, has gone down. La rente qui était à 75 a descendu subitement à 70, the funds which were at 75 suddenly went down to 70. 13 (s'étendre de haut en bas) to flow down, to fall down. Ses cheveux lui descendaient jusqu'à la ceinture, her hair flowed down to her waist. Votre robe descend trop bas, your gown falls too low. 14 (aller en pente) to slope down, to incline. La route descend beaucoup en cet endroit, the road is very steep in that place. 15 mus. to descend, to lower. Sa voix descend très-bas, his voice descends very low. — d'un ton, d'une quinte, to lower by a tone, a fifth.

DESCENDRE, va. 1 (à descendre, to go down, to come down. (une montagne, un escalier, a mountain, down stairs). — une rivière, to go down a river. fig. Comme tous ceux qui descendent le cours d'une révolution, like all those who are drifted along by the stream of a revolution. Lamart. 2 — la garde, to come off duty; il fig. pop. to die, to kick the bucket. 3 (mettre plus bas, apporter en bas) to lower, to take down, to reach down. — du vin à la cave, to lower wine into the cellar. Soyez donc assez bon pour me — mon parapluie, be so kind as to reach me down my umbrella. 4 (débarquer) to land, to put on shore.

DESCENDU, day-sang-du, ppr. of descendre. Lem. —, 1 descended, come down. Un ange — du ciel, an angel descended from heaven. Et Phœbe aux enfers avec toi —, and Phœbe with you rishting hell. Rac. 2 (qui tire son origine) descended, sprung. 3 (qui tire son origine) comme moi —, thou who like me art descended from Benjamin. Rac.

DESCENTE, day-sangt, sf. 1 (action de descendre) descent, going down, coming down, landing, alighting, getting down, out of, off. La — du Saint-Esprit sur les Apôtres, the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the apostles. Rien d'effrayant comme la — dans une mine, nothing so frightful as the descent into a mine. A la —, on descending. Je lui donnais la main à la — de l'escalier, I handed her down stairs. Un alla le complimenter à sa — de la voiture, they went to compliment him on his alighting from his carriage. 2 (irruption) descent, irruption. La — des Sarrasins en Espagne, the irruption of the Saracens into Spain. (by analogy) Il fut décidé que l'on ferait une — dans la rue, it was decided that a descent should be made into the street. 3 (de la justice) search. Une — de justice, a search, a perquisition, a visit. 4 (des choses, of things) descent, coming down, going down, subsiding, fall. La — d'un ballon, the descent of a balloon. La — des eaux, the subsiding, the fall of the waters. 5 (pente) slope, declivity. 6 arch. pape. Faire placer une — de plomb, to place a leaden pipe. 7 (action de descendre quelque chose) taking down. 8 point. — de croix, descent from the Cross.

DESCRIPTIF, days-krip-tif, adj. m. fem. descriptive, descriptive. Le genre —, the descriptive style. Poésie descriptive, descriptive poetry. Anatomie géométrique descriptive, descriptive anatomy, geometry.

DESCRIPTION, days-krip-syong, sf. (Lut.) 1 description (d'un palais, d'un appareil d'une machine, d'une plante, d'un organe, of a palace, of an apparatus, a machine, a plant, of an organ). 2 (ouvrage) description. 3 (indication détaillée) inventory, specification. 4 log. description. 5 geom. description.

DESCHOUER, day-zay-shway, va. to set afloat again, to get off.

DESEMBALLAGE, day-zang-bal-ath, sm. unpacking.

DESEMBALLER, day-zang-bal-lay, va. to unpack.

DESEMBARQUEMENT, day-zang-bar-kub-mang, sm. (action) landing, disembarking, disembarking, unshipping. La — des troupes, the landing of troops. Le — des marchandises, the unshipping of goods.

DÉSEMRARQUER, day-zàng-bar-kay, vi. to land, to disembark, to unship (des marchandises, goods; des voyageurs, passengers).

DÉSEMBORBER, day-zàng-boor-bay, ra. to extricate from the mire; to get, to drag out of the mire (une voiture, a carriage; un bateau, a boat).

DÉSEMBORBER, rpr. to extricate one's self from the mire, to drag one's self out of the mire, to get out of the mire.

DÉSEMPARER, day-zàng-pab-ray, ra. to quit, to go away, to leave. Restez là et n'en désemparez pas que je ne sois revenu, remain there and don't stir till I come back. (by extension) L'assemblée ne désempara pas, the assembly did not break up. Lamart. Sans —, without quitting the place. L'assemblée décida qu'elle s'attarderait sans —, the assembly resolved to come to a decision on the spot. Le roi dicta sans — un rapport, the king dictated a report without once leaving off. Ab. (by extension) Il parla sans — jusqu'à midi et demi, he spoke without intermission till half past twelve. Ab.

DÉSEMPARER, ra. 1. to quit, to leave, to quit, to abandon (la ville, le camp, the town, the camp), 2. to fail, to disabuse.

DÉSEMPÊNE, day-zàng-vay-nay, adj. mf. —, it va comme un trait —, he goes at random.

DÉSEMPÊSER, day-zàng-pab-zay, ra. conj. like GELER, to take the starch out of, to col, a collar.

DÉSEMPÊSER, rpr. to lose its starch, to become limp.

DÉSEMPILLI, day-zàng-plee, ppa. of DÉSEMPILLER, fem. —, emptied in part, less full.

DÉSEMPILLER, day-zàng-plee, ra. to empty in part.

DÉSEMPILLER, ra. to get empty. Sa maison ne désempillait pas de visiteurs, his house was never clear of visitors. La salle ne désempilla pas, the hall is never empty.

DÉSEMPILLER, rpr. to become less full.

DÉSENCHANTER, day-zàng-shàng-lay, ra. 1. (rompre l'enchantement) to disenchant, 2. fig. to disenchant.

DÉSENCHANTER, rpr. to be disenchanted.

DÉSENCLOUER, day-zàng-kloo-ay, ra. to unvail; to take out, to draw out a nail. — un canon, to unship a gun.

DÉSENFILER, day-zàng-fé-lay, ra. to unstring, to unthread (des perles, pearls; une aiguille, a needle).

DÉSENFILER, rpr. to come unstringing.

DÉSENFLEUR, day-zàng-flay, ra. to reduce the swelling of; to let the gas out of. — un ballon, to empty a balloon.

DÉSENFLEUR, ra. to become less swollen.

DÉSENFLEUR, rpr. to be less swollen.

Son ventre s'est déseuvé, the swelling in his belly has gone down. Ce ballon se déseuvé, this balloon is discharging its gas.

DÉSENFLEUR, day-zàng-flay, sf. going down of a swelling.

DÉSENVIVRE, day-zàng-ne-vray, ra. to sober, to make sober. Le sommeil l'a déseuvé, sleep has sobered him. fig. Cet échec le déseuvé complètement, that failure completely sobered him.

DÉSENVIVRE, ra. Cet homme ne déseuvé point, that man is always drunk, he is never sober.

DÉSENVIVRE, rpr. to get sober.

DÉSENUI, day-zàng-née, sm. neol. solacement. Notre principal — était de, our principal amusement was. Chat. On rouspira par —, they conspired to break the monotony of life. Ph. Chas.

DÉSENUYER, day-zàng-née-yay, ra. conj. like ENVOIER, (dissiper l'ennui) to drive away dullness, ennui. Je reviendrai conter mes aventures à mon frère, je le déseuvérai, I will return and relate my adventures to my brother, I shall amuse him. La Font. absol. La lecture déseuvé, reading beguiles the time.

DÉSENUYER, rpr. to drive away one's dullness, one's ennui. Je ne pouvais me —, I could find no amusement. Un génie qui veut se — en s'illustrant, a genius who seeks in glory a palliative to ennui. Si-B.

DÉSENUYER, day-zàng-ray-ray, ra. conj. like PAYER, to unask, to take the drag off.

DÉSENUYER, day-zàng-rû-may, ra. to cure of a cold, to cure a cold.

DÉSENUYER, rpr. to cure one's cold.

DÉSENUYER, day-zàng-roo-ay, ra. conj. like JOUER, to cure of hoarseness.

DÉSENUYER, rpr. to get rid of one's hoarseness.

DÉSENEVELIR, day-zàng-solv-leer, ra. to unshroud, to exhume.

DÉSENEVELIR, day-zàng-sors-ay, ra. conj. like APPRÊTER, 1. to unbutton, 2. fig. to open a person's eyes.

DÉSENORCELEMENT, day-zàng-sor-say-lam, sm. unwhitching.

DÉSENTERRER, day-zàng-lay-ray, ra. to disinter. Si aucun est convaincu du crime de lèse-majesté, il doit être déseuvé, if any be convicted of the crime of high treason he is to be disinterred. Bar.

DÉSENTETER, day-zàng-lay-lay, ra. to get out of the head of, to cure the obstinacy of.

DÉSENTETER, rpr. to be cured of one's obstinacy, to get out of one's head.

DÉSERT, day-zàng, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. desertus) desert, unfrequented. Ille —, desert island. Le monde entier lui parut —, the whole world seemed to him a desert. Sand. Roe —, unfrequented street.

DÉSERT, sm. 1. desert, wilderness. Les —s de l'Afrique, the deserts of Africa. fig. La foule, vaste — d'hommes, the crowd, a vast desert of men. Chat. Le — du passé, the wilderness of the past.

DÉSERT, fig. Prêcher, parler dans le —, to preach, to speak in the desert. 2. fig. desert. Depuis votre départ, Paris n'est plus pour moi qu'un —, since you left it, Paris has been but a vast desert for me.

DÉSERTER, day-zàng-lay, ra. (Lat. desertare) 1. to desert, to abandon, to forsake, to leave. son poste, to desert one's post. Les oiseaux des mers désertent le rivage, the sea-birds desert the shore. Mus. absol. Les plus riches désertèrent les premiers, the richest were the first to leave. 2. fig. (abandonner) to desert, to abandon. Ils avaient déserté son alliance, they had abandoned his alliance. Ang. Th. — la bonne cause, the religion of his pères, to forsake the good cause, the religion of one's fathers.

DÉSERTER, ra. 1. to desert, to abandon. 2. nul. to desert. — à l'extérieur, 3. l'ennemi, à l'étranger, to desert, to go over to the enemy, to desert the country. — avec armes et bagages, to desert with one's arms and accoutrements.

DÉSERTER, day-zàng-tub, sm. (Lat. desertor) 1. deserter, 2. fig. deserter. M. de nos autels infâmes —, M. infamously deserter of our altars. Rac. 3. fig. (in joke) deserter.

DÉSSERTION, day-zàng-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1. (d'un soldat, of soldiers) desertion. 2. fig. desertion.

DÉSÉPERADE (A LA), adv. loc. (little used) Se battre, jouer à la —, to fight, to play like a madman.

DÉSÉPERANCE, day-zàng-pay-ràngs, sf. despair. Ces alternatives d'espoir et de —, these alternatives of hope and despair. Balz. Sa — de l'humanité, his want of faith in humanity. Chat.

DÉSÉPERANT, day-zàng-pay-ràng, 1. ppr. of DÉSÉPERER, 2. adj. m. fem. —, disheartening, dispiriting, discouraging. C'est là ce qu'il y avait de —, that is what was the most disheartening. Si-B. Il est — qu'on refuse ma demande, it is discouraging that my demand should be refused. Muss. Cette ré-ponse — d'inquiétude, this answer betraying the deepest anxiety. Si-B. (hyperb.) Un nez — de perfection, a nose of the utmost perfection. Mery. Cet enfant est —, that child is unmanageable.

DÉSÉPERER, ppa. of DÉSÉPÉRER, fem. —, adj. 1. desperate, hopeless. Une affaire, une situation —, a hopeless case, affair. Ette — des médecins, she was despaired of by the physicians. Ette dans un état —, to be in a desperate state. Ses affaires sont dans un état —, his affairs are in a desperate state. 2. (qui est dans le désespoir) in despair, disconsolate. fig. (hyperb.) Je suis — de ne pouvoir vous accorder ce que vous demandez, I am much grieved at not being able to grant your request. 3. (inspiré par le désespoir) desperate. Une résolution —, a desperate resolution. Un mouvement —, a desperate movement. Balz. 4. (little used) incorrigible, 5. (substantive) Agir en —, to act like a desperate person. Courir, crier comme un —, to run, to shout like a madman.

DÉSÉPÈREMENT, day-zàng-pay-ràng, sm. (little used) despairingly.

DÉSÉPÉRER, day-zàng-pay-ray, ra. (Lat. desperare) to despair of. C. désespérant de reconquérir l'autorité absolue, C. despairing to regain absolute authority. Ang. Th. Les balbutiens désespérant de tenir tête à de si grandes forces, the halbutians despairing of being able to resist such great forces. Ang. Th. Je ne désespère pas de mon bonheur, I do not despair of attaining happiness. Chat. — de quelque chose, to despair of a person's mentioning his ways. — d'un malade, to grieve over a patient.

DÉSÉPÉRER, ra. to drive to despair. Je mettrai ma joie à le —, I will delight in his despair. Rac. (hyperb.) Ce contre-temps ne désespère, this disappointment drives me mad.

DÉSÉPÉRER, rpr. to despair, to be in despair, to despond.

DÉSÉPOIR, day-zàng-pwar, sm. despair, despondency, hopelessness, desperation. Ette au —, to be in despair. Rédire au —, to drive to despair. Un beau —, a noble despair. Corn. Cette affreuse nouvelle l'a jeté, la plongé dans le —, this frightful news has driven him to despair. (hyperb.) Ette au —, to be in despair. Je suis au — de vous refuser, I am sorry to refuse you. Mettre au —, to vex, to grieve. Elle était debout au grand — de ses petits pieds, she was standing, to the great discomfort of her little feet. Ab. Faire le —, être le —, to be the despair of. fig. Ette le —, faire le —, to drive to distraction. Faire une chose en — de cause, to take up a thing as a last shift. Une troisième tentative qu'il fit en — de cause, a third and forlorn attempt which he made. Mery.

DÉSABILLÉ, ppa. of DÉSABILLER, fem. —, 1. addressed, 2. (substantive) (vêtement) dishabille, undress.

DÉSABILLER, day-zàng-be-yay, ra. to undress (on enfant, a child). prov. fig. — saint Pierre pour habiller saint Paul, to rob Peter to pay Paul.

DÉSABILLER, rpr. 1. to undress, to undress one's self, to take one's clothes off, one's things off. prov. fig. Il ne faut pas se — avant de se coucher, one must not part with one's property before death. 2. (changer de vêtement) to change one's clothes.

DÉSABILLER, ra. absol. to undress.

DÉSABITE, day-zàng-e-lay, adj. m. fem. —, uninhabited, no longer inhabited. Chat.

DÉSABITUE, day-zàng-e-lay, ra. to disaccustom (from), to break (of).

DÉSABITUE, rpr. to disaccustom one's self (from), to break one's self (of), to leave off. Il se désabituait d'elle, he got accustomed to her absence. Balz.

DÉSHERENCE, day-zàng-ràngs, sf.

(Lat. de, heres) law. eschaut. Droit de eschéance.

DÉSHERITE, ppa. of DÉSHERITER, fem. — E, 1 disinherited. 2 fig. deprived.

DÉSHERITER, day-zay-re-tay, ra. to disinherit, to disinheritor.

DÉSHEURE, ppa. of DÉSHEUREN, fem. — E, Grommelant d'être — et dérangés de leurs habitudes, grumbling at having their hours changed and their habits disturbed. Chat.

DÉSHEURER, day-zuh-ray, ra. to disturb. Les révolutions désheurent tout le monde, revolutions disturb the habits of every body. C. Del.

DÉSHEURER, ppr. to become ou to get disturbed in one's habits.

DÉSHONNETE, day-zo-nayt, adj. mf. immodest, indecent.

DÉSHONNETEMENT, day-zo-nayt-mang, adv. immodestly, indecently.

DÉSHONNETETE, day-zo-nayt-tay, sf. immodesty, indecency.

DÉSHONNEUR, day-zo-nuhr, sm. dishonour, disgrace, discredit. Teoir à —, to regard as dishonourable. Vous pouvez le recommander, il ne vous fera point de —, you may recommend him, he will be no discredit to you. Quel — pour une famille! what a disgrace for a family!

DÉSHONNABLE, day-zo-no-rahl, adj. mf. (little used) dishonourable, disgraceful, creditable.

DÉSHONORANT, day-zo-no-rang, ppr. of DÉSHONORER, adj. m. fem. — E, dishonourable, disgraceful, creditable.

DÉSHONORE, ppa. of DÉSHONORER, fem. — E, 1 dishonoured. 2 (by extension) dishonoured, tarnished. Mémoire à jamais — E, memory for ever tarnished.

DÉSHONORER, day-zo-no-ray, ra. 1 to dishonour, to discredit, to disgrace. Cette action l'a déshonoré, this action has disgraced him. — une fille, une femme, to dishonour a girl, a woman. — sa famille, to disgrace one's family. (by analogy) — ses aïeules, la mémoire de ses aïeules, to be a disgrace to one's ancestors, to the memory of one's ancestors. 2 (by extension) to dishonour, to tarnish. Vous déshonorez votre nom, you will be a disgrace to your name.

DÉSHONORER, ppr. to dishonour one's self, to disgrace one's self, to discredit one's self. Ou je vous tromperais ou je me déshonorerais dans votre esprit, I should either deceive you or ruin myself in your opinion. Mont.

DÉSIDERATA, day-ze-day-rah-lah, sm. pl. (Lat.) diid. desideratum, desiderata, pl.

DÉSIGNATIF, day-ze-nyat-if, adj. m. fem. designative, designative, indicative.

DÉSIGNATION, day-ze-nyah-syong, sf. 1 (indication) designation, indication. 2 (pour une dignité, une place) designation, appointment, choice.

DÉSIGNE, ppa. of DÉSIGNER, fem. — E, 1 indicated. Ce relais devait être — à une manière précise, this relay was to be indicated out to the king very precisely. Lamart. 2 (fixe) appointed. Heure — E, appointed hour. 3 (pour un emploi) appointed, chosen.

DÉSIGNER, day-ze-nyay, ra. (Lat. designare) 1 (indiquer) to designate, to indicate, to describe. Il en parlait peu, et puis souvent la désignait sans la nommer, he spoke of it but seldom and generally described it without naming it. Mich. (by extension) Les vieilles femmes vous désignent du doigt, old women will point at you with their fingers. Sand. Elle me le désigna des yeux, she pointed it out to me with her looks. Lui désignant du doigt la chambre qu'elle devait occuper, pointing out to her the room she was to occupy. Saint. W. Les désignait tour à tour par leurs noms, W. named each of them in his turn by his name. Sand. 2 (signifier) to signify, to betoken, to denote. Ce symptôme désigne telle maladie, that symptom denotes such a disease. 3 (signaler) to point out, to mark out, to hold up. La voix publique ne tarda pas cependant à — le coupable, the public voice however was not long in marking out the guilty individual. Nod. — quelqu'un au milieu des honnêtes gens, to hold up a person to the contempt of honest people.

4 (fixer) to name, to appoint. Désignez-moi le jour et l'heure où je pourrai vous voir, name to me the day and the hour in which I can see you. 5 (pour un emploi) to appoint, to designate. On désigna les consuls pour l'année suivante, the consuls were appointed for the following year. (by analogy) — quelqu'un pour son héritier, to designate a person for one's heir.

DÉSILLUSIONNER, day-zel-lu-zyo-nay, ra. to destroy the illusions of.

DÉSINCORPORER, day-zang-kor-po-ray, ra. to disincorporate, to disemboly.

DÉSINENCE, day-zo-nangs, sf. (Lat. desinere) gram. desinence, termination, end.

DÉSINFATER, day-zang-fah-tay, ra. to disabuse, to cure of infatuation.

DÉSINFATER, ppr. to cure one's self of infatuation.

DÉSINFECTER, day-zang-fek-tay, ra. to disinfect (un vaisseau, une salle, des vêtements, a vessel, a room, clothes). — l'air, to disinfect the air.

DÉSINFECTION, day-zang-fek-syong, sf. disinfection.

DÉSINTÉRESSÉ, ppa. of DÉSINTÉRESSER, fem. — E, adjective, 1 disinterested, uninterested, unconcerned. Je suis bien — dans la question, I am quite uninterested in the question. Si le clergé était — des choses temporelles, if the clergy had had no interest in temporal concerns. Lamart. 2 (détaché de son intérêt particulier) disinterested. Vous êtes bien —, you are very disinterested. Le Sage. (by analogy) Action, conduite — E, disinterested action, conduct. Sentiments, conseils — s, disinterested sentiments, advice.

3 (impartial) impartial, unbiased. Jugement —, unbiased judgment. fig. Regarder quelque chose d'un œil —, to consider a thing with an impartial eye.

DÉSINTÉRESSEMENT, day-zang-tay-rays-mang, sm. disinterestedness. M. C. était d'un — moui, Mr. C. displayed unexampled disinterestedness. Balz.

DÉSINTÉRESSER, day-zang-tay-raysay, ra. to buy out (des créanciers, creditors).

DÉSINTÉRESSER, ppr. to lose one's interest (m). Ils semblaient se — d'un combat ou, they seemed no longer to take any interest in a combat in which. Lamart.

DÉSINVESTIR, day-zang-rays-teer, ra. ml. — une place, to raise the siege of a place.

DÉSINVOLTURE, day-zang-vol-târ, sf. (It.) easy carriage, unconstrained motion.

DÉSIR, day-zeer, sm. (Lat. desiderium) 1 desire, wish. Le — de la gloire, des honneurs, the desire of glory, of honours. Le — de plaire, the desire to please. Il sera fait selon tes — s, it shall be done according to your wishes. fig. L'Amérique, c'est le —, elle est jeune, America is young, and full of aspiration. Mich.

DÉSIRABLE, day-ze-rahl, adj. mf. desirable.

DÉSIRÉ, ppa. of DÉSIRER, fem. — E, 1 Vous êtes très — E, you are in great request. 2 (substantif) desired. Louis le —, Louis the Desired.

DÉSIRER, day-ze-ray, ra. (Lat. desiderare) 1 to desire, to be desirous of (la santé, les honneurs, health, honours). Désirant s'assurer de la vérité, wishing to ascertain the truth. Aug. Th. Désirant en secret le trépas de son frère, secretly desiring his brother's death. Flor. Je suis tel que tu le desirés, I am what you desire me to be. Il n'avait plus rien à — au monde, he had no earthly wish left. Th. Gaut. Il laissait parler librement ceux qui désiraient le convertir, he allowed those who desired to convert him to speak freely. Aug. Th. E. m'accueillit comme un ami qu'on désirait de revoir, E. received me as a friend that one was desirous of seeing again. Nod. Ce cœur désire le trépas, that heart wishes for death. Flor. Je désire qu'il réussisse, I wish he may succeed. Il ne désirait rien tant que de, he had nothing so much at heart as to, it would be desirable that. lam. Se faire —, to keep people waiting. Il y a quelque chose à — dans cette personne, dans cet ouvrage, there is something wanting in that person, in that work. Ne rien laisser à —, to leave nothing to be desired. 2 (souhaiter) to wish. Je vous désire toutes sortes de prospérités, I wish you every kind of happiness.

DÉSIREUX, day-ze-ruh, adj. m. fem. désireux, desirous (of), eager (for, after), anxious (for), solicitous. — de gloire, d'honneur, desirous of glory, of honours. J'étais fort — de lui plaire, I was very desirous to please him.

DÉSISTENT, day-zis-tuh-mang, sm. law. desistance.

SE DÉSISTER, day-zis-tay, ppr. (Lat. desistere) to desist (from), to give over. Se — d'une poursuite, d'une demande, d'une prétention, to give over a pursuit, to waive a demand, to give over a pretension.

On lui enjoignit de se — de toute entreprise comme les L., he was enjoined to desist from attempting anything against the L. Bar. Je vous autorise à vous — en mon nom, I authorize you to desist in my name. Saud. Une déclaration par laquelle elle se désiste de la régence, a declaration in which she renounces the regency. Mont.

DÉS LORS, day-lor, adv. loc. See LORS. DÉSŒBIRE, day-zo-bay-er, ra. to disobey. — à ses chefs, à ses parents, to disobey one's superiors, one's parents. — à la loi, aux ordres qu'on a reçus, to transgress the law, to disobey orders received.

ÊTRE DÉSŒBÉ, p. pass. (anomalously) to be disobeyed. Je ne veux pas être —, I will not be disobeyed.

DÉSŒBESSEANCE, day-zo-bay-e-sangs, sf. 1 (désobéissance (au prince, à la loi, to the prince, to the law). Acte de —, act of disobedience. 2 (habitude) disobedience. 3 (acte) disobedient action, undutifulness.

DÉSŒBÉISSANT, day-zo-bay-e-sang, ppr. of DÉSŒBIRE, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 disobedient, undutiful. Un enfant —, an undutiful child. 2 (substantif) disobedient person. Il était commandé de courir sus aux — s, etc., it was commanded to fall upon those who refused to obey, etc. Bar.

DÉSŒBLEMENT, day-zo-b-le-zhang-mang, adv. disobeyingly, unkindly, offensively.

DÉSŒBESCEANCE, day-zo-b-le-zhangs, sf. disobedience, offensiveness.

DÉSŒBÉANT, day-zo-b-le-zhang, ppr. of DÉSŒBIRE, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 disobeying, ungracious, unaccommodating. 2 (qui cause du déplaisir) disobeying, offensive, unfriendly. Paroles — es, offensive words. Procédé —, unfriendly proceeding.

DÉSŒBÉGEANT, day-zo-b-le-zhangt, sf. a coach for two persons.

DÉSŒBILIGER, day-zo-b-le-zhay, ra. (faire du déplaisir) to disoblige.

DÉSŒBISTRANT, day-zoh-strû-ang, ppr. of DÉSŒBISTRER, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 med. deobstruent. 2 (substantif) deobstruent.

DÉSŒBISTRATIF, day-zoh-strû-tif, adj. m. fem. deobstructive, auc. med. deobstruent, aperient.

DÉSŒBISTRER, day-zoh-strû-ay, ra. 1 à clarifier (une rue, un canal, un toyau, a street, a canal, a pipe. 2 obso. med. to deobstruere (le fœtus, le liver).

DESOCCUPÉ, day-zo-kû-pay, adj. m. fem. —E, unoccupied, unemployed, vacant. Une femme —e, an unoccupied woman. Un esprit —, a vacant mind. Une vie —e, an idle life.

DESOEUVRE, day-zuh-vray, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 unoccupied, unemployed, idle. Il est — et triste, he is unoccupied and dull. Th. Gaut. Un génie —, an inactive genius. S'e-B. Le voyageur — qui arrive devant un pareil tableau, the traveller with time on his hands who comes to such a picture. Mery. 2 (substantiv.) idler. Byron, cœ — sublime, B. that sublime idler, Mery.

DESOEUVREMENT, day-zuhvr-mâng, sm. idleness, inactivity.

DESOLANT, day-zo-lân, sm. 1 desolating, grievous, afflicting. Une nouvelle —e, desolating news. (by extension) Une mer odieuse et —e de monotonie fœreuse, a sea hateful and wearisome for its monotonous fury. Nich. 2 (hyperb.) rezing. Nous ne pourrions les rejoindre, cela est —, we cannot overtake them, it is rezing. 3 (des personnes, of persons) tiresome, annoying. Il est — avec ses vers, he is annoying with his poetry. Cet homme — alléguait que, that tiresome man alleged that. S'e-B.

DESOLATEUR, day-zo-lat-abr, sm. (little used) desolator, ravager.

DESOLATION, day-zo-lân-syong, sf. 1 desolation. Ce fut une — épouvantable, the desolation was a frightful one. 2 (affliction) desolation, disconsolateness. 3 (hyperb.) rezzation, annoyance.

DESOLÉ, ppa. of DESOLER, fem. —E, adjective. 1 desolated. Une ville —e par la peste, a town desolated by the plague. 2 (rés-affligé) disconsolate, distressed, grieved. (by extension) Nos jours étaient —s, our days were sad. Chat. Avoir l'air —, to look distressed. Sa physionomie semblait la plus —e de celles qui garnissaient la table, his countenance appeared to exhibit greater marks of distress than would be seen in any of those who sat round the table. Balz. 3 (hyperb.) vexed, annoyed. Je suis — de ne pouvoir faire ce que vous me demandez, I am extremely sorry that I am not able to do what you ask of me.

DESOLER, day-zo-lay, ra. (Lat. desolare) 1 to desolate, to lay waste. A l'époque où la peste désolait cette contrée, at the period when the plague desolated that country. Une querelle qui depuis quelques mois desolait le pays, a quarrel that for some months had laid waste the country. Bar. Cette nation inquiète ne cesse de — les frontières de l'empire, this restless nation is continually laying waste the frontiers of the empire. Chat. On verra un perfide étranger — la province, a perfidious foreigner will be seen to desolate the province. Rac. 2 (causer une grande affliction) to distress, to grieve, to afflict. 3 (hyperb.) to vex, to annoy. Ce retard me désolé, this delay annoys me. 4 (tourmenter) to torment, to weary, to bore. Ce lard me désolé avec ses histoires, that talkative fellow bores me to death with his stories. Pendant la nuit, les moustiques nous désolaient, during the night, the mosquitoes worried us. (by extension) Un de ces étés qui désolent de temps à autre les terres situées entre les tropiques, one of those summers with which the countries situated between the tropics are sometimes visited. B. de S-P.

SE DESOLER, vpr. to be disconsolate, to be distressed, to grieve, to lament. Elle se désolait de l'absence de son fils, she was distressed at her son's absence. Le vieillard se désolait d'avoir cédé à ses instances, the old man laments having yielded to her entreaties. Saint.

DÉSOLIPANT, day-zo-pe-lâng, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 med. deobstruent. (substantiv.) Un —, a deobstruent. 2 fig. funny, laughable.

DÉSOLIPATION, day-zo-pe-lân-syong, sf. obso. med. deoipilation.

DÉSOLIPER, day-zo-pe-lay, ra. 1 to deoipilate. 2 fig. — la rate, to excite laughter, to throw into a roar of laughter.

DÉSORDONNE, day-zor-do-nay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 disorderly. Une armée —e, a disorderly army. 2 (dérégulé) disolute, disorderly, unruly. 3 (excessif) inordinate. Les passions étaient si puissantes et si —es, the passions were so powerful and so unruly. Villem. Un appétit —, an inordinate appetite.

DÉSORDRE, day-zordr, sm. 1 (chaos, confusion) disorder. Une chambre qui est toute en —, a room all in confusion, all in a litter. Tout était en — dans sa chambre, every thing was topsy-turvy in his room. Réparer le — de sa chevelure, to arrange one's hair. Il y a un peu de — dans ses idées, his ideas are rather confused. Un heu —, an elegant confusion. Boil. 2 fig. disorder, want of order. Des affaires en —, affairs in disorder. Le — des finances, the disorder of the finances. Les —s de l'organisme, the disorders of the organism. Ce — inaccoutumé des éléments, this unusual disorder of the elements. Nod. 3 (dérèglement de mœurs) disorder, licentiousness. 4 (trouble) disorder. Sa figure bouleversée annonçait le — de son esprit, de ses idées, his agitated features betrayed the disorder of his mind, of his ideas. Le duc sortit en grand —, the duke went out in great disorder. Bar. L'exaltation de ses sentiments allait jusqu'à —, her sentiments were strung to a pitch that left reason behind them. Chat. 5 (tumulte) disorder, uproar, disturbance. 6 (dissension) disorder, quarrel, dissension. 7 (dégât) disorder, ravage, devastation.

DÉSORGANISATEUR, day-zor-gân-e-zat-uh, adj. m. fem. DÉSORGANISATRICE, f. 1 fig. disorganizing. 2 (substantiv.) m. disorganizer.

DÉSORGANISATION, day-zor-gân-e-zah-syong, sf. disorganization.

DÉSORGANISÉ, ppa. of DÉSORGANISER, fem. —E, Un tissu —, a disorganized tissue. Une armée —e, des finances —es, a disorganized army, disorganized finances.

DÉSORGANISER, day-zor-gân-e-zay, ra. 1 to disorganize. 2 fig. to disorganize.

SE DÉSORGANISER, vpr. 1 to become disorganized. 2 fig. to become disorganized.

DÉSORIENTÉ, ppa. of DÉSORIENTER, fem. —E, 1 Être —, to have lost one's way. 2 fig. to be out of one's element, latitude, to be disconcerted.

DÉSORIENTER, day-zo-ryâng-tay, ra. 1 to prevent a person from knowing which way the east lies. 2 (by extension) to lead astray. 3 fig. (dérégler) to take out of one's element, latitude; to disconcert, to bewilder. Ce qui désorienta le plus ce sont les dents ou les manibules, what embarrasses the most is the teeth or the mandibles. Mich.

SE DÉSORIENTER, vpr. to lose one's way. Il en fit le tour, les yeux fermés pour se —, he went round it with his eyes shut, that he might not know where he was. G. Sand.

DÉSORMAIS, day-zor-may, adv. thenceforth, henceforth, henceforward, from this time forward. — vous n'irez plus au bal, you shall never go again to a ball. Vous ne devez songer — qu'à m'oublier, in future you must only think of forgetting me. Le Sage. Bien qu'il eût — des terres, un château, although he had now an estate, a mansion. Sand. Le silence était — ce qui lui convenait le mieux, silence was thenceforth the most suitable for him. Balz. Mon ministère vous est — inutile, my services are henceforth useless to you. Sand. Ne songez — qu'à vos erreurs passées, remember your past errors. La Font.

DESOSSE, ppa. of DESOSSEER, fem. —E, boned. Viande —e, boned meat. (by extension) Carpe —e, brochet —, boned carp, pike.

DESOSSEMENT, day-zos-mâng, sm. boning.

DESOSSEER, day-zo-say, ra. to bone, to take out the bones of (un jambon, un lièvre, a ham, a hare).

DESORDYDANT, day-zok-se-dâng, ppr. of DESORDYDER, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 disordyzing, deorydzating. 2 (substantiv. masc.) Un —, a disordyzing agent.

DESORDYDATION, day-zok-se-dah-syong, sf. chem. deorydzation, deorydzation, desorydzation.

DESORDYDER, day-zok-se-day, ra. chem. to deorydzize, to deorydzate, to desorydzate.

SE DESORDYDER, vpr. chem. to deorydzize, to deorydzate, to desorydzate.

DESORXYGENATION, day-zok-se-zay-nah-syong, sf. chem. See DESORXYDATION.

DESORXYGÈNE, day-zok-se-zhay-day, ra. chem. See DESORXYDER.

DESPOTE, days-pot, sm. (Gr.) 1 despot. 2 (by extension) despot.

DESPOTIQUE, days-po-tik, adj. mf. despotic, despotical.

DESPOTIQUEMENT, days-po-tik-mâng, adv. despotically.

DESPOTISME, days-po-tism, sm. 1 despotism. 2 (by extension) despotism.

DESUMINATION, days-pû-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) surg. desumption.

DESQUAMATION, days-kwâm-mah-syong, sf. (Lat.) med. desquamation, exfoliation.

DESSAISIR, day-say-zeer, ra. law. to dispossess (of). quelqu'un d'un gage, d'un dépôt, to dispossess a person of a pledge, of a deposit.

SE DESSAISIR, vpr. to give up the possession of, to divest one's self of. Il s'est dessaisi de son bien en faveur de ses gendres, he has divested himself of his property in favour of his sons-in-law. S'e-B.

DESSAISISEMENT, day-say-zis-mâng, sm. law. relinquishment, renunciation.

DESSAISONNER, day-say-zo-nay, ra. agri. to change the regular rotation of crops.

DESSALAISSON, day-sah-lay-zong, sf. soaking.

DESSALÉ, ppa. of DESSALER, fem. —E, 1 soaked. Un jambon —, a ham that has been soaked. 2 fig. pop. C'est un homme —, (substantiv.) C'est un —, he is a shorn fellow.

DESSALEMENT, day-sal-mâng, sm. clearing from salt.

DESSALER, day-sah-lay, ra. to soak, to freshen (de la morue, des harengs, cold herrings). — une sauce qui est trop salée, to water a sauce.

DESSALER, sm. to soak, to freshen. Faire — de la morue, to soak cod. Mettre — un jambon, mettre un jambon à —, to soak a ham.

DESSANGLER, day-sâng-glây, ra. to ungrith (un cheval, a horse).

DESSÉCHANT, day-say-shâng, ppr. of DESSÉCHER, adj. m. fem. —E, drying. Un vent — a porching wind.

DESSÉCHÉ, ppa. of DESSÉCHER, fem. —E, 1 dried, withered. 2 dried up, drained.

DESSÉCHÈMENT, day-saysh-mâng, sm. 1 drying, draining, dryness. Le — d'un marais, the draining of a marsh. 2 (maigre) emaciation.

DESSÉCHER, day-say-shay, ra. 1 to dry, to dry up, to wither, to parch. — une plaie, to heal up a sore. 2 (du corps humain, of human bodies) to emaciate, to waste, to desiccate. 3 fig. — l'esprit, l'imagination, to dry up the mind, the imagination. — le cœur, l'âme, to dry up the heart, the soul. 4 (mettre à sec) to drain (un étang, un marais, a pond, a marsh). — le sang, les poumons, la poitrine, le cerveau, etc., to dry up the blood, the lungs, the chest, the brain, etc.

se dessécher, vpr. (d'une plante, d'un arbre, of a plant, of a tree) to wither. Son corps se dessèche, his body is wasting away. Se — d'égout, to be core-worn. fig. La cœur se dessèche en se corrompant. He became hard-hearted as we become vicious. Mme de Genl.

DESSEIN, day-sang, sm. (Lat. designare) 1 (intention) design, intention, purpose. La ville de T. où il avait — d'aller, the town of T. where he intended to go. Le Sage. Comme j'étais dans le — de ne pas négliger cette permission, as I purposed not to neglect this permission. Le Sage. Faire une chose de — prémédité, to do a thing premeditatedly. Pénétrer, découvrir le — de quelqu'un, to penetrate, to discover the designs of a person. Il y a là —, that has been done on purpose. Il l'a fait sans —, he did it unintentionally. 2 (but) design, view, purpose, end. A quel — êtes-vous assemblés hier? 3 (résolution) design, intention, intent, resolution. — noble, généreux, noble, generous design. Mauvais —, bad intent. Former, concevoir un —, to design, to intend. La fortune a de grands — sur votre seigneurie, fortune has great views on your Lordship. Le Sage. Venir à bout de ses —, to bring about, to gain one's purpose. Accomplir ses —, to accomplish one's designs. Secondar quelqu'un dans ses —, to second a person in his views. 4 (d'un ouvrage, of a work) design, project, plan.

A DESSEIN, adv. loc. on purpose, purposely, designly, intentionally. Faire une chose à —, to do a thing on purpose.

A DESSEIN DE, prep. for the purpose of, on purpose, in order to, with a view to. J'étais allé chez vous à — de vous parler, I had gone to your house on purpose to speak to you.

A DESSEIN QUE, conj. in order that, with the design that.

DESSELLER, day-say-lay, va. — un cheval, to unsaddle a horse.

DESSERRE, day-sayr, sf. Être dur à la —, to be close-fisted.

DESSERRER, day-say-r, va. 4 (relâcher) to loosen. — une ceinture, une sangle, to loosen a girdle, a girth. Je desserre les dents tout juste pour laisser passer un monosyllabe, I open my mouth just wide enough to let a monosyllable drop from it. Mich. Lâchant le bâton en desserrant les dents, letting go the stick in opening his mouth. La Font. fig. On pourrait mourir sans avoir desserré son cou? who could die without having unloosed himself? Mich. — les dents à quelqu'un, to wrench a person's teeth open; || fig. Ne pas — les dents, not to open one's mouth, not to speak. (by analogy) Avant qu'il eût pu — les dents, d'autres s'étaient offerts, before he had made up his mind to speak, others had offered themselves. G. Sand. 2 fig. — un coup de pied, un coup de fouet, etc., to give. Le cheval lui desserre un coup et haut le pied, the horse gives him a hearty kick. La Font. 3 print. — une forme, to unlock a form.

se DESSERRER, vpr. (se relâcher) to get loose.

DESSERT, day-sayr, sm. 4 dessert. Assiette à —, dessert-plate. Couteau à —, dessert-knife. On a droit à un —, on a right to —, one has a right to a dessert. 2 (by extension) (moment) dessert. Arriver à —, to come to the dessert.

DESSERTER, day-sayr, sf. 4 (mets) tearings. Donner la — aux pauvres, to give the broken victuals to the poor. Ils avaient mangé la — de sa table, they had eaten the tearings of his table. Ab. 2 (d'une cure, d'une chapelle, of a vicarage, a chapel) parochial duty.

DESSERTIR, day-sayr-teer, va. tech. to unsel.

DESSERTANT, day-sayr-vang, clerg. of DESSERTA, sm. officiating priest, perryman, curate.

DESSERTIR, day-sayr-veer, va. 4 (ôter de dessus la table) to take away, to clear away, to remove. absol. On a desservi, the cloth has been removed. 2 (faire à quelqu'un) to deserve, to do an ill turn to. Il a servi et desservi toutes les deux, he has served and desserved both. Lamart. Le parti du pouvoir absolu semblait servir le trône, et le desservait, the party of absolute power seemed to serve the throne and desserved it. Ph. Chas. 3 (faire le service d'une cure, etc.) to officiate, to serve. — une cure, une chapelle, to serve a living, to officiate at a chapel. fig. Ces degrés inférieurs desservent des corridors bas et obscurs, these lower steps led to low and obscure passages. Lamart.

DESSICCATIF, day-se-kat-if, adj. m. fem. DESSICCATIVE, 4 med. desiccative, drying. 2 paint. Huile dessiccative, desiccative oil. 3 (substantif.) Un bon —, a good desiccative.

DESSICATION, day-se-kah-syong, sf. (Lat. siccus) desiccation.

DESSILLER, day-se-yay, va. (Lat. cillium) 1 (des paupières, of the eye-lids) to open. 2 fig. — les yeux de quelqu'un, to open a person's eyes.

se DESSILLER, vpr. 1 to open. 2 fig. to open one's eyes, to be undeceived. A ce signe leurs yeux se dessillèrent, at this sign, their eyes were opened. La Font.

DESSIN, day-sang, sm. 1 design, drawing. 2 (sur les étoffes, etc.) design, pattern. Le — d'une broderie, the pattern of an embroidery. Une robe d'un joli —, a dress of a pretty pattern. 3 (par opposition à coloris) design, outline, sketch. 4 (little used) disposition générale d'un tableau. 5 (l'art) drawing-master. Professeur, maître de —, painting and sculpture. Les arts du —, painting and sculpture. 6 (plan) plan, draught. 7 fig. mus. arrangement.

DESSINAUTEUR, day-se-nat-ubr, sm. 4 draughtsman, designer. 2 paint. draughtsman.

DESSINÉ, ppa. of DESSINER, fcm. —, 1 drawn. 2 laid out.

DESSINER, day-se-nay, va. 4 to draw. — un paysage d'après nature, to draw a landscape from nature. fig. Ses cheveux dessinaient cinq pointes sur son front bas, his hair formed five points on his low forehead. Balz. Des bâtiments dessinés en noir leurs arêtes delées sur les maisons blanches, vessels reflected on the white houses a black image of their airy rigging. Th. Gaut. Ces oiseaux du Nord qui dessinent dans l'air leurs triangles rapides, those birds from the North which form in the air their swift-moving triangles. Mich. 2 (by extension) (faire ressortir, marquer) to set off, to show. Une robe étroite, la jupe étroite dessinait sa maigreur avec une impitoyable fidélité, a gown the narrow skirt of which set off her leanness with unsparing truthfulness. Sand. Les galeries écroulées dessinaient les places publiques, the galleries in ruins indicated the sites of the public places. Voln. 3 (tracer le plan) to sketch, to delineate, to outline.

DESSINER, vn. 4 to draw. — à la plume, un crayon, to draw with the pen, the pencil. — d'après la bosse, d'après l'antique, to draw from the bust, from the antique. 2 paint. to sketch, to outline.

se DESSINER, vpr. 1 (se détacher sur un fond) to be delineated, sketched, to appear. Les ombres des passants se des-siniaient sur la moraille, the shadows of the passers-by were cast upon the walls. La silhouette des vaisseaux à l'ancre se dessinait comme des découpures de papier, the silhouettes of the vessels at anchor stood out like paper cuttings. Th. Gaut. Une voile se dessinait à l'horizon, a sail loomed in the horizon. 2 (s'accuser) to stand out in relief, to be seen. Leurs muscles se dessinaient comme ceux d'H. Their muscles were as prominent as those of H. Chab. Sa taille élevée et légère se dessinait parfaitement sous son corset, her bodice gracefully set off her long slender waist. B. de St-P. fig. Les deux partis se dessinaient de minute en minute, that there were two parties now became evident. Ab. W. apparaît et se dessine pour la première fois, W. appears and reveals himself for the first time. St-B.

DESSOLER, day-so-lay, va. 4 vel. to take off the sole of. 2 agri. to alter the rotation of crops.

DESSOUDEUR, day-soo-day, va. to unsolder.

se DESSOUDEUR, vpr. to come unsold.

DESSOUS, dub-soo, adv. below, underneath. On le cherchait dans le lit, il était —, they looked for him in the bed, he was under it. Vêtement de —, under-clothing. Une jupe de —, under-petticoat. Sens dessus —, See DESSUS.

DESSOUS, prep. under, beneath, below. Regardez — la table, look under the table.

EN DESSOUS, adv. loc. underneath, downwards. Un pain brûlé en —, a loaf with the under-crust burnt. Vêtement fait pour mettre en —, an article of clothing to wear underneath, an under-garment. Que l'orifice soit tourné en —, let the opening be turned downwards. || fig. to have a sullen and artful look. Avoir le regard, la mine en —, to have an hypocritical look. fig. Agir en —, faire ses coups en —, to act in an underhanded way, to do a thing in an underhanded manner. Être en —, to be artful. Un homme en —, an artful man.

LA-DESSOUS, adv. loc. beneath that, under there. fig. Il y a quelque chose là —, there is something underneath.

CI-DESSOUS, adv. loc. 4 underneath, under here, below. Ci — gilt un tel, underneath lies such a one. 2 (ci-après) below, hereafter. Dans la note ci —, in the note below.

AU-DESSOUS DE, prep. 4 below, under, beneath. Au — du genou, below the knee. Il loge au — de nous, he lives under us. Voir au — de soi, to look under, below one's self. Le thermomètre est au — de zéro, the thermometer is below zero. Au — du pont, below bridge. Haut. Être au — du vent d'un vaisseau, to be to leeward of a vessel. 2 fig. (marque l'infériorité) below. Vendre au — du cours, to sell below the market-price. Être au — de quelqu'un par la naissance, to be inferior to a person in birth. Les hommes au — de cinquante ans, men under fifty years of age. Tonte somme au — de cent francs, any sum under a hundred francs. Être au — de ses affaires, to be in a bad way. Regarder une chose comme au — de soi, to consider a thing as beneath one. (avec ellipse du régime, the regimen being understood) Ceux qui sont logés au-dessus de lui et au —, those who lodge above and below him. Les hommes de quarante ans et au —, men of forty and under.

PAR-DESSOUS, prep. under, underneath, beneath. Porter une cuirasse par —, wear a cuirass under one's clothes. Passez par — la table, pass under the table. On le prit par — les bras, they took him under the arms. (avec ellipse du régime, the regimen being understood) Qui pend par —, hanging underneath. Passez par —, go underneath. Prenez-le par —, take it underneath.

DE DESSOUS, prep. from underneath, from below. Sortir de — terre, to come from underground.

DESSOUS, sm. 1 (l'envers) under part, under side. Le — d'un théâtre, the floor under the stage. 2 haut. Le — du vent, lee, leeward. 3 fig. Le — des cartes, the secret of an affair; the ins and outs of a thing. 4 fig. Avoir le —, to be worsted.

DESSUJAGE, day-swaag-tazh, sm. tech. scouring.

DESSUJETER, day-swaag-tay, ra. tech. to scour.

DESSUS, dah-sah, adv. on, upon, over, at. Il écrit une longue lettre, met de la poudre — à plusieurs reprises, he writes a long letter, throws sand over it several times. La Bruy. fig. Dormons — la nuit, porte conseil. He who sleep over it and take advice of your pillow. Beaum. Il t'a mis to doigt —, he has hit the right nail upon the head. SENS — dessous, topsyturvy, upside down. fig. Tous mes papiers sont sens — dessous, all my papers are at sixes and sevens.

DESSUS, prep. on, upon. Le berger voyait tout, couché — l'herbette, the shepherd, lying on the grass, was aware of every thing. Flor. fig. Les précieuses tout — tout les dédaignent, affected women are very fond of giving themselves airs. La Font.

AU-DESSUS DE, prep. 1 above, over. Élevé de 100 pieds au — du sol, elevated 100 feet above the ground. Au — de la porte on lisait ces mots, over the door might be read these words. Loger au — de quelqu'un, to lodge above a person. Le thermomètre marquait 25 degrés au — de zéro, the thermometer marked 25 degrees above zero. 2 fig. (marquant la supériorité, noting superiority) above, beyond. Avec une légèreté au — de son âge, with an agility beyond his age. Sand. Il n'y a que Dieu au — de vous, God alone is above you. Th. Gaut. Ce qui est au — de notre intelligence, what is above our comprehension. Tenter des choses au — de nos forces, to attempt things beyond our strength. Être au — de ses affaires, to be beforehand with the world. fig. Être au — du vent, to be out of harm's reach. 3 fig. (exempt de) above. Un homme au — de toutes les faiblesses humaines, a man exempt from human weaknesses. Se mettre au — du qu'en dira-t-on, not to care about what people say. 4 fig. (hors d'atteinte) above, out of the reach. Être au — du besoin, to be out of the reach of want. Sa réputation est au — de la calomnie, his reputation is out of the reach of calumny. 5 (avec ellipse du régime, the regimen being understood) above, upwards, over. Les villes de dix mille âmes et au —, the towns of ten thousand souls and upwards. Il occupe le premier étage et je loge au —, he occupies the first floor and I lodge above him, overhead. fig. Ce livre est admirable, il n'y a rien au —, this is an admirable book, there is nothing superior to it.

CI-DESSUS, adv. loc. above. Comme il a été dit ci —, as it has been said above. Voir ci —, see above.

DE DESSUS, prep. from off. Ôtez cela de — la table, take that from off the table. Le curieux A. descendit de — sa mule, the curious A. alighted from his mule. Le Sage.

EN-DESSUS, adv. loc. uppermost, on the top above. Du pain brûlé en —, bread with the upper-crust burnt. Mettez en — les fruits les plus beaux, put the finest fruit uppermost.

LA-DESSUS, adv. loc. 1 upon that, over that. Mettez le paquet là —, put the parcel upon that. 2 fig. (sur ce sujet, sur cette affaire) upon that, about that. Pourquoi revenir là —? why bring that subject up again? N'oubliez pas dans la prochaine lettre de lui donner ton avis là —, don't forget in your next letter to give him your opinion upon that subject. Sand. Passons là —, cela vaudra infiniment mieux, let us say nothing about that, that will be infinitely better. Que n'a-t-on pas dit là! — 1 what has not been said about that! 3 fig. (aussiôt après) thereupon, upon which. Et là — il s'en alla —, upon which he went away. Et là —, il me quitta, thereupon he left me.

PAN-DESSUS, prep. 1 over, above. Sauter par — une barrière, to jump over a stile. Il portait un maniveau par — sa tunique, he wore a cloak over his tunic. fig. Avoir d'une chose par — la tête, par — les yeux, to be worried out of one's life by a thing. Avoir des prétentions par — les maisons, to have the loftiest pretensions. Par — tout, above all. Je te recommande par — tout d'être exact, above all, I advise you to be punctual. C'est ce que j'aime par — tout, that is what I like above all. Par — le marché, into the bargain. 2 (avec ellipse du régime, the regimen being understood) over. 3 sm. over-coat. Un par — ouaté, a wadded over-coat.

DESSUS, sm. 4 upper side, upper part, cover, lid, crown, top. Le — de la tête, de la main, the top of the head, the back of the hand. Le — d'une lettre, d'un naquet, the address of a letter, of a parcel. 2 fig. Avoir le —, to have the upper hand, to have the best of it. Avec un peu plus de raison nous aurions le — si mes confères avaient peindre, with a little more right on our side, we should have the best of it, if our brethren knew how to paint. La Font. La nature a fini par reprendre le —, his constitution has brought him through. 3 haut. Le — du vent, the weather-gage. Avoir le — du vent, to be to windward. Un pirate survient, prend le — du vent, a pirate arrives, gets the weather-gage. La Font. 4 mus. treble. 5 (by extension) C'est un bon —, he is a good tenor, she is good soprano. 6 arch. — de porte, frieze-panel.

DESTIN, days-tang, sm. (Lat. destinatum) 1 destiny, fate. Le livre, l'ordre, les arrêts du —, the book, order, decrees of destiny, of fate. poe. —, pl. Les —, the Destinies. Mais les destins et les flots sont changeants, the destinies, like the waves, are fickle. Bérag. Les — sont contents, O est malheureux, the destinies are satisfied, O is ruined. La Font. 2 (le sort de chacun) destiny, lot, doom. Rome elle-même subira son —, Rome itself must submit to its fate. Corn. Elle était de ce monde où les plus belles choses ont le pire —, she was of this world in which all that is fairest meets with the hardest fate. Malh. 3 poe. (vie, existence) career, course, life. Il a terminé son —, ses —, he has terminated his career. Trancher, abréger le —, les — de quelqu'un, to cut short the career of a person.

DESTINATAIRE, days-le-nat-syng, adj. mf. person to whom any thing is addressed.

DESTINATION, days-le-nah-syng, sf. 1 (rôle, mission, emploi) destination. La — de l'homme sur la terre, the destination of man upon earth. Cet édifice a donc changé de —, that edifice has then changed its destination. Je me rends, maintenant, parfaitement compte de la — de ce royaume. I perfectly understand now what that wheel-work is intended for. 2 (prescription relative à l'emploi d'une chose) destination, will. On ne doit rien changer à la — des fondateurs, no deviation must be made from the intentions of the founders. La — d'une somme d'argent, the destination of a sum of money. Vous devez dans l'emploi de cette somme vous conformer à la — qui en a été faite, you know what use that money is to be put to, you must put it to no other. 3 law. Immeubles par —, personal estate passing with the real estate by the will of the donor. 4 (lieu) place of destination. Se rendre à sa —, to repair to one's destination.

DESTINÉ, ppa. of DESTINER, fem. —, 2, 1 destined, doomed, fated. Elle ne sem blait pas — à un tel sort par sa naissance, she did not seem born for such a part. St-B. Un de ces capifs — à périr, one of those captives doomed to perish. 2 destined, bound to. Un édifice — au culte, an edifice destined to public worship. De l'argent — aux pauvres, money destined to the poor. Une flotte — pour le Mexique, a fleet bound to Mexico.

DESTINÉE, days-te-nay, sf. 4 (le destin) destiny, fate. Le cours des —, the course of destiny. 2 (le sort) destiny, lot. 3 poe. (vie) course, career, life. Finir sa —, to terminate one's career. Trancher la — de quelqu'un, to cut short a person's career.

DESTINÉ, days-te-nay, va. (Lat. destinare) 1 des personnes, of persons) to destine (for, to), to design (for, to), to doom, to fate. Son père le destinait au barreau, his father designed him for the law. Sa naissance le destinait à une haute position, by his birth he was destined to a high position. Personne ne sait à quoi le ciel le destine, no one knows what Heaven holds in reserve for him. 2 (des choses, of things) to destine, to mean (for), to reserve, to devote. Le temps que vous destinez à vous occuper de la P., the time you intend to devote to the P. Note. 3 (préparer, réserver) to reserve. Je te destine ce cheveau, I reserve this kid for you. Il savait les tortures auxquelles ces sauvages le destinaient, he knew the tortures the savages held in reserve for him.

SE DESTINER, vpr. to be destined, prepared, intended. Se — au barreau, to be destined to the law. A quoi vous destinez-vous donc? what is to be your future career? Balz.

DESTINABLE, days-le-tû-abi, adj. mf. removable. Bar.

DESTITUÉ, ppa. of DESTITEN, fem. —, e, adjectiv. 1 dismissed. 2 absol. (de-pou-vu, dénué) destitute, devoid.

DESTITUER, days-te-thoy, va. (Lat. destituere) to dismiss, to turn out (un fonctionnaire, a functionary).

DESTITUTION, days-te-tû-syng, sf. dismissal, removal.

DESTINER, days-tray, sm. (Lat. destina-re) to, to lead, to charge.

DESTRUCTIF, days-trik-tuhr, sm. 1 destroyer. fig. Ce prince — de l'hérésie, that prince a wrecker out of heresy. 2 (celui qui commet des ravages, des dégâts) destroyer, ravager. 3 (adjectiv.) destructive, destroying. Un fleuve —, a destructive scourge. Un animal —, a mischievous animal. fig. Un système — de toute morale, a system subversive of all morality.

DESTRUCTIBILITÉ, days-trik-te-be-le-y, sf. (little used) destructibility.

DESTRUCTIF, days-trik-tif, adj. m. fem. DESTRUCTIVE, destructive, destroying.

DESTRUCTION, days-trik-syng, sf. destruction.

DESETUDE, day-zû-yud, sf. (Lat. desuetudo) desuetude, disuse. Une loi tombée en —, a law fallen into desuetude, a law no longer in force, grown obsolete.

DESUNI, day-zû-neer, ppa. of DESUNIR, fem. —, 2, 1 Sur le seuil — de trois marches de pierre, on the loose threshold of three stone steps. Lamart. 2 fig. disunited, at variance. 3 mar. Cheval —, disunited horse.

DESUNION, day-zû-nyong, sf. 1 disunion. 2 fig. (disjunction) disjunction. 3 fig. (mésintelligence) disunion. Mettre la — dans une famille, to set a family at variance.

DESUNIR, day-zû-neer, va. 4 (dis-junction) to disjoint, to disjoint (des pierres, stones). — les pièces d'un ouvrage de menuiserie, to take to pieces an article of joinery. 2 fig. to disunite, to act at variance. Vouloir — deux cœurs vraiment épris, c'est vouloir souffler sur le feu pour l'éteindre, to try to separate two hearts firmly attached to each other is trying to put out a fire by blowing it. Sand.

SE DÉTACHER, rpr. 1 to be disjoined, disjoined. 2 fig. to be disunited.

DÉTACHEE, ppa. of DÉTACHER, fem. —E, 4 detached, loose. Ce chien est —, that dog is loose. Elle vola devant moi les pieds à peine —s du sol, she flew before me with her feet scarcely touching the ground. Nod. Des têtes ouïes vellement —es du tronc, heads recently detached from the trunks. Nod. 2 fig. detached, weaned. Elle était totalement —e des plaisirs de ce monde, she was completely weaned from the pleasures of this world. Comme il paraissait fort — de nous, as he no longer manifested any attachment to us. Le Sage. 3 mil. 40 bossards —s de V. devaient se rendre à P., 40 husars detached from V. were to repair to P. Lamart. 4 fort. Forts —s, detached forts. 5 lit. Pièces —es, morceaux —s, extracts, unconnected pieces.

DÉTACHÉ, ppa. of DÉTACHER, fem. —E, scoured, clean. Lorsque sa robe fut —e, when her gown was scoured.

DÉTACHEMENT, day-tash-mang, sm. 4 indifference, disengagement. Le — des plaisirs, indifference to pleasures. Le — du monde, indifference to the world. 2 mil. detachment.

DÉTACHER, day-tah-shay, ra. 1 to untie, to unfasten, to undo, to take off, to take down. — un chien, to untie a dog, to let a dog loose. Elle essayait de — de son cou le petit crucifix, she endeavored to take from her neck the little crucifix. Chat. — un tableau, to take down a picture. — un fruit de l'arbre, to pluck a fruit from the tree. Elle en détacha soigneusement un rameau, she carefully broke off a branch from it. Nod. (by extension) Il détachait du monceau tantôt quelque doubleau, sometimes he took away from the heap a doubleau. La Font. 2 (détacher ce qui sert à attacher) to loose, to undo, to unfasten.

— une épingle, to unpin. — un ruban, to untie a ribbon. R. fait en sorte qu'il détache un chaînon, puis un autre. R. continued to gnaw one knot, then another. La Font. 3 (by extension) (tenir écarté de) to disengage. Detacher vos bras du corps, disengage your arms from your body. 4 (fig. extension) (isoler) to separate. Vous détacherez par un fil les notes du texte, you must separate the notes from the text by a file. 5 (séparer) to separate, to detach, to dismember.

— un chapitre d'un livre, to detach a chapter from a book. 6 mil. to detach (un escadron, a squadron). — un vaisseau d'une flotte, to detach a vessel from a fleet. (by analogy) — des gendarmes contre quelqu'un, to send off gendarmes after a person. (by extension) P. détache un coup de pied superbe dans les jambes du fantôme, P. kicks the shins of the phantom with all his might. Th. Gaut. 7 fig. (faire quitter, faire) to win over, to wean, to detach. Elle le détacha des courages ses complices, she made him break off with the conspirators, his accomplices. Si-B. Nul plus que lui ne contribua à le — des entreprises hasardeuses, none more than he contributed to detach him from hazardous undertakings. Si-B. Detachant leur cœur des choses d'ici-bas, weaning their hearts from the things of this world. Flor. Voilà de quoi le — de la cour, that is enough to detach him from the court. Si-B. Il fallut chercher quelque nouvel objet qui l'en pût —, it was necessary to seek out a new object that might make him forget her. Rac. Je pars avec elle, rien ne pourra m'en —, I set out with her, nothing can make me leave her. B. de St-P. 8 mus. — des notes, to staccato, to detach. 9 paint. sculpt. to detach.

SE DÉTACHER, rpr. 1 to get loose, to get untied, to come undone, to fall, to break off. Le chien s'était détaché, the dog had got loose. Les feuilles humides se détachaient sans bruit, the damp leaves fell noiselessly. Sand. Un clou qui commence à se — a nail that is beginning to come out. (by extension) Une foule de canots se détachait de terre pour aller au devant des passagers, a crowd of canoes left the shore to meet the passengers. Th. Gaut. Ses regards ne pouvaient s'en —, he could not take his eyes off from it. Muss. 2 (être isolé) to be separated. 3 to detach one's self. Plusieurs cavaliers s'étaient détachés à sa poursuite, several horsemen had ridden off after him. 4 fig. to be detached, to be won over (from), to be weaned (from). Se — d'une alliance, to be detached from an alliance. Se — d'une opinion, to be weaned from an opinion. Se — du monde, des choses de ce monde, to be weaned from the world, from the things of this world. 5 mus. to be detached. 6 pain. to be detached, brought out, to stand out in relief. Les sculptures qui se détachaient du flanc du rocher étaient si belles, the sculptures that stood out in relief on the side of the rock were so beautiful. Méry. Les tours du châteaueu se détachaient sur l'azur étoilé, the turrets of the castle stood out in relief on the starry azure. Sand. A. parut se détachant en clair sur le fond sombre, A. appeared standing out in relief from the dark background. Th. Gaut. 8 fig. Sur ce fond se détachent les deux plus gracieuses créations de figures adolescentes, from this canvass stand out in relief two of the most graceful creations of youthful form. Si-B.

DÉTACHER, va. to take out the stains, the spots of (une étoffe, a stuff), absol. Cette eau détache très-bien, this water takes out stains very well.

DÉTAIL, day-tah-yuh, sm. 1 (vente en petite quantité) retail. Un marchand qui fait le gros et le —, a wholesale and retail dealer. Nagasin de —, retail shop. 2 (énumération) détail. Les —s d'un compte, the items of an account. 3 (expose) detailed account. Si je voulais vous compter tout le —, je manquerais d'haleine, were I to give you a complete detailed account, my breath would fail me. La Font. Ce n'est pas le lieu d'entrer dans le — de cet enseignement, this is not the place to give a detailed account of that method of teaching. Si-B. 4 (circonstances) détail, particular. Je vous épargne les —s des soucis du ménage, I spare you the details of the household cares. Chat. 5 (d'une affaire, d'une administration, of an affair, an administration) particular. S'occuper des —s du ménage, to discharge the duties of house-keeping. Un homme de —, qui a l'esprit de —, a man qualified to execute details. 6 five arts. lit. détail. L'ensemble et les —s, the whole and the details. A part de puits —s de costume, except some mere details of costume. Si-B.

EN DÉTAIL, adv. loc. 1 (by retail) Vendre en —, to sell by retail. Vente en —, retail sale. Marchand en gros et en —, wholesale and retail dealer. 2 (fig. extension) in detail, by inches. Ses facultés baissent, il s'en va en —, his faculties are decaying, he is wearing away by inches. 3 Raccourtez-vous cela en —, give us a circumstantial account of it.

DÉTAILLANT, day-tah-yuh, ppr. of DÉTAILLER, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 retail. Marchand —, retail dealer. 2 (substantif) retailer.

DÉTAILLE, ppa. of DÉTAILLER, fem. —E, detailed. De longues lettres —es, long letters with every particular. Si-B. Les principes de la nouvelle école s'y trou-vaient —s au long, the principles of the new school were there explained at length. Muss.

DÉTAILLER, day-tah-yay, ra. 1 (couper en morceaux) to cut up (un bœuf, an ox). 2 (vendre en détail) to retail (des marchandises, goods), absol. Ici, monsieur, on ne détaille pas, we do not sell by retail, sir. 3 (exposer en détail) to detail. Je me charge de — votre affaire à son Excellence, I undertake to give a full account of your affair to his Excellency. Le Sage. L'historien ne détaille pas comment ce complot avait été proposé, the historian does not relate how this conspiracy had been proposed. Aug. Th. Des circonstances que l'histoire ne détaille pas, circumstances that history does not give a particular account of. Aug. Th. (by extension) Elle détaillait dans sa pensée les richesses de leur toilette, her mind dwelt upon the riches of their dress. Nod.

DÉTALAGE, day-tal-azh, sm. taking in, clearing, putting away, packing up (goods).

DÉTALER, day-tah-lay, ra. 1 to take in, to clear away, to pack up (goods). 2 fig. (intransitivement) to run off, to scamper away. Le rat de ville détaille, son comarade le suit, the town rat scampers off, his comrade follows him. La Font. Il met sur pied la bête et la fait —, he made the beast get up, and scamper away. La Font.

DÉTALINGUER, day-tal-lang-gay, va. naut. to unhook (a cable).

DÉTENDRE, day-tang-dr, va. to take out the colour of.

DÉTENDRE, va. 1 to lose its colour. 2 — sur —, to leave a mark on. C'était son dé de coivre qui avait déténué sa peau, it was her brass thumb that had left a stain round her finger. Lamart. 3 fig. to have influence on. Ces deux frédosies ont singulièrement déténué sur ma vie, those two frenchie have had singular influence on my life. Nod. Le sang de septembre déténuait sur les discussions, the blood of September made its influence felt in the discussion. Lamart.

SE DÉTENDRE, rpr. to lose its colour.

DÉTÊLER, day-tay, va. conj. like APÊLER, to take out (horses), to unyoke (ozen). Qu'un détêle les chevaux, nous sommes arrivés, let the horses be taken out, we are arrived. Sand. absol. Allons, qu'on dételle, now then, let the horses be taken out.

DÉTÊLRE, day-tang-dr, 4 (relâcher) to untie, to relax (un arc, un ressort, a bow, a spring). Ils se détendaient les bras pour se dégoûter, they stretched out their arms, to take the stiffness out. Saint. fig. Qui donc a pu — cet esprit superbe? who then can have laid prostrate that haughty mind? Saint. Elle savait modifier ou — l'étiquette selon ses intérêts, she knew how to modify or relax etiquette according to her interests. Si-B. 6 fig. — son esprit, se — l'esprit, to take down (une mind. 2 (détacher) to take down (une tapisserie, une tente, des rideaux, a tapestry, a tent, curtains). — une chambre, un appartement, to take down the hangings of a room, of an apartment. 3 fig. (détours of the weather) to make milder.

SE DÉTÊLRE, rpr. 1 to untie, to relax. Le bras d'A. se détendit comme une corde de harpe coupée, A's arm recoiled like the string of a harp when cut.

3. Sa figure semblait s'adoucir et se — quand je lui parlais, his features seemed to grow softer and to relax when I spoke to him. Ph. Chas. 8 fig. Les ressorts de mon intelligence se détendaient sous la brise d'un vent d'ouest, the springs of my intelligence relaxed under a westerly breeze. Balz. La baine s'était détendue ou instant, hatred was dismissed for an instant. Lamart. 2 fig. (du temps, of the weather) to become milder.

DÉTENDU, day-tang-dd, ppa. of DÉ-

TENDRE, fem. —E, 1 Où les muscles sont —s et la chair domine, where the muscles are relaxed and flesh predominates. Lamart. Les lèvres —es faisaient voir des dents blanches, the open lips showed white teeth. Lamart. 2 Les sautes étaient —es, the hangings were taken down in the apartments. Chat. DÉTENU, day-tè-nu, va. conj. like TENIR, 1 (Lat. detinere) 1 (conserver par devers soi) to detain, to withhold, to keep back. 2 — quelqu'un en prison, — quelqu'un, to detain a person in prison, in custody.

DÉTENTE, day-tàngt, sf. 1 detent, warning, expansion. Machine à —, expansion engine. 2 (d'un fusil, etc., of a gun, etc.) trigger. 3 (l'action) pulling of the trigger. Un fusil d'a —, a gun the trigger of which is stiff; || fig. pop. Être dur à la —, to be close-fisted. 4 fig. relaxation. fig. Le roi soupa avec une apparence visible de — d'esprit, the king supped with his mind apparently free from care. Lamart.

DÉTENTEUR, day-tàngt-tuhr, sm. fem. DÉTENTRICE, 1 holder (des deniers publics, of public money; || du bien d'autrui, of the property of others). 2 law. Tiers —, third hand.

DÉTENTION, day-tàngt-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 law. detention, holding. 2 (d'une personne, of a person) detention, confinement, imprisonment. — illégale, false imprisonment. — préventive, imprisonment before trial. 3 (peine) detention, imprisonment. Maison de —, house of detention.

DÉTENU, day-tè-nu, ppa. of DÉTENER, fem. —E, 1 detained, confined. Être — prisonnier, to be detained prisoner. Être — pour dettes, to be confined for debt. 2 (substantif) prisoner. — pour dettes, prisoner for debt, debtor. Être —s politiques, prisoners confined for political offences. Colonie pour les jeunes —s, colony for young prisoners.

DÉTÉRGER, day-tayr-zhàng, adj. m. fem. —E, med. detergent.

DÉTÉRGER, day-tayr-zhay, va. conj. like MANGER, (Lat. detergere) med. — une plaie, un ulcère, to deterge a wound, an ulcer.

DÉTÉRIORATION, day-tay-ryo-rah-syong, sf. deterioration, damage, defacement.

DÉTÉRIORER, day-tay-ryo-ray, va. to deteriorate, to deface (une terre, une maison, an estate, a house). — la condition de quelqu'un, to make the condition of a person worse.

SE DÉTÉRIORER, vpr. to deteriorate, to become deteriorated, damaged, defaced. Laisser des marchandises se —, (elliptic.) Laisser — des marchandises, to let goods get spoiled. Notre langue se détériore en plus, our language deteriorates more and more.

DÉTÉRMINANT, day-tayr-me-nàng, ppr. of DÉTÉRMINER, adj. m. fem. —E, determinative. Motif —, raison —E, determinative motive, reason.

DÉTÉRMINATIF, day-tayr-me-nat-if, adj. m. fem. determinative, 4 gram. déterminative. 2 (substantif) definitive.

DÉTÉRMINATION, day-tayr-me-nah-syong, 1 determination. Prendre une —, to take, to come to a determination. 2 philos. determination.

DÉTÉRMINEMENT, day-tayr-me-nay-màng, adv. 1 determinately. 2 (expressément) determinately, expressly, precisely. 3 (congruement) resolutely.

DÉTÉRMINÉ, ppa. of DÉTÉRMINER, fem. —E, adjective 1 determined, determinate. Être nombre —, in a determinate number. À une époque —E, at an appointed epoch. Il n'y a rien de — là-dessus, no determination has been come to on that subject. 2 math. problem. 3 (résolu à) determined. Sitôt qu'il me vit — à faire ce voyage, as soon as he saw I was determined to under- take that journey. Le Sage. 4 (adonné à quelque chose) determined. Un — chasseur, a keen sportsman. Flor. Un joueur —, a desperate gambler. 5 (hardi) determined, resolute. Des soldats —s, resolute soldiers. (by analogy) Avoir un air, un maintien —, to have a resolute air, bearing. Une action —E, a resolute action. 6 (substantif) determined fellow.

DÉTÉRMINER, day-tayr-me-nay, va. (Lat. determinare) 4 (fixer) to determine, to settle, to decide. L'emploi de cette somme fut assez difficile à —, it was rather difficult to determine what application to make of this sum. Balz. Le concile a déterminé que, the council has decided that. 2 (reconnaître) to determine, to ascertain (le sens d'une phrase, the sense of a phrase). 3 (by extension) to determine, to resolve, to make up one's mind. — une chose dans son esprit, to come to a determination. Il avait déterminé de se rendre en Amérique, he had resolved to go to America. 4 gram. (préciser) to determine. 5 philos. (être cause) to determine. 6 (être la cause immédiate d'une chose) to occasion, to cause. C'est ce qui a déterminé sa maladie, this is what caused his malady. La fortune ou l'inclination détermine les mariages, marriages are brought about by fortune or inclination. Lamart. 7 (faire prendre une résolution) to persuade, to induce. Nous voulons le — à la reprendre, we wish to persuade you to take her back. Nod. La volonté nous détermine, non l'objet, the will determines us, not the object. La Font.

SE DÉTÉRMINER, vpr. to determine, to resolve. Ne sachant à quoi se —, not knowing what resolution to take. Il se détermina à venir dans cette île pour y chercher fortune, he determined to come to this island in quest of fortune. B. de St-P.

DÉTÉRRE, ppa. of DÉTÉRREUR, fem. —E, 1 disinterred. 2 (substantif) Avoir l'air d'un —, to look like a corpse.

DÉTÉRREUR, day-tayr-ray, va. 1 to dig up. 2 (exhumer) to disinter, to exhumate. 3 fig. (découvrir) to find out, to discover. — des titres, to hunt out title-deeds. On perd à — des erreurs au temps qu'on emploierait peut-être à déceler des vérités, the time that is lost in hunting out errors might perhaps be employed in discovering truths. Volt. On dièra pour moi une ambassade vacante, they found out for me a vacant embassy. Ste-B.

DÉTÉRREUR, day-tayr-ruhr, sm. hunter out. fig. Ou — de vieux manuscrits, a hunter of old manuscripts.

DÉTÉRISIF, day-tayr-sif, adj. m. fem. DÉTÉRISIVE, 1 med. detergent, detersive. 2 (substantif) detersive.

DÉTÉSION, day-tayr-syong, sf. med. detersion.

DÉTÉSTABLE, day-tays-abl', adj. mf. (Lat. detestabilis) 1 detestable, hateful. 2 (hyperb.) detestable. Co vin est —, this wine is detestable. Ma — santé, the wretched state of my health. Volt. Un opéra —, a detestable Opera. Volt.

DÉTÉSTABLEMENT, day-tays-tabl'màng, adv. detestably.

DÉTÉSTATION, day-tays-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) detestation, abhorrence. La — du péché, detestation for sin.

DÉTÊTE, ppa. of DÉTÊTER, fem. —E, detested. Il est — de tout le monde, he is detested by every body. La mer aux bords —s, the sea with hateful shores. V. Hug. Bientôt il fut haï, méprisé, —, he was soon hated, despised, detested. Feu.

DÉTÊTER, day-tays-tay, va. (Lat. detestari) 1 to detest, to abhor. C'est un homme que je detête, it is a man whom I detest. Je suis venu detestant la lumière vous dire, abhorring the light of day I come to tell you. Rac. Pourquoi voyez-tu — un mal qui t'a rendu meilleur? why abhor a grief which has made a better man of you? Noss. Détendant des gains illicites, abhorring unlawful gain. Barth. Il voulait forcer ses lecteurs à — le fanatisme, he wished to impose upon his readers an abhorrence of fanaticism.

Volt. — son crime, to abhor one's crime. — les erreurs, les hérésies, to detest errors, heresies. Se faire — de tout le monde, to make one's self detested by every body. — sa vie, to curse one's life. 2 (hyperb.) to detest. Pour moi, je deteste l'hiver, for my part, I detest winter. 3 (intransitivement) (lire des imprécations) Ne faire que jurer et —, to do nothing but curse and swear. Le voilà qui deteste et jure de son mieux, here he began to curse and swear with all his might. La Font.

SE DÉTÊTER, vpr. 1 to loathe one's self, to abhor one's self, to hold one's self in abhorrence. 2 recipr. to detest each other.

DÉTIRER, day-te-ray, va. to draw out, to pull out, to stretch (du linge, linen).

DÉTISER, day-te-zay, va. — un feu, to take out a fire.

DÉTISSEI, day-te-say, va. tech. to unweave.

DÉTONANT, day-to-nàng, ppr. of DÉTONER, adj. m. fem. —E, detonating.

DÉTONATION, day-to-nah-syong, sf. (Lat.) report, detonation.

DÉTONER, day-to-nay, vn. to detonate. Faire — de la poudre, to detonate gun-powder.

DÉTONNER, day-to-nay, vn. to sing out of tune. fig. Il y a dans ce livre, dans cette pièce des choses qui détonent, in this book, in this piece there are some things which jar.

DÉTORDRE, day-tordr', va. conj. like TONNER, 1 to untwist (un câble, du linge, a rope, linen). 2 absol. Se — le pied, le bras, le poignet, to sprain one's foot, arm, wrist.

SE DÉTORDRE, vpr. 1 to come untwisted. 2 to sprain, to wrench.

DÉTORDU, day-tord-dû, ppa. of DÉTORDRE, fem. —E, 1 untwisted. 2 unwrenched.

DÉTORQUER, day-tor-kay, va. (Lat. detorquere) — un passage, to wrest the sense of a passage.

DÉTORS, day-tor, adj. m. fem. —E, untwisted. Fil —, soie —E, untwisted thread, silk.

DÉTORSION, day-tor-syong, sf. med. sprain.

DÉTORTILLER, day-tor-te-yay, va. to untwist (un cordon, a string). Je ne puis — cela, I cannot untwist that.

DÉTOUCHER, day-too-shay, vn. naot. to get off.

DÉTOUPER, day-too-pay, va. to unstop, to take the tow out of.

DÉTOUPILLONNER, day-too-pe-yonay, va. hort. pruning (orange-trees).

DÉTOUR, day-too, sm. 1 winding, turning, bend, turn, elbow. Les —s d'un ruisseau, the windings of a stream. Les —s d'un labyrinthe, the windings of a labyrinth. Le — de la rue, the turning of a street. La rivière fait là un —, the river makes a turn. Nourri dans le sérail j'en connais les —s, born in the seraglio, I know all its recesses. Rac. 2 (by extension) roundabout way, circuitous road, way. Faire un —, to take a roundabout way. 3 fig. (discours) roundabout way. Parler, s'exprimer sans —, to speak plainly. Prendre des —s, de grands, de longs —s, to beat about the bush. 4 fig. (subterfuge) evasion, shift, subterfuge. User de —, to use shifts. Les —s de la chicane, the subterfuges of chicanery. Les —s du cœur, the folds, recesses of the heart. Comme les vertus et les vices étaient sans voile et sans —, as the virtues and vices were naked and open. Barth. Les tours et les —s de la spéculation, the tricks of speculation. Ab. Être sans —, to be plain-deant. Un cœur sans —, an open, frank disposition.

DÉTOURNÉ, ppa. of DÉTOURNER, fem. — adj. 1 — de notre chemin et marchant à l'aventure, having lost our way, and walking at random. Chat. fig. Je voulais rêver et j'en étais toujours — par quelque spectacle inattendu, I wanted to meditate and I was always drawn off by some unexpected sight. J.-J. Rouss. 2 Chemin, rue, sentier — by-way, by-street, by-path. 3 fig. Voie — indirect way. J'ai reçu par une — d'abord de vous, I received in an indirect way a letter that I did not at first believe to be from you. Volt. La faction opposée résolut de le perdre par une voie —, the hostile faction resolved to work his destruction by indirect means. Barth. Prendre, employer des moyens — s. —, to use, to make use of indirect means. 4 fig. (indirect) indirect, oblique. Reproche —, louange — e., indirect reproach, praise. 5 fig. Sens —, strained sense.

DÉTOURNEMENT, day-toorn-màng, sm. 1 (soustraction frauduleuse) embezzlement. — de fonds, embezzlement of funds. — de papiers, de titres, making away with papers, titles. 2 — de mineur, abduction of a minor.

DÉTOURNER, day-toor-nay, va. 1 (écarter) to turn aside. — quelqu'un de son chemin, to take a person out of his way. Quiconque aura détourné ou fait — des mineurs des lieux où, wherever shall have taken or caused to be taken minors from the places where. — un coup, to turn aside, to avert, to ward off a blow. — un fléau, to avert a scourge. — une rivière, un ruisseau, to turn off a river, a stream. Elle détournait la tête pour que P. ne la vît pas pleurer, she turned away her head, that P. might not see she was crying. B. de St-P. Il détournait de moi ses regards et se retira sans mot dire, he withdrew his eyes from me, and went out without speaking. Saut. — la vue de dessus quelque objet, to turn the sight from some object. fig. Détourner les oreilles de tout conseil barbare, shut your ears to cruel advice. Rac. Pour — du roi la colère publique, to divert from the king the public wrath. Lamart. Son empiement à — la conversation, her eagerness to change the conversation. Sand. — les soupçons, to avert, to ward off suspicions. A mesure qu'il détournait sa pensée des affaires de ce monde, the more he diverted his thoughts from all worldly concerns. Le Sage. Je fis plusieurs exclamations pour — son attention du lac, I exclaimed several times trying to divert his attention from the lake. Méry. — quelqu'un de son devoir, to deter a person from his duty. — le sens d'un passage, d'une loi, d'un mot, to wrest the sense of a passage, of a law, of a word. 2 (distraindre, déranger) to divert, to disturb, to hinder (d'une étude, d'une affaire, from a study, from an affair.) 3 (dissuader) to deter, to dissuade. Pourquoi était-elle venue me — de mon dessin, why did she come to dissuade me from my project. Chat. — du mal, du péché, to deter from evil, from sin. 4 (soustraire frauduleusement) to embezzle, to make away with. On le soupçonnait de — à son profit une partie du butin, they suspected him of having pocketed a part of the booty. Ab. Un jour on coq détournait une perle, a cock one day purloined a pearl. La Font. — des effets d'une succession, to make away with the effects of an inheritance. 5 veu. — le cerf, to see the stag harboured.

DÉTOURNER, vn. to turn, to turn off.

DÉTOUTNER, vn. 1 (s'écartner, s'éloigner) to deviate, to turn aside, to turn off, to turn away, to swerve. Se — de son chemin, to go out of one's road. Ma vue s'en détournait, non de terre, I turned away my eyes, not with terror. Nod. Ses yeux, comme effrayés, n'osaient s'en —, her eyes, as if with terror, were riveted upon him. Rac. fig. Ce que j'ai de frères sur la terre se détournent de moi, my fellow creatures spurn me. Nod. C'en-là se détournent de moi obscurité, those shunned me in my obscurity. Le Sage. fig. Se — de son travail, de son devoir, to deviate, to swerve from one's work, from one's duty. 2 absol. (faire un détour) to go out of one's way. Je m'étais détournée de plus d'une lieue pour aller le voir, I had gone more than a league out of my way to see him. fig. Il y eut un moment où cette grande destinée faillit se — à jamais, there was a moment when this great destiny seemed to swerve from its path. St-B. 3 (se tourner d'un autre côté) to turn away, to turn aside. Ils se détournèrent souvent pour nous regarder, they often turned round to look at us. Chat. M^{me} S. et sa fille se détournèrent avec dégoût, Mrs. S. and her daughter turned away with disgust. Ab. Ce regard dont on se détournait malgré soi, that look from which one turned away in spite of one's self. Volt.

DÉTRACTER, day-trak-tay, va. (Lat. detrahere) to detract, to traduce. — les gens de bien, to traduce good people. — la vertu, to detract virtue. absol. Un homme enclut à —, a man prone to slander.

DÉTRACTEUR, day-trak-tohr, sm. 1 detractor, traducer. 2 (adjective) detractive, detracting. Esprit —, detractive mind.

DÉTRACTION, day-trak-syong, sf. detraction.

DÉTRANGER, day-tràng-zhay, va. nous DÉTRANGER, il DÉTRANGER. gard. to drive away (les malins, field-mice).

DÉTRAQUÉ, ppa. of DÉTRAQUER, fem. — e., clerked out of order. fig. Esprit —, deranged, crazy mind. Une tête —, a crazy head. fem. Un homme dont la machine est —, a man whose constitution is shattered.

DÉTRAQUER, day-trak-ay, va. 1 (d'un cheval, d'une machine) to spoil the paces. 2 (d'une machine, d'une machine) to put out of order, to derange. 3 fig. (troubler, déranger) to disorder (l'estomac, le cerveau, the stomach, the brain). 4 fig. (mettre le désordre) to throw into disorder.

se DÉTRAQUER, ppr. to get deranged, out of order. Cette machine s'est détournée, this watch has got out of order. fig. Sa machine se détèque, his constitution is breaking up.

DÉTREMPE, day-tràngp, sf. 1 (couleur délayée) distemper, water-colours. Peinture en —, painting in distemper. fig. sm. Mariage en —, sham, pretended marriage. 2 (peinture) Une —, a painting in water-colours.

DÉTREMPE, ppa. of DÉTREMPER, fem. — e., Terrain —, route — e., muddy ground, road.

DÉTREMPER, day-tràng-pay, va. 1 (délayer) to dilute. La salive qui détrempe le pain, the saliva that moistens the bread. Buff. La pluie avait détrempe toute la route, the rain had soaked all the roads. 2 (ôter la trempe) to soften (de l'acier, un couteau, steel, a knife).

se DÉTREMPER, ppr. 1 (être détrempe) to soak. Laisser le pain se — dans la soupe, let the bread soak in the soup. 2 fig. (s'affaiblir) to be enervated, weakened. La pensée la plus vigoureuse se détrempe dans la prose italienne, the most vigorous thought is weakened in Italian prose. Rivar. 3 (perdre sa trempe) to soften.

DÉTRESSÉ, day-tress, sf. 4 distress, misery, anguish. Cela donne de telles — à mon cœur, que, that causes me such anguish of heart that. M^{me} de Sév. Je vous conjure de ne pas me rebuter dans la — où je me trouve, I conjure you not to spurn me in the distressing state I am in. Volt. Un cri de —, a cry of distress.

2 nant. Signal de —, signal of distress; fig. distress. La vente de son château est un signal de —, the sale of his mansion is a sign of distress.

DÉTUREMENT, day-tre-màng, sm. (Lat. detrimentum) 1 detriment, prejudice. Cela tournera pour sûr à votre —, that will certainly prove prejudicial to you. S'enrichir au — d'autrui, to get rich to the detriment of others. 2 nat. hist. (détritus) remains, fragments.

DÉTROUTS, day-tre-tùs, sm. (Lat. detritus).

DÉTROIT, day-trwà, sm. (Lat. districus) 1 geog. straits, sound. Le — de Gibraltar, the straits of G. 2 (de montagnes) pass. Le — des Thermopyles, the pass of the Thermopyles. Garder les — des montagnes, to hold the passes of the mountains. 3 anc. (district) district.

DÉTROMPER, day-trong-pay, va. to undeceive. Je crois être parvenu à — un peu Sa Majesté, I think I have succeeded in undeceiving his Majesty a little. Volt. Je croirai toujours à moins que l'événement ne me détrompe, I shall always believe unless the event undeceive me. Volt. Je veux vous — de cet homme-là, sur le compte de cet homme-là, I will undeceive you concerning that man.

se DÉTROMPER, ppr. to be undeceived, to undeceive one's self. Détrompez-vous, undeceive yourself.

DÉTRÔNE, ppa. of DÉTRÔNER, fem. — e. Un roi —, a dethroned king.

DÉTRÔNER, day-trô-nay, va. to dethrone. fig. Un tableau à — Raphaël, a painting that would throw Raffaele in the shade.

DÉTROUSSE, ppa. of DÉTROUSSER, fem. — e., (in joke) Rendre visite en robe — e., to make a formal visit.

DÉTROUSSER, day-trôo-say, va. 1 to let down, to untuck (une robe, a dress). 2 fig. (voler) to rob, to plunder. — les passants, to rob travellers.

se DÉTROUSSER, ppr. to let down one's dress.

DÉTROUSSEUR, day-trôo-subr, sm. absol. volour, footpad, highwayman.

DÉTRUIRE, day-truier, va. conj. like construire (Lat. destruere) 1 (démolir, renverser) to destroy, to throw down, to overthrow (un palais, une forteresse, un édifice, a palace, a fortress, an edifice). Les eaux ont détruit la digue, la chaussée, the waters have destroyed the dam, the dike. Détruisez ces barricades ridicules et faisons entrer l., let us demolish these ridiculous barricades and have in l. Nod. 2 fig. (anéantir) to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate. — des êtres animés, to destroy animated beings. Buff. La faim détruisait tout, they all died of hunger. La Font. Le temps qui détruit tout, time that universal destroyer. La Font. Les systèmes du lendemain venaient — ceux de la veille, the systems of one day were always overthrown by those of the morrow. Saint-J. J'outreai, au risque de — vos illusions, I shall delude, at the risk of destroying your illusions. Ab. Voyant que cette impression ne serait pas facile à —, seeing that this impression would not be easily effaced. J.-J. Rouss. Quelle longueur de temps pent — un si charmant souvenir? what length of time can obliterate so charming a recollection? J.-J. Rouss. Les veilles ont détruit sa santé, night-awakings have ruined his health. absol. Il n'a su que —, he has only known how to destroy. J'ai déjà teulé de — le lieu — U. stroy. J'ai déjà teulé de — le lieu — U. stroy. J'ai déjà teulé de — le lieu — U. stroy.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

se DÉTRUIRE, ppr. to destroy, to ruin, to obliterate.

détrait d'elle-même, that opinion dies aways of itself. 2 recipr. Messieurs les courtisans, cessez de vous —, courtiers cease to destroy each other. La Font. 3 (se donner la mort) to destroy one's self, to make away with one's self.

DETRUIT, ppo. de DÉTRACIRE, fem. —, détroué.

DETTE, dat. sf. (Lat. debitum) 1 debt. Contracter, faire des —, to contract, to incur debts. Il n'a laissé que des —, he has left nothing but debts. Payer, acquitter une —, des —, to pay, to discharge, to liquidate debts. Les —s de l'État, the debts of the State. La — publique, the national debt. La — flottante, the floating debt. —s actives, book-debts. —s passives, debts. — hypothécaire, debt upon mortgage. — d'honneur, debt of honour. Fam. — véreuse, doubtful debt. —s criardes, trifling debts. Être accablé de —s, perdu de —s, criblé de —s, abîmé de —s, avoir des —s par-dessus la tête, to be over head and ears in debt. Avoir une —, avouer la —, to acknowledge a debt. Fig. Avouer la —, confesser la —, to confess one's self in the wrong. Prov. Qui épouse la veuve, épouse les —s, one must take the good and bad together. Prov. Cent ans de chagrin ne payent pas un sou de —s, care killed the cat. 2 fig. debt. C'est là — de la reconnaissance, et j'ai grand plaisir à l'acquitter, it is the debt of gratitude, and I am happy to discharge it. Nod. En naissant, on contracte envers la patrie une — immense, in coming into the world we contract an immense debt to our country. J.-J. Rousseau. Payer la — de la nature, payer sa — à la nature, to pay one's debt to nature.

DEITEUR, day-tehr, sm. debtor. Je connais maint — qui, I know many a debtor who. La Font.

DEUIL, düh-yah, sm. 1 mourning, grief, affliction, sorrow. G. touché da — de son père revint près de lui, G. touched with his father's grief came back to him. Aug. Th. Ce second — fut tel, that second loss was such. La Font. Ce fut un — universel en France, dans le monde des jeunes seigneurs, it was a general affliction in F. among the young nobility. St-B. Dieu lui donne le —, oa lui reprend la joie, God as he pleases tends grief or takes back happiness. V. Hug. Fam. Faire son — d'une chose, to give a thing up for lost. 2 (signes extérieurs) mourning. Vêtu de —, clad in mourning. Habit de —, voiture de —, mourning dress, mourning coach. Prendre le —, to go into mourning. Porter le —, porter le — de son père, to wear mourning, to be in mourning for one's father. Être en —, en grand —, en — de la tête aux pieds, to be in mourning, in deep mourning, in full mourning. Petit —, light mourning, second mourning. Demi —, half mourning. Le — de la cour, court mourning. Poëtic. Le — de la nature convient à la douleur, the mournful aspect of nature is in harmony with grief. Lamart. 3 (étouffe) mourning, black, mourning weeds. 4 (dépense) mourning. 5 (temps) mourning, time of mourning. Son — allait fuir, she was nearly out of mourning. L'année de —, the year of mourning. 6 (le cortège des parents) mourners. Qui de nous n'a mené le — autour d'un lionceau, which of us has not stood chief mourner over a grace. Chat.

DEUTÉRONOME, düh-tay-ro-nom, sm. (Gr.) Deuteronomy.

DEUTO, düh-to, affiz. chem. the second degree of combination of one substance with another.

DEUX, düh, adj. num. fm. (Lat. duo) 1 two. Vingt —, twenty-two. — à —, two by two, two and two. — fois autant, twice as much. — fois vingt écus, two score éumers. La Font. Ils sont venus tous les — ensemble, they both came together. De — années l'une, every other year. Une fois en — mois, once in two months. Aucun des —, neither of the two. On demande lequel des — est le meilleur, it is asked which of the two is the better. Cela est clair comme — et — font quatre, it is as clear as that two and two make four. Partager en — parties, en —, to divide into two. Fam. N'en faire ni un ni —, n'en pas faire à — fois, to decide at once. Piquer des —, to spur one's horse. Fig. A — de jeu, eren. 2 (un très-petit nombre) a few. J'aurais — mots à vous dire, I have a few words to say to you. Il habite a — pas d'ici, he lives at a few steps from here. 3 (deuxième) second. Tome —, second volume. Henri —, Henry the Second.

DEUX, sm. 4 (le nombre) two. Le — du mois, le —, the second of the month, the second. 2 (le chiffre) two. Le chiffre —, the figure two. Je pose — et je retiens quatre, I put down two and carry four. 3 (jen) deux. Le — de cœur, the deuce of hearts. (au domino, at domino) Double —, two deuces.

DEUXIÈME, düh-zaym, adj. mf. second. Le — volume, the second volume. Il est le — sur la liste, he is the second on the list. Loger au — étage, (elliptic.) so —, to lodge on the second floor.

DEUXIÈMEMENT, düh-zaym-màng, adv. secondly.

DEVALÈTE, day-vah-lay, ro. 1 to lower down, to let down. 2 (descendre) to go down, to come down, to descend (une montagne, a mountain).

DÉVALER, vn. to descend, to go down, to come down. Fam. — du haut d'un escalier, to fall neck and crop down stairs.

DÉVALISER, ppo. de DÉVALISER, fem. —, un voyageur —, a traveller stripped (by extension) Une maison — e, a house plundered.

DÉVALISER, day-vah-le-zay, ro. to rob, to rifle, to plunder, to strip (un voyageur, a traveller). (by extension) Ils avaient dévalisé à qui mieux mieux le corps de bâtiment, they had tied with each other in ransacking the building. Sand.

DEVANCE, ppo. de DE VANCER, fem. —, fig. J'aurais aimé à être — par lui, I should have liked him to have had the start of me. St-B.

DEVANCER, düh-vàng-say, ro. conje. to precede. 1 (aller devant) to go before, to precede. 2 (gagner les devants) to outrun, to outstrip. En vain les cavaliers veulent — les coureurs canadiens, in vain do the horsemen try to outstrip the Canadian runners. Chat. Ses pas que n'aurait point devancés le vol de l'hirondelle, his steps that the flight of the swallow would not have outstripped. Chat. Il partit à toute bride pour — l'arrivée des voitures, he set off at full gallop to arrive before the carriages. Lamart. La marquise les y avait devancés, the marchioness was there before them. Lamart. 3 (relativement au temps, with regard to time) to precede, to go before, to be before. A à votre porte a devancé le jour, A. was at your door before day-light. Rac. Ils avaient saisi l'heure précise sans la —, they had seized the precise moment, neither too soon, nor too late. Mich. Ceux qui nous ont devancés dans la carrière, those who have preceded us in the career. Je ne fais que te — aujourd'hui, et je vais l'attendre dans l'empire céleste, I only anticipate you to-day, and I will wait for you in the celestial regions. Chat. A supposer que notre mort devance le terme commun, supposing our life is cut short. Nod. Fig. Son génie devançait son siècle, his genius was beyond his age. L'écrivain qui devance son siècle en est méconnu, the writer who is beyond his age is never understood. De Bon. En toi l'amour et la raison devancèrent le temps, with him, love and reason outstripped time. La Font. La corruption de l'âme avait devancé les années, the corruption of his soul was beyond his years. Nod. La vanité chez lui devançait et devinait la politique, his vanity outstripped and guessed the policy. St-B. Ils semblaient — de l'intelligence et de l'âme les enseignements de la pensée, their intelligence and soul seemed to anticipate the instruction of the mind. Lamart. 4 fig. (faire avant) to anticipate, to forestall. Il demanda cette place, mais on l'avait devancé, he asked for that place, but he had been forestalled. J. habitée — les ordres de sa maîtresse, J. accustomed to forestall the orders of his mistress. Méry. 5 fig. (surpasser) to outdo, to excel. Déjà le disciple devançait le maître, the disciple already excelled the master. Mon fils, si jeune encore et son bras les devance, my son, so young still! and he is the foremost. C. Del.

DEVANCER, düh-vàng-say, sm. fem. DEVANCEUR, 1 predecessor. 2 —s, —s, (jeux) predecessors, ancestors, forefathers. Tous les rois ses — ont été les kings that had preceded him. St-B.

DEVANT, düh-vàng, prep. 4 (vis-à-vis) before, in front of, opposite to, over against. Regarder — soi, to look before one. Ma mère Jezabel — moi s'est montrée, my mother Jezabel appeared before me. Rac. Une ombre se leva — mes pieds et disparut dans la haie, a shadow rose up at my feet and disappeared in the hedge. Nod. Ils n'ont — les yeux que des objets d'horreur, they have nothing before their eyes but objects of horror. La Font. Assis — le feu, seated before the fire. Dans l'hiver, — leurs tisons, in winter, before their embers. Flor. Se mettre — quelqu'un pour lui barrer le passage, to place one's self before a person to stop his way. Il demeure tout — l'église, he lives just opposite the church. Mettre le siège — une forteresse, to lay siege to a fortress. Quand il passa — cette croix, il se découvrit, when he passed before that cross, he took his hat off. Les déviches défilèrent — lui, the dervishes defiled before him. Th. Gaut. Ôtez-vous — moi, de — mon jour, stand out of my light. Fig. Avoir du temps — soi, to have time before one. 2 (à la partie antérieure, en avant de) before, a head of. Se tenir — la porte, to stand before the door. Porter quelque chose — soi, to carry a thing before one. Être assis — la maison, to be seated before the house. L'armée était rangée en bataille — le camp, the army was in battle-array before the camp. Pousser un troupeau — soi, to drive a flock before one. Je le forçai à marcher — moi, I forced him to walk on before me. La tête avait toujours marché — la queue, the head had always gone before the tail. La Font. 3 (marquant l'ordre) before, preceding in rank. C'est mon ancien, il marche — moi, he is my elder, he walks on before me. Il a le pas — moi, he takes the precedence of me. 4 (en présence) before, in presence of. Prêcher — le roi, to preach before the king. Cela a été dit — temoins, that was said in the presence of witnesses. Cette scène a eu lieu — plus de cent personnes, that scene took place before more than a hundred persons. Jurer — Dieu et — les hommes de dire la vérité, to swear before God and men to tell the truth. Lorsqu'il comparut — ses juges, when he appeared before his judges. Cette affaire a été portée — tel tribunal, this affair has been brought before such a court. Ne vous troublez pas — cette grandeur, do not be confused at the sight of this grandeur. Lamart. Homme intrepide — le danger, a man intrepid in the presence of danger. Fig. Être — Dieu, to be in the presence of God. 5 absol. Des —, before. Des — la pointe du jour, before day-break. La Font.

DEVANT, adv. before, in front, opposite. Cachez cela, mettez quelque chose —, hide that, put something before it. Il est 12

—, he is yonder. Porte de —, front-door. Les jambes de — d'un cheval, the forelegs of a horse. Mettez cela — ou derrière, — ou après, put that before or behind. Marchez, courez —, walk on, run on before. Il a le pas —, he takes precedence. fig. Les premiers vont —, first come, first served. Sens — derrière, the wrong way. Naut. Elle vent —, to be head to wind. Comme —, as before. Ils recommenceront à mener leurs bêtes aux champs comme —, they drove their cattle out to graze as formerly. P.-L. Cour. Je rentre en moi-même, je suis Gros-Jean comme —, I recollect myself, am Gros-Jean as before. La Font.

AD-DEVANT de, prep. Aller, venir, envoyer au — de quelqu'un, to go, to come, to send to meet a person. fig. Aller au — d'une objection, to meet an objection. fig. J'allais au — de tous ses desirs, I anticipated all her wishes. fig. Aller au — du mal, to meet evil half-way. (elliptic.) Le régiment arrivera bientôt, allons au —, the regiment will soon arrive, let us go and meet it. fig. Quand on s'aperçoit qu'il veut quelque chose, on va au —, his wishes are anticipated as soon as they are perceived.

CI-DEVANT, adv. loc. Se ci. PAR-DEVANT, prep. before. Ce contrat a été passé par — notaire, this contract has been signed before a notary. Un acte par — notaire, a deed drawn up by a lawyer.

PAR DEVANT, adv. loc. before, in front. Prendre, saisir quelqu'un par —, to take, to seize a person in front. Être blessé par —, to be wounded in front.

DEVANT QUE, conj. obsol. before. Cet armement n'occupait, et huit jours — qu'il fut achevé, that armament occupied me, and a week before it was finished. Le Sage.

DEVANT, sm. 1 front, front part, forefront. Le — de la tête, du cou, the forepart of the head, of the neck. Le — de la maison n'offrait aucune trace de dévastation, the front of the house offered no traces of devastation. Balz. L'appartement des deux époux occupait tout le — de la maison, the apartments of the married couple occupied the whole front of the house. Balz. Habiter sur le — d'une maison, le —, to live in front. Un — d'otel, a frontal. Un — de cheminée, a chimney-head. Le — d'un habit, d'une robe, the front of a coat, of a gown. Un — de chemise, shirt-front. Mettre le — derrière, to put the front part behind. fig. Bâter sur le —, to get stout. 2 point. Les — s'un tableau, the fore-ground of a picture. Le — de la tuile, the fore-ground of the painting. 3 Prendre, gagner le —, les —, to get the start of; fig. to be beforehand with. Quand il sut que je venais porter plainte, il prit les —, when he knew that I was going to lodge a complaint, he forestalled me.

DEVANTIER, dub-vàng-tyay, sm. pop. apron.

DEVANTIERE, dub-vàng-tyay, sf. riding petticoat.

DEVANTEUR, dub-vàng-tư, sf. arch. front. La — d'une boutique, a shop front. DEVASTATEUR, day-vas-tat-uh, adj. m. fem. DEVASTATRICE, 1 ravaging, devastating, destroying. 2 (substantiv.) ravager, destroyer, spoiler.

DEVASTATION, day-vas-tah-syong, sf. devastation, havoc.

DEVASTÉ, ppa. of DEVASTER, fem. —E, devastated, laid waste. fig. Un crâne — par la science, a skull that science had laid bare. Balz. Lui, pauvre marin, — par la misère, he, poor sailor, a prey to indigence. Méry.

DEVASTÉ, day-vas-tay, va. (Lut. devastare) to devastate, to lay waste, to spoil (un pays, a country). fig. Leur âme que le temps et le malheur ont dévastée, their soul that time and misfortune have wasted. Chat.

DÉVELOPPABLE, dayv-lop-abl', adj. mf. that may be developed.

DÉVELOPPANTE, dayv-lo-pàngt, sf. geom. evolvent.

DÉVELOPPÉ, ppa. of DÉVELOPPER, fem. —E, 1 undone, developed. 2 fig. Un enfant bien —, a full-grown child.

DÉVELOPPÉE, dayv-lo-pay, sf. geom. involute.

DÉVELOPPEMENT, dayv-lop-màng, sm. 1 development, unfolding, unwrapping, growth. fig. Le — entier de toutes les parties du corps, the full size of all the parts of the body. Boll. Le — d'un germe, d'un bourgeon, the unfolding, the opening of a germ, of a bud. Le — d'une maladie, the progress of a disease. Le — interne de nos facultés, the internal development of our faculties. J.-J. Rouss. Le — d'un système, d'une doctrine, the development of a system, of a doctrine. 2 —S, pl. fig. (exposition) development. 3 point developments. 4 geom. evolution.

DÉVELOPPER, dayv-lo-pay, va. 1 to develop, to unwrap, to uncover, to unfold. 2 (deployer) to unfold. — ses talents, to reveal one's talents. 3 fig. (donner de l'accroissement) to develop, to unfold, to enlarge. Une nourriture saine et abondante développait le corps de ces deux jeunes gens, wholesome and abundant food developed the bodies of those two young people. B. de St-P. Le retour des deux princes dans le conseil leur a rendu à — les germes de haine qui, the return of the two princes to the Council developed in a short time the germs of hatred which. Bar. La pitié, l'innocence développaient chaque jour la beauté de leur cœur, pity, innocence every day developed the beauty of their souls. B. de St-P. 4 fig. (exposer) to unfold, to explain, to expound (un système, a system; le plan d'un ouvrage, the subject of a work). 5 fig. (dérouiller) to unwrap, to develop. — une affaire bien embrouillée, to unravel a very intricate affair. — une difficulté, to clear up a difficulty. Développez-moi ce mystère dont l'ignorance me fait seule s'effrayer, unfold to me this mystery at which ignorance alone can be terrified. Nod. 6 arch. to develop.

SE DÉVELOPPER, vpr. 1 (prendre de la force) to be developed, to develop one's self, to thrive. Leur esprit et leur corps se développent à l'aise, their minds and bodies are freely developed. Ab. Les talents se sont développés de toutes parts, talents have sprung up on all sides. B. de St-P. On voyait se — en lui le caractère d'un homme, a manly character was seen developing itself in him. B. de St-P. 2 mil. (s'étendre) to expand, to deploy. 3 fig. (du plan d'un ouvrage, of a literary work) to unravel itself.

DEVENIR, dubv-neer, va. irreg. conj. like VENIR, 1 to become, to turn to, to grow, to be, to come to. Petit poisson deviendra grand, a little fish will become a great one. La Font. Baucis devenait arbre et lui tendait les bras, B. became a tree, and held out her arms to him. La Font. Le monde est devenu, sans mentir, bien méchant, of a truth, the world has grown very wicked. Rac. Rarement un habile avocat devient un grand orateur, a skilful advocate seldom becomes a great orator. Villem. Il devint gros et gras, he grew plump. La Font. Les diables se trouvaient tout à coup devenus de petits saints, the devils were all at once turned to little saints. Mich. Ce sentiment devint encore plus douloureux, that feeling became still more painful. Sand. Le jeu devint une querelle, the game became a quarrel. La Font. Sa passion devenait plus forte, his passion grew stronger. Balz. L'exces d'un très-grand bien devient un mal très-grand, the excess of a great good becomes a great evil. Flor. N., devenu plus exigeant par le succès, M., whom success had made more difficult to please. Ste-B. Les regards légers devenaient graves en la regardant, thoughtless looks became serious at the sight of her. Lamart. — à rien, to come to nothing; || Cela est devenu à rien en cuisant, that has come to nothing in the cooking; || cet homme, cet enfant devient à rien, that man, that child is falling away to nothing. 2 (avoir tel ou tel sort) to become of. Que ? what would become of you in the midst of those deserts ? B. de St-P. — Que va-t-il — ? what is to become of him. S'il se rend, que devient-il ? s'il ne se rend pas, que devient-il lui-même ? if he yields, what will become of me, and if he does not, what will become of him ? Rac. Que sont devenus vos serments ? what has become of your oaths ? Je ne sais ce que tout ceci deviendra, I don't know what all that will come to. Il demandait ce qu'était devenu le père Aubry, he inquired what had become of Father A. Chat. Qu'étaient-vous devenu ? nous vous cherchions partout, what had become of you ? we were looking for you every where. Que devenez-vous ? what becomes of you ? Que voulez-vous ? — ? what do you intend becoming, doing ? Ne savez-vous —, not to know what to do, — ? what is to be done ?

DEVENTER, day-vàng-ty, va. naut. to catch the wind, to shiver the sails.

DEVENU, dubv-nu, ppa. of DEVENIR, fem. —E, become. — e mère, elle ne craignait plus la honte d'un refus, become a mother, she was no longer afraid of being shamed by a refusal. B. de St-P. L'ancien ami — adversaire, the former friend now an adversary. Ste-B.

DÉVERGONDAGE, day-vayr-gong-dahz, sm. shamelessness. fig. — d'esprit, d'imagination, eccentricity of mind, of imagination.

DÉVERGONDÉ, day-vayr-gong-day, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 dissolute, shameless, barefaced, licentious. (substantiv.) shameless, barefaced person.

DEVERS, dub-vayr, prep. (Fr. de vers) towards, round, by. || Il voyageait — Rome la Sainte-Église, he was travelling towards Rome the Holy Volt. Le roi vous mande pour que vous veniez — lui sans délai, the king sends word for you to come to him without delay. Bar. Va jusque — là butte pour savoir si ton père ne revient pas, go as far as the hilltop and see whether your father is not coming back. Nod. Elle s'en vint — moi sans tarder, she came to me without delay. P.-L. Cour. Il est — Nancy, he is from the side of N.

PAR DEVERS, prep. 1 before. Achever des papiers par — soi, to hold papers in one's possession. Lam. Tenir le bout par — soi, to be on the right side of the hedge. 2 law. Se pourvoir par — le juge, to apply to the Court.

DEVERS, dub-vayr, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lut. deversus) 1 on one side, a leaning word. 2 (substantiv.) Il faut marquer ce bois suivant son —, this timber must be moulded according to its inclination.

DEVÈRSE, ppa. of DÈVERSER, fem. —E, Du bois —, warped timber.

DÈVERSER, day-vayr-say, vm. to lean, to bend, to warp.

DÈVERSER, va. 1 — une pièce de bois, to warp a piece of timber. 2 fig. (repandre, verser) to pour, to throw, to cast. L'horreur que ces crimes commençaient à — sur son nom, the abhorrence in which his name began to be held, on account of those crimes. Lamart. Heureux de pouvoir — le bonheur qui Poppeusait, happy in being able to give vent to the joy that oppressed him. Balz.

SE DÈVERSER, vpr. to run, to flow (in, to).

DÈVERSOIR, day-vayr-swar, sm. wear, weir, overflow. fig. Cette conversation n'est qu'on — de toutes les pensées qui l'occupent, this conversation serves only as an outlet to all the thoughts with which his mind is filled. S-V-B.

DEVETIR, day-vay-teer, va. conj. like VÉTIR, (little used) to undress.

SE DEVETIR, rpr. 4 to undress, to leave off part of one's clothes. 2 fig. law. to divest one's self (d'un héritage, of an inheritance).

DEVÊTISSEMENT, day-vay-tis-màng, sm. law. disfigurement.

DEVÊTU, day-vay-tù, ppa. of DEVÊTIR, leno. — E, law. disvested.

DEVÉATION, day-vyah-syong, sf. deviation, swerving.

DEVIDER, day-ve-day, va. to wind, to wind off (du fil, des écheveaux, thread, skeins). fig. Une fois qu'il m'en dévidait l'écheveau de ses souvenirs, when once he had got to the end of his recollections. Lamart. Nous devîmes beaucoup de chapitres et de vus pays nous revînons à vous, we launch out into a great many subjects, every one of which brings us back to you. M^{me} de Sév.

DEVIDEUR, day-ve-dubr, *sm. fem. né-*VIDEUSE, winder.

DEVIDOILL, day-ve-dwâr, sm. winder, reel.

DÉVIER, day-vyay, rn. (Lat. deviare) to deviate, to swerve. Le bateau commença à —, poussé par le courant, the boat driven by the current began to deviate. Muss. Si la colonne vertebrale venait à —, if the spinal column began to deviate. fig. La plus ferme volonté devie à chaque instant, the strongest will deviates every moment. Th. Gaut. Ses intentions premières, avant qu'elles eussent devie et se fussent agitées dans la lutte, his first intentions, before they had deviated and become embittered in the struggle. S-V-B.

SE DÉVIER, rpr. to deviate, to swerve. Se — de la bonne route, to deviate from the right path.

DÉVIN, duh-vang, sm. fem. DEVINEESSE, (Lat. divinus) 1 diviner, soothsayer. fig. fam. Je ne sois pas —, I am no diviner. 2 erp. buffalo-male.

DÉVINEUR, duh-ve-nay, ra. (Lat. divinare) 1 to divine. — l'avenir, to divine the future. absol. L'art de —, divination. 2 fig. to guess, to conjecture. J'avais déjà deviné que vous étiez de ses amis, I had already guessed that you were a friend of his. Ab. Elle n'a jamais rien su — de mes chagrins, she never had the least idea of my sorrows. Balz. Un linceul jeté sur lui me laissa — son corps, a shroud thrown over him indicated to me that it was his corpse. Nod. Il devina d'un coup d'œil l'accident qui nous amenait, he found out at a glance the accident that brought us. Ab. Laisser — ses craintes, to betray one's fears. Il faut toujours le —, one must always guess at what he wants. Devinez le reste, guess the rest. — une énigme, on logographic, one charade, to guess an enigma, a logographic, a charade. prov. Je vous le donne 3 — en dix, en cent, I give you ten times, a hundred times to guess it in.

SE DÉVINEUR, rpr. 1 to be guessed. 2 fig. recipr. to understand each other.

DEVINEESSE, duh-veen-ress, sf. divineress. See DEVIN.

DEVINEUR, duh-ve-nubr, sm. fem. DEVINEUSE, 1 diviner, soothsayer. Chez la devineuse on courait, they ran to the divineress. La Font. 2 guesser.

DEVIS, duh-vee, sm. 4 absol. (propos) chat, talk. 2 arch. estimate. — approximatif, rough estimate. Faire un —, to make an estimate.

DEVISAGEH, day-ve-zah-zhay, ra. 1 to scratch the face of. fig. Il a passé sa vie à me caresser d'une main et à me — de l'autre, he has passed his life in caressing me with one hand, and giving me scratches with the other. Volt. 2 fig. to stare at. Je me tais les yeux à — les danseuses, I stared my eye-balls with staring at the female dancers. Ab.

SE DEVISAGER, rpr. fig. to scratch each other's faces.

DEVISE, duh-veez, sf. 1 device. Le corps de la —, l'âme de la —, See corps, A.M.S. 2 (by extension) motto, poetry. Platon souffrir que mourir, c'est la — des hommes, it is better to suffer than to die, that's the motto of man. La Font.

DEVISEIL, duh-ve-zay, rn. to chat, to talk. Ils devaient des choses du ciel et de la terre, they were conversing of the things of the creation. Mery. Les voyageurs qui devisaient en passant sur la route, the travellers that were chatting along. Lamart.

DEVISSER, day-ve-say, va. (from vis) 4 to unscrew (une serrure, a lock). absol. Cet outil sert à —, that tool is used for unscrewing. 2 (séparer des choses vissées ensemble) to unscrew (le bouchon d'argent d'un flacon de cristal, the silver stopper from a glass bottle).

DEVIOIEMENT, day-vooi-màng, sm. 1 relaxation, looseness, diarrhœa. 2 arch. slope.

DEVŒILÉ, ppa. of DEVŒILER, fem. — E, unveiled. fig. Mystère —, unveiled mystery, mystery disclosed. Intrigue — e, intrigue laid open.

DEVŒILEMENT, day-vooi-màng, sm. unveiling.

DEVŒILER, day-vooi-lay, va. 4 to unveil, to uncover (une femme, a woman). (by extension) — one statue, to uncover a statue. fig. — one religieuse, to absterge a nun from her vows. 2 fig. (révéler) to disclose, to discover, to display. Je dévoile tes crimes et les tiens, I disclose your crimes and mine. Chat. Toi que l'homme nature dévoile et n'a pas défini, thou that nature in its immensity reveals and has not defined. Lamart.

SE DEVŒILER, rpr. 1 to unveil, to be unveiled. 2 fig. to be discovered, disclosed, displayed, unveiled. Un scélérat finit toujours par se —, a villain is always found out at last.

DEVOIR, duh-vooir, va. DEVAINT; DŒ; JE DOIS, TO DOIS, IL DOIT, NOUS DEVONS, VOUS DEVEZ, ILS DOIVENT; JE DEVAIS; JE DOIS; JE DEVAIS; JE DEVAIS; QUE JE DOIS; QUE JE DUSSE; (Lit. debere) 1 (être débiteur de, être obligé à donner ou à rendre) to own, to be in debt, to be indebted. Un homme qui ne devait rien à personne, a man who owed nothing to any body. Balz. — one somme d'argent, to owe a sum of money. — tant de journées de travail, to owe so many days' work. Duit Monsieur un tel à un tel, pour fournitures, Mr. Such-a-one, bought of Such-a-one, goods. absol. Il tourmentait ceux qui lui devaient, he tormented those who were in debt to him. J'aime mieux me priver que —, I prefer depriving myself to running into debt. fig. Il m'en doit, he owes me. prov. — plus d'argent qu'on n'est gros, — à Dieu et au diable, — au tiers et au quart, — de tous côtés, — à over head and collar in debt, to be in debt to every body. Qui a terme ne doit rien, one owes nothing till the rent become due. Qui doit à tort, the debtor is always in the wrong. Doit et avoir, See avoir.

2 (être obligé à quelque chose) to owe by a moral obligation. Ce que les hommes doivent à Dieu, what men owe to God. Au nom de l'obéissance qu'il devait à l'Eglise, in the name of that submission he owed to the Church. Aug. Th. Cet esprit de chevalerie qui devait secours aux victimes, that spirit of chivalry that owed help to the weak. Lamart. Quiconque possède la vérité la doit à ses frères, whoever possesses the truth ought to communicate it to his brethren. Boss. Je dois à votre bonté la vérité, I am bound by your kind reception to tell you the truth. Flor. Ne croiriez-vous pas — quelque retour à un dévouement si, do you think you owe no return for such devotedness. Nod. Je crois — cela à notre amitié, I think I owe that to our friendship. Je donnai au bon chanoine les larmes que je lui devais pour les soins qu'il avait pris de mon éducation, I bestowed on the good canon the tears I owed him for the care he had taken of my education. Le Sage. Vous lui devez de la reconnaissance, you owe him a debt of gratitude. — des égards, des ménagements à quelqu'un, to owe a person respect, consideration. (des choses, of things) La loi doit protection à tous les citoyens, the law owes protection to every citizen. absol. L'orgueil ne veut pas —, pride acknowledges no debt. La Rochef. Fais ce que dois, advienne que pourra, do your duty, happen what will.

3 (être redevable à) to owe, to be indebted to. J'aime mieux le — à votre générosité qu'à votre reconnaissance, I prefer holding it of your generosity rather than of your gratitude. Le Sage. C'est au hasard upon doit cette découverte, it is to chance that this discovery is due. Mery. Je lui dois de vous connaître, to him I owe my being acquainted with you. Mes arrière-neveux me devront cet ombrage, my posterity will be indebted to me for this shade. La Font. C'est à lui que vous devez votre fortune, it is to him you owe your fortune. Il lui doit tous ses maux, all his evils are owing to him.

4 (devant un inf., marquant qu'il y a justice, raison, convenance, pour qu'une chose soit) ought, should. Un bonhomme doit être préféré à un fripon, an honest man ought to be preferred to a rogue. Un peuple si juste devait être chéri des dieux, so just a people ought to be beloved by the gods. Mont. Je crus — trapper à la porte de M., I thought I ought to knock at M's door. Ab. Il devait en être autrement, things were to turn out otherwise. Lamart. L'orateur ne doit pas s'emporter, an orator ought never to lose his temper. On devrait réparer cet édifice, that edifice ought to be repaired. Les peres devaient penser pour nous, fathers ought to think for us. Balz. Ce sont de ces choses que l'on ne doit pas dire, these are things that ought not to be said. Il devrait avoir des gardiens dans ce jardin, there ought to be keepers in this garden. Cette grande devise devrait être gravée en lettres d'or, that noble sentence ought to be engraved in gold n letters. Saud. Cela aurait dû lui faire plaisir, that ought to have pleased him. Que dois-je penser de ce retard? what am I to think of this delay? J'ai dû en être blessé! I could not help being offended! al ut. Un songe! me devrais-je inquiéter d'un songe? a dream! ought I to be uneasy about a dream? Rac. Sois juste! devais-je nous attendre à cette heure? be just! ought she to have expected us at this hour? Nod. Un homme d'honneur s'il tenir la parole, a man of honour ought to keep his word. Reflections à ce que vous devez faire, reflect on what you ought to do. La loi doit protéger également tous les citoyens, the law ought to protect all citizens alike. Le ciel doit m'écouter, quand pour lui je l'implore, Heaven ought to listen to me, when I implore it for thee. V. Hug. prov. Va où tu peux, meurs où tu dois, go where you can, die where you ought.

5 (devant un inf., indiquant une éventualité) should, to be obliged. J'en aurai donc, quand Satan devrait le verser, then I will have some, though S. should pour it. Nod. Dussé-je après dix ans voir mon palais en cendres, though after a lapse of ten years I should see my palace reduced to ashes. Rac. Quand je devrais ici demeurer jusqu'au soir, though I should be obliged to remain here till evening. Rac. Dat le ciel égarer le supplice à l'offense, though Heaven should inflict a punishment equal to the offense. Cora. Je dirai ce que je pense, dussiez-vous vous en fâcher, I will tell you what I think, though it should make you angry.

6 (devant un inf., indiquant qu'on croit, qu'on présume qu'une chose est ou sera) must. Leur vie est continuellement en danger, ils doivent travailler ou périr, their lives are continually at stake, they must work or perish. Ph. Chas. L'homme doit mourir, man must die. Tout doit finir avec nous, every thing must finish with us. Vous m'entendez, vous devez m'entendre, you shall hear me, you must hear me. Sand. L'orgueil de mon cousin doit le mener à mal, my cousin's pride must bring him to harm. C. Del. Comme votre temps doit être précieux, trouvez bon que je, as your time must be precious, allow me to. Muss. Vous avez dû près d'eux trouver quelques douceurs, you must have found some pleasure in their society. Flor. Ce garçon-là doit être amoureux, that fellow must be in love. Il doit être bien agréable de, it must be very agreeable to.

Dans ce moment-ci, ils doivent être déjà bien loin, at this moment, they must already be very far off. Vous devez avoir bien chaud avec ce manteau, you must be very warm with that cloak on. Votre fils doit déjà être grand, your son must be a great boy now. Ils ont dû être mouillés, they must have been wet. Qu'on doit lui faire plus de pitié que d'envie, though he was more to be pitied than envied. Le Sage. Il doit y avoir quelque chose là-dessous, there must be something underneath. Il croyait que sa lettre devait faire plaisir à ses parents, he thought his letter must gratify his parents. Tous ces princes devaient payer un gros tribut à la Compagnie, all these princes were bound to pay tribute to the Company. Villem. Si je gagne, c'est clair, je ne dois rien payer, if I win, it is clear, I have nothing to pay. Flor.

7 (devant un inf., marquant l'intention, qu'on une chose se fera à (e) moment), to be. Il doit arriver aujourd'hui, he is to arrive to-day. Ils devaient se déguiser en domestiques, they were to disguise themselves as servants. Lamart. Quelle route devez-vous prendre en quittant R.? what road are you to take on leaving R.? Saint. Le vaste logis qu'ils devaient occuper, the vast building they were to occupy. Sand. Quand cette cérémonie doit-elle avoir lieu? when is this ceremony to take place? Le mariage devait se célébrer hier, mais, the marriage was to come off yesterday, but. Je dois aller demain vous voir, I am to go to see you to-morrow. On lui a dit que vous deviez lui écrire à ce sujet, he has been told that you were to write to him about that.

SE DEVOIR, ppr. 4 (être obligé) to owe it to one's self. On se doit à soi-même de respecter les bienséances, one owes it to one's self to behave properly. Je me devais de faire cette démarche, I owed it to myself to take this step. Je sais ce qu'on se doit entre parents, I know how relations ought to act towards each other. Sand. Cela se doit, that ought to be. Voici mon testament que je suis en train d'écrire comme cela se doit, here is my testament that I am about drawing up as it ought to be. Muss. 2 Se — à sa patrie, à sa famille, à ses amis, to one's self to one's country, to one's family, to one's friends. Chaque homme se doit à sa patrie, every man owes himself to his country. Chat. L'homme doit ses travaux aux hommes; il se doit aussi au reste de la nature, man owes his labour to men, he also owes himself to the rest of nature. B. de St-P. 3 recipr. to owe each other. Ils aimèrent d'autant plus la vie qu'ils se la devaient à tous deux, they were so much the more attached to life, as each owed his existence to the other, Flor.

4 S'en —, to owe each other. En fait d'injures, de mauvais procédés, ces deux hommes ne s'en doivent guère, as for abuse, ungentlemanly conduct, there is little difference between the two men. Il me semble qu'ils ne s'en doivent guère, methinks they are little difference between them. Nod.

DEVOIR, sm. 1 duty. Remplir ses —, to fulfil, to perform one's duties. Manquer à son —, to fail in one's duty. La reconnaissance est un —, gratitude is a duty. Sand. Regarder comme un —, to consider as a duty. Faire une chose par —, to do a thing from duty. C'est un —, ou — sacré, it is a sacred duty. Être à son —, to be at one's post. Se mettre en — de faire quelque chose, to set about a thing. Rentrer dans son —, dans le —, to return to one's duty. (in threat) Je lui apprendrai son —, I will teach him his duty. Derniers —, last duties, offices, honours. Alter rendre ses — à quelqu'un, to wait upon a person, to pay one's debts, one's duty to a person. Le —, la loi du —, duty, the law of duty. 2 feud. — seigneuriaux, the lord of the manor's fees. 3 (d'un écuyer, of a school-boy) task. 4 Compagnon du —, member of a benefit society.

DEVOLÉ, day-vo-lé, sf. (jeu de cartes, at cards) having no trick.

DEVOLÉR, day-vo-lay, va. (jeu de cartes, at cards) to lose all the tricks.

DEVOLU, day-vo-lu, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. devolutus) law. vested, devolved. La royauté était — e au duc de la Duke R. had been made king. Aug. T. Cette régence — e à un prince du sang, the regency awarded to a prince of the royal blood. Lamart. Terre — e à la couronne, land fallen to the crown, escheat. (by analogy) Procès — à la Cour, cause belonging to the Court.

DEVOLU, sm. lapse of right. Jeter on —, to give notice of a lapse. J. Jeter son —, ou — sur quelqu'un, sur quelque chose, to fix one's choice upon a person, a thing. DEVOLUTAIKE, day-vo-lu-lay, sm. a person to whom property has fallen in default of heirs on the other line; a person who has a beneficent fallen into lapse of right.

DEVOLUTIF, day-vo-lu-tif, adj. m. fem. DEVOLUTIVE, law. devolutive.

DEVOLUTION, day-vo-li-syong, sf. devolution.

DEVORANT, day-vo-rang, ppr. of DÉVORER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 devouring. Un lion —, a devouring lion. Des chiens —, devouring dogs. Rac. 2 (by extension) (avid, insatiable) voracious, ravenous. Appétit —, faim —, ravenous appetite. 3 fig. (qui consume) consuming. Un feu —, a consuming fire. Une flamme —, a devouring flame. Un climat —, a wasting climate. Des soucis —, consuming care. La Font. 4 fig. (excessif) consuming. Avoir une soif —, to be parched with thirst. La chaleur est —, the heat is sultry.

DEVORÉ, day-vo-ral-ubr, adj. m. fem. DEVORANT, devourer. Ce grand peuple — d'insectes, this multitude these devourers of insects. Nich.

DEVORÉ, ppr. of DEVORER, fem. —, 1 devoured. 2 fig. destroyed. Tout nait pour être —, every created being is born to destruction. Volt. 3 fig. distracted, eaten up (with). Je me sentais — par la faim et la soif, I was dying with hunger and thirst. Lamart. — de chagrin, distracted with grief. Chat. E. était — d'ennui, E. was a prey to ennui. Sand.

DEVORER, day-vo-ray, va. (Lat. devorare) 1 to devour. Les sauvages de l'Amérique brûlent leurs ennemis vivants et devorent leurs chairs toutes sanglantes, the savages of America burn their enemies alive and devour their flesh half raw. B. de St-P. fig. Cet horrible phénomène a quelquefois dévoré jusqu'à des vaisseaux, that horrible phenomenon has sometimes swallowed up even vessels. Nod. L'immense cheminée dévore un chêne entier, the immense fire-place devours a whole oak. V. Hug. 2 (by extension) (manger avidement) to devour, to swallow. Il me présenta quelques fruits que je devorai, he offered me some fruit that I ate up.

Le Sage. Il eut dévoré le tout en un instant, he swallowed down the whole in an instant. absolt. Cet homme ne mange pas, il dévore, that man does not eat, he devours. fig. Et quand on présenterait ces absurdités, il s'en rattrapait on dévorerait ces absurdités, and if those absurdities were swallowed down, a crowd of fresh ones would present themselves. 3 (by extension) (détruire) to eat up, to consume. Les oiseaux avaient dévoré toutes nos cerises, the birds had eaten up all our cherries. Les chenilles ont dévoré toutes les feuilles de ce rosier, the caterpillars have eaten up all the leaves of this rose-tree. (by analogy) Les gens de justice dévorèrent ce que B. n'aurait pas mangé, the officers of justice will sweep off all that B. would not have run through. Balz. 4 fig. — un livre, des livres, to devour, to pore over a book, books. Je me suis mis à les lire ou plutôt à les —, I began to read or rather to devour them. J.-J. Rouss. (by analogy) Que de choses il savait voir et d'un coup d'œil, what a multitude of things he could take in and devour at a single glance.

St-B. — des yeux, to devour with the eyes. Une tendre mère devorait en secret un si doux spectacle, a tender mother devoured in secret so pleasant a sight. J.-J. Rouss. — une chose en espérance, to be in greedy expectation of. Ces puissances qui devorèrent déjà en idée cette succession immense, those powers that had already in imagination swallowed up this immense inheritance. Volt. — les difficultés, to master, to surmount difficulties. Elle dévorait ses pleurs pour ne pas alarmer sa fille, she restrained her tears not to alarm her daughter. Sand. Croyez-moi, dévorez votre chagrin, believe me, restrain your grief. Le Sage. Je devorai héroïquement mes douleurs, I heroically suppressed all tokens of pain. A. — on affront, une injure, to pocket an affront, an insult. 5 fig. (parcourir rapidement) to glide through, over. — l'espace, to glide through space. La danseuse continuait à le parquet de ses pas, the dancer spins round the room with rapid steps.

Nod. Le chemin que nous devorions était affreux, the road we swept along was dreadful. Nod. 6 fig. (consumer, détruire) to devour, to consume, to destroy. Un incendie dévora la plus belle ferme du royaume, a fire consumed the finest farm in the kingdom. Saod. Le temps dévore tout, time devours every thing. C'est une terre qui dévore ses habitants, it is a land that devours its inhabitants. 7 fig. (dépenser, dissiper) to dissipate, to squander, to run through. — son bien, to run through one's property. Boil. L'héritier prodigue pète de superbes funérailles et dévore le reste, the prodigal heir pays a magnificent funeral and squanders the rest. La Bruy. 8 fig. (marquer l'action violente que certaines choses exercent sur nous) to prey upon. La fièvre me dévorait, fever preyed upon me. Chat. La faim, la soif le dévore, hunger, thirst preys upon him. Si demeur le soleil me dévore, if to-morrow I am a prey to the sun. V. Hug. Un feu secret le dévore, a secret fire preys upon him. L'ennui, le chagrin le dévore, he is a prey to ennui, to grief.

SE DEVORER, ppr. 1 recipr. to devour each other. 2 refl. fig. (se détruire) to devour, to destroy one's self. La nature va se dévorant elle-même, nature feeds upon itself. Nich. (by extension) Il faut — les choses pour qu'elles ne nous dévorent pas et pour ne pas se — soi-même, we must destroy things not to be destroyed by them and not to destroy ourselves. Sic-B.

DÉVOT, day-vo, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. devotus) 1 devout, godly. Des âmes pieuses et —es, pious and devout souls. Une de mes grandes envies, ce serait d'être —e, one of my ardent wishes would be to be devout. M^{re} de Sév. (disparagingly) Ce prince — et cruel, this devout and cruel prince. (by extension) Avoir l'air —, l'extérieur, le maintien —, to have a sanctimonious look 2 (fait avec dévotion) dévotionnel. 3 (substantif.) devout person. C'est une de ses —es, she is one of his penitents. Faire le —, to pretend to be religious. Faux —, devotes, dévotionist.

DÉVOTEMENT, day-voï-mang, adv. dévoutely.

DÉVOTIEUX, day-vo-syuh, adj. m. fem. dévotieuse, devout.

DÉVOTION, day-vo-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 dévotion, devoutness. Sa — luthérane, his dévotion was ardent. Boss. Délivrez-moi, Seigneur, de cette écorce trompeuse et —, deliver me, O Lord, from this deceitful show of dévotion. Boss. Se mettre, se jeter dans la —, to turn devoted. Faire quelque chose par —, to do a thing out of dévotion. L'offrande est à —, a l'offrande qui a —, offering is left to every one's discretion. 2 —s, pl. dévotions, receiving the communion. 3 (by extension) (disposition) dévotion, devotedness, disposal. Être à la — de quelqu'un, to be at a person's disposal.

DÉVOUE, ppa. of DÉVOUER, fem. —E, 1 consecrated. Tous ses descendants sont —s à la malédiction éternelle, all his posterity is devoted to eternal malediction. Nod. 2 fig. devoted. Les amis les plus —s des trois familles, the most devoted friends of the three families. Balz. B., parti inflexible, arriva — à Paris, B., who had set out inflexible, arrived at Paris full of devotedness. Lamart. Être — à quelqu'un, to be devoted to a person. (hyperb.) Disposez de moi comme il vous plaira, je vous suis tout —, dispose of me as you please, I am completely at your service. (hyperb.) Je suis votre — serviteur, I am your devoted servant. Votre —, votre très —, Yours, Yours very truly.

DÉVOUEMENT, day-vo-mang, 1 dévotion, devotedness. Un — sans bornes, an unbounded dévotion. Servir ses amis avec —, to serve one's friends with devotedness. Acte de —, act of devotedness. (by extension) Si le — des patriotes à la Révolution était sublime, if the dévotion of the patriots for the Révolution was sublime. Lamart. 2 (action de s'exposer à un grand péril, à la mort) self-devotion. Le — des médecins pendant cette épidémie, the self-devotion of the physicians during that epidemic. Les héros eurent leurs —s, les saints leurs Passions, heroes had their self-devotions, saints their passions. Mich. 3 (chez les anciens) self-sacrifice, voluntary sacrifice. L'histoire nous apprend qu'en de tels accidents, on fait de pareils —s, history teaches us that in such accidents, similar self-sacrifices are made. La Font.

DÉVOUER, day-vo-ay, ro. (Lat. devovere) to devote, to consecrate, to dedicate, to consign. — ses enfants au service de la patrie, to devote one's children to the service of the country. — quelqu'un à l'exécution publique, to consign a person to public execution. Le dessein vous dévoue comme nous au regret, fate consigns you, like us, to regret. V. Hug. Pendant cinq ans, il dévoua sa tête aux fureurs civiles, for five years, he risked his life in intestine broils. Boss. (by extension) Un loup quelque peu clerc prouva qu'il fallait — ce misérable animal, a wolf who was something of a scholar proved that it was necessary to sacrifice this cursed animal. La Font.

SE DÉVOUER, vpr. 1 ic devote, to consecrate, to dedicate one's self. Se — au service de Dieu, to devote one's self to the service of God. Se — aux volontés de quelqu'un, to devote one's self to the will of a person. A la cause desquels il assura qu'il voulait se —, to whose cause he asserted that he was ready to devote himself. Aug. Th. Se — à ses amis, to devote one's self to one's friends. Devouons-nous à Dieu en simplicité, let us give ourselves up to God in simplicity. Boss. Se — à la mort, to give up one's life. absol. Un ministre ne s'attache qu'aux gens qui se dévouent, a minister feels attachment for those only who are devoted to him. Sic-B. 2 absol. (s'exposer à un grand péril, à une mort certaine) to devote one's self, to give, to offer one's self up. Se — pour son pays, to give up one's life for one's country.

DÉVOYER, ppa. of DÉVOYER, fem. —E, 1 led astray. fig. Un de ces esprits —s, one of those minds led astray. 2 sloping. Tuya —, sloping pipe, oblique funnel. 3 (substantif.) fig. astray, lost sheep.

DÉVOYER, day-vo-ay, ro. ic dé-vo-yer, se dévoier, 1 absol. to mislead, to lead astray. Notre guide nous avait dévoies, our guide had misled us. 2 ven. — les chiens, to mislead the dogs, to throw the dogs off the scent. 3 — au tuya de cheminée, de descente, to place a funnel obliquely. 4 med. to relax.

SE DÉVOYER, vpr. absol. to go astray, to lose one's way. fig. Ils ne se laissent pas — de leur chemin, they never swerve from their natural bent. Sic-B. Se — du chemin de la vérité, to go astray from the path of truth.

DEXTÉRITÉ, dek-stay-re-tay, sf. (Lat. dexteritas) 1 dexterity, dexterousness, adroitness. 2 fig. dexterity, skill. On ne pouvait assez louer l'incroyable — de Madame à terminer tous les différends, the incredible skill displayed by Madame in settling all those differences could not be sufficiently praised. Boss. Je sais comme on est dupé par leurs —s, I know with what skill they dupe us. Mol.

DEXTRE, dekstr', sf. (Lat. dextera) 1 absol. right, right hand, right side. 2 her. A —, dexter. (adjective.) La coté —, the right side.

DEXTREMENT, deks-troh-mang, ado. absol. dexterously, skillfully.

DÉY, day, sm. dey.

DI, dia, affix. (Gr.) dia.

DIA, dyah, affix. (Gr.) dia.

DI, inferi, gee-ho, prov. fig. pop. Il n'eutend ni — ni à hue, there is no beating reason into his head. prov. fig. pop. L'un tire à — et l'autre à hue; l'un tire à hue et l'autre à —, one pulls one way and the other another.

DIABASE, dyah-baz, sm. (Gr.) min. diabase, greenstone.

DIABETE, dyah-bet, sm. (Gr.) 1 med. diabetes. 2 phys. Tanstalas's-cup.

DIABÉTIQUE, dyah-bay-tik, adj. mf. med. diabetic, diabetical.

DIABLE, dyabl', sm. (Lat. diabolus) 1 devil, old Harry, old Nick, old Scratch. Être possédé du —, to be possessed with the devil. Ah! le — ait son âme! ah! may the devil take his soul! V. Hug. Je crus voir le —, tout son aspect m'effraya, I thought I saw the devil, so much did his countenance frighten me. prov. fig. Le — était beau quand il était jeune, a young face is never ugly. (by analogy) La beauté du —, youth, freshness. Quand le — fut vieux, il se fit ermite, the devil grew sick, and a monk he would be. Ne craindre ni Dieu, ni —, to fear neither God, nor devil. Le — est aux vaches, est bien aux vaches, there is the devil to pay. Les —s sont déchainés, the devils are let loose. Le — but sa femme, it rains and shines at the same time. Il mangerait le — et ses cornes, he would devour all before him. C'est le — à confesser, it is the devil to pay. fig. C'est le — quand on veut le faire sortir, it is the devil to make him get out. C'est le —, c'est là le —, voilà le —, there's the devil of it. Quand le — y serait, or the devil in it. Cela se fera, ou il faudra que le — s'en mêle, à moins que le — ne s'en mêle, si le — ne s'en mêle, it shall be done if the devil is in it; it shall go hard, but it shall be done. Le — n'y verrait goutte, it is impossible to see through it. Quand une fois il a dit non, le — ne lui ferait pas dire oui, when once he has said no, nothing can ever make him say yes. Donner, envoyer au —, to tous les —s, to tous les cinq cents —s, to give, to send to the devil. Va-t-en au —, go to the devil. Que le — l'emporte, l'emporte! the devil, the devil take you! take him! Que le — soit de lui, le — soit de lui, de toi, the devil take him, take you. Au — soit l'imbécile, le sot, the devil, the devil take the idiot, the fool. Au —, to the devil with it! Au — le profit que j'en ai tiré, the devil a farthing did I get by it. Se donner au —, to exert every effort. (hyperb.) Cela me ferait donner au —, it is enough to drive one mad. (hyperb.) C'est à se donner à tous les —s d'avoir si peu de chance, it is enough to make one sell one's self to the devil to have so little luck. Du —, si je sors jamais avec lui, the devil take me if ever I go out with him. Être au —, to be a long way off. Il est au —, en Orient, je crois, he is at the other end of the world, God knows where. S'en aller au —, to tous les —s, to go to the devil, to go to the dogs. L'affaire s'en va au —, to tous les —s, the affair is falling to pieces. Être à tous les —s, to be done up. Faire le —, faire le — à quatre, to play the devil, to exert every effort. Cela ne vaut pas le —, that is not worth a fig. Avoir le — au corps, to have the devil in one. (in a good sense) Avoir un esprit de tous les —s, to be deuced witty. prov. fig. Brûler une chandelle au —, to hold a candle to the devil. Tirer le — par la queue, to live from hand to mouth; to be hard put to for a livelihood. Loger le — dans sa bourse, not to have a stiver in one's purse. Le — n'est pas toujours à la porte d'un pauvre homme, misfortune does not always attend a man. Il veut mieux tuer le — que le — nous tue, it is better to kill the devil than to be killed by him. 2 fig. dévil. C'est un —, un vrai —, un — incarné, ou — enfer, ou — déchainé, he is a devil, a true devil, a devil incarnate, a devil from Hell, a devil let loose. prov. fig. Il n'est pas si — qu'il est noir, he is not so bad as he looks to be. 3 fig. dévil. Ce — d'homme fait de ses membres tout ce qu'il veut, that devil of a man can do whatever he likes with his limbs. Ce — là n'est jamais embarrassé, that devil of a fellow is never at a loss. On donne ce petit — d'enfant va-t-il chercher ce qu'il dit? where does that little devil of a child get all he says from? Ce — là ne se corrigera jamais, that devil of a fellow will never mend. Cette — de femme se mêle toujours de ce qui ne la regarde pas, the devil of a woman is always meddling with what does not concern her. Un bon —, a good fellow. Un pauvre — a poor devil, fellow, wretch. Un grand — a devilish tall fellow. 4 fig. Une — d'affaire, ou — de négocié, de mettre, a devil of an affair, of a trade. Une — de pluie, ou — de vent, annoying rain, wind. Pourquoi ne se fait-elle pas arracher ces dents — de dents? why does she not have those two cursed teeth drawn. Nod. Une affaire du —, une difficulté du —, a most troublesome affair, difficulty. Un froid de —, un vent, une pluie de —, excessive cold, wind, rain. Une peur de — a devilish fright. 3 (jovet) humming-top. 6 (espèce de charrette) truck. 7 (petit étariol) drag. 8 nat. hist. willow. 9 —, interj. the devil — I comme vous y allez! the deuce! how you run on! — I comment allons-nous faire? the deuce! what are we to do? Ah! — I je n'y pensais pas, of the deuce! I did not think of that. Où — va-t-il prendre tout ce qu'il dit? where the deuce does he find all he says? Qui — vous a dit cela? who the deuce told you that? Je ne sais ce que — Il est devenu — I don't know what the deuce has become of him. Que — me veut-il? what the deuce does he want of me? A quoi — s'amuse-t-il? what the deuce is he about? Que — I vous avez peur! the deuce! you are afraid!

EN DIABLE, adv. loc. very, extremely, devilishly, deucedly. Boire en —, to be a hard drinker. Frapper en —, to knock insistly. Il est méchant en —, he has the wickedness of a devil. Ce vinaigre est fort en —, this vinegar is devilishly strong.

(in the same sense) Comme le —, comme un beau —, comme tous les —, devilishly, deucedly. Crier comme un beau —, to bawl out.

À LA DIABLE, adv. loc. 4 wretchedly, badly. Cela est fait à la —, that is wretchedly done. Cette affaire va, maintenant, à la —, that affair is going all wrong way. Être fait à la —, to be slovenly dressed. 2 culu. devilled. Poulet à la — devilled chicken.

DIABLEMENT, adv. bluh-màng, adv. fam. devilishly, deucedly. Il fait — chaud, it is deucedly warm. Il est — laid, he is devilishly ugly.

DIABLEUNE, adv. bluh-ree, sf. 4 witchcraft, sorcery, devilry. Il y a à la —, there is some devilry underneath. Se mêler de —, to have dealings with the devil. 2 (ensorcellement) jugglery. 3 fig. devil's trick, secret machination. 4 (dessin) devil.

DIABLESSE, adv. bluh-blays, sf. 4 (injure) she-devil. 2 Une femme — une pauvre — une grande —. See DIABLE, no 3.

DIABLOTIN, adv. bluh-làng, sm. 1 devilkin, little devil. 2 fig. little devil, imp. C'est un vrai —, he is a little imp. 3 (espèce de dragée) chocolate-comfit.

DIABOLIQUE, adv. boh-lik, adj. mf. 1 diabolic, diabolical, devilish. 2 fig. (tres-méchant) diabolical. Invention —, diabolical invention. Sourire —, diabolical smile. 3 fig. (fort mauvais) devilish. Un chemin —, a devilish road. 4 fig. (pénible) devilish. Une affaire —, a devilish concern. Un travail —, a devilish work.

DIABOLIQUEMENT, adv. boh-lik-màng, adv. diabolically.

DIAGNOSTIQUE, adv. boh-kos-tik, adj. anat. sf. med. diagnostic.

DIACHYLON, adv. dyah-e-long, DIACHY-LUM, adv. dyah-e-lum, sm. (Gr.) diachylon, diachylum.

DIACODE, adv. dyah-kod, sm. (Gr.) pharmacodium. (adjectiv.) Sirop —, diacodium.

DIACONAL, adv. dyah-kon-al, adj. m. fem. —, diacanal.

DIACONAT, adv. dyah-kon-nah, sm. (Gr.) deaconship, deaconry.

DIACONESSE, adv. dyah-kon-ess, DIACONISSE, adv. dyah-kon-iss, sf. deaconess.

DIACOSTIQUE, adv. dyah-koos-tik, sf. (Gr.) phys. diacostics.

DIACRE, adv. dyah-kr, sm. (Gr.) deacon.

DIADELPHIE, adv. dyah-delf, adj. f. (Gr.) bot. diadelphous, diadelphous.

DIADELPHIE, adv. dyah-del-fee, sf. bot. diadelphous.

DIADÈME, adv. dyah-daym, sm. (Gr.) 4 diadem. 2 fig. poetic, (royauté) l'éclat de —, the splendour of royalty. Ceindre le —, to assume the crown.

DIAGNOSE, adv. dyah-noz, sf. (Gr.) med. diagnosis, diagnostic.

DIAGNOSTIC, adv. dyah-nos-tik, sm. (Gr.) diagnostic.

DIAGNOSTIQUE, adv. dyah-nos-tik, adj. mf. 1 med. diagnostic. 2 sm. obsol. synonym.

DIAGONOSTIQUEUR, adv. dyah-nos-te-kay, va. to diagnosticate.

DIAGOMÈTRE, adv. dyah-o-maytr, sm. (Gr.) phys. diagonometer.

DIAGONAL, adv. dyah-o-nal, adj. m. fem. —, (Gr.) 4 diagonal. Une ligne —, a diagonal line. 2 sf. diagonal. La —, d'un carré, the diagonal of a square.

DIAGONALEMENT, adv. dyah-o-nal-màng, adv. diagonally.

DIAGRAMME, adv. dyah-ram, sm. (Gr.) geom. diagram.

DIAGRAPHIE, adv. dyah-raf, sm. (Gr.) diagraph.

DIALECTE, adv. dyal-ekt, sm. (Gr.) dialect.

DIALECTICIEN, adv. dyal-ek-te-syang, sm. dialectician.

DIALECTIQUE, adv. dyal-ek-tik, sf. (Gr.) 1 dialectic, dialectics. 2 (adjectiv.) dialectic, dialectical.

DIALECTIQUEMENT, adv. dyal-ek-tik-màng, adv. dialectically.

DIALOGIQUE, adv. dyal-o-zhik, adj. mf. dialogistic, dialogistical.

DIALOGISME, adv. dyal-o-zhism, sm. dialogism.

DIALOGISTE, adv. dyal-o-zheest, s. mf. (little use) dialogist.

DIALOGUE, adv. dyal-og, sm. (Gr.) 4 dialogue. 2 (ouvrage) dialogue. Les — de Platon, the dialogues of Plato. 3 (théâtre) dialogue. 4 mus. dialogue.

DIALOGUE, ppa. of dialogue, fem. —, Une pièce bien —, a piece in which the dialogue is well supported.

DIALOGUER, adv. dyal-o-gay, vn. 1 to converse. 2 (des personnages d'une pièce, of the personages of a play) to converse, to carry on a dialogue. 3 lit. (faire parler) to make persons speak in character, to write dialogues. 4 mus. to conduct, to carry on a dialogue.

DIALOGUER, va. Bien — une scène, to make personages in a scene speak well in character.

DIAMANT, adv. dyah-màng, sm. (Gr.) 1 diamond. Rose de —, diamond rose. Bouton de —, épiingle de —, diamond stud, pin. — en rose, rose diamond. — brillant, See BRILLANT. — en table, table de —, table diamond. — brut, rough diamond. — faux, false diamond. — taillé, cut diamond. Monter un —, to set a diamond. fig. Ce cœur de — qui semble défier le ciel et l'enfer, that adamantine heart which seems to defy Heaven and Earth. Buss. fig. C'est un —, it is a diamond, a pearl. 2 (outil) diamond, glazier's diamond. 3 naut. Le d'une ancre, the crown of an anchor. 4 print diamond.

DIAMANTAIRE, adv. dyah-màng-layr, sm. diamond cutter.

DIAMANTAIRE, adj. mf. diamond.

DIAMÉTRAL, adv. dyah-may-tral, adj. m. fem. —, e, diametral, diametric, diametrical. Ligne —, diametrical line.

DIAMÉTRALEMENT, adv. dyah-may-tral-màng, adv. 1 diametrically, diametrically. 2 fig. diametrically.

DIAMÈTRE, adv. dyah-maytr, sm. (Gr.) 4 (ligne) diameter. 2 (d'une colonne, of a column) diameter.

DIANDRE, adv. dyàngtr, adj. mf. (Gr.) bot. diandrous, diandrous.

DIANDRIE, adv. dyàng-dree, sf. bot. diandria.

DIANE, adv. dyan, sf. (Lat. Diana) 1 myth. Diana. 2 chem. Arbre de —, silver tree.

DIANE, sf. mil. naut. reveille, morning-gun. Battre la —, to beat the reveille.

DIANTRE, adv. dyàngtr, sm. deuce, the deuce. Au — soit le fou! the deuce take the madman! A qui — en veut-il? what the deuce aims him? Vous avez passé ce — de l'iboue, si fort et si orgueilleux, you have crossed the Rhone, that deuce of a river, so haughty, so proud. N^m de Sév. Elle s'en va au — en Provence, she is gone to P. the deuce knows where. M^m de Sév. Qu'on est aisément amoué par ces — s d'amaux! how easily one is taken in by these deuce animals! Mol.

DIAPASON, adv. dyah-pah-zong, sm. (Gr.) 4 mus. diapason, pitch. Le — de la voix, the compass of the voice. fig. Cela montait mes idées à un — extraordinaire, that raised my ideas to an extraordinary pitch. Nod. fig. C'est le privilège des belles âmes de monter ainsi les autres à leur —, it is the privilege of noble minds thus to raise others to their own level. Lamart.

(instrument) diapason, tuning fork.

DIAPHANE, adv. dyah-fan, adj. mf. (Gr.) phys. diaphanous, transparent, pellucid. Vous Harigou avide et presque —, look at greedily I, almost transparent. Regu.

DIAPHANEITE, adv. dyah-fan-may-e-lay, sf. diaphanicity (de l'air, des gaz, of air, of gases).

DIAPHORÉTIQUE, adv. dyah-fo-ray-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 pharm. diaphoretic, diaphoretic. 2 (substantiv.) diaphoretic.

DIAPHRAGMATIQUE, adv. dyah-fag-mah-tik, adj. mf. diaphragmatic.

DIAPHRAGME, adv. dyah-fragm, sm. (Gr.) 1 anat. med. diaphragm, midriff. 2 bot. diaphragm. 3 optic. diaphragm.

DIAPRÉ, ppa. of diaprer, fem. —, e, adjectiv. variegated, dappled. Un pré de fleurs tout —, a meadow variegated all over with flowers. La Font. Ses cheveux sont à peine — de trois ou quatre fils blancs, her hair is scarcely streaked with three or four white threads. Lamart. Prunes —, violet plums.

DIAPRER, adv. dyah-pray, va. poetic. to diaper, to variegate.

DIARRHÉE, adv. dyah-ray, sf. (Gr.) med. diarrhœa.

DIARTHROSE, adv. dyar-trôz, sf. (Gr.) anat. diarthrosis.

DIASTASE, adv. dyas-laz, sf. (Gr.) surg. chem. diastasis.

DIASTOLE, adv. dyas-toi, sf. physiol. diastole.

DIASTYLE, adv. dyas-teel, sm. (Gr.) arch diastyle.

DIAIONIQUE, adv. dyah-to-nik, adj. mf. (Gr.) mus. diaionic, diaionic.

DIAIONEMENT, adv. dyah-to-nik-màng, adv. mus. diaionically.

DIATRIBÉ, adv. dyah-trib, sf. (Gr.) diatribe, philippic.

DICHOTOME, adv. de-ko-ton, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 astr. dichotomous. 2 bot. dichotomous.

DICHOTOMIE, adv. de-ko-to-mee, sf. (Gr.) astr. bot. dichotomy.

DICOTYLÉDONE, adv. de-ko-te-lay-don, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 bot. dicotyledonous. 2 sm. dicotyledon.

DICOTYLÉDONÉ, adv. de-ko-te-lay-do-nay, adj. m. fem. —, e, bot. dicotyledonous.

DICTAME, adv. dik-tam, sm. 4 bot. dictamnium, dittany. 2 fig. balm. Son indifférence est un puissant —, her indifference is a sure remedy. Aug.

DICTATEUR, adv. dik-tat-ur, sm. (Lat. dictator) 1 (à Rome) dictator. 2 (by extension) dictator. 3 fig. fam. Prendre un ton de —, to assume a dictatorial tone.

DICTATORIAL, adv. dik-tat-o-ryal, adj. m. fem. —, e, dictatorial.

DICTATURE, adv. dik-tat-ur, sf. 1 (à Rome) dictatorship. 2 (by extension) dictatorship, dictatorial power. Une — inattendue, an unexpected dictatorial power. Lamart. fig. Il voulait usurper dans la république des lettres une — perpétuelle, he endeavored to usurp a perpetual dictatorship in the republic of letters. Balz.

DICTÉ, ppa. of dicter, fem. —, e, 4 dictated. La lettre avait été — par M.

the letter had been dictated by M. 2 fig. dictated, suggested. Cette pièce — e évidemment par la nécessité à ce malheureux, that piece, evidently dictated by necessity to the wretched man. Si-B.

DICTÉE, dik-tay, sf. 1 dictation. Ecrire sous la — de quelqu'un, to write from a person's dictation. Faire une — à ses élèves, to make a dictation to one's pupils. 2 (ce qui a été dicté) dictation.

DICTER, dik-tay, ra. (Lat. dictare) 1 to dictate (one letter, a letter). Attendait avec impatience qu'il lui dictât ses dernières volontés, impatiently waiting till he should dictate to him his last will and testament. Aug. Th. — un thème, one version, to dictate an exercise, a version, absol. Il dictait à plusieurs secrétaires à la fois, he dictated to several secretaries at the same time. 2 (suggérer) to suggest, to prompt. On lui a dicté toutes les réponses qu'il a faites, all the answers he made were prompted to him. 3 fig. (inspirer) to dictate, to prompt, to inspire with. Quel chagrin l'a dicté cette parole amère? What grief prompted you that bitter word? Muss. La mort nous dicte des sujets d'étude, death inspires us with subjects of study. Si-B. 4 (prescrire) to dictate, to prescribe. Moïse aux Hébreux dictait sa loi sublime, Moses dictated his sublime law to the Hebrews. Lamart. Elle lui dicta assez peu délicatement ses conditions là-dessous, she prescribed to her rather carelessly her conditions concerning that. Si-B. On lui dicta la conduite qu'il devait tenir, the line of conduct he was to hold was prescribed to him.

DICTION, dik-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 dictio. 2 (manière de débiter un discours, etc.) elocution, delivery.

DICTIONNAIRE, dik-syo-nayr, sm. (Lat. dictionarium) 1 (vocabulaire) dictionary. 2 (recueil par ordre alphabétique) dictionary. — de droit, de chimie, dictionary of law, of chemistry. 3 fig. C'est un — vivant, he is a walking dictionary.

DICTON, dik-long, sm. 1 saying, old saw, by-word. 2 (souvent) (raillerie) biting-jest, quip.

DICTUM, dik-tahm, sm. (Lat.) law, parvium.

DIDACTIQUE, de-dak-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 didactic, didactical. 2 sm. didactic language, didactic style. 3 sf. l'art d'enseigner) didactics, pl.

DIDACTIQUEMENT, di-dak-tik-mang, adv. (little used) didactically.

DIDON, de-dong, sf. Dido.

DIDYME, de-deum, adj. mf. (Gr.) bot. didymous.

DIDYMANIE, de-de-nab-mee, sf. (Gr.) bot. didymania.

DIEDRE, dyaydr', adj. mf. (Gr.) geom. diedral, dihedral.

DIESE, dyayz, sm. (Gr.) 1 mus. diesis, sharp. 2 adjective sharp. Cette note est —, that note is sharp.

DIESE, ppa. of DIESEN, fem. — E, Note — e, sharped note.

DIESER, dyay-ray, ra. mus. to sharp.

DIETE, dyayt, sf. (Gr.) 1 diet. — lactée, — végétale, milk diet, vegetable diet. 2 (privation d'aliments) diet, low diet, regimen. Faire —, to diet. Mettre un malade à la —, to diet a patient. Être à la —, to be on a low diet.

DIER, sf. (Lat. dies) 1 (assemblée) diet. 2 rei. diet.

DIEÉTÉTIQUE, dyay-tay-tik, adj. mf. 1 med. dietetic, dietetical. 2 sf. dietetics, regimen.

DIEÏNE, dyay-teen, sf. (diète particulière) dietine.

DIEU, dyuh, sm. pl. DIEUX, (Lat. deus) 1 God. Jésus-Christ est le fils de —, est — homme, est homme —, Jesus-Christ is the son of God, God made man, God. Le vrai —, the true God. Le — des Chrétiens, the God of the Christians. Être devant —, to stand before God. C'est un homme de —, tout de —, tout en —, he is a godly man. Être abîmé en —, to be lost in God. Par la grâce de —, with the help of God. S'il plaît à —, God willing, please God. Avec l'aide de —, — aidant, God willing. — le veuille, plût à —, — vous entende! God grant it, would to God! A — ne plaise, God forbid. — m'en conserve, God forbid. anc. Ainsi — me soit en aide, ainsi — m'aide, See aide. — vous bénisse, — vous assiste, — vous contente, God bless you, help you. — vous conserve, — vous conduise, — vous le rende, may God keep you, guide you, reward you for it. — vous garde, — vous garde! God keep you! Grâce à — — merci, — soit loué, en soit loué, thank God, God be praised. — merci et vous; — merci, et à vous, thanks to God and you. Pour l'amour de —, for God's sake. Comme pour l'amour de —, slovenly, carelessly. An nom de —, in the name of God, in God's name. Sur mon —, devant —, — m'est témoin, — m'en est témoin, before God, I call upon God to witness. — sait, certainly, indeed; God knows. Si je l'ai fait, — le sait, I never did it, God knows. Ce qu'en arrivera, — le sait, what will come of it, God knows, I don't. — le sache, God knows. Vous me demandez ce que je deviendrai, — le sache, you ask what will become of me, God knows. Entre — et toi, privately. — Bon —! Mon —! Grand —! Juste —! Good God! Heavens! God in Heaven! prov. L'homme propose et — dispose, man does what he can, God what he will. La voix du peuple est la voix de —, the voice of the people is the voice of God; vox populi, vox Dei. Il ne relève que de — et de son épée, he holds only of God and his sword. prov. fig. Ce que femme veut, — le veut, a woman must have her way. Cela lui vient de la grâce de Dieu, lui vient de — grace, that befalls him from God's mercy; it is to God's mercy that he is beholden for that. 2 Le bon — God. Prier le bon —, to pray to God. 3 cath. rel. Le bon —, the Host. On lève le bon —, the Host is being elevated. Porter le bon — à un malade, to carry the Holy Sacrament to a sick person. Recevoir le bon —, to receive the Communion. 4 (divinité païenne) god, deity, divinity. Les faux —, the false gods. Les — de la Fable, the heathen gods. Mettre au rang des —, to deify, to place among the gods. —! Grands —! Mît aux —! good God! I would to God. fig. Promettre, jurer sur ses grands —, to swear by oaths that is good, sacred. fig. Comme un —, divinely, like a divinity. Il parle comme un —, he speaks divinely. fig. Les — de la terre, the Lords of the earth. bi. (les rois, les juges) —, gods. J'ai dit vous êtes des —, I said you were gods. Il sera amené devant les —, he shall be brought before the gods. 5 (celui qui est l'objet d'un grand enthousiasme) fig. god, idol. Ils le regardaient comme leur sauveur et leur —, they considered him as their saviour and their god. Elle adore son mari, c'est son —, she adores her husband, he is her god. Elle est idolâtre de son fils, elle en fait son —, she idolizes her son, she makes a god of him. Faire son —, faire un — de quelque chose, to make one's god, to make a god of a thing. Faire son — de son coffre-fort, to make a god of one's strong-box. Se faire un — de son ventre, to make a god of one's belly. Vous êtes un —, you are a god upon earth.

DIEUDONNÉ, dyuh-do-nay, sm. Heaven-sent, Heaven-born.

DIFFAMANT, de-fab-mang, ppr. of DIFFAMER, adj. m. lem. — E, defamatory, libellous.

DIFFAMATEUR, de-fab-mat-uh, sm. defamer, slanderer, traducer.

DIFFAMATION, de-fab-mah-syong, sf. defamation, aspersion, detraction.

DIFFAMATOIRE, de-fab-mat-war, adj. mf. defamatory, libellous, slanderous. Je crus lire no libelle —, I thought I was reading a libel. Le Sage. Vers —, libellous verses.

DIFFANE, ppa. of DIFFAMER, fem. — E, her. Lion, léopard —, lion, leopard difamed.

DIFFAMER, de-fab-may, ra. to defame, to asperse, to traduce, to libel.

DIFFÈRE, ppr. of DIFFERER, fem. — E, Cela ne peut être —, that cannot be put off. — que cet uni — n'est pas perdu, all is not lost that is delayed.

DIFFÉREMENT, de-fay-rab-mang, adv. differently. Les rois agissent — des peuples, kings act differently from the people.

DIFFÉRENCE, de-fay-rangs, sf. (Lat. differentia) 1 difference, discrepancy. Cela met une grande — entre eux, that makes a great difference between them. — d'âge, — de rang, — de longueur, de largeur, difference in age, in rank, in length, in width. Faire la —, sentir la —, to make a difference, to feel, to perceive the difference. Faire, mettre de la — entre deux choses, entre deux personnes, to make a difference between two things, between two persons. 2 log. difference. 3 math. difference. 4 exch. difference. 5 naut. — du tirant d'eau, the difference in the draught of water.

À LA DIFFÉRENCE, prep. quite contrary to. Il n'avait jamais reçu pension ni faveur, à la — de tant de gens de lettres, he had never received either pension or favour, quite contrary to so many men of letters. Si-B. À la — de l'âge, il sait donner la mort d'un coup de bec, quite contrary to the eagle, he kills with a single stroke of his beak. Mich. Je pense, à la — de vous, que, I think, quite contrary to you, that.

DIFFÉRENCE, ppa. of DIFFÉRENCIA, fem. — E, Ces espèces sont — es par des caractères trop frappants pour, the distinguishing characters of those species are too striking for. Buff.

DIFFÉRENCIER, de-fay-rang-say, ra. nous DIFFÉRENCIONS, vous DIFFÉRENCIEZ, 1 to distinguish. Et ce qui peut nous deux nous —, and what can make a difference between us. Regn. C'est la religion qui différencie les gouvernements, it is religion which makes a difference between governments. J. de Mais. 2 math. See DIFFERENTIAL.

SE DIFFÉRENCIER, ppr. to be distinguished, to differ (from), to be different (from), to be dissimilar (to), to grow different. Fontenelle se différencie profondément des écrivains frivoles qui, F. is widely different from the frivolous writers who. Si-B.

DIFFÉREND, de-fay-rang, sm. 1 (débat) difference, quarrel, dispute, variance. Ils ont un — ensemble, they are at variance together. Voir un —, to settle a dispute. Appaiser, assourir un —, to make up a difference. 2 (différence) entre le prix demandé et le prix offert) difference. Vous en voulez cent francs; je vous en ai offert soixante, partageons le — par la moitié, partageons le —, you ask a hundred francs, I offer you sixty, let us split the difference.

DIFFÉRENT, de-fay-rang, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. differentis) 1 (différent) (from), unlike. Ces deux noms sont-ils donc — s? are those two different names? Flor. Un autre poison peu — à sien, another poison differing little from her own. La Font. Tout — s de la plupart des animaux, quite different from most animals. Mich. Ils sont tous d'un avis —, they are all of a different opinion. — s d'humeur, de langage et d'esprit, unlike in temper, speech, mind. La Font. Opinions — es, different opinions, contrary opinions. Ils sont — s d'opinion, de sentiment, they are unlike in opinion, sentiment. Ce sont choses bien —, those are very different things. Les temps sont —, the times are different. St-B. Etre — de soi-même, to be unlike one's self. Cela est —, bien —, that is different, very different. 2 —, pl. (plusieurs) different, various, diverse. —es personnes l'ont vu, different persons have seen it. Employer — moyens, to employ various means.

DIFFÉRENTIEL, de-fay-rang-syay, adj. m. fem. —, LE, 4 math. differential. Calcul —, differential calculus. Quantité —le, (substantif.) la —le, differential quantity, differential. 2 (qui constitue une différence) Les caractères — de ces deux espèces, the different characteristics of these two species.

DIFFÉRENTIER, de-fay-rang-syay, va. NOUS DIFFÉRENTIONS, VOUS DIFFÉRENTIEZ; QUE NOUS DIFFÉRENTIONS, QUE VOUS DIFFÉRENTIEZ, math. to differentiate.

DIFFÉRER, de-fay-ray, vs. Il DIFFÈRE, TO DIFFERER, ILS DIFFÈRENT, ILS DIFFÈRENT; NOUS DIFFÉRONS, VOUS DIFFÉREZ (Lat. differre) to defer, to delay, to put off, to postpone (une démarche, une affaire, a step, an affair). — un paiement de jour en jour, to delay a payment from day to day.

DIFFÉRER, va. to defer, to delay, to put off, to procrastinate. Ne différez point d'y aller, do not put off going there. Chaque moment que je diffère à m'acquitter de ce devoir semble m'accuser d'ingratitude, every moment's delay in the fulfilment of that duty seems to accuse me of ingratitude. Le Sage. — de jour en jour, to put off from day to day, to procrastinate.

SE DIFFÉRER, vpr. to be delayed, to be put off.

DIFFÉRER, vs. (Lat. differre) (être différent) to differ (from), to be unlike, to be different (from), to be unlike, to disagree. En cela, la méthode du législateur diffère beaucoup de celle du jurisconsulte, in that, the method of the legislator differs greatly from that of the juriconsult. Villem. Les travaux et les paysages seuls différent, the only difference is in the occupation and in the aspects of the country. Chai. Ils différaient d'emboupoint, they were not equally fat. Flor. — d'avis, d'opinion, absol. —, to differ in opinion. Ces deux historiens différent entre eux sur ce point, those two historians disagree on that point.

DIFFICILE, de-fe-seel, adj. mf. (Lat. difficilis) 4 difficult, hard, trying, unaccommodating. Une entreprise — à exécuter, a difficult enterprise, difficult to execute. Un auteur — à entendre, an author hard to be understood. Un chemin — a rough road. Notre existence modeste et souvent —, our modest and oftentimes painful existence. Ab. L'accès en est —, the access to it is difficult. Il ne me serait pas — de vous prouver que, it would not be difficult for me to prove to you that. Il me paraît — de faire mieux, it appears to me difficult to do better. Temps —, hard times. Etre, se trouver dans une position, dans une situation —, to be in a trying situation. Etre — à vivre, être d'un humeur —, d'un naturel, d'un caractère —, to be hard to deal with, to be of an unaccommodating character. D. à quelquefois que humeur —, D. is sometimes hard to please. Nod. — fig. Etre — à manier, to be hard to deal with. — prov. fig. Jeunesse est — à passer, you cannot put old heads on young shoulders. 2 (délicat, exigeant) particular, nice, dainty, squeamish, fastidious. Etre — sur les aliments, to be particular. L'ennui n'est pas — sur le choix des spectacles, ennui is not particular in his choice of amusements. Mery. Son Excellence serait bien —, s'il refusait de, his Excellency would be very hard to please, if he refused to. Le Sage. (substantif.) Faire le —, la —, to be very particular.

DIFFICILEMENT, de-fe-seel-mang, adv. with difficulty.

DIFFICULTÉ, de-fe-kâl-lay, sf. (Lat. difficultas) 4 difficulty (d'une opération, d'une entreprise, of an operation, of an enterprise). Ce travail est pour lui sans —, this work is not difficult for him. Anémie, rien qu'une grande — de vivre, anxiety, nothing but a great difficulty to live. Mich. — de parler, de respirer, difficulty of speaking, shortness of breath. 2 (obstacle, empêchement) difficulty, impediment, hindrance, obstacle. Aucune — de thème on de version n'eût embarrassé la fée, no difficulty either in exercise or version would have embarrassed the fairy. Nod. Surmonter toutes sortes de —, to surmount all kinds of obstacles, to overcome every difficulty. Faire maître des —, to start, to raise difficulties. Examiner, lever, résoudre une —, to examine, to meet, to solve a difficulty. Le nœud, le point de la —, the knotty point. 3 (objection, résistance) difficulty, objection, scruple. Faire des — sur tout, to object to every thing. absol. Faire des —, to raise objections. Elle fit d'abord beaucoup de —, she first raised many objections. Il n'y consentit qu'après beaucoup de —, he did not consent before having raised many objections. prov. fig. Cet homme est le père des —, that man is for ever starting objections. 4 (d'un texte, of a text) difficulty. 5 (différend) difficulty, difference.

SANS DIFFICULTÉ, adv. loc. without difficulty, undoubtedly.

DIFFICULTÉ, de-fe-kâl-tû-uh, mf. fem. DIFFICULTÉ, that starts, raises difficulties. M. de P. devint difficile et —, M. de P. became particular and crochety. St-B. Il avait près de lui un agent peu —, he had with him an agent who was not very scrupulous. St-B. Son humeur était difficileuse, he was of a cross-grained temper. St-B.

DIFORME, de-form, adj. mf. deformed, misshapen, crooked. Visage —, ugly face. Jambes —, crooked leg. Un bâtiment —, a misshapen building. fig. Rien de plus — que le vice, nothing is more deformed than vice.

DIFFORMER, de-for-may, va. — une médaille, to deface a medal.

DIFORMITÉ, de-lor-me-tay, sf. (Lat. deformitas) deformity. Les —s de la taille, the deformity of the waist. La — d'un membre, the deformity of a limb. fig. La — du vice, the deformity of vice.

DIFFRACER, de-frak-tay, va. (Lat. diffringere) phys. to diffract.

SE DIFFRACER, vpr. to be diffracted.

DIFFRACTION, de-frak-syong, sf. phys. diffraction.

DIFFUS, de-fû, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. diffusus) 4 diffuse, wordy, prolix, verbose. L'épître d'être —, I will avoid being diffuse. J.-J. Rouss. Ces mémoires sont — et remplis de façons de parler provinciales, those memoirs are prolix and full of provincial expressions. Le Sage. Style —, diffuse style. 2 bot. Tige —, a diffuse stem.

DIFFUSÉMENT, de-fû-zay-mang, adv. diffusely, wordily, prolixly, verbosely.

DIFFUSIBLE, de-fû-zibi, adj. mf. and sm. med. diffusible.

DIFFUSIF, de-fû-zil, adj. m. fem. diffusiver, phys. Pouvoir —, diffusive power, diffusiveness.

DIFFUSION, de-fû-zyong, sf. (Lat. 4 phys. diffusion. — de la lumière, du son, the diffusion of light, of sound. fig. La — des lumières, the diffusion of knowledge. La — des richesses, the diffusion of riches. 2 fig. (prolixité) diffusiveness, diffusiveness, verbosity, verboseness, prolixity. La — verbuse de ses conseils, the wordy diffusiveness of his advice. Lamart. La — méthodique de ses longues diatribes, the methodical diffusiveness of his long diatribes. Villem.

DIGASTRIQUE, de-gas-trik, adj. mf. (Gr.) anat. digastric.

DIGÉRÉ, ppa. of digérer, fem. —, digested. fig. Une lecture mal —, an ill-digested reading.

DIGÉRER, de-zhay-ray, va. (Lat. digerere) 4 to digest. Il devait promptement — sa nourriture, he must have digested his food easily. Balz. Cela est facile à —, that is easy of digestion. absol. Il digère mal, he has a bad digestion. Ne digérait plus, je compris que, having no longer any digestion, I felt that. 2 — fig. (endurer) to digest, to pocket, to brook, to bear. — un affront, to brook an affront. Quelque menace dure à —, some threat hard to put up with. M^{re} de Sév. J'ai peine à — la chose, I can hardly bring myself to put up with the thing. La Font. On digère tout, hors le mépris, every thing can be put up with, except contempt. Volt. Je ne puis — la trahison de L., I cannot bear the treachery of L. Le Sage. Ces coups de bâton, je ne saurais les —, I cannot forget that cudgelling. Mol. absol. Cela est bien dur à —, that is very hard of digestion; fig. absol. Cela est dur à —, that is hard to swallow. Or cela est fort dur à — que le vice soit par la raison et disposition de Dieu, now it is very hard to believe that vice forms part of God's plan of the universe. Amyot. 3 fig. (examiner à fond) to digest (une affaire, an affair). Cette pensée me fit concevoir un projet que je digérai bien, that thought gave me the idea of a project that I cogitated on. Le Sage. 4 fig. (se rendre compte) to digest. Poor bien lire, il faut — la lecture et la convertir en sa propre substance, that reading may be profitable, it must be digested, and assimilated to one's own substance. Boss.

SE DIGÉRER, vpr. to be digested.

DIGÈRE, vn. chem. to digest.

DIGESTE, de-zhayst, sm. (Lat. digesta) Rom. law. digest.

DIGESTEUR, de-zhayst-tubr, sm. phys. digester.

DIGESTIBILITÉ, de-zhayst-te-be-le-tay, sf. physiol. digestibility.

DIGESTIBLE, de-zhayst-ibil, adj. mf. digestible.

DIGESTIF, de-zhayst-ist, adj. m. fem. n digestive, 4 anat. digestive. Les organes —, the digestive organs. 2 (qui facilite la digestion) digestive. Pastilles digestives, digestive drops. 3 surg. digestive. 4 (substantif) digestive.

DIGESTION, de-zhayst-lyong, sf. (Lat. 4 digestion. Cela est de facile, de dure —, that is easy, hard of digestion. Cela facilite, aide la —, aide la —, trouble, empêche la —, that facilitates, aids, troubles, prevents, digestion. Le tabac doré d'A. me promettait une admirable —, A's golden tobacco promised me an admirable digestion. Ab. fig. Cet affront, ce traitement est de dure —, that affront, treatment is hard to brook; fig. Cela est de dure —, that is hard to digest, to believe. 2 chem. digestion.

DIGITAL, de-zhe-tal, adj. m. fem. —, anat. digital. Nerfs digitaux, digital nerves.

DIGITALE, de-zhe-tal, sf. bot. digitalis, fox-glove.

DIGITATION, de-zhe-tal-syong, sf. anat. digitation.

DIGITÉ, de-zhe-tay, adj. m. fem. —, bot. digitate, digitated. Feuilles —es, digitate leaves.

DIGNE, de-nyuh, adj. mf. (Lat. dignus) 4 worthy, deserving. Il n'est pas — qu'on le regarde, he is not worthy of a regard. Boil. — de foi, de croyance, worthy of belief. Ce témoin est — de foi, this witness is worthy of belief. 2 absol. (honorable, estimable) worthy, deserving. Une mère de famille, a worthy mother of a family. C'est un — sage, he is a worthy man. 3 (grave, composé) dignified. 4 (en conformité avec) worthy. Cela est bien — de vous, c'est une — récompense de vos travaux, it is worthy of you, it is a worthy recompense of all your labour.

DIGNEMENT, de-yuh-nang, adv. 1 decently, worthily, handsomely. Être — récompense, to be handsomely rewarded. 2 Puisse le juste ciel — le payer, may righteous Heaven worthily requite thee. Rac. 2 (convenablement) worthily, properly. Je ne parle pas assez — de la grandeur de ce temple, I cannot find expressions worthy of the grandeur of that temple. Boss.

DIGNITAIRE, de-nyee-tay, sm. officer, dignitary. Les grands —s de l'État, the great dignitaries of the State.

DIGNITÉ, de-nyee-tay, sf. (Lat. dignitas) 1 dignity. Avoir un air de —, to wear an air of dignity. Des manières pleines de —, manners full of dignity. Sa conduite manque de —, his conduct wants dignity. La — d'un sujet, d'une matière, the dignity of a subject, of a matter. ironic. dignity. Elle voulut alors prendre un air de —, an air de — offensée, she then tried to assume an air of dignity, an air of offended dignity. 2 (poste ou grade éminent) dignity. Être constitué en —, to be raised to dignity. Les marques, les insignes d'une —, the marks, the badges of a dignity. 3 (dans certaines églises) dignity. 4 (by extension) (les personnes) dignitary.

DIGON, de-gong, sm. 4 naut. flag-yard. 2 fish. hook.

DIGRESSION, de-gray-syng, sf. (Lat. digression. Permettez-moi en ce lieu une brève — here allow me a short digression. Boss. Se perdre dans des —, to lose one's self in digressions.

DIGLE, dig, sf. Celt. dik) 1 dam, dike, embankment, mound, bank. 2 fig. (obstacle) obstacle, barrier. Quelle — opposer à une telle licence? what barrier can be set up against such license?

DIGNE, de-zhen, adj. mf. (Gr.) bot. dignum, dignous.

DILACÉRER, de-lah-say-ray, ro. (Lat. dilacerare) surg. to dilacerate.

DILAPIDATEUR, de-lah-pe-dat-uh, adj. m. fem. dilapidatrice, i wasteful. 2 (substantif.) dilapidator.

DILAPIDATION, de-lah-pe-dah-syng, sf. dilapidation, waste.

DILAMIDER, de-lah-pe-day, ra. (Lat. dilapidare) to dilapidate, to waste (les finances, the finances).

DILATABILITÉ, de-lah-tab-e-le-tay, sf. phys. dilatability.

DILATABLE, de-lat-abl', adj. mf. phys. dilatate.

DILATANT, de-lat-ang, ppr. of DILATER, sm. surg. dilating.

DILATATION, de-lah-tab-syng, sf. (Lat.) dilatation. La — de l'air, d'une membrane, the dilatation of the air, of a membrane.

DILATÉ, ppa. of DILATER, fem. —E, dilated. Un air trop —, air too dilated. fig. Je souhaite de voir votre cœur —, I wish to see your heart dilated. Mme de Sév. — par une charité toute divine, son cœur, dilated by all-divine charity, her heart. Frays.

DILATER, de-lat-ay, ra. (Lat. dilatare) 1 to dilate, to expand, to enlarge, to distend. Un air plus doux dilatait ses poumons, a milder air dilated his lungs. Saint. (by extension) Elevait ses coudes et dilatait ses épaules, raising her elbows, and expanding her shoulders. Lamart. fig. Ce n'est pas un spectacle à — le cœur, that is not a sight to gladden the heart. Muss. 2 phys. to dilate.

SE DILATER, ppr. to dilate, to expand, to enlarge, to be distended. Tous les corps se dilatent à la chaleur, all bodies dilate with heat. J.-J. Rouss. fig. Dilatex-vous du côté du ciel, let your aspirations tend towards Heaven. Boss.

DILATOIRE, de-lat-wir, adj. mf. law. dilatory.

DILEMME, de-lem, sm. (Lat. dilemma) dilemma.

DILÉTTANTE, de-lét-tang, sm. (It.) dilettante, pl. dilettanti.

DILÉTTANTISME, de-lét-tang-tism', sm. dilettantism.

DILIGEMENT, de-le-zhah-mang, adv. 4 expediently, speedily. 2 (avec soin, exactement) diligently.

DILIGENCE, de-le-zhahng, sf. (Lat. diligentia) 1 expedition, despatch, speed. Travailler avec —, en —, en grande —, to work expeditiously, with all despatch. Le rat court en —, the rat hastens to. La Fout. Faire —, faire grande —, to make all possible haste. Ce courrier a fait —, grande —, that courier has ridden post haste. 2 (soin) diligence, care, assiduity. 3 law. suit. À la — d'un tel, at the suit of such a one. 4 (voiture publique) coach, stage-coach. 5 anc. — d'eau, passage-boat.

DILIGENT, de-le-zhahng, adj. m. fem. —s, (Lat. diligens) 1 (prompt) expeditious, speedy, prompt. 2 (soigneux, vigilant) careful, diligent, assiduous. 3 (des choses, of things) quick, assiduous. Courant d'un pas —, hastening to. La Font.

DILIGENTER, de-le-zhahng-tay, ro. to hasten, to despatch, to urge on.

SE DILIGENTER, ppr. to hasten, to make haste.

DILUVIEN, de-lü-vyang, adj. m. fem. —s, (Lat. diluvium) diluvial, diluvial. (hyperb.) Il tombe une pluie —, the flood-gates of heaven are open.

DILUVION, de-lü-vyang, DILUVIUM, de-lü-vyuhm, sm. (Lat.) geol. diluvium, diluvium.

DIMANCHE, de-mangsh, sm. (Lat. dominica) Sunday, the Sabbath, the Lord's day. Le premier — du mois, the first Sunday of the month. Le — de Pâques, Easter Sunday. — gras, Shrove Sunday. prov. Tel qui rit vendredi, — pleurera, he who laughs on Friday may weep on Sunday; after sweet meat comes sour sauce.

DIME, deem, sf. (Lat. decima) tithe. La — des blés, du vin, the tithes on corn, on wine. Grosses —s, great tithes. Menues —s, small tithes. Verbes —s, prædial tithes.

DIMENSION, de-mang-syng, sf. (Lat. dimension) dimension. fig. Prendre ses —s dans une affaire, to see about a thing.

DIMER, de-may, 1 pn. to dine, to take tithe. fig. Un pain noir dont chaque mendiant vient — une tranche, a loaf of black bread a slice of which is given to each beggar. Lamart. 2 (avoir le droit de lever la dime) to raise tithes.

DINEUR, de-muhr, sm. tithe-gatherer, tithe-collector.

DIMINUÉ, ppa. of DIMINUER, fem. —E, diminished, lessened, abated. 2 mus. diminished. Seconde —E, diminished second.

DIMINUER, de-me-nuy, ro. (Lat. diminuire) to diminish, to lessen, to curtail, to retrench, to impair. — sa dépense, to retrench one's expenses. Cela ne diminue pas l'orgueil que j'avais déjà, that did not diminish the pride that I already had. Le Sage. Ne diminuez en rien votre sainte autorité, waive nothing of your sacred authority. Balz. Elle m'assurait que le temps diminuait sa douleur, she assured me that time lessened her grief. Chat. Le duc de B. ayant ainsi fort diminué sa renommée, the duke of B. having thus forfeited a great part of his renown. Bar.

DIMINUER, pn. 4 to diminish, to lessen, to shorten, to grow shorter, to abate, to go down, to fall. Les jours diminuent, the days are growing shorter. Ces destructeurs utiles vont diminuant peu à peu, those useful destroyers are slowly disappearing. Mich. Les eaux diminuent, the waters are going down. Sa fièvre commence à —, his fever begins to abate.

Non esprit diminue, my faculties are being impaired. La Fout. Cette denrée diminue de prix, the price of that commodity is going down. Est-ce à dire que la mort puisse — jamais? does that mean that death can ever diminish? Mich. 2 naut. — de voiles, to shorten sails. Le fond diminue, we shall soon get to the bottom. 3 (maigrir) to fall away. Il diminue à vue d'œil, he is visibly falling away.

DIMINUTIF, de-me-nü-if, adj. m. fem. diminutive. (Lat. diminutivus) 1 diminutive. 2 sm. diminutive. 3 sm. (d'un mot) diminutive.

DIMINUTION, de-me-nü-syng, sf. (Lat.) diminution, decrease, abatement, reduction, lessening, curtailment, retrenchment. — de prix, fall, reduction of prices. Faire —, one —, to make some abatement, a diminution.

DIMISSOIRE, de-mis-swär, sm. dimissory letters.

DIMISSORIAL, de-mis-so-ryal, adj. m. fem. —E, Letters —s, dimissory letters.

DINATOIRE, de-nau-twar, adj. mf. that serves as a dinner. Dejeuner —, a late and copious breakfast.

DINDE, dangl, sf. 4 orn. turkey, turkey-hen. fig. C'est une —, aae grande —, she is a goose, a great goose. 2 (improperly) sm. (coq d'inde) turkey. Un gros —, a big turkey.

DIXON, dang-dong, sm. in the sing., masc. only; in the plur. masc. and fem. (coq d'inde) turkey, turkey-cock. fig. Il en sera la —, he will be the dupe. fig. Garder les —s, to retire into the country. prov. Bête comme un —, as silly as a goose. Gourmand comme un —, as greedy as a pig. Colère comme un —, as furious as a turkey.

DIXONNEAU, dang-do-nn, sm. young turkey.

DINDONNIER, dang-do-nyay, sm. fem. DINDONNIÈRE, 4 keeper of turkeys. 2 anc. fig. (disparagingly) country dandy. 3 adjective. La gent dindonnaire, the turkey tribe. La Font.

DINEE, de-nay, sf. 4 (repas) dinner. 2 (lieu place where one dines).

DINER, de-nay, pn. to dine. — en ville, to dine out. — à table d'hôte, to dine at an ordinary. Dîner à —, to give a dinner. — d'un morceau de bœuf, to dine on a piece of beef. pop. Il me semble que j'ai dîné quand je le vis, my appetite is gone when I see him, prov. fig. Qui dort dine, he who sleeps wants no dinner. Dîner —, 4 (repas) dinner. A l'heure du —, at dinner-time, at the dinner-hour, at pudding-time. Faire un bon —, to eat a good dinner. Après —, after dinner. Après le —, when dinner was over. A l'issue du —, on rising from the dinner-table. J'étais de ce —, I was one of that dinner-party. J'étais à ce —, I was at that dinner. Déjeuner —, grand breakfast. 2 (les mets) dinner. Faire le —, to cook the dinner.

DINETTE, de-net, sf. (dim. of dîner) doll's dinner. Faire la —, to play at dinner.

DINEUR, de-nuhr, sm. fem. dineuse, 1 diner. 2 (celui dont le repas principal est le dîner) diner. 3 C'est un beau —, he is a great eater.

DIOCESAIN, dyo-say-sang, sm. fem. —E, 1 inhabitant of a diocese. 2 (adjective.) diocesan. Clergé —, diocesan clergy. Evêque —, diocesan.

DIOCESE, dyo-sayz, sm. (Gr.) diocese, diocess. La — de Paris, the diocess of P.

DIONÉE, dyo-nay, sf. (Gr.) 4 myth Dionaea. 2 bot. diosnea.

DIOPTRIQUE, dyop-trik, sf. (Gr.) 4 phys. dioptric. 2 (adjective.) dioptric, dioptrial.

DIORAMA, dyo-rah-mah, sm. (Gr.) diorama.

DIPHTHONGUE, dif-tong-guh, sf. (Gr.) gram. diphthong.

DIPLOMATE, de-plo-mat, sm. 1 diplomatist. 2 (adjective) diplomatic.

DIPLOMATIE, de-plo-ma-tie, sf. 1 (science) diplomacy. 2 (collective) the ambassadors, etc. 3 diplomacy.

DIPLOMATIQUE, de-plo-mat-ik, sf. diplomacies.

DIPLOMATIQUE, adj. mf. 1 diplomatic. diplomatical. 2 Agent — diplomatic agent. Corps — diplomatic body.

DIPLOMATISTE, de-plo-mat-ist, sm. a person versed in diplomacies.

DIPLOME, de-plôm, sm. (Gr.) 1 diploma. 2 (d'une faculté, d'une société, etc.) diploma. — de docteur en médecine, a doctor's diploma. — de docteur en droit, a doctor's diploma. — a physician's diploma, the diploma of a doctor of law. — d'avocat, barrister's diploma.

DIPTERE, dip-tayr, sm. (Cr.) 1 zool. dipter, dipteran. (adjective) dipterous. dipteral. Insectes — s, diptera. 2 arch. dipteral.

DIPTYQUES, dip-tik, sm. pl. (Gr.) 1 diptych. 2 paleog. diptych, diptychum. 3 paint, decr.

DIRE, deyr, va. trans. DIT; JE DIS, TU DIS, IL DIT, NOUS DISONS, VOUS DITES, ILS DISENT; JE DISAIS, NOUS DISIONS; JE DIRAI, TU DIRAS, IL DIRA, NOUS DIRONS; JE DIRAIS; DIS, DITES; QU'ILS DISENT; QUE JE DISSE; (Lat. dicere) 1 to say, to tell, to mean, to speak, to state, to intimate. J'ai à vous — un mot, I have a word to say to you. Il ne disait mot, he said not a word. L'ours en deux jours ne disait pas deux mots, the bear in two days did not say two words. La Font. Ayant dit ces mots, il s'en alla, having said these words, he went away. C'est tout ce que vous avez à me — ? that is all you have to say to me? Que vous a-t-il dit de moi? what did he say to you about me? Qu'on dise quelque chose ou qu'on ne dise rien, whether anything is said or not. La Font. Tout ce qu'il dit n'est que mensonge, whatsoever he says is nothing but falsehood. Voici ce qu'il nous disait, this is what he said to us. Le dien, dites, si vous voulez, le démon, a passé par là, the God, say if you will, the demon, has been there. St-B. Quoique je die, vous ne me dites point, plus d'Émilie, whenever I say, you do not say, no more of E. Corn. Qu'on me die en quoi vous valez mieux que cent peuples divers, let me be told in what you are superior to a hundred different nations. La Font. Non, je n'ai pas bien dit tout ce qu'il faut lui —, no, I have not said to him all there is to be said. Rac. Étranger, que dis-je, esclave dans l'E., a foreigner, what do I say, a slave in E. R. Son sujet vous ôuvient, je n'en dirai pas plus, the subject suits you, I shall say no more about it. La Font. Quelque chose de toi que je ne puis — reste pour moi dans l'air où tu passes, I feel something of you that I cannot express in the air you have breathed. B. de St-P. Comme disait ce brave homme, as that good man said. On a dit de vous que, it has been said of you that. Que voulez-vous — le père? what did the father mean? La Font. Il ne sait ce qu'il dit, he does not know what he says. Vous ai-je dit le contraire? did I tell you the contrary? Homme, oiseau, toute la nature, nous disons la même chose, men, bird, all nature says the same thing. Mich. Qui vous dit le contraire? who says the contrary? — son avis, his sentiment. to state one's reasons. — beaucoup en peu de mots, to say a great deal in a few words. — des injures à quelqu'un, to call a person names. Il va disant partout, wherever he goes he says. — du bien, du mal de quelqu'un, to speak well, highly, to speak ill of a person. Vous venez de — une sottise, you

have just said a foolish thing. Ce n'est pas cela que j'ai voulu — that is not what I meant. Dites-moi, quand viendrez-vous me voir? I say, when will you come and see me? Dis-moi, dis-moi bien vite, sans plus tarder, s'il m'importe, tell me, tell me directly, without hesitation, whether he is deserving. Sand. Oui, dit-il, j'y consens, yes, said he, I consent to it. Dis, y consens-tu now then, do you consent? Allez, vous pouvez vous retirer, me dit-il, go, you may withdraw, said he to me. J'ai dit à mon cœur, à mon triste cœur, I said to my heart, to my sorrowful heart. Moss. Ces mélodies que disent d'une voix lente les laborieuses, those melodies that husbandmen repeat in slow accents. G. Sand. absolt. Allons, dis, now then, out with it. Laissez — et allez toujours votre train, let people talk and pay no attention to what they say. L'art de bien —, the art of speaking well. Il dit, he said. J'ai —, I have said. — la bonne aventure, to tell fortunes. — à quelqu'un son fait, to give a person a piece of one's mind. — des sottises, to talk nonsense. Que trouvez-vous à — à cela? what fault do you find with that? || what do you find amiss in that? Il y a bien à —, beaucoup — à — là-dessus, there is much to be said on that. (by analogy) Qu'en voulez-vous — ? what fault do you find with it? Il n'y a réellement rien à —, cela est fort bien, there is no fault to be found with it, it is very well indeed. Je n'ai rien à —, I have no fault to find. On lui —, there is certainly nothing to do him against him. Il n'y avait jamais rien eu à — sur le compte de M. R., there had been any thing to be laid to the charge of M. R. Il y a bien à —, there is a great difference. (by analogy) Il y a tout à —, there is all the difference in the world. Il n'y a pas à —, it is of no use. Il n'y a pas à —, it faut me suivre, it is of no use talking, you must follow me. Il a beau —, it is of no use for him to talk. Vous avez beau —, je ne vous crois pas, it is of no use your saying, I don't believe you. Cela soit dit en passant, (ellipse) soit dit en passant, let it be said by the way. R., qui l'eût dit R., who would have thought it? Corn. Qui vous a dit que, who tells you, who told you that. Qui vous a dit que j'ai cette intention? who told you that I have that intention? S'il ne dit mot, il n'en pense pas moins, if he says nothing, he thinks no less. C'est tout —, pour tout — en un mot, that includes every thing; to sum up all in one word. A vrai —, à vrai, to tell the truth; properly speaking. Cela vous plaît à —, you are pleased to say so. Di-sons-le, we must say. Disons mieux, or rather; let us speak more correctly. Pour mieux —, que dis-je? or rather. Que dis-je, me flatte, j'espère, I say, or rather I hope, I flatter myself. Rac. Fuyons dans la nuit infernale, mais que dis-je! mon père, etc. let me seek a refuge in the depth of hell, but what do I say! my father, etc. Rac. Que voulez-vous — ? what do you mean?

On dit, it is said. it is reported. Voilà, dit-on, la cause de leur brouille, that is said to be the cause of their falling out. (substantiv.) Ce n'est qu'un on dit, it is but an idle report. Croire sur un on dit, sur des on dit, to believe on report. Condamner quelqu'un sur un on dit, sur des on dit, to condemn a person on hearsay. On dit, it is said, they say. On dit métaphoriquement, cet homme est un lion, pour — que c'est un homme plein de courage, it is said metaphorically, that man is a lion, to intimate that he is a man full of courage.

C'est-à-dire, that is, that is to say. L'âme, c'est-à-dire — le principe intelligent, the soul, that is to say, the intelligent principle. Vous serez entièrement libre, c'est-à-dire — que vous serez ce que vous voudrez, you will be quite free, that is, you may do as you please. Je venx —, I mean. C'est-à-dire, that is to say, which means. C'est donc à — que vous ne voulez pas obéir, that is as much as to say that you will not obey. Ce n'est pas — pour cela que, — que, it does not follow that. Pour ainsi —, as it were. See above. Pour ainsi —, an homme bien-disant, a well-spoken man. G. Le cœur me le disait bien, my mind forewarned me, had forewarned me. G. Si le cœur vous en dit, if you have a mind for it. G. S'il vient à bout de ce qu'il a entrepris, j'irai le — à Rome, if he succeeds in what he has undertaken, I'll be hanged. G. Il dit d'or, he speaks eloquently. G. — yis que pendre de quelqu'un, to say every thing that is bad against a person. prov. Cela va sans —, that follows as a matter of course. Il va sans — que, of course.

2 (by analogy) to say, to write. Voilà ce qu'il me dit dans sa lettre, that is what he says to me in his letter. Sur Molière, how many excellent pages has J. J. written on M. St-B.

3 fig. (that which does the law say). Que dit le loif? what does the law say? La guerre est mot dit toutes les émotions, war is all emotions are included in that word. Mich. Que l'a dit le malheur quand tu l'as consulté? what did misfortune say to you when you consulted it? Muss. Que veut — ce mot, cette phrase? what does this word, this phrase mean? what is the meaning of this word, this phrase?

4 (by extension) (faire connaître, raconter) to relate, to tell, to describe. — tous les soins maternels, c'est ce que nous ne ferons pas, to describe all the motherly care, is what we shall not do. Mich. Il disait avec éloquence ses ambitions trahies, he eloquently described the ruin of his ambitious hopes. Sand. Je ne me déciderai jamais à — sa vie, I shall never make up my mind to relate his life. St-B. Pour — les choses que nous elles se passent, to relate things as they fell out. Le Sage.

La Bible nous dit les ravissements des Israélites, the Bible describes the transports of the Israelites. Mich. — un secret, to tell a secret. 5 poetic. (célébrer, chanter) to celebrate, to sing. L'étranger dit nos rivages plus doux que le pays natal, the foreigner praises our shores as being more genial than his own native country. V. Hug. Je dirai vos exploits, I will sing your exploits. V. Hug. Dis-moi, ô muse! sing, O muse! 6 (by extension) (avertir, prévenir) to tell. Il a, m'a-t-on dit, l'intention de vous écrire, he intends, I have been told, to write to you. Je lui ai dit de ne pas craindre, I told him not to be afraid. Je lui ai envoyé — de venir, I have sent him word to come. Allez lui — que je l'attends, go and tell him that I am waiting for him. Je lui ai fait — que j'allais passer chez lui, I sent him word that I was going to call on him. Dites-lui qu'il se hâte, tell him to make haste. Je vous l'avais bien dit, I told you so. 7 (by extension) (ordonner, conseiller) to tell, to desire, to bid. Je vous dis de sortir, I tell you to go out. Qui vous a dit de le faire? who desired you to do it? On vous a dit de faire silence, you have been bid to be silent. Il leur dit de fuir au plus tôt, he told them to flee immediately. Je t'en ai que tu dis, I will do what you tell me. 8 (by extension) (déclarer, affirmer) to tell, to assert. Je te dis que c'est lui, I tell you it is he. Qui te dit qu'il ne me ment pas? how do you know he does not lie? Oseriez-vous — que cela est vrai? dare you assert that is true?

9 (dehiter, réclamer) to say, to repeat. — sa leçon, to say one's lessons. — des vers, to recite verse. — ses heures, son chapelet, son bréviaire, to say one's hours, one's chapel, one's breviary. absol. Cet acteur dit bien, that actor has a good delivery. — la messe, to say mass.

10 (joger, croire, penser) to say, to think. Que — d'une pareille conduite? what can be said of such conduct? On édit dit qu'il était fou, one would have thought he was mad. Qu'est-ce à —? what is the meaning of this? On édit dit d'un dévoué, you would have thought him a madman. On dirait d'un médecin corièux qui dérit avec amour une malade, one would have set him down as an enthusiastic physician describing a disease on amoré. Ste-B. Ces nobles et lundres colonnes qu'on aurait dites d'un temple, that seemed to belong to a temple. Mich. Se moquer da qu'en dira-t-on, être au-dessus da qu'en dira-t-on, braver le qu'en dira-t-on, not to care about what people say. Être sensible au qu'en dira-t-on, to be very sensitive to the opinion of others.

11 (offrir, proposer) to say, to bid. J'ai trouvé toutes ces étoffes si chères que je n'en ai rien dit, I found all those stuffs so dear, that I offered no price, that I bid nothing. Dites-en un prix raisonnable, si vous voulez que j'achète, ask a reasonable price, if you wish me to buy. 12 fig. (des choses, of things) (manifeste, exprimer) to say, to signify, to denote, to mean. Leur silence vous en dit assez, you may learn enough from their silence. Que veut — ce retard? what does this delay signify? Cette valse, que dit-elle donc? this waltz, what is the tune of it? Muss. Que veut — ceci? what is the meaning of this. La Font. Je ne sais ce que cela veut —, mais je ne me sens pas bien, I don't know what is the matter with me, but I don't feel well. Vous ne regardez bien froidement, que voulez-vous — par là? you give me very cold looks, what do you mean by that? Cette femme a de beaux yeux, mais ils ne disent rien, this woman has fine eyes, but they are not expressive. Cette chose ne dit rien, it is a thing of no importance. Cela ne dit rien au cœur, à l'âme, that does not come home to the heart. Ce monde qui ne me disait rien et que je n'entendais pas, this world that had no charm for me and which I understood not. Chat. Cela ne dit rien, that has nothing to do with it. Cela ne dit rien, vous auriez dû y aller, that is nothing to the purpose, that does not signify, you ought to have gone thither.

SE DIRE, vpr. 1 (être dit) to be said, told, stated, expressed, spoken. Ce sont là des choses qui ne se disent pas, those are things that are not said. J'ai une faim qui ne peut se —, I can't describe how hungry I am. Ce mot ne se dit pas, that word is not said. Cela ne se dit plus, that is no longer said. Ce proverbe se dit en parlant de, that proverb is used in speaking of. 2 Se — quelque chose à soi-même, to say a thing to one's self. Heureux celui qui peut se —: j'ai fait mon devoir, happy he who can say to himself, I have done my duty. Il se disait avec orgueil que tout cela était à lui, he said to himself with pride that all that was his. Sand. On ne le leur disait pas, mais ils se le diraient à eux-mêmes, nobody would tell them, but they would be conscious of it themselves. Ste-B. 3 (dire entre soi, se dire l'un à l'autre) to say to each other. As-in entendu ce qu'ils se disaient quand nous sommes entrés, did you hear what they were saying to each other when we entered. Sand. Je ne perdais pas un mot de ce qui se disait autour de moi, I did not lose a word of what was said in my hearing. Ab. Je voudrais bien savoir ce que ces oiseaux se disent en leur langage. I would fain know what those birds are saying to each other in their language. Le Sage. Ils ne tarderont pas à se — des injures, they were not long before calling one another names. 4 (s'assurer mutuellement) to tell each other. L'on est encore longtemps à se — de bouche que l'on s'aime, lorsque, assurances of mutual love still continue to be given a long time when. La Bruy. 5 (prétendre) to give one's self out for, to profess to be. — il se disait votre parent, he gave himself out to be one of your relatives. Il se dit très-babile, he professes to be very skilful. law. Soi-disant, professing to be. ironic. self-called, self-styled, so-called, would-be. Un soi-disant gentilhomme, a would-be nobleman.

DIRE, sm. 1 say, saying, words, statement, account, report. An — de tout le monde, by every body's account, by all accounts. An — des anciens, according to the ancients. Le — d'un adjudant de police avait ouvert et refermé ce tombeau impur, the report of an adjutant of police had opened and closed again this foul prison. Ph. Chas. La vigueur de son attitude et de son —, the firmness of his attitude and words. Ste-B. On l'interrogea et il maintint son —, he was interrogated and he abided by what he said. Ste-B. Je reviens à mon —, I return to what I was saying. La Font. Il accomplit son —, he kept his word. La Font. C. maintenant son — et son jugement, C. maintaining his expressions and opinion. Ste-B. Le bien —, elegance, elegance of speech. vpr. Le bien-faire vaut mieux que le bien —, actions speak louder than words. 2 law. Le — des témoins, the deposition of the witnesses. Proverbe son —, to prove one's allegation. An — des experts, in the opinion of the experts. A — d'experts, according to experts, according to official estimation. 3 law. (moyens, défense) On a inséré dans le procès-verbal le — du défendeur, the words of the defendant were inserted in the report.

DIRECT, de-rekt, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 direct, straight, right. En ligne — e, in a direct line. fig. Reproche — e avec quelqu'un. Être en opposition — e avec quelqu'un to be in direct opposition with a person. Harangue — e, discours —, direct speech. 2 (by extension) (immédiat) direct, immediate. Rapport —, immediate connection. 3 Contributions — es, SE CONTRIBUTIONS. 4 general. Ligne — e, direct line. 5 astr. Mouvements — s, direct motions. 6 optie. Rayon —, direct ray. 7 feud. law. Seigneur —, lord paramount. 8 gram. Régime —, complément —, direct regimen. 9 log. Proposition — e, direct proposition. 10 math. phys. La raison — e de deux quantités, the direct reason of two quantities.

DIRECTE, de-rekt, sf. feud. lordship, domain.

DIRECTEMENT, de-rekt-mag, adv. 1 directly, direct, straight. fig. Aller — à son but, to go straight to the point. 2 (sans intermédiaire) directly, immediately. Correspondre — avec quelqu'un, to correspond directly with a person. Tout ce qui se rapporte — à la question, what is in immediate connection with the question — opposé, — contraire, quite opposed, contrary. — en face, exactly opposite.

DIRECTEUR, de-rek-tubr, sm. lem. directrice, director, manager, governor; (d'un théâtre, of a theatre) manager. La directrice d'un pensionnat, the directress of a boarding-school. Une directrice des postes, a post-mistress. (particul.) Le — de l'Académie française, the director of the French Academy. — de conscience, —, father-confessor, spiritual director, DIRECTION, de-rek-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 direction, management, conduct; (d'un théâtre, of a theatre) management. 2 (administration) direction. La — générale des postes, the General Postmaster's office. 3 (côté) direction. Être dans la — d'un objet, to be exactly opposite an object. fig. Ses idées avaient pris une autre —, his ideas had taken another direction.

DIRECTOIRE, de-rek-twâr, sm. 1 directory. 2 Fr. Rev. — exécutif, Directory.

DIRECTORIAL, de-rek-to-ryal, adj. m. fem. — e, directorial.

DIRECTRICE, de-rek-trees, sf. geom. directrix, dirigent.

DIRIGE, ppa. of DIRIGER, fem. — e, adjective. turned, directed. Tout le bled avait été — sur Rome, all the corn had been sent off to Rome. Tous les yeux étaient — s de ce côté, all eyes were turned this side. fig. Des poursuites avaient été — es contre lui, proceedings had been taken against him. Dans les colonnes — es contre les grands hommes, among the columns aimed at great men. V. Hug.

DIRIGEANT, de-re-zhang, ppr. of DIRIGER, adj. m. fem. — e, leading, directing. Il ne fut jamais ministre —, he never was a leading minister. Ste-B.

DIRIGER, de-re-zhay, va. nous DIRIGENS, JE DIRIGAI. (Lat. dirigere) 1 to direct, to manage, to guide. — des travaux, une entreprise, to direct works, an undertaking. — un théâtre, to manage a theatre. Les mêmes personnes dont l'opinion l'avait dirigée toute sa vie, the same persons whose opinions had directed her through her whole life. B. de St-P. 2 (faire aller, tourner) to send on, to turn, to bend. — ses pas, sa course, son vol vers quelque endroit, to bend one's steps, one's course, one's flight towards a place. — ses regards sur un objet, to bend one's looks on an object. fig. — son attention sur quelque chose, to turn one's attention to a thing.

SE DIRIGER, vpr. 1 (se conduire) to conduct, to guide one's self. 2 (aller vers) to bend, to direct one's steps towards, to turn (to, towards).

DIS, diss, prefix. dis.

DISANT, de-zang, ppr. of DIRE, Bien —, sol —, SE DIRE.

DISCALE, dis-kal, sf. com. shrinking.

DISCERNABLE, de-sayr-nabl', adj. mf. discernible.

DISCERNEMENT, de-sayr-mang, sm. 1 discernment, distinction. Dieu fera le dernier jour un — général, at the last day God will make a general distinction, division. Boss. 2 (beauté) discernment. Esprit de —, discrimination. Agir sans —, to act without discernment.

DISCERNER, de-sayr-nay, va. (Lat. discernere) 1 to discern, to distinguish. Elles regrettaient de ne pouvoir — ses traits à travers ses cheveux raux, they regretted not being able to discern his features through his red hair. Nod. Je discernai, comme à travers d'une gaze, le teint plombé de, I discerned, as through gauze, the leaden-hued complexion of. Nod. 2 fig. (faire la distinction) to discern. Discernerez-vous si mal le crime et l'innocence? are you so little able to discern between crime and innocence? Rae.

DISCIPLE, de-sipil', sm. (Lat. discipulus) 1 disciple, scholar. 2 (celui qui suit la doctrine d'un autre) disciple, follower. Les — s de Jésus-Christ, the disciples of Christ. (particul.) (les apôtres) the apostles. fig. Les — s de la vérité, of the faith, the followers of the truth, of the faith.

DISCIPLINABLE, de-se-ple-nabl', adj. mf. disciplinable.

DISCIPLINAIRE, de-se-ple-nayr, adj. mf. disciplinary. Peine —, disciplinary punishment.

DISCIPLINE, de-se-pleen, sf. (Lat.)

disciplina 1 discipline, 2 (règle) discipline. — militaire, —, military discipline. Conseil de —, council of discipline. 3 (sorte de fouet) discipline, scourge. 4 (coups) Donner la —, to give the discipline. Meriter la —, to deserve the discipline.

DISCIPLINER, ppa. of DISCIPLINER, fem. —s, 1 disciplined. 2 Etre —, to receive the discipline.

DISCIPLINER, de-se-pli-nay, ra. 1 to discipline (une maison, a house). 2 (habitué à une règle) to discipline (des soldats, soldiers). 3 (donner la discipline) to discipline, to give the discipline.

se DISCIPLINER, vpr. to become disciplined.

DISCOBOLE, dis-ko-bol, sm. (Gr.) antiq. discobolus.

DISCONTINUER, dis-kong-te-nũ, adj. m. fem. —s, discontinuous.

DISCONTINUATION, dis-kong-te-nũ-sh-yong, sf. discontinuance. Travailler à quelque chose sans —, to work at a thing without intermission.

DISCONTINUER, dis-kong-te-uay, ra. 1 to discontinue, to intermit. Je vous en conjure, discontinuez vos travaux, I conjure you to discontinue your labours. Batez —, de faire quelque chose, to leave off doing a thing. 2 (intransitivement) to leave off. Il a pluie n'a pas discontinué depuis hier, the rain has not left off since yesterday.

DISCONVENANCE, dis-kong-ngang, sf. disproportion, disparity, unsuitableness, incongruity.

DISCONVENIR, dis-kong-ngay, vn. conj. like VENIR, to deny, to disown. Vous ne pouvez — de cela, you cannot deny that. Il n'en a pas découvert, he did not say to the contrary.

DISCORD, dis-kor, adj. m. (Lat. discors) mus. out of tune.

DISCORD, sm. obsol. disaccord. Etre en —, to be in discord. — Leurs sanglants —s ont fait des meurtriers et ont point fait des traitres, their bloody dissensions have made murderers and no traitors. Corn.

DISCORDANCE, dis-kor-dang, sf. discordance, discordancy (des sons, des couleurs, of sounds, of colours; des esprits, des caractères, of minds, of tempers). Ailleurs on sent cette — entre le sol et l'habitant, elsewhere is felt this discordance between the soil and its inhabitant. Sie-B.

DISCORDANT, dis-kor-dang, adj. m. fem. —s, 1 mus. discordant, dissonant, inharmonious, harsh, unmusical. Instrument —, discordant instrument. (by analogy) Chant —, discordant singing. 2 (by extension) discordant, jarring. Des couleurs —es, discordant colours. fig. Opinions —es, jarring opinions. Caractères —s, discordant characters.

DISCORDE, dis-kord, sf. (Lat. discordia) 1 discord, dissension. Semer la —, to sow the seeds of discord. Nourrir, fomentier la —, to sow discord, to foster discord. fig. Pomme de —, the apple of discord. 2 myth. Discord.

DISCORDER, dis-kor-day, vn. mus. to discord.

DISCOUREUR, dis-koo-rur, sm. fem. DISCOURSER, great talker. Ils ne furent que des —s quelquefois sublimes, they were nothing but talkers sometimes sublime. Lamart. Faire le —, to affect to speak well, to make long-winded speeches.

DISCOURIR, dis-koo-reer, vn. conj. like COURIR, to discourse, to expatiate, to descant. Pendant que je discours sur la géographie humerique, whilst I am discoursing on Humeric geography. Th. Gaut. On en discoursait à perte de vue, the wildest conjectures were made concerning it. Sie-B. Les vieillards de mon pays ont discoursé avec les vieillards du tien, the old men of my country have discoursed with the old men of yours. Chat, absol.

Ne faire que —, to do nothing but talk idly.

DISCOURS, dis-koor, sm. 1 discourse, speech. Reprendre le fil du —, to resume the thread of one's discourse. 2 gram. Les dix parties du —, the ten parts of speech. 3 (propos) talk, conversation. De vains —s, idle talk. Trêve de —, a truce of talking. Changements de —, let us change the subject. 4 (discours frivoles, en l'air) small talk. 5 (harangue) harangue, speech, oration, discourse, treatise.

DISCOURTOIS, dis-koor-twã, adj. m. fem. —s, obsol. discourteous, uncivil.

DISCOURTOISIE, dis-koor-twã-zee, sf. obsol. discourtesy.

DISCREDIT, dis-kray-dec, sm. discredit, disgrace. Le — des assignats, the discredit of the assignats. Il fut des lors en — auprès du prince, he was then in disgrace with the prince.

DISCREDITÉ, ppa. of DISCREDITER, fem. —s, discredited. Papier —, discredited paper. Actions de banque —es, discredited bank-stock. Voyant le geure historique, finding the historical style in discredit, Muss.

DISCREDITER, dis-kray-de-tay, ra. to discredit, to bring into discredit, into disrepute (une marchandise, un papier-monnaie, an article, paper-money).

DISCRET, dis-kray, adj. m. fem. DISCRETE, 1 discreet, judicious, cautious, unobtrusive. Elles étoient trép discrettes pour nous faire part de leurs impressions, they were too prudent to communicate to us their impressions. Sie-B. (by analogy) Il en a usé d'une manière tout à fait discrète, he has acted in a very cautious manner. 2 (qui sait garder un secret) reserved, close-forged. 3 math. Quantité discrète, discrete quantity. 4 med. Petite verole discrète, discrete small-pox.

DISCRETÈMENT, dis-kret-mang, adv. discreetly, judiciously, cautiously, unobtrusively, reservedly.

DISCRETION, dis-kray-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 discretion, reserve, cautiousness. Agir, parler avec —, to act, to speak warily. User d'une chose avec —, to be prudent in the use of a thing. 2 (particulièrement) (fidélité à garder un serment) secrecy. Il est d'une très-grande —, he is very close. Sortout de la — I mind I must go no further! 3 (jeu) discretion.

LA DISCRETION DE, prep. at the mercy of. Se mettre à la — de quelqu'un, to lay one's self at a person's mercy. Laisser quelque chose à la — de quelqu'un, to leave something to the discretion of a person.

À DISCRETION, adv. loc. at discretion. Le pain est à —, bread is at discretion. Vivre à — quelque part, to live at free quarters somewhere. Se rendre à —, to surrender at discretion.

DISCRETIONNAIRE, dis-kray-syong, adj. mf. law. discretionary, discretionary. Pouvoir —, discretionary power.

DISCRETIOIRE, dis-kray-twã, sm. council room.

DISCULPER, dis-kul-pay, ra. to exculpate, to exonerate (d'un crime, from a crime).

se DISCULPER, vpr. to exculpate, to exonerate one's self. En se disculpant d'une manière éclatante du reproche de, in fully exculpating himself from the accusation of. Aug. Th. Il voulait écrire au mandataire pour se — du crime, he wished to write to the proxy to exculpate himself from the crime. Mary.

DISCURSIF, dis-kür-sif, adj. m. fem. DISCURSIVE, log. discursive.

DISCUSSIF, dis-kü-sif, adj. m. fem. DISCUSSIVE, med. discursive, discutient.

DISCUSSION, dis-kü-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 discussion, debate. 2 law. — de biens, seizure and sale of goods, distraining of goods. 3 (dispute) discussion, dispute. Ils sont toujours en —, they are always having words together. 4 math. — d'une équation, discussion of an equation.

DISCUTÉ, ppa. of DISCUTER, fem. —s, La beauté de Madame de Staël a été fort —, there has been a great difference of opinion about the beauty of Madame de S. B. Coust.

DISCUTER, dis-küt-tay, ra. (Lat. discutere) 1 to discuss, to argue, to debate. — le pour et le contre, to discuss the pros and cons. Une vie de St-Denis qui serait à — historiquement, a life of St Denis which might be discussed in an historical point of view. Sie-B. — un point de droit, to discuss a point in law. — on projet de loi, one loi, to discuss a bill, a law. — une affaire, une question, to discuss on affair, a question. Il fallait — ses prétentions par voie judiciaire, it was necessary to have recourse to legal proceedings to examine his claims. Sand. Le conseil discutait encore pendant deux ou trois jours si, for two or three days more the council debated whether. Nich. Un journal qui discutait le mérite et les défauts de son ouvrage, a journal that discussed the merits and defects of his work. Sand. absol. Discussons et ne disputons pas, let us argue and not dispute. 2 law. — les biens d'un débiteur, to distrain the goods of a debtor.

DISERT, de-zayr, adj. m. fem. —s, voluble, fluent, disert. Il rendrait — un bable, he would make an ass eloquent. La Font. (by extension) Un discours —, a flowing discourse.

DISERTÈMENT, de-zayr-mang, adv. (little used) volubly.

DISETTE, dis-et, sf. 1 dearth, scarcity. — de vivres, dearth of provisions. L'ac année de —, a year of scarcity. 2 (by extension) dearth, want. Il n'y a point pour une nation de pire — que celle des hommes, there is not a worse dearth for a nation than that of men. J.-J. Russ. Que la — de talents en tout genre est effrayante! what a frightful dearth there is of talent of every kind! Volt.

DISSETTEUX, de-zay-uoh, adj. m. fem. DISSETTEUSE, obsol. needy, necessitous. Une vie d'homme de lettres à la fois disetteuse et heureuse, the life of a man of letters at once needy and happy. Mirab.

DISSEUR, de-zuhr, sm. fem. DISSEUSE, speaker, talker. Un — de riens, an idle talker. Un — une disense de bonne aventure, a fortune-teller.

DISGRACE, dis-grâc, sf. 1 disgrace. Tomber en —, to fall into disgrace. Etre en —, to be in disgrace. 2 (mauvheur) misfortune. Il a été sensible à votre —, he has felt for your misfortune. Le Sage. Pour comble de —, to complete the misfortune. 3 (mauvaise grâce) awkwardness, ungracefulness.

DISGRACIE, ppa. of DISGRACER, fem. —s, 1 disgraced. 2 ill-favoured. Un de ces enfants —s par la nature, one of those ill-favoured children. Nod. fig. Il n'y a pas jusqu'aux esprits les plus —s qui ne se fassent un malin plaisir de, even the bluntest intelligence finds a mischievous pleasure in. Nad. 3 (substantif) disgraced person, person in disgrace, unfortunate person.

DISGRACIÉ, dis-grâc-syay, ra. nous DISGRACIEUX, vous DISGRACIEZ, to disgrace, to put out of favour.

DISGRACIEUSEMENT, dis-grâc-syoh-mang, adv. ungraciously, ungraciously, unpleasantly, awkwardly.

DISGRACIEUX, dis-grâc-syuh, adj. m. fem. DISGRACIEUSE, ungraciously, ungraciously, unpleasant, awkward. Une aventure disgracieuse, an awkward adventure.

DISJOINDRE, dis-zhwangdr, ra. conj. like JOINDRE, (Lat. disjungere) 1 to disjoin. 2 law. to sever.

se DISJOINDRE, vpr. to be disjoined, disunited.

DISJOINT, dis-zhwang, ppa. of DISJOINDRE, fem. —s, 1 disjoined, disjunct.

Les marches qui menaient à la porte du jardin étaient — es, the steps leading to the garden-door were loosened. Balz. 2 law. Les deux instances furent — es, the two instances were severed. 3 mus. Degré — dis-junctif degree.

DISJONCTIF, dis-zhongk-gif, adj. m. fem. disjunctive. (Lat. disjunctivus) 1 gram. disjunctive. 2 sf. gram. disjunctive.

DISJONCTION, dis-zhongk-syong, sf. 1 law. La — de deux instances, the severance of two instances. 2 rhet. disjunction.

DISLOCATION, dis-lo-kah-syong, sf. 1 dislocation. 2 (by analogy) taking to pieces. 3 mil. La — d'une armée, the breaking of an army. (by analogy) Les — de l'empire romain et de l'empire carolingien, the dismemberment of the Roman and Carolingian empires. V. Hug.

DISLOQUER, dis-lo-kay, ra. to dislocate les os, the bones). — une machine, to take a machine to pieces. — le bras, le poignet, etc., de quelqu'un, to dislocate the arm, the thumb, the wrist, etc., of a person.

SE DIS-QUER, vpr. to be dislocated, to be put out of joint. Se — le poignet, to dislocate one's wrist, to put one's wrist out of joint. fig. Notre société s'est disloquée, our society has fallen to pieces.

DISPARAISANT, dis-par-ay-sang, ppr. of disparaître, fig. La douleur ira peu à peu — de la terre, pain by degrees will vanish from the earth. Mich. adj. m. fem. —, evanescent. La vie, sombre, vide et — figure, life a gloomy, unsubstantial and evanescent figure. Fléch.

DISPARAÎTRE, dis-par-ay-tr, ra. conj. like évanescer, 1 to disappear, to vanish. A son apanché il disparaissait comme un éclair dans le sable, at his approach, he disappeared in the sand like a flash of lightning. Nod. Au moment où le rivage disparut à nos yeux, at the moment when the shore was lost to our view. Elle avait disparu dans la foule, she had disappeared in the crowd. Il eut bientôt fait — tout ce qui était dans son assiette, he soon made a clean plate of it. L'aurore avait fait — les étoiles, the dawn had caused the stars to disappear. (by extension) (une chose que l'on soupçonne) On avait fait — tout ce qui pouvait rappeler la royauté, whatever might remind the people of royalty was done away with. fig. La fièvre a disparu, est disparue, the fever has disappeared. 2 fig. (cesser d'être, d'exister) to disappear. Les gens raisonnables dont la race n'avait pas entièrement disparu de la terre, reasonable people, the race of which was not quite extinct. Nod. De la terre ils disparaissent tout, they were swept away from the face of the earth. Rac. Les anciennes mœurs avaient alors totalement disparu, the ancient manners had then totally disappeared. Ces fautes ont disparu de l'ouvrage, these defects have disappeared from the work. (hyperb.) Toute autre gloire disparaît devant la sienne, every other glory is eclipsed by his. 3 (s'en aller) to disappear. Il disparaît tout à coup de son château, he suddenly disappeared from his castle. Nod. L'hirondelle paraît au printemps et disparaît en automne, the swallow makes its appearance in the spring and disappears in the autumn. Buff. Bientôt les faux prophètes disparaîtront, soon will the false prophets disappear. A l'approche de nos troupes les ennemis disparaurent, at the approach of our troops the enemy disappeared. 4 fig. (mourir) Six mois ont fait — celui-ci, celui-là, in six months this one and that one have been carried off. Mich. fig. — du monde, de la terre, etc., to disappear from the world, from the earth. — de la scène du monde, to withdraw from the world. 5 (ne plus se trouver) to disappear. J'avais des gants, ils ont disparu, I had some gloves, they have disappeared. Je ne pouvais comprendre comment ce livre avait disparu, I could not account for the disappearance of that book.

DISPARATE, dis-par-at, sf. 1 incongruity. Des choses qui font —, disparates. Ses actions et ses discours forment une étrange —, his actions and words are strangely incongruous. 2 (adjectif.) incongruous, unlike, dissimilar. Voilà des choses bien —, those are striking disparities.

DISPARITÉ, dis-par-e-tay, sf. disparity, inequality, difference.

DISPARITION, dis-par-e-syong, sf. disappearance. La — d'une comète, the disappearance of a comet.

DISPARE, dis-par-rû, ppa. of disparaître, fem. —, disappeared. Elle était déjà — que je croyais la voir encore, she was already out of sight when I thought I saw her still. Th. Gaut. Cette enfant, élevée sous le nom de Jane, était Jane Talbot la petite fille —, this child, brought up under the name of Jane, was Jane T., the little girl that had disappeared. V. Hug. fig. Les âges —, past ages. Th. Gaut.

DISPENSIEUSEMENT, dis-pang-dyuh-mang, adv. neol. expensively. Vivre —, to live expensively.

DISPENDIEUX, dis-pang-dyuh, adj. m. fem. dispendious, expensive, costly. Un train de maison fort —, a very expensive establishment. Rien ne lui parut trop délicat on trop —, nothing was too delicate or too expensive for him. Saad.

DISPENSIAIRE, dis-pang-sayr, sm. 1 med. dispensatory, pharmacopoeia. 2 (lieu) dispensary.

DISPENSATEUR, dis-pang-sat-ahr, sm. fem. dispensatrice, dispenser, distributor. Le souverain — de toutes choses, the sovereign distributor of all things. Sand.

DISPENSATION, dis-pang-sah-syong, sf. dispensation, distribution.

DISPENSE, dis-pangs, sf. 1 dispensation, exemption (from). — de résider, exemption from residence. — de bons, exemption of honors. — du pape, dispensation from the pope. — d'âge, See âge. 2 (sometimes) (permission) license, permission. — de manger de la viande, permission to eat meat. — d'épouser une parente, license for marrying a relation.

DISPENSE, ppa. of dispenser, fem. —, 1 dispensed, distributed. 2 (exempté) exempted, exempt (du service militaire, from military service). Ils se croient — par leur âge et par leur fortune d'être sages et modérés, they think that their age and fortune dispense them from being prudent and moderate. La Bruy. Le sublime n'est pas — d'être raisonnable, the sublime is not allowed to be absurd. Marm.

DISPENSER, dis-pang-sayr, ra. (Lat. dispensare) 1 to dispense, to distribute. Il leur dispense avec mesure et la chaleur du jour et, he dispenses to them in measure both the heat of the day, and, the sun. Je dispense aux siècles les races, I assign to each age its race. V. Hug. 2 (exempter) to exempt (from), to dispense (with). Je vous dispenserais avec plaisir de recourir à la générosité des marins, I will with pleasure spare you from appealing to the generosity of the sailors. Nod. 3 (pour s'exempter de faire une chose) to excuse (from). Dispensez-moi de veni dire l'avantage, excuse me not saying any more. Je vous dispense de faire, I excuse you of doing. 4 (pour s'excuser de faire) to dispense (with). Je vous dispense de m'attendre le soir, I will dispense with your waiting for me in the evening. Le Sage.

SE DISPENSER, vpr. to be dispensed, to dispense (with), to spare one's self, to exempt one's self (from). Pour me — d'une explication douloureuse, to spare myself a painful explanation. Nod. Pour me — à l'avenir de payer mon loyer et le tien, j'ai acheté la petite maison, to be exempt for the future from paying my rent or yours, I have bought the little house. Sand.

DISPERSÉ, ppa. of disperser, fem. —, 1 dispersed. Le chant — dans l'espace, the song dispersed in the air. V. Hug. Les gens qui se conviennent sont trop — dans ce monde, the people who suit each other are too widely scattered in this world. Volt. 2 dispersed, scattered. Roi, peuple, en un jour, tout se vit —, king, people, all were dispersed in one day. Rac. fig. Sion voit de son temple saint les roines —, Zion sees the scattered ruins of its holy temple. Rac.

DISPERSER, dis-payr-say, ra. (Lat. dispergere) 1 (épandre) to disperse, to scatter (de l'argent, des pièces de monnaie, money, pieces of money). Le soufflé de Dieu dispersa la famille de l'homme comme une fumée, the breath of God dispersed the family of man like smoke. Chat. Ses griffes sanglantes ont bientôt dispersé les entrailles fumantes, his bloody claws soon scattered the smoking entrails. Flor. 2 (séparer) to disperse (des troupes, des soldats, troops, soldiers). 3 (forcer de se séparer) to disperse, to rout. La force armée eut bien vite dispersé l'atroupement, the armed force soon dispersed the mob. Une tempête dispersa leurs vaisseaux, a tempest dispersed their vessels. Aug. Th.

SE DISPERSER, vpr. 1 to be dispersed, scatt. red. fig. Ses intrigues s'étaient dispersées sur des affaires accessoires et secondaires, her intrigues had extended to unessential and secondary affairs. SE-B. 2 (se séparer) to separate, to disperse. Ses compagnons s'étaient dispersés par tout le royaume, his companions were disseminated all over the kingdom. Ah. Les nuages se dispersent, the clouds are dispersed.

DISPERSION, dis-payr-syong, sf. 1 dispersion, scattering, breaking up. La — d'une armée, d'une flotte, the dissolution, the breaking up of an army, of a fleet. La — des Juifs, the dispersion of the Jews. Nos pères ont souffert l'exil, la mort même, plutôt que de, our fathers have suffered exile, dispersion, death itself, rather than. Saint. fig. La — de l'esprit, the breaking up of the mind. Mich. 2 phys. La — des rayons lumineux, the dispersion of luminous rays.

DIS-PONIBILITÉ, dis-po-ne-be-le-tay, sf. 1 non-activity. Être en —, to be unattached. Officier en —, officer on the unattached list. 2 (faculté de disposer de ses biens) power of disposal.

DISPONIBLE, dis-po-nihl, adj. mf. 1 disposable, available, unattached. Une somme —, an available sum. 2 law. Portion, qualité —, disposable portion, quality.

DISPOS, dis-po, adj. mf. (Lat. dispositus) nimble, agile, alert. Gaillard et —, frais et —, hale and hearty.

DISPOSÉ, ppa. of disposer, fem. —, 1 arranged. Bientôt on les découvrit — en belle ordonnance, they were soon discovered drawn up in fine array. Bar. 2 (porté à) disposed, ready, willing, inclined. Il était bien — à la défense, they were quite ready for the defence. Moli. 3 Être bien, mal — pour quelqu'un, to be well, ill affected towards a person.

DISPOSER, dis-po-zay, ra. (Lat. disponere) 1 to dispose, to arrange. Il avait disposé ses végétaux, de manière qu'on pouvait jouir de la vue, he had arranged his plantations so that one might enjoy the view. de St-P. Je lui ai fermé les yeux, et j'ai convenablement disposé, I closed his eyes, and laid the body out decently. Balz. Je passais le jour à y — ce qui pouvait servir à mes études. I passed the day in arranging whatever might be of service to me in my studies. Nod. 2 (préparer) to dispose, to prepare, to incline, to prepare a person for death. — les affaires, to prepare affairs. 3 (d'un lieu, d'une place) to arrange.

DISPOSER, vn. 1 to dispose, to prescribe. Il laissa un beau diamant à son frère, disposant que plusieurs autres pierres très-précieuses passeraient par héritage aux, etc., he left a fine diamond to his brother, bequeathing several other very precious stones to the, etc. Bar. prov. L'homme propose et Dieu dispose, mon propos, God disposes. 2 (faire ce qu'on veut) to dispose. Qu'on disposât sans vous de la mère d'A., that the mother of A. should be disposed of without consulting you. Rac. Madame de L. disait de son frère à sa volonté, Madame de L. did what she would with her brother. Ste-B. Son frère et le roi de N., dont il disposait, avaient d'autre volonté que la sienne, his brother and the king of N., whom he swayed, had no other will than his. Bar. Dieu a disposé de lui, God has taken him to himself. 3 (allouer) to dispose (of). Il a bien fait d'en — en faveur de, he did well to dispose of it in favour of. Sand.

SE DISPOSER, vpr. 1 (se préparer) to dispose one's self, to prepare, to prepare one's self, to get ready, to be about. Elle saisit l'aiguille et se dispose à l'écuser, she seized the bee and was about to crush it. Flor. L'émulais se disposait à s'en aller, the student was about to go out. Balz. Dame H. se dispose à continuer, après avoir repris haleine, Dame H. is preparing to resume after having recovered her breath. Nod. 2 (être préparé) to be disposed, arranged, prepared. Tout se dispose pour recevoir M. le duc, every thing is preparing for the reception of the duke. Mme de Sév. 3 (être placé, arrangé) to be arranged, to be placed. Comme les familles se disposent admirablement sur leurs tiges! how admirably leaves are arranged on their stems! B. de St-P.

DISPOSITIF, dis-po-ze-tif, sm. law. enacting part.

DISPOSITION, dis-po-ze-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 disposition, arrangement, order. La — des parties du corps, des organes, the disposition of the parts of the body, of the organs. La — des lieux était telle, the disposition of the places was such. mail. Faire une belle —, de belles —s, des —s savantes, to make a fine disposition, fine dispositions, skillful dispositions. 2 absol. rhet. disposition, arrangement. 3 (tendance) disposition, tendency. La — à la fièvre, the disposition to fever. Des —s à la goutte, a disposition to the gout. 4 (état du tempérament, de la santé) disposition, habit. La — habituelle du corps, the habitual disposition of the body. Être en bonne —, to be in a right frame. Être en mauvais —, to be in a bad frame. 5 (aptitude) disposition, taste, inclination, proneness, propensity. Avoir de la — à bien, to be virtuously inclined. Avoir de grandes —s à la danse, pour la danse, to have a good taste for dancing, —s, pl. absol. (in good part) abilities. Il lui trouva des —s, he found he had abilities. Ab. 6 (sentiments) disposition, frame, mood. J'ignore quelles sont vis-à-vis de vous les —s de ma tante, I do not know how my aunt is affected towards you. Sand. 7 (état de l'âme, dessein) disposition, readiness, intention, design. J'étais dans une de ces —s d'esprit, I was in one of these frames of mind. Nous le rencontrâmes à sa porte en — de partir, we met him at his own door ready to set out. Nod. Quand il vit sa troupe en si bonne —, il ne balança plus à livrer bataille, when he saw his troops so well disposed, he no longer hesitated to engage ing battle. Bar. 8 —s, pl. (préparatifs) dispositions, preparations. Faire ses —s pour partir, to make one's preparations for setting out. 9 (l'action de régler quelque chose, d'en disposer) disposal, l'ar une — toute particulière de la Providence, by a most providential dispensation. 10 law. disposal, disposition. —s entre-vifs, dispositions between living people. —s gratuites, gratuitous dispositions. —s à titre onéreux, dispositions burdened with certain conditions. —s testamentaires, devise. Faire ses dernières —s, to make one's last will and testament. 11 (d'une loi, d'une loi) provision, stipulation. Les —s d'un jugement, the stipulations of a judgment. absol. La — de la loi, the provision of the law. 12 (pouvoir de disposer) disposal, power. Je suis entièrement à votre —, I am quite at your disposal. La somme sera remise à la — d'I., et lui servira de dot, the sum shall be placed at I.'s disposal, and will serve him as a portion. Sand.

DISPROPORTION, dis-pro-por-syong, sf. disproportion. — de taille, d'âge, de mérite, de fortune, disproportion of height, of age, of merit, of fortune.

DISPROPORTIONNÉ, adj. m. fem. —s, disproportionné, nasabile. Un mariage —, a disproportionate match. L'héroïsme, lorsqu'il est — au génie et aux forces, ressemble à la démenée, heroism, when not supported by sufficient ability and strength, resembles madness. Lamart.

DISPROPORTIONNELLEMENT, dis-pro-por-sy-on-nel-mang, adv. disproportionally, disproportionately.

DISPUTABLE, dis-pü-tabl', adj. mf. disputable, controvertible, doubtful.

DISPUTAILLER, dis-pü-tal-yay, vn. pop. to wrangle, to bicker.

DISPUTAILLEUR, dis-pü-tal-yulr, sm. fem. disputailleur, pop. wrangler.

DISPUTANT, dis-pü-tang, vpr. of disputer, 1 La en public, —, proving, there in public, disputing, proving. Flor. 2 s., sm. pl. Les —s, the disputants. J'ai dit aux —s, I said to the disputants. Volt.

DISPUTE, dis-pü, sf. 1 (débat) dispute, quarrel, controversy. Être toujours en —, to be always disputing. Avoir — contre quelqu'un, to be in controversy with a person. Dans la chaleur de la —, in the heat of the dispute. En — des pas et des droits de l'empire, in a dispute on precedence and the right of domination. La Font. 2 (actes, discussions publiques) debate, discussion, disputation. Les —s de l'école, the disputations of the school. Ouvrir la —, to open the disputation.

DISPUTÉ, ppa. of disputer, fem. —e, disputed. Un duel — a disputed thrust. Lamart. La victoire fut longtemps —e, the victory was for a long time doubtful. La Fougère, tant —e entre le roi et le duc, the marches of Lorraine and Champagne, so long a subject of dispute between the king and the duke. Mich. Des nuits —es au sommeil, nights snatched from sleep. Lamart.

DISPUTER, dis-pü-tay, vn. (Lat. disputer) 1 to dispute, to quarrel. Je disputai longtemps, je fis parler eux yens, I resisted for a long while, I made my eyes plead for me. Rac. Il ne faut pas — des goûts, there's no accounting for tastes. Les savants disputent et disputent, Volt. Il learned dispute and will dispute. Volt. Il disputa au peu, sans rien conclure, he argued a little, without coming to any conclusion. G. Sand. J'ai vu bonnet pour une ingratitude ont assez disputé contre la destinée, your kindness to an unfortunate creature has set itself up against fate long enough. Rac. Aimer à —, to be fond of disputing. — prov. fig. — sur la pointe d'une aiguille, to dispute about straws. 2 (raisonner, argumenter) to dispute, to argue, to discuss. Les autres disputaient, the others were arguing. Flor. 3 fig. — de, to vie (with each other).

DISPUTER, va. 1 to dispute (with), to contend (for), to vie (with). Sans en trouver un seul qui pût lui — l'avantage de l'esprit, without finding a single person who could vie with him in wit. Nod. Ne savez-vous pas que le rhinocéros me dispute le pas? don't you know that the rhinoceros contends with me for the pre-eminence? La Font. (by extension) Je ne lui dispute point ses lettres de noblesse, mais je lui dispute ses titres au Parnasse, I do not call into question his letters of nobility, but I do call into question his pretensions to be a poet. Bail. fig. Il réglait le reste avec le sommeil et lui disputait le plus qu'il pouvait, he did the remainder during the night and snatched as many moments from sleep as he could. Ste-B. Paimais la science, personne n'é-tait encore venu lui — moi —, I loved science, nobody had yet —ed to contend with me for a place in —. Ab. — le terrain, to dispute — of ground; fig. to dispute — up for, to contend for. 2 Le — l'épou-vante, a brow in — ration vient with fright. Nod. Sa la — svelte le disputant en souplesse au — nées élancées du rivage, her elegant shape vied in suppleness with the tapering rushes growing on the bank. Nod.

SE DISPUTER, vpr. 1 to dispute, to quarrel. Ne vous êtes-vous jamais disputés ensemble? did you ever quarrel together? Muss. 2 to contend for, to strive for. Des —s, des chairs mortelles que les chiens dévorent se disputent entre eux, bones, mangled flesh for which ravenous dogs were fighting. Rac. (by extension) Je vois les oiseaux se — entre eux la force, le courage, I see birds trying with each other in strength, courage. Flor. fig. Mille objets divers se disputaient nos regards, notre attention, a thousand different objects attracted by turns our eyes, our attention.

DISPUTEUR, dis-pü-tulr, sm. 1 disputer, wrangler, disputant. Les opinions sont partagées, les —s s'échauffent, the opinions are divided, the disputants grow warm. La Sage. 2 (adjectif) disputations.

DISQUE, disk, sm. (Gr.) 1 disk, discus, quoit. 2 asir. disk, disc (du soleil, de la lune, of the sun, of the moon). 3 bot. disk, disc.

DISQUITION, dis-ke-ze-syong, sf. (Lat.) disquisition.

DISSECTEUR, de-sek-tulr, sm. dissector, anatomist.

DISSECTION, de-sek-syong, sf. dissection. — anatomique, neurotomy. Salle de —, dissecting hall.

DISSEMBLABLE, de-sang-blabl', adj. mf. (Lat. dissimilis) unlike, dissimilar (to). Ces deux renommées diversement aimables, mais non —s, those two celebrities amiable in a different manner, but not dissimilar. St-B. Les hommes sont souvent —s d'eux-mêmes, men are often unlike themselves. Il est bien — de ce qu'il était, he is very unlike what he was.

DISSEMBLANCE, de-sang-blans, sf. dissimilitude, dissimilarity, unlikeness.

DISSEMINATION, de-say-me-nah-syong, sf. dissemination.

DISSEMINER, ppa. of disseminer, fem. —e, disseminated, scattered.

DISSEMINER, de-say-me-nay, va. to disseminate.

SE DISSEMINER, vpr. to be disseminated.

DISSENSION, de-sang-syong, sf. (Lat.) dissension, strife, feud. — domestique, domestic feuds. —s civiles, civil strife.

DISSENTIMENT, de-sang-te-mang, sm. disagreement, dissent.

DISSEQUER, de-say-ay, va. 1 to dissect. — an cadavre, un bras, une jambe, to dissect a dead body, an arm, a leg. a sol. Pour apprendre l'anatomie, il faut absolument —, to learn anatomy, it is absolutely necessary to dissect. 2 (by analogy) — une plante, une fleur, du fruit, to dissect a plant, a flower, a fruit. 3 (rare) — un ouvrage d'esprit, to dissect a literary work.

DISSOUEUR, de-sey-kabr, sm. dissuadeur, anatomist.

DISSERATEUR, de-sey-tat-ubr, sm. (a bad part) dissuader.

DISSERTATION, de-sey-tah-syong, sf. dissertation.

DISSERTER, de-sey-tay, ra. (Lat. disserere) to dissert, to dissent.

DISSIDENCE, de-se-dang, sf. (Lat. dissidentia) dissidence, dissent, difference. — d'opinion, d'ori-on of opinions.

DISSIDENT, de-se-dang, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 dissenting. Secte, faction — e, disse ting sect, faction. 2 (substantif.) dissident, dissident, dissident.

DISSIMILAIRE, de-se-me-layr, adj. mf. (rare) (little used) dissimilar, different, unlike.

DISSIMILITUDE, de-se-me-le-lud, sf. dissimilitude, dissimilarity.

DISSIMULATEUR, de-se-mil-lat-ubr, sm. fem. dissimulatrice, (little used) dissimuler.

DISSIMULATION, de-se-mil-lah-syong, sf. 1 action, dissimulation, dissimulating, double-dealing. 2 (caractère) dissimulation.

DISSIMULER, ppa. of oissimuler, fem. — e, 1, a dissimulating. Un homme —, a dissimulating man. Caractère —, deceitful character. 2 (substantif.) dissimuler.

DISSIMULER, de-se-mil-lay, ra. (Lat. dissimulare) 1 to dissimulate, to dissimulate. — sa joie, sa haine, son amour, sa douleur, to dissimulate one's joy, one's hatred, one's love, one's grief. abusif. A quoi bon — ? what is the use of dissimulating? 2 (faire semblant de ne pas remarquer) to feign not to notice. Il savait — une injure, he knew how to pass over an insult. 3 (rendre moins apparent) to conceal. — les défauts de sa taille, to conceal the defects of one's shape. La grandeur de l'entreprise dissimulait celle du danger, the greatness of the enterprise concealed that of the danger.

SE DISSIMULER, prp. 1 to be concealed, hid. Sa joie ne peut plus se —, her joy can no longer be concealed. 2 Se — quelque chose à soi-même, to conceal a thing from one's self.

DISSIPATEUR, de-se-pat-ubr, sm. fem. dissipatrice, 1 spendthrift, squanderer. 2 (adjectif.) wasteful, profligate. Une courtoisie dissipatrice, a wantonly extravagant court. Chamf.

DISSIPATION, de-se-pai-syong, sf. 1 dissipation. 2 (action) dissipation, squandering. fig. Les passions sont des — de la vie, passions are the dissipations of life. Ker. 3 (état) dissipation. Vivre dans la —, to live in dissipation. 4 (distraktion) recreation, diversion.

DISSIPE, ppa. of dissiper, fem. — e, adjectif. 1 dissipated, dispersed, scattered. Quand le bruyant fut —, when the fog had cleared off. fig. Quand son ivresse fut —, when his intoxication was dissipated. Vos terreurs si promptement — es, your terrors so easily dispelled. Nod. 2 (dépensé facilement) dissipated, spent. 3 Être —, to be dissipated. Ce jeune homme a l'esprit —, est fort —, he is a very wild young man.

DISSIPER, de-se-pay, ra. (Lat. dissipare) 1 to dissipate, to disperse, to scatter. — une armée, to scatter an army. Le soleil dissipe les nuages, les ténèbres, the sun dissipates the clouds, the darkness. Un rideau de nuages, que les rayons de la lune dissipent par degrés, a cloudy curtain that the beams of the moon gradually dissipated. B. de St-P. — un rassemblement, to disperse a crowd. B. donna l'ordre de — le peuple par la force. B. gave orders to disperse the people by force. Lamart. fig. Rien ne peut — ma tristesse, nothing can dispel my grief. St-B. — les factions, les cabales, to dissipate factions, cabals. — des illusions, des doutes, to dissipate illusions, doubts. Il y a dans la femme une gaieté légère qui dissipe la tristesse de l'homme, in woman, there is a light gaiety that dissipates the sadness of man. B. de St-P. De si tendres marques d'amitié dissipèrent le chagrin de Madame de La T., such tender marks of friendship dissipated the grief of Madame de La T. B. de St-P. Dissipez la frayeur dont mon âme est saisie, dissipate the fear that has taken possession of my soul. Flor. 2 (consommer par des dépenses excessives) to dissipate, to squander, to run through, to make away with. Faut-il pour te satisfaire que je te permette de — tous mes biens ? to satisfy you, must I allow you to dissipate all my property ? Le Sage. Le peu que nous avons ne le dissipons pas en genèverie et en tabac, let us not squander the little we have in gin and tobacco. Sand. fig. — sa jeunesse au milieu des plaisirs bruyants du monde, to dissipate one's youth amidst the noisy pleasures of the world. 3 (distraindre) to recreate, to divert, to relax. absolt. La promenade dissipe, a stroll refreshes the mind.

SE DISSIPER, prp. 1 to be dissipated, dispersed, scattered, dispelled, to scatter, to clear away, off. Les insurgés ne tardèrent pas de se —, the insurgents were not long before being dispersed. Une ombre qui se dissipait à la moindre agitation de la touffe de bruyères, a shadow that vanished at the least agitation of the tuft of heath. Nod. 2 to vanish, to pass away. fig. Bientôt mes illusions se dissipèrent, my illusions were soon dissipated. fig. (elliptic.) Elle voit — sa jeunesse en regrets, she sees her youth pass away in regret. Rac. 3 to divert one's self. Si Votre Excellence voulait se — un peu en jouant avec nous, if your Excellency would but divert himself a little by playing with us. Le Sage.

DIS-OLÉ, de-so-lu, adj. m. fem. — e, dissolute, profligate. C'est un homme fort —, he is a very dissolute man. Une vie —, a profligate life.

DIS-SOLUBLE, de-so-lu-be-le-lay, sf. chem. dissolubility.

DISSOLUBLE, de-so-lu-lu, adj. mf. chem. dissoluble.

DISSOLUTIF, de-so-lu-tif, adj. m. fem. dissolutive, absolt. med. chem. dissolvent.

DISSOLUTION, de-so-li-syong, sf. 1 dissolution. La — des corps, the dissolution of bodies. Tomber en —, to fall into dissolution. fig. La corruption des mœurs amène toujours la — du corps social, dissolution of morals always brings on a dissolution of the social body. La — de l'empire romain, the dissolution of the Roman empire. La — de la Chambre, the dissolution of the Chamber. La — d'un mariage, the dissolution of a marriage. 2 law. — de condamnation, partial divorce. — de société, dissolution of partnership. 3 fig. (dérèglement) dissoluteness, profligacy. 4 chem. dissolution, solution.

DISSOLVANT, de-sol-vang, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 dissolvent, solutive. 2 sm. dissolvent.

DISSONANCE, de-so-nang, sf. (Lat. dissonantia) mus. dissonance. fig. — de ton dans le style, dissonance of tone in the style. Ces inégalités d'esprit produisent de continuelles — s, these inequalities in the intelligence produced continual dissonances. Baiz.

DISSONANT, de-so-nang, prp. of dissonance, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 mus. dissonant, discordant. 2 absolt. discordant, out of tune.

DISSONER, de-so-nay, ra. mus. to be dissonant, discordant.

DISSOLDE, de-soudr, ra. irreg. defect. JE DISSOLDS, NOUS DISSOLVONS ; JE DISSOLVAIS ; JE DISSOLVRAI ; JE DISSOLDRAIS ; DISSOLTS, DISSOLVÊTES ; QUE JE DISSOLVE, (Lat. dissolvere) 1 to dissolve. 2 med. to dissolve. 3 fig. (rompre, diviser) to dissolve. — une société de commerce, to dissolve a partnership. — la Chambre des Députés, to dissolve the Chamber of Deputies.

SE DISSOLDE, prp. 1 to dissolve, to melt, to be dissolved. Le sucre se dissout dans l'eau, sugar dissolves in water. Un cadavre qui se dissout et tombe en poussière, a dead body that dissolves and crumbles into dust. (elliptic.) Faire — du sucre dans de l'eau, to dissolve sugar in water. fig. Comment se dissout une société de commerce ? how a partnership is dissolved ? Le mariage se dissout par le divorce, marriage is dissolved by divorce.

DISSOUS, de-soo, pp. of DISSOLDE, fem. DISSOLUE, dissolved.

DISSUADE, de-si-ad-ay, ra. (Lat. dissuadere) to dissuade (from).

DISSUASION, de-si-ah-zyong, sf. (little used) dissuasion.

DISSYLLABE, de-se-lab, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 dissyllabic. 2 sm. dissyllable.

DISSYLLABIQUE, de-se-lab-ik, adj. mf. dissyllabic.

DISTANCE, dis-tang, sf. (Lat. distantia) 1 distance. A égale — les uns des autres, at equal distance from each other. B. — en —, at certain distance. La — jette un prestige sur les choses éloignées, distance throws a prestige over remote objects. Lamart. Tenir à —, to keep at a distance ; || fig. to keep at a distance. M^{me} de F., qui était duchesse jusqu'à bout des ongles, la tenait toujours à —, M^{me} de F., who was a duchess every inch of her, always kept her at a distance. M^{me} de Crèq 2 (by extension) (du temps, of time) distance. Trois ans de — ont suffi pour, three years' distance has sufficed to. St-B. 3 fig. (différence) distance. Je m'amuse à mesurer la — d'un esprit faible à un esprit cultivé, I amuse myself by measuring the distance between a weak mind and a cultivated one. Dider. Comme l'habitude a bientôt rapproché les — s, how quickly necessity lessens social distances. Beaum.

DISTANCE, ppa. of distancer, fem. — e, distanced. Nous étions — s, we were distanced. Ab.

DISTANCER, dis-tang-say, ra. NOUS DISTANÇONS, IL DISTANCE. mon. to distance. fig. Il fit des progrès si rapides qu'il eut bientôt distancé tous ses condisciples, he made such rapid progress that he soon distanced all his fellow students.

DISTANT, dis-tang, adj. mf. fem. — e, (Lat. distans) 1 distant, remote. fur off. Ce mont peu — du village, this hill not far from the village. Flor. 2 (du temps, of time) distant, remote.

DISTENDRE, dis-tangdr, ra. (Lat. distendere) to distend.

SE DISTENDRE, prp. 1 to distend, to be distended.

DISTENDU, dis-tang-dû, ppa. of DISTENDRE, fem. — e, distended.

DISTENSION, dis-tang-syong, sf. med. distention, distension.

DISTILLATEUR, dis-til-at-ubr, sm. distiller.

DISTILLATION, dis-til-ah-syong, sf. pharm. chem. distillation.

DISTILLATOIRE, dis-til-lah-twar, adj. mf. chem. pharm. distillatory.

DISTILLE, ppa. of distiller, fem. — e, distilled. Eau — e, distilled water. fig. Ce livre de maximes, c'est de l'esprit —, that book of maxims is the quintessence of wit. St-B.

DISTILLER, diste-lay, ra. (Lat. distillare) 1 to distil. poétic. (by extension) Le miel que l'abeille distille, the honey distilled by the bee. 2 fig. (exaureber) to distil, to drop. Une plume qui ne distillait que du sang, a pen that distilled nothing but blood. Lamart.

DISTILLER, tr. to distil, to drop, to trickle. Elle boit à longs traits le fleuve de vie qui distille de sa bouche (de Jésus-Christ), she drinks in at long draughts the river of life flowing from his lips. Boss.

SE DISTILLER, vpr. to be distilled.

DISTILLERIE, sf. distil-erie, sf. distillery, still.

DISTINCT, dis-tangkt, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. distinctus) 1 distinct. Une foule de vapeurs — es les ones des autres, a mass of vapours distinct from each other. Nod. 2 (clair, net) distinct. Prononciation — e, distinct pronunciation. Le bruit de pas devint e plus en plus —, the noise of steps became more and more distinct. Balz. fig. Une idée — e, a distinct idea.

DISTINCTEMENT, dis-tangkt-tuh adv. distinctly.

DISTINCTIF, dis-tangkt-tif, adj. m. fem. distinctive, distinctive.

DISTINCTION, dis-tangkt-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 distinction, division. Une idée imprimée sans — de versets, a Bible printed without distinction, division into verses. 2 (action de faire la différence) distinction. Faire — des personnes, to make a distinction between persons. Sans — d'âge, ni de sexe, without distinction of age or sex. 3 (ce qui établit ou indique une différence) distinction. 4 (des sens) distinction. 5 (honneur) distinction. Traiter quelqu'un avec —, to treat a person with distinction. 6 (grandeur) distinction, elevation, eminence. Le nombre de ses campagnes, la — de ses commandements, the number of his campaigns, the elevation of his rank in the army. Mass. 7 (noblesse, élégance) distinction. La — de ses manières, the distinction of his manners. Elle est pleine de —, she is very ladylike.

SE DISTINGUER, qualif. loc. of distinction, distinguished, eminent. Des personnes de —, un personnage de la plus haute —, persons of distinction, a person of the highest distinction.

DISTINGUE, ppa. of DISTINGUER, fem. — E., 1 adjective. (remarquable) distinguished, eminent. C'est un de nos savants les plus —, he is one of our most accomplished scholars. Je regarde M^{lle} de Grignas comme une créature choisie et — e, 1 consider M^{lle} de G. as a creature chosen and distinguished. M^{lle} de Sev. 2 (élegant) gentel, gentlemanlike, ladylike. Une physionomie — e, a distinguished countenance. Des manières — es, gentlemanly manners. 3 (honorable) distinguished. Ne donnez jamais de la façon tres — e dont je pense sur votre sujet, entertain no doubt as to the high esteem I hold you in. M^{lle} de Sev.

DISTINGUER, dis-tang-gay, ra. (Lat. distinctuere) 1 (discerner par les sens) to distinguish, to discern, to perceive. Dans ses Jones on distinguait quelques veines bleues, in her cheeks might be perceived a few blue veins. Chat. Tu la distinguas des autres à un petit rameau de myrte, you will distinguish her from the others by a small branch of myrtle. Nod. 2 (discerner par l'esprit) to distinguish, to discern. Je ne crois pas qu'il pût — clairement le bien du mal, I do not think he could clearly discern between good and evil. Ab. Sans jamais avoir su — sa droite d'avec sa gauche, il convalait son ignorance, without ever having been able to distinguish his right hand from his left, he concealed his ignorance. St-Sim. 3 (séparer) to distinguish, to discriminate, to make a distinction. La religion ne distingue point les hommes par leurs noms et leurs places, mais par leurs vertus, religion does not distinguish men by their names and their places, but by their virtues. Mass. — une proposition, absolu. —, to make a distinction. 4 (rendre distinct, différent) to distinguish. O homme, la raison ne le distinguait-elle de la bête que pour, O man! does reason distinguish thee from the beast only? Boss. Aucun signe particulier qui le distinguât, no particular mark by which it might be distinguished. Nuss. 5 (rendre remarquable) to distinguish. Si son rang la distinguait, elle était encore plus distinguée par son mérite, if she was distinguished by her rank, she was still more so by her merit. Boss. 6 (traiter avec distinction) to distinguish, to confer marks of distinction. Il sut bientôt se faire —, he soon drew upon himself marks of distinction.

SE DISTINGUER, vpr. 1 to appear, to be perceived. 2 (se rendre différent, se signaler) to be distinguished (by), to be eminent (for). Le chef ne se distinguait par aucun signe extérieur, the chief was distinguished by no external mark. Ab. Ne te distinguant d'eux par ton éducation nécessaire qu'il le fait, do not make an unnecessary display of your education before them. Nod. Par où cherchons-nous à nous — nous-mêmes de nos frères? in what way do we seek to distinguish ourselves from our brethren? Mass.

DISTIQUE, dis-tik, sm. (Gr.) distich.

DISTORSION, dis-tor-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 distortion (de la bouche, des yeux, of the mouth, of the eyes). 2 (d'un membre, of a limb) sprain.

DISTRACTION, dis-trak-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 separation. Faire — d'une somme en faveur de quelqu'un, to divert a sum in favour of a person.

SE DISTRAIRE, vpr. 1 (se distraire de ses devoirs, allowance of costs) to be distracted, to be diverted, to be diverted from a jurisdiction, remount from a jurisdiction. (inattention) abstraction, absence of mind, heedlessness, inattention. Faire une chose par —, to do a thing in a fit of abstraction. Avoir de fréquentes —, to have frequent fits of abstraction. 3 (ce qui amuse) diversion, recreation, amusement. Les — de votre âge, the diversions of your age. Sand. Elle a besoin de —, she wants diversion. Ab. Elle le força de prendre des —, she forced him to divert himself. Balz. C'est une — à sa douleur, it is a relief to his sorrow.

DISTRAMER, dis-trayr, ra. conf. te TRAIRE, (Lat. distrabere) 4 (séparer d'un tout) to distract, to divert, to separate. Cette somme dont il n'avait rien voulu — à l'avance, this sum, from which he would not divert anything beforehand. St-B. — quelqu'un de ses juges naturels, to deprive a person of his natural judges. 2 (détourner de quelque application) to disturb. Un rien le distrair, the merest trifling takes off his attention. Plusieurs femmes dans un dîner distraient les convives, ladies at a dinner divert the attention of the guests from the important business before them. St-B. 3 (détourner) to divert (d'un dessein, etc., of a project, etc.) 4 (divertir, amuser) to divert, to entertain, to amuse. Le voyage l'avait nécessairement distrair de ses pensées, the journey had necessarily diverted his thoughts. Balz. Seul être qui pouvait — sa pensée du trône perdu, the only being that could divert his thoughts from the throne he had lost. Hög. Elle se reprochait d'avoir trop laissé — son âme aux joies de la prospérité, she reproached herself with having taken too much pleasure in the joys of prosperity. Lamart. Bigot d'une autre idée vint le — de celle-là, another idea soon came to divert him from that one. Saint. Rien ne pouvait plus la — de ses souvenirs, nothing could any longer draw her from her recollections. Nod. Je cherchais à en — mon attention, I endeavored to divert my attention from it. Nod. Elle cherchait à me — de ma douleur présente, she sought to divert me from my present grief. Chat. Il faudra le —, you must amuse him. C. Del.

SE DISTRAIRE, vpr. 1 to have one's thoughts elsewhere, to divert one's attention. Se — de son travail, to think of anything, but of what one is doing. Heureux s'il ne se fût point distrair de la présence de Dieu, happy if he had not lost sight of his being in the presence of God. Boss. 2 (éloigner son esprit) to divert one's attention. De son image en vain je cherché à me —, in vain I seek to cast off her image. Rac. 3 (se divertir) to amuse, to divert one's self. Vous voulez vous — de vous par la philosophie, you seek to divert your mind with philosophy. J.-J. Rousseau. Chercher à se —, to seek to amuse one's self.

DISTRAY, dis-tray, ppa. of DISTRAIRE, fem. — E., adjective. 1 separated. 2 (détourné) absorbed, called off. Le chevalier, — par son voyage, n'a-t-il appris qu'un tard, the knight, whose attention had been diverted by his journey, had learned but very late. Nuss. — par quelque douce rêverie du passé, absorbed by some fond recollection of the past. Nod. 3 (inattentif) absent. C'est un homme —, he is an absent man. Tu deviens —, on te voit accablée sur ton livre, you become absent, you are seen with your elbows leaning on your book. Ab. Des regards —, vacant looks. La négligence aristocratique et la careless negligence of a great lord. Th. Gaut. 4 (substantif) absent man.

DISTRAYANT, dis-tray-yang, ppr. of DISTRAIRE, adj. m. fem. — E., entertaining, amusing, diverting.

DISTRIBUER, ppa. of DISTRIIBUE, fem. — E., 1 distributed. L'argent — aux pauvres, money distributed among the poor. 2 (arrangé) distributed, arranged, disposed. Mes études l'ont — e en sa sorte que, my studies were arranged so that. Nod. La vie est autrement — e à M. qu'à Paris, the mode of living at M. is quite different from that in Paris. Th. Gaut. Les appartements paraissent à être — s d'une façon plus commode, the apartments seemed to be laid out in a more commodious manner. Sand.

DISTRIBUER, dis-tribuy, ra. (Lat. distribuere) 1 (partager) to distribute (to, among), to deal out. Les gratifications, the gratuities. Je me souviens que mon oncle ne m'aurait pas de me — tous les dimanches, the gratuities that my uncle did not fail to distribute to me every Sunday. Nod. L'avare distribuait la chandelle à sa fille et à N., the miser doled out the candle to his daughter and N. Balz. Les eaux que res conduits distribuent dans les différentes parties de la ville, the waters that those pipes distribute in the different parts of the town. L'air distribue la chaleur sur le monde et fait la sécheresse et l'humidité, the air distributes the heat over the world and causes dryness and humidity. Mich. — le blâme et la louange, to distribute blame and praise. Au Japon, la fortune pour lors distribuait ses grâces, at Japan, fortune was then distributing her favours. La Font. — des prix à des colporteurs, to distribute prizes to scholars. 2 (diviser, disposer, ranger) to distribute, to dispose, to lay out. — par chapitres, to divide into chapters. — par appartements, to divide into apartments, to dispose, to lay out a suit of apartments. 3 print, to distribute.

SE DISTRIIBUE, vpr. 1 to be distributed. Le médiateur par qui se distribuent les bienfaits et les récompenses, the mediator through whom the benefits and rewards are distributed. Flech. 2 Le reste des pèlerins se distribuait, chacun selon sa vocation particulière, dans les chapelles, the rest of the pilgrims dispersed, each according to his peculiar vocation, in the chapels. Nod. 3 (se partager entre soi) to share among themselves. Les Anglais se distribuèrent leurs ombrelles, the Engfishwomen gave out their parasols to each other. Mery.

DISTRIBUTEUR, dis-tre-bù-tàbr, sm. distributeur, dispenser, bestower (des grâces, of faveurs). Ces —s de réputation, those dispensers of reputations. Mont.

DISTRIBUTIF, dî-s-tre-bù-tif, adj. m. fem. distributif, 1 distributeur. La justice distributive, distributive justice. 2 gram. les Sens —, distributive sense.

DISTRIBUTION, dis-tre-bù-syong, sf. (Lat. 1) distribution de vivres, of provisions. — du travail, des travaux, distribution of labour, of works. — des lettres, post-office delivery. — des rôles d'une pièce de théâtre, cast of the characters. La — des troupes da is leurs quartiers d'hiver, the distribution of the troops in their winter-quarters. La — du sang dans les artères, the distribution of the blood in the arteries. 2 law (particularly) distribution, 3 (division, disposition) distribution, dirision, arranging. 4 arch. distribution, disposing, laying out. 5 priot. distribution.

DISTRIBUTIVEMENT, dis-tre-bù-tiv-màng, adv. log. distributively.

DISTRIC, dis-trik, sm. (Lat. districtus) 1 auc. law. district. fig. Cela n'est pas de mon —, that is not in my department, of my province. 2 (division territoriale) district.

DIT, dee, ppa. of DIRE. fem. —E, 1 said. Cela —, la déesse, having said that, the goddess. Anssiôt —, assisôt fait, no sooner said than done. Tiou-toie pour —, take it for granted. Non, il ne sera pas — que, no, it shall not be said that? — Sera-t-il — que? it will be said that? C'est bien —, it is well said. C'est bientôt —, that is soon said; it is very easy to say. Tout est —, vûit qui est —, C'est une chose —e, the thing is settled. A l'heure —e, at the appointed hour. 2 surnomement surnamed. Cha les Y — le sage, Charles I., surnamed the Wise. Ce de choses —es l'œuvre du génie, qui furent l'œuvre du génie, how many things attributed to genius, which were the result of genius. C'est 3 (joint aux articles ou aux adj. poss., added to an article or a possessive adj. said. Ledit —el, the said said a one. Ladite maison, the said house. Audit lieu, at the said place. Noudit seigneur, my said lord. Noudit procès-verbal, his said report. 4 absol. said, mentioned. Ci-dessus —, above-mentioned, aforsaid. Ci-devant —, before mentioned, aforsaid. Ci-après —, hereafter, hereinafter mentioned.

DIT, sm. (Lat. dictum) saying. Les —s et faits, les —s et gestes des anciens, the sayings and doings, the words and deeds of the ancients. prov. Avait son — et son dédit, See dédit.

DITHYRAMBE, de-te-ràngb, sm. (Lat. dithyrambus) dithyramb.

DITHYRAMBIQUE, de-te-ràng-bik, adj. mf. dithyrambic.

DITTO, de-to (It.) com. ditto.

DITON, de-long, sm. mms. ditone.

DIVERTIQUE, dyâ-ray-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 med. divertic. 2 (substantif.) divertic.

DIVERNAL, dyâ-râ-nal, sm. cath. rel. diurnal (Roman catholic prayer-book).

DIVERNE, dyâ-ra, adj. mf. (Lat. diurnus) 1 diurnal, ditto. 2 bot. diurnal. 3 zool. diurnal. 4 zool. —s, sm. pl. the diurnals.

DIVAGATION, de-vâ-âi-syong, sf. (Lat.) aw. straying. fig. C'est grande dissipation et — de l'esprit, great dissipation and wandering of mind. Boss. (action de s'écarter de la question) rambling, wandering. Se jeter dans des —s, to wander from the question.

DIVAGUER, de-vâ-â-y, rn. 1 law. to stray, to wander. Laisser — au farieux, to let a madman go about. Je n'étais qu'une âme morte qui divaguait çà et là, I was nothing but a lifeless soul flitting to and fro. L'ami. 2 (s'écarter de la question) to wander, to ramble. Pour — durant les soirées de ces jours de loisir, to gossip during those holiday evenings. La-râp.

DIVAN, de-vàng, sm. (Turk.) 1 divan. Le — imperial, absol. Le —, the divan. 2 (canapé) divan.

DIVE, div, adj. f. (Lat. diva) absol. 1 diene. La — bouteille, the divine bottle. Rab. 2 —s, sf. pl. Eastern myth. dire.

DIVERGENCE, de-vâ-y-zhông, sf. 1 geom. optic. divergence, divergency. 2 fig. divergence, difference (d'idées, d'opinions, of ideas, of opinions).

DIVERGENT, de-vâ-y-zhông, adj. m. fem. —E, geom. optic. divergent. fig. différent.

DIVERGER, de-vâ-y-zhông, rn. NOUS DIVERGEONS, IL DIVERGE, geom. optic. to diverge (from). Aller en divergent, to diverge. Les rayons divergeaient dans les ombres de la forêt en longues gerbes lumineuses, the rays diverged in the shade of the forest like long luminous sheaves. B. de S-P.

DIVERS, de-vâ-y, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. diversos) 1 différent, diverse, divers, varied, various. Ils sont de — sentiments, d'opinions —s, they are of different sentiments, of different opinions. Les — sens d'un mot, the different meanings of a word. Qui est de —s couleurs, which is of divers colours. De tout d'objets — le bizarre assemblage, the whimsical assemblage of so many various objects. —s gens de —s humeurs et coutumes, —s gens de —s humeurs et coutumes, a world always changing, always new. La Font. Combien l'homme est incertain, —! how incosistent, how various man is! La Font. 2 —, pl. (plusieurs) divers, sundry, various, several. —s personnes, several persons. A —es fois, at various, at different times. En — temps, at sundry times. En — lieux, in sundry places.

DIVERSEMENT, de-vâ-y-s-màng, adv. diversely, variously, differently.

DIVERSIFIÉ, pps. of diversifier, fem. —E, diversified. La côte la plus riante et la mieux —e, the most smiling and diversified coast. La Font. Le caprice des hommes s'est si bien — que, nous n'avons pas la — en so many forms that. Pate. Cette monotonie était —e les jours que, that monotony was broken in upon on the days when. Balz.

DIVERSIFIER, de-vâ-y-e-lyâ-y, ra. NOUS DIVERSIFIONS, VOUS DIVERSIFIEZ, to diversify, to vary. — les mets, to vary the dishes. Pour — ses études on l'envoya en A., to vary his studies he was sent to England. Ste-B.

SE DIVERSIFIER, ppr. to be diversified, varied.

DIVERSION, de-vâ-y-syong, sf. (Lat.) diversion. Il est entre dans le pays ennemi pour faire — le danger de la terri-tory of the enemy in order to create a diversion. fig. Cette facile conquête fit — à ses inquiétudes, that easy conquest diverted his uneasiness. Aug-âb. Nous tâcherons de faire — à l'ennui de votre séjour ici, we will endeavor to render your stay here as little wearisome as possible. Balz.

DIVERSITÉ, de-vâ-y-sây, sf. (Lat.) diversity, dissimilitudo, variety (de religions, de fortunes, of religions, of fortunes; d'objets, d'occupations, d'opinions, of objects, of occupations, of opinions). Quelque — qui se trouve dans les complexions on dans les mœurs, whatever diversity may exist in humor or in manners. La Bruy. Ce n'est pas sur l'habit que la — me plaît, I don't desire the spirit, it is not on the outside that I like to see diversity, it is in the mind. La Font. Les —s de style, the varieties of style. Ste-B.

DIVERTI, de-vâ-y-lee, ppa. of di-

VERTIR. fem. —E, diverted, amused. Si l'homme était heureux, il se serait d'autant plus qu'il serait moins —, if man were happy, he would be the more so the less he would have had. Mol. Somme —E, embesotted money.

DIVERTIR, de-vâ-y-teer, ro. (Lat. divertere) 1 absol. (détourner) to divert, to turn aside, to draw away (from). — quel, d'un de ses occupations, d'un projet, to divert a person from his occupations, from a project. Cherchant à — cette tristesse, seeking to divert this sadness. Mol. Vous avez déjà vu que je divertissais mon chagrin par mon érudition, you have already seen that study served as a diversion from my grief. Reiz. 2 (soustraire) to purloin, to embezzle (des fonds, des deniers, une somme, money). 3 (amuser, recréer) to divert, to amuse, to entertain. F., qui savait donner de l'enjouement à la conversation, divertit fort la compagnie. F., who k'ed how to throw cheerfulness over the conversation, amused the company very much. Le Sage. Elle veut qu'on la divertisse, she wants to be amused.

SE DIVERTIR, ppr. to divert one's self, to amuse one's self. Se — aux dépens de quelqu'un, to divert one's self at the expense of a person.

DIVERTISSANT, de-vâ-y-te-sàng, ppr. of DIVERTIR, adj. m. fem. —E, diverting, amusing, entertaining.

DIVERTISSEMENT, de-vâ-y-te-s-màng, sm. 1 embesottedment, parloining, misapplying (de deniers, de fonds, of money, of funds). 2 (recreation) diversion, amusement, entertainment. Je me prépare désormais à me donner du —, henceforth, I intend to lead a merry life. Mol. 3 (dames mées de chants) entertainment, divertissement. 4 mms. divertissement.

DIVIDE, E, de-ve-dàng, sm. (Lat. dividendus) 1 arith. dividend, 2 com. fin. dividend. Ton her, recevoir son —, to receive one's dividend. 3 com. (part afferente) dividend.

DIVIN, de-vàng, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. divinus) 1 divine, heavenly. La puissance —e, la bonté, la miséricorde —e, divine power, goodness, mercy. Les personnes —es, the Holy Trinity. Le Verbe —, the son of God, the Word. 2 (ce qui est relatif à Dieu; à no dieu) divine. Le culte —, divine worship. Le droit —, divine right. 3 (divinisé) divine. Le — Jules, the divine Julius. 4 fig. (au-dessus de la nature) divine, sublime. 5 fig. (excellent, parfait) divine, godlike, most excellent. Notre — Platon, our divine Plato.

DIVINATION, de-ve-nuh-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 divination. 2 (moyen employé pour deviner) divination.

DIVINATOIRE, de-ve-nah-wâr, adj. mf. divinatory, divining. Art —, divination, divining art. Bagoette —, divining-rod.

DIVINEMENT, de-ve-n-màng, adv. 1 divinely. 2 fig. (excellamment) divinely, supremely, excellently.

DIVINISER, de-ve-nây, ra. 1 to deify. fig. L'idole de la veule, dépeignée du prestige qui l'avait divinisée, the idol of the day before, stripped of the charm that had made it a divinity. Nod. 2 fig. (exalter, préconiser) to exalt to the skies.

DIVINITE, de-ve-ne-ây, sf. (Lat. divinitas) 1 divinity. La — du Verbe, the divinity of the Son of God. 2 (dieu) Divinity, deity, worship. Quelle idée avous-nous de la —? what idea have we of the Divinity? Marm. 3 (un dieu, une déesse) divinity, deity, god, goddess. Chaque vertu devient une —, every virtue becomes a divinity. Boil. 4 fig. (hyperb.) goddess, angel. C'est une —, she is an angel.

DIVISÉ, ppa. of DIVISER, fem. —E, adjectif. 1 divided. Entre tous —, cet or peut être utile if this gold be divided among all, it will be useful. Four. Un second étage — en deux grandes pièces, a second floor, divided into two large apartments. Sand. La médecine est — en plusieurs branches, médecine is divided into several branches. fig. Si vous demeurez dans le siècle, votre liberté sera — c-à milieu des soins de la terre, if you mix with the world, your time will be wholly absorbed with worldly cares. Boss. — d'opinions, des sentiments, to be divided in opinion, in sentiment. Etre — d'intérêts, to be divided in interest. Nos sociétés — es par tant de préjugés, our societies divided by so many prejudices. B de S-P. Tenez toujours — les méchants, always sous division among the wicked. La Foot.

DIVISER, de-ve-zay, vo. (Lat. dividere) 1 to divide, to separate, to sever, to part. Bienôt divisant l'eau et brisant les roseaux, soon parting the waters and breaking the reeds. V. Hug. 2 arith. to divide. 3 fig. mettre en discord, to divide, to dissuade, to set at variance. A peine C avait-il pris les rênes d'un gouvernement qu'Arius divisa le pape, C. had hardly assumed the reins of government when Arius divided the church. Chat. Qu'on de plus en plus ce qui nous divise de nos frères, let all our efforts tend to remove the barrier between us and our brethren. Boss.

se DIVISER, ppr. 1 to be divided, to be separated, to divide, to part. La fleuve se divise en deux branches, the river is divided into two branches. La France se divise en un certain nombre de départements, France is divided into a certain number of departments. Ils se divisèrent par groupes, they broke up into groups. Saut. Maintenant le travail se divise en une infinité de mains, labour is now divided among an infinity of hands. La foule se divisait de droite et de gauche, the crowd parted to the right and left. Saint. 2 fig. to divide, to be divided.

DIVISER, de-ve-zay, sm. 1 arith. division. 2 adjective, dividing.

DIVISIBILITÉ, de-ve-zé-be-le-tay, sf. divisibility.

DIVISIBLE, de-ve-zib', adj. mf. divisible.

DIVISION, de-ve-zyon, sf. 1 division, separation. Je ne prétends pas ici établir des — s tranchantes, commençant tout juste à telle date, I do not here pretend to establish distinct opinions, beginning exactly at such a date. Chat. 2 (dans les assemblées) division. 3 law. Bénéfice de —, plan of limited liability. Law. Sans — ni discussion, without division or discussion. 4 arith. division. Faire une —, to do a division sum. 3 fig. (desentons) variétés, discord, broil. — s intestines, intestine broils. 6 (charme des armes d'un tout) division, part. militaire, military division. 7 war. division. Général de —, general commanding a division. 8 mil. (la réunion de deux compagnies ou pelotons) division. 9 naut. division, squad on 400 fms. division, department. Chef de —, head-clerk. 11 bot. division. 12 print. division.

DIVISIONNAIRE, de-ve-zyo-nayr, adj. mf. divisionary, divisional.

DIVORCE, de-vo-rs, sm. (Lat. divorcium) 1 divorce. 2 fig. (dissensu) variétés. Le — éternel de la terre et des cieux, the eternal separation of earth from heaven. Volt. Il est en — avec ses amis, he is at variance with his friends. Ils ont assez longtemps joué de pas — s, they have long enough been filled by our quarrels. Corn. 3 fig. (séparation volontaire) renunciation. Faire — av le monde, to renounce society.

DIVORCE, ppa. of divorcer, lem. —, divorced.

DIVORCER, de-vo-rsay, ra. nouns divorcers, le divorce, 1 to divorce, 2 d'avec son mari, to divorce from one's husband. 2 fig. se mettre en opposition to divorce (jouir) — avec le bon sens, to take leave of one's senses.

DIVULGATEUR, de-vul-gat-ur, adj. and sm. fem. divulgateur, divulger.

DIVULGATION, de-vul-gat-ion, sf. divulgateur, publishing (d'un secret, of a secret).

DIVULGUER, de-vul-gay, vt. (Lat. divulgare) to divulge, to publish, to noise abroad (un secret, a secret).

DIX, deux, adj. num. mf. 1 ten. — hommes, ten men. — sept. seventeen. Noms étiens —, there were ten of us. Ils étaient — enfants, there were ten children. (hyperb.) Plus de — fois, — fois pour une, more than ten times, ten times over. 2 (dixième) tenth. Page —, tenth page. Le roi Charles —, king Charles the Tenth. Le — du mois, le —, the tenth of the month, the tenth. Le — avril, the tenth of April. 3 sm. ten. Le nombre —, the number ten. Le numéro —, number ten, 4 to 4 sm. (jeu, at cards) le —, le — de cœur, a ten of hearts. (au piquet) Quatre de —, a fourteen of tens. 5 sm. Le conseil des —, the Council of Ten.

DIXIÈME, de-zyim, adj. mf. tenth. La — fois, the tenth time. Il était le —, he was the tenth. La — partie, the tenth part. (substantif) Le —, the tenth. Les lui —, the tenth.

DIXIÈMENT, de-zyim-mang, adv. tenthly.

DIXIM, deem, sf. See dix.

DIZAIN, de-zang, sm. 1 decastich. 2 Un — de cartes, ten packs of cards. 3 (chapel) rosary of ten beads.

DIZAINÉ, de-zyin, sf. 1 half, a score. Une — de personnes, half score of persons. Dans une — de jours, in ten days. Compter par —, to count by tens. 2 arith. ten. — de mille, ten thousands. La colonne des —, the column of tens.

DIZAINIER, de-zyin-ay, sm. tithing-man.

DIZEAU, de-zo, sm. shock (of ten sheaves).

DO, do, sm. mns. C.

DOCTE, de-seel, adj. mf. (Lat. doctus) doctile, tractable, manageable. Heureux l'enfant que le Seigneur rend — à sa voir, happy the child whom the Lord renders doctile to his voice. Rac. (by extension) Ma nacelle est — au souffle du destin, my doctile bark is impelled by the breath of Fate. Ber. g.

DOCTEMENT, do-seel-mang, adv. with doctility.

DOCTILITÉ, do-se-le-tay, sf. doctility, obediency.

DOCTMASTIQUE, do-se-mas-tik, DOCTMASTIE, do-se-mas-see, sf. (Gr.) metal.

DOCTME, dok, sm. Ety. dock. — de commerce, commercial dock. Drait de —, dock-due. Frais de —, dock-charge. Connaissance de —, dock-warrant. Faire entrer aux — s, to dock.

DOCTE, dok, adj. mf. (Lat. doctus) 1 learned. Non — au, my learned friend. Aristote et sa cabale, Aristotle and his learned set. Mol. 2 substantif. learned man.

DOCTEMENT, dok-mang, adv. learnedly.

DOCTEUR, dok-tuhr, sm. (Lat. doctor) 1 doctor. Être reçu —, to take a doctor's degree. Un — en droit, doctor of laws. 2 absol. (médecin) doctor, physicien. 3 (personne docte, habile) doctor. C'est un grand — aux échecs, he is a great doctor in chess. 4 (in a red part) faire le —, prendre un ton de —, to take a doctoral tone. 5 (celui qui donne des enseignements) a clor. Les — s de l'Eglise, the doctors of the Church. Les — s de la loi, the doctors of the law. Cromwell faisait le — et le prophète aussi bien que le soldat et le capitaine. C. played the parts of doctor and prophet as well as those of soldier and captain. P.-L. Corr. 'disparagingly) Il n'y a si petit écuyer qui ne s'érige en —, the most igno'nt scholar styles himself a doctor.

DOCTORAL, dok-to-ral, adj. m. fem. —v., doctoral. Ronnel —, doctoral cap. fig. Tu n'—, morgue —c., doctoral arrogance, tone.

DOCTORALEMENT, dok-to-ral-mang, adv. doctorally.

DOCTORAT, dok-to-rah, sm. doctorate, doctorship.

DOCTORERIE, dok-tor-ree, sf. disputation for the degree of a doctor of divinity.

DOCTORESSE, dok-to-ress, sf. ironic.

DOCTRESS, doctress.

DOCTRINAIRE, dok-tre-nair, sm. 1 doctrinarian, lay-brother. 2 de certains hommes politiques) doctrinaire. 3 (adjectif) doctrinaire.

DOCTRINAL, dok-tre-nal, adj. m. fem. —v., theol. doctrinal.

DOCTRINE, dok-treen, sf. (Lat. doctrina) 1 (savoir) learning, erudition, lore. 2 (opinion) doctrine. La — de Platon, the doctrine of Plato. La — de l'Evangile, the doctrine of the Gospel. — chrétienne, Christian doctrine. Les prêtres, les pères de la — chrétienne, the priests, the fathers of the Christian doctrine. Frères de la — chrétienne, brethren of the Christian doctrine.

DOCUMENT, do-k-mang, sm. (Lat. documentum) document, paper, title-deed just-ment.

DOUECAËDRE, do-day-lab-ay', sm. (Gr.) eodem, doctechadron.

DOUEGAGONE, do-day-kag-on, sm. (Gr.) eodem, doctegagon.

DOUEKANGDRE, do-day-kang-dree, sf. (Gr.) lat. doctekadree.

DOUELINER, doo-de-nay, vn. to toll about. — de la tête, to wag one's head about. Th. Gail.

DOUISER, doo-de-nay, vn. horol. to vibrate.

se DOUISER, ppr. to nurse one's self up. Cet écuyer ne fait que se —, that scholar does nothing but coddle himself.

DODO, do-do, sm. lullaby, by-by. Faire —, to go to lullaby. Aller à —, to go to lullaby.

DOUE, do-dé, adj. m. fem. —v., plump.

DOUGRESSSE, do-gal-ress, sf. wife to the dog.

DOUAT, do-gah, sm. dogate.

DOGE, dozh, sm. (Ital. aux) doge.

DOGMATIQUE, do-gmat-ik, adj. mf. 1 dogmatic, dogmatical. 2 qui dogmatise) dogmatic, dogmatical. 3 sm. dogmaties.

DOGMATISME, do-gmat-ism, sm. dogmatism.

DOGMATISER, do-gmat-e-zy, vn. 1 to teach false dogmas. 2 (exprimer ses opinions, ses raisonnements d'un ton tranchant) to dogmatize.

DOGMATISER, do-gmat-e-zur, sm. (disparagingly) dogmatist.

DOGMATISME, do-gmat-ism', sm. dogmatism.

DOGMATISTE, do-gmat-ist, sm. dogmatist.

DOGME, dogm', sm. (Gr.) 1 dogma, tenet. Les — s de la foi, the religious, the tenets of the faith of religion. (by extension) les — s politiques, literary, political, literary tenets. 2 absol. vi. g. dogma.

DOGRE, dogr', sm. (Dat.) naut. dogger.

DOGUE, dog, sm. (Eng.) home-dog, yard-dog. fig. Être d'une humeur de —, to be as surly as a bear.

DOGUIN, dog-ang, sm. fem. —v., young house-dog, yard-dog.

DOIGT, dwa, sm. (Lat. digitus) 1 finger. Les — s du pied, the toes. Les gros —, the thumb; the great toe. Le — annulaire, the ring finger. Le petit —, the little finger. Les ongles des — s, the finger-nails. Faire craquer ses — s, to crack one's fingers. Jover au — mouillé, to play which is the wet finger. Tuer au — mouillé, to draw lots. 2 (by analogy) poëte, l'auteur aux — s de rose, rosp-fingered man. La main, les — s du singe, the claw, the claws of the ape. — s de caud, de bécasse, the claws of a duck, of a woodcock. Les — d'un gant, the fingers of a glove. Cette montre va au — et à l'œil, that watch runs upon wheels. Ne faire œuvre de ses dix — is, not to do an earthly thing. Jam. Il y met les quatre — s et le pouce, he lays a greedy hand upon it; || he does not mince the matter. fig. A lèche — s, very small quantity. Montrer quelqu'un au — to point at a person. fig. Donner surer — to à quelqu'un, to glare at a person a rap over the knuckles. fam. Avoir des yeux au bout des — s, to do what one will with one's fingers. Avoir de l'esprit jusqu'au bout des — s, to be extremely witty. Toucher du bout du — to be very near a thing. Fam. Mettre le — sur quelque chose, to hit it, to hit the right nail on the head. fig. fam. Mon petit — me l'a dit, a little bird told it me. fig. Le — de Dieu, the finger of God. fig. S'en mordre les — s, to repent it. Ils sont comme les deux — s de la main, ce sont les deux — s de la main, they are hand and glove together. Il ne faut pas mettre le — entre le bois et l'écorce; entre l'arbre et l'écorce, it ne faut pas mettre le —, one must not intermeddle between man and wife. Savoir une chose sur le bout du — See bout. 3 fig. (une petite quantité) finger's breadth. Il s'en faut seulement deux — s qu'il y ait une aune, there are only two fingers' breadth wanting of an ell. Boire un — de vin, to drink a drop of wine. (hyperb.) Cette femme se met un — deux — s de rouge sur le visage, that woman ranges horribly. fig. Faire un — de cour à une femme, to show some attention to a woman. See cour. A deux — s, on the very brink of, within an hair's breadth of. Être à deux — s de sa ruine, de sa perte, to be on the very brink of ruin. 4 astr. digit.

DOIGTÉ, ppa. of doigter, fem. — E, adjectif. Valse bien — a, a waltz with the fingering well indicated.
DOIGTER, doigter, sm. mus. fingering.
DOIGTER, doigter, vn. 1 to finger. 2 (transitively) to mark the fingering on a piece of music. 3 to finger (a musical instrument).

DOIGTIER, doig-tier, sm. finger-stall, thumb-stall.

DOIT, dwa, com. See devoir.

DOL, dol, sm. (lat. dolus, deceit.

DOLAGE, do-lazh, sm. tech. planing, adzing.

DOLCE, do-lay, adr. (It. mus. dolce.

DOLÉANCE, do-lay-angs, sf. Lat. dolere. 1 complaint, wailing, grievance. Il déclare d'un ton de — he declares in a tone of complaint. See l. 2. Il renouvelle ses — s, he renews his complaints. A g. Th. Un vœux interrompit sa — a brief interrupted his complaint. La Font. 2 acc. grievance.

DOLENT, do-lah-mang, adr. dole- fully, miserably.

DOLÉNT, do-lang, adj. m. f. m. — E, (lat. dolens, doleat, mournful). Il est toujours — he is always complaining. (sout. nitr. Faire le — to be doleful.

DOLER, do-lay, ra. tech. to plane, to adr.

DOLLAR, do-le-mang, sm. dolman.

DOLLAR, do-lar, sm. dollar.

DOLMAN, dol-mang, sm. hussar's pelisse, pelisse.

DOLMEN, dol-mayn, sm. (Gelt.) dol- men, cromlech.

DOLORE, do-lwar, sf. adze, broad-axe.

DOLORE, do-lo-nee, DOLOMITE, do- lo-mit, sf. min. dolomite.

DOM, derg. (Lat. domus) dom, don.

DOMAINE, do-mayn, sm. (Lat. domini- um) 1 possession, property. 2 (bien) domain, dem-une, property, estate. Le — public, le — l'Etat, the property of the State. Être dans le — public, to be in the public, to become public property. Le — de la couronne, the crown- lands. Le — privé, private property of the sovereign. 3 (l'administration) administration of the domain. 4 fig. dom- proince. Ce sujet est du — de l'imagination, that subject lies within the domain of the imagination. Cela n'est point de mon — that is not within my province.

DOMANIAL, do-mah-nyal, adj. m. fem. — E, pl. m. DOMANIAT, of a domain.

DOMÉ, domé, sm. (Gr.) dome, canopy

(by analogy) Un ciel de lit fait en — a canopy. — de verdure, de feuillage, leafy canopy.

DOMERIE, dom-tree, sf. anc. domerie

(abbey and hospital).

DOMESTICATION, do-mays-le-kah- syong, sf. neol. domestication. L'art de la — n'ira pas loin s'il, the art of domestication will not extend far. Mich.

DOMESTICITÉ, do-mays-le-se-ay, sf. 1 (état) domesticity, being in service, menial condition. 2 (des animaux, of animals) domestication. 3 (collectif.) domestic, domestic establishment.

DOMESTIQUE, do-mays-tik, adj. mf. (Lat. domesticus) 1 domestic, household, family. 2 (des animaux, of animals) domestic, domesticated, tame. 3 Etat —, menial condition. Emploi — menial employment. 4 (du pays, par opposition à étranger) internal, home, domestic, intestine. Troubles — s, internal disturbances. Guerres — s, intestine wars. 5 s. mf. (serviteur) domestic, servant, manservant, maid-servant. 6 sm. collectif. (tous les serviteurs d'une maison) domestic, household. Son — était composé de plusieurs valets et de trois femmes, her household was composed of several men-servants and three women-servants. Le Sage. 7 sm. (l'intérieur de la maison, du ménage) household, family. Renfermé dans son — elle semble ignorer ce bruit, shut out from the world, she seems to be ignorant of the rumour. See l.

DOMESTIQUEMENT, do-mays-tik-mang, adr. 1 as a servant. 2 (familièrement) domestically.

DOMICILE, do-me-seel, sm. (Lat. domicilium) dwelling, residence, home, domicile. Être sans — to be without a home. Violation du — illegal entrance into a man's house. — de fait, actual residence. — politique, political place of residence. fig. Cette veuve choisit son — au cour de l'homme, that virtuous took up its residence in the heart of a man. See l.

A DOMICILE, adr. loc. at, to one's house. Bains à — baths want to private houses. Secours à — out-door relief.

DOMICILIAIRE, do-me-se-lyr, adj. mf. domiciliary. Visite — search in a house.

DOMICILIÉ, ppa. of domicilier, fem. — E, domiciled, domiciliated, residing, resident, settled. Un tel, — à Paris, such a one, residing in Paris. (by extension)

Les singes habitent — s de ces forêts, the apes do dwell in those forests. B. de St-P.

SE DOMICILIER, do-me-se-lyr, vpr. law, to settle, to be settled, to be domiciled, domiciliated.

DOMINANT, do-me-nang, ppr. of domi-

ner, adj. m. fem. — E, dominant, predominant, prevailing, ruling, reigning. Passion — E, ruling passion.

DOMINANTE, do-me-nangt, sf. mus. dominant. Sings — do, subdominant.

DOMINATEUR, do-me-nat-ur, sm. fem. dominatrice, Lat. dominator 1 domi-

nator, ruler. 2 (adjectif) ruling, dominat- ing, dominatic, domineering, overbearing. Force dominatrice, domineering power.

DOMINATION, do-me-nab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 domination, power, domination rule sway. 2 — s, pl. scrip. Domination.

DOMINÉ, ppa. of dominer, fem. — E, adjectif, 1 dominated. Les piscivores sont — par un estomac exigeant, piscivorous animals are slaves to their ravenous appetite. Mich. 2 fig. commanded. Le Rhin, — par des tours en ruines, the Rhine, commanded by ruined towers. V. Hug.

DOMINER, do-me-nay, ra. (Lat. domi- nar) 1 to have dominion, to rule, to sway. 2 (exercer de l'empire) to lord it over, to dominate (over), to take the lead, to bear the sway, to prevail, to be prevalent. C'est sa femme qui domine chez lui, it is his wife who rules the roast.

Il aime à — he likes to bear the sway;

he likes to be first man. fig. L'orgueil domine chez cette barbare, pride was her ruling passion. Chai. 3 fig. (être le plus apparent) to be predominant. 4 fig.

(être élevé au-dessus) to rise 'above, to tower (above).

DOMINER, va. 1 to hold dominion over, to rule over, to control, to sway. Sa femme le domine, he is under the control of his wife; he is under her rule. Il gouverne le pays, he has sway over the country.

DOMINIQUE, do-me-ne-kal, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 dominical. L'Oraison — the Lord's prayer. Lettre — de, dominical letter. 2 — E, sf. Sunday-sermons.

DOMINO, do-me-no, sm. 1 (email) domina

2 (costume de bal) domino. 3 (by extension) (personne) a domino. 4 (jeu, chacune des pièces) domino. Jouer au — aux — s, to play at dominos. Ap-portez-vous un — bring us a domino, a set of dominos. Faire — (elliptic.) —, to be out.

DOMINOTERIE, do-me-not-tee, sf. col- oured paper (for playing).

DOMINOTIER, do-me-not-yay, sm. dealer in coloured paper.

DOMMAGE, do-mazh, sm. 1 damage, detriment, loss, injury, hurt. Cela me porte — that is prejudicial to me. Réco-upérer du — to sustain an injury. Éprou-ver du — to experience a loss. 2 (particulièrement) (dégât) harm, mischief. La griêle a causé beaucoup de — the hail has done a great deal of harm. 3 C'est un grand — c'est grand —, c'est bien —, c'est un grand —, it is a pity, a great pity, a ploussard pities. ironic. C'est un — c'est vraiment —, it is a pity, it is really a pity. 4 — s et intérêts, — s-interests, damages.

DOMMAGEABLE, do-mazh-ahl, adj. mf. prejudicial, injurious, detrimental. Toute autre alliance pourrait être — à son avenir, any other alliance might be prejudicial to his nephew. See l. Son bois, — ornement, his horns, treacherous ornament. La Font.

DOMPTABLE, dong-tabl', adj. mf. tame- able, governable, subduable.

DOMPTE, ppa. of dompter, fem. — E, 1 sub- dued. 2 tamed. 3 fig. subdued. Ap-portons à Dieu un esprit —, let us offer to God a subdued mind. Boss.

DOMPTÉ, dong-tyé, va. (Lat. domitare) 1 to subdue, to quell. La famine l'aida à — les vaincus, famine assisted him in subduing the vanquished. Aug. Th. Il voulait — par la force les premiers symptômes de révolte, he wished to quell by force the first symptoms of revolt. Lamart. 2 (des animaux, of animals) to tame. 3 fig. to subdue, to master, to keep under. Pourquoi n'ai-je pas dompté ma colère? why was I not able to restrain my anger? Ab. Rien n'a pu — sa passion, nothing could keep his passion under. Balz. Domptant mes douleurs étouffées, getting the better of my stifled grief. V. Hug.

DONNER-VEINIS, sm. bot. swallow-wort.

SE DONTER, rpr. to govern, to subdue one's passions.

DONTEUR, dong-tuhr, sm. snubber, tamer.

DON, dong, sm. (Lat. donum) 1 gift, present, donation. Recevoir à titre de, to receive as a gift. Les — s faits à une église, à un hospice, the donations made to a church, to an almshouse. — manuel, gift from hand to hand. — gratuit, free gift. — mutuel, mutual gift. fig. Les — s de la terre, the gifts of the earth. poetic. fig. Les — s de Cérès, the gifts of Ceres, corn. Les — s de Bacchus, the gifts of Bacchus, wine. 2 fig. (avantages que l'on reçoit de la nature, etc.) gift. Les — s de la fortune, the gifts of fortune. 3 fig. (biens spirituels) gift. Le — des langues, the gift of tongues. 4 fig. (aptitude) gift. Le — de la parole, the gift of eloquence. Vilem. Il a le — de plaire à tout le monde, he has the gift of pleasing every body. (in joke) Avoir le — des larmes, to have tears at command.

don, sm. georg. Don.

don, sm. (Sp.) (titre) don.

DONA, do-nah, sf. (Sp.) dona, doña.

DONATAIRE, do-nat-ayr, s. mf. law. donee.

DONATEUR, do-nat-ayr, sm. fem. DONATRICE, law. donor, giver.

DONATION, do-nab-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 donation, gift. 2 (l'acte lui-même) deed of gift.

DONATISME, do-nat-ism, sm. donatism.

DONATISTE, do-nat-ist, sm. donatist.

DONC, donq, conj. (Lat. tunc; It. dunque) 1 (marking a conclusion, noting the consequence) therefore, so. Je pense, — j'existe, I think, therefore I exist.

Desc. 2 (marquant toute autre espèce d'induction, noting any other inference) then. Vous voyez — bien que j'ai raison, you see then plainly that I am right.

3 (marquant l'étonnement, noting surprise) then, now. J'étais — destiné à lui survivre, I was destined then to survive him. Que dit-il — là? what is he saying now? Quel — I il me résistait, indeed! he would oppose me.

4 (marquant une injonction pressante, noting a pressing injunction) now then. Répoudez —, now, then, answer. Dimez-moi — cela, do you me that.

DONION, dong-dong, sf. f.m. a stout red-faced woman, girl.

DONION, dong-zhong, sm. 1 keep, castle-keep, donjon-keep, donjon, dungron.

2 (by extension) turret. 3 (petit pavillon) donjon, bctrdre.

DONJONNE, dong-zho-nay, adj. m. fem. — e, hier, tarred.

DONNANT, do-nang, ppr. of DONNER, adj. m. fem. — e, giving. Quoique peu — e, elle la pria d'accepter un chapeau de 20 fr., though not of a liberal disposition, she begged her to accept a bonnet of 20 fr. Balz. prov. — s, give and take.

DONNE, don, sf. (aux cartes, at cards) deal. Perdre sa —, to lose one's deal. Il y a mal —, it is a misdeal.

DONNE, ppa. of DONNER, fem. — e, given, presented. Les jours — s aux dieux ne sont jamais perdus, the days that are consecrated to the gods are never lost. La Font. M. parut à F. un complice — par la nature, M. appeared to F. to be an accomplice provided by nature.

Lamart. prov. fig. C'est un marche —, it is a dead bargain. 2 (fixé, déterminé) given. Dans un temps —, in a given time.

3 math. Quantités — es, given quantities. 4 Être — à, to be given to. Il n'est pas — à crine lui-même de dégrader la vérité, it is not in the power of crine itself to degrade the truth. Lamart. Nous sera-t-il — de venir revoir ce cher foyer de travail et d'amour, will it ever be our lot to revisit that beloved abode of study and of love. Mich. Il n'est pas — à tout le monde d'être anglais, it is not every body that can boast of being English. Ab. Un des plus vastes empires qu'il ait eût — à l'homme de posséder, one of the largest empires that man was ever permitted to hold. Th. Gaut.

DONNÉE, do-nay, sf. 1 datum. Ace peu de mots se réduisent toutes nos — s historiques, all our historical records are comprised in these few words. Aug. Th. 2 (idée principale) idea, notion. Cette excellente — de comédie se rapproche un peu de la, the ground of this play resembles rather... Ph. Chas. 3 math. — s, given quantities, known quantities.

DONNER, do-nay, vu. 1 (faire don) to give, to give away. Je te donne la chose la meilleure que j'ai en moi, I give you the best part of myself. V. Hug. Elle avait des provisions — le matin, comme faisait son maître, she had provisions to give out in the morning as her master did. Balz. — l'aumône, to give alms. Ce qu'on donne aux méchants toujours on le regrette, what we give to the wicked we are sure to regret. La Font. (hyperb.) Il donnerait jusqu'à sa chemise, he would give away the very shirt off his back. — sa fille en mariage, to give one's daughter in marriage. — sa vie, ses jours, son sang, to give one's life, one's blood. absol. Donnez pour amasser aux pieux de l'Eternel, give that you may receive a hundred fold at the feet of the Almighty. Flor. Qui donne aux pauvres prête à Dieu, he who giveth to the poor lendeth unto the Lord. La Font. fig. — un précepteur à un enfant, etc., to give a tutor to a child, etc. On ne donne rien pour rien quand on s'appelle J., one gives nothing for nothing when one is called J. Muss. 2 (livrer, remettre) to give. — en garde, to commit to the keeping. Je lui en avais donné le soin, I had intrusted him with the care of it. — de l'ouvrage à faire, to give out work to do. Le — au plus habile à mieux faire, to defy any one to do better. — en dix, en vingt, en cent, etc., to give one choice, to give a person ten, twenty, a hundred times to do a thing in. (hyperb.) Je t'aurais ma tête à coupier que cela est ainsi, I'll wage my head it is so. — quelque chose à deviner, le — à deviner au plus fin, to give something to guess; to give a person twenty times to guess it in. ven. — le cerf aux chiens, to start the stag. — les chiens, la meute, to cast, to throw off, to slip the dogs. fig. En — à garder à quelqu'un, to impose upon a person. fig. En — à quelqu'un, to impose upon a person. Laissez-nous faire, on vous en donnera de toutes les façons, leave it to us, you shall have as much as your heart can wish. La Font.

3 (céder, payer en échange) to give, to exchange. Tu m'a pas donné ton pour rien, au moins, you have not given your gold for nothing, I hope. Balz. Get in a grant me donne point de l'or, that you would give me twenty francs. I will give you twenty francs for it. (hyperb.) Je n'en donnerai pas une obole, an iota, etc. 4 I would not give a farthing, a straw for it. (hyperb.) Je donnerais tout au monde, je donnerais je ne sais combien, je ne sais quoi, pour que cela fût, pour que cela ne fût pas, I would give any thing in the world that it should be so, that it should not be so. Que ne donnerais-je pas pour! what would I not give to! 4 (fournir) to give, to produce. — des gages, des sûretés, to give pledges, securities. — caution, to give bail. Il ne donnait aucun signe de vie, he was insensible. Mery. fig. F. ne m'a pas encore donné signe de vie, I have not yet heard of F. Sand. 5 (présenter, offrir, apporter) to give, to offer, to bring. Il me fit — du papier et de l'encre, he ordered paper and ink to be brought me. Ab. — à boire, à manger, to give to eat, to drink. — un festin, une fête, etc., to give a repast, a feast. — à dîner, à souper, to give a dinner, a supper. — la comédie, fig. See comédie.

une pièce de théâtre, to perform a play. Que donne-t-on aujourd'hui à l'Opéra? what do they play to-day at the Opera? — un livre, un ouvrage au public, to publish a book, a work. — le bonjour, le bonsoir, to bid, to wish a person good day, good night. Il ne dit jamais je vous donne, mais je vous prête le bonjour, he never says, I give you good day, but, I lend you good day. Mol. — la main, to hand, to give one's hand. On ne donne la main qu'à son égal, one shakes hands but with one's equals. Saut. On peut — du bord la main aux barques, the boats are within a stone's throw from the shore. Th. Gaut. (d'un animal, of an animal) — la patte, to give its paw. — le bras à quelqu'un, to give one's arm to a person. — une poignée de main, to shake hands. fig. Il lui donna la main à sa fille, he gave him his daughter in marriage — la main (à son vassal), to give away. fig. — s mains à quelque chose, to cower at a thing. fig. — une cassade, des cassades, to impose upon. fig. — une personne on une chose pour telle on telle, comme telle on telle, to assure that a person, a thing is so and so. (aux jeux de cartes, at cards) — les cartes, absol. —, to deal. — beau jeu, — vilain jeu, to give a good hand, a bad hand, good cards, bad cards. 6 (administrer) to give, to administer. — une douche, to give a shower-bath. — des remèdes, to give remedies. Après avoir à des morts délaissés donné la sépulture, after having interred the dead that had been abandoned. Flor. — les Sacraments, l'extrême-onction, to administer the Sacraments, extreme-unction. — un assaut, une bataille, un combat, to storm. To give battle. 7 (infliger) to give, to flog. — les écrivains, to whip, to thrash. — la question, to put to the torture. 8 (appliquer, diriger) to give. — un coup de lancette, to bleed. — atteinte, une atteinte, to prejudice. — une couche, to give a coating. — le feu trop chaud, trop ardent à la viande, to make up too hot a fire for the meat; to scorch the meat by too quick a fire. 9 (accorder, octroyer) to give, to grant, to afford. Je voulais lui — du temps, I wanted to give him time. Mich. — mainlevée, to order a withdrawal. — du repit, to grant a delay. Je te donne la vie, mais à condition que, I grant thee thy life, but on condition that. Flor. — son amitié, sa foi, to proffer one's friendship, to pledge one's truth. — sa voix, to give one's vote. — quittance, to give a receipt, a discharge. — Si le ciel l'eût donné autant de jugement que de barbe au menton, if Heaven had given you as much judgment as it has given you beard on your chin. La Font. Le malheur ne lui avait pas donné le temps de la réflexion, misfortune had not left him time for reflection. Lamart. Du temps que Dieu nous donne nous ne garçons que l'avenir, of the time that God gives us, we set store but on the future. V. Hug. Donnant les journées à l'étude, devoting the day to study. Ste-B. Dieu m'a donné de mauvais jours, it has pleased God to try me. Nod. Le roi lui a donné sa grâce, the king granted him his pardon. Je vous donne à choisir des deux, je vous donne à choisir, I leave you to choose. Il ne faut rien — au hasard, nothing must be left to chance. C'est un juge intègre, il ne donne rien à la faveur, he is an upright judge, he grants nothing by favour. (by analogy) — l'exclusion, to exclude. Il a du bon bien plus d'heures au travail que l'autre, he devotes more hours to working than the other. Mich. Il regardait comme perdu tout le temps qui n'était pas donné à l'étude, he considered as wasted the moments that were not consecrated to study. St-B. — sa soirée, sa journée à quelqu'un, to devote one's evening, one's day to a person. — parole, — sa parole, to give one's word. — des paroles, de belles paroles, to give fair words. fig. Nous donnerons l'essor à notre industrie, we shall give scope to our industry. Le Sage, 10 (communiquer, faire connaître, énoncer) to give, to communicate, to impart. La lettre de T. m'a donné cette heureuse nouvelle, T.'s letter has brought me this good news. Méry. Je vous donne un avis, I give you a piece of advice. La Font. C'est l'oisiveté qui nous a donné de mauvais conseils, it is idleness that has led us astray. Ab. Tu donneras ton avis le premier, you shall speak first. Ab. — avis, — connaissance de quelque chose, to intimate, to let know, to advise. 11 (prescrire, imposer) to give, to prescribe, to lay down. Elle donnait le ton à la ville de S., she used to lead the fashion in the town of S. Balz. Donnez encore une fois le précepte et l'exemple, give once more the precept and the example. C. Del. La fameuse journée où sur le mont S. la loi nous fut donnée, the famous day on which, on mount S., the law was given us. Rac. — ordre à quelque chose, to see to a thing. — des bourses à ses desirs, a son ambition, to set bounds to one's desires, to one's ambition. 12 law. — assignation, to send a summons. 13 (attribuer) to give, to ascribe, to attribute.

Tout le monde lui donne le tort, lui donne tort, every body says he is in the wrong. Vous ne devriez pas donner tant de prix à ce don, you ought not to set so much value to this present. Balz. La Grâce donne des ailes à Psyché, Greece represents P. with wings. Mich. Donnez à mes paroles le sens qu'il vous plaira, you may interpret my words as you please. Sand. Quel âge lui donnez-vous? how old do you take him to be? 14 (procurer, faire avoir) to give, to procure. Cela me donne envie de voir cette pièce, that makes me long to see this piece. Donnez l'espérance à ma froide jeunesse, inspire my inert youth with hope. V. Hug. Le printemps donne aux roses leurs couleurs, spring gives the roses their colours. V. Hug. Donne la santé aux malades, give health to the sick. Lamart. La promenade lui a donné de l'appétit, the walk has procured him an appetite. Le bel emploi que tu nous donnes, a pretty work you give us. La Font. Ne riez de rien de ce qui donne envie de rire, do not laugh at anything which excites laughter. Nod. Cette porte donnait entrée dans la pièce, au-dessus de la cuisine, this door led into a room over the kitchen. Balz. Les vitilles croisées qui avaient donné du jour au vestibule, the old windows that had afforded light to the hall. Nod. La plupart de ces arbres donnaient déjà à leurs malades de l'ombrage, most of these trees afforded already shade to their masters. B. — St-B. Cette joie intérieure que donne la convalescence, the heartfelt joy that springs from returning health. Méry. La nuit donne aux peines l'oubli dormant, night lifts grief in forgetfulness. V. Hug. Une chose donnait la mesure de ces forces incalculables, one thing gave an idea of this incalculable strength. Mich. — lien, to give cause. — l'être, la vie, le jour, la naissance, to give birth. — prise sur soi, to give a hold upon one. Cela donne plus de prix au bienfait, that enhances the value of the benefit. (particularly) — de la solidité à un édifice, to strengthen an edifice. — la vie, to grant life. — la mort, to kill. — à travailler, to give work to a person. — à penser, à songer, to make a person think. — à rire, to provoke a laugh. — à discourir, à parler, to set people talking. — à entendre, to intimate, to hint. 15 (rendre, produire, rapporter) to give, to produce, to yield, to bear, to bring in. Un arbre qui donne beaucoup de fruits, a tree that yields a great deal of fruit. S. était un de ces jeunes officiers que nous donnaient les écoles, S. was one of those officers coming out of a military college. Nod. 16 med. absol. La plaie donne, ne donne pas, his sore runs, does not run. 17 (souffler) to give, to present with. Sa femme lui a donné un fils, his wife has presented him with a son. — des citoyens à la patrie, des défenseurs à l'Etat, to give citizens to the country, defenders to the State. fig. Cette école a donné des peintres célèbres, this school has furnished celebrated painters.

BOSSUET, in. 1 (heurter, frapper) to strike, to hit, to knock. Je donnai du pied contre V., I nearly stumbled over V. Ab. La Blanche Nef donna contre un écueil de toute la vitesse de sa force, the B. anchored struck full force against a rock. Ang. Th. Du sac et du serpent il donna contre le mur, he dashed the sack and the serpent against the wall. La Font. Le vent donne dans les voiles, the wind swells the sails. Un rayon de soleil donnait en plein sur ma tête, a sun-beam shone vertically over my head. Lamart. — au but, to hit the mark; || fig. to hit the right nail on the head. — du nez en terre, to fall with one's face to the ground; || fig. to break down. — des éperons à un cheval, to spur a horse. — dans la tête, to be heady, to fly up into the head. mss. — du cor, to wind the horn. fig. E. ne savait où de la tête, E. knew not which way to turn. Sand. fig. l'au. dans l'œil à quelqu'un, to hit the fancy of a person. fig. B. ne donna pas sur les oreilles de E., B. did not make E. smart for it. St-B. fig. — sur les doigts à quelqu'un, to give a person a rap over the knuckles. prov. fig. — de l'encensoir par le nez, to flatter grossly. — de l'atteste à quelqu'un, to mildor a person. 2 (tomber, se jeter) to fall, to rush. Une chauve-souris donna tête baissée dans un nid de belettes, a bat rushed headlong into a nest of weasels. La Font. — dans une embuscade, to fall into a snare. Co navire qui donne à la côte, a ship that runs aground. mil. L'armée était sur le point de —, the army was on the point of engaging. St-B. fig. — dans le piège, dans le panneau, to fall into the snare, into the trap. fig. Il n'est pas homme à — là-dedans, he is not the man to be taken in by that. fig. G. passait pour un esprit qui donnait dans les idées nouvelles, G. had the reputation of being an innovator. Balz. Il n'est pas homme à — dans les utopies, he is not a man to be led astray by utopies. St-B. fig. Je donnai sur le via blanc d'E., I fell to at E.'s white wine. Ab. fig. — à pleines voiles dans un parti, to embrace a party heartily. 3 (avoir vue sur) to look (into), to look out (into). 4 (avoir issue) to open (into), to go (into). 5 (être abondant) to be abundant, plentiful.

SE DONNER, vpr. 1 to be given. 2 Se — à quelqu'un, to give one's self to a person. Se — à l'étude, to give one's self up to study. 3 Se —, to devote one's self, to give, to offer one's self up. L. auquel il s'était donné comme durant des années, L. to whom he had devoted himself, as it were, for years. St-B. 4 fig. Se — un chef, se — un roi, to choose a chief, a king. 5 (être vendu) to sell, to be sold. 6 mil. (être livré) to be fought. 7 (être représenté) to be performed, played. 8 Se — le bras, to go arm in arm. Se — la main, to join hands. Se — une poignée de main, to shake hands. 9 Se — en spectacle, to make a show of one's self; to expose one's self to public view. 10 (se procurer) to give one's self, to procure. Se — du bon temps, to amuse one's self. prov. Se — au cœur joie de quelque chose, s'en — à cœur joie, to take one's fill. absol. S'en —, to have a trial, to have a bout of it. fig. Se — carrière, See CARRIÈRE. 11 Se — de garde, se — garde, to take care, to beware (of). 12 (s'attribuer) to attribute, to ascribe to one's self. ... Dit l'âne en se donnant tout l'honneur de la chasse, ... says the ass, claiming all the honors of the chase. La Font. fig. S'en — les gants, to ascribe to one's self the priority of a thing. 13 (se causer, s'occuper à soi-même) to give one's self, to take. Se — du mouvement, de l'exercice, to take exercise; || fig. to bestir one's self. Se — de l'embarras, to take trouble. Donnez-vous la peine d'entrer, take the trouble to walk in. Lorsqu'on s'est donné tant de peine pour la chercher, when one has taken so much trouble to look for her. Mss. Se — la mort, to kill one's self. Il veut s'en — le plaisir, he wishes to give himself that pleasure. Se — patience, to take patience. Se — des airs, de grands airs, to give one's self airs, lofty airs. Se — des airs de maître, de savant, de bel esprit, to give one's self the airs of a master, of a scholar, of a wit. 14 (d'une maladie, d'une disette) to be catching. 15 (se faire passer pour) to give one's self out, to set up (for). Elle ne s'est jamais donnée pour une sainte, she never set herself up for a saint. Mich. 16 prov. fig. C'est se — la tête contre un mur, it is knocking one's head against a wall.

DONNER, do-nur, sm. fem. DONNEE, giver. 1 adv. giver of advice. com. d'avoir, giver of guarantee.

DONT, do-nt, pr. pres. tur. (Lat. de unde) 1 des personnes, of persons) whose, of whom, from whom. T. — le vrai nom était Fauchon, T. whose real name was Fauchon. Fior. Enfants, vous — la joie est faite d'ignorance, you, children, whose ignorance constitutes happiness. V. Hug. Qu'est-ce donc que l'homme — la mémoire périt si vite! what is man, the remembrance of whom is lost so soon! Chat. Les deux hommes — venait de parler d'eux, the two men of whom d. H. had just spoken. Nod. Un grand nombre d'hommes armés — plusieurs étaient étrangers, a great number of armed men among whom were several strangers. Bar. Vous vie n'est-elle pas à Dieu — vous l'avez reçue? your life, does it not belong to God from whom you received it? Rac.

2 (des choses, of things) of which, with which, on which. Il fit des fagots — la venue eueucha q'un long jehue, he made faggots, the sale of which prevented them from fasting too long. La Font. Quatre chambres — la meilleure était occupée par M., four rooms the best of which was occupied by M. Ab. S. étouffé de l'air tranquille — son frère l'avait accueilli, S. astonished at the coolness with which his brother had received him. G. Sand. Ce n'est pas la première injustice — la Grâce d'A. a payé les services, it is not the first piece of injustice with which Greece has requited the services of A. Rac. Un morceau de pain sec — j'avais déjeuné à l'hôpital, a piece of dry bread on which I had breakfasted in the hospital. Le Sage. La paix tranquille — tu jouissais, the profound tranquility that you enjoyed. Sand. Des erreurs de jeunesse — l'âge et le malheur devaient l'avoir corrigé, follies of youth that age and misfortune had without success cured him of. Ang. Th. Les agréments — vous jouissez ici, the comforts you enjoy here. Sand. Le moment — je l'avais parlé est venu, the time I spoke of is come. Nod. Ce chant — parle l'antiquité est-il nue fable? is this song mentioned by antiquity a mere fable? Mich. L'affaire — il s'agit, the affair in question.

3 Ce —, what, of which. Ce — il s'agit, the business in hand. Ce — je vous ai parlé, what I spoke to you about.

(elliptic.) Je le servis et trop bien, — I enraged, I served him too well, alas! and that is what enrages me. Volt.

4 (être issu, être né) from whom, from which. Par ces grands Ottomans — Je suis descendue, by these illustrious O's from whom I am descended. Rac. J'aime en elle le sang — elle est descendue, I love in her the race she sprang from. Rac. 5 (d'où) from where, whence, from whence. L'esprit retourne au ciel — il est descendu, the soul returns to Heaven whence it sprang. Rac.

DONZELLE, dong-zel, sf. pop. wench.
DORADE, dor-adj, sf. 4 ib. dorado, sword-fish, dory, John Dory, dorée, gold-fish. 2 astr. dorado.

DORAGE, do-ratz, sm. gilding.
DORDOGNE, dor-do-nyuh, sf. geog. (a department of France) Dordogne.

DORÉ, ppa. of DORER, fein. — E. adjectiv. 4 gilt, gilded, golden. Le tout — en or de doucas, the whole of which is gilded with pure gold. Th. Gaut. (by extension) Des laquais — sn toutes les couleurs, lackeys trimmed out with gold lace. fig. fr. rev. La jeunesse — e., the gilded youth. fig. Elle a converti son docteur, cette fine langue — e. de sa mère, that eloquent mother of mine has convinced the doctor. Beaum. Des paroles — e., smooth words. Des lièvres — e. des derniers feux du soleil, spoils gilded by some rays of the setting sun. Chat. prov. Bonne renommée vaut mieux que riensure — e., a good name is better than riches. 2 fig. (brillant, heureux) golden. J'étais en face de mon avenir — I had before me my golden future. Chat. Des rêves — e., golden dreams. 3 (d'un jeune brillant) golden, yellow. Des cheveux d'un blond — e., flaxen hair. Des champs — e. par les moissons, fields yellow with the harvest. Chat. 4 hant. Fumée — e., yellow fumes. 5 sm. gilding.

DORÉNAVANT, do-ray-nav-ang, adv. (written formally, d'ores en avant) henceforward, henceforth, for the future, in future.

DORER, do-ray, ra. 1 to gild (de la voisselle, plute). — un livre sur tranchée, to gild a book on the edges. — en plein or, to gild richly. fig. — e. la pitié, to gild the pity. 2 fig. (du soleil, of the sun) to gild. Le soleil dorait les pitous de cette encanée, the sun gilded the peaks of the encanée. B. de St-P. (by extension) Les pays chauds dorait les guenilles et les roussissent à souhait pour le plaisir des peintures, hot countries gild rags, and give them a russet tinge that delights the painter. Th. Gaut. 3 fig. Le soleil dore les moissons, the sun turns the harvests yellow, gilds the harvest. (by extension) Les épis qui dorait nos guerriers, the ears of corn that gild our fellows. J.-J. Rouss. 4 fig. (embellir) to gild, to embellish. Ne dit-on pas à l'enfant un merveilleux his-toires qui lui dorent l'avenir? are not wonderful stories told to a child, which represent the future in golden colours? Balz. 5 pastry-cook. — un pain, un gâteau, to wash over a pie, a cake with the yolk of eggs.

SE DORER, ra. 4 (être doré) to be gilded, to gild. 2 (prendre une teinte jaune) to become yellow, to assume a golden hue. 3 poetic. fig. (s'embellir) to assume a golden hue. Du jour où je vous vis, ma vie encore bien sombre se dora, from the day when I saw you, my existence, till then so dull, assumed a golden hue. V. Hug.

DORÉUR, do-ruhr, sm. fein. DORÉTTE, gild.

DORIEN, dor-yang, adj. fein. — NE. (Gr.) 1 antiq. Dorian, Doric. 2 sm. absol. (le dialecte) — e., the Doric dialect. 3 (substantif) (habitant) Dorian.

DORIQUE, do-rik, adj. fein. 1 arch. Doric. L'ordre — e., the Doric order. 2 Doric. Le dialecte — e., the Doric dialect.

3 (substantif. masc.) absol. arch. (Vordre) Doric.

DORLOTER, dor-lo-tyr, ra. to fondle, to coddle. — un enfant, to pet a child. Qui me dorlotera quand je serai las, who will come and nurse me when I am tired. Volt. fig. Ils n'ont eajulé aucune passion, ni dorloté aucune sottise humaine, they have flattered no passion, nor have they pampered any human folly. Ste-B.

SE DORLOTER, rpr. to indulge one's self. Je resterais volontiers dans mon grand fauteuil à me — I could very willingly stay and take my ease in my large arm-chair. Mérim.

DORMANT, dor-mang, ppr. of DORMIR, La belle au bois —, the sleeping beauty in the wood. prov. fig. Le bien lui vient en —, fortune favours him when he expects it the least. adj. fein. — E. 1 sleeping, asleep, dormant. 2 fig. stagnant, standing, still. Le ruisseau dort les — e. caux, the stream whose stagnant waters. Lamart. Pont —, fixed bridge. Vene —, dead bolt, steady bolt. fish. Ligne — e., standing rigging. 3 sm. raily. sleeper. trch. Un — de croisée, a fixed window-frame. 4 sm. (espèce de plateau) eyerone. 5 — sm. pl. Les sept — s d'Éphèse, the seven sleepers of Ephesus.

DORMEUR, dor-muir, sm. fein. DORMEUSE, sleeper, sluggard.

DOINEUSE, dor-muhz, sf. (volature) dormeuse.

DORMIR, dor-mee, ppa. inv. of donnm. sept. (improperly) Fatigué d'une nuit mal — e., tired by a restless night. Muss.

DORMIR, dor-meer, ru. irreg. 3. 3. DORS, TU DORS, IL DORT, NOUS DORMONS, VOUS DORMEZ, ILS DORMENT; JE DORMAIS; VOUS DORMIEZ; J'AI DORMI; JE DORMIRAI; DORS; QUE JE DORME, QUE JE DORMISSE, (Lat. dormire) 1 to sleep, to slumber. — le jour, la nuit, de jour, de nuit, to sleep in the day, in the night. L'enfant dort à l'ombre du lit maternel, the child sleeps near its mother's bed. V. Hug. Avoir envie de —, to be sleepy. — à poings fermés, to sleep like a top. Balz. S. dormait à pleins yeux. S. was in a sound sleep. G. Sand. (transitively) Dormez votre sommeil, grands de la terre, sleep your sleep, Lords of the Earth. Boss. Tenez dormez son premier sommeil chez les N. N. dort le premier sleep with the N. Chat. La solitude y dort son immense sommeil, solitude is there wrapped up in a deep slumber. Lamart. — d'un bon somme, de bon somme, to sleep soundly. (transitively) — un bon somme, to have a good nap. Le vieillard dormait d'un profond somme, the old man was sound asleep. La Font. — la grasse matinée, to sleep late in the morning. — comme une marmotte, to sleep like a top. — debout, SE DORMIR. (by extension) Dans le sein de la terre ils dorment en attendant le temps, they sleep in the bosom of the earth awaiting the time. Mich. La terre où tout ce qui vécut dort d'un sommeil profond, the earth in which every thing that lived is wrapped in eternal slumber. V. Hug. fig. L'ies du trône où dort le tonnerre, near the throne where the thunder sleeps. V. Hug. fig. — sur une affaire, to go to sleep over an affair. fig. Cette coupie, ce sabot dort, that top is asleep. — sur les deux oreilles, sur l'une et l'autre oreille, to sleep soundly; || fig. to be in security. fig. Laissez les capitaux, ses fomis, to let capital lie dormant. fig. Laissez — une affaire, to let a thing lie dormant. prov. pop. — comme un sabot, to sleep like a top. prov. fig. Éveiller le chat qui dort, to rouse the sleeping lion. 2 fig. (d'rs caux, of waters) to be stagnant, still, dormant. prov. fig. Il n'y a point de pire eau que l'eau qui dort, smooth water runs deep. 3 fig. to be apathetic, indiffer. N. Tu dors, Brutus! et Rome est dans les lers, Brutus awake! Rome is enslaved! Volt. Cet homme ne dort pas, that man is wide awake. 4 sm. sleep. Au marché fait vendre le — comme le manger et le boire, sells sleep at market like eatables and drinkables. La Font.

DORMITIF, dor-mo-tif, adj. m. fein. nom. triv. 1 med. dormitive. 2 sm. dormitive.

DORONIC, do-ro-nik, sm. bot. Scopoland's bane.

DOROTHÉE, do-ro-ty, sf. Dorothy.
DORSAL, dor-sal, adj. m. fein. — E., anat. 1 dorsal. 2 sm. Le grand —, the great dorsal.

DORTOIR, dor-tvair, sm. dormitory.

DORUE, dor-uf, sf. 4 gilding. (by extension) E. vint voir C. avec toutes ses — s et tous ses ordres, E. covered with all his decorations and orders came to see C. Th. Gaut. 2 (l'art) gilding. — en détrempe, à l'huile, au feu, gilding in distemper, burnished gilding, gilding in oil, gilding by heat.

DOS, do, sm. (Lat. dorsum) 4 back. Être couché sur le —, to be lying on one's back. Tourner le —, to turn one's back. Tourner le — aux ennemis, à l'ennemi, to turn one's back to the enemy, to turn his back. Il tourne le — où il veut aller, he turns his back to the place he wants to go to. Tourner le — à quelqu'un, to turn one's back on a person. fig. La fortune lui a tourné le —, fortune frowned upon him. Faire le gros —, to set up its back. (hyperb.) N'avez pas une chemise à se mettre sur le —, not to have a shirt to one's back. fig. pop. Mettre tout sur le — de quelqu'un, to throw, to cast the whole blame upon a person; to lay every thing on a person's back. fig. Porter quelqu'un sur son —, to be weary of a person. fig. Avoir bon —, to have a strong back. Avoir quelqu'un à —, se mettre quelqu'un à —, to have an enemy, to make an enemy of a person. fig. Mettre des gens à —, to make up a difference equally between two people. fig. Le — à la domination, he wants a good thrashing. prov. fig. Faire le gros —, faire gros —, to assume an air of importance. prov. fig. Se laisser manger la laine sur le —, to submit to every thing. 2 (by analogy) (d'un habit, d'une robe, of a coat, of a gown, d'une chaise, of a chair; d'un livre, of a book; de la main, of the hand) back. DOS d'ÂNE, sm. a shipling ridge, steep ridge.

ES — D'ÂNE, adv. loc. with a shelling ridge.

DUSAGE, do-zahz, sm. mixture.

DOSE, doz, sf. (Gr.) 1 (dans un remède) dose. 2 (dans un mélange quelconque) portion, quantity. 3 (chaque prise d'un remède) dose. 4 (quantité déterminée) portion. (morally) Il y a par tout mélange de bien et de mal, mais à diverses — s, evry where there is a mixture of good and evil, though not in the same proportions. J.-J. Rouss. Je voulais hier prendre une petite — de morale, je m'en trouvais à petite lecture, and it did me good. M. de Sév. Une — d'ennui que je ne veux partager avec personne, a fit of the spleen that I keep all to myself. Ab. Avoir une forte — d'amour-propre, to have a good share of conceit.

DOSSER, do-ray, ra. to dose.

DOSSIER, do-say, sm. 1 (d'une chaise, d'un banc, d'un canapé, of a chair, of a bench, of a sofa) back. Le — d'un lit, the head-board of a bed. 2 (d'une de pièces) Le — d'une procédure, a brief. Dépuiller, examiner un —, to examine a brief.

DOT, dot, sm. (Lat. dos) 1 portion, dowry, dower. Une fille sans —, a portionless, dowerless girl. 2 (ce qu'une fille apporte au coevent) dowry.

DOTAL, dot-al, adj. m. fein. — E., law. dotal.

DOTATION, do-tah-syong, sf. 1 en-juste et délicat, excepting or that point, he was endowed with a just and delicate perception. Nod. C'est un homme heureux — he is a highly-gifted man.

DOUCELLE, doo-ayl, sf. (Lat. doliolum) 4 arch. inner surface of an arch. 2 stare (of a cask).

DOUCER, doo-ay, ra. 4 law. to endow (with). to settle, to make a settlement (upon). 2 (avantage) to endow (with), to induce (with), to gift. (by extension) Ces personnages de toutes classes qu'il avait données de vie, those personages of all classes whom he had given life to. St-B.

DOUCILLE, doo-yub, sf. (d'une baionnette, d'une bêche, of a bayonet, of a spade) socket.

DOUCILLET, doo-yay, adj. m. fem. —te, 4 soft, downy. 2 (trop délicat) tender, soft, effeminate. 3 sm. Faire le —, to be tender, to be afraid of being hurt.

DOUCLETTE, doo-yet, sf. wadded silk outer garment.

DOUCILLEMENT, doo-yet-mang, adv. softly, delicately.

DOUCLEUR, doo-luhr, sf. (Lat. dolor) 4 ache, pain, suffering. 2 (ad au mal) pain, suffering, sorrow, grief. D'amères —, bitter sorrows. Prov. À la Châtelaine, les grâces —, Candieiras is in the depth of woe.

DOULOIR, doo-luhr, trpr. obsol. to want, to want, to complain.

DOULOUREUSEMENT, doo-luhr-zh-mang, adv. painfully, sorrowfully.

DOULOUREUX, doo-luhr-ay, adj. m. fem. 1 (causé de la douleur) painful. 4 (qui marque de la douleur) sorrowful, mournful. 3 (sensible) tender, sore. 4 (au moral) painful, sorrowful, mournful.

DOURO, doo-ro, sm. (Sp.) the Douro.

DOUTE, doot, sm. 1 (incertitude) doubt. Être en —, to be in doubt, to doubt. C'est est hors de —, that is beyond, past doubt. Laver, résoudre, éclaircir, à —, to remove, to solve, to clear up a doubt. Je me trouvais embarrassé de tant de —s et d'erreurs. I found myself embarrassed in the midst of so many doubts and errors. Desc. Notre docteur va bientôt lever tous les —s, our doctor will soon remove all doubts. Boil. Nul — que, no doubt that. Mettre une chose en —, to révoquer en —, to call in question. absol. Le —, doubt, doubting. Le — est la fièvre de l'âme, doubt is the fever of the soul. J. de Mais. prov. Dans le —, abstiens-toi, when in doubt, refrain. 2 (suspension) suspicion, doubt, misgiving. 3 (crainte, apprehension) fear, apprehension. 4 (scrupule) doubt, scruple. Il me reste encore quelque —, I have some doubts left.

SANS DOUTE, adv. 4 doubtless, no doubt, undoubtedly, unquestionably. Viendrez-vous demain sans —, shall you come to-morrow? to be sure, I shall. C'est là sans — une très-belle action, that is undoubtedly a very fine action. 2 (selon toutes les apparences) no doubt. Il arrivera sans — demain, he will no doubt arrive to-morrow. Sans — qu'il n'a pas pensé à cela, must likely he forgot that.

DOUTER, doo-tay, tr. (Lat. dubitare) to doubt, to have doubts (about), to question. — de quelque chose, to doubt of a thing. Doute aujourd'hui de ta sagesse, car tu ne peux — de moi, doubt of present your own wisdom, for you cannot doubt me. V. Hug. Si je doute des farces, c'est que j'ai vu pleurer, if I mistrust farces, it is because I have seen you weep. Mus. Le roi qui doutait de l'issue de la lutte, the king who had his doubts about the result of the struggle. Ag. Th. Je doute qu'il y ait un endroit au monde où, I doubt whether there is a place in the world where. Nod. Que les R. doutent où vous serez et vous trouvez partout, let the R. doubt where you are and find you every where. Rac. absol. M. aurait voulu —, mais le doute était impossible, M. wished he could doubt, but doubt was impossible. Méry. La science doute toujours —, just après résultat accompli, science ought always to doubt, until a result is given. Méry.

SE DOUTER, trpr. 1 to surmise, to suspect. Se — de quelque chose, to suspect something. C. se douta que sa fille devait être chez sa femme. G. suspected that his daughter was with his wife. Balz. 2 Ne pas se — d'une chose, not to have the least idea of a thing.

DOUTEUR, doo-tuhr, sm. doubter. Volt.

DOUTEUSEMENT, doo-tuhr-mang, adv. doubtfully.

DOUTEUX, doo-toh, adj. m. fem. douteux, 4 (incertain) doubtful, dubious, questionable. Fort de sa parenté douteuse, relying on his questionable relationship. Douteux affaire, a doubtful affair. D'une probité douteuse, of doubtful integrity. Il n'était — pour personne que, nobody ever doubted that. 2 (dont on n'est pas sûr) doubtful. 3 (équivoque, ambigu) ambiguous. Une réponse douteuse, an ambiguous answer. Pièce d'or ou d'argent douteuse, a piece of money that looks suspicious. 4 Jour —, doubtful, uncertain light. 5 gram. Noms —, doubtful nouns. 6 prosod. Voyelle douteuse, syllable douteuse, dubious vowel, syllable. 7 sm. uncertain. Risquer le certain pour le —, to risk the certain for the uncertain.

DOUVAIN, doo-vang, sm. lech. state-wood, elaphoids.

DOUYE, doo-y, sf. stare.

DOYER, sf. bot. spear-wood.

DOLN, doo, adj. m. fem. douce. (Lat. dulcis) 4 (relativement au goût) sweet. Huile d'annades douces, oil of sweet annades. Vin —, unferment d'une. Eau douce, fresh water; || l'ois-on d'eau douce, fresh-water fish; || l'acide d'eau douce, fresh-water sulfur; || fig. Médecin d'eau douce, water-gruel doctor; a raw inexperienced physician. Prov. Ce qui est amer à la bouche est — au cœur, what is bitter to the taste is pleasant to the heart. 2 (relativement aux autres sens) soft, smooth, sweet, easy. Une chose douce au toucher, something soft to the touch. Avoir la peau douce, to be soft-skinned. Voix douce, soft voice. Un — parfum, a sweet perfume. Escalier —, easy staircase. Penie douce, gentle slope. Style —, flowing style. Eloquence douce et persuasive, honied and persuasive eloquence. Laine douce, soft felt. Graver en taille-douce, tail-douce, copper-plate engraving. Graver en taille-douce, to engrave on copper-plate. Graver en taille-douce, on copper-plate. Cheval —, mounter donee, easy-going horse, easy-paced horse. Cheval —, gentle horse. Voiture douce, easy carriage. Gr. gram. Esprit —, soft breathing. med. Purgation, médecine douce, gentle purge, medicine. 3 (de l'état de l'atmosphère) mild, gentle. Un air —, un temps —, a mild air, a mild weather. Un — zéphyr, a gentle zephyr. poetic. La douce haleine des vents, du zéphyr, the gentle breath of the winds, of the zephyrs. Pluie douce, gentle rain. Chaleur douce, gentle heat. Cheu. Un feu —, a gentle, a slow fire. fig. La douce influence de sa parole, the gentle influence of his words. 4 (calme, tranquille) gentle, soft, easy, peaceful, quiet. Un — sommeil, gentle sleep. Mener une vie douce, to lead an easy life. Une douce mélancolie, soothing melancholy. Mort douce, easy death. 5 fig. (par opposition à rude, sévère, etc.) mild, gentle, bland. — comme un monton, gentle as a lamb. 6 fig. (peu difficile à supporter, qui n'est pas servile) easy. C'est une maison où le service est fort —, it is a house where the service is very easy. Il n'est pas de joug plus —, there is no yoke more easy. C'est un devoir bien — à remplir, it is a very agreeable duty to perform. 7 fig. (qui exprime, qui dénote une disposition bienveillante, affectueuse, on la candeur, la bonté mild, gentle, benignant, kind. Faire les yeux —, les — yeux, to be sweet upon; to give sweet looks. De douces paroles, de — propos, kind words, tender language. Bilet —, billet-doux, love-letter. 8 fig. (qui émeut, qui flatte) soft, pleasing, agreeable. Il n'est — de voir que, d'avoir à vous annoncer que, it is pleasing for me to see; I have the pleasing task to announce to you that. (substantif). Passer au grave au —, to glide from the serious to the playful. Boil. 9 (des métaux, of metals) soft, ductile. 10 sm. sweet. Le — et l'amer, the sweet and bitter. fig. Faire le —, faire la douce, to assume mild looks. 11 (adverbialement) Filer —, to be humble and submissive; to draw in one's horns. Il avala cela — comme lait, he very quietly poked that affront.

TOUT DOUX, adv. 1. softly, gently.

DOUZAIN, doo-zayn, sf. (collectif.) 4 dozen. Une — d'œufs, a dozen eggs. 2 (nombre indéterminé, mais peu considérable) dozen. Nous étions environ une — de personnes, there were about a dozen of us. 3 fig. À la —, by the dozen. Un poète à la —, a poetaster. fig. Il ne s'en trouve pas à la —, they are not to be found every where.

DOUZE, dooz, adv. 1. twelve. 2 (douzième) twelfth. Page —, twelfth page. Charles XII ou the twelfth. 3 sm. twelve. Le nombre —, the number twelve. Le numéro —, number twelve, twelfth. Le — du mois, the twelfth of the month. Le — du mois de juin, le — juin, the twelfth of June. (by analogy) Le — de la lune, the twelfth day of the moon. Le — de la maladie, the twelfth day of the malady. tu —, duodécimo.

DOUZIÈME, doo-zyam, adj. numer. mf. twelfth. Le — siècle, the twelfth century. Le — jour du mois (elliptique). Le — du mois, the twelfth day of the month, the twelfth of the month. La — partie, absol. Le —, the twelfth, the twelfth part. Les cinq —, the five twelfths.

DOUZIÈMENT, doo-zyam-mang, adv. twelfthly.

DOYEN, doo-yang, sm. (Lat. decanus) 4 old st. senior member. 2 (titre ecclésiastique) dean. Le — de Notre-Dame, the dean of Notre-Dame. 3 (de l'université) dean. Le — de la Faculté de droit, the dean of the Faculty of law. 4 (le plus ancien en âge) senior, elder. fem. —se. Elle est novice —ne, she is our senior.

DOYENNÉ, doo-yay-nay, sm. 4 deanery. 2 (by extension) la demeure du doyen deanery. 3 hort. Paire de —, doynene, dean's par.

DRACHME, drak'm, DRAGNE, drag'm, sf. (Gr.) 4 drachma. 2 (le huitième de l'once) dram.

DRABE, drab-zhay, sf. 4 sugar-plum, confit. Un cornet —, a paper of sugar-plums. fig. La — est amère, the pill is bitter. fig. Tenir la — haute à quelqu'un, to make a person wait for a thing; to make him pay dear for a thing. 2 (une plomb) snail shot. 3 agri. nestin.

DRAGOIR, drash-war, sm. dish for confits.

DRAGEON, drab-zhong, sm. bot. agri. sucker.

DRAGONNER, drab-zhon-nay, ra. bot. agri. to shoot forth suckers.

DIAGOMAN, drag-o-mang, sm. See BROGMAN.

DRAGON, drag-ong, sm. 4 dragon. fig. Le — infernal, the devil. 2 nat. hist. dragon, draco, flying lizard. 3 fig. (femme vive, turbulente; enfant mutin) rixem, termagant, she-dragon; imp. Un — de veria, a prude. 4 agri. dragon, draco. 5 mil. dragon. 6 surg. (tarie) cata-ract. 7 fig. obsol. blue devils. M^{re} de Sev.

all my wrath has already cooled down.
Mol.

DULCIFIER, dül-se-fyay, va. NOUS DULCIFIONS, VOUS DULCIFIEZ; QUE NOUS DULCIFIONS, chem. to dulcify.

DULCINEE, dü-se-may, sf. (in joke) Dulcinea.

DUMENT, dü-mäng, adv. duly. Il a été — avarié, he has been duly warned.
— autorisé, duly authorized. Notre dé-cès était en carrosse porté, bien et — em-baumé, our deceased was borne in a coach, well and duly wrapped up. La Font.
— atteint et convaincu, duly convicted.

DUODÉCIME, (CLAUDE-FRANÇOIS), dümoo-ryat, sm. a celebrated French general, born in 1789, died in 1823.

DUNE, dün, sf. down.

DUNETTE, dü-net, sf. naut. poop.

DUNKERQUE, düng-keik, s. geog.
Dunkirk.

DUO, düo, sm. (Lat.) mus. duo, duet.
fig. — d'injures, de compliments, duet of insults, of compliments.

DUODECIMAL, dü-o-day-se-mal, adj.
m. fem. — sf. duodecimal.

DUODÉCIMO, dü-o-day-se-mo, adv.
twelfthly.

DUODÉNAIRE, dü-o-day-mayr, adj.
mf. duodenary.

DUODENUM, dü-o-day-nahm, sm. anat.
duodenum.

DUODI, dü-o-dee, sm. duodi (second day of the decade of the first French Republic).

DUPE, düp, sf. 1 dupe, gulf. J'en ai été la, I was taken in by it. Etre pris pour —, to be taken for a dupe. Faire des —, to make dupes. Nous en fîmes la —, we were deceived by it. Etre la — d'une affaire, d'un marché, to be a loser by an affair, a bargain. 2 (adjective) deceived. Il n'est pas si — que vous le pensez, he is not so much deceived as you imagine. 3 (sorte de jeu) dupe.

DUPE, ppa. of DUPEUR, fem. — sf. duped.
Toujours par leurs sens les hommes sont —, men are ever the dupes of their senses. La Font.

DUPEUR, dü-pay, ra. (trouper) to dupe, to gulf, to take in. — quelqu'un, to dupe a person. Se laisser —, to suffer one's self to be duped.

DUPERIE, düp-ree, sf. dupery. Il aimait mieux flatter les autres que d'être flaté, jugeant que la — est du côté de celui qui reçoit les hommages, he preferred flattering to being flattered, deeming that the dupe is he who receives the homage.
Bar.

DUPEUR, dü-puhr, sm. (little used) duper. Un — d'oreilles, an orator, a writer who prefers sound to sense.

DUPICATA, dü-pie-kat-sh, sm. duplicate. Expédier un acte en —, par —, to draw up a deed in duplicate.

DUPPLICATION, dü-pie-kah-syong, sf.
geom. duplication.

DUPPLICATE, dü-pie-se-tay, sf. (Lat. duplicitas) 1 duplicity, doubleness. 2 fig.
(mauvaise foi) duplicity, double-dealing.
— de cœur, doubleness of heart.

DUPLIQUE, dü-pik, sf. anc. law. rebuttal.

DUPliquer, dü-pie-kay, vn. anc.
law. to put in a rebuttal.

DUQUEL, dü-kayl, contract. for DE LE-QUEL, of whom, of which. See TEQUEL.

DUQUESNE (ABRAHAM, marquis de), dü-kayn, sm. a celebrated French naval officer, born in 1610, died in 1688.

DUR, dü, adj. m. fem. — e. (Lat. durus) 4 hard. — comme du marbre, comme marbre, as hard as marble. (par opposition à tendre) Pain —, stale bread.
Ouf —, hard egg. Un lit —, a hard bed. fig. Avoir l'oreille — e. être — d'oreille, to be dull, hard of hearing.
Etre — au travail, à la fatigue, à la peine, to be hardened, inured to labour, to fatigue. Etre — au mal, to be steed to pain. Tête — e. blockhead, stupidhead.

Intelligence — e. entendement —, dull, heavy understanding. 2 (rude, insensible) hard, harsh, hard-hearted, stern.
Il est fort — pour ses domestiques, he is very harsh to his servants. La cour est on édifice de marbre; les gens y sont polis, mais fort —, the court is a marble edifice; the people in it are very polite, but very hard-hearted. La Bruy. Pourquoi les riches sont-ils si — envers les pauvres? why are the rich so harsh to the poor? J.-J. Rouss. Avoir l'âme — e.
le caractère —, le cœur —, to be hard-hearted. Des lois — es, harsh laws. (by analogy) Avoir les traits — es, la mine
— e. le regard —, to be hard-favoured, hard-featured, to have a stern look. Ten —, manières — es, harsh tone, manners.

Réponse — e et sèche, hard and dry answer. Paroles — es et offensantes, harsh and offensive expressions. 3 (peuible, austère) hard, painful. Il était — de voir la ville si près de soi, it was hard to see the town at so little distance. Ab. C'est une — e nécessité, it is a hard, a stern necessity. Il se mit à dire de — es vé-rités à Dubois, he began to tell D. some hard truths. Si-Simon. Une vie fort — e, a very hard life. Rendre à quelqu'un la vie — e, to lead a person a hard life of it. (elliptic.) En faire voir de — es à quelqu'un, to lead a person a sorry life of
it. Le temps est —, it is severe weather;
|| fig. Les temps sont — es, the times are hard. Vin —, tart wine. 4 (rude et dis-agréable à l'oreille) harsh. Une voix
— e, a harsh voice. Des vers — es, harsh verses. 5 draw, calligraph. stiff. Ces cou-tures sont — es, those outlines are stiff.
(by analogy) Avoir le crayon —, le pin-ceau —, to have a stiff pencil. 6 (difficile) hard. Etre — à emouvoir, to be hard to move. Cela est — à digérer, est de — e digestion, that is hard of digestion; || fig. that is hard to be submitted to,
to be believed. Ce fusil est — à la détente, See OTEMENT. Etre — à la desserte, See DESERTER. Marchandise — à la vente, wares of bad sale. 7 sf. Con-cher sur la — e, to lie on the bare ground.

8 sm. prov. fig. Quand l'un veut du monde, l'autre veut lui —, those two never agree.
9 sm. draw, calligraph. hard. 10 adv. Entendre —, to be thick, dull, hard of hearing. || ci croit — comme fer tout ce qu'on lui dit, he swallows down every thing that is told him.

DURABLE, dü-rabl, adj. mf. durable, lasting. Rien n'est — sur la terre, nothing upon earth is lasting. Mass.

DURACINE, dü-rab-seen, sf. duracine
(a kind of peach).

DURANT, dü-räng, prep. during. — le repas fut silencieux, he was silent during the dinner. Sand. Elle dormit si bien — six heures, she slept so soundly for six hours. Soint. — l'hiver, during the winter; all the winter long. Je me suis occupé de vous — tout mon voyage, I have been busy on your account during the whole of my journey. J.-J. Rouss. — que l'empereur s'efforçait, whilst the emperor endeavoured. Boss. Savie —, during his life. Dix ans —, for ten years.

DURCI, dü-see, ppa. of DURCIR, fem.
— e, hardened. Terre — e par la gelée, ground hardened by the frost. Ses jolies mains — es par le travail, her pretty hands hardened with working. Balz.

DURCIR, dü-seer, va. to harden.
SE DURCIR, vpr. to grow hard, tough, to harden.

DURCIR, vn. to harden, to grow hard.
Faire — des œufs, to boil eggs hard.

DURCISSEMENT, dü-ris-mäng, sm.
hardening.

DUREE, dü-ray, sf. duration, continuance. La — totale de la vie, the total duration of life. Buff. C'est le des-tin des choses humaines de n'avoir qu'une — courte et rapide, it is the destiny of human concerns to have but a short and rapid duration. Mass. absol. duration.

L'espace et la —, space and duration.
Dieu garde la — et nous laisse l'espace, God has eternity for him and grants us space. V. Hug.

DUREMENT, dü-r-mäng, adv. hard, harshly, roughly, strongly. Vivre —, to lead a hard life of it. Parler — à quelqu'un, to be hard upon a person.

DURE-MERE, dü-mayr, sf. anal. duramater.

DURER, dü-ray, vn. 1 to last, to subsist, to endure, to remain, to continue, to hold out, to seem long. Tant que dura le jour, so long as the day lasted.
Notre mutuel amour dure encore, our mutual love still subsists. Sand. L'office dura jusqu'à midi, the divine service lasted till twelve. Ab. Il était à souhaiter qu'il (Richelieu) durât assez pour battre la maison d'Autriche, it was to be wished he could last long enough to overthrow the house of Austria. Tallem.
Tout cela ne dura guère, all that did not last long. Aug. Th. Je ne pourrais pas — dans l'incertitude où je suis, I could not live in such uncertainty. Balz. Elle ne conceit pas que je puisse — loin de vous plus de huit jours, she cannot conceive how I can stay away from you for more than a week. Dider. Je ne saurais plus — sans vous écrire, I could no longer exist without writing to you.
Bossy-R. Le temps lui dure, time appears long to him. Le temps ne me dure pas, I do not find time to be tedious.
Lamart. Que le temps me dure depuis ce moment jusqu'au sonner! I thought that the hour of supper, would never come! Le Sage. Elle me témoignait même que ce temps ne lui avait pas duré, she even gave me to understand that the time had not hung heavy upon her hands. Rac.
Ne pouvoir — en place, to be uneasy where one is. Je ne puis — à la maison, I cannot remain at home. Ne pouvoir — dans sa peau, to be ready to leap out of one's skin. Ne pouvoir — de chaud, de froid, un chaud, un froid, to be ready to sink under the heat, to perish with cold.

Ne pouvoir — avec quelqu'un, to be unable to live with a person. Nous ne pouvons — avec nous-mêmes, we cannot hear to commune with our own hearts. Mass.
prov. Il faut faire voir qui dure, one must make life last long. || Il faut faire feu qui dure, one must not spend all in a day. 2 absol. (durer longtemps) to last, to wear well. Voilà une étoffe à —, that is a stuff that will wear well. Rien ne dure que ce qui vient régulièrement et progressivement, nothing lasts that does not come regularly and progressively. M^{me} de Staël. Il y a à toujours cent contre un à parier, en France, qu'une chose ne durera pas, in France, one may always bet a hundred to one that a thing will not last. Chat.

DURET, dü-ray, adj. m. fem. DURETTE, dim. of DUR, (little used) rather hard,
toughish, rather tough.

DURETE, dü-rayt, sf. (Lat. durities) 1 hardness. La — du fer, the hardness of iron. (par opposition à la qualité de ce qui est tendre) toughness, hardness, dullness. La — de la viande, the toughness of meat. La — d'un lit, the hardness of a bed. — d'oreille, hardness, dullness of hearing. 2 fig. (défaut de ce qui est dur et désagréable) hardness, harshness. — de prononciation, — de style, harshness of pronunciation. — de style, harshness of style. 3 fig. draw, calligraph. stiffness. 4 fig. paint, stiffness. 5 fig. (ru-desse, insensibilité) hardness, hard-heartedness, harshness. Une grande — de cœur, hard-heartedness. Vous ne savez pas jusqu'où va la — du cœur de certaines personnes, you do not know how hard-hearted certain people are. Pasc.
La — d'un gouvernement, the harshness of a government. (by analogy) La — de sa physionomie, de son regard, the harshness of his countenance, of his look. La — de cette réponse le consterna, the harshness of this answer dismayed him. 6 fig. La — du vin, the tartness of wine. 7 fig. La — da temps, the severity of the weather; || la — des temps, the hardness of the times. 8 fig. — s, pl. (paroles offensantes) harsh, cutting words. Dire des — s à quelqu'un, to say harsh things to a person. 9 fig. Les — s de la fortune, the rigours of fortune. 10 med. hard swelling.

DURILLON, dū-re-yong, sm. callosity.

DURIUSCULE, dū-ryūs-kūl, adj. mf. (in joke) rather hard.

DUUMVIR, dū-uhm-vir, sm. duumvir.

DUUMVIRAT, dū-uhm-ve-rah, sm.

1 Rom. hist. duumvirate. 2 l'exercice des fonctions duumvirales.

DUVEI, dū-vay, sm. 1 (collectif) down. Un oreiller de —, a pillow of down. Un étreindre de — de cygne, a coverlet of swan down. Coucher sur le —, to lie upon a bed of down. 2 (premières plaines) down. 3 (by extension) poetic down. Une figure de seize ans un peu pâle, mais où fleurit encore sur les joues le — de l'enfance, a face of sixteen, rather pale, but on which there still appeared the down of childhood. Lamart. 4 (by extension) (des fruits, of fruit) down, wool.

DUVETÉ, dūv-tay, adj. m. fem. — E, zool. downy.

DUVETÉUX, dūv-toh, adj. m. fem.

DUVETÉUX, zool. bot. (little used) downy.

DYNAMIQUE, de-nam-ik, sf. (Gr.) dynamics. 2 (adjective) dynamic, dynamical.

DYNAMOMÈTRE, de-nam-o-maytr', sm. (Gr.) phys. dynamometer.

DYNASTIE, de-nas-tee, sf. (Gr.) dynasty.

DYSPESIE, dis-pep-see, sf. (Gr.) med. dyspepsia, dyspepsy.

DYSINÉE, disp-nay, sf. (Gr.) med. dyspnoea.

DYSENTERIE, de-sàng-t-ree, sf. (Gr.) med. dysentery, bloody pur.

DYSENTERIQUE, de-sàng-tay-rik, adj. mf, med. dysenteric, dysenterical.

DYSURIE, de-zū-ree, sf. (Gr.) med. dysuria, dysuria.

E

E, ay, sm. the fifth letter of the alphabet; a great E, a little e, an close-natured e; the broad open E, the open E, and the mute E; in SEVERE, the first e is close, the second is broad, and the third is mute.

EAU, o, sf. 1 water. — de source, de fontaine, de puits, spring-water, well-water. — de pluie, — pluviale, rain-water, pluvial water. — de roche, rock-water. — du ciel, rain-water. — de mer, salt-water. — vive, — courante, fresh, running water. Goutte d'—, drop of water. Verre d'—, glass of water. Un cours d'—, a stream of water. Une source d'—, a spring of water. Filet d'—, small stream of water. Prise d'—, a concession of water. Voie d'—, two pailfuls of the water-carrier. naut. Voie d'—, leak. — douce, fresh water. See source. — ferrée, chalybeate water. — panée, toast and water. — de savon, soap-suds. — d'empois, starch. — lustrale, lustral water. — bénite. See BÉNITE. Buvant d'—, water-drinker. Jeter au pain et à l'—, to fast upon bread and water. (by analogy) Mettre quelqu'un au pain et à l'—, to put a person upon bread and water. Rompre l'— à un cheval, to prevent a horse from drinking too much. naut. Faire de l'—, to take in fresh water. naut. Faire l'—, to make water, to leak, to spring a leak. fig. Ce fruit, ce ragout ne sent que l'—, that fruit, that ragout has no taste in it. fig. Il n'y a pas de l'— à boire, there is no profit to be had. fig. Mettre de l'— dans son vin, to lower one's pretensions. prov. Ces deux personnes se ressemblent comme deux gouttes d'—, those two persons are as alike as two peas. prov. fig. Il se noierait dans no verre d'—, a fether would sink him. fam. C'est le feu et l'—, they are fire and water. prov. Porter de l'— à la mer, à la rivière, porter l'— à la mer, to carry coals to Newcastle. C'est une goutte d'— dans la mer, it is a drop of water in the sea. Il ne trouverait pas de l'— à la rivière, he cannot see beyond his nose. 2 (particularly) (la pluie) rain, wet. Nous aurons de l'— aujourd'hui, we shall have rain to-day. Le temps, le vent est à l'—, the weather, the wind is in the wet corner. Les bies ont grand besoin d'—, the corn is in great want of rain. Le ciel continue de se résoudre en —, the sky still continues to be dissolved in rain. Dicter. 3 (mer, rivière, lac, étang) water. Aller par —, to go by water. Passer l'—, to cross the water. Nager, flotter sur l'—, to swim, to float on the water. Nager entre deux — x, to swim under water. Revenir sur l'—, to come up to the surface again; || to hold up one's head again. Lancer un navire à l'—, to launch a ship. Il avait de l'— jusqu'au cou, he was in the water up to his neck. Rat d'—, water-rat. Poule d'—, moor-hen. La Seine voit du sein de ses — x vingt îles s'élever, the S. sees twenty islands rising out of the bosom of its waters. Boil. Le murmure des — x, the murmur of the waters. Le fil de l'—, the stream. A fleur d'—, between wind and water. Pleine —, main river. Faire nue pleine —, to swim in the main stream. Être comme le poisson dans l'—, to be like a fish in the water; || to live in clover. Les — x sont grandes, grosses, hautes, the water is high. Les — sont basses, the water is low. Les — x d'un navire, the wake of a ship. admin. woods and forests. ab. ol. Les — x et forêts, woods and forests. fig. C'est un coup d'épée dans l'—, See coup. fig. Nager entre deux — x, to trim, to be a trimmer; to waver between two parties. fig. Tomber dans l'—, to fall to the ground, to come to nothing. fig. Nager en grande —, en pleine —, to roll in plenty. prov. Il passera bien de l'— sous les ponts entre ça et là, d'ici à ce temps-là, there will be many a peck of salt eaten before that time. — pr. fig. Tenir quelqu'un le bec dans l'—, See BEC. Faire venir l'— au moulin, to bring grist to the mill. Pêcher en —, to fish in troubled waters. 4 water. — minérale, mineral water. — x chaudes, hot waters. — x ferrugineuses, sulfureuses, chalybeate, sulphurous waters. — de Barèges, de Plombières, de Spa, Barèges, Plombières, Spa waters. — de Seltz, Seltzer water. Prendre les — x, to drink the waters. Les — x sont le dernier conseil de la médecine poussée à bout, the waters are the last advice of the Faculty driven to extremities. Dieler. — minérale artificielle, artificial mineral water. 5 eaux, pl. (lieu) watering-place. Aller aux — x, to go to a watering-place. 6 (humeur, gerosité) water. (hyperb.) Fondre en —, to melt, to dissolve in tears. vet. — x aux jambes, serosities in the legs. prov. L'— veut à la bouche, cela fait venir l'— à la bouche, one's mouth waters, that makes one's mouth water; || fig. Je vois ces amusements et toute voire bonne compagnie, et l'— m'en vient à la bouche. I see those amusements and all your agreeable society, and it makes me long to be among you. Mme de Coul. 7 (sueur) sweat, perspiration. fig. Suer sang et —, to strain every nerve, to do one's utmost; || to be much pained, distressed. 8 (particul.) (urine) water. 9 (liquor artificielle) water. — de rose, rose-water. — de plantain, plantain-water. — de fleur d'orange, orange-blossom water. — de vie, brandy. — de Cologne, Cologne water, eau de Cologne. — de senteur, sweet-scented water. 10 chem. aqua. — seccale, aqua seccunda. — régale, aqua-regalis. — distillée, distilled water. — forte, aquafortis. (by extension) — forte, aquafortis engraving. 11 (suc) juice. 12 (d' certaines pierres précieuses, du diamant) water. 13 tech. Donner de l'— à un drap, à un chapeau, to give a gloss to a cloth, a hat. 14 Vert d'—, light green.

EBAHI, ay-bah-ee, ppa. of s'ÉBAHIR, fem. — E, amazed.

s'ÉBAHIR, ay-bah-ee, vpr. to wonder, to be amazed, astounded. Le vieux et la vieille s'ébahissaient de plus en plus, the gadman and the gadwife grew more and more astonished. 8. ad.

EBAHISSEMENT, ay-bah-is-mang, sm. amazement, amazement, wonder.

ÉBARBER, ay-bar-bär, ra. 1 to pare, to clip. — da papier, des plumes, des pièces de monnaie, to cut paper, to strip pens, to nip off, to take off the rough edge of coins. 2 engrav. to scrape, to edge off.

ÉBARDOIR, ay-bar-bwä, sm. tech. scraper, parer.

ÉBARBURE, ay-bar-bür, sf. tech. chip.

ÉBAT, ay-bat, sm. (is generally used in the pl.) 'rolie, sport, play, gambol. Prendre ses — s, to play one's gambols. Leurs joyeux — s, their merry frolics.

ÉBATEMENT, ay-bat-mang, sm. (from ébat) 1 (in joke) obsol. sport, pastime. La Font. 2 coach-mak. L'— d'une voiture, the balancing of a carriage.

s'ÉBATTRE, ay-bättr', vpr. conj. like BATTRE, to play, to sport. Ils avaient pour s'— en liberté au parc de 200 arpents, they had the runge of a park of 200 acres to amuse themselves in. Sand.

ÉBAUBI, ay-bo-bee, adj. m. fem. — E,

(Lat. balbus) wonder-struck, amazed. Je suis tout — e, et je tombe des nues, i am quite wonder-struck, and I fall from the clouds. Mol. Sous ce bangar s'offrent à mes yeux — s, etc., under this shed my astonished eyes behold, etc. Chat.

ÉBACCHAGE, ay-bo-shahz, sm. tech. sketching, roughing, rough-work.

ÉBACCHÉ, ay-bosh, sf. 4 point. sculpt. sketch, rude outline, rough draught. fig. L'— d'un sourire parut au milieu de son égarement, an attempt at a smile appeared in the midst of her wildness. Chat. 2 lit. fig. sketch.

ÉBACCHÉ, ppa. of ÉBACCHER, fem. — e, 1 rough-hewn, fig. Au gâble mal de sa taille, by her irregular shape. Chat. Ses traits étaient polis — s que finis, her features were massive rather than finished. Lamart. 2 fig. sketched. La plupart des livres de cet ouvrage étaient — s, most of the books of that work were sketched. Chat.

ÉBACCHER, ay-bo-shay, ra. 4 point. sculpt. to sketch, to outline, to rough-hew, to make a first draught of. — une statue, un tableau, to rough-hew a statue, to sketch a painting. fig. Ses lèvres ébauchèrent un sourire d'admiration, an incipient smile of admiration played upon his lips. Chat. Le songe qu'avaient ébauché nos deux âmes, the vision that our two souls had had a glimpse of. V. Hugo. 2 fig. (d'un ouvrage l'esprit) to sketch. 3 fig. (préparer) to prepare. Vous êtes occupé à — a mariage, you are busy in getting up a marriage. Pic. Je débarquai sans avoir ébauché le plus petit roman, I landed without having had the slightest adventure. Ab. 4 engrav. to sketch. 5 tech. to rough.

ÉBACCHER, rpr. to be rough-hewn, rough-cast. fig. Sous des bangars s'ébauchent des carcasses de navire, under sheds, hulks of ships are rough-hewn. Th. Gaut. ÉBACHOIR, ay-bo-shwar, sm. tech. hoaster, sketching-chisel.

ÉBACQUER, ay-bo-deer, rpr. absol. (se réunir) to frisk, to skip about. Nous entendons que to en emploies la moitié à l'— honnêtement, we mean that you should employ the half in innocent diversions. Nod. Les vilains enfants qui jonaient en s'ébauchant sur le rivage, naughty children who were playing and skipping about on the shore. Nod. Pour donner aux badauds sujet de s'—, to afford a subject of amusement to the idlers. Cora. (sometimes transitively) to amuse, to divert. L'ébauchard Votre Excellence par des airs de mon flageolet, I will divert your Excellency with airs on my flageolet. Volt. (by extension) A mal parler des gens, il s'ébauchait la rate, he diverted his spleen in speaking ill of people. Haat.

ÉBACQUISSEMENT, ay-bo-dis-mang, sm. absol. frisking, skipping about.

ÉBÈNE, ay-bayn, sf. ebony. — noire, black ebony. De l'— grise, grey ebony. De l'— rouge et noire, blanche et noire, red and black, white and black ebony. (by extension) sm. De vieux — s d'un prix exorbitant, old furniture in ebony of an exorbitant price. Balz. fig. Des cheuveux d'—, coal-black hair. poét. L'— de ses cheveux, her jet-black hair.

ÉBÈNER, ay-bay-day, ra. s'ÉBÈNER, tu ÉBÈNES, il ÉBÈNE, tech. to clothe.

ÉBÈNIER, ay-bay-nay, sm. bot. ebony-tree. Faux —, tulurum.

ÉBÉNISTE, ay-bay-nist, sm. cabinet-maker.

ÉBÉNISTERIE, ay-bay-nis-tree, sf. 1 (le métier cabinet-making, 2 (ouvrage fait l'ébéniste) cabinet-work.

ÉBLOUI, ay-bloo-ee, pp. of ÉBLOUIR, fem. — e, dazzled. Des éclairs de ses yeux, l'œil était —, the eye was dazzled with the lightning, gushing from his eyes. Rac. fig. Cent mille écus bien comptés, ils ont été — s de cette somme, a hundred thousand crowns hard money, they were dazzled with this sum. M^{me} de Sév. Je vous vois tout — de ses belles expressions, I see you are quite dazzled with his fine expressions. Boss. Il est — de sa fortune, he is dazzled with his fortune.

ÉBLOUIR, ay-bloo-ee, ra. 1 to dazzle, 2 to dim. Le soleil m'éblouit et sa chaleur m'opprime, the sun is dazzling and its heat is oppressive. C. Del. absol. La neige, la blancheur de la neige éblouit, the snow, the whiteness of the snow is dazzling. Une beauté qui éblouit, a dazzling beauty. 2 fig. (séduire) to dazzle, to astonish. L'éloquence éblouissante de M^{le} Petit Jean m'éblouit, the brilliant eloquence of M^{le} P. J. dazzles me. Rac. On ne m'éblouit pas d'une apparence vaine, I am not to be dazzled with vain appearances. Boil. D. éblouissait l'opinion de l'éclat de nouvelles victoires, d. dazzled opinion with the splendour of recent victories. Lamart. Bien savoir — le vulgaire, to know well how to dazzle the vulgar. Volt. Ne vous laissez pas — au faux brillant que jette la grandeur humaine, do not suffer yourselves to be dazzled with the false splendour emanating from human grandeur. Boss. Les passions peuvent — pendant quelque temps, passions may dazzle for some time. Maïs.

S'ÉBLOUIR, rpr. to be dazzled (with). fig. Je ne m'éblouis pas de cette illusion, I am not dazzled with that illusion. Cora. fig. Les Anglais commencèrent à s'—, the E. began to be confused. Mich.

ÉBLOUISSEMENT, ay-bloo-is-sang, ppr. of ÉBLOUIR, adj. m. fem. — e, dazzling. fig. Beauté — e, dazzling beauty. Teint —, dazzling complexion. Elle était — e en s'étant de sa toilette, she was dazzling when her toilette was complete. J.-J. Rouss.

ÉBLOUISSEMENT, ay-bloo-is-mang, sm. 1 dazzling. 2 (par une cause interne) dimness, swimming. Avoir un — des — s, to feel a dimness. Il lui prit tout à coup un —, he felt a film come over his eyes. 3 fig. Le foyer des idées du monde régnait de là (de la France) son —, a focus of ideas shed from thence its dazzling light. Lamart. Dans le premier — du pouvoir, in the first fumes of the intoxication produced by power. Lamart. Un court — j'aurais reconnu loi-même, a short-lived error, that he himself will have acknowledged. Boss.

ÉBOURNAGE, ay-bor-nyazh, sm. hort. nipping off buds.

ÉBOURNER, ay-bor-nyaz, ra. 1 to make blind of one eye, to put out a person's eye. (hyperb.) — quelqu'un, to knock out a person's eye. 2 agri. to nip off a bud.

S'ÉBOURNER, rpr. 1 to render one's self blind of one eye. Il est homme à s'— pour faire perdre l'œil à un autre, he is capable of putting out one of his own eyes that another man might lose one of his. Scar. 2 recipr. Allons, Messieurs, êtes-vous fous? On n'y voit pas, ils vont s'—, par saint Georges, now then, gentlemen, are you mad? It is impossible to see anything; by St. George, they will be putting out each other's eyes. V. Hugo.

ÉBOULEMENT, ay-bool-mang, sm. falling, falling in, falling down, landslip.

ÉBOULET, ay-buo-ay, tu. 1 (des masses de terre, de certaines constructions, of earth, of buildings) to fall, to fall down, to fall in. 2 (transitivement) le blaireau attaque dans son terrier éboulé de la terre afin d'arrêter les ébuis, the badger attacked in his burrow causes the earth to fall in order to stop the dogs. Balz.

S'ÉBOULER, rpr. to fall, to fall in, to fall down.

ÉBOULIS, ay-buo-lee, sm. heap of fallen rubbish.

ÉBOURGEONNEMENT, ay-boor-zhoom-mang, sm. agri. nipping off buds.

ÉBOURGEONNEL, ay-boor-zhun-nyaz, ra. agri. to nip off buds.

ÉBOURIFFÉ, ay-buo-re-fay, adj. m

fem. — e, 1 disordered. Elle arriva tout — e, she arrived with her hair dishevelled. (by analogy) Avoir les cheveux — s, to have one's hair in disorder. Une coiffure tout — e, a head-dress in complete disorder. 2 fig. (trouble, agité) flurried, in a hurry. L'enfant tout — de s'entendre saluer moi, the child quite flurried at hearing himself greeted as king. Chat.

ÉBOUSINER, ay-boo-zey-ay, ra. mason to chisel off the soft crust of a stone.

ÉBRANCHÉ, ppa. of ÉBRANCHER, fem. — e, adjective, branchless.

ÉBRANCHEMENT, ay-brangsh-mang, sm. agri. lopping, pruning.

ÉBRANCHER, ay-brang-shay, ra. agri. to lop, to prune.

ÉBRANCHOIR, ay-brang-shwar, sm. agri. bill-hook.

ÉBRANLÉ, ppa. of ÉBRANLER, fem. — e, 1 shaken, shattered. fig. Sa couronne est — e sur sa tête, his crown totters upon his head. Boss. 2 fig. shaken. J'ai été fort — de toutes ces raisons, I was much shaken by all these reasons. Volt. — s par la grandeur du péril, shaken by the greatness of the danger. Boss.

ÉBRANLEMENT, ay-brangl-mang, sm. (secoando) shaking. L'— des dents, the shaking of the teeth. L'— du cerveau, the concussion of the brain. Son cerveau avait reçu un —, his brain had received a shock. S'-B. fig. Craignons donc ces grands — s de l'âme qui, let us then avoid those violent emotions of the soul which. Boss. L'— du crédit, the decay of credit. Cet — de l'opinion, that watering in the opinions. Aug. Th. Si près de voir soi fondre de tels orages, l'— s'ied bien aux (sur) fermes courages, when such storms are seen ready to burst over our heads, even the bravest may hesitate. Cora.

ÉBRANLER, ay-brangl-ay, ra. 1 to shake, to unsettle. L'arçon ébranlait ma chaudière, the north wind shook my cottage. Chat. Ce coup lui a ébranlé le cerveau, this blow has unsettled his brain. (hyperb.) On riait à — les mors, they laugh shook the walls. Nod. (by extension) — les pyres sous six chevaux d'Espagne, making the stoves rattling under the feet of six Spanish horses. Regn. Des brullements ébranlaient la forêt, howlings resound through the forest. Chat. D. ébranla la masse le son armée, D. set his main army in motion. Lamart. fig. Un empire que les discordes ont ébranlé, an empire shaken by factions. — le crédit public, to weaken public credit. 2 fig. (ébranler) to shake, to more, to disturb, to unsettle. Rien ne peut — son courage, nothing can shake his courage. Bar. L'ennemi du V. avait ébranlé mon esprit, the hermit of V. had unsettled my mind. Chat. Les vents les tentations passent dessus ces âmes sans les —, the winds of temptation pass over these souls without shaking them. Boss. Croirai-je qu'une nuit a pu vous — ? can I believe that one night can have shaken your resolution? Rac.

S'ÉBRANLER, rpr. 1 to be shaken, moved, to shake. La muraille s'ébranle aux premiers coups, the wall shakes at the first strokes. La Font. (by extension) La grande rue de M. s'ébranla sous les roues d'un lourd carrosse, the high street in M. shook under the wheels of a heavy coach. Sand. Mes nerfs s'ébranlaient comme les cordes d'une harpe, my nerves shook like the strings of a harp. Nol. Une fermette qui ne s'ébranle pas, unshaken firmness. fig. Un empire qui s'ébranle, a tottering empire. 2 war. to more, to be set in motion. La cavalerie romaine s'ébranla pour enfoncer les barbares, the Roman cavalry moved forward to crush the Barbarians. Chat. La légion s'ébranla et descendit la colline, the legion moved on and descended the hill. Chat. (by extension) Le rassemblement s'ébranla à la fois dans toutes les rues, there was a simultaneous movement in the crowd in every street. Lamart.

Ces grandes et lourdes hêtes s'ébraulaient à grand-peine, those big and heavy beasts could scarcely be set in motion. Mich. L'horloge d'un couvent s'ébraule lentement, the convent clock began to toll the hours slowly. Muss. 3 war. to be shaken, to give way, to waver.

EBIASÉMENT, ay-bráz-máng, sm. arch. sply.

EBIASER, ay-bráz-zay, vr. arch. to sply.

EBRÉCHÉ, ppa. of EBRÉCHER, fem. —E, notched. Couteau —, knife with a notch in it. Une muraille —, a wall with a gap in it. Ab. Dent —e, broken tooth. Fig. Le domaine d'H., cruellement — par les frais de procédure, H.'s estate which legal expenses have made a sad hole in. Saut.

EBRÉCHIER, ay-bray-shay, vr. EBRÉCHER, il EBRÉCHE, ils EBRÉCHENT; EBRÉCHER, charr. NOTS EBRÉCHERIONS; 1 to notch (in contour, a knife). (by extension) Une humidité sépulchrale qui ébrèche constamment le ciment, a sepulchral humidity that is constantly wearing away the cement. Lamart. 2 fig. (diminuer, entamer) to impair, to make a hole, a gap in. Ses folles dépenses ont ébréché sa fortune, his extravagant expenses have made a hole in his fortune.

S'EBRÉCHER, vpr. 1 to become, to get notched. 2 S'— one dent, to break off a piece of a tooth.

EBRIÉTÉ, ay-bray-tay, sf. (Lat. ebrietas) ebriety, inebriety.

EBROUAGE, ay-broo-zh, sm. tech. washing in bran and water.

EBROUEMENT, ay-broo-máng, sm. 1 vet. sneezing. 2 man. snorting.

EBROUER, ay-broo-ay, vr. tech. to wash in bran and water.

S'EBROUER, vpr. 4 vet. (des animaux domestiques, of domestic animals) to sneeze. 5 mar. to snort.

EBRUITE, ppa. of EBRUIER, fem. —E, Abruise —e, affair noised about. Cette histoire fut bien vite —, this story was soon reported every where.

EBRUITER, ay-bruce-ty, vr. to noise abroad, to rumour abroad, to spread, to report. Quelques témoins ayant ébriuté le plan de C., some witnesses having rumoured abroad the plan of C. Lamart.

S'EBRUIER, vpr. to take, to get wind, to be noised, rumoured abroad. Nous craignons que l'affaire ne s'ébriute, we are afraid the affair will take wind. Buz.

EBRUN, ay-brung, sm. agri. smutty corn.

EBUARD, ay-bûar, sm. tech. wooden wedge.

EBULLITION, ay-bû-le-syong, sf. (Lat.) 4 boiling fig. J'étais alors dans toute l'— de mes plus vertes années, I was then in all the effervescence of youth, vigour. Lamart. Une révolution en —, a seething revolution. Lamart. 2 chem. ebullition. 3 med. rash, breaking out. fig. 1 y — des personnes qui ont des — s des esprits, comme il y en a qui ont des — s de sang, c'est-à-dire que leur esprit paraît partout, there are persons who have a rash of wit as others have a rash on the body, that is, their wit shows itself on every point. Nicole.

ÉCACHE, ppa. of ÉCACHER, fem. —E, crushed. Noix —es, crushed walnuts. Un nez —, a flat nose.

ÉCACHER, ay-kash-ay, vr. 1 to crush, to squash. — une noix, un linéon, en marchant dessus, to crush a walnut, to squash a snail by treading on it. 2 tech. to flatten, to beat flat.

S'ÉCACHER, vpr. to bruise, to crush one's self. S'— le doigt, to crush, to bruise one's finger.

ÉCACHER, ay-kash-ubr, sm. tech. grip-vire beater.

ÉCAILLAGE, ay-kah-yazh, sm. scaling, shelling.

ÉCAILLE, ay-kah-yuh, sf. 1 (d'une carpe, of a carp, of a carp, of a sol-mon) scale. 2 (des oiseaux, de certains mammifères, of birds and some animals) scale. 3 (enveloppe calcaire) shell. Une — d'huître, an oyster-shell. 4 — de tortue, absol., tortoise-shell. Tabatière d'—, tortoise-shell snuff-box. Peigne d'—, tortoise-shell comb. 5 bot. scale. 6 (by analogy) tout ce qui se détache des corps en parties minces et légères) scale. Sa peau se levait par —s, his skin peeled off. — point, Ce tableau tombe par —s, en disant, that painting scales. fig. Les —s lui sont tombées des yeux, the scales fell from his eyes; his eyes were opened. 7 tech. scale, flake.

ÉCAILLE, ppa. of ÉCAILLER, fem. —E, 1 scaled. 2 zool. scaly.

ÉCAILLER, ay-kah-yay, va. 1 to scale (un brochet, a pike). 2 to open (des huîtres, oysters). 3 tech. to scale, to flake.

S'ÉCAILLER, vpr. to scale, to peel off, to shell. Un tableau qui commence à s'—, a painting that is beginning to scale. Cet enduit s'écaille, that coating scales. Une émailure qui s'est écaillée, an enamel that has peeled off.

ÉCAILLER, ay-kah-yay, sm. fem. ÉCAILLER, oyster-man, oyster-woman.

ÉCAILLEUX, ay-kah-yuh, adj. m. fem. ÉCAILLEUX, 1 scaly, squamous, squamous. 2 pat. hist. bot. scaly, squamous.

ÉCALE, ay-kal, sf. 1 shell. — de noix, walnut-shell. 2 (des œufs, des pois, of eggs, of peas) shell.

ÉCALER, ay-kal-ay, va. to shell (des noix, walnuts).

S'ÉCALER, vpr. to shell, to come out of the shell.

ÉCARBOUILLER, ay-kar-hoo-yay va. pop. to crush.

S'ÉCARBOUILLER, vpr. pop. to crush one's self.

ÉCARLATE, ay-kar-lat, sf. 1 (con-leure) scarlet. 2 (l'éclat) scarlet, scarlet-cloth. fig. Avoir les yeux bérclés d'—, to have the eyes red, bearded eyes. 2 (ad-jective) scarlet.

ÉCARLATINE, ay-kar-lat-enn, adj. f. See SCARLATINE.

ÉCARQUILLÉ, ppa. of ÉCARQUILLER, led. —E, wide apart, wide open. A pied, ils marchent — comme des compas, on foot they walk with their legs wide apart like a pair of compasses. Mérim.

ÉCARQUILLEMENT, ay-kar-ke-yuh-máng, sm. opening wide. lam. — des jambes, spreading out of the legs.

ÉCARQUILLER, ay-kar-ke-yay, va. (des jambes, des yeux, of the legs, the eyes) to spread wide, to open wide. B. écarquilla les jambes, rapprocha les bras du corps, B. spread out his legs, brought his arms close to his body. Nod. Les spectateurs écarquillaient leurs yeux et ne pouvaient rien voir, the spectators stared hard and could see nothing. Flor.

ÉCARQUIR, ay-kar-rir, vr. See ÉCARQUILLER.

ÉCART, ay-kar, sm. 1 step aside. Son cheval eut peur, fit un —, his horse took fright, stepped aside. 2 fig. digression, error. Faire un — dans un discours, to make a digression in a discourse. Il faut pardonner à l'essor du génie des —s, et non des égarements, genius in its flight must be pardoned when it deviates from its path, not when it loses its way. P. André. Les —s de la jeunesse, the errors of youth. Les —s de la raison humaine, the errors of human reason. J.-J. Rousseau. Vos —s d'esprit n'étonnent plus les gens, your eccentric flights no longer astonish people. Moli. 3 dane. Faire un —, to step aside. 4 vet. Ce cheval a pris, s'est donné un —, this horse has given itself a strain. 5 (à certains jeux de cartes) cards discarded.

À l'Écart, adv. loc. 1 aside, in a bye-place, in a lonely place. Ils voient à l'— une étroite cabane, they see in a lonely place a small cabin. La Font. Meurer, prendre quelqu'un à l'—, to take a person aside. 2 (à part) aside. Tenir quelqu'un à l'—, to draw a person aside. Se mettre, se tenir, demeurer à l'—, to step, to stand aside, to keep aloof. Mettre à l'—, to lay by, fig. to set aside, to retire; fig. Mettre quelqu'un à l'—, to leave out a person.

À l'Écart éc., prep. loc. aloof from. Il se tenait à l'— de toute affaire, he kept aloof from every affair. Fonten.

ÉCARTÉ, ppa. of ÉCARTER, feat. —E, adjective, 1 (séparé) dispersed, kept back, rejected, set aside. 2 Jambes —es, legs wide apart. Énée et ses vaisseaux par le vent —s, Æneas and his vessels dispersed by the wind. Boil. fig. Sa demande en justice fut —e par une fin de non-recevoir, his demand was rejected on a plea in bar. 3 (éloigné, retiré) lonely, out-of-the-way. Endroit —, out-of-the-way place. Les solitudes les plus —es, the most lonely solitudes. Nod. fig. Je ne veux pas me jeter dans les questions —es, I will not enter into irrelevant questions. Boss.

ÉCARTÉ, sm. (jeu) courté. Table d'—, card-table.

ÉCARTÉLÉ, ppa. of ÉCARTÉLER, fem. —E, 1 quartered. 2 her. quartered.

ÉCARTÉLEMENT, ay-kar-té-máng, sm. 4 quartering. 2 her. quartering.

ÉCARTÉLER, ay-kar-tub-ay, vr. ÉCARTÉLER, ils ÉCARTÈLÈNT; 1 to quarter. 2 her. to quarter.

ÉCARTÉLURE, ay-kar-tür, sf. her. quartering.

ÉCARTÈMENT, ay-kar-tub-máng, sm. 4 opening, separation. 2 (séparation de choses qui doivent être jointes) disjunction, parting.

ÉCARTER, ay-kar-tay, va. (from écart) 1 to set, to put aside, to remove, to drive away, to keep away, to disperse. — les jansénistes, to spread open one's legs. L'ennemi écarta légèrement de son bras G. L., immediately pushed G. slightly back with his arm. Saint. Il écarte de droite et de gauche les boucles épaisses de sa crêvelure, he throws back on both sides the thick curls of his hair. Nod. Écartez ce qui vous gêne, écartez-le de vous, thrust aside what is in your way; remove it from you. fig. Quelque soin que j'ai pris d'— cette idée, however careful I have been to dismiss that idea. Volt. Il a trouvé l'adversaire meilleur — qu'à connaître, he found it more advisable to put his adversary out of the way than to fight him. Beaum. Il ne plaidait pas, la faiblesse de sa santé l'avait écarté de l'audience, he did not plead; his weak health had kept him away from the court. Letuin. J'eus beau couler dans un beau lit, mon iniquité en écarta le sommeil, it was in vain for me to be lying in a fine bed, my unceasing dream drove away sleep. Le Sage. Espérait toujours que l'inévitable cardinal écarterait tous les obstacles, always hoping that the inevitable cardinal would remove every obstacle. Mich. Je passai la main sur mon front, comme pour en — les soucis, I passed my hand over my brow as if I dispelled anxiety. Nod. Allu d'— les soupçons, in order to remove suspicion. 2 (détourner) to divert, to turn aside, to lead astray, to word off. — quelqu'un du droit chemin, to turn a person aside from the right path. 3 (disperser) to disperse, to scatter, to dissipate. D'un souffle l'aquilon écarte les nuages, with one breath the north wind disperses the clouds. Rac. L'écartai les insectes qui bourdonnaient autour du corps de l'enfant, I drove away the insects that were buzzing about the body of the child. Chat. — la foule, to disperse the crowd. La tempête a écarté les vaisseaux, the tempest has dispersed the vessels. Ce fusil écarta le plomb, la drague, absol. ce fusil écarta, this gun scattered, spreads the shot. 4 (à certains jeux de cartes) to discard.

S'ÉCARTER, vpr. 1 to separate, to turn aside, to straggle, to deviate, to wander, to ramble, to go out of one's way, to disperce, to stray. Écartez-vous de lui, stand aside from him. Je te promets un bon si tu fais qu'il s'écarte, I promise thee on ex if thou wilt but turn him aside. La Font. S'écartant de la foule, il respirait l'air, turning away from the crowd, he breathed freely. Saint. Autrement P. de sa demeure s'écarta, in days of yore P. wandered from her home. La Font. Ils s'écartaient de mon passage avec une dignité triste, they turned aside out of my way with mournful dignity. Nod. Nous nous étions considérablement écartés de notre chemin, we had considerably deviated from our road. Th. Gaut. La foule s'écarta pour la laisser passer, the crowd gave way to make room for her to pass. Leurs vaisseaux s'écartaient pendant la nuit, their vessels left company, dispersed, during the night. La chèvre aime à s'— dans les solitudes, goats like to stray in lonely places. Buff. Ne vous écartez pas, don't go out of the way. 2 fig. to swerve, to go astray, to deviate. S'— de son devoir, du respect que l'on doit à quelqu'un, to swerve from the line of duty, to forget the respect due to a person. Jamais de la nature il ne faut S'—, one must never go astray from nature. Boil. S'— du but, to be wide of the mark. S'— de son sujet dans un discours, to stray, to wander from one's subject in a discourse. On n'arrive à la raison que par un chemin, et l'on s'en écarte par mille, there is only one path to reason, there are a thousand deviations from it. La Bruy. La nature ne s'écarte jamais des lois qui lui sont prescrites, nature never deviates from the laws prescribed to it. Buff.

ECCE HOMO, ek-say-o-mo, sm. (Lat.) ecce homo. fig. C'est un —, he, she is a pale thin person

ECCHYMOSE, ay-ke-moz, sf. (Gr.) surg. ecchymosis.

ECCLÉSIASTE, ek-lay-zyast, sm. bi. Ecclesiastes.

ECCLÉSIASTIQUE, ek-lay-zyas-tik, adj. fm. ecclesiastic, ecclesiastical, clerical. 2 sm. ecclesiastic.

ECCLÉSIASTIQUE, sm. bi. Ecclesiasticus. ECCLÉSIASTIQUEMENT, ek-lay-zyas-tik-adj. adv. ecclesiastically.

ÉCHÈVELE, ek-say-voh-lay, adj. m. —, a thorn-brained, shatter-brained, giddy-pated. Tête —, mad-cap. 2 substantif; hare-brained fellow. Une petite —, a giddy-pated girl, a giddy little goose.

ÉCHAFAUD, ay-shaf-o, sm. 4 scaffold, scaffolding. 2 (pour voir) stage, scaffolding. 3 (pour les criminels) scaffold. Mourir sur un —, to die on the scaffold.

ÉCHAFAUDAGE, ay-shaf-o-dazh, sm. 4 scaffolding. 2 fig. (grands préparatifs) great preparations. 3 fig. (grand raisonnement inutile) display.

ÉCHAFAUDÉ, ppa. of ÉCHAFAUDER, fem. —, le hûcher était si haut — que, the pile was erected to such a height that. Mich.

ÉCHAFAUDER, ay-shaf-o-day, va. to scaffold, to erect scaffolding.

ÉCHAFAUDER, ra. (little used) fig. — des preuves, to pile up proofs.

S'ÉCHAFAUDER, vpr. fig. to make great preparations.

ÉCHALAS, ay-shah-lâ, sm. pole, stake, prop. — de vigne, vine-pole. Lam. Se tenir droit comme un —, to be as stiff as a poker. fig. lam. C'est un —, he is as thin as a lath.

ÉCHALASSEMENT, ay-shal-as-mang, sm. propping (of vines).

ÉCHALASSER, ay-shal-as-say, va. to prop (une vigne, a vine).

ÉCHALIER, ay-shal-ay, sm. fence made of branches of trees, dead hedge.

ÉCHALOTE, ay-shal-ot, sf. bot. shallot, eschalot.

ÉCHANPIR, ay-shang-peer, ra. Secrét. échanpir.

ÉCHANURÉ, ppa. of ÉCHANCRER, fem.

—E, affectif. hollowed out, scooped out. bot. Petales —s, crenated petals.

ÉCHANCRER, ay-shang-kray, va. (d'une étoffe, du bois, etc., of a stuff of wood, etc.) to cut sloping, slant. fig. Le temps avait échancré de l'astre au front d'argent la face circulaire, time had slanted the disk of the silvery orb. La Font.

ÉCHANCRURE, ay-shang-kür, sf. 1 hollow, hollowing out, scallop, slype. Il faut un peu plus d'— à cette manche, this sleeve requires to be a little more hollowed out under the arms. J'en ai mangé cette —, I have eaten that sliver. La Font.

2 anat. L'— d'un os, the notch of a bone.

ÉCHANGE, ay-shangzh, sm. 1 exchange, barter. Je lui aurais donné ma bourse en — de la sienne, I would have exchanged my purse for his. Muss. fig. Tout ce qu'ils demandaient en — de leurs sacrifices, all they required in exchange for their sacrifices. Sand. Livre —, la liberté des —s, free trade. Commerce d'—, par —, trade by barter. — de prisonniers, exchange of prisoners. 2 diplom. exchange, interchange. — de notes diplomatiques, exchange of diplomatic notes. fig. L'— d'une pensée, the interchange of a thought. Nod. Un — de bons offices, de services, an interchange of good offices, of services.

ÉCHANGE, ppa. of ÉCHANGER, fem. —E, exchanged, fig. Un geste, un sourire avaient déjà même été — entre eux, a gesture, a smile had even already been exchanged between them. Saint. Leurs paroles n'avaient jamais été —es, there had never been any intercourse between them. Saint.

ÉCHANGEABLE, ay-shang-zhahl, adj. mf. exchangeable.

ÉCHANGER, ay-shang-zhay, va. 1 (faire un échange) to barter, to barter, to give one thing in barter for another. Il était convenu d'— avec le duc ses belles terres de M. pour, it was agreed that the duke should give his fine estates of M. in exchange for. Bar. Ils savaient qu'ils nous échangeaient contre un certain nombre de pièces d'or, they knew that they would barter us for a certain number of pieces of gold. Ah. — des prisonniers, to exchange prisoners. Ils échangeaient quelquefois homme pour homme, they sometimes exchanged man for man. Bar. Ils échangeaient leurs anormes contre l'habit pittoresque de, they exchanged their uniforms for the picturesque dress of. Ah. 2 diplom. to exchange, to interchange. — des notes diplomatiques, to exchange diplomatic notes. fig. Le marchand et sa femme avaient échangé entre eux force paroles, the shop keeper and his wife had had a long talk together. Saint. Le métayer échangea un regard avec sa femme, the farmer and his wife exchanged looks. G. Sand. Un homme contre lequel il venait d'— des coups de fusil, a man with whom he had just exchanged shots. Merim.

ÉCHANSON, ay-shang-song, sm. 1 cup-bearer. 2 (sometimes in joke) cup-bearer.

ÉCHANSONNERIE, ay-shang-soo-ree, sf. cup-bearers, wine-cellars (of a Royal household).

ÉCHANTILLON, ay-shang-to-yong, sm. 4 pattern, sample, specimen (d'une étoffe, of a stuff). Montrer, donner un —, to show, to give a pattern. (by extension) — de vin, de bié, sample of wine, of corn. (by analogy) Leurs vestes gâraient un — des divers terrains sur lesquels ils s'étaient reposés, their vests preserved a sample of the different soils on which they had reposed. Ab. fig. Le roi fut curieux de voir un — de mon style, the king was curious to see a specimen of my style. Le Sazé. Ce n'est qu'un petit — de sa mauvaise humeur, it is but a spirit of her ill temper. Mol. fig. Donner un — de son savoir-faire, to show the people what one can do. 2 naut. scantling.

FCHANTILLONNER, ay-shang-to-yo-nay, va. 4 to test a weight, a measure by the standard. 2 com. to take samples 3 needle-work. — une tapisserie, to make a worsted-work pattern.

ÉCHAPPADE, ay-shap-ad, sf. engraving slip.

ÉCHAPPAUTOIRE, ay-shap-at-wâr, sf. swifterpass, shift, erosion, loop-hole, creep-hole.

ÉCHAPPÉ, ppa. of ÉCHAPPER, fem. —E, 1 escaped. Son âme, à moitié —e de son corps, devint presque visible sur son visage, her soul, that had half taken its flight from her body, shone through her countenance. Chat. Vous auriez dit une Dryade —e de l'écorce, you would have taken her for a Dryad bursting through the bark. Ab. Cet homme — à une mort presque certaine, that man who has escaped an almost certain death. B. de St-P. Vous avez beaucoup à remercier Dieu d'en être — à si bon marché, you ought to be very thankful to God for having got off so cheaply. Rac. fig. C'est un cheval —, he is a wild colt left loose. 2

Jamais une parole de reproche ne lui était —e, never did a word of reproach escape his lips. Balz. 3 (substantif) fig. Un — des Petites-Maisons, a Bedlamite, a mad-man, a mad-cap. Un — de prison, a scamp, a scape-grace. (by analogy) d'un homme qui a de la ressemblance avec quelque type connu imitation, counterfeit. Regarde D., cet — d'Esopé, look at D., that imitation of Esop. Regn.

ÉCHAPPEE, ay-shap-ay, sf. 1 frank, frolic. Dans mes —s du dimanche, je, in my Sunday frolics, I. J.-J. Rouss. C'est une — de jeune femme, it is the prank of a young man. 2 arch. space to turn in, rounding off. 3 point. — de lumière, accidental light. — de vue, vista. fig. Cela m'a ouvert une — nouvelle sur la société du 18^e siècle, that gave me a fresh insight into the society of the 18th century. St-Marc Gir. (by analogy) Une — de beau temps, a moment of fine weather, a gleam of sunshine.

PAR ÉCHAPPEES, adv. loc. by snatches, by fits and starts. Je ne savais pas qu'il faudrait revoir le monde, même par —, I did not know that it would be necessary to revisit the world, even by snatches. Balz.

ÉCHAPPEMENT, ay-shap-mang, sm. 1 mesh, escapement, escapement. — 2 recoil escapement. — à repos, dead-beat. repose escapement. — à jour, lever escapement. 2 arch. space to turn in, rounding off.

ÉCHAPPER, ay-shap-ay, sm. 1 to escape. — de, to escape from. — à, to escape. — du naufrage, to escape from shipwreck. — des mains de l'ennemi, to escape out of the hands of the enemy. — d'un danger, to escape from a danger. — à la tempête, to escape the tempest. Il a échappé au danger, he has escaped the danger. — à la mort, to escape death. Tu ne saurais — à la destinee, thou canst not escape thy destiny. Le seul N. échappé, N. alone escaped. La Font. fig. Ils échappèrent à l'âge qui exige une surveillance assidue, they were growing out of that age which requires constant surveillance. Sand. 2 (n'être pas aperçu, détourné, remarqué, etc.) Son nid échappa aux yeux, raché dans la verdure, it nest concealed in the green branches escapes the eye. Mich. Les mille détails qui vous échappent quand on les cherche, the thousand details that escape you when you look for them. Th. Gaut. Tu n'as pas un geste, ni un mouvement qui t'échappe, not a single movement of yours escapes me. J.-J. Rouss. Je n'ai laissé — aucun fait, no fault has escaped me. Cela t'a échappé en passant, I skipped over that somehow or other. 3 fig. (des choses dont on est sûr, que l'on ne saurait conserver) to escape, to slip. Laisser — l'occasion, one belle occasion, to other in the air. Chat. Prompt, rapide comme no —, as quick as lightning. Le roi d'Angleterre passe par la Bretagne comme un — et sa va droit à Brest, the king of England passes through Brittany without stopping and goes straight off to B. M. de Sev. La gloire du monde passe comme un —, the glory of this world is ephemeral. — s de chaleur, heat-lightning. fig. poétic. Les — s de ses yeux, the fire of his eyes. Son œil jetait des — s de colère, his eye sent forth angry flashes. Ph. Chas. Ses yeux brillant par — dans sa face éteinte, his eyes sending forth momentary flashes on his motionless features. Th. Gaut. 4 fig. (des choses, of things) Sa prospérité ne fut qu'un —. Ce rêve ne fut qu'un —, this dream was but of short duration. Saint. Il y a dans cet ouvrage des — s de génie, there are some glimpses of genius in this work. Il n'avait que des — s en tout, he was a man of fits and starts. Ste-B.

ECLAIRAGE, ay-klay-razh, sm. lighting. — au gaz, gas-lighting.

ECLAIRANT, ay-klay-rang, ppr. of éclairer, adj. m. fem. — e, illuminating. La puissance — e du soleil, the illuminating power of the sun. Arago.

ECLAIRCI, ay-klay-seer, ppa. of éclaircir, fem. — e, 1 cleared up. Le temps est —, the weather has cleared up. fig. Le point d'en par être — the point could not be cleared up. La Font. Cela demande à être —, a besoin d'être —, that requires, wants clearing up. A cette fois, Dieu merci, les choses vont être — this time, thank God, things are going to be cleared up. Mol. De vos desseins secrets on est trop —, too much is known of your secret designs. Rac. 2 (substantive) Il y eut un peu d'—, there was a gleam of sunshine.

ECLAIRCIE, ay-klay-seer, sf. 1 naut. clear spot (in a cloudy sky). 2 opening, glade. Les — s des bois, the glades in the woods. B. de St-P. (by extension) Les — s de la baie, the openings in the hedge. Nod.

ECLAIRCIR, ay-klay-seer, va. (from clair) to clear up, to clear. Le vent a éclairci le temps, the horizon, the wind has cleared up the weather, the horizon. Cela sert à — la vue, that is good to clear the sight. — la voie, to clear the road. — le teint, to clear the complexion. — de la vaisselle, des armes, to brighten plate, arms. fig. Eclaircissez ce front où la tristesse est peinte, clear up that brow overclouded with sadness. Rac. 2 (rendre moins épais to thin, to clarify (un sirop, une sauce, a syrup, a sauce) 3 dye. to clear. 4 (rendre moins secret) to thin (les rangs, une forêt, les chevaux, the ranks, a forest, the hair; un bataillon, un escadron, a battalion, a squadron). 5 fig. (rendre intelligible) to elucidate, to illustrate. — une matière, une question, une affaire, to elucidate, to illustrate a matter, a question, an affair. — un doute, une difficulté, to clear up, to solve a doubt, a difficulty. — la meilleure occasion d'—, mes doutes ne se présentera jamais, never will a better occasion present itself of solving my doubts. Nod. Au nom des dieux, Madame, éclaircissez le doute où vous jetez mon âme, in the name of the gods, Madame, dispel the doubts which you have raised in my soul. Rac. (by analogy) Donnez-vous le temps, du moins, d'— vos soupçons, give yourself time, at least, to verify your suspicions. Le Sage. Ce terme est équivoque, il le faut —, that term is equivocal, it requires an explanation. Bull. Et arriez-se moi d'un doute, just dispel a doubt I have. Nod.

S'ECLAIRCIR, ppr. — e, to become, to get clear, to clear up, to brighten. Le temps, le ciel s'éclaircit, the weather, the sky is clearing up. Son teint s'est éclairci, ses yeux se sont animés, his complexion has become clear, his eyes have grown animated. Mol. fig. L'horizon s'éclaircit, commence à s'—, semble s'—, the horizon is becoming clear, is clearing, seems to get clear. 2 fig. (devenir clair) to become clear, to clear up. J'espère que cette malheureuse affaire est about to be cleared up. Molière. Attendons que le sort s'éclaircisse, let us wait till the fate is cleared up. Rac. (by analogy) Tous vos doutes, mon fils, bientôt s'éclairciront, all your doubts, my son, will soon be solved. Rac. obsol. S'— d'une chose, to inquire about a thing. Il vit peut-être encore, je vais m'en —, he is perhaps still living, I will ascertain the fact. Le Sage. Quoi! de vos sentiments je ne peux m'—, what! I am not to inquire into the nature of your sentiments. Rac. obsol. S'— avec quelqu'un, to come to an explanation with a person. Daignez avec César vous en —, dign to come to an explanation with the emperor. Rac.

ECLAIRCISSEMENT, ay-klay-sis-nang, sm. 1 clearing up, explanation, solution (d'un doute, d'une difficulté, of a doubt, of a difficulty). Demander des — s, to ask for an explanation. (by extension) Ou m'a conseillé de poursuivre vivement l'— de mon innocence, I have been advised not to rest till my innocence is cleared up. Volt. 2 (explication que l'on demande à quelqu'un) explanation. En venir à un —, to come to an explanation. Avoir un — avec quelqu'un, to have an explanation with a person.

ECLAIRE, ay-klayr, sf. bot. celandine.

ECLAIRÉ, ppa. of éclairer, fem. — e, adjective. 1 lighted, lighted up. L'hôtel était — de deux mille lanternes, the mansion was lighted up with two thousand lanterns. M. de Sev. Un appartement bien —, an apartment very light. Etre logé, nourri et —, to have board, lodging and candles. fig. Elle fut tout à coup — e d'un brillant rayon de la grâce, she was suddenly enlightened by a bright ray of grace. Nod. — sur les maux de ma sœur, instructed as to the cause of my sister's sufferings. Chat. 2 fig. enlightened. Un public —, an enlightened public. Des louanges — es, discriminating, judicious praise. Mol.

ECLAIRER, ay-klay-ray, va. 1 (illuminer) to illumine, to give light to, to throw a light over. Il n'avait oublié qu'un point, c'était d'— sa lanterne, he had forgotten but one thing, which was to light his lantern. Flor. Un rayon de la lampe éclairait ses cheveux blancs, a ray from the lamp threw a light over his white hair. Nod. Cleux! éclairer-vous cet horrible carnage. — Heen! will thou grant thy light to this horrible carnage! Rac. obsol. La lune n'éclairait plus, the moon was down. 2 fig. Il a éclairé le caractère de ce personnage à l'aide de documents, he has thrown a light upon the character of that personage with the help of documents. Ste-B. Je voudrais répandre sur l'événement qui est l'objet de cette étude toutes les lumières propres à l'—, I should like to throw every possible light upon the event which is the subject of this study. Guiz. La gloire d'éclairer que les hauteurs, glory sheds its rays but over eminent men. Lamart. 2 (marcher avec de la lumière, etc.) to light. Eclairer monsieur. Light the gentleman. absol. Allez —, show a light. Eclairer, hold the light. 3 fig. to enlighten. Civil donne m'— I Heaven deign to enlighten me. Corn. De quoi sert que la raison nous éclaire quand la passion nous conduisit? what is the use of the enlightenment of reason, if we are guided by passion? 2 J.-J. Rousseau. — notre raison, c'est élever notre âme, to enlighten the reason, is to elevate the soul. Villem. Il essaya d'— le brigand sur l'infamie du métier, he endeavourd to set before the brigand's eyes the infamy of his profession. Ab. Je me proposai de l'— au plus tôt sur sa position, I proposed as soon as possible to give him an insight into his position. Ab. A ces mots l'affreux vérité m'éclaira, at these words, the fearful truth broke in upon me. Chat. 4 fig. (surveiller) to watch, to have an eye upon. — la conduite de quelqu'un, to have an eye upon a person's conduct. Au diable le fâcheux qui toujours nous éclaire, deuce take the bore who is always at our heels. Mol. 5 mil. — sa marche, to reconnoitre. 6 point. to enlighten.

ECLAIRER, ra. 4 to shine, to glitter. 2 (impers.) Il éclaire, it lightens.

S'ECLAIRER, ppr. 1 to be lighted, to be lighted up. La salle s'éclaira tout à coup, the room was suddenly lighted. fig. Son visage s'éclaira d'une double expression de tendresse et de sérénité, his face was lighted up with a double expression of tenderness and serenity. Saint. 2 fig. to grow enlightened. Les provinces s'éclairaient, the provinces are growing enlightened. Volt. Elle ne pouvait mieux s'— sur Paris, she could not get better information on Paris. Lamart.

ECLAIREUR, ay-klay-rohr, sm. mil. scout.

ECLANCHE, ay-klangsh, sf. butcher's shoulder of mutton.

ECLAT, ay-klah, sm. 1 chip, splinter, shiver. Un — de bois, a chip of wood. Les lances des deux chevaliers volèrent en —, the lances of the two knights flew to shivers. Hippolyte voit voler en — s tout son char fracassé. Hippolyte sees his chariot broken and flying about in a thousand fragments. Rac. 2 (des pierres, etc., of stones) fragment, piece. Un — de bombe, a fragment of a bomb-shell. 3 (son, bruit) explosion, bursting, burst. Un — de tonnerre, a clap of thunder. Les — s de la foudre, claps of thunder. Un — de voix, a loud voice. Des — s de voix singuliers, loud and peculiar tones. Nod. J'entendis un — de rire, I heard a burst of laughter. Ils firent de grands — s de rire, they burst into roars of laughter. Rire aux — s, to be ready to burst with laughing. 4 fig. (bruit, roulement, scandale) noise, scandal, exposure. Cette affaire fait —, fait de l'—, grand —, beaucoup d'—, that affair makes a noise, a great noise. Elle lui supplia de ne pas faire d'—, she begged him not to raise any scandal. Il fallait assupir cette affaire pour éviter l'— pour prévenir l'—, it was necessary to hush up the affair, to avoid an exposure. Grande l'—, to fear an exposure. Voilà ce qui s'appelle une cause d'—, that may be called a remarkable cause. Étien. En venir à un —, to have recourse to violent measures. 5 (lueur brillante) brightness, splendour, brilliancy, vividness, lustre. L'— du soleil, the brightness of the sun. Des pierreries qui ont de l'—, bright gems. L'— des yeux, du teint, des fleurs, the lustre of the eye, the brightness of the complexion, of flowers. L'— de sa beauté, the splendour of her beauty. Cette femme a beaucoup d'—, this woman is of a dazzling complexion. Elle avait encore cet empressement dont elle eut soin de peindre et d'orne son visage, she had skill that borrowed tint with which she used to paint and adorn her face. Rac. Le coloris de ce tableau a l'—, the colouring of that painting is bright. 6 fig. (du style, etc., of the style, etc., brilliancy, splendour. L'—, la pompe de son style, the brilliancy, the pomp of his style. L'éloquence donne un certain — aux pensées, eloquence imparts a certain brilliancy to thoughts. M. de Sev. 7 fig. (gloire, splendeur) lustre, splendour. L'— de ses belles actions, the brilliancy of his exploits. Action d'—, brilliant action. Le mariage se fit sans —, the marriage took place privately. Le Sage. Do faux qui l'environne serons-nous toujours éblouis? shall we be always dazzled with the false splendour that surrounds thee? J.-B. Rouss.

Il n'aime point le luxe et l'—, he is not fond of luxury and magnificence. Je vis au milieu de l'— et de la fortune, I live surrounded with the splendour of fortune. B. de St-P.

ÉCLATANT, ay-klat-ang, ppr. of ÉCLATER, adj. m. fem. —, 1 bright, brilliant, resplendent. Pierres, couleurs —es, bright gems, colours. Rancheur —e, resplendent whiteness. Un jeune enfant couvert d'une robe —e, a young child covered with a gorgeous robe. Rac. Tout — de lumière, in a full blaze of light; all radiant with light. (by extension) L'— cavalier, the brilliant horseman. Barth. —e de beauté, de gloire, radiant with beauty, with glory. Neuf guerriers —s de jeunesse, nine warriors radiant with youth. Del. 2 fig. (qui se fait remarquer par son importance, etc.) brilliant, signal. Des actions —es, brilliant actions. Des exemples —s de l'inconstance des choses humaines, striking examples of the inconstancy of human affairs. Mass. Les paysages —s de la Grèce, the brilliant landscapes of Greece. Chai. Vain —e, conspicuous virtue. 3 (qui fait un bruit perçant) sounding, piercing, loud. Le bruit — des trompettes, the piercing sound of the trumpets. Voix —e, loud voice.

ÉCLATS, ppa. of ÉCLATER, fem. —, split. Pierre —e, a stone shattered to pieces. Bois —, wood split.

ÉCLATEMENT, ay-klat-mang, sm. (little used) splitting, cracking.

ÉCLATER, ay-klat-ay, vn. 1 (se briser en éclats) to shiver, to fly into pieces, fragments, shivers, to burst. La chaudière de ce bateau a sauté à éclat, the boiler of that steamer has burst. Son corps (d'un papiré) s'entrouvert chancelle, éclate et tombe, the frame, half open, staggers, bursts and falls. Bail. fig. Assemblée des notables, états généraux, assemblée nationale, tout avait éclaté entre les mains du roi, assembly of notables, states general, national assembly, everything that had failed in the king's hands. Lamart. 2 (faire entendre tout à coup un bruit violent) to burst, to burst out, forth, to break out, forth. Le tonnerre vient d'—, there has just been a clap of thunder. Nos rires joyeux éclataient à réveiller tous les oiseaux de nuit, our merry laugh broke out loud enough to wake all the nocturnal birds. Nod. — de rire, to burst out laughing. (by extension) De brillants orchestres éclataient en mesures vives, sonorous orchestras strike up in quick measures. Saut. fig. Les imprécations éclataient hautement, loud imprecations broke forth from him. Bar. 3 fig. (se manifester tout à coup) to break out, to burst. L'orage est près d'—, the storm is ready to burst. M. de Turenne est mal avec M. de Louvois, mais cela n'éclate point, M. de T. is on bad terms with M. de L., but nothing appears on the surface. Mme de Sev. Sa colère a éclaté, his anger broke out. Ces nouvelles éclatèrent dans Paris comme un coup de foudre, those news fell like a thunderbolt in Paris. Lamart. Il faut que mon secret éclate à votre vue, my presence forces my secret from me. Rac. Tout mon amour alors ne put pas, —, my love could not then wholly reveal itself. Rac. 4 fig. (des per-sonnes, of persons) to break out, forth, to burst out. Le roi n'éclata point, the king constrained himself. La Font. Forçant les personnes compromises d'— pour n'être point prévenues, obliging compromised persons to come out lest they should be forestalled. Aug. Tb. — contre une injustice, to exclaim against an injustice. — en injures, en invectives, en reproches, to break out into abuse, invectives, reproaches.

Nous éclatâmes en murmures, we broke out into murmurs. Beaum. (by extension) — en hymnes et en cantiques, to break forth into hymns, into spiritual songs. Boss. On le vit, en contant en air italien, — tout à coup en larmes, he was seen to burst into tears on hearing an Italian air. St-B. 5 (briller) to shine, to glitter, to shine forth. L'or éclate en ses vêtements, gold shines forth on his garments. Cet oiseau dont le plumage éclate des plus vives couleurs, that bird whose plumage shines with the liveliest colours. Buff. La vengeance éclata dans leurs yeux, vengeance shot from their eyes. Fén. 6 fig. (briller, se montrer) to shine forth. Le génie qui éclate dans ses ouvrages, the genius that shines forth in his works. La main de Dieu éclate partout, the hand of God is every where visible. Fén. Dieu sait, quand il lui plait, faire — sa gloire, God, in his own time, makes his glory shine forth. Rac. Tout rit autour de lui, tout éclate de joie, every thing smiles around him, every thing breaks out into joy. La Font.

S'ÉCLATER, ppr. 1 to shiver, to fly to pieces, into pieces, to splinter. Le bois s'est éclaté, the wood has split. 2 S'— de rire, to burst out laughing. Quoi! dit-elle, en s'éclatant de rire, what! says she, bursting into a laugh. Nod. Le premier qui les vit de rire s'éclata, the first who saw them set up a laugh. La Font.

ECLECTIQUE, ay-klek-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 eclectic. 2 (substantif) eclectic.

ECLECTISME, ay-klek-tism', sm. eclecticism.

ÉCLIPSE, ay-k'ips, sf. (Gr.) 1 eclipse. — de lune, eclipse of the moon, lunar eclipse. — de soleil, eclipse of the sun, solar eclipse. fig. Faire une —, to disappear. 2 fig. eclipse. Sa faveur eut bien des retours, et même des —s, his fortune had many reverses and even eclipses. St-B. Sa raison est sujette à des —s, he is given to fits of insanity, his reason is frequently under a cloud.

ÉCLIPSE, ppa. of ÉCLIPSE, fem. —, 1 eclipsed. 2 eclipsed. Ainsi leurs grandeurs —es, thus, their grandeur eclipsed. J.-B. Rouss.

ÉCLIPSE, ay-klip-say, ra. 1 to eclipse. La lune éclipsa quelquefois le soleil, the moon sometimes eclipses the sun. 2 fig. to eclipse, to obscure, to cast, to throw into the shade. Elle éclipsait par sa grâce toutes ses jeunes compagnes, in grace she outshone all her young companions. Scri. A B les bourgeois les éclipsaient, at B they were thrown into the shade by the citizens. Mich.

S'ÉCLIPSE, ppr. 1 to be eclipsed. Le soleil s'éclipsa à telle heure, there was an eclipse of the sun at such an hour. fig. Tel brille au second rang qui s'éclipse au premier, he sometimes shines in the second rank who, in the first, would be thrown in the shade. Volt. Mme de la Sablière s'est éclipsée elle-même, Mme de la S. has outshone herself. Mme de Sev. 2 fig. (s'absenter) to disappear. Au moment du combat les chefs s'éclipsèrent, at the moment of the fight, the chiefs disappeared. Lamart. To vois les nations s'— tour à tour, you see the nations disappear each in its turn. Lamart. Tant de gloire peut-elle s'— en un jour? can so much glory be effaced in one day? 3 (de choses qui disparaissent tout d'un coup) Les papiers que j'ai mis à se sont éclipsés, the papers I placed there have disappeared.

ÉCLIPTIQUE, ay-klip-tik, sf. 1 astr. ecliptic. 2 adj. mf. ecliptic.

ÉCLISSE, ay-khiss, sf. 1 sorg. split. 2 (hois de feute) split-wood. 3 (petit rond d'osier ou de jonc) cheese-rod.

ÉCLISSER, ay-k'e-say, ra. sorg. to split, to bind up with splints (le bras, la jambe, the arm, the leg).

ÉCLOGUE, ay-klog, sf. See ÉCLOGUE.

ÉCLOPPE, ay-klo-ppa, ppa. of ÉCLOPPER not used, fem. —, lame, limping.

ÉCLOIRE, ay-klor, ra. irreg. (is seldom used but in the inf. and the third persons of some tenses) IL ÉCLOIT, ITS ÉCLOST; IL EST ÉCLOS; IL ÉCLOIRA; IL ÉCLOUAIT; QU'IL ÉCLOSE; (Lat. excludere) 1 (de certains animaux, of some animals) to be hatched. Des poussins qui venaient d'—, chickens that had just been hatched. La chaleur fait — les vers à soie, the heat hatches silk-worms. Elle pond, couve, fait — à la hâte, she lays, sits, hatches in haste. La Font. (by analogy) Une chaleur douce et féconde fait — tous les germes de la vie, a mild and genial heat fructifies the germs of life. Buff. 2 (des fleurs, of flowers) to blow, to open. 3 (by analogy) Le jour est près d'—, vient d'—, commence à —, the day is about to break, to dawn, has just dawned. Ma vie à peine a commencé d'—, my life is scarcely in its dawn. Rac. 4 fig. (se manifester, se développer) to be born. Les grands génies que ce siècle voit —, the great geniuses that this age produced. Ces appels donnaient aux événements le temps d'—, these appeals gave time for events to develop themselves. Lamart. Elle approchait la lampe tout près des pages, comme si elle eût cra que la lumière allait faire — plus vite la parole sur me l'événement, she brought the lamp quite close to the pages, as if she thought that the light would cause the words to fall faster from my lips. Lamart.

ÉCLOS, ay-klo, ppa. of ÉCLOIRE, fem. —, Les petits sont —, the young ones are hatched. Une fleur fraîche —e, a flower newly blown. fig. Je vous en dirai davantage quand je verrai cette affaire au pen plus —e, I will tell you more about it, when the affair is a little riper. Boss.

ÉCLOSION, ay-klo-zyong, sf. hatching, opening, blowing. fig. L'— de la justice et de la raison, the birth of justice and reason. Lamart.

ÉCLUSE, ay-klüz, sf. 1 (cloture) sluice, lock, dam. 2 (porte) flood-gate. Lever, baisser l'—, ou les —s, to raise, to let down the flood-gates. Ferner. ouvrir, lâcher les —s, to shut, to open the sluices, to sluice.

ÉCLUSEE, ay-klüz-zay, sf. lock/sluice, feed.

ÉCLUSIER, ay-klüz-zyay, sm. lock keeper.

ÉCUBAGE, ay-kob-baz, sm. agri cutting the turf, the sod.

ÉCUBE, ay-kob-bu, sf. agri. broad spade, turf-knife.

ÉCUBER, ay-kob-bay, ra. agri. to cut the turf.

ÉCOURANT, ay-koh-rang, ppr. of ÉCOURER, adj. m. fem. —, sickening. Ces douceurs —es, these sickening sweets.

ÉCOURIER, ay-koh-ray, ra. to turn one's stomach, to sicken. Ces secrettes mielleuses et parfumées finiront par l'—, those honeyed and perfumed sweetmeats will turn his stomach. Cov. Fl. fig. Cette lecture est d'un effet singulier que je ne puis mieux rendre qu'en disant qu'il occure, the reading of that work produces a singular effect that I cannot better describe than by saying it is sickening. St-B. Le détail journalier de ma maison m'écourre, the petty details of housekeeping are sickening to me. Em. Aug.

ÉCOFRAI, ay-kot-ray, ÉCOFROI, ay-kot-rwá, sm. tech. cutting-board.

ÉCOINÇON, ÉCOINSON, ay-kwang-song, sm. 1 jamb (of a door), reveal (of a window). 2 corner-upboard.

ÉCOLATRE, ay-ko-lat'r sm. master, doctor.

ÉCOLE, ay-ko, sf. (Lat. schola) 1 (établissement) school. — de droit, de médecine, school of law, of medicine. — normale, normal school. — polytechnique, polytechnic school. — d'artillerie, school of artillery. — de marine, naval school. — de peinture, de sculpture, d'architecture, de musique, school of painting, of sculpture, of architecture, of music. — d'équitation, de natation, riding, swimming school. Je sais le blason. I've seen you, I am acquainted with heraldry, I will open a school for it. La Font. 2 où l'on montre à lire, etc. school. Maitre, school-mistress. Aller, envoyer à l'école, to go, to send to school. — d'enseignement mutuel, school of mutual instruction, Lancasterian school. fig. Renvoyer quelqu'un à l'école, to treat a person as an ignorant. Prendre le chemin de l'école, to go by the longest way. 3 (les élèves, le professeur) school. 4 obsol. (enseignement) school. 5 (la secte, doctrine) school. L'école de Platon, the school of Plato. Autant d'écoles, autant de sentiments, so many schools, so many ways of thinking. Mass. (by analogy) L'école d'Hippocrate, the school of Hippocrates. 6 (by analogy) five arts. L'école florentine, l'école romaine, l'école vénitienne, the Florentine, Roman, Venetian school. L'école flamande, the Flemish school. L'école de Raphaël, de Rubens, the school of Raffaele, of Rubens. 7 (by analogy) lit. L'école de Voltaire, the school of Voltaire.

Faire école, to found, to be at the head of a school. 8 fig. school. L'école du malheur, the school of misfortune. C'est une école, your conversation et j'y viens tous les jours attraper quelque chose, your conversation is a school, in which I learn something every day. Mol. L'école des femmes, l'école des maris, the school for wives, the school for husbands. Mol. Il faut aller à votre école, pour apprendre cela, we must learn that out of your book. Être en bonne école, à bonne école, to be at a good school. 9 (backgammon) Faire école, to be pegged, to fig. to make a blunder. Dans ce séjour de dix-huit mois à Londres, F. fait quelques écoles, in that stay of eighteen months in London, F. makes a few blunders. R. — Dieu, quelle école ! what a blunder !

ÉCOLIER, ay-ko-lay-ss, sm. fem. ÉCOLIÈRE, scholar, pupil, learner, school-boy, school-girl. C'est une des bonnes écolières, he is one of his good pupils. fig. C'est l'école qu'on a, it is encore —, he is only at the rudiments. Faire une faute d'école, to commit a solecism. Tour d'école, school-boy's trick.

ÉCONDUIT, ay-kong-düer, ra. 1 to show out, to dismiss. A peine eussé-je éconduit ce laquais, que, I had hardly dismissed this lackey, when. Le Sage. 2 (by extension) to refuse, to deny. — un lion rarement se pratique, to give a lion a refusal is not an easy matter. La Font.

ÉCONDUIT, ay-kong-düer, ppa. d'éconduire, fem. —E. Se voyant et mutique, seeing that he met with refusal and mockery. Bussy-R. fig. La conscience se rebute à force d'être éconduite, when conscience is not listened to, she is at last discouraged. J. I. Rouss.

ÉCONOMAT, ay-ko-no-mah, sm. 1 (charge, office d'économie) stewardship, bursharship (of a college), steward's office. 2 anc. (d'un évêché, etc.) stewardship.

ÉCONOME, ay-ko-no-m, adj. m. 1 économiste, saving, sparing, chory. fig. Être — de louanges, de paroles, etc., to be sparing of praise, of words. 2 (substantif) economist, manager. 3 sm. (particul.) (dans les hospices, dans les collèges, etc.) steward, burser. (adjectif.) Le père —, la mère —, the steward, the stewardess.

ÉCONOMIE, ay-ko-no-mee, sf. (Gr.) 1 économie. Entendre l'économie, to be a good manager. 2 — domestique, domestic economy. — rurale, rural economy. — politique, political economy. 3 (épargne) economy, saving. Avoir de l'économie, to save. Vivre à l'économie, to live sparingly. Il n'a point d'économie, he is not a saving man.

4 — sf. (la chose épargnée) savings. Faire des économies, to save money. 5 fig. (harmonie entre les parties) economy. L'économie du corps humain, the whole economy of the human body. La magnétique — du globe, the magnetic economy of the globe. Mich. 6 fig. (la disposition, la distribution des parties) economy (d'un tableau, d'un discours, d'une pièce de théâtre, d'une picture, d'un discours, d'un système, d'un social body). Rien dans l'économie de sa toilette ne trahissait le trouble de son âme, nothing in the arrangement of her dress betrayed the agitation of her mind. Sand.

ÉCONOMIQUE, ay-ko-no-mik, adj. nif. 1 économique, economical. 2 (qui diminue les frais, la dépense) economical. Cheminée —, economical chimney. 3 sf. economies.

ÉCONOMIQUEMENT, ay-ko-no-mik-mang, adv. economically.

ÉCONOMISER, ppa. of ÉCONOMISER, fem. —E. Des revenus bien —, well managed revenues.

ÉCONOMISER, ay-ko-no-mie-zay, ra. 1 à husband. Il a bien économisé ses revenus de cette terre, he has husbanded his income from this estate. 2 (épargner) to economize, to save (en écu, en couronne, le bois, la chandelle, wood, candles). (intransitivement) — sur ses revenus, to save out of one's income. Qui économise s'enrichit, a penny saved is a penny earned. Corn. fig. — ses forces, le temps, to be sparing of one's strength, of one's time. Un monsieur de beaucoup d'esprit, mais qui l'économise un peu trop, a gentleman of a great deal of wit, but who is rather too chary of it. S.-B.

ÉCONOMISTE, ay-ko-no-mist, sm. économist.

ÉCORÉ, ay-kor, sf. nadi. See ÉCORÉE.

ÉCORÉ, ay-kors, sf. (Lat. cortex) 1 bark. La première, la grosse —, the epidermis, the cuticle. La seconde, la petite —, the liber. Peler l'écoré, to bark. (by extension) Cette terre était si horriblement dépouillée qu'elle n'avait pas même une écorée, this land was so horribly stripped that there was not even a bit of moss. Chat. 2 (de certains fruits, de certains fruits) rind, peel. — d'orange, de citrou, orange, lemon peel. — de grenade, rind of the pomegranate. 3 geol. L'écoré du globe terrestre, the crust of the terrestrial globe. 4 fig. (superficie, apparence) outside, surface. D. était trop ingénieux pour pénétrer au-dessous de son —, troupeuse, D. was too ingenious to penetrate below that deceitful surface. Nod. Il était obligent, poli, respectueux, sous son —, quelques fois brusque et dur, he was obliging, polite, respectful, under an abrupt and rough exterior. Saint-Sim. L'écoré de la politesse, the tarnish of politeness. La Bruy.

ÉCORÉ, ppa. of ÉCORER, fem. —E. barked, striped, peeled. Des arbres —, barked trees.

ÉCORER, ay-kor-say, ra. 1 to bark, to peel, to strip. — un arbre, to bark a tree.

S'ÉCORER, rpr. to become barked, to lose its bark.

ÉCORCHÉ, ppa. of ÉCORCHER, fem. —E. 1 played. (by extension) Qu'on se figure une terre morte et pour ainsi dire — e par les vents, let us imagine a barren land, and wind, cold bare, as it were, by the winds. Buff. 2 (qui a été écorché) excoriated, grazed, with the skin rubbed off. Avoir les jambes —es, to have the skin rubbed off one's legs. fig. Lorsque j'entends cet ignoble langage, j'ai l'écoré —, it grates on my ear to listen to such ignoble language. Saint-Evre. 3 sm. paint, sculpt. écorché, skinned figure of man or animal.

ÉCORCHER, ay-kor-shay, ra. 1 to play, to skin. — un bœuf, to play an ox. — une anguille, to skin an eel. fig. Il crie comme si on l'écorchait, he cries as if he were being played alive. Il n'y a rien de plus difficile à — que la queue, the conclusion of an affair is the most difficult. prov. fig. Il faut tondre les brebis et non pas les —, take care not to kill the goose with the golden eggs. 2 (emporter, déchirer une partie de la peau, de l'écorce, to excoriate, to rub the skin off, to gall, to fret, to rub off the bark of). Vous m'avez écorché la jambe, you have rubbed the skin off my leg. La selle a tout écorché ce cheval, the saddle has quite galled this horse. Les charrettes en passant ont écorché cet arbre, the carts in going by have rubbed off the bark of this tree. fig. — une langue, to hack, to murder a language. Écorché le grec aussi couramment que l'anglais, I speak Greek, after a fashion, as fluently as I do English. Ab. — un mot, le nom de quelqu'un, to mispronounce a word, a person's name. (by analogy) Au piano sa sœur écorché une sonate, his sister is thrumming a sonata. Al. Dav. 3 (by analogy) (d'un aliment, d'une boisson, of food, of drink) to take the skin off, to be rough. Ce vin est si âpre qu'il m'écorché le palais, this wine is so harsh that it rasps the palate. fig. — l'oreille, les oreilles, to grate on the ear. prov. fig. Jamais bien parler n'écorché la langue, good words cost nothing. A sculpt. to play. 5 fig. (exiger plus qu'il ne faut) to fleece. Il vous écorché, c'est l'usurier le plus vil, he will fleece you, he is a most extortionate usurer. Le Sage. Ce marchand n'écorché pas son monde, that tradesman does not fleece his customers.

S'ÉCORCHER, rpr. (se faire ou écorcher) to rub off the skin. S'— le bras, to rub the skin off one's arm. Il s'est écorché à la main, he has rubbed the skin off his hand.

ÉCORCHERIE, ay-kor-sher, sf. 1 knacker's yard. 2 fig. (little used) inn in which travellers are fleeced.

ÉCORCHIEUR, ay-kor-shür, sm. 1 knacker, flyer. 2 fig. C'est un —, he is an extortioner.

ÉCORCHURE, ay-kor-shür, sf. exco-riation. Mon coup de pistolet n'avait fait qu'une —, my pistol-shot had only grazed the skin. Ab.

ÉCORNE, ppa. of ÉCORNER, fem. —E. Ces dents sont —, the corners are worn off these dice. fig. Mes trentenous déjà fort —es, I had dipped already into my thirty louis. Chat.

ÉCORNER, ay-kor-nay, ra. 1 (rompre une corne, les cornes) to break the horn, the horns of (un taureau, a bull). prov. (hyperb.) Il faut un vent à — les bœufs, it blows a hurricane. 2 (casser, abattre un angle) to break off a corner, corners of (une pierre, a stone; une table, a table). — un livre, to dog's-ear a book. 3 fig. (diminuer) to curtail, to diminish (sou bien, sa terre, one's property, one's estate). — sa fortune, to make a hole in one's fortune.

ÉCORNIFLÉ, ppa. of ÉCORNIFLER, fem. —E, fm. Repas —, meal got by spunging.

ÉCORNIFLER, ay-kor-ne-day, ra. fm. to sponge upon, to get by spunging.

ÉCORNIFLÉ, ay-kor-ni-luh-ree, sf. fm. spunging.

ÉCORNIFLÉUR, ay-kor-ne-day, sm. fm. écornifleux, fm. spungier. Ces trois insignes —, those three notorious spungers. Nod.

ÉCORNUR, ay-kor-nür, sf. corner broken off.

ÉCOSSAIS, ay-ko-say, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 Scotch. 2 Italien, Scotch ribbon. 3 Étoffe —, plaid.

ÉCOSSAIS, sm. fem. —E, Un — a Scotchman. Une —, a Scotchwoman.

ÉCOSSE, ay-kos, sf. geog. Scotland. Nouvelle —, Noro-Scotia.

ÉCOSSER, ay-ko-say, ra. 1 to shell, to husk (des pois, des fèves, peas, beans).

ÉCOSSEUR, ay-ko-suhr, sm. fem. ÉCOSSEUSE, person that shells, that husks.

ÉCOT, ay-ko, sm. 1 (quote-part) quota, share. Payer son —, to pay one's quota, share; || fig. Il a bien payé son —, (he made the company very merry. 2 (chez un traitier) reckoning, score. 3 (gens qui mangent ensemble dans une auberge) party. prov. fig. Parlez à votre —, speak to your own company. 4 woods and forests, stump (of a tree).

ÉCOULE, ppa. of ÉCOULER, fem. — E., run out, elapsed, expired. fig. Quand l'année fut —, when the year was over. Le loap, quelques jours —, s, revient voir si son chien, the wolf, after the lapse of a few days, returned to see whether his dog. La Font. Ce délai n'était pas —, il fallait en attendre la fin, that delay not having expired, it was necessary to wait for the end. Bar. Le temps est —, the time is expired.

ÉCOULEMENT, ay-kool-mang, sm. 1 flow, flowing, running, draining. L'— de l'eau, des eaux, the running of water, of waters, the draining of the water. 2 fig. (vente, débit) sale.

ÉCOULER, ppr. 1 to run out, to flow out, to disperse. L'eau s'écoule, the water runs out. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Faire — de l'eau, to drain off. (by analogy) La foule, la presse s'écoule, the crowd is dispersing. La foule s'écoula sur les pas de leurs Majestés, the crowd dispersed at the approach of their Majesties. Al. Dum. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Il faut laisser — la foule, we must let the crowd disperse. 2 fig. (des richesses, du temps, of wealth, of time) to pass away, to glide away, to elapse, to slide away, to slip away. L'argent s'écoule vite, money is soon spent. Le bonheur des méchants comme un torrent s'écoule, the happiness of the wicked passes away like a torrent. Rac. La journée s'écoula pour moi comme une heure, the day glided away for me like an hour. Ab. Vingt-sept ans seulement se sont écoulés depuis, only twenty-seven years have elapsed since. Th. Gaut. 3 fig. (des marchandises, of goods) to sell, to sell off. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Faire — des marchandises, to sell off goods. (sometimes transitively) Il n'a pu — ses marchandises, he could not get rid of his wares.

ÉCOURGEON, ay-koor-zhong, sm. See ESCORGEON.

ÉCOURTÉ, ppa. of ÉCOURTER, fem. — E., adjective. Nez —, snub nose. Cet habit est —, bien —, that coat is too short, very short. fig. Des idées —es, narrow ideas. Chat. Que la narration est —el how the story has been curtailed!

ÉCOURTÉ, ay-koor-tay, va. 1 to curtail, to shorten, to crop, to cut short. — des cheveux, to cut hair short. — un manteau, une jupe, to shorten a cloak, a petticoat. 2 — un chien, un cheval, to dock a dog, a horse. 3 fig. (des ouvrages d'esprit, of literary works) to curtail.

ÉCOUTANT, ppr. of ÉCOUTER, adj. m. fem. — E., Avocat —, briefless barrister. 2 (in joke) —, s. pl. (auditeurs) hearers, listeners. Maître lei qui traînait après soi force —s, master Such-a-one who drew after him many hearers. La Font.

ÉCOUTÉ, ay-koot, sf. (lieu où l'on écoute sans être vu) listening-place. fig. Être au —, to be upon the watch. Mme V. et sa cuisinière se mirent au —s, Mrs. V. and her cook set themselves to listen. Balz. Un événement de cette importance tient tout le monde au —s, an event of this importance keeps every body on the look-out. Bussy-R. La presse était au —s, the press was on the look-out. L. Blanc. Sœur —, listening nun.

ÉCOUTÉ, sf. naut. sheet. —s de grande voile, grandes —s, main-sail sheets. —s de misaine, de hauiet, de perroquet, fore-sail, fore-top-sail, fore-top-gallant-sail sheets. Border les —s, to haul aft the sheets, to sheet. L'arguer les —s, to ease off the sheet, to let fly the sheets.

ÉCOUTÉ, ppa. of ÉCOUTER, fem. — E., listened to, man. Des mouvements —s, precise motion, pace.

ÉCOUTER, ay-koo-tay, va. (Lat. auscultare) 1 to listen, to listen to, to hear, to hearken to. Elle tendit le cou pour — le bruit de la maison, she stretched out her neck to listen to the noise in the house. Balz. G. écoutait d'avance de toutes ses oreilles, G. had all her ears open already. Lamart. Elle écoutait de son grand air de reine toutes les folies que, she listened with her grand queenly air to all the jests which. Muss. Ses compagnons l'écoutaient avec une attention profonde, his companions listened to him with deep attention. Chat. Écoutant d'une oreille avide, taking in with greedy ear. Sand. Vous pouvez parler bas, j'écouterai des yeux, you may whisper, I shall listen to you with my eyes. C. Del. — aux portes, to listen at the door, to eaves-drop. Elle a de l'entrain et de l'esprit; on ne s'ennuie pas à l'—, she is witty and full of spirits; one is never tired of listening to her. G. Sand. abs. Bien — et bien répondre est une des plus grandes perfections que, to listen and answer well is one of the greatest qualities that. La Rochef. J'ai beau — je n'entends rien, it is in vain I listen, I hear nothing. Écoute, écoute, hear, hear. (substantif) Un écoute s'il pleut, a mill worked by sluices; || prov. fig. C'est un écoute s'il pleut, he is an irritable man; || it is a mere chance, a waiting for deat men's shoes. fig. N'— que d'une oreille, to lend a listless ear. 2 (donner audience) to give audience, to give ear. Parlez, je vous écoute, speak, I am ready to hear you. On les renvoyait sans les —, they were dismissed without having received an audience. Notre sage magistrat écoutait également le riche et le pauvre, our wise magistrate gave ear alike to rich and poor. Boss. (by analogy) — la défense, the reasons of quelqu'un, to listen to the defence, the reasons of a person. — la prière, les vœux de quelqu'un, to hearken, to listen to the prayer, to the wishes, of a person. 3 (donner quelque croyance-quelque consentement à ce qu'une pers. propose; prendre plaisir à l'entendre) to pay attention to, to give, to lend an ear. Gardez-vous d'— les paroles d'—, beware of giving ear to soft words. Fén. A peine l'armée fut assemblée qu'on écouta les propositions d'accablement, scarcely was the army assembled when proposals for peace were taken into consideration. Volt. Il écoule au dedans de lui la voix de ce génie qui l'a jusque-là déçu de promesses, he listens to the voice of that genius within him which till now has deceived him with promises. Sie-B. 4 (sometimes) (obéir à quelqu'un, suivre ses avis) to listen to, to mind. Cet enfant ne veut — personne, that child minds nobody. Ils écoutaient les conseils qu'il daignait leur donner, they listened to the counsels he deigned to give them. Flor. Elle ne sait pas se faire —, she cannot secure obedience. 5 fig. — la raison, to listen to reason. — la voix de la nature, to listen to the voice of nature. N'écoutez que son zèle pour la maison d'A., listening only to his zeal for the house of A. Le Sage. L'orgueil seul fut écoute, pride was the only counsellor. Flor. N'— que soi-même, to act upon impulse. 6 fig. Il écoule trop son mal, he coddles himself too much.

s'écouter, ppr. 1 s'— parler, to listen to the sound of one's own voice. 2 s'— trop, to indulge one's self too much; to over-nurse one's self.

ÉCOUTEUR, ay-koo-tohr, sm. listener. C'est un — aux portes, he is an eaves-dropper.

ÉCOUTEUX, ay-koo-toh, adj. m. man. shiffling.

ÉCOUTILLE, ay-koo-te-yah, sf. naut. hatchway, hatch. La grande —, the main hatchway. L'— d'avant, the fore hatchway. L'— d'arrière, the after-hatchway. Fermer les —s, to shut up the hatches.

ÉCOUVILLON, ay-koo-ve-yong, sm. 1 (d'un four, of an oven) scovel, malkin. 2 (d'un canon, of a gun) syringe.

ÉCOUVILLONNER, ay-koo-ve-yo-nay, va. 1 to sweep out (an oven). 2 to sponge (a gun).

ÉCRAN, ay-krang, sm. screen, fire-screen.

ÉCRASANT, ay-kra-zang, ppr. of ÉCRASER, adj. m. fem. — E., crushing, overwhelming. fig. Ce silence — qui pèse sur les campagnes à midi, that oppressive silence that pervades the country at noon. Sand.

ÉCRASÉ, ppa. of ÉCRASER, fem. — E., 1 crushed, overwhelmed. Un homme — par la chute d'une pierre, a man crushed by the fall of a stone. (hyperb.) Cet homme est — sous le poids de ce fardeau, that man is crushed under the weight of his burden. fig. Je suis — de remords, I am overwhelmed with remorse. Après avoir été — d'impôts pour la délivrance du roi, after having been overwhelmed with taxes for the deliverance of the king. Aug. Th. L'aile gauche fut presque —e, the left wing was almost entirely cut down, borne down. Gilbert baissa la tête, — par ce mépris, G. crushed to the earth by this contempt, hung down his head. Al. Dum. 2 fig. flat, low, short, squat. Avoir le nez —, to have a flat nose. C'était une grosse fille —e, a cantative, and of the spirit, she was a squat, flat-nosed witty girl. Saint-Sim. La couplee un peu —e dans sa courbe, the couplet rather flattened in its curve. Th. Gaut. Taille —e, short thick waist.

ÉCRASEMENT, ay-kra-z-mang, sm. 1 crushing, bruising, squashing. 2 fig. overwhelming, ruin, destruction.

ÉCRASER, ay-kra-zay, va. 1 to crush, to bruise. J'ai failli être écrasé par un omnibus, I had like to have been run over by an omnibus. — une araignée avec le pied, to tread upon a spider. — des raisins dans un pressoir, to crush grapes in a wine-press. Quand l'univers l'écraserait, l'homme serait encore plus noble que ce qui le tue, though the universe should crush him, still man would be nobler than what kills him. Pasc. S'— le pouce, le pied, to crush one's thumb, one's foot. (by extension) Ce ciel sans lumière qui semble vous — sous sa voûte abaissée, this murky sky that seems to crush you under the weight of its lowering vault. Chat. 2 (hyperb.) to crush, to overwhelm, to weigh down. Ce travail m'écrase, I am worked to death. 3 fig. (importuner) to overwhelm with visits. 4 fig. (accabler, anéantir) to crush, to pull down, to destroy. Tous ces désastres qui les écrasèrent, all those disasters with which they were overwhelmed. Lamart. Cette érudition, au lieu d'— l'esprit, le soutient, this erudition, far from weighing down the mind, sustains it. Ph. Chas. Je vous délire de nier ce fait qui vous écrase, I defy you to get rid of this damning fact. Lamart. Écrasez-moi sous votre mépris, crush me to the earth with your contempt. V. Hug. — quelqu'un dans une discussion, dans un débat, to run a person down in a discussion, in an argument. 5 fig. (hyperb.) (échapper, to elapse, to throw into the shade. Une intrigante qui écrase par ses modes ridieules la mise simple et modeste de nos possibles citoyennes, on adventures, who, by her ridiculous fashions, throws into the shade the simple and modest dresses of our unpretending countrywomen. Al. Dav.

ÉCRASER, rpr. 1 to be crushed, bruised. Un fruit qui s'écrase en tombant, a fruit that is bruised in falling. (by extension) Ce masque court, camard qui semblait s'être écrasé sous la pression d'une main puissante, that short, flat-nosed face that seemed to have been crushed under the pressure of a powerful hand. Th. Gaut. 2 fenc. to stoop. (by analogy) Le cheval à chaque instant s'écrasait sur ses jarrets, the horse of every moment sunk down on his hams. Th. Gaut.

ÉCRÈME, ppa. of ÉCRÉMER, fem. — E, Du lait — skimmed milk.

ÉCRÉMER, ay-kray-may, ra. 1. ÉCRÈME, IL ÉCRÈME, IL ÉCRÉMENT, 1 to skim, to take the cream off. — le lait, du lait, to skim the milk, to skim milk. 2 fig. to take the best of.

ÉCRENAGE, ay-kray-nozh, sm. tech. kerning.

ÉCRENER, ay-kray-nay, ra. tech. to kern (a letter).

ÉCRENOIR, ay-kray-nwâr, sm. tech. paring-knife, kerning-knife

ÉCRETER, ay-kray-ay, ra. 1 mil. to carry off the top of. 2 agri. to cut off the tops of maize.

ÉCREVISSE, ay-kreb-vees, sf. crust. crayfish, crawfish, crab. Pêcher des —, to fish for crayfish. Souper aux —, crayfish soup. Vaux d'—s, crab's eyes. Aller à reculons comme les —, to walk backwards. pop. Être rouge comme une —, to be as red as a turkey cock. astr. Le signe de l'—, the sign of Cancer.

ÉCRIER, ay-kryay, ra. tech. to scow (iron wire).

S'ÉCRIER, rpr. nous nous écriions, vous vous écriiez, (from cri) 1 to exclaim, to cry out. S'— de douleur, to cry out with grief. S'— d'admiration, de terreur, to exclaim with admiration, terror. S'— sur un ou à mal à propos jeté, to cry out for an ace flung at the wrong moment. Boil. Le plus vieux au garçon s'écria tout qu'il put, the oldest cried out to the lad as loud as he could. La Font. À ces paroles, la tortue s'écrie et dit, at these words, the tortoise exclaims. La Font. 2 (prononcer quelques paroles en criant, en élevant la voix) to exclaim. Eh quoi! s'écrie-t-elle, what! cries she. Sans s'— à toute heure que les temps sont changés, without continually exclaiming that the times are changed. S'—B.

ÉCRILLE, ay-kre-yuh, sf. grute, grating, cradle.

ÉCRIN, ay-krang, sm. (Lat. scrinium) 1 cashet, jewel-case. 2 (les bijoux) casket of jewels.

ÉCRIRE, ay-krir, ra. irreg. ÉCRIS; ÉCRIVANT; ÉCRIS, TU ÉCRIS, IL ÉCRIT, NOUS ÉCRIVONS, VOUS ÉCRIVEZ, ILS ÉCRIVENT; ÉCRIVAIS; ÉCRIVAIS; ÉCRIVIONS; ÉCRIVIONS; ÉCRIS; QUE J'ÉCRIVIS; QUE J'ÉCRIVISSE, IL LIRE ET — to know how to read and write. Vous écrivez menu et avec plus d'agrément que jamais, you have a smaller and more agreeable handwriting than ever. Volt. Il écrit comme un chat, he writes a miserably scraw. Volt. 2 (représenter, noter par l'écriture) to write, to write down. — une lettre, to write a letter. Écrivez cela sur votre journal, write that down in your journal. — sa dépense de chaque jour, to write down one's daily expenses. — son nom, son adresse, to write down one's name, address. Il l'a écrit sous ma dictée, he wrote it from my dictation. Son sang sur la poussière écrivait mon devoir, his blood had traced my duty on the sand. Corn. Dieu a écrit sa loi dans le cœur des hommes, God has written his law in the hearts of men. Les rides ont écrit son âge sur son front, his age is written in wrinkles on his brow. La Bray. (by analogy) — un morceau de musique, an air, to write down a piece of music, an air. Se faire — à la porte de quelqu'un, se faire — chez quelqu'un, to leave one's name at a person's door. 3 (orthographe) to spell. Comment écrivez-vous ce mot? how do you spell this word? 4 (sometimes) (s'engager par écrit) to give in writing. Il ne s'agit pas de donner des paroles, il faut — words will not do, it must be under your handwriting. 5 fig. (composer) to write. — une lettre, to write a letter. — un ouvrage, une histoire, un traité, to write a work, a history, a treatise. Je vais raconter cette histoire, l'écrira qui voudra, I will relate this story, let who will write it. Muss. — des volumes, to write volumes. absol. J'écris de l'univers, I write upon the universe. Buff. Il avait écrit sur tous les sujets, he had treated every subject. Launart. — eu prose, en vers, to write in prose, in verse. La démaison d'—, the rage for writing. Fen. — au courant de la plume, to write off hand. (relativement au style) Il ne sait pas — he is no writer. — bien, to write well.

— patement, to write without spirit. Il écrivait à la diable, he wrote harum scarum. Chat. Elle excellait en tous genres d'—, she excelled in every kind of writing. Saint-Sim. L'art d'—, the art of writings. (des compositeurs de musique) to write, to compose. 6 fig. — une lettre à quelqu'un, to write a letter to a person. Vous nous écrivez des lettres charmantes, you write us charming letters. Volt. Je vous ai écrit plusieurs lettres de mon écriture, I have written several letters to you in my own handwriting. B. de St-P. — quelque chose à quelqu'un, to write word to a person of a thing. Je vous écrirai toutes les nouvelles, I will write to you all the news. Je vous écris les choses comme elles me viennent, I write to you the things that come uppermost. Boss. Absol. Je lui ai écrit plusieurs fois, I have written to him several times. Je lui ai écrit sur ce que vous m'avez dit, I wrote to him concerning what you told me. Je dois lui — de Paris, I am to write to him from Paris. Je vous écrirai pour vous donner mon adresse, I will write to you to let you know my address. fig. — de bonne œuvre, de la bonne œuvre à quelqu'un, to write in strong terms to a person. 7 fig. (avancer quelque proposition, enseigner une doctrine par écrit) to write, to state, to assert. 8 law. (exposer ses raisons dans une requête) to write, to opine.

S'ÉCRIRE, rpr. 1 to be written. Une de ces choses qui ne peuvent s'—, one of those things that cannot be written. 2 to be written, to be spelled. Ce mot s'écrit de telle manière, this word is spelt thus. 3 S'— à la porte de quelqu'un, to leave one's name at the door of a person. 4 to sign one's self. 5 recipr. to write to each other.

ÉCRIT, ay-kree, ppa. of ÉCRIRE, fem. — E, 4 written. Conventions —es, written agreement. La langue parlée et la langue —e, the spoken language and the written language. fig. C'était — au ciel, that was written in Heaven. Cela était — dans le livre du destin, that was written in the book of Fate. absol. (impers.) Il est — que, it is written that. Il est — que je ne gagnerai pas, it is written that I shall not win. prov. Ce qui est — est —, what is written is written. 2 fig. (marque) written. Sa cruauté est —e sur son visage, cruelty is written on his face. Il portait son crime — sur son front, he bore the marks of his crime written on his forehead. 3 fig. (composé) written. Il y a dans son livre quelques pages bien —es, in his book there are some well written pages. 4 (d'un papier, etc., sur lequel on a écrit) written upon. Papier — des deux côtés, paper written upon on both sides.

ÉCRIT, sm. (Lat. scriptum) 4 writing, written paper. Il tire an — de sa poche, he draws forth a paper writing from his pocket. Mettre par —, rédiger par —, draw up in writing. Mettre une chose an — par —, pour s'en souvenir, to put a thing in writing not to forget it. law. Preuve par —, written proof. law. Instruction par —, examination taken down in writing. 2 (particulièrement) (acte) written agreement. — sous seing privé, private deed. — double, fait en double, a duplicate. 3 (ouvrage d'esprit de peu d'étendue) writing. 4 —s, pl. (ouvrages d'esprit) writings. Les —s de Voltaire, de J.-J. Rousseau, the writings of V., of J.-J. R. Et ses —s tout seuls doivent parler pour lui, and his writings alone ought to speak for him. Boil.

ÉCRITEAU, ay-kre-to, sm. bill. — de maison, de chambre à louer, bill of a house, a room to be let. L'appartement est loué, il faut enlever l'—, the apartment is let, the bill must be taken down. ÉCRITOIRE, ay-kre-iwâr, sf. 4 (petit meuble) standish. — de bureau, standish, escriroire. — de corne, d'ivoire, de cuivre, common inkhorn, ivory, brass inkhorn. 2 (improperly) (ecrrier) inkstand.

ÉCRITURE, ay-kre-tür, sf. 1 (l'art d'écrire) writing. 2 (caractères écrits) writing. — bâtarde, ronde, cursive, sloping, round, running hand. Faux en — privée, forgery of a private person's handwriting. Faux en — publique ou authentique, forgery of a legal document. — en lettres, writing in letters. Je n'ai jamais su apprendre à lire l'—, I have never been able to read writing. Mol. 3 (manière de former les caractères) hand, handwriting. Je connais son —, I know his hand, his handwriting. P's hand has become a very pretty one. Mme de Sev. Il a une belle —, he writes a fine hand. 4 —s, pl. law. (écrits) writings, deeds. 5 —s, pl. absol. com. (les livres d'un négociant) accounts, books. absol. Tenir les —s, to keep books. 6 adu. Commis aux —s, counting-house clerk. 7 bi. L'écriture sainte, l'Ecriture, les Saintes Écritures, Scripture, the Holy Scriptures, Holy Writ.

ÉCRIVAILLEUR, ay-kre-val-yubr, sm. scribbler.

ÉCRIVAIN, ay-kre-vang, sm. 4 (little used) (celui dont la profession est d'écrire) writer. —s jures, sworn writers. — public, scribe, copyist. 2 aut. ane. purser. 3 aut. purser, captain's clerk, supercargo. 4 (auteur) writer. Qui dit froid — d'un détestable auteur, a cold writer means a detestable author. Boil. Les grands —s, the great writers. absol. Un — a writer.

ÉCRIVASSIER, ay-kre-vay-yay, sm. (disparingly) scribbler.

ÉCROU, ay-kroo, sm. 4 entry in the gool-book. 2 (vis) nut, screw-nut, female screw.

ÉCROUFÉ, ppa. of ÉCROTER, fem. — E, Il fut — à Sainte-Pélagie, he was committed to the prison of Ste-Pélagie.

ÉCROUELLES, ay-kroo-ayl, sf. pl. (Lat. scrophulæ) king's evil, scrofula.

ÉCROUER, ay-kroo-ay, ra. 1 to commit to prison. 2 to enter in the gool-book.

ÉCROUÏR, ay-kroo-ir, ra. tech. to hammer-harden, to cold beat metal.

ÉCROUISSEMENT, ay-kroo-is-mang, sm. tech. hammer-hardening, cold beating.

ÉCROULEMENT, ay-krool-mang, sm. falling in, falling down.

ÉCROULE, ppa. of S'ÉCROULER, fem. — E, fallen down, fallen in.

S'ÉCROULER, rpr. to fall down, to fall in, to fall to pieces, to crumble away. Le pont en s'écroutant avait enseveli le tom-bean d'A., the bridge falling in had buried under it the tomb of A. Chat. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Vous ferez — la maison, you will pull the house down. fig. Charge, emploi, honneurs, tout en un instant s'écroule, employments, honours, every thing in a moment falls to pieces. V. Hug.

ECROÛTER, ay-kroo-tay, ra. to cut off the crust of.

ÉCRU, ay-kru, adj. m. fem. — E. Soie — e, unbleached raw silk. Fil —, unbleached thread. Toile — e, brown holland.

ECTROPION, ek-tro-pyong, sm. (Gr.) med. ectropium (morbid eversion of the eye-lids).

ÉCU, ay-kü, sm. (Lat. scutum) 1 (bouclier) shield. 2 her. shield, escutcheon. L'— de France, the arms of France. 3 (sorte de monnaie d'argent) crown. — de trois livres ou petit —, half a crown. — de six livres, — de six francs, crown-piece. Un — de Bavière, a Bavarian crown. Un — sor —, to honour up money. (hyperb.) Avoir des — à remuer la pelle, to have money to the chafe. N'avoir pas un — vaillant, not to be worth a shilling. prov. Les vieux amis et les vieux — sont les meilleurs; vieux amis, vieux — s. old friends are the best of all. prov. fig. Voici le reste de nus —, here is a fresh member. fam. C'est le père au —, he is made of money. 4 (monnaie de compte de la valeur de trois livres) three francs. Mille —, three thousand francs. 5 — d'or, golden crown.

ÉCUBIER, ay-kü-byay, sm. aut. hausse-hoie.

ÉCUEIL, ay-koh-yuh, sm. (Gr.) 1 rock, reef, shelf. Donner sur un —, to strike upon a rock. Ce vaisseau s'est brisé contre un —, that vessel has split upon a rock. 2 fig. rock, danger, stumbling-block. La haine et la flatterie sont des — où la vérité fait naufrage, hatred and flattery are rocks on which truth is shipwrecked. La Rochef. Rhodes des Ottomans le redoutable. R. —, that has so oft repelled the Ottomans. Rac. Tous les — qui pourraient briser toutes vos espérances, all the rocks on which all your hopes may be shipwrecked. Nod.

ÉCUELLE, ay-küyl, sf. (Lat. scutilla) 1 porringer. — à oreilles, porringer with two handles. Lavasse — s. scullion maid. fig. pop. Il a bien plu dans son —, he has come down good property. 2 bot. — d'eau, marsh pennywort.

ÉCUELLE, ay-küyl, sf. porringer-sut (de soupe, de bouillon, of soup, of broth).

ÉCUISSE, ay-kü-ssay, ra. to split (trece).

ÉCULÉ, ppa. of ÉCULER, fem. — E. Des solitaires — s, shoes trodden down at heels.

ÉCULER, ay-kü-lay, ra. to tread down at heels (des solitaires, des bottes, shoes, boots).

S'ÉCULER, vpr. (des chaussures, of shoes, etc.) to wear down at heels.

ÉCUNAGE, ay-kü-nazh, sm. tech. skimming.

ÉCUNANT, ay-kü-mang, ppr. of ÉCUNER. Traître, dit S., — de rage, traitor, said S., foaming with rage. Chat. La mer — e, the foaming sea. Un coursier —, a foaming steed.

ÉCUNE, ay-küm, sf. 1 foam, froth, rymme. L'— vené bots, the foam of the waves. L'— de la bière, yeast. L'— n'en pot qui nait, the foam of a pot that is boiling. (improperly) — de mer, meerschaum. 2 (lave) foam. L'— d'un cheval, d'un chiev, the foam of a horse, of a dog. (by analogy) (des personnes, of persons) foam. Quand cet homme est en —, here I — lui sort de la bouche, when that man is in a passion he foams at the mouth. 3 (sueur) foam. Ce cheval était couvert d'—, that horse was covered with foam. 4 fig. (rebut) scum, dregs. Un de ces hommes que produit l'— du peuple, one of those men belonging to the dregs of the people. Lamart.

ÉCUMER, ay-kü-may, ra. to foam, to froth. La mer écume, the sea foams. Ce vin, cette bière écume, that wine, that beer works. Son cheval commençait à —, his horse was beginning to foam at the mouth. Cet homme écumait de rage, de colère, that man foamed at the mouth with rage, with anger.

ÉCUMER, ra. 1 to skim, to scum (le pot, la marmite, the pot; du sucre, des confitures, du sirop, sugar, preserves, syrup). fig. — les marmites, to sponge. 2 fig. (piller) — les mers, les côtes, to scow, to infest the seas, the coasts. 3 fig. to pick up, to gather. Il va partout — des nouvelles, he goes picking up news every where. Il avait écumé dans toutes ces professions les vices de la populace, he had picked up in all those professions the vices of the populace. Lamart.

ÉCUMÉIL, ay-kü-muile, sm. 1 skimmer. 2 fig. — de marmites, a parasite, a sponger. 2 Un — de mer, a rover, a pirate.

ÉCUMÉUX, ay-kü-muh, adj. m. fem. écumeuse, foamy, frothy, foaming. Le lait —, the frothy milk. Nod. Bouche écumeuse, foaming mouth. Les cascades écumeuses, the foamy cascades. Saint.

ÉCUOIRE, ay-kü-moor, sf. skimmer.

ÉCUREUR, ay-kü-ray, ra. to scour, to clean. Il faut — les chaudrons, those copers must be scoured. — no puits, to clean a well.

ÉCUREUIL, ay-kü-rub-yuh, sm. zool. squirrel. fig. C'est un —, it est vil comme un —, he is as dirty as a squirrel.

ÉCUREUIL, ay-kü-ruir, sm. fem. ÉCUREUSE, scourer.

ÉCURIE, ay-kü-rec, sf. (Lat. equus) 1 (lien) stable. — pour huit chevaux, an eight stall stable. Mettre un cheval à l'—, to put a horse in the stable. prov. fig. C'est un cheval à l'—, it is always in want of repairs. prov. Fermer l'— quand les chevaux sont dehors, to shut the stable-door when the steed is stolen. Garçon d'—, groom, stable-boy, hostler. 2 (train, équipage) equipage. Il dépense beaucoup pour ses — s, his stud is of great expense to him.

ÉCUSSE, ay-kü-song, sm. (Lat. scutum) 1 scutcheon, escutcheon, coat of arms. L'— de France, the escutcheon of France. 2 agri. scutcheon.

ÉCUSSENER, ay-kü-so-nay, ra. agri. to bud, to inoculate, to inye.

ÉCUSSENOIR, ay-kü-so-wâr, sm. agri. budding-knife.

ÉCUYER, ay-kü-yay, sm. 1 anc. squire, shield-bearer. 2 auc. (titre) squire, esquire. 3 auc. (les simples gentilshommes et les nobles) esquire. 4 (charge chez un prince, etc.) equerry, master of the horse, gentleman of the horse. Le grand — de France, the master of the horse. — cavalcour, equerry. 5 man. riding — master, rider, horseman. Les — du Cirque, fem. les écuyères du Cirque, the equestrian performers of the Circus. Cet homme est bon —, that man is a good rider. fem. Cette femme est bonne écuyère, she is a very good horsewoman. Bottes à l'écuyère, Hessian boots. 6 (celui qui donne la main à une dame) gentleman-usher. 7 — de main, attendant squire. 8 — tranchant, carver. — de bouche, de cuisine, head-cook. 9 (by analogy) (perche placée le long d'un mur pour servir d'appui, hand-rail).

EDDA, ay-dah, sf. (Scand.) Edda.

ÉDEN, ay-dayn, sm. (Heb.) 1 Eden. 2 fig. Ce parc est un véritable —, this park is a delightful place.

ÉDENTE, ppa. of ÉDENTER, fem. — E. 1 toothless. Un peigne —, a toothless comb. 2 Une vieille —, a toothless old hag. 3 (substantif) toothless person, person without teeth. 4 zool. — s, pl. edentata.

ÉDENTER, ay-dang-tay, ra. to break the teeth of (on peigne, une scie, a comb, a saw).

S'ÉDENTER, vpr. Un peigne qui s'édente, a comb that is losing its teeth.

ÉDICTER, ay-dik-tay, ra. to impose, to inflict (une peine, a penalty).

ÉDIFIANT, ay-de-fyang, ppr. of ÉDIFIER, adj. m. fem. — E. edifying.

ÉDIFICATEUR, ay-de-fe-kat-ubr, sm. (little edifier).

ÉDIFICATION, ay-de-fe-kah-syong, sf. 1 building. L'— du temple de Jerusalem, the building of the temple of J. 2 fig. (sentiments) edification. Vous devenez l'— des familles, you become the edification of families. Fléch. Il mène une vie pleine d'—, he leads a very edifying life.

ÉDIFICE, ay-de-lis, sm. 1 edifice, building, structure, pile, fabric. Les — s publiques, the public buildings. 2 fig. edifice, fabric, structure. Nous travillions ici-bas à — de grandeur et de puissance, we labour here below at rearing a structure of grandeur and power. Mass. L'— social, the social fabric. L'— de sa fortune, the whole superstructure of his fortune.

ÉDIFIER, ppa. of ÉDIFIER, fem. — E. adject. 1 built. 2 fig. (touché) edified. Bien des gens furent — de cette marque de la force de notre religion, many people were edified by that mark of the power of our religion. Rac. Mal —, any thing but edified. Il n'est pas ton —, fort —, it est assez mal — de ce qu'un tel a fait, he is shocked at Mr. Such-a-one's behaviour. 3 fig. (informé, instruit) informed. Je suis complètement — sur le compte de, I have every information relative to.

ÉDIFIER, ay-de-fyay, ra. (Lat. edificare) 1 (bâtit) to build, to erect (un temple, un palais, a temple, a palace). 2 fig. (par opposition à détruire) to build up. 3 fig. (porter à la piété, à la vertu) to edify. — le prochain, to edify one's neighbour. Deux ou trois brutes qui édifient le public, two or three deevotes who edify the public. Le Sage. absol. Sa vie, ses actions, ses paroles, tout édifie en lui, his life, actions, words, every thing in him is edifying. 4 fig. absol. (donner une bonne opinion de soi) to please, to give satisfaction. 5 fig. (instruire, informer) to inform. Il m'a édifié sur ce point, he has set me right on that point.

S'ÉDIFIER, vpr. 1 to be building, to be built. 2 fig. to edify each other, to be edified.

ÉDILE, ay-deel, sm. edile.

ÉDILITE, ay-le-le-tay, sf. 1 (magistrature) edileship. 2 (by extension) (magistrats) ediles. Notre — parisienne, our Parisian edile. 3 (l'exercice) edileship.

ÉDINBOURG, ay-dang-hoor, s. geog. Edinburgh.

ÉDIT, ay-dee, sm. (Lat. edictum) 1 edict, decree. — du prince, edict of the prince. Les — s des empereurs romains, the edicts of the Roman emperors. 2 anc. (particul.) edict, decree. La révocation de l'— de Nantes, the revocation of the edict of N.

ÉDITEUR, ay-de-tohr, sm. 1 editor. — responsable, a responsible editor. 2 (by extension) (libraire) publisher. (adjectif.) Libraire —, publisher.

ÉDITION, ay-de-syong, sf. edition. — principes, editio principis, original edition.

EDMOND, ay-mong, sm. Edmund.

ÉDOUARD, ay-dû-âr, sm. Edward.

ÉDUEDON, ay-dû-dong, sm. 1 ederdon. Un usage d'— enlevé du nid des grands oiseaux, a cloud of ederdon from the nest of some large birds. Nod.

ÉDUE, ay-dû, adj. mf. capable of being educated.

ÉDUCATEUR, ay-dû-kal-ûhr, adj. sm. fem. EDUCATOR, educator, rearer, raiser, breeder. La fonction, remarquable surtout comme éducative, the art, especially remarkable as an educator. Mich.

ÉDUCATION, ay-dû-kal-syong, sf. (Lat.) education, bringing up. — plur. sique, morale, physical, moral education. La première — early education. Système d'—, educational system. Maison d'—, academy, boarding-school. 2 (connaissance et pratique des usages du monde) breeding, manners. Manquer d'—, to be deficient in good-breeding. Il n'a point d'—, he is an ill-bred, vulgar man. Un homme sans —, an ill-bred man. 3 (by extension) (de certains animaux, & of some animals) training. L'— d'un cheval, the training of a horse. 4 rur. econ. breeding, raising, rearing. L'— du bétail, the rearing of cattle. L'— des vers à soie, the rearing, breeding of silkworms. 5 (by analogy) (des végétaux, of vegetables) rearing.

ÉDUCOLORATION, ay-dûl-kol-rah-syong, sf. chem. pharmac. education.

ÉDULCÔRE, ppa. of ÉDULCÔNER, fem. — E, sweetened.

ÉDULCÔNER, ay-dûl-kol-rah, va. 4 chem. to edulcorate. 2 pharmac. to edulcorate, to sweeten.

ÉDULCÔRER, vpr. to be edulcorated, sweetened.

ÉDUQUE, ppa. of ÉDUIQUER, fem. — E, pop. educated, brought up.

ÉDUIQUER, ay-dû-kyé, va. pop. to educate, to bring up.

ÉFAUFILER, ay-to-le-lay, va. to draw out the threads of.

ÉFFACABLE, ay-fas-abl', adj. mf. effaceable.

ÉFFACE, ppa. of EFFACER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 effaced. Ecriture —, tout —, writing quite obliterated. (by extension) Un fleur desséchée, — de couleurs, a flower dried up, with its colours faded away. Saint. fig. Elle paraissait d'autant plus fraîche que sa toilette était plus pâle, plus —, her pale and faded dress only gave her a fresher appearance. G. Sand. 2 fig. obliterated. Un songe — de votre âme, a dream obliterated from your mind. Rac. 3 fig. thrown into the shade. Toutes ces dames furent —es par cette jeune étrangère, all these ladies were thrown into the shade by that young stranger. Le Sage. Les exploits de Sun père —s par les siens, his father's exploits thrown into the shade by his own. 4 fig. Enigales —es, shoulders thrown back. fig. Son œil morne et sa contenance —e, his dull eye and faded countenance. J.-J. Rous.

EFFACEMENT, ay-fas-mang, sm. fig. effacing, obliterating. L'— des péchés, the blotting out of sin. Rac. A, homme de douceur, de modestie et d'—, A, a mild, modest, and retiring man. Lamart.

EFFACER, ay-fas-ay, va. nous EFFAÇONS, il EFFACE, 1 to efface, to deface, to strike out, to rub out, to wash out, to obliterate, to cross out, to erase, to expunge, to wipe out. Le temps a effacé les traits et les couleurs de ce tableau, time has defaced the traits and the colours of that painting. — un mot, to strike out a word. — l'empreinte d'une médaille, — une médaille, to deface a medal. absol. Ajoutez quelquefois et souvent effacez, add sometimes, and often efface. Vol. fig. Touchez mes traits livides, et vos mains en passant vont — mes rides, touch my livid features, and your hands passing over them will efface my wrinkles. C. Del. Air superbe et menaçant que la mort même n'avait pu —, that haughty and threatening look which death itself had not been able to efface. Fé. 2 (by extension) (de la beauté des femmes) to fade. 3 fig. (faire disparaître, faire oublier) to efface, to obliterate, to blot out. Les événements effacent les événements, one event throws another into oblivion. Chat. Le temps qui efface les autres noms fait croître le sien, time which blots out other names extends his own. Fé. A qui m'effacera plutôt de sa mémoire, who would the sooner drive my recollection from his memory. Rac. 4 fig. (éclipser, surpasser) to eclipse, to throw into the shade. Ces trois obscurs noms de gentilshommes de province ont effacé ce jour-là les noms de cour, these three obscure names of provincial gentlemen that day threw into the shade all the names known at court. Lamart. Sa honte efface à mes yeux tous ses autres attributs, his goodness throws into the shade all his other attributes. Chat. 5 — le corps, — une épaule, to cover one's body, to stand sideways, to draw in one's shoulders. A la manière dont il effaçait ses épaules, on reconnaissait un militaire, the way in which he threw back his shoulders betrayed his military profession. Mérim.

EFFACER, vpr. 1 (dire efface) to become effaced, obliterated, to rub out, to come out. Une empreinte qui s'efface par le frottement, an impression that wears out with use. (by extension) La pâleur et les larmes du matin s'étaient complètement effacées, the paleness and tears of the morning had completely disappeared. Lamart. fig. Une telle parole ne s'efface que dans le sang, blood alone can blot out such an expression. Sand. 2 fig. (disparaître, ta) to be effaced, obliterated, erased. Vos bienfaits ne s'effacent jamais de ma mémoire, your benefits will never be effaced from my memory. Le souvenir de ces guerres sans pitié n'a pu s'— jamais, it has never been possible to efface the remembrance of those ruthless wars. Rich. Des souvenirs qui ne s'effacent jamais d'un cœur honnête, recollections which will never be obliterated from a virtuous mind. Nod. La douce vision s'efface, the gentle vision vanishes away. Saint. Les antiques mœurs s'effaçaient, the ancient manners were wearing out. Balz. 3 fig. (s'éclipser) to be eclipsed, thrown into the shade. Toute autre gloire s'efface devant la sienne, all other glory falls into the shade by the side of his. 4 (effacer le corps, l'épaule) to cover the body, to draw in the shoulder. 5 fig. (ne pas se mettre en vue) to keep in the background. Vous demandez à l'ambitieux de s'—, you ask the ambitious man to keep in the background. Lamart.

EFFAÇURE, ay-fas-ûr, sf. crosure, blot.

EFFARAY, ay-far-ay, va. agri. to cut off the leaves of.

EFFARURES, ay-far-ûr, sf. pl. agri. leaves cut off.

EFFAIRE, ppa. of EFFARER, fem. — E, adjective. scared, frightened, wild. Il prit l'enfant en croupe et l'emporta tout —, he threw the child upon his horse and carried him off quite frightened. V. Hug. (by analogy) Air —, bewildered look. Un visage tout —, a bewildered countenance. Metz. Un coup d'œil —, a look of fright. Nol. Le cri des oiseaux, the wild cry of the birds. Sand.

EFFAREMENT, ay-far-mang, sm. (trouble) fright.

EFFARER, ay-far-ay, va. to scare, to frighten, to frighten. La fanfare sans sons d'or qui l'effare sonne encore, the clanging flourish that scares thee is still sounding. V. Hug.

EFFARER, vpr. to be scared, frightened. Un cri de courtois qui s'effare, the cry of an affrighted steed. V. Hug.

EFFAROUCHE, ppa. of EFFAROUCHER, fem. — E, adjective. scared, frightened away. Elle était charmante avec son air de biche —, she was charming, with her look of a startled deer. Sand.

EFFAROUCHER, ay-far-oo-shay, va. 4 (épouvanter) to scare, to frighten away. — des pigeons, to scare pigeons. — le gibier, to scare game. prov. fig. — les pigeons, to frighten, to drive away châlonner, 2 fig. to frighten away, to startle. A, quoi bon — les clients? what is the use of frightening away the customers? Ab. fig. J'étais un mauvais sujet timoré pour tout ce qui peut — la bienséance, I was a scoundrel always fearful of offending against decorum. Nod.

EFFAROUCHER, vpr. 1 to be scared, frightened away. Des oiseaux qui s'étaient à peine effarouchés à mon approche, birds that were scarcely driven away by my approach. Nod. 2 fig. to take umbrage. C'est un homme qui s'effarouche aisément, he is a man who easily takes umbrage. Je crains qu'en l'apprenant son cœur ne s'effarouche, I fear that on hearing it her soul will take alarm. Cor. Je sais que vos attraits pourront s'— de l'hiver de mes ans, I know that your charms might be alarmed at my old age. Volt.

EFFECTIF, ay-fek-iv, adj. m. fem. EFFECTIVE, effective. Une armée de 50,000 hommes —, an army of 50,000 effective men. Il a dix mille écus —, he has thirty thousand francs in cash. Ils attendaient de lui des secours —, they expected real services from him. Fléch. Son assistance effective, his effective assistance. Aug. Th. Les résultats —s et positifs de sa faveur, the real and positive proofs of his favour. St-B. C'est un homme —, sa parole est effective, he is a punctual man, a man of his word. 2 sm. mil. admin. effective force. L'— de son armée était de 30,000 hommes, the effective force of his army was but 30,000 men. L'— d'une compagnie, the effective force of a company.

EFFECTIVEMENT, ay-fek-iv-mang, adv. effectively, in reality, in effect, indeed, actually. M. de P. croit que je vau plus que je ne vau —, Mr. de P. thinks that my merit is greater than it really is. M^{me} de Sév. Cela est arrivé —, it so happened indeed. Il paraît moins touché qu'il ne l'est —, he seems less affected than he is in reality.

EFFECTUE, ppa. of EFFECTUER, fem. — E, put in execution.

EFFECTUER, ay-fek-tûy, va. to effectuate, to effect, to perform, to execute, to bring about, to work out, to accomplish. Il a effectué ses promesses, he has fulfilled his promises. — un paiement, to effect a payment. absol. Ce n'est pas tout que de promettre, il faut —, promises are not sufficient, they must be carried into effect.

EFFECTUER, vpr. to be effected, brought about, carried into effect. Une partie de ses projets commençait à s'—, a part of his plans began to be carried into effect. Volt. L'embarcation ne s'effectuait pas sans lamette, the embarkment was not accomplished without tumult. Th. Gaut.

EFFEMINE, ppa. of EFFEMINER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 effeminate, womanish. Homme —, an effeminate man. Coeur —, cliquen-heart. Manières —es, effeminate manners. Mine —e, wifely face. Visage —, womanish face (by extension) Un langage —, a language. Buss. 2 (substantif) effeminate man.

EFFEMINER, ay-fay-me-nay, va. to effeminate.

EFFEMINER, vpr. to grow, to become effeminate.

EFFENDI, ay-fang-dee, sm. (Turk) effendi. Reiss —, reis-effendi.

EFFERVESCENT, ay-fay-vays-sang, sf. (Lat. effervescentia) 1 effervescence. Etre en —, faire —, to effervesce. 2 (by analogy) med. L'— des humeurs, effervescence of the humours. 3 fig. (emotion vive) effervescence (des esprits, des passions, of the mind, of the passions). Dans un moment d'—, in a moment of effervescence.

EFFERVESCENT, ay-fay-vays-sang, adj. m. fem. —, 4 chem. effervescent. 2 fig. effervescent, hot-brained. Une tête —, a hair-brained fellow.

EFFET, ay-fay, sm. (Lat. effectus) 1 effect, power. La cause et l'effet, the cause and the effect. L' — qui s'en va nous découvre les causes, the effect on disappearing discloses the causes. Muss. L' — de l'éincelle électrique n'est pas plus prompt, the effect of the electric spark is not more rapid. Nod. L' — d'une mine, the effect of a mine. J'essayai l' — des bonnes paroles, I tried what good words would do. Ab. Par l' — du temps, by the work of time. Ne pas avoir d' —, to take no effect. Être, rester sans —, to be ineffectual. Faire l' —, to do, to have the same effect as, to do as well as. Cela fait l' — d'un excellent engrais, that has the same effect as an excellent manure. 2 law. — rétroactif, retroactive effect. 3 (exécution) execution, performance, intent, purpose. En venir à l' —, to come to the performance. Loin que l' — aux paroles réponde, far from any effect corresponding to the words. La Pont. La chose a en son —, son plein et entier —, est demeuré sans —, the thing was accomplished, was effectually brought about, remained unaccomplished. Il faut que l' — s'ensuive, the effect must follow. Il faut en voir l' —, the result must be seen. Pour cet —, à cet —, to this effect, for that purpose. Nous allâmes à cet — chez le ministre, we went for that purpose to the minister's. Le Sage. A quel — ? to what purpose ? A l' — de, with a view to, to the intent that, with intent to. 4 (impression sur l'esprit on les sens) effect. Quel grand — ce discours m'a-t-il pas dû faire dans l'âme des auditeurs, what a grand effect this discourse must have produced on the souls of the hearers. La Bruy. C'est singulier comme votre oncle lui a fait de l' —, the effect your uncle has produced upon him is singular. MÉRIN. Faire l' — de, to appear to be. Cet homme me fait l' — d'être fou, that man appears to me to be mad. fine arts. lit. (particul.) effect. De beaux —s de lumière, fine effects of light. Cette scène produit beaucoup d' — à la représentation, that scene produces a grand effect in the performance. Sacrifiez la convenance à l' —, sacrifice propriety to effect. Des vers à —, clapptrap lines. St-B. (by analogy) Mettre au tableau, au dessin à l' —, to aim at effect in a painting, a drawing. Ce tableau est à l' —, that painting is a clapptrap. 5 (billet de commerce) bill, bill of exchange. —s négociables, negotiable bills. Un — de commerce, a bill, payable au porteur, — au porteur, bill payable to the bearer. Les —s publics, the funds, stocks. 6 —s mobiliers, moveables. 7 pl. —s, (objets mobiliers) effects, chattels, things, goods, luggage. Exporter ses —s, to take away one's things.

EX EFFET, adv. loc. in effect, really, in reality. Il le mérite en —, he really deserves it.

EN EFFET, conj. in fact, indeed. On m'a dit qu'il était parti; en —, y a plusieurs jours que je ne le vois plus au Cercle, they told me he was gone; in fact I have not seen him lately at the Club.

EFFEUILLEAGE, ay-fuh-zzyb, sm. leaves stripped off.

EFFEUILLEAISON, ay-fuh-yay-zong, sf. stripping off the leaves of.

EFFEUILLE, ppo. of EFFEUILLE, fem. — E, Le sanctuaire était jonché de roses —es, the sanctuary was strewn with rose leaves. Chât.

EFFEUILLEUR, ay-fuh-yay, ro. to strip off, to pluck the leaves of (une branche d'arbre, the branch of a tree). — la vigne, to strip the vine of its leaves. — une rose, des roses, to pluck the leaves of a rose. fig. Effeuilant une à une toutes ses tendresses et ses illusions, conning over one by one her affections and her illusions. Lamart.

S'EFFEUILLE, rpr. to lose, to shed its area.

EFFICACE, ay-fe-kas, adj. m. (Lat.

efficax) efficacious, efficient. Un moyen fort — alors, a very efficacious means at that time. Mich. Discours —, efficacious discourse. theol. Grâce —, efficacious grace.

EFFICACE, sf. efficacy. Une louange en grec est d'une merveilleuse — à la tête d'un livre, a panegyric in Greek is of wonderful efficacy at the head of a book. Mol. O divin Esprit, donnez — à ce discours, oh divine Spirit, impart efficacy to this discourse. Boss. L' — de la grâce, the efficacy of grace.

EFFICACEMENT, ay-fe-kas-mang, adv. efficaciously, efficiently.

EFFICACITÉ, ay-fe-kas-e-tay, sf. efficacy.

EFFICIENT, ay-fe-syang, adj. m. fem. — E, (Lat. efficiens) efficient. Cause —, efficient cause.

EFFIGIE, ay-fe-zhee, sf. (Lat. effigies) 1 effigy. — de cire, waxen effigy. Voici un souverain à l' — de la reine d'Angleterre, here is a sovereign bearing the effigy of the queen of England. Ab. 2 Exécuteur ou criminel en —, to execute a criminal in effigy.

EFFILE, ppo. of EFFILER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 slender, slim. Avoir la taille —e, le visage —, to have a slender shape, a long thin face. Cheval — lean-ribbed horse. 2 sm. fringed linen (for deep mourning). 3 sm. (espèce de frange de soie) silk fringe, trimming.

EFFILET, ay-fe-lay, va. to ravel, to unravel (une toile, a piece of linen). — les cheveux, to thin hair.

S'EFFILER, rpr. to fray out, to come unravelled. Cette étoffe s'effile, this stuff frays out.

EFFILOQUER, ay-fe-lo-kay, ro. to ravel, to unravel, to pick to pieces.

EFFLANQUE, ppo. of EFFLANQUER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 lean, thin, tank. Un cheval —, a raw-boned horse. Une bête —, a tank animal (by extension). C'était un grand garçon fort —, he was a tall gawky fellow. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (substantif.) ironic. thin man. Un —, un grand —, a long-shanks.

EFFLANQUER, ay-flang-kay, va. (d'un cheval, of a horse) to make lean, thin-flank.

EFFLEURÉ, ppo. of EFFLEURER, fem. — E, fig. Du reste il n'a — pas —, he did not affect or trouble him in the least. Mme de Sév.

EFFLEURER, ay-fuh-ray, ro. 1 to graze. Le coup n'a fait qu' — la peau, the blow did but graze his skin. S' — la jambe, to graze one's leg. 2 (by extension) (passer tout près) to skim the surface of, to touch slightly. La barque effleurait le rivage, the bark hugged the shore. La halle a effleuré le mur, the bullet grazed the wall. Les goélands vous effleurent de l'aile, the sea-gulls touch you slightly with their wings. Th. Gaut. Elle effleurait à peine la cime de neige nouvellement tombée, her feet scarcely touched the surface of the newly-fallen snow. Chât. Ses doigts que j'effleurais étaient doux et froids comme ceux d'un singe, her fingers that I touched slightly were soft and cold like those of a monkey. Th. Gaut. Fig. Le ridicule avait effleuré ce nom terrible, ridicule had glanced upon that terrible name. Lamart. 3 fig. to touch, to touch upon, to dip into. Il n'a fait qu' — la matière, he has only touched upon the matter. 4 hort. to strip the leaves off.

S'EFFLEURER, rpr. 1 (passer tout près l'un de l'autre) to come very near each other. fig. Leurs deux existences avaient marché côte à côte, s'effleurant tous les jours et ne se touchant jamais, their two existences had proceeded side by side, drawing near to each other every day, but never coming into contact. G. Sand. 2 (se flétrir) to fade, to wither. fig. Le fruit de tant de soins en un instant s'effleure, the fruit of so much care withers in an instant. C. Del.

S'EFFLEURIR, ay-fuh-rir, rpr. chem. min. to effloresce, (sometimes intransitively) Beaucoup de pierres effleurissent à l'air, many stones effloresce in the air.

EFFLORESCENCE, ay-lo-rays-sangs, sf. (Lat. efflorescere) 1 chem. min. efflorescence. 2 med. Avoir des —s sur la peau, to have efflorescences on the skin.

EFFLORESCENT, ay-lo-rays-sang, adj. m. fem. — E, chem. min. efflorescent.

EFFLUENCE, ay-fliu-angs, sf. phys. effluence.

EFFLUENT, ay-fliu-ang, adj. m. fem. — E, phys. Matière —, effluent.

EFFLUE, ay-fliu, sin. (Lat. effluviu) effluviu, pl. effluvia. —s magnétiques, magnetic effluvia.

EFFONDREMENT, ay-fong-druh-mang, sm. agri. deep digging, subsoil-digging, subsoil-ploughing.

EFFONDRE, ay-fong-dray, r. 1 agri. to dig deep. 2 (enfoncer, briser) to store in, to break open (un collier, une armure, un buffet, a coffer, a cupboard, a side-board). 3 absol. — une volaille, to draw a fowl.

S'EFFONDRE, rpr. to give way, to fall in.

EFFONDRILES, ay-fong-dre-yuh, sf. pl. sediment, grounds, dregs.

S'EFFORCE, ay-for-say, rpr. 1 to exert one's self, to force one's self, to strain one's self, to endeavour, to try. Ne vous efforcez point à parler, do not force yourself to speak. Ne vous efforcez pas, vous vous blesserez, do not exert yourself so much, you will overstrain yourself. fig. Ses yeux luis sur l'apparition semblaient s' — de la retenir, his eyes fixed on the apparition seemed to strive to detain it. Nod. 2 fig. to strive, to endeavour, to force one's self, to attempt. S' — de parvenir, to strive for success. Le sire de P., qui savait la guerre, s'efforçait de calmer leurs cris, the sire of P., who was an experienced soldier, endeavoured to calm their cries. Bar. Il s'efforce de se montrer insensible, he endeavours to appear insensible. Sait-il. Me m'efforce à la distraction tant que je puis, I do all I can to divert myself. Mme d'Ép. Me m'efforce quelquefois de moi-même contre la mauvaise fortune, I sometimes strive to bear up against ill fortune. Pass. Chacun d'eux s'efforçait de se faire donner une plus grande part de gouvernement, each of them strove to obtain a greater share in the government. Bar. O le danger est grand, c'est là que je m'efforce, where the danger is great, there I put forth all my efforts. Math.

EFFORT, ay-for, sm. 1 effort, exertion, endeavour. Que vous vous consumez par un vain — ! how you exhaust yourself in useless efforts! Boss. Faire le dernier —, to use one's utmost efforts. Employer tous ses —s, to use every endeavour. Faites-y vos —s, use your —s, exert yourself to the utmost. C'est le naturel du cœur humain de redoubler ses —s pour retenir le bien qu'on lui die, it is natural to the human heart to redouble every exertion to retain the good that is taken away from it. Boss. Elle fit ce souverain — de s'arracher à sa nature, she made this sovereign effort to dompt her nature. Mich. Le succès couronna ses —s, success crowned his efforts. — d'esprit, d'imagination, de mémoire, effort of wit, of imagination, of memory. 2 (by analogy) (des choses, of things) force, strength. L' — de l'eau a rompu cette digue, the impetus of the water has burst this dam. fig. Tout l' — de la guerre va porter sur cette province, the whole weight of the war will bear upon that province. 3 (by extension) effort. — d'esprit, effort of the mind. —s de l'art, efforts of art. 4 (by extension) (chose qui demande un sacrifice) effort. Faire un — sur soi-même, to strive to conquer one's repugnance. 5 strain. Se donner un — en soulevant un fardeau, to strain one's back by lifting a heavy weight.

EFFRAYANT, ay-frak-syong, sf. (Lat.) crim. law, breaking open, info. Vol avec —, house-breaking, burglary.

EFFRAYE, ay-fray, sf. orn. white owl. EFFRAYANT, ay-fray-yang, ppr. of EFFRAYER, adj. m. fem. —E, frightful, dreadful, fearful, appalling.

EFFRAYE, ppa. of EFFRAYER, fem. —E, 1 frightened, frightened, affrighted. 2 fig. poetic. L'on y verrait les fleuves —s remonter vers leur source, the affrighted rivers would be seen to rush back to their source. Rac. 3 (by extension) frightened, affrighted. On ne rencontrait dans les rues que des figures —es, nothing was to be met with in the streets but looks of dismay. Chat.

EFFRAIER, ay-fray-yay, va. conjug. like PAYER, to frighten, to startle, to scare, to frighten, to scare away. — un enfant, to frighten a child. — des pigeons, to frighten away pigeons. L'âne effraya les gens, nous servant de trompette, the ass will frighten people and will serve us as a trumpeter. La Font. Aucun des maux qui effrayent les hommes ne peut désormais m'atteindre, I am henceforth out of the reach of all the evils feared by mortals. B. de St-P. Le bruit des eaux effraya V. B., the noise of the waters startled V. B. de St-P. Ma présence effraya aussi les gens, my presence frightens people away also. La Font.

EFFRAIER, vpr. to be frightened, affrighted, frightened, to be startled, to take fright. Le chancelier et le conseil du roi s'effrayèrent de ces mesures, the chamber and council of the king were in dismay at these measures. Bar. D'où vient, dit-il, que je m'effraie? how is it, says he, that I feel frightened? La Font. Des hirondelles sans s'— autrement de la fumée des pipes, the swallows without being in the least scared by the smoke from the pipes. Th. Gaut. L'angoisse s'effraye en embrassant la variété des moyens, the imagination is overawed when it takes in the variety of means. Saint.

EFFRÈNE, ay-fray-may, adj. m. fem. —E, fig. unbridled, lawless, ungovernable. Les ambitions —es, the unbridled ambitions. Mich. Luxe —, unbridled luxury.

EFFRITER, ay-fre-tay, ro. agri. to exhaust (un champ, u field).

EFFRITER, vpr. (de la terre, of land) to become, to get exhausted.

EFFROI, ay-frwá, sm. fright, affright, dismay, dread, terror. Pâir d'—, to blanch with fear. P. est devenu l'— de ses voisins qui étaient ses amis, P. has become the dread of his neighbours who were his friends. Nod. Protéger du trône, il en était au même temps l'—, he was at once the protector and the dread of the throne. Lawart.

EFFRONTÉ, ay-frong-tay, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 impudent, brazen-faced, shameless, bold-faced. S. tout — qu'il était, fut troublé à ce discours, S. impudent as he was, was confused at this discourse. Le Sage. Une mine —E, a brazen face. Des regards —s, brazen looks. Il est assez — mon petit projet, my little plan is rather on impudent one. Beaum. prov. — comme un page de cour, as impudent as a court-page. 2 (substantif.) bold-face. La fortune est pour les —s et les bavards, fortune favours the bold and the talkative. Ab.

EFFRONTÈMENT, ay-frong-tay-mang, adv. impudently, boldly, shamelessly.

EFFRONTÉRIE, ay-frongt-ree, sf. effrontery, shamelessness, impudence.

EFFROYABLE, ay-frwá-yabl', adj. m. 1 frightful, dreadful, fearful, appalling. Il fit des serments —s, he swore horrible oaths. Gardant un silence —, preserving a dreadful silence. Chat. Je dirai des choses —s, I shall say frightful things. Montesq. 2 (hyperb.) hideous, frightful. Cette femme est —, that woman is hideous. (by analogy) Il fait un temps —, it is dreadful weather. Ma perdue noire qui me rend —, my black wig which renders me hideous. 3 (by extension) (excessif) tremendous, frightful. Il y avait un monde — à leur assemblée, the number of people at their assembly was frightful. L'— débordement de mille sectes haines, the frightful invasion of a thousand strange sects. Boss. Il fait une dépense —, he spends horribly.

EFFROYABLEMENT, ay-frwá-yabl'-mang, adv. frightfully, dreadfully, shockingly, fearfully.

EFFUSION, ay-fá-zyong, sf. (Lat.) 1 effusion, shedding, outpouring, overflowing. Une grande — de sang, great bloodshed. L'— du vin dans les sacrifices, the effusion of wine in sacrifices. fig. L'— de mes propres idées, the effusion of my own ideas. Turg. 2 fig. — de cœur, opening of the heart. L'embrassant avec une — sincère, embracing him with sincere effusion. Nod. Avec cette — qui lui était naturelle, with that effusion which was natural to him. St-B. — de tendresse, burst, flow of tenderness.

ÉGAL, ay-gal, m. fem. —E, pl. m. ÉGAUX, (Lat. equals) 1 equal. Les Français sont égaux devant la loi, the French are equal in the eyes of the law. Les grands et les petits sont égaux à ses yeux, great and small are equal in her eyes. La Font. Aimant avec une — passion l'étude et le plaisir, equally fond of study and pleasure. St-B. Toutes choses —es d'ailleurs, every thing being equal notwithstanding. Deux personnes d'une condition —E, d'une —E condition, two persons of the same rank. Faire un partage — du butin, to divide the booty equally. Les forces et les tendresses de son âme furent —es aux coups de la destinée, the strength and tenderness of his soul were equal to the blows of fate. La Font. Je cherchais un supplice — à son crime, I sought a punishment equal to his crime. Ahs. Un râpapat animal à la fille de l'air, so se dire —, a creeping animal dars to call itself the equal of the daughter of the air. La Font. Égaux en vigueur, en courage, equal in vigour, in courage. Floc. Faire tout —, to be impartial. fig. Tenir la balance —E, to hold the balance equal. Tout lui est —, he cares for nothing. Cela m'est —, that is all the same to me; that is all one to me. prov. pop. Cela est — comme deux œufs, they are as alike as two peas. 2 (lui, de niveau) even, even. Un chemin bien —, an even road. 3 (qui est toujours le même) even, equal, uniform. Un mouvement toujours —, a motion always uniform. Son pouls est très —, his pulse is very even. Le vertu toujours —E, constant est pas le partage de l'homme, that virtue which is ever uniform and constant does not fall to the lot of man. B. de St-P. 4 (substantif.) equal. Traiter d'— à —, to treat on equal terms with a person. Son charmant habit vert n'eût jamais son —, his charming green coat had never its match. Flor.

À L'ÉGAL DE, prep. as much as, equal to, like. Elle aimait cet enfant à l'— des siens, she loved that child as if it were her own. Bar. Je me le reprocherais à l'— de la plus noire ingratitude, I should reproach myself for it as though it were ingratitude of the blackest dye. Nod.

ÉGALEMENT, ay-gal-mang, sm. law, equalization.

ÉGALEMENT, adv. 1 equally, alike. 2 equally, both, alike. Les corosses et le mépris de la fortune sont —E craude, the carelessness and the contempt of fortune are alike to be feared. Volt.

ÉGALER, ay-gal-ay, va. (from égal) 1 to equal, to equalize (les parts, les portions, shares). Sa rapide compréhension l'égalait en un clin d'œil aux plus assidus, his quickness of apprehension made him in no time a match for the most assiduous. Lamart. La nature a souvent égalé la faiblesse à la force par le désespoir, nature has often made weakness a match for strength through despair. Montesq. Pour — le dévouement au danger, that the devotedness might be equal to the danger. Lamart. 2 (être égal à) to equal, to be equal. La recette égale la dépense, the receipt equals the expense. 3 (être ou devenir pareil) to equal, to match. Ton premier coup d'épée égalé tous les miens, your first exploit is equal to all mine. Cora. Rien n'égale l'impuissance de leur attaque, nothing can be compared to the impetuosity of their attack. Chat. La reine dont la fierté égalait le courage, the queen whose pride equalled her courage. Lamart. Je les délie d'— mes exploits ou ma renommée, I defy them to equal my exploits or my renown. Ab. Égalant les plus belles, as handsome as the handsomest. La Font. De t'— jamais je n'ai pas l'espoir. I have no hopes of ever equalling you. Mass. 4 (comparer) to compare. Il n'est personne qu'on puisse lui —, there is nobody that can be compared with him. Cette éloquence de B. qu'on a faussement égalée à celle de, that eloquence of B. that has been wrongly compared to that of. Villem. 5 (rendre uni) to level.

S'ÉGALER, vpr. to make one's self equal. L'envie ne pouvant s'élever jusqu'au mérite, pour s'— à lui, tache de le rabaisser, envy, not being able to rise to merit, endeavours to bring it down to its own level. Boil.

ÉGALISATION, ay-gal-e-zah-syong, sf. law. (LITTLE used) equalization.

ÉGALISE, ay-gal-e-zay, va. (from égal) 1 to equalize, to level — les lois d'un pays, to equalize the shares of a succession. — Pour — les chances, nous nous battons au sabre, that the chances may be equal, we will fight with broadsword. Sand. L'homme égalise toutes les conditions, love brings all conditions down to the same level. Quand les lois ont égalisé les familles, when the laws have introduced equality into families. Montesq. 2 (rendre uni) to level, to make level (un terrain, on chémin, a piece of ground, a road).

S'ÉGALISE, vpr. to become equalized. Tout se compare et s'égale à la fin, every thing finds its own level at last. Lamart.

ÉGALITAIRE, ay-gal-e-tay, adj. mf. 1 leveling. 2 sm. leveling.

ÉGALITÉ, ay-gal-e-tay, sf. (Lat. equalitas) 1 equality, parity. — d'âge, parity of age. L'— des conditions, equality of condition. Distribuer avec —, to divide equally. absol. L'—, equality. Cette nation vaine affolée d'—, that fickle nation doting on equality. Chat. 2 (uniformité) uniformity, evenness. — d'esprit, d'humeur, evenness of mind, of temper. — de style, de ton, evenness of style, of tone. 3 L'— d'un terrain, evenness of ground.

ÉGARD, ay-gar, sm. 1 regard, consideration, allowance, account. Il aura quelque — à ma prière, he will have some regard to my prayer. Le fat à si peu d'— au temps, aux personnes, aux bienséances, the coxcomb has so little regard to times, persons or propriety. Le Bruy. Il faut avoir — à la faiblesse humaine, one must make allowance for human weakness.

Sans avoir — aucun — aux prières, aux sollicitations, regardless of entreaties, of solicitations. Sans aucun —, sans le moindre — pour les raisons alléguées, totally regardless of the reasons alleged. 2 (différence pour quelqu'un) respect, consideration, regard. Par — pour moi, for my sake. Votre hôte eut de grands

—a pour moi, your landlord paid me great consideration. Le Sage. Les hommes se doivent des —s réciproques, men owe each other mutual consideration. Un manque d'—s, a want of respect. 3 A cet —là, à cet —, in that, in this respect. A différents —s, sous divers —s, à certains —s, in some respects. A tous —s, in all respects, in every respect. 4 Eu — à, considering, regard being had to.

A l'égard de, prep. 4 A with respect to. A l'— de ce que vous dites, with respect to what you say. A mon —, towards me, to me. A son —, towards him, to him. 2 (par comparaison, en proportion de) in comparison to. La terre est petite à l'— du soleil, the earth is small compared to the sun.

EGARE, ppa. of ÉGAYER, fem. —e, adjective. 4 strayed, wandering. Des voyageurs —s, travellers who have lost their way. (by extension) Route —e, devious path. Fiech. fig. bi. Brebis —e, lost sheep. 2 fig. (qui est dans l'erreur, tromblé) erring, misguided, disordered, wild. On esprit —, a mind led astray. Une tête —e, a disordered mind. Avoir les yeux —s, l'air —, etc., to have a wild, a haggard look. Avoir quelque chose d'— dans la vue, to have something wild in one's looks. 3 (perdu) mislaid, lost. Une lettre —e en route, a letter lost by the way.

EGAREMENT, ay-gar-mang, sm. 4 absol. losing one's way, wandering. 2 fig. (erreur) error, mistake, aberration. L'— de l'esprit humain, the errors of the human mind. Bourd. 3 fig. (des mœurs) disorder, misconduct. (by analogy) Un homme d'— de paroles ressemblait beaucoup à l'ivresse, a man, whose rambling speech very much resembled intoxication. Lamart. 4 —d'esprit, mental derangement.

EGAYER, ay-gar-ay, va. 4 to lead astray, to mislead. Notre guide nous égara, our guide led us astray. (by extension) Il me semblait que la félicité suprême était de pouvoir y — mes pas comme j'y égarais mes pensées et mes regards, methought the height of felicity was to be able to let my steps wander in it, in the same manner as my thoughts and looks. Lamart. fig. Elle traitait ses yeux autour d'elle avec un saisissement involontaire, she cast her eyes hither and thither around her with involuntary shuddering. Nod. 2 fig. (jeter dans l'erreur) to mislead, to lead astray, to lead into error. Une raison qui nous égare, a reason that leads us astray. Saint. Voilà comme on vous égare, that is the way in which you are misled. C. Del. C'était le monde qu'ils égarèrent, it was the world that they led astray. Chat. 3 fig. —l'esprit, to derange the mind. 4 (ne plus retrouver une chose) to mislay. — ses gants, ses lunettes, to mislay one's gloves, one's spectacles. 5 man. — la bouche d'un cheval, to spoil a horse's mouth.

ÉGARER, tpr. 4 to lose one's way, to wander, to stray, to go astray, to go wrong. Je m'égarais sur de grandes broyères, I wandered over vast heaths. Chat. S'— de son chemin, to lose one's way. Les gens du pays s'égarèrent quelquefois, the very people of the country sometimes lost their way in it. Nod. fig. Il m'avait pas de régions où ses idées s'égarassent plus volontiers, there were no regions which afforded him greater scope to speculation. Nod. S'— dans ses pensées, to lose one's self in one's thoughts. La pensée s'égarait dans un rêve infini, the thought loses itself in an endless dream. Th. Gaut. Vous vous êtes égarés à plaisir dans une foule de digressions fort éloquentes, you have launched out into a variety of very eloquent digressions. Sand. 2 fig. (tomber dans l'erreur) to fall into error. 3 fig. (se troubler) to wander. Je sens que ma tête s'égarait,

I feel my mind wanders. Je sens que je m'égare, I feel my reason giving way. 4 (se perdre) to be mislaid, to be lost.

ÉGAYÉ, ppa. of ÉGAYER, fem. —e, enlivened, cheered. (by extension) Un bruit de roues — par un bruit de sonnettes se fit entendre, a rumbling of wheels enlivened by a jingling of bells was heard. Saint. fig. Il se mit à conter d'un style — l'histoire de son mariage, he began to relate in a merry style the story of his marriage. Le Sage. fig. Des tentures et étoffe grise, —es par des agréments de soie verte, grey stuff hangings, enlivened by green silk trimmings. Bala.

ÉGAYER, ay-gar-ay, va. conjug. like PAYER, (from gai) 4 to enliven, to cheer, to cheer up. Comment égayer-voilà vos soirées? how do you divert yourself in the evening? Sand. Le père par un conte égaya ses discours, the father by a tale enlivened his discourse. Flor. Pour — le travail, to lighten the labour. Ab. Le bon vin égaye le cœur des vieillards, good wine rejoices the hearts of old men. Nod. Un rat sur le bord d'un marais égaya ses esprits, a rat on the border of a marsh was disporting himself. La Font. (by extension) Que de danses le soir égayaient la pelouse, how many dances enlivened the sward in the evening. Lamart. fig. Un pâle rayon de soleil égayaient encore la cour, a pale sun-beam let day-light into the yard. Saint. Une peinture blanche, parsemée de filets, égayaient leur façade, their front was rendered cheerful by white paint with fillets here and there. Th. Gaut. fig. — un ouvrage, — one's style, son sujet, to enliven a work, — one's style, one's subject. 2 (by analogy) — un tableau, to let light into a picture. — un bâtiment, un appartement, to let day-light into a building, an apartment. 3 — son deuil, to go out of deep mourning. 4 gard. to thin (trees). 5 (da linge) to rinse linen.

S'ÉGAYER, tpr. 4 to rejoice, to make merry, to divert one's self. Des lapins sur la broyère s'égayèrent, some rabbits were amusing themselves on the heath. La Font. Que vous êtes gourmand! dit-elle, en s'égayant au peu à son tour, what a glutton! said she, becoming a little cheerful in her turn. C. Sand. fig. Cet auteur s'égaye quelquefois, that author sometimes launches out into pleasant digressions. 2 S'— sur le compte de quelqu'un, s'— à ses dépens, to laugh at the expense of another. Je suis désolé de m'être égayé sur le page, I am grieved at having made merry at the page's expense. Beaum. Les railleurs s'égayent là-dessus à nos dépens, that furnished a good joke for the laughers. Le Sage. fig. Le poète s'égaye en mille inventions, the poet revels in a thousand inventions. Boil. fig. Le crayon s'égaye en mille fantaisies baroques, the pencil revels in a thousand whimsical fancies. Th. Gaut.

EGÉE, ay-zhay, sm. 4 myth. Egée. 2 antiq. geog. La mer —, the Egean sea.

ÉGÉRIE, ay-zhay-ree, sf. Egeria.

EGIDE, ay-zbed, sf. (Gr.) 1 myth. ægis, shield. 2 fig. shield, buckler. J'ai cru que d'un héros la promesse sacrée me servirait d'—, I thought that the sacred promise of a hero would be to me as a shield. Volt.

EGIPAN, ay-zhe-pang, sm. antiq. Ægipon.

EGISTHE, ay-zhist, sm. Egysthus.

ÉGLANTIER, églang-tyay, sm. (Gr.) hot, sweet briar, dog-rose tree.

ÉGLANTINE, églang-tecu, sf. hot, egplantine, wild rose, sweet briar rose, dog-rose.

ÉGLISE, égliz, sf. (Gr.) 4 church. L'— primitive, the primitive Church. L'— catholique, apostolique et romaine, the catholic, apostolic and Roman Church. L'— anglicane, the Church of England. 2 absol. L'— the Catholic Church. Le Pape est le chef visible de l'—, the Pope is the visible Head of the Church. Noire sainte mère l'—, our Holy Mother Church. L'— militante, the Church militant. En face de l'—, with all the ceremonies of the Church. 3 L'— d'Orient ou l'— grecque, the church of the East, the Greek church. L'— d'Occident ou l'— latine, the church of the West, the Latin church. Selon l'usage de l'— de Paris, according to the Paris prayer-book. 4 (temple) church. fig. C'est un pilier d'—, he is a church-goer. prov. Il est gœux comme un rat d'—, he is as poor as a church-mouse. prov. Près de l'— et loin de Dieu, the nearer the church, the farther from God. 5 (le clergé) church. C'est un homme d'—, he is a clergyman, a church-man, an ecclesiastic. Entrer dans l'—, to enter the Church. Cour d'—, ecclesiastical court. absol. Se faire d'—, to go into holy orders.

EGLIQUE, eg-log, sf. (Gr.) eclogue. EGOISER, eg-o-e-zay, mv. (little used) to egolize.

EGOISME, eg-o-isu, sm. 1 egotism, selfishness. P., dont je connaissais l'egoïsme renforcé, P., whose thorough selfishness I was aware of. Ab. 2 (opinion de certains philosophes) egoism.

EGOÏTE, eg-o-ist, s. mf. egotist. (adjective) egotistic, egotistical, selfish.

EGORGE, ppa. of ÉGORGER, fem. —e, slaughtered. Vos frères, ces martyrs —s à mes yeux, your brothers, these martyrs slaughtered before my eyes. Volt.

EGORGEMENT, eg-orzhi-mang, sm. slaughter, butchery. Le combat n'était plus qu'un —, the fight was converted into a butchery. Lamart.

ÉGORGEUR, eg-or-zhwar, sm. 4 slaughter-house. 2 naut. spilling-line.

ÉGORGER, eg-or-zhay, ra. 4 to cut the throat off, to slay, to slaughter, to butcher, to kill (au bout, un mouton, an ox, a sheep). 2 (by extension) (tuer, massacrer) to slaughter. À la veille d'égorgier un homme, on the eve of cutting a man's throat. Ab. 3 fig. (cou-summer la ruine) to ruin, to kill. Il nomma père de la patrie celui qui l'égorgèrent chaque jour de sa vie, he called the father of his country him who sacrificed it daily. Gréh. 4 naut. — un hunier, to haul up a top sail lengthwise.

S'ÉGORGER, tpr. 4 refl. to cut one's throat. fig. (hyperb.) Fuir Paris, ce serait m'— de ma main, to fly from Paris would be cutting my own throat. Gress. 2 recipr. to cut each other's throat, to kill each other. Deux hiboux, certain jour, pour une souris s'égorgèrent, two owls, one day, killed each other about a mouse. Flor.

S'ÉGOSILLER, eg-oz-e-zay, tpr. 4 to make one's throat sore with shouting. Il y a une heure que nos filles s'égosillent à crier, our girls have been bawling themselves hoarse this hour. Nod. Nos pélerius s'égosillent, our pilgrims bawl till their throats are sore. La Font. (par ellipse du pron. pers., la pers. pron. being understood) Ne me fais donc pas — à crier après toi, don't let me make myself hoarse by calling after you. 2 (d'un oiseau) to sing, to chirp loud.

EGOUTISME, eg-o-tism', sm. egotism.

EGOUT, eg-oo, sm. 4 full. 2 (la chute et l'écoulement des eaux de pluie) drip, carca. 3 (cloaque) sewer, shore, drain. fig. Cette ville, ce lieu est l'— du pays, that town, that place is the sink of the country.

EGOUTTAGE, eg-oot-tazh, sm. tech. drainage, draining.

EGOUTTEMENT, eg-oot-mang, sm. dripping, draining.

EGOUTTER, eg-oot-tyay, mv. to drain, to drip. Laisser —, faire — du lait, du fromage, to let curds, cheese drain. Mettre — de la vaisselle qu'on vient de laver, to set plates and dishes that have just been washed to drain. (transitively)

Faire des saignées pour — les terres basses, to make trenches for the draining of the low lands.

ÉCOUTTER, vpr. to drip, to drain. Une heure suffirait pour donner aux rochers le temps de s'—, an hour would suffice to give the rocks time to drain. Ab.

ÉCOUTTOIR, eg-oo-twar, sm. 4 drainer. 2 plate-rack.

ÉCOUTTURE, eg-oo-tur, sf. drainings.

ÉGRAFFIGNER, eg-rat-le-nyay, va. pop. to scratch.

ÉGRAINER, eg-ray-nay, va. See ÉGRENER.

ÉGRAPPER, eg-rap-ay, va. agri. to pick from the bunch.

ÉGRATIGNE, ppa. of ÉGRATICNER, fem.

—, scratched.

ÉGRATICNER, eg-rat-e-nyay, va. 4 to scratch. Le chat l'a égratigné, the cat has scratched him. (by extension)

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

—, Scratched.

ÉGYPTIEN, ay-zhup-syang, adj. m. fem. —, 2 Egyptian. 2 (substantiv.)

Égyptien. 3 (espèce de vagabond) gipsy.

ÉI, ay, interj. eh! ahl well!

ER BIEN, interj. well, well now. — 1 que faites-vous donc? well! what are you doing? —, le croiriez-vous? il n'a pas voulu y consentir, well now, would you believe it? he would not consent to it.

—, soit, well, be it so.

ÉHANÇÉ, ay-dog-shay, adj. m. fem. —, See ÉHANÇÉ.

ÉHONTÉ, ay-oug-tay, adj. m. fem. —, shameless, brzen-faced.

ÉHOUPER, ay-oo-pay, va. woods and forests, to cut the top of a tree, to top a tree.

—, See ÉHANÇÉ.

ÉIDER, ay-dayr, sm. zool. eider.

ÉIHER, s. geog. L'—, the Eider.

ÉJACULATEUR, ayzh-ak-ül-at-ulr, adj. m. anat. ejaculator.

ÉJACULATION, ayzh-ak-ül-ah-syang, sf. 4 nat. hist. ejaculation. 2 fig. (prière fervente) ejaculation.

ÉJACULER, ayzh-ak-ül-ay, va. phys. nat. hist. to ejaculate.

EJECTION, ay-zhek-syang, sf. med. ejection.

ÉJOUER, ayzh-ooir, va. absol. to rejoice.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

—, See ÉJOUER.

shape. 3 bot. Arbre —, tall straight tree.

ÉLANGEMENT, ay-längs-mäng, sm. 1 twitching, twinge, shooting. 2 fig. (de l'âme) transports, yearning. Les —s de l'âme vers Dieu, the yearnings of the soul towards God.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

—, See ÉLANGEMENT.

gain one's liberty. Ça, pour nous —, sau-tions par la fenêtre, now then, to gain our liberty, let us jump out of the window.
lit.

ELARGISSEMENT, ay-lar-zhis-mang, sm. 1 widening, making wider, broader, enlarging. L'— d'un canal, d'une route, d'une rue, etc., the widening of a canal, of a road, of a street. 2 (mise en liberté) release, enlargement.

ELARGISSEUR, ay-lar-zhe-sôr, sf. widening piece, piece let in.

ÉLASTICITÉ, el-as-te-se-tay, sf. elasticity, buoyancy (de l'air, of air). L'— d'une lame d'acier, the elasticity of a steel blade. fig. La misère avait affaibli les ressorts de l'âme de A., le bien-être leur a rendu leur —, destitution had weakened the springs of A.'s soul, a comfortable existence has brought back their buoyancy. Voit. L'âme humaine est douée d'une telle —, d'une telle facilité de se resserrer ou de s'étendre, the human soul is endowed with such elasticity, with such a faculty of contracting or expanding. Lamart.

ÉLASTIQUE, ay-las-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 elastic, buoyant. Corps —, elastic body. fig. Qu'appellez-vous la vérité? c'est un mot bien —, what do you call truth? it is a very elastic word. Al. Dom. 2 (qui produit l'élasticité, le ressort) elastic. Vertu, force —, elastic power. 3 comm. Gomme —, India rubber. (substantif.) India rubber. Une balle d'—, an India rubber ball. 4 Bretelles —s, elastic braces. (substantif.) (le ressort) elastic.

ELBEUF, el-bohf, sm. 1 geog. Elbeuf. 2 (drap.) Elbeuf cloth.

ELDORADO, el-do-rad-o, sm. (Sp.) eldorado. (hyperb.) C'est un —, it is an eldorado.

ELECTEUR, el-ek-tuhr, sm. 4 (in France) elector. Carte d'—, elector's card. 2 anc. (prince d'Allemagne) elector. fem. ELECTRIC, electress.

ELECTIF, el-ek-tif, sm. m. fem. ELECTIVE, 4 elective. 2 (qui se donne par élection) elective.

ELECTION, el-ek-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 election, return (des députés, of deputies; d'un académicien, of an academician). L'— d'un président, d'un secrétaire, the election of a president, of a secretary. absol. —s, pl. (des députés) the elections. 2 (lepoque) electing time. 3 law. Faire l'—, le domicile, to appoint one's domicile. 4 sur. Temps d'—, lieu d'—, time of election, seat of election. 5 anc. (tribunal) court of the assessors of subsidies. 6 rel. election. L'— du peuple juif, the election of the Jewish people. fig. Vase d'—, chosen vessel.

ELECTORAL, el-ek-to-ral, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 electoral. Collège —, body of electors. 2 anc. electoral.

ELECTORAT, el-ek-to-ras, sm. (dignité) 1 electorate. 2 (pays) electorate.

ELECTRICITÉ, el-ek-tre-se-tay, sf. (Gr.) phys. electricity. — vitreuse, vitreous, positive electricity. — résineuse, resinous, negative electricity. — positive, négative, positive, negative electricity. fig. Pour répandre cette — morale dans les masses, il faut en avoir en soi-même le foyer, to distribute this electricity among the masses, one must have the focus of it in one's self. Lamart.

ELECTRIQUE, el-ek-trik, adj. mf. phys. 1 electric, electrical. Courant —, electric current. Commotion —, electric shock. 2 (qui sert à électriser) electric, electrical. Machine —, batterie —, electrical machine, battery. fig. Son esprit était —, il frappait avant qu'on eût le temps de discuter, his intelligence was electrical, it struck before there was time for discussion. Lamart.

ELECTRISATION, el-ek-tre-zah-syong, —, electrification, electrization.

ELECTRISÉ, ppa. of ELECTRISER, fem. —E, electrified. fig. Les brigands —s par cette oraison funèbre, the brigands electrified by this funeral oration. Ab.

ELECTRISER, el-ek-tre-zay, va. 4 phys. to electrify, to electrize (un corps, a body; une personne, a person). 2 fig. (enflammer) to electrify. Un coup d'œil capable d'— une armée, a glance capable of electrifying an army. Ab. Sa bonne mine et ses mots heureux électrisaient tout le monde, his good looks and his happy expressions electrified every body. A. Car.

ELECTRISER, vpr. to be electrified, to become electric.

ELECTRISER, el-ek-tre-zuhr, sm. electrifier.

ELECTRO, ay-le-tro, in composition, electro.

ELECTRO-DYNAMIQUE, adj. mf. phys. electro-dynamic, electro-dynamical.

ELECTRO-GALVANIQUE, adj. m. phys. electro-galvanic.

ELECTRO-MAGNÉTIQUE, adj. mf. phys. electro-magnetic.

ELECTRO-MAGNÉTISME, sm. (Gr.) phys. electro-magnetism.

ELECTROMÈTRE, el-ek-tro-maytr', sm. (Gr.) phys. electrometer.

ELECTROPHORE, el-ek-tro-for, sm. (Gr.) phys. electrophorus, pl. electrophori.

ELECTUAIRE, el-ek-luayr', sm. pharmac.

ELEGANCE, el-ay-gang, sf. (Lat. elegantia) 1 elegance, elegance. L'— des formes, the elegance of forms. L'— de la taille, the elegance of the shape. Il y a dans sa parure plus d'— que de richesse, her dress is rather elegant than rich. L'— d'un meuble, d'un ameublement, the elegance of an article of furniture, of a set of furniture. 2 Une arts. elegance. 3 (particul.) (du langage) elegance. Parler avec —, to speak with elegance. L'— du style, elegance of style. 4 math. elegance.

ELEGANT, el-ay-gang, adj. m. fem. —E; 4 elegant, fashionable. Il était — de taille et de manières, he was elegant both in shape and manners. Chat. Le riche ou le sot se pare, l'homme — s'habille, the rich man or the fool decks himself out, the elegant man dresses himself. Balz. Architecture —e, elegant architecture. Façon de parler —e, elegant way of speaking. De Marot l'— badinage, the elegant trifling of M. Boil. (by extension) La vie —e est la perfection de la vie extérieure et matérielle, material life is the perfection of outer and material life. Balz. 2 (substantif) fashionable woman, dandy. Une —e, a fashionable woman.

ELEGIAQUE, el-ay-zhyak, adj. mf. 4 elegiac. Vers —s, elegiac verses. Poète, auteur —, elegist, elegiast. 2 sm. Les —s grecs, the Greek elegiasts.

ELEGIE, el-ay-zhee, sf. (Gr.) elegy. La plaintive —, mournful elegy. Boil.

ÉLÉMENT, el-ay-mang, sm. (Lat. elementum) 1 anc. phys. element. Les quatre —s, the four elements. (by extension) La mer est un — infidèle, the sea is a faithless element. Le feu est un — destructeur, fire is a destructive element. Au milieu de la multitude, comme dans un — qu'il soulevait à volonté, in the midst of the multitude, as in an element that he upheaved at will. Thiers. Les —s semblaient être conjurés contre les hommes, the elements seemed to have conspired against men. Fléch. 2 phys. chem. element. 3 fig. (toute chose qui entre dans la composition d'une autre) element. Les mots sont les —s du langage, words are the elements of language. Des —s de prospérité, elements of prosperity. Les —s de la civilisation européenne, the elements of European civilization. Guiz.

Tous les —s de son caractère étaient des vertus, all the elements of her character were virtues. Lamart. L'— de sa grandeur future, the element of his future greatness. Lamart. L'art a deux —s, le modèle idéal et la forme extérieure, art has two elements, the ideal model and the external form. Lamart. La famille est l'— indispensable de la société, the family is the indispensable element of society. 4 (le milieu dans lequel vit et se meut un animal) element. Être dans son —, to be in one's element. Être hors de son —, to be out of one's element. 5 (la chose dans laquelle on se complait) element. C'est son —, it is his element. 6 —s, pl. (principes) elements, rudiments. 7 geom. —s d'une ligne, d'une surface, d'un solide, elements of a line, of a surface, of a solid.

ÉLÉMENTAIRE, el-ay-mang-tayr, adj. mf. 4 elementary, elemental. Les corps —s, elementary bodies. 2 (qui concerne une science) elementary. La géométrie —, elementary geometry. 3 (by analogy) Classe —, elementary class.

ÉLÉONORE, el-ay-o-nor, sf. Eleonore. ÉLÉPHANT, el-ay-fang, sm. (Gr.) 1 zool. elephant. — blanc, white elephant. prov. fig. Faire d'une mouche un —, to make a mountain of a mole-hill. 2 Ordre de l'—, order of the Elephant. 3 — de mer, sea-wolf.

ÉLÉPHANTIASIS, el-ay-fang-tyaz-iz, sf. med. elephantiasis.

ÉLEVAGE, el-vazh, sm. rar. econ. (des animaux domestiques, of domestic animals) breeding, raising, rearing.

ÉLEVATEUR, el-ay-vat-uhr, adj. sm. (Lat. elevator) anat. elevator. Muscle — de l'œil, elevator of the eye.

ÉLEVATION, el-ay-vah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 elevation, raising, height. L'— d'un mur, the raising of a wall. Une — de cent mètres, an elevation of a hundred metres. Quand on est parvenu à cette —, le baromètre marque tant de degrés, when one has reached this height, the barometer marks so many degrees. — de terrain, rising ground. 2 liturg. L'— de l'hostie; absol. l'—, the elevation of the host. 3 — de la voix, the raising of the voice. 4 — de voix, raising of the voice. 5 fig. (action d'élever, de s'élever) elevation, exaltation, rise, preferment. L'— a ses asséssements, elevation has its trammels. Mass. Je plains ceux que la Providence a placés dans une si grande —, I pity those whom Providence has placed in so exalted a station. Sic-B. 6 fig. (grandeur d'âme) elevation. Quelle — de sentiments! what noble sentiments! Mass.

Avoir beaucoup d'— dans l'esprit, one has a grand — of spirit, to have a very noble mind. 7 fig. (noblesse de style) elevation, nobleness, loftiness. 8 fig. (aspiration) elevation. L'— du cœur à Dieu, the elevation of one's heart to God. 9 fig. (augmentation) rise, increase. L'— du prix des denrées, the rise in the price of commodities. 10 arch. elevation, raised plan. 11 astr. — du pôle, height, elevation. 12 med. L'— du pouls, the frequency of the pulse.

ÉLÈVE, el-ev, s. mf. 1 (celui, celle qui reçoit les instructions de quelqu'un) pupil, scholar, student. J'ai choisi moi — parmi les esprits vulgaires, I chose my pupil among persons of an ordinary intelligence. J.-J. Rouss. 2 (écolier, écolière); scholar, pupil, school-boy, school-girl. 3 (celui qui suit les cours d'une faculté) student, pupil. Un — en droit, a law student. Un — de l'École Polytechnique, a pupil of the Polytechnic School. 4 (celui, celle qui a été formée dans un art par quelque maître) pupil. Raphaël fut — de Pérugin, Raphael was the pupil of Perugino. Cet habile chirurgien, — de Dapuytren, that skilful surgeon, the pupil of D. 5 anc. (personne prenant part aux travaux d'une académie) scholar. 6 rur. econ. (animaux) Faîne des —s, to breed cattle. 7 hort. Faîne les —s, to raise plants, flowers. 8 (by extension) (élevage) breeding, raising, rearing.

ÈLÈVE, ppa. of ÈLÈVER, lem. — E, od- jectiv. I raised, built, erected. L'homme résiste mieux aux orages que les monuments — s par ses mains, mon resists storms better than the monuments built with his own hands. Chat. Les bannières saxonnes — es dans le camp d'A., the Saxon banners raised in the camp of A.
Agg. Th. L'homme se tient droit et — ;
son attitude est celle du commandement, man stands upright and erect, his attitude is that of command. Buff. fig. L'homme — en dignité, a man exalted in dignity.
2 (qui a l'élevation) elevated, high. Sa taille plus — e que celle de V., his stature of greater height than that of V. B. de St-P. 3 meter. Température — e, elevated temperature. 4 méd. Pouls — e, elevated pulse. 5 fig. (supérieur, éminent) high, raised, exalted. Plus on est — , plus on court de danger, the more elevated one is, the more danger one runs. Rac. In rang — , an elevated rank. 6 fig. (grand, noble) elevated, lofty, exalted. Ses sentiments — s, lofty sentiments. Une âme — , an elevated soul. 7 fig. (style, grand, lofty) high. Style — lofty style. Langue — , elevated language. 8 fig. (du prix) high. Le prix — s des denrées, the high price of provisions. Un tax — , a high rate. 9 (des animaux, of animals) brought up, reared. 10 fig. (instruit) bred, brought up, educated, trained up. Il n'avait jamais été — , il n'avait jamais été soumis à une discipline, he had never been educated, he had never been under any discipline. St-B. Un enfant bien — , a well-bred child.

ÈLÈVEMENT, el-èy-màng, sm. rel. elevation.
ÈLÈVER, el-vay, va. ÈLÈVE; IL ÈLÈ- VERA, (lat. elève) 4 (hausser, mettre plus haut) to raise, to lift up. — les eaux au moyen d'une pompe, to raise water by means of a pump. — un mur, une maison, to raise a wall, a house.
L'œil et l'oreille au guet, il élève la tête, with eye and ear on the watch, he raises his head. Flor. Il élevait sa queue, la faisait briller, he raised his tail, made it shine. La Font. C. éleva son roi ses yeux en rougissant, C. lifted up her eyes towards me with a blush.
Nod. Les garçons nationaux élèvent spon-tamment leurs armes, the national guards raise their arms spontaneously. Lamart.
(by extension) Cette montagne élève son sommet jusqu'aux nues, that mountain rears its head up into the clouds. Le soleil élève les vapeurs, the sun raises the vapours. — la voix, to raise, to lift up the voice; || fig. Il ne vous convient pas d'— ici la voix, it does not become you to raise your voice here. — le fig. — la voix pour quelqu'un, to speak in favour of quelqu'un, (by analogy) Les murmures que l'on commençait à — de toutes parts, the murmurs that began to be raised on all sides. Chat. mus. — le ton d'un morceau, to pitch the tone of a piece of music higher. fig. (hyperb.) — quelqu'un jusqu'aux nues, to raise a person up to the skies. (by analogy) Elles élèveront jusqu'aux nues une clemence qui me coûtait si peu, they exalted to the skies an act of clemency that cost me so little. Chat.
fig. — sur, au-dessus de, to raise, to ele- vate, to exalt, above. Vous, que la nais-sance et le rang élèvent sur le commun des fideles, you whom birth and rank exalt above the multitude of the faithful. Mass. fig.
— son cœur, son esprit, son âme, ses pensées vers Dieu, to lift up one's heart, mind, soul, thoughts to God. Il éleva son âme vers Dieu et mourut, he lifted up his soul towards God and died. Nod. Les craintes d'un grand homme persécuté élèvent les sentiments vers le ciel, the ashes of a persecuted great man raise the sentiments towards Heaven. Chat. 2 fig. (in-vestir de quelque dignité, placer dans un plus haut rang) to raise, to exalt, to pre- fer, to advance. La fortune a beau — certaines gens, elle ne leur apprend pas à vivre, it is in vain for fortune to raise certain persons, it does not teach them how to behave. Bussy-R. La faveur publique, l'éclat de son nom, l'éle-vèrent à une grande dignité, public favour, the splendour of his name, raised him to a lofty dignity. Villem. — quelqu'un aux charges, aux dignités, aux honneurs, to raise, to prefer, to advance a person to posts, dignities, honours. Ajez donc si haut élevé votre fortune, pour, have

I then raised your fortune so high that,
Rac. — une chose au rang d'une autre, to place a thing on a level, on a par with another. (by analogy) La loi musulmane qui élève la propriété à la hauteur d'une vertu, the Mahometan law which exalts cleanliness into a virtue. Th. Gaot. — quelqu'un au-dessus des autres, to set a person up above the others. 3 fig.
(enoblir) to elevate, to raise, to exalt (l'esprit, the mind; les sentiments, the sentiments). 4 fig. (enorgueillir) to lift up. La prospérité nous élève, prosperity lifts us up. Mass. 5 fig. (du style, of style) to raise, to elevate. 6 fig. (augmenter) to raise, to increase, to run up. — le prix des denrées, to raise the price of commo- dities. — le taux des intérêts, to increase the rate of interest. — la valeur d'une monnaie, to raise the value of a coinage.
7 phys. — la température d'un lieu, d'un liquide, to raise the temperature of a place, of a liquid. 8 (construire, dresser) to raise, to build, to erect, to build up, to rear, to run up. — un bâtiment, un mur, to raise a building, a wall.
— une statue, to erect a statue. — des trophées, to raise trophies. fig. — sa fortune sur la ruine d'autrui, to build up one's fortune on the ruin of others. — autel contre autel, see AUTEL. 9 fig. (opposer, susciter) to raise, to start. — une difficulté dans une discussion, to raise a diffi- culty in a discussion. — des doutes sur la réalité d'un fait, to start doubts as to the reality of a fact. 10 (un enfant) to bring up. — un enfant au biberon, to bring up a child by nursing. Cette femme n'a pu — aucun de ses enfants, that woman could not bring up any of her children. — un enfant par charité, to bring up a child out of charity. (des animaux, of animals) — un chien, to breed a dog. — des oiseaux, to rear birds. — des abeilles, to rear bees. 11 (instruire) to bring up, to train up, to educate. — la jeunesse, l'— dans la crainte de Dieu, to bring up youth, to bring it up in the fear of God. Toute leur attention était d'— leurs enfants à la vertu, their whole care was to bring up their children in virtue. Montesq. — quelqu'un dans la religion protestante, to bring a person up in the Protestant religion. fig. (by extension) F. élevait toute une révolution dans le duc de B., F. fos- tered a complete revolution in the duke of B. Lamart. 12 math. — un nombre à la seconde puissance, à la troisième puissance, etc., to raise a number to the second power, to the third power, etc.
13 geom. — une perpendiculaire, to erect a perpendicular. 14 nat. — un bâtiment, to erect towards a ship.
— s'élèvent, vtr. 4 (prendre de l'éléva-tion, se porter en haut) to rise, to rise up, to arise, to mount up, to be lifted up, to be raised. Ce terrain s'élève en amphithéâtre, this ground rises in the form of an amphitheatre. S'— en l'air, to rise in the air. Les herbes qui s'élèvent peu, the plants which grow low. B. de St-P.
Une cabane dont la fumée s'élevait dans la cime des arbres, a hut the smoke from which rose up into the tops of the trees.
Chat. Les brouillards s'élèvent de la terre, the mists arise from the earth.
Le fleuve s'élève à gros bouillons, the river rises in a frothy stream. Flor.

Soudain la mer s'élève et le ciel est en feu, on a sudden the sea rises and the sky is on fire. C. Del. Je vis mon bourlon s'— d'un vol sur et fort, I saw my drone rise with a steady and power-ful wing. Mich. fig. Les plaintes des hommes s'élèvent jusqu'au ciel, the complaints of men reached his ears. C. Del. Une voix s'élève à lui comme cette douce fumée, let my voice mount up towards thee like that gentle smoke. Lamart. fig. C'est en aimant qu'on s'élève à Dieu, it is through love that one is lifted up to God. Saint. S'— à la connaissance de Dieu, to rise to the knowledge of God. S'— à de hautes considérations sur un sujet, to rise to high considerations on a subject. (by analogy) Il a une contemplation qui s'élève de vérité en vérité, he has a contemplation which rises from truth to truth. St-B.
L'esprit de l'homme ne peut s'— à l'esquela, the mind of man cannot rise to that height. Il n'y a au monde que deux ma-nières de s'—, ou par sa propre industrie, ou par l'industrie des autres, there are in this world but two ways of rising, either by one's own industry, or by the stupidity of others. La Bruy. Un orateur populaire ne s'élève pas au pouvoir sans faire de jaloux, a popular orator does not rise to power without exciting jealousy. Aub. S'— au-dessus de, to rise above. Tout ce qui s'élève au-dessus d'eux leur devient insupportable, all that rises above them becomes insufferable to them.
Fléch. (morally) S'— au-dessus des passions, to rise above passions. S'— contre quelqu'un, to rise up against a person.
S'— contre une opinion, to rise up against an opinion. 2 fig. (s'enorgueillir) to exalt one's self, to be lifted up. scrip. Celui qui s'élève sera abaissé, whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased. 3 S'— de, to be prond of, to be puffed up with. Nous nous élevons devant de prospérités, we suffer ourselves to be carried away by success. Mass. 4 fig. (s'augmenter) to rise, to increase. Le prix des céréales s'est élevé, the price of corn has risen.
La température va s'élevant du cinq janvier au cinq juillet, the temperature con- tinues to rise from the fifth of January to the fifth of July. Arag. 5 fig. (d'une somme, of a number) to amount. 6 (être construit) to rise, to be raised, erected, built. Dans la clairière de ses forêts s'élevaient les abayes de, above the glades of these forests rose the abbeys of. Mich.
Ses colonnes s'élevaient à l'endroit même qu'occupe le château, those columns which erected on the very site occupied now by the castle. Th. Gaut. 7 fig. (se former, survenir) to arise, to spring up. Une tempête, un orage s'élève, a tempest, a storm arises. Je ne sais quels cris s'élevaient du fond de ma chambre, I know not what strange cries proceeded from the further end of my room. Nod. Des doutes s'élevèrent dans mon esprit, doubts arose in my mind. Le souvenirs s'éleva dans mon âme, remorse sprang up in my soul.
Volt. (impers.) En ce temps-là, il s'éleva des sectes nouvelles, des heresies, at that time, there arose new sects, new heresies.
Il s'éleva parmi les âneilles des hommes ignorants et superstitieux, there sprang up among the faithful ignorant and superstitious men. Mass. Il s'éleva une tem-pête, there arose a tempest. Il ne souf-frait pas qu'il s'élève un doute sur sa parole, he will not suffer his word to be doubted. C. Del. 8 (être élevé) to be brought up, reared, to be bred. Ces oiseaux s'élevaient difficilement, these birds are dif- ficult to rear. 9 (de la peau, of the skin) to swell, to blister, to rise in blisters. 10
nat. — en latitude, en longitude, to go on far latitudinally, longitudinally. S'— dans le vent, to gain fast to windward. S'— de la côte, to bear off, to take sea-room.
ÈLÈVER, el-vuhr, sm. rur. econ.
breeder, grazer, cattle-dealer.

ÉLÉVTE, el-é-vr, sf. pimple, pustule.
ELIÈRE, el-e-day, ra. (Lat. elidere) gram. to elide, to cut off, to suppress.

S'ELIMER, rpr. gram. to be elided, cut off, suppressed.

ÉLIGIBILITÉ, el-e-zhe-be-le-tay, sf. eligibility, eligibility.

ÉLIGIBLE, el-a-zhîl', adj. mf. 1 eligible. 2 (substantif) eligible person.

ÉLINE, el-e-nay, ra. 1 (des étoffes, of stuffs) to wear out, to rub out. — un habit, to wear out a coat. 2 fig. to wear away. L'intérêt élimine, attenué les passions, interest wears away, weakens the passions. J.-J. Rousseau. fig. Il n'a point élimé son génie dans le frottement des querelles littéraires, he has not worn out his genius in literary quarrels. Merim.

S'ELIMER, rpr. to be worn out, to wear out.

ÉLIMINATION, el-e-me-nah-syong, sf. 1 elimination (from), rejection, extrusion. 2 fig. math. elimination.

ÉLIMINÉ, el-e-me-nay, ra. 1 (expulser) to eliminate (from), to exclude (from). — des noms d'une liste, to exclude names from a list. 2 math. to eliminate, to disengage, to separate.

ÉLINGUE, el-aug-gub, sf. naut. sling.
ÉLINGUER, el-aug-gay, ra. naut. to sling.

ÉLIRE, el-er, ra. irreg. ÉLUS; ÉLISANT; ÉLUS, tu ÉLUS, il ÉLUT, nous ÉLUSIONS, vous ÉLISIEZ, ils ÉLUSIENT; ÉLUSSES, VOUS ÉLISIESSIEZ; ÉLUS, nous ÉLŪMES; ÉLIRAI, nous ÉLIRONS; ÉLIRAIS, nous ÉLIRIONS; ÉLIS, ÉLISSEZ; ÉLISEZ, VOUS ÉLISIEZ, nous ÉLISIESSIEZ, (Lat. eligere) 1 (prendre par préférence, choisir, nommer à une dignité, to elect, to choose (an député, a deputy; on pape, un roi, a pope, a king). On m'élit roi, mon peuple m'aime, I am elected king, my people loves me. La Font. Ils lui offraient qu'elle eût un on plusieurs assistants pour la conseiller, they proposed to her that she should choose one or several assistants to advise her. Mich. Le roi doit à son fils — un gouverneur, the king is to choose a governor for his son. Corn. — sa sépulture, to choose one's place of burial. 2 law. — domicile, to appoint one's domicile. 3 rel. to elect, to choose.

ÉLISION, el-e-zyong, sf. (Lat.) gram. elision.

ÉLITE, el-i, sf. choice, flower. Avec l'— des troupes, with the flower of his army. D'Além. Troupe d'—, choice troops. Un homme d'—, a highly-gifted man. (des choses, of things) J'ai eu l'— de ses livres, I have chosen the best of his books. Une chose d'—, a select article.

ÉLITER, el-e-tay, va. vop. to choose, to take the best of.

ÉLIXIR, el-ik-seer, sm. (Ar.) 1 pharm. elixir. 2 (extrait) elixir, quintessence.

ELLE, ell, pers. pron. fem. of the 3d pers. 1 (subj. et) she, it, pl. they. — n'appart ni à lire ni à écrire, she neither learnt to read nor write. Mich. Ma comère, dit-—, gossip, said she. La Font. Comme — s'avait dit, as they had said. La Font. Que fait-—? what is she doing? Est-— très-contente? is she very glad? Est-— bouvie! how good she is! 2 (régimen) her, pl. them. Mon Dieu! je n'avais qu'—, O God! I had but her. Lamart. Pour l'amour d'—, for her sake. La femme retourna chez —, the woman returned home. La Font. Je pense à —, I am thinking of her. Les oiseaux se moquèrent d'—, the birds mocked her. La Font. Je ne suis pas content d'—, I am not pleased with her. Sire, répondit la jeune fille d'— même, Sire, answered the young girl of herself. Bar. C'est par — qu'ils sont venus à vous, it is through her they came to you. Lamart. 3 (redundantly, Na sœur est-— venue? has my sister come? — triompha cette religion divine, that divine religion triumphed. Chat. Elles sont rares les femmes qui, the women are scarce who. Eb! la peur se corrige-t-—? can one overcome fear? La Font. Quand la paix viendra-t-— nous donner aux beaux-arts? when will peace restore us to fine arts? La Font.

ELLEBORE, el-el-or, sf. bot. hellebore.

ELLIPSE, el-ips, sf. (Gr.) 1 gram. ellipsis, pl. ellipses. 2 geom. ellipsis ELLIPSOÏDAL, el-ip-so-e-dal, adj. m. fem. — rd. dil. ellipsoidal, ellipsoidal.

ELLIPSOÏDE, el-ip-so-id, sm. (Gr.) 1 ellipsoid. 2 (adjectif.) ellipsoidal, ellipsoidal.

ELLIPTICITÉ, el-ip-te-se-tay, sf. 1 geom. ellipticity de la terre, of the earth). 2 gram. ellipticity.

ELLIPTIQUE, el-ip-tik, adj. mf. 1 geom. elliptic, elliptical. 2 gram. elliptical. Langue —, elliptical language.

ELLIPTICEMENT, el-ip-tik-mang, adv. elliptically.

ELME (REG SAINT-), elm, sm. naut. Saint Elmo's fire, composit.

ELOCUTION, el-o-kü-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (manière de s'exprimer) elocution. 2 rhet. elocution.

ÉLOGE, ay-lozh, sm. (Lat. elogium) 1 eulogy, eulogium, praise, encomium, commendation. Faire l'— de quelqu'un, to praise a person. — funèbre, funeral oration. — académique, academical eulogium. — historique, historical panegyric. 2 (simples louanges) praise. Donner des — à quelqu'un, to praise a person.

ÉLOGIEUX, ay-lo-zhyuh, adj. m. fem. ELOGISTE, eulogistic, encomiastic, panegyric.

ÉLOIGNÉ, ppa. of ÉLOIGNER, fem. — rd. adjective. 1 distant, remote, far. Pays — remote, far country. Temps —, distant times. — e du combat, et désarmée, elle, etc., far from the fight and disarmed, she, etc. Mich. C'est lorsque nous sommes — de notre pays que nous sentons surtout l'instinct qui nous y attache, it is when we are far from our country that we especially feel the instinct that attaches us to it. Chat. fig. Le peuple y était plus — de l'influence des villes, the people there were further removed from the influence of the towns. Aug. Th. Ce récit est bien — de la vérité, this account is far from the truth. Cela est fort — de ma pensée, that is very far from my thought. Être bien — de faire une chose, to be very far from doing a thing. Ils sont encore fort — de se consoler de cette perte, they are still very far from being consoled for this loss. M^{me} de Sev. Être — de son compte, to be quite out of one's reckoning; || to disagree very much. 2 (qui n'est point immédiat) remote. Conséquences — es, remote consequences.

ÉLOIGNER, ay-lwa-nyuh-mang, sm. 1 removal (from), departure, estrangement. N'emportez pas, ne joiez d'avoir rendu votre — nécessaire, do not go away with the idea that your departure was necessary. J.-J. Rousseau. Virez dans l'— du monde, to live estranged from the things of this world. 2 (absence) absence. Je ne puis me consoler de votre —, I cannot reconcile myself to your absence. 3 (distance) distance, remoteness. L'— de nos demeures, the distance of our dwellings. L'— des temps, the distance of time. fig. Il y a entre la jalousie et l'émulation le même — qu'entre le vice et la vertu, there is between jealousy and emulation the same distance as between vice and virtue. La Bruy. 4 (lointain) distance. Daus l'— on voit Paris, one sees Paris in the distance. fig. Voir de grands biens en —, to have good expectations, good prospects. 5 fig. (antipathie) dislike, aversion. Avoir de l'— pour quelqu'un, to have a dislike to a person. L'— pour la cour était naturel à tout Breton, aversion to the court was innate to every Breton. Chat.

ÉLOIGNER, ay-lwa-nyuh, ra. 1 to remove, to send away. Éloignez cela de moi, remove that from me. Il éloigna les autres chefs du pays, he sent the other chiefs out of the country. Aug. Th. Le roi n'avait pas en l'intention de l'— de sa personne, the king did not intend to remove him from his person. Bar. 2 (du temps, of time) to remove. Chaque jour nous éloigne de cette époque fortunée, every day removes us from that blessed moment. 3 fig. to banish (from), to drive away, to avert. Tous les excès éloignent de Dieu, all excesses estrange us from God. Lamart. Éloignez de vos ces mauvaises pensées, banish those bad thoughts from your mind. Le travail éloigne de nous trois grands maux, labour drives away from us three great evils. Volt. Priens Dieu qu'il éloigne ce malheur de dessus nos têtes, let us pray that God may avert this misfortune from us. Éloignez votre cœur de tout ce qui n'est point Dieu, turn away your heart from whatever is not God. Boss. 4 fig (aliéner) to alienate (from), to estrange (from) (les cœurs, les esprits, the hearts, the minds). 5 fig. (retarder) to delay, to put off, to defer, to retard (on paiement, a payment).

S'ÉLOIGNER, rpr. 1 to leave, to quit, to go away. Je m'éloigne de Paris comme Camille s'éloigna d'une ingrate patrie, I leave Paris as Camillus left an unjust country. Lamart. Je m'éloignais respectueusement du chemin de ces solitaires, I kept respectfully out of the way of these hermits. Nod. Il fit un mouvement pour s'— de ses voisins, he moved away from his neighbors. Bar. Je perdais connaissance, et O. ne s'éloigna pas de moi, I became senseless, and O. did not stir from my side. Nod. Il y a des objets dont on ne distingue bien la forme qu'en s'éloignant, there are objects the form of which is only clearly distinguished at a certain distance. Lamart. Ne vous éloignez pas, do not go away. 2 (du temps, of time) Le siècle d'Homère s'éloignait déjà des premiers temps, the age of Homer does not belong to early antiquity. Chat. (by extension) Je vis s'— pour jamais ma terre natale, I saw my native land disappearing for ever out of my sight. Chat. 3 fig. S'— des usages reçus, to despise formalities. S'— de son but, to be wide of the mark. S'— de son devoir, to forsake the path of duty. S'— des occasions du péché, to turn aside from temptation. S'— des vœux, des intentions de quelqu'un, to differ from a person in one's views, intentions. S'— de quelque chose, to be averse to a thing 4 fig. (différer, to differ (from), to be different (from). Qui devait s'— également de l'éloquence politique des anciens, which was equally to differ from the political eloquence of the ancients. Villem. C'est l'éloigne de la vérité, that is wide of the truth. 5 fig. point. Cette figure s'éloigne bien, that figure appears well in the distance.

ÉLOIGNEMENT, ay-long-za-syong, sf. 1 astr. elongation. 2 —, long elongation.

ÉLOIGER, ay-long-zhay, ra. nous ÉLOIGERONS; il ÉLOIGERA, 1 (au long) to lay alongside, to come abreast of (un vaisseau, a ship). 2 naut. — une manœuvre, to run out a warp.

ELOQUEMENT, ay-lo-kah-mang, adv. eloquently. (by extension) Un silence extrême annonçait — la crainte, l'attention, deep silence eloquently proclaimed fear, attention. S'— Sim.

ELOQUENCE, ay-lo-kaugs, sf. (Lat. eloquentia) eloquence. L'— de la chaire, the eloquence of the pulpit. (by extension) La physionomie, le geste, ont leur —, the physiognomy, the gesture have their eloquence.

ELOQUENT, ay-lo-kang, adj. m. fem. — rd. (Lat. eloquens) eloquent Discours —, eloquent speech. Style —, eloquent style. (by extension) Ses regards —, his pleins d'amour, eloquent looks, full of love. Rac. Un silence —, an eloquent silence. Des larmes —es, eloquent tears.

ÉLU, ay-lô, ppa. of ÉLIRE, fem. —E, 1 elected, chosen. 2 law. Donnicile —, appointed domicile. 3 sm. elected person. L'— du peuple, the chosen of the people. 4 rel. sm. elect. La gloire, le bonheur des —s, the glory, the happiness of the elect.

ÉLUCIDATION, ay-lô-se-dah-syong, of elucidation.

ÉLUCIDER, ay-lô-se-day, va. to elucidate.

S'ÉLUCIDER, vpr. to be elucidated.

ÉLUCUBRATION, ay-lô-kô-brah-syong, of 1 incubration, 2 (veilles, travaux) incubration.

ÉLUDÉ, ppa. of ÉLUDER, fem. —E, Difficulté —, eluded difficulty. Des serments arrachés par la violence et —s par la peur, oaths wrested by violence, and eluded by fear. Lamart.

ÉLUDER, ay-lô-day, va. (Lat. eludere) to elude, to evade (une difficulté, a difficulty). Tout ce qu'inventent les Juifs pour — les prophéties les confond, all that the Jews invent to evade the prophecies, confounds them. Boss. Cette habile intervention éluda la question sans la résoudre, that skilful intervention evaded the question without solving it. Lamart. — une promesse, to evade a promise. Londres éluda les ouvertures de paix qui lui furent faites, London eluded the overtures of peace made to it. Chat. Il faut — adroitement le malheur qui me cherche, I must skilfully elude the misfortune lying in wait for me. Mol. J'éjudais tous les jours sa poursuite obstinée, I every day eluded his opportunities. Boil.

ÉLYSÉE, ay-le-zay, sm. 4 myth. Elysium. 2 (adjectiv.) Les champs —, the Elysian fields. 3 (à Paris) Les Champs-Élysées, the Champs-Élysées.

ÉLYSEEN, ay-le-zay-ang, adj. m. fem. —NE, Elysian.

ÉLYSIENS, ay-le-zyong, adj. m. fem. myth. Les champs —, the Elysian fields.

ÉLYTRE, ay-lîr, sm. (Gr.) entom. elytron, pl. elytra, elytrum, winged sheath.

ÉLZÉVIR, el-zay-veer, sm. philol. Elzevir. Collection d'—s, collection of Elzevir.

ÉLZÉVIRIEN, el-zay-ve-ang, fem. —NE, elzevirian. Édition —ne, elzevirian edition.

ÉMACIATION, ay-mah-syah-syong, of (Lat. macies) emaciation.

ÉMACIÉ, ay-mah-syah, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. emaciatus) emaciated, emaciated.

ÉMAIL, ay-mah-yuh, sm. pl. ÉMAUX, 1 enamel. L'— de la porcelaine, de la faïence, the enamel of porcelain, of earthenware. (by analogy) L'— des dents, the enamel of the teeth. 2 (ouvrage émaillé) enamel. 3 fig. poétic. L'— d'un parterre, d'une prairie, the enamel of a flower-garden, of a meadow. 4 —s, pl. her. ornamental colours.

ÉMAILLE, ppa. of ÉMAILLER, fem. —E, 1 enamelled. Une montre —e, an enamelled watch. 2 fig. enamelled. Des prés —s de fleurs, meadows enamelled with flowers. (by extension) Aujourd'hui le plus simple commerçant marche sur des tissus —s de fleurs, now the smallest tradesman treads on carpets enamelled with flowers. Thiers. Les perroquets —s des plus vives couleurs, parrots enamelled with the most glowing colours. B. de St-P.

ÉMAILLER, ay-mah-yuh, va. 1 to enamel (une bague, a ring) de la porcelaine, porcelain. 2 fig. (ornier) to enamel. Les fleurs qui émaillent les prairies, the flowers which enamel the meadows.

S'ÉMAILLER, vpr. to be enamelled.

ÉMAILLERIE, ay-mah-yuh-ree, of enamelling.

ÉMAILLEUR, ay-mah-yuh, sm. ena-meller.

ÉMAILLURE, ay-mah-yûr, of 1 (art) enamelling. 2 (l'ouvrage) enamelling.

ÉMANATION, ay-mah-ab-syong, of (Lat. 1 action) emanation. 2 (la chose qui émane) emanation. Les —s de sa fleur ont tout embaumé autour de lui, the emanations of his flower have embalmed every thing around him. Saint. Des —s fétides, pestilentielles, fétid, pestilential emanations. fig. Il disait que l'âme était une — de la Divinité, he said the soul was an emanation from the Divinity. fig. Une — de la puissance souveraine, an emanation from the supreme power. fig. Les —s romanesques qui sortent des livres et enivrent l'esprit, those romantic emanations issuing from books and intoxicating the mind. Lamart.

ÉMANCIPATION, ay-mang-se-nah-syong, of (Lat. 1 law. emancipation, manumission, (d'un mineur, of a minor) liber. fig. L'— des colonies, the emancipation of the colonies. fig. L'— des peuples, the law in his thought was the emancipation of nations was connected in his thought with the emancipation of ideas. Lamart.

ÉMANCIPÉ, ppa. of ÉMANCIPER, fem. —E, emancipated. Un mineur —, a minor emancipated. fig. Les peuples chez lesquels la parole est —, the nations among whom freedom of speech is allowed. E. Quin.

ÉMANCIPER, ay-mang-se-pay, va. (Lat. emancipare) law. to emancipate. Se faire —, to have one's self emancipated. fig. En émançant le trône, il avait émané le peuple, in emancipating the throne, he had emancipated the people. Lamart.

S'ÉMANCIPER, vpr. 1 fig. to gain one's liberty. An 16^e siècle, le jugement et la réflexion s'étaient émanés, in the 16th century, judgment and reflection had doctored themselves from their trammels. Boil. Voilà un jeune homme qui s'est émané bien vite de la classe, that is a young man who has left the school-room too soon. G. Sand. 2 (se donner trop de licence) to make too free. S'— en quelque chose, to take a liberty in a thing. Jusqu'à parler affaire, alors je m'émançais, then I went so far as to speak to him on business affairs. C. Del. Vous vous émançiez beaucoup pour un homme qui relève de maladie, you are very imprudent for a man just recovering from illness.

ÉMANÉ, ppa. of ÉMANER, fem. —E, emanated. Un ordre — du prince, — de l'autorité, an order emanating from the prince, from the authority.

ÉMANER, ay-mah-ay, sm. (Lat. emanare) to emanate. Le Verbe émane du Père éternel, the Word emanates from the eternal Father. fig. Le parfum de la vertu émane de tes discours, the perfume of virtue emanates from thy words. Muss.

ÉMARGEMENT, ay-marzh-mang, sm. writing in the margin, marginal note, signature in the margin. L'— d'un compte, the marginal notes of an account.

ÉMARGER, ay-mar-zhay, va. NORD ÉMARGÉS, ÉMARGER, to write, to sign in the margin. — un état d'appointements, to sign the receipt of a salary. — les différentes sommes d'une imposition, to express in the margin the total of the different sums of a tax. absol. Le jour où ils émarginent est une belle journée pour les surméraires, the day in which supernumeraries sign the receipt of their salary is a memorable one for them. Balz.

EMBAÛNER, ang-bal-ah-we-pay, va. to wheedle, to coax. Se laisser —, to suffer one's self to be wheedled. Ils embaûnèrent le pauvre due, they wheedled the poor duke. Saint-Sim.

EMBALLAGE, ang-bal-ahz, sm. packing, packing up. Frais d'—, package. Toile d'—, wrapper, pack-cloth, packing-cloth.

EMBALLER, ang-bal-ay, va. to pack up (des hardes, des livres, etc., clothes, books, etc.). fig. (in joke) — quelqu'un dans une voiture, to see a person off, to bundle a person off in a coach.

EMBALEUR, ang-bal-wir, sm. 1 packer. 2 fig. pop. (little word) boaster, braggart.

EMBARCADÈRE, ang-bar-kad-ayr, sm. (Sp.) 1 naut. wharf. 2 (by extension) (d'un chemin de fer, of a railway) terminus, pl. termini.

EMBARCATION, ang-bar-kah-syong, of naut. boat, craft.

EMBARGO, ang-bar-go, sm. (Sp.) naut. embargo. Mettre un —, to lay an embargo. Mettre —, to embargo.

EMBARQUEMENT, ang-bar-kuh-mang, sm. 1 embarkation, embarking, shipping (de troupes, de marchandises, of troops, of goods). 2 embarking. Depuis notre —, nous avons été un mois sur mer, since our embarking, we have been a month at sea. 3 (frais) shipment.

EMBARQUER, ang-bar-kay, va. 1 to embark, to ship, to take, to put on board. — des marchandises, to ship goods. — des troupes, to embark troops. naut. — eu grenier, to pile up below deck. (by extension) Nous embarquions beaucoup d'eau; nous ne pouvions suffire à la vider aussi vite qu'elle nous envahissait, we shipped a great deal of water, which gained upon us faster than we could empty it. Lamart. 2 fig. to embark, to engage (dans une affaire, etc., in an affair, etc.).

S'EMBARQUER, vpr. 1 to embark, to go on board. 2 fig. to embark, to engage. Je me suis embarqué dans cette affaire sur la parole de G., I was drawn into this affair by G. Balz. Vous ne trouverez bien du loisir de m'être embarqué dans une si longue lettre, you will think I have plenty of time on my hands to have launched into so long a letter. M^{me} de Maint.

EMBARRAS, ang-bar-ah, sm. 1 (encombrement) obstruction, encumbrance. L'— des voitures, des charrettes, the encumbrance of coaches and carriages. Faire de l'—, to create obstacles; || fig. to make a fuss. Causer un —, to throw an obstacle in the way, to give trouble; || causer de l'— à quelqu'un, to inconvenience, to inconvenience a person. Faire ses —s, son —, to make a great fuss, to talk big. (by extension) (gêner) encumbrance, clog. Une tête empanachée, a head with a plume, is not a trifling encumbrance. La Font. Depuis que ce corps est devenu mortel, il semble n'être plus qu'un —, since the body has become mortal, it seems to be no longer anything but a clog. Boss. fig. Il se fait un — de sa propre fortune, his own fortune embarrasses him. Boil. L'— des richesses, the plague of riches. Volt. L'— du superflu, the encumbrance of wealth. La Bruy. 3 fig. (dans certaines choses) embarrassment, intricacy, entanglement, confusion. Il y a de l'— dans ce procès, there are intricacies in that lawsuit. 4 fig. (peine, souci) trouble, 'strait, inconvenience. Je me trouve dans un — d'affaires le plus grand du monde, I find myself in the greatest embarrassment. Il faudrait des volumes pour raconter toutes les — que nous avons eues, it would require volumes to relate all the troubles we met with. Retz. Des —s pécuniaires où j'étais plongé, I had to struggle. Chat. Il s'est montré dans les plus grands —s paisible et dégaî, in the greatest straits he showed himself cool and collected. Boss. — d'argent, —, distress, embarrassed circumstances. 5 fig. (perplexité) perplexity, embarrassment, puzzle. Je m'étais vu dans un étrange —, I had seen myself strangely perplexed. Bire dans l'— de savoir à quoi se résoudre, to be at a loss to know what to decide upon. Il n'avait que l'— du choix, he was only puzzled how to choose. Sortir, se tirer d'—, to get out of a scrape. — d'esprit, perplexity of mind. 6 med. beginning of obstruction 7 fig. (gêne, malaise) embarrassment, perplexity. Son — se peignait sur son visage, his confusion was painted in his countenance.

EMBARRASSANT, ang-bar-as-sang, ppr. of EMBARRASSER, adj. fem. — E, 4 embarrassing, encumbering, cumbersome, cumbrous. Une chose — e à porter, a cumbersome article. 3 fig. troublesome, embarrassing. Cet enfant est —, this child is in the way. Il est vrai que la dame est un peu — de son naturel, it is true that the lady is rather embarrassing. Mol. 3 knotty. Question — e, perplexing question. 4 puzzling, perplexing. Nous avons changé certain passage — dans la pièce, we have changed a rather awkward passage in the piece. Volt. Rien n'est plus —, nothing is more perplexing. Position — e, embarrassing situation.

EMBARRASSÉ, ppa. of EMBARRASSER, fem. — E, 1 (obstre) obstructed, encumbered, blocked up. Chemin —, road blocked up. 2 (empêtré) encumbered, hampered. Les soldats — par leur butin, the soldiers hampered with their booty. Dans les rênes lui-même il tombe —, he himself falls entangled in the reins. Rac. Leurs pas brusques — s par leurs jupes, their abrupt steps hampered by their petticoats. Th. Gaut. (by extension) Un sot est — de sa personne, a fool does not know what to do with himself. La Bruy. L'esprit de l'homme — d'images grossières ne peut porter la vérité simple, the mind of man cumbered with rude images cannot support simple truth. Boss. 3 fig. (qui dénote de l'embarras) embarrassed, perplexed, puzzled. J'avoue que j'étais fort —, I own that I was greatly embarrassed. D'un rien cette famille est très — e, that family makes a mountain of a mole-hill. Al. Dum. Comme je lui parais —, it romps too coop la conversation, as he perceived I was embarrassed, he all at once broke off the conversation. Le Sage. J'étais très — de répondre, I was greatly at a loss for an answer. Je suis assez — de savoir comment je m'y prendrai, I am rather perplexed to know how to set about it. Étre fort — sur le choix d'un état, to be greatly perplexed with regard to the choice of a profession. Air —, contenance — e, embarrassed air, countenance. Affaires — es, embarrassed circumstances. Le duc de Bourgogne étoit prodigue et toujours — d'argent, the duke of Burgundy was lavish and always short of money. Bar. Faire une réponse — e, to falter in an answer. 4 (d'un organe, of an organ) avoir la tête —, to feel one's head heavy; la langue —, to falter in one's speech. Respiration — e, shortness of breath. Avoir l'estomac —, to have one's stomach out of order. Prononciation — e, imperfect speech, impediment in one's speech.

EMBARRASSER, ang-bar-as-say, ra. (from embarrass) 1 (encombrer) to encumber, to obstruct, to block up. Deux ânes liés entre eux par une longue planche embarrassaient la circulation, two asses coupled together by means of a plank blocked up the road. Th. Gaut. 2 (empêcher les mouvements) to encumber, to hamper. Ôtez votre manteau, il ne fait que vous —, take off your cloak, it only encumbers you. Ces grosses bottes embarrassent à marcher, these heavy boots are troublesome to walk with. (by extension) J'ai vu le G. devenu sauteur, — sa verge rimaient dans les bœufs de ses bœufs, I have seen the G. become a acrobat entangle his Roman legs in the thickets of his woods. Chate. Il étoit de ces hommes provisoires qui aident les événements à s'accomplir, et qui ne les embarrassent pas quand ils sont accomplis, he was one of those provisional men who help to bring about events, and who are no obstacle to them when once they are accomplished. Lamart. Il ne tarda pas à sentir ses forces et 2 — dans ses toiles le comte de N., it was not long before he became aware of his strength, and entangled the count of N. in his web. St-Sim. Ce sont des témoins qui vous embarrassent et vous gênent, you find them embarrassing and troublesome witnesses. Mass. La sagesse est un trésor qui n'embarrasse pas, wisdom is not a cumbersome treasure. La Font. 3 fig. — une affaire, une question, to embroil an affair, a question. 4 fig. (causer du trouble dans l'esprit) to embarrass, to perplex, to puzzle. Votre question l'a fort embarrassé, your question greatly perplexed him. Le roi, que les troubles de son royaume embarrassaient assez, the king who had trouble enough with the disturbance in his kingdom. Bar. J'embarrasserai plus gens qu'ils ne m'embarrasseront, I shall be more in other people's way than they will be in mine. Montesq. Cet acabit élogie m'embarrassa un peu, this over-pouring praise embarrassed me a little. Villen. Cela embarrassait ma modestie, that put my modesty to the blush. Ce grand nombre d'actions dont je dois parler m'embarrasse, the great number of actions I am to speak of embarrasses me. Flécl. Quel prodige nouveau me trouble et m'embarrasse? what new prodigy troubles and overwhelms me? Corn. Ici la multitude des faits embarrassait les idées, here the multitude of facts embarrassed the mind. Villen. 5 (d'un organe, of an organ) to obstruct, to disorder.

EMBARRASSER, ppr. 1 (S'empêtrer) to be entangled, innared, clogged. S' — dans des reits, to be insnared. fig. L'âme s'est embarrassée, dit saint Augustin, dans tout ce qu'elle aime, the soul becomes entangled, says Saint A., in every object of its love. Boss. absol. Plus il fait des efforts pour se dégager, plus il s'embarrasse, the more pains he takes to extricate himself, the more entangled he becomes. Boss. 2 fig. S' — dans ses discours, to be at a loss for answers. Son frère s'embarrassait dans ses réponses, his brother gave confused answers. Merim. 3 fig. S' — dans, to trouble one's self about. S' — dans un affaire, to trouble one's self about an affair. 4 fig. S' — de, to concern one's self about. Il s'embarrasse de tout, the least thing perplexes him. Ne s' — de rien, never to be at a loss; to be concerned at nothing. 5 med. fig. Sa langue s'embarrasse, his speech is impeded. Son estomac s'embarrasse, his stomach is getting disordered. Sa tête s'embarrasse, he begins to be light-headed. Sa poitrine s'embarrasse, his breast fills.

EMBASÈNENT, ang-baz-mang, sm. arch. basement.

EMBATILLEMENT, ang-bas-te-yuh-mang, sm. 1 imprisonment. 2 surrounding with forts.

EMBATILLER, ang-bas-te-yay, ra. 1 to imprison. 2 — une ville, to surround a town with forts.

EMBATAGE, ang-bat-azh, sm. tech. casing, tiring (of wheels).

EMBÂTÉ, ppa. of EMBATER, fem. — E, Ane —, a saddled ass. fig. C'est un âne —, all his fingers are thumbs.

EMBATER, ang-bâ-yay, ra. 4 to saddle (on cheval, on âne, a horse, an ass). 2 fig. to saddle. Qui est-ce qui m'a embâté d'un pareil imbécille? who ever saddled me with such an idiot?

EMBATONNE, ppa. of EMBATONNER, fem. — E, armed with cudgels. Fossiez-vous — s, jamais vous n'en seriez les maîtres, were you armed with cudgels, you would not be the masters. La Font.

EMBATONNER, ang-bâ-to-yay, ra. (little used) to arm with a cudgel.

EMBATTE, ang-bat, tech. ra. to case (wheels).

EMBAUCHAGE, ang-bo-shazh, sm. 4 (action d'embaucher) engaging, hiring.

2 (particul.) (de soldats, of soldiers) enticing away, tampering with.

EMBAUCHEUR, ang-bo-shay, ra. 4 (engager) to engage, to hire (des ouvriers, workmen). 2 (enrôler par adresse) to enlist, to recruit. 3 (particul.) to decoy, to tamper with, to entice away (des soldats, soldiers).

EMBAUCREUR, ang-bo-shahr, sm. recruiter, enticer.

EMBAUCHOIR, ang-bo-shwâr, sm. boot-lree.

EMBAUMÉ, ppa. of EMBAUMER, fem. — E, 4 embalmed. 2 (parfumé) balmy. Des brises — es, balmy breezes. Chate. Ce vent — des parfums que le rivage exhale, this wind balmy with the perfumes exhaled by the shore. Deill. 3 fig. Cet air tout — d'antiques souvenirs, that air impregnated with the recollections of antiquity. Lamart.

EMBAUMEMENT, ang-bôm-mang, sm. embalming.

EMBAUMER, ang-bo-may, ra. 4 to embalm (un corps mort, a corpse). On l'embaua, he has been embalmed. 2 (parfumer) to perfume, to scent. Ces fleurs ont embaumé la chambre, these flowers have perfumed the room. Cela m'embaume, that perfumes me. (by extension) Cette liqueur embaume la bouche, that liqueur perfumes the mouth. absol. Ce vin embaume, this wine gives out a perfume. fig. Il y a toujours au fond de mon cœur une larme qui tombe en secret sur ta mémoire pour la rafraîchir et l' — en moi, there is always at the bottom of my heart a tear which secretly falls over thy memory to refresh it and perfume it within me. Lamart.

EMBAUMEUR, ang-bo-mohr, sm. embalmer.

EMBECCUR, EMBEQUER, ang-bay-kay, to feed (a bird). (by extension) J'ai vu donner pas mon argent pour — de sucre ce jeune drôle, I don't give you my money to pamper that young scamp. Balz.

EMBEÛGUËNE, ppa. of EMBEÛGUER, fem. — E, 1 muffled up — es dans leurs yamacks, muffled up in their yamacks (reits). Th. Gaut. 2 fig. Être — e, to be infatuated, bewitched with. Est-il possible que vous soyez toujours — de vos apothécaires et de vos médecins? how can you always be so infatuated with your apothecaries and doctors? Mol.

EMBEÛGUER, ang-bay-ghee-nay, 4 (little used) (coiffer) to put on a wig. 2 (envelopper la tête) to muffle up. 3 fig. (infatuer) to infatuate, to bewitch.

S'EMBEÛGUER, ppr. fig. to be infatuated, bewitched. S' — d'une idée, to be infatuated with an idea. Ce bean Monsieur le comte dont vous vous êtes embeûgué, that fine gentleman of a count with whom you are so infatuated. Mol.

EMBELLE, ang-bel, sf. noun. gangway.

EMBELLI, ang-bel-lee, ppa. of EMBEILLIR, fem. — E, embellished, adorned. On fit sur son compte mille histoires sans doute fort — es, a thousand stories, greatly exaggerated, no doubt, were related concerning him. St-H. Une retraite — e par les arts et par l'amitié, a retreat embellished by the arts and by friendship. Elien.

EMBEILLIE, ang-bel-lee, sf. noun. clearing, beaming (of the weather).

EMBEILLIR, ang-bel-leer, ra. 1 (rendre beau, orner) to embellish, to adorn, to beautify. — une maison, to adorn a house. Le cygne embellit tous les lieux qu'il fréquente, the swan embellishes all the places it frequents. Buff. Cette eau embellit le teint, that water embellishes the complexion. La parue embellit cette femme, dress embellishes that woman. Le coup d'épée embellit le front du soldat, a scar left by the sword embellishes a soldier's brow. V. Hug. Les plaisirs qui embellissent notre existence, the pleasures which embellish our existence. Cette idée aurait embellie ma prison. This idea would have embellished my prison. no 2 — un conte, — une histoire, to grace a tale, a story.

EMBELLIR, vpr. to grow handsome, beautiful, to improve. Votre capitale qui va s'embellissant tous les jours, your capital which improves in beauty every day. B. de S.-P. Le soin de s'— est presque le désir de plaire, the care beauty takes of itself is almost a desire to please. Marmont. Les Muses sont des femmes célestes : quand elles pleurent, c'est avec un secret dessein de s'—, the Muses are heavenly women : when they weep, it is that they may appear more beautiful. Chab.

EMBELLIR, vm. to grow handsomer. Cette jeune fille embellit tous les jours, that young girl grows handsomer every day. prov. Ne faire que croître et —, to shoot up and grow handsomer. fig. (in joke) Cela ne fait que croître et —, it grows better and better; || it grows worse and worse. Sa sottise laisse les jours ne fait que croître et —, his folly grows upon him every day. Mol.

EMBELLISSEMENT, ang-bel-is-mang, sm. 1 (action) embellishing. L'— de la ville, the embellishing of the town. Barb. 2 (d'une maison, d'un jardin, etc., of a house, a garden, etc.) embellishment; (d'un discours, etc., of a speech, etc.) ornaments.

EMBÊTANT, ang-bay-tang, ppa. of EMBÊTER, adj. m. fem. —E, pop. annoying, wearisome, tiresome, boring.

EMBÊTE, ppa. of EMBÊTER, fem. —E, pop. annoyed, bored.

EMBÊTEMENT, ang-bay-tang, sm. pop. annoyance, nuisance, bore.

EMBÊTER, ang-bay-tay, va. pop. to annoy, to bore, to plague, to bother, to worry.

ENBLAVAGE, ang-blav-azh, sm. agri. sowing with wheat.

ENBLAYER, ang-blav-ay, va. agri. to sow with wheat (une terre, a land).

ENBLAVURE, ang-blav-ür, sf. agri. a piece of land sown with corn.

EMBLE, angbi, sm. See AMBLE.

EMBLEE (v'), ang-blav, adv. loc. on a trice, at the first onset, without opposition. Prendre une ville d'—, to take a town at the first onset. Être élu, nommé d'—, to be elected without opposition. La loi passera d'—, the law would pass without opposition. Ab. fig. Emporter une affaire d'—, enporter quelque chose d'—, to carry an affair, a thing without any opposition. Une excellente composition qui eut vain d'— la première place, an excellent composition that was instantly placed in the first rank. Mod.

EMBLEMATIQUE, ang-blav-mat-ik, adj. mf. emblematic, emblematical.

EMBLEMÉ, ang-blav-y, sm. (Gr.) 1 emblem. 2 (symbole) emblem. 3 (attribut) emblem. Les —s de la royauté, the emblems of royalty.

EMBOLÉNER, ang-bob-le-nay, EMBOBINER, ang-bob-e-nay, va. On m'embobina de liège sec et l'on me ramena à mon lit, they muffed me in dry towells, and brought me back to my bed. Th. Gaut. fam. to wheedle, to inveigle. C'est le préfet qui les a tous embobelés, it was the prefect who wheedled them all. Merim.

EMBOIRE, ang-bwar, va. fine arts. to cover with wax or oil (un moule, a mould).

S'EMBOIRE, vpr. paint. (d'un tableau, d'un tableau, of a picture, of colours) to sink in, to become dull, confused.

EMBOISER, ang-bwa-zay, va. (H. imboscate) pop. to wheddel, to cajole, to court. Embossez-moi bien ces gens-là, you must come round all those people. Balz.

EMBOISEUR, ang-bwa-zubr, sm. fem. EMBOISEUSE, pop. wheedler, coazer.

EMBOÎTE, ppa. of EMBOÏTER, fem. —E, fig. Aux États-Unis, on remarque deux sociétés distinctes engagées et —es l'une dans l'autre, in the United States there may be remarked two distinct societies bound up together, and dove-tailed one into the other. De Tocq.

EMBOÏEMENT, ang-bwat-mang, sm. 1 jointing, fitting in. anal. L'— des os, d'un os dans un autre, the jointing of one bone into another, the fitting in of the bones, the insertion of one bone in another. 2 L'— des mortaises d'une charpente, the fitting in of the mortises of timber-work.

EMBOÏTER, ang-bwat-ay, va. 1 carp. (enchâsser une chose dans une autre) to fit in, to joint. Une grande cuiller et six petites s'embôitent les unes dans les autres et se saisent réciproquement étui, a large spoon and six little ones fitting one another closely, the large one being as a sort of case. Th. Gaut. (by analogy) Il embôitait sa tête dans un bonnet de laine fine, he thrust his head into a fine woollen cap. Le Sage. (by extension) Quoique les dents ne fussent pas vilaines, le râtelier supérieur s'avancait trop et embôitait presque celui de dessous, though the teeth were not ugly, the upper row protruded too much, and almost locked the under row. St-Sim. fig. On s'étonne de voir cette rude et vive nature se plier ainsi et se laisser — dans les formes de versification les plus symétriques, one is astonished to see that rough and lively nature bend itself thus, and suffer the constraint of the most symmetrical forms of versification. Villen. 2 mil. — le pas, to lock up. fig. Loin d'— mon esprit dans les ornières du passé, je trace des sentiers libres, far from treading servility in the beaten tracks of the past, I trace out fresh paths. Chab. 3 carp. to clamp.

S'EMBOÏTER, vpr. 1 anal. (des os, of bones) to fit, to fit in, to be jointed. 2 carp. Ces pièces de bois s'embôitent exactement, those pieces of wood fit exactly.

EMBOÏTURE, ang-bwat-ür, sf. 1 joint, socket. — des os, fracture of bones. 2 (insertion d'une chose dans une autre) fitting, fit. 3 tech. Les —s d'une porte, d'un volet, panel-frame of a door, of a shutter.

EMBOÏPOINT, ang-bong-pwang, sm. stoniness, rustiness, plumpness, good plight. Avoir, prendre de l'—, to be, to grow stout. — excessif, obesity. Perdre de son —, to fall away. (by extension) Ce discours que sentent l'— du visage, this discourse supported by his round fat cheeks. Boul. (des animaux, of animals) Ces bœufs, ces chevaux ont repris leur —, those oxen, those horses have picked up flesh again. Le loup lui fait compliment sur son — qu'il admire, the wolf compliments him upon his plumpness, which he envies. La Font. fig. Law eut avoir redou à la France son —, il ne la rendit que bouffie, L. thought he had rendered France flourishing, but he had only given it a hollow prosperity. Montesq.

EMBOSSAGE, ang-bo-sazh, sm. naut. bringing to bear.

EMBOSSER, ang-bo-say, ra. naut. to bring to bear upon.

S'EMBOSSER, vpr. naut. to bring the broadside to bear, to be brought to bear.

EMBOSSURE, ang-bo-sür, sf. naut. spring. Faire une —, faire ses —s, to bring to bear.

EMBOUCHÉ, ppa. of EMBOUCHER, fem. —E, 1 mouthed. fig. pop. Être mal —, to be foul-mouthed. 2 (d'un bateau) entered (into a narrow passage, under a bridge). 3 man. Cheval —, horse bitted.

EMBOUCHER, ang-bo-shay, ra. 1 to put to the mouth. — une trompette, une flûte, ou cor, to blow a trumpet, to tongue a flute, to blow a horn. fig. — la trompette, to strike the lyre; to sound the trumpet. Si j'avais eu en main la trompette de la Renommée, ce serait pour vous que je l'emboucherais, if I had the trumpet of Fame, it would be for you that I would sound it. Volt. Sans que le plus petit journal embouchât sa trompette en ma faveur, without the least flourish of trumpet in my favour from the smallest newspaper. Th. Chas. 2 mus. — un cheval, to bit a horse. 3 fig. — quelqu'un, to prompt a person, to give a person his cue.

S'EMBOUCHER, vpr. (d'une rivière, of a river) to discharge, to empty itself (into) to fall (into).

EMBOUCHOIR, ang-bo-shoar, sm. 1 mouth-piece. 2 (embouchoir) boot-tree, boot-stretcher.

EMBOUCHURE, ang-bo-shür, sf. 1 (d'un fleuve, of a river) mouth. (by analogy) La foule commençait à affluer par toutes les —s du Champ de Mars, the crowd began to pour in from all the openings of the Champ de Mars. Lamart. Un vase à long col fort étroit d'—, a long-necked vase with a very narrow mouth. La Font. 2 (d'un canon, of a cannon) mouth. 3 (la manière dont on embouche certains instruments à vent) blowing, tonguing.

EMBOUER, ang-bo-ay, va. pop. 1 to cover with mud, to bemire. J'ai peur de rester emboué dans les rizières, I am afraid I should not be able to extricate myself from the mire of rice plantations. Jacq. 2 to stuff.

EMBOUQUEMENT, ang-hook-mang, sm. naut. entering a strait, a narrow passage.

EMBOUQUER, ang-bou-kay, vm. naut. to enter a strait, a narrow passage.

EMBOURBÉ, ppa. of EMBOURGER, fem. —E, Voiture —E, coach stuck in the mud. prov. Jurer comme un charretier —, to swear like a trooper.

EMBOURBEE, ang-boor-bay, va. 1 to stick in the mire. fig. — quelqu'un dans une mauvaise affaire, to involve a person in a troublesome affair.

S'EMBOURBEE, vpr. to stick fast in the mire, in the mud. fig. S'— dans une méchante affaire, to involve one's self in a bad concern.

EMBOURNER, ang-boor-ray, va. See REMBOURNER, to stuff (un fauteuil, une selle, an arm-chair, a saddle).

EMBOURSER, ang-boor-say, va. to put into one's purse, to pocket. fig. S'il se donnait eu tout vingt coups de bâton, mon père pour sa part en embourserait dix-neuf, if a good cudgelling was to be received, my father always got more than his share. Rac. Un coup de fusil qu'il a embouré au milieu de l'estomac, a gunshot that he received in the middle of the stomach. Merim. — des injures, to pocket an affront.

EMBOÛT, ang-boö, sm. ferrule.

EMBRANCHE, ppa. of EMBRANCHER, fem. —E, Tuyaux —s, breeches pipes.

EMBRANCHEMENT, ang-brangsh-mang, sm. 1 branching, branch. — de tuyaux, branching off. 2 (by analogy) railw. branch-line, branch. 3 (by analogy) geog. (chaîne inférieure de montagnes) branch. 4 (de chemins, of roads) branching off; || junction.

EMBRANCHER, ang-brang-shay, ra. (de tuyaux, de routes) to branch, to join.

S'EMBRANCHER, vpr. to join each other to abut.

EMBRASÉ, ppa. of EMBRASER, fem. —E 1 burning, fiery, inflamed. Charbons —s lire empires. (hyperb.) Air —s atmosphère —e, sultry heat, blazing atmosphere, close weather. La terre paraissait —e d'— des casques et des lances, the earth seemed on fire with the glitter of the helmets and lances. Chab. 2 fig. fired, inflamed. Être — d'amour, to be inflamed with love.

EMBRASEMENT, ang-braz-mang, sm.

4 burning, conflagration. L'— de Troie, the burning of Troy. fig. Au milieu de cet — de son auge, sa raison restait froide, in the midst of this fervour of soul, her reason remained calm. Lamart. Les — de la charité, the fervour of charity. Boss. 2 fig. (désordre) conflagration.

EMBRASSER, ang-bras-say, va. (Gr.) 1 to set on fire, to fire (une maison, une ville, a house, a town). (hyperb.) Le soleil l'embrasse en silence et devore incessamment le marbre des tombeaux, the sun scorches it in silence and incessantly burns up the marble of the tombs. Chat. 2 fig. (de l'amour, de la guerre, etc., of love, of war) to inflame, to set on fire. Cette guerre, qui d'état d'abord qu'une étincelle, embrasa toute l'Europe, that war, which from being a spark at first, threw all Europe into a conflagration. Fiech. Quand la Providence veut qu'une idée embrase le monde, elle l'allume dans le cœur d'un Français, when Providence wills that the world should be fired with an idea, it first kindles it in the heart of a Frenchman. Lamart. La mollesse cache sous la cendre un feu capable de tout —, under effeminacy smoulders a fire capable of setting every thing in a blaze. Fen. Ce discours avait embrasé les esprits, that discourse had inflamed the minds.

S'EMBRASSER, vpr. to take, to catch fire, to be inflamed. fig. Mon imagination s'embrassait à de pareils récits, my imagination was fired with such narratives.

EMBRASADE, ang-bras-sad, sf. embrace. Ils se firent mille —s, they embraced each other a thousand times. Ils commencèrent la journée par des —s, they began the day by embracing each other. Le Sage. Le maître et le secrétaire se confondirent dans cette —, in our embrace, the distinction of master and secretary were effaced. Le Sage.

EMBRASSE, ang-brass, sf. tech. curtain-loop, curtain-band.

EMBRASSE, ppa. of EMBRESSER, fem. —e, embraced, clasped. Sa mère la tenait —e sans pouvoir parler, her mother held her clasped in her arms without being able to speak. B. de St-P. Ils se traitaient —s, they remained folded in each other's arms. fig. Je voulais voir d'abord Jérusalem, —e d'un seul regard, I wanted first to see J., to envelop it in one glance. Lamart.

EMBRASSEMENT, ang-brass-màng, sm. embrace. En long, un tendre —, a long, a tender embrace. En vain, Monsieur, en vain le roi lui-même tenait Madame serrée par de si étroits —s, in vain, Monsieur, in vain the king himself held Madame closely embraced. Boss.

EMBRASSÉ, ang-brass-say, va. 1 serrer, etreindre) to embrace, to clasp in one's arms. — étroitement, to embrace closely, to hug. Le P. se jette à ses genoux lui embrassant les jambes, the P. falls at his knees and clasping his legs. Mich. Cet arbre est si gros que deux personnes ne sauraient l'—, that tree is so large that two men cannot put their arms round it. 2 (entourer quelqu'un de ses bras, donner des baisers) Je l'embrassai avec un serrement de cœur qu'il partageait, I embraced him with a feeling of oppression in which he shared. J.-J. Rousseau. La mère embrasse en paix l'enfant qui lui sourit, the mother gives a quiet kiss to the smiling child. V. Hug. — la fin d'une lettre, in a letter) Je vous embrasse, Je vous embrasse de tout mon cœur, I embrace you heartily. 3 fig. (environner) to encompass, to encircle, to gird. Le lierre qui embrasse un ormeau, the ivy that encircles a young elm. La mer embrasse la terre, the sea encompasses the earth. 4 fig. (relever) to incline, to comprise, to comprehend, to take in. Ce projet embrasse bien des choses, this project takes in a great many things. Ce temps embrasse tous les temps, that epoch comprehends all times. La Font. Un esprit de patriotisme qui embrassait dans une même affection tous les habitants de l'île, a patriotic spirit that united in the same affection all the inhabitants of the isle. Aug. Tb. J'élevais mes idées à l'être Suprême qui embrasse tout, I raised my ideas to the Supreme Being who is all in all. J.-J. Rousseau. 5 fig. (saisir un ensemble) to take in at a glance. Des l'entrée un étranger pouvait — l'ensemble de cette demeure, at the very entrance a stranger could take in the whole of that habitation. Balz. L'œil n'en pouvait — le contour, the eye could not take in the whole contour of it. V. Hug. L'œil embrasse les petits objets, les grands confondent la vue, the eye takes in small objects, large ones confound the view. Volt. Embrassant lui-même d'un coup d'œil toute sa vie, scanning over his whole life at a single glance. Si-B. Il n'est point de temps que tes regards n'embrassent, there is no time that thy eye does not take in. V. Hug. La terre habituelle que vous embrassez, par la pensée, the inhabitable earth that the mind encircles. Boss. — d'un coup d'œil toutes les parties d'un système, to take in at a single glance all the parts of a system. 6 fig. (entreprendre) to embrace, to undertake. N'embrassez pas trop de choses à la fois, do not undertake too many things at a time. prov. fig. Qui trop embrasse, mal étirent, grasp all, lose all. 7 fig. (choisir, adopter) to embrace, to adopt, to espouse. — un parti, to espouse a party. Sa famille assez obscure avait embrassé le puritanisme, his family who were in an inferior walk of life, had embraced puritanism. Ph. Chas. Ne vaut-il pas mieux — le parti des armes? is it not better to turn soldier? Le Sage. — une profession, to embrace a profession. — la défense, la cause de quelqu'un, to engage in the defence. To espouse the cause of a person. — la querelle de quelqu'un, to espouse the quarrel of a person. L'occasion est belle, il la faut —, the opportunity is a fine one, it must be embraced. Rac. J'embrassai ce projet avec l'ardeur que, I embraced this project with the ardour that. Chat. 8 man. — bien son cheval, to cling close to one's horse.

S'EMBRASSER, vpr. to embrace each other. Ils se sont embrassés, they embraced each other. fig. Le joli, le sublime, chose rare, s'embrassent, the pretty, the sublime, for once, unite. Mich.

EMBRASSEUR, ang-brass-subr, sm. fem. EMBRASSEUSE, embracer, kisser.

EMBRASURE, ang-brâ-zür, sf. 1 (dans une batterie, etc.) embrasure. 2 (dans l'épaisseur des murs d'une maison, etc.) embrasure. L'— de la fenêtre, the embrasure of the window.

EMBRIGADEMENT, ang-bré-gad-màng, sm. 1 dividing into brigades. 2 enlisting, recruiting.

EMBRIGADER, ang-bré-gal-ay, va. 1 to divide into brigades. 2 to enlist.

EMBRIGATION, ang-bro-kah-syong, sf. (Gr.) surg. embrocation.

EMBRACHEMENT, ang-brosch-màng, sm. spitting.

EMBRACHER, ang-bro-shay, va. to spit, to put on the spit (un gigot, une volaille, a leg of mutton, a fowl). fig. pop. — quelqu'un, to run a person through the body.

EMBOUILLAMINI, ang-broo-yam-cne, sm. See BROUILLAMINI.

EMBOUILLER, ppa. of EMBROUILLER, fem. —E confusé, perplexed, intricate. Affaire —E, intricate affair. Un texte —, an obscure text. Nod. La plus —E de toutes les sciences, the most perplexing of all sciences. Saint. Paroles —es, confused words. Siye —, ideas —es, confused style, ideas. Écrivain —, obscure writer. (by extension) Le comédien n'avait jamais été plus — dans ses trahisons, the comédian had never had his web of treachery more intricate. Bur.

EMBOUILLERMENT, ang-broo-yuh-màng, sm. confusion, perplexity, intricacy. — d'affaires, intricacy of affairs. — d'esprit, confusedness of mind. L'— des idées, confusion of ideas.

EMBOUILLER, ang-broo-yay, va. to embroil, to confuse, to perplex. Il a embrouillé l'affaire, he has embroiled the affair. C'est un esprit obscur qui embrouille tous les sujets qu'il traite, his is a befuddled mind that throws into confusion every subject he treats upon. Il dissipait par la lumière de son esprit ce que la calomnie avait taché d'—, the clearness of his intellect threw a light upon what calumny had endeavored to involve in obscurity. Fiech. — quelqu'un, — l'esprit de quelqu'un, to perplex a person, the mind of a person.

S'EMBOUILLER, vpr. 1 (d'un affaire, of an affair) to become confused, intricate. 2 (perdre le fil de son discours, de ses idées) to perplex, to confound one's self. L'homme s'embrouille souvent à force de raisonner, man often perplexes himself by dint of reasoning. Boss. Son esprit s'embrouille, his mind is becoming confused. Ses idées s'embrouillent, his ideas are becoming confused.

EMBRUME, ppa. of EMBRUMER, fem. —E, adjective. foggy, misty, hazy.

EMBRUMER, ang-brû-may, va. to cover with fog, mist. Un de ces brouillards qui l'embrument si bien (Paris), one of those fogs in which it is so well shrouded. Balz.

S'EMBRUMER, vpr. to be covered with fog, mist, to get foggy.

EMBRUN, ang-bruhng, sm. noun. spray. EMBROGÉNIE, ang-bre-yo-zhay-nee, sf. (Gr.) embryogeny.

EMBRUYON, ang-bre-yong, sm. (Gr.) 1 anat. embryo, embryon. fig. (disparagingly) Ce n'est qu'un —, he is a little bit of a man. 2 bot. embryo.

EMBRUYONNE, ang-bre-yo-nay, adj. m. fem. —é, —ée, embryonated, embryonated.

EMBRUYONNAIRE, ang-bre-yo-nayr, adj. m. nat. hist. embryonic, embryonic.

EMBU, ang-bû, sm. point. d'ailance.

EMBU, ppa. of EMBUIRE, fem. —E, paint. soaked in, duff.

EMBUÛCHE, ang-bûsh, sf. ambush, snare. Dresser, tendre des —s, to lay an ambush, to lay snares. Tomber dans une —, to fall into an ambush. (by extension) Votre cœur lui-même vous dresse des —s, your heart itself lays snares for you. Mass.

EMBUSCADE, ang-bûs-kad, sf. mil. ambuscade, ambush. Se mettre, se tenir, être en —, to lie in wait, to lie in ambuscade.

EMBUSQUÉ, ppa. of EMBUSQUER, fem. —E, placed in ambush.

EMBUSQUER, ang-bûs-kay, va. to ambush, to place in ambush.

S'EMBUSQUER, vpr. to place one's self in ambush, to lie in wait.

EMENDER, ay-màng-day, ro. law. to amend.

EMERAUDE, aym-rôd, sf. (Gr.) min. emerald. Vert d'—, emerald green.

EMERGENCE, ay-mayr-zhàngs, sf. nat. phil. point. point of emergence.

EMERGENT, ay-mayr-zhàng, adj. m. nat. phil. Rayons —s, emergent rays.

EMERGER, ay-mayr-zhay, va. (Lat. emergere) (surgir, s'élever) to emerge. Le soleil émergent d'une nuit sombre éclairait le fleuve, the sun emerging from a gloomy night shed its light over the river. Chat. Du milieu du lac sacré émergeait une montagne, out of the middle of the sacred lake emerged a mountain. Chat. fig. A mesure que l'homme émergeait du monde inférieur, in proportion as man rising out of the lower world. Lamen.

EMERI, aym-ree, sm. (Gr.) emery. Poudre d'—, emery dust.

EMERILLON, aym-re-yong, sm. 1 orn. merlin. 2 tech. whirl.

ÉMERILLONNE, aym-re-yong, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 (gal) sprightly, brisk. Je vous trouve bien — aujourd'hui, how very sprightly you are to-day. Avoir l'œil —, to have a sharp eye. 2 (substantif.) Vous nous feriez grand plaisir de nous donner cette petite — e, you would afford us great pleasure by letting us have that sprightly little lass. M^{me} de Sév.

ÉMERITE, aym-rit, adj. m. (Lat. emeritus) emeritus, emertit. fig. une coquette —, a superannuated coquette.

EMERSON, aym-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 astr. emersion. 2 nat. phil. emersion.

ÉMÉRUS, aym-ryr, sm. bot. bladder-senna.

ÉMERVEILLE, ppa. of ÉMERVEILLER, fem. — E, astonished. Il est — de tout ce qu'il voit, he is astonished at every thing he sees. Elle contemplant, — e, cette succession de héros, with wonder she contemplated that succession of heroes. Nod. Je suis toujours — de la disette où vous êtes de gens à talents, I am always astonished you should be so deficient in men of talent. Volt.

ÉMERVEILLÉ, aym-ryr-vay-yuh-mang, em. wonder, astonishment. Mon — dure toujours, I am still lost in astonishment. Volt.

ÉMERVEILLER, aym-ryr-vay-yay, ra. to astonish, to amaze. L'admirable tenue de ses livres émerveille, the beautiful order in which his books are kept is wonderful. Ph. Chas. Les bizarreries de notre époque nous frappent et nous émerveillent, the oddities of the age strike us with amazement. Ph. Chas.

S'ÉMERVEILLER, vpr. to wonder, to be astonished, amazed. Ne s'émerveille pas de tout, comme un enfant qui n'a rien vu, do not stare so, like a child that has never seen anything before. Nod.

ÉMÉTIQUE, aym-rik, sm. (Gr.) 1 emetic. Prendre de l'—, to take an emetic. 2 toute autre substance propre à faire vomir emetic. 3 (adjectif.) emetic, emetic.

ÉMÉTISER, aym-ri-zay, ra. to put some emetic in (une tisane, a tisane).

ÉMETTRE, aym-ri-zay, rr. irreg. conj. like mettre, (Lat. emittre) 1 to utter, to express, to emit, to give out (un vœu, a wish; des idées, une opinion, ideas, an opinion). Il écoult tous les avis avant d'— le sien, he listened to every body's opinion before expressing his own. Lamart. — un son, to give out a sound. 2 (mettre en circulation) to issue (du papier-monnaie, paper-money).

ÉMETTE, aym-nut, sf. (Lat. emotum) riot, disturbance. fig. C'était tout autour de nous une — de vagues, the waves were all boiling round us. Chat.

ÉMETTER, aym-nut-tyay, sm. neol. rioter.

ÉMIER, aym-ry, ra. (from mie) to crumble (du pain, de la cassonade, de l'ail, bread, moist sugar, alum).

ÉMIETTER, aym-ry-tay, ra. (from miette) to crumble.

S'ÉMIETTER, vpr. to crumble away.

ÉMIGRANT, aym-giang, vpr. of ÉMIGRER, sm. 1 emigrant. 2 (adjectif.) fem. — E, emigrant, emigrating. 3 (jouet) emigrant.

ÉMIGRATION, aym-grah-syong, sf. 1 the emigration. Durant l'—, during the emigration. 2 polit. the emigrants.

ÉMIGRE, aym-gray, sm. fem. — E, 4 Fr. Rev. (particularly) emigrant. Le rappel des —, the recall of the emigrants. Une — e, a female emigrant. 2 (adjectif.) emigrating, emigrant. Les princes — es, the emigrant princes.

ÉMIGRER, aym-gray, rr. (Lat. emigrare) to emigrate. Les Anglais, n'ayant pas les mêmes racines que les Français dans le sol, emigrent ou il y a profit, the English, not being rooted to the soil, like the French, emigrate wherever there is a profit to be made. Mich. Les officiers, tous nobles, émigrèrent en masse, the officers, who were all noble, emigrated in a mass. Lamart. fig. Les arts en décadence y avaient émigré de Byzance avec le commerce, the arts in decay had followed trade in its emigration from Byzantium. Lamart.

ÉMILE, ay-mil, sm. Emilus.

ÉMILIE, ay-me-lie, sf. Emily. ÉMILIE, ppa. of ÉMIGRER, fem. — E, 4 Du moulin, minced mutton. 2 (substantif.) minced-meat. Un — de gigot, de poularde, minced leg of mutton, minced fowl.

ÉMIGNER, ay-mang-sy, ra. NOUS ÉMIGNER; IL ÉMIGNE (from mince) to mince (meat).

ÉMINEMENT, ay-me-nah-mang, adv. 1 eminently, in an eminent degree. 2 phil. schol. virtually.

ÉMINENCE, ay-me-nangs, sf. (Lat. eminentia) 1 eminence, eminency, rising ground, height. 2 anat. eminence, process, apophysis (des os, of the bones). 3 (titre d'honneur) eminence. On lui donne de l'—, they gratify him with the title of Eminence.

ÉMINENT, ay-me-nang, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 high, elevated. Lieu —, elevated spot. fig. Une vie — e est sujette aux orages, an elevated existence is liable to storms. V. Hug. 2 fig. eminent. Un homme — en doctrine, en piété, d'un savoir —, a man eminent for his doctrine, for his piety, of eminent learning. Un poste —, an eminent post. Des qualités — es, eminent qualities. Danger, péril —, imminent danger.

ÉMINENTISSIME, ay-me-nang-te-seem, adj. superl. mf. most eminent. Aliens —, most eminent Highness.

ÉMIR, ay-neer, sm. (Ar.) emir.

ÉMIS, ay-mee, ppa. of ÉMETTRE, fem. — E, cab. law. emitted, proposed.

ÉMISSAIRE, ay-me-sy, sm. 1 emissary. 2 (adjectif.) li. Bone —, scapegoat. 3 fig. scapegoat.

ÉMISSION, ay-me-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 emission. L'— des rayons du soleil, the emission of the rays of the sun. — de voix, emission of the voice. 2 issue (de nouvelles pièces de monnaie, of coin; de papier-monnaie, de billets de banque, of paper-money, of bank-notes). 3 can. law. — des vœux, taking, making vows.

ÉMAGASINAGE, ang-mah-gaz-e-nah, sm. warehousing.

ÉMAGASINER, ang-mah-gaz-e-nay, ra. to warehouse (des marchandises, goods). (by extension) Il émagasinait dans sa chambre un tas de curiosités, he stored up in his room a heap of curiosities. Balz. Ils essayèrent sans plus de succès d'— la lueur, they endeavored not more successfully to store up smoke. L. Fig. fig. J'ai vu plus de tableaux que vous en tenez en émagasinage plus que vous les potentiels n'en peuvent acquiescer, I have seen more pictures than you, there are more stored up in my head than all the potentiels can acquire. Dider.

ÉMAIGRI, ang-may-greer, ra. See AMAIGRI. M^{me} de Sév.

ÉMAILLOTTEMENT, ang-mah-yot-nang, sm. swaddling.

ÉMAILLOTER, ang-mah-yo-tay, ra. to swathe, to swaddle (un enfant, a child).

S'ÉMAILLOTER, vpr. (by extension) to wrap one's self up. Leurs robes rouges (des juges), leurs hermines, d'un ils s'émailloient en chais fourrés, their red robes, their hermines in which they wrap themselves up like so many war-furred cats. Pate. (by analogy) Il s'était emmailloé la tête et avait senti une grosse maladie, he had wrapped up his head and perceived to be very ill. Volt.

ÉMANCHE, ppa. of ÉMANCHER, fem. — E, 1 Couteau bien —, knife with a good haft. (by analogy) Le héron au long bec — d'un long coa, the heron with a long bill screwed on to a long neck. La Font. fig. Que dites-vous de cette affaire? comment — e? what do you say of this affair? what do you think of the way in which it is arranged? M^{me} de Sév. 2 point. Membre bien — mal —, limb well, badly joined, attached.

EMMANCHER, ang-mang-shay, ra. 1 to haft, to helve, to put a handle to, to fit on (un couteau, etc., a knife, etc.). 2 fig. — (une affaire, to begin, to set about an affair. prov. fig. (avec le pron. pers., with the pers. pron.) Cela ne s'émanche pas ainsi, ne s'émanche pas comme vous le pensez, that cannot be done so easily.

EMMANCHEUR, ang-mang-shuhr, sm. handle-maker. Un — de couteaux, a knife handle-maker.

EMMANCHURE, ang-mang-shuhr, sf. (d'un habit, d'une robe, of a coat, of a dress) arm-hole.

EMMANTELE, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 nb-sol. covered with a cloak, hooded. 2 orn. Cornelle —, royston-crow, winter-crow. 3 mil. obsol. walled.

EMMANTELER, ang-mang-lay, ra. mil. to wall (a town).

EMMAQUISER, ang-mar-ke-zay, ra. ironic. I marquis a person.

S'EMMAQUISER, vpr. ironic. to assume the title of a marquis; to act the marquis.

ÉMÉLER, ang-may-lay, ra. to entangle.

ÉMMÉNAGÉ, ppa. of ÉMMÉNAGER, fem. — E, 1 moved in. 2 bout arranged.

ÉMMÉNAGEMENT, ang-may-nah-mang, sm. 4 moving in, removal. 2 —, pl. naot. accommodations.

ÉMMÉNAGER, ang-may-nah-yay, rr. NOUS ÉMMÉNAGEONS; IL ÉMMÉNAGE, to move in. J'ai fini d'—, I have got every thing in.

ÉMMÉNAGER, vpr. 1 — quelque'un, to remove the furniture of a person. 2 naot. to make the accommodations, the fittings up of a ship.

S'ÉMMÉNAGER, vpr. 1 to install one's self, to settle down, to move in. 2 (se pourvoir de meubles) to buy in furniture.

ÉMENNÉ, ang-may, ra. IL ÉMENNÉ; IL ÉMENNÉ, to take, to fetch, to carry, to bring, to lead away. Émenez cet homme, je vous prie, pray, take that man away. Il l'a émené dans sa voiture, he took him away in his carriage. Il se laissa — sans rien dire, he suffered himself to be led away without saying a word. B. de St-P. Les hommes d'amour qu'on émenait garrottés, the men of amours that were carried off pinioned. Aug. Th. Émenez avec nous tous les chevaux, nous suivons le frère A., taking with us all the horses, we followed brother A. Le Sage. Il quitta l'armée car émenant quelques régiments avec lui, he left the army taking some regiments with him. Voilà des soldats qui émenent vos bestiaux, there are some soldiers carrying off your cattle. Il a émené ses marchandes, he has carried away his goods.

ÉMMENOTER, ang-mah-not-ay, ra. to handcuff, to manacle.

ÉMMIELLE, ppa. of ÉMULLER, fem. — E, hounded. fig. Paroles — es, honeyed words. On vous écrit une lettre — e, they will write you a coaxing letter.

ÉMMIELLE, ang-may-lay, ra. to honey, to sweeten with honey. — les bords d'un vase, to put honey round the edge of a vase; Il fig. — les bords du vase, to gild the pill.

ÉMMIELLE, ang-may-lay, sf. vet. a sort of ointment.

ÉMMITOUFLÉ, ppa. of ÉMMITOUFLER, fem. — E, Un vieux malade —, a sick old man miffed up. Volt. prov. fig. Jamais chat — ne prit souris, a cat in gloves catches no mice.

ENMITOUFLER, âng-me-tou-flay, va. to wrap up, to muffle up.

S'ENMITOUFLER, tpr. to wrap, to muffle one's self up.

ENMORTAISER, âng-mor-tay-zay, va. tech. to mortise.

ENMOTTER, âng-mot-ay, va. gard. to cover up a roof with soil.

ENMUSELER, âng-mûz-lay, va. s'émuseller; il emmusellerait, to muzzle (on cheval, a horse).

EMOI, ay-mwâ, sm. anxiety, flutter, emotion. Être en —, to be fluttered. Ce petit colloque mit en — quelques-unes des têtes les plus vives de l'Académie, this little colloquy put in a flutter some of the most excitable Academicians. S^{te}-B.

EMOULIENT, ay-mol-yâng, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 med. emollient. 2 (substantif.) emollient.

EMOULMENT, ay-mo-lû-mâng, sm. (Lat. emolumentum) 1 emolument, profit. 2 —s, pl. (appointements) emolument, salary. 3 —s, pl. (particul.) (profits) perquisite, fee.

EMONCOTRE, ay-mongk-twâr, sm. (Lat. emungere) med. emunctory.

EMONDAJE, ay-mong-dazh, sm. gard. pruning, trimming, topping.

EMONDER, ay-mong-day, va. gard. to prune, to trim, to lop. (by extension) Les feuilles que leurs mains émondent des rameaux, the leaves that their hands pluck from the branches. Lamart. fig. Il reprenait sa baraque sans l'avoir émondée d'un solécisme, he resumed his harangue without having cut out a single solécism. Nod.

EMONDES, ay-mongd, sf. pl. gard. slips, branches lopped off.

ÉMOTION, ay-mo-syong, sf. 4 (mouvement, trouble) emotion, excitement. Il a de l'— dans le pouls, the pulse is excited. Il n'a plus la fièvre, mais je lui trouve encore quelque —, de l'—, his fever has left him, but I find he is still excited. 2 (de l'âme) emotion. Éprouver beaucoup d'—, to feel great emotion. Il attendit le coup sans —, he waited for the blow without a tremor. Elle rougissait à la moindre —, the least emotion made her blush.

Si vous vous arrêtez trop longtemps sur les —s tristes, if you dwell too long on sad emotions. Villem. 3 (du peuple) disturbance. Il était convaincu que l'— du peuple n'était qu'une fumée, he was convinced that this disturbance among the people would end in smoke. Retz.

ÉMOTIONNER, ay-mo-syô-nay, va. neol. to cause emotion. Je ne dirai pas que ce l'ore émeut, mais qu'il émotionne, I do not mean to say that this book inspires one, but it affects one. St^e-D.

ÉNOTTER, ay-mot-ay, va. agri. to break the clods of.

ÉNOUCHER, ay-moo-shay, va. to drive away the flies from (un cheval, a horse). Les seconds énouchent le tronc des grands arbres, the others pick the flies from the trunks of large trees. Mich.

S'ÉNOUCHER, tpr. to drive away the flies.

ÉNOUCHET, ay-moo-shay, sm. orn. sparrowhawk.

ÉNOUCHETER, ay-moo-shet, va. tech. to break the point of.

ÉNOUCHETTE, ay-moo-shet, sf. fly-net (for horses).

ÉNOUCHEUR, ay-moo-shur, sm. fly-driver. Leurs faisants son principal métier d'être bon —, the bear prided himself especially on being a good fly-driver. La Font.

ÉNOUCHOIR, ay-moo-shur, sm. tech. fly-say.

ÉNOUDRE, ay-moudr, va. irreg. See NOUDRE, to grind.

ÉNOULEUR, ay-moo-lur, sm. grinder.

ÉNOULLU, ay-moo-lû, pf. of énoûler, fem. —E, ground. Fer —, ground iron. Lance à fer —, sharp-pointed lance. fig. Se batte à fer —, to fight with sharp weapons; || to fight in good earnest. Un jeune homme frais — du collège, a young man just fresh from college; || il en est frais —, he is full of the subject.

ÉMOUSSAGE, ay-moo-sazh, agri. enmussation.

ÉMOUSSÉ, ppa. of ÉMOUSSER, fem. —E, blunt. Instrument —, blunt instrument. fig. Un esprit —, a dull mind. Des sens —s, dulled senses. Le goût du roi pour mon père ne put être — par l'absence, the king's inclination for my father could not be dulled by absence. Saint-Sim.

ÉMOUSSÉ, ppa. of ÉMOUSSER, fem. —E, cleared of moss.

ÉMOUSSER, ay-moo-say, va. 4 to blunt, to take off the edge of, to dull. — un rasoir, to blunt a razor. fig. Une expression de découragement émoussait ses regards, ordinarily proud acérés, discouragement gave an expression of dullness to her looks, which were generally too keen. Lamart. 2 fig. (amortir) to deaden, to weaken, to blunt, to dull. Ces choses qui auraient dû nourrir mes peines en émoussant au contraire l'aiguillon, the things that ought to have heightened my distress, on the contrary did but deaden the sensation. Chat. Ces plaisirs tumultueux qui émoussent la sensibilité sans la satisfaire, those worldly pleasures which deaden sensibility without satisfying it. Nod. Les autres ont en beau se froter contre vous, ils n'ont jamais pu — votre asperité naturelle, the contact of others could never soften down your natural roughness. Dider. Les longues peines émoussent l'esprit, prolonged trouble dulls the mind. L'habitude émoussé le plaisir, habit takes off the edge of pleasure.

S'ÉMOUSSER, tpr. to become, to grow blunt, dull. L'acier de Damas coupe le fer sans s'—, Damascus steel cuts iron without losing its edge. fig. Ils savaient de plus que les batonnets s'émoussent devant des poitrines de femmes, moreover, they knew that the women would prove an érid against bayonets. Lamart. fig. Le courage s'émoussé dans l'oisiveté, idleness takes off the edge of courage.

ÉMOUSSER, va. gard. to clear of moss.

ÉMOUSSOIR, ay-moo-swâr, sm. agri. moss-scraper.

ÉMOUSTILLER, ppa. of ÉMOUSTILLER, fem. —E, lively, brisk, sprightly. Avoir l'air —, to look all alive.

ÉMOUSTILLER, ay-moo-te-yay, va. fam. to exhilarate, to rouse, to stir up. Le vin de Champagne émoûtillait, Champagne rouses the spirits.

ÉMOUVANT, ay-moo-vâng, ppr. of ÉMOUVOIR, adj. m. fem. —E, moving, touching. Le timbre — de sa voix, the touching tone of her voice. Lamart. Soyez si tendre et si — que vous voudrez, however tender and touching you may be. La Font. Nulle scène plus —E, no more moving scene. Mich.

ÉMOUVOIR, ay-moo-voair, va. irreg. conj. like mouvoir, (Lat. emovere) 1 absol. (mettre en mouvement) to move, to put in motion. Six chevaux attelés à ce pesant fardeau ont peine à l'— sur le pave glissant, six horses put to this heavy load can scarcely draw it along the slippery pavement. Bui. 2 (des humeurs, of humours, etc.) (agiter, remuer) to move, to agitate, to rouse, to stir up. — les sens, to agitate the senses. fig. Jamais voix pareille n'eût un oreille, never did such a voice touch an ear. V. Hug. fig. — la bile de quelqu'un, to stir up the bile of a person. Sa bile est aisée à —, his blood is soon up. 3 (des flots, of waves) (exciter, soulever) to stir up. fig. — une sédition, une querelle, une dispute, to rouse a sedition, to excite, to provoke a quarrel, a dispute. 4 fig. (toucher, remuer) to move, to rouse, to touch. Les ambassadeurs émoûtirent tous les cœurs en racontant, etc., the ambassadors touched every heart by relating, etc. Bar. Il n'ira jamais — une âme jusque dans ses sympathies les plus secrètes, he will never be able to appeal to the most secret sympathies of the soul. Nod. — de compassion, to move with compassion. Pour le peuple les grands orateurs sont ceux qui l'émouvent, for the people, the great orators are those who move them. Lamart. Ce dernier honneur acheva d'— contre lui la haine et l'envie de toute la cour, this last honour completely roused the hatred and envy of the whole court. Bar. M. en pleurs ne peut vous — M. in tears cannot touch you. Rac. absol. — à compassion, to move to pity. (by extension) (des animaux, of animals) to affect, to touch. 5 fig. (agiter, disposer à la sédition) to agitate. — les esprits, to agitate the minds. Cependant les étudiants commencèrent à — l'Université, the students, however, began to agitate the University. Bir. Les factieux tentèrent d'— la multitude, the factions attempted to agitate the multitude.

S'ÉMOUVOIR, tpr. 4 to move, to be moved. Quand elle sentit sur cette mer immense le vaisseau s'—, when she felt the vessel moving on that immense sea. Muss. Cependant l'appareil nutritif s'émeut tout entier, in the meantime the whole of the nutritive apparatus begins to be set in motion. Rivail-S. fig. Sa bile s'émeut aisément, promptement, his blood is soon up. 2 (être excité) to be roused, agitated, to arise, to rise. La mer commença à s'—, the sea begins to be agitated. La terre s'en émeut, l'air en est infecté, the earth is agitated, the air is infected by it. Rac. (impers.) Il s'émeut une grande tempête, there arose a great storm. fig. (impers.) Il s'émeut une grande querelle, a great quarrel arose. Nod. 3 fig. (être touché, affecté) to be moved, touched. Les dieux s'émoûtirent du trépas du héros, the gods were touched with the death of the hero. Th. Gant. Il s'émeut à la vue du péril, he is moved at the sight of the peril. Il ne saurait voir cet homme sans s'—, he cannot see that man without emotion. Ne s'— de rien, to be concerned at nothing. Il lui répondit sans s'— que, he coolly answered him that. Le grand A. s'émeut beaucoup de cette querelle, the great A. took great interest in that quarrel. St^e-B. Je me flattais que le dnc se serait ému de compassion en lisant, I flattered myself that the duke would have been moved to pity by the perusal of. Le Sage. Parle sans l'—, speak calmly. Corn. Les bourgeois les plus étrangers aux idées d'art s'émoûtirent eux-mêmes, even those farthest removed from artistic ideas were enraptured. Th. Gant. Son cœur compatissant s'émeut sur les peines de ses semblables, his compassionate heart is touched with the distress of his fellow-creatures. J.-J. Rouss. Mes entrailles paternelles s'émoûtirent de tendresse à chaque de vos succès, my fatherly feelings are moved to tenderness at every success you obtain. Volt. (by extension) Les âmes ne s'émoûvaient nullement de leurs gourdames, the asses were not the least sensible to their blows. Th. Gant. 4 fig. (du peuple, of the mob) (s'agiter, se soulever) to rise, to be agitated. Le peuple commença à s'—, the people began to rise. Rien ne s'émeut hors de la salle, out of doors there was no agitation. Lamart.

EMPAILLAGE, âng-pah-yazh, sui. stuffing.

EMPAILLER, âng-pah-yay, va. 4 to straw-bottom, to put a straw-bottom to (des chaises, chairs). 2 (envelopper de paille) to pack in straw (des ballots, des boîtes, des porcelaines, bales, boxes, articles of porcelain). 3 gard. to put straw round (un arbre, a tree). 4 (remplir de paille) to stuff. (by extension) — des animaux, des oiseaux, to stuff animals, birds.

EMPAILLEUR, âng-pah-yuhr, sm. fenn.

EMPAILLEUSE, 1 Empailleuse de chaises, chair-mender, chair-boltonner. 2 — d'oiseaux, naturalist.

EMPALEMENT, ang-pai-mang, sm. empalement.

EMPALER, ang-pai-ray, ra. to empale.

EMPAN, ang-pang, sm. span.

EMPANACHER, ang-pan-ash-ay, ra. to eme, to adorn with plumes (on casque, helmet).

EMPANNER, ang-pan-ay, ra. naut. to bring to, to tie to.

EMPAQUETER, ppa. of EMPAQUETER, fem. —E, 4 fig. Un homme — dans un manteau, a man wrapped in a cloak. 2 Des gens —s dans une voiture, people packed together in a carriage.

EMPAQUETER, ang-pak-ay, ra. 1 to wrap up, to pack, to pack up, la bundle up (du linge, des livres, linen, books). Empaqueter-moi tous ces habits, make a bundle of all those clothes. 2 fig. (envelopper soigneusement) to wrap up. 3 fig. (entasser) to pack, to huddle together.

S'EMPAQUETER, rpr. 4 fig. (s'envelopper) to wrap one's self up. 2 fig. (s'entasser) to be packed, to be huddled together.

S'EMPARER, ang-par-ay, rpr. 1 (se saisir) to seize (upon), to take possession (of), to possess one's self (of), to secure.

S'— d'une place forte, la seize upon a strong place. S'— du trône, la take possession of a throne. S'— d'un héritage, la seize upon an inheritance. Du palais d'un jeune lapin, dame Belette un beau matin s'empara, Dame Wasel took possession, one fine morning, of a young rabbit's abode. La Font.

S'— de son dernier gîte, a corpse was moring mournfully to take possession of its last home. La Font. On s'empara avec plus de raison des deux messagers, with more justice they seized upon the two messengers. Bar. Il s'empara de ma main pour la baiser, he seized my hand to kiss it. Ab. (by extension) Le malade gardait le silence, et la mort semblait s'— lentement de son visage muet et livide, the patient remained silent, and death seemed slowly to take possession of his dumb and livid countenance. Balz. fig. Ne vous emparez pas de la conversation, do not engraft the conversation. Dun R. était un fin malin qui s'empara de l'esprit de son Excellence, a non R. was a crafty man who had circumvented his Excellency. Le Sage. Ils se sont si bien emparés de M. de L. que, they have acquired such influence over M. de L. that.

De Coul. Est-ce l'esprit divin qui s'empara de moi? is it the divine spirit that inspired me? Rac. 2 fig. (des passions, of passions) to take possession of, to possess. L'indignation s'était emparée des esprits, indignation had taken possession of the minds. St-Sim. Ces sympathies qui s'emparent de nous à l'insu de nous-mêmes, those sympathies that creep unawares into our heart. Nod. L'ennui s'était emparé de son cœur, love had fired his heart.

EMPÂTE, ppa. of EMPÂTER, fem. —E, 1 (des mains) sticky. 2 (de la langue) clammy. 3 point. Un tableau bien —a painting well impasted. 4 engrav. Des chairs bien —es, flesh well worked up. 1 arch. basement. 2 tech. (pièce de bois) straddling, width of base. 3 naut. sylicum.

EMPÂTEMENT, sm. 1 (des mains, of the hands) stickiness. 2 (de la langue, of the tongue, of the mouth) clamminess. 3 point, impuration, flesh well worked up. — de couleurs, thickened colours. 4 (action d'empâter la toile) fattening, cramming. 5 sug. puffiness.

EMPÂTER, ang-pâ-ray, ra. 1 (remplir de pâte) to cover with paste. 2 (rendre pâteux) to make sticky, clammy. 3 point. — un tableau, une figure, to impaste a painting, a figure. 4 naut. to make a scarf. 5 to fatten, to cram (des chapons, des dindons, capons, turkeys).

EMPAUNER, ang-po-uay, ra. 1 to strike with the palm of the hand, with a bat. — la balle, to strike the ball. fig. — une affaire, to manage an affair skilfully. — la parole, to engraft the conversation. 2 fig. fam. (se rendre maître de l'esprit de quelqu'un) to gain, to gain over, to get hold of, to come round. Le traître a empaué son esprit, the traitor has brought him over. Nod. Il se laissa — par un capitaine suisse qui lui persuada, he suffered himself to be fooled by a Swiss captain who persuaded him to.

St-Sim. 3 fig. hunt. — la voie, to catch the scent.

EMPAUMURE, ang-po-mûr, sf. 1 palm (of a glove). 2 ven. the upper antlers of a stag.

EMPECHER, ppa. of EMPECHER, fem. —E, 4 prevented, hindered, impeded. Cette affaire a été —e par mille obstacles, this affair has been impeded by a thousand obstacles. 2 (embarrasser, gêner) embarrassed, tied. Le pauvre loup — par son boqueton ne put se défendre, the unhappy wolf entangled in his surcoat could not defend himself. La Font. Tous deux sont —s, si jamais il en fut, both were at a loss, if any body ever was. La Font.

Il se trouva fort — de lui répondre, he found himself at a great loss for an temps présent que to seais bien — d'en rapporter le prix, beans are so dear at present that you would find it difficult to bring back the amount. Nod. Voilà un homme bien — a rendie ses comptes, that man is much preoccupied by the task of giving in his accounts. Prov. Être — de sa personne, de sa contenance, not to know what to do with one's self; not to know how to look. 3 fig. (by analogy)

Il était fort mal fait de sa personne et fort — de son esprit, his body was mishapen and his mind ununiform. Nod. 4 (substantif) Faire l'—, to affect to be preoccupied by business.

EMPECHÉMENT, ang-paysh-mang, sm. hindrance, impediment, obstacle. Je n'y mis point d'—, I do not oppose it. Meture — à un mariage, la forbid the bans.

EMPECHER, ang-pay-shay, ra. (Lat. impedire) 1 to prevent, to hinder, to abstract, to impede, to preclude. — un mariage, to prevent a marriage. Tout le bien vient de Dieu, et lui seul peut — le mal qui viendrait de nous, every good thing proceeds from God, and he alone can prevent the evil which proceeds from ourselves. Boss. Ce sont arrêts de sort qu'on ne peut —, those are decrees of fate which nothing can resist. La Font.

Cette muraille empêche la vue, that wall shuts out the prospect. Le corps passe, la queue aussi, rien ne les empêche, the body passes, the tail also, there is nothing to prevent them. La Font. Cette digue empêche les inondations, that dike prevents the inundations. Ces objections n'empêchent pas le succès dû à la nouvelle, those objections did not check the success produced by the novelty. St-B.

Les derniers traits de l'ombre émeurent qu'il ne voie le fillet, the remaining twilight presents him from seeing the snare.

La Font. La pluie empêche d'aller se promener, qu'on n'aille se promener, the rain prevents us from taking a walk.

Je n'empêche pas qu'il fasse ce qu'il vou-dra, I do not prevent his doing whatever he pleases. Cela n'empêche pas que nous fussions fort pauvres, that did not prevent our being very poor. Nod. Cela ne l'a pas empêché de penser aux autres plus qu'à elle-même, that did not prevent her from thinking of others more than of herself.

G. Sand. Tout cela n'empêchait pas le seigneur de Dieu de parler d'une voix forte, all that did not prevent the servant of God from speaking in a loud voice. Chat. 2 obol. (gêner, embarrasser) to tie down.

L'on m'a donné dans nos écoles une charge qui m'empêche bien, an occupation has been given me in our schools which ties me down very much. Guy-Patin.

S'EMPECHER, vpr. 1 to refrain (from), to forbear, to help, to la keep (from). Il ne pouvait s'— de la partager, l'inquietude de cette mère, he could not refrain from sharing the anxiety of that mother. Muss.

Il ne savait s'— de jouer, he cannot refrain from gaming. Je ne puis m'— de rire, I can not help laughing. L'on pleure sans pouvoir s'—, one cannot refrain from weeping. Mme de Sév. 2

obol. (s'embarrasser) S'— de quelqu'un,

s'— de quelque chose, to be troubled with a person, with a thing.

EMPEIGNE, ang-pay-ayuh, sf. tramp (a shoe).

EMPENNÉ, ppa. of EMPENNER, fem.

—E, feathered. Flèche —e, a bearded arrow. La Fout. Comme l'orbe — que des enfants se renvoient sur la raquette, like the shuttlecock that children bandy with their battledores. Chat.

EMPEIGNER, ang-pay-nay, ra. absol.

to feather. La nièce de C. empaigrait des flèches, the niece of C. was hearding arrows. Chat.

EMPEURER, ang-puhr, sm. (Lat. im-perator) 4 emperor. 2 anc. absol. (Em-perateur d'Allemagne) the Emperor of Germany. Les troupes de l'—, the Imperialists.

EMPERLER, ang-pay-ray, ra. 1 absol.

to adorn with pearls. — ses cheveux, to set off one's hair with pearls. 2 fig. La sueur emperle son front, sweat beads his brow.

EMPESAGE, ang-puh-zazh, sm. 4

(action) starching. 2 (la manière) starch-ing.

ENDÉSÉ, ppa. of EMPESER, fem. —E,

4 starched. 2 fig. stiff, starched, formal.

Chat. Comme estien dit, that man is very stiff. Quelles manières —es! what starched manners! Air —, starched air. Style —, formal, stiff style.

EMPESER, ang-puh-zay, ra. 1 to starch (une colletterie, a collar). 2 naut.

— une voile, to wet a sail.

EMPESER, ang-puh-zubr, sm. fem.

EMPESÉE, sturched.

EMPESTÉ, ppa. of EMPESTER, fem. —E, infected, tainted. Aix et Arles sont —es de la petite vérole, Aix and Arles are infected with the small-pox. Mme de

Sév. (by extension) Filt ne m'approchez pas, votre haleine est —e, out upon you! don't come near me, your breath is offensive. Mol. fig. Les plaisirs —s, corrupting pleasures. Pasc. fig. L'erreux sortait pleine d'athanas de sa bouche —e, error, full of charms, proceeded from her insidious lips. Boil.

EMPESTER, ang-pay-say, ra. 1 to infect, to taint. fig. Les différentes sectes s'accusent mutuellement d'avoir empesté le monde de leurs heresies, the different sects mutually accuse each other of having infecting the world with their heresies.

Marm. 2 (by extension) (empaustir) to infect. absol. to cause an offensive smell.

EMPETE, ppa. of EMPÊTER, fem.

—E, embarrassed, entangled. (by extension) Des Musulmanes obses —es dans leurs bottes jaunes, fat Musلمان women having their feet cumbered with their yellow boots. Th. Gaut. fig. Il se trouva tout — dans ses méditations, comme l'oiseau dans la glu, he will get so entangled in his méditations as a bird on a lime-twig.

Mme de Sév. On est quelquefois — dans son orgueil, the trammels of our pride frequently impede our progress. Mme de

Sév. Je crois notre ami d'Argental un peu — de son ambassade, I think our friend

d'A. finds himself somewhat embarrassed with his embassy. Volt. fam. Avoir l'air —, tout —, to have a sheepish look.

EMPÊTRER, ang-pay-tray, ra. 1 (enbarrasser, engager) to entangle, to hamper. Sa toison empiètra si bien les serres du corbeau que, the fleece so entangled the claws of the raven that. La Font. 2 fig. to engage, to embarrass. — quelqu'un dans une méchante affaire, to engage a person in a bad affair. Pourquoi m'avez-vous entraîné de cet homme-là? why have you entangled me with that man?

S'EMPIÊTRER, vpr. 4 to get, to become entangled, to encumber one's self with. S'— les jambes, les pieds, to get one's legs, feet entangled. Ce cheval s'est empiêtré dans ses traits, that horse has entangled himself in his harness. fig. Les mots dans lesquels ils s'empêtraient à plaisir, the words in which they floundered about most delightfully. Balz. 2 fig. to become entangled. S'— dans une mauvaise affaire, to get into a scrape. Je ne sais réellement pas comment je me suis empiêtré de cet homme-là, I really do not know why I have added myself with that man.

EMPHASE, ang-faz, sf. (Gr.) emphasis, magnificence, pomposeness, pomposity. Parler avec —, to speak with emphasis. Les plus grandes choses ont besoin d'être dites simplement, elles se gâtent par l'—, the greatest things must be said simply, pomposeness spoils them. La Bruy. Il réprime des mots l'ambitieux —, he checks his style from running into bombast. Boul.

EMPHATIQUE, ang-fat-ik, adj. mf. emphatic, emphatical, magniloquent, pompous. Discours —, magniloquent discourse. Ton —, emphatic tone. Il a parlé d'un air —, he spoke with a pompous air.

EMPHATIQUEMENT, ang-fat-ik-mang, adv. emphatically, magniloquently, pompously. Parler —, to speak pompously.

EMPHIRIQUE, ang-frat-ik, adj. mf. (Gr.) med. empiric.

EMPHYSÉMATÉCN, ang-fe-zay-mat-ul, adj. m. fem. EMPHYSÉMATÉUSE, med. emphysematous.

EMPHYSÈME, ang-fe-zaym, sm. (Gr.) med. emphysema.

EMPHYÉOSE, ang-fe-tay-oz, sf. (Gr.) law. emphyteusis.

EMPHYÉOTE, ang-fe-tay-ot, s. mf. law. tenant by emphyteusis.

EMPHYÉOTIQUE, ang-fe-tay-o-tik, adj. mf. emphyteutic. Bail —, emphyteutic lease.

EMPIERREMENT, ang-pyay-mang, sm. 4 arch. ballasting, stoning. 2 engin. ballasting, broken stone, metalled road.

EMPIERRELLÉ, ang-pyay-ray, rod. engin. to metal w/rods.

EMPIÈTÈMENT, ang-pyay-mang, sm. encroachment, encroachment. (by analogy) Les —s de la mer sur les terres, the encroachments of the sea on the coast. fig. — d'une autorité sur une autre, encroachment of one authority on another.

EMPIÊTER, ang-pyay-tay, rod. s'EMPIÊTER, l'EMPIÊTE, LES EMPIÊTÉS; s'EMPIÊTERAI; NOS EMPIÊTERIONS; 1 (prendre, usurper sur les propriétés de son voisin) to encroach. Il a empiété sur moi plus d'un arpent, he has encroached more than an acre upon my land. absol. Vous avez empiété sur mon terrain, you have encroached upon my land. 2 (by analogy) (s'étendre sur) to encroach. La mer empiète sur les côtes, the sea encroaches on the coasts. fig. Ses yeux s'étendaient pas grands, ils n'empiétaient pas sur le reste de sa figure, his eyes were not large, they did not encroach on the rest of his face. Ab. Une passion qui a fini par — sur toutes les autres, a passion that has ended by swallowing up all the others. Ab. 3 fig. (s'arranger des droits) to encroach. Faites seulement que les hommes n'empiètent pas sur ceux qui cèdent par modeste, only prevent men from encroaching upon those who give way from modesty. La Bruy. Il empiète sur moi, il empiète autant qu'il peut, he encroaches upon me as much as he can. Vous avez empiété sur ma charge, sur mon emploi, sur mes attributions, you have encroached upon my employment, on my attributions.

EMPIÈFRER, ang-pe-fray, ra. 4 pop. to cram, to stuff (un enfant, a child). Ses amis qui l'empêtraient de jambon, his friends who crammed him with ham. Le Sage. 2 (little used) (rendre gras et replet) to bloat.

S'EMPIÈFRER, vpr. 1 pop. (manger avec excès) to cram, to stuff one's self. Quand il se fut bien —, dame J. lui détacha sa serviette, when he had well crammed himself, dame J. undid his napkin. Le Sage. 2 (little used) (devenir gras et replet) to get, to become bloated.

EMPILEMENT, ang-pil-mang, sm. piling up, stacking.

EMPLER, ang-pe-lay, ra. to pile, to pile up, to stack. — du bois, to stack wood. — des livres, des paquets, to pile up books, parcels.

EMPIRE, ang-pe-er, sm. (Lat. imperium) 1 (puissance, autorité) empire, sway, domination, control, ascendancy, reign. Exercer un — despotique sur sa maison, sur ses domestiques, sur sa femme, sur ses enfants, to hold despotic sway in one's house, over one's servants, wife, children. V. traitait avec l'— le plus dur les personnes sous sa dépendance, V. treated his dependents with the greatest haughtiness. Saint-Sim. Elle a repris sur vous son souverain —, she has regained absolute sway over you. Rac. Avoir, prendre de l'— sur soi-même, to have, to assume great command over one's self. Prendre —, de l'—, beaucoup d'— sur quelqu'un, sur l'esprit de quelqu'un, to have a great ascendancy over a person, over the mind of a person. fig. L'— de la raison, the reign of reason. L'— de la beauté est passager, mais celui de la vertu subsiste toujours, the reign of beauty is transitory, but that of virtue lasts for ever. S'Évire. L'— de la mode, the sway of fashion. 2 (domination, puissance politique) empire. Les mêmes vertus qui servent à fonder un — servent aussi à le conserver. the same virtues that serve to found an empire serve also to preserve it. Montesq. L'établissement et la ruine des —s, the establishment and ruin of empires. Boss. L'— est proposé au plus offrant, the empire is offered to the highest bidder. Chât. Je ne fais point de pas qui ne tende à l'—, not a step do I take that has not empire for its aim. Rac. Il aspirait à l'— de toute la terre, he aspired to universal empire. Le siège d'un —, the seat of an empire. 3 le règne d'un empereur) reign. 4 (tiende des pays, les peuples) empire. L'— de Russie, the Russian empire. Tout l'— se souleva, the whole empire rose up. Le Bas —, the Lower Empire. 5 fig. poetic. L'— de Neptune. l'— des ondes, le liquide —, the empire of Neptune, the empire of the waves, the watery empire. L'— de Boreas, des airs, des vents, the empire of Boreas, of the air, of the winds. L'— de Pluton, l'— des ombres, le sombre —, le ténébreux —, the empire of Pluto, the empire of the shades, the gloomy, the dark empire. prov. fig. Il ne céderait pas pour un —, he would not give way upon any account. Quant à moi, je n'en eusse quitté ma part pour un —, as for me, I would not have given up my share for an empire. La Font. 6 (by extension) empire. 7 anc. absol. (d'Allemagne) Les électeurs de l'—, the electors of the empire. Comte du Saint —, count of the Holy Empire.

EMPIRE, ang-pe-ray, sm. See EMPIÈRE.

EMPIRE, ppa. of EMPIERER, fem. —E, grown worse.

EMPIRELLÉ, ang-pe-ray, ra. to make worse, to aggravate. Les remèdes n'ont fait qu'— son mal, the remedies have but aggravated his disease. Au lieu de rendre votre condition meilleure, vous ne faites que l'—, instead of ameliorating your position, you only make it worse.

EMPIRE, fm. to grow, to become, to get worse. Sa maladie empire, a beaucoup empiré, est empirée, his illness gets worse, has got much worse. Ce malade empire à vue d'œil, this patient is visibly getting worse. Nos affaires domestiques empiraient à vue d'œil, our domestic affairs were evidently going to rack and ruin. Le Sage. Mon sort ne saurait être empiré, my position cannot be made worse. J.-J. Rooss.

EMPIRIQUE, ang-pe-rik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 empirical, empiric, quack. Médecine —, quack medicine. Médecin —, quack doctor. 2 (substantif) empiric, quack.

EMPIRISME, ang-pe-rism, sm. 1 empiricism. 2 (particul.) empiricism, quackery. 3 (système de philosophie) empiricism.

EMPLACEMENT, ang-plas-mang, sm. site, situation, piece of ground, lot, ground—place. Constantinople s'éleva sur l'— de Byzance. C. rose upon the site of Byzantium, Chât.

EMPLÂTRE, ang-plât, s. 1 pharm. plaster. Appliquer, mettre, ôter, lever un —, to apply, to put on, to take off a plaster. fig. Le temps est un — commun et très-puissant à tous les maux, time is the usual and powerful remedy for all evils. Char.; || fig. Mettre un — à une affaire, to patch up a business. prov. Où il n'y point de mal, il ne faut point d'—, where there is no sore, there is no need of plasters. 2 fig. l'm. (personne ordinairement indigne) sickly creature, weakling. 3 fig. (personne sans vigueur d'esprit, etc.) drone, helpless creature. Quel — que cet homme-là! what a helpless creature that man is!

EMPLLETTE, ang-plet, sf. 4 purchase. Faire — de quelque chose, to make a purchase of a thing. Faire des —s, to make purchases. 2 (la chose achetée) purchase, bargain. Voyez mon —, see my bargain.

EMPLI, ang-plée, ppa. of EMPLIN, fem. —E, filled, filled up.

EMPLIR, ang-pler, ra. (Lat. implere) (rendre plein) to fill (with), to fill up (with). — un coffre, une armoire de hardes, to fill a chest, a press with clothes. D'épis emplissant sa corbeille, filling her basket with ears of corn. V. Hug. — un vase, une bouteille, un verre, to fill a vase, a bottle, a glass. fam. Il emplit bien son pourpoint, he has a good corporation of his own. fig. Des pensées pleines de tendresse emplissent tous les moments de ma vie que l'étude n'occupe pas, thoughts of affection fill all the instants of my life that are not devoted to study. Jacq. fig. Ce cœur d'un sentiment de tendresse filiale emplit tout entier, that heart which was completely filled up by a sentiment of filial tenderness. Saint.

S'EMPLIR, vpr. to fill (with), to fill up (with). Le navire s'emplissait tellement d'eau qu'il était près de couler bas, the ship was so filled with water that she was ready to go to the bottom. L'éponge de tant d'eau s'emplit d'abord, the sponge first soaked in so much water. La Font.

EMPLOI, ang-plwá, sm. 1 (usage) use, employment. Faire un bon —, un mauvais — de quelque chose, to make a good, a bad use of a thing. Faire un noble — de ses talents, to make a noble use of one's talents. L'— du mot propre, the use of the proper word. L'— d'un mot, d'une expression, the employment of a word, of an expression. 2 law. fin. employment, appropriation, application. Régler l'— des deniers qui proviennent d'une vente, to regulate the appropriation of the proceeds of the sale. l'ouvrez-vous justifier de l'— de ces fonds? can you explain how that money has been appropriated? Faire l'— d'une somme dans un compte, to make an entry of a sum in an account. Double —, useless repetition. 3 (occupation, fonction) employment, situation, office, place. Un homme qui cherche de l'—, a man seeking for employment. Se bien acquiter de son —, to fill a situation well. Tout autre —, any other occupation would have suited me better. Ab. Je veux être de plus brillants —s, I want to fill up more brilliant employments. Volt. Le bel — que tu nous donnes, a fine place that is you give us. La Font. Cet — n'est pas sans désagrément, that situation is not without its inconveniences. Le Sage. De régier ses desirs faisait tout son —, his only employment consisting in regulating his desires. La Font. 4 (particul.) (au théâtre) department, line of character. Cet acteur a l'—, tout l'— des valets, that actor has the department, the whole department of the valets. Les rôles d'un —, the part of a character. Chef d'—, chief actor in his line of character.

EMPLÔYÉ, ppa. of EMPLOYER, fem. —, 4 C'est de l'argent bien —, that is money well employed. Au bout d'une heure —e en conversation, at the end of an hour employed in conversation. Balz. 2 (des personnes, of persons) employed. Il est — à ce travail, he is employed at that work. absol. Un de nos médecins les plus —s, one of our physicians who has the greatest practice. Ab. 3 (substantif) clerk, person employed, employé. Un petit —, an inferior clerk.

EMPLOYER, ang-pwá-yay, va. EMPLOYAT; J'EMPLOIE, TU EMPLOIES, IL EMPLOIE, NOUS EMPLOYONS, VOUS EMPLOYEZ, ILS EMPLOYAIENT; J'EMPLOYAIS, VOUS EMPLOYIEZ, ILS EMPLOYAIENT; J'EMPLOYERAI; J'EMPLOYERAI; QUE VOUS EMPLOYEZ; QUE VOUS EMPLOYAIEZ; QUE VOUS EMPLOYERIEZ; QUE VOUS EMPLOYERIEZ; 4 (mettre en usage, faire usage, se servir de) to use, to employ, to make use of, to appropriate. — de l'effort, to employ stuff. — de l'argent, to employ money. — la plus grande partie de son revenu en charités, to employ the greatest part of one's income in charity. Elle comptait dans sa pensée tout le prix de son lait, en employait l'argent, she counted up in her thoughts the price of her milk, laid out the money. La Font. Pourquoi n'employez-vous pas mieux le temps qui vous reste? why do you not make a better use of the remainder of your time? Ab. — tout son esprit, tous ses soins, toute son eloquence, to employ all one's intelligence, to devote one's whole attention, to exert one's utmost eloquence. Le cadet employait tout son art, toutes ses facultés à soutenir un château de cartes, the younger devoted all his cares and attention in the fabrication of a card-house. Flor. Employez votre empire sur l'esprit de ma mère pour la décider, use all the influence you possess over my mother's mind to persuade her. B. de S-P. Il emploie toutes sortes de moyens, he leaves no stone unturned. — le crédit de ses amis, to use the interest of one's friends. S'il vous survient quelque affaire, employez-moi, should any thing happen, make use of me. La Font. Il se plaignait de ne pouvoir —, sous peine de n'être pas compris, he feared to make use of fine language, if he wished to be understood. Aug. Th. une phrase, un mot, une nation, to make use of a phrase, a word, an expression. — une partie dans un compte, to make an entry in an account. 2 (donner de l'occupation) to employ. — un grand nombre d'ouvriers, to employ a great number of workmen. On l'a employé dans les grandes affaires, he has been employed in great affairs, in great negotiations.

EMPLOYER, vpr. 4 (être employé) to be employed, used. C'est un procédé qui s'emploie dans divers métiers, that is a process employed in several trades. Cette expression ne s'emploie qu'au sens propre, that expression is used only in a literal sense. 2 (s'occuper, s'appliquer) to apply one's self, to exert one's self. Il s'est employé pour moi de la manière la plus bienveillante, he has exerted himself for me in the most benevolent manner. De ses quatre pieds, il s'emploie à creuser un chemin secret, with its four feet, it sets to work to hollow out a secret passage. Flor. Des oncles du roi s'employaient de leur mieux à l'apaiser, the king's uncles took the greatest pains to pacify him. Bar. Je vais de ce jour m'— pour vous, from the present moment I will use my utmost influence in your favour. Le Sage. Vous assurèrent la duchesse qu'elle aurait justice et lui promirent de s'y —, all assured the duchess that justice should be rendered her, and promised to use every exertion to that end. Bar.

EMPLUMER, ang-plü-may, va. to feather, to quill. — un clavecin, to quill a harpsichord.

EMPOCHER, ang-po-shay, va. to pocket, to pouch. Il empoche tout ce qu'il gagne, he pockets all he gains. — des fruits, des gâteaux, to pocket fruit, cakes.

EMPOIGNER, ang-po-yang, va. 4 to grasp, to clutch, to lay hold of, to seize. Il l'empoigna par le bras, he grasped him by the arm. — quelqu'un par les cheveux, to seize a person by the hair. Cela est trop gros, on ne saurait l'—, that is too large, it cannot be grasped. fig. Cela vous empoigne, that strikes you all of a heap. 2 pop. (arrêter, saisir) to seize, to take up. La police arriva et on l'empoigna, the police arrived and he was taken up.

S'EMPOIGNER, vpr. 4 to be grasped, seized. 2 recip. pop. to seize each other, to have a tussle, a set-to.

EMPOIS, ang-pwá, sm. starch. Mettre de l'—, to starch. Passer du linge à l'eau d'—, to starch linen.

EMPOISONNE, ppa. of EMPOISONNER, fem. —, adjective. 1 poisoned, empoisoned. Mourir —, to die poisoned. Un mets —, a poisoned dish. Des fleches —es, poisoned arrows. 2 (by extension) poisonous. L'ombre —e de l'Ulys, the poisonous shade of the Ulys. Nod. fig. Bons —s, longages —es. 3 poisoned gifts, poisonous language of passion. C. Del.

EMPOISONNEMENT, ang-pwá-zon-mang, sm. poisoning. — par l'arsenic, poisoning by arsenic.

EMPOISONNER, ang-pwá-zo-nay, va. (from poison) 1 to poison. 2 (inflecter de poison) to poison, to infect. — des viandes, des fruits, to poison meat, fruit; one fountain, one source, an oasis, a fountain, a spring, a well; des armes, un poignard, des fleches, arms, a poniard, arrows; un étang, une rivière, a pond, a river; des terres, lands. 3 (des choses vénéneuses) to poison. Il y a des chambragnons qui empoisonnent, there are mushrooms which are poisonous. 4 (hyperb.) (faire manger quelque chose de très-mauvais) to poison. Un fat qui, pour m'—, tout exprès, chez lui, m'a forcé de dîner, a cozening who, on purpose to poison me, forced me to dine with him. Boil. 5 (by extension) (inflecter) to poison, to infect. Lorsqu'on eut commencé à remuer la terre, il en sortit une vapeur qui empoisonna tous les travailleurs, when they had begun to turn up the ground, a vapour arose which infected all the labourers. 6 fig. (remplir d'amertume) to poison, to embitter. Des plaisirs que la crainte empoisonne, pleasures poisoned by fear. Nul remords du passé n'empoisonne ma vie, no remorse for the past poisons my existence. Chat. 7 fig. (corrompre l'esprit, le cœur) to poison, to corrupt. Ses mauvais conseils empoisonnent mon âme, his per- nicious counsels poison my soul. C. Del. P. de ses conseils empoisonna ma mère, P. corrupted my mother with his counsel. Rac. Il lui empoisonna l'esprit par ses flatteries, he poisoned his mind with flattery. Comme la trop grande autorité empoisonne les rois, the luxury poisons a whole nation. Fen. 8 fig. (dénaturer) to poison, to envenom. Les médisants empoisonnent tout, slanders envenom every thing.

S'EMPOISONNER, vpr. to poison one's self. S'EMPOISONNEUR, ang-pwá-zo-nohr, sm. 1 empoisonner. 2 a poisoner. 3 fig. (mauvais cuisinier) poisoner, bad cook. Jamais — ne se met mieux son métier, never was such a poisoner of a cook. Boil. 3 fig. (celui qui répand une doctrine pernicieuse) poisoner, pest. 4 fig. (adjectif) poisonous. De ce fatal honneur vous ignorez le charme —, you are ignorant of the poisonous charm of that fatal honour. Rac.

EMPOISSER, ang-pwá-say, va. See POISSER.

EMPOISSONNEMENT, ang-pwá-son-mang, sm. (d'un étang, of a pond) stocking with fish.

EMPOISSONNER, ang-pwá-son-nay, va. to stock with fish (des fossés, an canal, ditches, a canal).

EMPORTER, ppa. of EXPORTER, fem. —, adjective. 1 carried off, transported. Les blessés furent —s du champ de bataille, the wounded were carried off from the field of battle. 2 borne away, off. Ils flottent —s par une houle légère, they float borne away by a gentle breeze. Nod. Ce voile — par les airs, the veil borne away through the air. La Font. T. eût voulu se sentir — sur un char impétueux, T. would have liked to feel herself borne away in an impetuous chariot. Saint. fig. Dans la nuit éternelle —s sans retour, transported to that country from whose bourne no traveller returns. Lamart. 3 fig. (pris d'assaut) carried. La place fut —e de vive force, the place was carried by storm. (by extension) La justice était la volonté du juge —e d'assaut par l'éloquence de l'orateur, justice was the will of the judge carried by storm by the eloquence of the orator. Villem. 4 fig. (deuil, anéanti) carried off. Il fut — par la peste, he was carried off by the plague. 5 fig. carried away, hurried away. — par l'amour, carried away by love. G. — par la fougue de son âge, C. carried away by the heat of his age. Saint. 6 fig. (foolgueux, violent) passionate, hasty, fiery. Un homme —, fort. —, a very hasty man. Mais un père à ce point doit-il être —? but ought a father to be passionate to such a degree? Rac. Un caractère violent et —, a violent and rash temper. (substantif) hasty, passionate person.

EMPORTEMENT, ang-por-tah-mang, sm. 1 (mouvement violent) transport, fit, burst, outbreak, passion. — de colère, burst of hatred, of anger. — d'amour, transport of love. Quand on a aimé avec —, when one has loved with passion. Fen. Un onanisme — vers la nouveauté, a unanimous aspiration towards novelty. Lamart. Je trouvais la reine dans un — de joie inconcevable, I found the queen in a transport of inconceivable joy. Retz. 2 absol. fit of anger. Être sujet à des —s, to be liable to fits of anger. Frédegonde avait des —s de bête sauvage. F. fell into transports worthy of a wild beast. Aug. Th. Le flegme de celui-ci est très-propre à redoubler les —s de l'autre, the phlegm of the latter is well calculated to redouble the outbursts of the first. J.-J. Rousse.

EMPORTER, ang-por-tay, va. conjug. like PORTER, 4 (enlever, ôter d'un lieu) to carry away, off, to take away. Je l'enrai — les meubles que j'ai chez vous, / I will have the furniture that I have in your house taken away. J'ai, je crois, emporté toutes mes affaires, / I think I have carried away all my things. Balz. — un malade, / to transport a patient. 2 (prendre, porter avec soi) / to carry away, to bear away, to convey, to convey away. Il m'emporta tout d'une traite jusqu'au fond de cette chambre, / he bore me at one stretch to the further end of this room. Ab. L'important à travers les flammes, / bearing her off through the flames. La Font. L'Eternel emporta mon âme au désert, / the Eternal conveyed my soul to the desert. Lamart. Le villageois le prend, l'emporte en sa demeure, / the countryman takes it and brings it into his dwelling. La Font. Au fond des forêts le loup l'emporte et le mange, / the wolf carries him off into the depth of the forest and eats him. La Font. Emportez votre part chacun dans votre silex, / let each of you take home his share. Flor. Elle n'emportait pas grand'chose, / what she took away was but a trifle. Moss. Moins heureux dans mon exil, je n'ai pas emporté les os de mes pères, / less happy in my exile, I did not bear away the bones of my fathers. Chate. Un Levantin en voyage emporte toujours trois choses, / a native of the Levant when travelling always takes with him three things. Th. Gaut. L'exil ou comme Homère il n'emportait que ses chaots, / the exile into which, like Homer, he only brought his poems. V. Hug. Il s'est sauté, on emportait les fonds qui lui avaient été confiés, / he has absconded, carrying off with him the money that had been intrusted to him. (by extension) La branche retourna à sa position emportant la dépouille de l'innocence, / the branch flew back to its place bearing off the spoils of innocence. Chate. pop. Vous ne l'emporterez pas au paradis, / you turn will come sooner or later. fig. To l'as vu — après lui le cœur de ses soldats, / you saw him carry away with him the hearts of his soldiers. Rac. J'emporte dans l'âme jusqu'aux moindres mots de nos propos du soir, / I bear impressed on my mind even the most trifling words of our evening talk. Moss. Je souhaite que vous n'emportiez pas de nos rochers un trop mauvais souvenir, / I wish you to keep no unpleasant recollections of our rocks. Ab. J'emporte vos discours dans mon cœur; il faut que je les médite, / I leave you with your words engraved in my heart; I must meditate upon them. J.-J. Rouss. 3 (entraîner, arracher, enlever) / to carry away, to bear away, to hurry away, to run away with. Son cheval prit le mors aux dents, et l'emporta à travers les champs, / absol. l'emporta, his horse ran away with him. Le vent et la course avaient emporté leur coiffure, / in running the wind had blown off their head-dress. Ab. Les courants emportèrent le vaisseau, / the currents bore away the vessel. C. coup de canon lui a emporté une jambe, / that stroke of a cannon-ball carried off his leg. La rivière a emporté le pont, / the river has carried away the bridge. Un coup de foudre qui emporte la pièce, / a lash that cuts into the flesh. (by extension) Les vents emportèrent ses cris, / his cries were lost in the winds. Chate. Chaque flot en passant emportait quelque degré de chaleur animale, / every wave going over me carried away some degree of animal heat. Ab. Il fit tant qu'une maille rongée emporta tout l'ouvrage, / he set to work with such good that with a mesh gnawed in two destroyed the whole work. La Font. fig. Une fauteuse erreur emporte alors mon âme, / my soul is then borne away by a flattering error. La Font. Le temps vole et n'emporte malgré moi, / time flies and bears me along in spite of myself. M^{me} de Sév. Le temps emporte sur son aile l'airain d'élite et le printemps, / time bears away on its wing the swallow and the spring. Moss. Ce discours de M. de Bouillon emporta tout le monde, / the discourse of M. de B. carried every body away with it. Ritz. Que le diable vous emporte, / deuce take you. fig. — la pièce, / to fetch away the skin and the flesh; to be very biting, cutting. prov. fig. Autant en emporte le vent, / many words will not fill a bushel; that is idle talk. 4 fig. (faire disparaître) / to destroy, to take away, to carry off. Son souffle emportera la douleur qui me tue, / his breath will take away the pain that kills me. C. Del. Le temps qui emporte tant de souvenirs, / time which sweeps away so many remembrances. B. de St-P. Deux ans avaient emporté plus d'hommes et plus de choses qu'une génération n'en emporte en temps ordinaire, / two years had carried off more men and more things than are carried off in a generation in ordinary times. Boss. Elle emporte dans sa course dévorante le trône, etc. / in her hurried flight it swept the throne, etc. Nod. C. remède emporte la fièvre, / this remedy carries away the fever. 5 fig. (particul.) (d'une maladie, d'illness) / to carry off. 6 fig. (des couleurs, des taches, of colours, stains) / to take out, to fetch out. 7 fig. (des passions, of passions) / to carry, to hurry, to transport. La colère l'a emporté trop loin, / anger carried him too far. Je ne serai trait moi-même, / the chieftain m'aura emporté, I have betrayed myself, in my warlike I have been hurried too far. Mol. Où m'emporte mon zèle, si loin de mon triste sujet? / whether does my zeal carry me, so far from my sad subject? Boss. L'orgueil les emporte, / they are carried away by pride. Boss. La douleur l'a emporté jusqu'à dire, jusqu'à faire, / he was so transported with grief as to say, to do. La jeunesse se laisse — aux plaisirs, / youth suffers itself to be hurried away by pleasures. 8 fig. (gagner, obtenir) / to get, to carry. C'est la plus jolie chose du monde que d'avoir emporté cette affaire, / it was the most admirable thing in the world to have carried the day in that affair. M^{me} de Sév. (by extension) Ce discours de B. emporta le décret, / this speech of B. carried the decree. Lamart. prov. fig. — quelque chose de haute lutte, / to carry a thing with a high hand. 9 mil. — une place, / to carry a place. Il emporta aussi d'assaut la ville de F., / he also carried by storm the town of F. Bar. — un ouvrage l'épée à la main, / to carry a work sword in hand; || fig. — quelque chose à la pointe de l'épée, / to succeed in a thing with the utmost difficulty. 10 L'— sur, (avoir la supériorité, le dessus, prévaloir) / to prevail, to get the better of, to have the ascendant over, to carry the day (against), to excel, to surpass, to outweigh. Le diamant l'emporta sur les autres pierres, / the diamond excels all the other precious stones. Le comte d'O. l'a emporté sur eux, / the count of O. has carried the day against them. Le Sage. Dieu des Juifs, / l'emportes, God of the Jews, thou hast vanquished. Rac. Cette fois l'histoire l'emporte sur la mythologie, / this time history surpasses mythology. Th. Gaut. Pour que le soin de sa sûreté comme roi, / that the care of his safety should outweigh his duties as a king. Lamart. L'espoir de doubler ses profits l'emporta sur la crainte de déplaire, / his hope of doubling his profits outweighed his fear of displeasing. Aug. Th. De peur que sur l'esprit l'argile ne l'emporte, / lest the clay should get the mastery of the spirit. Lamart. D'Esther, d'Amán, qui le doit — ? / which is to have the mastery? E. or A. Rac. Il faut que la vérité l'emporte toujours, / truth must always prevail. Boss.

11 L'— (peser davantage) / to outweigh. A volume égal l'or l'emporte de beaucoup sur l'argent, / a piece of gold by far outweighs a piece of silver of the same size. 12 fig. — la balance, / to outweigh, to prevail, to turn the scale. See balance. 13 (comprendre, impliquer) / to entail, to involve, to imply. Dans ce pays la condamnation à mort emporte la confiscation des biens, / that country, a condemnation to death entails the confiscation of property. Le mot de vertu emporte l'idée d'un effort fait sur soi-même, / the word virtue involves the idea of an effort over one's self. S'asseoir, dormir, fumer sur une tombe n'emporte ici aucune idée de sacrilège, / to sit down, to sleep, to smoke on a tomb by no means implies here the idea of sacrilege. Th. Gaut. 14 law. La forme emporte le fond, / the form prevails over the matter. Le fond emporte la forme, / the matter prevails over the form.

EMPOTE-PIÈCE, sm. 1 tech. punch, fly-press, puncher. 2 fig. bitter satirist.

S'EMPORTER, vpr. 1 (s'emporter) / to be carried away. Il a pris ton te qui pouvait s'— facilement, / he has taken all that could be carried off easily. 2 — à rub off. Il se frota les mains à s'— la peau, / he rubbed his hands hard enough to rub off the skin. Barz. 3 fig. (se facher violemment) / to fly out, to fly into a passion. Il s'emporte pour rien, / he takes fire for a trifle. S'— contre quelqu'un, / to inveigh, to declaim against a person. Ah! vous êtes dévot et vous vous emportez! ah! you are pious and you lose your temper! Mol. Pardon, mon doux maître, ne vous emportez pas, / pardon me, gentle master, do not fly out. Nod. Est-ce que nous ne pouvons pas raisonner ensemble sans nous — ? / can we not reason together without getting out of temper? Mol. 4 (in a wider sense) Le style de J. est vil, saint Cyrille s'emporte; / il est bizarre, J.'s style is fiery, St C.'s is violent, whimsical. Chate. 5 (d'un cheval, of a horse) Son cheval s'emporte, / his horse is running away. 6 fig. (être enlevé) / to be carried, taken. Une telle ville ne s'emporte pas par un coup de main, / such a town is not to be taken by a coup de main. Mich.

EMPOTAGE, ang-po-tazh, sm. gard. potting.

EMPOTER, ang-po-tay, va. gard. to pot, to put in pots.

EMPOURPRÉ, ppa. of EMPOURPRER, fem. —E, adjective. purpled, purple. Des raisins —s, / des deers —s, purple grapes, flowers.

EMPOURPRER, ang-poor-pray, va. poetic. to purple. Des que l'anne empoirprait les bords de l'horizon, / as soon as dawn purpled the edge of the horizon. La Font.

EMPREINDRE, ang-prangdr', ca. conj. like imprimere, (Lat. imprimere) to imprint, to impress, to stamp. — une figure, une marque, / to imprint a figure, a mark. — des caractères, / to stamp characters.

S'EMPREINDRE, vpr. 1 to leave a print, a trace. Leurs pas s'étaient empreints sur le sable, / they had left the prints of their footsteps on the sand. 2 to be impressed, stamped.

EMPREINT, ang-prang, ppa. of EMPREINDRE, fem. —E, stamped, impressed, imprinted. Le rocher où l'on voit encore — le pied d'un ange, / the rock on which is still seen the print of an angel's foot. Nod. C. dont le monogramme est — sur les grandes briques romaines, / C. whose monogram is engraved on the large Roman bricks. Th. Gaut. fig. Reconnais la place où fut — l'affront que ton courage efface, / see the place on which was stamped the affront that thy courage effaces. Cora. L'anguste majesté sur votre front —, / the august majesty stamped on your brow. Rac. Je ne sais quoi de triste — dans tous ses traits, / an undefinable air of sadness marked on all her features. Del. Le secoo d'une destinée irrésistible n'est, dans aucune histoire, plus fortement — que dans celle des Mérovingiens, the seal of irresistible destiny is, in no history, more strongly marked than in that of the Mérovingian kings. Aug. Th. Les lettres de S., tout —es de la tristesse de son temps, the letters of S. which bear so strongly the mark of the sadness of his time. Bar. Cet acent s'était — à la longue d'une certaine couleur de prononciation saxonne, that accent had caught after a time a slight tinge of Saxon pronunciation. Aug. Th. L'œuvre est — d'une force de volonté singulière, the work bears the stamp of singular strength of will. Mich. Ces paroles —es d'une imperturbable conviction, those words stamped with unshaken conviction. Aug. Th. Le procès de H. tout — des passions violentes du temps, the trial of H. bearing every mark of the violent passions of the time. Villen. L'idée de celui qui nous a créés est — profondément an dedans de nous, the idea of Him who created us is profoundly stamped within us. Boss.

EMPREINTE, ang-prænt, sf. impress, impression, mark, stamp, print, foot-print. L'— d'un cachet, d'un sceau, the impression of a seal. — en relief, impression in relief. L'— de leurs pas sur la neige, the footprints they had left in the snow. La bale avait laissé son — sur la cuirasse, the bullet had left its mark on the cuirass. fig. On retrouve l'— de ces émotions dans les écrits, traces of these emotions are to be found in the writings. Aug. Th. L'— du doigt de Dieu se reconnaît dans, etc., the hand of God is visible in, etc.

EMPRESSE, ppa. of EMPRESSER, fem. — e, adj. (qui agit avec ardeur, plein de prévenance) eager, ardent, forward, assiduous, attentive, bustling. C'est un homme fort —, he is a very bustling man. Je les ai vus soumis, autour d'elle —s, I have seen them in her presence submissive, eager to please. Volt. On les vit —s à se ranger sous sa domination, they were seen eager to place themselves under his dominion. 2 (by analogy) Avoir l'air —, to act the busy-body. Une ardeur — e, eagerness. Des vœux, des desirs —s, ardent wishes, desires. Des soins —s, particular attentions. 3 (substantif). Il fait l'— après de cette femme, he shows many attentions to that woman. Elle va, vient, fait l'— e, it goes, and comes, and bustles about. La Font. Il le due d'Orléans faisait l'— en parlant à la reine, the duke of O. affected great interest when speaking to the queen. Hitz.

EMPRESSEMENT, ang-prays-màng, sm. eagerness, forwardness, alacrity, assiduity. Marquer de l'— to show eagerness. Accueillir quelqu'un avec —, to receive a person cordially. Je ne mérite plus ces doux —s, I no longer deserve those pleasing attentions. Rac. Le trop grand — que l'on a de s'acquitter d'une obligation est une espèce d'ingratitude, too great eagerness in paying off an obligation is a kind of ingratitude. La Rochef. La vertu n'a ni avidité ni —, virtue is neither greedy nor eager. Fen. Témoigner beaucoup d'— auprès d'une personne, to show assiduous attention to a person.

S'EMPRESSER, ang-pray-say, vp. 4 (se porter avec ardeur à quelque chose, agir avec ardeur) to be eager, bustling, ardent, forward. C'est un homme qui s'empresse fort, he is a very bustling man. Il n'aime pas à s'— mal à propos, he does not like to make a bustle when there is no occasion. 2 to flock, to crowd. La cour autour de vous on s'écarte on s'empresse, the court stands aside, or flocks around you. Rac. 3 (sometimes) (se hâter) to hasten, to be in haste. S'— de parler, de prendre la parole, to hasten to speak. Vos mains généreuses s'empresseront d'effacer les larmes que le ciel me condamne à verser, your generous hands will hasten to wipe away the tears that Heaven condemns me to shed. Vol. Je m'empressai de l'avertir, I hastened to warn him.

EMPRISONNÉ, ppa. of EMPRISONNER, fem. — e, imprisoned. (by extension) Nous éprouvons une joie secrète d'être ainsi —s par le gros temps dans la maison, we felt a secret joy in being thus shut up in the house by the bad weather. Lamart. Le fleuve, — dans des rocs tortueux, lutte, s'échappe, the river, imprisoned between tortuous rocks, struggles, escapes. A. Chén. fig. Son être intellectuel — dans une enveloppe matérielle usée, his intellectual being imprisoned in a material envelope that is worn out. Chén. fig. Cette joie molle et folâtre dont mes sens avient d'abord été —s, this wanton pleasure by which my senses had at first been taken prisoner. Fen.

EMPRISONNEMENT, ang-pre-zoo-màng, sm. imprisonment.

EMPRISONNER, ang-pre-zoo-nay, va. 4 to imprison. Faire — quelqu'un, to imprison a person, to send to prison. 2 (by extension) (retenir comme dans une prison) to imprison, to confine. Les eaux débordées nous emprisonneront dans un étroit espace, the overflowing waters confined us within a narrow space.

EMPRUNT, ang-pruhng, sm. borrowing, loan. Faire un —, to borrow. Il ne vit que d'—, he only lives upon trust. Un cheval d'—, a borrowed horse. fig. Erudition d'—, superficial erudition. Cette beauté si réelle qui se croit si peu besoin d'—, that beauty so real that it stood in no need of artifice. St-B. Cet auteur a soin de cacher les —s qu'il se permet, that author takes care to conceal his borrowed plumes. Vertus d'—, affected virtues, outward show of virtue.

EMPRUNTE, ppa. of EMPRUNTER, fem. — e, adj. 1 borrowed. Argent —, money borrowed. 2 fig. (façette) borrowed, artificial. Beauté — e, artificial beauty. Ce livre a paru sous un nom —, this book was published under a feigned name. 3 (by extension) awkward. Avoir un air —, des manières —es, to have an awkward air, awkward manners. Il a l'air assez —, his carriage is rather stiff.

EMPRUNTER, ang-pruhng-tay, va. 1 to borrow (de l'argent, money). — sur gages, sur hypothèques, to borrow on pawns, on mortgage. — de quelqu'un, — à quelqu'un, to borrow of a person, absol. Je n'aime pas à —, I do not like borrowing. Elle emprunta sur ses biens, she borrowed on her property. (by extension) Il emprunta à la pailasse de son lit de quoi fabriquer de légères nattes, he borrowed from the straw-mattress of his bed wherewith to make light mats. Saint. fig. Il n'est pas besoin d'— le masque d'une vertu severe, it is not necessary to borrow the mask of austere virtue. Boss. 2 fig. (recevoir, tirer de, devoir à) to borrow, to derive, to receive. Ce raisonnement empruntait de la circonstance présente une nouvelle force, this reasoning borrowed from the present circumstance a new force. La lune emprunte sa lumière du soleil, the moon borrows her light from the sun. Une fenêtre grillée empruntait sa lumière d'une cour étroite, a grided window borrowed light from a narrow yard. Lamart. 3 fig. (tirer parti de ce qui est à un autre) to borrow. — une pensée à un auteur, to borrow a thought from an author. Cette langue n'a presque rien emprunté aux autres, that language has borrowed scarcely anything from the others. — le nom, le bras la plume, le credit, le secours de quelqu'un, to borrow the name, the arm, the pen, the interest, the help of a person.

EMPRUNTEUR, ang-pruhng-tuhr, sm. fem. EMPRUNTEUSE, 1 borrower. Cette emprunteuse, this female borrower. La Font. Le prêteur et l'—, the lender and the borrower. 2 (celui qui a l'habitude d'emprunter) borrower.

EMPUANT, ang-pù-ang-tee, ppa. of EMPUIANT, fem. — e, Une odeur de brûlé dont j'étais tout —, a smell of burning with which I was infected. Ab.

EMPUANTIR, ang-pù-ang-teer, va. (infecter) to infect.

S'EMPUANTIR, vp. to begin to stink, to smell offensively.

EMPUANTISSEMENT, ang-pù-ang-tis-màng, sm. stink.

EMPREYÉ, ang-pre-ray, sm. (Gr.) 1 Empréteur. Les dieux de l'—, the Gods of the Empréteur. 2 (adjectif.) Le ciel —, the empréteur heaven.

EMPREUMATIQUE, ang-pre-rob-malik, adj. mf. chem. empyreumatic, empyreumatic.

EMPREYÈME, ang-pre-rubm, sm. (Gr.) chem. empyreum, empyreuma.

EMU, ay-mù, ppa. of ÉMOUVON, fem

— e, 1 Dans les airs mille cloches —es, a thousand bells resounding through the air. Boil. L'homme est plus — par les impressions du toucher, man is more sensible to the impressions of feeling. Buff. 2 fig. moved. J'en étais — aux larmes, I was moved to tears. Beaum. D'un juste courroux je suis — contre elle! my wrath is justly kindled against her! Mol.

ÉMULATEUR, ay-mù-lab-tr, sm. (little used) emulator.

ÉMULATION, ay-mù-lab-syong, sf. (Lat.) emulation. Ils émulent mieux par —, emulation will excite them to study more. Témoin de cette — de rapines, witnessing this emulation of pilfering. St-B. Il y avait entre Paris et Lyon — de sang, there was between Paris and Lyons an emulation of bloodshed. Lamart.

ÉMULE, ay-mùl, sm. 1 (concurrent) emulator, rival, competitor. 2 (qui est d'un mérite égal à un autre) rival. 3 sf. rival. Carthage était la digne — de Rome, Carthage was the worthy rival of R.

ÉMULGENT, ay-mùl-zhàng, adj. mf. fem. — e, (Lat. emulgent) anal. emulgent.

ÉMULSIF, ay-mùl-sif, adj. mf. fem.

ÉMULSIVE, 1 pharm. emulsive. 2 sm. Les —s, emulsives.

ÉMULSION, ay-mùl-syong, sf. pharm. emulsion.

ÉVULSIONNER, ay-mùl-syò-nay, ram. pharm. to mix an emulsion with.

EN, ang. prep. (Lat. in) 1 (margue le rapport d'une chose avec le dedans, l'intérieur le milieu d'une autre, noting connection between one thing and the inside, the interior, the middle of another) in, into, to. Monter — voiture, to step into a carriage. Mettre quelqu'un — prison, to put a person into prison. Loger — chambre garnie, to lodge in furnished rooms. Être — Afrique, to be in Africa. J'étais — un lieu sûr, I was in a safe place. La Font. Au bois, — plaine également savant, whether in the woods or in the plain equally at home. Flor. Ils allèrent jusqu'à dans les fermes s'emparer des bœufs, the grange, they went even into the farms to seize the corn in the barns. Bar. Il n'eut que le temps de se réfugier — une boutique, he had but the time to take shelter in a shop. Bar. Passe pour me venger, — de meilleures mains, I leave thee to avenge me, in better hands. Corn. — ce monde, it se fait l'un l'autre secourir, in this world we must help each other. La Font. N'oublie — un festin, N. forgets the hours at a feast. Muss. Je retourne — Julia mourir où je suis née, I return to Julia, to die where I was born. Flor. Le vent me chasse à son plaisir de courée — courée, I am driven at the will of the winds from country to country. La Font. Aller de ville — en ville, to go from town to town. — avant, above. — bas, below. — avant, forward. — arrière, backward. — dehors, out, without. Diner — ville, to dine out. Se mettre — chemin, to set out. Mettre — place, to set to rights. Être bien — selle, to sit well in one's saddle.

fig. Voir — songe, to see in a dream. — son histoire P. le dit, P. says so in his story. La Font. Avoir mariel — tête, to be sorry tormented. Ce mot ne s'emploie guère qu'en poésie, this word is rarely employed except in poetry. Ces paroles ont été de tout temps — la bouche de tous, these words have been time out of mind in every body's mouth. La Font. Exceller — quelque chose, to excel in a thing. Changeons les coutumes de nos aïeux — ce qu'elles ont de fautive, let us change all that is corrupt in the habits of our predecessors. Montesq. prov. Tomber de terre — chao mal, to fall from the frying-pan into the fire. Aller de mieux — mieux, to go better and better. Que faire — uo tel danger? what is to be done in such a danger? — cas que cela arrive, should that happen, in case that should happen. Je n'ai de confiance qu'à moi, I trust only to myself. Il avait mis — elle tout son espoir, all his hopes were placed in her. Chacon mettait sa gloire — sa seule innocence, each gloried in his own innocence. Boif. — moi la haine est au effet d'amour, my hatred proves my love. Rac. 2 (dans un sens plus général, in a more general sense) of, to. Avoir le casque — tête, to be armed. Marcher — tête, to march at the head. Prendre — fleur, to outflank. Voltiger de fleur — fleur, to flutter from flower to flower. De point — point, punctually, in all its details. fig. Avoir quelqu'un — tête, to have some one at the head.

3 (marque l'état, la manière d'être, la disposition, noting condition, state of being) in. Une femme — coëche, a woman in child-bed. Il a tant couru qu'il est tout — éa, he has run so fast that he is dripping wet with perspiration. Du blé — herbe, corn in the blade. Les blés alors qu'ils sont — herbe, when the corn is in the blade. La Font. Mettre des vers — musique, to put verses into music. Une alicé — pente, qui va — pente, a sloping walk. Tout le pays était — armée, the whole country was up in arms. Être — chance, — bonheur, to be in luck. Ce mot n'est plus — usage, that word is no longer in use. Dans ce moment béni où tous vivent — confiance, at that blessed time when all live in security. Mich. Un homme — force, a man in a rage. Chacun était — belle humeur, every one was in a merry mood. La Font. Se tenir — haleine, — exercise, to keep one's self in breathing, in practice. Aller, tomber — décadence, to decay, to sink to decay. La cour est — désordre, tout le peuple — alarme, the court is in an uproar, and the people in alarm. C. Del. Être — avance, to be beforehand. Être — reste, to be behindhand, to be in arrears. 4 (marque l'occupation, etc., noting occupation, etc.) at. Être — affaire, — oraison — prière, to be busy, to be at prayers. C'est un homme tout — Dieu, he is a man wholly devoted to God. Je le trouve souvent — prières, I often surprise him at prayers. Saint. La Grèce était — jeux pour le fils de S., Greece was celebrating games in honour of the son of S. La Font. 5 (marque le résultat d'un changement de nature, noting a change of state) into. Il fut métamorphosé — fleur, he was metamorphosed into a flower. Tous deux voient leur cabane se changer — un temple, they both see their cottage metamorphosed into a temple. La Font. Se résoudre — pluie, to resolve into ruin. S'en aller — fumée, — vapeur, to turn into smoke, into vapour; fig. into nothing. Son amour se convertit — haine, his love has been converted into hatred. (hyperb.) Foudre — larmes, to melt, to dissolve in tears. 6 (marque la forme, noting shape, form) in the form of, like. Des arbres taillés — buisson, trees cut in the form of a bush. Une fenêtre — ogive, an ogive. S'élever — pyramide, — forme de pyramide, to rise in the form of a pyramid. Se terminer — pointe, to terminate in a point. On danse — rond sur le devant de la scène, they dance in a circle on the front of the stage. C. Del. Les rochers croisés — lit de torrent, the rocks hollowed into the bed of a torrent. Lamart. 7 (marque le genre de culture, noting the species of culture, in. Cet arpent est — vigne, that acre is covered with vines. Ce terrain a été mis — potager, est — potager, that ground has been made a kitchen-garden of. 8 (marque le mode de division, noting the mode of division) into. Partager une armée — deux corps, to divide an army into two corps. Diviser — deux, — trois, — quatre parties, diviser — deux, — trois, etc., to divide into two, three, four parts, to divide into two, three. Un vaudeville — deux actes, a vaudeville in two acts. Un poème — quatre chants, a poem in four cantos. 9 (marque l'espèce de vêtement, noting the kind of garment) in, with. Être — veste, — chemise, — waistcoat, — habit de chasse, to be in one's jacket, shirt, cloak, in a shooting-jacket. Être — bottes, to be in boots, booted. Elle était — blanche, she was in white. Être — deuil, to be in mourning. Les ones — japon cor, — longues tresses, some with short petticoats and long tresses. Saint. Le jeune E. le servait, comme moi — long habit de fin, young E. attended him, robed like me in a white garment. Rac. Les deux hommes — écharpe, the two men with the scarfs. Saint. 10 (marque le costume, noting the costume) as. Une femme habillée — homme, a woman dressed in man's clothes. Se costumer — Turc, to dress as a Turk.

11 (marquant la nature d'une chose, d'une qualité, d'une action, noting the nature of a thing, of a quality, of an action) in. La récolte — vin sera très-abondante, the vintage will be very abundant. Une terre fertile — blé, a corn-bearing country. Sa fortune consiste — rentes sur l'Etat, his fortune consists of government annuities. Il a dix mille francs — tout, he has ten thousand francs in all. Elle les surpasse — attrait, she surpasses them in charms. Il n'a rien perdu — vivacité, he has lost nothing of his vivacity. — quoi vos a-t-il fait tort? in what has he wronged you? Ressembler à quelqu'un — beau, to be a handsome likeness of a person. Parler de quelqu'un — mal, to speak ill of a person. Les habitants de cette ville sont — général très-affables, the inhabitants of this town are, in general, very affable. — fait et — fait, de facto and de jure; in fact and in law. Docteur — médecine, doctor of medicine. Peintre — miniature, miniature-painter.

12 (marque la conformité, noting conformity, in, according. — bonne politique, in good policy. — bonne justice, in strict justice. — bonne philosophie, according to good philosophy. L'attaque — ténacité un bras toujours vainqueur, I brave resolutely an arm ever victorious. Con. scrip. Je vous le dis — vérité, verily, I say unto you. On voit — effet que, in fact one sees that. law. — tant que, as far as, as much as. — tant que je puis, as far as lies in my power. — tant que besoin sera, as far as need will require. — tant que, as. — tant qu'homme, il le plaigait, mais — tant que juge, il dut le condamner, as a man he pined him, as a judge he was obliged to condemn him. — qualité de, as. Il a agi — qualité de tuteur, he has acted as guardian. — sa qualité de mari, it pent, as a husband, he can. Il voulait servir — qualité de volontaire, he wished to serve as a volunteer. — son nom, in one's name. Agir tant — son nom qu'un nom d'un autre, to act in one's own name as well as in that of another.

13 (marque la manière dont se fait une action, noting the manner of an action) in. — trois sauts je fus chez lui, in three bounds I was at his house. Le sacristain achève — deux coqs de rabot, the clerk finishes the job with two shaves of his plane. Boil. S'épuiser — efforts inutiles, to exhaust one's self in useless efforts. Voyager — poste, to travel post. Voir quelqu'un — secret, to see a person privately. Se promener — long et — large, to walk up and down. Venir chez quelqu'un — droiture, to go straight to a person's house. 14 (by analogy) à la manière, à la façon de) as, like. Vivre — homme de bien, to live as a virtuous man. Agir — roi, to act like a king. Parler — maître, to assume the tone of a master. Comment voulez-vous que je vous traite? — roi, how shall I treat you? like a king. Rac. Commander — chef, to be the commander in chief. Général — chef, general in chief. 15 (marque le langage, le genre d'écriture qu'on emploie, noting the language, the sort of writing) in, into. Écrire un ouvrage — grec, to write a work in Greek. Traduire — prose, to translate into prose. Une comédie — vers, a comedy in verse. Écrire — rond, — balorde, — grosses lettres, to write in round hand, in a sloping hand, in big letters. L'animal se plaint — son langage, the creature complains after his fashion. La Font. Laisse-moi, dit-il, — son langage, leave me, says he, in his own language. La Font. Une inscription — caractère: bebreux, an inscription in Hebrew characters.

16 (marque la destination, noting destination) in, as. Mettre — vente, to put up for sale. Mettre — gage, to pawn. Donner — otage, to give as a hostage. Arbrer un drapeau noir — signe de deuil, to set up a black flag as an emblem of mourning. (by analogy) Poser — fait, to assume as a fact. Établir — principe, to lay down as a principle. Mettre — question, to call in question, to question, to make a question of.

17 (marque le motif qui fait agir, la fin qu'on se propose, noting the end, the motive) through, out of, in. Il l'a fait — haine d'un tel, he did it through hatred of So-and-so. — considération de ses services, in consideration of his services. — reconnaissance de vos bienfaits, in gratitude for your benefits. — mémoire de moi, in remembrance of me. — exécution de tel arrêt, in execution of such a decree. — foi de quoi je lui ai délivré le présent certificat, in witness and testimony whereof, I have delivered to him the present certificate.

18 (durant, pendant, in, at. — été, in summer. — tout temps, at all times. — temps de paix, in time of peace. Une hironnelle — ses voyages avait beaucoup appris, a swallow in her travels had learnt a great many things. La Font. — votre absence, in your absence. — temps de guerre, in time of war. — plein jour, in broad day-light. — 1864, in 1864. — l'an 200 de la fondation de Rome, in the year 200 from the foundation of Rome. Je jure de ne jamais partir — toute ma vie de ce qui s'est passé ici, I swear never to mention what has taken place here. Nod. Souvent — des jours plus heureux ils l'avaient chanté ensemble, often in happier days they had sung it together. Saut. C'est au ciel, qui — nos jours de colère a fait la liberté, it was to Heaven that liberty led in our days of ire. V. Hug. 19 (marque le temps qu'on emploie à faire quelque chose, noting the time required to do a thing in) in. Il arrivera — trois jours, he will arrive in three days. 20 (avec ou participe présent, marque le temps, l'époque, la manière, before a pp., noting time, epoch, manner) in. On apprend — vieillissant, one learns in growing old; one must live and learn. Il déclara — mourant que, he declared while dying that. Un ruisseau qui va — serpentant, a winding stream. Parler — tremblant, to speak in trembling. — m'écoutant ne que you have already named E. Villem. Je remarquai — me battant que mes ennemis étaient masqués, I remarked whilst we were fighting that my enemies were masked. Le Sage. L. Reprit-il, — rapprochant sa monture de la mienne, L., resumed he, as he brought his horse near mine. Nod. — naissant elle était condamnée à mourir, by the fact of her birth she was doomed to die. B. de St-P. Vous qui dupiez la mort — affrontant ses coups, you who vanquish death by braving its blows. V. Hug. Il se tenait sur la défensive — triquant, he kept on his guard whilst hobnobbing. G. Sand. Madame, — l'embrassant songez à le sauver, Madam, when embracing your son remember how you may save him. Rac. On le fatiguait — l'aimant, he was weary of being loved. Chat. Il faut rassurer G. — signant ce traité, we must quiet G.'s mind by signing this treaty. C. Del.

21 (for the prep. en in the locations, avoir en horreur, prendre en bonne et en mauvaise part, etc., See the nouns) 22 (When the prep. governs a noun it is scarcely ever followed by the art. in the pl. LES, or by the art. LE or LA in the sing., unless the noun begins by a vowel or an h mute) (by exception) la présence de Dieu, in the presence of God. Ce procès a été jugé la chambre du conseil, that lawsuit was judged in the Council-Chamber. Président — la Chambre des comptes, President of the Audit-Office.

23 (in composition en is changed into em before p, v and m; ex: EMBARQUER, EXPORTER, EMBAILLER.)

en, pron. third person. A (de lui, d'elle, d'eux, d'elles, de cela) of him, of her, of them, of it, by him, her, it, them, with him, her, it, them, from him, her, it, them. On accorde souvent sa confiance à des gens qui — sont indignes, one often put one's trust in persons who are unworthy of it. C'est un véritable ami, Je n'oublierai jamais les services que j' — ai reçus, he is a true friend, I shall never forget the services I have received from him. C'est un événement bien triste, j' — suis très-affligé, it is a very sad event, I am much grieved at it. C. élevé plus de monuments que d'autres — ont détruit, he has raised more monuments than others have destroyed. J'eus le bonheur d' — être favorablement reçu, I was fortunate enough to be favourably received by him. Le Sage. Plus ambitieux que B., il n' — avait pas le calme impassible, though more ambitious than B., he had not his coolness. Lamart. Que le ciel l' — preserve! Heaven preserve him! C. Del. Je ne veux pas l' — priver, c'est sa fille, she is her daughter, I don't want to deprive her of her. Balz. C. s'attache à elle par les soins qu'il — prend, G. becomes fonder of her from the care he takes of it. Saint-O. On craint que les oiseaux ne comprennent, à la facilité avec laquelle ils s' — laissent prendre, one would think birds knew him, they suffer him to take them with such facility. Nod. Les torrents grossissant les ruisseaux — ont fait des rivières, the torrents swelling the rivulets have turned them into rivers. Boil. 2 (sert aussi à rappeler une phrase, une proposition déjà annoncée, referring to what has been already expressed) of, from it, — thence. Vient-il de la ville? oui, il — vient, does he come from the town? yes, he comes from thence. On ne doit jamais se repentir d'avoir bien fait, aussi ne s' — repent-il pas, one should never regret having done well, nor does he. Des secrets, vous savez que je n' — ai pas pour vous. Beum. Ses paroles, s'il — trouve, sont entrecoupées de sanglots, his words, when he finds any, are mingled with sobs. Saint. Son récit m'enchantait, quoique je n' — comprenne pas toute la sagesse, I am enraptured with his narration, though I do not comprehend all its wisdom. Chat. Je ne te perdais que pour deux ou trois jours, et — voilà quinze que je ne t'ai vu, I used to lose sight of you but for two or three days, now it is a fortnight since I saw you last. Montesq. On — murmure beaucoup parmi les princes, it causes great murmurs among the princes. Bar. La noblesse elle-même — avait fait assez bon marché, even the nobility had slighted it. Le Sage. Je désespérai d' — venir à bout, I despaired of succeeding. Le Sage. Les rieurs de M. — eurent pour longtemps à s'égayer, it was long a theme of laughter for the wags of M. Le Sage. Rieut moins a' — a diminué l'impression, nothing came at least to diminish the effect. Nod. Le récit n' — est pas long, the relation will not be a long one. Nod. 3 (se rapporte aussi à une phrase qui va suivre, referring to what follows) N' — doutez pas, si céderez si vous montrez de la fermeté, do not doubt it, they will yield if you show firmness. C'est là, soyez — certain, la cause de son chagrin, that, you may be sure, is the cause of his grief.

4 (suivi d'un adjectif, followed by an adj.) A-t-il des protecteurs? Il — a de très-puissants, has he protectors? he has very powerful ones. A-t-il des amis? Il n' — a qu'un seul, has he any friends? he has but one. Ce temple est mon pays, je m'en connais point d'autre, this temple is my country I know no other. Rac.

5 (used for son, sa, ses) ite. Si la mollesse est douce, la suite — est cruelle, self-indulgence may be sweet, but its consequences are cruel.

6 (marque seulement quelque chose de sous-entendu, referring to something understood) — est-il un seul parmi vous qui consente? is there one among you that would consent? Il — veut depuis longtemps à un tel, he has borne since long ago a malice a long time. (in another acceptance) A qui — voulez-vous? whom do you want? whom are you aiming at? Comment vous — va? how are you? how d'ye do? Son marché n' — est pas meilleur, his bargain is none the better for it. Il s' — est peu fallu, it was very near. Je n' — reviens pas, I cannot recover from my astonishment. S' — prendre à quelqu'un, to lay the blame on a person. Il — arriva que, monte au faite de sa puissance, it so happened that once at the pinnacle of power. Bar. Quoi qu'il — soit, however it may be; be it as it may — est-il un plus pauvre sur la machine ronde? is there a poorer one to be met with in the wide world? La Font.

7 (par redondance, redundantly) Il — est de cela comme de la plupart des choses du monde, it is with that as with most of the concerns of this world, — venir aux mains — aux coups, aux injures, to come to blows, to abuses. Ce n'est pas un sot, et croyez-m' — que le chien de J. J.'s dog was no fool, I can tell you. La Font. Je m' — tiens à cela, I content myself with that. (by analogy) — imposez, n' — pouvoir plus, etc., See these words. 8 (with a verb of motion and after the pers. pron.) Je m' — vais partir, I am going to set out. Le chemin qui mène chez M. D. et qui — ramène, the road that leads to M. D.

and back. Nod. Vous — allez-vous à tel endroit? are you going to such a place? Il s' — retourna dans son pays, he returned back to his own country. S' — aller à la promenade, to go out for a walk. 9 (with a verb without a regimen) away. Adieu, je m' — vais, adieu, I am going away. Si vous avez affaire, je m' — irai, if you are busy, I will leave you. Veux-tu l' — venir? will you come here? Allons-nous- —, let us go away. Volez-vous vous — retourner? will you go back?

ENAMOURÉ, ppa. of ENAMOURER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 enamoured. 2 (substantif.) Quelque pauvre — e, some poor smitten creature.

ENAMOURER, ay-nah-moo-ray, va. (It.) obsol. to make in love.

S'ENAMOURER, vpr. obsol. to fall in love (with).

ENARRER, ay-nar-ay, va. (little used) to narrate.

ENCABLURE, ang-kab-lir, sf. naut. cable's length.

ENCADRE, ppa. of ENCADRER, fem. — E, framed.

ENCADREMENT, ang-kah-droh-mang, sm. framing, frame. (by extension) De quelque côté que le regard se porte, il tombe sur l' — montagneux des haies, on whichever side the eye is turned, it meets with the mountains encircling the gulfs. Lamart.

ENCADRER, ang-kah-dray, va. 1 to frame. Faire un estampé, un tableau, to have a print, a picture, framed. fig. La campagne tranquille où j'aime à — mes rêveries, the quiet country which I delight to choose as the scene of my stories. G. Sand. 2 (by extension) (entourer) to encircle, to surround. Un bandeau de cheveux noirs encadrait cette blanche figure, black hair lying flat encircled that pale face. Lamart. 3 fig. (insérer) to insert, to introduce. Il a fort habilement encadré l'éloge du prince dans son discours, he skilfully introduced a panegyric of that prince into his discourse.

S'ENCADRER, vpr. fig. to stand out, to introduce one's self.

ENCAGER, ang-kah-ay, va. 1 to engage, to cage (des oiseaux, birds). 2 fig. (mettre en prison) to cage.

ENCALAÏE, ppa. of ENCAISSER, fem. — E, adjective. 1 (d'une rivière, of a river) having steep banks. 2 fig. Un poêle — dans une grande niche, a stove placed in an enormous recess. Balz. Ses yeux profondément — sous ses paupières, her sunken eyes. Lamart. 3 com. fin. Somma — e, money in cash box. 4 Marchandises — es, goods packed up.

ENCAISSEMENT, ang-kays-mang, sm. 1 packing in a case, packing (des marchandises, goods). 2 engineer. Faire un chemin par —, to trench and gravel a road. 3 hort. Faire un jardin par —, to plant trees in holes filled with mould. 4 com. fin. collection, receipt. Faire l' — d'un billet, to receive a bill.

ENCAISSER, ang-kay-ess, va. 1 to pack, to pack in a box, case, — des marchandises, to pack goods. 2 hort. — des grenadiers, des oranges, to tub pomegranate-trees, orange-trees. 3 com. fin. to receive, to collect (de l'argent, des fonds, money, funds; un billet, a bill).

ENCAN, ang-kang, sm. auction, sale by auction. Vendre à l' —, to sell by auction. Mettre à l' —, to put up to auction. Acheter quelque chose à un —, to buy something at an auction. (by extension) L'empire, mis à l' — par l'armée, trouva un acheteur, the empire, put up to auction by the army, found a buyer. Boss.

ENCANAILLER, ang-kah-ab-yay, va. (little used) to degrade, to lower.

S'ENCANAILLER, vpr. to keep low com nique, poésie enchanteresse, enchanting music, poetry.

ENCHAPERONNER, ang-shap-ro-nay, va. to hood (un oiseau de proie, a bird of prey).

ENCHASSÉ, ppa. of ENCHASSER, fem. —s, set. (by analogy) Les dents sont —s dans les os de la mâchoire, the teeth are set in the jaw-bones. fig. Une pensée mal —e, a thought improperly introduced.

ENCHASSER, ang-shà-say, ra. 1. to set, to enshrine, to encase. — des reliques dans de l'or, to enshrine relics in gold. — on diamant, un rubis dans une bague, to set a diamond, a ruby in a ring. — des perles, du corail dans de l'or, to set pearls, coral in gold. — un tableau dans une bordure, to put a border to a picture. 2 fig. (insérer) to insert, to introduce. — un passage, une citation dans un discours, to insert a passage, a citation in a speech.

ENCHASSURE, ang-shà-sûr, sf. setting, insertion.

ENCHAUSSER, ang-sho-say, va. gard. to earth up (de la chicorée, du céleri, chicory, celery).

ENCHÈRE, ang-shayr, sf. 1 bidding, bid. Vendre aux —s, à l'—, to sell by auction. Mettre aux —s, à l'—, to put up to auction, to bring to the hammer. fig. Mettre quelque chose aux —s, à l'—, to offer a thing to the highest bidder. Il est à l'—, sa conscience est à l'—, ses talents sont à l'—, he belongs to the highest bidder, his conscience, his talents belong to the highest bidder. 2 law. Folle —, resale at any price, the first buyer not being able to execute the conditions of the sale. prov. fig. Payer la folle — de quelque chose, en payer la folle —, to pay the penalty of one's rashness.

ENCHÉRIR, ang-shay-reer, va. 1 (mettre enchère sur quelque chose) to bid for, to outbid. — une terre, to bid for an estate. — une maison sur quelqu'un, au-dessus de quelqu'un, par-dessus quelqu'un, to outbid a person for a house. absol. Il avait fait venir des gens pour —, he got people to outbid at his auction. — sur quelqu'un, to make a higher bid than a person, to outbid a person. 2 fig. (ajouter à ce qu'un autre a fait) to go beyond, to improve (on), to surpass. Ce mot enchérir sur tel autre, this word is stronger than that one. 3 fig. (rendre une marchandise plus chère) to raise the price of.

ENCHÉRIR, vn. (devenir plus cher) to rise, to grow, to get, to become dearer.

ENCHÉRISSEMENT, ang-shay-ris-mang, sm. rise, increase of price (des bles, of corn; du pain, des vivres, of bread, of provisions).

ENCHÉRISSEUR, ang-shay-re-suhr, sm. bidder. Vendre quelque chose au plus offrant et au dernier —, to sell a thing to the highest and last bidder. fig. Les Grecs, grands imitateurs et grands —s sur les fables orientales, the Greeks, great imitators of, and improvers on, the Eastern fables. Volt. Fol —, bidder who cannot execute the conditions.

ENCHÊVÊTRE, ppa. of ENCHÊVÊTRER, fem. —s, haltered. (by extension) Des choses —es l'une dans l'autre, things entangled one in the other. fig. Des phrases, des périodes —es, confused phrases, periods.

ENCHÊVÊTREMENT, angsh-vay-tru-mang, sm. entangling. fig. L'— des idées, the concatenation of ideas. Par un étrange — du sort, by a strange concatenation of events. Lamart.

ENCHÊVÊTRER, angsh-vay-tray, ra. (litté) to halter.

S'ENCHÊVÊTRER, vpr. 1 (d'un cheval, of a horse) to entangle one's self in a noose. 2 fig. (s'entangler) to entangle one's self, to get entangled (dans une affaire, in an affair).

ENCHÊVÊTURE, angsh-vay-tur, sf. 1 finding. 2 vet. halter-cast.

ENCHIFFRÉ, ppa. of ENCHIFFRER, fem. —e, Il est tout —, his head is stupefied.

ENCHIFFREMENT, ang-she-fray-mang, sm. stoppage in the nose.

ENCHIFFRER, ang-she-fruh-nay, va. to cause a stoppage in the nose.

ENCHYMOSE, ang-ke-moz, sf. (Gr.) med. enchymosis.

ENCLAVE, ang-klay, sf. 1 (terrain) a piece of land enclosed in another land, and independent of it. 2 (d'un territoire, d'un pays) a territory lying within the bounds of another state. (by analogy) Cette paroisse est une — de tel évêché, that parish is wedged in that bishopric.

ENCLAVE, ppa. of ENCLAVER, fem. —s. Les tribus indiennes —es dans le territoire cédé par l'Angleterre, the Indian tribes enclosed in the territory ceded by England. Clat. Deux diocèses —s l'un dans l'autre, two dioceses running one into the other.

ENCLAVEMENT, ang-klay-mang, sm. enclosing.

ENCLAVER, ang-klay-ay, va. to enclose (in), to lock (in).

S'ENCLAVER, vpr. to be enclosed (in), to be locked (in).

ENCLIN, ang-klang, adj. m. fem. —e, (Lat. inclinatus) 1 inclined, prone, disposed. Il est — au bien, he is virtuously inclined. 2 (in a bad part) Un homme — à l'ivrognerie, a man given to drunkenness. — à mal faire, à médire, inclined to mischief, to slander. (by extension) Après des temps de malheur et de gloire, un peuple est — au repos, after times of misfortune and glory, a people longs for rest. Clat.

ENCLÔRE, ang-klor, va. 1 to enclose, to fence in (un champ, a field). — un jardin de murailles, to enclose a garden with walls. 2 (comprendre dans un clos) to enclose (into), to take in. — les faubourgs dans la ville, to enclose the suburbs into the town.

S'ENCLÔRE, vpr. 1 to be shut in, to fence one's self in. 2 (être enclos) to be enclosed, included, comprised.

ENCLOS, ang-klo, ppa. of ENCLÔRE, fem. —s, shut in.

ENCLOS, sm. 1 close, enclosure. 2 (l'enceinte même) enclosure. Un — de murailles, de haies, an enclosure of walls, of hedges.

ENCLOUER, ang-kloo-ay, va. 1 (d'un cheval, of a horse) to prick (a horse's foot). 2 (d'un canon, of a gun) to spike.

S'ENCLOUER, vpr. (d'un cheval, of a horse) to get a nail in the foot.

ENCLOUURE, ang-kloo-ir, sf. 1 (d'un cheval, of a horse) prick. 2 fig. (empêchement) impediment, hitch. Voilà où est l'—, there the shoe pinches. J'ai découvert l'—, I have discovered where the hitch is.

ENCLUNE, ang-klem, sf. 1 anvil. Frapper sur l'—, to strike on the anvil. fig. En travaillant avec un soin sévère, Nalherbe fait parfois jaillir la flamme de son —, by dint of hard labour M. sometimes sends forth a bright spark of his genius. Villem. fig. Remettre un ouvrage sur l'—, to give a new form to a work; to put a work upon the anvil. prov. fig. Être entre le marteau et l'anvil, prov. fig. Between the hammer and the anvil. Il faut être — ou marteau, one must either do or suffer evil. 2 anat. incus.

ENCLUNEAU, ENCLUNOT, ang-kli-mo, sm. small anvil, hand-anvil, blacksmith's anvil.

ENCOCCHER, ang-ko-shay, va. to notch, to fit to the bowstring (une flèche, an arrow).

ENCOFFRER, ang-ko-fray, va. 1 to coffer, to hoard, to treasure, to lay up. 2 (by extension) (s'approprier par friponnerie) to appropriate wrongfully. Il devait distribuer cet argent à ses compagnons, mais il l'a tout encouffré, he was to distribute that money among his companions, but he has swept it all away into his own pocket.

ENCOIGNURE, ang-ko-nyûr, sf. 1 corner. Pierre d'—, corner-stone. 2 (by extension) (petit meuble) corner-buffet.

ENCOLLAGE, ang-ko-lazh, sm. 1 sizing, gumming, glazing. Faire un —, to size. 2 (l'appât) size.

ENCOLLER, ang-ko-lay, va. to size.

ENCOLLURE, ang-ko-lir, sf. 1 (d'un cheval, of a horse) neck and shoulders. 2 fig. (des personnes, of persons) appearance, mien. Il a l'— d'un sot, he has a silly look.

ENCOMBRE, ang-kongbr, sm. impediment, hindrance, cross accident. P. prétendant arriver sans — à la ville, P. purposed reaching the town without accident. La Font. Sans — et sans plus de fatigue que je ne m'y attendais, je suis arrivé ici without aid and without more fatigue than I expected, I arrived here. Jacq. Il arriva nouvel —, a fresh impediment arose. La Font.

ENCOMBRÉ, ppa. of ENCOMBRER, fem. —e, encombré. Ces fossés sont —s, those ditches are stopped up. Le paquebot sur lequel je m'embarquai était — de familles émigrées, the packet-boat on which I embarked was crowded with emigrant families. Clat.

ENCOMBRER, ang-kong-bruh-mang, sm. obstruction, stoppage.

ENCOMBRER, ang-kong-bray, va. to obstruct, to stop, to block up. Les matériaux qui encombrèrent une rue, the rubbish which blocks up a street. Le vieillard nous fit signe de jeter à la mer tout ce qui encombrait le fond de la barque, the old man motioned to us to throw into the sea every thing cumbersome. Lamart. fig. Si nous n'écrivions pas le soir l'événement du matin, le travail nous encombre et nous n'avons plus le temps de le mettre à jour, if we do not write down in the evening the event of the morning, work crowds in upon us, and we have no longer time to get it posted up. Clat.

ENCONTRE (à l'), ang-kongir, adv. against, counter. Aller à l'— de quelque chose, to oppose, to contradict a thing. Je ne vais point à l'— de ce que vous dites, I do not contradict what you say. absol. Il avait prouvé que le vrai coupable c'était le duc de Bretagne, nul n'alla à l'—, he had proved that the real criminal was the duke of Brittany, no one said any thing to the contrary. Mich.

ENCORBELLEMENT, ang-kor-hel-mang, sm. arch. corbel. (by extension) Balcon en —, corbel balcony.

ENCORE, ang-kor, adv. (in poetry either ENCORE or ENCOR) 1 (marque la continuation, noting continuation) still. Ces objets sont-ils — en votre possession? do you still possess these objects? Ab. Il ignorait pourtant — qu'il fût lion, he was however still ignorant that he was a lion. Flot. Ils peuvient — pleurer, they have still some tears left. Clat. Plus d'un feu qui fumait —, near a fire that was still smoking. B. de St-P. S'il en est temps —, épargnez votre race, if it is possible still, spare your own blood. Rac. Les feuilles nouvelles — dans le bouquet, the young leaves still in the bud. Saint. Je me retirai donc — plein d'effroi, I then withdrew still struck with awe. Rac. Il vit —, he is still living. Il était — au service il y a un an, he was still in the service a year ago. Comment! vous êtes — au lit! what! you are still in bed! Il faut bien espérer que vous vivrez — dans quarante ans, it is to be hoped that you will be still alive forty years hence. Je suis — à comprendre comment, I don't understand as yet how. Clat. Il n'est — que caporal, he is but a corporal still. 2 (with a negation) yet. Comment vous n'êtes pas — habillé! what! you are not yet dressed! Il n'est pas — temps d'agir, it is not yet time to act. Il ne répond — qu'un nom d'Ê. Rac. he still believes his name is E. Rac. Je ne veux pas mourir — I will not die yet. A. Cheo. Vous n'êtes pas — en âge d'être soldat, you are not yet old enough to be a soldier. Je ne l'avais pas — vu si en colère, I had never seen him in such a passion before. Je n'en suis pas — à m'endormir, I am not yet obliged to beg my bread. Muss. Êtes-vous prêt à partir? Pas —, are you ready to set out? not yet. 3 (de nouveau) again, once more. — cette libation pour chasser les esprits de la nuit, one more libation to dispel the powers of darkness. Nod. Je veux — essayer si je pourrai réussir, I will try once more whether I can succeed. Ce fut — tout autre chose quand je la vis parée, it was still better when I saw her dressed. B. de St-P. Donnez-lui — à boire, let him drink again. Bien, maintenant — un peu de lait, well, now a little more milk. Muss. Il haïssa la tête pour s'entendre, bit — un pas, écoute —, he bent his head as if to listen, advanced one step more and listened again. Nod. Il y a — l'amour dans ce que je vais vous conter, what I am going to relate to you is another love-story. Saint. 4 (de plus) besides, also. Ou ajoutez — à cela que, to that is also added that. N'est-ce pas assez pour eux de ramper, faut-il — leur aggraver le joug par le mépris? is it not sufficient that they are weighed down to the ground, must their yoke be rendered still heavier by contempt? Mass. Ouvre l'ordre qu'on lui avait donné, on lui commanda —, besides the order that had been given him, he was also commanded. 5 Mais —, also. Non-seulement elle est belle, mais — elle est sage, not only is she handsome, but she is also well behaved. 6 — plus, still. Il est — plus riche que son frère, he is still richer than his brother. Dieu vous élèvera — plus haut que vos ancêtres, God will raise you still higher than your ancestors. Mass. Je cralus Dieu, disait-il, — plus que le roi, I fear God, he used to say, still more than I do the king. Flor. Quand elles l'appellent mon fils, je les aime — davantage, when they call you my son, I love them still better. B. de St-P. Ils exigent — plus, — davantage, they require still more. (by analogy) Leur attaque fut — moins utile au peuple, their attack was still less useful to the people. Aug. Tb. Cela augmentait — sa tristesse, that increased his sadness still more. Cela diminue — ses appointements, deja à peine suffisants, that causes a still further reduction of his salary, already barely sufficient. 7 (dans un sens restrictif, in a restrictive sense) Ce mot n'est guère usité que dans telle science, — ne l'emploie-t-on que rarement, this word is little used, except in certain sciences, even then it is employed but seldom. 8 (du moins) however, still, at least. — s'il voulait se relâcher sur ce point, on pourrait lui accorder le reste, if he would but give way on that point, the rest might be granted him. Encor si vous n'avez pas l'abri du feuillage, if you were only born under my foliage. La Font. ENCORE, interj. again. Eh quoi! — I what I again!

ENCORE QUE, though, although. — qu'il soit jeune, il ne laisse pas d'être sage, though he is young, yet he is very steady. — que je ne sois pas docteur, je vois bien, though I am no doctor, yet I see that. Pasc. — que mensonger, though it is a deceitful one. La Font.

ENCORNÉ, ang-kor-nay, adj. m. fem. — 4 horned. Son ami bouc, des plus haut — his friend a he-goat with a tremendous pair of horns. La Font. 2 vel. Javart —, swelling under the cornet.

ENCOURAGEMENT, ang-koo-rash-ang, ppr. of ENCOURAGER, adj. m. fem. — E, encouraging, inspiring.

ENCOURAGEMENT, ang-koo-rash-ang, sm. encouragement, incentive, incitement.

ENCOURAGER, ang-koo-rash-ay, ra. to encourage, to inspire, to incite, to instigate. — quelqu'un à bien faire, to encourage virtue in a person. Non exemple encourage l'armée, my example encourages the army. Rac. — quelqu'un dans une résolution, to encourage a person in his resolution. — l'industrie, le commerce, l'agriculture, les arts, etc., to encourage manufactures, trade, agriculture, arts, etc. || — le vice, le crime, la révolte, etc., to encourage vice, crime, sedition.

ENCOURAGER, vpr. 1 to encourage one's self. 2 recipr. to encourage each other.

ENCOURIR, ang-koo-reer, va. conjug. like courir, to incur, to draw down on one's self. — une amende, to incur a fine. Il avait encouru l'indignation de sa famille, he had drawn down upon himself the indignation of his family. — le débiteur, la honte, to incur dishonour, shame. — le mépris public, to incur public contempt.

ENCOURIR, ang-koo-rū, ppa. of ENCOURIR, fem. — Subit la peine — e, to undergo the penalty incurred.

ENCRASSER, ang-kras-say, va. to dirty, to soil, to make greasy.

ENCRASSER, vpr. 1 to get dirty, to get greasy. 2 fig. (se méallier) to debase, to lower one's self.

ENCRE, angkr, f. 1 ink. — à écrire, writing-ink. Bouteille à —, ink-bottle. — rouge, — verte, red, green ink. — sympathique, secret, invisible, sympathetic ink. — de Chine, Indian ink. fig. Je soutiendrai mon opinion jusqu'à la dernière —, I will maintain my opinion to the very last. Mol. fig. Écrire de bonne —, de la bonne — à quelqu'un, to write in strong terms to a person. fig. C'est la bouteille à l'—, it is an affair that cannot be seen through. 2 (pour imprimer) ink. — d'imprimerie, printers', printing ink. — lithographique, lithographic ink.

ENCRE, ppa. of ENCRER, fem. — E, print. Cette forme est trop — e, this form is too ink-y.

ENCRER, ang-kray, va. print. to ink (des balles, on rouleau, balls, a roller).

ENCRIER, ang-kryay, sm. 1 inkstand, ink-horn. 2 print. ink-block, ink-table, ink-trough.

ENCRÔTÉ, ang-kroo-ay, adj. m. fem. — E, woods and for. entangled.

ENCRÔTE, ppa. of ENCRÔTER, fem. — E, fig. Être — de préjugés, to be full of prejudices. — dans la vieille politique, wedded to old political ideas. N. Lemmer. Un pédant —, a rusty pedant.

ENCRÔTER, ang-kroo-tay, va. mason. to crust, to cover with mortar.

ENCRÔTER, vpr. 1 to crust, to be crusted over. 2 fig. to grow stupid, to grow rusty.

ENCUEUR, ang-kū-vay, va. to put into a tub, a vat. — la vendange, to put the grapes into a vat. — le linge, to put the linen into a tub.

ENCYCLIQUE, ang-se-kih, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 encyclical. Lettre —, encyclical letter. 2 fig. encyclical letter.

ENCYCLOPÉDIE, ang-se-klo-pay-dee, sf. (Gr.) 4 did. encyclopædia. L'— des sciences, the encyclopædia of sciences. 2 (ouvrage) encyclopædia. 3 (particul.) the Encyclopædia of the 18th century. 4 (by extension) (ouvrage qui embrasse beaucoup d'objets, beaucoup de sciences) encyclopædia.

ENCYCLOPÉDIQUE, ang-se-klo-pay-dik, adj. mf. encyclopædic, encyclopædical.

ENCYCLOPÉDISTE, ang-se-klo-pay-dist, sm. encyclopedist.

ENDECAÛNE, ang-day-kag-on, sm. See BENDECAÛNE.

ENDÉMIQUE, ang-day-mik, adj. mf. (Gr.) med. endemic, endemical. Maladies —, endemic diseases.

ENDENTE, ppa. of ENDENTER, fem. — E, adjetiv. 1 provided, supplied with teeth. Avoir la bouche bien — e, mal — e, to have a good set of teeth, a bad set of teeth. fig. Sa famille, chiens, chevaux et valets, tous gens bien — s, his family, dogs, horses and valets, all well provided with sharp — set teeth. La Font. Nous sommes six enfants, tous bien — s, we are six children, and all provided with a good appetite. Ab. 2 ber. indented, dented.

ENDENTER, ang-dang-tay, va. to tooth, to cog, to indent.

ENDETTE, ppa. of ENDENTER, fem. — E, C'est un homme très —, — par-dessus les yeux, he is a man over head and ears in debt.

ENDETTER, ang-day-tay, va. to make run into debt.

S'ENDETTER, vpr. to get into debt, to run in debt, to incur debts.

ENDEYE, ang-day-vay, adj. m. fem. — E, 1 passionné, mad, frantically. 2 (substantif). C'est no —, he is a madman.

ENDEYER, ang-day-vay, va. to be vexed, wild, mad. Il enlève de voir qu'on ne lui parle pas, it makes him mad to see that he is not spoken to. Ne faites jamais ce qu'on appelle — les enfants, never tease children. J.-J. Rousseau.

ENDIABLE, adj. m. fem. — E, 4 possessed, detestable, mad, mischievous. Esprit —, devilish mind, disposition. (by extension) Cet homme-là me fera un de ces matins quelque tracasserie — e, that man will play me one of these days some devilish trick. Durer. Pour le torrent, il va comme votre Durand quand elle est — e, as for the torrent, it rushes along like your D. when it is furious. M^{me} de Sév. Chemin —, devilish bad way. 2 (substantif.) devil of a man, woman.

ENDIABLE, ang-day-blay, va. to wish one's self at the devil, to be wild. Faire — quelqu'un, to drive a person mad. Ah! vous endiablez, mon vieux cousin maudit, ah! you shall wish yourself at the devil, my cursed old cousin. V. Hug.

ENDIGEMENT, ang-dig-mang, sm. dunning, dem.

ENDIGUER, ang-de-gay, va. to dam.

ENDIMANCHE, ppa. of ENDIMANCHER, fem. — E, dressed in one's Sunday clothes.

ENDIMANCHER, ang-de-mang-shay, va. (from dimanche) to dress a person in his Sunday clothes.

S'ENDIMANCHER, vpr. to put one's Sunday clothes on.

ENDIVE, ang-div, sf. bot. endive.

ENDOCARDE, ang-do-kard, sm. (Gr.) anat. endocard.

ENDOCARDITE, ang-do-kar-dit, sf. med. endocarditis.

ENDOCRINER, ang-dok-tre-ay, va. 1 (in joke) (instruire) to indoctrinate, to teach. Je m'étais imaginé que les pédagogues dont j'avais fait choix pour — le fils de G. y perdraient leur latin, I had imagined that the pedagogues whom I had selected to instruct the son of G. would lose their time at it. Le Sage. 2 (donner les renseignements, les indications nécessaires) to teach a person his lesson, to give a person his cue. Elle ne dit point que vous eussiez été mal, vous l'avez bien enlôtrée, she did not tell me that you had been unwell, you had taught her her lesson well. M^{me} de Sév.

ENDOLORI, ang-do-lo-re, adj. m. fem. — E, in pain, painful, aching. Avoir le bras —, to have a pain in the arm.

ENDOMMAGE, ppa. of ENDOMMAGER, fem. — E, damaged.

ENDOMMAGER, ang-do-mazh-ay, va. (des choses, of things) to damage, to injure. La grêle a endommagé les grains, les fruits, the hail has damaged the corn the fruit.

ENDORMANT, ang-dor-mang, ppr. of ENDORMIR, 4 fig. La monotonic même de cette vie nous plaisait en nous —, the very monotony of this life pleased us by its dreaminess. Lamart. 2 adj. m. fem. —E, (qui endort) soporific. Ces eaux qui sont, dit-on, fort —es, these waters which, it is said, are very soporific. Boil. (by extension) l'air le moyen d'une poudre —E, by means of a soporific powder. La Font. 3 tireme. Quel — personnage! what a tiresome fellow!

ENDORMEUR, ang-dor-meur, sm. fem. ENDORMEUSE, fig. (flatter, cajoleur) wheedler, cajoler, coaxer.

ENDORMI, ang-dor-mee, ppa. of ENDORMIR, fem. —E, adjective. 1 asleep, sleeping. fig. Sa passion faiblement —e, his passion that was but lying dormant. Malld. 2 fig. (qui manque de vivacité) torpid, sluggish, supine. C'est un homme —, un esprit —, he is a dull heavy fellow. Avoir l'air —, to look sleepy, to have a dull, heavy look. (substantiv.) Croyez-vous donc qu'on soit en — et qu'on n'ait ni esprit ni talent? do you think I am not wide awake and that I have neither wit nor talent? Damas-H. 3 fig. (engourdi) benumbed. Avoir les jambes —es, no bras —, to have one's legs, arm benumbed.

ENDORMIR, ang-dor-meer, va. conjug. like dormir. 1 to send to sleep, to lull, to rock to sleep. 2 (by extension) (ennuyer) to send to sleep. Ce livre endormait, this book sends one to sleep. Sa conversation m'endormait, his conversation sent me to sleep. Non pas, j'endormirai Monsieur tout aussi bien qu'un autre, no, no, I can send master to sleep as well as any one. Rac. 3 fig. to cajole, to wheedle, to lull to sleep. Il l'a endormi de belles paroles, avec de vaines espérances, par de vaines promesses, he has lulled him with fine words, vain hopes, empty promises. On me trompe, on m'endort, on me prend: c'est un mieux, I am deceived, lulled to sleep, taken in, it is all for the best. V. Hug. Le faux respect de nos aïeux nous endort et nous jette dans une fausse confiance, the false respect of our friends lulls us into a deceitful security. Malabr. M. le prince d'Orléans, the prince of Condé was duped by the cardinal M. L'abbé général endormait aussi son armée, the skilful general so lulled his troops into security. Lamart. (by analogy) — la vigilance, la prudence, etc., de quelqu'un, to lull to sleep the vigilance, the prudence, etc., of a person. Leur conspiration fut trahie avec une prudence et un secret qui endormirent la confiance de la cour, their plot was hatched so prudently and so secretly that the court was lulled into security. Volt. 4 (engourdir, calmer) to benumb. Il y a des remèdes qui endorment le mal de dents, there are remedies that benumb the tooth-ache. fig. E. se plait — les souffrances de son cousin. E. made it a duty to soothe the grief of her cousin. Balz. La régularité monotone de cette vie endormait docilement l'activité de ses méditations, the monotonous regularity of that life gradually deadened the activity of his meditations. Lamart. Vous avez des paroles magiques qui endorment toutes les douleurs, you have magic words that lull every pain. Chât. S'ENDORMIR, vpr. 4 (commencer à dormir) to fall asleep, to go to sleep, to sleep, to drop asleep, to go off to sleep. Elles viennent de s'— seulement, they have but just gone to sleep. Saint. J'ai eu du mal à m'—, I had much difficulty in getting to sleep. fig. E. se s'endort pour mieux résister au froid, the sap is insensible in order to resist the cold better. Mich. fig. poët. S'— do sommeil de la tombe, to sleep the last sleep. Le moment est arrivé de vous — dans le Seigneur, the moment hath come to rest in the bosom of God. Chât. Elle s'endormit, avec calme dans ce sommeil passager du tombeau, she quietly slept her last sleep. Nod. 2 fig. (manquer de vigilance) to lie idle, to be wanting in vigilance. Ils s'endormaient sur les dangers ou bien fermaient les yeux, they overlooked danger or pretended not to be aware of it. Lamart. Le commandant ne s'endormait pas au milieu du péril, the commanding officer did not lie idle in the midst of peril. Chât. Cette sécurité dans laquelle on s'endort rend les esprits trop mous, the security in which one is lulled relaxes the mind too much. Pons. fam. S'— sur le rôti, to neglect the favourable opportunity. S'— dans le vice, etc., to lie sure in vice, etc.

ENDOSSE, ang-do, sm. com. ENDOSSEUR, ang-dos, sf. fam. burden, to be laden. Vous en aurez l'—, you shall have all the trouble of it.

ENDOSSEMENT, ang-dos-mang, sm. com. endorsement, endorsement. Mettre l'—, son — sur une lettre de change, to endorse a bill of exchange.

ENDOSSEUR, va. (mettre sur son dos) 1 to put on, to put on one's back, to don. — la cuirasse, le harnais, to put on the cuirass, the harness. B. endosse sa robe de chambre et se carde dans ses fauteuils, B. dons his dressing-gown and spreads himself out in his arm-chairs. Th. 3ant. II fig. — le harnais, to take to the gown. 2 fig. (charger quelqu'un de quelque chose de désagréable) to saddle. 3 com. — à indorse, to endorse (une lettre de change, un billet, a bill of exchange, a bill). 4 fig. (prendre à sa charge) to take upon one's self. — l'assumer, I do not want to take upon myself the responsibility of his ideas. Balz. Dans toutes mes citations je ne prétends pas — les passages que j'emprunte, in all my citations I do not pretend to be responsible for the passages that I borrow. St-D.

ENDOSSEUR, ang-do-subr, sm. com. indorser, endorser.

ENDROIT, ang-drwé, 4 (lieu) spot, place. Vous le trouverez en tel —, you will find him in such a place. 2 (partie déterminée d'une chose quelconque) part. J'ai lu en quelque — qu'un manoir, I have read somewhere that a miller. La Font. L'— du corps où l'on reçoit quelque blessure, où l'on éprouve une douleur, the part of the body where a wound is received, a pain is felt. Puisque vous voulez bien me servir, donnez-moi de cet — là, since you are so good as to help me, give me some of that part. 3 lit. passage, place. C'est un des plus beaux —s d'Homère, it is one of the finest passages of Homer. 4 (le beau côté d'une étoffe) right side. Etoffe à deux —s, double-sided stuff. 5 fig. (partie, côté) part, side, point, passage. La médecine ne peut attaquer zuecun — de sa vie, slander cannot attack any part of his life. Boss. Voyons l'homme en du par son plus bel —, let us view man from his best side. Boil. C'est le plus bel — de sa vie, that is the finest passage in his life. Prendre quelqu'un par son — faible, to take a person by his weak side. C'est la — sensible, that is his most vulnerable part. 6 absol. A l'— de quelqu'un, with regard, with respect to a person. Il s'est très-mal comporté à mon —, he has behaved very ill towards me.

ENDUIRE, ang-dieer, va. (Lat. indocere) to coat, to luy on a coat; to cover (with). Ôte d'autour de chaque roue cette manigie bone qui jusqu'à l'esieu les eodait, take from each wheel the cursed mud with which it is covered up to the very axle-tree. La Font.

ENDUIT, ang-diee, ppa. of ENDUIRE, fem. —E, coated.

ENDOIT, sm. 1 coat, coating, glaze, glazing. Faire un —, to coat. 2 — de goudron, pitch.

ENDURANT, ang-dû-rang, ppr. of ENDURER, adj. m. fem. —E, enduring, patient, long-suffering. Il était moins — qu'on ne le croyait, he was not so patient as they had imagined. Le Sage. Ne pas être d'homme —, to be of an irritable disposition. Vous savez que je n'ai pas l'âme —E, you know that I have not a very passive spirit of my own. Mol. Les plus ignorants en matière de religion sont les plus mal —s, the most ignorant in religious matters are the most intolerant. St-Evr. C'est un homme peu —, one femme peu —E, he is a very techy man, she is an irascible woman.

ENDURCI, ppa. of ENDURCIR, fem. —E, 1 hardened, obdurate. (by extension) Un corps — par les fatigues, a body hardened by fatigues. fig. Un cheval — aux coups, a horse grown insensible to blows. fig. Un homme — à la peine, a man inured to fatigue; au crime, dans le crime, hardened in crime. Quelle haine —E pourrait, en vous voyant, n'être point adoucie? what inveterate hatred would not be softened at the sight of you? Rac. Les pécheurs —s, hardened sinners. Bonald. 2 (substantiv.) hardened sinner.

ENDURCIR, ang-dûr-seer, va. 1 (rendre dur) to harden. 2 (by extension) (rendre fort) to harden, to make hardy. Le travail endurcit le corps, labour hardens the body. 3 fig. (accoutumer) to inure. Il faut — de bonne heure les jeunes gens au travail, aux privations, aux intempéries de l'air, young people must be early inured to labour, privations and the inclemency of the weather. 4 fig. (rendre imputable, obdurate) to harden, to make, to render obdurate, to steel. L'avarice lui avait endurci le cœur, avarice had steeled his heart. Ses périls n'endurcissent pas son cœur, elle reste bonne, her dangers do not harden her heart, she is still compassionate. Mich. Deux choses endurcissent ordinairement le cœur des riches, two things generally harden the hearts of the rich. Flech. La prospérité endurcit, pour ainsi dire, aux plaisirs, prosperity renders one insensible as it were to pleasures. Mass. Si la tristesse attendrit l'âme, une profonde affliction l'endurcit, if sadness softens the soul, deep affliction hardens it. J.-J. Rouss. bi. Dieu endurcit le cœur des pécheurs, God hardens the hearts of sinners.

S'ENDURCIR, vpr. 1 to harden, to get, to become, to grow hard. 2 fig. (s'accoutumer à ce qui est dur, fâcheux) to become callous, to become inured, to inure one's self. S'— au travail, à la peine, to become inured to labour, to fatigue. Je m'endurcissais au froid comme à la chaleur, I get accustomed to cold as well as to heat. Jacq. Il importe que la peau s'endurcisse aux impressions de l'air, it is necessary that the skin should be hardened against the impressions of the air. J.-J. Rouss. S'— à la douleur, to become callous to grief; aux injures, aux affronts, to insult, to affront. S'— dans le vice, dans le crime, au crime, to be hardened in vice, in crime. 3 fig. (devenir imputable) to be steelled, to steel one's self. S'— aux misères d'autrui, to steel one's self against the sufferings of others. Je ne me suis jamais endurci sur mes fautes, I never became hardened in my faults. J.-J. Rouss. Un cœur qui s'est endurci, a hardened, an obdurate heart; a heart that has become callous.

ENDURCISSEMENT, ang-dûr-sis-mang, sm. 4 (little used) hardening (des os, of the bones). 2 fig. hardness, obduracy, obdurateness, callousness. L'— des pécheurs, the obduracy of sinners. L'— au péché entraîne une mort funeste, the willful sinner prepares for himself a terrible death. Mol. Tomber dans l'—, dans l'— de cœur, to become hardened, to have a seared conscience.

ENDURER, ang-dû-ray, ra. 4 (souffrir) to endure, to bear, to undergo, to suffer. C'est bien assez des peines que j'endure. — la corne, the troubles I endure are sufficient. — le froid, to bear cold. — le pain, la soif, to suffer hunger, thirst. absol. Jésus, ce divin Sauveur, n'a vécu que pour —, Jesus, that divine Saviour, lived only to suffer. Boss. 2 (souffrir) (supporter avec patience) to endure, to put up with. Du maître je veux bien — l'arrogance, I am willing to put up with the arrogance of the master. Etien. — one injure, on affront, to put up with an insult, to pocket an affront. — le martyre sans proférer une plainte, to suffer martyrdom without uttering a groan. 3 (persuader) to persuade, to allow. N'endurez pas qu'on lui fasse tort, don't allow him to be wronged.

ENERGIE, ay-nay-zhee, sf. (Gr.) 4 (force, vertu) energy, strength. L'— d'un remède, the energy of a remedy. L'— des passions, the energy of passions. 2 (particul.) (vigueur d'âme) energy. Un homme plein d'—, a man full of energy. Il y a en lui un tel luxe d'— que, he has such an exuberance of energy that. G. Sand. (by analogy) S'exprimer avec —, to express one's self energetically. Des expressions d'une grande —, expressions of great energy. Il fit un discours plein d'—, he made a most energetic discourse. Parole pleine d'—, energetic expression. 3 (fermeté) energy. Il se comporte avec beaucoup d'—, his conduct is full of energy. Monter, deployer de l'—, to show, to display energy.

ENERGIQUE, ay-nay-zhik, adj. mf. energetic, energetical, pithy. Style —, pithy style. Une conduite —, energetic conduct. Des mesures —, energetic measures. Les âmes vraiment — savent attendre, truly energetic minds know how to bide their time. G. Sand.

ENERGIQUEMENT, ay-nay-zhik-mang, adv. energetically.

ENERGUMÈNE, ay-nay-gû-mayn, s mf. (Gr.) 4 theol. energumen, demoniac. 2 fig. energumen, rantier, fanatic. Il n'est point de factions qui n'aient des —, there are no factions without the fanatics. Volt. C'est on —, he is possessed.

ENERVANT, ay-nay-vang, pur. of ENERVER, adj. m. fem. —, L'action de la civilisation plus — e encore, the still more enervating influence of civilization. Mich.

ENERVATION, ay-nay-vah-syong, sf. enervation.

ENERVÉ, ppo. of ENERVER, fem. — e, Un corps — par les excès, a body enervated by excesses. fig. Une âme — e, an enervated soul. L'Espagne — e par le gouvernement de Philippe V, Spain enervated by the government of Philip V. Lamart.

ENERVEMENT, ay-nay-vuh-mang, sm. enervation.

ENERVER, ay-nay-vay, va. 4 (affaiblir) to enervate, to enerve, to unnerve. La chaleur excessive énerve et accable, excessive heat is enervating and oppressive. 2 fig. to enervate, to enfeeble, to weaken. Il craignait que cette tendresse de mère n'énervât trop la virilité du caractère, he feared lest this motherly tenderness should enervate the virility of his character too much. Lamart. Il énerve les plus grandes vérités par un tour vain et trop orne, he weakens the greatest truths by the vain and ornate style in which they are expressed. Fén. Les prodigalités énervèrent son autorité, his prodigality weakened his authority. Vnlt. — le style, — le langage, to weaken the style, the language.

S'ENERVER, vpr. 4 to become enervated. 2 fig. to grow, to become enervated. Leur langage s'énervait en se polissant, their language became pale and enervated.

ENFAITEAU, ang-fay-to, sm. ridge-tile, gutter-tile.

ENFAITEMENT, ang-fayt-mang, sm. ridge-lead.

ENFAITER, ang-fay-tay, ra. to cover the ridge of.

ENFANCE, ang-fang, sf. 1 infancy, childhood, boyhood, boyhood, girlhood; boyish, girlish days. Dans mon —, in my infancy. Dès mon —, from my infancy. Sortir de l'—, to emerge from childhood. Les souvenirs de l'—, childish recollections. Ainsi se passa leur première —, thus passed their earliest infancy. B. de S-P. Il est pour les parents —, comme pour les individus, un état d'—, there is a state of infancy for nations as well as individuals. Guiz. (by extension) Ces grands chênes, ces fleurs des bois, c'étaient là les amis de mon —, those large oaks, those flowers of the woods, were the friends of my childhood. G. Sand. Un ami d'—, a friend of one's childhood. 2 (les enfants) childhood. Les grâces de l'—, the graces of childhood. 3 (puérilité) childishness, childish action. C'est une vraie —, that is quite childishness. Quelle —! how childish! Beaum. Être en —, tomber en —, to fall into dotage, into second childhood. 4 fig. (commencement) infancy. L'— du monde, the infancy of the world. L'— de Rome, the infancy of Rome. L'— de l'art, the infancy of art.

ENFANÇON, ang-fang-song, sm. babe, baby, La Fout.

ENFANT, ang-fang, sm. (Lat. infans) 4 (garçon ou fille en bas âge) infant, child, babe, baby, small child. Un bel —, a fine child. Jouets d'—, playthings, toys. On représente l'Amour sous les traits d'un —, love is represented with the features of a child. (in the fem.) little girl. Voilà une belle —, that is a fine little girl. Vous êtes une jolie, une aimable —, you are a pretty, an amiable little girl. La pauvre —! the poor little fellow. Ce n'est pas un jeu d'—, ce n'est pas jeu d'—, that is no child's play. Se comporter, se conduire, agir comme un —, to behave, to behave, to act, to speak like a child. Un discours d'—, une conduite d'—, childish talk, childish conduct. — trouve, founding. — de chœur, singing-boy, chorister. S'— d'honneur, pages of honour. fig. — s perdue, forlorn hope. fig. C'est un bon —, he is a good fellow. C'est une bonne —, une bien bonne —, she is a good-natured girl. Il est bon —, bien bon — de croire cela, etc., he is a simpleton, a great simpleton to believe that. prov. Il est aussi innocent que l'— qui vient de naître, he is as innocent as the babe unborn. prov. Faire l'—, to behave like a child, to play the boy, the girl. Que vous êtes —! what a child you are! Est-elle —! what a child she is! 2 (fil ou fille par rapport au père ou à la mère) child, offspring. Avoir des —, to have children. Être chargé d'—, to be burdened with children. — légitime, legitimate child. — naturel, natural child. — adoptif, adoptive child. — du premier, du second lit, child by the first wife, by the second wife. Il était là comme l'— de la maison, he was there like one of the family. La parabole de l'— prodigue, the parable of the Prodigal son. fem. C'est bien l'— de sa mère, he is his mother's own child, he takes after his mother. 3 — s, pl. (descendants) children. Les petits — s d'une personne, the grand-children of a person. 4 (tous ceux qui sont sortis d'une même souche) children. Nous sommes tous — s d'Adam, we are all children of Adam. fig. La patrie vit alors tous ses — s s'armer pour elle, the country then saw all her children rise in arms for her defence. Un — de Saint-François, un — de Saint-Ignace, a Franciscan, a Jesuit. Les — s de France, the children of the king of France, the children of the eldest son of the king of France. — de Paris, de Bordeaux, etc., native of Paris, of Bordeaux, etc. pop. — de la balle, See BALLE. poétic. Les — s de Bellone, de Mars, the sons of Mars, the soldiers. Les — s d'Apollon, the sons of Apollo, the poets. bi. Les — s de lumière, the sons of light. Les — s des ténèbres, the sons of darkness. Les — s des hommes, the sons of men. 5 (terme d'amitié) child, dear. Venez, mon —, come, dear. Courage, — s! criait-il à ses soldats, courage, lads I cried he to his soldiers. 6 fig. (dans le style élevé) offspring. Le bonheur est — de la vertu, happiness is the offspring of virtue. Les jeux, les ris, — s de la gaieté, sports, smiles, offspring of gaiety.

ENFANTEMENT, ang-fang-mang, sm. child-birth, delivery. Les douleurs de l'—, the pains of child-birth.

ENFANTER, ang-fang-tay, ra. 4 (mettre sa monde) to bring forth, to bear, to give birth to. Heureuse la mère qui t'a enfanté, happy the mother who gave you birth. Les — s la vie n'étaient pas assez pour elle, elle voulait encore les — au bonheur, to give birth to her children was not enough for her, she wanted to prepare the happiness of their lives. Lamart. 2 absol. Après qu'une femme a enfanté, after a woman has brought forth. fig. S. dont la fertile plume peut tous les mois, sans peine, — un volume, S. whose pen can write easily a volume every month. Boil. prov. fig. C'est la montague qui enfante une souris, the mountain has brought forth a mouse. L'espérance toujours que ces grandes montagnes n'enfantent que des souris, I still hope that these vast preparations will be useless. Mss. de Sev. 3 fig. (produire, faire naître) to give birth to, to engender. Les guerres civiles enfantent mille maux, civil wars give birth to a thousand evils. Alors le patriotisme, l'amour de la liberté enfantent des prodiges, then patriotism, love of liberty gave birth to prodigies.

ENFANTILLAGE, ang-fang-zhè-yah, sm. childishness, child's play. Faire des —, to do childish things.

ENFANTIN, ang-fang-tang, adj. m. fem. — e, infantine, infantile, childish.

ENFAÎNE, ppo. of ENFAINER, fem. — e, covered with flour. fig. Être — d'une opinion, d'une doctrine, to have imbibed an opinion, a doctrine. Être — d'une science, to get a smattering of a science. prov. fig. Venir la gueule — e, to come big with expectation.

ENFAINER, ang-fa-re-nay, va. to flour, to sprinkle with flour.

S'ENFAINER vpr. to get all over with flour, to get covered with flour.

ENFER, ang-fayr, sm. (Lat. infernus) 4 hell. Le feu de l'—, hell-fire. Dans le fond des — s, in the bottom of hell. fig. Un feu d'—, an infernal fire, a devil of a fire. collo. Faire enflammer quelque chose au feu d'— le mettre au feu d'—, to broil something over a roasting fire. Jouer un jeu d'—, to play deep. C'est un —, un véritable —, it is a hell, a perfect hell. Porter son — avec soi, to carry one's hell about with one. Avoir l'— dans le cœur, to have a hell in one's own heart. prov. fig. Tison d'—, hell-burnt. C'est une furie d'—, un monstre échappé de l'—, she is a fury escaped from hell. 2 — s, pl. hell. Jésus-Christ est descendu aux — s, Jesus Christ descended into hell. 3 — s, pl. (chez les païens) infernal regions. 4 fig. (les démons) hell.

ENFERME, ppo. of ENFERMER, fem. — e, 4 shut in, shut up, confined. Est-ce peuplé — dans ce temple, à quoi s'occupe-t-il? and this people confined to this temple, what is their occupation? Rac. Le roi prit le parti de demeurer — chez lui, the king made up his mind to keep his apartment. Le Sage. Soudainement — par phiver au milieu d'une escaoade de pâtres, shut up on a sudden by winter in the midst of a troop of herdsmen. Saint. 2 'substantive'. See RENFERMER.

ENFERMER, ang-fay-may, ra. 4 to shut up, to shut in. — dans une cage, to shut up in a cage. — entre quatre murailles, to shut up between four walls. — on homme dans une prison, to shut a man up in prison. prov. fig. — le loup dans la bergerie, to shut up the wolf among the sheep. 2 (particul.) [mettre dans un hôpital de fous, dans un lieu de correction, etc.] to confine. C'est un homme à —, that man ought to be confined in a mad-house. 3 (serrer) to put away, to hide. — à clef, sous la clef, sous clef, to lock up. fig. — son chagrin, sa douleur, etc., to shut one's self up with one's grief, etc. Dans la nuit du tonbeau j'enfermerai ma honte, I will hide my shame in the darkness of the grave. Rac. 4 (environner de toutes parts) to enclose, to surround, to encompass, to coop up, to hem in. — un parc de murailles, to surround a park with walls. — de baies, to surround with hedges. 5 (contenir, comprendre) to contain, to comprise, to comprehend, to include, to harbour. Son cœur n'enferme point une malice si noire, his heart does not harbour so dark a malice. Rac. Cette proposition en enferme beaucoup d'autres, this proposition includes many others.

S'ENFERMER, vpr. 1 to shut one's self up. Enfermé de dépit, je m'enfermai dans ma chambre, burning with resentment, I shut myself up in my own room. Le Sage. 2 (se retirer en un lieu où l'on ne veut être troublé par personne) to shut one's self up. S'— dans son cabinet, to shut one's self up in one's study. Il s'enferme presque toute la journée pour travailler, he shuts himself up almost all day to work. (by extension) Vous quittez Grignas au milieu de l'automne pour vous — dans une petite ville, you leave G. in the middle of autumn to coop yourself up in a little town. M^{te} de Sév. S'— dans une place, to shut one's self up in a place. S'— avec un malade, to shut one's self up with a sick person. S'— dans un cloître, to shut one's self up in a cloister. Il s'enfermait davantage dans le cercle des amis et de la famille, he kept more within the circle of his friends, and his family. St-B. Elle s'enferma dans son ressentiment, she shut herself up in her implacability. Lamart.

ENFERMER, ang-fay-ray, va. 1 to run through, to pierce. — son ennemi, to run one's enemy through the body.

S'ENFERMER, vpr. 1 to run one's self through. Il s'est enfoncé lui-même, he fell upon the sword. Ils se sont enfoncés l'un l'autre, they run each other through the body. 2 fig. to injure one's self, to do one's self harm. Il croit se tuer d'affaire, au lieu que visiblement il s'enferme de plus en plus, he thinks he is executing himself, whereas it is evident he is plunging deeper and deeper into the mire. Boss. Seule qu'il s'enfermait, il finit par cacher sa tête dans ses deux mains, feeling that he was injuring himself, he ended by hiding his face in his hands. Al. Dura. Il s'enferme de lui-même, he is convicted upon his own evidence.

ENFLADE, ang-le-lad, sf. 1 suite of rooms. Portes d'—, doors opposite each other. fig. une loquace — de phrases, an epithète, a long string of phrases, epithets. 2 nat. enflading, raking fire. Donner, recevoir une —, to enflade, to rake; to receive a raking fire. Tirer des coups d'—, to enflade. 3 [au tritrac, at backgammon] running the risk of a gammon.

ENFILE, ppa. of ENFLER, fem. —E, 1 string up. 2 nat. raked, enfladed. Être — par l'avant, par l'arrière, de l'avant à l'arrière, to be raked in the forepart, in the stern; to be raked fore and aft.

ENFILER, ang-fé-lay, va. 1 to thread, to string. — des perles, to string pearls. — un chapelet, un bracelet, to string beads for a chaplet, a bracelet. (by extension) C'est un spadassin, il enfila un homme sans remords ni vergogne, he is a bravo, he will run a man through without remorse or shame. Volt. prov. fig. Nous ne sommes pas ici pour — des perles, we are not here to pick straws. 2 fig. — un chemin, une route, une allée, to take a road, a walk. J'enfilai deux ou trois rues en moins d'une minute, I went down two or three streets in less than a minute. Le Sage. — le degré, l'escalier, to make the best of one's way down stairs. — la venette, to run away. 3 fig. — un discours, to begin a long story. En même temps il enfila le détail de ses souffrances, at the same time he began a detailed account of his sufferings. Le Sage. À l'appui de ce mensonge, j'en enfilai cent autres, in support of this falsehood I was obliged to tell a hundred others. J.-J. Rouss. 4 fig. mil. — une tranchée, to rake a trench. 5 fig. nat. — un bâtiment, to rake a vessel. 6 fig. (au jeu) to cheat. Un escroc l'a enfilé dans un tripot et lui a gagné mille francs, a sharper swindled him to a gaming-house and won a thousand francs from him.

S'ENFILER, vpr. 1 fig. to get involved. 2 (au tritrac, at backgammon) to be too forward.

ENFIN, ang-fang, adv. 1 in short, in fine, after all, finally, at last. — cette affaire est terminée, this affair is terminated at last. Mes oreilles — seraient cornes aussi, my ears in the end would be called horns also. La Font. Un vieux renard fut — au piège aigreur, an old fox was at last caught in a snare. La Font. — il m'a dit que, he told me that. — une valise vieille, to crown all, here I am old. La Font. Puisque — vous le voulez, since you will have it so, Coe — que voulait-il? for in short what did he want? Mais — que vous a-t-il dit? but after all what did he say to you? 2 (sometimes) at last, at length. — je vous trouve, I find you at length.

ENFLAMME, ppa. of ENFLAMMER, fem. —E, Un tison —, burning embers. En ce moment tout le palais fut —, in a moment the whole palace was in a blaze. fig. Des regards —, fiery looks. Ces discours —, these fervid words. Boss. La Bretagne est plus — que jamais, Brittany is more excited than ever. M^{te} de Sév.

ENFLAMMER, ang-fla-may, va. 1 to set on fire, to set fire to, to ignite. (by extension) Le feu paraissait derrière les montagnes enflammées l'Orient, the dawn appearing behind the mountains set the East in a blaze. Chat. 2 fig. to heat, to inflame. Le vin enflamme le sang, enflamme la bile, wine heats the blood, the bile. La colère enflamme les yeux, enflamme le visage, anger inflames the eyes, the countenance. (by analogy) (des choses morales) to inflame, to kindle, to provoke. L'homme est ainsi bâti, quand un sujet l'enflamme, such is the character of man, when a subject inflames him. La Font. — la colère de quelqu'un, to kindle the anger of a person. (particul.) (de l'amour, of love) to inflame. Ses yeux ont enflammé bien des cœurs, her eyes have inflamed many hearts.

S'ENFLAMMER, vpr. 1 (prendre feu) to take fire, to catch fire, to blaze, to blaze up, to be inflamed. On vit la vaisseau s'— au un instant, the whole ship was seen to burst out in a blaze in a moment. fig. La plaie s'était enflammée, the wound had become inflamed. Dès qu'on lui en parle, il s'enflamme de colère, as soon as they speak to him about it, he falls into a rage. L'avarice se nourrit et s'enflamme par les remèdes mêmes qui, avarice is fed and inflamed by the very means which. Mass. Tout mon sang de colère et de honte s'enflamme, all my blood boils up with anger and shame. Rac. S'— d'amour, to be inflamed, smitten with love. 2 (particul.) fig. (se passionner, s'emporter de colère) to fly out, to grow, to become incensed, to fire up, to take fire. Cet homme s'enflamme pour rien, that man gets into a fume for nothing.

ENFLÉ, ppa. of ENFLER, fem. —E, 1 swollen, bloated. Un corps —, a swollen body. Le Danube était — par les pluies, the D. was swollen by the rains. Chat. Être —, to be dropsical. Être — comme un ballon, to be swelled like a drum. 2 fig. Être — d'orgueil, to be overpuffed, to be puffed up with pride. Cependant à les voir — de tant d'audace, yet in seeing them inspired with so much audacity. Boil. 3 fig. Style —, inflated, tumid style.

ENFLER, ang-flay, ra. (Lat. inflare) 1 to swell. — un ballon, to fill a balloon. — la joue, to puff up one's cheek. — ses joues, to swell out one's cheeks. L'hydropisie enfle le corps, dropsy swells the body. 2 nat. — les voiles, to swell the sails. Le vent enflait nos voiles, the wind swelled our sails. 3 (d'une rivière, etc., of a river) to swell. 4 fig. (enorgueillir) to puff up, to swell, to elate. Tu regardes en pitié les dignités qui nous enflent le cœur, you look down with pity upon the dignities which elate our hearts. Chat. 5 fig. — le cœur, le courage, to raise the courage. — les espérances de quelqu'un, to raise the hopes of a person. 6 fig. — son style, to inflate one's style. 7 fig. law. — le cahier, — les rôles, to multiply proceedings unnecessarily. 8 — la dépense, — un mémoire, to swell a bill.

S'ENFLER, vpr. 1 to swell, to be swollen. La chétive pécora s'enfla si bien qu'elle creva, the puny fool swelled itself so much that it burst. La Font. La voile s'enfle, the sail swells. Ses jambes commencent à s'—, his legs begin to swell. La rivière s'enfle, the river swells. fig. Ces murmures agréables plus d'une fois s'enflèrent en un tonnerre d'applaudissements, more than once, these murmurs became a roar of applause. Jacq. 2 fig. (s'enorgueillir) to be puffed up. S'— d'orgueil, to be puffed up with pride. Nous autres juges nous ne nous enflons pas d'une science, we judges are not puffed up with empty learning. Montesq. Ne vous enfliez donc point d'une si grande gloire, do not let so great a triumph puff you up. Mol.

ENFLER, va. 1 to swell, to rise. Ses jambes lui enflent à vue d'œil, his legs swell visibly. La rivière enfla tous les jours, the river swells, rises every day.

ENFLURE, ang-flur, sf. swelling. fig. L'— du style, inflation of style. L'— du cœur, pride.

ENFONCE, ppa. of ENFONCER, fem. —E, 1 sunk, sunken. (by extension) Avoir les yeux — dans la tête, to have one's eyes sunk in one's head. Son regard — et toujours impénétrable, his sunk and ever impenetrable look. G. Sand. Un petit homme avec une tête — entre les deux épaules, a little man with his head buried between his shoulders. Le Sage. fig. Être — dans une erreur, to have fallen into an error. Ne demeurez pas — dans les monceaux de papier, do not bury yourself in the heaps of papers. Fén. fig. Avoir l'esprit — dans la matière, to have one's soul immersed in matter. Être — dans ses méditations, to be buried, wrapped up in meditation. 2 (brisé) broken open, broken through. Quand la porte fut —E, when the door was broken open. Les Suédois furent rompus, —, so, pousseés jusqu'à leurs bagages, the Swedes were broken, routed, driven back as far as their baggage. Vol. 1. 3 fig. pop. taken in. Le nîgaid a été joliment —, the simpleson has been finely taken in.

ENFONCEMENT, ang-fong-mang, sm. 1 breaking open, bursting open, breaking in, driving in. L'— d'une porte, d'une barricade, the breaking open of a door, the throwing down of a barricade. 2 (d'une façade) recess. 3 (ce qu'il y a de plus enfoncé) furthest part, depths, bottom, background.

ENFONCEUR, ang-fong-say, ra. 1 (mettre au fond) to sink, to plunge, to thrust, to drive in, to drive down. — un vase dans l'eau, to plunge a vase into water. — des pieux, to drive down stakes. — un clou dans la muraille, to drive a nail into the wall. fam. son chapeau dans la tête, one's cap on one's head. fig. il y a tant de choses à dire, to take a bold resolution. 2 (rompre, briser, en poussant, en pesant, etc.) to break open, to burst open, to burst, to break through. — une porte, to break open a door. — un cabinet, to burst open a closet. mil. — un bataillon, — un escadron, to break through a battalion, a squadron. — les rangs, to break the ranks. 3 to probe, to sift, to sound. fig. il y a des gens qui n'ont pas de profondeur, si vous les enfoncez, vous rencontrez le tof, there are some people that have no depth in them; if you examine them, you get to the bottom immediately. La Bruy. 4 fig. pop. (doper) to take in, to do for. N'allez pas vous laisser — naïvement par ces filous effrontés, don't suffer yourself to be foolishly taken in by those impudent thieves. Al. flum. Ses bons associés l'ont joliment enfoncé, his excellent partners have finely done for him.

ENFONCEUR, rpr. 1 to sink, to sink down, to break down, to give way. S'— dans la boue, to sink into the mud. Le plancher s'enfonça, the floor broke down. (by extension) La vallée s'enfonçait tout à coup à quatre ou cinq cents feet de profondeur, the valley suddenly sank down to a depth of four or five hundred feet. Lamart. fig. Les jours, les mois, les années s'enfoncent et se perdent dans l'abîme des temps, days, months, years sink and are buried in the abyss of time. La Bruy. 2 (particul.) (pénétrer bien avant vers le fond) to bury one's self. S'— dans le lit, to bury one's self in one's bed. Je m'enfonçai dans une sombre forêt, I plunged into the depths of a dark forest. Fén. Je pris une fausse route et au lieu de sortir du dédale, je m'y enfonçai, I took a wrong direction, and instead of extricating myself from the labyrinth, I penetrated still further into its recesses. Chat. 3 fig. (se donner tout entier à quelque chose) to give one's self up (to), to be wrapped up (in). Cet homme s'enfonçait dans l'étude, that man gives himself up to study. Je m'enfonçai dans l'histoire, I bury myself in the study of history. Volt.

ENFONCEUR, ra. to sink, to sink down. fig. Enfoncez, vous trouverez partout des intérêts cachés, des jalousies, go to the bottom of things, every where you will find concealed interests, jealousies. Boss.

ENFONCEUR, ang-fong-suh, sm. one that breaks open. prov. fig. Un — de portes ouvertes, a bragger, a boaster.

ENFONCEUR, ang-fong-suh, sf. 1 (cavité) cavity, hole, hollow. 2 (d'un tonneau, of a cask) bottom. 3 (un bois de lit) bottom, bearing.

ENFORCIR, ang-fou-seer, ra. to strengthen (un mor, a wall).

ENFORCIR, rpr. to gather strength, to acquire strength.

ENFORCIR, ra. to grow, to become stronger, to strengthen.

ENFOUI, ang-fou-ee, ppa. of ENFOUCIR, fem. —, il y avait dans la terre une somme —, a sum was buried in the earth. La Font. (by extension) La prison de la Conciergerie est — sous les vastes constructions du Palais de Justice, the prison of the Conciergerie is buried under the vast constructions of the Palace of Justice. Lamart. D'autres — avec leurs femmes dans des cavernes, others buried in caves with their wives. Lamart. fig. Un grand nombre de talents —, a great number of talents that lie buried. De Bon.

ENFOUCIR, ang-fou-ee, ra. 1 to bury (un trésor, de l'argent, a treasure, money). 2 (cacher) to hide. 3 fig. (en parlant des talents) to bury. Il ne faut pas qu'on enfouisse ni si beau talent, so fine a talent ought not to lie buried. Volt.

ENFOUCIR, rpr. 1 to earth one's self, to bury one's self. fig. Aller s'— dans une province, to go and bury one's self in a province.

ENFOUCISSEMENT, ang-fou-is-mang, sm. burying, hiding. fig. L'— des capitaux, the burying of capital. Lamart.

ENFOUCHER, ang-fou-shay, ra. to bestride, to straddle.

ENFOUCHURE, ang-fou-shir, sf. 1 fork (of the legs). 2 ven. forked antlers. 3 tailor. fork.

ENFOURNER, ang-fou-nay, ra. to set in (le pain, the bread). fig. Bien —, mal —, to begin well, badly.

ENFOURNER, rpr. fig. Il s'est mal enfourné, he has made a bad start. Il s'est enfourné dans une mauvaise affaire, he has engaged in a bad business. S'— dans la lecture d'un livre, to be absorbed in the reading of a book. Dider.

ENFREINDRE, ang-frang-dr, ra. conjug. like CRAINDRE. (Lat. infringere) to infringe, to break, to violate. — un traité, to infringe a treaty; une loi, a law; un ordre, an order.

ENFROUQUER, ang-fro-kay, ra. (in joke) to make a monk of.

ENFROUQUER, rpr. to turn monk.

ENFUIR, ang-féer, rpr. 1 to run away, off, to flee, to take to flight, to betake one's self to flight, to elope. Elle s'est enfuie en poussant des cris, she fled uttering cries. (avec ellipse du pronom, pers. pron. being understood) Vous me ferez —, you will make me take to flight, you will frighten me away. 2 fig. (d'un liquide, of a liquid) to run out. 3 fig. (d'un vase, of a vase) to run, to leak. 4 fig. (passer, disparaître) to flee, to fly. Les rivages s'enfuyaient loin de nous, the shores fled far from our eyes. Fén. Le présent qui s'enfuit est déjà bien loin, the fleeting present is already far from us. Fén. Ma vie en longs soupis s'enfuit à chaque haleine, I breathe out my life in deep-drawn sighs. Lamart.

ENFUMÉ, ppa. of ENFUMER, fem. —, 1 smoked, smoked, smoky. Des meubles —, smoked furniture. Du fond de son étude sombre et —, from his dark and smoky hole of an office. La Bruy. 2 peint. Tableau —, besmoked picture.

ENFUMER, ang-fu-may, ra. 1 to smoke. — des tableaux pour les faire paraître anciens, to smoke paintings to make them look old. — des verres de lunettes, to smoke glasses of spectacles. fig. Gardez qu'un fol ou quel ne vienne vous —, beware your head is not turned with pride. Boil. 2 (incommoder par la fumée, remplie de fumée) to smoke. Vous allez nous —, si vous mettez du bois vert au feu, we shall be smoked if you put green wood on the fire. 3 — des renards, des blaizeaux, des nouches à miel, to smoke out foxes, badgers, bees.

ENFUMER, rpr. 1 (être noirci par la fumée) to be smoked. 2 (être incommodé par la fumée) to be smoked.

ENGAGE, ppa. of ENGAGER, fem. —, 1 pawned, pledged. Des effets — au Mont-de-Piété, effects pawned at the Mont-de-Piété. 2 mortgaged. Domaine —, an estate that is mortgaged. 3 invited. Je lui demandai à danser avec moi, mais elle me répondit qu'elle était —,

I requested her to dance with me, but she answered that she was engaged. 4 engaged, involved. Puisque me voilà —, j'irai jusqu'au bout, since I am engaged in the affair, I will see it out. Al. Dum. Elle était — jusqu'aux yeux, tant elle avait fait de dépenses, she was over head and ears in debt, so great had been her expenses. 5 began. Puisque l'affaire est —, il faut absolument la poursuivre, since the affair has been entered upon, it must be followed up. 6 sm. (particul.) (un soldat) soldier enlisted. Un nouvel —, a recruit.

ENGAGEANT, ang-gazh-ang, ppr. of ENGAGER, adj. m. fcm. —, engaging, attractive, winning, prepossessing. Je vous trouve la plus — personne du monde, I take you to be the most engaging person in the world. Mol. Des airs —, engaging manners. Bérang. La figure la plus —, the most prepossessing countenance. Volt.

ENGAGEMENT, ang-gazh-mang, sm. 1 (action d'engager quelque chose) pawning, pledging. — d'effets au Mont-de-Piété, pledging of effects at the Mont-de-Piété. fig. L'— de sa foi, de sa parole, the pledging of one's faith, of one's word. 2 law. — d'immeubles, mortgage. 3 (promesse, obligation) engagement. Prendre, contracter un —, des —, to take, to contract an engagement. Manquer à son —, à ses —, to break one's engagement, one's engagements. — de cœur, engagement of the heart, attachment. — Un tendre —, a tender engagement. 4 mil. (enrôlement volontaire) enlistment. 5 (mélange) bounty. Chaque homme reçoit cent francs d'—, each man receives a bounty of a hundred francs. 6 (service) engagement. 7 war. (combat) engagement, action.

ENGAGER, ang-gazh-ay, ra. 1 (mettre, donner en gage) to pledge, to pawn, to put in pledge, in pawn. — ses meubles, to pawn one's furniture. — sa montre, ses vêtements, to put one's watch, one's clothes in pawn. 2 (des immeubles) to mortgage. — des immeubles, — une maison, to mortgage houses, lands, a house. — son bien, to mortgage one's estate. 3 fig. — sa foi, sa parole, son honneur, to pledge, to plight one's faith, to engage, to pledge one's word, one's honour. Ma parole royale, ici, je vous l'engage, ma foi de chevalier je vous l'engage encore, I here, pledge you my word as a king, my honour as a knight. C. Del. — sa signature, to engage one's signature. — son cœur, to engage one's heart, one's affections. Quelle douce extrême d'— à ce lieu son amour et sa foi! what extreme felicity to pledge one's love and faith to God! Rac. 4 (déterminer par la persuasion) to engage, to induce, to persuade. Il faut donc par une baraque l'— à descendre, we must then induce him by fine words to come down. Flor. Qui a donc pu vous — à faire cette démarche? what can have induced you to take this step? Elle engagea sa fille à n'en pas parler, she persuaded her daughter to be silent on that subject. G. Sand. Elle renouvela ses prières pour m'— à la fuite, she reiterated her entreaties to persuade me to flee. Chat. 5 (exhorter à, invier) to urge, to invite. Il m'a engagé à composer une tragédie, he has urged me to write a tragedy. Le Sage. Je l'engageai à se mettre à table avec nous, I urged him to take a seat at the table with us. J'allais l'— à faire une valse avec moi, lorsque, I was going to invite her to waltz with me, when. (des choses, of things) Le beau temps engage à la promenade, the weather is very inviting for a walk. 6 (induire, astreindre à) to lead (to). Cette charge engage à beaucoup de dépenses, that post is attended with great expenses. 7 (lier par quelque obligation) to bind. Cela n'engage à rien, there is nothing binding en that. — nn soldat, to enlist a soldier. — des gens, des matelots, to engage men, sailors. — nn domestique, to hire a servant. — nn acteur, to engage an actor. 8 (faire entrer) to engage, to force into, to draw into. — nn bateau dans le sable, to run a boat aground. fig. — dans un parti, to engage in a party. fig. — dans une mauvaise affaire, dans une entreprise ruineuse, to engage in a bad affair, in a ruinous undertaking. fig. Cela m'engagea dans un long entretien, that drew me into a long conversation. Le Sage. 9 (commencer) to enter upon, to open, to begin. — la conversation, une discussion, la partie, etc., to begin the conversation, the discussion, a game, etc. — le combat, to begin the fight; || fig. — le combat, un combat, to begin a quarrel. 10 fenc. — le fer, to engage the sword.

S'ENGAGER, vpr. 1 (s'obliger) to engage, to pledge one's self, to bind one's self. Sur l'honneur je m'engage, my honour I pledge. G. Del. Je m'engage formellement à la publier au jour, I positively engage myself to publish it one day. Nod. Le Grec écoute, avec eux il s'engage, the Greek listens, he enters into arrangements with them. La Font. C'est une chose à laquelle je veux bien m', it is a thing I am very willing to pledge myself to. S' — dans les liens du mariage, to enter into the bounds of matrimony. S' — dans les ordres, to take holy orders. 2 (particul.) (s'obliger) to enlist, to enlist one's self. 3 (s'obliger à servir pendant un certain temps) to enter into an engagement, to hire one's self, to be bound. 4 (accepter des dettes) to get involved, to involve one's self. 5 (s'embarrasser) to get entangled. La clef s'est engagée dans la serrure, the key got fast in the lock. S' — le pied dans l'étrier en tombant de cheval, to get one's foot entangled in the stirrup in falling from horseback. S' — dans un bois, dans un défilé, etc., to penetrate into a wood, a pass, etc. Elle regretta de s'être engagée si avant dans ces solitudes, she regretted having penetrated so far into those deserted spots. B. de S-P. fig. Ils s'engageaient dans leurs intrigues et leurs querelles sans les comprendre, they took a part in their intrigues and their quarrels without understanding them. Aug. Th. Oh ! vous allez vous — tous deux dans les engagements, oh ! you are both going to launch out into compliments. Le Sage. 6 (commencer) Le combat s'engagea, the fight began. Un procès s'engagea qui dura longtemps, they entered into a lawsuit which lasted long. Mérim. Une lutte s'engageait dans sa conscience, a struggle took place in his conscience. Saint.

ENGAGISTE, ang-gazh-ist, sm. morganizer.

ENGAINER, ang-gay-nay, ra. to sheathe (des couteaux, knives).

ENGANCE, ang-zhangs, sf. 4 (race) breed. 2 (disparagingly) (des personnes, of persons) brood. L' — humaine, mankind. La Font. Noire —, our species. La Font. fig. — de vipères, brood of vipers.

ENGLEURE, ang-lur, sf. childlike.

ENGENDRE, ang-zhang-dray, ra. 1 to engender, to beget, to generate, to breed (des enfants, children). theol. Le Père engendra le Fils de toute éternité, the Father begot the Son from all eternity. 2 (by extension) to produce, to give rise to. Le mauvais air engendra des maladies, un wholesome air gives rise to diseases. 3 (être la cause, l'occasion) to produce, to breed, to give rise to, to engender. La diversité d'intérêts engendra les inimitiés, the diversity of interests engendered the enmities and quarrels. Jamais les faiblesses n'engendrèrent plus vite les fautes, never were weaknesses more rapidly succeeded by faults. Lamart. La force qu'engendra la charité de l'âme, the force produced by charity of the soul.

Balz. prov. fig. Il n'engendre point la mélancolie, he does not breed melancholy. 4 geom. to generate. 5 (little used) (donner pour genre) to give as a son-in-law.

S'ENGENDRE, vpr. 1 to be engendered, produced, bred, begot, generated. L'or s'engendre dans les entrailles de la terre, gold is produced in the bowels of the earth. Les vers qui s'engendrent dans les cadavres, worms which are bred in dead bodies. fig. Les procès s'engendrent aisément dans les familles, lawsuits easily spring up, shoot out in families. 2 (little used) (prendre pour genre) Ma foi, je m'engendrerais d'une belle manière, faith, a pretty son-in-law I got. Mul. 3 fig. to saddle one's self. L., fort malgre moi, est allé s' — d'un grand marquis de B., L., in spite of what I could object, has been and saddled himself with a tall marquis de B. De Bross.

ENGENDER, ang-zhay-bay, ra. 4 agri. to sheaf, to bind in sheaves. 2 (by extension) (entasser) to pile up, to heap up.

ENGIN, ang-zhang, sm. (Lat. ingenium) 1 absol. (adresse) skill, dexterity, craft. prov. Mieux vaut — que force, policy goes beyond strength. 2 (machine, instrument) engine, machine, tool. —s de guerre, engines. 3 (se dit spécialement des pièges, filets, collets pour la pêche et la chasse) snare, gin. De là naissent — à vous envelopper, then it will make snares to catch you. La Font.

ENGLOBE, pp. of ENGLOBER, fem. —, united, absorbed. (by extension) Vous êtes — dans l'Académie française, you form part of the French Academy. Volt.

ENGLOBER, ang-glo-bay, ra. 4 to unite, to absorb. Les Romains englobent le petit pays de la Judée dans leur empire, the Romans unite the small country of Judaea to their own empire. Volt. 2 (by extension) (comprendre) to unite.

ENGLOUTIR, ang-gloo-tee, pp. of ENGLOUTIR, fem. —, swallowed up. fig. A chaque instant nous étions près d'être — dans les fondrières, at every moment we were near being swallowed up by the bogs. Chat. fig. Ils furent — par la tempête civile, they were swallowed up by the civil storm. Villem.

ENGLOUTIR, ang-gloo-tee, ra. (Lat. in, gloutine) 4 (avaloir gloutonnement) to swallow down. Nous le vîmes — sept ou huit poignées de bonbons, we saw him swallow down seven or eight handfuls of confits. Ab. 2 fig. (absorber) to swallow up, to engulf. D'épaës nuages avaient comme englouti le soleil dans un océan suspendu, thick clouds had as it were swallowed up the sun in a suspended Ocean. Lamart. (by extension) Ces colonnes vont — sous leurs masses le moulin de Valmy, those columns will overwhelm by their mass the mill of V. Lamart. L'éternité va m' —, eternity is about to swallow me up. Chat. Eternité, néant, sombres abîmes, que faites-vous des jours que vous engloutissez? eternity, annihilation, dark abysses, what are you doing with the time you are swallowing up? Lamart. Je sais que la terre engloutit d'espérances, I know what hopes lie buried in the earth. Musc. 3 fig. (consumer, dissipate) to squander, to dissipate, to run through. Il a englouti en peu de temps toute cette riche succession, he has squandered away in a little time all that great estate.

S'ENGLOUTIR, vpr. to be swallowed up, engulfed. fig. La ville s'est engloutie, the town was swallowed up. Un abîme sans fond où s'engloutit tout le passé, a bottomless pit in which all the past is swallowed up. Nod.

ENGLEUER, ang-gli-ay, pa. NOUS ENGLOUTIS, VOUS ENGLOUTIEZ, (from gla) 4 to lure. 2 fig. to catch, to ensnare, to take in. Je m'étais pas assez sot pour me laisser — de ces louanges, I was not such a fool as to be caught with this praise. Saint-Sim.

S'ENGLEUR, vpr. 4 to stick in bird-lime 2 fig. to be caught, ensnared, taken in.

ENGONCEB, pp. of ENGONCER, fem. —, e. Comme le voilà — dans ton habit, how awkward you look in your coat.

ENGONCEMENT, ang-gongs-mang, sm. awkward appearance.

ENGONCER, ang-gong-say, ra. (Lat. abscondere) to cram, to confine. C'est habit vous engonce, that coat gives you an awkward look.

ENGONGE, pp. of ENGONCER, fem. —, 1 obstructed, choked up, stopped up. Des tuyaux —, pipes choked up. Les moulins sont —, the mills are choked up. 2 med. Une glande —, an obstructed gland. 3 (gonfle) swelled.

ENGONGEMENT, ang-gor-zu-mang, sm. 4 obstruction, stoppage. 2 med. congestion.

ENGONGER, ang-gor-zhay, va. 1 to choke up, to stop up, to obstruct. (by extension) La foule engorgeait le couloir étroit et sombre, the crowd stopped up the dark and narrow passage. Lamart. 2 med. to congest.

S'ENGONGER, vpr. 4 to be choked up, to be stopped up. 2 med. to be stopped up, obstructed.

ENGOUÉ, pp. of ENGONER, fem. —, 1 obstructed. Avoir le gosier —, to have an obstruction in the throat. 2 fig. infatué. Il est fort — de cet ouvrage, he is quite infatuated with that work. Après m'être — de M. B., after being so infatuated with Mr. B. J.-J. Rouss.

ENGOUEMENT, ang-goo-mang, sm. 4 (empechement) obstruction (in the throat). 2 fig. (admiration exagérée) infatuation. Au bout de quelques mois l' — disparait, le dégoûtement lui succède, at the end of a few months the infatuation disappears and is succeeded by disparagement. Lamart.

ENGOUER, ang-gway, ro. NOUS ENGOURIS; VOUS ENGOURIEZ. (Lat. angere) to half-choke, to obstruct the throat of.

S'ENGOURIR, vpr. 4 to half-choke one's self, to obstruct one's throat. 2 fig. S' — d'une personne, d'une chose, to be infatuated with a person, a thing. On s'engouait leurs manières, on s'engouait même de leur costume, their manners were aped, their very dress created an infatuation. Aug. Th.

ENGOUFFRER, ang-goo-fray, va. (absorber, engloûter) to engulf, to absorb, to swallow up. Le second engouffre ses petites jambes dans un grand pantalon à la mameluk, the second thrusts his little legs into a wide pair of Mameluck trousers. Th. Gaut.

S'ENGOUFFRER, vpr. (des rivières, etc. of rivers, etc.) to be infused; (du vent, of the wind) to blow hard. Le vent s'engouffrait dans la cheminée, the wind rumbled in the chimney. (by extension) La mer boursoffrait ses vagues comme des monts dans le canal où nous nous trouvons engouffrés, the sea swelled its waves like mountains in the channel in which we were engulfed. Chat. Les plus téméraires et les plus robustes s'engouffraient sous la voûte qui enroulait du Carrusel le jardin, the boldest and strongest ran into the vaulted passage leading from the Carrusel to the garden. Lamart.

ENGOULE, ang-goo-ly, ra. (Lat. gula) pop. to swallow up, to gobble up.

ENGOULEVENT, ang-gool-vang, sm. ord. post-sucker.

ENGOURDI, ang-goor-dee, pp. of ENGOURDIR, fem. —, e. Avoir la jambe —, to have one's leg benumbed. fig. Un esprit —, a heavy, dull understanding. Une âme —, a torpid soul.

ENGOURDIR, ang-goor-dee, ra. 4 (rendre comateux) to benumb, to render torpid. Le froid engourdit les mains, cold benumbs the hands. absol. La sommeil engourdit, sleep renders torpid. 2 fig. to stupefy, to blind. L'oisiveté engourdit l'esprit, idleness blinds the intellect. La misère reveille enfin nos génies, que le plaisir avait engourdis, poverty at length roused our invention which pleasures had blunted. Le Sage.

s'ENGOURDIR, vpr. to be benumbed, to grow, to become torpid. L'écureuil ne s'engourdit pas pendant l'hiver, the squirrel does not become torpid during the winter. Buff. fig. Si vous n'exercez votre esprit, il s'engourdira, if you do not exercise your mind, a torpor will steal over it. Boss.

ENGOURDISSEMENT, ang-goor-diss-mang, sm. sluggishness, dullness, numbness, benumbedness, torpor. 1 — des jambes, a numbness in the legs. fig. L' — dans lequel vous laissez votre âme, the state of torpor in which you suffer your soul to lie. Volt. Me reprochant sans cesse moi —, ma bêtise, incessantly reproaching me with my dullness and stupidity. J.-J. Rousseau.

ENGRAISSE, ang-gray, sm. 4 (herbages) fat pasture, feeding land. Mettre des bœufs à l' —, to set oxen to fatten; to turn oxen out to fat. 2 (pour les volailles) fattening food. Mettre des chapons, des oies à l' —, to cram, to give fattening food to capons, geese. 3 (lumiers, etc.) manure.

ENGRAISSE, ppa of ENGRAISSER, fem. — e, fattened, grown fat. fig. Un commis — des malheurs de la France, a clerk grown fat upon the misfortunes of France. Boil. C'était une moisson — e du sang des apôtres, that harvest sprang up from the blood of the Apostles. Chat.

ENGRAISSEMENT, ang-grays-mang, sm. 4 (action d'engraisser) fattening. 2 (état de celui qui devient gras) corpulence, stoutness.

ENGRAISSER, ang-gray-say, va. 1 to 'fatten (des bœufs, des moutons, de la volaille, etc., qzen sheep, fowl, etc.). 2 fig. (des terres, de lands) to manure. Mille autres fleuves l'engraissent (la Louisiane) de leur limon, a thousand other rivers enrich it with their mud. Chat. 3 (soutiller de graisse) to grease. See GRAISSER.

s'ENGRAISSER, vpr. 1 to fatten, to grow fat, to get, to become, to grow corpulent, fat, stout. Le porc à s' — coûtera peu de son, the pig will easily be fattened. La Font. fig. Engraisste-toi du sang des malheureux, batten on the blood of the wretched. Boil. S' — dans une affaire, to grow rich in an affair. 2 (des terres, de lands) to fatten (upon), to be enriched (with). Plus d'un guéret s'engraisse du sang de plus d'une bande, more than one piece of fallow land fattened upon the blood of more than one band. La Font. 3 (des liqueurs, du vin, of liquors, wine) to thicken, to grow ropy. Ce vin, cette liqueur s'engraisse, this wine, this liquor grows ropy.

ENGRAISSER, vn. (devenir gras) to get, to grow, to become corpulent, fat, stout, to fatten. Étant de noce, il faut malgré moi que j'engraisse, as I am invited to a wedding, I cannot fail to grow fat. La Font. On n'engraisse pas au métier que je fais, the life I lead is not likely to fatten me. Jacq. prov. fig. Il engraisse de malédictions, he thrives on curses.

ENGRAÎNEMENT, ang-granz-mang, sm. getting in, housing (corn).

ENGRAÎNER, ang-granz-zhay, va. nous ENGRAÎNONS; IL ENGRAÎNE, to get in, to house (corn).

ENGRAVEMENT, ang-grav-mang, sm. stranding.

ENGRAVER, ang-grav-ay, va. 4 to strand. 2 naut. — des futailles, to stow the water-casks of a ship in the ballasts.

s'ENGRAVER, vpr. to strand.

ENGRAVER, vn. to strand.

ENGIELE, ang-gray-lay, adj. m. fem. — e, her, engrafted.

ENGIELEIRE, ang-gray-lûr, sf. 1 purf.

2 her, engraving.

ENGRENAJE, ang-gruh-nazh, sm. mech. gear, gearing.

ENGRENER, ang-gruh-nay, va. s'ENGRENE; IL ENGRENE. 1 to put corn into, to feed. — la tremie, to put corn into the mill-hopper. fig. absol. Puisqu'il a engrené, c'est à lui à mouler, since he began the thing, it is for him to go on with it. fig. Bien —, mal —, to begin well, to begin badly. 2 (nourrir avec du grain) to feed with corn (des chevaux, horses) de la volaille, poultry).

ENGRENER, vn. mech. to work into each other.

s'ENGRENER, vpr. mech. to work into each other. fig. Nos atomes crochus se sont engrenés les uns dans les autres fort lestement, we cottoned together almost at first sight. Jacq.

ENGRENER, va. naut. — une pompe, to fetch a pump.

ENGRENURE, ang-gruh-nûr, sf. mech. working into each other, catching, tooth-ing, cogging.

s'ENGRENULE, ang-grûm-lay, vpr. to cogulate, to clot.

ENHARDIR, ang-ar-deer, va. to embolden. Ce bon succès l'a enhardi, that good success has emboldened him. Tribly qu'enhardissait l'assoupissement de sa bien-aimée, T. rendered bold by the drowsiness of his beloved. Nod.

s'ENHARDIR, vpr. to make bold. Je me suis enhardi à faire cette demande, I have made bold to take this step. Il voyait les esprits s' — insensiblement contre les doctrines établies, he saw the minds of men acquiring by degrees boldness against established doctrines. Boss.

ENHARMONIQUE, ang-nar-mo-nik, adj. mf. (Lat. enharmonic) nous, enharmonic.

ENHARNACHÉ, ppa of ENHARNACHER, fem. — e, fig. (in joke) Vous vous êtes bien —, plaisamment —, you are oddly accoutred.

ENHARNACHER, ang-ar-nash-ay, va. to harness, to accoutre. fig. Vous m'avez-vous du monde, de vous être fait — de la sorte? are you making game of us to have tricked yourself out in that manner? Nol.

ENIGMATIQUE, ay-nig-mat-ik, adj. mf. enigmatic, enigmatical.

ENIGMATIQUEMENT, ay-nig-mat-ik-mang, adv. enigmatically.

ENIGME, ay-nig-m, sf. (Gr.) 1 enigma, riddle. Proposer une —, to give a riddle to guess, to propose an enigma. Deviner une —, le mot d'une —, to guess a riddle. 2 fig. (discours, chose difficile à comprendre) enigma, riddle. Sa conduite est une —, his conduct is an enigma. Voilà le mot de l' —, the murder's out, the mystery is explained.

ENIVRANT, ang-ne-vray, vpr. of ENIVRER, adj. m. fem. — e, intoxicating, inebriating. Boisson — e, intoxicating drink. fig. Louanges — e, intoxicating praise. Ce pouvoir — qui change l'homme en dieu, that enpowering power that transforms a man into a god. V. Hug.

ENIVRE, ppa of ENIVRER, fem. — e, intoxicated. Des ours — e de raisins, bears intoxicated with vine-grapes. Chat. fig. — de sa fortune, de sa gloire, intoxicated with one's fortune, one's glory. N. de sa grandeur n'était pas —, N. was not intoxicated with his grandeur. Rac.

Un fat en tube — de lui-même, a gowned cozzomb full of self-conceit. Volt.

ENIVREMENT, ang-ne-vrab-mang, sm. intoxication. fig. L' — des passions, the intoxication of the passions. Sa tête n'avait pu résister à l' — de ses succès, his brain was turned by his successes. Chat.

ENIVRER, ang-ne-vray, va. (from ivre) to intoxicate, to inebriate, to make drunk, tipsy. (by extension) La musique, la danse, le festin enivraient tous les conviés, the music, dancing, feasting intoxicated all the guests. Lamart. Certaines odeurs enivrent, some odours intoxicate. fig. La prospérité enivre, prosperity intoxicates. Ce nectar dont nous enivrons tous les dieux de la terre, c'est la louange, the nectar with which we intoxicate all the great ones of the earth, is praise. La Font. Ils espéraient tromper l'esprit du siècle en l'enivrant de conquêtes, they hoped to deceive the spirit of the age by intoxicating it with conquests. Lamart.

s'ENIVRER, vpr. to get intoxicated, drunk, tipsy. fig. Des applaudissements dont il s'enivra trop peut-être, applause with which he was perhaps too easily intoxicated. Aug. Tb. Je l'ai vu s' — en marchant du plaisir de la voir, I have seen him whilst walking get intoxicated with the pleasure of seeing her. Rac. Il s'enivrait du vertige révolutionnaire comme on s'enivre du vin, the revolutionary vertigo intoxicated him like wine. Lamart. Reads-lui compte du sang dont tu t'es enivré, answer to him for the blood with which thou hast glutted thyself. Rac. S' — de popularité to be intoxicated with popularity. Lamart.

ENJAMBÉ, ppa of ENJAMBER, fem. — e. Être haut —, to be long-legged. fig. M. voila le mieux — de la troupe, here — on the briskest of the troop. Jacq.

ENJAMBÉE, ang-zhang-bay, sf. stride. Faire de grandes — *e*s, to take long strides. Le brigand revint en trois — *e*s, the brigand came back in three strides. Ab. Je franchis d'une — le C., I crossed the C. with a single stride. Ab. Il y a d'ici là trois — *e*s, it is three strides to there. Me voici courant le monde à bien plus grandes — *e*s, and now I am making much longer travels. Jacq.

ENJAMBEMENT, ang-zhang-mang, sm. versil. running of the sense into the next line.

ENJAMBER, ang-zhang-bay, vn. 4 to stride. Il a enjambé par-dessus, he strode over. 2 (faire de grands pas) to stride along. Voyez comme il enjambe! he took what strides he takes! 3 fig. (des choses, of things) (avancer) to jul, to project. 4 fig. versil. Un vers enjambe sur un vers suivant, one line runs into the next. 5 fig. (osurper) to encroach.

ENJAMBER, va. to stride, to stride over, to bestride. — le ruisseau, to stride over the stream. Enjambant deux ou trois marches à la fois, taking two or three steps at a stride. (by extension) Ce pont célèbre enjambe une petite rivière, this celebrated bridge bestrides a small river. Thaut.

ENJAVELER, ang-zhav-lay, va. agri. to sheaf (des bles, corn; des avoines, oats).

ENJEU, ang-zhub, sm. (au jeu, at play) stake. fig. Retirer son —, to withdraw from an enterprise; to declare off.

ENJOINDRE, ang-zhwangdr, ra. con-jug. like joinere, (Lat. injungere) to enjoin, to charge.

ENJOINT, ang-zhwang, ppa of ENJOINDRE, fem. — e, summoned. Il lui est enjoint de se rendre à l'instant même, he is enjoined to repair immediately to. Saint.

ENJOLER, ang-zho-lay, va. to wheedle, to cajole, to inveigle. Ce fripon l'a enjôlé, that rogue inveigled him. Toutes les caresses qu'il vous fait ne sont que pour vous —, he only caresses to wheedle you. Nol.

ENJOLEUR, ang-zho-luhr, sm. fem. ENJOLEUSE, wheedler, inveigler.

ENJOIVEMENT, ang-zho-liv-mang, sm. ornament, embellishment.

ENJOLIVER, ang-zho-le-vay, va. to adorn, to embellish, to set off, to ornament.

ENJOLIVEUR, ang-zho-le-vuhr, sm. adornor, embellisher.

ENJOLIVRE, ang-zho-le-vûr, sf. ornament, embellishment, set-off.

ENJOUE, ang-zho-ay, adj. m. fem. — e, playful, sportive, sprightly. Avec l'humour — e, l'esprit —, l'air —, to have a playful temper, disposition, air. Sa conversation est toujours — e, his conversation is always sprightly. Style —, gay style. Sa lettre est fort — e, his letter is very humorous.

ENJOUEMENT, ang-zhou-mang, sm. playfulness, sportiveness, sprightliness. Donner de l'— à la conversation, to give a sprightly turn to the conversation. Le Sage.

ENKYSTÉ, ang-kis-tay, adj. m. fem. — e, m. fem. encysted.

ENLACÉ, pp. of ENLACER, fem. — e, fig. —, pour danser, par come puissance morale, tied down as it were, by that moral force. Ang. Th.

ENLACEMENT, ang-las-mang, sm. entwining, interlacing, interweaving. (by extension) Ces filines par leur — m'ont toujours rappelés, the intersection of those hills have always recalled to me. Lamart.

ENLACER, ang-las-say, ra. 1 to intertwine, to interlace, to interweave (des rubans l'un dans l'autre, ribbons one into the other). (by extension) — des branches d'arbres les uns dans les autres, to interweave branches of trees. Elles enlachaient leurs bras en dansant, they locked their arms round each other in dancing. — des papiers, to fasten papers. 2 (serrer, étendre) to fold, to clasp. — quelqu'un dans ses bras, to clasp a person in one's arms. Le reptile enlaca de ses replis, the reptile clasped with its folds. fig. Des circonstances qui enlacent tous les mouvements d'un homme dans un piège que, circumstances which so entangle every motion of a man that. Lamart. Les liens dont nos passions nous enlacent, the chains which our passions throw over us. Boss.

S'ENLACER, vpr. to be entwined, interlaced, interwoven. Les branches de ces arbres s'enlacent les uns dans les autres, the branches of those trees are interwoven.

ENLAIDI, ang-lay-dee, ppa. of ENLAIDER, fem. — e, Je la trouve fort — e, I find she has grown very ugly.

ENLAIDER, ang-lay-deer, va. to disfigure. Quelque cet âge ne vous enlaidisse pas, although that age does not make you ugly. G. Sand.

ENLAIDER, m. to grow ugly.

ENLAIDISSEMENT, ang-lay-dis-mang, sm. getting, growing ugly; ugliness, disfigurement.

ENLEVÉ, ppa. of ENLEVER, fem. — e, carried off, away. Une touffe de thym — e au rocher, a bunch of thyme carried off from the rock. Nod. Des dépouilles — es à l'ennemi, spoils taken from the enemy. Qu'il poursuive, s'il veut, sau épouse — e, let him pursue, if he likes, his wife who has been carried off. Rac. Cette marchandise a été hienlé — e, elle s'est — e en moins de rien, those goods were soon bought up in less than no time. fig. mss. L'ouverture a été — e avec beaucoup d'entrain, the overture was played with spirit.

ENLEVEMENT, ang-lay-mang, sm. 1 removal, carrying away. L'— d'un corps, the removal of a body. L'— d'un registre, de pièces, removal, carrying away of a register, of documents. 2 — de marchandises, buying up. 3 carrying off, away, abduction. Lorsqu'on ent procédé à l'— des meubles, when they had proceeded to the carrying off of the furniture. L'— d'une jeune fille, the abduction of a young girl. L'— d'une barricade, the carrying off of a barricade. 4 fine arts. taking off.

ENLEVER, ang-lay, va. s'élève, s'élève, (Lat. levare) 1 (lever en haut) to raise, to lift, to lift up. Il m'enleva comme une plume et me porta, he lifted me up like a feather, and carried me. Ab. Il m'enleva dans ses bras, he took me up in his arms. Ab. 2 (lever en haut avec rapidité, avec violence) to carry away, off. L'oiseau de Jupiter enlevait un moineau, the bird of Jupiter was carrying off a sheep. La Font. Un coup de vent a enlevé le toit de cette maison, the wind has carried away, blown off the roof of that house. prov. fig. Cela enlève la paille, that is decisive. 3 (lever) to carry away, off, to rescue. On le menait en prison, ses amis l'enlevèrent des mains des gendarmes, he was being led off to prison, his friends rescued him from the hands of the gendarmes. Ils enlevèrent les chevaux et les bœufs, they carried off the horses and oxen. Aug. Th. On lui a enlevé sa femme, his wife has been carried off. fig. Le bel espoir l'enlève au triste souvenir, and recollections are effaced in his mind by cheering hope. V. Hug. Tout cela m'enlevait tellement à ma langueur et à ma souffrance que, all that so lifted me up above my languor and suffering that. Lamart. Par ses manières honnêtes et polies, il e leva tout à coup le cœur du vieillard, by his civil and polite manner, he suddenly acquired the affection of the old man. Le Sage. 4 mil. — un poste, une place, une province, etc., to take a post, a place, a province. — une barricade, to carry a barricade. — une place, une ville d'assaut, to carry, to take a place, a town by assault, by assault. 5 fig. — les suffrages, to carry off the votes. 6 fig. mss. to play with spirit (one overture, an overture). 7 fig. (faire rapidement) to despatch. Enlevez-moi cette affaire, despatch that affair. 8 fig. — quelqu'un, to carry away, off. La mort a enlevé ce jeune homme à la fleur de l'âge, death carried off the young man in the flower of his age. 9 fig. (transporter d'admiration) to charm, to gratify, to enrapture. Je te dirai simplement qu'elle doit — tous les spectateurs, I will merely tell you that it is calculated to throw the whole house into raptures. Le Sage. C. harangue quelques pelotons de sectionnaires; il les a enlevés, s'arme d'un fusil, C. addresses a few platoons of the sections, gains them over, takes up a gun. Lamart. Ab. Il y a une certaine force qui enlève, there is a certain force which ravishes. Rac. 10 (emporter) to remove, to take away (des matériaux, materials). Enlevez cela de dessus la table, take that from off the table. fig. Ces paroles enlevaient un poids énorme de mon cœur, those words relieved my heart of an enormous weight. Nod. — un corps, to take up, to remove a body. La justice enleva le corps, the officers of justice removed the body. 11 — des marchandises, to buy up goods. 12 (séparer, détacher) to take off. — la croûte d'un pain, to take off the crust of a pie. — l'écorce d'un arbre, to bark a tree. — la peau d'une partie du corps, to take off the skin of a part of the body. J'enlevai les croûtes à mon chien de peur que, I took off the bells from my dog's neck lest. Lamart. 13 (faire disparaître) to take out. Ce savon enlève les taches, this soap takes out spots. fig. L'œil soufflé tu as enlevé en moi tout ce qu'il y avait de beau et d'honnête, with a single breath thou hast extinguished every right principle within me. Kart.

S'ENLEVER, vpr. 1 to rise. Le ballon s'enleva dans les airs, the balloon rose in the air. Il lui faut pour s'— beaucoup de vent on un lieu élevé, a high wind or an elevated place is necessary for it to rise. Mich. 2 to go off. Cette marchandise s'enlève facilement, these goods go off easily. 3 to come off, to peel off. L'écorce de cet arbre commence à s'—, the bark of this tree is beginning to peel off. 4 to come out. Cette tache ne s'enlève pas aisément, this stain will not come out easily.

ENLEVURE, ang-lay-vr, sf. pimple, blotch.

ENLIER, ang-lay, ra. mason. to bind (courses).

ENLIGNER, ang-le-nyay, ra. arch. to square, to lay out by a line.

ENLUMINE, ppa. of ENLUMINER, fem. — e, (by extension) Appliquant leurs visages — de rouge et de blanc sur le mien, putting their faces coloured with rouge and pearl-powder next to mine. Le Sage. fig. Voir le teint —, to be red in the face. Une face —, a red face.

ENLUMINÉ, ang-lu-me-nay, ra. 1 (colorier) to illuminate (des images, des cartes à jouer, images, cards). fig. — son style, to render one's style florid. 2 fig. (du visage, du teint, of the complexion) to flush, to colour, to inflame.

S'ENLUMINER, vpr. S'— le visage, to rouge, to paint one's face, to rouge one's self.

ENLUMINEUR, ang-lu-me-nubr, sm. fem. ENLUMINEUSE, colourer, illuminator.

ENLUMINURE, ang-lu-me-nur, sf. 1 (art) colouring. 2 (action) colouring. 3 (estampe) coloured print. 4 fig. (du style, of style) tinsel.

ENNEAGONE, ang-nay-ag-on, sm. (Gr.) geom. enneagon, nonagon.

ENNEANDRIE, ang-nay-ang-dree, sf. (Gr.) bot. enneandria.

ENEMI, ang-mee, sm. fem. — e, (Lat. inimicus) 1 enemy, foe. C'est être — de Dieu et des hommes, that is being an enemy of God and man. Il faut être bien — de soi-même pour vouloir, one must be a great enemy to one's self to wish to. Rien n'est si dangereux qu'un ignorant ami, miex vaudrait un sage —, nothing is so dangerous as an ignorant friend, a wise enemy is preferable. La Font. Notre —, c'est notre maître, our real enemy is our master. La Font. Mes défaits déformais sont mes seuls —, henceforth my faults are my only enemies. Boil. (dans le style de la chaire, in a sermon) L'— du genre humain, absol. L'—, the enemy of mankind. 2 absol. L'—, les —, the enemy. Les — viennent, the enemy is coming. A la vue de l'—, at the sight of the enemy. Battre, vaincre, chasser les —, to beat, to vanquish, to drive back the enemy. prov. fig. C'est autant de pris sur l'—, it is so much gained from the enemy. 3 (celui, celle qui a de l'aversion pour) enemy. — des procès, an enemy of lawsuits. — de la contrainte, enemy to constraint. 4 (des animaux, of animals) enemy. Le chien est l'— du chat, the dog is the natural enemy of the cat. 5 (des choses, of things) opposite. L'eau et le feu sont —, fire and water are opposites. 6 (particul.) hateful (to). Le café est — des nerfs, coffee is hateful to the nerves.

ENEMI, adj. m. fem. — e, 1 hostile. Un voisin —, a hostile neighbour. Votre père et moi nous avons longtemps été — l'un de l'autre, your father and I were long hostile to each other. Fen. L'armée —, the hostile army. En pays —, in a hostile country. 2 adverse, contrary. L'islamisme — des arts plastiques, Islamism hostile to the plastic arts. Th. Gaut. poétique. Soos quel astre — faut-il que je sois né? under what unlucky star can I have been born? Rac. La fortune —, adverse fortune. Les vents —, the contrary winds. 3 fine arts. Coûteurs —, repugnant colours.

ENNOBLIR, ang-no-bleer, ra. to ennoble, to exalt, to raise. Ces sentiments vous ennoblissent à mes yeux, those sentiments raise you in my eyes. Les sciences, les beaux-arts ennoblissent une langue, sciences and fine arts ennoble a language. Ces opérations qui ennoblissent le trafic, those operations which ennoble traffic. Ph. Chas. — son style, to ennoble one's style. Généraliser, c'est —, donc prenez le mot général, to generalize is to ennoble, use therefore the general term. Mich.

S'ENNOBLIR, vpr. to be ennobled, exalted, raised.

ENNUI, ang-nuee, sm. (Gr.) 1 weariness, wearisomeness, tedium, irksomeness, ennui. Cette soirée n'était nullement amusante, j'ai cru que j'y perdais d'—, that evening party was by no means amusing.

I was nearly worried to death. Je vous tendrais compagnie de peur que l'— ne vous preenne. I would like you company lest you should be vexed. Le temps long. Mariv. 2 abattement d'esprit) ennui, spleen. L'— est la maladie des gens inutiles, de parassents et des sois, spleen is the malady of useless, lazy and foolish people.
Nod. U — fixe et intense toujours égal à lui-même, a deep-rooted melancholy that never varies. Th. Gaut. L'— est écrit et gravé sur son visage, weari-someness is written and engraved on her countenance. M^{me} de Sév. L'— de la vie, the wearisomeness of life. 3 (déplaisir, chagrin) vexation, annoyance. Cette affaire lui a donné beaucoup d'—, this affair has caused him much annoyance.
L'— de l'absence, the wearisomeness of absence. L'— de son front se cachait sous un bandeau de lin, the cares written on her brow were concealed beneath the veil of a linn. Chai. Le séjour de ce château ne servait qu'à l'irriter sous — to make life seem more tedious to — the Sage. Les — s de la vie, the infirmities of old age.
Un homme accablé d'— s, a man weighed down with care. Je ne pense pas qu'il y ait du mal de noyer qu'onfois vers — s dans le vin du Rhin, I think there is no harm in your drowning care sometimes in a glass of Rhenish. Walz.

ENNUEYANT, ang-núee-yáng, ppr. of ENNUEYER, adj. m. fem. —E, tiresome, annoying, wearisome, tedious, irksome.
ENNUEYÉ, ppa. of ENNUEYER, fem. —E, wearisome. La femme —, an ennuye.
D'on air —, with a listless air.

ENNUYER, ang-nûee-yay, vn. conjug. like ESSUYER, to tire, to become irksome, to annoy, to bore. Un bonheur absolu nous ennuie, absolute happiness is wearisome. Chât. Il m'ennuie à la mort, he bores me to death. Gress. (impers.) Il m'ennuie de ne plus vous voir, I am tired of not seeing you. M^{me} de Sév. Il vous ennuyait d'être maître chez vous, you were tired of being the master in your own house. Mol. Vous ennue-t-il de faire ma commission? does it annoy you to errand my commission? Moss.

S'ennuyer, vpr., to grow weary, to feel dull; s'en aller, vpr., to go away; comme un roi, no king on his throne can be more weary than I. Mussy. S'—à attendre, to get tired of waiting. S'—de quelqu'un, de quelque chose, to long to see a person, to have a thing. S'—du tout, to be disgusted with every thing. J'm'ennuyai d'attendre, I got tired of waiting. L'ennui s'empara de sa captivité, he became weary of his captivity. Aug. Th. Elle s'ennuyait d'être examinée de si près; she felt a repugnance at being examined so closely. Ab. P. enfin s'ennuyant d'être mal logé, P. getting at last tired of being badly lodged. Le Sage.

ENNUEUSEMENT, ăng-nhũe-yôh mãng, adv. tediously, wearisomely, irksomenly.

ENNUYÉUX, ang-núee-yuh, adj. m.
fem. ENNUYÉE, 1 tedious, wearisome.
tiresome, annoying. Livre —, tiresome.
book. Temps —, dull weather. Si je ne vous sais point trop —, if you do not find me too tiresome. B. de S-P.
n'y a rien de si — qu'un homme ennuyé there is nothing so tiresome as a man with the spleen. Jacq. 2 (substantif). C'est — —, an grand —, he is a great bore.

ÉNONCÉ, ppa. of ÉNONCER, lem. —
 1 Les faits —s dans ma lettre, the facts stated in my letter. Volt. 2 sm. law. stat.
ment. declaration. enunciation.

ÉNONCER, ay-nong-say, ra. (L^o enunziare) 1 to state, to declare, to enunciate, to express, to word. 2 law. — fa^o to make a false statement.

S'ÉNONCER, rpr. to express one's self to be expressed. Apprenez à vous moins vulgairement, learn to express yourself less vulgarly. Mol. Ce que l'on conçoit bien s'énonce clairement, what is well conceived is clearly expressed. Boil.

ÉNONCIATIF, ay-nong-syat-if, adj. m.
fem. ÉNONCIATIVE, log. enunciative. Terme = enunciative term.

ENONCIATION, ay-nong-syah-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 enunciation, expression, declaration, statement, wording. L'— de la pensée, the expression of the thought. 2 law. L'— des faits, the statement of the facts. 3 (la manière de s'enoncer) enunciation. Avoir l'— facile, l'— heoureuse, to have an easy, a happy delivery.

ENORGUEILLIR, ang-nor-gay-yeer, va. to make, to render proud, to puff up. Les succès l'enorgueillissent, success has made him proud.

S'ENORGUEILLIR, rpr. to grow, to get proud (of), to pride one's self upon. S'— de son savoir, de ses richesses, to pride one's self on one's learning, on one's riches.

ÉNORME, ay - norm, adj. mf. (Lat. enormis) 4 enormous, huge. Un colosse d'une grandeur —, a colossus of enormous size. La mer est devenue —, the sea rose to an enormous height. Lamart. fig. 1 fait que la justice de Dieu soit — comme sa miséricorde, the justice of God must be like his mercy, immense. Pasc. 2 fig. (in a bad part) enormous, heinous. Faire de gains —s, to make enormous profits. Crime —, heinous crime. Une faute —, a grievous fault.

ÉNORMÉMENT, ay-nor-may-mang, ad- enormously, hugely. Être — grand, — gros, to be enormously great, large. Je vous plains —, mon cher, I pity you extre mely, my dear fellow. V. Hug.

ÉNORMITÉ, ay-nor-me-tay, sf. (Lat. enormitas) 1 enormousness, hugeness. 2 fig. (de crimes, etc., of crimes, etc. enormity, heinousness. L'— du cas, the enormity of the case.

ENQUÉRANT, ang-kay-ràng, adj. m. fem. —E, obsol. prying, curious, inquisitive quaisire. JE M'ENQUIRAI, àng-kay-reer, rpr. irres-QUE JE M'ENQUÉRIS, TO T'ENQUÉRES, rpr. irres-QUIERT, NOTS NOTS EXQUÉRONS, VOUS VOUS

 ENQUÉRÊZ, ILS S'ENQUÉRIENT; JE M'ENQUÉ-RAIS; JE M'ENQUIS; JE M'ENQUERRAIS; JE M'ENQUERRAIS; ENQUÉRIS-TOI, QU'IL S'EN-QUIERE; QUE JE M'ENQUIRE; QUE JE M'EN-QUISSÉ, (Lat. inquirere) to inquire, to make inquiries. Il faut s'en. It is necessary to fait, we must inquire into the truth of the s'enquêt s'enquêt s'il n'y avait point de barque, he inquired whether there was uo boat. M^{me} de Lafayette. La curiosité q-nous porte à nous — de la famille de hommes illustres, the curiosity which induces us to make inquiries about the famous of illustrious men. Chat. Els'enquêt dans les maisons en question.
 she made inquiries in the houses in ques-s'enquêt. s'enquêt. Ne se s'enquêt de que j'étais devenu, nobody inquired about what had become of me. G. Sand.

ENQUERRE, ang-kayr, va. 1 observe to inquire. A —, to be inquired into.
her Armes à — false arms.

ENQUÊTE, âog-ket, sf. 1 law. inquiry, inquest. — verbale, sommaire verbal, summary inquest. 2 admin. co inquiry. Commission d'—, a committee of inquiry — parlementaire, inquiry.

s'ENQUÊTER, ang-kay-lay, vpr. obs to inquire

ENQUÊTEUR, ang-kay-tuhr, adj.
 obsol. examining, inquiring.

ENRACINÉ, ppa. of ENRACINER, te —E, rooted. fig. Un mal —, a deeply rooted evil. Des préjugés —s, inverted prejudices. L'habitude de la familiarité si fort —e dans ce pays, the habit familiarity so deeply rooted in that count-Aug. Th.

s'ENRACINER, ang-ras-e-nay, trpr. to take root. fig. Si cette opinion vient à s'enracciner dans les esprits, should this opinion take root in the minds of men. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Il ne faut pas laisser enracciner les abus, les mauvaises habitudes, we must not let abuses, bad habits take root.

ENRAGE, ppa. of ENRAGER, fem. — E.
1 mad, rabid. Un chien —, a mad dog.
2 fig. enraged. Le plus —, de tous irrités.
3 fig. the most furious of all was M. Abel.
Etre en contre quelqu'un, to be enraged against a person. Un mal —, an excruciating pain. Une douleur —, a raging pain. Que faire —, outrageous hunger.
Musique — a caché concert. prov. fig.
Manger de la vache —, to suffer great hardships and privations. 3 (substantive).
madman. Se battre comme un —, crier comme un —, to fight, to shout like a madman.

ENRAGEANT, âng-razh-âng, ppr. o.
ENRAGER, adj. m. fem. —E, fig. madden ing, irritating, provoking.

ENRAGER, en-rah-zay, vn. NOT ENRAGED.
RAGEONS, il enrage, absol. to go mad.
Il enrage mad, 2 fig. (éprouver une violence) doublet to be mad. Il enrage des dents du mal de dents, he is mad with the tooth-ache. 3 fig. (éprouver un violent besoin) to be mad. Il enrage de faim he is ravenously hungry. Il enrage de joie, de parler, he is mad for gambling for talking. 4 fig. (avoir un violent dépit) to be vexed, enraged, furious. Je me rétirai 2 mon bel appartement que j'en-rageais pour lors d'avoir lonné, I withdrew to my fine apartment which I was vexed at having hired. Le Sage. Il enrage dans sa peau, he is mad with rage. Faire quelque'un, to enrage a person. Il n'enrage pas pour mentir, it comes natural to him to tell lies; a lie will not choke him.

ENRAYEMENT, ăng-ray-yuh-mang, EN RAYEMENT, ăng-ray-mang, sm. pulling on the drag; locking, skidding.

ENRAYER, ang-ray-yay, ra. conjug.
like PAYER, 1 (garair en roue de rais to spoke, to put spokes to. — ut roue, to spoke a wheel. 2 (arrêter en roue par les rais) to put the drag on to lock. absol. La descente est rapide il faut —, the descent is rapid, the drag must be put on. 3 fig. (intransitif (s'arrêter) to stop, to rein up. Pour — s'il se pouvait, dans cette déronde du affaires, to prevent, if possible, affairs from going down-hill in this manner.
Mich. A cri, to plough the first furrow

ENRAYÛRE, ang-ray-yûr, sf. draskid, lock-chain.
ENBËGIMENTËR, ang-ray-zhe-mân ta, va. to embody, to form into regiment (by extension) Elle les (les fleurs) erégimentait par ordre et par race, & classified them according to their respecti-orders and species. Saint-

ENREGISTREMENT, ang-rah-zhis-tru niàng, sm. 1 registrature, registering entry. Bureau d'—, register-office. Dr d'—, registry dues. anc. L'— d'une c donnance, d'une déclaration du roi, etc the registering of an ordinance, of a claration of the king, etc. 2 (écrit) istration. 3 (bureau) register-office.

ENREGISTRER, Ang-rub-zhis-tray, to register, to enter, to record, to note. — des faits, to record facts.
haine des Moscovites enregistré soigneusement tous les méfaits, the hatred the Moscovites carefully treasured up the crimes. Mërim. Je ne sais pas pour — toutes ses actions, I am there to take note of all his actions. (mentionner sur un registre public) register, to enroll (un acte de vente, judgement, a deed of sale, a judgment, etc. — one ordonnance, to register ordinance.

ENRIHUMÉ, ppa. of ENRHEMER, to —E. Il est toujours —, he has always got a cold.

ENRHUMER, âng-rô-may, va. to give a cold to. Le moindre changement de temps l'enrhume, the least change in the weather gives him a cold.

SENREUMER, vpr. to catch cold, a cold, to get a cold, to take cold.

ENRICHIR, âng-re-sheo, ppa. of ENRICHI, fem. — E. 1. Un homme —, a man grows rich. Une bague — de diamants, a ring set with diamonds. 2 (substantif.) upstart.

ENRICHI, âng-re-sheer, va. 1 to enrich. Ce trafic l'a bien enrichi, that trade has made him very rich. Ses dépouilles ne vous enrichiront pas, his spoils will not enrich you. Ab. fig. La peste capable d'— en un jour l'Achéron, the plague capable of enriching Acheron in one day. La Font. 2 (ornier) to adorn, to embellish, to set. — une montre de pierres, to set a watch with diamonds. — un livre de figures, to embellish a book with cuts. 3 fig. (rendre riche, orner) to enrich (with). Vous faites fort bien, pensolez par, you are very right, whilst you are young, to enrich your memory with. Volt. Il a enrichi son ouvrage de recherches curieuses, he has enriched his work with curious researches. — un conte, un récit, to embellish a tale, a narration. — une langue, to enrich a language.

S'ENRICHI, vpr. to grow rich, to thrive. S'— de ses épargnes, to grow rich by saving. S'— aux dépens d'autrui, des dépouilles d'autrui, to grow rich at the expense of others, with the spoils of others. J'irai m'— au Brésil pour épouser Virginie, I will go to Brazil to grow rich that I may marry Virginia. B. de S-P. L'ardeur de S'— chassa la bonne foi, the thirst for gold drove away good faith. Boile. fig. La mémoire s'enrichit par la lecture, the memory is enriched by reading. — prov. Qui paye ses dettes, s'enrichit, he that pays his debts grows rich.

ENRICHISSEMENT, âng-re-shis-mang, sm. 1 enriching. fig. L'— d'une langue, the enriching of a language. 2 fig. embellishment.

ENRÔLE, ppa. of ENRÔLER, fem. — E. (de soldats, de matelots, of soldiers, of sailors) enrolled, enlisted. Les jeunes gens qui préféraient l'agriculture étaient — dans la tribu des laboureurs, young men who preferred agriculture were enrolled in the class of husbandmen. Chât.

ENRÔLEMENT, âng-rôl-mang, sm. 4 (de soldats, de matelots, of soldiers, of sailors) (action) enlistment, enrolment. Son — a été volontaire, his enlistment was voluntary. 2 (factif) enrolment.

ENRÔLER, âng-rô-lay, va. to enlist, to enroll. — des soldats, des matelots, to enlist soldiers, sailors. (by extension) La philosophie moderne avait enrôlé tous les esprits, modern philosophy had enlisted every mind in its service. Lamart.

S'ENRÔLER, vpr. 1 to enlist, to enlist one's self, to enroll one's self. S'— dans l'infanterie, dans la cavalerie, to enlist in the infantry, in the cavalry. 2 (by extension) (s'affilier) to enroll one's self. S'— dans un parti, to enroll one's self in a party. S'— dans une troupe de comédiens, to enroll one's self in a troop of comedians.

ENRÔLER, âng-rô-luhr, sm. recruiting, arming.

ENROUE, ppa. of ENROUER, fem. — E. hoarse. Étie —, to be hoarse. Avoir la voix —, to have a hoarse voice. (adverbial) Parler —, to speak in a hoarse voice.

ENROUEMENT, âng-rôo-mang, sm. hoarseness. Il a un très-grand —, he is very hoarse.

ENROUER, âng-rôo-ay, va. (Lat. rancari) to make hoarse.

S'ENROUER, vpr. to grow, to get, to become hoarse, to make one's self hoarse. Il s'est enrôlé à force de crier, he has shouted himself hoarse.

ENROUILLE, ppa. of ENROUILLER, fem. — E. Casserole —, soup grown rusty. fig. Le savoir — des néglais, the mastery learning of pedants. Mol.

ENROUILLEMENT, âng-rôo-yuh-mang, sm. rusting, rustiness.

ENROUILLER, âng-rôo-ay, va. to rust. L'humidité enraille le fer, damp rusts iron. fig. L'oisiveté enraille l'esprit, the mind grows rusty in idleness.

S'ENROUILLER, vpr. to grow rusty, to rust. Le fer s'enrouille, iron grows rusty. fig. Il s'est tout à fait enrrouillé dans sa province, he has grown quite rusty in the province.

ENROULÉ, ppa. of ENROULER, fem. — E. rolled round.

ENROULEMENT, âng-rôol-mang, sm. 1 rolling. L'— des feuilles dans le bouquet, the twisting of leaves in the bud. 2 arch. scroil. L'— d'un chapeau, the scroil of a capitol. 3 gard. L'— d'une plate-bande de buis de gazon, the scroil of a plat-band of box or turf.

ENROULER, âng-rôo-lay, va. to roll, to roll up. Il enroulait si doucement les bandes autour de mon cou-de-pied, he wound the bands so gently round my instep. Ab. Enroulant sa toga autour de son bras, rolling his toga round his arm. — une pièce d'étoffe sur le cylindre, to roll a piece of stuff on the cylinder.

S'ENROULER, vpr. to roll, to twist round. La vigne s'enroule autour des arbres, the vine winds itself round the trees. Une grosse tresse de cheveux s'enroulait sur le bouret, a large tress of hair was rolled on the cap. Ab.

ENRUBANNÉ, ppa. of ENRUBANNER, fem. — E. Clapnet —, hat trimmed with ribbons.

ENRUBANNER, âng-rû-ban-ay, va. 1 to trim with ribbons (un chapeau, a hat). 2 ironic. (décorer d'un ordre) to decorate.

S'ENRUBANNER, vpr. to deck one's self out with ribbons.

ENSARLEMENT, âng-sabî-mang, sm. 1 sand-bank. 2 engineer, ballasting.

ENSABLER, âng-sà-blav, va. to run on a sand-bank.

S'ENSABLER, vpr. to run on a sand-bank.

ENSACHER, âng-sash-ay, va. to lag (des noix, des pommes, des grains, walnuts, apples, seeds).

ENSAISEMENT, âng-say-zin-mang, sm. feud, law, seisin.

ENSAISENER, âng-say-ze-nay, va. lend. law: to vest, to invest with (un contrat, a contract).

ENSAIGLANTE, ppa. of ENSAIGLANTER, fem. — E. poetic. Le fleuve roula des ondes —, the river rolled bloody waters.

ENSAIGLANTER, âng-sang-glang-lay, va. to stain with blood. Des querelles ensanglantèrent la terre de l'hospitalité, quarrels stained the land of hospitality with blood. Chât. fig. Ce prince eusanglant son règne, this prince has stained his reign with blood. fig. — des jeax, to end games in bloodshed. — la scène, to spill blood upon the stage.

ENSEIGNANT, âng-say-nyang, vpr. of ENSEIGNER, J'ai taché, en leor — les voies du salut, de l'erre, by showing them the right path, to. Chât. adj. m. fem. — teaching. Corps —, body of persons engaged in instruction.

ENSEIGNE, âng-say-nyuh, fig. 4 obsol. mark, token, sign. Dans les frelons ces — étaient pareilles, the drones had the same characteristic signs. La Font. Donner de bonnes —, de fausses —, to give true, false tokens. A bonnes —, on sure grounds, on good security; deservedly, justly. A telles —, que, so much so that, by the same token that. C'est Don G., à telles —, qu'il n'a ce matin abordé dans la rue, it is Don G., by this token that he accosted me this morning in the street. Le Sage. 2 (d'anne botanique, of a shop sign, sign-post. L'ange à l'—, de, to put up at the sign of. Prendre pour —, to take for a sign. (disparagingly) Ce portrait, le tableau n'est bon qu'à faire une — à bière, this portrait, this painting is only fit for a sign-post. prov. fig. A bon vin il ne faut point d'—, good wine needs no bush. fam. Nous sommes tous les deux logés à la même —, we are both in the same predicament. 3 (drapeau) ensign, colours, standard, flag. Marcher —, s déployer, to march with flying colours. fig. Marcher, combattre sous les —, de quelqu'un, to march, to fight under the banner of a person. 4 anc. (charge) ensigny. 5 sm. (celui qui avait cette charge) ensign. Un — aux gardes, an ensign in the guards. 6 sm. — de vaisseau, second lieutenant.

ENSENÉ, ppa. of ENSEIGNER, fem. — E. taught, instructed. Sire, répondit la jeune fille, tant elle avait été bien —, Sire, answered the young girl, so well had she been taught. Bar. Celui-ci — par C. se leva, the latter having received his lesson from C. rose. Chât.

ENSEIGNEMENT, âng-say-nyuh-mang, sm. 1 instruction, precept, teaching, lesson. Les maîtres d'autrui nous doivent servir d'—, we ought to learn from the misfortunes of others. 2 l'action on part d'enseigner) instruction, tuition. L'Université cessa ses prédications et ses —, the University interrupted its lectures and teaching. Bar. L'— public, public instruction. L'— primaire, elementary instruction. L'— mutuel, mutual instruction. 3 anc. law. proof, voucher. Fournir des titres et —, to furnish titles and vouchers.

ENSEIGNER, âng-say-nyay, va. 4 (instruire) to teach, to instruct. C. enseignait son voisin et était enseigné par lui. C. taught his neighbour and was taught by him. Chât. C'est du pied de la croix que sont partis douze législateurs, pour — le monde, twelve law-givers set out from the foot of the cross to instruct the world. Chât. 2 (démontrer) to teach. J'enseignais les premiers éléments de la botanique à M., I taught the first elements of botany to M. Ab. — un art, une science, to teach an art, a science. — une langue, to teach a language. Il faut infiniment d'esprit pour — ce qu'on ignore, it requires a fine genius to teach what one is wholly a stranger to one's self. Montesq. Lorsque J'ai vu que les talents qu'on m'enseignait ne me procuraient pas, etc., when I saw that the accomplishments I was taught did not procure me, etc. B. de S-P. — à faire quelque chose, to teach how to do a thing. — à monter à cheval, to teach riding. Il enseigne comment on fait telle chose, he teaches how such a thing is to be done. 3 (indiquer) to show, to tell. Avant de nous séparer, je lui enseignai ma demeure, before parting, I gave him my address. Le Sage. Enseignez-moi dans quel auteur vous apprîtes, do tell me in what author you learned. Flor. Il a voulu nous — par là que, he wished by that to show us that. Nod.

ENSELLÉ, âng-say-lay, adj. m. fem. — E. (d'un cheval, of a horse) saddled-backed.

ENSEMBLE, âng-sanghî, oda. 1 together. Vivre —, to live together. Ils avaient grandi —, ils avaient vagabondé —, — ils s'étaient engagés soldats, they had grown up together, they had led a roving life together, and together they had turned soldiers. Saint. Venez sous mon manteau, nous marcherons —, come under my cloak, we will walk together. Flor. Ces deux choses vont souvent —, those two things often go together. Mich. Mettre —, to put together. Ôter d'—, to take to pieces. Il a acheté tout cela —, he bought it will that in one lot. 2 (simultanément) at the same time. Ils voulaient tous — accablent Mithridates, they all wanted to crush Mithridates at the same time. Rac. Que je sois tout — idolâtre et chrétien? would you have me be at the same time an idolater and a Christian? Corn. L'heureux lecteur pleure et rit tout —, the delighted reader weeps and laughs all at the same time. C. Del. 3 point. Cette figure, cette tête est bien —, n'est pas —, that face, that head is well-proportioned, is not disproportioned. 4 Le tout —, the whole. Tout cela — ne faisait pas un beau seigneur, all that put together did not make up a very fine lord. Le Sage. 5 sm. (ce qui résulte de l'union de différentes parties) ensemble, whole. L'— du camp, l'— de la ville, the whole camp, the whole town. L'— d'une science, the whole of a science. Ce coup d'œil d'—, that comprehensive sight. Lamart. 6 sm. (accord) harmony, uniformity. Les soldats commencent à mettre de l'— dans leurs mouvements, the soldiers begin to be uniform in their exercise. Les choristes sont exécutés avec beaucoup d'—, the choruses keep time well together. 7 mus. Morceau d'—, piece of music for several voices.

ENSENEMENT, ppa. of ENSEMENTER, fem. —, sowed. Des terres —es, fields sowed.

ENSENEMENT, âg-s-màng-màng, sm. sowing.

ENSEMENTER, âg-s-màng-say, ra. to sow (un champ, une terre, a field, a piece of ground).

ENSERER, âg-say-ray, ra. 1 to shut up, to enclose. Dans la cave il enserre l'argent et sa joie à la fois, in the cellar he buries his money and his joy at the same time. La Font. L'avaré a moins de part au trésor qu'il enserre, the miser has less share in the treasure that he locks up. La Font. Sa ceinture enserrait dans son pilé une bourse de cuir, his girdle contained in its folds a leathern purse. Ab. fig. L'Angléterre, ce polyèbre immense dont les bords enserrant la planète, England, that immense polyhedron whose arms encircle the globe. Mich. fig. Le délire du cœur en ses détours d'enserrer rien qui ne soit déclaré par les dieux, the inmost recesses of the heart contain nothing that is concealed from the gods. La Font. 2 gard. to house, to put into a green-house (des oranges, orange-trees).

ENSEVELI, âg-suhv-lee, ppa. of ENSEVELIR, fem. —, 1 buried. (by extension) Les autels furent — sous les ruines du plafond, the altars were buried under the ruins of the ceiling. fig. Que d'actions immortelles ont été —es dans l'oubli! how many immortal actions have been buried in oblivion! Montesq. 2 fig. absorbed, buried. Etre — dans une profonde rêverie, to be buried in thought. Etre — dans le chagrin, to be absorbed by grief. Etre — dans les livres, to be buried in books.

ENSEVELIR, âg-suhv-leer, ra. to shroud, to lay out (a corpse); to bury. fig. La terre ensevelit graduellement les monuments des hommes dans les grandes villes, the earth gradually swallows up the monuments of men in great towns. Lamart. fig. — un nom dans l'oubli, to bury a name in oblivion.

S'ENSEVELIR, epr. to be buried, to bury one's self. fig. S'— sous les ruines de sa patrie, to be buried under the ruins of one's country. fig. J'ai vu de grandes dames quitter la terre pour s'— dans des cloîtres, I have seen great ladies leave the court to bury themselves in cloisters. Chat. Je vais m'— au château de ma femme, I am going to bury myself in my wife's country-house. St-B.

ENSEVELISSEMENT, âg-suhv-lis-màng, sm. shrouding, laying out, burying.

ENSEVELISSEUR, âg-suhv-le-suh, sm. fem. ENSEVELISSEUSE, layer-out.

ENSIFORME, âg-se-form, adj. mf. ensiform.

ENSORCELER, âg-sors-lay, ra. 1 to bewitch. 2 fig. to bewitch. Il ensorcelle tous ceux qui ne pouvaient plus le souffrir, he bewitches all those who could no longer abide him. Fén.

ENSORCELEUR, âg-sors-luhr, sm. fem. ENSORCELEUSE, bewitcher.

ENSORCELLEMENT, âg-sor-say-làng, sm. bewitching, bewitchment, bewitching, witchcraft. fig. Défilez-vous des —s de la géométrie, be on your guard against the charm of geometry. Fén.

ENSORFRER, âg-sor-fray, ra. to sulphur, to brimstone.

ENSUITE, âg-sueit, adv. afterwards, next, then. — nous ferons le reste, we will do the rest afterwards. Vous irez là —, you will go there afterwards. Deux grands laquais venaient —, two tall lackeys followed next. Le Sage. D'abord elle n'est pas bleue, et — elle est charmante, in the first place, it is not blue, in the next, it is charming. Muss. Et — que ferons-nous? and what shall we do then? Eh bien. — qu'arrivera-t-il? well, what then? what will happen?

ENSUITE DE, prep. — de cela, after that. — de quoi, after which.

ENSCIVANT, âg-suev-ang, ppr. of ENSUIVRE, adj. m. fem. —, law. absol. following, ensuing.

S'ENSUIVRE, âg-suev-r, epr. irreg. (is only employed in the third person) 1 to follow. Le premier chapitre et tout ce qui s'ensuit, the first chapter and all that follows. 2 (deriver) to ensue, to spring, to proceed. Ils firent une trêve et la paix s'ensuivit, they made a truce and the peace ensued. La Font. Jusqu'à ce que mort s'ensuive, till death follows. Le tribunal cassa la procédure et tout ce qui s'était ensuivi, the tribunal quashed the proceedings and all that had ensued from them. 3 (être la conséquence nécessaire) to result, to ensue. Voyez les erreurs qui s'ensuivaient de cette proposition, see the errors that would ensue from this proposition. Sans plus s'inquiéter de ce qui s'ensuivrait que si, etc., without caring any more about the consequences than if, etc. Ang. Th. 4 (impers.) to follow, to ensue. See SENSES 2 and 3. Il s'ensuivit de grands maux, great ills ensued. Il ne s'ensuivrait pas qu'il eût de meilleures raisons, it would not follow that his reasons were any the better. Montesq. De cette proposition il s'ensuit que, from this proposition it follows that.

ENTABLEMENT, âg-tab-lah-màng, sm. arch. entablature, entablement.

S'ENTABLER, âg-tab-lay, epr. man. to entable.

ENTACHÉ, ppa. of ENTACHER, fem. —, 1 infected, stained. fig. Etre d'entaché, to be tainted with coquetism, Sans paraitre — de servilité, without appearing tainted with servility. Balz. 2 law. Un acte — de nullité, a voidable act.

ENTACHER, âg-tachay, ra. 1 (inflecter) to taint, to infect. 2 fig. to stain, to tarnish, to sully. Cet arret l'a entaché dans son honneur, that judgment has sullied his honour. Sans vouloir — en rien leur zèle, without wishing to cast a slur on their zeal. Th. Gaut.

ENTAILLE, âg-tail-yub, sf. 1 cut, notch, groove. Faire des —s, to notch. 2 (by extension) (dans les chairs, in the flesh) cut, push, slash. Le coup de sabre qui lui a fait une — profonde, a deep cut which he received from a broadsword.

ENTAILLER, âg-tail-puy, ra. to cut, to notch. — une poutre pour y embolier des solives, to mortise a beam to receive tenoned rafters. Des bas-reliefs de même nature entaillent le socle de l'obelisque, bas-reliefs of the same kind are cut into the base of the obelisk. Th. Gaut.

ENTAME, âg-tam, sf. (d'un pain, of a loaf) first cut, first slice.

ENTAMÉ, ppa. of ENTAMER, fem. —, Une somme d'argent —, a sum of money partly spent. (by extension) Le pays de Galles — comme on l'a vu par les invasions en différents sens, Wales overrun, as has been seen, by the incursions in different directions. Aug. Th. fig. Pien de décisif ne fut — en cette saison, nothing decisive was begun that season. Bar. Un procès bien — est à moitié gagné, a lawsuit well begun is half gained.

ENTAMER, âg-tam-ay, ra. (Gr.) 1 to cut, to make the first cut into (un pain, etc., a loaf, etc.). — la peau, la chair, to cut the skin, the flesh. fig. 1 la réputation de quelqu'un, son crédit, to bespatter, to injure the reputation of a person. 2 mil. — un corps de troupes, to break through a body of troops. Ils se sentaient incapables d'— les rangs de l'ennemi, they felt themselves unable to break through the ranks of the enemy. Aug. Th. 3 (ôter une petite partie d'une chose entière) to cut into. — un pain, un melon, un pâté, to cut into a loaf, a melon, a pie. — un sac d'argent, to break in upon a bag of money. 4 fig. (commencer) to enter upon, to begin (une négociation, une affaire, a negotiation, an affair; un discours, a conversation, une histoire, a discourse, a conversation, a story). 5 fig. — quelqu'un, to encroach upon a person, to prevail on, upon. Jouant sa tête à cette témérité plutôt que de se laisser — de l'événement d'un cheveu, risking his head by this act of temerity rather than suffer an encroachment of a hair's breadth. St-B. C'est un homme qui ne se laisse pas facilement brought to terms. 6 (pénétrer la pensée, les sentiments de quelqu'un) to fathom. Il est impenetrable, on ne peut l'—, he is impenetrable, it is impossible to fathom him. 7 (prendre avantage dans une discussion) to run down. C'est un rude argumentateur qu'il n'est pas facile d'—, he is a formidable arguer whom it is not easy to run down.

ENTAMURE, âg-tam-ôr, sf. 1 cut, incision. 2 (entame) first cut. L'— d'un pâté, d'un jambon, the first cut of a pie, of a ham. Le côté de l'—, the cut side.

ENTASSE, ppa. of ENTASSER, fem. —, 1 piled up, heaped up. Des meubles — les uns sur les autres, articles of furniture piled up one above the other. (by extension) La hauteur des étages — l'un sur l'autre, the height of the stories piled up one above the other. Muss. 2 crammed, crowded. (hyperb.) Nous étions sept, — dans la rotonde de la diligence, there were seven of us crowded together in the rotunda of the stage-coach. fig. Tant d'événements —, — dans un quart d'heure m'avaient, etc., so many events crowded together in one quarter of an hour had, etc. Ab.

ENTASSEMENT, âg-tis-màng, sm. heap, accumulation. fig. Un — de mots, d'idées, etc., an accumulation of words, of ideas, etc.

ENTASSER, âg-tis-say, ra. 1 to heap up, to pile up, to hoard, to hoard up. Il a entassé ses livres les uns sur les autres, he has piled up his books one upon another. Il entasse papiers sur papiers, he heaps up papers on papers. — du loin, to heap up hay. Au lieu d'— ses écus dans un coffre, il les paie d'—, instead of hoarding up his money in a strong-box, he invested it. Ab. La neige que le vent entassait, the snow drifted by the wind. Lamart. fig. — son par son, — son sur son, to hoard up money. absol. fig. Ces gens de qui la passion est — à hoarder, those people whose passion it is to hoard, to crowd together. — On les avait entassés les uns sur les autres dans une mauvaise charrette, they were crammed in, one upon another, in a sorry cart. 3 fig. (accumuler) to heap up. — procès sur procès, to heap up lawsuits upon lawsuits. — citations dans un livre, to cram a book with citations. — paroles sur paroles, to heap up words.

ENTASSER, ppa 4 to be heaped up, piled up. Dans les chapelles s'entassent des malles, etc., in the chapels are piled up trunks, etc. Th. Gaut. Des nuages épais qui s'entassent sur le milieu de l'île, thick clouds accumulating over the middle of the island. B. de St-P. Les grosses olives s'entassent sur des planchers mal équilibrés, large olives were heaped up on rough floors. Ab. 2 (hyperb.) Nous nous entassâmes dans la voiture, we crammed ourselves into the coach.

ENTE, dogl, sf, 4 hbrt, graft. Faire one —, to graft. 2 hbrt. (l'arbre) stock.

ENTE, sf, paint, handle (of a pinceau, of a brush).

ENTE, ppa, of ENTER, fem. — v, 4 (by extension) Caoue — sf, faint walking-stick. 2 fig. Cette famille, cette maison est — sur telle autre, this family, that house is ingrafted upon such and such a one. Les hommes du christianisme — sur l'ancienne société, the men of christianism ingrafted upon the old society. Villem. Un Gascon — sur un Normand, a Gascon ingrafted upon a Norman.

ENTENDEMENT, dog-tang-mang, sm. 4 understanding. 2 (jugement) understanding, sense. C'est au homme d'—, de petit —, de peu d'—, he is a man of sense, of little sense.

ENTENDEUR, dog-tang-dühr, sm. hearer. prov. A bon — salut, a bon — peu de paroles, a word to the wise.

ENTENDRE, dog-tangdr, vo. 4 (voir) to hear. Il croit — un bruit d'air prolongé, he thinks he hears a hollow continued noise. Saint. Elle n'entend ni les cris des officiers, ni les bourgeois de la foule, she hears neither the shouts of the officers, nor the huzzas of men in the crowd. Saint. On craint de vous faire — ces airs de la pairie, they are afraid of letting you hear the airs of your native country. Chai. J'ai des savants devins entendus la réponse, I have heard the answer of the learned diviners. Hac. Entends plutôt le peuple qui bat des mains, listen rather to the people clapping their hands. Nod. A — cet homme, il est le défenseur unique de la liberté, to hear that man speak, he is the only defender of liberty. Lamart. Ne dirait-on pas à t'— que tu cherches une affaire, to hear you, one would suppose you were seeking for a quarrel. Muss. Au milieu du bruit, il ne put parvenir à faire — sa voix, in the midst of the noise, he could not make his voice heard. — dar, to hear with difficulty. — la messe, les vêpres, le sermon, to attend mass, vespers, the sermon. — quelqu'un, to hear a person. J'ai entendu plusieurs fois ce chanteur, cet acteur, I have heard that singer, that actor several times.

(suivi d'un inf. sans prép., followed by an inf. without a prep.) Demeurez tranquille jusqu'à ce que vous entendiez parler de nous, be quiet till you hear from us. Le Sage. Je l'ai entendu dire, I have heard so. Je le lui ai entendu dire, I have heard him say so. J'ai entendu un tel faire votre éloge, I have heard So-and-so speak highly of you. prov. Il se fait tant de bruit qu'on n'entendrait pas Dieu tonner, there is noise enough to deafen one. (by extension) Je recommençai à — la voix de la solitude, I once more began to understand the voice of solitude. Mich. fig. L'Écho n'entendra plus la chanson dans la plaine, Echo will no longer hear thy song in the plain. Moss. prov. Il n'est pire sourd, il n'est point de pire sourd que celui qui ne veut pas —, none is so deaf as he that will not hear. prov. fig. Qui n'entend qu'une cloche n'entend qu'un son, one story is good till another is told. 2 (écouter, prêter l'oreille) to hear, to listen (in). Qui n'entend qu'une partie, n'entend rien, he who hears only one side, hears nothing. Le Sage. Je suis prêt à vous —, I am ready to hear you. Je veux bien, pour l'amour de vous, — des propositions, for your sake I am willing to hear your proposition. Bar. Veillez — mes raisons, please to listen to my reasons. — une lecture, to listen to reading. Ne savoir auquel —, not to know which to listen to. — à quelque chose, to come to terms. Dites de notre part à M. qu'il n'entende pour nous à aucun mauvais traité, tell M. from us to consent to no disadvantageous treaty for us. Bar. Il ne veut — à aucun arrangement, he will not hear of any arrangement.

3 (comprendre) to understand. Je suis une pauvre créature qui ai peu d'esprit, comme ils le font —, I am a poor creature with little wit, as they give it to be understood. B. de St-P. Il n'entendait pas le grec, he did not understand Greek. Ab. Les traducteurs prennent souvent le même parti, quand ils n'entendent plus leur auteur, translators often do the same, when they do not understand the meaning of their author. Nod. On tâche d'— la volonté du testateur, endeavours are made to ascertain the will of the testator. La Font. Ces mots que je comprenais fort bien, il y a quelques années et que je n'entends plus maintenant, those words that I well understood some years ago, and which have no meaning for me now. Merim. Cette langue immortelle (les vers), le monde l'entend, mais ne la parle pas, this immortal tongue, the world understands, but does not speak it. Muss. L'uniforme, comme nous l'entendons, n'étant pas dans les habitudes ottomanes, the uniform, as we understand it, not being in the Turkish habits. Th. Gaut. L'affaire est tellement embrouillée que je n'y entends plus rien, the affair is so intricate that I can make nothing of it. Si vous recommencez, je vous chasse; entendez-vous? if you begin again, I discharge you, do you hear? J'entends fort bien ce que vous voulez dire, I understand very well what you mean. 2 (voir) J'entends, I understand. (by extension) J'entendrais des regards que vous croiriez muets, I shall be able to interpret your looks, disquiet them as you will. Rac. — à demi-mot, to take a hint. — finesse, — malice à quelque chose, to give a malicious construction to a thing. — la plaisanterie, — bien la plaisanterie, to know how to joke, to be able to take a joke. Il n'entend pas raillerie là-dessus, he is not to be trifled with on that question. Il n'entend pas plaisanterie, il n'entend pas raillerie, he cannot take a joke, a jest. — raison, to listen to reason. Vous ne pourriez jamais lui faire — raison, you will never be able to make him listen to reason. Il n'entend pas raison là-dessus, he won't hear of that.

4 (présérer) to understand. J'ai toujours entendu que notre arrangement s'exécuterait ainsi, I have always understood that our arrangement was to be executed thus. Donner à —, laisser —, faire —, to give to understand, to hint, to intimate. 5 (exiger) to expect, to mean. J'entends expressément que ton choix reste libre, I mean positively that your choice shall be free. Nod. J'entends et je prétends que, I expect and pretend that. 6 (avoir intention, vouloir dire) to intend, to mean. En faisant cela, j'entendais agir dans votre intérêt autant que dans le mien, by doing that, I intended to act in your interest as well as in mine. C. tous les matins se mettait au travail, j'entends à sa toilette, C. every morning set herself to her work, that is, to her toilette.

Flor. Le lièvre n'avait que quatre pas à faire, j'entends de ceux qu'il fait, etc., the hare had but four steps to take, I mean such as he takes, etc. La Font. Qu'entendez-vous, qu'entend-il par là? what do you mean, what does he mean by that? Faites comme vous l'entendez, do as you think proper. 7 (avoir la connaissance, la pratique d'une chose) to understand. Il entend bien son métier, he understands his trade well. — le commerce, les affaires, la chicane, to understand trade, affairs, chicanery. — son intérêt, ses intérêts, to understand one's own interests. — la raillerie, — bien la raillerie, — bien la plaisanterie, to know how to joke. See n° 3. 8 Ne rien — à quelque chose, to know nothing about a thing. Elle n'entendait rien à gouverner une maison, she had no idea of the management of a household. (by extension) Tu n'entends rien à l'amitié, you do not know what friendship means.

S'ENTENDRE, ppa. 4 (être entendu) to be heard. Cela s'entend de loin, that is heard from afar. 2 recipr. to hear each other. Le bruit est si grand qu'on ne s'entend pas, the noise is so great that one cannot hear each other speak. 3 (être compris) to be understood. Cela s'entend aisément, cela ne s'entend pas, that is easily understood, that is not to be understood. 4 (se comprendre) to understand each other, one another. Parlant chacun sa langue et ne s'entendant pas, speaking each his own language and not understanding one another. V. Hug. Nous revînmes rêveurs et nous entendant sans parler, we returned meditatively and understanding each other without a word being spoken. Mich. Je m'entends, I know what I mean. C. Del. Quoi? — Je m'entends. — Mais encore? — Taisez-vous, what? — Never mind. — But say I — Mum! Boil. Il ne s'entend pas lui-même, he does not know himself what he means. Entendons-nous, let us understand one another. 5 S'— avec quelqu'un, to come to an arrangement with a person. Je vous charge de vous — avec le sieur C. à ce sujet, I leave you to concert with C. about that. Saint. Laissez-moi m'— avec ce mon sieur, let me settle with this gentleman. Balz. S'— sur le prix d'une chose, to agree about the price of a thing. Nous commençons à nous —, we are beginning to come to an understanding. 6 S'— avec quelqu'un, to act in concert with a person. Vous vous entendez peut-être avec elle, you have a secret understanding with her perhaps. Balz. Les insurgés s'entendirent avec leurs voisins, les habitants de M., the insurgents acted in concert with their neighbours, the inhabitants of M. Aug. Th. Les souris et les rats seules se peignent m'entendre s'— avec les chats, the rats and mice seem to be in collusion with the cats to keep me awake. Boil. Entendons-nous, let us act in concert. 7 S'— avec quelqu'un, to agree with a person; to be on good terms with a person. 8 S'— à une chose, to be skilled in a thing. Il s'entend à bien faire valoir une terre, he is skilled in farming. Il n'y a personne qui s'entende aussi bien que vous aux ouvrages de maçonnerie, nobody is so skilful as you in masonry. Bar. S'— en musique, en tableaux, etc., to be a good judge of music, of paintings, etc.

ENTENDU, dog-tang-djé, ppa. 4 (ouï) heard. Ses cris ne furent pas —, his cries were not heard. fig. C'est le cri du ciel même — sur la terre, it is the voice of Heaven itself heard upon earth. Lamart. 2 law. heard. La cause, l'affaire est —, the cause, the affair is heard. 3 (compris) heard, understood. Il faut s'exprimer de manière à être — de tout le monde, one must express one's self so that one may be understood by every body. Volt.

4 C'est —, it is understood, agreed. 5 (des personnes, of persons) skilled, clever. Bien —, skilled. Un homme bien — sur affaires, dans les affaires, a man of business, well versed in business. absol. Il est —, fort —, he is skilful, intelligent. De tous les chevaliers de France vous êtes le plus —, of all the knights of France you are the most skilful. Bar. (by extension) Il ajouta d'un air —, he added with a knowing air. Saint. (substantiv.) Faire l'—, to pretend to be a judge. 6 Bien —, (des choses, of things) well ordered, well arranged. Un repas bien —, a well ordered entertainment. Les jardins étaient bien —s, the gardens were well laid out. Volt. Un déguisement bien —, a disguise well contrived. 7 point. L'ordonnance de ce tableau est bien —e, that painting is well distributed. 8 Mal —, badly ordered, arranged. (substantiv.) Mal —, See MALENTENDU.

BIEN ENTENDU, adv. loc. of course, to be sure. Y consentez-vous? Bien —, do you consent to it? Of course, I do. Vientrez-vous comme vous l'avez promis? Bien —, will you come as you promised? To be sure, I will.

BIEN ENTENDU QUE, conj. upon condition that, provided that, it being understood that. Je vous accorde cela, mais bien — que vous ferez ce que je vous demande, I grant you that, but upon condition that you will do what I ask of you. Voilà la règle, bien — qu'il y a des exceptions, that is the rule, it being understood that there are exceptions.

ENTENTE, ang-tangt, sf. 1 meaning. Mots, phrases à double —, à deux —s, words, phrases with a double meaning, double entendres. prov. L'— est ad disseur, every body has a right to put his own meaning on what he says. 2 fine arts. lit. skill, judgment. Il y a dans cette comédie beaucoup d'— de la scène, in that comedy is displayed great knowledge of the stage. (by extension) Avoir l'— des affaires, to be familiar with business. 3 (concert, accord) understanding, agreement. Il y a de l'— entre eux, there is an understanding between them. — cordiale, cordial understanding.

ENTER, ang-tay, va. hort. to graft (on poirier, on pommier, a pear-tree, an apple-tree). — sur saugaveau, to graft on a wild stock. — en dessous, en teule, on cœillet, en œil dormant, to bud, to eye, to ingraft by incision. — en bouture, to bud, to inoculate. (by extension) Elle ente en son palais ses dents tous les matins, she inserts her teeth in her mouth every morning. Regu.

S'ENTER, vpr. fig. to ingraft one's self, to be ingrafted. Il souhaite de s'— sur la vieille noblesse, he wishes to ingraft himself on the ancient nobility. Dest.

ENTERNEMENT, ang-tay-rin-mang, sm. law. ratification, ratifying. L'— des lettres de grace, the ratification of a charter of pardon.

ENTERNER, ang-tay-re-may, va. law. to ratify, to confirm. — au rapport d'experts, to ratify a report of experts. — des lettres de noblesse, to ratify letters of nobility.

ENTERRE, ppa. of ENTERRE, fem. —e, adjective. 1 buried. La vestale fut —e vivante, the vestal was buried alive. (by extension) Etre — sous les ruines d'un édifice, to be buried under the ruins of an edifice. 2 fig. buried. Une maison —e, a house that is buried. Votre jardin est trop —, your garden is too low.

ENTERREMENT, ang-tay-mang, sm. 1 burial, funeral, interment. Assister à —, to attend a funeral. Billet d'—, invitation to a funeral. 2 (convoy funéraire) funeral procession. — Voir passer —, to see a funeral procession go by. Etre d'un —, to attend a funeral.

ENTERREUR, ang-tay-ray, ta. 1 to bury. — un trésor, to bury a treasure. — des oignons de tulipe, to bury bulbs of tulips. fig. Un de ces livres bons à — dans une bibliothèque, one of those books fit only to be buried in a library. Son jardin lui a coûté trop d'argent, il y a enterré plus de vingt mille francs, his garden has cost him too much money, it has swallowed up more than 20,000 francs. 2 fig. (tenir caché) to bury. — un secret, to bury a secret. — ses talents, to conceal one's talents. 3 (inhumier) to bury, to inter. — en terre sainte, dans un cimetière, dans l'église, dans le cœtur, to bury in consecrated ground, in a cemetery, in the church, in the choir. — quelqu'un vivant, to bury a person alive. (by extension) Ces débris ont enterré vivants dix braves ouvriers, ten honest labourers were buried alive under those ruins. Pons. Se faire — sous les ruines d'une place, to bury one's self under the ruins of a place. — le carnal, to bury the carnal, to pay the last honours to the carnal. 4 fig. — quelqu'un, to outlive a person; — to throw into the shade. 5 fig. (sometimes) (obliger à demeurer dans un endroit éloigné, etc.) to bury. Il vent m'— en province, he wants to bury me in the province. Vous ne pourrez pas m'— toute vive dans l'ennuieux souper d'un si triste convive, you could not leave me to my fate at the mortal supper of such a sorry guest. C. Del.

S'ENTERRE, vpr. (être enterré) to be buried, interred. fig. S'— dans la province, dans un château, to bury one's self in the province, not to stir from one's country-seat. fig. S'— tout vif, to bury one's self alive.

ENTÊTE, ppa. of ENTÊTE, fem. —e, adjective. 1 fig. infatuated. — comme vous êtes des préjugés de l'Orient, infatuated as you are with the prejudices of the East. Montesq. Un jeune homme — de chimères, a young man with his head full of idle fancies. Chat. 2 (opiniâtre) obstinate. stubborn. Un enfant —, a stubborn child. Il est si — dans ses opinions que, he is so wedded to his own opinions that. Le Sage. 3 (substantiv.) C'est un —, he is a stubborn man.

ENTÊTEMENT, ang-tay-mang, sm. 1 obstinacy, stubbornness. 2 (little used) (concomitant) infatuation.

ENTÊTER, ang-tay-tay, va. 1 to affect the head of, to make giddy. Le tabac entête ceux qui n'ont pas contume d'en prendre, snuff affects the head of those who are not snuff-takers. absol. Le charbon entête, charcoal affects the head. Ce vin est fumeux, il entête, this wine is heady, it makes one giddy. fig. Vous pouvez — une riche veuve, you may ingratiate yourself with a rich widow. Le Sage. absol. fig. Les louvages entêtent, praise intoxicates. 2 fig. (in a bad part) (prévenir en faveur) to prepossess. Qui est-ce qui vous a entêté de cet homme? who has prepossessed you in favour of that man? 3 tech. to head (pins).

S'ENTÊTER, vpr. 1 fig. to be prepossessed, infatuated. S'— de ses propres idées, to be wedded to one's own ideas. S'— d'un système de philosophie, to be infatuated with a system of philosophy. 2 fig. absol. (se laisser prévenir, s'obstiner) to get, to become obstinate, stubborn. S'— à vouloir faire une chose, to be bent upon doing a thing.

ENTHOUSIASME, ang-too-zyasm', sm. (Gr.) 1 (chez un prophète, etc.) enthusiasm, rapture. 2 (chez un poète, on artiste, etc.) enthusiasm. — poétique, poetical enthusiasm. 3 (mouvement de l'âme) enthusiasm. L'— religieux, religious enthusiasm, fanaticism. L'— patriotique, patriotic enthusiasm. 4 (démonstration d'une grande joie) enthusiasm. Des cris d'—, cries of enthusiasm. (admiration outrée) enthusiasm. Un homme à —, an enthusiastic man.

ENTHOUSIASMER, ang-too-zyas-may, va. 1 to enrapture, to throw into rapture. 2 (in a bad part) to turn the head of.

S'ENTHOUSIASMER, vpr. to become enthusiastic.

ENTHOUSIASTE, ang-too-zyast, s. mf. 1 (visionnaire) enthusiast. 2 (celui, celle qui a une admiration excessive) enthusiast. Ces — d'un poète, d'une doctrine, those enthusiastic admirers of a poet, of a doctrine. — eu beaucoup de closes, surtout en religion, an enthusiast in many things, especially in religion. Ag. Th. 3 absol. (quelconque est sujet à s'égouter) enthusiast. C'est un —, he is an enthusiast. 4 (adjectiv.) enthusiastic, enthusiastical.

ENTHÛME, ang-te-maym, sm. (Gr.) log. enthymeme.

ENTICHÉ, ppa. of ENTICHER, fem. —e, adjective. 1 (little used) beginning to spoil, to rot; tainted, infected. Des fruits —s, fruit beginning to spoil. 2 fig. (imbu) — d'hérésie, tainted with heresy. 3 fig. (entêté de) wedded (to). Un homme — de son mérite, a very self-conceited man. ENTICHER, ang-te-shay, ra. 1 (little used) (commencer à gâter) to spoil, to rot. 2 fig. (faire adopter des opinions fausses) to taint, to infect.

S'ENTICHER, vpr. to get tainted, infected, to become wedded (to). S'— de préjugés, to be tainted with prejudices. S'— de quelqu'un, to be infatuated with a person. S'— de ses propres idées, to become wedded to one's own ideas.

ENTIER, ang-tay, adj. m. fem. ENTIERE, 1 (complet) whole, entire. Un pain —, a whole loaf. Huit jours —, il marcha, he walked during eight whole days. Chat. Depuis six ans — tous les jours je la vois, for six whole years I have seen her every day. Rac. 2 (des choses morales) entire, complete. Une entière confiance en Dieu, entire confidence in God. Conserver sa raison tout entière, to preserve the entire use of one's reason. Je vous donne liberté pleine et entière d'agir comme vous l'entendrez, I give you full and entire liberty to act as you please. La question reste entière, it is still an open question. 3 law. Les choses ne sont plus entières, circumstances are not the same. Cheval —, entire horse. 3 arith. Unité entière, integral unity. Nombre —, integer, whole number. 4 bot. Feuille entière, entire leaf. 5 Tout —, tout entière, whole, full. Attendre une heure tout entière, to wait a full hour. Lire on livre tout —, to read a book quite through. Le père et la fille tout —s au plaisir de se revoir, the father and the daughter wholly absorbed in the pleasure of seeing each other again. Saint. L'homme n'est pas tout — dans ses sens, there is another element in man besides the senses. P.-L. Cour. Rame tout entière à parole par sa bouche, all Rome has spoken by his mouth. Cora. C'est Véus tout entière à sa proie attché, it is Venus whose whole fury is spent on her prey. Rac. fig. Cette affaire, cette fonction, cette science demande un homme tout —, that affair, employment, science requires a man that will make it his whole employment. (by analogy) Se livrer tout — à un travail, à une étude, etc., to give one's self completely up to a work, a study, etc. Quand pourrout les Français se donner, comme vous, — à ces emplois, when will the French be able, like you, to give themselves up completely to such occupations. La Font. Mourir tout —, to die wholly, to have no name behind one. 6 fig. (obstiné) obstinate, headstrong, self-willed. C'est un homme —, bien —, fort — dans ses opinions, he is a very stubborn man. C'est un esprit très —, he is a very self-willed man. 7 (substantiv.) En son —, en leur —, in its integrity, entirness; at full length. Remettons les choses en leur —, let us restore things to their first state.

EN ENTIER, adv. loc. entire, whole. J'ai la l'ouvrage eu —, I have read the whole work. Il faut le refaire en —, the whole must be done over again.

ENTIEREMENT, ang-tsyat-mang, adv. entirely, wholly.

ENTOUILLAGE, ang-twa-lah, sm. 1 mounting on cantos, joining lace. 2 (la toile) mounting.

ENTOUILLER, ang-twa-lay, ra. 1 to put linen to lace, to sew lace upon linen. 2 to mount (on cantos) (une estampe, une carte de géographie, a print, a map).

ENTOMOLOGIE, ang-to-mo-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.) entomology.

ENTOMOLOGIQUE, ang-to-mo-lo-zhik, adj. mf. entomological.

ENTOMOLOGISTE, ang-to-mo-lo-zhist, sm. entomologist.

ENTONNER, ang-to-nay, ra. 1 to tun, to barrel (du vin, du cidre, wine, cider). 2 fig. pop. Il entonne bien, he drinks hard.

ENTONNER, vpr. (du vent, of the wind) to rush, to blow.

ENTONNER, ra. 1 (mettre on air sur le ton) to give the tune, to intonate. — on air, to strike up an air. 2 (chanter les premières notes) to strike up. — le Te Deum, to strike up the Te Deum. absol. Il a entonné si haut que, he pitched the tune in so high a key that. 3 (chanter) to sing.

Le mueiteur commença à — des chœurs d'église, the mueiteur began thundering out church-singing. Le Sage, 4 fig. (celebrer) to celebrate, to sing out. — les louanges de quelqu'un, to sing the praises of a person.

ENTONNOIR, ang-to-nwâr, sm. 4 funnel. 2 mill. (by extension) L' — d'une mine, the shafts of a mine. 3 bot. Fleurs en —, funnel-shaped flowers. 4 surg. funnel. 5 anat. funnel.

ENTONNOIR, adv. loc. funnel-form, funnel-shaped. La vallée vaste et profonde s'ouvrait en —, the vast and deep valley expanded itself in the form of a funnel. Lamart.

ENTOISE, ang-tors, sf. sprain. Il s'est donné une torte — au poignet, his foot terribly. fig. Sa fortune, son crédit a souffert une rude —, his fortune, his credit has received a violent shock. Donner une — à un passage, to wrest a passage. Donner une — à la vérité, to alter, to pervert the truth.

ENTORTILLAGE, ang-tor-te-yah, sm. 1 (little used) entanglement, mannerism. 2 (little used) (biens) equivocation.

ENTORTILLÉ, pp. of ENTORTILLER, fem. — 1, twisted, wrapped, wound. 2 fig. (d'un sty, d'un discours, of a speech, of style) entangled, perplexed, embarrassed.

ENTORTILLEMENT, ang-tor-te-yoh-mang, sm. 4 twisting, twining. 2 fig. (obscurité) entanglement, perplexity. Il y a de l' — dans ce phrase, there is some ambiguity in that phrase.

ENTORTILLER, ang-tor-te-yay, va. 1 to twist, to twine, to wind. Ils s'entortillaient autour de la tête une serviette blanche en forme de turban, they wrapped round my head a white napkin in the form of a turban. Th. Gaut. Le serpent l'avait entortillé de ses replis, the serpent had entangled it with its folds. 2 to wrap up. Entortillez cela dans du papier, wrap that up in paper. 3 fig. to entangle, to perplex. — son style, to torture one's style. — ses idées, to jumble one's ideas. 4 fig. pop. (auverner doucement à faire ce que l'on veut) to come round, to get round, to circumvent. Elle avait complètement entortillé le vieillard, she had completely come round the old man. Did. 5 fig. pop. (auverner) to annoy.

SENTORTILLER, vpr. 1 to twist, to twine, to wind round. Le lierre s'entortille autour des ormeaux, the ivy twines itself round young elms. Ses cheveux s'entortillaient aux branches, his hair got entangled in the branches. Bar. 2 (s'envelopper dans quelque chose) to wrap one's self up. 3 fig. pop. (s'embarasser dans son discours) to get entangled, perplexed, embarrassed.

ENTOUI, ang-toor, sm. (environs) (is only employed in the plural) surrounding places, adjacent places. Les —s de la place, avenues round the place. Illuminez-moi les —s, let the approaches be lighted up. Beaum. fig. Les —s de quelqu'un, those about a person. Il fut toujours dominé par ses —s, he was always led by those about him. S.-B. à l'ENTOUR.

ENTOURAGE, ang-too-tazh, sm. 1 (ornements) mounting. — de perles, de diamants, mounting of pearls, diamonds. 2 fig. (ceux qui entourent quelqu'un) those about, connections, acquaintances. Il a un mauvais —, he is in bad hands, he has a bad set about him. Un homme de génie important par le rang, les —s, a man of genius important by his rank, his connections. Mich. Son — était celui des plus humbles citoyens, his connections were not above those of the humblest citizen. Lamart. 3 (ce qui sert à entourer) railing, fence, casing.

ENTOURÉ, pp. of ENTOURER, fem. — 1, set, beset. Un portrait — de diamants, a portrait set with diamonds. Tête — e de rayons, head encircled with rays. Une place — e de forêts, de montagnes, a plain surrounded with forests, mountains. fig. Être — de dangers, to be beset with dangers. Être — de soins, de prévenances, to be taken the greatest care of. 2 (de personnes, of persons) surrounded. — de gardes, surrounded by guards. Tu vois de mes soldats tout ce temple —, you see the whole temple surrounded by my soldiers. Rac. Il n'est — que de flatteurs, he has none but flatterers around him. absol. Il est bien —, it is well —, he has good society about him. he has a bad set about him.

ENTOURER, ang-too-ray, va. 4 (envelopper) to surround. — un champ de baies, to hedge in a field. Elle l'aurait courte et brune entourait ce masque triste et doux, a short dark beard bordered the face and mild face. Th. Gaut. Les gardes qui l'entouraient, the guards that surrounded him. fig. La mort en vain m'entourait de ses ombres funèbres, in vain death encompassed me with its funeral shade. Lamart. fig. — quelqu'un de soins, to hure the greatest care of a person. 2 (former la société habituelle) to surround. Il fait le bonheur de tous ceux qui l'entourent, he is a source of happiness to all those who surround him.

SENTOURER, vpr. 1 to surround one's self (de gardes, with guards). (by extension) Elle aimait à s' — de mille superfluités, she was fond of having about her a thousand superfluities. fig. S' — de mystère, to wrap one's self up in mystery. 2 (prendre pour société habituelle) to surround one's self. Il voulait s' — de hommes les plus habiles, les plus sages, he wished to have about him the most skilful, and the wisest men.

ENTOURNER, ang-too-nûr, sf. tailoring, dressmaking, sloping.

SENTOURNER, ang-trak-or-day, v. recipr. to agree together.

SENTOURNER, ang-trak-ûr-day, v. recipr. to accuse each other.

ENTRACTE, ang-trakt, sm. 1 interval between the acts. Après l' —, at the beginning of the next act. Dans l' —, between the acts. Faire de longs —s, to make long intervals between the acts. 2 (partie d'un spectacle qui se donne entre les actes) See INTERMÈDE, interlude. Il y avait des danses pour —s, there was dancing for the interludes.

SENTRAIDER, ang-tray-day, v. recipr. to help, to assist, to aid one another. Il se faut entraider, c'est la loi de nature, we must aid each other mutually, it is the law of nature. La Font.

ENTRAILLES, ang-trah-yuh, sf. pl. (Gr.) 1 (intestins) bowels. Inflammation d' —, inflammation in the bowels. 2 (tous les viscères) entrails, intestines.

Consulter les — des victimes, to consult the entrails of victims. (by extension) Un auteur qui —, an author who... towards evening hatters his empty bowels cry with hunger. Boil. Aimer le fruit de ses —, to love one's offspring. fig. S'armer contre ses propres —, to be at variance with one's own children. 3 fig. (tendre affection) bowels, feeling. Mes — pour toi en tremblent par avance, I feel my bowels yearn for you beforehand. Rac. Vous lui devez des — de pitié, you ought to have for him the tenderness of a father. Rac. Il a des — pour le peuple, he feels for the people. Lamart. 4 fig. (de la terre, of the earth) depth. Fouillez dans les —s de la terre, dig into the bowels of the earth. 5 fig. Les — d'un sujet, d'une question, the heart of a subject, of a question. Cet homme n'a pas d' —, that man has no feeling.

SENTRAÏNER, ang-tray-may, v. recipr. to love each other.

ENTRAIN, ang-trang, sm. 1 (ardeur naturelle et expansive) spirits, high spirits. Boileau avait plus d' — social que Racine. B. had higher spirits in society than R. S.-B. Cet homme a beaucoup d' —, that man is full of spirits. (by analogy) L'orchestre exécuta ce morceau avec beaucoup d' —, that piece was executed by the orchestra with great spirit. 2 (by analogy) (des choses, of things) spirit, animation, life. Ce vaudeville a de l' —, beaucoup d' —, that is a very lively vaudeville. Cette marche a de l' — et ne manque pas de caractère, this march is very lively, and somewhat original. Th. Gaut.

ENTRAÎNANT, ang-tray-ang, ppr. of ENTRAÎNER, adj. m. fem. — 1, entraining, captivating. Un style —, a captivating style. 2 Il est persuasif, — comme J.-J. Rousseau, he captivates your mind as J. J. Rousseau does. Jacq. Des émissaires habiles et —s, skilful and persuasive emissaries. Lamart.

ENTRAÎNÉ, pp. of ENTRAÎNER, fem. — 1, par le courant, hurried along by the current. Il fit tout ce qu'il put pour gagner la terre, mais il fut —, he exerted his utmost to reach the shore, but he was carried away. Muss. fig. L'homme — par le torrent des temps, man hurried along by the torrent of time. 2 Être — par son poids, to be borne down by its own weight. 3 fig. induced. —s par un besoin naturel de se communiquer leurs sentiments, induced by the need they felt of communicating to each other their sentiments. Aug. Th. — par l'aveugle, led away by fate. absol. Que de faibles —s! how many weak ones led astray! Mass.

ENTHUSIASME, ang-tray-mang, sm. 4 fig. impulse, enthusiasm. L' — des passions, de l'habitude, de l'exemple, the impulse of passion, of habit, of example. C. a des moments d' — vers les coteries. S.-B. L' — est général, the enthusiasm was general. 2 (d'un cheval, d'un jockey) training.

ENTRAÎNER, ang-tray-may, ra. 1 to carry away, to draw away, to bear away, along, to lead away. Les torrents entraînent ce qui s'oppose à leur passage, the torrents bear away whatever opposes their passage. fig. Je me laisse — en paix au fleuve de la vie, I suffer myself to be quietly borne down the stream of life. B. de S.-P. Le temps nous entraîne, time hurries along. 2 (emporter avec une sorte de violence) to drag away. — to hurry away, on, along. Elle entraîna son père hors de la cour, she hurried her father out of the courtyard. Saint Je les entraînai chez mon traître, I led them off to my eating-house. Le Sage: 3 (d'un poids, of a weight) to turn the scale, 4 fig. (porter, pousser) to carry away, to lead away, to allure, to urge, to urge on. Souvent l'exemple nous entraîne, we are often led away by example. — les coeurs, to carry away the hearts; to gain over all hearts. Son penchant mélancolique l'entraînait au fond des bois, his melancholy inclination carried him away into the depths of the wood. Chat. Le mouvement politique l'entraîna à la tribune, he was borne to the tribune by the political impulse. Lamart. Se laisser —, to suffer one's self to be led away, to be carried away, to be tempted. 5 fig. (avoir pour effet, pour résultat) to involte, to entail. La guerre entraîne avec elle, après elle bien des maux, war involves with it many evils. Son silence aurait entraîné moins de calamités, his silence would have entailed fewer calamities. Le Sage. Cela peut — de longs retards, that may cause long delays. Les suites fâcheuses que cette affaire peut — après elle, the sad consequences that this affair may entail. crim. law. Cette peine entraîne ordinairement telle autre peine, this penalty generally involves such another. 6 to train (des chevaux, horses).

ENTRAÎNEUR, âng-tray-nûr, sm. trainer.

ENTRAÎT, âng-tray, sm. carp. tie-benn.

ENTRANT, âng-tràng, ppr. of ENTRER, adj. m. fem. —z, 1 (little used) winning, engaging. 2 (substantive) Les —s et les sortants, the comers-in and goers-out.

S'ENTR'APPELER, âng-trap-lay, v. recipr. to call each other.

ENTRAVE, âng-trav, sf. See ENTRAVES.
ENTRAVÉ, âng-trav-ay, ppa. of ENTRAYER, fem. —z, l'a cheval —, a horse clogged. fig. Les affaires étaient —es par tous ces faux bruits, all those false reports threw obstacles in the way of business.

ENTRAVER, âng-trav-ay, va. 1 to clog, to trammel, to fetter (on cheval, a horse). (by extension) Nous avançons avec peine parmi des lierres rampants qui entravaient nos pieds comme des filets, we advanced with difficulty amongst the creeping ivy in which our feet were entangled as in nets. Chat. 2 fig. (embarrasser) to impede, to hinder, cherchait par des chicane à la négociation, he endeavored, by quibbling, to retard the progress of the negotiation.

S'ENTRAVERTIR, âng-trav-ayr-teer, v. recipr. to warn each other.

ENTRAVÉS, âng-trav, sf. pl. 1 clog, trammels, fetters. Mettre des —s à un cheval, to put a clog on a horse. 2 fig. (obstacles) shackle, impediment, trammel, obstacle, hindrance. Il se donne des —s à lui-même, he ties himself down.

ENTRÉE, ângtr', prep. (Lat. inter) 1 (dans l'espace qui sépare deux personnes ou deux choses) between. Il était assis — nous deux, he sat between us both. Nous nous trouvions — deux feux, we found ourselves between two fires. Mettre quel'un — quatre murailles, to imprison a person. Regarder quel'un — les deux yeux, to look a person full in the face. Nager — deux eaux, See EAU. fig. Être — deux vins, to be half-seas over. prov. fig. — la poire et le fromage, at dessert, over a glass of wine. 2 (dans l'espace renfermé entre deux extrémités qu'on désigne) between. — Bordeaux et Lyon il y a tant de lieues, it is so many leagues from Bordeaux to Lyons. La distance qu'il y a — le ciel et la terre, the distance that there is between heaven and earth. 3 fig. between. La sagesse consiste à se tenir — deux voies comme le poisson — deux eaux, wisdom consists in never running into extremes, like the fish that keeps half way between the sur- face and the bottom of the water. Ab. Les hommes faibles passent leur vie — le tort et le repentir, weak men pass their lives between sinning and repenting. Boil. Flotter — la crainte et l'espérance, to float between hope and fear. Il allait se trouver — son devoir et son penchant, he was about to find himself placed between his duty and his inclination. Saint. — la vie et le trône il fallait choisir, it was necessary to choose between life and a throne. Lamart. — la vie et la mort, between life and death. C'est un homme — deux âges, he is a middle-aged man. 4 (du temps, of time) between. Je serai chez vous — midi et une heure, I shall be at your house between twelve and one. — le premier et le second acte, between the first and second act. — le printemps et l'hiver, between the spring and the winter. Il sanglote — chaque parole, his voice is broken by sobs. Il s'est écoulé dix ans — les deux événements, ten years have elapsed between these two events. — ci et là, between this and then. M^{me} de Sév. — deux soleils, from sunrise to sunset. Pendu — deux soleils, murmured I hung within twenty-four hours, marmored I in a hollow voice. Nod. (semploie aussi avec la préposition DE, employed with DE) — deux années pour le repentir du temps qui vient changer de conduite, and l'on se trouve un, one takes a passing gleam of sunshine for a total change of weather, and one gets a thorough wetting. M^{me} de Sév.

5 (dans, en) in, between. Tenir un enfant — ses bras, to hold a child in one's arms. Mon chapeau resta — les mains, on plûtôt — les dents de l'ennemi, my hat remained in the hands or rather between the teeth of the enemy. Ab. Il saleva la statue — ses mains, he lifted up the statue with his hands. Nod. Cet écrit est demeuré — mes mains, that writing has remained in my hands. Le gouvernement le fit mettre — les mains des chirurgiens, the government placed him in the hands of the surgeons. B. de St-P. Les rênes — les dents, ils volaient à l'ennemi, with the reins between their teeth, they flew to meet the enemy. Chat.

(avec la prép. DE, with the prép. DE) from under, from out of. On l'a retiré d'— ses mains, he has been taken from out of, from under his hands.

6 (marquant qu'une chose participe de deux autres) between. Le gris est — le blanc et le noir, grey partakes of white and black. Tenir le milieu — deux choses, to hold the middle term, a medium. prov. fig. — chiev et loup, between hawk and buzzard; owl-tight.

7 (marquant un rapport entre des personnes et des choses) between, among. Il y a procès — eux, there is a lawsuit between them. Distribuer quelque chose — plusieurs personnes, to distribute something among several persons. Tout doit être commun — amis, every thing ought to be in common between friends. — amis, il ne faut pas de cérémonie, between friends, no ceremony is necessary. Le traité de commerce fait — la France et l'Angleterre, the treaty of commerce made between France and England. C'est — nous pour le siècle et pour l'éternité, we are friends in this world and the next. Nod. Ils parlent — eux, they talk among themselves. Qu'y a-t-il de commun — nous, — vous et moi? what is there in common between us, between you and me? Ils s'aident — eux, they help each other. Cela soit dit — nous, soit dit — nous, — nous, between ourselves, between you and me. Ceci doit rester — nous, this must go no farther. — vous et moi, between you and me. — la condition réelle de l'un et de l'autre, la différence était grande, between the real condition of both, there was a great difference. Aug. Th. Il y a — ces deux choses, — ces deux personnes la même différence qu'— le jour et la nuit, these two things, these two persons are as different as light from dark.

8 (parmi) among. — nos ennemis, les plus à craindre sont souvent les plus petits, among our enemies, the smallest are often the most to be feared. La Font. Il fut trouvé — les morts, he was found among the dead. Un mot de votre bouche peut rendre Esther heureuse — toutes les reines, a word from your mouth would render E. the happiest of queens. Rac. — les plus beaux noms, leur nom est le plus beau, among the most illustrious names, their name is the most illustrious. V. Hug. Il marque — cent moutons le plus beau, out of a hundred sheep he selects the handsomest. La Font. Ah! jalouse — les jalouses! ah! jealous among the jealous! V. Hug. On l'a choisi — tous les autres, he was chosen from among all the others. Vous êtes béni — toutes les femmes, blessed art thou among women. La plupart d'eux, most of them. Quel est celui d'eux, which of you is it that. — autres, among others.

9 (in composition, as: ENTR'ACTE, ENTRETS, etc.) 10 (in composition, forming a reciprocal verb, as: S'ENTRAÎNER, S'ENTRESECOURIR, etc.) 11 (in composition, marking diminution, as: ENTR'OUVRIR, ENTREVOIR) See these words.

ENTRE-BAILLÉ, npa. of ENTRE-BAILLER, fem. —E, a jar, l'orte, fenêtre —E, door, window half-open.

ENTRE-BAILLER, va. to half-open, to leave on a jar (une porte, one fenêtre, a door, a window).

S'ENTRE-BAISER, v. recipr. to kiss each other.

S'ENTRE-BATTRE, v. recipr. to fight.

S'ENTRE-CHOCER, v. recipr. 1 to knock against one another. fig. Ces deux idées écrasèrent les hommes en s'entre-choquant, the two ideas crushed men in their shock. Lamart. 2 fig. to clash. Ces deux hommes s'entre-choquent sans cesse, those two men are continually jarring. (sometimes transitively) Ces restes de tombeaux entre-choquent soudain leurs ossements flétris, these tenants of the graves suddenly rattle their withered bones. Lamart.

ENTRE-COLONNE, ENTRE-COLONNEMENT, sm. arch. intercolumnation.

ENTRE-CÔTE, sm. butcher. colio. rib of beef; meat between the ribs.

ENTRE-CROISE, npa. of ENTRE-CROISER, fem. —z, Des branches —es, intersecting branches. Lamart. fig. Les négociations —es se brisent et se renouvellent sans cesse, the negotiations crossing each other were broken and renewed continually. Lamart.

S'ENTRE-CROISER, v. recipr. to cross each other. Des lignes qui s'entre-croisent, lines that cross each other.

S'ENTRE-DECOUVER, v. recipr. to tear each other to pieces. fig. Laissez-les s'— pour notre amusement, let them tear each other to pieces for our amusement. V. Hug.

S'ENTRE-DÉTRUIRE, v. recipr. to destroy each other. Les tyrans eux-mêmes s'entre-détruisent, tyrants themselves destroy each other. Chat.

ENTRE-DEUX, sm. 1 (partie qui est au milieu de deux choses) partition. L'— des épaules, the broad of the back. — de morne, the middle of a cad. 2 naut. waist. — des lances, hollow, trough. — de sabords, the intervals between the posts of a ship's side.

ENTRE-DEUX, adv. loc. so so, betwixt and between. Ce nauton est-il dur? —, is this mutton hard? betwixt and between. Faut-il froid? —, is it cold? so so.

S'ENTRE-DÉVOÛER, v. recipr. to devour each other.

S'ENTRE-DONNER, v. recipr. to give each other.

S'ENTRE-FRAPPER, v. recipr. to strike each other.

S'ENTR'ÉGORGER, v. recipr. NOUS NOS ENTR'ÉGORGONS, VOUS VOUS ENTR'ÉGORGIEZ, to cut each other's throat.

S'ENTRE-HAÏR, v. recipr. to hate each other.

ENTRE-LIGNE, sm. a space between the lines. 2 (ce qui s'est écrit entre deux lignes) interlineation. 3 print. See INTER-LIGNE.

ENTRE-LITRE, fn. to glimmer.

S'ENTRE-MANGER, v. recipr. (little used) to eat each other. Merim.

ENTRE-NODUD, sm. bol. internode.

S'ENTRE-NOÏRE, v. recipr. to injure each other.

S'ENTRE-PENCHER, v. recipr. to run each other through.

ENTRE-PORT, sm. nant. between-decks.

S'ENTRE-POUSSER, v. recipr. to push each other.

S'ENTRE-QUERRELLER, v. recipr. to quarrel with each other, together.

S'ENTRE-RÉPONDRE, v. recipr. to answer each other.

S'ENTRE-SECOURIR, v. recipr. to assist, to aid, to help each other.

ENTRE-SOL, sm. arch. entresol, mezzanine story.

S'ENTRE-SUIVRE, v. recipr. to follow, to succeed each other.

S'ENTRE-TAILLER, ppr. vnt. (d'un cheval, of a horse) to cut.

ENTRE-TEMPS, sm. (little used) interval, meantime, meanwhile.

S'ENTRE-TUER, ang-truh-lûay, v. recipr. to kill one another.

ENTRECRAT, ang-truh-shah, sm. danc. cover, cut. Rattré un —, to cut a caper.

ENTRECŒUVER, ppa. of ENTRECŒUVER, fem. —E, La nature de ce territoire — de lacs et de marais; the nature of this territory intersected by lakes and marshes. Aug. Th. fig. Mots —s, broken words. Voix —e, broken voice. Un long récit — de longs soupirs, a long account interrupted by deep-drawn sighs. Ab. Cette parole ingénieuse — e par les fatigues de la voix, that ingenious language uttered in a voice broken with fatigue. St-B.

ENTRECŒUVER, ang-truh-koo-pay, va. to intersect (by), to interrupt (by), to interpose (with). Les canaux qui entrecoupaient les jardins les rendent plus agréables, the canals which intersect the gardens render them more agreeable. (by extension) Dans cette nuit qui s'écrit entrecoupe, in that darkness that a flash divides. Lamart. fig. Des soupirs entrecoupaient sa voix, ses paroles, sighs interrupted his words. Il a répondu à mon discours et aux sanglots qui les entrecoupaient, he answered my words and the sobs by which they were interrupted. Volt.

S'ENTRECŒUVER, ppr. 1 (de chevaux, of horses) to cut, to interfere. See S. COUPER. Ce cheval est sujet à s'—, that horse is liable to cut. 2 (sometimes) (s'interrompt mutuellement) to interrupt each other. Nous nous entrecoupons de mille questions qui nous touchent, we interrupted each other by a thousand questions on subjects of personal interest. Nol.

ENTRÉE, ang-tray, sf. 1 entrance. L'— de la ville, de l'église, the entrance of the town, of the church. L'— de la maison, the entrance of the house. — étroite, large, obscure, clear, narrow, wide, dark, light entrance. L'— d'un port, d'une rade, the entrance of a harbour, of a roadstead. Tout à l'—, dès l'—, at the very entrance 2 (by analogy) L'— d'un chapeau, d'une boîte, d'un soulier, d'une manche, etc., the opening of a hat, of a box, of a shoe, of a sleeve.

3 (action d'entrer) entrance, entry. Il nous semble que ce fut vendredi que vous fîtes votre — à Aix, we imagine that it was on Friday that you made your entry into Aix. Mue de Sev. L'— d'un vaisseau dans le port, the entry of a vessel into the port. L'— d'un corps de troupes en pays ennemi, the entrance of a body of troops into a hostile country. Son — dans la salle fit sensation, his coming into the room created quite a sensation. Elle vint dans le salon et, à son —, je vis qu'elle était contrariée, she came into the drawing-room and, at her entrance, I saw that she was vexed. A mon — je vis que, on going in I saw that.

Mich. Les habitudes d'— familière dans toutes les demeures des habitants du pays, these habits of familiar entrance into all the dwellings of the inhabitants of the country. Lamart. 4 com. entry. (by extension) Ce livre doit faire mention de l'— et de la sortie de chaque somme qui a été reçue ou employée, this book is to contain an entry of every sum coming in or going out. 5 (d'un acteur) entrance, entry. Cet acteur a manqué son —, a fait une fausse —, that actor has made a wrong entry. 6 (d'un roi, etc.) entry. L'— du roi, the entry of the king. L'— d'un ambassadeur, the entry of an ambassador. 7 (reception) entry, reception. On fit une magnifique — à la reine, a magnificent reception was given to the queen. 8 (droit d'entrée chez le prince) free access, free admission. Avoir les grandes et les petites —s, to have free access at all times. Les —s de la chambre, to have free admission to the chamber. 9 (dans un spectacle, at a theatre) free admission (to). Cet auteur a son —, ses — à la Comédie française, that author has free admission to the French Comedy, is on the free list. Suspendre les —s de faveur, to suspend the orders. 10 (by analogy) admission. Son talent lui donne — partout, his talent gives him admission every where. Sa figure lui donne — chez les dames, his face procures him admission among the ladies. St-Sim. 11 (droit de sieger dans une assemblée) seat. Avoir — au Conseil d'Etat, to have a seat in the Council of State.

12 (admission d'une personne en quelque endroit) entrance, admission. Depuis son — au collège, cet enfant a fait beaucoup de progrès, since his entrance into the college, that child has made great progress. 13 fig. (début) entrance. Faire son — dans le monde, to make one's first appearance in the world; to come out. Depuis son — au barreau, since his first appearance at the bar. — en exercice, en fonctions, etc., entrance into office, etc. — en possession, en jouissance, entrance into possession. — en sautoir, opening of a meeting. 14 fig. (occasion, ouverture) opening, wing, rise. La fatterie est l'— de la faveur, the flattery is the way to favour. 15 fig. (commencement) beginning. A l'— de l'été, at the beginning of summer. A l'— de son discours, at the beginning of his speech.

16 fig. (importation, le droit que l'on paye) entry, duty, custom-duty, town-dues. On défend absolument l'— de cette marchandise, the entry of those goods is strictly prohibited. Payer l'—, les droits d'—, to pay the duty. Droit d'— et de sortie, import and export duty. Cela paye —, that pays a duty.

17 fig. collin. entry, made dish. Il s'acharna sur les —s, he made rude havoc among the made dishes. Le Sage. 18 — de ballet, dance. 19 absol. mus. striking up. 20 asir. entrance. 21 Hois d'—, wood beginning to decay.

D'ENTRÉE, adv. loc. absol. at first, from the beginning. D'— de jeu, at the beginning of the game; Il fig. first, at first.

ENTREFAITES, ang-truh-fait, sf. pl. Sur ces —s, dans ces —s, in the mean time, meanwhile. (is employed sometimes in the sing.) Dans l'—, dans cette —, in the interval, in the interim. L'ennemi vit sur l'—, in the mean time the enemy came. La Font.

ENTRECRÊTE, ang-truh-zhang, sm. tact. address. Avoir de l'—, to possess tact. Il avait au besoin un — qui allait à tout, he had, when necessary, a tact that adapted itself to every thing. St-R.

ENTRELACÉ, ppa. of ENTRELACER, fem. —E, Des chiffres —s, ciphers blended together. Dans ses mains jointes un grand rosier —, in her clasped hands a large rosary twisted round her fingers. Le Sage. Nous étions épaule contre épaule, tous les nerfs tendus et les bras —s comme des serpents, we were shoulder against shoulder, every nerve on the stretch and with our arms entwined in each other like serpents. Fen.

ENTRELACEMENT, ang-truh-las-mang, sm. interlacing, interweaving, intermixing, wrenching, twining, twisting, waiting, blending. Un — de chiffres, a blending of ciphers.

ENTRELACER, ang-truh-las-say, ra. to interlace, to interweave, to intermix, to wreath, to twine, to twist, to twittle, to blend. — des branches d'arbre, to plash. — ses cheveux de rubans, to braid one's hair with ribbons.

S'ENTRELACER, ppr. to be interlaced, interwoven, twined, blended; to twine, to twist round each other. Ainsi de faibles plantes s'entrelacent ensemble pour résister aux ouragans, so, feeble plants twine round each other to resist the storm. B. de St-P. Leurs mains s'entrelacent sur le poignard, their hands clasp each other on the poniard. Chât. Au plafond s'entrelacent les baguettes de vermeil, on the ceiling gilded baguettes are interwoven. Th. Gaut.

ENTRELACÉS, ang-truh-lah, sm. 1 arch. twine, interlaced ornaments, ciphers. 2 calligr. flourishes. 3 tech. — de serrurerie, knot of iron-work.

ENTRELAÏDE, ppa. of ENTRELAÏDER, fem. —E, (adjective) interlarded, streaky. Viande —e, streaky meat.

ENTRELAÏDER, ang-truh-lay-day, va. 1 cultid. to interlard (une volaille, a fowl). (by extension) — un pain d'épice d'écorce de citron, to stick lemon peel into gingerbread. 2 fig. — un discours, etc., de passages grecs, latins, etc., to interlard a speech, etc., with Greek, Latin quotations. ENTREMÊLE, ppa. of ENTREMÊLER, fem. —E, Cavalierie et infanterie —es, cavalry and infantry mixed up together. fig. Ses discours étaient —s de menaces et d'injures, his discourse was mixed up with threats and abuse. M^{de} de Sev. Les progrès, quoique nécessaires, sont —s de décadences fréquentes, progress, though necessary, is mixed up with frequent relapses. Turg.

ENTREMÊLER, ang-truh-may-lay, va. to intermix, to intermingle, to intersperse. — des fleurs blanches parmi des rouges, to intermingle white flowers with red ones. fig. En ces tables l'entremêle de des traits de certaine philosophie, in these tables I throw in dashes of a certain philosophy. La Font. L'entremêle un peu mes lectures, I often vary my reading. Jacq. En entremêlant mon travail d'études historiques, varying my occupation with historical studies. Chât.

S'ENTREMÊLER, ppr. 1 to intermix, to intermingle, to blend. Des nuances qui s'entremêlent, shades that blend together. fig. C'est à l'est des Etats-Unis d'Amérique que la religion s'est mieux entremêlée à la liberté, it is in the east of the United States of America that religion and liberty are most firmly welded together. De Sacy. 2 (s'entremettre) to meddle, to intermeddle.

ENTREMETTS, ang-truh-may, sm. side-dish, entremets.

ENTREMETTEUR, ang-truh-may-tohr,

sm. fem. ENTREMETTEUSE, agent, inter-mediate agent, medium, go-between.

ENTREMETTEUSE, ang-trub-met-nbz, sf. (in a bad part) go-between, procurer.

S'ENTHÉTIER, ang-trub-may'r, vpr. to interpose, to intervene, to mediate. to be inter-mediate, to meddle, to inter-meddle. Les moins fongueux des deux partis s'entremirent et apparurent toutes querelles, the less fiery on both sides intervened and appeared the quarrel. Aug. Th. Il le pria bien humblement de s'— encore avec l'évêque pour reconcilier la ville de G. avec son beau-frère, he begged him most humbly to intercede once more with the bishop to reconcile the town of G. with his brother-in-law. Bar. S'— d'une affaire, to meddle in an affair. S'il continuait à s'— des affaires d'Italie, c'était, etc., if he continued to intervene in the affairs of Italy, it was, etc. Bar.

ENTREMISE, ang-trub-meet, sf. intervention, interposition, interference, mediation, medium. Voilà mon projet, ton — ne m'y sera pas inutile, that is my project, your intervention will not be useless. Le Sage. Offrir son —, to offer to be a medium.

ENTREPAS, ang-trub-pah, sm. man, ambling pace.

ENTREPOSEUR, ang-trub-po-zay, co. to warehouse, to bond (des marchandises, wares).

ENTREPOSEUR, ang-trub-po-zuhr, sm. 4 warehouse-keeper, bonded warehouse-keeper. 2 (le préposé à la garde et à la vente de certaines marchandises) manager. Un — de tabac, a manager of a tobacco-store.

ENTREPÔT, ang-trub-po, sm. 4 warehouse, entrepôt. 2 (dock) bonded warehouse. Ville d'—, mart, emporium. Marchandises en —, goods in bond. L'— des vins, des eaux-de-vie, the City wine-cellar, brandy-cellar. 3 (magasin pour le compte du gouvernement) store, government warehouse.

ENTREPRENANT, ang-trub-prob-ang, ppr. of ENTREPRENDRE, adj. m. fem. —, 4 enterprising. Les plus — étaient estimés les plus sages, the most enterprising were deemed the most prudent. Rich. Mon naturel — et présomptueux voyait partout un défi, my enterprising and presumptuous character saw defiance every where. G. Sand. 2 (in a bad part) rash, daring, encroaching. L'plus —, who could prit la parole, L. bolder than I am, spoke. De Brüss.

ENTREPRENDRE, ang-trub-prang'dr, va. conj. like PRENDRE, 1. to undertake, to attempt. L'un d'eux voulut — un voyage en loiotain pays, one of them wished to undertake a journey to a far off country. La Font. Les G. n'entreprendraient jamais d'invasion hors de leurs pays, the W. never attempted an invasion out of their own country. Ang. Th. N'osez-vous — une cause si belle? dare you not undertake so fine a cause? G. Del. Bienôt les rois ligués entreprendre de venger Ménélas de l'infâme Paris, soon the kings leagued together undertook to revenge Menelaus upon the infamous P. Fea. absol. Plus prompt à —, que ferme à exécuter, more ready to undertake than firm to execute. Lamart. 2 fig. — quelqu'un, to take a person in hand. — quelqu'un de paroles, to fall foul of a person. 3 (s'engager à faire on à fournir à certaines conditions) to undertake, to engage, to contract. 4 (embarrasser, rendre perclus) to seize. Il a un rhumatisme qui lui entreprend toute la jambe, a rheumatism has seized all his leg. 5 — sur, to make an attempt (on), to encroach (on), to make encroachment (on). — sur son voisin, sur la propriété de son voisin, la encroachment on one's neighbour, on one's neighbour's property.

S'ENTREPRENDRE, vpr. 4 fig. pop. S'— de paroles, to fall foul of one another. 2

(s'embarrasser) to be seized, attacked. Ma poitrine s'entreprit, my chest was attacked. Chat.

ENTREPRENEUR, ang-trub-prub-ouhr, sm. fem. ENTREPRENEUSE, 4 contractor. 2 (particul.) builder, master-builder. — de bâtiments, builder. 3 (celui qui se charge de quelque ouvrage) undertaker. Un — de diligence, a coach-proprietor. 4 (souvent employé au fem.) middle-woman. Une entrepreneuse de broderie, de lingerie, an embroiderer.

ENTREPREIS, ang-trub-prec, ppa. of ENTREPRENDRE, fem. —, 4, adjective, seized, attacked, affected. J'ai la tête tout —, my head is quite affected. Il est — de tous ses membres, all his limbs are attacked, he has lost the use of his limbs. ENTREPRISE, ang-trub-priz, sf. 4 enterprise, undertaking. Venir à bout d'une —, to bring about an enterprise. Frais d'—, expenses of an enterprise. 2 (action de faire on de fournir quelque chose à certaines conditions) contract. Avoir l'— d'une fourniture, to have a contract for supplies. 3 (établissement formé par spéculation) establishment, concern. — générale des messageries, general stage-coach establishment. 4 (violence, empiement) attempt.

ENTRER, ang-tray, vn. (Lat. intrare) 4 to enter, to go in, to come in, to walk in. — dans une chambre, to enter a room. — dans la ville, to enter the town. — dans une voiture, dans un bateau, to step into a carriage, a boat. Faire — quelqu'un en quelque lieu, to show a person into a place. Si fait, j'y suis allée, mais je n'y suis pas entrée, yes, I did go, but I did not go in. Muss. Si vous entrez dans nos terres comme ennemi, if you set foot on our land as an enemy. Montesq. Dans cet autre je vois fort bien comment l'on entre, I see the way into this den very well. La Font. — dans le port, — au port, to enter the harbour. — en lice, dans la lice, to enter the lists. — en scène, to come on the stage. Le prédicateur ne fait que d'— en chaire, the preacher has but just ascended the pulpit. absol. Entrer, come in. Faites —, show the person in. S'il venait à — dans ce moment, should he walk in at this moment. Balz. Fig. Les passions n'entrent point dans l'immortel Éden, passions are excluded from the immortal Eden. Chat. Le chagrin est entré chez moi avec la mort de mon père, grief has taken up its abode with me since the death of my father. Balz. Ces cachots où ils avaient laissé — l'indulgence, those dungeons where they had allowed pity to enter. Lamart. — dans une affaire, to enter into a concern; || — dans une affaire pour un intérêt de tant, to be concerned in an affair at such a rate of profit. — dans le détail des choses, to enter into the particulars of a thing. absol. — dans le détail, dans les détails, to enter into particulars. — dans de longues explications, dans de longs développements, to enter into long explanations, into long developments. 2 fig. (être admis) to enter. — dans un hospice, to be admitted in an almshouse. — dans la magistrature, dans les ordres, to enter the magistrature, to go into orders. — dans une association, to enter into a partnership. — dans une conspiration, to enter into a conspiracy. — en prison, to go to prison. — en condition, a service de quelqu'un, to go out to service, to go into a place, to enter into the service of a person. — au convent, — en religion, to enter a convent; to turn friar or nun. — dans le monde, à la cour, to enter the world; to make one's first appearance at court. — en comparaison, en parallèle, to enter into a comparison, a parallel. — en compte, en ligne de compte, en taxe, to be taken into account, to be taxed. (By analogy) — en partage, to share, to have a share. 3 fig. (commencer à faire quelque chose) to enter, to begin. — en charges, en fonctions, to enter on one's functions. Il ne faisait que d'— dans la carrière évangélique, he had but just entered the evangelical career. Chat. — dans le commerce, dans les affaires, to settle in business, to set up in business. — en correspondance, to enter into correspondence. — en pourparler, en négociation, to enter into a parley, a negotiation. — en ménage, to begin house-keeping. — en campagne, Sse campagne. — en fermentation, to begin to ferment. — en sance, to take one's seat. — en colère, en fureur, to fall into a passion. N. commençant d'— en faveur, N. began to be in favour. Le Sage. Vous voulez — en composition, you wish to compound. Pasc. — dans sa dixième année, to be turned of nine. L'année dans laquelle nous venons d'—, the year we have just entered. On entrât dans l'automne, the autumn had just begun. La Font. — en danse, Sse danse. — en matière, to enter upon the subject, the matter. — en jeu, to be one's turn to play; || fig. to be one's turn. 4 (des choses, of things) (se mettre, se placer) to enter. Ce couteau n'entre pas facilement dans sa gaine, this knife will not slip into its sheath. fig. Cela entre, n'entre pas dans ses vues, that enters, does not enter into his views. (impers.) Il entre, il n'entre pas dans ses vues de, it enters, it does not enter into his views to. Il n'entre pas dans mon plan d'examiner cela, it does not enter into my plan to examine that. 5 (particul.) (des choses, of things) (pénétrer) to penetrate. Il lui était entré une épine dans le pied, a thorn had entered, had got into his foot. Des racines qui entrent profondément dans la terre, roots that strike deep into the soil. Le joint n'entraît dans ce cachot que par une très-petite ouverture, light into this dungeon was only admitted through a very small opening. Aïa d'empêcher l'eau d'— dans la cave, in order to prevent the water from leaking into the cellar. (By hyphalage) Ce chapeau n'entre pas, ne peut — dans la tête, this hat will not go on my head. Je ne puis — dans mes bottes, elles sont trop étroites, I cannot get my boots on, they are too tight. Ce bruit entre dans la tête, entre dans les oreilles, that noise splits one's head, stuns one's ears. fig. On ne peut rien lui faire — dans la tête, there is no driving anything into his head. N'admettez-vous point comme on change et de quelle manière les choses entrent différemment dans la tête? do you not admire how one changes, and how differently things present themselves? M^{me} de Sév. On ne peut lui faire — cela dans la tête, one cannot beat that into his head. Cela ne m'est jamais entré dans l'esprit, dans la pensée, dans la tête, dans l'imagination, it never came into my head. (impers.) Il ne m'est jamais entré en pensée que, it never came into my head that. Il n'a son de voix qui m'entre dans le cœur, the sound of his voice goes to my heart. M^{me} de Sév. Il y a des moments où la pensée de Dieu force les âmes et y entre violemment, there are moments when the thought of God forces itself upon the soul and takes violent possession of it. Lamart.

6 fig. (pénétrer, comprendre) to penetrate, to enter. Entre dans ma situation, que dois-je faire? put yourself in my place, what am I to do? Le Sage. — dans le sens, dans la pensée d'un auteur, to penetrate the meaning of an author. Vous n'entre pas dans ma pensée, you do not take my meaning. 7 fig. (s'associer, prendre part) to share (in), to partake (of). Il entre dans tout, il se mêle de tout, he thrusts himself every where, he meddles with every thing. M^{me} de Sév.

Il entre avec douceur et approbation dans tout ce qu'on lui dit, he assents gently and approvingly to all that is said to him. M^{me} de Sév. — dans les idées, dans les vœux de quelqu'un, to enter into the ideas, the wishes of a person. J'entre, pour mon compte, dans tous vos sentiments, for my part, I share in all your sentiments. M^{me}. — dans les secrets, dans les plaisirs, dans les peines de quelqu'un, to share the secrets, the pleasures, the sorrows of a person. Il n'est pas besoin d'— avec passion dans les intérêts présents et populaires, it is not necessary to take so passionate an interest in the popular interests of the day. Villem. Ce comédien entre bien dans la passion, dans le caractère de son personnage, that comedian acts in character, enters into the spirit of his part, humours his part well.

8 (être contenu dans quelque chose) to enter, to go in, to be contained. J'entre dans ces effets ne pourront — dans cette malle, all those things can never go in that trunk. 9 (être employé dans la cofection, dans la composition d'une chose) to enter (into). Le fer et le bois entrent dans la construction de la plupart des édifices, iron and wood enter into the construction of most edifices. (impers.) Il entre tant de drap, tant d'étoffe dans cet habit, dans cet ameublement, it takes so much cloth, so much stuff to make that coat, that article of furniture. fig. Les langues anciennes et modernes qui entrent dans les bonnes études, the ancient and modern languages which form part of a solid course of education. Nod. Faire — quelque chose dans un traité, dans un livre, dans un discours, to insert a thing in a treaty, in a book, in a speech. 10 fig. (se mêler, contribuer, concourir à) to go for much (in), to go a good way (in), to have a share in. Il entra beaucoup de politique dans sa libéralité, there was a great deal of calculation in his liberality. Bar. Cela n'entre pas rien dans une résolution, that has no share in my resolution. Le hasard entre pour beaucoup dans les événements, chance has a great share in events.

11 (transitivement et elliptique, for faire entrer) to introduce. — des marchandises en fraude, to smuggle in goods. Je ne pouvais — la clef dans la serrure, I could not get the key into the keyhole.

ENTRETIENEMENT, âg-trub-taj-nâ-mâg, sm. anc. maintenance, keeping.

ENTRETIENIR, âg-trub-tie-ner, va. conjug. like TENIR, 1 à hold, to keep together. 2 (tenir en bon état) to keep in good repair, to keep in good order. Un bâtiment, un jardin, a building, a garden; un pont, un chemin, a bridge, a road; 3 (maintenir) to keep up, to maintain, to preserve, to cherish, to foment. — le feu, to keep up the fire. Méchant du mastie de Chio pour — la blancheur de ses dents, chewing mastie of Scio to preserve the teeth white. Th. Gaut. L'exercice entretient les forces, exercise keeps up the strength. — une correspondance avec quelqu'un, to keep up a correspondence with a person; des intelligences avec les ennemis, a correspondence with the enemy. On les nourrit bien d'ailleurs pour les — en santé et gaieté, besides, they are well fed, in order to keep them in good health, and hearty. Jacq. Entretenez-le dans ces bonnes dispositions, keep him up in these good intentions. Il entretenait dans sa haine contre les Romains, he kept up his hatred against the Romans. Il ne faut pas l'— dans cette idée, he must not be encouraged in that idea. Les petits cadeaux entretiennent l'amitié, small presents keep up friendship. L'homme entretient dans son cœur un désir de bonheur, man cherishes in his heart a longing for happiness. Chat. 4 (pourrir les choses nécessaires à la subsistance) to keep, to support, to maintain. — ses enfants, sa famille, to maintain one's children, one's family. — quelqu'un de linge, de vêtements, to keep a person in linen, in clothes. — un grand train, un grand équipage, etc., — a large establishment. fig. — à keep up a large establishment. fig. — quelqu'un d'espérances, l'— de belles promesses, to feed a person with hopes, with fair promises. 5 (parler, tenir quelque discours à quelqu'un) to converse with, to talk with. Je l'entretenais des coutumes et des traditions de mon pays, I conversed with him about the customs and traditions of my country. Chat. Bien qu'il m'entretint des histoires merveilleuses de, although his conversation with me ran on the wonderful stories of. Nod. fig. — ses pensées, — ses rêveries, to indulge in one's thoughts, in one's reveries.

S'ENTRETIENIR, vpr. 1 (se tenir, s'associer étroitement) to hold, to keep each other together. 2 (se conserver) to maintain, to preserve one's self, to be maintained, preserved, to continue, to keep. Ces chevaux s'entretenaient gras, those horses kept fat. Il y a des arbres qui s'entretiennent toujours verts, some trees always preserve their verdure. 3 (pourvoir à son entretien) to maintain, to support, to keep one's self, to subsist. Il a de quoi s'— honnêtement, he has enough to live decently on. Je donne tant à mon domestique pour s'—, I give so much to my servant for his clothing. S'— de linge, to find one's self in linen. fig. S'— du jeu, to subsist on one's winnings. fig. S'— de chimères, to nurse chimeras. 4 (converser avec) to converse with, to talk with. Leibnitz s'entretenait volontiers avec toutes sortes de personnes, L. took pleasure in conversing with persons of every class. Feuille. Ils fumaient leurs calumets en s'entretenant des choses du passé, they smoked their calumets whilst talking of things of the past. Chat. Il ne m'entretenait que de ses intérêts particuliers, he only conversed with me about his private interests. Le Sage. S'— de bagatelles, to talk about trifles. S'— par lettres, to converse by letters. S'— de quelqu'un, to talk about a person. S'— de Dieu, to talk of God. fig. S'— avec Dieu, to be in divine meditation. S'— de ses propres pensées, to commune with one's own heart. S'— avec soi-même, to meditate.

ENTRETENU, âg-trub-ti-nû, ppa. of ENTRETIENIR, fem. — E, adjective. Je kept in repair, in good order. Bâtiment bien —, building kept in good repair. 2 (conserver, maintenir) kept up, maintained. Feu mal —, fire badly kept up. 3 (pourvoir des choses nécessaires) maintained, supported. Une armée — e à grands frais, an army maintained at great expense. (by extension) Vous y avez une table de six convertis — e à ses dépens, you will always find the cloth laid for six persons at his expense. Le Sage. 4 naut. Capitaine, lieutenant, enseigne —, captain, lieutenant, ensign on half-pay. 5 her. held together.

ENTRETIEN, âg-trub-ti-yang, sm. 1 keep, maintenance, support. On continuait à prendre de force chez les marchands le vin, etc., pour l'— de la maison du roi, they continued to take by force from the merchants the wine, etc., for the maintenance of the king's household. Bar. 2 (particul.) dress. Son — lui coûte beaucoup, he spends a great deal in dress. Il donne tant à sa femme pour son —, he gives so much to his wife for her toilette. Il paye tant pour la nourriture et l'— de son domestique, he pays so much for the board and clothing of his servant. 3 (soin, dépense) keeping in repair, in good order. L'— d'un bâtiment, the keeping in repair of a building. L'— du linge, the keeping up of linen. Frais d'—, costs of repair. 4 (conversation) conversation, talk. Il prenait plaisir à son —, he took pleasure in his conversation. Le Sage. Tout cédait au charme secret de ses —, every thing yielded to the secret charm of his conversation. Boss. Etre l'objet de l'— général, le sujet de tous les —, to be the subject of general talk. — s spirituelles, pious exhortations. 5 (sujet de conversation) subject of conversation. Cela est devenu l'— de toute la ville, that has become the talk of the whole town.

ENTRETOILE, âg-trub-tiwâl, sf. cut-work, open-work.

ENTRETOISE, âg-trub-tiwâz, sf. tech. intertie, interduce, transom.

ENTREVOIR, âg-trub-tioar, va. conjug. like VOIR, 1 à catch, to have a glimpse of, to see imperfectly. — un objet à travers le brouillard, dans l'obscurité, to catch sight of an object through the fog, in the obscurity. — quelque chose dans l'éloignement, to have a glimpse of a thing in the distance. J'aurai de la peine à le reconnaître, car je n'ai fait que l'—, I should be puzzled to recognize him, for I did but catch a glimpse of him. 2 fig. (de l'esprit) to see through. — la vérité, to have had a glimpse of the truth. M. nous l'entrevois déjà, n'était pas une femme politique, M. we already perceive, was not a political woman. St-E. J'ai entrevu les desseins, les intentions de cet homme, I gained an insight into the designs, the intentions of that man. L'homme ici-bas ne fait qu'— la foi fait le reste, man here below sees but imperfectly, faith does the rest. Saint. 3 fig. (prevoir confusément) to foresee. Il entrevoyait l'instant où il pourrait se lever, he foresaw the moment when he might get up. Saint. J'entrevois de grands obstacles, I foresee great obstacles.

S'ENTREVOIR, vpr. 1 à have an interview, to meet. 2 obsol. (se rendre visible) to visit each other.

ENTREVOUS, âg-trub-voo, sm. carp. mason. interjoin.

ENTREVU, âg-trub-vû, ppa. of ENTREVOIR, fem. — E, Une femme — e sous son voile, a woman partially seen from under her veil. fig. Si de la Grèce — e rapidement, nous passons à Rome, nous, etc., if from a cursory survey of Greece, we pass to Rome, we, etc. Videm.

ENTREVEU, âg-trub-vû, sf. interview, meeting. Mener une — entre deux personnes, to bring about an interview between two persons.

ENTROUVERT, âg-troo-vayr, ppa. of ENTROUVRIRE, fem. — E, 1 half-open, ajar. Une bouche — e, a mouth half-open. Une porte — e, a door standing ajar, half-open. Des fleurs — es, half-opened, half-blown flowers. 2 vet. Cheval —, shoulder-pitched horse.

ENTROUVERTURE, âg-troo-vayr-tûr, sf. vet. result of a sprain of the shoulder-joint.

ENTROUVRIRE, âg-troo-vayr, va. to half-open, to set ajar. — la porte, la fenêtre, to set the door ajar, to half-open the window. — les yeux, to half-open one's eyes. L'enfer ouvrait un œil, one half-opened an eye. La Font. L'enfer ouvrait mes lèvres aux brises, I half-opened my lips to the breeze. Chat. (by extension) La mort ne rompit pas tout entier, mais elle entrouvrit le sceau de ses lèvres, death did not entirely take the seal from off her lips, but it half-opened it. Lamart.

S'ENTROUVRIRE, vpr. to open, to gape. Cette voûte commence à s'—, a fissure is appearing in this vaulted roof. Cette fleur commence à s'— le soir, this flower begins to half-open in the evening. A la fin ses yeux s'entrouvrirent, at length his eyes half-opened.

ENTURE, âg-tûr, sf. 1 agri. port. cut, incision. 2 carp. pegs. 3 tech. double thread.

ENUMÉRATEUR, ây-âû-may-rat-ûr, sm. enumerator.

ENUMÉRATIF, ay-nû-may-rai-li, adj. m. fem. ENUMÉRATIF, (little used) enumerative.

ENUMÉRATION, ay-nû-may-rah-syong, sf. (Lat.) enumeration.

ENUMÉRER, ay-nû-may-ray, ra. (Lat. enumerare) to enumerate. Enumérait ses probabilités de triomphe, enumerating the probabilities of his triumph. Lamart.

ENVIAH, ang-vah-ee, ppa. of ENVIAH, invaded. Le toit paternel par la force —, the paternal roof invaded by main force. C. Del.

ENVIAH, ang-vah-ee, ra. (Lat. invadere) to invade, to overrun, to encroach upon (un État, une province, a State, a province). Il a envahi mon bien, mon héritage, he has seized upon my estate, my inheritance. fig. Un grand nuage, courant du sud au nord, avait envahi toute la ciel, a vast cloud, sailing from south to north, had spread itself all over the sky. Al. Dom. Nous embarquons beaucoup d'eau, nous ne pouvons suffire à la vider aussi vite qu'elle nous envahissait, we shipped heavy seas, the water entered faster than we could bale it out. Lamart. De lâches distractions l'envahirent, he suffered himself to be absorbed by worldly pleasures. St-B.

ENVASISSEMENT, ang-vah-is-mang, sm. invasion, overrunning, encroachment. L'— d'une province, the invasion of a province. fig. L'— du globe entier par le froid, the invasion of the whole globe by cold. Buff. Les —s du pouvoir, the encroachments of power.

ENVAHISSEUR, ang-vah-is-subr, sm. 1 invader. Pour repousser les —s, to repulse the invaders. Aug. Th. 2 (adjective) invading. L'esprit — des Romains, the domineering spirit of the Romans. Villem.

ENVASEMENT, ang-vaz-mang, sm. filling up, choking up with mud, silt. L'— d'un vase, ang-và-zay, ra. to fill, to choke up with mud, silt.

ENVASSER, vpr. to be filled, choked up with mud, silt.

ENVELOPPANT, ang-lop-ang, ppr. of ENVELOPPER, adj. m. fem. — E, enveloping. La partie —, the outer covering.

ENVELOPPER, ang-lop, sf. 1 envelope, cover, covering, wrapper, case, casing, exterior. L'— d'un paquet, the covering of a parcel. — de cuir, de toile cirée, leather, oil-cloth wrapper. Toile, papier d'—, wrapper. L'— d'une lettre, the envelope of a letter. Mettre une lettre sous l'—, sous double —, to put a letter in an envelope, in a double envelope. Écrire sous l'— de quelqu'un, to write under a person's cover. 2 fort. envelope. 3 fig. (forme extérieure) enveloppe, exterior. C'est un supplice de conserver intact son être intellectuel empiisonné sous une — matérielle usée, it is a torture to have one's intellectual being preserved intact, imprisoned under a material and worn-out envelope. Chai.

ENVELOPPE, ppa. of ENVELOPPER, fem. — E, 1 wrapped up, enveloped. fig. Avoir l'esprit — dans la matière, to be thick-skulled. 2 fig. (compris dans) involved. Être, se trouver — dans une proscription, to be involved in a proscription. Se trouver — dans de mauvaises affaires, to be involved in bad affairs; être sous une banqueroute, in a bankruptcy. 3 fig. Discours —, confused discourse. Faire des questions —es, to put intrusive questions. Des termes douteux et —, doubtful and equivocal terms. Boss. 4 fig. C'est un esprit —, he is a muddled fellow.

ENVELOPEMENT, angv-lop-mang, sm. envelopment, wrapping.

ENVELOPPER, angv-lop-ay, ra. 1 to wrap, to wrap up, to envelop (du linge, des habits, linen, clothes). — des gants dans du papier, to wrap up gloves in paper. — de paille, de papier, to wrap up in straw, in paper. S'— le corps de son manteau, to wrap one's cloak round one. S'— le doigt, la tête avec du linge, to wrap up one's finger, one's head in linen. fig. La mort, d'une ombre noire, enveloppe avec lui son nom et son histoire, deal, with his black shade, shrouds his name and history. Boil. 2 (entourer) to wrap, to wrap up, to cover, to bind up, to muffle up. (by extension) Tout à coup une noire tempête enveloppe le ciel, all at once a black tempest darkens the sky. Féu. 3 (by extension) (environner) to envelop, to surround, to hem in. L'ennemi nous enveloppait de toutes parts, the enemy hemmed us in on all sides. Le comte de Guiche enveloppe les escadrons et les force à se rendre, the count de G. surrounds the squadrons and forces them to surrender. Mme de Sév. Il faut — cette bastille le village, that height, that village must be enveloped. Un tourbillon de poussière les enveloppe, they were enveloped in a cloud of dust. fig. En disputant, il prend son avantage, il vous serre, vous enveloppe, in disputing, he profits by his advantages, closes in upon you, bears you down. Beaum. 4 fig. (comprendre dans) to involve, to imply (dans une affaire, dans un procès, in an affair, in a lawsuit). Le vieillard ne laisse pas de m'— dans sa débauche, the old man however extended his distrust to me. Le Sage. 5 fig. (déguiser) to wrap up, to involve, to hide. Il enveloppe à dessein sa pensée, he disguises his thoughts designedly.

S'ENVELOPPER, vpr. 1 to wrap one's self, to wrap, to muffle one's self up. S'— dans son manteau, to wrap, to muffle one's self up in one's cloak. fig. Plus les disgrâces sont cruelles, plus il faut s'— de vertu, the more painful the disgrace, the greater fortitude one must assume. La Rochef. Me l'enveloppe pour ainsi dire dans mon devoir, I pleaded my duty as my excuse. Retz. 2 fig. (se déguiser) to wrap, to involve, to hide one's self. Tu l'enveloppes et me caches le fond de ton âme, you put on a veil and conceal from me your secret thoughts. Le Sage.

ENVENIMÉ, ppa. of ENVENIMER, fem. — E, envenomed. (by extension) Plaie — E, festering sore. fig. Un discours —, an envenomed discourse. Langue — E, envenomed tongue.

ENVENIMER, angv-ne-may, ra. 1 to envenom, to infect with venom. (by extension) — la bouche, to envenom the mouth. 2 (by extension) (endammer) to inflame (une plaie, a sore). 3 fig. (aggraver) to exasperate, to irritate. Un cœur que la jalousie noircit et envenime, a mind that is darkened and exasperated with jealousy. Mass. On l'avait envenimé contre moi, he had been set against me. Il releva ces discours, les envenima dans ses dépêches, in his despatches he pointed out these speeches and envenomed them. Volt.

S'ENVENIMER, vpr. 1 (d'une plaie, of a sore) to be envenomed, to fester, to rankle. 2 fig. (s'aggraver) to be irritated, inflamed, to rankle. Sa haine contre le duc d'O. s'envenima, his hatred against the duke of O. was inflamed. Bar. Les passions s'enveniment dans la solitude, passions rankle in solitude. Lamart. Les paroles s'enveniment comme les cœurs, words become bitter like the hearts. Lamart.

ENVERGER, ang-vayr-zhay, ra. to put up with.

ENVERGUER, ang-vayr-gay, ra. naot. to bend (saule).

ENVERGURE, ang-vayr-gür, sf. 1 navit. bending of the sails. 2 nat. hist. spread of wings.

ENVERS, ang-vayr, prep. towards, to. Il est bon d'être charitable, mais — qui? c'est là le point, it is all very well to be charitable, but to whom? that is the question. La Font. Parce que sa générosité s'est émise — vous, because his generosity was exercised towards you. Saint. Pleux — Dieu, pious towards God. Traître — sa patrie, traitor to one's country. Nous sommes lynx — nos pareils et taupes — nous-mêmes, we are lynx-eyed for our neighbours and mole-eyed for ourselves. La Font. Je vois qu'— mon frère on tâche à me noircir, I see they are trying to injure me in the eyes of my brother. Mol. — et contre tous, against all men. — et contre tous je te protégerai, I will defend you against the whole world. La Font.

ENVERS, sm. wrong side, under side, reverse. Étoffe à deux —, stuff with both sides alike.

À L'ENVERS, adv. loc. wrong side outwards, inside out, wrong side forward, upside down. Mettre un manteau à l'—, to put on a cloak wrong side outwards. Mettre une chemise à l'—, to put on a shirt inside out. fig. Ses affaires sont à l'—, his affairs are all wrong. Avoir l'esprit à l'— la tête à l'—, to be crack-brained, to be head and one's self. Cet accident lui a mis la tête à l'—, that accident has turned his brain.

À L'— DE, prep. contrary to. À l'— de nous qui commençons par, contrary to us who begin with. Michx.

ENVI (à l'), ang-vee, adv. loc. with emulation, enviously. Tous les spectateurs à l'— se sont déchaînés contre lui, all the spectators strove which should abuse him the most. Le Sage. Vos femmes dont les soins à l'— la soulagent, your women who vie with each other in their zeal to bring her relief. Rac.

À L'ENVI DE, prep. in emulation of. À l'— les uns des autres, tying with each other. Les chevaliers avaient dépensé à l'— l'un de l'autre, the knights had vied with each other in expense. Bar.

ENVIALE, ang-vy-afi, adj. mf. enviable.

ENVIE, ang-vee, sf. (Lat.) 1 envy. Être rongé d'—, to be devoured, eaten up with envy. Sécher d'—, to pine away with envy. Il regarde le bonheur d'autrui d'un œil d'—, he considers others' happiness with an eye of envy. Les traits de l'—, the shafts of envy. (by extension) L'Angleterre avait été l'— de l'univers pensant, England had been the envy of the thinking world. Lamart. Faire —, to excite, to provoke envy. Porter — à quelqu'un, to envy a person. Un jeune homme qui paraissait me porter —, a young man who appeared to envy me. Nod. (by analogy) Votre sort est digne d'—, your lot is an enviable one. 2 (désir) inclination, wish, desire, mind. Avoir — grande —, bonne —, une violente —, une extrême — de faire quelque chose, to have an inclination, a great inclination, a mind, a good mind, a violent inclination, an extreme inclination to do a thing. Je me sentais quelque — d'éprouver si ce jeune homme me reconnaîtrait, I felt some inclination to try whether that young man would recognize me. Le Sage. Ce papillou dont ils ont tous —, that butterfly that they all long for. Flor. Je ne voulais point de ce cheval, mais on m'en a fait naître l'—, on m'en a fait venir l'—, on m'en a donné l'—, I did not want that horse, but they gave me a desire for it. Je brüle d'—, je meurs d'— de le revoir, I long to see him again. Il m'a témoigné tant d'— de vous parler que, he manifested to me so great a desire of speaking with you that. Le Sage. Passer son — de quelque chose, to gratify one's desire for a thing. L'— en soi est passé, lui en a passé, his inclination for it is over. Faire passer l'— de quelque chose à quelqu'un, to sicken a person of a thing, to put him out of conceit with it. 3 (besoin) mind, wish, inclination, longing. J'avais grande — de dormir, I was very sleepy. —s de vomir, inclination to be sick. 4 (marque que l'on aggrave en naissant) mark. 5 (autour des ongles) again, hangnail.

ENVIE, ppa. of ENVIER, fem. — E. 1 envid. 2 (desiré) desired, wished for.

ENVIER, ang-vay, va. 1 to envy (le bonheur, les succès d'autrui, the happiness, the success of others). C'est l'homme au monde que j'envie davantage, he is the man I envy most in the world. St-B. Sait-on ce que l'on m'envie? if they knew what it is they envy me? C. Del. 2 (souhaiter pour soi-même) to envy, to desire, to wish for, to long for. Plus d'une femme 1 envy his happiness. Plus d'une femme à la mode envierait leur taille élancée, more than one woman of fashion would envy their slender waist. Th. Gaut. J'enviais jusqu'au sort du père, I envied even the herdsman's lot. Chat. 3 (desirer) to desire, to wish for (un poste, une place, a situation, a post). 4 (fig. (avoir, refuser) to deny. Les dieux m'ont envié le bonheur d'avoir des enfants, the gods have denied me the blessing of children. Fén.

ENVIEUX, ang-vyuh, adj. m. fem. ENVIEUSE, 1 envious. Un esprit —, an envious mind. 2 (substantif) an envious person. Il n'y avait plus de rival, mais il y avait des —, there were no longer any rival, but there still remained the envious. Lamart.

ENVIRON, ang-ve-rong, adv. about. Il y a — une heure qu'il est parti, it is about an hour since he left. Notre bande était d'— deux cents hommes, our band consisted of two hundred men. Il avait fait — dix lieues, he had walked about ten leagues. Il y avait dans ma bourse deux cents francs on —, there were in my purse two hundred francs or thereabout. Si ta femme n'a pas — le même âge que toi, if your wife has not about the same age as yourself. G. Sand.

ENVIRONNER, ang-ve-rong-va, va. 1 to surround, to environ, to encompass. — une ville de fossés, de murailles, to surround a town with ditches, walls. fig. Qui pourrait vous — de cette flamme que je porte en moi? who could communicate to you the flame I bear in my bosom? Chat. 2 (être, se mettre autour) to surround, to beset. Les gardes qui environnaient le prince, the guards that surrounded the prince. La mer environne la ville, the sea surrounds the town. fig. Les dangers qui l'environnent de toutes parts, the dangers with which he is beset on all sides. Il lit au front de ceux qu'on vain luxue environne que, he sees printed on the faces of those who live in luxury that. La Font. Peut-être assez d'hommes environnaient ma vie? perhaps my life was sufficiently exalted with honours? Rac. L'éclat qui l'environne, the splendour that surrounds him.

S'ENVIRONNER, ppr. to surround one's self, to be surrounded. fig. S' — de flatteurs, to be surrounded with flatterers.

ENVIRONNÉS, ang-ve-rong, se. pl. environs, vicinity. L'armée se logea aux environs de la place, the army was billeted in the vicinity of the place. Beaucoup de villes des —, many of the towns in the vicinity. Ici dans les —, here in the vicinity.

ENVISAGER, ang-ve-zah-ay, va. 1 to look in the face of, to face, to look at. Plus je vous envisage, et moins je reconnais, Monsieur, votre visage, the longer I look at you, sir, the less I recognize you. Rac. L'envisageant avec des yeux où la douleur était peinte, looking at him with eyes in which her grief was painted. Le Sage. 2 (fig. (considérer) to look upon, to consider, to regard. Il n'envisage plus l'histoire que comme un grand mensonge, history for him is no longer anything but a great falsehood. Saint- — la mort, le péril, les tourments sans être ennu, to look upon death, danger, torments without emotion. Je lui fis — la position où il se trouvait, I set before his eyes the position he found himself in. S'ENVISAGER, ppr. to look at each other, to consider one's self. L'un et l'autre ris, s'arrêtant au passage, se mesura des yeux, s'observa, sevisage, each, stopping short, scans his rival, examines, considers him. Boil. fig. Chacun s'envisage toujours par de certains côtés favorables, every one views himself in the most favorable light. Nass.

ENVOI, ang-vooh, sm. 1 a sending, expedition. Faire un — de marchandises par terre, par eau, to forward, to send, to send off goods by land, by water. Lettre d'—, letter of advice. 2 (la chose envoyée) parcel, package. 3 lit. envoy.

S'ENVOILER, ang-vooh-lay, ppr. tech. to warp.

ENVOISINÉ, ang-vooh-ze-nay, adj. m. fem. —, having neighbours.

S'ENVOIER, ang-vo-lay, ppr. 1 (prendre son vol) to fly away, to fly off, to take wing. Des oiseaux qui s'envoient, birds which fly away. (elliptic). Le moindre bruit fera que cet oiseau, the least noise will make that bird fly away. 2 (by analogy) (des choses légères, que le vent emporte) to fly. La fenêtre s'envoient brusquement et tous les papiers s'envolèrent par la chambre, the window suddenly opened and all the papers flew about the room. Son voile venait de s'— en arrière, her veil had just been blown back. Ab. (elliptic). Le vent fit — tous mes papiers, the wind sent all my papers flying about. La graine aérée que laisse — le glaneur, the bitter seed that the hand of the sower lets fly in the air. Lamart. prov. fig. Il n'y a plus que le nid, les oiseaux s'en sont envolés, there is nothing left but the nest, the birds are flown. fig. Le temps s'envole, l'occasion s'envole, time flies, the opportunity slips away. fig. Les âmes du temps la tristesse s'envole, sadness disappears on the wings of time. La Font. Les grâces qui s'envoient avec le temps! these graces fly with time. Boss. Mon tendre cœur après lui s'envolait, my tender heart flew after him. Volt. Il ne regarda sa fin que comme sa délivrance pour s'— à son Dieu, he considered his end only as a deliverance that he might take his flight towards God. St-Sim. Et son âme étendant les ailes fut toute prête à s'—, and her soul spreading its wings was ready to take its flight. Malh.

ENVOÛTER, ang-vooh-tay, va. anc. to cast a spell on.

ENVOYÉ, ppa. of ENVOYER, fem. — E. 1 sent. Des hommes — s'en avant, men sent on before. Je fus regardé comme j'avais été — du ciel, I was looked upon as one sent by Heaven. Montesq. — à la découverte, sent to reconnoitre. 2 sm. envoy. L'— extraordinaire, envoy extraordinary. L'— de France, the envoy of France. (by extension) Un — de Dieu, one sent by God, a messenger from God.

ENVOYER, ang-vooh-ay, va. irreg. ENVOYANT; J'ENVOIE, NOUS ENVOYONS, VOUS ENVOYEZ, ILS ENVOIENT; J'ENVOIAIS, NOUS ENVOYIONS, VOUS ENVOYIEZ; J'ENVERRAI; J'ENVERRAIS; QUE J'ENVOIE, QUE VOUS ENVOYIEZ; QUE J'ENVOYASSE, QUE VOUS ENVOYASSIEZ, (Lat. inviare) 1 to send, to forward, to send on, off, to despatch. Je suppose qu'on envoie quelques hommes à notre secours, I suppose that some men will be sent to our assistance. Ab. — un paquet par le chemin de fer, to send a parcel by the railway. Les denrées que ce pays nous envoie, the commodities sent us by that country. L'hôte en voya son garçon par la ville, the hostess sent her waiter all over the town. Saint. — des secours dans une place, to send succour into a place. A moins que D. lui-même ne t'y envoie, unless D. himself send you thither. Nod. — des étrennes, to send new year's gifts. — une dé-pêche télégraphique, to send a telegraphic despatch, a telegram. J'enverrai de temps en temps savoir de ses nouvelles, I shall send now and then to learn how he is going on. Nérini. — le bonjour à quelqu'un, to send one's compliments to a person. abso. — chez quelqu'un, to send to a person. Vers ses associés aussitôt elle envoie, she sends immediately to her associates. La Font. fig. Conservez bien votre courage et envoyez-m'en un peu dans vos lettres, keep up your courage and send me a little of it in your letters. Mue de Sév. Laissez aller ta parole ou ton âme l'envoie, let your words follow the impulse of your soul. V. Hog. — quelqu'un au diable. Se. diable. — promener, paltrir, to send about one's business. — dans l'autre monde, to remove out of the way, to kill a person. Comme quel le sultan envoyait tous les jours une sultane en terre, as how the sultan every day despatched a sultana into the other world. Nuss. 2 law. — en possession, to send to take possession. 3 (du destin, de Dieu, etc.) to send. Dieu envoya son fils pour nous sauver, God sent his son to save us. Peut-être est-ce une proie que la Fortune nous envoie? it is perhaps a prey that Fortune sends us? La Font. Dieu nous a envoyés de la pluie, du beau temps, une bonne année. God has sent us rain, fine weather, a good year. C'est Dieu qui lui a envoyé cette pensée, it was God who inspired him with that thought. A. Jeter, l'anc. penser hors de soi) to send, to give, to throw. — une ruade, to give a kick. — des pierres, to throw stones. — la lumière que le soleil nous envoie, the light transmitted to us by the sun. fig. Le vin envoie des fâmes à la tête, wine sends fumes to the brain. fig. — des baisers, to send kisses. Ses yeux bleus m'envoyaient un regard si limpide que, her blue eyes sent me a look so limpid that. Ab. — des injures, to abuse.

EOLIE, ay-ol, sm. myth. Eolus.

EOLIEN, ay-ol-yan, adj. m. fem. — NE. 1 Eolian, Eolic. Le dialecte —, the Eolian dialect. Harpe — ne, Eolian harp. 2 sm. (l'Eolien) Eolic.

EOLIPYLE, ay-ol-pil, sm. (Gr.) nat. phil. eolipyle, æolipyle.

EOLIQUE, ay-ol-ik, adj. mf. Eolic.

EPACTE, ay-pakt, sf. (Lat. epactæ) chronol. epact.

EPAGNEUL, ay-pah-nyuhl, sm. fem. — E. spaniel.

ÉPAIS, ay-pay, adj. m. fem. — SE. 1 thick. — la planche — se de deux pouces, a plank two inches thick. 2 (par opposition à mince) thick. Velours —, thick velvet. Un — bouclier, a thick shield. Avoir la langue —, to speak thick. Avoir la taille —, être —, to be thick in the waist. Cheval —, thick-set horse. fig. Avoir la mâchoire —, to be dull-witted. 3 (peu fluide) thick, dense. Ce sirop n'est pas assez —, this syrup is not thick enough. Un broillard —, a thick fog. Une fumée —, thick smoke. Air —, thick air. (by analogy) Ténacité —, sm. thick, thick darkness, dark night. fig. Ignorance —, sm. gross ignorance. Avoir l'esprit —, the intelligence —, to be thick-headed, dull-witted. Être —, to be heavy, dull. (by extension) C. avait dans la physionomie l'air — et massif, C. had a heavy and massive air. Marmont. Le feuillage de cet arbre était si — que, the foliage of that tree was so thick that. D. de S-P. Un pré où l'herbe est très —, a meadow in which the grass is very thick-set. Il plaça des troupes en rangs — sur le boulevard, he placed troops in closely-arranged ranks on the boulevard. Lamart. Nous nous enfonçons dans le plus — des bois, we plunge into the depths of the wood. Le Sage. fig. L. s'enfonça dans le plus — des questions théologiques, L. plunged into the very thickest of the theological questions. Cons. Ils sont au plus — des trahisons et des complots, they are in a maze of treason and conspiracy. L. Blanc. 5 m. (épaisseur) thickness. Adam cherche l'— des forêts, Adam seeks the inmost recesses of the forests. Boss. Il y a de la neige deux pieds d'—, there is snow two feet thick.

ÉPAIS, adv. thick, thickly.
ÉPAISSEUR, ay-pay-sour, sf. 1 thickness. Pratiquer une cheminée dans l'— du mur, to make a chimney in the thickness of the wall. Il se trouvait avoir l'— du globe entre lui et sa patrie, he found he had the thickness of the globe between him and his country. Mich. Cela a un pied d'—, this is a foot thick. Une pierre qui a deux pieds d'—, a stone which is two feet in thickness. (by extension) Il fait dans l'instant leur opposer des bataillons d'une — assez forte, strong battalions must be sent against them. Volt. L'— d'un bois, d'une forêt, the depth of a wood, of a forest. 2 (manque de fluidité) thickness (du broilard, of the fog; de l'air, of the air). (by analogy) L'— des ténèbres, the thickness of the darkness. fig. C'était un grand et gros homme, fort lourd, dont l'— se montrait en tout ce qu'il disait et faisait, he was a tall big man, and very heavy, whose dullness appeared in all he said and did. St-Sim.

ÉPAISSI, ay-pay-see, ppa. of ÉPAISSIR, adj. m. fem. —e, thickened. fig. Je suis revenu au pen — du Tibet, I returned a little stouter from T. Jacq.

ÉPAISSIR, ay-pay-seer, vo. (from épais) to thicken. Mettez du sucre dans ce sirop pour l'—, put some sugar into this syrup to thicken it. Les vapeurs épaississent l'air, rapours thicken the air. (by extension) L'ignorant le croit plat (le soleil), l'épaisseur sa rondeur, the ignorant man thinks it flat, I give greater thickness to its rotundity. La Font. fig. Ses infirmités épaississaient encore l'ombre que sa condition jetait sur sa vie, his infirmities darkened still more the shadow which his condition threw over his existence. Lamart. Épaississons la nuit qui voile sa naissance, let us throw a still darker shade over the obscurity that veils his birth. Volt.

ÉPAISSIR, vpr. 1 to thicken, to grow thick. Le sirop s'épaissit, the syrup thickens. L'ombre s'épaississait, the shadow grew darker. La lune s'épaississait sans cesse sur la route du roi, the crowd grew more and more compact on the king's way. Lamart. 2 to grow stout. Sa taille s'épaissit, he is getting stout. Sa langue s'épaissit, he speaks thick. 3 fig. to get dull. Son esprit s'épaissit tous les jours, he gets duller and duller every day.

ÉPAISSIR, 2 to thicken, to get thick. 2 to grow stout.

ÉPAISSISSEMENT, ay-pay-sis-màng, sm. 1 thickening, thickness. L'— des liqueurs, the thickening of liquors. L'— de la lymphe, the thickening of the lymph. L'— des nues, the thickening of the clouds. 2 L'— de la taille, the increasing bigness of the waist.

ÉPAUVÈREMENT, ay-pàng-prob-màng, sm. agri. pruning a vine.

ÉPAUPÉRER, ay-pàng-pray, vo. agri. to prune a vine.

ÉPANCHÉ, ppa. of ÉPANCHER, Qu'on sang par, par mes mains — lave, etc., let innocent blood be washed by me in sacrifice wash away, etc. Rac.

ÉPANCHÉMENT, ay-pàngsb-màng, sm. 1 effusion, overflowing, overflow. outpouring. — de lail, overflow of bile. — au cerveau, effusion of blood in the head; extravasation of blood in the brain. 2 fig. — de joie, outburst of joy. Ces —s du cœur, ces manières libres qui font le charme des liaisons, the effusion of the heart and freedom of behaviour which are the soul of friendship. Le Sage. Les magnifiques —s de sa grande âme ne ressemblaient en rien aux, etc., the magnificent outpourings of his lofty mind bore no resemblance to, etc. Lamart.

ÉPANCHER, ay-pàng-hay, va. 1 to pour out (du vin, de l'huile, wine, oil). Ma main de cette coupe épanche les prémices, I make a libation of this liquor. Rac. 2 fig. to pour forth. — sa bile, to vent one's bile. B. épanchait son âme dans ses poésies élégiaques, B. poured forth his soul in his elegies. Lamart. — son cœur, to open one's heart. J'avais besoin d'— ma tendresse, I wanted an object of affection. C. Del. Que ne suis-je au coin de votre feu pour — mon cœur dans le vôtre? why am I not by your fire-side that I might open to you my whole heart? D'Alem.

ÉPANCHER, vpr. 1 to be effused, to overflow, to pour itself out. Le sang s'est épanché dans la poitrine, there has been an effusion of blood in the chest. (by extension) Le sommeil sur ses yeux commence à s'—, sleep weighs down his eyelids. Boil. 2 fig. Mon cœur a besoin de —, my feelings seek an outlet. Il s'épanchait en fils qui vient en liberté, dans le sein de sa mère oublier sa fierté, he opened his heart like a son who comes freely to forget his pride in the arms of his mother. Rac. L'âme vertueuse se épanche que vers Dieu, the virtuous soul only pours itself out before God. Buff. Cette joie qui m'opresse et voudrait s'—, that joy which suffocates me and seeks a vent. C. Del.

ÉPANDRE, ay-pàngdr', ro. conjug. like VENDRE, to spread, to shed, to scatter. Ce fleuve épand ses eaux dans la campagne, this river spreads its waters in the country. — du loin pour le faner, to spread out hay to dry it. — du grain dans une terre, to scatter corn in a piece of ground. (by extension) J'épandrai mon sang avant que je m'abaisse, I will shed my blood before I lower myself. Corn. fig. C'est un parler où Flore épand ses biens, it is a flower-bed in which Flora scatters her riches. La Font.

ÉPANDRE, vpr. to spread, to spread itself, to be scattered. Les eaux s'épandent par la campagne, the waters overflow the country. (by extension) obsol.

Celles s'épandent dans l'Italie, the Celts overran all Italy. fig. Sa charité s'épandit sur tant de terres arides, her charity spread itself over so many sterile countries. Flech.

ÉPANDU, ay-pàng-dù, ppa. of ÉPANDRE, fem. —e, scattered. Tel à vagues —es marche no fleuve impétueux, thus rolls an impetuous river with wide-spreading waters. Malh. Quelques restes de feu sous la cendre —s, a few sparks of fire here and there under the ashes. La Font. (by extension) De la flotte —e s'élève un chœur qui, from the scattered fleet rises a chorus which. Chat.

ÉPANOUI, ay-pân-oeoe, ppa. of ÉPANOUIR, fem. —e, rose —e, a full-blown rose, a rose in full bloom. (by extension) Leurs beaux yeux étonnés, —s comme des fleurs noires, their beautiful eyes astonished, wide open, like black flowers. Th. Gaut. fig. Son visage était tout —, his countenance was beaming with joy.

S'ÉPANOUIR, ay-pân-oeoe, vpr. 1 to blow, to bloom, to open. Un bouton de rose qui s'épanouit, a rose-bud in bloom. (elliptic.) Le soleil fait — les fleurs, the sun causes the flowers to blow. (by extension) Une clarté qui s'épanouissait d'en bas comme le panache d'un volcan, a brightness that expanded from below like the flame crowning a volcano. Nod. Il sentit la main glacée de D. qui s'ouvrait, s'épanouissait, se fermait dans la sienne, he felt the icy hand of D. opening, spreading itself out and closing upon his own. Nod. 2 to brighten up, to expand. fig. Son visage, son front s'épanouit, ses traits s'épanouissent, his countenance, his brow, his features brighten up. Les bouches s'épanouissaient de ce rire doux, qui, they laughed with that sweet laugh, which. Nod. Le cœur de ce chrétien des anciens jours s'épanouissait en parlant de son épouse, the heart of this primitive Christian dilated when speaking of his spouse. Chat. Mon cœur s'épanouit à l'idée de vous savoir heureux, my heart expands at the idea of knowing you are happy. Nod. (elliptic.) Quoique mon grand corps maigre ne se puisse comparer à une rose-bud, I feel I am blooming. Jacq. (transitively) Le rire épanouit le visage, laughter brightens up the countenance. — la rate, to drive away melancholy, the spleen. (transitively) Je lui ai fait un coque qui lui a bien épanoui la rate, I told him a story which greatly diverted him. Je le laissai s'— la rate, non sans être tenté de suivre son exemple, I left him to his merriment, not without being tempted to follow his example. Nod.

ÉPANOUISSEMENT, ay-pân-oeoes-màng, sm. blowing, opening. L'— des fleurs, the opening of flowers. fig. — du cœur, opening of the heart. Lamart. L'— du visage, des traits, the brightening up of the countenance, of the features. — de rate, cheerfulness.

S'ÉPARER, ay-par-ay, vpr. man. (d'un cheval, of a horse) to fling.

ÉPARIGNANT, ay-par-nyàng, ppr. of ÉPARIGNER, adj. m. fem. —e, saving, sparing, economical, thrifty.

ÉPARIGNE, ay-par-nyuh, sf. 1 (économie dans la dépense) thriftiness, saving, savingness, economy. C'est un homme de grande —, he is a very saving man. Il faut aller à l'—, you must be saving. (by extension) Il n'y a pas de plus utile — que celle du temps, there is no economy more useful than that of time. Il va à l'— des mots, he is chary of his words. 2 (la chose éparignée) savings. J'avais vingt louis d'— dans ma ceinture, I had twenty louis of my savings in my girdle. Nod. Acheter une maison avec ses —s, de ses —s, to buy a house out of one's savings. Caisse d'— savings-bank. 3 anc. (le Trésor public) the Treasury.

ÉPARIGNÉ, ppa. of ÉPARIGNER, fem. —e, C'est un bout de travail qui a été much saved, so much labour saved.

ÉPARIGNER, ay-par-nyay, ro. 4 (ménager) to save, to be saving of, to economize, to lay by, to spare, to be sparing of, to husband (son bien, son argent, one's fortune, one's money). Il me disait de ne pas — sa bourse, he told me not to spare his purse. Le Sage. Nous éparignons le bien de nos maîtres, we are sparing of the property of our masters. Lamart. Ils ont pris le parti de vivre d'emprunts pour — d'avantage, they have taken the resolution to live upon loans that they may lay by more. Nod. On n'épargne pas le vin, the wine was not spared. Une saucé on l'on n'a éparigné ni le sel, ni le poivre, a sauce in which neither salt nor pepper has been spared. Quoiqu'on n'eût rien éparigné pour en faire un bonhomme, though nothing had been spared to make an honest man of him. Le Sage. Il faut — le temps, one must be sparing of one's time. — le sang, — la vie des hommes, to be sparing of blood, of the lives of men. Ils n'éparignent nul moyen, they spared no means. La Font. — sa peine, to be sparing of one's trouble; ses pas, one's steps. On n'y avait éparigné ni le choix des métaux, ni la perfection du travail, neither choice metals nor elaborate workmanship had been spared. Nod. N'épargnant pas les injures, lavishing abuse, il n'épargne pas les efforts, he spared hard. N'— aucun effort pour —, spare no pains to. 2 fig. — quelque chose à quelqu'un, to spare a person a thing. Je donnerais mille fois ma vie pour vous — un moment de peine, I would give my life a thousand times over to spare you a moment's anxiety. Chat. Un moment de réflexion vous eût épargné la peine de m'interroger, a moment's reflection would have spared you the trouble of interrogating me. Nod. Épargnez-lui ce chagrin, cette douleur, cette confusion, cette honte, spare him that grief, that confusion, that shame. Épargne-moi tes larmes, les prières, spare me your tears, your prayers. Épargne-moi le reste, spare me the rest. Vous cherchez en vain à ne persuader, épargnez-vous ce soin, in vain do you seek to persuade me, spare yourself that trouble. 3 fig. (faire grâce) to spare. Si tu veux qu'on t'épargne, épargne aussi les autres, if you wish to be spared, spare others. La Font. Vous ne m'épargnez guerre, vous, vos bergers et vos chiens, you have but little pity on me with your shepherds and your dogs. La Font. On n'épargne ni l'âge, ni le sexe, neither age nor sex was spared. Ceux que la guerre a épargnés, those whom the war has spared. Monstre qu'a trop longtemps épargné le tonnerre, monster, whom Heaven's thunderbolts have too long spared. Rac. Le temps, qui n'épargne rien, n'a rien épargné de vos espérances, time, that spares nothing, has destroyed all your hopes. Nod. La peste épargna peu de gens, the plague spared few people. (by extension) Il s'épargne-gnait ni les cimetières ni les églises, they spared neither the cemeteries nor the churches. Aug. Th. Ne m'épargnez pas, do not spare me. — la vieillesse, la faiblesse, l'enfance, etc., to have regard for old age, weakness, infancy, etc. — la sensibilité, l'amour-propre, etc. de quelqu'un, to spare the sensibility, the self-love, etc. of a person. 4 tech. to spare. Ce tailleur, cette cordonnière épargne de l'étoffe, that tailor, this dress-maker spares the stuff. 5 draw. to spare.

ÉPARGNER, vpr. 4 (ménager ses soins, sa peine) to spare one's trouble. Quand il peut obliger ses amis, il ne s'épargne pas, when he can oblige his friends, he spares no pains. Épargne-toi, do moins, le tourment de la haine, spare yourself, at least, the torments of hatred. Boss. La seule peine qu'on s'épargne ordinairement, c'est d'être, the only trouble they generally spare themselves was that of Montesq. 2 recipr. to spare each other. Dans cette lutte, les deux adversaires ne se sont pas épargnés, in that struggle, the two adversaries did not spare each other.

ÉPARPILLÉ, ppa. of ÉPARPILLER, sem. — E. Soldats marchant — s., straggling soldiers. Un groupe de maisons — s. au revers de la montagne, a group of houses scattered on the other side of the mountain. Ab.

ÉPARPILLEMENT, ay-par-pe-vuh-mang, sm. scattering, dispersing. L'— de la lumière, the dispersing of light. L'— de ses troupes, the dissemination of his troops.

ÉPARPILLER, ay-par-pe-vay, ra. to scatter, to disperse, to scatter, to spread about (de la paille, du foin, de la cendre, de la brasse, du papier, straw, hay, ashes, embers, papers). Le volcan comença à ne plus — que des cendres, the volcano now scattered but ashes. De Bross. (by analogy) — ses troupes, to disseminate one's troops. fig. C'est lui qui éparpillait sous d'infatigables marteaux les notes joyeuses du caillou, it was he who under indefatigable hammers scattered in the air the joyful notes of the chimes. Nod. — son argent, to squander one's money.

ÉPARPILLER, vpr. to be scattered about. Des papiers qui s'envolent et s'éparpillent, papers flying and scattered about. Comme ce tabac s'éparpillait, on le reforme dans des bocaux de verre, as this tobacco would get scattered about, it is enclosed in glass jars. Th. Gaut. (by analogy) Les gens s'éparpillèrent par troupes de trente ou quarante, the people were scattered about in groups of thirty or forty. Aug. Th. fig. Un orchestre dont la faulx s'éparpillait joyeusement à la brise, an orchestra the joyous notes of which were scattered about by the breeze. Th. Gaut. Certains chiens de douaniers qui nous éparpillent nos valises le long du rivage, some cursed custom-house officers that scattered our trunks all along the coast. De Bross.

ÉPARIS, ay-par, adj. m. fem. — E. (Lat. sparsus) scattered, dispersed, scattered about, sparse, dishevelled. Des bataillons —, straggling battalions. Les Juifs sont — dans tous les pays du monde, the Jews are dispersed over all the countries of the world. On peut lire sur les pierres — s. les noms de, on the stones scattered about may be read the names of. Nod. Ces astres sans nombre — au sein des nuits, those innumerable stars broadcast — on the bosom of night. La-mart. Ces cris — de cinquante mille hommes, femmes et enfants qui, the conflicting shouts of fifty thousand men, women and children who. Lamart. Le chef-d'œuvre rassemble, sans rien perdre, les grâces — s. de l'histoire, that master-piece contains, with all their charm, the different graces of history. Ste-B. Avoir les cheveux —, to have one's hair loose, dishevelled.

ÉPARVIN, ay-par-vang, ÉPERVIN, ay-par-yang, sm. vet. spavin.

ÉPATÉ, ppa. of ÉPATER, fem. — E. adjectif. 4 flut, flattened, broken-footed. Un verre —, a glass broken off at the stem. 2 Nez —, flat nose. 3 fig. pop. J'en suis tout —, I am struck all of a heap.

ÉPATER, ay-pat-ay, va. 4 to break off the foot of (un verre, a glass). 2 fig. pop. (étourner, confondre) to strike all of a heap. Cela m'épate, that strikes me all of a heap.

ÉPATER, vpr. La coupole s'épate pesamment sur ces tas de masses, the cupola weighs crushingly upon this heap of ruins. Th. Gaut.

ÉPAULARD, ay-pa-lar, sm. zool. ork.

ÉPAULE, ay-pôl, sf. (Lat. spatula) 1 shoulder. Porter le fusil sur l'épaule, to shoulder a gun. Pousser de l'—, avec l'—, to give a shove with the shoulder. Avoir les — s. larges, de larges — s., to be broad-shouldered. Blessé à l'—, wounded in the shoulder. — de mouton, de veau, shoulder of mutton, of veal. Hauser les — s., lever les — s., to shrug up one's shoulders. Cela me fait hauser les — s., it is enough to make me sigh. Hauser les épaules de pitié, de mépris, to shrug up one's shoulders with pity, contempt. fam. Nager par-dessus l'—, jouer par-dessus l'—, to eat, to play behind the others, over other people's shoulders. fig. Mettre quelqu'un debout par les deux — s., to put a person. Regarder quelqu'un par-dessus l'—, to look down upon a person. Porter quelqu'un sur ses — s., to find a person wearisome. fig. Plier les — s., baisser les — s., to brook no affront. fig. Il n'a pas les — s. assez fortes, il a les — s. trop faibles, pour soutenir une telle charge, une telle dignité, pour faire cette entreprise, his shoulders are not broad enough, his back is not broad enough to support such a post, such a dignity, such an undertaking. Prêter l'— à quelqu'un, to help, to back, to countenance a person. Donner un coup d'—, to give a lift. prov. fig. Faire quelque chose par-dessus l'—, to do a thing over the left shoulder, to leave it undone. prov. Broussier le temps avec l'—, to keep life and soul together to make a shift. to keep off the evil day. 2 fort. L'— d'un bastion, the epaule of a bastion.

ÉPAULÉ, ppa. of ÉPAULER, fem. — E. 4 Des bêtes — s., animals with a sprain in their shoulders. 2 fig. (aidé) supported, backed.

ÉPAULEE, ay-po-lay, sf. 4 (effort) push, shove with the shoulder. fig. Faire une chose par — s., to do a thing by snatches, by fits and starts, by spirits. 2 buche, fore-quarter of mutton without the shoulder.

ÉPAULEMENT, ay-pôl-mang, sm. fort. epaulement, side-work.

ÉPAULEUR, ay-po-lay, ra. 4 (d'un quadrupède, of a quadruped) to sprain the shoulder. 2 fig. (aider) to support, to back. 3 war. — des troupes, to protect troops by an epaulement.

ÉPAULER, vpr. 4 (d'un cheval, etc., of a horse, etc.) to sprain its shoulder. 2 fig. recipr. (s'aider mutuellement) to help, to support each other. Je vais au rendez-vous, et nous nous épaulerons s'il est besoin, I am going to the appointment, and we will lend each other mutual assistance, if necessary. Le Sage.

ÉPAULETTE, ay-pô-let, sf. 4 shoulder-strop, shoulder-piece. Les — s. d'une chemise, d'une robe, the shoulder-pieces of a shirt, of a dress. 2 (de militaires) epaulet, — s. de laine, d'or, d'argent, woolen, gold, silver epaulets. Des — s. de graine d'épinards, epaulets with large bullion. 3 (d'officier) (particul.) epaulet. Porter l'—, les — s., to wear the epaulet; to be an officer. Il a bien gagné ses — s., he has fairly earned his grades.

ÉPAVE, ay-pav, adj. nf. 4 law. stray. Un cheval —, a stray horse. Les bêtes — s., stray animals. Biens — s., waifs. 2 sf. waif. — s. maritimes, wrecks. Drott d'—, folsam and jetsam.

ÉPEAUTRE, ay-pôtr, sm. (Lat. spelta) agri. spelt.

ÉPÉE, ay-pav, sf. 1 sword. La garde, la pointe, la lame d'une —, the hilt, the point, the blade of a sword. — à garde dorée, sword with silver-gilt hilt. Ils avaient l'— nue, they stood with naked swords. Mettre l'— à la main, to draw the sword. Tirer l'—, to draw the sword. Se battre à l'—, to fight with swords. Il lui donna de l'— dans le ventre, he ran him through the belly. Tout fut passé au fil de l'—, every one was put to the sword. Noué d'—, sword-knot. — flamboyante, flaming sword. (disparagingly) Traîneur d'—, bully. fig. Emporter une chose à la pointe de l'—, to carry a thing off-hand. See EXPORTER. Toat à la pointe de l'—, obliged to battle for every thing. La Font. Ironie. Il a fait un beau coup d'—, he made a famous blunder. fig. C'est une bonne —, one rade —, it est brave comme l'— qu'il porte, brave comme son —, he is a good sword-danian, as brave as his own sword. Son — ne tient pas au fourreau, he is a quarrelsome fellow. Son — est trop court, his arm is not long enough. L'— de cet homme est vierge, that man's sword is unflashed. prov. fig. Poursuivre, presser quelqu'un l'— dans les reins, to urge a person, to bear hard upon a person. C'est un coup d'— dans l'eau, See EAU. prov. N'avoir que la cape et l'—, See CAPE. prov. A vaillant homme courte —, a courageous man does not want a long sword. Se faire blanc de son —, to boast of great interest. C'est son — de chevet, See CHEVET. fig. — de Damocles, impending danger. L'— use le fourreau, (the sword wears out the scabbard). 2 absol. (l'éclat militaire) sword, army. Il a quitté la robe pour l'—, poor preneur l'—, he has quitted the gown for the army. Les gens d'—, military men, officers. Homme d'—, swordman. 3 absol. fig. (le courage) sword. Il ne doit son élévation qu'à son —, he carved himself out a passage with his sword. Le droit de l'—, the weight of the sword.

ÉPELER, ay-pay, ra. to spell (un mot, a word). absol. Il commence à —, he begins to spell.

EPELATION, ay-pel-lab-syong, sf. epelling.

ÉPEROU, ay-payr-dô, adj. m. fem. — E., distracted, bewildered, desperate, dismayed. Soutenez votre reine — E., support your frightened queen. Rac. De frayer — s., les chanoines, dismayed, the canons. Boil. E. les malus jointes et tout — E., with clasped hands and quite distracted. Le Sage. Une tête — E. d'amour divin, a face lost in divine ecstasy. Th. Gaut.

ÉPERDÉMENT, ay-payr-dô-mang, ode. distractedly, desperately.

ÉPIERLAN, ay-payr-laog, sm. ich. emell.

ÉPERON, ay-rong, sm. 1 spur. Branche d'—, branch of a spur. Molette d'—, roset of a spur, spur-rowel. Un cheval qui craint l'—, a horse that obeys the spur. Donner de l'— à spur one's horse. anc. Chasser les — s., to put on one's spurs. Gagner ses — s., to win one's spurs. fig. Chasser de près les — s. à quelqu'un, to pursue a person eagerly. Donner un coup d'— jusqu'à un certain endroit, to go post haste to a certain place; to step to. Ce cheval n'a ni bouche ni —, that horse obeys neither the reins nor the spur; || fig. N'avoir ni bouche ni —, to have neither will nor courage. 2 (de certains animaux, of some animals) spur, 3 (d'un navire, of a ship) prow, cut-water, rostrum, beak, stem; (d'un vaisseau cuirassé, of an iron-clad ship) spur, 4 fort. spur, 5 (tout ouvrage en pointe) stalling, break-water. 6 mason. buttress. 7 bot. spur. 8 gard. spur. 9 fig. crow's-foot, wrinkles in the corner of the eye.

ÉPERONNE, ppa. of ÉPERONNER, fem. — E., adjective. 1 spurred. Il est botté et —, he is booté and spurred. Des bottes — s., spurred boots. (des coqs, of cocks) spurred. 2 bot. spurred. 3 fig. Avoir les yeux — s., être —, to have crow's feet.

ÉPERONNER, ay-ro-nay, va. (from éperon) 1 to spur. — nn coq, to put spurs to a fighting cock. 2 to spur a horse. Nous éperonnâmes nos chevaux, we spurred our horses. Ph. Chas. 3 fig. to stimulate.

ÉPERONNIER, ay-rô-nay, sm. 1 spurrier, spur-maker. 2 orn. peacock of India.

ÉPERVIER, ay-payr-vyay, sm. 1 orn. hawk, sparrow-hawk. 2 (sorte de filet) sweep-net, cast-net. Jeter l'—, to cast the net. Coup d'—, a haul.

ÉPIKVIÈRE, ay-payr-vyay, sf. bot. spurrey.

ÉPIVYN, sm. See ÉPARVIN.

ÉPHELIDE, ay-fay-lid, sf. (Gr.) med. freckle, sun-burn.

ÉPHEMÈRE, ay-fay-mayr, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 ephemeral. Insecte —, ephemeral insect. 2 (by extension) ephemeral. Succès, bonheur, puissance —, ephemeral success, happiness, power. 3 sm. ent. ephemera.

ÉPHEMERIDES, ay-fay-may-rid, sf. pl. 1 (tables astronomiques) ephemeris, pl. ephemerides. 2 (notices) ephemerides.

ÉPHESE, ay-layz, adj. ant. grec. Ephesus.

ÉPHORES, ay-for, sm. pl. (Gr.) ant. fig. ephor, ephorus. pl. ephori.

ÉPI, ay-pe, sm. (Lat. spica) 1 bot. ear — de blé, d'orge, ear of corn, of barley. Quand les bles sont en —, montent en —, when the corn is in ear, is cared. Les barbes d'un —, the beard, the awn of an ear. — de cheveu, tuft of hair. 2 bot. Fleurs en —, clustered flowers. — d'eau, pond-weed. 3 jewel. — de diamants, cluster, sprig of diamonds. 4 surg. spica. 5 arch. top.

ÉPIALE, ay-pyal, adj. f. (Gr.) med. Fièvre —, shivering fever.

ÉPICE, ay-pees, sf. (Lat. species) 1 spice. Pain d'—, gingerbread. prov. fig. C'est there —, it is a dear article. 2 — s., pl. anc. (dragées et confitures) sweetmeat, candy. 3 fig. anc. (ce qui était dû aux juges pour le jugement d'un procès par écrit) court-fee.

ÉPICE, ppa. of ÉPICER, fem. — E., 1 adjective. spiced, spicy, seasoned. fig. Cela est —, trop —, that is too dear. 2 fig. (mordant) biting.

ÉPICEA, ay-pe-say-ah, sm. bot. pitch-tree.

ÉPICÈNE, ay-pe-sayn, adj. mf. (Gr.) gram. epicene.

ÉPICER, ay-pe-say, va. 1 to spice, to season. Ce cuisinier épice beaucoup trop, this cook spices too much. 2 fig. Ce juge épice rudement, that judge makes one pay dear.

ÉPICERIE, ay-pis-ree, sf. (collectif.) spices, grocery. Commerce d'— s., grocery-business. Fonds, magasin d'—, grocer's shop.

ÉPICIER, ay-pe-say, sm. fem. épicière, grocer, chandler. ant. déguisier, grocer and druggist. Marchand —, grocer. Ce livre ira chez l'—, est bon pour l'—, this book will find its way to the trunk-maker's, is fit for the grocer, the trunk-maker.

ÉPICRANE, ay-pe-kran, sm. (Gr.) anat. epicranium.

ÉPICURÉISME, ay-pe-kû-ray-ism', m. Epicureanism, Epicurism.

ÉPICURIEN, ay-pe-kû-ryang, sm. 1 Epicurean. 2 (by extension) (un homme qui ne songe qu'à son plaisir) epicurean. fem. — re, epicurean. 3 (adjectif-) epicurean.

ÉPICURISME, ay-pe-kû-rism', sm. epicurism.

ÉPICYCLE, ay-pe-sikl', sm. (Gr.) astr. epicycle.

ÉPICYCLOÏDE, ay-pe-sik-loïd, sf. (Gr.) geom. epicycloid.

ÉPIDÉMIE, ay-pe-dî-y-mee, sf. (Gr.) med. epidemic, epidemic. fig. L'engouement est général, c'est une —, une véritable —, the infatuation is general, it is a true epidemic. Il est des — s. d'esprit qui gagnent les hommes de proche en proche, there are epidemics of the mind which are caught by men one after another. J.-J. Rousseau.

ÉPIDÉMIQUE, adj. mf. med. epidemic, epidemical. Mal —, epidemic disease. fig. Cette folie — qui prenait le nom de l'honneur, the epidemic madness which assumed the name of honour. Lamart.

ÉPIDERMIE, ay-pe-dayrm, sm. (Gr.) 1 epidemie, cuticle, scutskin. Leurs politesses quand ils en font ne passent pas l'—, their politeness is but superficial. De Bross. 2 (by analogy) bot. epidermis, cuticle.

ÉPIE, ppa. of ÉPIER, fem. — E., adjective. 1 cared, in ear, awned, awny. Les seigles sont déjà — s., the rye is already in ear. 2 fig. Une queue de chien — E., a dog's tail ending in a feather. Un chien —, a dog with long hair hanging over his eyes.

ÉPIÉ, ppa. of ÉPIER, fem. — E., Je me sentais —, I felt I was watched.

ÉPIER, ay-pyay, vn. bot. to ear. Les bles commencent à —, the corn begins to be in ear.

ÉPIER, vn. NOUS ÉPIONS, VOUS ÉPIEZ. (Lat. spicere) to spy, to watch. On épie toutes vos démarches, all your steps are watched. M. de Coulanges m'a promis de vous —, de vous observer, de me dire tout, Mr. de C. has promised me to watch you, to observe you, and to let me know every thing. Née de Sév. M. loup ni renard n'épiaient la douce et innocente proie, there was neither wolf nor fox lying in wait for the gentle and innocent victim. La Font. — les mouvements de l'ennemi, to watch the enemy's movements. Je le chercherais, l'épieraï, je ferais même l'occasion, I will watch for it, I will create it. Lamart. (by extension) Il épia d'une oreille attentive le chant mélancolique du grillon, he listened with eager ears to the chirping of the cricket. Nod. Il avait épilé les phases successives de la révolution, he had watched the successive phases of the revolution. Lamart. fig. Elle épia aussi attentivement que jamais l'occasion d'obtenir, she was on the watch as attentively as ever for the purpose of obtaining. Ang. Th. J'épiaï le moment de lui parler sans témoins, I was watching for an opportunity of speaking to him in private. Le Sage. Je viens pour — le moment favorable, I come to await the favourable moment. Rac.

ÉPIERRAGE, ay-pyay-azh, ÉPIERREMENT, ay-pyay-mang, sm. clearing of stones.

ÉPIERRER, ay-pyay-ray, va. to clear of stones.

ÉPIEUR, ay-pyuh, sm. boar-spear.

ÉPIGASTRE, ay-pe-gastr', sm. (Gr.) anat. epigastrium.

ÉPIGASTRIQUE, ay-pe-gas-trik, adj. mf. anat. epigastric. Région —, epigastric region.

ÉPIGLOTTE, ay-pe-glôt, sf. (Gr.) anat. epiglottis.

ÉPIGRAMMATIQUE, ay-pe-gram-at-ik, adj. mf. epigrammatic, epigrammatical.

ÉPIGRAMMATISTE, ay-pe-gram-at-ist, sm. epigrammat, epigrammatist.

ÉPIGRAMME, ay-pe-gram, sf. (Gr.) 1 epigram. La pointe d'une —, the point of an epigram. 2 fig. (mot mordant) epigram.

ÉPIGRAPHE, ay-pe-graf, sf. (Gr.) 1 obsol. (inscription) epigraph. 2 (en tête d'un livre, etc.) epigraph, motto.

ÉPILOTOIRE, ay-pe-lat-wâr, adj. mf. deplatory.

ÉPILEPSIE, ay-pe-lep-see, sf. (Gr.) med. epilepsy, falling sickness. Attaques d'—, epileptic fits.

ÉPILEPTIQUE, ay-pe-lep-tik, adj. mf. 1 epileptic, epileptical. Symptôme —, epileptic symptom. 2 (sujet à l'épilepsie) epileptic. 3 (substantif) epileptic.

ÉPILER, ay-pe-lay, va. to deplait, to pull off hair. Se faire —, to have one's self depilated.

ÉPILEVER, ppr. to take out one's grey hair.

ÉPILEUR, ay-pe-luhr, sm. fem. épileuse, depilator.

ÉPILET, ay-pe-lag, sm. bot. spikelet.

ÉPILOGUE, ay-pe-log, sm. (Gr.) epilogue.

ÉPILOGUER, ay-pe-lo-gay, vn. fig. to find fault (with), to criticize, to carp (at). C'est un homme qui épilogue sur tout, he is a man who finds fault with every thing. N'épilogue pas là-dessus, to animadvert on the actions of others.

ÉPILOGUEUR, ay-pe-lo-guhr, sm. fault-finder. Il se soucie fort peu des — s., he cares but little for critics. Le Sage.

ÉPINARD, ay-pe-nar, sm. 1 bot. epinage. 2 — s., pl. culin. Un plat d'—, a dish of epinage. 3 fig. Frange, épaulettes, gland à graine d'— s., fringe, epaulettes, tassel with large button.

ÉPINE, ay-peen, sf. (Lat. spina) 1 bot. thorn. — blanche, white thorn, hawthorn, may. — noire, black thorn, sloe tree, pear-thorn. Une haie d'—, a thorn-hedge. La couronne d'— s. de Notre-Seigneur, the crown of thorns of Our Lord. fig. Être sur des — s., sur les — s., to be on thorns. Marcher sur des — s., to tread upon thorns. prov. fig. C'est un fagot d'— s., on ne sait par où le prendre, fig. it is a bundle of thorns, there is no knowing where to take hold of him. 2 anat. l'— du dos, the spine, the back-bone. 3 (nigant) thorn, prickly. prov. fig. Il n'est point de roses sans — s., no roses without thorns. C'est une — au pied, it is a thorn in one's shoe. (by analogy) Tirer à quelqu'un une — du pied, to take a thorn out of a person's side. 4 fig. — s., pl. (difficultes) thorns, thorny points. Les —s de la logique, the thorny points of logic. La vie est herissée d'—s, life is full of crosses. Je suis encore étonné qu'au milieu des —s des affaires, il, etc., I am still astonished that in the midst of the thorns of business he, etc., Volt.

ÉPINE-VINETTE, sf. bot. barberry-bush.
ÉPINES, ay-pcen, sf. pl. met. bristling points.

ÉPINETTE, ay-pe-nat, sf. spinet.
ÉPINEUX, ay-pe-nuh, adj. m. fem. épineux. 1 thorny, prickly. Arbre —, thorny tree. 2 thorny, prickly, stem. 3 fig. (difficile, embarrassant) thorny, knotty, intricate. Une affaire épineuse, a thorny affair. La situation est fort épineuse, it is a very critical situation. Le duc d'Orléans le consulta sur des points — qui, the duke of Orleans consulted him on knotty points which. Volt. 3 fig. (des personnes, of persons) over-particular, ticklish, captious. Les hommes sont si — sur les moindres in-lérêts que, men are so ticklish about the least interest which. La Bruy. Cette P. était bien épineuse, Dieu veuille avoir son âme! that woman P. was very unmanageable, God rest her soul if she de Sév. Soyez moins — dans la société, do not be so captious in society. Volt. Un esprit —, a cavilling disposition.

ÉPINGARE, ay-pang-gar, *sf.*artil. one-pounder.

ÉPINGLE, ay-pang-l, sf. 1 pin. Une tête d'—, a pin's head. Attacher avec une —, to pin. Des enfants qui jouaient aux —s, children playing at push-pin. Des coups d'—, pricks with a pin. fig. Ces rieurs doucereux qui vous assomment à coups d'—s, those smooth-tongued rhetoricians who kill you by inches. — à cheveux, hair-pin. (hyperb.) Cela ne vaut pas une —, je n'en donnerais pas une —, that is not worth a pin's point. I would not give a pin's point for it; (disparagingly) Je m'en soucie comme d'une —, I don't care a fig for it. Être tiré à quatre —s, to look as if one came out of a bandbox; || fig. Ce discours est tiré à quatre —s, that is a fine-spun discourse; || Son caractère était tiré à quatre —s, his character was very precise. Marmont. prov. fig. Tirer sou — du jeu, to get out of a scrape. Mon — est hors du jeu, I am out of the scrape. Ab. 2 (sorte de bijou) pin. — de diamant, diamond pin. 3 fig. —s, pl. (dons, gratifications qu'on accorde à des femmes dont on reçu quelque service) present, gratuity, douceur. 4 fig. —s, pl. (particul.) (ce qu'on donne à une femme quand on a fait quelque arrangement avec le mari) pin-money.

ÉPINGLETTE, ay-pang-glet, sf. 1 artil. (pour les garrigues) primer. 2 (pour un fusil) priming-wire.

ÉPINGLIER, ay-pang-glyay, sm. fem. épinglier, pin-maker.

ÉPINIÈRE, ay-pe-nyay, adj. f. anat. spinal. La moelle —, the spinal marrow.

ÉPINIERS, ay-pe-nyay, sm. pl. ven. thick, brake.

ÉPINOCHE, ay-pe-nosh, sm. ich. stickle-back, prickle-back, titlback.

ÉPIPHANIE, ay-pe-lan-ec, sf. (Gr.) Epiphany, Twelfth-day, Twelfth-night.

ÉPIPLOON, ay-pe-pio-on, sm. (Gr.) anat. epiploon, omentum, caul.

ÉPIQUE, ay-pik, adj. mf. (Lat. epicus) 1 epic. Poème —, epic poem. 2 (qui est propre à l'épique) epic. Le genre —, the epic style. (by analogy) l'n poète —, an epic poet. (by extension) Une vie —, a heroic life. 3 (dont le style, le ton est trop élevé pour la nature du sujet) epic.

ÉPISCOPAL, ay-pis-ko-pal, adj. m. fem. —, pl. m. épiscopaux, episcopal. Palais —, episcopal palace. Ornaments épiscopaux, episcopal ornaments.

ÉPISCOPAT, ay-pis-ko-pah, sm. (Lat.

episcopatus) 1 (dignité) episcopate, bishopric. 2 (le corps des évêques) episcopacy. 3 (temps) episcopacy.

ÉPISCAUX, ay-pis-ko-po, sm. pl. Episcopals.

ÉPISE, ay-pe-zod, sm. (Gr.) 1 (dans un poème, etc.) episode. 2 point. episode. 3 fig. (incident) episode.

ÉPISODIQUE, ay-pe-zo-dik, adj. mf. episodical, episodic. Personnage —, episodic personage. Comédie —, comedy of episodes.

ÉPISTASTIQUE, ay-pis-pas-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 pharm. epistastic, blistering, drawing. 2 sm. Un —, an epistastic.

ÉPISSER, ay-pe-say, va. naut. to splice.

ÉPISSOIR, ay-pe-swâr, sm. naut. marling-spike.

ÉPISSURE, ay-pe-sûr, sf. naut. splice. ÉPISTOLAIRE, ay-pis-tol-ay, adj. mf. 1 epistolary. Style —, genre —, epistolary style. Commerce —, epistolary correspondence. 2 (substantif.) (auteur) letter-writer.

ÉPISTYLE, ay-pis-til, sf. (Gr.) arch. epistyle, architrave.

ÉPITAPHIE, ay-pe-taf, sf. (Gr.) epitaph. prov. Mentir comme une —, to lie like an epitaph. prov. fig. Il fera l'— du genre humain, he will bury us all.

ÉPITHALAME, ay-pe-tal-am, sm. (Gr.) epithalamium, epithalam, nuptial song.

ÉPITHÈTE, ay-pe-tayt, sf. (Gr.) epithet.

ÉPITOGE, ay-pe-toz, sf. (Lat. epitogium) epitoge.

ÉPITOME, ay-pe-to-may, sm. (Lat.) epitome.

ÉPITRE, ay-pitr, sf. 1 (lettre mixtive) epistle. Les —s de Cicéron, de saint Paul, the epistles of Cicero, of St. Paul. (d'une lettre ordinaire) letter. — (pièce en vers) epistle. Les —s d'Horace, de Boileau, the epistles of Horace, of Boileau. 2 (dédicatoire, dedicatory) epistle. 3 (leçon tirée de l'Écriture sainte) epistle. 4 le côté de l'—, the right hand side of the altar.

ÉPIZOLAIRE, ay-pe-zo-ayr, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 epizoum. 2 sm. epizoum, pl. epizoa.

ÉPIZOOTIE, ay-pe-zo-otee, sf. (Gr.) med. epizooty, murrain.

ÉPIZOOTIQUE, ay-pe-zo-o-tik, adj. mf. epizootic.

ÉPILORE, ay-m, m. fem. —, in tears, weeping. Une mère —, a weeping mother. Au bruit de votre mort justement —, at the report of your death weeping as she had cause to do. Rac.

ÉPLOYÉ, ay-plwâ-yay, adj. m. fem. —, (Lat. explicare) her. spread, displayed. Aigle —, spread eagle.

ÉPLUCHAGE, ay-plû-shaz, sm. pick-ing.

ÉPLUCHEMENT, ay-plûsh-mang, sm. picking.

ÉPLUCHER, ay-plû-shay, va. 1 to pick (des herbes, de la salade, herbs, salad; des études, des laines, etc., stuffs, wool, etc.). 2 fig. (rechercher) to scan, to examine minutely, to sift (un ouvrage, a work). Nous épluchons sa conduite, we should sift his conduct. Lamart. Ils épluchent minutieusement de petits ridicules de salon, they show up one after another the ridicules of genteel society. Nod.

S'ÉPLORE, vpr. (de certains animaux, of some animals) to clean itself.

ÉPLUCHEUR, ay-plû-shur, sm. fem. éplucheuse, picker. fig. C'est un grand — de mots, he is a great criticizer of words.

ÉPLUCHOIR, ay-plû-shwâr, sm. tech. paring-knife.

ÉPLUCHURE, ay-plû-shûr, sf. pickings, parings, refuse, oris. Chercher dans les —s, to search among the refuse.

ÉPODE, ay-pod, sf. (Gr.) epode.

ÉPOINTE, ay-pwang-tay, adj. m. fem. —, 1 mao. ven. (d'un cheval, of a horse) hip-shot. Ce chien est —, this dog has broken his thigh. 2 (d'une aiguille, etc., of a needle, etc.) without a point, with the point broken off.

ÉPOINTER, ay-pwang-tay, va. to break the point of (un couteau, une aiguille, a knife, a needle).

S'ÉPOINTER, vpr. (d'une aiguille, d'un couteau, etc., of a needle, of a knife, etc.) to break at the point.

ÉPOIS, ay-pwâ, sm. pl. ven. trochings.

ÉPONGE, ay-pogeh, sf. (Lat. spongia) 1 sponge, sponge. Il va tremper dans l'eau sa patte dont il fait une —, he goes and dips his paw into the water, and makes a sponge of it. Flor. Paschaud d'—s, dealer in sponges. fig. Passer l'— sur quelque action, sur quelque faute, to blot out, to obliterate, to efface the memory of an action, of a fault. fam. Presser l'—, to drain a person dry. prov. Boire comme une —, to drink like a fish. 2 ven. web-foot.

ÉPONGER, ay-pang-zhay, va. 1 (nettoyer) to sponge, to sponge (une voiture, a carriage). 2 (étancher) to sponge up.

ÉPOPEE, ay-po-pay, sf. (Gr.) 1 epaee, epopaea. 2 (poème épique) epopee, epos. epic poem. fig. La série des travaux annuels de la culture forme une sorte d'— religieuse, the series of yearly labours in husbandry form a kind of religious epopee. Mich. Cette — que vous avez naguère écrite avec l'épée, that epopee that you lately wrote with your sword. V. Hug.

ÉPOQUE, ay-pek, sf. (Gr.) 1 epoch, era. Les principales —s de l'histoire, the principal epochs of history. 2 (partie du temps) epoch, period, time. A cette — j'étais encore enfant, at that time I was still a child. A toutes les —s de la vie, at every period of life. Je lui ai dit de fixer l'— où il voudrait être rembourré, I told him to fix the period when he would be reimbursed. Somme considérable pour l'—, a considerable sum for the epoch. Presque à la même —, almost at the same time. Devancer son —, to be before one's age. Faire —, to form an era.

ÉPOUFFÉ, adj. m. fem. —E, out of breath, breathless.

S'ÉPOUFFER, ay-poo-fay, vpr. pop. to steal off, away, to slip away.

ÉPOUMONER, ay-poo-mo-nay, to tire the lungs off.

S'ÉPOUMONER, vpr. to tire one's lungs.

ÉPOUSAILLES, ay-poo-zah-yuh, sf. pl. espousals, wedding, nuptials.

ÉPOUSE, ay-pooz, sf. See époux.

ÉPOUSER, ppa. of épouser, fem. —E. C'est quelque chose que d'être — pour ses beaux yeux, it is something to be married for the sake of one's beauty. G. Sand.

ÉPOUSER, ay-poo-zay, sf. bride. Mener l'— à l'église, to take the bride to church. fig. Marcher comme une —, to walk with a solemn puce. prov. Cette femme est parée comme une — de village, that woman is dressed out like a country-bride.

ÉPOUSER, ay-poo-zay, va. 1 to marry, to wed, to espouse. Il avait épousé sa cousine, he had married his cousin. prov. Qui épouse la femme, épouse les dettes, he who takes a wife, takes her debts along with her. 2 fig. (s'attacher à, suivre) to espouse. — les intérêts, les passions, les querelles de quelqu'un, to espouse the interests, the passions, the quarrel of a person. Je n'épouse aucune opinion, I am wedded to no opinion. J'épouse cette idée, I embrace that idea. Le Sage. Il épousait les causes à la mode, he espoused the fashionable causes. Ste-B. On vit les N. — sans scrupule l'immunité du roi de France contre, etc., the N. were seen to have no scruple in espousing the animosity of the king of France against, etc. Aog. Th. Toute opinion est assez forte pour se faire au prix de la vie, every opinion is powerful enough to be espoused at the risk of life. Montség. Je fais des affaires tantôt avec l'un, tantôt avec l'autre, je m'épouse personne, I do business now with one, now with the other, I take up with nobody.

S'ÉPOUSER, vpr. recip. to marry. fig. La noblesse et la terre semblaient s'être épousées en France comme l'aristocratie et la mer s'épousaient à Venise, the aristocracy in France seemed to have married the land, as the aristocracy at Venice married the sea. Lamart.

EPOUSEUR, ay-poo-zuhr, em. marrying man.

EPOUSSETER, ay-poo-say, ra. to dust, to beat the dust out of (un manteau, un tapis, a cloak, a carpet). — on cheval, to dust a horse. fig. — quelqu'un, to dust a person's jacket for him. On l'a épousseté d'importance, he has had a good beating.

S'ÉPOUSSETER, vpr. to brush one's self, to wipe off the dust from one's self.

EPOUSSETTE, ay-poo-set, sf. 1. obol. brush. 2 (pour un cheval) dusting-rag.

EPOUVANTABLE, ay-poo-vang-tabl', adj. mf. 1 frightful, dreadful, appalling. Menaces —s, dreadful threats. 2 (hyperb.) (excessif) frightful, tremendous. Laideur —, frightful ugliness. Fracas —, tremendous crash. Il a mangé son bien en un an, cela est —, he has spent his fortune in one year, it is frightful.

EPOUVANTABLEMENT, ay-poo-vang-tabl'-bluh-nang, ad. frightfully, dreadfully, tremendously.

EPOUVANTAIL, ay-poo-vang-tail-yuh, em. 1 (pour les oiseaux) scare-crow, bugbear. fig. Ces chimères, —s d'enfants et de grand'mères, chimères, the bugbears of children and gudewives. J.-B. Rouss. Le diable dont on voit peut-être un — de vieille femme, the devil they try to frighten you with is a bugbear to scare old women with. Nod. Il regardait les tribunaux comme des —s à peuple, he considered the tribunals as bugbears for the people. Balz. 2 oro. scare-crow, black gull.

EPOUVANTE, ay-poo-vangst, sf. fright, terror, dismay, dread. Causer, donner de l'— to frighten, to put in a fright. L'— était, se mit dans le camp, dans l'armée, a panic spread through the camp, the army. Ils ont pris l'—, they were seized with fright. Il remplit le sommeil de vagues —s, it fills sleep with vague apprehensions. V. Hug.

EPOUVANTE, ppa. of ÉPOUVANTER, fem. —, E. frightened. Le roi — d'un péril qu'il n'avait pas à craindre, the king frightened at a danger that did not exist. Le Sage. Elle était très — de ce bruit, she was much frightened at this noise. poetic. Le flot qui l'apporta recule —, the wave that brought it recoils a-frighted. Rac.

EPOUVANTEMENT, ay-poo-vangt-mang, em. terror, affright. Les —s de l'enfer, the terrors of hell. Nod. La mort et ses —s, death and its terrors.

EPOUVANTER, ay-poo-vang-tay, va. to frighten, to fright, to terrify, to appal, to scare. Il l'épouvantait par ses menaces, he frightened him with his threats. L'avenir qui vous charme, épouvante un vieillard, the future that charms you, has terrors for an old man. C. Del. La moindre chose, a mere nothing, terrifies him. Rien que d'y penser, cela épouvante, the bare idea of it is terrifying.

S'ÉPOUVANTER, vpr. to be frightened, terrified, to take fright. Le peuple s'épouvante et fuit de toutes parts, the people take fright, and flee in every direction. Rac. Il s'épouvante pour peu de chose, de peu de chose, he is frightened at a trifle.

EPOUX, ay-poo, em. fem. ÉPOUSE, 4 spouse, husband, consort. Épouse légitime, lawful wife. Prendre une épouse, to take a wife. Le futur —, the bridegroom. La future épouse, the bride. Mon épouse, my wife, my better half. fig. L'— de vierges, le céleste —, the spouse of Virgins, the heavenly spouse. Jésus-Christ est l'— de son Église, Christ is the spouse of the Church. L'Église est l'épouse de Jésus-Christ, the Church is the spouse of Christ. absol. L'— et l'épouse, Christ and the Church. 2 époux, pl. (le mari et la femme) man and wife, married couple. Les futurs —, the bride and bridegroom. De jeunes —, a young married couple.

ÉPRENDRE, ay-prangdr', va. (Lat. experire) to express, to press, to press out, to squeeze out (des herbes, des racines, etc., herbs, roots, etc.). — du verjus, to express verjuice.

ÉPREINT, ay-prang, ppa. of ÉPRENDRE, fem. —s, pressed, expressed.

ÉPREINTE, ay-prangt, sf. med. tenebrous.

S'ÉPRENDRE, ay-prangdr', vpr. conj. like PRENDRE, to fall in love (with), to become enamoured (of, with), to be smitten (with). Je ne m'éprendrai jamais d'une de mes malades, I shall never fall in love with one of my patients. Ab. Cette beauté dont s'éprennent seulement les artistes, that beauty that artists alone become enamoured of. Balz. Ne va pas l'— de ces femmes qui regardent on chacun du haut en bas, don't go and fall in love with those women who look down upon every one with contempt. Mol.

ÉPREUVE, ay-proliv, sf. 1 (essai, expérience) trial, essay, experiment, test, proof. Faire l'— d'un canon, d'une machine, to try, to make a trial of a gun, a machine. J'en ai fait l'—, I have made a trial of it, I have put it to the trial. Donner, prendre une montre à l'—, to give, to take a watch on trial. 2 (des personnes, of persons) test, trial, ordeal. Tenter une —, des —s sur quelqu'un, to put a person to the test. On m'a mis à de rudes —s, he has been made to undergo severe trials. On n'a dit que la vie était une —, I have been told that life is a trial. B. de St-P. Mettre la constance, la fidélité, la patience de quelqu'un à l'—, to put the constancy, the fidelity, the patience of a person to the test. Mets mon cœur à l'—, put my heart to the test. — judiciaire, ordeal. 3 (particul.) (malheurs) trial, ordeal. Passer par de rudes —s, to undergo severe trials. Il soutint courageusement l'—, toutes les —s de la mauvaise fortune, he went through the ordeal, every ordeal of adversity with courage. Dans les —s que Dieu vous envoie, in the trials sent you by God. Boss. 4 print. proof. La première —, first proof. La seconde —, revise. 5 engrav. proof. 6 engrav. (by extension) (exemplaire d'une gravure) proof. — avant la lettre, proof engraving, proof before the letter.

À L'ÉPREUVE DE, prep. proof. Une cuirasse à l'— de la balle, des balles, a cuirass bullet-proof. Cela est à l'— du feu, that is fire-proof. Ce chapeau, ce manteau est à l'— de la pluie, this hat, this cloak is water-proof. fig. Être à l'— de l'argot, to be proof against bribes. Être à l'— de tout, être à toute —, to be proof against everything. J'ai la tête à l'— des balles, I have a head that is bullet-proof. Ab. N'être point à l'— de la raillerie, des injures, etc., not to be able to stand up against railery, abuse, etc. Courage à l'—, à toute —, dévouement, etc., à l'—, à toute —, unshaken courage, devotedness, etc. Un zèle à l'—, unwearied zeal. Ab. Son excellent cœur fut à l'— et demeura toujours le même, his excellent heart was unchangeable, and always remained the same. J.-J. Rouss. Un ami à toute —, a tried friend. Un serviteur à toute —, a most devoted servant.

ÉPRIS, ay-pree, ppa. of ÉPRENDRE, fem. —s, smitten (with), enamoured (of, with). Tu vis de quel coortox mon cœur alors —, you saw then what wrath kindled in my soul. Rac. Il y a des âmes —es du gain et de l'Intérêt, there are some souls enamoured of gain and profit. La Bruy. Il est — d'amour pour cette femme, he is in love with that woman. Une âme — de son Dieu, a soul absorbed in the love of God. J'étais — de la Calabre, I was in love with Calabria. P.-L. Cour.

ÉPROUVE, ppa. of ÉPROUVER, fem. —s, adjective. 1 tried. Un homme — par la vie, a man who has had trials in his life. Mich. Elle a été — par le malheur, she has been tried by misfortune. Chât. 2 (qui est à l'épreuve) tried, proved. Un homme d'une vertu —, a man of tried virtue. La plupart étaient des soldats —s, most of them were tried soldiers. Aug. Th.

ÉPROUVER, ay-proo-vay, va. 1 (faire l'épreuve, l'essai) de, to try, to put to the proof, to the test, to make a trial of, to essay. — une arme à feu, to try a firearm. — un remède, to try a remedy. Éprouvez si cela vous fera du bien, try whether that will do you good. 2 (des personnes, of persons) to put to the test. Si nous voulions aller à l'—, nous éprouverions s'il était ingrat on reconnaissant, if we were to go to T., we should put it to the test whether he is grateful or ungrateful. Le Sage. — la fidélité, la probité de quelqu'un, to bring the fidelity, the probity of a person to the test. C'est assez — ma faiblesse, my weakness has been sufficiently tried. Rac. 3 (ressentir) to experience, to feel. On éprouve sur cette montagne un froid très-rigoureux, one feels very severe cold on that mountain. Nous éprouvons un ravissement quand, we felt a transport of which. B. de St-P. Le vieillard en ce moment éprouvait une défaillance, the old man at that moment felt himself exhausted. Chât. Il faut savoir ce que j'éprouvais alors pour comprendre, one must know what I then felt to understand. Saint. De longtemps il n'a pas éprouvé une émotion aussi vive, he had not for a long time felt so lively an emotion. Saint. Il éprouve un impérieux besoin de manifester sa gratitude, he feels the most imperious necessity of showing his gratitude. Saint. Faire — de la joie à quelqu'un, to cause feelings of joy in a person. Ils ont éprouvé que la meilleure préparation pour la tribune était la tribune même, they found out that the best preparation for public speaking was speaking in public. Villem. J'éprouvais aussi moi-même combien le voisinage des grands est dangereux aux petits, I felt myself how prejudicial the contact of the great is to the little. B. de St-P. 4 (des choses, of things) (subir) to undergo, to experience. Le prix de ces denrées éprouve de fréquentes variations, the price of those commodities is extremely varying. Sa conduite, son caractère on éprouva un changement notable, his conduct, his character underwent a remarkable change. 5 (essayer) to meet with, to go through, to experience. Enfin il peut — on refus, but he may meet with a refusal. Saint. — des malheurs. — à l'épreuve misfortune. Elle avait éprouvé beaucoup de mauvais procédés de la part de, she had met with very unhandsome behaviour on the part of. B. de St-P. Il a éprouvé l'une et l'autre fortune, he has gone through good and bad fortune. Jusqu'aux vils troupeaux, tout éprouve leur rage, even poor flocks feel the effects of their rage. Rac. On éprouva un long retard pour passer le gué, they waited a long time before passing the ford.

S'ÉPROUVER, vpr. to try one's self, to be tried. Contre vous, contre moi vainement je m'éprouve, in vain do I try to resist you, to resist myself. Rac. C'est le fait des âmes faibles de se corrompre dans l'adversité, les âmes fortes s'y éprouvent, it is for weak minds to be corrupted by adversity, strong minds are only tested by it. G. Sand.

ÉPROUVETTE, ay-prno-vet, sf. 1 tech. éprouvette, gauge, steam-gauge. 2 surg. probe.

ÉPSILON, ay-se-lon, sm. (Gr.) gram. epsilon.

EPSOM (SEL D'), ep-som, sm. Epsom salts.

ÉPUISABLE, ay-pûee-zabl', adj. mf. (little used) exhaustible.

ÉPUISÉ, ppa. of éprouver, fem. — mf. adjectif. 1 (rare) exhausted (by extension) Mine — e, sol — e, exhausted mine, soil. La terre de suc — e, the earth exhausted of its juices. Flor. — e de force et de sève, la fleur va mourir, exhausted of strength and sap, the flower is about to die. Sain. 2 (très-affaibli) exhausted, spent, worn-out. Un homme — par l'âge, a man worn-out with age. — de fatigue, spent with fatigue. Je suis — par cet effort d'écrire, I am exhausted with the effort I made to write this. Jacq. Ils arrivèrent — s de fatigue et de faim, they arrived, exhausted with fatigue and hunger. Aug. Th. — par les plaisirs, par les veilles, exhausted with pleasures, with night-watchings. fig. Un esprit — e, one's imagination — e, an exhausted mind, imagination. 3 fig. (consommé) exhausted. Le trésor public était —, the public treasury was exhausted. Toutes nos ressources étaient — es, all our resources were exhausted. Sa force d'impulsion était — e, its impetus being exhausted. St-É. La question est — e, the subject is exhausted.

ÉPUISÉMENT, ay-pûeez-mang, sm. 4 exhaustion, draining. (by extension) L'— du sol, d'une mine, the exhaustion of the soil, of a mine. 2 (by extension) (perte des forces) exhaustion. 3 fig. (dissipation) exhaustion (des finances, of the finances).

ÉPUISER, ay-pûee-zay, va. 1 (rare) to exhaust, to drain, to drain off. — les eaux pour découvrir le sol et jeter des fondations, to drain off the waters to discover the soil, and lay foundations. Approchant son verre de sa bouche, mais sans l'—, putting his glass to his lips, but without emptying it. Nod. (by extension) — un sol, une terre, to exhaust a soil, a piece of land. Une culture trop exigeante épuise le sol le plus productif, husbandry that requires too much, exhausts the most productive soil. Nod. — une mine, to exhaust a mine. fig. Vous avez épuisé tous les chagrins de la vie, you have drained the cup of sorrows. Chat. La douleur n'est pas une affection qu'on épuise comme le plaisir, pain is not an affection that is exhausted like pleasure. Chat. Les Romains auront épuisé ton cœur, tu les auras trop aimés, your heart has been worn out by the Romans, you have loved them too much. Chat. — une province d'hommes et d'argent, to drain a province of men and money. 2 (affaibli) to exhaust. J'étais épuisé par une transpiration abondante, I was exhausted by excessive perspiration. Jacq. Les débâches l'ont épuisé, he is worn out by debauchery. fig. De peur d'— son âme dans une suprême émotion, for fear of exhausting his soul in a supreme emotion. Lamart. Ces subtilités épuisent le génie, those subtleties wear out the genius. 3 fig. (consommer) to exhaust. Nous avions épuisé toutes nos munitions, toutes nos provisions, we had exhausted all our ammunition, all our provisions. Cette guerre épuisa les finances, that war exhausted the finances. J'aurais eu du plaisir à vous voir — notre bon whisky, I should have had pleasure in seeing you consume our good whisky. Nod. Le vieux roi avait épuisé toutes les formes solennelles de la réconciliation, the old king had gone through all the solemn forms of reconciliation. Aug. Th. Quand ils eurent épuisé toutes leurs conjectures, when they had exhausted all their conjectures. Sain. — une matière, to exhaust a subject. C'est un homme qu'on ne saurait —, he is a man that has an inexhaustible stock of knowledge. Nous avons à peu près épuisé tous les objets de curiosité, we have seen nearly all that was worth seeing. De Bruss.

S'ÉPUISER, vpr. 1 to be exhausted. 2 (s'affaiblir) to exhaust one's self, to be exhausted, to wear one's self out. S'— à force de travail, to wear one's self out with labour. S'— par la débâche, to exhaust one's self with debauchery. S'— à force de crier, to cry, to shout till one is tired. 3 (by extension) Voilà pourquoi le sol s'épuise, that is why the soil is exhausted. La plante s'épuisait par la perte de sa sève, the plant was decaying from the loss of its sap. Sain. Il faut que notre tendresse d'âme s'épuise au profit de l'humanité, our sympathies must be exhausted for the welfare of mankind. Jacq. 4 S'— en, to exhaust one's self (in efforts inutiles, in useless efforts; en vains discours), in vain discourses. S'— en conjectures, to be lost in conjectures. Il s'épuisait en messages et en invectives, he exhausted himself in messages and invectives. Aug. Th. S'— en dépenses, to go to ruin, to expend. 5 fig. (se consumer, être consommé) to be exhausted, to spend one's self, to be spent. Nos provisions commencent à s'—, our provisions began to be exhausted. P. aimait mieux voir cette ardente éloquence s'— sur le gouverneur que P. preferred seeing this burning eloquence spend itself on the governor than Villen.

ÉPUISÉTE, ay-pûee-zet, sf. 1 fish. landing-net. 2 (ûlet) small net.

ÉPURATION, ay-pû-rah-syong, sf. 1 purifying, purification, purging, refining. L'— du sang, the purifying of the blood. L'— des métaux, the refining of metals. fig. L'— des mœurs, the refining of the manners; de la langue, of the language. 2 fig. mil. — d'une compagnie, d'un corps, purging, weeding of a company, of a body.

ÉPURE, ay-pûr, sf. arch. clean drawing, working-drawing, diagram.

ÉPURE, ppa. of épurer, fem. — e, refined, pure. De l'huile — e, refined oil. fig. Des sentiments — s, des intentions — es, refined sentiments, pure intentions. Son âme — e de tous les sentiments de la terre, his soul purified of all earthly feeling. Boss.

ÉPUREMENT, ay-pûr-mang, sm. purifying. fig. L'— de l'âme, the purifying of the soul. Boss.

ÉPURER, ay-pû-ray, va. 1 to purify, to clarify. — un sirop, to clarify a syrup. — de l'huile, to refine oil. 2 fig. to refine, to expurgate. — la langue, to refine the language. — son style, to refine one's style. — un auteur, to expurgate an author. — le goût, les mœurs, to refine the taste, the manners; le cœur, l'âme, les sentiments, the heart, the soul, the feelings, etc. — son cœur de toute affection terrestre, to disengage one's heart from all worldly affections.

S'ÉPURER, vpr. 1 to be purified, refined. fig. La langue commençait à s'—, the language was beginning to be refined. La vertu s'épure dans le malheur, virtue is refined in misfortune. Son style s'épurait, his style became more refined. Chat. Les mœurs s'épurent, the manners become more refined. Le goût s'épure par de bonnes lectures, a healthy course of reading refines the taste. 2 to be clarified, to be refined.

ÉPURGE, ay-pûrth, sf. bot. epurge.

ÉQUARRI, ay-kar-ee, ppa. of équarrir, fem. — e, Une pièce de bois — e, a piece of timber squared.

ÉQUARRIR, va. 1 to square (une pierre, une pierre, un bloc de marbre, a beam, a stone, a block of marble). 2 tech. — une glace, to square a glass. 3 to cut up (horses).

ÉQUARRISSAGE, ay-kar-ee-sazh, sm. 1 carp. equareness, squaring. Bois d'—, timber. 2 (action d'écorner les bêtes de somme ou de trait) cutting up, knacker's trade.

ÉQUARRISSEMENT, ay-kar-ee-mang, sm. (d'une pièce de bois, of a piece of timber) squaring.

ÉQUARRISSEUR, ay-kar-ee-sahr, sm. knacker.

ÉQUATEUR, ay-kwâ-tohr, sm. 1 astr. equator, line, equinoctial line. Les peuples qui habitent sous l'—, the people who live under the equator. La république de l'—, the republic of the Equator. (by analogy) L'— de Jupiter, de Saturne, the equator of Jupiter, of Saturne.

EQUATION, ay-kwâ-syong, sf. 1 alg. equation. 2 astr. equation.

EQUATORIAL, ay-kwê-to-ryal, adj. m. fem. — e, equatorial.

ÉQUERRE, ay-kayr, sf. math. square. Double —, double square. Fausse —, bevel. D'—, en —, square. Mettre d'—, to square. Ce bâtiment n'est pas d'—, that building is bevel. Batt à square —, built out of square.

EQUESTRE, ay-kwaystr', adj. mf. (Lat. equestris) 1 equestrian. Statue —, the equestrian statue. 2 anc. L'ordre —, the equestrian order.

EQUILANGE, ay-kwê-angl', adj. mf. geom. equiangular.

EQUIDIFFÉRENT, ay-kwê-de-fay-rang, adj. m. fem. — e, equidifferent.

EQUIDISTANT, ay-kwê-dis-lang, adj. m. fem. — e, geom. equidistant.

EQUILATÉRAL, ay-kwê-lat-ay-ral, adj. m. fem. — e, geom. equilateral. Triangle —, equilateral triangle.

ÉQUILATÈRE, ay-kwê-lat-ayr, adj. mf. geom. equilateral.

ÉQUILIBRE, ay-ke-libr', sm. (Lat. æquilibrium) 1 æquilibrium, balance, equilibrium. Cela fait —, that balances. Mettre une chose en —, to poise a thing. Être, se tenir en —, to remain in equilibrium. Garder, perdre l'—, to keep, to maintain —, lose one's perpendicular, one's balance. C'est du sein même du mouvement que naît l'— du monde et le repos de l'univers, from the very source of motion are produced the equilibrium of worlds and the repose of the universe. Buff. fig. Elle tenait dans sa juste — son cœur et son intelligence, she held the balance even, between her heart and her intelligence. Lamart. 2 fig. (des États, etc., of states) balance. L'— de l'Europe, the balance of E. L'— des pouvoirs dans un gouvernement, the balance of powers in a government. 3 fig. (des humeurs, of humours) equilibrium. 4 fig. (de l'âme, of the soul) evenness, equanimity. 5 paint. sculpt. L'— d'une composition, the equilibrium of a composition.

ÉQUILIBRE, ppa. of équilibrer, fem. — e, Sans qu'on, mal —, it pent toujours être emporté par le poids de sa grosse tête, without a tail, it is balanced, it may at any time be borne down by the weight of its large head. Mich.

ÉQUILIBRER, ay-ke-le-bray, va. 1 to poise, to place in equilibrium. 2 fig. to balance. Pour — le crédit et le débit, to balance the credit and debit.

EQUINOXE, ay-ke-noks, sm. (Lat. æquinoctium) equinox. L'— d'automne, the autumnal equinox. L'— du printemps, the vernal equinox.

EQUINOXIAL, ay-ke-nok-syal, adj. m. fem. — e, pl. m. EQUINOXIAUX, 1 equinoctial. Les points équinoxiaux, the equinoctial points. Ligne — ou équateur, line, equi-noctial line, equator. 2 bot. Fleurs —es, equinoctial flowers.

EQUIPAGE, ay-ke-pa-zh, sm. (Lat. equus) 1 train, suite de chevaux, etc. equipage. Les —s du roi, the king's equipages. prov. fig. L'— de Jean de Paris, a Lord mayor's show. L'— de bohème, a shabby turn-out. 2 (dans un sens plus restreint) carriage. Un bel —, a fine carriage. 3 (attirail) equipment, equipage, gear. Les —s de l'armée, army equipages. — de chasse, hunting equipage. 4 navt. crew, ship's company. L'— d'un navire marchand, the crew of a merchantman. — de ligne, marines. Les hommes, les gens de l'—, the crew. — d'une embarcation, boat's crew. 5 ironic. (manière dont une personne est vêtue) garb, equipment, plight. Vous voilà dans un bel —, you are in a pretty plight.

EQUIPE, ay-kip, sf. 1 navt. train of boats. 2 tech. seq. gang. 3 railw. Chef d'—, foreman.

EQUIPEE, pp. of EQUIPER, fem. —e, mal —, badly equipped. Le grand nombre d'hommes bien —s qui viennent se joindre, etc., the great number of men well armed who came to join, etc. Aug. Th. de neuf, je revis la route de M. —, equipped afresh, I resumed the route of M. Jacq. (by extension) ironic. Vie Dieu! me dit-il, te voilà plaisamment —, sounds! said he to me, you are prettily tricked out. Le Sage. Fig. Il a été bien —, he has been finely served out.

EQUIPEE, ay-ke-pa, sf. freak, prank, frolic. N'avons-nous pas fait une belle — d'avoir quitté la ville de C.? is it not a pretty frolic of ours to have left the town of C.? Le Sage. Voilà une plaisante —! a pretty kettle of fish that is!

EQUIPEMENT, ay-kip-mang, sm. 1 equipment, fitting out (de bataillon, of a battalion). Frais d'—, outfit. 2 mil equipment, accoutrement. 3 navt. (d'un vaisseau, of a ship) equipment, fitting out, manning. L'— de la flotte, the equipment of the fleet.

EQUIPER, ay-ke-pa, ra. 1 to equip, to fit out, to furnish (un soldat, un cavalier, a soldier, a horseman). 2 navt. (d'un vaisseau, d'une flotte, of a ship, of a fleet) to equip, to fit out, to man, to appoint.

S'ÉQUIFER, rpr. 1 to fit one's self out. 2 (s'acconfortir) to rig one's self out.

EQUIPET, ay-ke-pa, sm. navt. locker. EQUIPOLLE, pp. of EQUIPOLLER, fem. —e. Perte —e au gain, loss counter-balanced by the profit.

EQUIPOLLENCE, ay-kûe-pol-angs, sf. (Lat.) log. L'— des propositions, equipollence, equipollency.

EQUIPOLLENT, ay-kûe-po-lang, adj. m. fem. —e. (Lat. æquipollens) 1 absol. equipollent, equivalent. 2 sm. equivalent.

A L'EQUIPOLLENT, adv. loc. ob.-ol. in the same proportion.

EQUIPOLLER, ay-kûe-po-lay, ra. absol. to balance.

EQUIPOLLER, vn. absol. to be equivalent.

EQUITABLE, ay-ke-tabl', adj. mf. 1 equitable, just, upright. 2 (des choses, of things) equitable, fair. Les jugements plus —s de la po-térité, the more impartial judgment of posterity. Muss. Distribution —, fair distribution.

EQUITABLEMENT, ay-ke-tab-loh-mang, adv. equitably, justly, rightly, uprightly.

EQUITANT, ay-kûe-tang, adj. m. fem. —e, bot. equitant.

EQUITATION, ay-kûe-tah-syong, sf. (Lat.) equestron, horsemanship. École d'—, riding school.

EQUITÉ, ay-ke-tay, sf. (Lat. æquitas) 1 (droiture) equity, uprightness, justice. C'est un homme plein d'—, he is a very upright man. 2 (justice naturelle) Juger selon la règle de l'—, to judge according to the rules of equity. Souvent l'— conserve ce que la justice pourrait ruiner, equity often preserves what justice might ruin. Balz.

EQUIVALENT, ay-ke-val-ang, adj. m. fem. —e, equivalent, commensurate, tantamount. Un loi donnera une chose —e, he shall receive a thing of equal value.

EQUIVALENT, sm. 4 equivalent. 2 (not) equivalent term. Un traducteur est souvent forcé de recourir aux —s, a translator is often obliged to have recourse to equivalents. 3 —s, pl. chem. equivalents.

EQUIVALOIR, ay-ke-val-wâr, rn. conj. like value, 1 to be equivalent. 2 (être à peu près le même que) to be tantamount. Une réponse qui équivaut à un refus, an answer which is tantamount to a refusal. Cette expression équivaut à telle autre, this expression has the same meaning as that.

EQUIVOQUE, ay-ke-vok, adj. mf. 1 equivocal, ambiguous. 2 (douteux) equivocal, suspicious. Action —, equivocal action. L'impératrice est aimable, mais sa santé est fort —, the empress is amiable, but her health is very precarious. Volt. Un rire —, an equivocal smile. Beaum. Des professions —s, equivocal professions. (by extension) Un homme —, a man of doubtful character. 3 med. Signe —, equivocal symptom.

EQUIVOQUE, sf. equivocal expression, equivocation. L'— a été la mère de la plupart de nos sottises, equivocation has been the mother of most of our follies. Volt.

EQUIVOQUER, ay-ke-vok-ray, rn. to equivocate. Il equivoque continuellement, he is a regular shuffler.

S'ÉQUIVOQUER, rpr. to use one word for another.

ÉRABLE, ay-rabl', sm. bot. maple. — à sucre, sugar-maple, rock-maple. Sacre d'—, maple-sugar.

ÉRADICATION, ay-rad-e-lah-syong, sf. (Lat.) did. eradication.

ÉRAFLER, ay-rafl-ray, ra. to scratch, to graze (la peau, the skin).

ÉRAFLURE, ay-rafl-lôr, sf. scratch. Une — d'épingle, a scratch with a pin.

ÉRAILLÉ, pp. of ÉRAILLER, fem. —e, étiole —e, frayed stuff. Avoir l'œil —, les yeux —s, to have bloodshot eyes.

ÉRAILLER, ay-rab-ray, ra. to fray, to fret. — du satin, to fray satin.

S'ÉRAILLER, rpr. (des étoffes, of stuffs) to fray, to chafe. (by extension) Je m'éraillai les jambes et la poitrine, I rubbed the skin off my legs and chest. Chat.

ÉRAILLURE, ay-rab-yûr, sf. fret, fraying.

ÉRATER, ay-rat-ay, ra. to take out the spleen of.

ÈRE, ayr, sf. (Lat. æra) chronol. 1 era, epoch. 2 (la suite des années) era. 3 (époque remarquable) era. L'— de la liberté commence, the era of liberty commences.

ÈREBE, ay-rayb, sm. (Lat. erebos) myth. Erebus.

ÉRECTEUR, ay-rek-tuhr, adj. sm. anal. erector.

ÉRECTION, ay-rek-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (d'une statue, d'un monument, of a statue, of a monument) erection, raising. 2 fig. (établissement) erection, institution. L'— d'un tribunal, the erection of a tribunal. L'— d'une terre en duché, the erection of an estate into a dukedom.

ÉREINTE, pp. of ÉREINTER, fem. —e, adjective. 1 pop. that has his back broken. 2 fig. pop. (éprouvé de fatigue) knocked out, done up, tired out. Adieu, je suis —, farewell, I am tired to death. Jacq. Nos chevaux étaient —s, our horses were knocked up.

ÉREINTER, ay-rang-tay, ra. 1 to break a person's back. 2 (by extension) (rosser de coups) to beat unmercifully. fig. — quelqu'un, to cut a person up. fig. — une pièce, un auteur, un acteur, to cut up a piece, an author, an actor. 3 fig. (exceeder de fatigue) to tire out, to knock up. Il éreinte de travail tous ses employés, he works all his clerks to death. Cette course m'a éreinté, that walk has knocked me up.

S'ÉREINTER, rpr. 1 to break one's back. 2 fig. (se fatiguer extrêmement) to tire one's self out, to knock one's self up.

ÉRÉSIPÉLÉTEUX, ay-ray-ze-pa-lay-nh, adj. m. fem. ÈRÉSIPÉLÉTESE, med. erysipelatois.

ÉRÉSIPÈLE, ay-ray-ze-pa-lay, sm. (Gr.) med. erysipela.

ÉRÉTHISME, ay-ray-tism, sm. (Gr.) med. erithism.

ERGO, ayr-go, conj. (Lat.) 1 ergo, therefore, consequently. Partant ma fille est morte, —, c'est une sainte, thus, my daughter is dead, ergo, she is a saint. Mol. 2 (substantie). Les scolastiques ne sortent point de leurs atei et de leurs —, the schoolmen had nothing but atei and ergo in their mouths.

ERGO-OUT, fam. and what then?

ERGOT, ayr-go, sm. 1 spur, dew-claw. Les —s d'un coq, a cock's spurs, cockspurs. Les —s d'un chien, a dog's dew-claws. prov. fig. Se lever sur ses —s, se tenir sur ses —s, mouler sur ses —s, to ride one's high horse. 2 (maladie qui attaque le seigle) ergot. 3 agri. ergot, spurred rye, spur of rye. 4 vet. ergot.

ERGOTE, ayr-go-tay, adj. m. fem. —e. 1 spurred. Coq bien —, cock with good spurs. Chien —, dog with dew-claws. 2 Seigle —, spurred rye.

ERGOTER, ayr-go-tay, ra. to cavil, to quibble. Il ne fait qu'—, he does nothing but cavil. Il ergote sur tout, he finds fault with every thing.

ERGOTERIE, ayr-got-ree, sf. cavilling, quibbling, cavil.

ERGOTEUR, ayr-go-tuhr, sm. fem. ERGOTEUSE, caviller, quibbler.

ERGOTINE, ayr-go-teen, sf. chem. ergotine.

ERGOTISME, ayr-got-tism, sm. ergotism, cavilling, quibbling, cavil.

ERIGÉ, pp. of ÉRIGER, fem. —e, 4 erected. Statue —e à quelqu'un, statue erected to a person. 2 fig. (établir) set up, raised. Le crime — en vertu, crime set up for a virtue.

ÉRIGER, ay-re-zhay, ra. NOUS ÉRIGEONS; IL ÉRIGE, (Lat. erigere) 1 (dresser, élever) to erect, to raise. — un autel, to raise an altar. — une statue, to erect a statue. — une statue à quelqu'un, to erect a statue to a person. — un temple, to erect a temple. 2 fig. (établir, constituer, etc.) to erect, to institute, to set up (for). Chacun veut en sagesse — sa folie, each wishes to set up his folly for wisdom. Boil. L'argent en honnête homme érige un scélérat, money makes an honest man of a rascal. Boil. Le paganisme avait érigé les empereurs romains en dieux, paganism had converted the Roman emperors into gods. B. de St-P. — un tribunal, to erect a tribunal. — une terre en comté, en marquisat, en duché, to erect an estate into an earldom, a marquisate, a dukedom.

S'ÉRIGER, rpr. 1 to set up (for), to set one's self up (for). S'— en censeur public, to set up for a public censor. Les principaux nobles s'étaient érigés en auteurs de petits tyrans, the chief nobility had grown up into so many petty tyrants. De Bross.

ÉRIGNE, ay-re-nyoh, ÈRINE, ay-reed, sf. (Gr.) surg. hook.

ÉRIGONE, ay-re-gon, sf. 1 Erigone. 2 astr. Virgo.

ERMIN, ayr-mang, sm. ermin, import-duty in the Lerant.

ERMINETTE, HERMINETTE, ayr-menet, sf. tech. adze.

ERMITAGE, ayr-me-tazh, sm. (Gr.) 1 hermitage. 2 fig. (lieu exaré) hermitage.

ERMITE, HERMITE, ayr-mit, sm. (Gr.) 1 hermit, eremite. fig. Vivre comme un —, to live like a hermit. prov. fig. Quand le diable est vieux, il se fait —. See DIABLE. Pâtes d'—, dry walnuts. 2 fig. (personne qui vit loin du monde) hermit.

ERODE, ayr-ro-daj, adj. m. fem. —E. (Lat. erodere) eroded, gnawed. Feuilles —es, eroded leaves.

EROSION, ayr-ro-ziong, sf. (Lat.) erosion. — aux angles des yeux, erosion in the corners of the eyes.

EROTIQUE, ayr-ro-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 erotic, erotic. 2 sm. pl. Les —s grecs, the Greek erotics.

ERPETOLOGIE, ayr-pay-to-lo-zhee, sf. (Gr.) erpetologie, herpetology.

ERPETOLOGIQUE, ayr-pay-to-lo-zhik, adj. mf. herpetologique, herpetological.

ERPETOLOGISTE, ayr-pay-to-lo-zhist, sm. herpetologist, erpetologist.

ERRANT, ayr-rang, ppr. of ERRE, — de mer en mer, tossed about from sea to sea. Rac. adj. m. fem. —E, 1 wandering, errant. Chevalier —, knight-errant. Il y a des peuples qui vivent —s dans le désert, some nations lead a wandering life in the desert. B. de St-P. Au milieu des déserts on cent tribus —es, in the midst of the deserts in which a hundred wandering tribes. Flor. La reine mère, longtemps —e. mourut à Cologne, the queen mother, long a wanderer, died at C. Vult. (by extension) Ses yeux sont sans cesse —s de tous côtés, her eyes roll places on every side. Fen. Le Juif —, the wandering Jew. anc. Étoiles —es, erratic stars. fig. C'est on chevalier —, he is always on the tramp. Avoir, mener une vie —e, to lead a roving life. fig. Imagination —e et vagabonde, rambling and enragant imagination. 2 sm. (little used) bi. stray sheep.

ERRATA, ayr-rab-tah, sm. (Lat.) errata. ERRATIQUE, ayr-rat-ik, adj. mf. (Lat. erraticus) 1 med. Maladie —, erratic disease. 2 astr. Planètes —, erratic planets. 3 geol. Blocs —s, erratic blocks.

ERRATUM, ayr-rat-uhm, sm. (Lat.) See ERRATA.

ERRE, ayr, sf. 1 absol. Aller grand'—, aller belle —, to go very fast; || fig. to be a fast liver. 2 want. (sillage) way. 3 rep. —s, pl. track, traces. 4 fig. traces. Suivre les —s, marcher sur les —s, aller sur les —s de quelqu'un, to tread in a person's footsteps.

ERREMENTS, ayr-nang, sm. pl. fig. (en parlant d'affaires) track, path, way, manner, course.

ERRER, ayr-ray, vn. (Lat. errare) 1 to wander, to stroll, to ramble, to rove, to straggle. J'erre, ainsi que vous, à la merci des hommes, I wander, like you, at the caprice of men. Chat. Les compagnons d'U. erraient au gré des vents, U.'s companions were tossed about by the winds. La Font. — par la campagne, dans la campagne, to stroll about the country. — de côté et d'autre, to ramble about. fig. Pourquoi allez-vous errant de vanités en vanités? why wander about from vanity to vanity? Boss. Un sourire vint — sur les lèvres de la pauvre fille, a smile seemed to play on the lips of the poor girl. Balz. Laisant — sa vue étonnée et ravie, casting looks of wonder and rapture about him. V. Hug. Sur le papier je laisse — ma plume, I let my pen run on. C. Del. Laisser — ses pensées, to allow one's thoughts to wander. 2 fig. (se tromper) to err, to mistake, to be mistaken. Il n'y a personne qui ne soit sujet à —, there is no one who is not liable to be mistaken. Vans erretez dans votre calcul, you mistake in your calculation. — dans le droit, dans le fait, to be wrong de jure, de facto.

ERRER, ayr-reih, sf. (Lat. error) 1 (little used) (action) wandering, error. 2 fig. (fausse opinion) error, mistake, fallacy. Tomber dans l'—, to fall into error, into a mistake. Revenir de son —, to be convinced of one's error. Vivre dans l'—, to live in error. — dans la foi, en matière de foi, error in religious belief. Et quoi! de votre — l'on ne peut vous tirer? what! you cannot be convinced of your error? Rac. En quel abîme d'—s tombez-vous? into what an abyss of errors are you falling? Boss. C'est une — que de croire, que de s'imaginer que, it is a mistake to believe, to imagine that. Vous croyez qu'il reconnaîtra ses torts? —, you think he will acknowledge his faults? you mistake. 3 fig. (illusion) illusion. L'— des sens, the illusion of the senses. 4 fig. —s, pl. (dérèglement de mœurs) errors, follies. Il est bien revenu de ses —s, he has turned over a new leaf. 5 fig. (faute, méprise) error, mistake. — de date, mistake as to date. — de nom, misnomer. — de fait, error in point of fact. — de droit, error in point of law. law. — de personne, — dans la personne, mistake in the person. — de calcul, a mistake in a calculation. prov. — n'est pas compte, errors excepted.

ERRHIN, ayr-rang, adj. m. fem. —E, med. errhine, sternalgic.

ERRONE, ayr-ro-nay, adj. m. fem. —E, erroneous, false, wrong, unsound. Si la croyance est —e, if the belief is erroneous. Lamart. Proposition —e, erroneous proposition.

ERS, ayr, sm. (Lat. ervum) bot. ers, bitter vetch.

ERSE, ayr, adj. mf. Erse, Gaelic. Langue —, Erse, the Erse language, Gaelic, the Gaelic language. Poésies —s, Gaelic, Erse poetry.

ERUBESCENCE, ayr-rû-bays-sang, sf. (Lat. erubescere) erubescence.

ERUBESCENT, ayr-rû-bays-sang, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. erubescens) erubescens. Des bois —s, erubescens woods. B. de St-P.

ERUCAGO, ayr-rû-kag-o, ERUCAGE, ayr-rû-kag, sf. bot. eruca, rocket.

ERUCTION, ayr-rûk-tah-syong, sf. (Lat. med. eruption, ruetation.

ERECTER, ayr-rûk-taj, vn. (Lat. erectare) to erectate, to belch.

ERUDIT, ayr-rû-dee, adj. m. fem. —E, (Lat. eruditus) 1 erudite, learned. Un homme —, a learned man. (by analogy) Un ouvrage —, a learned book. 2 (substantif) erudite person.

ERUDITION, ayr-rû-dee-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (soviert) erudition, learning. Il a de l'— beaucoup d'—, he is erudite, very erudite. 2 (recherches savantes) erudition. Ouvrage d'—, learned work. Travaux d'—, erudite labours.

ERIGINEUX, ayr-rû-zhe-nah, adj. m. fem. ERIGINEUSE, (Lat.) med. eruginous.

ERUPTIF, ayr-rûp-tif, adj. m. f. m. ERUPTIVE, mod. eruptive. Fièvre eruptive, eruptive fever.

ERUPTION, ayr-rûp-syong, sf. (Lat.) 1 (d'un volcan, of a volcano) eruption. 2 med. eruption, rash, exanthem. 3 med. — des dents, cutting of the teeth.

ERYSIPELATEUX, ayr-re-zé-pay-lah, adj. m. fem. ERYSIPELATEUSE, See ERYSIPELATEUX.

ERYSIPELE, ayr-re-zé-pay, See ERYSIPELATEUX.

ES, ayr, prep. (dans les) in the, of. Saint-Pierre —s l'île, St Peter in prison. Docteur —s lettres, doctor of letters. — mains d'un tel, in the hands of such a one.

ESBROUFFE, ayr-broof, sf. pop. Faire de l'—, faire son —, to give one's self airs.

ESBROUFFE, ppa. of ESBROUFFER, fem. —E, il éte jointement —, he has been finely taken down.

ESBROUFFER, ayr-broo-faj, va. pop. — quelqu'un, to lord it over a person; to come Captain Stiff over a person.

ESBROUFFEUR, ayr-broo-fuhr, sm. pop. swaggerer, bouncer.

ESCABEAU, ayr-sab-o, sm. (Lat. scabellum) stool.

ESCABÈCHER, ayr-kab-ay-shay, va. fish. to cure sardines.

ESCABELLE, ayr-kab-el, sf. stool.

ESCACHE, ayr-kash, sf. scatch, bridge, bit.

ESCADRE, ayr-kadr', sf. vaut. squadron. Chef d'—, commodore, flag-officer. — d'évolution, squadron of evolution. — d'observation, squadron of observation.

ESCADRILLE, ayr-kad-re-yuh, sf. vaut. small squadron.

ESCAURON, ayr-kad-rong, sf. (It.) 1 mil. squadron. Un — de cuirassiers, a squadron of cuirassiers. Chef d'—, major. 2 anc. (troupe quelconque d'hommes à pied on à cheval) squadron.

ESCADRONNER, ayr-kad-ron-ay, vn. mil. to manœuvre in squadrons.

ESCALADE, ayr-skal-ad, sf. (Lat. scala) 1 (attaque, assaut) escalade, scaling. Monter à l'—, to scale the walls. 2 (l'un voler, of a robber, scaling a wall. 3 (vol à l'aide d'—, robbing and house-breating).

ESCALADE, ppa. of ESCALADER, fem. —E, la place fut —e en plein jour, the place was scaled in open day.

ESCALADER, ayr-skal-ad-ay, va. to scale, to escalade, to climb over. — une maison, une muraille, to climb up to the top of a house, to climb over a wall.

ESCALE, ayr-skal, sf. (Lat. scala) naut. Faire — dans un port, to put in, to touch at a port.

ESCALIER, ayr-skal-yay, sm. (Lat. scala) staircase, pair of stairs, flight of stairs. — dérobé, back staircase.

ESCALIN, ayr-skal-lag, sm. (Ger. schelling) sirrince (Dutch coin).

ESCALOPE, es-kal-op, sf. enlin scallop.

ESCAMOTAGE, ayr-kam-ot-zh, sm. jugglery, juggling, legerdemain, sleight of hand, conjuring, magic, de paroles, juggling of words. B. Brog.

ESCAMOTEUR, ppa. of ESCAMOTER, fem. —E, (by extension) Ma montre me fut —e en un clin d'œil, my watch was abstracted in the twinkling of an eye.

ESCAMOTER, ayr-kam-ot-ay, va. 1 to juggle, to conjure (des boules, des dés, balls, dice). absol. Cet homme escamote bien, that man is a good conjurer. 2 (by extension) (dérobé subtilement) to pilfer, to fitch. Un filon lui avait escamoté sa montre, a thief had fitched his watch from him. 3 fig. (obtenir par ruse) to cozen. — le consentement de quelqu'un, to cozen a person out of his consent. — les difficultés, to elude the difficulties.

ESCAMOTEUR, ayr-kam-ot-zh, sm. juggler, conjurer, thimble-rigger. fig. Un — politique, a political juggler.

ESCAMOTER, ayr-kang-yay, vn. pop. to scamper away, off, to take to one's heels.

ESCAMPIÈTE, ayr-kang-pet, sf. pop. Prendre de la poudre d'—, to scamper away.

ESCAPADE, ayr-skap-ad, sf. (It.) 1 prank, trick, frolic. Une — d'écolier, a school-boy's trick. 2 man. escapade. Ce cheval est sujet à faire des —s, this horse is liable to escapades.

ESCAPE, ayr-skap, sf. (Gr.) arch. escape, scape, spring, apophyge.

ESCARILLE, ayr-skar-be-yuh, sf. com. elephant's tusk.

ESCARBILLES, ayr-skar-be-yuh, sf. pl. tech. cinders, coal-cinders.

ESCARBITE, ayr-skar-bit, sf. naut. calker's oil-box.

ESCARBOT, ayr-skar-bo, sm. (Lat. scarabeus) black-beetle, beetle.

ESCARBOUTILLE, ayr-skar-book'il, sf. (Lat. caraboeus) min. carbuncle.

ESCARCELLE, ayr-skar-sel, sf. (It.) absol. purée. Mettre la main, fouiller à l'—, to open one's purse. Vider son —, to empty one's purse.

ESCARRE, ays-kar, sf. See ESCARRE.
 ESCARGOT, ays-kar-got, sm. (Gr.)
 1 nat. hist. snail. 2 Escalier en, spiral staircase, winding stairs.
 ESCARGOTIERE, ays-kar-go-tyayr, sf. snail-preserver.
 ESCARNOUCHE, ays-kar-moosh, sf. (It.) skirmish, brush.
 ESCARMOUCHE, ays-kar-moo-shay, en. 1 (combattre) to skirmish. 2 fig. (d'une discussion) to skirmish. On n'a pas approfondi la question, on n'a fait qu'—, the question was not fully discussed, there was only a little skirmishing.
 ESCAROLE, ays-kar-ol, sf. Endire.
 ESCARTOTIQUE, ays-kar-o-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) med. escharotic, caustic.
 ESCARPE, ays-karp, sf. (It.) fort. scarp, escarp.
 ESCARPE, sm. pop. assassin.
 ESCARPE, ppa. of ESCARPER, fem. —, adj. steep. 1 Rocher, chemin —, steep rock, road. 2 Pente, montagne —, steepness, steep mountain.
 ESCARPEMENT, ays-karp-mang, sm. fort. escarpment. 1 L'un fosse, the escarpment of a ditch. (by extension) L'— des richers, the steepness of the rocks. Am. Th.
 ESCARPER, ays-kar-pay, ra. (Lat. carpere) (d'un rocher, d'une montagne, of a rock, a mountain) to escarp.
 ESCARPIN, ays-kar-pang, sm. (It.) pump. fig. p.p. Jouer de l'—, to take to one's heels.
 ESCARPOLETTE, ays-kar-po-let, sf. (It.) swing. Le jeu de l'—, swinging. fig. Une tête à l'—, a hare-brained fellow.
 ESCARRE, ays-kar, sf. (Gr.) 1 scar, clough, scab. 2 obsol. fig. (ouverture faite avec violence) gap, breach.
 ESCAVECAIE, ays-kav-sad, sf. man. check, jerk with the caresson.
 ESCIENT, ays-syang, sm. (Lat. sciens) A bon —, wittingly, knowingly, in good earnest. Je parle à bon —, I speak knowingly. Ils se battaient à bon —, ils n'avaient pas de finitude à bon —, they fought in good earnest, they had no curle to take care of. J.-J. Rouss. A moi — à son —, knowingly.
 ESCOLIER, ays-klayr, sm. hawk. hawk of a fine length.
 ESCLANER, ays-klam-ay, vpr. fam. (littre used) to exclaim.
 ESCLANDEUR, ays-klangr, sm. (Gr.) scandal, exposure. Un — la force armée chez moi a scene! the armed force in my house! C. Del. Faire —, to make a scene. Groyez-moi, sams, à vous seals, étouffons la flamme, s'il se peut, listen, let us settle the matter quietly between ourselves, if possible. P.-L. Cour. Causer de l'—, to give rise to scandal. (by analogy) A Saint-Nazaire, la voiture de Mlle D. gait rise to scandal. Balz.
 ESCLAVAGE, ays-klav-azh, sm. 1 slavery, bondage, thraldom. Etre en —, to be in slavery. Emmener en —, to lead into slavery. 2 fig. (état d'une personne dominée par quelque passion) slavery. L'— des passions, the slavery of the passions. 3 fig. (assujettissement) slavery. Les emplois éclatants ne sont qu'un — illustre, brilliant employments are but illusory slavery. Mass. L'— de la rime, the exigencies of the rhyme.
 ESCLAVE, ays-klav, sm. 1 bondman, slave, bondman, thrall. 2 Un jeune —, a young slave. Voulez, acheter, j'ai un —, I have a slave —, to sell, to buy, to deliver, to ransom slaves. Affranchir on —, to manumit a slave.
 ESCLAVE, adj. mf. fig. slave, slavish. Etre — de la faveur, de sa passion, de ses devoirs, etc., to be the slave of favour, of one's passions, of one's duty, etc. Etre — de sa parole, to be a slave to one's word. Avoir l'âme —, to have a slavish soul, to be slavish-minded. Etre —, to be a slave. On est trop — dans cet emploi, one is tied down too much in that situation.

 ESCLAVON, ays-klav-ong, adj. m. fem. —ne, Slavonic, Slavonic.
 ESCLAVON, sm. Slavonic, the Slavonic tongue.
 ESCLAVONIE, ays-klav-o-nee, sf. geog. Slavonia, Slavonia.
 ESCOBARDER, ays-ko-bar-day, en. fam. to equivocate, to shuffle.
 ESCOBARDERIE, ays-ko-bar-dree, sf. fam. equivocation, shuffling.
 ESCOFFIER, ays-ko-tyay, ra. nous ESCOFFIONS, vous ESCOFFIEZ, pop. to murder — quelqu'un, to murder a person.
 ESCOFFION, ays-ko-tyong, sm. anc. escoffion, a woman's head-dress.
 ESCOFFIERE, ays-ko-grif, sm. 1 fam. sharper, shark. Un tour d'—, a sharper's trick. 2 ironic. (homme grand et mal bâti) gawky. Un grand —, a tall ungainly fellow.
 ESCOMPTÉ, ays-kongt, sm. discount. Faire l'—, to discount. L'— est maintenu à 10 pour 0,0, the discount is still ten per cent. Caisse d'—, discount-office, discounting-bank.
 ESCOMPTER, ays-kong-tyay, ra. 1 (faire l'escompte, le calcul) to discount. 2 — on billet, une lettre de change, no effect, to cash a bill, a bill of exchange. 3 fig. (dépeuser d'avance) to anticipate. — le succès d'une affaire, to anticipate the success of an affair.
 ESCOMPTER, vpr. 4 to be discounted. 2 fig. to be forestalled, to be anticipated.
 ESCOMPTEUR, ays-kong-tuhr, sm. com. discounteur.
 ESCOPE, ays-kop, sf. naut. scoop.
 ESCOPEITE, ays-ko-pet, sf. anc. carbine, blunderbuss.
 ESCORTE, ays-kort, sf. (It.) 1 (troupe armée qui accompagne) escort, convoy. Marcher sous bonne —, to travel well escorted. Donner une —, to give an escort. 2 (by extension) (cortège) escort, attendants. Errant dans le palais, sans suite, sans —, wandering about the palace, unattended. Rac. 3 (en parlant de gens armés, on non armés) escort. Servir d'—, to escort. Je vous ferai — jusque chez vous, I will escort you home. 4 naut. (des vaisseaux, of ships) convoy, escort. Vaisseau d'—, convoy, convoy-ship. 5 fig. (suite) retinue, train. L'ambition et toute son —, ambition with all its train. Boil.
 ESCORTER, ays-kor-tyay, ra. 1 à escort, to attend (un convoi, an expedition). Se faire —, to have one's self escorted. Je vous escorterai jusque chez vous, I will escort you home. 2 naut. Deux frégates escortaient le convoi, two frigates escorted the convoy.
 ESCOUADE, ays-koad, sf. squad.
 ESCOURGEON, ays-koor-zhong, sm. bot. winter-barley.
 ESCRINE, ays-krim, sf. fencing. Salle d'—, fencing-school. Apprendre l'—, to learn fencing. Maître d'—, fencing-master. See MAÎTRE D'ARMES.
 ESCRIMER, ays-kre-may, en. 1 (s'exercer à faire des armes) to fence, to spar. Il se mettait à — contre la muraille, he began to spar against the wall. L. Viard. 2 fig. (disputer l'un contre l'autre) to spar, to have a trial of skill.
 ESCRIMER, vpr. 4 to fight. Ceux-ci s'escriment à pied avec des masses, des maillets, des marteaux, the latter on foot brandish clubs, mallets, hammers. Chat. (by extension) S'— des pieds, des mains, to make the greatest efforts. fig. Nous tirâmes de la besace plusieurs morceaux de viande rôtie, et nous nous mîmes à nous en — comme à l'envi l'un de l'autre, we drew out of the wallet several slices of roast meat, and we strove which should fall to the most heartily. Le Sage. 2 fig. S'— de quelque chose, to dabble in a thing, to be a tolerable hand at a thing. Joue-t-il du violon? Il s'en escrime on pen, does he play on the violin? he does something in that way. 3 fig. S'— à faire quelque chose, to apply one's self to a thing. Ce jeu auquel je m'escrime, this game which I begin to understand. De Bross. 4 fig. (disputer) to dispute. Je ne m'escrimerai pas sur ce sujet, I will not dispute about that.

 ESCRIMEUR, ays-kre-muhr, sm. fencer.
 ESCROC, ays-kro, sm. swindler, sharper, black-leg.
 ESCROQUER, ays-kro-kay, ra. to swindle, to cheat (out of), to swindle. Il lui avait escroqué deux cents francs, he had swindled him out of two hundred francs. Tire un marion, puis deux, puis trois en escroque, draws out one chestnut, then pifers a second, and then a third. La Font. L'escroque tout le monde, he cheats every body. absol. Il escroque tant qu'il peut, parloit on il peut, he is always ready for a swindle. prov. — on diuer, to sponge, to catch a dinner.
 ESCROQUERIE, ays-krok-ree, sf. swindling, swindle, cheating.
 ESCROQUEUR, ays-kro-kuhr, sm. fem. ESCROQUEUSE, swindler, stealer.
 ESCULAPE, ays-kâ-lap, sm. 4 myth. Esculapion. 2 fig. med. Esculapius. Un — de village, a village doctor.
 ESOPPE, ay-zop, sm. 4 Esop. 2 fig. (un bossu) Esop.
 ESOTERIQUE, ay-zo-lay-rik, adj. mf. (Gr.) philos. esoteric, esoteric.
 ESPACE, ays-pas, sm. 4 space. Le temps et l'—, time and space. 2 (étendue) space, room. Laisser de l'—, to leave space, room. Il n'y a pas assez d'—, there is not room enough. Quand je considère la petite durée de ma vie, le petit — que je remplis, when I consider the short duration of my life, the small space that I fill up. Pascal. Hélas! nous sommes séparés par de grands —, alas! a wide distance separates us. M. de Sév. L'— en —, at certain distances. 3 (l'étendue qui embrasse l'univers) space. Les corps célestes roulent dans l'—, the celestial bodies roll in space. 4 — imaginaires, imaginary space. Il fig. Etre, voyager, se perdre dans les — imaginaires, to be, to travel, to lose one's self in imaginary space. 5 (du temps, of time) space. Dans l'— d'un ac, within the space of a year.
 ESPACE, sf. print. space.
 ESPACEMENT, ays-pâ-mang, sm. 4 arch. interval, interspace. L'— des colonnes, intercolumniation. 2 print. spacing.
 ESPACER, ays-pâ-pay, ra. nous ESPACONS; il ESPACE, à la pul, to plant, to set at convenient distances. — des arbres, to plant trees at regular distances. 2 print. to space. Bien — les mots, to place the words at regular distances.
 S'ESPACER, vpr. fig. obsol. to expatiate. Je m'espacai sur ces matières avec la dernière force, I dwelt most strenuously on these subjects. S-Sim.
 ESPADON, ays-pad-ong, sm. (It.) 4 espadon. Jouer de l'—, to fight with espadons. 2 fenc. (sabre) broadsword. 3 ich. sword-fish.
 ESPADONNER, ays-pad-on-ay, en. to fight with the broadsword.
 ESPAGNE, ays-pah-nyuh, s. geog. Spain.
 ESPAGNOL, ays-pah-nyuh, adj. m. fem. —E, Spanish.
 ESPAGNOL, sm. fem. —E, 4 Spaniard. 2 the Spanish language.
 ESPAGNOLETTE, ays-pah-nyuh-let, sf. 4 (sorte de latrine) baize. 2 (d'une fenêtre) window fastening.
 ESPALIER, ays-pal-yay, sm. hort. espalier. Des fruits d'—, wall-fruit. L'umur en —, fruit-wall.
 ESPALME, ppa. of ESPALMER, fem. —E, naut. Un navire — de frais, a ship newly calked.

ESPALMER, ays-pal-may, ra. naut. to calk, to grove.

ESPARGETTE, ays-par-set, sf. bot. asparagus, asinifoin.

ESPARS, ays-par, em. pl. naut. spars.

ESPERCE, ays-pays, sf. (Lat. species) 4 (division du genre) species. On a beau-coup de peine dans ce pays à trouver des chevaux pour la cavalerie; l'— manque, in this country there is much difficulty in finding horses for the cavalry; the species is wanting. L'— bouvaie, monkish, the human species. 2 (sorte, qualité, nature) species, kind, sort, description. On trouve dans ce magasin des marchandises de toutes les —, de toute —, goods of all kinds, of every description are to be found in this shop. Quelle — de drap, quelle — de cheval est-ce là? what sort of cloth, what sort of a horse is that? Des poires d'une belle —, pears of a fine species. Là, chaque — de misère de l'âme ou du corps trouve une — de mériticorde ou la souffrance, there, every kind of suffering both of soul and body finds corresponding compassion to relieve it. Flech. J ne lui ai fait aucune — de reproche. I did not reproach him in the least. Les araignées font une — de filet, spiders make a kind of net. Une — de société naturelle, a kind of natural society. Ce sont des gens de la pire —, they are people of the worst description. Quelle — d'homme nous ayez-vous amené? what sort of a man have you brought us? Il y a longtemps que nous le connaissons pour la plus pauvre — d'Angleterre, we have long known him for one of the poorest creatures in England. Ilam. C'est une plaisante — d'homme, une pauvre — d'homme, une pauvre —, he is a comical fellow, a poor fellow. absol. (disparagingly) whities, creature. Nos actus-misere sont l'— plus ridicule, our calamities are the most ridiculous creatures. Volt. Quelle —! what a wretch! ironic. C'est un sage de nouvelle —, un philosophe d'— nouvelle, he is a sage, a philosopher of a new species. C'est un homme d'— singulière, he is a singular kind of man. (by analogy) C'est un fou de nouvelle —, d'— singulière, he is a madman of a new species, of a singular species. Des gens de toute —, people of every description. arith. Grandeur de la même —, quantities of the same species. 3 law. case, particular case. 4 —, pl. (pièces d'or ou d'argent) specie, cash, coin. Faire un paiement en belles —, en — bonnes et valables, to make a payment in hard cash, in current coin of the realm. — s'ayant cours, current coin. — s'rognées, clipped coin. La rareté d'—, the scarcity of specie. Nous étions si mal en —, we were so badly off for cash. Le Sage. Payer en — s'annuités, to pay down in hard cash. 5 absol. (l'argent) money. Il ne manque qu'une petite circonstance à notre satisfaction, c'est de recevoir de l'argent, l'— manque, but one trifling circumstance is requisite to complete our satisfaction, it is to receive money, we are out of cash. Mme de Sév. 6 rel. element. Les — du pain et du vin, the elements of bread and wine. Communion sous les deux —, to receive the communion in both kinds. 7 schol. philos. forms, images. — s distinctes, claires, distinct, clear images. 8 phurm (poudres) species, mixture of ingredients. 9 phurm. (diverses substances végétales) species. Les — s vulnérables, pectorales, toniques, apéritives, etc., the vulnerary, pectoral, tonic, aperient species.

ESPERANCE, ays-pay-rangs, sf. (Lat. sperare) 1 (attente, pressentiment) hope, expectation. Vaine, fausse —, vain, false hope. Il a surpassé, il a passé, il a rempli, il a trompé nos —, he has exceeded, fulfilled, deceived our expectations. Il a répondu à nos —, he has answered our expectations. Mettre à la loterie, c'est acheter de l'—, to take lottery-tickets, is buying some hope. Arn. Qui de nous n'a donné la hequette à une — where is the man that never fancied hope. Chat. Il y a dans nos bois une fleur qui se forme et s'épanouit jamais, c'est l'—, there is in our forests a flower which is ever budding and which never blossoms, it is hope. Chat. Il me fit d'un empire accepter l'—, he made me accept the prospect of the empire. Rac. Un gendre en —, a son-in-law in expectation. Ab. La merci du duc ne réponsit pas à leurs —, the duke's mercy did not come up to their expectations. Bar. En vous reposez toute l'— de la république, all the hopes of the republic are in you. Un jeune homme qui donne de grandes —, a hopeful young man. Mon cœur est presque fermé à l'—, my heart is almost closed to hope. Volt. Un jeune officier de grande —, a promising young officer. Ab. Vivre en —, to live, to go on with. Vivre en —, to live in hope. Perdre l'—, to lose —, to lose hope, all hope. Se repaître, se nourrir d'—, to feed upon hope. Il est déçu de ses —, his hopes have failed him. 3 (la personne ou la chose objet de l'espérance) hope. Ce fils est l'— de toute sa famille, that son is the hope of the whole family. Ses œufs, ses tendres œufs, sa plus douce —, her eggs, her darling eggs, her fondest hope. La Font. 3 (vertu théologique) hope. La Foi, l'— et la Charité, Faith, Hope and Charity.

ESPERER, ays-pay-ray, ro. l'ESPÉRER, IL ESPÉRER, l'ESPERERAI, nous ESPÉRERONS; (Lat. sperare) to hope, to hope for. Il espère une meilleure fortune, he hopes for better fortune. J'espère le voir bientôt, I hope to see him shortly. Il n'y a rien à — des autorités locales, there is nothing to be hoped from the authorities of the place. Ab. Les prisonniers dont il espère voir rançon, the prisoners from whom he expects to get a ransom. Ab. Je n'avais plus rien à — au monde, I had no hope left in this world. Ab. Du roi que faut-il qu'on espère? is there any hope of the king's recovering? C. Del. Nous devons tout — de la bonté de Dieu, we must hope every thing from the goodness of God. absol. Il n'est pas défendu d'—, to hope is not forbidden. Et j'entends une voix qui me dit d'—, and I hear a voice which bids me hope. Lamart. De ma vie je n'ai vu la cour, ni ne la verrai, j'espère. I never in my life saw the court, and I hope I never shall see it. J'espère que vous saurez venger l'amant avec le père, I hope you will avenge the lover with the father. Cora. Oh! qu'il est cruel de m'— plus! oh! how cruel it is to lose all hope! Rac.

ESPERER, vb. to hope, to trust, to be in hopes. — en Dieu, to trust in God. Je n'espère qu'en vous, my only hope is in you. N'espérons plus, mon âme, aux promesses du monde, let us put no more trust, O my soul, in the promises of the world. Malb. Hélas! puis-je — de vous revoir encore? alas I may I hope ever to see you again? Rac. Espère en ton courage, espère en ma promesse, trust to your valour, rely on my word. Cora. To attendais, to esperais aussi, you were waiting, you were expecting also. Muss.

ESPIEGLE, ays-pyagel, adj. mf. frolicsome, arch, wagging. Un enfant —, an arch little fellow. Une petite —, a sprightly lass.

ESPIEGLERIE, ays-pyagelub-ree, sf. frolic, trick, playfulness, roguish trick. Faire une —, to play a trick, trick.

ESPINGOLE, ays-pang-gol, sf. blunderbuss.

ESPION, ays-pyong, sm. fem. —NE, (Lat. inspicere) spy, female spy. Je ne veux point sans cesse devant moi on — de mes affaires, I will not have continually before me one who is for ever prying into my affairs. Mol. (by extension) Colbert avait des — pour découvrir le mérite caché ou naissant, C. had spies to discover concealed or rising merit. Fonten. fig. lam. Tromper l'—, to deceive, to mislead a person. fig. Cet homme ne se ruinera pas en —, that man is ignorant of what concerns him most.

ESPIONNAGE, ays-pyo-nazh, sm. espionnage. — domestique, domestic espionage.

ESPIONNER, ays-pyo-nay, ro. to spy (les ennemis, the enemy). Prenez garde à vous, on vous espionne, take care of yourself, you are watched. absol. Il ne fait qu'—, he does nothing but spy.

ESPLANADE, ays-plan-ade, sf. esplanade.

ESPOIR, ays-pwâr, sm. (Lat. sperare) hope, expectation. Doux —, pleasing hope. D'un — si charmant je me balais en vain, I flattered myself in vain with so pleasing a hope. Boil. Il doit porter ailleurs ses vœux et son —, he must bear elsewhere his wishes and his hopes. Rac. Un rayon d'—, a ray of hope. Millev. En vous est tout l'— de vos malheureux frères, you are the only hope of your unfortunate brethren. Rac. l'— d'un roi puissant, l'— the darling hope of a powerful king. V. Hug. Quittez le long —, renounce your hopes at a long date. La Font. Il n'a d'— qu'en vous, his only hope is in you. Caresser un —, to feed a hope. C'est là son dernier —, that is his last hope.

ESPONTON, ays-pong-long, sm. spontoon, half-pike.

ESPRIT, ays-pre, sm. (Lat. spiritus) 1 (substance incorporelle) spirit, ghost. — mortel, uncreated spirit. Le Saint —, l'— consolateur, l'— vivifiant, the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, the vivifying Spirit. L'ordre du Saint —, les chevaliers du Saint —, the order, the knights, the cross of the Holy Ghost. 2 (ange) spirit. — s célestes, heavenly spirits. — s bienheureux, spirits of the blessed, the blessed. 3 (mauvais anges, démons) spirit. — des ténèbres, spirit of darkness. Malin —, evil spirit, fiend. 4 (revenant) spirit, ghost. Avoir peur des —, to be afraid of ghosts. 5 — follet, goblin, bogie, bogie. 6 — familier, familiar spirit, genius. 7 (vertu, puissance surnaturelle) spirit. L'— de Dieu descendit sur eux, s'empara d'eux, the spirit of God moved them. Lu. — vit en nous et nous émeut, a spirit lives and works within us. La Font. 8 (don de Dieu) gift. L'— de prophétie, the gift of prophecy.

9 (l'âme) spirit, soul. Rendre l'—, to give up the ghost. En —, in spirit. To scrip. spirit. Marchez selon l'— et non selon la chair, walk according to the spirit and not according to the flesh. L'— est prompt et la chair est faible, the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

11 (intelligence) mind, intellect, understanding. Un grand —, a great mind. Un petit —, a narrow mind. — étendu, vaste, vast intellect. — crédule, credulous mind. Justesse d'—, soundness of mind. Présence d'—, presence of mind. Les dons de l'—, intellectual endowments, the gifts of the mind. Avoir l'— faux, to be of unsound mind. Appliquer, mettre, exercer, occuper, employer son — à quelque chose, to apply one's mind to a thing. Cultiver son —, to cultivate one's mind. Ôtez cela de votre —, get that out of your head. La Font. Ces pensées me fatiguent l'—, those thoughts weary my mind. Former l'— et le cœur d'un jeune homme, to form the mind and heart of a young man. L'— humain était son dieu, the human intelligence was his god. Lamart. S'emparer de l'— de quelqu'un, to gain an ascendancy over a person. Être bien dans l'— de quelqu'un, to be in a person's favour. 12 (attention) mind, wit. Où aviez-vous donc l'— quand vous avez fait cette question ? what could you be thinking of when you asked that question? prov. fig. Il a l'— aux talons, his brains are a wool-gathering.

43 (facilité de la conception, vivacité de l'imagination) wit. Il a beaucoup d'—, mais il manque de jugement. he has a great deal of wit, but he has no judgment. Avoir l'— vif, l'— pesant, lourd, to be quick-witted, to have a sprightly, heavy, dull mind. Un homme d'—, de beaucoup d'—, a witty, a clever man. Montrer de l'—, to show one's wit. Elle a de l'— comme un ange, she is as witty as an angel. Noli n'aura de l'— hors nous et nos amis, nobody will be allowed to hare wit, but we and our friends. Noli 44 (l'imagination seule) mind. Une idée bizarre me traversa l'—, a strange idea crossed my brain. Ab. Avoir l'— inventif, fecund, l'— stérile, to have an inventive, fertile, barren mind. Avoir au tour d'— agréable, to have an agreeable turn of mind. 45 (la conception seule) mind, art, fancy. Avoir l'— ouvert, l'— bouché, to be quick-witted, ready-witted, to have a dull mind. Il n'a pas eu l'— de m'entendre, he was not sharp enough to understand me. Il a promis de m'ouvrir l'— là-dessus, he has promised to enlighten me on that subject. M^{me} de Sév. 46 (le jugement seul) sense, judgment. Il n'a pas l'— de régler ses affaires, he has not the sense to regulate his affairs. C'est un brave garçon, mais il n'a pas l'— de se conduire, he is a good fellow, but he has no sense in the regulation of his conduct. 47 (pensée fine, ingénieuse, piquante) wit, humour. Une comédie pleine d'—, a comedy full of humour. Faire de l'—, to be witty. Courir après l'—, viser à l'—, to aim at being witty, to wish to be thought a wit, to seek for wit.

48 (honneur, caractère) mind, temper, disposition. doux, mild temper. — souple, flexible mind. — fâcheux, morose, cross-grained disposition. — dangereux, inquiet, broilant, dangerous, restless, blustering disposition. 49 (aptitude, motif, etc.) genius, turn, spirit. Avoir l'— des affaires, du commerce, to have a turn for business, for trade. — de paix, spirit of peace, peaceful spirit. Cet — d'examen qui a tout détruit, this spirit of examination which has destroyed every thing. Noli. — public, public opinion. — de corps, spirit of association. — de retour, hope of return. Avoir l'— de son âge, de son état, etc., to enter into the spirit of one's age, of one's profession, etc. — de vertige, spirit of infatuation. — du monde, worldly spirit. — national, national spirit.

20 (le sens d'un auteur, d'un texte) meaning, sense. Vous n'avez pas saisi l'— de cet auteur, you have not understood the meaning of this author. prov. La lettre tue et l'— vivifie, the letter killeth but the spirit giveth life. 21 (le caractère d'un auteur) spirit. Entrer dans l'— d'un auteur, to enter into the spirit of an author. 22 (idée sommaire) spirit, sense. Si ce n'est pas là le texte de sa lettre, c'en est du moins l'—, if that is not the text of his letter, it is at least the spirit of it. 23 (une personne considérée par rapport au caractère, au talent) mind, parts, wit, sense. C'est un bon —, he is a man of great sense. C'est un fort pauvre —, he is a man of very weak parts. M. et B. — vigoureux. M. and B. men of vigorous parts. Ph. Chas. ironie. Un bel —, a fine wit. Si vous savez comme les beaux — sont petits de près, if you know how little there is in those great wits when you examine them closely. M^{me} de Sév. Messieurs les beaux —, you wits. Flor. Une femme bel —, a blue stocking. Un — fort, a free-thinker. 24 —, pl. (réunion de personnes considérées par rapport aux passions) minds. Une grande fermentation règne maintenant dans les —, a great effervescence now reigns in the public mind. Echauffer, remuer, égarer les —, to inflame, to stir up, to lead astray men's minds. Calmer les —, to pacify men's minds. Il se fit une grande révolution dans les —, a great revolution took place in the minds of men.

25 anc. chem. — de soufre, de sel, spirits of sulphur, of salt. — volatil, volatile spirits. — de vin, spirits of wine.

26 —, pl. (petits corps subtils et invisibles) spirits. — vitaux, vital spirits. — animaux, animal spirits. La peur glace les —, fear makes the blood run cold. fig. Reprendre ses —, to recover one's senses, to come to one's self again.

27 Gr. gram. — rude, aspirate, hard, rough breathing. — doux, soft aspiration. 28 (arête de plumes) tuft of feathers.

ESQUIGHER, ays-ke-shay, m. (of cards) to forbear taking a trick by playing an inferior card.

ESQUICHER, vpr. 1 See ESQUICHER, 2 fig. to forbear giving an opinion, to forbear taking part in a broil.

ESQUIF, ays-kif, sm. skiff.

ESQUILLE, ays-ke-yuh, sf. (Gr.) sorg. splinter.

ESQUINAUX, ays-ke-mo, sm. pl. Esquimaux.

ESQUINANCIE, ays-ke-nang-see, sf. (Gr.) cynanche, quinsy.

ESQUINE, ays-keen, sf. man. (d'un cheval, of a horse) loins.

ESGINE, sf. bot. china-root.

ESQUIPOT, ays-ke-po, sm. thrift-box.

ESQUISSE, ays-kiss, sf. (It.) 1 paint. sketch, outline, rough draught. — au crayon, à la plume, au pinceau, sketch with the pencil, the pen, the brush. Tracer une —, to trace a sketch. Faire l'— d'un tableau, to make the sketch of a painting. 2 sculpt. rough-cast. 3 fig. (d'un ouvrage d'esprit, of a literary work) plan.

ESQUISSEUR, ays-ke-say, va. 1 paint. to sketch, to outline (une figure, a figure; un paysage, a landscape). — à grands traits, to dash off. 2 fig. (d'un ouvrage d'esprit, of a literary work) to sketch.

ESQUIVER, ays-ke-way, va. 1 to evade, to get out of the way. — un coup, to evade a blow. (intransitivement) Il passa son cheval contre moi, j'esquivaï adroitement, he pushed his horse against me, I skilfully slipped aside. 2 (by extension) (des personnes, des difficultés, etc.) to avoid, to shun, to elude. C'est un hapart que j'esquive autant que je peux, he is a troublesome fellow, whom I avoid as much as possible. Ce sont de fâcheuses occasions, il faut les —, those are sad occurrences, they must be avoided.

s'ESQUIVER, vpr. to slip away, to slink away. (avec ellipse du pron. pers., the pers. pron. being understood) Les petits en toute affaire esquivent fort aisément, the unimportant ones in an affair always find means to creep off. La Font.

ESSAI, ay-say, sm. 4 essay, trial. Faire l'— d'une machine, d'une arme, d'un remède, to try a machine, an arm, a remedy. Faire l'— de ses forces, to make a trial of one's strength. Ils résistèrent à m'en procurer un que je suppose être le premier — du genre, they succeeded in getting me one which I take to be the first production of the kind. Jacq. Prendre à l'—, donner à l'—, to take, to give on trial. Je vous conseille de prendre à l'— votre secrétaire, I advise you to take your secretary on trial. M^{me} de Sév. 2 (d'un métal, of a metal) assaying, assay, testing, touch. L'art des —, assaying. 3 (chantillon) sample. Envoyer des — de vin, to send sample-bottles of wine. 4 (première production) essay. Il faut encourager ce premier — d'un jeune homme, these first essays of a young man must be encouraged. Les — de ma plume, the essays of my pen. Boil. Faire l'— en petit d'un tableau, d'un bas-relief, to make a picture, a bas-relief on a reduced scale by way of trial. Coop d'—, first endeavour. Son coup d'— fut un coup de maître, his first essay was a master-piece. Faire son coup d'—, to make one's first trial, endeavour. 5 lit. essay. Les — de Montaigne, the essays of M.

ESSAIN, ay-sang, sm. 1 swarm. — d'abeilles, swarm of bees. 2 (by extension) (d'insectes, of insects) swarm, host. Un — de sauterelles s'abattit sur notre caution, a swarm of grasshoppers alighted on our caution. 3 fig. (folie) swarm, host. Derrière cet — d'ennemis, on apercevait leur camp, behind this host of enemies, their camp might be discovered. Chal. Quel — d'innombrables beautés! what a bevy of peerless beauties! Rac.

ESSAINER, ay-say-may, m. rur. eon. to swarm. Cette ruche a essaimé, this hive has swarmed. fig. L'Angleterre, cette ruche qui essaima sur l'univers et le civilisa, England, that hive which sends forth swarms over the universe, and civilizes it. Balz.

ESSANGER, ay-sang-zhay, va. to scour (du linge, linen).

ESSART, ay-sar, sm. agri. assart, grubbing up.

ESSARTEMENT, ay-sar-tuh-mang, sm. assart, grubbing, pulling up by the roots.

ESSARTER, ay-sar-tay, va. to grub, to assart, to pull up by the roots. — des bois, to clear woods.

ESSAYER, ay-say-yay, va. conjug. like PAYER, to try, to essay, to make a trial of. — un cheval, to try a horse. — une arme, to try an arm. — un habit, to try a coat. Vous voulez — ce bandeau sur mon front, you wish to try this head-band on me. Rac. Ses forces, to try one's strength. Essayez des ce jour l'effet de mes promesses, henceforth try the effect of my promises. Rac. — de l'or, de l'argent, to assay gold, silver. — (intransitivement) — d'une chose, d'une personne, to make a trial of a thing, of a person. Essayez du Schlegel, du Cousin, try your hand at Schlegel, at Cousin. Jacq. Nous voulons — de tous les métiers avant d'en choisir un, we want to try every trade before choosing one. Lamart. J'avais essayé de tout, I had tried every thing. Chât. Je connais ce remède, j'en ai essayé, I know that remedy, I have tried it. Prenez-le à votre service, essayez-en deux ou trois mois, take him into your service, try him two or three months. Ils allaient dans quelque coin obscur — du silence, they were going into some obscure retreat to taste the sweets of solitude. Ph. Chas.

ESSAYER, vn. to try, to endeavour, to attempt. Le voilà qui essaye de marcher, there he is, trying to walk. Mich. Essayez-y! just try! Avant de dire que vous ne pouvez pas faire cela, essayez, before you say you cannot do it, try.

s'ESSAYER, vpr. to try one's self. S'— à nager, to try one's self in swimming. fig. Un de ces hommes de génie que la nature s'essaye à produire, one of those men of genius whom nature tries her hand at producing. Noli.

ESSAYEUR, ay-say-yuhr, sm. tech. assayer.

ESSE, ays, sf. tech. 4 linch-pin. 2 (pour arracher les pierres) shoo. 3 (d'une balance, of scales) beam. 4 tech. mire-gauge, S hammer.

ESSEMINÉ, ay-say-me-nay, va. to scatter, to disperse. B. de St-P.

ESSENCE, ay-sang, sf. (Lat. essentia) 4 essence, L'— divine, the divine essence. L'— de l'esprit, c'est la pensée, thought is the essence of the mind. Desc. L'auteur dramatique n'observe point la nature humaine dans son —, the dramatic author does not observe human nature in its essence. Dar. Ce qui est de l'— d'un contrat, ce qui en forme l'—, the essence of a contract, what forms the essence of it. 2 woods and forests species. Un bois de chêne, an oak forest. 3 (hoile aromatique) essence. — de rosos, otto, attar of roses.

ESSENTIEL, ay-sâng-syail, adj. m. fem. — mf. 4 (qui appartient à l'essence) essential. La raison est —le à l'homme. reason is essential to man. Qualité —le, essential quality. 2 (indispensable) essential, indispensable, material. Condition —le, essential condition. Formalité —le, indispensable formality. C'est la —le point —, that is the essential point. Il est —le à faire cette démarche, it is absolutely necessary to take that step. 3 (important) Avoir à quelqu'un des obligations —les, to owe important obligations to a person. Un homme —, an ami —, a trusty man, a friend who can be depended upon. 4 med. Maladie —le, principal disease. 5 chem. pharmac. Huile —le, essential oil. 6 sm. (la chose principale) essential, grand, main point. Voilà l'— de l'affaire, that is the essential part of the business. Le plus — serait de trouver un moyen pour conserver les... the grand point would be to find a way to preserve, etc. De Brosse.

ESSENTIELLEMENT, ay-sâng-syail-màng, adv. 1 (par essence) essentially. Dieu est — juste, God is essentially just. 2 (heaucoup) essentially, greatly. Il m'avait obligé —, I am under the greatest obligations to him.

ESSETTE, ay-set, sf. tech. hammer-axe.

ESSEULÉ, ay-sub-lay, adj. m. fem. — mf. (little used) alone, lonesome, lone. Il est entièrement —, he is quite lonesome.

ESSIEU, ay-syuh, sm. (Lat. axis) axle, axle-tree.

ESSOR, ay-sor, sm. 4 soar, soaring, fight. Quand l'aigle prend son —, prend l'—, when the eagle soars aloft. Prendre l'—, to take wing. La Font. L'aube du jour arrive, les petits à l'—, at day-break the young ones flew away. La Font. 2 fig. flight, scope. Arrêter l'— du talent, to check the flight of genius, to cut the wings of genius. L'aube de la jeunesse, en prenant son —, essaye de tous les sentiments, youth, when once at liberty, tries every passion. Chat. Ce fut à ce moment que tous les arts prirent leur —, it was at that moment that all the arts sprang into life and vigour. Donner l'— à son esprit, à sa plume, to give free scope to one's wit, to one's pen. Donner l'— à son éloquence, to give full play to one's eloquence. 3 (d'une personne qui échappe à la contrainte) flight, swing. Il s'ennuyait et prit sou —, he got wearied, and went roaming abroad. St-B.

ESSORER, ay-so-ray, va. (du linge, linen) to dry in the open air.

ESSORILLÉ, ppa. of ESSORILLER, fem. — mf. crop-eared. Chien —, crop-eared dog.

ESSORILLER, ay-so-re-yay, va. (Lat. ex, os, oris) 4 to crop the ears, to cut the ears off. 2 fig. fam. to cut a person's hair short.

ESOUFFLÉ, ppa. of ESSOUFFLER, fem. — mf. adjective, out of breath. Être —, tout —, to be out of breath, quite out of breath.

ESOUFFLEMENT, ay-soof-luh-màng, sm. breathlessness, puffing and blowing.

ESOUFFLER, ay-soof-lay, va. to put out of breath, to blow. Cette course l'avait tout essoufflé, he had run himself quite out of breath. Faites en sorte de ne pas — mon cheval, take care that my horse be not winded.

ESOUFFLER, ppr. to put one's self out of breath, to get out of breath, to be blown.

ESSUI, ay-sue, sm. tech. drying-place.

ESSUIE-MAIN, sm. pl. ESSUIE-MAINS, towel.

ESSUYÉ, ppa. of ESSUYER, fem. — mf. Je ne suis pas encore du naufrage —, I have not yet recovered from my shipwreck. La Font.

ESSUYER, ay-suee-yay, va. irreg. ESSUYANT; ES-UYÉ; J'ESSUIE, nous ESSUYONS; J'ESSUYAIS, nous ESSUYIONS; J'ESSUYAI, nous ESSUYÂMES; J'ESSUYERAI, nous ESSUYERONS; J'ESSUYERAI, nous ESSUYERONS; ESSUIE, ESSUYONS, ESSUYEZ; QUE J'ESSUIE, QUE NOUS ESSUYIONS; QUE J'ESSUYASSE, QUE NOUS ESSUYASSIONS. (Lat. ex, sugere) 1 (dier l'eau, la poussière, etc.) to wipe, to wipe away. — ses mains à une serviette, avec un linge, to wipe one's hands on a napkin, with a cloth. La jeune mère essuyait son enfant tout en sueur, the young mother wiped her child who was all in a perspiration. — de la vaisselle, to wipe the plates. fig. — les larmes de quelqu'un, to dry up a person's tears. Cherchez quelque autre qui essuie vos larmes, look for somebody else to dry your tears. B. de St-P. 2 (du vent, du soleil, of the wind, the sun) (sèche) to dry, to dry up (les chemins, the roads). — fig. (subir, éprouver) to undergo, to endure, to sustain, to stand, to bear. — le feu d'une place, to be exposed to the fire of a place. — des pertes, to undergo, to sustain losses. — Il y avait beaucoup de dangers à —, there were many dangers to affront. Aug. Th. C. eut d'abord à — plus d'un dégoût, C. had more than one rebuff to endure. St-B. Je fus obligé d'— un très-long compliment, I had to listen to a very long address of flattery. La Sage. 3 (ne vous reste guère de malheur à —, you have nearly experienced all sorts of misfortune. La Sage. Si votre fortune essuyait quelque orage, if you were to meet with some reverse. C. Del. Sans songer qu'il m'exposait à — un refus, without reflecting that he made me run the risk of a refusal. La Sage. — l'humour de quelqu'un, to put up with the caprices of a person. Vous serez obligé d'— de la part des parents de mauvais procédés, you will be obliged to put up with the ill will of her relations. La Sage. — un échec, to sustain a loss, to meet with a repulse. Voilà ce que j'ai à — chaque jour, that is what I have to go through every day.

ESSUYER, ppr. 4 to wipe one's self. T. prit la main et s'en essuya les larmes qui venaient de jaillir de ses yeux, T. took the mitten and wiped with it the tears that had just gushed from her eyes. Saint. S'— les mains, le visage, to wipe one's hands, face. Vous êtes tout en sueur, essayez-vous, you are all in a perspiration, wipe yourself. 2 (essuyer à sec) to wipe.

EST, ayst, sm. 1 east, orient. Les pays qui sont à l'—, the countries which lie towards the east. Vent d'—, east wind, easterly wind. Le vent vient de l'—, le vent est à l'—, the wind lies in the east, is in the east. 2 (le vent) the east wind.

ESTACADE, ays-lak-ad, sf. stockade, estacade, boom (of a harbour).

ESTAFETTE, ays-taf-ayt, sf. (It.) estafette, express.

ESTAFIER, ays-taf-yay, sm. (It.) 4 anc. (domestique arné) staffier. 2 (by extension) (mauvais garnement) hector, bully.

ESTAFILADE, ays-taf-e-lad, sf. (It.) 1 (roopore) slash, cut, gash. 2 (déchirure) cut, rent.

ESTAFILADER, ays-taf-e-lad-ay, va. to slash, to cut, to gash.

ESTAIN, ays-lang, sm. naut. the lower part of the fashion piece of a stern.

ESTANE, ays-tam, sf. (Lat. stamen) worsted. Bas d'—, worsted stockings.

ESTANET, ays-tam-ay, sm. com. coarse woollen stuff.

ESTAMINET, ays-tam-e-nay, sm. smok- ing-room, lap-room. Pilier d'—, a set.

ESTAMPAGE, ays-tàng-pah, sm. 4 tech. (action) impression. 2 (by extension) (empreinte) impression.

ESTAMPE, ays-tàngp, sf. (It.) 1 print, engraving, cut. Livre d'—s, folio of engravings. 2 tech. stamp, punch, bolster.

ESTAMPER, ays-tàng-pay, va. (It.) 1 to stamp (la monnaie, money; le cuir, leather).

ESTAMPILLE, ays-tàng-pe-yuh, sf. 1 (marque qu'on imprime) stamp. 2 (de marchandises, of goods) stamp, mark, trade-mark. 3 (marque apposée à un livre) stamp. 4 (instrument) stamp.

ESTAMPILLER, ays-tàng-pe-yay, va. to stamp. Les fabricants ont raison de faire — leurs produits, manufacturers are right to mark their productions. Faire — ses livres, to have one's books stamped.

ESTAMPILLER, ppr. to be stamped, marked.

ESTAMPOIR, ays-tàng-pwâr, sm. tech. stamper.

ESTER, ays-tay, vn. (Lat. stare) law. — en jugement, to appear in court. Oh-so! — à droit, to appear before a judge upon a summons.

ESTERLIN, ays-tay-lang, sm. jewel. sterling.

ESTEUF, ays-tuh, sm. tennis-ball.

ESTHÉTIQUE, ays-tay-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) esthétique, æsthetic.

ESTHÉTIQUE, sf. æsthetics.

ESTIMABLE, ays-te-mabl', adj. mf. estimable. Avoir des qualités —s, to possess estimable qualities.

ESTIMATEUR, ays-te-mat-ubr, sm. 1 appraiseur. 2 (des choses morales) appraiseur, valuer.

ESTIMATIF, ays-te-mat-if, adj. m. estimative. Étal, devis —, estimate.

ESTIMATION, ays-te-mah-syng, sf. (Lat. valuation, estimation, estimate. Je m'en rapporte à l'— des experts, I abide by the estimation of the experts.

ESTIME, ays-teem, sf. 4 (opinion favorable) esteem. Avoir, sentir, concevoir, prendre de l'—, beaucoup d'—, bien de l'— pour quelqu'un, to entertain esteem, a high esteem for a person. Acquérir l'— publique, to rise in public esteem. Être perdu d'— et de réputation, to have lost esteem and reputation. Nul ne peut être heureux, s'il ne jouit de sa propre —, none can be happy, if he has not his own esteem. J.-J. Rousseau. Son caractère m'inspire de l'—, la plus haute —, I entertain the highest esteem for his character. 2 (grand cas que l'on fait de certaines choses) esteem. La force physique est en grande — chez ce peuple, physical strength is highly valued by that people. 3 naut. reckoning, dead-reckoning.

ESTIMÉ, ppa. of ESTIMER, fem. — mf. 4 (évalué) valued, estimated. 2 (qui jouit de l'estime) esteemed. Les savants sont très—s dans votre pays, in your country you set a great value upon learned men. Ab. 3 (des choses, of things) valued. 4 (réputé) esteemed, considered, deemed. Pitthée, — sage entre tous les humains. Pittheus, considered the wisest of men. Rac.

ESTIMER, ays-te-may, va. (Lat. æstimare) 4 (évaluer) to appraise, to value, to estimate, to rate. Combien estimez-vous cette bague? how much do you value this ring at? Il possède bien peu pour la payer ce qu'il l'estime, he has very little to pay it what he thinks it is worth. Saint. Je ferai — ces meubles, I will have this furniture appraised. 2 (faire cas, avoir de l'estime) to esteem. To value, to prize. Il se fait — de tout le monde, he obtains the esteem of every body. Je ne l'estime plus assez pour l'aimer, I no longer esteem her enough to love her. Nod. Nous l'estimeons plus s'il était innocent, we should esteem him the more if he were innocent. La Font. J'eus le bonheur de lui elter les passages qu'il estimait davan-tage. 1 was lucky enough to point out to him the parts he deemed the best.

Le Sage. L'estime son mérite, sa vertu, son courage. 1 esteem him merit, virtues, courage. On estime beaucoup les vins de France, a great value is set on French wines. 3 (conjecturer, présager) to deem, to consider, to account, to reckon. Il estimait cette place imprenable, he considered that place impregnable. L'estime que cela est, 1 account it is so. L'estime que je resterai on mois en route. 1 reckon 1 shall be a month on the way.
S'ESTIMER, vpr. 1 to esteem one's self.
Souvent on s'estime trop, one often over-values one's self. Laissez-le s'— pour qu'il soit estimable, let him hold himself in esteem, in order to make himself estimable. C. Del. 2 recipr. to esteem each other. 3 (se croire) to esteem, to consider, to deem, to account one's self. Il s'estimait — heureux d'avoir la vie saine, I was to deem myself happy in having served my life. Ad. R. s'estimait assez recompense, R. deemed herself sufficiently rewarded. Rac. Je m'estime trop peu pour on si grand honneur, 1 deem myself of too little account for so great an honour. Corn.

ESTISEUSES, ays-te-suhz, sf. pl.
tech. rod of the warp beam.

ESTIVAL, ays-te-val, adj. m. fem.
— 6. 1 bot. Fleurs — es, estral flowers.

ESTOC, ays-tok, sm. 1 auc. (épée) luck.

2 (la pointe d'une épée, d'un sabre) point.
Frapper d'— et de laille, to cut and thrust.
(by extension) Un maris s'arma d'un vi-ron et frappa d'— et de taille sur notre assaillant, a seaman armed himself with an oar, and laid about with it on our assaillant. Arag. fig. Un tableau que de mon — j'attribue au Titien, a picture that from mine own authority I attribute to the Titien. De Bross. 3 woods and forests.
(tronc d'arbre) trunk, stock. Couper un arbre à blanc —, to cut a tree down to the root; || fig. Être réduit à blanc —, to be done for, done up. obsol. Bria d'—, quarter-staff. 4 fig. obsol. (ligne d'ex-traction) stock, family. Une petite fille qui est un peu ferve de son —, mais les millions nous paraissent de bonne maison, a little girl who is of a money getting family, but we think her fortune is of good extraction. M^{me} de Sev.

ESTOCADÉ, ays-to-kad, sf. 1 fenc.
stoccadé, lunge, thrust, pass. Allonger une —, to give a thrust. 2 fig. obsol.
(demande imprévue) unexpected attack.

ESTOMAC, ays-to-mah, sm. (Lat. stomachus) 1 stomach. Se remplir l'—, to fill one's stomach. prov. fig. Il n'a — d'autre chose, c'est on — d'autre chose, il digérerait le fer, he could digest even iron.
2 (la partie extérieure) stomach. Le creux de l'—, the pit of the stomach. 3 (dans les volailles, etc. breast.

S'ESTOMAKER, ays-to-mak-ay, vpr.
fam. to take effort.

ESTOMPE, ays-tonpé, sf. 1 draw.
stump. Dessin à l'—, stump-drawing.

ESTOMPEL, ays-tonpé, ra. draw. to stump.

ESTOUFFADE, ays-too-fad, sf. culin. estouffade, stew. Veau, poutin à l'—, stewed red, partridge.

ESTRADE, ays-trad, sf. (It.) war. 1 (chemin) road. Battre l'—, to beat up the country. Battre d'—, scout. Se batteur. (by extension) Battre d'—, loiter.
2 (petite élévation sur le plancher d'une chambre, platform, estrade.

ESTRAGON, ays-trag-on, sm. bot.
tarragon. Sance à l'—, tarragon sauce.

ESTRAMAÇON, ays-tram-ab-sou, sm.
(It.) two-edged sword.

ESTRAPADE, ays-trap-ad, sf. (It.) 1 drappado. Donner l'—, to give the strap-pado. 2 (espèce de potence) gibbet for the strappado. 3 Double, triple —, double, triple leap. 4 man. estrapade. 5 tech. spring lool.

ESTRAPASSER, ays-irah-pâ-say, ra.
man. to overwork.

ESTROPE, ays-trop, sf. naot. strop.

ESTROPER, ays-tro-pay, ra. naot. lo strop (a block).

ESTROPIÉ, ppa. of ESTROPIER, fem.
— 6. 1 lame, crippled, maimed. Être d'un bras, d'une jambe, to be lame of an arm, of a leg. Il fit une chute de cheval et il en est demeuré —, he got a fall from his horse and was made a cripple.
Le malheureux lion par l'âge — peut à peine agir, the wretched lion disabled by old age can scarcely roor. La Font.
fig. Pensée —, lame thought. Ils trouveraient leurs noms — s de mille manitières, they would find their names manitières in a thousand different ways. Montesq. 2 point. Figure —, crippled figure.

ESTROPIER, ays-tro-pay, ra. 1 to lame, to cripple, to maim, to disable. Il a reçu dans le bras on coup de feu qui l'a estropié, he received in his arm a shot which maimed him. (hyperb.) Les serrements de mains dont on vous estrope, that shaking of hands which crushes your fingers. Regn. 2 (by extension) (des maladies) to cripple. Une paralysie l'a complètement estropié, paralysis has completely crippled him. fig. — un uom pro-pre, les mots d'une langue, to mangle a proper name, the words of a language.
fig. — on passage, une pensée, to mutilate a passage, a thought. 3 point.
sculpt. une figure, to cripple a figure;
|| to mutilate, to botch a figure.

S'ESTROPIER, ays-tro-pay, to cripple, to maim, to lame one's self.

ESTURGEON, ays-lûr-zhong, sm. ich.
sturgeon.

ESULE, ays-zûl, sf. bot. esula, spurge.

ET, ay, conj. (Lat. et) 1 and. Le père — la mère, the father and mother. Cet homme à la fois rude — bon, imployable — sensible, that man at once rude and kind, hard and kind-hearted. Saint. Les plaintes, les regrets — les pleurs sont perdus, complaints, regrets and tears are in vain. Volt. On ne parle que de pinceaux, d'ombres — de couleurs, d'images, de tableaux, nothing is spoken of but pencils, shades and colours, images, pictures.
La Har. 2 (joint les membres d'une période) and. Il m'a prit cette nouvelle — se retira, he gave me this information and withdrew. Il se donne beaucoup de mal — ne réussit à rien, he gives himself a world of trouble and succeeds in nothing.
Levez-vous — vivez — voyez qui je suis, get up and live, and behold who I am. La-mart. 3 (emphatic or expletive) and, both.
— le riche — le pauvre, — le faible — le fort, both rich and poor, both weak and strong. Volt. — véritablement on ne saurait nier, and really it cannot be denied. Assez — trop longtemps mon amité l'accable, too much and too long have I burdened thee with my friendship. Rac.
— je vis — je soutiens la vue de ce sacré soleil, I live, ay, support the light of this sacred sun. Rac. Vous me voulez offrir — la vie — l'empire, you come to offer me both life and the empire. Rac. Vous de nos rois — la mère — la sœur, you at once the mother and the sister of our kings. Rac. Mais lui, voyant on moi la fille de son frère, me tint lieu — de père — de mère, but he, seeing me the daughter of his brother, served me both as father and mother. Rac. — voilà que tout d'un coup, and lo! all at once. — vous osez me dire cela, à moi! and you are so bold as to say that, to me! — si mon ancien amour me revenait, and if my former love were to return. — je lui céderais, and I should yield to him. — (punctant, and yet.
— voilà que, and so. — de boire — de rire, the affair was terminated by a good dinner, a good laugh. 4 (de plus, en outre) — et cet autre imbécile qui vient me dire que, and that other idiot who comes to tell me that. — toi, prends ton chapeau, and so for you, take your hat. 5 — caterra, et caterra, and so on, and so forth. Voilà tout ce qu'il vous faut pour écrire, du papier, des plumes, — caterra, there you have all the writing materials, paper, pens, etc. (substantif) et caterra.

ETABLAGE, ay-tab-lazh, sm. stabling.
ETABLE, ay-tah!, sf. (Lat. stabulum)
1 stable. 2 — bœufs, 3 vaches, ox-stall, cow-house. 4 — cochons, pig-sty, hog-sty. 2 aut. France —, collision.

ETABLER, ay-tab-laj, ra. to stable.

ETABLI, ay-tah-lé, ppa. of ETABLER,
fem. — 6. 1 adjectif. 1 fixé. Fondements solidement — 5, foundations solidly laid.
Ville — e sur une colline, a town situated on a hill. Mar hier — sur le roc, a wall firmly fixed in the rock. Table bien — e sur ses pieds, a table firmly set upon its feet;
|| fig. Une fortune bien — e, a fortune resting on a solid basis. fig. Un pouvoir bien
—, a firmly established power. fig. Être bien — à la cour, dans une maison, to have a firm footing at the court, to be well settled in a house. 2 (qui a fixé son domicile) settled. Certain couple d'amis en un bourg — possédait quelque bien, a certain couple of friends established in a borough possessed some property. La Font.
3 (constitué, institué) established. Le gouvernement —, the established government. fig. Il faut en revenir à la loi par le ciel — e, we must refer to the law established by H. aven. La Font. Contame — e, an established custom. 4 fig. (d'une fille marlée) settled. Sa fille est bien — e, his daughter has made a good match. 5 fig.
(prouvé) proved, shown. 6 fig. (dresse) drawn up. Un compte bien —, an account well drawn up.

ETABLI, sm. bench, board.

ETABLER, ay-tab-léer, ra. (Lat. stabi-lire) 1 (asseoir, fixer) to lay, to fix. — les fondements d'un édifice, to lay the foundations of an edifice. fig. Il établit le siège de l'empire à Constantinople, he fixed the seat of the empire at C. — sa demeure, son domicile, sa résidence en tel lieu, to fix one's residence in such a place. Dois-je dans la province — mon séjour? shall I settle down in a province?
La Font. 2 fig. to fix, to settle, to establish. Il établit la richesse de l'Etat sur le bien-être du citoyen, he bases the riches of the country on the welfare of the citizen. Ph. Citas. Bien — sa fortune, son crédit, to establish one's credit, one's fortune well. — sa réputation, to establish one's reputation. 3 (installer, placer) to set, to fix. — un camp, to pitch a camp. — une boutique, to set up a shop.
— une machine, to construct a machine.
4 fig. — des communications, des moyens de communication, de correspondance entre deux villes, to establish communications, means of communication, of correspondence between two towns. 5 fig. (mettre dans un état, dans un emploi avantageux) to settle. Ce père a bien établi tous ses enfants, that father has settled all his children well. — une fille, to settle, to marry a daughter. 6 (fonder) to establish, to found (une colonie, une manufacture, etc., a colony, a manufactory, etc.). 7 (constituer, instituer) to establish, to institute, to appoint. 8 fig. (des lois, des opinions, etc.) to establish. Il n'établis-sait pas mieux le bon ordre que ceux qui, etc. he could not establish good order better than those, etc. Bar. — une loi, one custom, to establish a law, a custom. On a établi que, it est — que, it is generally allowed that. 9 fig. (fixer, dé-terminer) to fix, to settle. Des arbitres établissaient les premières propriétés, arbitrators were settling the limits of the first estates. Chat. — des principes, to lay down principles. 10 fig. (à un compte, of an account) to make up. 11 fig. (prouver, démontrer) to make good, to prove.

— un fait, to state a fact.
S'ÉTABLI, vpr. 1 to place one's self, to settle one's self down. Il s'établit dans un fauteuil et s'endormit, he ensconced himself in an arm-chair and went to sleep. fig. Une correspondance régulière s'établit entre eux, a regular correspondence took place between them. Un nouveau silence s'établit, a fresh pause ensued. Nod. Le silence de l'attente s'établit à son aspect, at his sight silent expectation prevailed. Lamart. 2 fig. (particul.) to settle, to fix one's residence. Un avoué qui veut être à la mode s'établit à grands frais dans les plus beaux quartiers, a solicitor who wishes to be in fashion takes up an expensive residence in the finest quarters. Litien. 3 fig. (se marier, prendre un état) to settle, to set up. 4 (être fondé, constitué) to be established, founded. 5 (se constituer) to constitute one's self, to set up for. S'— juge d'un différend, to constitute one's self judge in a dispute. 6 fig. (des usages, des doctrines, etc., of customs, doctrines, etc.) to be established. Il s'établit une coutume, a custom grew up. Cette idée s'est — e sur toute la terre, that idea has implanted itself throughout the universe. Mass.

ÉTABLISSEMENT, ay-tab-lis-màng, sm. 1 establishment, creation, settlement. Frais de premier —, first expenses. fig. L'— d'une législation, d'une doctrine nouvelle, the establishment of a legislation, of a new doctrine. Il doit à cet ouvrage l'— de sa réputation, he owes his reputation to that work. L'— d'un fait, d'un droit, the stating of a fact, of a right. L'— d'une question, the stating of a question. war. L'— des quartiers, cantonnement, setting of the quarters. naut. L'— d'un port, d'une baie, the time of high water at new or full moon in a port, in a gulf. — des marées, time of high water in the principal sea-ports. 2 (ce qui est établi pour l'utilité publique) establishment. — public, public establishment. — d'utilité publique, establishment of public utility. Fermer on —, to shut up an establishment. 3 (by extension) (règle de lois) Les —s de Saint-Louis, the regulations of St-Louis. 4 fig. (état, condition) situation, place, settlement. 5 fig. (action de procurer un état, une position) settling. Il s'est donné beaucoup de peine pour l'— de ses enfants, he has given himself a great deal of trouble for the settling of his children. 6 (mariage) settlement. Sa fille a fait on fort bel —, his daughter has made a very good marriage.

ÉTAGE, ay-tazh, sm. 1 story, floor. Le premier, le second, le troisième, le quatrième —, the first, second, third, fourth floor, story. — bas, low story. Il bâtit des — sur des —, he piled up stories upon stories. Nod. 2 (d'une maison où il n'y a que le rez-de-chaussée) floor. 3 (by analogy) (rang de choses) row, tier. Disposer par —s, to arrange by rows. Une coiffure à double, à triple —, a head-dress composed of two, of three tiers. fig. Avoir un menton à double —, à triple —, to have a double, a triple chin; à fig. C'est un sot à triple —, he is an egregious fool. 4 fig. (degré d'élevation) degree. Il y a des esprits de divers —s, de tout —, there are minds of different degrees, of every degree. 5 fig. (particul.) (rang dans la société) degree, quality. Des gens de bas —, de haut —, people of low degree, of high degree.

ÉTAGER, ay-tazh-ay, va. to place in rows one above the other. P. étagé au sommet de la colline ses maisons de pierre, the stone-built houses of P. rise one above the other on the summit of the hill. Th. Gaut. Il faut lui — les cheveux, his hair must be tapered.

S'ÉTAGER, vpr fig. to be placed in rows one above another.

ÉTAGERE, ay-tazh-ayr, sf. set of shelves, what not.

ÉTAI, ay-tay, sm. 1 stay, shore, prop, support. 2 naut. étay. — du grand mât, grand —, main-stay. — de missine, fore-stay. —s des mâts de hune, de perroquet, d'artimon, main-top-stay, top-gallant-sail-stay, misen-stay. Voile d'—, stay-sail. Faux —, preventer stay.

ÉTAÎN, ay-tang, sm. corded wood.
ÉTAÏN, ay-tang, sm. (Lat. stannum) pewter. tin. Vaisselle, cuiller d'—, pewter plates, pewter spoon. Nine d'—, tin mine.

ÉTAÏL, ay-tal, sm. pl. ÉTAUX, 1 stall, butcher's stall. 2 (la boutique) shop, butcher's shop.

ÉTALAGE, ay-tal-azh, sm. 1 show of goods, exposure for sale. Mettre à l'—, to expose for sale. L'— d'un marchand, a tradesman's shop-window. 2 (droit) stallage. 3 fig. (in joke) (toilette) show, display. 4 fig. (parade) show, display, ostentation. Faire — de son esprit, de son éloquence, de ses richesses, to make a display of one's wit, eloquence, riches. Un grand — d'érudition, a great display of erudition. Faire de l'—, un grand —, to make a show, a great show.

ÉTALAGISTE, ay-tal-azh-ist, adj. and sm. Marchand —, stall-keeper. (substantif.)

ÉTALER, vpr. of ÉTALER, spread out. Sa queue en étalache — e, his tail spread out as a plume, La Font.

ÉTALER, ay-tal-ay, va. 1 (exposer en vente) to expose for sale, to show, to hang out (des marchandises, goods). alsol. Ce marchand n'a pas encore étalé, that tradesman has not exposed his goods in his shop-window yet. fig. — sa marchandise, to make a parade of one's acquisition, of one's acquisitions. 2 (étendre, déployer) to spread out, to lay out. — une carte de géographie, to spread out a map. Ses pistoles qu'il étala sur un table, his pistoles which he spread out on the table. Le Sage. Étaler ces bijoux ain qu'on les voie mieux, lay out these jewels that we may have a better view of them. fig. Il avait étalé devant lui tous les préjugés, toutes les erreurs, he had laid before his eyes all the prejudices, all the errors. Lamart. Elle voit les dangers à l'avance et les étale sans se laisser décourager, she foresees all dangers and shows them without being daunted. St-B. 3 — son jeu, to spread one's cards on the table. 4 fig. (montrer avec ostentation) to show, to display. Il fallait — le luxe et la dépense, it was necessary to make a great display of luxury. Bail. Ils étalèrent plus d'indifférence que de caractère, pour, they displayed greater indifference than resolution, for. Le Sage. La jaloux d'— une douleur stérile, here, eager to display a sterile grief. Le Sage.

S'ÉTALER, vpr. 1 to stretch one's self out, to lie sprawling. S'— sur l'herbe pour se reposer, to stretch one's self out on the grass to rest. Il est tombé et s'est étalé par terre tout de son long, he fell and lay sprawling on the ground. A. s'étalant sur la banquette, A. loling on the bench. Nod. 2 fig. Il s'étalait d'abord et partout dans toute la splendeur de son esprit, he paraded his wit on every occasion. St-B.

ÉTALIER, ay-tal-ay, adj. and sm. journeyman butcher. Garçon —, butcherman, butcher's boy.

ÉTALINGUE, ay-tal-ang-gay, va. naut. — un câble, to bend, to tie a cable.

ÉTALINGURE, ay-tal-ang-gür, sf. naut. clinch.

ÉTALON, ay-tal-ong, sm. (It. stallone) stallion.

ÉTALON, sm. standard. — de mètre, de litre, standard of the metre, of the litre.

ÉTALONNAGE, ay-tal-on-azh, ÉTALONNEMENT, ay-tal-on-diàng, sm. stamping, setting.

ÉTALONNER, ay-tal-on-ay, va. 1 (im primer certaine marque sur un poids) to stamp, to seal. 2 (dans les haras) to serve, to horse.

ÉTALONNEUR, ay-tal-on-nür, sm. inspector of weights and measures.

ÉTANAGE, ay-tam-azh, sm. 4 tinning. 2 (d'une place) plating, quicksilvering, silvering.

ÉTANBOT, ay-tàng-bo, sm. naut. stern-post.

ÉTAMBRAI, ay-tàng-bray, sm. naut. the partners of a mast.

ÉTANER, ay-tam-ay, va. to tin. — une casserole, to tin a saucepan. — une glace, un miroir, to silver a looking-glass.

ÉTANEUR, ay-tam-ült, sm. 4 tinner, tinker. 2 silverscr.

ÉTAMINE, ay-tam-oen, sf. (Lat. stamen) 1 (étouffe) bolting-cloth. 2 (tissu peu serré de crin, etc.) tamine, tanning, stamin. fig. Passer par l'—, to pass through the ordeal; to be carefully sifted. ÉTAMINE, sf. bol. stamen.

ÉTANNIER, ay-tam-e-nyay, sm. tech. tanning weaver.

ÉTAMPER, ay-tàng-pay, va. tech. — un fer de cheval, to punch a horse-shoe.

ÉTANURE, ay-tou-ür, sf. tinning, tinfoil, foil-tin.

ÉTANCHE, ay-tàngsh, adj. mf. Navire —, tight ship.

ÉTANCHÈMENT, ay-tàngsh-màng, sm. stopping, stanching, quenching, staking.

ÉTANCHER, ay-tàngsh-ay, va. 1 to stop, to stanch, to quench, to slake. — le sang, to stanch the blood. — la soif, to quench, to slake one's thirst. De l'eau toute pure étanche sa soif, he quenches his thirst with pure water. Boss. fig. — la soif des bonheurs, des richesses, etc., to quench one's thirst for honours, riches, etc. 2 naut. to stop (a leak).

ÉTANÇON, ay-tàng-song, sm. 4 wall, stanchion. 2 shore, stay, prop.

ÉTANÇONNER, ay-tàng-so-nyay, va. to shore up, to prop, to underprop (une muraille, a wall).

ÉTANFICHE, ay-tàng-fish, sf. min. quarry-sitram.

ÉTANG, ay-tàng, sm. pond, pool. Ouvrir, lâcher, fermer la boude d'un —, to open, to shut the sluice of a pond. Peuplier un —, to stock a pond with fish.

ÉTANT, ay-tàng, vpr. of ÊTRE, La ville — prise, nous y établines une garnison, the town being taken, we placed a garrison in it. Une dispute s'— élève entre eux, a dispute having arisen among them.

COMME ÉTANT, adv. loc. as being. Il s'empara de la succession, comme — son plus proche parent, he laid hands on the inheritance as being the nearest relation.

TOUT EN ÉTANT, adv. loc. though. Tout en — très-belle, cette femme ne me plait pas —, very handsome, that woman does not please me.

ÉTAPÉ, ay-tap, sf. (Ger. stapeln) 1 mil. (provision de vivres, etc.) rations, allowance. 2 (lien) halting-place, station. Arriver à l'—, to arrive at the halting-place. fig. Brûler l'—, to pass through without stopping. 3 (by analogy) (endroit où l'on s'arrête en voyage) halting-place. Dans mon itinéraire, j'ai marqué scrupuleusement les —s, in my itinerary, I have minutely marked the halting-places. Chat. 4 (distance entre deux étapes) stage. 5 obsol. (ville de commerce) mart.

ÉTAPIER, ay-tap-ay, sm. distributor of rations.

ÉTAT, ay-tap, sm. (Lat. status) 1 (disposition, situation) state, condition, position, situation. — d'innocence, state of innocence. — de maladie, de faiblesse, de souffrance, state of disease, of weakness, of suffering. Que vous semble, mes sœurs, de l'— où nous sommes? what do you think, sisters, of the state we are in? Rac. Beaucoup de ces insectes restent à l'— d'aël, many of these insects never come out of the egg. Mich. Ses goûts l'avaient retenu à l'— de spectateur, his inclinations had limited him to the category of spectators. Sie-B. Vous n'êtes pas en — de passer comme nous les monts et les déserts, you are not like us made to cross mountains and deserts. La Font. Voilà M. de Pomponne en — d'être envié, so now M. de P. is in an enviable position. M^{re} de Sév. Que feriez-vous de ce pauvre garçon, il n'est pas en — de soutenir la conversation, what would you do with that poor fellow? he is not in a condition to keep up the conversation. Le Sage. Nous nous en retournerons chez nos maîtres en bon —, c'est-à-dire entre deux vins, we returned to our masters in a nice condition, that is, half-ways over. Le Sage. Mettre une place en — de défense, to put a place in a state of defence. Une maison en bon —, en mauvais —, a house in good repair, out of repair. L'— normal du ciel, c'est la nuit, the normal state of Heaven is night. V. Hog. Examiner l'— des liex, to examine the premises. Ses affaires sont dans un très-mauvais —, his affairs are in a very bad condition. Le reste de mon argent servit à nous mettre en — de faire grosse figure dans le pays, the rest of my money served to enable us to cut a figure in the country. Le Sage. Les voilà dans l'— d'importantes personnes, there they are become important personages. Vol. L'— de nature, the state of nature. L'— de la question, the state of the question. — du ciel, state of the stars. Tenir une chose en —, to keep a thing ready, in readiness. Tenir nu compte en —, to be ready with an account. Mettre les liex en —, to put premises into repair. Lui. Mettre un procès, une affaire en —, to bring a lawsuit, an affair to issue. Tenir les choses en —, to leave things as they are. Toutes choses demeurant en —, every thing being in statu quo. law. — de prevention, commitment. — d'accusation, indictment. Faire —, to think highly of, to have a regard for, a high regard for. Je fais beaucoup d'—, peu d'— de cet homme-là, I have a high regard, a very slight regard for that man. Je fais peu d'— de ses menaces, I care but little for his threats; || Faire —, to intend, to purpose. Je fais — de partir tel jour, I intend setting out on such a day; || Faire —, to rely on, to make sure of. Faites — de cet homme, rely upon that man.

2 (liste, registre) list, register. L'— des officiers de la maison d'un prince, the list of the officers of a prince's household. — des pensions, pension-list. — de distribution, list of distribution. 3 (memoire, inventaire) inventory, account, statement. Et sa l'— d'un charbonnier fut couchée tout le premier, in the inventory of a coal-heaver he was inscribed the first. La Font. — de liex, inventory of the fixtures. — de frais, account of expenses. Arrêter, signer un —, to stop, to sign an account. — de France, d'Angleterre, the English, the French establishment. 4 — major, officers; || staff. — major général, general staff. Chef d'— major, brigade major. — major de l'artillerie, du genie, staff of the artillery, engineering staff. — major des places, garrison staff. Corps de l'— major, staff. 5 — major, (lieu) staff-office. 6 (de la manière de vivre) establishment, state. Tenir un grand —, to keep up a large establishment. Vous prétendez tenir — de prince, you pretend to live like a prince. Avoir un grand — de maison, to have a large establishment. 7 (profession, condition) profession, calling, state, condition. — de mariage, marriage state. Homme de pauvre mine et de petit —, a poor-looking man and of a low profession. Bar. D'où vient que personne en la vie n'est satisfait de son —? how is it that nobody in the world is satisfied with his condition? La Font. Il y a en France trois sortes d'—s, l'Eglise, l'Épée et la robe, there are in France three professions, the church, the army and the law. Montesq. Vivre selon son —, to live according to one's condition. L'— civil d'une personne, l'— d'une personne, the social state of a person. Question d'—, disputed birthright. Actes de l'— civil, registres de l'— civil, certificates, registers of births, deaths, marriages. Officier de l'— civil, registrar. Fr. rev. Le tiers —, the third Estate. Les députés du tiers —, the deputies of the third Estate. 8 (particul.) (métier) trade, business. L'— de menuisier, the trade of a joiner. Apprendre un —, to learn a business. 9 (la forme du gouvernement) state. — monarchique, monarchical state. Les enfants commencent entre eux par un — populaire, children begin among themselves by a popular state. La Bruy. L'avantage d'un — libre est que les revenus y sont mieux administrés, the advantage of a free state is that its revenues are better administered. Montesq. 10 (le gouvernement) state. Ministre d'—, minister of state. Secrétaire d'—, secretary of state. Michélieu prit les rênes de l'—, R. assumed the reins of the state. Fléch. Un homme d'—, a statesman. Affaire d'—, state affair; || fig. La moindre chose est pour lui une affaire d'—, he makes mountains of a mole hill. Raison d'—, the interest of the state. Coop d'—, Sec. coop. 41 (peuple constitué en forme de nation) state. Servir l'—, to serve the state. Les lois fondamentales de l'—, the fundamental laws of the state. Leurs enfants seront élevés aux frais de l'—, their children will be brought up at the expense of the state. Le bien, la gloire de l'—, the welfare, the glory of the state. 42 (pays soumis à une même domination) state, territory, pl. dominions. Un grand —, a great empire. Étendre les bornes de l'—, to extend the limits of the state. Les — du Grand Seigneur, the Turkish empire, the Ottoman empire. Les petits —s de l'Allemagne et de l'Italie, the small states of Germany and Italy. 43 Les —s-Unis, the United States. L'— ecclésiastique, the papal state. anc. Les —s, l'— de Venise, de Toscane, the state of Venice, of Tuscany. 44 —s, pl. (assemblée des différents ordres d'un royaume) states. En Suède, toute la puissance était alors entre les mains des —s, in Sweden, the whole power then resided in the hands of the states. Raya. (in France) Les —s généraux, absol. les —s, the States General. Les —s de Blois, d'Orléans, de Tours, etc., the states of Blois, Orléans, etc. —s provinciaux, provincial states.

ÉTAU, ay-to, sm. tech. vice. fig. J'avais d'esprit serré, le cœur dans un —, I felt a weight on my mind, and my heart was as if within the grasp of a vice. Beaum. — à main, hand-vice. ÉTAYER, pp. of ÉTAYER, fem. —E. Le château, — à plusieurs endroits, menaçait ruine, the mansion, shored up in several places, threatened ruin. Le Sage. Sa fortune chancelle, elle a besoin d'être —, his fortune is tottering, it wants propping up. Une philosophie —e d'un peu de richesse et d'aisance, a philosophy resting on a little wealth and comfort. J.-B. Rouss.

ÉTAYEMENT, ay-tay-yuh-ming, sm. shoring up, staying, propping.

ÉTAYER, ay-tay-yay, ra. conj. like ETAYER, (from étai) to shore up, to stay, to prop, to support (une maison, une muraille, a house, a wall). fig. Apuës d'elle habitait une jeune parente qu'elle avait élevée pour — sa vieillesse, with her lived a young female relative whom she had brought up to be a support in her old age. Lamart.

ÉTÉ, pp. of ÊTRE, been.

ÉTÉ, ay-tay, sm. (Lat. aestas) summer. Être en —, to be in summer. Senecote d'—, six summer months, summer season. fig. Être dans son —, to be in one's prime. L'— de la Saint-Denis, l'— de la Saint-Martin, latter end of autumn.

ÊTEIGNIR, ay-tay-pywar, sm. extinguish. fig. La science chagrine est l'— des sentimens, morose science is a damper to sentiment. Volt.

ÊTEINDRE, ay-tangdr', va. (Lat. extinguere) 1 to extinguish, to put out, to blow out — du feu, to extinguish, to put out a fire. — une bougie, to blow out a candle. Il retire sa pipe de sa bouche, il l'éteint, il la secoue, he takes his pipe from his mouth, he puts it out, shakes it. Saint. fig. Tant de sang n'a point éteint la rage du seigneur, so much blood spilt has not yet satisfied the rage of the landlord. Flor. 2 (by extension) (amortir, tempérer) to quench, to slacken, to slake, to cool. — de la chaleur, to slacken time. — l'ardeur de la fièvre, to cool the heat of the fever. Cela éteint la chaleur naturelle, that destroys the natural heat. N'y a-t-il rien pour — le feu qui me dévore? will nothing quench the burning fire within me? Ab. 3 fig. (des passions, etc.) of passions, etc.) to extinguish, to quench, to cool, to allay, to stifle, to damp. Rien ne peut l'ambition dans le bon sens, nothing can root out ambition in men. Boss. Quelques mois avaient éteint en vous ces haines, a few months had cooled your hatred. Saint. Une passion que le temps doit —, a love that time will destroy. Cette chicane subalterne qui éteint le cœur, this pettyfogging discussion which withers all affection: Lamart. Ce mot éteignit son courroux, this word appeased his anger. Cela éteint le feu de l'imagination, la vivacité de l'esprit, that damps the fire of the imagination, the vivacity of the mind. 4 fig. (de guerres, of war) to extinguish, to put down, to stifle. — une rébellion, une sédition, to put down a rebellion, an insurrection. Il parvint à — une guerre qui commençait d'embraser toute l'Europe, he succeeded in putting an end to a war which threatened to set fire to all Europe. 5 fig. (abolir, anéantir) to annul, to cancel, to exterminate, to redeem. Souvent notre amour-propre éteint notre bon sens, self-love often obscures our good sense. Volt. — une race, to exterminate a race. — une rente, to cancel an annuity. — une dette, to liquidate a debt. — et abolir un crime, to cancel and obliterate a crime. 6 fig. pain, to dind, to cloud, to obscure, to soften. — les lumières trop fortes, les couleurs trop éclatantes, to soften down colours too glaring in a painting. 7 (by analogy) (diminuer) to diminish, to soften. La souffrance avait éteint l'expression de ses yeux, suffering had dimmed the expression of her eyes.

ÊTEINDRE, rpr. 4 (cesser de brûler) to be extinguished, to go out. Le feu va s'—, the fire is going out. Mon flambeau s'éteignit, my torch was extinguished. Le lustre s'éteignait graduellement, the lights in the chandelier going out one by one. Saint. 2 fig. (cesser, finir) to die away, off, out, to cool, to become extinct. Les plus vives passions s'éteignent, the most lively passions die out. Muss. G. laissant s'— cet amour de l'égalité, G. suffering this passion for equality to die away. Saint. Ma colère s'éteint toujours au moment où finit le combat, my anger is appeased as soon as the battle is over. Beaum. Les desirées d'une société qui s'éteignait, the fate of a society in its decay. Ph. Chas. Je me tendrais sans l'aider de mémoire, my recollection will pass away. V. Hog. Cette sédition s'éteindra d'elle-même, this sedition will die off of itself. S'— dans l'oubli, to be buried in oblivion. Tout ressentiment s'éteint sur un cœur, all hatred is effaced before the grave. C. Del. La foi s'éteint, faith is dying away. Boss. 3 (by extension) (perdre de sa vivacité, de son éclat) to be dimmed, clouded, obscured. Les couleurs s'éteignaient et les contours s'adoucissaient dans la vapeur, the colours were dimmed and the harsh outlines were softened in the vapour. G. Sand. Son regard s'éteignait à moitié en passant à travers ses cils, her look was half concealed through the eye-lashes. Saint. Son oeil s'éteignait à force de fixité, his eye remained fixed till it grew dim. Al. Dum. Le jour s'éteint sur les collines, the day-light disappears from the hills. Lamart. 4 (by extension) (de la voix, du ton, de la force) to die away, out. Ma faible voix s'éteint dans les douleurs, my feeble voice dies out with grief. Bérang. Le cri d'éveil résonne et va s'— au loin, the cry of alarm resounds and dies away in the distance. Barth. 5 fig. (particul.) (des missions, des dignités qui haïssent.) Une fille qui vit presque en naissances sa famille, a daughter who saw almost in infancy the extermination of all her family. Rac. 6 fig. (s'affaiblir, mourir) to wear out, to die off. Elle s'éteignit sans avoir laissé échapper une seule plainte, she died without once complaining. Balz. Mon regret serait de ne— joie de ma famille, my only regret would be to die far from my family. Ab. Leur vie s'éteint d'elle-même, comme une chandelle qui a consumé sa matière, the flame of life becomes extinct in them like a candle that has burned itself out. Boss.

ÉTÉINT, ay-tang, ppa. of ÉTEINDRE, fem. —, 4 extinguished. Les restes mal —s d'une nature sauvage, some bursts of a wild nature but half subdued. Aug. Th. 2 fig. (ancien) extinguished, extinct. La foi dans tous les cœurs n'est pas encore —e, faith is not yet extinguished in every heart. Rac. Une famille —e, a family that is extinct. 3 (by extension) dulled, dimmed, clouded, obscured. Des yeux —s, un regard —, dull, dying, languishing eyes. Ses lèvres, son oeil terne où la vie est —e, his lips, his dulled eye in which life is extinct. C. Del. Elle ne se promène quasi pas, elle a toujours froid, et à neuf heures du soir elle est tout —e, she scarcely takes any exercise, she is always cold, and at night she is quite exhausted. Mme de Sév. Je reviendrai de mon voyage fort savant, mais tout à fait —, I shall return from my travel very learned, but good for nothing. Jacq. Une voix —e, a dying voice.

ÉTENDAGE, ay-tang-ang, sm. 4 drying-place, drying-room, drying-ropes, lines. 2 print. drying-room. 3 tech. drying.

ÉTENDARD, ay-tang-dar, sm. 4 standard. Porte—, ensiga. 2 (by extension) (toutes sortes d'enseignes de guerre) standard, flag, colours, streamer, banner. Déployer, arborer, planter un —, to erect a standard. fig. Suivre les —s de quelqu'un, se ranger sous les —s, combattre sous les —s de quelqu'un, to take sides with a person. Lever l'—, to raise the standard. Lever, arborer l'— de la révolte, to raise the standard of rebellion. fig. Lever l'— contre quelqu'un, to set up against a person. 3 but standard, banner.

ÉTENDRE, ay-tang-dre, sf. tech. shed.

ÉTENDEUR, ay-tang-dub, sm. tech. stretcher.

ÉTENDRE, ay-tang-dwr, sm. 4 print. printer's peel. 2 tech. drying-room, drying-house.

ÉTENDRE, ay-tang-dr, va. (Lat. extendere) 1 (allonger) to extend, to stretch, to lengthen out, to spread. — du bonheur sur du pain, to spread butter on bread. La rarefaction étend le volume d'air, rarefaction expands the volume of air. fig. — le parchemin, to multiply writings. fig.

— la courroie, to stretch one's perquisites, one's privileges. — la clause d'un contrat, les termes d'un arrêt, d'une loi, etc., to stretch the sense of a clause in a contract, of a decree, of a law, etc. — le sens, la signification d'un mot, to stretch the sense, the meaning of a word. 2 mil. — ses troupes, son armée, to extend one's troops, one's army. 3 (déployer, étaler) to spread out. — du linge pour le faire sécher, to hang up linen to dry it. — de la toile sur l'herbe pour la blanchir, to spread out linen-cloth on grass to bleach it. Étendez ce tapis, spread out this carpet. — le bras, — les bras, — les jambes, to stretch out one's arm, arms, one's legs. La Mollesse... soupire, étend les bras, ferme l'œil et s'endort, sloth utters a sigh, stretches out her arm, shuts her eyes and falls asleep. Boil. fig. Elle a étendu sa main sur le pauvre, she has extended her hand to the poor. Fléch. — les ailes, to spread out the wings. fig. Le fœtus étendit au loin ses ravages, the scourge extended its ravages far and wide. fig. — la vue, to extend the view. fig. — un homme sur le carreau, to lay a person dead. fig. Il l'étendit mort sur la place, he laid him dead upon the spot. 4 (augmenter) to extend, to enlarge. — les limites de son royaume, to extend the limits of one's kingdom. fig. — son commerce, to extend one's commerce. fig. — sa réputation, to extend one's reputation. 5 point. — la lumière, to extend the light.

ÉTENDRE, rpr. 1 to stretch, to extend, to lengthen. L'ombre s'étend le long du cloître, the shades of night extend along the cloister. Lamart. S'— en baillant, to stretch one's self out in yawning. mil. L'armée s'étendit dans la plaine, the army extended itself over the plain. fig. Son commerce s'est bien étendu, his commercial relations have greatly extended. Le mouvement ne s'étendit point cependant sur les provinces de l'Est, the commotion did not however extend as far as the provinces of the East. Aug. Th. Sa bonté s'étend sur toute la nature, his goodness extends itself to all nature. Rac. 2 (se coucher) to stretch one's self out. Il s'étendit tout de son long pour dormir, he stretched himself out at full length to sleep. 3 (tenir un certain espace) to extend, to reach. Sa propriété ne s'étend pas plus loin, his estate does not reach any further. fig. Sa réputation s'étend par toute l'Europe, his reputation is spread all over Europe. Son crédit s'étend jusqu'à, his credit goes as far as that. 4 fig. (étendre sa propriété) to enlarge one's estate. 5 fig. (de la vue, of the sight) to extend, to reach. 6 fig. (de la voix, of the voice) to reach. Tant que la voix peut s'—, as far as the voice can reach. 7 fig. S'— sur quelque sujet, to enlarge, to expatiate, to dwell upon a subject. 8 (durer) to extend, to reach, to last. La vie de l'homme ne s'étend guère au delà de cent ans, man's life seldom reaches above a hundred years. Il travaille tant que la journée peut s'—, he works as long as the day lasts.

ÉTENDU, ay-tang-dû, ppa. of ÉTENDRE, fem. —, 4 adjective. 4 spread, spread out, stretched out. Mouton — sous un bûche, softly stretched out under a beech. Flor. Des groupes de chiens fauves —s an soleil, groups of tawny dogs stretched out in the sun. Th. Gaut. Les bras —s, the arms stretched out. La main du Seigneur est —e sur les peuples, the hand of the Lord is stretched out over the people. Mass. 2 (augmenter) augmented. Du via — d'eau, wine diluted with water. 3 (vaste) extensive, large. Un empire fort —, a very extensive empire. Une lettre très—e, a very long letter. fig. Un pouvoir —, extensive power. Il a une voix très—e, he has a voice of great compass. ÉTENDUE, ay-tang-dû, sf. 1 dimension d'une chose en longueur, largeur et profondeur) extension. 2 (une ou deux ou trois dimensions) extent. 3 (superficie) extent, expanse. Dans toute l'— du royaume, in the whole extent of the kingdom. La vaste — des mers, the vast expanse of the seas. absolt. Mes yeux du haut des monts découvraient l'—, from the top of the mountains my eyes wandered over the wide expanse. C. Del. 4 (de tous les âges, de tous les siècles, throughout all ages.) La vie de l'homme est d'une — bien bornée, the life of man is of a very limited duration. 5 fig. extent, compass, volume. Vous me faites sentir toute l'— de mes pertes, you make me feel the full extent of my losses. Volt. L'— d'un discours, etc., the length of a speech, etc.

ÉTÉREL, ay-tay-rayl, adj. m. fem. —, 4 (Lat. æternus) 4 eternal. Une proposition d'—le vérité, a proposition eternally true. 2 (qui n'aura jamais de fin) eternal, everlasting. La vie —le, life everlasting. La gloire —le, eternal glory. La mort —le, eternal death. Les douleurs ne sont point —lrs, grief is not everlasting. Chat. poétic. Le sommeil —, eternal sleep, death. (by metaphor.) Un adieu, an everlasting farewell, a final adieu. 3 (hyperb.) (qui ne cesse pas) eternal, endless. C'est une guerre —le, it is an endless war. Une reconnaissance —le, eternal gratitude. V'—le mémoire, of everlasting memory. 4 (hyperb.) (répété souvent) repeated, continual. Ses discours —s sur la morale fatiguent tout le monde, his continual lectures upon morality weary every body. Un causeur —, a tedious talker.

ÉTÉREL, sm. God, the everlasting God. L'— est son nom, the Eternal is his name. Rac.

ÉTÉRNELLE, ay-tay-rayl, sf. bot. gnaphalium, everlasting, everlasting-flower.

ÉTÉRNELLEMENT, ay-tay-rayl-mang, adv. 1 (sans commencement ni fin) eternally. 2 (sans fin) everlastingly, for ever and ever. 3 (toujours) continually, for ever. Il est — à sa suite, so n'est épaules, he is for ever at my heels.

ÉTÉRNIER, ay-tay-rayl, va. to eternize. — son nom, to eternize one's name. Ils semblent vouloir — leur terrible combat, they seem as if their fight would last for ever. Chat. La chicane éternise les procès, chicanery prolongs a lawsuit for ever.

S'ÉTÉRNIER, rpr. to be eternized, to become eternal, to last for ever.

ÉTÉRNIÉ, ay-tay-rayl, sf. (Lat. æternitas) 1 (durée qui n'a ni commencement ni fin) eternity. Bien est de toute —, God is from all eternity. J'ai l'— devant moi, I have eternity before me. Balz. L'homme a un eternity of hope. Chat. 3 (hyperb.) (un temps fort long) eternity. Il croit-tu assez pour pouvoir réver l'—s sans roses? do you think me mad enough to hope for an eternal spring? V. Hug. Ce palais est tout en marbre et fait pour l'—, this palace is in marble and made to last for ever. Th. Gaut. De toute —, from all eternity. Je vois ce canon chargé de toute —, I see this gun loaded from all eternity. Mme de Sév.

ÉTÉRIER, ay-tay-rayl, rn. (Lat. sternere) to sneeze. Cela fait —, that makes one sneeze. Se faire —, to make one's self sneeze.

ÉTÉRIEMENT, ay-tay-rû-mang, sm. sneezing, sneeze.

ÉTÉSIE, ay-tay-zyang, adj. n. (Lat. æstivus) Etesian. Les vents —s, the Etesian winds.

ÉTÉTEMENT, ay-tay-mang, sm. hort pollarding, heading, topping.

ÉTÉTER, ay-tay-rayl, va. 4 hort. (d'un arbre, of a tree) to pollard, to head, to top. 2 (by analogy) — un clou, une épingle, to take off the head of a nail, of a pin.

ÉTÉLÉ, ay-tul, sm. fennis - ball.
 Prendre l'— à la volée, to catch the ball flying. Renvoyer l'— to send back the ball; || prov. fig. to give a person as good as he sends. L'— passant à celui-là, il le renvoie et dit, when it came to the turn of that one he gave as good as he received. La Font. prov. fig. Courir après son —, to endeavour to recover one's loss.

ÉTEULE, ay-tuhl, ESTEUBLE, es-tuhl, sf. agri. stubble.

ETHER, ay-tayr, sm. (Lat. æther) 1 antiqu. (air pur et léger) ether. poetic. Diaphane habitant de l'invisible —, transparent denizen of the invisible ether. V. Hug. L'élastique —, the elastic ether. Lamart. 2 (la matière fluide et subtile) ether. 3 chem. ether. — nitrique, nitric ether. — sulfurique, sulphuric ether.

ÉTHÉRE, ay-tay-ray, adj. m. fem. —e, ethereal. Substance —e, ethereal substance. poetic. La voûte —e, the canopy of heaven. Espace —, ethereal space.

ÉTHÉRISATION, ay-tay-re-zab-syong, sf. 1 etherizing. 2 etherization.

ÉTHÉRISER, ay-tay-re-zay, ra. to etherize. Nous l'éthérisons à doses incroyables, we etherized it with incredibly strong doses. Mich.

ÉTHIOPIE, ay-tyo-pee, sf. geog. Ethiopia.

ÉTHIOPIEN, ay-tyo-pyang, adj. m. fem. —e, 1 Ethiopian. 2 sm. fem. —e, Une —e, Ethiopian woman.

ÉTHIQUE, ay-tik, sf. philos. ethics.

ÉTHIQUE, adj. mf. (Gr.) ethic, ethical.

ÉTHMOÏDAL, ayt-moi-dal, adj. m. fem. —e, anat. ethmoid, ethmoidal.

ÉTHMOÏDE, ayt-moi-id, adj. and sm. (Gr.) anat. ethmoid, ethmoid-bone.

ÉTHNARCHIE, ayt-nar-shee, sf. (Gr.) anc. hist. ethnarchy.

ÉTHNIQUE, ayt-nik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 (pale) ethnic, ethnical. 2 gram. Mot —, ethnical word.

ÉTHNOGRAPHE, ayt-no-graf, sm. (Gr.) ethnographer.

ÉTHNOGRAPHIE, ayt-no-graf-ee, sm. (Gr.) ethnography.

ÉTHNOGRAPHIQUE, ayt-no-graf-ik, adj. mf. ethnographic, ethnographical.

ÉTIAGE, ayt-yazh, sm. low-water, low-water mark.

ÉTIEN, ay-tyay, sm. canal from the sea to a soil-marsh.

ÉTINCELANT, ay-tangs-lang, ppr. of ÉTINCER, adj. m. fem. —e, sparkling, glittering, flashing, twinkling, glistening. Un rubis —, a sparkling ruby. Des yeux —s, —e de fureur, sparkling eyes, sparkling with fury. (by extension) A l'heure —e on le soleil se lève, at the brilliant hour of sun-rise. Ab. fig. Elle est —e de traits d'esprits, she is sparkling with wit. Vol.

ÉTINCELÉ, adj. m. her. Éca —, shield sparkled over.

ÉTINCER, ay-tangs-lay, rn. to sparkle, to glitter, to flash, to twinkle, to glisten. Ses yeux étincellent, etincellent de fureur, his eyes sparkle, sparkle with fury. L'ardeur du combat étincelle en ses yeux, a martial flame flashes from his eyes. Boil. Une étoile qui étincelle au ciel, a star that twinkles in the sky. Les charbons étincelaient de petites aigrettes pétillantes, the embers sparkled with little crackling plumes. Nod. Des poignards dont les manches étincellent de ciselsans d'argent, poniards, the hfts of which sparkle with silver chasing. Lamart. Je vis ses doigts — de bagues, de rubis, I saw her fingers sparkle with rings, rubies. Nod. La pourpre, l'or, le cristal étincelaient de toutes parts, purple, gold, crystal sparkled on every side. Chât. fig. Cet ouvrage étincelle d'esprit, that work sparkles with wit. Ses ouvrages étincellent de sublimes beautés, his works sparkle with sublime beauties. Boil. Ainsi du Dieu vivant la colère étincelle, so flashes the anger of the living God. Rac.

ÉTINCELLE, ay-tang-sel, sf. (Lat. scintilla) 1 spark, sparkle. Mes yeux affaiblis voyaient voltiger une multitude d'—s autour de moi, my weakened sight saw a multitude of sparks dance round me. Chât. (by extension) Sous leurs voiles brillaient des yeux pleins d'—s, from under their veils their eyes flashed sparks. La Font. fig. C'était la première — de la guerre civile, it was the first symptom of civil war. Lamart. Une d'ambition, a spark of ambition. G. Sand. Il laisse tomber sur notre âme quelques —s de son feu divin, he lets fall upon our souls a few sparks of his divine fire. Mass. Une — d'esprit, a flash of wit. 2 nat. phil. — électrique, electric spark.

ÉTINCELLEMENT, ay-tang-sel-mang, sm. sparkling, twinkling, flashing.

ÉTIOLÉ, ppa. of ÉTIOLER, fem. —e, Une plante —e, an etiolated plant. (by extension) Les races des champs sont moins —es que les races des villes, those who live in the country are more vigorous than those who live in towns. Corm.

ÉTIOLEMENT, ay-tyol-mang, sm. etiolation.

ÉTIOLER, ay-tyo-lay, ra. (des plantes, of plants) to etiolate.

ÉTIOLER, ppr. (des plantes, of plants) to etiolate. fig. Son esprit s'étiolait dans cette atmosphère bourgeoise, her wit withers in this common-place atmosphere. G. Sand.

ÉTILOGIE, ay-tyo-to-zhee, sf. (Gr.) etiology.

ÉTIQUE, ay-tik, adj. mf. (Gr.) 1 med. hectic, hectic, consumptive. Fièvre —, hectic fever. 2 (maigre) lean, emaciated. (de quelques animaux, of some animals) rawboned, meagre. Un chapon, no poulet —, a rawboned capon, chicken. Un cheval —, a rawboned horse.

ÉTIQUETE, ppa. of ÉTIQUETER, fem. —e, Des fioles —es, labelled vials. Les prix sont —s, the prices are ticketed.

ÉTIQUETER, ay-tik-lay, ra. to label, to docket, to ticket. — des sacs de procès, des liasses de papier, to label bags, to docket bundles of paper. — des marchandises, to ticket goods.

ÉTIQUETTER, ay-le-ket, sf. 1 auc. label, ticket. prov. fig. Juger, condamner sur l'—, sur l'— du sac, to judge from appearances. Accueillir sur l'— du sac, parce que j'apporte les meilleures recommandations, welcomed at first sight because I am provided with letters of recommendation. Jacq. Sur la pouspense — du sac, lu te proposais, en apprenant l'anglais, de lire Lalla Rookh, from the pouspense little you determined when you learned English, to read Lalla Rookh. Jacq. 2 (petit étiquetage) un met à au sac d'argent label, ticket. 3 (d'une cour) étiquette, L'— de la cour, the etiquette of the court. 4 (entre particuliers) étiquette. Tenir à l'—, to be strict as to etiquette; to stand upon ceremony. Diner d'—, formal dinner.

ÉTRER, ay-te-ray, ra. 1 to stretch out (du linge, linen). 2 tech. to draw out, to wiredraw (du fer, du cuivre, iron, copper).

ÉTISIE, ay-te-zee, sf. med. consumption, decline. Tomber en —, to fall into a decline. Être dans l'—, to be consumptive.

ÉTOFFE, ay-tof, sf. 1 stuff. — de laine, de soie, woollen, silk stuff. Des —s d'or et d'argent, gold and silver stuffs. 2 flours, flowered stuff. 3 (matière dont sont faits quelques autres ouvrages) stuff, materials. (by analogy) Vous m'engagez à faire de grandes lettres, you invite me to write long letters. Les materials are wanting sometimes. M^{me} de Staël. fig. On n'a pas épargné, on n'a pas plâiné l'—, the materials have not been spared. 3 fig. (dispositions naturelles) stuff. On peut faire de ce jeune homme quelque chose de bon, il y a de l'—, something may be made out of that young man, he has the stuff in him. Il y a en Louis XIV l'— de quoi faire quatre mis et un bonhomme homme, in Louis XIV there is stuff wherewith to make four kings and an honest man. Nazar. 4 fig. (qualité, espèce) condition, quality, stuff. Ne vous avais-je pas dit que M. Nicole était de la même — que Pascal? had I not told you that M. N. was made of the same stuff as P.? M^{me} de Sev. 5 (in a bad part) condition. Il y a des gens d'une certaine — avec qui ne faut jamais se commettre, there are some people of a certain make, with whom one must never commit one's self. La Bruy. Ce sont gens de même —, they are all birds of a feather. 6 print. —s, pl. wear and tear.

ÉTOFFER, ay-to-lay, ra. 1 to put stuff, materials in. 2 (d'un lit, d'un carrosse, etc.) to stuff.

ÉTOILE, ay-twaï, sf. (Lat. stella) 1 star. Le lever, le coucher d'une —, the rising, the setting of a star. Un ciel parsemé d'—s, a sky studded with stars. — polaire, polar, north star. L'— du berger, du matin, du soir, Venus, the morning, the evening star. fig. Je pleure dans mon ciel tant d'—s éteintes, I weep over the disappearance of so many stars from my firmament. Lamart. prov. Loger, coucher à la belle —, to lie in the street, in the open air. Faire voir à quelqu'un des —s en plein midi, to make a person's eyes strike fire; to make a person believe that black is white. 2 —s illates, —s tombantes, —s, shooting stars. 3 fig. (destinée) star, destiny. Je ne puis résister à la force de mon — qui m'entraînait, I could not resist the force of my destiny that hurried me on. Le Sage. L'— était alors terrible comme les rois, destiny at that time frowned upon kings. M^{me} de Mott. Être ne sous une bonne —, to be born under a lucky star, to be well-starred. 4 pyrol. star-wheels. 5 (ornement, star. Une couronne d'—s, a starry crown. Une — de diamants, a diamond star. 6 print. star, asterisk. fig. Monsieur trois —s, M. —, Mr. three asterisks. 7 nat. hist. — de mer, star-fish. 8 mau. blaze. 9 (le centre où se réunissent plusieurs arêtes d'une place, plusieurs routes d'une forêt) star, centre. 10 fort. star. 11 (décoration) star. L'— des braves, the star of the brave, the cross of the Legion of Honour. 12 (fléure, track).

ÉTOILÉ, ay-twaï-lay, adj. m. fem. —e, starry, star-light. Un ciel —, a starry sky. L'ue nuit —e, a star-light night. La voûte —e, the starry heavens. (by analogy) On la vit toute couffée et comme —e de diamants, she was seen with her hair dressed, and all sparkling with diamonds. Balz.

ÉTOILE, ppa. of ÉTOILER, fem. —e, Bouteille —e, cracked bottle. Carreau de verre —, cracked pane of glass.

ÉTOILER, ay-twaï-lay, ra. 1 —e vue glace, to crack a mirror. 2 to stud. Les pierres qui étoilaient sa chabraque, the precious stones which constituted his chabraq. Th. Gaut.

ÉTOILER, ppr. to crack (in the form of a star), to star.

ÉTOLE, ay-toï, sf. (Lat. stola) stole.

ÉTONNAMENT, ay-ton-nab-mang, adv. astonishingly, surprisingly, wonderfully, amazingly.

ÉTONNANT, ay-to-nang, ppr. of ÉTONNER, adj. m. fem. —e, astonishing, surprising, wonderful, amazing. Voilà une nouvelle —e, that is surprising news. Qu'y a-t-il d'— à cela? what is there astonishing in that? C'est un homme —, he is an astonishing man.

ÉTONNE, ppa. of ÉTONNER, fem. —e, 1 Les Gaulois seuls ne furent point —s à la vue d'Alexandre, the Gauls alone were not astonished at the sight of the conquerors.

Chat. Si jamais il y eut quelqu'un d'—, ce furent les gens qui entendirent ces paroles, if ever anybody was astonished, it was the people who heard these words. Volt. Il sortit — des larmes qui inondaient ses yeux, he went out astonished at the tears which filled his eyes. Lamart. Ils furent — de l'injustice de leurs ennemis, they were amazed at the injustice of their enemies. Montesq. Pardonne à mes sens —, pardon my astonished senses. Rac. Un air —, an astonished air. 2 (substantif) Jouer l'—, to feign astonishment.

ÉTONNEMENT, ay-ton-màng, sm. 1 astonishment, surprise, wonder, amazement. Jeter dans l'—, to throw into astonishment. Je ne reviens pas de mon —, I cannot recover from my astonishment. Volt. Voilà on de mes —s, that is a subject of astonishment to me. Mol. L'enfance naitive a ses —s, artless infancy has its astonishments. V. Hug. 2 (sometimes) (admiration) wonder, admiration. Cette action fera l'— des siècles futurs, this action will be the wonder of future ages. Être ravi d'—, to be transported with admiration, to be lost in wonder. 3 fig. (little used) (ébranlement) commotion, shock.

ÉTONNER, ay-to-nay, va. 1 (surprendre) to astonish, to surprise, to amaze. Cette nouvelle l'a fort étonné, this news greatly surprised him. Cet enfant étonne tout le monde par la vivacité de ses réparties, that child astonishes every body by the vivacity of his repartees. Cela est fait pour —, that is calculated to astonish. (impers.) Il ne m'étonnerait pas qu'il en fût bien aise, I should not be astonished if he were glad. Muss. (by extension) Mes yeux inondés de lumières flatteuses qui les étonnaient sans les éblouir, my eyes flooded with pleasing light which amazed, but did not dazzle them. Nord. Des voix humaines qui étonnent l'oreille et ravissent le cœur, human voices that surprise the ear and delight the heart. 2 (troubler, effrayer) to astound. Dans les combats rien ne l'étonne, in combats she is startled at nothing. Mich. L'oiseau, d'un cri menaçant, achève d'— le barlier frémissant, the bird, with a threatening cry, carries to its climax the amazement of the shuddering barber. Boil. Toi dont la douce image étonne toutes mes résolutions, thou whose gentle image shakes all my resolutions. Lamart. 3 (ébranler) to stun. Ce coup lui a étonné la tête, that blow stunned his head.

ÉTONNER, vpr. 1 to be astonished, surprised, amazed. Je ne suis pas de ces voyageurs qui s'étonnent de tout, I am not of those travellers whom every thing astonishes. Ab. Il ne faut pas s'en —, you must not be astonished at it. Chat. Il ne s'étonne de rien, nothing surprises him. Il ne s'étonne pas du bruit, he is not frightened at a noise. Quoi! déjà votre foi s'affaiblit et s'étonne? what! your faith is already weakened and wonders? Rac. 2 (trouver étrange) to wonder, to marvel. Je m'étonne souvent comment je nous plaise à des gens si différents de moi, I often wonder how it is I please people so unlike what I am. Jaeg. Le rat s'étonnait que les gens fussent touchés de cette pitié masée, the rat wondered at people being touched with the sight of this mass. La Font. Je m'étonne de vos manières, de vos procédés, I am astonished at your manners, at your proceedings. Le peuple s'étonna comme il pouvait se faire qu'un homme seul eût plus de sens que, the people wondered how it came to pass that one man could have more sense than. La Font. Il s'étonne de se trouver le regard moins terné, he marvels at finding he has a brighter look. Saint.

ÉTOUFFADE, ay-too-fad, sf. See ESTOUFFADE.

ÉTOUFFANT, ay-too-fàng, ppr. of ÉTOUFFER, — ses sanglots, stifling her sobs. Chat. adj. m. fem. —E, stifling, suffocating, sultry. Temps —, sultry weather. Chaleur —E, stifling heat.

ÉTOUFFÉ, ppa. of ÉTOUFFER, fem. —E, 4 suffocated, stifled. Il périt — en se fendant, he perished suffocated in the crowd. Cette herbe serait morte —e dans son germe, that plant would have died stifled in its germ. Saint. 2 bi. Viande —E, flesh of strangled animals. 3 fig. smothered. Ce feu que dans l'oubli je croyais —, the flame I thought smothered in oblivion. Rac. Cris —s, cries, stifled cries, laugh.

ÉTOUFFEMENT, ay-too-fàng, sm. 1 suffocation. 2 fig. On ne désirait pas l'— de toute liberté, they did not wish to stifle all liberty. Thiers.

ÉTOUFFER, ay-too-fay, va. 1 (suffoquer) to suffocate, to stifle, to choke, to strangle. Plusieurs étouffent leurs enfants, several strangle their children. Chat. Monstre qu'il eût mieux valu — en naissant, monster that it would have been better to stifle on coming into the world. Le Sage. Une esquinachie l'a étouffé, a quinsy choked him. J'ai passé la journée à me laisser — de caresses par mes nouveaux amis, I spent the day in letting myself be stifled with the embraces of my new friends. Jacq. (hyperb.) Que la peste l'étouffe! the devil choke you plague on you! 2 (des plantes, of plants) to stifle, to choke up. 3 (étouffer) to smother. — des charbons, to smother the embers. 4 fig. (supprimer, cacher) to stifle, to smother, to drown. Elle eut à peine — les sanglots de la pitié filiale, she can scarcely stifle the sobs of filial pity. Chat. Les tribunes étouffèrent par leurs trépidations la voix de G., the tribunes drowned the voice of G. with their stamping. Lamart. Ses propres sanglots étouffèrent sa voix, her own sobs stifled her voice. B. de St-P. Seigneur, dit L., étouffant une grosse émotion, Sir, said L., stifling a strong emotion. Saint. — les remords de sa conscience, to stifle remorse of conscience. Étouffez ces soupçons, stifle those suspicions. 5 — des sons, to deaden sounds. 6 fig. (détruire) to stifle, to suppress, to hush up. — les talents, to stifle talents. — une sédition, une hérésie, une guerre civile, to suppress a sedition, a heresy, a civil war. — une affaire, — une querelle, to hush up an affair, to suppress a quarrel.

ÉTOUFFER, vm. to be choked, stifled, suffocated, to be choking, stifling. Il étouffait sans pouvoir et sans vouloir le dire, he was stifled with grief, without either power or will to open his heart. G. Sand. Il n'y a point d'air dans cette chambre, on y étouffe, there is no air in this room, it is stifling. — de chaud, to be suffocated with heat. fig. — de rire, to choke with laughing.

S'ÉTOUFFER, vpr. S'— de rire, to choke with laughing. P., qui s'étouffait de rire, P., who was choking with laughter. Nod.

ÉTOUFFOIR, ay-too-fwar, sm. 1 extinguisher. 2 (pour un piano) damper.

ÉTOUPE, ay-toop, sf. (Lat. stipula) tow, oakum. Fil d'—, tow thread. Paquet d'—, bundle of tow. fig. Mettre le feu aux —s, to add fuel to the flame; to throw oil on the fire; to blow the coals.

ÉTOUPE, ppa. of ÉTOUPER, fem. —E, Le chat-huant vole d'une aile silencieuse et comme —e de queue, the screech-owl flies with silent wing, stifled, as it were, with wadding. Mich. Un petit bruit lugubre, étouffé et comme — par le duvet, moor qui le couvre, a mournful undertone, stifled as it were, and buried under the soft down that covers it. Mich.

ÉTOUPER, ay-too-pay, va. to stop with tow, with oakum. — des trous, to stop up holes. — un bateau, to calk a boat. S'— les oreilles, to stop one's ears (with cotton, wool).

ÉTOUPILLE, ay-too-pe-yah, sf. artificial quick match.

ÉTOUPILLON, ay-loo-pe-jong, sm. artificial tippin.

ÉTOURDERIE, ay-toor-duh-ree, sf. giddiness, thoughtlessness, heedlessness; giddy trick, thoughtless act. C'est une —, it is a thoughtless act. Ce sont là des vos —s, that is one of your giddy tricks.

ÉTOURDI, ay-toor-dee, ppa. of ÉTOURDIR, fem. —E, adj. 1 stunned. Il tomba tout — du coup, he fell stunned by the blow. — par le bruit, stunned by the noise. 2 fig. (étourdi) astounded. Ils sont tout —s du crédit de vos frères, they are astounded at your brothers' influence. B. de St-P. Je sortis de la salle, fort — d'un accueil si farouche, I left the room, stunned with so rough a reception. Le Sage. Il ne parut point — du changement de sa condition, the change in his position did not seem to turn his head. Le Sage.

ÉTOURDI, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 (qui agit sans réflexion) giddy, a heedless, thoughtless (by extension) Une politique —E, thoughtless policy. Mign. 2 sm. fem. —E, giddy fellow, blunderer. C'est un —, he is a giddy fellow. Agir comme un —, en —, to act thoughtlessly.

À L'ÉTOURDI, adv. loc. giddily, thoughtlessly, heedlessly. Un rat sortit de terre, assez à l'—, a rat left his hole rather thoughtlessly. La Font. Agir à l'—, to act thoughtlessly. C'est une affaire importante où il ne faut pas aller à l'—, it is an important affair, which must not be taken up rashly.

ÉTOURDIR, ay-toor-de-màng, adv. giddily, thoughtlessly, heedlessly.

ÉTOURDIR, ay-toor-deer, va. (It.) 1 to stun, to din, to make giddy. Ils m'étonnaient de leurs cris, they stun me with their cries. Nod. Il criait à pleine tête, j'étais étourdi, he shouted at the top of his voice, he stuns us. De toutes les nouvelles dont il étourdissait mon oreille, of all the news with which he stuns me. Flor. fig. Cela m'étourdissait l'imagination, that confounds my imagination. B. de St-P. 2 fig. (causer de l'étonnement) to astonish, to surprise, to amaze. Cette nouvelle les a étourdis, four étourdis, this news amazed them greatly. 3 fig. — la grosse faim, to stay the stomach; to take off the edge of the appetite. 4 fig. — une douleur, to numb a pain. 5 fig. (d'une douleur morale) to assuage, to alleviate. Tantant au bruit du tambourin pour le chagrin, dancing at the sound of the tambourine to alleviate grief. C. Del. Il voit le monde pour — sa douleur, he goes into society to forget his grief.

S'ÉTOURDIR, vpr. fig. S'— sur quelque chose, to shake off the thoughts of a thing. Les brigands s'étourdissaient sur leurs crimes dans les excès d'une orgie, the brigands shook off the thoughts of their crimes by excess of debauchery. Nod. Chercher à s'—, to seek to forget one's troubles.

ÉTOURDISSANT, ay-toor-de-sàng, ppr. of ÉTOURDIR, adj. m. fem. —E, 1 stunning, deafening. 2 fig. (extraordinaire) astounding, amazing. Nouvelle —E, astounding news. Il a un bonheur —, he has amazing good luck.

ÉTOURDISSEMENT, ay-toor-dis-màng, sm. 1 giddiness, dizziness, swimming in the head. 2 fig. (trouble) stupor, confusion. Après le premier —, passé ils ont assez bien pris leur parti, after the first moment of stupefaction they easily reconciled themselves to circumstances. S'É-B.

ÉTOURNEAU, ay-toor-on, sm. pl. ÉTOURNEAUX, 4 orn. starling. fig. C'est un —, he is a giddy brains. 2 (cheval qui a le poil gris jaunâtre) blea-bitten horse. (adjectif.) Un cheval —, a flea-bitten horse.

ÉTRANGE, ay-tràngh, adj. mf. strange, queer, odd. Des animaux fort —s, very strange animals. Des coutumes bien — 3. very strange customs. Chose — 1 strange thing! Cela est — il est vraiment bien — que, it is strange, it is indeed very strange that. Plusieurs choses vous sembleraient — 3, several things seemed strange to you. Saint. Je sais l'— accueilli qu'on a fait au comite, I am aware of the strange reception given to the count. Le Sage. Voilà un homme —, that is a very strange man.

ÊTRANGEMENT, ay-tràngzh-màng, adv. strangely.

ÊTRANGER, ay-tràngzh-zhay, adj. m. fem. ÉTRANGÈRE, 4 foreign, outlandish, exotic. Coutumes, lois étrangères, foreign customs, laws. Langue étrangère, foreign language. Plante étrangère, exotic plant. Les puissances étrangères, foreign powers. Un peuple —, a foreign people. Ministre des affaires étrangères, minister of foreign affairs, secretary of the Foreign-Office. Le ministère, le département des affaires étrangères, Foreign-Office, ministry, department of foreign affairs. fig. Dans cet heureux pays la cupidité était étrangère, in that happy country cupidity was unknown. Mousset. Être — dans son pays, to be a stranger in one's own country. N'être — nulle part, to feel at home every where. Je suis tout à fait — à cette affaire, I am quite a stranger to that affair. 2 (by extension) foreign to, unfamiliar with, unacquainted with, ignorant of. Être — aux affaires publiques, to take no part in public affairs. Seule, étrangère aux léses du jour, alone, a stranger in the midst of the day's rejoicings. Saint. Être — à une science, à un art, etc., to be unacquainted with a science, an art, etc. Quel est l'être le plus — à ceux qui l'environnent? which is the being that is the greatest stranger to those who surround it? Chamf. 3 (by extension) (ignoré de) unknown to. Ces vertus pour vous ne sont point étrangères, those virtues are not unknown to you. Flor. Les traits de cet homme me étaient pas —, the features of that man were not unknown to me. Thom. 4 (by extension) (qui n'a aucun rapport, aucune conformité) irrelevant. Un fait — à la cause, a fact irrelevant to the cause. Une dissertation étrangère au sujet, a dissertation irrelevant to the subject. 5 (by extension) (qui n'est pas naturel) borrowed. Il se targue d'un mérite qui lui est —, he boasts of a merit not his own. 6 (by extension) (qui n'est pas de même nature) foreign. De l'argent combiné avec des substances, des matières étrangères, silver combined with foreign substances, matters. 7 sorg. med. Corps —, extraneous body.

ÊTRANGER, sm. fem. ÉTRANGÈRE, 4 foreigner. 2 qui n'est pas de la famille, de la société) stranger. 3 absol. (pays étranger) foreign country, land, parts. Voyager à l'—, to travel abroad. Passer à l'—, to go abroad.

ÊTRANGER, ay-tràngzh-zhay, ra. 4 absol. (chasser d'un lieu) to estrange, to drive away (le gibier d'un pays, the game from a country). 2 absol. (des personnes, de personnes) to drive away.

S'ÊTRANGER, tpr. absol. to desert, to forsake.

ÊTRANGÈTE, ay-tràngzh-zhay, sf. strangeness. L'— de sa conduite, de son humeur, de ses manières, de son style, etc., the strangeness of his conduct, humors, manners, style, etc. (hyperb.) J'ai pour ces gens de B. un certain parfum d'— qui les attire singulièrement, I have a spice of singularity in the opinion of these people of B. that wins them over completely. Jacq.

ÊTRANGÉ, ppa. of ÊTRANGER, fem. —, 4 strangled. 2 (retreci) compressed, strangled. med. hernia —, a strangled hernia. fig. D'une voix —, in a stifled voice. 3 (trop serré) narrow. Habit —, coat too tight.

ÊTRANGLEMENT, ay-tràng-glob-màng, sm. 4 (action, état) strangling, choking, strangulation. On fait mille histoires d'—, et de décapitations secrètes, a thousand stories are related of secret stranglings, and decapitations. Chat. 2 (resserrement) strangulation. L'— des vaisseaux, the strangulation of the vessels.

ÊTRANGLER, ay-tràng-ylag, ra. (Lat. strangulare) 1 to strangle, to throttle. Si quelqu'un de vous touche la quatrième je l'étranglerai tout d'abord, if any one of you touches the fourth I will strangle her forthwith. La Font. Je l'étranglerais de mes mains si elle avait forfait à son bonneur, I would strangle her with my own hands if she had forfeited her honour. Mol. Le col de sa chemise l'étrangle, his shirt-collar strangles him. 2 fig. (ne pas donner la largeur convenable) to nuke scantily (les manches d'une robe, etc., the sleeves of a dress; un couloir, a passage). 3 fig. (des endroits d'un discours, of a speech) to slur over (une affaire, an affair; un ouvrage, a subject, a work, a subject).

ÊTRANGLER, ra. to choke, to be strangling. (hyperb.) — de soi, to be choked, choking with thirst.

S'ÊTRANGLER, tpr. refl. 1 to strangle one's self, to choke one's self. Il s'est étranglé, he has choked himself. (by extension) Cet enfant s'étrangle à force de crier, that child has choked itself into convulsions. 2 recipr. to throttle each other. fig. Ils avoient de bonne foi qu'ils s'étranglent tous les matins, they confess candidly that they come to a quarrel every morning. De Bross.

ÊTRANGILLON, ay-tràng-ghe-yong, sm. 4 vet. strangler. 2 hort. Poire d'—, choke-pear.

ÊTRAPE, ay-trap, sf. agri. small sickle. ÊTRAPEH, ay-trap-ay, ra. agri. to cut stubble with the sickle.

ÊTRAVER, ay-trav, sf. naot. elem. ÊTRE, aytr, *sm. auxil. irreg. ÉTANT; ÊTÉ; JE SUIS, TU ES, IL EST, NOUS SOMMES, VOUS ÊTES, ILS SONT; J'ÉTAIS; JE FUS; J'AI ÊTÉ; JE SERAI; JE SERAIS; SOIS, SOYEZ; QUE JE SOIS, QUE TU SOIS, QU'IL SOIT, QUE NOUS SOYONS, QUE VOUS SOYEZ, QU'ILS SOIENT; QUE JE FUSSE; QUE J'AI ÊTÉ; QUE J'EUSSÉ ÊTÉ, (Lat. esse) 4 absol. (exister) to be, to exist. Dieu a dit: je suis celui qui suis, God said: I am that I am. De toute éternité Dieu est, from all eternity God is. Boss. Commencer d'—, to begin to be. Cesser d'—, to cease to be. Vous regretterez votre père quand il ne sera plus, you will regret your father when he is no more. Ils ne sont plus, laissez en paix leur cendre, they are no more, do not disturb their ashes. C. Del. Je n'ai fait que passer, il n'était déjà plus, I only passed by, his place knew him no longer. Rac. Les faibles mortels sont à des yeux comme s'ils n'étaient pas, feeble mortals are in their eyes as if they were not. Rac. Rêves ailes, si vous étiez pourtant, winged dreams, if however you had an existence. Mich. Confonds tous ces dieux qui ne furent jamais, confound all those gods that never existed. Rac. Il y a quarante ans que je n'étais pas, I was not in being forty years ago. La Bruy. Je ne lui sais de défaut que de n'— pas, the only fault I can find in it, is its nonentity. De Bross. J'aime mieux n'— pas que de vivre avili, I prefer death to a shameful life. Corn. Une tortue était, à la tête légère, qui... voulait voir le pays, there was a light-headed tortoise, who wished to see the country. La Font. Cela est, cela n'est pas, that is true, that is not true. Cela sera, cela ne sera pas, that will happen, that will not happen. Que sera-ce si? what will be the consequence if? Soit, be it so. Eh bien! soit, well! let it be so. prov. On ne peut pas — et avoir été, *one cannot eat a cake and have a cake.

2 (marque le rapport entre le sujet et son complément, noting connection between the subject and the object) to be. A ces heures que l'on sait — les meilleures, at those hours that one knows to be the best. La Font. Savez-vous quel était l'être excellent dont vous avez causé la perte? do you know what an excellent being you have been the loss of? Ah. Les faibles ne sont pas ce qu'ils semblent —, faibles are not what they appear to be. La Font. Quelqu'un vint au secours, qui ce fut, il m'importe, somebody came to offer assistance, no matter who it was. La Font. Sa toison était d'une épaisseur extrême, his fleece was of extreme thickness. La Font. La fin de cette querelle sera l'exil de l'un, the end of this quarrel will be the exile of one. La Font. Cette tête n'a pas toujours été chavie, this head has not always been bald. Chat. Nous ne sommes pas même capables d'— longtemps malheureux, we are not even able to be unhappy long. Chat. Vous n'êtes pas plus que lui, you are no more than he is. Lire trop et lire trop peu sont deux défauts, to read too much and to read too little are two faults. La Rochef. La parole écrite sont les livres de l'ancien et du nouveau Testament, the written word is contained in the books of the old and new Testament. Fleury. La nourriture ordinaire de l'écureuil sont des fruits, des noisettes, the ordinary food of the squirrel is fruits, nuts, etc. Buff. L'éternel est son nom, le monde est son ouvrage, the Eternal is his name, the world is his work. Rac. Qui que tu sois, voici ton maître, il t'est, le fut on le doit — whoever thou mayest be, here is thy master, he is, was, or will be. Volt. Elle se dit plus de cent fois que R. n'avait été, n'était et ne serait jamais rien pour elle, she said to herself more than a hundred times that R. had never been, never was, nor ever would be anything for her. Mém. Sais-tu que ce vieillard là la vertu même? do you know that this old man was virtue itself? Corn. Tous ces querelleurs, au dire de chacun, étaient de petits saïots, all the quarrelsome race, if they were to be believed, were little saints. La Font. Lui-même fut le trompette et le héros, he himself was the hero and his own trumpeter. La Font. Le moindre ducaton serait bien mieux mon affaire, the smallest coin would suit me much better. La Font. N'êtes-vous pas souris? oi vous l'êtes, on ne je ne sois pas belle, are you not a mouse? to be sure, you are, or I am not a weasel. La Font. La bombe et le sabre firent ses premiers jeux, the bomb and the sabre were his first playthings. V. Hug. Elle seule est ma maison, ma gloire, ma fortune, she alone is my house, my glory, my fortune. B. de St-P. N'est plus enfant, n'est-il pas temps qu'il règne, is no longer a child, is it not time he should reign. Rac. Oh! que mon génie fut une perle et que tu fosses Cléopâtre, oh! would that my genius were a pearl and that thou wert Cleopatra. Mass. Elle est volage parce qu'elle l'est de nature et que de tout temps elle l'est été, she is fickle because she is naturally so, and would have been so at all times. St-B. J'ai fait des rois et n'ai pas voulu l'—, I made kings and disdained to be one. Elle est devote on tâche de l'—, she is religious or tries to be so. Jacq. Il était temperant plus qu'il n'eût voulu l'—, he was more frugal than he could have wished to be. La Font. Une circonstance favorable aux premiers fait l'esprit de jalousie des courtisans, a circumstance favorable to the former was the jealous disposition of the courtiers. Aug. Th. Les hommes ne savent point — patiemment ce qu'ils sont, men do not know how to bear their lot with patience. Fonten. — vouloir — ce qu'on n'est pas, c'est renoncer à tout ce qu'on peut —, to aim at being what one is not, is cutting off the means of becoming what one might be. Beaum. C'est moi qui suis G., berger de ce troupeau, it is I who am G., the shepherd of this flock. La Font. Cette femme n'est pas mal, that woman is not ill-looking. Il est debout dès le matin, he is up at day-light. La raison en est que vous venez trop tard, the reason is that you come too late. Telle est la vie, such is life. Chate. Les choses sont comme cela chez nous, that is the state of things with us. Balz. Voilà comme nous sommes autres, we are that sort of people. Muss. Cette démarche est faite imprudemment, this has been an imprudent step. Tout ours qu'il était, il vint à s'envenimer, he was as he was, he began to feel dull. La Font. Bien —, See BIEN. prov. Il faut — tout on on tout autre, one must be either one thing or the other.

3 (s'emploie avec des prépositions et marque la situation, l'état, la condition, employed with a preposition, and noting situation, state of being) to be, to lie, to stand. — si près de lui et ne pas le voir, to be so near him and not see him. Mérim. Un chapeau est sur le lit, your hat is on the bed. Je suis bien loin d'y consentir, I am far from consenting to it. Ce malade est maintenant hors de danger, that patient is now out of danger. Elle est bien loin de vous en vouloir, she is very far from bearing you ill-will. Je n'étais pas bien loin du secours, I was not far from assistance. Lamart. — sous le joig, to be under the yoke. Cet argument est contre vous, that argument tells against you. La rose du Bengale, pour — sans épines, est aussi sans parfum, the Bengal rose, as it is without a thorn, so is it also without a perfume. V. Hug. Son cœur était sans fiel, he bore no malice in his heart. Il est sans amis, he is friendless. Elle est sans fortune, she has no fortune. N' — pas sans savoir, sans se rendre compte, sans avoir vu, entendu, not to be without knowing, without accounting, without having seen, heard. — avec quelqu'un, to be with a person; || to live with a person; || to side with a person. Vous étiez avec nous lorsque nous l'avons rencontré, you were with us when we met him. Y a-t-il longtemps qu'elle n'est plus avec son mari? has she been separated from her husband long? Il m'a dit qu'il serait avec nous, he told me he would make one of us. — bien avec quelqu'un, to be on good terms with a person. — mal avec quelqu'un, to be on bad terms with a person. — sur le point de faire quelque chose, to be on the point of doing, about to do a thing. Qui te dit que nous ne sommes pas sur le point de découvrir, who told you we are not on the point of discovering. Muss. Cela n'est pas selon la raison, selon la loi, selon les convenances, etc., that is not according to reason, to the law, to the rules of decorum. (elliptic.) C'est selon, it is according to circumstances, that is as may be. Irez-vous bientôt à la campagne? C'est selon, shall you soon go into the country? that depends on circumstances.

4 (by analogy) (avec les adverbcs de lieu, employed with adv.) to be. Je dirai, j'étais-là, vous y croirez — aussi, I shall say I was there, you will fancy you were there also. La Font. Ne bougez d'où nous sommes, let us not stir from where we are. La Font. Où la vertu n'est point, la liberté n'est pas, where there is no virtue, there is no liberty. Ducis. Il était ailleurs, he was elsewhere. — en haut, en bas, to be above, below. — dessus, dessous, dedans, dehors, to be above, below, within, without. fig. Tout est là, that is the main point, the essential.

5 (joint à la préposition a, indique aussi la relation au temps, au lieu, ou l'état, la disposition, le genre d'occupation, joined to the prep. a, noting connection of time, place, or a state, condition, etc.) to be. —

à l'année, to be taken by the year. Il est maintenant à Lyon, he is now at Lyons. — 20 lit, a table, to be in bed, at table. Il n'est jamais plus d'une heure à dîner, he is never more than an hour of dinner. Il trouve moyen d' — en même temps à Paris et à la campagne, he contrives to be in Paris and the country at the same time. Muss. — à la promenade, to be out for a walk. — au commencement de l'année, to be at the beginning of the year. Je ne sais qu'au printemps, je veux voir la moisson, I am only in my spring, I want to see the harvest. A. Chén. — au monde, to be in existence. Je sens que bientôt ma patience est à bout, I feel that I shall have soon lost all patience. Rac. Il est à son travail, he is at his work. Il est à dîner, he is at dinner. Ces dépenses et celles de leur suite feroient aux frais du roi, those expenses and those of their attendants were defrayed by the king. Bar. — à jeun, to be fasting. Deux est à quatre comme trois est à six, two is to four as three is to six. La sagesse est à l'âme ce que la santé est au corps, wisdom is to the soul what health is to the body. La Rochef. — à quelque chose, to be attending to a thing. Il est tout à ce qu'il fait, he is all attention to what he is doing. Vous n'êtes pas à ce que je vous dis, you are not attending to what I say. — toujours à, to be always scolding. Ils sont toujours à se quereller, they are always quarrelling. — longtemps à un ouvrage, to be long about a work. Je suis, je serai à votre disposition à tout moment. — à plaindre, à blâmer, etc., to be pitted, to be blamed, etc. Cela est à faire, est à revoir, à recommencer, that is to be done, to be examined, to be begun again. Dans un grand dessein, rien n'est à négliger, in a great design nothing is to be neglected. Corn. Rien n'est fait, tout est à faire, nothing is done, everything is to be done. Cela est à vendre, à louer, that is to be sold, to be let. Cette marchandise est à prendre ou à laisser, you must either take these goods or leave them. C'est-à-dire, See DIRE.

6 — à, to belong to. Cette maison est à mon père, this house is my father's. La victoire est à nous, the victory is ours. L'onde est au cormorant et la neige est à l'aigle, the water belongs to the cormorant, and the snow to the eagle. V. Hug. L'aveir est à moi! Non, l'avenir n'est à personne, the future is mine! No! the future is in the possession of no one. V. Hug. Songe que tu es maintenant au roi, remember you are now in the king's service. Le Sage. Le jour est aux hommes, mais la nuit n'est qu'à Dieu, the day belongs to man, but the night belongs to God alone. Lamart. C'est au juge à prononcer, c'est à vous de parler, it is for the judge to pronounce, it is for you to speak. C'est à la lance d'Achille à guérir ses blessures, it is for the lance of Achilles to cure his wounds it cures. Sic-B. C'est à vous à parler, à jouer, etc., it is your turn to speak, to play, etc. Je suis tout à vous, entièrement à vous, I am completely at your disposal. Il n'est point à lui, il n'est pas à lui, he is not himself, he is no longer himself; he is not in his right mind.

7 (joint à la préposition dans, marque la relation au lieu, au temps, etc., joined to the prep. dans, noting time and place, etc.) to be (in). — dans la ville, to be in town. Rome n'est plus dans Rome, elle est toute où je suis, Rome is no longer in Rome, where I am, Rome is. Corn. — dans son lit, to be in one's bed. Nous sommes dans la belle saison, we are in the fine season. On était dans le mois où on enseme la terre, it was in the month when the earth is sown. Montesq. Il est dans sa dixième année, he is in his tenth year — dans la joie, to be joyful. Êtes-vous toujours dans l'intention de partir? do you still intend to set out. Il était dans la confiance, he was in the secret. N. et C. sont dans les intérêts du marquis. N. and C. are on the side of the marquis. Balz. Il est pour beaucoup dans votre misfortune, he has a great hand in your misfortune. — dans les affaires, to be in business. — dans une affaire, pour un quart, pour on tiers, etc., to have an interest in a business, to have a fourth, a third in it. fig. N' — pour rien dans quelque chose, to have no hand in a thing.

8 (joint à la préposition en, marque le rapport au temps, au lieu, joined to the prep. en, noting time, place, etc.) to be in, at. Il a été deux ans en Afrique, he was two years in Africa. — en chambre garnie, to be in furnished lodgings. — en prison, to be in prison. L'armée est en campagne, the army has taken the field. — en guerre, en paix, to be at war, at peace. Nous ne sommes plus en querelle, we are no longer on bad terms together. La Font. — en vie, to be alive. — en bonne, en mauvaise santé, to be in good, in bad health. — en gaieté, to be in good spirits. — en état de faire quelque chose, to be in a position to do a thing. — en tête-à-tête avec quelqu'un, to be alone with a person. Ma vieille an remords ni mon sommeil ne sont en proie, neither waking nor sleeping am I a prey to remorse. A. Chén. Il n'est pas en moi de faire telle chose, it is not in my power to do such a thing.

9 (joint à la préposition DE, marque l'origine, joined to the prep. DE, noting origin) to be from. — de Paris, to be from P. Êtes-vous d'Athènes la grande? are you from Athens the great? La Font. Ces châteaux sont de race divine, these poets are of divine descent. Chate. Ce vin est de Bordeaux, this wine is from B. (marque l'auteur, noting the author) to be by. — Ce vers est de Byron, this line is by Byron.

(marque la profession, la condition, noting the profession) to be of. Il fut destiné à — d'Église, he was destined to the Church. Sic-B.

(marque la qualité, noting quality) Il est d'un caractère difficile, he is a cross-tempered man. Elle est d'une grande gaieté, she has excellent spirits. Cette pièce n'est pas de bon aloi, that piece is not a good one.

(marque la matière, noting the materials) to be of. Cette statue est de marbre, that statue is of marble.

(marque l'occupation, noting the occupation) to be on, at. — de service, de garde, to be on duty. Si vous êtes de loisir, if you are at leisure. Ab.

(marque l'époque, le moment, noting the epoch, the moment) to be of. Cela est de tous les temps, that is of all times. Les vices et les vertus sont de toutes les époques, vices and virtues are of all epochs. Son suplice fut de toutes les heures pendant deux ans, for two years her torment was hourly. Lamart. La famille de l'homme n'est que d'un jour, the race of man is but of a day. Chate.

(marque l'appartenance, noting attribution, conformity) to be of, to be the part of, to be the action of. Tout croire est d'un imbécile, to believe every thing is the action of a fool. Nod. Tout nier est d'un sot, to deny every thing is the part of a fool. Nod. Ces grands exemples ne sont plus de nos mœurs, those great examples are no longer a part of our manners. Nass. Le bonheur n'est pas de ce monde, happiness is not of this world. Chate. Elle était de ce monde où les plus belles choses ont le pire destin, she was of this world in which the noblest things have the worst destiny. Nalb. La faiblesse est de l'homme, mais le crime est du méchant, weakness is inherent in man, crime but in the wicked. J.-J. Rouss. Mes vers sont d'un enfant, my verses are those of a child. Muss. Tes desins sont d'un homme, et tes vœux sont d'un Dieu, your destiny is that of a man, and your aspirations those of a God. Volt. Le désespoir n'est pas d'une âme magnanime, a magnanimous soul does not get way to despair. Gress. Je suis d'avis que, I am of opinion that. — de l'avis, de l'opinion de quelqu'un, to be of a person's opinion. Cela est bien de son caractère, cela est bien de lui, that is of a piece with his character, that is just his way.

10 — de, (faire partie de) to be of, to belong to, to be a member of. Cet effet est de la succession, that effect belongs to the inheritance. Cela est de mon lot, that falls to my share. Telle est cette femme qui n'est pas du monde au milieu du monde, such is that woman who in the midst of the world is not of the world. Balz. R. est de la troupe, R. is a member of the band. Chat. Je suis de ta famille, I am a member of your family. Flor. Je ne suis pas de votre parti, I do not belong to your party. Il sera de nos juges, he will be one of our judges. Etant de ces gens-là qui sur les animaux se font on chimérique empire, being of those people who hold a chimerical empire over animals. La Font. Êtes-vous de la noce? are you of the wedding? Cet animal est de telle classe, that animal belongs to such a class. (sometimes) — dans telle classe, dans telle catégorie, to be in such a class, in such a category. — du nombre de, to be in the number of. Il était du nombre de ceux qui n'avaient en vue que leur devoir, he was in the number of those who had but their duty in view. Fléch. Si j'étais de vous, if I were you. Si j'étais de vous, j'aurais déjà deviné, if I were you, I should have guessed already. Muss. Cela n'est pas du jeu, that is not fair play, that was not agreed on. fig. Cela n'est pas, celui-là n'en est pas, that does not belong to it, he does not form part of it.

11 — de, (être en part, en société) to take part in. Il y a un bon marché à faire, voulez-vous — de moitié? there is a good bargain to be made, will you go in for half? Il n'est jamais de rien, he never takes part in anything. Cet homme est de tout, that man has something to do with every thing.

12 — de, (consister à) to be to. Le tout serait de connaître ce secret, the thing would be to discover this secret. Le sort de la vertu est — presque toujours dupe du vice, the fate of virtue is to be almost always the dupe of vice. Ségur.

13 — pour, (marquer la préférence) to be for. La belle était pour les gens fiers, the fair one had a liking for noble folks. La Font. Je suis pour cette opinion, I am for that opinion. Dieu est pour nous, God is for us.

14 — pour, (marquer la destination, l'objet, noting the destination of an object, of a thing) to be for. L'autre est pour le juge, les écailles pour les plaideurs, the oyster is for the judge, the shells for the litigants. La Font. Ce n'est pas pour vous que je suis venu ici, it is not for you I came here. Sa dernière pensée a été pour vous, his last thought was for you. (suivi d'un infinitif, followed by an infinitive) to be to. Il est pour partir, he is to set out. Certes, je ne suis pas pour le disputer, certainly, I shall not contest it with you. E. Aug. Je suis pour accomplir les ordres souverains, my duty is to carry out the sovereign orders. Lamart. C'est une aventure qui n'est pas pour — longtemps secrète, it is an adventure which is not to be kept secret long. Muss.

15 En — à, (être arrivé, être parvenu à tel point, être réduit à) to be arrived at, to have reached. Ou en êtes-vous de votre ouvrage? J'en suis à la moitié, how far have you got in your work? I have got to the half. Ou en êtes-vous de votre lecture? Voici où nous en sommes, whereabouts were you in your reading? this is where we are. Ou en étions-nous dans notre conversation? where did we drop the conversation?

Muss. Ou en est l'affaire, how is the affair getting on? Voilà où en sont les choses, such is the state of affairs. Muss. Ils en étaient bientôt à ne plus se comprendre, they soon reached a point at which they no longer understood each other. Flor. Voilà, belle E., le point où nous en sommes, such is, fair E., the state of affairs. Corn. Voici où ils en sont, that is the point they are at. Il en est réduit à demander l'aumône, he is reduced to begging alms. Il en est aux expédients, he is reduced to shifts. En — là! après un an de mariage, to have come to that! after a year's marriage. Muss. Ces gens-ci en sont encore à l'histoire des Gueffes et des Gibelins, these people have got no further than the history of the Gueffs and the Gibelins. Chat. Ou en sommes-nous? where are we? Il ne sait où il en est, he does not know what he is about.

16 En — pour, (avoir dépensé, donné, sacrifié inutilement) to have lost. Il en est pour son argent, he has lost his money. Vous en serez pour vos frais, you will lose your time and money.

17 Y —, (être arrivé, parvenir, etc.) to have arrived, etc. Enfin nous y sommes, we are here at last. fig. Vous y êtes, vous n'y êtes pas, you have hit it; you are wide of the mark. fig. J'y suis, I have got it, I understand. Monsieur y est, madame n'y est pas, master is at home, mistress is not at home. fig. Le bonhomme est fort vieux et n'y est plus guère, the good man is growing old, his wits are on the wane. Le Brass. Y — pour quelqu'un, n'y — pour personne, n'y — pas pour telle personne, to be at home to a person, to be at home to nobody, to deny such a person. Le comte y est, the account is exact.

18 C'est, ce sont (referring to a person, a thing, an action already mentioned) he is, she is, it is, they are. Connaissez-vous un tel? C'est un très-honnête homme, do you know So-and-so? he is a very honest man. Le fondateur c'est votre frère et vous êtes le conquérant, the founder was your brother and you are the conqueror. Flor. De loin c'est quelque chose et de près ce n'est rien, when far it is something, when near it is nothing. La Font. Ce regard c'était toute la femme! that look was the whole woman! Saint. Quelle personne est-ce? what kind of a person is it? La Font. Qui est là? est-ce vous? who is there? is it you? Quelle est cette maison? c'est la mienne, what house is that? it is mine. Qu'est-ce? ce n'est rien, what is the matter? nothing. Il est revenu, c'est ce que je désirais, he has returned, that is what I desired. — par le, avec admiration d'Olivier le Daim et de Jacques Cœur; c'étaient là des hommes, dit-il, c'étaient là des ministres, he speaks with admiration of O. and J. C.; those were men, says he, those were ministers. La Bruy. Les plus grands poètes dont la France se glorifie ce sont Corneille, Racine, Molière et La Fontaine, the greatest poets France can boast of are Corneille, Racine, Molière and La Fontaine. Marm. Travaillez, c'est le moyen de réussir, c'est ainsi que j'ai fait moi-même, work, it is the way to succeed, that is what I have done myself. C'est vrai, it is true. C'est juste, it is right. C'est bien, it is well.

19 C'est, ce sont, (ce se rapporte aussi à une personne, à une chose, à une action indiquée seulement dans la suite de la phrase, referring to a person, a thing, or an action expressed in the rest of the phrase) it is. C'est moi qui l'ai dit, it is I who said it. C'est — innocent ce d'— malheureux, when one is unhappy one is innocent. La Font. C'était chez les Juifs un usage, it was the custom with the Jews. La Font. Ce ne fut qu'un cri de douleur parmi nous, there was but one cry of grief among us. B. de St-P. C'est pas sans raison que je me plains, I do not complain without a cause. La Font. C'est nous qui l'avons fait, it is we who did it. C'est la maison, that is my house. C'est nous, c'est eux, ce sont eux, qu'il faut récompenser, it is we, it is they who ought to be rewarded. C. forent les Phéniciens qui les premiers inventèrent l'écriture, it was the Phenicians who first invented writing. Boss. Ce ne fut que plaintes et que larmes, there was nothing but complaints and tears. Marm. Ce sont les bonnes mœurs qui font la bonne compagnie, manners make the man. La Chauss. Ce n'est pas les Troyens, c'est Hector qu'elle poursuit, it is not the Trojans, it is Hector whom she pursues. Rac. Sont-ce des religieux et des prêtres qui parlent de la sorte? and those are monks and priests who speak in this manner? Pase. Qu'est ceci? what is this? Qu'est cela? what is that? Qui est-ce qui est venu? who has come? Qui est-ce qui a fait cela? who did that? Qu'est-ce que je vois? what do I see? Qu'est-ce que c'est qu'une voix! un souffle qui se perd dans l'air, what is a voice? a breath that loses itself in the air. Boss. Ce n'était qu'un marbre et que bronze, nothing was to be seen but marble and bronze. Th. Gaut. Montrer à l'univers ce que c'est qu'un roi, to show the universe what it is to be a king. Boil. Voilà ce que c'est que d'— favorisé, what a thing it is to be favoured. Voilà ce que c'est que les amis, that is the way with friends. Ce que c'est que de nous! what poor mortals we are! Qu'est-ce de nous? cela fait peur, it is sad to think it is the common fate of all. De Brass. Qu'est-ce que c'est? what is the matter? Voilà ce que c'est, this is what has happened.

20 C'est... que, c'est moi qui, etc. (redundantly) C'est de ma femme que je vous parle, it is my wife I am speaking of to you. Muss. C'est devant moi qu'il l'a déclaré, it was before me that he declared it. C'est à vous que je parle, it is to you that I speak. C'est demain qu'il viendra, it is to-morrow he will come. C'est moi qui vous le dis, moi qui suis votre grand-mère, it is I who tell you so, I, your grandmother. Mol.

21 C'est à qui (marque l'émulation, noting emulation; it is who. C'était à qui parlerait le premier, every one was eager to speak first. C'était à qui se moquerait le plus de soi-même et de sa classe, they strove which should pour out the most mockery on himself and his class. Beaum.

22 (impersonally) it is. Je suis jeune, il est vrai, I am young, it is true. Corn. Il est bon de prendre des précautions, it is good to take one's precautions. Il n'est impossible de mieux faire, it is impossible for me to do better. Il est juste de dire que, it is right to say that. S'il est ainsi, if it be so, if such is the case.

23 Il est, there is, there are. S'il est des jours amers, il en est si de doux, if there are bitter days, there are also sweet ones. A. Chén. Beau parler s'il en fut, a fine talker if ever there was one. La Font. De telles gens il est beaucoup, there are many such people. La Font. Une certaine année qu'il en était à foison, a certain year when it was in abundance. La Font. N'est-il plus d'opprimés? n'est-il plus de bourreaux? are there no more oppressed? are there no more executioners? V. Hug. Il est des filles à G. il en est à Séville aussi, there are girls at Séville also.

V. Hug. Il n'est, dit le meunier, plus de vœux à mon âge, there are no more calms at my age, said the miller. La Font. Fut-il jamais esclaves au joug plus soumis? were there ever slaves more broken to the yoke? Rac. Il ne fut jamais sous les cieux on si juste sujet de larmes, there never was in the world so just a cause for tears. Rac. Il n'est si poltron sur la terre qui ne trouve on plus poltron que soi, there is not a coward upon earth that does not find a greater coward than himself. La Font.

24 Il est midi, une heure, deux heures, etc., it is noon, twelve o'clock, one o'clock, two o'clock, etc. Quelle heure est-il? what o'clock is it? A l'heure qu'il est, at the present moment. Il est l'heure de partir, de fuir, it is time to set out, to finish. Il est tard, it is late. Il est jour, il est nuit, it is day-light, it is night, it is dark.

25 Il est à croire, à désirer que, it is to be believed, to be desired that.

26 Il n'est pas en moi de faire telle chose, it does not depend on me to do such a thing.

27 Il est du devoir d'un homme, il est d'un honnête homme de faire cela, it is the duty of a man, of an honest man to do that. Il est d'un homme supérieur de se mettre au-dessus des préjugés, it behooves a superior man to set himself above prejudices. Balz. Il est de la justice de faire telle chose, it is just to do such a thing. Cela est de toute justice, cela est de droit, cela est d'usage, that is quite just, right, customary. Cela est de bon goût, that is in good taste. Il a cru qu'il était de sa sagesse de se servir de celle d'autrui, he thought it was wisdom on his part to make use of that of others. Flech.

28 Il en est (indique le résultat, la conséquence, noting result, consequence) il proves to be, it turns out to be. Il en sera ce qu'il plaira à Dieu, it will turn out as God pleases. On l'a traité outrageusement, et il n'en a rien été, he was used outrageously and that with impunity. Il en sera de cette affaire ce qu'il plaira aux juges, the issue of this affair must be left to the judges. Ne croyez pas cette nouvelle, il n'en est rien, do not believe this news, there is not a word of truth in it.

29 Il en est de, il n'en est pas de, it is with, it is not with. Il en est de même de tout le reste, it is the same with the rest. Il n'en est pas de vivre comme de se mouvoir, to live and to move are two different things. Dider.

30 Il n'est que de, the only thing to do is. Crois qu'il n'est que de prendre, et que tenir vaut mieux mille fois que d'attendre, believe me, there is nothing like taking, and that a bird in the hand is worth fifty in the bush.

31 Il n'est pas que, it cannot be that. On lui a pris son argent, et il n'est pas que vous ne sachiez quelques nouvelles de cette affaire, his money has been taken from him and you cannot be totally ignorant of the affair. Mol.

32 (avec ellipse du pron., the pron. being understood) N'était, n'eût été que, were it not that, had it not been that, but for. N'était, n'eût été que je suis de vos amis, were it not that, had it not been that I am one of your friends. N'était la peur qu'il a de se bruler les doigts, but for the fear he has of burning his fingers. C. Del.

33 Si ce n'est, si ce n'est pas, if it is, if it is not. Si ce n'est toi, c'est donc ton frère, if it was not you, it was your brother. La Font. Si ce ne sont pas ses paroles, c'en est le sens, if those are not his very words, it is the sense. Mol. Si ce n'est, unless it be, if not, but. Pourquoi donc vivons-nous, si ce n'est pour mourir? why then do we live, unless it be to die? Lamart.

34 (dans les temps où il prend l'auxiliaire avoir, se dit quelquefois pour ALLER, with the auxiliary verb to have, it is sometimes used for to go) J'ai été à Rome, I went to Rome; || I have been to Rome. Avez-vous été à Versailles? have you been to V? || did you go to V? || y avait été avant nous, he had gone there before us.

35 (s'emploie comme auxiliaire pour former les verbes passifs, as the passive auxiliary) Je souffre trop quand je suis trompé, I suffer too much when I am deceived. Dider. Que je fusse aimé, that I might be loved.

36 (avec les verbes neutres et pronom., with neuter and pronominal verbs) to be, to have. Il est passé, it is past. Elle s'est fait une robe, she has made herself a dress. Ils se sont nuï, they have injured each other.

37 (avec les verbes employés impersonnellement, with impersonal verbs) Est-il permis à un étranger de vous faire une question? if a stranger might ask you a question? Le Sage. Il est ven vingt personnes, twenty persons have been. Il s'est commis un grand crime, a dreadful crime has been committed.

ÊTRE, aytr, sm. 4 (ce qui est) being. L'— suprême, the supreme Being. L'n — budes —, the Being of beings. L'n — bien main, a human being. C'est un — bien singulier que l'— homme dans l'Inde, what a singular being is the being called man in India. Jacq. — intelligent, intelligent being. Ma fille, le seul — que j'aime au monde, my daughter, the only being I love in the world. Ab. Vous voyez ce petit —, you see that little creature. Saint. C'était un de ces — que Dieu montre aux hommes, it was one of those beings that God shows to men. Lamart. La chaîne des —, the chain of beings. — de raison, a creation of the brain, a being of the imagination, ens rationis. 2 (la réunion de l'âme et du corps, ce qui constitue l'homme, son essence) being, frame. La meilleure partie de notre —, the best part of our being. On sent dans tout son — une sorte d'affaiblissement, one feels a kind of weakness pervading the whole frame. E. Souv. (by analogy) Elle (la nature) dure et se maintient perpétuellement en son —, nature lasts and maintains itself in perpetual existence. Pasc. (by extension) Le cheval est une créature qui renonce à son — pour n'exister que par la volonté d'un autre, the horse is a creature that renounces its own being to live only by the will of another. Buff. 3 (disparagingly) (individu) being, creature. Voilà on — bien insupportable! what an insupportable being! 4 (existence) being, existence. Dieu nous a donné l'—, God is the author of our being. Jupiter, rends-le moi, je tiendrai l'— encore un coup de toi, Jupiter, restore it to me, and I shall owe my existence once more to thee. La Font.

ÊTRE, sm. woods and forests. A blanc —, see ESTOC.

ÊTRES, sm. pl. (d'une maison, of a house) parls. Il sait tous les — de cette maison, he knows the way all over the house. Il connaît les —, he knows his way about the house.

ÊTRECIR, ay-tray-seer, ra. 1 (rendre étroit) to narrow, to straiten (une rue, a street). Il faut faire — cet habit, that coat must be taken in. 2 man. — un cheval, to narrow a horse.

ÊTRECIR, tpr. to become narrower, to shrink. Cette toile s'étrecira au blanchissage, that linen-cloth will shrink in the wash. L'endroit où le chemin s'étrecit, at the spot where the road gets narrower. fig. Il semble que les têtes des plus grands hommes s'étrecissent lorsqu'elles sont assemblées, it seems as if the abrid men grow duller and duller when they are assembled. Monteg. fig. L'esprit s'étrecit à mesure que l'âme se corrompt, the mind becomes contracted in proportion as the soul is corrupted. J.-J. Rousse.

ÊTRECISSÉMENT, ay-tray-sis-mang, sm. narrowing, straitening, shrinking.

ÊTREINDRE, ay-trangr, va. conjug. like ATTEINDRE, (Lat. stringere) 1 (serrer fortement en haut) to bind fast (une gerbe, un façot, a sheaf, a faggot). fig. — les nœuds, les liens d'une amitié, d'une alliance, to draw close the bonds, the ties of a friendship, of an alliance. 2 (by extension) (serrer) to clasp, to grasp. Savez-vous quelle main vous étrecit à cette heure? do you know what hand is grasping you at the present moment? V. Hug. Et deux genoux d'acier étrecignent les flancs du coursier, and two vigorous knees clasp the sides of the steed. Soum. fig. Ce compliment étrecit le cœur d'E., et le fit palpir de joie, this compliment went to the heart of E., and made it palpitate with joy. Balz. 3 (presser entre ses bras) to clasp, to hug, to press in one's arms. Il l'étrecint si fortement, qu'il lui fit perdre la respiration, he clasped her so tightly in his arms, that he took away her breath. pros. fig. Qui trop embrasse, mal étrecit, grasp at too much, overstretch.

ÊTREINTÉ, ay-trangt, sf. 1 binding. Ce nœud s'est défit parce que l'— n'en était pas assez forte, the knot came undone because the tie was not strong enough. fig. Serre d'une — si ferme le nœud de leurs chastes amours, draw close the bonds of their pure love. Mol. (by extension) Il cherchait à se débarrasser des — du serpent, he sought to extricate himself from the clasp of the serpent. fig. Le premier livre d'A. saisit l'imagination d'une — si vive, the first book of A. takes so powerful a hold on the imagination. Nod. 2 (particul.) l'action de presser quelqu'un entre ses bras) embrace. Ne tant flu à cette —, it is the returne vers L., terminating this embrace, he turned towards L. De donces —, the gentle embraces.

ÊTREINE, ay-trayn, sf. (Lat. strena) a new year's gift. Donner, recevoir des —, to give, to receive new year's gifts. Je leur donne 40 roupies, et de plus des — quand je sors en bateau, I give them 40 roupies, and a gratification besides, when I take a boat. Jacq. 2 (premier argent qu'un marchand reçoit dans la journée, dans la semaine) handsel. 3 (le premier usage qu'on fait d'une chose) the first. Cela n'a pas encore servi, vous en aurez l'—, that has not yet been used, you shall have the first of it.

ÊTRENNER, ay-tray-nay, ra. 4 (donner des étrennes) to give a new year's gift. Il nous a étrenné chacun d'une montre, he gave each of us a watch for our new year's gift. (by extension) La nature en vous faisant naître vous étrenne de ses plus doux attraits, nature when she gave you birth bestowed on you her gentlest charms. Volv. 2 (être le premier qui achète à un marchand, qui donne à un pauvre) to handsel. 3 (faire usage d'une chose pour la première fois) to use, to put on a thing for the first time. — une robe, un bonnet, to put on a gown, a cap for the first time. Le cavalier qui avait eu le malheur d'— ma rapière, the cavalier who had been so unlucky as to receive the first thrusts of my rapier. Le Sage.

ÊTRENNER, rn. to handsel, to take handsel.

ÊTRESILLON, ay-tray-ze-yong, sm. build, prop, stay, support.

ÊTRESILLONNÉ, ay-tray-ze-yo-nay, ra. build. to prop, to stay, to support.

ÊTRIER, ay-tray, sm. 1 stirrup. Mettre, avoir le pied à l'—, to put, to have a foot in the stirrup. Etire ferme sur ses —, to be firm in one's stirrups. Se lever sur les —, to rise in one's stirrups. Tenir l'— à quelqu'un, to hold a person's stirrup. Le pied de l'—, near foot. Perdre ses —, to let go one's stirrups. Je suis venu à franc—. I have ridden post.

Scri. fig. Le maréchal de Villeroi d'avait jamais perdu ses —s chez M^{re} de Maintenon, the marshal of V. had never lost his footing at M^{re} de M.'s. Le via de l'—, le coup de l'—, the stirrup-cup, the grace-cup, the porting-cup. (by extension) fig. Il faut toujours avoir son paquet prêt et le pied à l'— pour voyager dans l'autre monde, one must always have one's bundle ready with one foot in the stirrup, to set off for the next world. Volt. fig. Avoir toujours le pied à l'—, to be always on the roads. fig. Être ferme sur ses —s, to be steady in one's views. fig. Teoir l'— à quelqu'un, to give a person a lift. Bas à l'—, stirrup-stockings. 2 sarg. stirrup-bandage. 3 arch. stirup.

ÉTRILLE, ay-tree-yub, sf. (Lat. strigilis) 1 curry-comb. Donnez un coup d'— à ce cheval, just curry this horse a little. prov. pop. Cela ne vaut pas un manche d'—, that is not worth an old shoe. 2 fig. obsol. spumnging-house.

ÉTRILLE, ppa. of ÉTRILLER, fem. —E, 1 (d'un cheval, of a horse) curried. 2 fig. Il a été bien — par cette maladie, he has had a serious bout of it. Étre — au jeu, to be felled at the gaming-table. C'est une auberge où l'on est joliment —, it is an inn where one is completely felled. Je viens de voir le récit de la bataille où il a été si bien —, I have just seen the account of the battle in which he got so sound a thrashing. Volt.

